Trustees approve new band uniforms

By Ted Cotton
Asst. Superintendent

Following a lengthy 7:30 until 11:15 p.m. executive session regarding personnel, Ozona School Board President Wade Richardson announced that Frank and Kathy Reavis, teachers in the school district, had withdrawn their letters of resignation, which would have become effective on Dec. 31. Mr. and Mrs. Reavis' resignation letters were presented by their daughter, Cindy Komechak, during the open forum agenda of the Dec. 15, 1998, regular meeting of the local school board.

Richardson also announced the appointment of a committee to begin the screening of prospective applicants for the position of head football coach and athletic director at Ozona High School. The committee, composed of Dickie Faught, Charles Floyd, Donny Wiley, Ted Cotton and Larry Taylor, will select the top applicants to be interviewed once the Jan. 15 application deadline has closed, and when the interview process has been completed, they will recommend the leading candidates to be interviewed by the school board. These candidates will be interviewed by the board in February, with the selection of a new head football coach/athletic director to be decided upon by the end of February.

In another personnel item, the trustees voted to not accept the resignation, effective at the end of December, of Renee Casey, English and drama teacher at Ozona High School. Ms. Casey had requested release from her teaching contract in order to accept a drama teaching position in a larger school district. Trustee David Bean made the motion to accept Ms. Casey's resignation, and the motion was seconded by George Ybarra; however, as the result of a 3-3 tie vote, her resignation was not accepted by the board.

Larry Harvey, district architect, met with the board to present plans and specifications for the renovation of Ozona Middle School, Ozona Middle School Gymnasium and Davidson Gymnasium. Harvey will again meet with the trustees at their regular meeting in January for final approval prior to advertising for bids.

The members approved the taking of bids for new high school band uniforms that will be used beginning with the 1999-2000 school year. Supt. Larry Taylor explained that he, Donny Wiley, Kelly Glaze, and Norman Carroll were requesting the purchase of 120 new band uniforms due to the fact that the current uniforms are 10 years old and have reached their expected useful life span. Over the past two years it has become increasingly difficult to properly outfit band members, and it has also been necessary to scavenge numerous uniforms in order to keep others in acceptable repair.

The uniforms will be used for both marching and concert contests, and for the delivery of new uniforms to be guaranteed before the start of the next school year, they have to be ordered before the end of February, 1999, Taylor said. Uniform bids will be considered by the board in its February regular meeting.

Due to the lateness of the evening, the trustees voted to postpone their Tuesday, Dec. 15, meeting and reconvene on Wednesday, Dec. 16, at 8:30 p.m. to consider other agenda items.

After the meeting had been reconvened on Wednesday and with all members being present with the exception of Dr. Marcus Sims, the members approved the taking of bids for metal gabled roofs on school-owned housing. In board discussion regarding this agenda item, Supt. Larry Taylor said, "Mr. Myers (school maintenance director) and I have been planning for a long time to begin installing gabled metal roofs on school-owned housing that currently has flat tar and gravel built-up roofs. We would like to take bids so that we can begin this process with the 18 houses located by the Ozona Intermediate School. We would like to take bids on five houses beginning with the houses north of where the intermediate school principal lives.

"We will bring the bids for board approval at the January regular board meeting. We need to install gabled metal roofs on all of our school-owned housing that has flat roofs to protect the district's investment. Ray Don and I believe that we need to also replace the siding on most of the 18 along with some windows in the near future," Taylor explained.

During the meeting the members reviewed and approved the district's audit report for the 1997-98 fiscal year as prepared by the accounting firm of Eckert, Ingram, Tinkler, Oliphant and Featherston, as well as an update to the district's school board policy manual. Also approved was the district's participation in the Region XVV Education Service Center TIE Grant Videoconferencing Project.

The trustees went into executive session to discuss the purchase of property; however, no action was taken on this agenda item. The meeting was adjourned following an affirmative vote to set the date and time for the January regular meeting of the board on Jan. 20, 1998, at 7:00 p.m.

Ozona Stockman closed for holidays.

The Ozona Stockman will be closed Dec. 24 and 25 for the Christmas holidays. The office will open on its regular schedule at 8:00 a.m. Monday.

Teachers decide to stay

"We're staying," was music to the ears of supporters of Kathy and Frank Reavis at a Dec. 15 school board meeting.

Mrs. Reavis made the announcement at 10:20 p.m. to students and others waiting in the high school library.

Trustees met in executive session with the couple after their daughter, Cindy Komechak, presented their letters of resignation during the open forum portion of the meeting.

"I don't know if I can do this or not," said Cindy as she choked back tears. "This is the hardest thing I've ever had to do."

The letters of resignation came after a level three complaint meeting with the board and two petitions seeking replacement of the superintendent.

The couple cited health, lack of respect from the administration for teachers and their profession, harassment and threatening letters and mail fraud as reasons for resigning.

The Reavises, who have taught a total of 56 years in the Ozona school system, and the school board will try to work things out, Cindy said, after her parents' executive session meeting with the board.

"It's a Christmas miracle," she said as students gathered around the Reavises to share happy hugs.

New firetruck arrives

Ozona Fire Department's new pumper arrived Sunday, the first new truck for the department since 1982.

Correctly called a Spartan Advantage 6-man cab custom rescue pumper, the truck carries 1,000 gallons of water and will pump 1,250 gallons per minute. The truck will carry a full regiment of rescue tools and hose and will have foam capability as soon as it can be rigged out.

Firemen underwent a three-day training period with a representative of the manufacturer, Ferrara Fire Apparatus Inc. of Holden, LA, before starting the process of loading equipment and getting ready to put the truck in service.

Painted in gold across the front of the truck are the words "Lowell and Minnie McCaleb", names of Ozona's faithful station attendants for many years.

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — Child support collections should, for the next two years, remain the responsibility of the attorney general's office, the state Sunset Advisory Commission recommended last week.

Attorney General-elect John Cornyn, who described the agency's collections record as "dismal," will succeed Attorney General Dan Morales in January.

"We want to give the new attorney general time to come in and decide what needs to be done," said Sen. J.E. "Buster" Brown, R-Lake Jackson, chairman of the commission that reviews the operation of state agencies.

Morales' management of the child support division has been criticized for alleged failure to collect and distribute court-ordered support payments.

The Legislature last year asked the Sunset Advisory Commission to study and make a recommendation whether child support enforcement should be stripped from the attorney general's office's array of duties and placed under the purview of a separate agency.

Texas had 1.1 million child support cases for which the state collected $757 million in child support payments in 1997-98, according to the attorney general's office.

Cornyn Wants Tobacco Suit Info

Attorney General-elect Cornyn wants some answers about the deal private lawyers struck to represent the state in its tobacco lawsuit.

Cornyn said he thinks more than $3 billion is an unreasonable amount of money to be paid. Cigarette makers have agreed to a settlement with the state for an estimated $17 billion dollars.

Cornyn also said he'll take a close look at an agreement Attorney General Morales made with Houston lawyer Marc Murr, whose role in the settlement, Morales said, is worth more than $1 million.

Recycling Info Site Opens

The Texas Natural Resource Conservation Commission recently launched an online interactive system for mapping data on recycling in Texas.

The agency's Recycling Markets Information System (RMIS)

allows buyers, sellers and researchers to display recycling data they select on a map and/or in tabular form on this web site:
<http://arroyo.geo.swt.edu>

Comment from the public is encouraged by the agency, with the goal of finding more uses for recyclable material while reducing waste that would otherwise be tossed into landfills.

Other Highlights

- State Farm Insurance, the biggest auto insurance company in Texas, has filed lawsuits seeking $14 million in damages from nine people accused of staging accidents across the state between 1992 and 1997.

To compete in the technological marketplace, Texas needs more "flagship" universities to augment the University of Texas at Austin and Texas A&M University. Last week, six Texas university chancellors said the Legislature should do what it takes to make more schools emerge as top-tier research institutions.

The Federal Emergency Management Agency has closed or is closing disaster relief centers in cities including San Antonio, New Braunfels, Wharton, Gonzales and Seguin. FEMA accepted almost 23,000 requests for emergency housing aid in the past two months and approved $21 million in grants to flood victims.

An internal investigation by the Texas Department of Criminal Justice has concluded that Martin Gurule had no help from the inside during his breakout from death row last month. Gurule was found dead of drowning near the TDCJ's Ellis Unit in Huntsville.

University of Texas regent Tom Hicks and his business partner Charles Tate last week revealed themselves as the donors of a manuscript to UT. The memoir by Jose Enrique de la Peña alleges Davy Crockett was executed after the fall of the Alamo.

SWEDEN
Date: December 13-December 25
Greeting: God Jul
Food: Julrot (a special pudding made of rice and milk) and lutfsak (a kind of fish prepared in sauce)
Traditions: December 13 marks a very important day for Swedish children because that is when Julenisse (elves) arrive to help with many duties. To thank the elves, the children leave food for them each evening.

UNITED STATES
Date: December 25
Greeting: "Merry Christmas"
Food: Roast turkey and dressing, cranberry sauce, mincemeat pie
Traditions: Children hang stockings on the fireplace in readiness for Santa Claus to come down the chimney on Christmas Eve and leave toys for them. The holiday reminds us of the birth of Jesus Christ more than 2,000 years ago. The birth of Christ is celebrated in many churches on Christmas Eve with candlelight services and special music. The Christmas story is also often read from the Bible.

Merry Christmas

Christmas Traditions Around The World

ENGLAND
Date: December 25
Greeting: "A Merry Yule"
Food: Headcheese, mutton pies, plum pudding, mince pies, wassail
Traditions: Children receive gifts from Father Christmas. He fills their stockings, which hang by the fireplace. Boxing Day is celebrated the day after Christmas, when gifts or money are given to those who have helped one during the year. The singing of Christmas carols also began in England.

FINLAND
Date: December 25
Greeting: Hoista Joulua
Food: St. Stephen's Day porridge, special cookies
Traditions: During winter in Finland, everyone feeds the birds since heavy winter snows cover their food. On Christmas Eve, people leave extra food as a special gift for the birds.

GERMANY
Date: December 25
Greeting: Froeliche Weinachten
Food: Roast goose and Lubecker marzipan
Traditions: Lubecker marzipan, made of almonds, is a favorite candy because it is molded and colored to resemble fruit or toys and hung on the Christmas tree for decoration. Candles are also traditionally placed on the tree instead of lights. The tradition of the Christmas tree was started in Germany many years ago.

HOLLAND
Date: December 6-25
Greeting: Prettige Kerstdagen
Food: Klaajes, a hard, flat cake originally made in the form of a bishop and his horse; klaasman, a figure of Santa Claus in a flat cake; letterbanket, little cakes made in the form of letters so one can spell their own name.
Traditions: On December 6, boys and girls leave candy and cookies in their wooden shoes which have been placed by the doorstep for St. Nicholas. He removes the treats and leaves gifts for the children.

ITALY
Date: December 25-January 6
Greeting: Buon Natale
Food: Small cookies called "Magi Cakes," pork, chicken and fried eels Traditions: Christmas Day is a day of religious observance, with ceremonies praising the newborn Jesus. Children believe on January 6 they will be visited by La Befana. This very old lady drops down each chimney and leaves gifts for the young children. Gifts are also given to each family member on Christmas Eve. These gifts are placed in the "Urn of Fate," which is a large pot, and then they are distributed to everyone in the family.

MEXICO
Date: December 16-January 6
Greeting: Feliz Navidad

Melissa Morris - Cook of the Week

Melissa Morris says she would like to cook a lot more if she didn't have to clean up. "I had to learn a lot about cooking since Cody and I married."

Her cooking style is derived from a combination of things she learned from her mother, Nancy Moore, and mother-in-law, Karen Morris.

"My biggest thing is decorating cakes," said Melissa. She also prepares a lot of casseroles and fast easy dishes.

Helping in the kitchen is little daughter Aryn, age 2 1/2. "Aryn wants to help and I want her to learn to like to cook," said Melissa. Melissa and Cody are expecting a son in March.

She is a member of Alpha Alpha Mu and Ozona Women's League. Melissa works at The Teacher Store, and Cody is employed by Burleson and Clayburn.

Red Velvet Peppermint Cake

- 1 (18.25 oz.) pkg. white cake mix
 - 3 egg whites
 - 1 1/3 c. buttermilk
 - 2 T vegetable oil
 - 1 (9 oz.) pkg. yellow cake mix
 - 1/2 c. buttermilk
 - 1 lg. egg
 - 1 1/2 tsp. cocoa
 - 1/2 tsp. baking soda
 - 2 tsp. red food coloring
 - 1 tsp. cider vinegar
- Beat first four ingredients according to cake mix directions. Beat yellow cake mix and next six ingredients according to cake mix directions.

Spoon red batter alternately with white batter into 3 greased and floured 9-inch cake pans. Swirl batter gently with a knife. Bake at 350 degrees for 22 to 25 minutes.

Spread with Peppermint Cream Cheese Frosting. Garnish with crushed peppermint.

Peppermint Cream Cheese Frosting

- 1 (8 oz.) pkg. cream cheese, softened
 - 1 c. butter or margarine, softened
 - 1 - 2 lb. pkg. powdered sugar
 - 2 tsp. peppermint extract
- Beat cream cheese and butter at med. speed with electric mixer until creamy. Gradually add sugar, beating at low speed until smooth. Add extract until blended.

Mom's Christmas Cookies

"Each year Mom says 'let's see who makes the best cookies' and she always wins. One year she gave me her recipe but left things out so she would win. I found the recipe, and that year I won," said Melissa.

- 1 c. butter or margarine
- 1 1/2 c. sugar
- 2 eggs
- 4 1/2 c. sifted flour
- 1 tsp. soda
- 1 tsp. baking powder
- 1 tsp. salt
- 1 c. sour cream
- 1 1/2 tsp. vanilla

Cream butter with sugar until light and fluffy. Add eggs, one at a time, beating well after each addition. Add sifted dry ingredients alternately with sour cream, mixing well after each addition. Blend in vanilla.

Chill. Roll out on floured board to a thickness of 1/4 inch. Cut into 3-inch rounds. Place on an ungreased cookie sheet and sprinkle with sugar. Bake at 375 degrees for 12 minutes. Makes 5 dozen. Great topped with favorite icing.

Dad's Pork Chops

Melissa's Mother got this recipe 25 years ago while in Hawaii. She had to do all the work marinating and preparing, but the kids always gave Dad credit because he grilled the chops, Melissa said.

- 1/2 c. oil
 - 3/4 c. soy sauce
 - 1/4 c. Worcestershire Sauce
 - 2 T dry mustard
 - 2 1/4 tsp. salt
 - 1 T coarse black pepper
 - 1/2 c. wine vinegar
 - 1/2 tsp. parsley flakes
 - 4 garlic cloves, minced
 - 1/3 c. lemon juice
 - 8-12 pork chops
- Mix all seasonings and marinate pork chops for several hours. Turn chops occasionally. Cook on grill.

Make Ahead Potatoes

This recipe has been in the family since Melissa was in the fifth grade.

- 6 - 8 potatoes
 - 1 8 oz. pkg. cream cheese
 - 1 8 oz. sour cream
 - 2 1/2 c. grated cheese
 - Salt, pepper, garlic salt to taste
- Boil potatoes until done. Drain. Add cream cheese and sour cream, then mix until mashed. Add salt, pepper and garlic salt into mashed potatoes. Place in a 9x13 casserole dish. Sprinkle cheese on top and bake at 350 degrees until cheese is bubbly all over.

Garden Club sponsors poster contest

Ozona Garden Club sponsored a poster contest stressing environmental awareness or caring for the earth with Woodsy Owl and Smoky Bear themes. Two hundred and twenty children in Ozona Intermediate School participated.

The students' winning posters have been submitted to the district level for State Garden Club participation.

Winners will be photographed for a January paper, and a monetary award will be given to each.

For many Texans, 1998 was a year that tested our spirit, our resilience and our compassion to reach out to others in need. Whether it was flood or drought, neighbor stood by neighbor in ways that should make us all proud to be Texans.

This holiday season, may we all pause and reflect on the many good things in our lives: family, friends and the promise of a new, exciting year.

Lullaby for Baby Jesus

Rock-a-bye. Baby Jesus was born on Christmas Day.
A tiny babe in a humble bed.
Others came from far away
To see Him and to worship Him as in the straw He lay.
Rock-a-bye, Baby Jesus.
Sweet Savior of the world.
On your tiny shoulders would all sins be hurled.
On your sweet brow would one day rest
A painful crown of thorns.
But for now, you are cradled in your mother's arms.
Gentle Baby Jesus, Mary sings to you a song:

Rock-a-bye, my precious son.
Rock-a-bye 'till dawn.

OUR LADY OF PERPETUAL HELP CATHOLIC CHURCH presented a traditional Posada coordinated by Margarita Longoria and Maria Perez this past Monday evening. The Posada is a pageant of the birth of our lord and the tribulations suffered by His Father, Joseph (played by Tres Perez) and His mother Mary (played by Adrianna Tijerina) as Joseph begged for a lodging place for his wife who was with child. The Posadas are presented in verse form and sung by two groups, those outside, begging for a place to spend the night and those inside, refusing to open the door to one more guest. Portraying the shepherds were Robert DeHoyos, Lalo Longoria Jr. and Manny Tijerina. Photo by Stephen Zuberbueller

Candlelight service at Baptist Church Dec. 24

Rev. Bill Fuller, pastor of First Baptist Church, invites the community to a Christmas Eve candlelight service at 11 p.m.

Care Center Chatter

There is only one more day until Christmas, and our residents have no complaints about the holidays, only that they are ready for Christmas to be over. There has been so much going on all through the month of December, and we have really enjoyed every bit of it.

Thanks to Mrs. Henderson's 8th grade class for coming to carol for us. Also to Simply Cervantez for her gifts for the residents and again to all the people of Ozona for all their donations to make our residents happy. Special thanks to Western Drug for their fruit platters for our residents and to the Methodist Church Youth group for going room by room Christmas caroling. Residents really enjoyed it since it was Sunday afternoon. Thank you, Nancy.

It is nice to know everybody cares for our residents.

Our Country Store remains open every day until Christmas so our residents can enjoy the shopping. Don't forget we are always in need of any kind of donation for our Country Store so we can have a better selection.

I need to make a correction about last week's Bingo winner. It was Hazel McDaniel, and she had a total of seven bingos.

We have been having real good games of dominoes. Ladies playing were: Ruby Butler, Laura McMullan, Rosa Diaz and Hazel McDaniel. Juana Hernandez and Neva Palmer enjoy watching the rest of the ladies.

High score winner was Laura McMullan.

We also were in the mood for baking. A group of residents got together, and with some help from activity director Lupe Martinez made some Cowboy Cookies. We baked them and ate hot cookies for snacks. Everybody enjoyed the cookies. We had enough to give all the residents and staff.

Ladies making the cookies were: Laura McMullan, Juana Hernandez, Hazel McDaniel, Ruby Butler, Lilly Bell Halydier and Neva Palmer. They had a good conversation going about when they used to bake at their homes. They really enjoyed the afternoon.

The Community Bell Ringers came to the care center to entertain our residents Monday night.

The Gift of Christmas

Submitted by
Rev. Mike Davis
Harvest Time
Christian Center

how meaningful it is, regardless of how much emotion it is given with, no matter how much it cost or how rare it is. All other gifts pale into meaninglessness at some point. Some would give all the gifts they have ever received in exchange for their health, or to have a broken relationship healed, or to extend their life a little while longer or to be at peace with God and themselves. There is really only one gift which we would not exchange for all the world...that is indwelling presence of Jesus in our heart.

He is the gift of life. Eternal life. He is the only gift we can give to others which has ultimate value. One of the great frustrations of Christmas is providing for our gift list. We become harried, weary and frazzled seeing that everyone has a gift. How wonderful it would be if our "gift list" was our "prayer list" to whom we could give the gift of the gospel of Christ. When we introduce others to Jesus and persuade them to accept Him as Savior and Lord, they will have received The Gift of Christmas.

May you and yours have a wonderful Christmas!

Our tradition of gift-giving at Christmas is taken from the "giving" theme which permeates the Incarnation. God gave His only Begotten Son to the world, the angels gave praises to God, and the three kings gave gifts to the Christchild. It was indeed a giving occasion.

The Gift of Christmas was Jesus. No other gift compares. No matter

Gingerbread With Warm Cranberry Compote

1 14 1/2-oz package gingerbread cake mix
2 cups Ocean Spray® Fresh or Frozen Cranberries
3 cups pineapple chunks, cut in half
1 cup brown sugar
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
Whipped cream

Prepare gingerbread as directed on package. Cool completely. Combine remaining ingredients, except whipped cream, in a medium saucepan. Bring mixture to a boil and cook just until the cranberries begin to pop, stirring frequently. Cool sauce slightly. Spoon warm compote over each serving of gingerbread. Top with whipped cream. Makes 9 servings.

Border Patrol seizes over $2 million in narcotics

Reprinted with permission from the Dec. 10, 1998 issue of the Van Horn Advocate.

In just five days, the U. S. Border Patrol has seized over $2,000,000.00 worth of narcotics in three different seizures.

On Dec. 5, agents of the Alpine station seized 268 pounds of marijuana from the rear of a Chevy suburban while conducting traffic check duties on Highway 118, just south of Alpine.

The following day, agents of the Sierra Blanca station arrested two individuals after 1,364 pounds of marijuana was found in false compartments of their motor home. The value of the marijuana was over $1,000,000.00. The marijuana was found after a canine alerted to the contraband.

On Dec. 2, agents from Sierra Blanca assisted Department of Public Safety Troopers and discovered 27 pounds of cocaine concealed in the quarter panels of the vehicle. The cocaine has a street value of $870,000.00

Roast Pork Loin And Onions

Olive oil
1½ lb. (750 g) small boiling onions, about 1 inch (2.5 cm) in diameter (about 30)
1 center-cut boneless pork loin, 2½-3 lb. (1.25-1.5 kg), trimmed of most fat and tied in several places
2 teaspoons chopped fresh thyme, plus 6 thyme sprigs
Salt and freshly ground pepper
½ cup (4 fl. oz./125 ml) dry white wine, plus extra wine for basting
1 teaspoon cornstarch mixed with 1 tablespoon water

Position a rack in the lower third of an oven and preheat to 425°F (220°C). Lightly coat a heavy roasting pan with olive oil.

Trim the onions, then peel and cut a shallow cross in the root end. Fill a saucepan three-fourths full with water and bring to a boil over medium-high heat. Add the onions, return the water to a boil and boil for 2 minutes. Drain the onions and set aside.

Wipe any moisture from the pork loin with paper towels. Rub the loin all over with olive oil. Sprinkle with chopped thyme and season lightly with salt and pepper. Place the pork loin, fat side up, in the roasting pan (without a rack) and add ½ cup wine. Surround the meat with the onions.

Roast, stirring the onions occasionally and basting the meat and onions a few times with the extra wine or the pan juices, until the loin and onions are lightly golden and the juices run clear when the loin is pierced with a knife, 50-70 minutes. To test for doneness, insert an instant-read thermometer into the center of the meat. It should read 160°-165°F (71°-74°C).

Remove from the oven and transfer the roast to a warmed platter; cover loosely with aluminum foil and set aside in a warm place. Using a slotted spoon, transfer the onions to a bowl and cover to keep warm. Pour the juices from the pan into a medium saucepan. Let stand for a few minutes to allow the fat to rise to the surface, then skim off the fat with a large spoon and discard. Stir the cornstarch mixture into the juices, place over medium-low heat and bring to a boil, stirring constantly. When the mixture thickens, season to taste with salt and pepper. If it thickens too much, add a little water or wine to thin to the proper consistency. Return the onions to the sauce and coat well.

To serve, cut the meat into ½" slices (12 mm) and layer them on the platter. Surround the meat with the onions and their sauce. Garnish with the thyme sprigs. Serves 6.

Sink your teeth into a sinfully satisfying gourmet dessert

Chocolate. Cream puffs. Champagne truffles. If, at this moment, you could have whatever dessert you wanted, however sinful it may be, what would you choose?

The holidays are a time to indulge in all things lavish — after all, that's how New Year's resolutions are born. Whether entertaining guests or looking to satisfy your almost-criminal sweet tooth, nothing is more tantalizing to the taste buds than a rich and silky dessert.

In a food processor, purée raspberries, including syrup. Force purée through a fine sieve into a heavy saucepan, pressing hard on solids, and boil purée, stirring occasionally, until reduced to about one cup. Cool purée and chill.

Lightly toast walnuts and cool completely. Chop walnuts. Have ready a large bowl of ice and cold water. In a metal bowl with a hand-held electric mixer, beat together eggs, sugar and honey until combined well. Set bowl over a pan of simmering water and beat mixture until pale, thick and an instant-read thermometer registers 160 F. Set bowl over bowl of ice water and beat until cold. In another bowl with cleaned beaters, beat cream until it just holds stiff peaks and fold with walnuts into egg mixture gently but thoroughly. Alternately spoon raspberry purée and cream mixture into six 6-ounce glasses, and swirl with a wooden skewer. Freeze parfaits, covered, at least eight hours and up to, two days. Let parfaits stand at room temperature 15 minutes before serving.

Make the holidays a hit this year with this dreamy recipe for raspberry swirl parfaits — indulge and enjoy!

Common hangover cure could cause liver damage

Whether it's spiked eggnog at family gatherings, mulled wine at office parties or champagne on new Year's Eve - the holidays offer plenty of opportunities to drink too much alcohol.

Drinking in moderation is the only foolproof way to prevent a hangover, but Dr. William Lee can offer advice for all who consume alcohol.

"It is commonplace to reach for a bottle of pain relievers to alleviate symptoms associated with a hangover, but doing so can cause liver damage," says Lee, professor of internal medicine at UT Southwestern Medical Center at Dallas.

In a study last year, Lee found that people who took small overdoses of medication containing acetaminophen - the key ingredient in Tylenol - when drinking alcohol suffered serious liver damage. The risk was especially apparent for heavy drinkers and those who had been fasting.

Lee recommends taking aspirin or other non-steroidal agents to relieve discomfort.

Dear Marilyn,
 May there be peace in your life and may your footsteps safely guide you. Never a day goes by that we don't remember the times we shared and it hurts to know you will not be with us this year. Remember, He came humbly into our world to bring us the gift of peace and quietly into our lives to give us the light of his love. May He gently come to fill your heart and home with the light and warmth of His love this Christmas. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

I love you,
 Dad

Lions take the sting out of the Kermit Yellowjackets

By Michelle Holtz
STOCKMAN SPORTSWRITER

The Lions took on the Kermit Yellow Jackets last Friday at Davidson Gym. The Lions were in the lead at the end of the first quarter 17-10. You could hear the Lions roar as they continued to out score the Yellow Jackets 33-20 at the end of the first half. The Lions hit a wild streak as they out scored Kermit in the first, second and third quarters of the ball game.

In the fourth quarter the Yellow Jackets began to swarm the Lions to out score the Lions for the first time in the game. However, the Lions were too much for the Kermit Yellow Jackets to handle as the Lions won the game 69-53 leaving them with a 9-5 win-loss record for the season. Dustin Faught led the Lions with 22 points, 10 rebounds, 6 steals, 3 assists and 3 blocks. Peter Rodriguez had 13 points, four steals, two assists, one block and one rebound to lead the Lions to their ninth victory.

Other Lions scoring were Jomie Tebbetts, Bobby Cervantez, Glenn Sutton, Ross Crawford, Chad Myers, Brad Sullivan and Seth Webster.

Ladies scalp the Lady Braves

By Michelle Holtz
STOCKMAN SPORTSWRITER

Last Friday the Lady Lions traveled to Iraan and returned with another victory under their belt when they showed the Iraan Lady Braves how to play basketball.

Starting for the Lady Lions were Kelli Anne Goble, Kayla Turland, Kristi Avila, Diana Ellison and Angela Branch.

The Lady Lions got off to a slow start as the Lady Braves out scored the Ladies 9-3 in the first quarter. However, at the half it was obvious that the Lady Lions had taken control of the game and were up by 6 points, score at the half 20-14.

The Lady Braves tried to regain control in the third quarter, but the Lady Lions wouldn't allow this to come about as they out scored the Lady Braves 16-13 at the end. The Ladies continued their assault defeating the Lady Braves 53-35.

Diana Ellison and Angela Branch led the Ladies in scoring with 14 points each and Kelli Anne Goble posted 11 more points to help lead the Ladies to another victory.

Other scorers were Kristi Avila, Donika Martinez, Michelle Gann, Millie Wadsworth and Codi Richardson. The Lady Lions move to 12-2 win-loss record for the season.

Random Reindeer Facts

- Reindeer live in the very cold arctic regions of North America, Europe and Asia.
- Wild reindeer eat moss, lichen and grass.
- Domestic reindeer eat hay and grain.
- Reindeer are excellent swimmers. Their special coats enable them to float high in the water.
- In Lapland, reindeer are used as pack animals. People drink reindeer milk and use the milk to make cheese.
- Reindeer live together in groups called herds. In a family, the male is called a buck, the female is a doe, and a baby reindeer is a fawn.
- Both male and female reindeer have antlers. In springtime, the antlers begin to grow and are covered with a velvety hair. The velvet begins to get dry and itchy in the fall, and the reindeer rub it off. Their antlers are shiny and smooth until midwinter, when they fall off.
