

Methodists To Open Bids On Their New Church Building On May 19

Plans and specifications on Unit No. 1 of the new Muleshoe Methodist Church are to be ready by May 1. Sam Fox, building committee chairman said today. He said that the date for receiving and opening contractors' bids tentatively has been set for May 19, at 6 p. m. in Fellowship Hall.

Architects Atcheson & Atkinson, of Lubbock have indicated they will have everything in readiness by the first of the month, and that several contractors will want to bid on this new Muleshoe church.

Construction on the new Methodist parsonage is proceeding satisfactorily, it was said, and it will have to be completed and the old parsonage, located on the church grounds will have to be moved before church construction can begin.

The old residence for the pastor will be sold. The new parsonage will be an unusually large residence; it's located a block south on the same street as the church.

The Journal printed a picture of the architect's conception of the new structure sometime back, resulting in many comments that the Methodists will have one of the most attractive centers of worship in this territory.

One-Act Play Wins 2nd At Area Meet

After taking first place honors at the District 5-A one-act play contest at Littlefield recently, the local cast returned from the area trials at Odessa last Saturday with a second place ribbon.

"Circumstances Altar Cases" this year's MHS production was under the direction of Mrs. Horace Blackburn and student director Darla Myers, and was sponsored by Dale Albright.

Bobby Nelms, named best actor in this district, was selected to be on Saturday's all-star cast of high school performers from Muleshoe, Kermit, and Alpine.

Kermit's play, "A Dante", moved on to the Region I contests to be staged at Lubbock this Saturday. The day's best actor and the girl on the supporting cast were picked from the KHS cast. The best actress starred in Alpine's play, "Dark Wind".

Odessa College was the scene of the Area contest and the professor of speech there served as judge.

Members of the local cast were: Bettie Collins, Mary Alice Baker, Karolene Towns, Bobby Nelms, and Keith Buhman.

Merle Norman Studio of Cosmetics and Betty's Beauty Box To Have Open House

Mrs. Bobby Myers, proprietor of Betty's Beauty Box and Mrs. Bernette Mason, proprietor of the Merle Norman Studio of Cosmetics, are this week announcing an Open House to be held Sunday, April 24 between the hours of 10 a. m. and 5 p. m. They extend the invitation to all women in the territory to their new place of business which is located on the south side of the new Haney Building West First.

They state their shops are new, modern and furnished with the very latest equipment. Their theme is charcoal, green and white with wrought iron trim. Mrs. Mason has been in business in Muleshoe for approximately two years, handling the well-known Merle Norman products. She moved here with her husband and two daughters from Fluvanna, near Snyder.

Mrs. Myers has operated a beauty shop in Muleshoe for the past ten years. She has lived here all her life and is well known throughout this territory. She and her husband have two children, a son and daughter.

Besides Mrs. Myers there will be three other operators on duty in the beauty shop, Rosemary Barbour, Chubby Douglass and Jessie Waldron.

Huge Building Program Looms

New buildings either started or under commitment here add up to the biggest building program ever to be underway at any time since Muleshoe began a steady, never ceasing growth back in the twenties when the town became a town.

Counting the junior high building, which will cost $170,311, this commercial structure program will entail an outlay of around a half million dollars.

Main Street Gets Another New Building
Higginbotham-Bartlett Company Saturday finished razing an old building in 1100 block of Main Street to clear the way for a 75 foot by 100 foot new brick and tile structure. Construction will begin right away, but the name of the firm which will occupy the building was not announced. The building torn down was built around 1925 by Whaley Lumber Co.

Moellers Are Building
A fine business building for the Moeller estate, 75 feet by 120, is being built in the 1300 block of Main Street and a part will be occupied by Remund-Wilson Dry Goods.

Jordan To Rebuild
Roy Jordan will begin today the work of tearing down the building which has been occupied by Ray's Service Station, at the Cross Roads, on West First and American Boulevard. Blondy Ray, the service station operator, closed down last night until the new building is ready, possibly in two months. Besides a modern service station, Jordan will construct additional business buildings on the property.

Humble and Phillips Build
Two large service stations are nearing completion in the west part of town on Highway 84. The Phillips Petroleum Co., station is located at the corner of the highway and West 8th. Humble Company's service station is going up at the corner of West 5th and the highway. Both will be outstanding examples of the latest ideas in service stations, with lots of concrete and plenty of pumps. The Goss Bros., will operate the new Phillips station.

Blackburn To Build
Horace Blackburn announced that he would start soon the construction of a new home for the Blackburn Food Market. The new building will be 50 by 80 feet, fronting on West First at the corner of Avenue C. He will have lots of parking space about the new store. He bought 70 feet frontage there from Mrs. Mary Hart, the property formerly the site of the telephone exchange.

Griffiths Plans Building
Byron Griffiths, who owns the next 70 feet south of the Blackburn corner, told The Journal he will erect a building there 36 by 65 feet, planning to add to it as time goes on. Another business deal is on the fire, which would add still another building on this block bringing a solid front to the Haney building, just being completed. Half of the latter building, 27 by 40 is occupied by the Bobby Myers Beauty Shop.

Beavers Corner
Then still another development is in the air. A group of men have agreed to purchase the remaining more than 100 feet of this block. These lots now are occupied by the old buildings of the former McReynolds Lumber Co. More of this later on.

Kimbrough Building
Finis Kimbrough, of Muleshoe Service Station, is completing a building at the rear of the station, 56x80 feet. He has an announcement about this structure on another page of this paper.

George Mayo, of Higginbotham-Bartlett, estimated a building the size of the one his company is beginning would cost $40,000. All those listed above in this article possibly might make the half million dollar estimate a conservative one.

Some 35 to 40 residences are under construction, being started or completed in Muleshoe at this time, making a sizeable addition to the total expenditure for new construction here.

ATTENDED CONCERT
Mrs. E. H. Kennedy and four of her piano students, Joan Green, Rosa Lee Miller, Jera Lynn Wilhite and Wayland Ethridge, attended the concert featuring The First Piano Quartet at the City Auditorium in Amarillo, Monday evening of this week.

Fox Gets Hole In One At Dist. Meet

Thousands of golfers play for years and never achieve what young Stanley Fox accomplished last Saturday. Playing in the High school district interscholastic league tournament at Hillcrest Country Club in Lubbock, Stanley got a hole in one.

It occurred on the second hole, a 147 yard 3-par hole. Stanley lofted the ball from the tee with his seven iron. He was playing with his partner, Jimmie Wilkerson, against another high school team at the time. The boys were accompanied by Coach Bill Taylor. Despite the hole in one,

Grain Sorghum Supports For 1955 Assured; $1.69 For Bailey County

Farmers of Bailey County who grow grain sorghums in 1955 are assured that loans and purchase agreements again will be available. According to Lonnie M. Bass, County Office Manager, Bailey County, ASC, the support in the county will be $1.69 based on a national average support of $1.78 per hundred weight.

To be eligible for support the grain sorghum must grade No. 4 or better and must be stored in commercial storage or in an approved storage structure on the farm.

Farmers who wish to take advantage of the price-support program for grain sorghums or other supported grains are urged to check up on their storage at the earliest opportunity. To be eligible for price support the grain must meet grade and moisture requirements and must be stored in a storage structure that meets local conditions.

Loans and purchase agreements will be available from the time the sorghum is harvested through January 31, 1956.

To be eligible for the $1.69 per hundred weight, the grain must grade No. 2 or better and be farm stored. If stored in a commercial elevator, the storage will be deducted from this amount.

10,000 Acres To Corn Predicted

Farming activity in the Muleshoe area is about to break into a feverish pace and as the farmers turn to planting, one hears more and more about "new crops" for this territory.

"Chief" Jones, seed dealer in Muleshoe, and the county agent, J. K. Adams, teamed up yesterday to estimate that 10,000 acres will be planted to corn in the area, biggest acreage to that crop since the early days of agriculture here.

It was said corn already is up to a good stand on the Gable farms northeast of town. Billy Jim St. Clair's corn is coming up; the Haber boys, Russell, Ted and Phillip, will have about 350 acres to the crop.

J. W. Wright, of Oklahoma Lane, it was reported will have 200 acres to corn and Leon Grisom in the same neighborhood will have a nice acreage. Jarvis Angeley, back to the northeast of town, is another corn grower this year.

These men are all planting the hybrid varieties. The Turner family, Pleasant Valley community will have a large acreage to corn. Northwest of town again, it is reported that Walter Watson, of Ferris Watson Seed Co., Dallas will have a very large corn crop. He has acquired 750 acres and will have registered corn and milo for the seed.

Guaranteed support price on corn is around $3.05 a bushel and it looks like a good crop for diverted acres.

Interest In Sesame

A sesame meeting held here Tuesday night developed further interest in this crop. Jones and Adams estimated there will be 2,000 acres to sesame in the Muleshoe area, including parts of Bailey and Farmer counties.

1,000 Acres of Potatoes
Meanwhile potatoes are up and growing around this capital of the West Plains. Pershing Busbice has a nice acreage with the plants coming up; Bill Millen has a good stand. A shortage of seed potatoes developed, but after all local men had finished planting.

New Wells Come In

In the central and south parts of the county, on some farms where it previously had not been thought enough water was present, some 110 new irrigation wells, and good ones at that have been brought in this year. The farms where these good wells have been developed will become a bigger factor in the agriculture outlook. Of course dry-land farmers still hope for rain in time.

Meantime cotton planting is nearly ready to start. It was being predicted some will be planted this week; certainly some cotton seed will go in the ground next week, but the last week in April will see planting going on in earnest.

ATTENDED JACK BAILEY SHOW

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Busby spent the past weekend at Truth or Consequences, N. M., and reported that they had a wonderful time.

Saturday afternoon they attended the big rodeo, then Saturday evening they attended the Jack Bailey show, which was televised from Truth or Consequences.

They also visited the beautiful Elephant Butte Dam while there.

BABSON ADVISES—

Cutting Taxes For Schools

Babson Park, Mass. April 21 — One of the critical problems facing every voter today is how to pay for the mounting cost of education without taxing property holders into the poorhouse.
MORE ECONOMICAL SCHOOLS NEEDED
The sharp rise in the birth rate is one source of our problem. To help house the increasing population, about 9,500,000 housing units have been built since 1945 — 1,215,600 in 1954 alone! This building boom has given impetus to our national prosperity, but it has created problems galore at the school level. Most of these new homes have been purchased by good young couples who want decent places in which to raise their families.
These families have become so large in proportion to existing educational facilities that many cities and towns are now losing money on each new house built. Where there is more than one child per family, the loss often amounts, on the educational bill alone, to several hundred dollars. We know there will be a marked demand for more and more educational facilities during the next ten years. Since by law we must provide both facilities and teachers, we may well ask for some economies to be made which can help keep costs down.

SCHOOL CONSTRUCTION COSTS TOO HIGH
You cannot afford a custom-built automobile. Can you any more afford a custom-built school? It is high time the U. S. Office of Education, as well as the various State Departments of Education, moved in with some standard basic plans for basic schools, which can readily be expanded with the school population. Unit sections should also be made readily movable to some other section of the community should the need arise.

There are literally a hundred ways to cut construction costs: Standard plans should be used for a given number of children, with the extras that don't really add up to a better education for your child being cleared out. Don't build a monument of mortar that will be outmoded long before it is outworn. Let us consider the children and taxpayers — rather than glorify some mayor or architect.

IMPROVE TEACHER EFFICIENCY
The suggestion has been made that we could cut teaching costs by doubling classroom size. Then we could hire the brightest teachers in the land to make recordings for radio and TV educational hookups. The children could be tested on what they had seen and heard by being given true-false, multiple-choice questions, and by having them mark their answers on IBM answer sheets that would be corrected by machine.
However, teacher efficiency cannot be measured in terms of the number of youngsters turned out of our schools each year. From what I have seen of some of the educational products of recent years, I think nowhere near enough stress has been placed on the quality of education which our children are receiving.

TEACHERS NEED MORE MONEY
What business would "earn its salt" today if its employees worked only from 8:30 to 2:30, vacationed from June 25 to September 5, and its factory or store lay idle as much as the average school does? It is true that teachers have papers to correct, lessons to prepare, and extracurricular activities to supervise! But, ways should be devised so that teachers can earn the extra money they need. One idea would be to extend the school day and the school year so that the first eight years are done in seven, and the last four years in three. Thereby we save two years for the children, as well as money for increased salaries.

We can make our plant more efficient and give teachers a much-needed raise. We might even solve the problem of delinquency by keeping our kids busier. This sort of thing is not a pipe dream. At the college level, the students of Babson Institute, a fully accredited College of Business Administration, do four years of college work in three — and after graduation make an outstanding mark for themselves. This might be tried for the lower grades as well. From such, all will benefit — children, teachers, and taxpayers.

VACATIONING IN GALVESTON
Mr. and Mrs. Buck Wood and her sister and husband Mr. and Mrs. Joe Butler of Dimmitt, left Sunday to spend several days in Galveston and other points of interest in South Texas.

Today's Meditation

Light For Our Darkness
Read I John 4:7-12.
He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love. (I John 4:8.)

In the National Gallery of England is a wonderful picture in which Christ hangs on the cross in the midst of darkness. As one keeps looking at the painting, gradually he discovers another form in the background—God's form; other hands supporting Christ — God's hands; and another face — God's face, more full of agony even than the artist has pictured the face of Christ Himself. In His infinite love, God stands by the well-beloved Son in the midst of unthinkable tragedy.

Today God stands by us, caring for us, loving us, suffering with us and for us. We ought never to think of Him as far from us, leaving us to stagger on alone in the dark. He is always nearest when we need Him most. Whatever else we may doubt, never let us doubt the love of God; for God is love, and we are the subject of His love. All the resources of infinite wisdom and power are at His command for our redemption and blessing. God is with us. His love enfold us. Our victory through Him is sure, if only we believe.

PRAYER
O Thou whose name is love, whose heart is ever longing to lift us into loving fellowship with Thee, forgive our careless, sinful indifference to Thee. Put within us the true spirit of penitence. Teach us how to know Thee that we may love and serve Thee as we ought. In His name. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
The eternal God is our Father.

Here's why Chevrolet out-V8's everybody!
These features and advantages are the measure of a truly modern V8 engine . . . and only Chevrolet has them in the low-price field. Most aren't even found in high-priced cars. That's why Chevrolet is stealing everybody's thunder with the most modern V8 on the road!

Modern 12-volt electrical system!
The only car in the low-price field with the extra energy of 12 volts . . . twice the electrical punch!

Faster, stronger cranking for cold-weather starts and a "fatter" spark for faultless high-speed operation.

Highest standard compression ratio in its field!
Chevrolet's compression ratio is 8 to 1, to wring every possible ounce of power and extra miles out of every gallon of gas.

Requires only four quarts of oil!
Chevrolet's V8 engines are so efficient they need only four quarts of oil . . . so you save on every change!

Highest horsepower per pound!
These great V8's weigh far less than any similar engine in America, top the low-cost field in power per pound!

Shortest piston stroke in the industry!
Three-inch stroke reduces cylinder-wall friction, generates less heat, permits more compact design.

The pistons do far less traveling per mile . . . that means less engine wear, lighter loads on bearings.

It's the valve-in-head V8 as only the valve-in-head leader can build it!

"We have in Christianity the answer to every ill in the community", the evangelist said. "The layman has opportunities for influence that the preacher never can approach".

Bill Millen Pioneers West Plains Improvements

One of the most outstanding farmers in Bailey County is Bill Millen, present president of the local Farm Bureau. Here is a man that in spite of his many business obligations still finds time to be concerned about his duty to those living in this West Plains area.

Bill who has pioneered many farming developments in Bailey County recently finished a notable leveling project involving 216 acres of new farm land northeast of Muleshoe. The extensive land leveling on Millen's farms has made watering much easier and penetration is surprisingly even.

The wide variety of crops grown on the 1818 acres farmed by Bill include: cotton, wheat, alfalfa, corn, grain sorghums, sudan, potatoes, and soy beans. He recently plowed up 17 acres of pasture land and has 30 acres remaining.

He plans to return the land he now has in wheat to wheat next fall. He paid $4.50 per ton to have manure for fertilizer on the wheat hauled here from Littlefield.

Millen now has 120 acres of alfalfa and he is planning to seed 50 acres more. This hay is watered by more than a mile of concrete pipe drawing from three wells, a fourth will go down soon.

With land located in the West

Plains most blessed area, Bill at the present time has a total of 13 irrigation wells. Eleven, ten inch wells and two, eight inch.

A strong believer in soil improvement, Millen plants many soil improvement crops. Principal among these are "Austrian Winter" peas and Vetch. He has experienced as much as a 25% increase in production after planting either of the above, but comments Bill, "Sweet clover and alfalfa have been proven better".

Owning a potato processing shed here in Muleshoe, Millen usually raises between 100 and 125 acres of potatoes each year.

Bill was raised on the West Plains and began farming north of Muleshoe after being graduated from Clovis, N. M., High school in 1933. That first year was spent as a hired hand for H. M. Shofner.

He has lived on the site of his Pleasant Valley home since 1935. Bill and Mary Argille Millen have five children: Rosalee 15, Linda 13, Zona 12, Sharon 8, and Teddy 4 1/2.

At Bill's home the completely supplied machine shop and grain elevator located behind tennis courts on the lawn surrounding a beautiful Spanish style house reflects perfectly his admirable manner of combining business and pleasure.

Even the yard gets the best of care around the Millen's farm. Bill and his wife are shown above in their spacious yard with their Spanish style home in the background.

Alfalfa watered by more than a mile of concrete pipe, drawing from three wells provides a relaxing atmosphere as Bill takes a few minutes rest during his busy daily schedule.

Landleveling is a big project on the Millen farms, with 216 acres just completed. Pictured here is the big instrument in this project and talking to Millen is the operator who came from Colorado to take part in the breaking of new land in Bailey County.

 Home Demonstration Agent

May 1-7 is National Home Demonstration Week and plans are being made to observe it in Bailey County. Mrs. Joe Simmacher is in charge of window displays in Muleshoe. The EEE committee chairman and her committee in each club will be responsible for bringing the items to be displayed by her club to Muleshoe. The emphasis this year is going to be placed on clothing and family recreation, since these are the main demonstrations. Family recreation include crafts and other recreational activities carried on in the home. Miss Lucille Moore, recreation specialist, will be in Bailey County May 2 and 3. She will conduct a workshop on family and club recreation. This is the first workshop of this type to be held in Texas so we hope that it will be successful. Four or five people from each club, the council officers and the adult 4-H leaders are being asked to attend. The meeting will be held May 2 in the Community Center at Needmore and May 3 in the club room at Muleshoe. This will be a part of the observance of National Home Demonstration Week in this county. The 4-H clubs' Hobo Day and bake sale were quite successful. The girls and I appreciate the cooperation given us by the townspeople. ***

Lamb is easy to cook. Use the same methods as for any other meat. Three important rules should be followed: cook according to cut; use low temperature; and avoid over cooking.

Practically all lamb cuts are tender, therefore, they may be cooked by dry heat. Whole cuts of leg, shoulder, rib and loin are usually roasted. Choose from these cuts are broiled, panbroiled or fried.

Less tender cuts should be cooked by moist heat. These include shanks and necks which are braised or simmered below the boiling point.

Lamb Stew — Parsley Dumplings
 2 pounds boneless lamb, water,
 6 carrots, diced.

3 onions, sliced.
 2 turnips, diced.
 1 stalk celery, cut in 2-inch pieces.
 6 medium sized potatoes, quartered.
 2 teaspoons salt.
 1/8 teaspoon pepper.

Cut the lamb into 1-inch cubes. Cover with water, cover closely and cook slowly for 1 hour. Add carrots, turnips, onions, celery and potatoes. Season. Cover and continue cooking slowly until lamb and vegetables are done, about 1 hour. About 15 minutes before end of cooking time, bring mixture to boiling point and drop Parsley Dumplings by tablespoonfuls on meat and vegetables. Cover closely and cook until meat, vegetables and dumplings are done, 6 servings.

Parsley Dumplings
 1 cup flour.
 1 1/2 teaspoons baking powder.
 1/2 teaspoon salt.
 1 tablespoon parsley, minced.
 1 egg, beaten.
 1/3 cup milk.
 2 tablespoons shortening, melted.

Sift and measure flour. Add dry ingredients to measured flour and sift again. Add parsley. Combine eggs, milk and shortening

Add liquid mixture to dry ingredients, stirring only until flour is moistened. Drop by spoonfuls on stew.

Lamb should be served either hot or cold — never lukewarm. Hot lamb should be served on warmed plate.

Lamb is easily and completely digested. Mint Jelly and mint sauces are delicious with lamb, but many tart jellies and fruits are equally good accompaniments.

Fruits such as pears, pineapple and peaches, are a treat when browned in the pan with roast lamb.

Lamb fits into the menu in any season. Serve it often to add variety and food value to family meals.

There is no regional meet in junior high school competition so the locals have reached the top of the ladder and climaxed what has turned out to be a track season that promises great things in the future.

Doyle Henry brought the first genuine smile to the face of Coach Bill Taylor when he finished out ahead on the 880 yard run with a 2:07.5 time. From there the Mile Relay team went on to finish second and qualify four local cindermen for regional competition. Brownfield took the relay event in 3:44.3. Members of the local team were Doyle Henry, Lewis Wimberley, Jackie Tidwell, and Eddie Wilt.

This Saturday, April 23, will find the Tech track a busy site once again when schools representing three ISL athletic divisions will compete in the Region 1 meet. Those from this district who took places from one to four will be on hand to try for that coveted trip to Austin.

Some track and field, golf and tennis events will begin Friday.

Bailey County Man Finds Eighty Acres Enough To Work

By CLARA CROSS
In Crop and Stock
G. D. Webb had only 80 acres of irrigated land in Bailey County, near Muleshoe. Judging from his yield in 1953 that was all he needed. One half acre was put into a garden plot. Sixty-five acres went into an oats-alfalfa crop. Fourteen and a half acres were planted in castor beans. Around the first of April, Webb sowed oats on the 65 acres for a quick cover crop and over-seeded with alfalfa. After his first cutting, he fertilized with 0-20-0, using 300 pounds per acre. He averaged 1200 bales an acre each cutting, and was paid $21 to $23 a ton.

Beans Follow Alfalfa
The 14½ acres planted in castor beans had been in alfalfa about six years. It had become root-bound and had died out in spots. Webb plowed it up. He thought castor beans would do good in this alfalfa built-up soil. This proved correct. Ten pounds of seed per acre were planted. He harvested 2,140 pounds per acre and was paid 9c a pound. It was a quick record breaking cash crop.

Webb's wife, Francis, and their two high-school daughters Geraldine and Wanda, did their part. While G. D., as everyone called Webb, and a hired hand kept the crop irrigated, Francis and the girls canned 400 jars of food. And a lot of corn, okra, peas, and beans were put in their lockers. Besides, they gave fresh vegetables to friends who didn't have any, and they sold a few because they didn't want to see any go to waste.

"We watered the garden every ten days or two weeks", Francis said, "and in-between times if it was necessary". Irrigated farming was a new experience for them. They found it pretty hard work before they learned how to set the irrigation tubes. "But we loved every minute of it", they said.

Water Well and Land Leveling

When they bought the farm, a ready-built two bedroom house was moved on it. Then a water well was drilled with a pressure pump installed and water piped into the home.

Next, the land had to be leveled. G. D. was conservation minded and he asked his more experienced neighbor's advice. He cooperated with Bailey's Soil Conservation District and a land-leveling job made his farm like a table top and easy to manage. He was also a strong believer in the value of diversifying, fertilizing, insect control, defoliation, and all practical farming practices. While he ran the machine, Francis hauled the fertilizer. "I could get to town and back", she said, "while G. D. ran out a load."

Webb's eight-inch outlet irrigation well, on electricity, had a shallow pump setting of 70 feet. It was economical to operate and he put it to good use. All cultivated land was thoroughly watered before it was planted. Then the crop was irrigated throughout the growing seasons.

Much Water For Hay
New hay requires a lot of water. They irrigated it just before it was cut, just after it was cut, and whenever it needed water. Between April 28 to 30 a cloud and sandstorm blew the oats-alfalfa out. Webb used a Hoeme plow to break the ground while another man followed up with oats. He waited this time until the oats were up about three inches before sowing the alfalfa. Then they used a hand-seeder.

"I drove the pickup", Francis said, "and G. D. sat in the back and seeded." They thought this method would help prevent another blow-out should they have another storm.

With this set-back it was July 20 before they got their first cutting. It and the second cutting too, was mostly oats. But the last cutting which was in October, was more alfalfa.

Castor Beans Grow Fast
The same plan of irrigating the castor beans every few weeks, made them grow by leaps and bounds. In 45 days after they were planted, they were blooming. At first the plants were watered about every three weeks. When they were three feet and taller, they had to be irrigated more often.

"In the heat of the day if they wilted a little", G. D. said, "we'd start rolling the water to them". By combining time they had grown over six feet, and had lapped in the middles. On September 15, G. D. had planes defoliate the beans. They were combined in October.

Webb says it pays to defoliate. It helped him avoid shattering loss, and also get the early market price while it was highest.

FACTS PROVE IT!

GET THE FACTS ON "ALL 3" LOW-PRICE CARS
AND YOU'LL HAVE PROOF PLYMOUTH IS FIRST:

FIRST IN SIZE—By actual measurement, the 1955 Plymouth is the longest car of the low-price 3. (It's even bigger than some medium-price cars.) Plymouth is truly a big car . . . 17 feet long!

FIRST IN ROOMINESS—Plymouth is also the biggest car inside, with the greatest hip room and leg room. More comfort for you! And Plymouth's trunk, by far the largest in its field, lets you pack practically everything.

FIRST IN VISIBILITY—Comparison proves that Plymouth's glamorous new Full-View windshield—with cornerposts swept back both top and bottom—gives you the greatest visibility of "all 3."

FIRST IN BEAUTY—Compare styling and see why Charm, a leading fashion magazine, chose Plymouth "Beauty Buy of the Year." Plymouth's long, sleek Forward Look wins over the hand-me-down styling of the "other 2."

FIRST IN ECONOMY—Smoothest and thriftiest engine of all! That's Plymouth's fast-stepping new 6-cylinder PowerFlow 117. Its Chrome-Sealed Action gives you extra thousands of trouble-free miles.

FIRST IN COMFORT—Plymouth offers you the most comfortable ride you ever experienced in a low-price car. Only the biggest car in the lowest-price field can give you true big-car riding comfort.

FIRST IN EXTRA VALUE—Plymouth gives you many extra-value features that the "other 2" low-price cars don't have. Come in today and let us show you why Plymouth is first for value!

Why pay up to $500 more for a car smaller than Plymouth?

Don't be fooled by the claims of so-called medium-price cars that they cost practically the same as Plymouth. When you compare price tags you'll find that, model for model, Plymouth sells for much, much less than medium-price cars, and gives you more car for your money!

VISITED SUNDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff White, former Muleshoe residents, of Level-land, visited friends in Muleshoe Sunday, and attended morning services at the Church of Christ.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

Man's God-given dominion over the bondage of fear will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday.

The Lesson-Sermon entitled "Probation after Death" will include the following from the King James Version of the Bible (Hebrews 2:9, 19): "But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man... And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage."

Among the correlative passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy is the following (426:16): "When it is learned that disease cannot destroy life, and that mortals are not saved from sin or sickness by death, this understanding will quicken into newness of life. It will master either a desire to die

Future For The Farmer Is Theme Of Five County Meeting At Bovina

Farmers and farm leaders from five counties will gather at the Friona School auditorium Tuesday night, April 26, at 8:00 for a public forum on the future for farmers. This is the first meeting of farmers from so large an area to be held in Parmer County. Swisher, Castro, Bailey, and Deaf Smith Counties have received invitations from Parmer County Farm Bureau to publicize and attend the meeting.

or a dread of the grave, and thus destroy the great fear that besets mortal existence."

Speakers for the evening will be J. Walter Hammond, Texas Farm Bureau President, and Harold West, Texas Farm Bureau Secretary. Mr. Hammond farms near Tye, Texas, and Mr. West farms and operates a grain elevator at Bishop, Texas. Hammond has been president of Farm Bureau in Texas for seventeen years and has gained unusual recognition in Washington and Austin as the farmer's representative. He was recently recognized as "The Man of the Year in Texas Agriculture" by the farm magazine, Progressive Farmer. Mr. West has been Texas Farm Bureau Secretary-Treasurer for several years. Both men have had extensive experience in State and National farm legislation for many years.

This meeting, arranged by Parmer County Farm Bureau is not called for the purpose of making protests, according to A. J. Ellison, Parmer County Farm Bureau president. It is a meeting at which farm problems, past and present will be discussed on a constructive basis. Milo, Cotton, Wheat and other commodities will be subjects of the meeting; all subjects of great interest to farmers of this area. Farm Bureau's views on the much-discussed milo situation will be presented. The general national farm program will be well covered, too.

"We urge every rancher, farmer, and banker, and others interested, to turn out for this meeting that we believe will be of great benefit to everyone", said Ellison.

agency to be watched diligently. To be considered as one of the amendments to its constitution this summer, is this one from the second London Parliamentary Conference on WORLD GOVERNMENT: (Caps are ours) "MEMBERSHIP IN UN SHOULD BE OPEN TO ALL nations of the world, and All must be urged to join. Once membership has been accepted, continued membership must be COMPULSORY. THERE MUST BE NO RIGHT OF SECESSION." Do you want your America involved in a world trap like that? Under World Government, there is no place in the world to escape it.

May 9th to 14th is National Cotton Week. The National Cotton Council has done much to promote the use and sale of cotton, at home and abroad. One of the greatest achievements in this field is the milling of cotton goods for dress, as well as work clothes; and a lot of money and effort was used to make this achievement. There is much more to do. If a market for a million more bales each year can be made, you the farmer, and you the business man, in a cotton growing area, profit. About eight men, of thirty invited, attended a meeting last Friday at Bovina, where Mr. Gregg, of the National Cotton Council presented plans for cotton promotion in May. Farm Bureau will lend every possible aid to making that week one of recognition for cotton in Parmer County.

PARMER COUNTY Farm Bureau News

By RAYMOND EULER

J. Walter Hammond's appearance in Friona next Tuesday night will be an event of great interest and importance to every citizen of the county. Large numbers of farmers from the four other counties invited have indicated they expect to be present. Mr. Hammond has been a faithful representative in his capacity as President of Texas Farm Bureau because he is an average farmer himself. Harold Kest, Secretary-Treasurer of Texas Farm Bureau, who will also appear on the program, is an equally good farm representative who farms. We hope there will be others than farmers present, and everyone is welcome.

You may have a new Texas Highway map by calling at the office. They came to us through the courtesy of Senator Andy Rogers.

What Makes Your House Obsolete ?

Wiring That Is Inadequate Dates Your Residence

What makes a house obsolete? Not the architectural style, primarily. For really good design has a timeless popularity, whether we call it "contemporary" or "traditional."

What pushes a house out-of-date? Not years, necessarily. For, with proper maintenance, sound masonry or frame construction will stay as good as new for a lifetime or longer.

Then what is the test of modernity? If your house easily accommodates new kinds of equipment — if the appliances your family wants can be installed and used with minimum expense and bother — nobody can label it obsolete.

Yesterday . . . Today . . . Tomorrow . . .

But too many homes were built with little thought for tomorrow's needs. For sixty years the age of electrical living has been developing with giant strides. And decade by decade, householders have discovered that their electric wiring is short on capacity to serve the growing need.

What "dates" a house? Let's look at the wiring!

Gay Nineties Give-Away

Here's a house with two little wires leading up to the meter and with one fused circuit serving the whole place. You can safely call this one a Gay Nineties number. Before the turn of the century, the general idea in home wiring was to provide for one lonesome light in the ceiling of every room!

Fortunately, few families have to contend with 1890 facilities. At some time during the intervening years the wiring in most older homes has been bolstered.

Relics Of World War I

You can usually spot 1918 wiring because the electricians commonly provided two circuits and a few extra lighting outlets and switches. As a touch of luxury two or three "convenience" plugs might be added so that folks could use piano lamps and the newfangled electric irons.

The Roaring Twenties

By 1925, World War I wiring wasn't nearly adequate to serve the new appliances people were buying. This was the first decade of the electric refrigerator and the electric washing machine. The average home had several portable appliances and numerous portable lamps. Typical wiring of this era shows a trend to more duplex outlets, but few homes boast more than four circuits.

No "Depression" For Electricity

Despite the depression of the thirties, the trend to electrical living persisted. The refrigerator business boomed. Battery radios were replaced by plug-in models. Millions of toasters, waffle makers, roasters, mixers, and vacuum cleaners were purchased. Use of portable lamps increased by 50%. Householders complained about "blowing fuses" and safety engineers published warnings against the use of pennies in fuse boxes.

On top of all this, an increasing number of families wanted to cook and heat water electrically. These uses required 3-wire service. It was something special — an extra that had to be specified.

Postwar Awakening

After World War II, the country entered its greatest period of home building and home improvement. Demand for electrical living equipment has been unprecedented. Home wiring has had to keep pace.

What kind of wiring marks the electrically modern home in this decade of the 1950s? A truly modern house today is one that is wired to anticipate the needs ten years from now.

It should have the capacity to serve a complete electric kitchen with its range, dishwasher, food waste disposer, refrigerator and freezer. It should have the capacity to serve an automatic washer, an electric clothes dryer, an electric ironer. It should accommodate year-round air conditioning.

Your modern home today will have enough outlets to serve all the lamps and clocks and radios and TV sets and hair drivers and electric bed covers and electric shavers and power tools that modern families are accumulating.

In fact — if your home is wired this way — nobody will be able to look at it in 1965 or 1970 and say: "This place is 1950 vintage!"

WHAT IS ADEQUATE WIRING?

It Starts With Service Entrance

Make sure there is no bottleneck where the kilowatts come in. A service entrance of at least 100-ampere capacity will provide for electrical living now . . . and when you add new appliances later.

Means Plenty of Circuits

Circuits are electrical highways. To avoid traffic jams you need super-highways, and primary highways and secondary highways. The tiniest home should have at least four lighting circuits, two appliance circuits and special circuits for range and water heater, laundry equipment, furnace fan. Larger homes need more circuits. All homes should have spare circuits to handle future expansion of electrical needs.

Means Plenty of Outlets . . . Strategically Placed

No point in any usable wall space in your home should be more than six feet from a convenient outlet. And in the kitchen no point of any work surface should be more than four feet from an outlet.

Means Plenty of Switch Controls

You should never have to fumble in the dark for a light switch. Too many accidents happen that way. Switches should be located on the traffic side of doors, at the top and at the left of stairways, at all entrances and exits.

IS REDDY "IN A SQUEEZE" AT YOUR HOUSE?

Your Wiring May Be At Fault

If your fuses "blow" . . . or your iron, toaster, range, etc., are slow to heat . . . if the lights dim noticeably when appliances are on . . . if your TV picture gets smaller when appliances are on . . . if you must stop one appliance to operate another . . . or, if "octopus" outlets are needed, your wiring may not be up-to-date. If you have any of these troubles, get free wiring information . . . just call your Public Service wiring expert.

LIVESTOCK MARKET PROJECTS THREATENED

The Texas livestock industry is faced with the prospect of losing three important market information centers because the Texas Department of Agriculture may not have adequate funds to maintain them next year. Market news services at Amarillo, Houston and San Antonio are the critical points. They represent three points which service at least three-fifths of the state.

The TDA requested an appropriation of $15,000 from the Legislature to maintain a price reporting system in these cities. The federal government considered the projects of such importance that it was willing to contribute an equal amount annually provided Texas furnished the initial funds. After first consideration by the Legislature, the appropriation was defeated and only a slim possibility remains in a subsequent bill.

This action means that cattlemen bringing their livestock to any of the three cities for sale may not have adequate information on the worth of their stock. The market reporting system, which previously recorded daily transactions and furnished up-to-the-minute national prices, might be a thing of the past by September 1.

The loss will be keenly felt in the industry. The volume of livestock moving through the Amarillo auction in the past five years has increased to the extent that it has attracted nationwide attention. In Houston, the amount of calves going through the market makes it the fourth largest calf market center in the nation. San Antonio has been a trade center for South, Central and West Texas cattle for many years.

Marketing information is aimed at attracting new business and assuring the cattleman of a good basis for trade. The seller needs to know what his cattle is worth that day. He is seriously handicapped if he has to use guesswork.

It is hoped that the Legislature will see fit to restore these funds before the present session is ended.

SS Representative Coming April 27

A representative will be in Muleshoe at the Post Office at 9:30 a. m., April 27, and will be glad to assist in all matters pertaining to social security.

Many farmer's wives are applying for social security account numbers unnecessarily, John G. Hutton, manager of the Lubbock, Texas, social security office, stated today.

Although self-employed farm operators are now covered by social security for the first time, ordinarily farm income will be credited to the social security account of the husband, Mr. Hutton said. This is true even though the farmer and his wife file a joint income tax return. His wife should apply for a number only if she is a farm operator herself or is a legal partner in the operation of a farm.

Applications for social security numbers may be obtained from the Social Security Administration, Room 202, Veterans Administration Building, 1616-19th St., Lubbock, Texas, or any post office. Completed applications should be mailed to the Lubbock office where the cards will be issued.

Got an itch to switch the pitch?

Here's the New Hit in Hardtops — the 4-Door Riviera

Want to do what a pilot does when he clears for take-off?

Want to feel the pulse-quickening thrill that comes of giving the gun to a high-powered automobile with the world's first airplane-inspired transmission?

Want to try Buick's Variable Pitch Dynaflo* — the spectacular new wonder drive that's the talk of car makers and car buyers alike — and the drive that's sending Buick sales soaring to new record-breaking highs?

Well, sir — be our test-pilot guest at the wheel of a '55 Buick and let today's Dynaflo do the honors.

When you press the pedal as you normally would, you move ahead in velvety smoothness, getting plenty of miles from each gallon of gas . . .

Because twenty propeller-like blades inside the Dynaflo unit, spinning in oil, have an angle of "pitch" for top economy — like the modern plane's propellers when cruising in the air.

But comes the need for emergency acceleration, and — like a pilot does for quick take-off and climb — you switch the pitch of those Dynaflo propellers for action, just by pressing the pedal all the way down.

Instantly, you get full-power response for split-second getaway, or for a sudden safety-surge to get out of a tight spot on the highway.

It's a response thrilling beyond all previous experience — because there's never been anything like it before in any car.

And we'd like you to try it — along with the walloping new V8 power, the cruiser-steady ride, the fine handling ease, and the true big-car roominess that are all part and parcel of every Buick.

Can you come in today — this week, for sure — and test pilot the hottest Buick yet built?

*Dynaflo Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.
