If the defense picked up the ball it was blown dead at the spot. Not so in 1998, and this might add some exciting moments in some games. This year the defense can pick up the pigskin and keep rolling. Teams with slow quarterbacks, which is not usually the case, will see many of these situations evolve into a score for their opponent.

Another rule change has less effect on the game, but is still significant because it could mean loss of lots of yardage. The penalty for deliberately throwing any pass away to conserve time or avoid being sacked will be enforced from the spot of the foul. For example: If a team's quarterback has good idea to look there for ways to wash only full loads and adjust the

The most effective conservation step in the home is to install a lowflow showerhead. This will lessen water use by 50 percent. Also, taking a short shower instead of a bath will help reduce water usage.

Updating the model of toilet in your bathroom can also help minimize the amount of water used in the home. Older models can use up to seven gallons of water per flush, while newer models use only 1.6 gallons. It is important to remember not to use the toilet as a trash can for paper and facial tissues because this uses an unnecessary amount of water.

Simply turning off the faucet while brushing your teeth or washing your face or hands can save a considerable amount of water. Also, installing a low-flow faucet aerator can save up to one-half the water being used.

The kitchen is another area in the home that uses a significant amount of water. The first step is to run water only when it is absolutely necessary.

Soaking pots and pans before washing, placing frozen foods in a pan of water instead of letting the water run over them, and keeping a pitcher of water in the refrigerator instead of letting the faucet run until it is cold enough are three examples of how to minimize water use in the kitchen.

The dishwasher and the washing machines are two of the biggest wast-

Texans must be more efficient in in the home is in the bathroom, it is a ers of water. In order to save water, water level to match the size of the load. Both are also available in water saving models, which are usually the same price as the regular models. Another way to save water is to be sure that the water heater thermostat is not set too high. This wastes water because the water has to be mixed with cold water before it is used.

Also, be sure to fix all water leaks. Leaks account for at least 10 percent of the water bill. If the source of the leak is a hot water faucet, it is not only a waste of water, but a waste of energy

A toilet with a silent leak of one cup of water a minute wastes about 2,700 gallons of water a month. A toilet leak occurs when water escapes from the tank into the bowl. This may or may not be seen or heard.

"Silent leaks" are very common and are often missed. To determine if your toilet has a silent leak, place a few drops of food coloring into the tank. Wait a few minutes and if color appears in the toilet bowl, there is a silent leak.

Another common leak is a faucet leak. These are usually very obvious and are very inexpensive and easy to fix. Generally, by replacing the "O" rings, the leak will be fixed.

Rex Edwin Surber of Mertzon died Monday, July 27, 1998. Service was held Thursday at First Baptist Church in Sonora with burial following in Hext Cemetery in Menard County. Officiating were Rev. Jim Stephens of Sonora and Rev. Grosse Mohler of San Angelo.

Rex was born Nov. 3, 1962, in Iraan to J. C. and Loma Surber. He attended school in Rankin and Sonora and graduated from Sonora High School in 1981. He also attended Texas Tech University and Angelo State University.

Sports and outdoor activities were a big part of Rex's life, from the time when he played football at Sonora to his involvement in Little League baseball with his son. Baseball was his favorite sport, and although SHS did not have a baseball program at the time, Rex often considered playing in college after he worked out with semiprofessional teams. He played on the San Angelo A's slow-ptich softball team that played in the Triple Crown tournament in Steamboat Springs, CO. Most recently he coached the 10-yearolds all-star team for Northern Little League this past summer. He also enjoyed hunting, fishing and golf with his favorite partner, Mason.

The family asks that memorial contributions be made to any of the cancer societies or to a special fund: through the Lone Oak State Bank, P. O. Box 458, Lone Oak, TX 75453-0458. # Ozona Chamber of Commerce - Members of the Week Double 7 Ranch Double T Ranch came about in 1968 when James Cleo Thompson Sr. and his son, Jimmy, purchased the Dick Henderson Ranch. Located just north of the Care Center and west of the airport, we are predominantly a commercial cow/calf operation.

By implementing extensive brush control measures and controlled, rotational grazing we hope to benefit the water quality from wells on the ranch that supply some of Ozona's water.

The owners and staff on the Double T Ranch realize that a healthy range contributes to a health water supply and work toward that end.

ment in hell. We dare not presume we merit happiness in heaven. Sin, violation of God's requirements for living, exists. We participate in it. We need salvation from the reward due to us for our sins. One of those punishments is a nagging sense of guilt. Salvation is not in our hands. God authors and dispenses salvation.

God authors salvation by sending Christ into the world. "Christ also died for sins once for all, the just for the unjust, so that He might bring us to leads them into the presence of God in heaven.

God dispenses salvation. He does so by the work of the Holy Spirit in us. "He saved us, not on the basis of deeds which we have done in righteousness, but according to His mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewing by the Holy Spirit" (Titus 3:5).

If salvation belongs to the Lord and if God dispenses it on the basis of mercy, I have one position to assume. "God, be merciful to me, the sinner!" (Luke 18:13).

Card of Thanks

There are so many we need to thank for the prayers, thoughts, visits, phone calls and food. We are truly blessed with the many friendships we have made over the years. Certainly to the EMT's and clinic staff we give thanks for their prompt attention and expertise. May the Lord go with you as he has with us.

The combination of the two lines at one dealership is a logical move, Bass says. Ford owns 33 percent of Mazda.

The acquisition is expected to eventually lead to the construction of a new sales office and lot on the same side of Sherwood Way where the Honda lot sits today. This will make room for the larger inventory and work force. The addition of 10 Car Country Mazda employees brings the number of employees at Jim Bass to 130.

1998 Property Tax Rates in CROCKETT COUNTY	Schedule A
This notice concerns 1998 property tax rates for CROCKETT COUNTY . It presents information about three tax rates. Last year's tax rate is the actual rate the taxing unit used to determine property taxes last year. This year's effective tax rate would impose the same total taxes as last year if you compare properties taxed in both years. This year's rollback tax rate is the highest tax rate the taxing unit can set before taxpayers can start tax rollback procedures. In each case these rates are found by dividing the total amount of taxes by the tax base (the total value of taxable property) with adjustments as required by state law. The rates are given per $100 of property value.	Unencumbered Fund Balances         The following estimated balances will be left in the unit's property tax accounts at the end of the fiscal year. These balance are not encumbered by a corresponding debt obligation. throws the ball out of bounds to avoid a sack, his team will lose all that yardage plus 5 more and lose the down. The fumble rule has been clarified somewhat, It really boils down to three sets of circumstances and where the ball is placed after the three. If a fumble goes out of bounds ahead of the fumbler, it is brought back to where the ball was lost. If it goes out of bounds behind the fumbler, it is put in play where it goes out. The third application is for fumbles that go out of

Outside of the above-mentioned rules, the avid fan of football on the Texas high school level and at the college level will see much the same game. The University Interscholastic League uses the same NCAA rules book that colleges across the nation utilize, and this year's rules committee saw fit to leave most of the book intact. From the standpoint of an official this is always a great relief. I don't the school zone, and to please obey the have to remember a long slate of new rules.

Know where school zones are, obey posted speeds

"School season is just around the corner again," reminds Sheriff Shane Fenton. "The goal of the Sheriff's Office and the community is to provide a safe environment around our schools for the sake of our children. The Sheriff's Office is asking every licensed driver to become familiar with all the streets, which are affected by posted speeds."

Last year one deputy issued over 204 citations around the schools alone. The good news for Ozona students was that the average speed of 28 to 35 mph at the beginning of the year was reduced to 20 and 27 by the end of the Junior/Middle School - Ave. G, 5th school year. This year, any driver who Street and 6th Street; High School insists on driving at any speed over 20 mph in a school zone will be subjected to a traffic stop, which could result in responsibility to drive safely and obey a 5 to 10 minutes delay, and a traffic citation.

school areas led the violation zones last year. Students and parents rushing were a major problem. Drivers failing to stop for school buses with red flashing lights were another big area of violations, followed by failure to stop at stop signs, intersections.

School zones are controlled by flashing yellow lights, which are activate when the school zone is in effect. Other school zones are identified by posted signs, which have the times the zone is in effect.

These zones are located at: Primary School - Martinez'Street, Monterey Street, One-way Street and Hwy. 163 south; Intermediate School - 14th Street 13th Street and Jones Street; Ave. E, Ave. D and 8th Street.

Summer children's programs

CCPL was the place to be every Monday in June and July for summer reading programs. The theme this year was Furry Tails, Funny Tales and a variety of volunteers worked very hard to make it a summer to remember. 318 children attended the programs, and over 70 adults helped at the library.

I want to thank all the wonderful people who presented the programs, brought animals to visit, read funny stories, worked on crafts and helped the children check out and read over 1,175 children's books this summer, especially our dedicated summer school teachers. Thanks, Friends.

World Breastfeeding Month educates mothers

Texas Tech's Ozona Rural Health Clinic observes the beginning of World Breastfeeding Month with two open houses this week. The clinic hosted open house Monday and will again Wednesday to encourage expectant mothers to learn more about breastfeeding.

"For us here at W.I.C. (Women, Infants and Children), our primary mission is to give our most vulnerable children the best possible start by providing optimal nutrition during the critical stages of fetal and early childhood development," said Corinna Diehl, W.I.C. clerk.

Christy Chipman is breastfeeding peer counselor at the clinic. She completed a 3-day training session to enable her to work with mothers. She is continuing her education on the subject through reading and searching the Internet.

"I keep finding out new things," said Christy, who had to be a breastfeeding mom herself in order to attend the training session.

Other personnel at the office can also teach breastfeeding, said Karen Huffman, R.N. and W.I.C. nurse for the clinic.

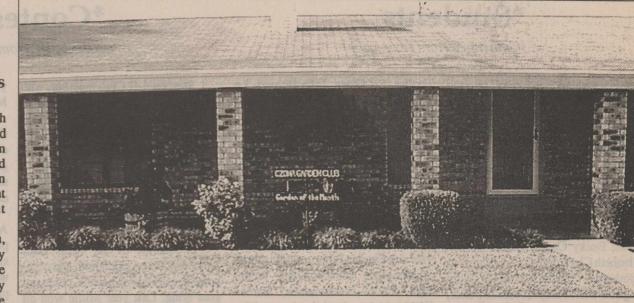

Numerous pamphlets on breastfeeding are available there.

Gordon hoof'n it coast to coast

Some of you may have seen a vehicle around town with Hoof'N It Wynona, and their mascot, Zak, the Coast to Coast at 65 on the side. Behind the wheel is Al Gordon, now 67 and a runner. He started running in 1968 after becoming inspired by Dr. Kenneth Cooper's book, "Aerobics". His first run was 0.4 miles around the block.

"When I finished I thought I might not live to see another day," said Gordon, "but when I awoke the next morning, very much alive, I went running again. This time my route took me around the same block. Twice! I knew I was hooked."

The routine developed to include 4-6 miles a day, six days a week and produced rewards, including a drop in resting heart rate from the high 80s to the low 60s, and the mental satisfaction of achieving daily goals.

"Hoof'N it Coast to Coast at 65" has been a longtime dream of Gordon. "I am doing this for myself, but I hope the project will serve as an inspiration for others. I want people to feel they can follow their dreams while being a positive witness for God and the six days a week. He and his wife, cat, live in a 1996 34' Bounder motor home. They park in a central location and then drive to the running site each day in their pickup.

After 10 or so days in an area, they move to another town. The Gordons will leave Ozona for Junction where they will stay for another segment of the coast to coast run.

Wynona is his support crew. She is public relations coordinator, the chaplain (they begin each morning's run with prayer for protection), record keeper, photographer and "Hoofer Pusher".

"As Hoofer Pusher, she meets me at each mile so I can have water, or Gatorade, nourishment and encouragement. I listen to cassette tapes as I run - a tape lasts about three miles and Wynona also rewinds my tapes. In addition, she is expected to keep eyes and ears open for dogs along the way and be alert for any problems I may be having.

"On the last day of our run in 1996 we had a fun experience. We had just entered New Mexico and as I was jogging along I happened to notice a herd of cattle on the nearby ranch, jogging along with me. When I stopped for my drink the cows stopped, too. At least the leaders did - the rest were busy catching up. When I started up, so did the cows, when I stopped, they stopped, too. This lasted for four or five miles. I am sure the rancher wouldn't have appreciated seeing his cows jogging off their fat, but there ranch loans due to damages and losses located in San Angelo says FSA Farm Loan Manager Fred J. Greenway.

Crockett is one of the counties in Texas recently named by Secretary of Agriculture Dan Glickman for loans to cover part of actual physical and/or production losses resulting from drought which occurred from May 1, 1997, through April 29, 1998, and continuing.

Greenway said farmers/ranchers may be eligible for loans of up to 80 percent of their actual losses or the operating loan needed to continue in business, whichever is less. For farmers/ranchers unable to obtain credit interest rate is 3.75 percent.
