Nearly 250 Muleshoe School Pupils May Study In Old Barracks This Year

An Editorial By J. M. Forbes

When school takes up again the coming fall in Muleshoe Independent District, nearly 250 pupils will be "orphans" in that they will have no classrooms available to them.

This information, which is accurate, undoubtedly will come as a distinct surprise to nearly everyone in the district, because a large majority of the people, remembering fairly recent additions and new construction, probably regard our school plant as entirely adequate.

Recent studies by a group of interested citizens, composing the Education Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, developed these facts:

We need, for the accommodation of the pupils of the first six grades alone, some 31 classrooms. We have available for the pupils of the first 8 grades, 32 classrooms.

This year's school census, recently tabulated, reveals the continued and steady growth in our scholastics, and that 858 are expected to enroll in our first six grades. Enrollment, however, has always exceeded the census figures and may be counted upon to do so this next term.

Some of these youngsters, then are slated to do their studying next term in the former Army barracks, still standing on the grade school and junior high school grounds. Will one of these youngsters be your child, Mr. and Mrs. Patron of Muleshoe schools?

To make things as plain to all of us as possible, the Education Committee says: We need every room in the grade school and junior high school buildings for children of the first six grades this year, not next year but this year. The high school, too, is crowded and probably every room and every teacher has more pupils than is recommended in good school practice. (23 to 25 students per room or teacher is considered standard; we have 28 to more than 30 in some instances.) There will be six teachers this year in the first grade, for the 170 pupils counted (but probably actual enrollment will be as high as 170). Gilmer-Aikin would permit the employment of an additional first grade teacher provided another room were available.

The Committee consulted old school records and saw that enrollment has increased every year for many years, ever since the big consolidation of independent districts which took place several years ago. Taking the rate of increase as a factor, they estimated that by 1956 Muleshoe schools might enroll as many as 3,000 pupils, and almost certainly will enroll as many as 2,400.

The dissemination of the information contained above and its publication in this paper is not brought about by school authorities anxious to administer a bigger school, nor by "town builders" anxious to see the town grow, as The Journal sees it. But it is brought to the attention of the paper, and through the paper to the patrons of the district by hard headed businessmen and farmers who believe in looking facts in the face.

The Journal will, in the next few issues give further details about the situation in which the district finds itself. People of the district might ponder, in the meantime, the impact that the breaking up of the Muleshoe ranch and its consequent support of many families, all in this district, will have on our set-up. This however, is only one straw in the wind that indicates a quickening rate of growth in number of scholastics in Muleshoe Independent School District.

Alfalfa Growers Seek To Organize Marketing Association For Area

Jack Renfro, addressing alfalfa hay growers in a meeting held Tuesday night under auspices of the Bailey County Farm Bureau, discussed many angles concerning development of a market for locally grown hay and a satisfactory price for the product.

Mr. Renfro, a well known farmer, stockman, vegetable grower, dealer, shipper and broker in years past has had a great deal of experience as head of the State Department of Agriculture of Oklahoma in helping the farmers sell their hay.

Some of his suggestions for the hay grower here were: 1. To sell anything, it must have quality; and 2. Plenty of volume. Then too the growers must be organized and have a man to market their hay, and a man to inspect it, after which the producer can command the interest of all the major hay marketing centers in the U. S. Mr. Renfro stressed that hay growers must be organized, reminding that sticks may be easily broken one at a time but put them all together and they cannot be broken.

The subject was tossed about pro and con and the group decided that, since the meeting Tuesday was announced for the 18th in The Journal headline last week but the 15th in the body of the article, another meeting be called soon. There will be no meeting on the 18th.

Bill Millen, president of the Bailey County Farm Bureau was asked to contact his friend, Fain Caesar, now commissioner of Agriculture for Oklahoma and the inspection department for more information on the subject of inspectors and their fees and to invite Mr. Caesar to come here to see Muleshoe hay and advise with local farmers at a meeting in the near future.

Muleshoe Night At Bell Park Will Be July 9

Plans for Muleshoe Night at Bell Park in Clovis, N. M., have been completed, it was announced here this week.

Muleshoe Night at the Pioneer park will be sponsored this year by the Junior Chamber of Commerce of Muleshoe. Arrangements for the event were completed by "Pinky" Barbour, of the Muleshoe JayCees, and officials of the Clovis Baseball Club.

The Muleshoe JayCees plan to sell several hundred tickets to the July 9 game featuring the Pioneers and the Amarillo Gold Sox. The special delegation of Muleshoe fans will sit in a reserved section along the third base side, and will whoop it up for the Pioneers that night.

As a special attraction, the Muleshoe JayCee delegation will parade "Rufus, the Mule," the animal which gained nationwide publicity at the recent national convention of the Junior Chamber of Commerce at El Paso.

The Little League Baseball Teams from Muleshoe will also be presented.

An advance ticket sale in Muleshoe will begin within the next ten days.

3-Way Bureau To Meet Monday

Three Way Farm Bureau will hold a meeting the coming Monday night, June 21, for a general get-together of members and their families.

JayCees All Kids Day Set July 10

Turtle Racing To Be A Feature

Muleshoe JayCees plan to have the first of their annual All Kids Day events in the city park here on July 10. President James Crow announces. The affair will get underway about 3 o'clock in the afternoon and will offer something for everybody.

The JayCees vow to make it a community wide affair that eventually will extend over an entire day and draw the interest of all the people. But the whole thing is planned for the kids.

There will be prizes for the winners in various games and contests, and the winning girl and boy will be awarded a bicycle each. Among other things, there'll be a free movie, featuring several short comedies.

Other things planned for the day include a watermelon feast, softball games, music, and a political rally.

But the JayCees expect most interest to center around their turtle race, something in entertainment never before presented here. There will be $250 in prizes for winning turtles. Individuals and firms will sponsor a turtle and will name him with a monicker that will suggest their business.

There will be several heats with prizes for the winners in each but the outstanding turtle of the meet will win for his owner a cool $100.

More about this JayCee All Kids Day will be found in succeeding issues of The Journal.

Ben Ramsey Announces For Lt. Governor

In this state of razzle-dazzle politics and slam-bang campaigns, the calm, deliberate manner of Lieutenant Governor Ben Ramsey is an oasis.

The quiet campaigner for reelection as lieutenant governor formed his ideas about people and politics during his youth as the son of a district judge and farmer in Deep East Texas. He hasn't strayed.

Ramsey lives on a farm near San Augustine and practices law there when official duties do not keep him in Austin.

His own words seem best to explain Ramsey's campaign attitude. "A man or woman doesn't buy a suit or dress without feeling the cloth and I don't think the people of Texas will select their officials without checking the record. That is all," Ramsey said, "that I ask."

Perhaps the key to Ramsey's success as a legislator and public official is his studious approach to problems, his experience and respect among colleagues as a sound thinker.

Ramsey served eight years in the Senate and four years in the House of Representatives. He was appointed as secretary of state by the late Governor Beauford Jester and continued under Governor Allan Shivers until he resigned to make the race for lieutenant governor.

Shivers Opens Campaign With Rally at Lufkin

With the formal opening of his campaign, the Governor will begin a series of trips throughout the state during which he will review the accomplishments of his administration and outline future improvements which are a part of his plans.

Miss Wanda Faye Estep And Don Sanders Married In Candlelight Ceremony

MR. AND MRS. DON MICKEY SANDERS

In a beautiful candlelight ceremony performed Saturday evening, June 12, at the Main Street Baptist Church, Miss Wanda Faye Estep became the bride of Mr. Don Mickey Sanders.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Estep of Muleshoe, and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Claude Sanders, also of Muleshoe.

Vows were exchanged before an archway of greenery and wedding bells, banked by tall candelabra entwined with plumosis. Large baskets of white gladiolus, mums, and pom poms, and fern trees of emerald commadore, completed the setting.

Rev. G. H. McWilliams, State Missionary, of Austin, and an uncle of the groom, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Wearing a ballerina length gown of white chaitilly lace over taffeta, the bride was given in marriage by her brother, Edward E. Estep of Portales. The gown was styled with a fitted halero jacket, long sleeves extending to points over the hands, and a high neckline. Small covered buttons extended down the front of the dress. Crinolins were worn under the bouffant skirt to emphasize fullness. Her fingertip length veil of tulle net was edged in lace, and fell from a bonnet of white net covered with rhinestones and seedpearls. She carried a crescent shaped bouquet of pink pinnichio roses with streamers and love knots on a white Bible.

Gay Sanders, sister of the groom was maid of honor. Her dress, featuring white lace waistcoat worn over blue tulle, was fashioned with a fitted bodice with cap sleeves, and a low neckline. Her shoulder length veil of blue illusion fell from a bonnet type lace cap and she carried a crescent shaped bouquet of pink carnations with long streamers.

Bridesmaids were Ann Turner, of Idalou, and Sonia West, of Amarillo, both cousins of the bride. Their dresses were of pink lace over Taffeta, and were fashioned with tight fitting bodices featuring low necklines and cap sleeves. The full skirts billowed out from tight fitting waists, and were ballerina length. Their colonial bouquets were of pink carnations.

Travis McWilliams, of Portales, N. M., cousin of the groom, served as best man.

Ushers were Bill Estep, brother of the bride; Bob Kimbrough, Lee Kimbrough, and Preston Cargile, all of Muleshoe. Dorothy Giles, pianist, offered the traditional wedding music, and accompanied Miss Jo Ann Cochran, of Farwell as she sang "Always," and "The Wedding Prayer."

Bob Kimbrough and Lee Kimbrough were candlelighters.

Reception Followed
Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the groom's parents, with some one hundred twenty five guests attending.

The bride's table was covered with a white lace cloth, and centered with the beautiful three-tiered wedding cake, and the punch service. Mrs. Lee Kimbrough served the cake, and Mrs. Bob Kimbrough poured the punch. Small white napkins, with "Don and Wanda" written on them in orchid to carry out the bride's chosen colors, were used.

On Trip to Colorado
Following a wedding trip to Colorado Springs, Colo., Mr. and Mrs. Sanders will be at home in Muleshoe, near where the groom is engaged in farming. The bride will continue working at the office of Dr. B. R. Putman, where she is employed as receptionist.

For going away, the bride chose a navy blue tailored suit trimmed in white, with which she wore white accessories. Her detachable corsage of pink roses was taken from the bridal bouquet.

The bride attended Muleshoe High School, and graduated with the class of '51.

The bridegroom graduated from Muleshoe High School in 1947 and attended W.T.S.C. at Canyon, and E.N.M.U., at Portales, N. M.

West Side Church of Christ was the scene at 3:00 o'clock Sunday afternoon, June 13, of the wedding of Miss Ruby Jane Carney and Mr. Aaron Max Batchelor.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Carney, of Muleshoe, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Batchelor Sr., of Gold-waite, are the parents of the groom.

With minister of the church, Ebb Randol, officiating at the double ring ceremony, vows were exchanged before an archway of greenery and wedding bells, flanked on either side by huge baskets of white mums, gladiolus, and pom poms. Candelabra of white tapers and baskets of fern trees, completed the decorations.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length dress of white nylon lace over taffeta. Fashioned with a high neckline and Peter Pan collar, the tight fitting bodice buttoned down the front with tiny rhinestone buttons. A hoop was worn under the skirt of the dress, for added fullness.

Her bonnet-type lace cap, decorated on the sides with pearlized orange blossoms, held the fingertip illusion veil. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

Jay Carney was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a ball-erina length dress of pink nylon, fashioned after that of the bride's, and her colonial bouquet was of pink carnations.

Bridesmaid was Mary Carney, also a sister of the bride. Her dress was of blue nylon, and was identical to that of the maid of honor. Her colonial bouquet was of pink carnations.

Attending were Meses. F. H. Davis, T. C. Young, Edd Johnson, W. E. McAdams, O. D. Ray, M. F. Green, E. H. Kennedy, Lois Robinson, A. G. Schuster, L. T. ## 42nd Wedding Anniversary Observed By Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Redwine June 13

MR. AND MRS. J. J. REDWINE

All but two of their thirteen children were present Sunday June 13, as Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Redwine were honored with a surprise celebration in observance of their 42nd wedding anniversary.

WSCS To Meet At Oklahoma Lane

"Youth And Children," was the lesson studied as ladies of the Women's Society of Christian Service met in the sanctuary of the church Monday morning at 10:00 o'clock.

Beginning the meeting, the group sang, "Give of Your Best To The Lord." This was followed by the Scripture reading, which was taken from Mark 12:28-4, and read by Mrs. Bill Moore.

Mrs. Cecil Davis, student secretary of the W.S.C.S. in the local church, brought part of the very interesting lesson on "Students In Today's World." She gave many ways by which Christian women may encourage and help the youth and soldiers of this country as they prepare themselves to accept the task of carrying on the affairs of the church and state, both nationally and inter-nationally.

Mrs. Clarence Stephens introduced Linda Lou Lancaster, Christian Witness Chairman, of the M.Y.F. in the local church. Linda Lou gave a report of her trip to the Youth Training Camp at Ceta Canyon.

Mrs. H. M. Shofner related the needs of the children who live in crowded conditions in large cities, and how such conditions affect them.

President, Mrs. J. Wyer, presided over the business session.

Plans on the menu and program for the Father-Son Banquet, which is to be held June 18, in the Fellowship Hall, were completed. Recognition will be given the oldest father, the youngest father, and the father with the most children at this banquet.

Mrs. Arnold Morris, general chairman of the County Fair, which is to be held in Fellowship Hall September 24, reported that plans were being made with the Wesleyan Guild and Philathea Circle.

Information concerning "Breakfast In Texas," was read by Mrs. Arnold Morris. It was decided to sponsor a breakfast at a future date.

It was also decided that Linda Lou Lancaster was to be sent as one of the delegates to the Northwest Texas conference of Mission School, to be held in Lubbock, July 26-30. Delegates will stay at the Dormitory No. 4 on Texas Tech Campus, and the ten classes which are to be held throughout the week will be held at the St. John's Methodist Church, on College Avenue.

Mrs. Clay Beavers led the dismissal prayer.

Instead of having the regular meeting next week, members of the W.S.C.S. will meet at the church at 9:00 o'clock, and go in a group to Oklahoma Lane, for a sub-district meeting.

The celebration was held at the home of a son, J. L. Redwine.

At the noon hour, a delicious covered dish dinner was served, then in the afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Cline, of Cline's Studio came out and took several pictures of the group.

Following the picture taking, ice-cream and cake was served to those present.

Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Otis R. Ashmore and children, Clarence Doyle and Ruby Nell, Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Snead and daughters, Betty, and Carol, Mrs. Wanell Boatman and son Terry Frank, Hereford; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Redwine and sons, Clyde, Harol, and Carrol, Bovina; Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Dedwine and children Patricia and Larry Wayne, Littlefield; Pvt. and Mrs. D. C. McCurry, El Paso, and his mother Mrs. M. C. McCurry of Littlefield.

Those attending from Muleshoe were: Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Redwine and children J. L. Redwine, Jr., Marcia Dale, Nelda Jane, Jackie, and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Downing Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Redwine and children Donna Jean and Bobbie Dean; Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Redwine and children Leona, David, Beverly, and Brenda, and Homer Lee Redwine, of the home.

The two children who were unable to attend were Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Redwine and family of Muleshoe, and Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Brooks, of Pecos.

FARMER COUNTY Farm Bureau News By RAYMOND EULER

The recent annual meeting of the stockholders in Friona Wheat Growers revealed the success that can be obtained for participants in any cooperative venture. One important factor necessary to success is competent and loyal management. Another is a board of directors determined to operate faithfully according to the cooperative charter. One of the principal stipulations of the charter is that the purpose of the institution is to serve the needs of the members conscientiously, on the basis of equality, and not for the purpose of promoting the welfare of any individual above that of the other. That the directors, duly elected, shall handle faithfully all details of business, but that any change in policy, or any unusual activity shall be undertaken only after a vote of the stockholders. We believe the ability of the stockholders to make their own decisions on matters of magnitude was properly demonstrated at this most recent meeting.

Farm Bureau, incidentally, on a state and national basis, has championed legislation that assures the continued right of people to run any business they have need of on the cooperative basis, if they chose to do so.

Cooperatives are not, as some would have you believe, tax exempt. Friona Wheat Growers is the payor of more taxes than any other business in the city.

It is becoming increasingly evident that grain sorghums will come under acreage controls in 1955. Hail and erosive rains are increasing the acres devoted to grain sorghums, and also increasing the probabilities of high yields of the thousands of acres of dry land planted. Now is a good time, Mr. Farmer, for you to formulate your ideas concerning an equitably sensible allotment program. Present those ideas to your Farm Bureau Directors so that they can use them in formulating resolutions on this subject for the consideration of the membership in October. CONSIDER THIS: "Evil men understand not judgment; but they that seek the Lord understand all things." Proverbs 28:5

Huge Resort Development - Padre Island

NEW RESORT TAKES SHAPE
One of the biggest resort booms in Texas history is under way on the south tip of Padre Island. Buildings, homes, and roads are being planned to take shape—here's one structure that's sure to be plenty popular. It's a bait and tackle store, part of the development in a $1,000,000 island park nearing completion by Cameron County. In all, county officials expect to build three park areas. Between two of the park areas is the multi-million-dollar Padre Beach resort area, a private development by John L. Tompkins and Company of Brownsville and Corpus Christi. The islands south tip is connected with the Texas mainland at Port Isabel by a newly-completed $2,750,000 causeway. (Padre Beach Boosters Club photograph).

Foreign Exchange Student To Be Here August 1

Some five months ago, the Progress Methodist Church inaugurated plans to bring a foreign exchange student to this area. A name had to be secured for the student for one year, and permission obtained for attending the local school.

out of fifty-one available high school students through the Brethren Service, they had been assigned one. He is Hinderk Bruns, of Ellwurd-Post Abbehausen, Germany.

Hinderk will arrive in the United States July 25. He should be in his "adopted" home before August 1.

The exchange student program is sponsored by the State Department of the United States, in cooperation with Churches and responsible organizations to allow young students of foreign lands to get a first hand experience of the American way of life.

Rev. Carroll Jones, pastor, said: "Members of the Progress Methodist Church feel that it is one of the finest brotherhood movements of this day, and want the American way to be thought of as the Christian way.

"The impressions that Hinderk Bruns will carry back to Germany with him in the following year, will depend very largely upon the brand of Americanism that is exhibited right here in Muleshoe. We feel that it is a very good brand. Let's all pitch in and help make Hinderk enjoy his visit in America."

GOOD NEWS FOR HOMEMAKERS
Anne Marshall

"What's for lunch, Mom?" That's a familiar query this season when outdoor activities sharpen appetites. A good way to make sure lunches at your house reach expectations is to keep a supply of lunch-con-building foods on the kitchen shelf. Give top priority to condensed soups, for they are star performers in summer meals. They are quickly and easily prepared. They provide variety. And they give cool sandwich-salad meals a warm heart. Too, soups are well-liked and nourishing.

A good luncheon plan with soup is:

- Soup
- Salad or Sandwich
- Dessert
- Beverage

Imagination and "know-how" are needed to turn this plan into appetizing and nutritious meals. With cream soup have a meat or seafood salad and fruit for dessert. A vegetable soup tastes good with egg salad and pie or cake. With a meat soup select fruit salad and a cheese sandwich; then pudding for dessert. The beverage could be milk, or on a particularly sweltering day—iced tea or lemonade.

"SOUP-ER" LUNCHEONS FOR SUMMER

- Cream of Chicken Soup
- Strawberry-crowned Fruit Salad
- Raisin Bread Sandwiches
- Iced Tea

- Beef Soup
- Swiss Cheese Sandwich
- Grapefruit Half
- Milk

Income Tax And Inheritance Tax Laws Discussed

Many quirks and turns of the income tax laws and the inheritance tax laws were discussed before the Rotary Club here Tuesday noon by Glenn Hearn, certified public accountant, of Lubbock.

He first considered the role of the accountant or auditor in advising with firms and individuals in their business affairs. Of late the accountant has assisted businessmen in their planning, their financial set-ups, and the projection of their businesses in expansions and the like.

Their thorough knowledge of a man's business brings them into touch with the banker. Estate planning, looking toward the tax angle is another function of the accountant.

Discussing cases which the government from time to time may develop against the taxpayer, he said that where evidence of fraud is found by the agents and then by special agents, the affair winds up with two cases, one civil and the other criminal.

The criminal case is always tried first; and a fine may result, leading the public to believe this is the extent of the involvement of the taxpayer, but he still has to pay penalties assessed plus any tax deficiency found.

Harold King had charge of the program. G. A. Paquin, a local attorney was introduced as a new member. He was welcomed into the club by Rotarian Arnold Morris.

Success Story

--- AND A GOOD TIP FOR YOU

WHEN it comes to sales, every car maker aspires to be up at the top of his price class.

Which is only natural. Popularity like that means success.

We know, because for years Buick has held such an envied position — the unquestioned sales leader in its class. And with good reasons in styling, room, power, value.

But today, folks like you have pushed Buick success even beyond such bounds.

Today, the top sales standings of a full generation have been changed.

Today, latest sales figures for the first four months of 1954 reveal this phenomenal fact:

In total national volume, regardless of price class, Buick is outselling all cars in America except two of the so-called "low-price three."

That's a tip too good to pass up.

That's the tip-off that Buick must have the hottest styling of the times and the sweetest performance of the year.

More important, that's the tip-off that Buick prices are well within the reach of more and more people — and that such prices buy a lot more automobile per dollar.

So why not look into the tomorrow-styled Buick that puts you so far ahead today?

Come in, or phone us this week for a demonstration. Then you can judge for yourself that Buick really is the beautiful buy — by far.

Survey Reveals Interesting Facts Regarding Farmers Future Planning

How economically sound is the average Texas farmer? What plans does he have for old age and how many have definite plans for retirement?

Answers to these and other questions were sought recently in Wharton county in a survey designed to check the economic security of the state's farmers. Wharton county was selected because of its variety of physical, economic and social conditions and is described as a representative Texas county.

Principal crops grown are cotton, corn, grain sorghums, hay and alfalfa. Truck crops, livestock and poultry contribute substantially to farm income. Dairying is a growing enterprise.

The net worth of 257 farm operators interviewed ranged from "debts greater than assets" to well over $30,000. Fifty-six percent had a net worth of less than $10,000. And 42 percent fell in the less than $5,000 class. Seventeen percent were worth less than $1,000 and, in this group, one in three indicated debts greater than assets.

The study, initiated by Texas A. & M. College cooperating with the Bureau of Economics, USDA, reported by William G. Atkins and Joe R. Motheral, assistant professor of the Department of Agricultural Economics and Sociology and USDA labor economist, respectively.

Education was directly associated with net worth, the survey revealed, as was race and nationality background. Insurance is not widely used by Wharton county farmers as protection against death or disability. Nearly one third of all farmers had little or no insurance. The majority of the larger policy holders were found in the 35 to 44 year old group. Those 55 and over carried the least insurance.

Relatively few farmers in the county had even discussed economic security with their wives and other family members. Too, families in the weakest financial positions had given least consideration to their economic future. More than half said they had made no real progress toward saving for their old age. Those having accumulated assets believed their farms would be their chief source of income in later years.

Only 12 percent had made positive plans for retirement, ten percent had given retirement a little thought and the remaining 78 percent had given little or no thought to retirement. About three fifths of all farmers indicated they did not plan to retire.

Only one operator in five had discussed with his children, even casually the possibility of their participating in some plan to provide for the parents in old age. One farmer in nine desired to live with his children upon retirement and three out of four wanted to stay on the farm.

A combination of financial interests in farm land, livestock or farm improvements, plus one or more types of nonfarm holdings, was the most common saving or investment. Sixty percent of the farmers checked reported this combination and the proportion increased with net worth.

Soil Conservation Measures Do Not Affect Water Supplies For Cities

Cities and industries have been asking whether soil conservation being carried out by thousands of farmers and ranchers through soil conservation districts will reduce the amount of water available for municipal and industrial uses. H. N. Smith, State Conservationist for Texas, says that for all practical purposes the answer seems to be "no".

The Soil Conservation Service has been studying this problem at the Blacklands Experimental Watersheds projects near Riesel, Texas, since 1940. The studies include measurements of rainfall and runoff from two similar watersheds. They are still in progress.

Similar farming practices were being followed on both watersheds at the beginning of the study. Conservation practices were established on one of the watersheds in the spring of 1943. These practices included changing part of the cultivated area to grasslands; the use of improved crop rotations; and the construction of terraces on land in cultivation. No change was made in the farming practices on the other watershed.

During the first five years rainfall was slightly above normal and the runoff producing rainfall averaged 17.4 inches annually. The following five years, 1948 through 1952, were drought years and the runoff-

House Plan for Narrow Lot from Small Homes Guide

Architect Erwin H. James designed this efficient three-bedroom home specifically for the narrow lot. It appears in the current edition of Small Homes Guide.

The kitchen is at the front, with a corner window overlooking the front entrance. The living room, too, is brightened by generous use of windows at one corner. The architect suggests using a folding door in the living room, allowing it to be completely shut off from the rest of the house. Total area of the house is 1,044 sq. ft.

For information on blueprints and their cost, write to Small Homes Guide, Dept. 1336, 82 W. Washington St., Chicago 2, Ill.

LUTHERAN VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL A SUCCESS

Vacation Bible School, which was held in St. John Lutheran Church, was a great success. For-ly understood. Although soil conservation practices on a watershed will not have a significant effect on water yield they can help greatly in protecting water supplies from loss of storage space by sedimentation. Conservation practices reduce erosion and the rate of reservoir sedimentation. By slowing down the rate at which reservoirs are filling with sediment, Mr. Smith said, more storage capacity will be maintained in which to store water for use during drought years.

producing rainfall averaged only 4.8 inches yearly. The total rainfall during the drought period was two-thirds the amount for the normal five years, but most of it fell in such small amounts or at such a slow rate that it produced no runoff.

For the normal rainfall period there was almost no difference in the runoff from the untreated and treated watersheds. Mr. Smith reported. The annual average was 10.3 and 10.4 inches, respectively. During the drought period the average yearly runoff from the untreated and treated watersheds was approximately 1.4 and 0.9 inches.

The fact that there was a difference of one-half inch in the annual runoff from these two watersheds during the drought years is not the significant point, said Mr. Smith. This minor difference in rate, even over a period of several years, would amount to so small a volume of water that it could not be considered in the planning of a dependable municipal water supply. The important point is that the TOTAL runoff from the untreated watershed during the five drought years was only about two-thirds of the average runoff for ONE year during the normal rainfall period.

Mr. Smith emphasized that because runoff during drought years may be very small, water supply reservoirs must have enough capacity to catch the water during years of normal to high runoff and store it for use during drought periods. A city cannot depend on the runoff during a drought to maintain its water supply. This is a fact which needs to be wide-

He's Ten Years Younger Today!

Here's a man who has just taken ten years off his age—insofar as his spirits and mental outlook are concerned.

He's going for his first ride in his first Cadillac—and he's a happy, happy man—with his hopes in the sky and his heart singing a song it hasn't recalled for a decade.

He's having an experience which we can't tell you about. You have to live it yourself—at the wheel of that first Cadillac—in order to evaluate it.

You know how it goes. You work and you worry and plan and hope. The years go by—and, bit by bit, you get things done. The insurance creeps up where you want it—the mortgage on the home goes into the fire—there's that nest-egg against the future and the college fund is in the bank.

And then, one day, you feel there's no further need for resisting—so you order the Cadillac—and wait for the happy news—"It's here!"

Your ride home will live in your memory forever. You've put the cap sheaf on your world of dreams.

Of course, this great sense of personal well-being is only the first thrill that comes with your Cadillac.

There's its magnificent performance—its marvelous balance and roadability—and its rare comfort and safety and handling ease. Every hour at the wheel is a privilege—and every journey is a wonderful memory.

Is the time about right for you to step up to a Cadillac?

If so—please come in and see us. The longer we're in business, the happier we are when we deliver a man his first Cadillac.

We'll be waiting to welcome you—anytime.

Shopping Centers

New Boston, N.H., June 17. A revolution is going on in merchandising. This will affect shopkeepers in many ways. The change will be due to: (1) The introduction of "self-service"; (2) the congestion of automobile parking; and (3) the trend toward big stores—Super Markets, Super Drug Stores, Super Variety Stores and Shopping Centers.

IMPORTANCE OF PARKING SPACE

If I had a store, I certainly would immediately buy some adjoining property to enable my customers to park their cars safely and easily, or else I would

By ROY DYER

There are a lot of electronic tricks that go into the creation of the television picture you see on your screen. Here are some of the techniques used to create special effects. . . . Split screen . . . two cameras pick up separate pictures and electronics enable them to be put together in the same frame. You've seen this trick on the Arthur Godfrey shows and on some sportscasts as well as in various dramatic shows. Superimposition is similar . . . two cameras get different pictures and one is put on top of the other to get the effect of a single picture. Ghosts that walk through walls are made this way. An upside down effect can be achieved by a simple inversion of the picture. Other deceptions, in which the viewer is given the impression of looking through a keyhole, a pair of binoculars, or even parts of scenery, are created by just placing appropriate patterns or objects in front of the camera lens. There are many more of these tricks, all with the end of making the show you see more interesting, more dramatic or more realistic. Television is an exciting and a complicated business . . . like your TV set itself. Don't tamper with that complex instrument if it starts playing tricks on its own. Leave the repairs to our experienced TV technicians . . . and be sure of service satisfaction. "If it's furniture or hardware—we have it," at DYER HARDWARE and FURNITURE. Denies Key To Peace Held By The Average Man At Least He Hasn't Got It

Editor's note: The Sand Hills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm seems a little riled up this week. He'll get over it.

Dear editor: I was fiddlin' with my radio the other night tryin' to get a weather report, you can't always depend on a weather report, but when a man needs a rain a rain forecast is better than nothing, when I accidentally tuned in a speech somebody was making, I never did catch his name, but I was interested in what he said. Accordin' to him, "the average man is the key to peace in the world."

Now first off I'd like to say I have never met an average man, but I think I know what a speaker means by the phrase, it's people like you and me, and for that reason I would like to disagree violently with anybody who says I'm the key to peace in the world. I don't have a thing to do with it. All the wars I can remember, I didn't even know was happenin' till I read about it in the papers, and all the armistices I can remember, I didn't know was signed till I read about that too. They can't pin it on me.

PRIVATE TUNNEL OR OVERPASS

I forecast that the two sides of the main highway will be connected by a two-way tunnel or overpass, enabling cars and foot passengers to cross this main highway easily and quickly without accident. Thus, a customer leaving home to travel west, on this main highway, to these four super stores would leave the highway at the right and park anglewise directly in front of any super store under a protective canopy.

The customer would then do her shopping and go out by the checking cash register, walking under the canopy directly to her car. She could then back her car out with no fear of being hit by any car traveling on the main highway, would drive to the tunnel and cross under said main highway. If she wished to stop at one of the super stores on the other side of the street she could do so, or she could reverse the above process.

Maybe in the Revolutionary war the average man had something to do with it, maybe in the Civil War, when a man with a single-shot rifle was as well armed as anybody else, but nowadays it's the men who control the bombs and the airplanes that have the key, and I ain't got a bomb or an airplane to my name. I am afraid that big shots cause wars, not little shots, and I decline the honor of the responsibility. I'm sure in favor of peace, I've got more than I can do fightin' insects, not to mention somebody on the other side of the world I don't even know their last name and if the world is looking to me to solve its problems, it had better lay in some more headache powder.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

GETTING RID OF WASPS

There are at least 2,500 different kinds of wasps inhabiting North America but don't bother to count them. Only about 50 species annoy man.

The rest of the wasps go about their appointed ways building nests, raising young and pollinating plants. They prey on other insects and eventually become a meal for some larger insect or bird, themselves. Even the pesky types do a certain amount of good in nature's scheme of things. Still, the natural value of a wasp is small consolation when nursing a stinging red welt on the face or hands. They have a nasty habit of building their nest too close to the barn or house for personal comfort. And when you want to get rid of them, you get rid of them. Here's how:

Chlordane or DDT is an excellent eradicator of the pests, according to entomologists who make a living by knowing such things. They make it sound deceptively simple—just spray the dust or liquid into nests openings. But a little skill and lots of luck might come in handy. A second way is safer.

Suppose you have a nest of hornets or yellow jackets that guards your barn door with a vengeance. The best time to plan your attack is at night when the insects are less active. This provides maximum protection—or at least minimum risk.

First—and this is where skill comes in—plug the nest opening with a wad of cotton soaked in carbon tetrachloride. Then, very quickly dislodge the nest into a sack. Been stung yet?

Now the sack can be burned or buried. Or if you prefer, pop it into an air-tight can containing a

Texas Income At New High in '53

Texans enjoyed the greatest dollar income in the state's history last year a report prepared for publication in the American Peoples Encyclopedia's 1954 Yearbook will disclose. Total income was estimated at $122,442,000,000—about 20 per cent of which was derived from crude oil production.

At the same time, individual farmers and ranchers in certain parts of the state were hard hit by the third successive year of drought, it will be reported. The entire western three-fifths of the state was designate as a disaster area. State and federal aid was concentrated on relief programs designed primarily to preserve foundation breeding herds of cattle, sheep and goats.

The American Peoples Yearbook will report that income from cattle sales in 1953 tumbled to $326,658,000 from the boom high of 1951, when sales ran to about a half billion dollars. On the other hand, farm income, exclusive of livestock, was down only about 3 per cent to $1,253,000,000.

An interesting aspect of the crop-drought situation reported in the yearbook was the fact that rains coming to the drought-seared backlands, resulted in the highest per-acre yields of cotton in the history of Texas. Total income from cotton last year was placed at $682,181,000.

Tornadoes combined with the drought to make weather the greatest single news-making force in the state during the year. May 11, has been termed the worst tornado day in the history of the Lone Star state. It was on that day last year that the twisters hit San Angelo and Waco causing an estimated 55 million dollars damage, taking 124 lives and injuring nearly 700 other persons.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read at Christian Science Services Sunday.

Man's dominion over all materiality is stressed in the readings from the King James Version of the Bible as well as those from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy. The Scriptural selections include the account as given in Matthew 14:22-32 of how Christ Jesus and Peter walked on the sea.

Readings from Science and Health include the following:

"In proportion as matter loses to human sense all entity as man in that proportion does man become its master. He enters into a diviner sense of the facts, and comprehends the theology of Jesus as demonstrated in healing the sick, raising the dead, and walking over the wave. All these deeds manifested Jesus, control over the belief that matter is substance, that it can be the arbiter of life or the constructor of any form of existence" (369:5).

The Golden Text is from Psalms: "God hath spoken once; twice have I heard this that power belongeth unto God" (62:11).

MRS. BARNETT RETURNS

Mrs. C. A. Barnett returned Sunday from a two week's visit in Bakersfield, Calif., with her sister, Mrs. Thelma Terrano, who returned home with her for a short visit.

Today's Meditation

And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not. (Galatians 6:9.) Read Colossians 3:20-25.

Stricken in her early forties with an incurable eye disease, it was a terrible blow to my mother. She was faced with the fact that her numerous activities in the home, community, and church would be greatly hampered. Serving God and helping others were her greatest aims in life.

As she lay in the hospital with bandaged eyes after her first operation, not knowing whether she would ever see again, she composed the words and music of a hymn. Created out of the depths of her uncertainty and despair, it was truly a beautiful song.

That experience was the beginning of what has proved to be for her a successful hobby. By means of it she has been able to inspire and help many more people than would have been possible through limited personal contact. At 82, she is still writing.

How marvelously God uses His bruised reed!

PRAYER

Dear Father, help us to understand the meaning of "thy will be done in earth." Help us to bear illness and misfortune without loss of faith in Thee. In the name of our Master, who teaches us as He taught the twelve disciples to pray, "Our Father who art in heaven . . . Amen."

Thought for the Day

"A bruised reed shall he not break."

—Bertha P. Boone, Homemaker, (Missouri)

Milk Declared To Be The Most Important Food

AUSTIN, June 15—Of all the kinds of food in the market today, there is none more important than milk, declares Dr. Henry A. Holle, State Health Officer. Milk is the first food of infants and one for which there is no fully satisfactory substitute. It contains a large amount of protein, also calcium, phosphorous and some but not all of the necessary vitamins.

The only drawback to milk is that it is highly susceptible to contamination, and if it is contaminated, disease germs grow rapidly in it. Dr. Holle says that in order to keep milk safe for human consumption milk sanitarians of local and state health departments should help Texas milk producers set up standards for cleanliness and freedom from disease organisms. Many cities in the state have now adopted the Standard Milk Ordinance, sponsored by the Texas State Department of Health. This ordinance requires that milk be graded on the basis of sanitation in production and handling and the bacterial count before it is put on the market. Several cities in Texas require that all milk sold must be pasteurized.

Protection from contaminated milk starts on the dairy farm. The barn is a food factory and must be kept clean and free of flies. All utensils must be carefully washed and sterilized immediately after use and stored in a clean place free from dust and flies. Those working in a dairy must practice good personal hygiene.

Grade A pasteurized milk is the best for general use, in view of cost, food value and freedom from disease producing germs. The Texas State Department of Health joins in observance of June as Dairy Month and urges that consumers use only Grade A pasteurized milk.
