Girls Basketball Squad Working Out Daily; Winning Team Prospects Good

Basketball practice for the Muleshoe girls' team began Monday, August 30, with a good workout. These workouts take place everyday and if you see some girls limping around you will know it is the result of basketball practice. This will last only a short time as the girls have just got out of training since last year. These girls are very determined to be winners this year, and from the looks of things, prospects are very good.

The girls' coach is Bill Taylor, formerly of Kress. It seems Muleshoe won a trophy last year which Coach Taylor had his heart set on winning. Like anyone else in his position, Coach didn't like the loss. However, being the good-natured guy he is, Mr. Taylor is willing to forget the whole matter and do his best to help us win the trophies this year.

The girls have not as yet elected a manager or captains but will do so before the season

Tech's Beef Cattle Center in Lubbock next Saturday morning. Kathy Pollard of Stegall won first in the county show while a cousin, Larry Pollard, from Bula won second followed by Wesley Warren of Maple.

Bailey Griffiths stood in fourth place. Fifth was won by George Lynn Thomson of Progress with sixth going to Richard Coleman of Maple and seventh to Burt Kitchens who lives ten miles southwest of Muleshoe.

Howard Pollard is caretaker of a fine Poland China male purchased from Texas Tech and will also compete for district honors Saturday at Tech against fifteen Panhandle South Plains counties.

Soil Field Day Set Monday Sept. 13

The soil conservation tour sponsored by the Blackwater Valley Soil Conservation District, Muleshoe State Bank, and the Chamber of Commerce is going to be one of the highlights of this year's agriculture activities.

The tour will begin promptly at 9:00 at the County Courthouse in Muleshoe and cover ten farms in Bailey County. From an educational standpoint and practical use of soil conservation advice, this tour will point out many of the basic fundamentals in soil conservation.

The following practices in soil conservation will be seen and commentaries on the individual farms will be made by J. K. Adams, County Agent, M. C. Pennington, work unit conservationist, and the farmer practicing a particular phase. The tour will cover everything from alfalfa on bench leveled land to underground concrete tile; irrigated pastures, cowpeas interplanted with grain sorghums, spring-seeded alfalfa where nurse crop was used, soybeans, concrete lined irrigation ditch and diversified farming.

Following this tour of farms will be the big barbecue served by the Rotary Club of Muleshoe at the Bill Jim St. Clair farm, 12 noon.

Extension South Main Made Possible As City Acquires Right Of Way

Right of way for extending Main Street south to an intersection of Morton highway has been given to the City of Muleshoe by the new owners of Muleshoe Ranch.

Mayor W. T. Bovell announcing the transaction, said the extension has long been a pet project of city officials an interested citizens. The right of way extends from the south city limits from the Boy Scouts property and the deed includes a plot of ground between the proposed road and the highway, which at some future time might be developed as a park or some other public place. The deed conveyed 3.9 acres to the city without cost.

Mr. Bovell said it is hoped that Main Street paving will be extended from the Arnold Morris Auto corner to the intersection with the highway.

He said the city now has the right of way and the city and county will do the dirt work, and he believes the state highway department will cooperate to pave the stretch. He has taken the matter up with Mr. McCarty, the district engineer in Lubbock, pointing out that the development would help to divert local traffic especially away from the highway which is rather congested here in town.

BABSON DISCUSSES—

Business Ethics

Babson Park, Mass., Sept. 9. — I wonder how many of my readers have been misled lately by the rash of exaggerated claims and bait advertising on radio, television, and in certain magazines. Yes, and in mail-order advertising also.

EXAGGERATION—MAGNIFIQUENT!

How glowing should the advertisements be that a company uses to describe its products? When do these superlatives trespass upon the bounds of good taste?

By ROY DYER

A new filmed television series called "Norby" has got underway. It will be filmed in a new process developed by Eastman Kodak, which will also sponsor the series. The project is big enough to have induced actor David Wayne to drop out of his leading role in New York's Pulitzer Prize winning play, "Tea House of the August Moon." He's to be the star of the "Norby" plays.

Many viewers may think the video announcer has a pretty easy time of it, but listen to the schedule of free-lancing announcer Joe Alfred. In a recent week he arranged his schedules to do his regular announcing chores in New York on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday he was in Hollywood for the filming of another series and commercials. During the week he had to make six cross-country flights! That should set some kind of a record.

Mario Lanza is a changed man. Instead of the prima donna they expected to find, writers for the new "Shower of Stars" show, one of which features the robust singer, finds that Lanza is giving them ammunition to kid himself about his antics, and his weight. He even came up with some jokes of his own that were added to the script.

Voices like Lanza's will be adding a big sound to this year's televising. And you can be sure of top audio as well as video pleasure when your new PHILCO TV set is installed in your home. For the finest in sight and sound, it's PHILCO TV from DYER HARDWARE and FURNITURE, Phone 2590, Muleshoe.

How far can the truth be stretched and still resemble credibility? At what point does the customer lose his faith not just in some product, but in businessmen as a whole? All tobaccos can't be the best! All cars can't give the greatest number of miles per gallon. All detergents can't wash the whitest. Or, is something happening to the English language — or to our ethics, maybe?

Take toothpaste, for example. First, it was ammoniated; then it was chlorophyllated; tomorrow, it will be fluoridated! And, at this point the American Dental Association doesn't think it at all funny. The doctors have been carrying on their own research with the claims of various manufacturers. Their findings were keynoted at their 94th Annual Convention when they said that any inference that ammoniated or chlorophyllated cleaners are effective against decay is pure speculation. Certain sales and advertising claims were branded as "ridiculous" and recommendations were made that they be considered by the Pure Food & Drug Administration.

CERTAIN AUTOMOBILE SALESMEN

Complaints about bait advertising are currently flooding Better Business Bureaus across the country. Only a short time ago our Secretary of the Interior made a blistering attack on the ethics of automobile salesmen in a declining market. Boldly dishonest and scarehead advertising has appeared in recent weeks from coast to coast.

Unfortunately, even a few large-city, thoroughly reliable newspapers have been used to promote questionable ethical practices. For instance, one electrical appliance was recently advertised for sale. Salesmen were instructed to use the "on sale" technique was to upgrade the customer to a more expensive model. If the salesman failed to do this, and was forced to sell the "on sale" model to his customer, he was fined. This fine was placed in a kitty and was given to the salesman who sold the greatest number of the more expensive models. The sales manager who conceives this kind of sales gimmick either has a hole in his head, or ought, maybe, to have one put there! There is nothing that will kill a customer's faith faster in a company or a product than that kind of misrepresentation.

ETHICS AND DISCOUNTS

"Bootlegging" is not always a fair term. What is illegal about an honest laissez-faire policy? Free trade has always been held to be both legal and beneficial, and the law of the land has heretofore protected this free enterprise. It strikes me that the kind of selling that some people are calling "bootlegging" or "dis-counting" may be more in keeping with American free enterprise than price-fixing and the legislation of profit margins. However, I may be wrong.

These are times to weigh advertising, to question certain salesmen, and to buy cautiously. A buyer's market does not mean the end of good business or of good business ethics. It does mean, apparently, that the boys in business will try the tricks of boys. The true businessmen will survive because they know that a fair deal, courteous service, and honesty today are bound to return in the form of loyal customers and better sales tomorrow. Ninety per cent of the newspapers know this and are seeking to help such honest businessmen. These newspapers turn down all advertising which they feel will not benefit their readers. Yet, these newspapers like dollars as well as you do. I appeal to you to help support these local papers in every possible way.

SAND HILLS PHILOSOPHER WILLING

For Government To Gain Diplomatic Victory Over Him, European Style

Editor's note: The Sand Hills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm may have a good idea this week but he won't get anywhere with it.

Dear editor: I don't know anything about international diplomacy, don't even know anything about local diplomacy or I'd figure out a way to pacify my neighbor when my cows jump my fence into his pasture, but I was reading the other day about some international diplomacy which interests me.

According to this item, the United States has just succeeded in getting West Germany or maybe it was East Germany, I forget which, to accept a big shipment of food from us, free of course, and some officials in Washington hailed this as a great diplomatic victory.

Today's Meditation

GOD WORKS THROUGH YOUTH

Read Mark 6:7-13. So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you also that are in Rome. (Romans 1:15, ASV.)

Although there were already Christians in Rome, the Apostle Paul wanted to go there. He had something to give everywhere because he belonged to Christ. Since Christ had come into the world, Paul wanted to keep going into the world.

"To be a Christian is to be a missionary"—this was the theme of a youth camp in South India. The Christian youth people there were saying something to themselves and not merely framing a catch phrase for the headlines of a program. Because they realized the universal obligation that is in the Gospel of Christ, they were to be missionaries. During the camp when the call was made for missionary work in and beyond their own state, fifteen young men and women responded.

Christ's mission for the Church always has new beginnings. It begins with anyone, wherever he may be who realizes what it means to be a Christian.

PRAYER

Eternal Father, whose love has called us to Thyself, enable us now in grateful obedience to know how Thy love in Christ sends us into the world. Give each of us this longing and desire that all men may know the glory and power of Thy coming in Jesus Christ Thy Son. In His name we pray, Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

"To be a Christian is to be a missionary."

Roland W. Scott (India)

I have pondered this a long time and have decided I wish the government would win a few diplomatic victories over me.

For example, say the government has some surplus hay on hand and wants to let me have some, just to keep my friendship. If all I had to do was act like I wouldn't think of accepting any of that hay, ignore their offer, draw myself up in a dignified huff, and hold off a while, then magnanimously un-bend and agree that after thinkin this matter over for several days and in the interest of international harmony I have decided to go ahead and accept a few loads, if they'd stack it in the barn, of course, I believe I could carry out the part and would be perfectly willin to let the government hall me as another diplomatic victory.

Or say I was passin by a store in town and the owner rushed out on the sidewalk, drug me inside, and insisted I accept a couple of shirts and a pair of shoes, just to give him another diplomatic victory. This thing has great possibilities. If more people would forget about economics and brush up on diplomacy.

If you hear of anybody anywhere, whether it's the government or individuals, who are interested in practicing diplomacy in this fashion, I will be glad to serve as a sort of provin grounds. I can think of dozens of diplomatic victories they could win out here on my Johnson grass farm.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

The practical value of understanding God as the source of all true substance will be stressed at Christian Science services Sunday in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Substance."

Selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following (301:17-20): "As God is substance and man is the divine image and likeness, man should wish for, and in reality has, only the substance of good, the substance of Spirit, not matter."

From the Bible will be read the following passages from Psalms (37:3-5): "Trust in the Lord, and do good; so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed. Delight thyself also in the Lord; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart. Commit thy way unto the Lord; and trust also

Cong. Mahon Back In The District

Congressman George Mahon has returned from Washington and opened his Lubbock office in the Post Office Building. He said that at present he had no special plans except to attend to official business and visit among the people. Congress adjourned August 20 and is not scheduled to reconvene until January 5.

Mahon, in commenting on the Congressional session, stated, "The Republicans claim that a wonderful job was done. Democratic leaders take a dim view of accomplishments. It is, in my opinion, fair to say that Congress on the whole, did a reasonably good job. Along with most Democrats, I voted for much of the program. But on many measures there were sharp differences of opinion.

I strongly opposed the Administration's program to scuttle the 90% of parity support program for agriculture and replace it with the sliding scale system. In my opinion, the new program is no answer whatever to our farm problem. Agriculture will sustain a terrific setback without corresponding benefits to the consumer and taxpayer. There is a farm problem, but the flexible support program is not the answer to it."

First Christian Calls Rev. Todd

First Christian Church of Muleshoe has called Rev. James Todd, of Stinnett, to be pastor here. The congregation took unanimous action Sunday morning after the matter had been acted upon by the pulpit committee and the board.

Rev. Todd, who is pastor of the First Christian Church at Stinnett, is not expected to come on the local field for about two months since he will resign there and give ample time for that in him; and he shall bring it to pass."

The session was dismissed with a prayer. Next meeting will be September 16, and all members are urged to study chapters four, five, and six, and to be present from 3:00 to 5:00 p. m., for this interesting lesson.

O. C. Thomsons Find Wondrous Farm Developments During 11 State Tour

"Muleshoe area is not the only Garden Spot in the U. S.", is the interesting information brought back by O. C. Thomson, who with a party of several others has returned from a 5,000 mile trip to the north and northwest. It's also revealing, since the statement itself shows he thinks this is a Garden Spot which no one will deny.

But Mr. Thomson, veteran agriculturist, says we have a long way to go in developing our country like some sections of Kansas, for instance are developed. Out on the Plains of the "Sunflower State" near Topeka, he saw some of the most wonderful crops growing, corn, hay, grasses, and fat cattle and he says the farmsteads are neat, clean, and reflect an air of prosperity and pride of ownership.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomson and son, John F., went from here to Parsons, Kans. to visit with Mr. and Mrs. George Stotts, their former neighbors out in Progress community. The Stotts just got ready and went with them.

After visiting with the family of a sister of Mrs. Thomson in Scotts Bluff, Neb., the party toured Yellowstone National Park, then cut across a corner of Montana into Idaho and on to Burns, Ore., where they had been aiming to wind up all the time. The two men were interested in a land development around Burns, where shallow water like here is available. Two men from Hereford already have bought farms there. But our men learned that you don't hit water every time you dig and sort of shied off. However, they're going to put a dam across the Silvie's River near Burns and expect to be able to irrigate 80,000 acres of potentially fine land in the Arney Basin. They already irrigate some from snows of the mountains and raise fine potatoes, small grains, and alfalfa.

Then the party set off on a sightseeing tour into California and back to Reno, Nev. The two men had plans to "break the bank" at one of those famous Reno places but there were "No Vacancy" signs everywhere and they drove on to Fallon, Nev. They spent Saturday night in that area; it was Saturday night before the Monday earthquake struck in a wide territory.

In Ogden, Utah, they visited a brother of Mrs. Thomson's then went to see Salt Lake City. The beautiful state capitol features a huge main room that has about 30 marble columns, very tall, all in one piece, brought in from Georgia. The gold room, which is the Governor's reception room is actually finished in gold the furniture trimmed in solid gold. The carpet bears the same design as the designs on gold trimmed panels on the walls.

In the Mormon Tabernacle they were way back from the altar but easily heard the pin drop, so perfect are the acoustics of that great building. The pipe organ was placed in the building around 1867; the whole building looks as if the workmen had just finished with it.

On through Colorado the party went and thought Rocky Mountain National Park has more impressive scenery than Yellowstone. After some sightseeing around Colorado Springs they journeyed east to Parsons and a last interesting experience — seeing the world's biggest well, 32 feet in diameter, 109 feet deep, stairs led down to the bottom and the local people found it the only cool spot in Kansas.

Back home they hurried after touring 11 states, to find that it had rained bountifully and the Thomson's son, Dan, home on leave and running things was phoning everywhere to get dad's advice about turning off the irrigation pumps.

IN CROSBYTON

Spending the last two weeks in Crosbyton, were Mr. and Mrs. Terry Lee Harvey, who visited with Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Fowler.

VISITED SON

Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Bass visited in Midland last week with their son, Raymond Bass and family. Raymond has two boys now, Vance and Greg. Leaving Midland they went to Dallas, where they spent two days. They returned home by way of Quanah, where they visited with his brother.

Ted Haberer Had First Earth Bale

EARTH, Sept. 6 — Ted Haberer, farmer northwest of Earth, today was slated to collect $570 in cash and merchandise offered by Earth businessmen to the producer of the first 1954 bale of cotton in the Earth area.

Haberer's 480 pound bale was ginned from 2,100 pounds of seed cotton Saturday morning at the Earth Gin Co., gin, operated by Belew and Johnson. It was grown on land owned by C. D. Rogers and graded 15/16 staple.

This year is the first time a premium has been offered the producer of the first bale. Earth Jaycees were sponsors of the move to offer cash and merchandise prizes.

Rotarians Learn About Muleshoe Football Outlook

Rotarians learned a lot about football and especially the outlook for the Mules squad of Muleshoe high school at their luncheon Tuesday.

Head Coach Leroy Scott, Assistant Coach Bill Taylor, and three co-captains, Eugene Shaw, Keith Buhrman, and R. L. Gahbert were present for the meeting and afterwards each made short talks.

Coach Scott reviewed the coming season, describing each team that the Mules will come up against; in most cases the opponents appear to be somewhat heavier and most of these opponents have more experienced men back.

The Mules are starting off with only 6 lettermen back. All three boys thought they will have a good chance against Hereford Friday night for they believe their teammates will make up in fight and spirit what they may be shy in avoidpoups. Coach Taylor expressed his pleasure at being here in this community and having his work with these boys who have shown a lot of spirit and cooperation.

The Mules go to Hereford Friday night to tangle with the Whitefaces, then come back to open the season here September 10. J. M. Forbes had charge of the program. B. A. Dalton introduced the Rotarian of the month, who happens to be the exchange student from Germany, now attending Muleshoe high school.

Homemaking Girls Instructed In Care For Skin and Hair

Last Thursday morning between the hours of 11 and 12 girls of the Homemaking 1 Class of Muleshoe High School, enjoyed a very instructive demonstration on skin care. Mrs. Raleigh Mason, owner of the Merle Norman Cosmetic Studio in Muleshoe gave the demonstration. She talked to the girls on the application of make-up. Mrs. Mason then gave a complete facial demonstration on one of the girls of the class. She began by taking her make-up off, after which she applied Merle Norman Cosmetics.

Each girl in the class was examined by Mrs. Mason, who told them which colors of make-up were best suited to their skin tone. Friday morning at the same hour, the girls enjoyed a very interesting talk on hair styling, by Curtis Wellborn, of the Wellborn Beauty Shop. Mr. Wellborn discussed several of the new hair styles, and told each girl the hair style best suited for her.

Band Boosters Met Thursday Evening

Nineteen members were present as the Band Boosters held their first meeting of the new year in the band room at the High School, Thursday evening, September 2.

Band Booster membership cards this year are only $1, compared to $2.50 last year. Anyone who is interested in having a good band, and who is willing to donate their time, is invited to join the Boosters. Parents of band students are especially urged to join. The new band director, Norvil Howell, presented some of his plans for the band this year.

Several plans were discussed for use of money raised by the club. Among plans discussed was the one to use money for band uniforms.

The Boosters have both concession stands at the football field this year, and will sell hot dogs, cold drinks, coffee, pop corn, candy and chewing gum. They will also sell fruit cakes for Thanksgiving and Christmas. Give your order to some member of the Boosters, and your cake will be here when you want it. Boosters will clean the concession stands Thursday evening, September 16, and all members are asked to help.

Regular meeting night has been set for the second Thursday evening of each month. If a called meeting is necessary, members will receive a post card.

New officers elected for the coming year were: president, Troy Wilkerson; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. J. T. Shofner; and reporter, Mrs. T. W. Berry.

Proper Seeding Essential For Good Stand Of Alfalfa

Within the past few days farmers in the Blackwater Valley Soil Conservation District have begun land preparation and seeding of alfalfa.

Experiences in this area have indicated that proper seed bed preparation is a pre-requisite to getting a good stand established. Alfalfa is a perennial crop and when planted normally remains on the land from four to six years. It is, therefore, desirable that areas planted to alfalfa be as level as possible. Such preparation will usually result in a better and more efficient distribution of irrigation water.

Several methods have been successfully used in seeding alfalfa, but for this area drills and cultipackers seem to be the most popular. Seeding rates vary from fifteen to twenty-five pounds per acre depending on the individual desires. Seed should be planted 1/4 to 3/4 inches deep and followed by an irrigation where practicable.

A nurse crop such as oats is sometimes used to protect the young seedlings from blowing sand. This practice is particularly desirable when the alfalfa is planted late in the season. August 15 to September 15 has proven to be the best time for seeding alfalfa in this district.

Many benefits other than the production of hay have been realized from alfalfa. It affords a protective cover to the soil, breaks up compacted "plow pans", opens the soil to enable a desirable penetration of water, and adds organic matter to the soil. Production of crops following alfalfa has been increased from one-third to one-half. The increased production alone has been inducement enough so that many farmers in this area now use alfalfa in a crop rotation on their farms.

ACP REGULAR PROGRAM ALLOCATIONS INCREASED

Bailey County ACP allocations for practices to be carried out under the regular ACP program has been increased.

Anyone wishing to carry out some practice now such as Winter Cover Crop, may make application at the ASC office in Muleshoe. The period will remain open until the present funds are exhausted.

Letters to the Editor

FORMER RESIDENTS WANT MORE CROP NEWS

Newburg, Ore.
Aug. 27, 1954

Dear Editor:

Some time ago I subscribed for The Muleshoe Journal to keep in touch with everything in Bailey County, and I am very disappointed so far in the paper as you never say anything about how the crops are growing or anything about the weather conditions down there.

We are former residents of Bailey County, so that is the reason we are very much interested in how everything is progressing down there, and we hope to return in the near future and settle around Muleshoe.

So if it isn't asking too much of you, would you please put a small item in the paper once in a while to let us know how the crops and the weather are? If you would do this we would highly appreciate it.

Yours truly,
Mrs. W. K. Corder
600 S. River St.
Newberg, Ore.

Criminy: I thought that was about all we had in the paper. We could have said in every issue since October: "Dry and Windy". But Mrs. Corder wrote the letter before we printed last week's paper telling all about the rain. We can tell the Corders that crops on irrigated land are good; and they are good in some spots where it's dry land; but pretty much crops are poor on a lot of land that's not irrigated, and on some land no crops at all.

But it's a good criticism and we'll try to remedy the situation — Editor.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Don Barbour and children, of Clovis, N. M., visited Friday night in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Barbour.

THANKS

I want to thank my many friends who voted for me in the Democratic Run-off election, for the office of County Judge and Ex-Officio County Superintendent.

Although I did not receive the nomination, I do want to thank my friends that worked for me, and in any way contributed to my campaign for the office.

It has been a pleasure and privilege to serve the people of Bailey County during the years I have been a County Official, and wish to assure you of my cooperation with the elected officials, and will continue to work in the interest of the Citizens of the County.

Sincerely,
Cecil H. Tate
