When Reagan County found a hole in the Lions defense, inevitably Ozona would push back and push back hard Friday night.

The defense would manage to keep the Owls scoreless while the Lions offense racked up 21 points for Ozona's second win of the season.

"We felt the defense played a tremendous ball game," said Coach Jeff Streun. "Coach (Matt) Gutierrez continually has the defense ready to play each week. We had some key fourth down stops."

Reagan County would get the ball first, but they wouldn't keep it for long as Jared Espino intercepted the ball to put the Lions up on their own 21-yard line. J.D. Borrego would then rush for 24 yards to get to the Ozona 42-yard line.

Vince Castro and Borrego would move the ball down the field to the Owls' 29-yard line.

Quarterback Jordan Long would then connect with Trey Collis for a 15-yard pass to put the Lions into scoring territory. The Reagan County defense would hold the Lions back from a touchdown bringing up a 9-yard field

LEVI VARGAS (right) intercepts the ball as Jack Rodriguez (far left) and Nick Perez (center) clears a path. Vargas ran the ball to the Reagan County 20-yard line, which then set up a 20-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Jordan Long to receiver Trey Collis on the next play at Friday's game.

THE OZONA HIGH SCHOOL BAND received a Division II rating this past weekend at the University Interscholastic League Contest in Brady. The band's performance was a Walt Disney theme this year, with "Arabian Nights" from "Aladdin," "Under the Sea" percussion feature from "The Little Mermaid" and the "Pirates of the Carribean." The band also received straight Division I's at the San Angelo Marching Festival on Oct. 9. The color guard, drumline and drum majors were also named Best 2A Auxiliary at San Angelo.

The Ozona High School Band performed at the University Interscholastic League Marching Contest this past weekend in Brady.

The band received scores of Division I, II and II from three judges.

The most experienced judge gave the band a 1, commented that the Ozona band was the best 2A band he had seen all day and gave nothing but positive comments to the band, said Band Director Sonny Bahlman.

"We are very proud the students, they performed well," said Bahlman and Assistant Band Director Gretchen Bloebaum. "This is the best band we've seen here yet."

Learning about life as a pioneer woman

By MELISSA PERNER
 Editor and Publisher

The work was often routine from dawn to dusk. There wasn't anything electrical, people bathed in used water and, if not careful, getting too close to a hot stove could set a person's clothes a blaze.

Such was the daily life of the pioneer woman as explained by Donna Hector during the annual Friends of the Crockett County Public Library meeting Oct. 11.

Donna, and her husband Greg, presented the program at the meeting about the lifestyles that women and children faced during the 1850s-1880s. The Hectors are retired school librarians that are in the transition of moving from Austin to Lohn in Coleman County. They are both living history re-enactors and have been for about 20 years.

"You quickly discover that this is a family oriented hobby," Donna said, who got involved with her husband when he discovered his great-great-grandfathers were Confederate soldiers.

During her presentation, Donna showed off her 1860s style blue dress, complete with the proper undergarments and a hoop skirt. Her see-through gloves were perfect

What's on My Mind

By Melissa Perner

Teamwork leads to surprising end results

If a fly is hanging out on the wall of my office on a Monday, I bet he's dizzy by the end of the day.

Phones are ringing, people are coming in and out, e-mails are constantly being checked and between all this a newspaper is being put together.

It's a dance my team conducts every week. We circle around each other pasting up articles, ads and photos that flow together to try and make the best paper possible for that week.

On Tuesdays we print and stuff inserts and by Wednesday afternoon that week's edition has been delivered.

It's a cycle that is never ending and flows every week.

The thing is, it takes everyone involved with paper, employees and community alike, to make this cycle complete.

Each person plays a different part, but all parts are important. That is what teamwork is all about, everyone working together to get to one goal.

When teamwork comes up, a sport is often the first thing that pops up. Every week I have seen this in action as I watch our football teams try to win the game, or our cross country teams running for the goal of winning the next meet.

Each person in both of these sports has a part to play. If the parts are not complete then the group is not a team.

Teamwork is everywhere. It's evident as our band marches on the field each week and comes home with awards and accolades. The group performs as one on the field but one misstep, one out of place person and the team is not a unity.

People sometimes say teamwork takes away independence, but I feel it enables people to gain more independence. It's always easier to try something new if you have someone to back you up.

The concept of teamwork was often difficult at my last job. Things often got scary when you suggested a new idea.

Change is something that many of us do not like, but as a team the end result can often be one that is positive.

Goals, interdependence, accountability and commitment are the elements that make up a good team.

All four elements combine together to make the team what it is.

Not all teams go together, but there are those that find the niche to bring all these elements together to make it work.

When it does work, the result often brings smiles to sad faces, hopes to the hopeless and lifts the spirits of all who is watching.

As people read this column, the sports teams are gearing up for another week, the band is rehearsing for one more performance and once again I'm tearing down another issue of the paper to get ready for next week.

There's something to the saying of "there's no I in team." Remember that team means together.

It's amazing what can be done if everyone works together.

Letters to the Editor

Students are aiming for higher test scores

As a school district employee and parent of two children in the Ozona schools I would like to ease Mr. Troy Williams' mind or should I say raise his head.

I don't know who he is but I doubt he keeps up with the day to day education of the students here. I can assure you that we are all aiming for higher scores and working together to achieve them.

I hope that he has looked deeper than just the "label" that was given to us. Our district has many strengths and certainly some weaknesses, too. I must say it is a good thing Mr. Williams isn't in the education field because making such a negative comment

We welcome your letters. Not all will be published, those that are chosen will be found on page 2.

To submit a letter, mail us at The Ozona Stockman, P.O. Box 370, Ozona, Texas 76943 or email at publisher@ozona.com. Please include name, address, phone number and email if available.

and telling of being "embarrassed" would never get very far.

We must work with a positive attitude. Thankfully we have more than just negative things to say.

Do you also place positive comments in the newspaper when they are warranted? I think not.

Mr. Williams this is the 21 century and we are dealing with things that no one had any idea we would ever have to deal with.

I'm very pleased with my children's education and have the confidence that all of us in our schools will do what is necessary with or without your support.

Allison McGuire

Defamatory, libelous and/or profane language will reject any letter out of hand. Letters should not exceed 250 words.

Fireman were called out Monday night shortly after 7 p.m. to a garage apartment on 606 Ave. G, owned by C.W. Taliaferro and rented by Earl Sandridge. Heat and smoke damage was heavy. The cause was a gas space heater which burned a hole in the gas line, igniting the escape gas and creating quite a blaze.

A new parking lot for the high school is under construction on Avene E. Parking space is being prepared behind a little park of grass and pecan trees which makes a nice front for any parking lot.

It's the Pitts

By Lee Pitts

He Got His Goat

Along with his brother, Lex is owner of one of the largest cattle auctions in the country. The dynamic duo owns a feedlot, sell numerous purebred cattle sales, run cattle and make their living entirely from the cattle business.

So what species did Lex's daughter, Lexie, show at the county fair?

Considering the family's involvement in the cattle business a show steer would be a good guess. Or a replacement heifer.

But no, Lexie proudly led into the show ring a goat! Now, I happen to like goats both in person and in the flesh and could have excused Lexie and her father if the goat had been a practical meat type or milking goat. But no, Lexie is a raiser of fainting goats.

Fainting goats got their name because they faint when frightened. Their degree of stiffness depends on how startled they are.

Whereas a mild scare may only produce a little stiffening of the joints, a real fright will make them fall over and appear deader than a can of corned beef.

An informed source told me that if you can really surprise a fainting goat it appears that rigor mortis has set in. The fainting is caused by a genetic condition in which the muscle cells experience prolonged contraction when a fainting goat is startled.

The goosey goats were propagated and used in the raising of sheep hundreds of years ago because whenever a band of wolves came snooping around a flock of sheep the goats would get scared, faint and fall down. This caused the wolves to howl with hysterical laughter and bend over in merry mirth, thus giving the sheep time to escape.

When I confronted Lex about his daughter's traitorous behavior he told me that it was his brother's fault Lex's place looked like a triage unit for ailing goats. You see, Brother Shawn had gone to an exotic animal sale in search of a two humped camel. (Why, you may ask? Please don't try to make any sense of the actions of these two brothers.)

At the sale Shawn saw two fainting nanny goats and, thinking they'd make a great conversation piece, he bought them both for forty dollars.

Then he noticed that there was also a fainting billy goat in the sale. But only one.

The owner of the billy goat knew that Shawn coveted his billy so he ran the bid up

Now, the other thing I forgot to tell you is that Shawn and Lex are both world champion livestock auctioneers. So they know a thing or two about auctions.

Shawn knew he was being run by the owner of the billy goat so he decided to stop abruptly when the bidding reached a hundred dollars.

That was evidently the magic number because the billy's owner did not raise his hand again. To get even Shawn went over to get his billy goat and said to the con-signor, "I'm sure glad I only had to pay $100 for this billy because I was prepared to pay $500." (Shawn told me the old goat nearly fainted. Which somehow seems fitting.)

Shawn started raising fainting goats in earnest for one non-economical purpose: To provide entertainment for backyard parties and barbecues. (Here I must warn PETA members not to read any further.)

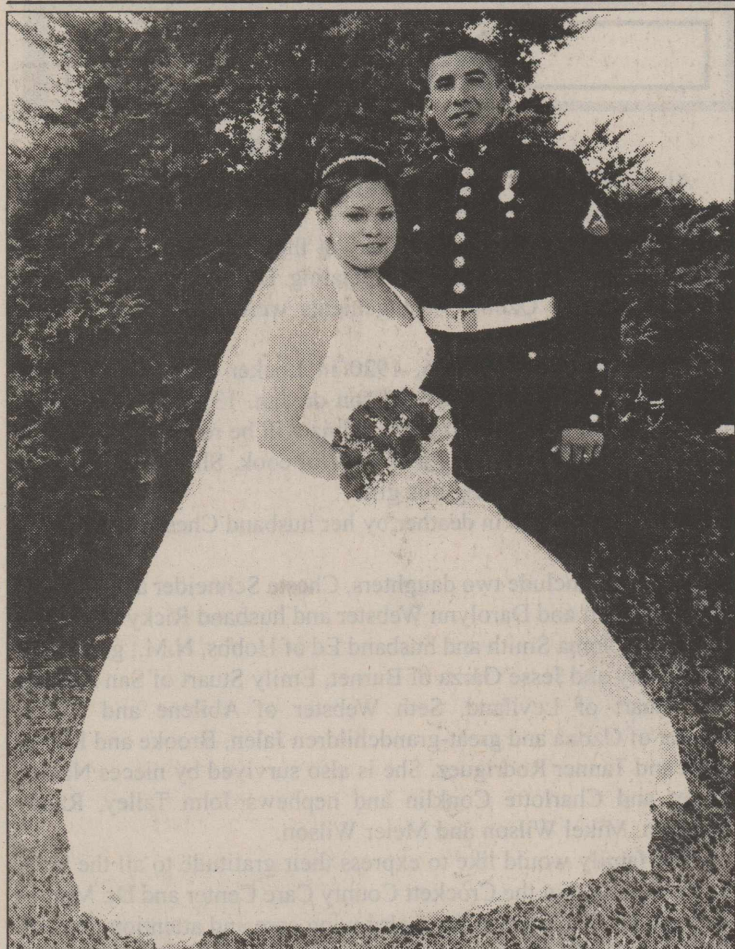

Whenever company came by Shawn took great pleasure in throwing a plastic bucket high in the air so that it would land right in the middle of his herd of jittery goats, causing everyone of them to simultaneously keel over. Ha, ha. Very funny.

When Shawn got divorced his brother Lex somehow got the fainting goats in the divorce settlement. (Personally, I think Shawn was trying to keep his wife from getting certain valuable assets that she was entitled to.)

And that's the long version of how Lexie ended up showing a goat at the county fair.

As a result of the divorce Shawn's parties are now very boring and he has several holes to fill in his lineup of entertaining animals. (I think he'd still give up to $500 for that two humped camel.)

But because the fainting goats have so sullied his reputation, Lex made his brother sign a prenuptial agreement with him specifying that Lex would not be the beneficiary of any more quirky creatures.

Ozona Garden Club News

Eleven members of the Ozona Garden Club met Oct. 11 at the Crockett County Civic Center for a short business meeting and a program "Organics Matter." The program was presented by Bruce Dueley and Malcomb Beck of Garden Ville in San Antonio. The community of Ozona was also invited to attend and enjoy the program.

The program was very informative and covered many aspects of organic gardening and organic ranching. Some of the areas discussed were what to do and what to use for fertilizing, controlling pests, improved growth and how organics help our environment. A slide presentation showed the differences between yards, gardens and ranches grown organically and those grown traditionally.

The following members attended the program: Charlotte Harrell, Mary Jo Mason, Celia West, Judy Jones, Marolyn Bean, Dorothy Montgomery, Bobbie Byrd, Pamela Maresch, Esther Williams, Debi Hamilton and Sharon Williams. Several people from Ozona and out-of-town also attended.

SYLVIA DEHOYOS (right) reads to students from Ozona Head Start on Oct. 13 at the Crockett County Public Library. The library recently received a $1,067 grant from the Libri Foundation for a new set of children's books.

CCPL is proud to announce receipt of a grant for children's books from the Libri Foundation of Oregon. Sixty two beautiful new highly recommended and award-winning children's books have been added to our collection thanks to the Foundation's BOOKS FOR CHILDREN program.

The Friends of the Library contributed $350.00 for the matching grant, and our library received $1,067.00 in quality, hardcover books that will be used for Story Hours, school assignments and Accelerated Reader tests, and of course, recreational reading by children.

The Libri Foundation is a nationwide non-profit organization that donates new children's books to small, rural public libraries in the United States. Since 1990, the Libri Foundation has donated over $1.84 million worth of new books to more than 1,600 rural libraries in 48 states.

The Foundation, by matching funds raised by the local Friends of the Library or other organization, enables a library to obtain children's books through their BOOKS FOR CHILDREN program that could not otherwise be acquired due to budgetary constraints. For many children in rural communities, the local public library is their primary source of books. The Libri Foundation supports the concept that children who learn to enjoy reading at an early age continue to read throughout their lives.

"I was able to select from over 700 fiction and nonfiction titles on the grant list that reflect the very best of children's literature published since 1999. All 700 titles have won awards or have been highly recommended by recognized authorities in the library and education fields. Our children's collection was badly in need of these wonderful books and I know they will be enjoyed by kids for years to come," said Librarian Louise P. Ledoux. "I sincerely thank the Libri Foundation for this great program. These books have upgraded and expanded our children's collection, and will provide a lasting source of excellent reading for parents and kids of all ages."

The Friends of the Library have also provided new shelving. Everyone is urged to visit the Public Library and browse through this new collection and see the refurbished Children's Room. Come check it out!

DENIS MORAN celebrated her 85th birthday with family and friends on October 9.

Denis Moran celebrates 85th birthday with family celebration

On the occasion of her 85th birthday, our mother, Denis Moran, thanked God for the many blessings He has given her. She went on to thank those members of her family who were present for making Oct. 9 such a special day.

Four of her five sons and their wives were present, as were 15 grandchildren, 22 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild. Numerous close friends and other family members helped make the occasion a very happy event.

A delicious meal of barbecue brisket, goat, sausage, chicken, potato salad, Spanish rice, beans and all the trimmings was served. A scrumptious, fresh strawberry birthday cake was the dessert on request.

Several games of bingo (the birthday lady's favorite pastime), were played and favorite family jokes and stories were shared. The most interesting, a story shared of the day when "Mami Nene and Papi Pin" met and their decision to marry.

Those not able to attend were one son, who lives in Wyoming, eight grandchildren, 13 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild.

Surveys at the care center a huge success

Benny Gibbs, administrator for the Crockett County Care Center informed The Ozona Stockman that both the health and the environmental aspects of the Care Center did exceptionally well for their 2004 annual survey.

On an annual basis, Texas Department of Human Services makes a surprise three day visit to the facility to examine the quality of care that the residents receive.

"Due to a great team effort exhibited by everyone during this year, the survey went very well," Gibbs said.

Gibbs said that the administrative tag was issued regarding the Care Center's call light system.

"I had already received a 'challenge grant' for a new system when our survey began," Gibbs said. "Unfortunately, we were cited for not being in compliance with our present system."

Gibbs said he hopes to have a new nurse call system implemented within the next 45 days and paid for with grant money.

"The grant request procedure is a very time consuming project but very well worth the effort," Gibbs said.

Gibbs also said that his staff is very knowledgeable at what they do and exhibit great talent on a daily basis.

At the request of the board of directors: Crockett County Care Center is asking for donations to help raise $10,000 for a new call light system. Donations can be sent to Benny Gibbs at the Crockett County Care Center, P.O. Box 640, Ozona, TX 76943

DEADLINE IS MONDAY AT NOON

The Donor

All of a sudden the phone rang but it didn't surprise them because they had been expecting it. The voice one the other end of the phone said, "You're a match!" Now came the hard time of making the decision to go and donate an organ or not. As the doctors talked to him, they didn't paint a very pretty picture.

The procedure could be a disaster and even lead to his death. There was no guarantee that the operation would even work. They had tested all the family members and no one was qualified or a match. He wasn't even kin by blood but yet he met the qualifications. In talking to the man who was to be the donor it brought to mind a similar event in the Bible.

It was when God wanted to help mankind. Mankind was in a very sick and dying state spiritually, (Isaiah 59:2) because they violated or disobeyed God's laws. Sin and separation had set in, (Romans 3:23 and 6:23).

There was only one who met the requirements (to have no sin 1 Peter 2:22) to be a donor and it was Jesus Christ. He gave His life at a place called The Skull, (John 19:17 & 18). Let us accept, (John 1:12), love and live for the one who freely gave His life for us and set us free.

See you in Church next Sunday.

PIONEER: Bathing water was used more than once

for visiting and doing needlework, as women in those days took their sewing with them to keep their hands busy, she said.

The white, inset sleeves Donna wore with her dress were practical during those days for washing, which took lots of time without indoor running water.

"Women in Texas had to have backbones of steel to survive," she said. "Women were always busy doing something."

When it came time to take a bath, the water would have to be pumped from a well or gathered from a nearby creek, heated up on the stove and then the head of the household, mainly the father, was allowed to bathe first. Then the oldest son, the mother, daughters and baby would each go next, Donna said.

The water was only warmed up for each person, not changed each time, she said.

"People didn't bathe a lot and some believed it was unhealthy," she said. "You have to remember though, that people back then didn't throw anything away, they recycled everything."

A simple potato masher was used to mash everything needed for the meal, not just the potatoes or the handle of a ladle may have come from a tool once used by a soldier.

She also showed a twine holder, where a ball of twine was placed inside with a hole in the top so the twine could be pulled out and cut as needed.

"People were very resourceful," she said. "When I broke my platter, I cried. What did people do then; they glued it back together and went on."

Unlike the movies, where women are often portrayed riding in the covered wagon, the real pioneer women walked to Texas along side their children, Donna said.

The wagons contained food and supplies. Any more weight and the horses or oxen pulling them would have found the wagons too heavy.

"Your china got left behind. You ate on a tin plate and your silverware was very sharp because often you were cooking over an open fire," Donna said.

Disease was big factor in pioneer life. Since medicines and doctoring was not really known about, there was often a person peddling some "cure all" medicine that was mostly 50-80 percent alcohol, Donna said.

The most lethal weapon in the house, was the ladle used for to drink water out of, often used by the whole family.

"When men went to war, measles, mumps and chicken pox killed more of them than gunshots," Donna said.

Other items Donna presented included a set of painted dominoes, an old checker board, hand-made purses, various hats and a courting candle. The candle, surrounded by a twirling cast iron holder, was light when a man and a woman were "courting."

If the woman didn't like the man, she could ask him, politely, to leave when the candle got down to the first ring. However, if the woman liked the man, she could twirl the candle up and up making it tall before it hit the first ring, Donna said.

"Father's often wanted their daughters married off by 16 so they could be out of the house, or so the son-in-law could help work," she said.

Donna also read from some of the various books about pioneer women that she brought. In between, Greg played songs on his banjo.

The couple said they enjoy "making history come alive" especially to young people to teach them and also to older people to remind them.

"We don't go anywhere where we don't learn something," Donna said.

'Plant-Herbivore Interaction' workshop for ranchers Nov. 16-18

Farmers and ranchers can learn about livestock and wildlife food and habitat selection at a three-day workshop titled "Plant-Herbivore Interactions" scheduled Nov. 16-18 at the Texas A&M Extension Center, 7887 north U.S. Highway 87 in San Angelo.

Award-winning ranch manager and professor, Dr. Fred Provenza, will be teaching the short course on behavioral principles that underline plant-herbivore interactions.

For more than two decades, his emphasis has been on understanding the role of learning in food and habitat selection by herbivores.

He now conducts workshops across the United States to help land managers understand that information.

"The workshop is designed to help ranchers become aware of the principles of animal behavior as they pertain to food and habitat selection," said Mark Moseley, coordinator for Texas Coalition for Grazing Lands Conservation Initiative. "In these workshops, we explore issues in production agriculture, ecosystem restoration, grazing dispersment and many other principles of livestock and wildlife management in an ecosystem."

Ecosystem management is a decision-making process that can be used to achieve personal and community goals with economic, social and environmental objectives, Moseley said.

The workshop runs from 8 a.m.-5 p.m. daily. The cost is $15. Deadline for registration is Nov. 5.

The workshop is hosted in part by the Texas Coalition of the Grazing Lands Conservation Initiative, Angelo State University, Agriculture Department and the USDA-Natural Resources Conservation Service.

For information, or to register, call Moseley at (210) 472-5527 ext. 117 or e-mail at mark.moseley@tx.usda.gov or Dr. Cody Scott at 942-2027 ext. 284 or e-mail at Cody.Scott@angelo.edu.

NewBridge Family Shelter offers information on family violence

October is Family Violence Awareness Month. The topic of family violence is not a popular topic for most people. Many people in a community think family violence has nothing to do with their lives. This is far from the truth. Family violence is a community problem that can affect many people in an unpredictable instant. Family violence can explode into the workplace, be involved in unexplained fires in the community, hostage situations, shootings in school, and even death of innocent members of the Community. Law enforcement can pay with their lives when trying to protect people in a difficult situation. The children in a violent home are often killed in the cross fire. Think again if you believe family violence will never have anything to do with your lives.

There are five types of abuse: emotional, physical, mental, sexual and psychological abuse. All types of abuse are used as tools of control. The violent individual in a family has a habitual behavioral pattern that involves controlling the other individuals in his or her family. Family violence is a crime, which includes assault, sexual assault, child endangerment, terroristic threat, criminal trespass, violation of a protective order, retaliation, kidnapping, harassment, stalking, destruction of private property, dating violence and other crimes by statute.

The Outreach Program with the NewBridge Family Shelter in San Angelo provides alternatives to living in a violent household. The Outreach employees travel to the counties in the Concho Valley and offer services that can assist individuals in starting over their lives while moving in a positive direction. The counties include: Coke, Concho, Crockett, Irion, Mason, McCollough, Menard, Kimball, Reagan, Runnels, Schleicher, Sterling and Sutton. The goal of the program is to keep clients as safe as possible in their homes.

We also strive for them to be able to function independently of their partner if they so chose. Outreach provides confidential peer counseling for these counties, and offers crisis transportation to the NewBridge Family Shelter, and community referrals for job training, housing, education, income assistance, medical care and volunteer opportunities.

If they chose to relocate then they will be transported by us to the NewBridge Family Shelter at any time of the day or night. Outreach is a phone call away. Everyone can help by becoming involved and making that call.

The NewBridge Family Shelter 24-hour Crisis Hotline is 1 (325)-655-5774 or 1 (800)-749-8631.

The Ozona Eighth Grade Lions continued their winning streak Thursday night as they defeated the Reagan County Owls 14-6.

The Owls would give the Lions a run for their money, as Ozona had a tough time getting things started in the first quarter.

Reagan County would then get the ball at their own 18-yard line, but tackles by Matthew Garza, Matthew Komechak, Felix Venegas, Ben Flores and Jesse Ramos would stop the Owls giving the Lions another chance at the ball.

Ozona would once again struggle against the Reagan County defense making it 0-0 at the end of the first.

Tackles by Steven Silva, Daniel Gonzales, Flores and Venegas would stop Reagan County at the start of the second.

On the Lions next possession, Garza would throw a 35-yard pass to Ramos to put the Lions in Reagan County territory on the 35. Two plays later, Venegas would run for 46 yards for the touchdown. Garza would nail the two-point conversion to put Ozona up 8-0.

Reagan County would answer back as their quarterback threw for 60 yards to put the Owls on Ozona's 10-yard line. Tackles by Ruben Rivas and Westly Smith would stop the Owls on the next play, but two plays later Reagan County would sneak past the Lions for the touchdown with 35 seconds left in the half. The Lions would stop the two-point conversion to keep a two-point lead of 8-6 at halftime.

As the second half started, Reagan County would start to move down field when Garza intercepted the ball to set the Lions up on the Owls' 22-yard line. Two plays later, Garza would find Venegas for the 23-yard pass to put Ozona into scoring territory. Garza would then run the ball in for the touchdown to increase the Lions lead 14-6.

Tackles by Venegas, Flores, Fabian Onate and Silva would stop the Owls again.

A fumble recovered by the Lions on the Ozona 32-yard line would give the Lions a break.

The Lions would move down the field until a fumble would be recovered by Reagan County. The Lions would push back the Owls to get the ball back and their sixth consecutive victory.

"We appreciate the parents and fans support during our games," said Coach Benjy Unger. "This was great game. We played hard to defeat a good Reagan County team. We had to play well both on offense and defense during the entire game. This team played together as one unit to achieve this victory.

Seventh Grade Lions shutout the Owls

By MELISSA PERNER
Editor and Publisher

The Ozona Seventh Grade Lions made a comeback Thursday night with a 12-0 shutout against the Reagan County Owls.

"This was a very hard fought game on both sides of the ball in which our young men gave a valiant effort to secure a win," said Coach Rick Bachman. "We scored what would be the winning touchdown our first possession and then added an insurance score in the third quarter."

The Owls would get the ball first, but tackles made by Matthew Fay, Anthony Villarreal, Kurtlan Reyes, Manuel Villarreal and Lalo Longoria would hold Reagan County back.

Ozona would get the ball at their 22-yard line. After five plays, Jaron Vasquez would run the ball 48 yards for the touchdown with 12 seconds left in the first to put the Lions up 6-0.

The Lions would hold the Owls again, but Reagan County would keep Ozona from scoring ending the half 6-0.

As the third quarter begins, Fay and Vasquez would run the ball to the 49-yard line on fourth-and-one. Vasquez's throw would be caught by Dylan Castillo for the first down on the 43-yard line.

Fay and Vasquez would once again move the ball down deep in the Owls' territory. Fay would manage to get across the goal line for the Lions second touchdown with 44 seconds left in the third bringing the Lions to 12-0.

Ozona would hold the Lions during the fourth quarter. On fourth-and-four at the 30-yard line, Vasquez would intercept the ball ending the game and giving the Lions the victory.

Participating in the game were: Jaron Vasquez, Matthew Fay, Kyle Sewell, Dylan Castillo, Lane White, Markaus Galindo, Kurtlan Reyes, Lalo Longoria, Nathan DeHoyos, Wesley McGuire, Austin Whitten, Jesse Badillo, Josh Ramos, Taylor Newton, Manuel Villarreal, K.C. Carson, Robert Torres, Anthony Villarreal, Andrew Galindo, Oscar Lopez and Jordan Martinez.

"Once again, Coach (Benjy) Unger had the defense hitting on all cylinders. I noticed that everyone seemed to be a little more aggressive in this contest and would expect more improvement in all areas as the boys continue to practice hard," Bachman said. "I am excited about the remainder of this football season as I anticipate great things from this group of young men. Again, I would like to thank our fans, as their support has been outstanding all season and we really do appreciate it."

The Lions will face Eldorado at 5 p.m. Thursday in Eldorado.

goal by Toby Pagan to put Ozona up 3-0.

The Ozona defense would hold Reagan County to get the ball back.

At the start of the second quarter, the Lions would move the ball down to the Owls' 27-yard line, but a fumble on a bad snap would be recovered by Reagan County.

Reagan County would run for 11 plays with strong tackles by Dean Wadsworth, Pagan, Borrego, Matthew Payne and Levi Vargas.

The Owls would manage to get down to the Lions' 9-yard line on fourth-and-two, but the Ozona defense would push the Owls back giving the Lions the ball back.

The Lions would run the ball down to the Reagan County 19-yard line. On third-and-nine, the Lions would fake a field goal kick that would be picked up by Borrego who would run it to the 10-yard line for a first down.

Long would fire two passes to Collis that would sail overhead to set up another field goal attempt by Pagan. The kick would fall short keeping the score 3-0 at halftime.

At the start of the third quarter, tackles by Vargas, Wadsworth and Borrego would stop Owls to give the Lions the ball at the Reagan County 35-yard line.

Castro, Raven Perez and Borrego would run the ball down to the 16-yard line, when Jared Espino would pick up 10 yards to once again put the Lions in scoring territory.

Castro was injured during the game and will probably be out for three weeks due to an ankle sprain, Streun said.

Three plays later, Long would run the ball nine yards for the touchdown with 5:24 left in the quarter to put the Lions up 9-0.

The Lions would roar back after three plays when Vargas intercepted the ball and ran it to the Owls' 20-yard line. On the next play, Long would find Collis for the 20-yard touchdown pass to increase Ozona's lead to 15-0.

Ozona's final score would come with 8:49 left in the fourth on quick change off pass to Espino for a 22-yard run to put the Lions at 21-0.

"Offensively, we had some big plays in the running game by J.D. Borrego, Raven Perez and Jared Espino," Streun said. "We are still making some critical mistakes, but overall we had a great effort out of our kids. We are really excited and extremely proud about how our kids are playing and giving everything they have each and every week."

Reagan County would run the ball down the field, but tackles by Clint Hale, Espino, Nick Perez, Borrego, Raven Perez, Jeffrey Gillit, Caleb Mitchel and Pagan would hold the Owls at the Lions' 19-yard line.

The Lions would be forced to punt on their next possession giving Reagan County the ball back with seconds left on the clock.

The Owls would throw a long pass that Collis intercepted giving the Lions the shutout win.

Ozona improves to 2-2 in district play and 2-5 overall.

The Lions will face Eldorado Friday, who are coming off a 14-6 district win over Junction. The game starts at 7:30 p.m. in Eldorado.

"We need to take care of business the next two weeks," Streun said. "The fans did a great job of showing support for our kids."

JV Lions fall short against Reagan County

By MELISSA PERNER
Editor and Publisher

The JV Lions battled the Reagan County Owls Thursday night, but fell short of a win losing 25-27.

In the first quarter, the Owls would hold the Lions on the first drive forcing Ozona to punt.

Reagan County would then take over on the Ozona 44-yard line driving the ball to the 22. The Owls would pass and get the touchdown and the extra point putting them up on the board at 0-7.

On the Lions next possession, Ozona would be stopped inside the 1-yard line.

"Jakob Moran, Josh Roman and Stevie Vargas did a good job blocking during this drive," said Coach Lynn Searcy.

In the second quarter, Reagan County would drive the ball 30 yards, but the Lions defense stepped up to stop them.

"John Tom Tijerina made a good defensive play in the secondary on this drive," Searcy said. "Good defensive plays as well by Colby Mayfield, Vargas, Timothy Longoria, Roman Tambunga and Ely Silva."

Reagan County had to punt from their end zone. Tijerina would return the ball for 26 yards to the Owls' 4-yard line. Tambunga would then score on a 4-yard run. Sliva would kick the extra point making it 7-7.

The Owls would answer right back on their next possession scoring on a 48-yard touchdown. The extra-point would fail putting them up 7-13.

The Lions roared back right before the half, as Justin Maldonado connected with Tate Collis for 44 yards putting the ball on the Owls' 13-yard line. Three plays later, Mayfield would score from the 3-yard line tying the game at 13-13.

The Owls next possession drove the ball to the Lions' 12-yard line. Reagan County would score on a sweep and get the extra-point to make it 13-20.

With only 50 seconds left in the half, the Lions lunched a drive with Maldonado connecting with Collis again for the 36-yard touchdown. The extra-point would fail making it 19-20 at the half.

"There was some good blocking by Vargas, Eric Fierro, Cat Sessom and Mark Thornton," Searcy said.

In the third quarter, the Lions start at drive but it would end on an Owl interception. Reagan County would score because of the turnover on a 46-yard drive. The extra-point would put the Owls up 19-27.

At the start of the fourth quarter, two possessions would go to each team.

"Our defense did a good job here, namely Barrett Richie, Chris Fierro, Roman and Longoria," Searcy said.

The Lions would start a drive from their own 41-yard line. A screen pass to Silva would take the ball to the 13-yard line. A pass and touchdown goes to Collis, but is called out of the end zone. The Reagan County defense would hold the Lions on the 8-yard line.

Ozona's defense would then hold the Owls and force them to go three and out.

"Good defense by Mayfield, Maldonado, Tijerina and Sessom," Searcy said.

Reagan County is forced to punt and the Lions start their final drive on the Owls' 31-yard line. Sessom would catch the 12-yard pass for the touchdown, but the extra-point failed putting the final score at 25-27.

"We did so many good things in this game. However, we gave up too many big plays. I was proud of the guys because as usual they battled to the very end," Searcy said. "Maldonado, Collis, Sessom, Vargas and Richie had a really good game."

The loss puts the JV at 2-2 in district and 3-4 for the year.

The team will take on Eldorado at 7 p.m. Thursday night at Lion Stadium.

Freshmen Lions tango with Mustangs

Last week the Ozona Freshmen Lions were in Midland to tango with the Midland Christian Mustangs.

The mustangs were playing with some varsity/JV players against our all freshmen team, which made it very difficult for the young Lions to corral them, said Coach Ronny Clayton.

The Mustangs won 35-0.

There were some bright spots, particularly when they had in only their freshmen, Clayton said.

With Mark Tambunga out for the rest of the year, Rocky Munoz took his first snaps at quarterback. Kolton McGinnis hit Aaron Pearl for a 60-yard completion to put the Lions deep into Mustang territory. However, the Lions were unable to score as Midland put some of their starters back into the game.

Matt Turland had an interception to spark the Lions defense.

The Lions will travel to Crane this week to face the Golden Cranes. Game time is 5 p.m.

Abilene lands state veterans cemetery

HIGHLIGHTS
By Mike Cox

AUSTIN — With more than 30,000 military veterans living within 75 miles, Abilene has been selected as the location for the third Texas State Veterans Cemetery.

Eight other medium-sized metropolitan areas interested in having the cemetery — Amarillo, Corpus Christi, Longview, Lubbock, Midland-Odessa, San Angelo, Texarkana and Tyler — also submitted applications to the Texas Veterans Land Board and Texas Veterans Commission.

Though Abilene will be the location, funding to develop the cemetery still needs to come from the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs.

Land Commissioner Jerry Patterson, who chairs the Veterans Land Board, said the Abilene cemetery could be in operation by early 2008 if federal funding is approved next year.

Texas voters approved a constitutional amendment in 2001 authorizing seven state veteran cemeteries. The first of the cemeteries currently is being developed at Killeen, with the second in the planning stages at Mission.

Wi-Fi update...
The Texas Department of Transportation expects that seven of its safety rest areas across the state will have free Internet connectivity within 100 days.

TxDOT has entered into an agreement with a private company to provide 120 free minutes of wireless or traditional Internet access at 102 safety rest areas and travel information centers within a year. Anyone needing more net time than that can subscribe to the service.

According to TxDOT, the idea behind the program is to provide another reason for motorists to get off the road. A break to check e-mail or the weather forecast for down the road translates into improved traffic safety because it combats fatigue.

State revenue situation improves...

The comptroller's office says the state's general revenue grew by 6.4 percent in fiscal 2004, the highest increase in three years. In dollars, last fiscal year's revenue growth amounted to $1.8 billion.

One blemish on the picture has been job growth, which is still down by comparison to more recent flush times. And the money being paid for new jobs also is still nothing to write home about.

Dry white or sweet red?
Not every issue facing the Legislature has to do with protecting or educating children. Committees are continuing to hear testimony on a variety of issues, including Texas' wine industry.

The Senate Committee on Intergovernmental Relations listened to winemakers, wine distributors, various associations and researchers at a hearing on Oct. 6.

When they got to the bottom of the bottle, so to speak, the message was as clear as champagne: The Texas wine industry is robust, but could use some help from lawmakers in the area of permits, distribution and promotion.

Odes to toads...
Hoping to raise awareness of an endangered species, the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department is looking for essays on horned toads from school kids.

Officially known as the Texas Horned Lizard, the once common critter is the official state reptile. TPWD will award prizes to students and classrooms for essays and research projects dealing with horned toads. Deadline for submissions is Jan. 15.

For more information, check the agency's Web site at www.tpwd.state.tx.us.

Public Notice

Crockett County
P.O. Box 1857
Ozona, TX 76943

TO ALL INTERESTED AGENCIES, GROUPS AND PERSONS: Seventeen (17) days after this publication Crockett County intends to request the Office of Rural Community Affairs (ORCA) to release Federal funds under Title I of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 (P.L. 93-383), for Project No. 724859.

Exempt Activities
Administration
Engineering
Environmental Assessment Activities

The project includes the construction of approximately 1,200 linear feet of eight inch (8") PVC sewer line, 1,200 linear feet of six inch (6") PVC sewer line, eight (8) manholes, three (3) sewer cleanouts, thirty-five (35) service reconections, six (6) yard service lines, and pavement replacement to serve a low/moderate income neighborhood located in the southern portion of the community of Ozona. The project includes direct benefit to twenty-nine (29) households receiving sewer service.

Finding of No Significant Impact

It has been determined that such request for release of funds will not constitute an action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment and accordingly the above named Crockett County has decided not to prepare an Environmental Impact Statement under the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (P.L. 91-190). The reason for such a decision not to prepare such Statement is based upon the fact that all environmental concerns could either be minimized or mitigated.

An Environmental Review Record for the proposed project has been made by Crockett County which documents the environmental review of the project and more fully sets forth the reasons why such statement is not required. This Environmental Review Record is on file at the office of the Administrative Assistant to County Judge, Crockett County, 907 Avenue D, Ozona, Texas 76943 and is available for public examination and copying upon request between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Public Comments on Finding

All interested agencies, groups and persons disagreeing with this decision are invited to submit written comments for consideration by the County to the address set forth above. Such written comments must be received at the address specified within sixteen (16) days after this publication. All such comments so received will be considered and the County will not request the release of funds or take any administrative action on the project prior to the date specified in the proceeding sentence.

Release of Funds

Crockett County will undertake the project described above with Community Development Block Grant under Title I from its program year 2004 under grant number 724859 from the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974. Crockett County is certifying to ORCA that John Jones, in his official capacity as County Judge, consents to accept the jurisdiction of the Federal Courts if an action is brought to enforce responsibilities in relation to environmental reviews, decision making and action; and that these responsibilities have been satisfied. The legal effect of the certification is that upon its approval Crockett County may use the Block Grant funds and it will have satisfied its responsibilities under the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969. ORCA will accept an objection to its approval only on one or more of the bases and the procedures described in 24 CFR Part 58.75. Objections are to be addressed to the Office of Rural Community Affairs, P. O. Box 12877, Austin, Texas 78711. Objections to the release of funds on bases other than one of those stated above will not be considered by ORCA. No objection received later than thirty-three (33) days after this publication will be considered by ORCA. The Chief Executive Officer of Crockett County is John Jones.
