On a humid night, the Ozona Lions gained their fourth win of the season defeating the Junction Eagles 13-7.

"We played well enough to win. I have to give credit to Junction, they played well," said Coach Jeff Streun. "The humidity had a lot to do with us getting winded and tired more than we usually do during the game."

Junction would score first with 6:14 left in the first quarter. This would be the only time, the Eagles would get across the goal line as the Lions defense held them back for the final 42 minutes in the game.

Trey Collis had two interceptions and Levi Vargas would pick off one for the Lions.

"Defensively we held them to 162 total yards. After their first drive we settled in and played good defense," Streun said.

Ozona would get on the board early in the second quarter when quarterback Jordan Long would meet Collis on a 9-yard pass for the touchdown. Toby Pagan's kick was good to tie the game at 7-7.

The Lions would seal their victory in the third on a 1-yard run by Long with two minutes left in the third.

"J.D. Borrego had some excellent tough runs on offense," Streun said.

Borrego would carry the ball 16 times for 39 yards.

Ozona now moves to 4-5 overall and 4-2 in District 2-2A play.

This week's game is critical as the Lions face district leader Mason who is 9-0 overall and 6-0 in district play.

The game will also be Senior Parent Night that will honor senior football players, managers, trainers and cheerleaders.

The event will begin at 7:10 p.m. at Lion Stadium. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

"Come out and support our kids," Streun said.

Counties discuss regional tourism

By SHANON BIGGERSTAFF
 Chamber Executive Director

Twenty nine individuals representing 14 counties attended the Texas Pecos Trail meeting and luncheon, hosted by the Texas Historical Commission, Friday at the Crockett County Civic Center.

The meeting was for anyone interested in promoting their historic and cultural resources to tourists, particularly museums, heritage society members, Main Street managers, chambers of commerce, convention and visitor bureaus, city and county managers, economic development directors, historic site operator and extension agents in the region. Attending from Crockett County was Shanon Biggerstaff, Chamber of Commerce Executive Director.

"The purpose of the meeting was to review our application submitted to the Texas Historical Commission (THC) Texas Heritage Trails Program this past May. Our region or trail system was not selected for activation this round," Biggerstaff said. "We were informed in July of 2004 that the Mountain and Tropical Trails were selected."

Janie Headrick, director of the THC's Texas Heritage Trails Program, traveled from Austin to go through the application and made suggestions to the group on how to improve upon the application that will be re-submitted in May of 2005.

The Texas Heritage Trails Program is a regional tourism initiative that helps Texas communities promote tourism, revitalize local economies and foster community leadership through historic preservation, if selected, the region is

New season, new attitude, new coach

Lady Lions have a 'united team spirit' and playoffs in mind

By MELISSA PERNER
 Editor and Publisher

Entering into their final year, the senior members of the Lady Lions basketball team didn't know what to expect from new coach Glen Gleghorn.

Instead, the girls said they found a "positive attitude" and a "united team spirit" going into this year's season.

"We were ready for a change," said Taylor Oglesby.

"We were excited for something new," added Hilary Huffman.

The girls weren't the only ones looking for a change. Gleghorn said he was looking to head back to West Texas.

Originally from Seymour, Gleghorn has spent the past three years coaching at Lampasas, which is a 4A school.

"I felt like this was a good move," he said. "Lampasas was in a tough district with hard competition. Besides, I like West Texas and I wanted to get back."

In his 27-year coaching career, Gleghorn has yet to make to Austin for the state playoffs, but has led previous teams from Spur and Greenwood to the regional tournament.

He said he knows the reputation of Lady Lions basketball, under previous coach Dickie Fought, so he knew the players would be well coached.

"We have good kids that work hard and get along well," he said. "I don't know what to expect out of district. I do know that it will be tough."

For the past two years, the Lady Lions have failed to make the playoffs. Last year, they went

What's on My

By Melissa Perner

It's all about the attitude

It's the day after Election Day and no matter whom won (or if they are still deciding who is going to be overseeing the country for the next four years) it's the day of winners and losers.

Naturally, we all want to be on the winning end. The winning end is always the fun end.

For the winner, it's a day of relaxing. The worst is over and they can get on looking forward to their new position or back to the same position they've had.

On the other end of the spectrum, is the loser. Of course no one wants to be the loser. Even the word itself sounds bad.

While this person can relax that all this hard work is over with, they also often reflect on the inevitable "what did I do wrong?"

The answer is always "nothing" because the outcome was left to the American public. You did all you could do.

However, no matter who wins or loses the most important thing for people to remember is handling the situation with the best attitude.

A person's attitude can often make or break them.

In fact, most situations are based on a person's attitude.

Throughout our lives, we are taught to be good winners and losers. We win graciously, tell the other guys "good game" and then celebrate.

On the other side, as losers, we stand there, graciously congratulate the winner and then sulk in private.

Either way, the attitude reflected is what is always remembered.

If a loser starts crying or bad mouthing the winner, then that "poor attitude" is what is remembered.

A good attitude, a strong attitude can get you far no matter what side you are on. People remember a person's attitude. They remember how you reacted in a difficult situation.

Name calling, bad mouthing and other "unsportsmanlike" conduct may get people to take notice, but will it get you respect?

If your opponent does it does that mean you have to do it?

Why not instead, come back with a strong, good attitude. That is what people will remember.

Not only that, a good attitude can help you get over the painful part of what just happened.

So whether it's politics, sports or just an everyday occurrence, keep a good attitude. That is what will get you far.

Letters to the Editor

Williams replies to letter

Some weeks ago, I wrote a little article stating that I was ashamed that our school system did not make as good a score on the TAKS test as Sonora.

Some school teacher replied but did not give a defense. She went on the offensive and told me to lift my head and see the stars.

I thank the Lord and others that as a small boy a teacher motivated me to achieve my potential. Coming from a poor family, I started college 29 years after high school and I continued until I received a Doctor of Jurisprudence in January 1970.

I am still embarrassed that our administration asked the neighboring bank for a donation for we could not pay for the exercise equipment we had purchased.

Did he ask other neighboring banks for donations, or did he ask either of our local banks for donations? What kind of planning is this?

It's the Pitts

By Lee Pitts

Calvin and Casey

I met Calvin Bohleen at the Cowboy Christmas show during the NFR years ago where he was selling his art. That's not as easy as it sounds considering Calvin was paralyzed from the neck down and created his works of art by holding a pencil or a paint brush between his teeth.

I knew right away I was in the presence of greatness.

As one writer said, "Calvin had the wit of Will Rogers, the wisdom of a country judge and a heart as big as the Yellowstone Valley."

It was Labor Day 1972, in a Wisconsin rodeo, when a bull named Bearcat stepped on Calvin's back.

Calvin felt nothing, nor would he ever again south of his neck. Some people might have called Calvin an invalid but that implies that his life was invalid, as in having no value.

Nothing could be further from the truth. Just ask Casey Lane.

I first met Casey about the time I met Calvin. Casey was like the little boy who lived at the end of the dirt road I wrote about.

Calvin and his wonderful wife Suzie never had any children and I like to think that Casey was the son Calvin never had.

When Casey was five years old Calvin gave him rides in his wheelchair, steering by blowing into tubes on either side of his mouth.

The friendship was as comfortable as an old shoe by the time Casey went to spend a summer with Calvin and Suzie on their Montana ranch.

Casey went to get some fence building experience but by the time the fence was built it had become a life building experience.

It's often said that when life hands you lemons... make lemonade. Calvin took his heavy load of lemons and luck and made a fabulous meringue topping.

Calvin never could draw with his hands but he became a world class artist using his teeth. He typed faster than I can in the same manner.

Maybe he couldn't ride a horse but he could still admire them. He's one of the few who watched a barrel race to look at the equines. He could still talk on the phone so he built up a large order-buying business, managed the family ranch and had more hopes and dreams for the future than any college graduate.

Such was Calvin's success that in 1979 the U.S. Jaycees named him one of the Ten Outstanding Young Men in America, along with an Arkansas Governor who would one day become President.

The national recognition was nice but Calvin was far more concerned about being well liked and respected in his home town of Wilsall.

Calvin may not have ever got that gold buckle he coveted as a World Champion bull rider but he became something much bigger: a World Champion person.

After a 32 year ride Calvin Bohleen dismounted from the hurricane deck of his wheelchair at the age of 57 and all who stood in judgment gave him a perfect score.

Even after they amputated one of his legs Calvin remained hopeful to the very end that science would one day find a miracle cure so that he could dance one more dance with his wonderful wife Suzie, "who could do anything Calvin set his mind to."

With the church full of far-away friends a young man 30 years Calvin's junior was called upon to deliver the eulogy.

What do you say when your hero is gone?

With tough rodeo cowboys on the verge of tears, Casey thanked Calvin for being his role model, for having a marriage that served as a pattern for his own and for being a constant source of inspiration and wisdom.

Calvin taught Casey the important things in life, like never telling your banker more than he needs to know, to never expect good advice or optimism from a fat cattle buyer, that the human spirit is always stronger than the circumstances and that it's the relationships you build, not the wealth you acquire, that make life worth living.

The relationship between the ex-bullrider and the boy who now works for the Professional Bullrider's proves that to be a hero you don't have to run into a burning building to save a life or take a bullet for a foxhole friend.

Just be a good example. We can all do that. Casey and all the rest of us who are better people today for having known Calvin Bohleen are living proof that you don't even have to get up out of your chair to be someone's hero.

Texas Federation of Women's Clubs News

BY CHARLOTTE HARRELL

Over 100 members of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs (TFWC) met in Austin Sept. 16-18 with Barbara Wingham, TFWC State President, presiding. The TFWC Heart of Texas District was represented by Scholarship Chair, Ruby Schuman of the Comanche Heritage Club; Trustee Emily Munn of the Woman's Forum, San Angelo, and TFWC Heart of Texas District President, Charlotte Harrell, of the Woman's Forum, San Angelo.

The TFWC Heart of Texas District and the TFWC Caprock District were hosts for a Leadership Luncheon at the clubhouse on San Gabriel Street.

TFWC members enjoyed two fine speakers in the course of the meeting. First was The Honorable Greg Abbott, Attorney General of Texas. He outlined many good things that he is doing to curtail crime in Texas. He has especially sought to bring scam artists who are ripping off the elderly to justice. He also has an aggressive program in place to collect child support payments from deadbeat dads.

Our second speaker was Dave Lieber, a columnist from the Fort Worth Star-Telegram. He spoke on "How to get women out of the house and into a club — and keep them there." He also attended our business meeting the following day to give us tips on getting our message into the press, or how to write articles of interest to editors. He is an entertaining speaker and offered us his recent book, "The Dog of My Nighmares."

The TFWC Heart of Texas

Fall Board Meeting was held Saturday, Oct. 23 in Comanche with Charlotte Harrell, TFWC Heart of Texas District President, presiding. Twenty club women were in attendance. Members of the Comanche Heritage Club hosted this meeting in the Fellowship Hall of the First Baptist Church. Darlene Causey, Executive Director of the Comanche Chamber of Commerce welcomed everyone to Comanche.

The Comanche Junior High School Choir, under the direction of Kay Quast, provided after lunch entertainment. Our featured speaker, Fern Hartsell from Floydada, spoke on the subject of organ transplants and donations. Mrs. Hartsell herself is a long-time (six one-half years) survivor of a liver transplant. She encouraged everyone to become a potential donor and educated us about the entire subject.

Ozona Senior Happenings

By LYNN ENGLISH
Senior Center Director

November has arrived and Thanksgiving is near at hand. The weather forecast says that cooler weather is on its way. The rain we had this past Sunday was wonderful.

We heard that Nell Wester and Jo Ann Babbitt dressed up in Halloween attire, Nell as Charlie Chaplin and Jo Ann as a flapper. They went to the Care Center and cheered up our friends there.

The AARP Driving Class that was to be held Oct. 29 and 30 had to be cancelled because we did not have enough people to make up a class of 10 or more. We will try again in the future when there is not so much activity going on in Crockett County.

Last week at Potluck there were two people honored having birthdays. Pleas Childress Jr. and Jonny Johnson both had birthdays. Jonny's birthday was Oct. 26 and Pleas had his on Oct. 27. Congratulations to both of you.

We had a Crockett County Senior Center board meeting on Monday Nov. 1. The usual business and activities for the coming two months were discussed.

Tuesday was Election Day therefore there was constant traffic here at the Senior Center. Congratulations to all the winners and you will have our support.

We have new cabinets in our mini kitchen here at the Senior Center. We are proud of them and thank Rick Storms, Elliott Barrera and Crockett County for our beautiful new cabinets.

A special thank you goes out to T&C Market and T&T Village Market for donating a bill of groceries each for our Bingo games held ever month. You both and employees are greatly appreciated.

The Concho Valley Community Action will be here from 11 a.m.-3 p.m. Nov. 9 at the Senior Center. This organization helps those who qualify with their utilities.

If you happened in our building Friday of last week our floors were shining like a new penny thanks to our volunteer Lionel Tambunga. Lionel has been so faithful and we thank him for all he does.

Remember we have games here to play. Every Monday we have crafts at 3 p.m. Monday, Wednesday and Friday we have our "Walk Two Miles" at 8:30 a.m. and "Walk One Mile" at 10 a.m. The ladies do enjoy this walking and it is fun to do as a group. Come and join us.

Our next Potluck will be November 10. Mark your mark your calendar and come join us.

Our Activities are for those 50 years of age and above (we are flexible). Our building is alcohol and smoke free.

Because of Thanksgiving we will have only one dance in November that will be held at 8 p.m. Nov. 13 at the Senior Building. Birthdays to be celebrated will be Leroy Adcock's (Nov. 23) and Jim Brisbin's (Nov. 22). We will have cake and balloons and of course caller Roy Lombard from Del Rio will be there to keep us on our toes.

The "Scarlett Bonnets of Ozona" had a great day Oct. 16 in Fredericksburg.

We met on the east side of the intermediate school that morning to go shopping in Fredericksburg and visit the Trade Days.

We had lunch at the Peach Tree Tea Room and shopped the downtown area. Then we went out to the big Trade Days and shopped.

After a long day of shopping, we stopped and ate at the Familia Restaurant in Junction before arriving in Ozona late that afternoon.

We are looking forward to going back.

The next meeting will be Nov. 11 at the Hitchin' Post and it is dutch treat. Dec. 16 will be our meeting and Christmas party at Crockett National Bank.

For information about joining, or any questions, call Diane Gleghorn at 392-9105 or Julia Holmes at 392-3896. We would be glad to have you.

Our week started out with Charles Peebles, brother of resident Arie Cash. Charles played his guitar, harmonica and sang for our residents in the early afternoon. It was enjoyed by everyone.

Thursday afternoon our residents enjoyed employee Rusty Harris, Elijo Martinez and Belia Reyes showing their talents of carving Halloween pumpkins. Thank you three, the pumpkins turned out great.

Our volunteers for the week are E.A. Wadworth R.N., Otis Nester, JoAnn Williamson, Nell Wester, Rachel Ybarra, Lana Chandler, Johnnie and Bobbie Griffin and members of the First Baptist Church and the Ozona Church of Christ.

Thanks goes to Laura and Melvin Parker of Westerman Drug for the boxes of Halloween candy they gave to each of our residents. How sweet it was!

Friday afternoon, residents had the pleasure of eating cheese, crackers, birthday cake and their choice of assorted beverages. Residents Helen Stokes, Emma Camarillo, Barbra Breisacher dressed up for the Halloween social. You ladies sure looked nice for the occasion.

Our residents birthday parties are sponsored by the Crockett National Bank each month.

Penn Baggett baked up some more of those delicious rolls of his. Thank you Penn. The rolls were enjoyed by everyone.

Barbra Breisacher won first place on the Halloween costume contest. Helen Stokes came in second and Emma Camarillo was third. You ladies were really spooky.

Our Levis and Lance Square Dance ladies were dressed up for the Halloween social here at the facility and helped serve residents, guests and families.

We thank Del's Little Schoolhouse for entertaining our residents with their singing and Halloween costumes on Friday morning.

We are requesting if you are sick with flu like symptoms or colds, please don't come to the facility as our flu shots will be late. We would like to protect our facility residents from getting anything during the months to come. We appreciate your support on this matter on the health care for our residents.

Please note the holidays are coming up. I need a month's notice for activities inside or outside at the facility, as our calendar is planned in advance. Please give me a call at 392-3096 to make plans for special occasions.

From our home to yours, have a good week.

Obituaries

Dr. W. B. "Dub" Robertson Jr.

Dr. W. B. "Dub" Robertson Jr. passed away peacefully on Sunday Oct. 31, 2004.

Graveside service will be at 4 p.m. today in Cedar Hill Cemetery. Arrangements are by Preddy Funeral-Home.

Dr. Robertson was born in Ozona on June 5, 1924. He was the only child of William Ben Robertson and Bertha Cawley Robertson. He attended school in Ozona and graduated from Ozona High School. He joined the Navy in July 1943 and served overseas, honorably discharged in Dec. 1945. "Dub" entered the University of Texas and graduated with a bachelor of arts degree in June 1947. He entered Baylor University at Dallas and worked his way through graduate school. He received his Doctorate of Dentistry in June 1958.

Dr. Robertson set up practice in Dallas and later moved to Ozona to open his practice and ranch part time. In the 80s "Dub" retired and became a full time rancher. "Dub" loved antique automobiles and enjoyed reading.

Memorials may be made to the Crockett Co. Library, the Crockett Co. Museum or a charity of your choice.

JOY Group to present 911 program

The "Just Older Youth" Group of the First Baptist Church is sponsoring an informative program at 4:30 p.m. Tuesday in the sanctuary of the church. The program will be led by Bob Falkner, fire chief of the Ozona Volunteer Fire Department, and the 911 addressing coordinator for Ozona.

Bob will give a Power Point presentation of the history and the workings of the 911 program. There will also be a question and answer session about this long-awaited improvement to our community. Bob will also give some practical pointers from his position at the OVFD.

Following the program, we will be adjourned to the parlor where the JOY Group will host a light supper of baked potatoes and the trimmings. We are asking that each one attending bring their favorite topping to share with others.

The invitationis church-wide and community-wide. You need not be an official JOY member to attend. Come and enjoy the fellowship.

Helping Hands News

Halloween has come and gone, and what a day Saturday was. The Lord blessed us with beautiful weather.

The site for the carnival turned out great. Parents didn't have to worry about the traffic in the area and no mud to wade in.

All vendors reported a profit even though we contended other activities.

Our cake walk was fantastic and thanks to all who donated.

Next year, we hope to have more games for all ages and maybe a bigger turn out. Thanks to all that participated in the festivities.

We still have meal tickets for Meals on Wheels or you can call 392-5026 to eat at the building or have the meal delivered. The meal tickets make great gifts.

Card of Thanks

Dear Family and Friends,

We can't begin to thank you enough for all the love and concern you showed us at the loss of our wife and mother. The food, flowers, cards, visits and calls helped us in this time of our loss in ways we can't begin to express. We also want to say thank you for some flowers, plants and food that we received without names and hope that we can soon thank you personally.

Thank you to the ladies of the Ozona Church of Christ for the great meal. Thank you to Johnnie Perkins, Gary Vannoy and Patti Davis for their help with the funeral and all our Christian family at the Ozona Church of Christ. Also the fine men who were her pallbearers. To Mike Preddy and his staff for all the good work on Ethel's funeral. To the Crockett County Care Center for the 3 1/2 years you gave Ethel such good care. Again, Josie, Elsa and Veronica, thank you. In times like this we realize what a special place Ozona is to live and call home.

God bless all of you,

In the Dark and the Rain

Many had driven hours, while others were just minutes away. They had gotten up early to get there and have everything ready. Most had made arrangements at work and they either took vacation days or got someone to work in their place.

Others had to hire babysitters or get friends or family to keep their children. Some were young adults while others were well past retirement age and struggled with health problems. There was so much to do in such a short time. Meals to fix, snacks to pass out during break time, parts of the Bible had to be learned.

As I watched that morning before daylight, everyone standing outside in the cold waiting to go in, I asked myself why? Why would people, all volunteers, from different ethnic backgrounds, different churches all come together just for a chance to share the message of Jesus Christ, (John 3:16 & 1:12,13) with young men locked up in a youth prison.

Then it dawned on me; I saw what real Christianity is all about. It was people who had accepted Christ and wanted to serve Him. Jesus said He came to serve and not be served, (Mark 10:45) and His followers (believers) would follow in His footsteps, (John 12:26). Are you serving?

See you in Church next Sunday.

Hunting and the changing face of Texas

What is the future of hunting in Texas and how is our population going to impact that future? Those are questions frequently pondered by wildlife experts.

Demography, the study of the size, distribution and characteristics of a human population, paints an interesting portrait of our state. The population of Texas is changing at a rapid rate, and these changes will surely impact hunting and how all Texans perceive the sport in the 21st century. The major demographic trends affecting the future of Texas include changes in the rates and sources of population growth, increase in minorities and changes in household composition. Each of these trends also promises to impact hunting's future.

The specialist said over the past 150 years, Texas' population has grown from slightly over 200,000 to about 20 million. More Texans means less wildlife habitat. Fully, 80 percent of Texans live in urban areas. Suburbs gobble up vast amounts of wildlife habitat and related hunting areas.

Our population has increased, but our hunting population has dropped from about 8 percent in 1970 to around 6 percent today. Our total hunter numbers have stabilized at around one million. Our overall population is increasing, but it's clear our hunter numbers are not.

Aging is another factor that is working against hunting. The average hunter was 36 years old 25 years ago. Today, he's closer to 42. The specialist said there aren't enough young hunters joining the sport to replace those who retire from the activity.

The face of Texas is also changing. Ethnically, Texas hunters are 94 percent Anglo, 3 percent Hispanic and less than 2 percent African-American. By 2030, Texas will be 36 percent Anglo, 10 percent African-American and 46 percent Hispanic. This represents a significant decline in the ethnicity that has traditionally made up the vast majority of hunters.

The average Texas household also has implications for the future of hunting. The sport has traditionally been a male-dependant, kinship-linked sport. Almost a third of Texas households are non-traditional family units, with and single parent households has certainly impacted the recruitment rate of youth into hunting.

Other factors as lease costs, game scarcity and having no place to hunt are cited as reasons why hunters quit the sport. The high dollar commitment and competition for time from other outdoor recreational activities have also served as hunting deterrents for many Texans.

A recent survey revealed that fully one-third of Texas' citizens have no interest in hunting.

Hunting has been an important part of our Texas heritage and remains an important part of the Texas economy. Of the estimated $1.4 billion hunting generates toward our economy, half is spent in rural areas. If hunting is to survive well into the 21st century, concerted efforts must be made to recruit new hunters into the sport, including youth, females and minorities and to educate the non-hunting public on the role and importance hunting has in our state.

Crockett County employees recognized for safety, service

Employees of the Crockett County Maintenance Section of the Texas Department of Transportation were honored at the annual Safety Awards Banquet on Sept. 28 in Big Lake.

Individual safe operator and no injury awards winners from the local maintenance office were recognized in a video presentation that featured "Let's Stress Safety."

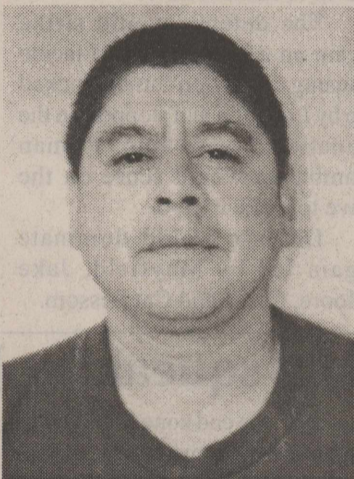

Jesse De La Garza, maintenance tech, represented the Crockett County Maintenance Section as the winner from the local office at the annual Truck Rodeo drive off prior to the safety banquet.

Each year this event requires contestants to demonstrate backing, turning, steering, and braking skills in an obstacle course, demonstrating daily maneuvers while operating TxDOT vehicles and other equipment.

In addition to safety banquet award winners, service award winners were announced during the third quarter. A 10-year service award was presented to Martha Villarreal who was recently promoted to the position of section assistant. Johnny Rodriguez, maintenance tech,

PIPs meeting Monday

There will be an organizational meeting for a PIP (Players in Progress) program in Ozona at 7 p.m. Monday in the Davidson Gymnasium.

PIPs is a national youth organization that teaches young people the importance of discipline, teamwork, commitment and basketball fundamentals in a performance based program.

Coach Glen Gleghorn will discuss the program and the details for starting the program here in Ozona.

All interested parents of children ages kindergarten through sixth grade are urged to attend.

LADY LIONS: Seniors say 'this year will be different'

16-13 overall and 2-8 in district.

This year, the Lady Lions will face the familiar opponents of Wall and Reagan County, but they will also have a new one in Mason who is expected to be tough, Gleghorn said.

"This is a tough district for us, but I have confidence that the girls will get in there and play hard," he said.

The returning seniors said this season will be different.

"We're trying out new plays and different techniques," said Heather Ybarra.

"We're in better shape and a lot stronger," added Britney Ramos. "This is our last year; we have to go to the playoffs."

Weight-lifting and cross country workouts are some of the things that Gleghorn has added to the girls' program this year.

Some of the strengths on the Lady Lions squad comes from their post play by Oglesby and Casey Ybarra, with Ashley Unger to help down the line, Gleghorn said. The guard position is also sound with Huffman in that position, he added. The girls are also working a lot to improve their shooting.

"We want to be able to do the best we possible can at all times," Gleghorn said. "Our goal is to learn to play the best we can at all times and to learn to play as a team."

The Lady Lions will begin their season Tuesday as they take on Irion County in Mertzon. Games start at 5 p.m.

"We're going to be awesome this year," said Casey Ybarra. "Come to all our games and cheer us on."

JV Lions shutout Junction Eagles

COLBY MAYFIELD CRUSHES AN EAGLE in the JV's 35-0 shutout of Junction on Oct. 28 in Lion Stadium.

By MELISSA PERNER
Editor and Publisher

The JV Lions shutout the Junction Eagles 35-0 Thursday night with dominating defense and quick striking offense.

After a 23-yard pick up on the opening kickoff, Alex Ochoa, Ely Silva and Colby Mayfield moved the ball on the first drive. This would set up a screen from Justin Maldonado to Silva for the touchdown putting the Lions on the board 6-0.

"Good blocking by Mark Thornton, Barrett Richie and Tate Collis," said Coach Lynn Searsy.

The Eagles wouldn't be able to move the ball on their first possession due to a strong defensive front led by Mayfield, Stevie Vargas and Christ Fierro. The Eagles would be forced to punt, but a bad snap covered by Vargas and Richie gave the ball back to Ozona on the Junction 6-yard line.

Maldonado then connected with Collis on the throwback and score. The two-point conversion was a pass from Maldonado to Eric Fierro making the score 0-14.

In the second quarter, the Eagles are stopped again by strong Ozona defensive play by Richie, Timothy Longoria, Jakob Moran and Vargas. The Lions took over on the Ozona 40-yard line. Ochoa's sweep lead by a Silva block ended with a 60-yard touchdown to make it 20-0.

The defense would strike again on a Silva blitz and tackle causing a Junction fumble picked up by Longoria and stopped on the Junction 2-yard line. Roman Tambunga would score on the dive to make it 26-0.

Defense would dominate again led by Mayfield, Jake Moore, Collis and Cat Sessom.

In the third quarter, Junction would stop the Lions drive, but Silva kicked a 16-yard field goal to make it 29-0.

The last score of the game came on a 69-yard drive in the fourth. Mayfield, Silva, and Tambunga pushed the ball to the Junction 47-yard line. John Tom Tijerina then broke free off a tackle and scored to seal the 35-0 win.

"This was one of our best outings," Searsy said. "All of the offensive line did a great job. Richie had one of his better games blocking and Silva had one of his better games, not only running the ball but blocking. Our secondary (Collis, Tijerina, Ross Kelly, Sessom and Fierro) did a great job."

The victory puts the JV at 4-5 overall and 3-3 in District 2-2A. This week they will travel to Mason. Game begins at 7 p.m. in Mason.

8th grade Lions fall to Eagles in close game

By MELISSA PERNER
Editor and Publisher

The Eighth Grade Ozona Lions traveled to Junction last Thursday and lost a close ball game by a score of 12-8.

The Eagles scored first making to score 0-6 at the end of the first quarter.

The Lions scored on a 25-yard pass from Felix Venegas to Jonathan Flores in the second quarter. The two-point conversion was good. The run was made by Felix Venegas. This made the score 8-6 at halftime.

Junction was able to score in the fourth quarter to make the final score 8-12.

Defensively Steven Silva recovered a fumble for the Lions.

"The Lions played with a lot of heart during all of the game, but came up a little short on the scoreboard," said Coach Benjy Unger.

Participating in this game were: Fabian Onate, Matthew Garza, Felix Venegas, Daniel Gonzales, Jesse Ramos, Ray Villarreal, Ben Flores, Freddy Veloz, Matias Gandar, Jonathan Flores, Matthew Komechak, Steven Silva, Preston Tebbetts, Chris Lara, Devon Diehl, Latham Ducote, Ruben Rivas, Daniel Anderson, Nathan Knox and Westly Smith.

The Lions will close out the season against Mason at 6:30 p.m. Thursday at Lion Stadium.

Seventh grade Lions squeak by Junction Eagles

By MELISSA PERNER
Editor and Publisher

The Ozona Seventh Grade Lions overcame offensive pressures to defeat the Junction Eagles 14-8 Thursday.

Ozona would remain scoreless until fourth quarter, when Lalo Longoria recovered a fumble in the Junction end zone for a touchdown. Ozona would then score again on a 2-yard run by Matthew Fay to seal the victory.

"This was a huge win for this group of young men. They started the game a little flat and out of sync, but regrouped to play much better in the second half and pull out a victory. We simply were not executing offensively for most of the game, but Lalo's fumble recovery in the end zone for a touchdown really seemed to get everybody going," said Coach Rick Bachman. "Except for Junction's first play from scrimmage, our defense did a great job of keeping them out of the end zone long enough for our offense to get the winning score. I was really proud of the way the boys responded and overcame the many mistakes we had throughout the game to secure the win."

Participating in the Lions effort were: Jaron Vasquez, Austin Whitten, Jesse Badillo, Kyle Sewell, Manuel Villarreal, Dylan Castillo, Lane White, Wes McGuire, Nathan DeHoyos, Lalo Longoria, Kurtlan Reyes, Josh Ramos, Matthew Fay, K.C.

Carson, Damon Johnson, Nick Leonard, Anthony Villarreal, Andrew Galindo, Oscar Lopez, Jordan Martinez, Markaus Galindo and Taylor Newton.

The Lions will have their final game against Mason at 5 p.m. Thursday at Lion Stadium.

Hilary Huffman to travel to Washington, D.C. for young leaders conference

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Miss Hilary Huffman of Ozona has been selected to participate in the National Young Leaders Conference (NYLC) in Washington, D.C. from Nov. 16 to Nov. 21. NYLC is a unique leadership development program for high school students who have demonstrated leadership potential and scholastic merit. Huffman will be one of about 400 outstanding scholars from around the country at the Conference.

The theme of NYLC is "The Leaders of Tomorrow Meeting the Leaders of Today." Throughout six days, Huffman will interact with a variety of personnel who operate within the three branches of government, the news media, and the international community. "We often hear from members of Congress, political appointees and members of Washington's press corps that it is a privilege to meet and interact with students like Hilary Huffman because they are the face of our country's future," said Mike Lasday, executive director of the Congressional Youth Leadership Council, the organization that sponsors the Conference. "What these students learn at the National Young Leaders Conference will enable them to build coalitions with one another and exercise their own leadership skills within communities around the country."

Highlights of past conferences have included welcoming remarks from the floor of the U.S. House of Representatives and a panel discussion with prominent journalists at the National Press Club, in addition to meeting with senators and representatives or appointed staff members to discuss important issues facing the nation.

To complement the schedule of special meetings and briefings, Huffman will also participate in a number of leadership skill-building activities and simulations.

In one role-play activity titled If I Were President, students act as the president and cabinet members responding to an international crisis. Students also participate in Testing the Constitution, in which they examine actual Supreme Court cases. The Conference culminates with the Model Congress, in which scholars assume the roles of U.S. Representatives, and debate, amend and vote on proposed mock legislation.

CYLC is a nonprofit, nonpartisan educational organization. Founded in 1985, the Council is committed to fostering and inspiring young people to achieve their full leadership potential.

More than 400 members of the U.S. Congress join this commitment by serving on the CYLC Honorary Congressional Board of Advisors. In addition, more than 40 embassies participate in the Council's Honorary Board of Embassies.

State Legislature eyes a accountability in school finance

AUSTIN — Unless it had to do with the election, Austin was pretty quiet last week.

The business of state government went on, of course, but to say that most elected officials had a singular focus would be an understatement.

House Speaker Tom Craddick, addressing the Permian Basin Petroleum Association in Midland, did make it plain that the next session of the Legislature (assuming the governor does not call a special session, which seems unlikely this close to January) would be interested in more than the funding side of public education in Texas.

"I don't believe the only way to fix education is to throw money at it," he told the oil folks. "I believe we need some reforms in the system."

Indeed, one buzz word when it comes to education seems to be "accountability."

Craddick said work on a plan that would include more accountability measures is nearly complete.

The speaker also said that whatever the Legislature does to make public school funding more efficient likely will include reducing property taxes.

Sizing up classroom size... Another educational issue last week involved the student to teacher ratio for elementary schools, currently 22:1.

On Oct. 5, Education Commissioner Shirley J. Neeley mailed what the Texas Education Agency called a guidance letter on what school districts should do if a class exceeds 22 students.

That's clearly a touchy issue with teachers. Not long after the letter went out, the Texas Classroom Teachers Association and other groups complained that how class size waivers are handled should be settled through TEA's regular rulemaking process.

In response to that, Neeley rescinded her letter late last week.

Armed men fan out in Texas... Saturday is opening day of deer season across most of Texas.

The numbers reported by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department are impressive: Some 500,000 hunters (and many of those on opening day) will be aiming for a shot at some of Texas' 4 million white-tailed deer.

This annual effort generates an estimated $2.5 billion for the Texas economy. For some areas, hunting season has become the economy.

In Llano County, for example, hunting annually amounts to a $3.5 million industry.

Businesses and landowners make money whether the hunting is good, average or bad. This year, however, looks like a banner season for hunters.

As TPWD's white-tailed deer program leader Mitch Lockwood said in mid-October, "This is the best year I've seen."

Many ranchers, he said, "are saying range conditions are the best in 20 years."

Main Street cities announced... La Porte, Livingston, San Angelo and Sinton have been selected by the Texas Historical Commission as 2005 Main Street Cities.

Those four cities join more than 80 other communities designated as Main Street Cities included in THC's historic downtown revitalization program.

When a city gains Main Street status, it qualifies for state help in developing strategies to use historic preservation as an economic stimulus.

For more information on the program, check the agency's Web site at www.thc.state.tx.us.
