

Song Opens Meet Of Progress WMU

On July 26, the Progress W. M. U. met at the Progress Baptist Church, for a regular meeting. Opening the meeting the ladies sang, "Amazing Grace", after which Mrs. C. A. Bishop led in prayer. Bible study was on the life of John the Baptist and was brought by Mrs. W. H. Wimberley. This was presented in a very interesting way and was enjoyed very much by those in attendance. Seven members were present. They were Meses. E. W. Locker, Wimberley, Doyle Winters, Morris, Sherman, Sweeney, Quisenberry, and C. A. Bishop. A short business session was held following the meeting. Closing prayer was given by Mrs. Doyle Winters.

WSCS Concludes Jeremiah Study

At 9:00 o'clock a. m., Monday, July 27, members of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Muleshoe Methodist Church met for the concluding study of the book of Jeremiah. Mrs. H. Jay Wyer brought the devotional on "New Every Morning". Mrs. D. B. Lancaster was in charge of the study, which was on prayers of Jeremiah. She gave the lesson very beautifully. Accompanying the group at the piano, Mrs. Lancaster played several prayers of forgiveness, petition, and commitment. A short business session followed with Mrs. Wyer, president, in charge. Members decided to meet next Tuesday as usual at the Church, and also on Wednesday, at the home of Mrs. Arnold Morris, where they will spend the day sewing for the Country Club. The meeting on Wednesday will begin at 8:30 a. m. and last all day. All who attend are asked to bring a sack lunch. Mrs. Morris invites all who are interested in this program to come, and each is asked to bring a piece of checked cloth. A book, "Walking With God", was read by Mrs. Foy Wilkerson, who is ill. "On Young and Fearless Prophet", was the prayer used to close the meeting. Next Tuesday's lesson will be a report of the delegates to the School of Mission in Lubbock. Delegates are Darla Myers, Elizabeth Ann Farley, Linda Lou Lancaster, and Mrs. Clay Beavert.

How Safe Are Your Brakes?

A recent National Safety Check found one car of every ten to have unsafe brakes.

Have you had your brake linings checked recently?

If you will drive in we will remove a wheel and drum and inspect the lining for you. Linings that are worn too thin will score the drums which might have to be replaced along with the linings and that is a lot of extra expense.

If you need new brake linings we are equipped to render that service using only the Best Grade Bonded Lining which will give up to 25% more service.

Why not let us check this important safety item now. It may be a big saving for you.

PARMER COUNTY Farm Bureau News

By RAYMOND EULER

Letha Turner, our office secretary will be gone most of next week, attending the sixth Annual Texas Farm Bureau Institute at College Station. We think she is doing a fine job already, but when she has finished the course at College Station and returned, she can do well easier. We're not sure whether anyone else is going from the county or not. Olan Turner is going with his wife, and will probably attend some of the sessions.

Mrs. Ralph Miller and family are spending a few days in the mountains. She announces that Jean Graham is Queen Contest Chairman for the Farwell area, and Mrs. A. J. Ellison for the Bovina area. We expect that the most aggressive business men and clubs will have their entries turned in shortly while there is a broad field to choose from. Any girl would be happy to accept the honors and travels offered to the winner of the Farm Bureau Contests. You can give her that chance by sponsoring her.

Aubrey Ellison and Bruce Parr president and secretary, respectively, attended a district meeting of those officers in Lubbock Wednesday night.

Wendol Christian was painfully injured while working with a hay baler just before farm safety week began. We are glad he was not more seriously hurt, and will apparently be good as new in a few weeks. Be sure to disengage the power unit of any machine before undertaking repairs or inspection of its operations.

Did you know that Farm Bureau organized the first agricultural block in Congress in 1921 to give expression to farmer's demands. Successfully supported Norris Act in 1933 providing for development and utilization of Muscle Shoals properties as a yardstick for cheapening power and fertilizer costs. In 1935, pushed through legislation enabling Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation to purchase surplus farm products for relief distribution. Aided in 1939 in passage of Coffee Seed Bill requiring truthful labeling of field and vegetable seeds. In 1939, obtained additional appropriations for public health, maternal and child health facilities. Helped obtain increased funds in 1941 for the prosecution of monopolies that prey on agriculture?

Consider This: Every way of a man is right in his own eyes; but the Lord pondereth the hearts. Proverbs 21:2.

Ralph Yarborough, The Democratic Candidate For Governor

TO THE VOTERS OF BAILEY COUNTY, AND MULESHOE TRADE TERRITORY:

Through your vote, RALPH YARBOROUGH led in Bailey County, in the first primary for Governor, and is in the run-off primary with Allan Shivers. The vote that RALPH YARBOROUGH received was wonderful; at long last the people are taking over. The big oil companies, sulphur companies, and gas companies are loosing out to the common citizen. RALPH YARBOROUGH thanks you for this fine support, but we must continue the fight for right.

RALPH YARBOROUGH does not have big money, in fact the only money spent in Bailey County during the first primary was spent by the local citizens of the county; no money came into the county for ads or other forms of advertisements. RALPH YARBOROUGH does not have the money to appear on the state wide television net works, or on the state wide radio net works every night and day of the campaign. RALPH YARBOROUGH must depend on the local citizens to raise money to fight his battle for election over the big moneyed interest of Houston and Dallas.

Therefore, you are urged to make contributions to the

Ralph Yarborough Campaign For Governor

All who can, be it big or small, send your contribution to either George G. Johnson, E. W. Johnson, or Karl Lovelady of Muleshoe; Tom Watson of West Camp Community; Neil Smith of Maple; V. C. Weaver of Bula; Henry Damron of Circleback; W. R. Young of Baileyboro; and L. L. Luman of Mays; or better still, contact one of the above and make your contributions so that they can give you literature to hand out to your friends.

BLACKWATER VALLEY Soil Conservation DISTRICT NEWS

The Blackwater Valley Soil Conservation District has approximately twenty thousand acres of land that should be seeded to grass, according to surveys by the Soil Conservation Service technicians.

This is land that is too steep, shallow, or sandy to be profitably cultivated over a long period of time. Such land will pay more on a long range basis in grass than it will being cultivated.

Now is the time to start getting ready to plant grass in the Spring of 1955. Since a "dead cover" is the only seed bed preparation considered adequate for planting dryland grass in this area, this cover crop should be seeded as soon as moisture is available.

Anyone who is interested in re-vegetating cultivated land should first get the ground clean for planting sorghum. Such crops as forage sorghum, sudan, millet or broomcorn should be drilled thick enough to establish a heavycover on the land. If the crop is planted early enough to mature, it should be mowed to prevent this from happening. However, a stubble should be left at least 8 inches high.

After this cover crop is established, it should be left undisturbed over the winter, and then drilled to grass at the proper time next spring.

Insects Destroy $62 Million Worth Of Cotton In '53

Cotton insects last year destroyed more than $62 million worth of lint and cotton seed in Texas. They are busy now and coupled with dry weather could make this 1954 crop an expensive one.

Last year's loss amounted to an estimated 342,600 bales of lint and approximately 142,600 tons of cottonseed, says Freeman Fuller, Jr., assistant extension entomologist. The figures were developed by the National Cotton Council from basic data released earlier by the USDA, reports the specialist.

The top "culprit in the cotton patch" last year was the boll weevil and was responsible for reducing yields by an estimated two per cent. All other cotton insects raised the total loss to five per cent for the state.

A review of the figures Fuller says, shows that Texas Cotton producers are doing one of the better control jobs in the nation. Only California, New Mexico, Arizona and Missouri show a lower percentage of the crop lost to insects.

The loss for the nation amounted to almost $261 million in both lint and cottonseed and is slightly below the total damage done in 1952.

Fuller suggests that farmers continue to keep close check on the cotton insect population by making frequent field inspections. Should infestations develop to the damaging point control measures become a must. The intervals between applications and the thoroughness of the job done, he emphasizes become very important factors in stopping insect outbreaks. Any recommended insecticide, he adds, will give good control if properly applied. Finally, he suggests, farmers may secure information on insect identification, insecticides and their use from any Texas county agricultural agent.

"Specs" Johnson, who thinks it's a real treat to spend an hour or so browsing in a bookshop found his idea of heaven up in Centerville last week.

"Just inside the door," Specs says, "there's a tray of bright blue buttons. If you want to look around without having someone suggest you buy the latest best-selling novel, or maybe a history of Africa, you pin a button on your coat lapel.

"You can poke around all you like. Then when you've found the book you want, take off the button, and someone's right there to take care of you."

From where I sit, everybody likes to make his own choice. It doesn't matter whether it's books, or preferences in clothing or makes of cars. And it's no surprise that folks have personal preferences in beverages, too. So if your neighbor orders a glass of beer while you're having coffee, remember he's entitled to his choice, too.

C. E. Pochel, 89 Dies At Newkirk

Mrs. R. L. Roubinek, of the Pleasant Valley Community, has received a copy of The Newkirk (Texas) Herald Journal in which there was a report of the death of C. E. Pochel, a former resident of this area. Mr. and Mrs. Pochel lived in Pleasant Valley community and left here about 11 years ago. The story follows:

Funeral services for Charles E. Pochel, 89, well known Newkirk man, were held at the First Christian church here Tuesday afternoon with Rev. Carl Packard, pastor, officiating. In 1931 he was married to Mrs. Della Brown of Newkirk, and the couple resided for 12 years in Muleshoe, going to Tacoma, Wash., for two years then to Walters, Okla., for two years and

Friends And Voters

I wish to express my sincere thanks for the vote and support shown me in the first Primary election. It has always been my aim to take care of your business at the office and otherwise, before coming to your home or your place of business to solicit your vote. This has been a more or less hit or miss in personally contacting you. Some seem to think for this reason I am not too interested in keeping the job as your Sheriff, Tax Assessor and Collector.

This is far from right, for I love the work and have studied and trained myself in that line. The next two months will be a very busy time, inasmuch as we will have all the tax rolls and receipts to figure and type, but I will endeavor to see each of you before the Second Primary, on August 28. I will again thank you for all favors shown me in the past, and invite all of you to come to see us at any time we can be of service to you, or just to visit. The office is yours; come by and let us know if we are running it right. Hoping to continue serving you as Sheriff, Tax Assessor and Collector for another two years. Yours sincerely, Yours High Freeman meeting will begin at 9:30 a. m. County ASC committeemen and representatives of state and federal agencies are expected to attend the meetings. Young will head the representatives from the State ASC office. One or more members of the Texas ASC committee are also planning to be present.

Young says the purpose of the meetings is to get from the county committee suggestions on the practices which should be included in the 1955 program. From the district meetings will then come the recommended practices and practice specifications which later in the month will be considered for inclusion in the state program.

Final recommendations from Texas will come jointly from the State ASC committee, state conservationist, S. C. S. and state forester of the U. S. Forest Service. Representatives from the teaching, research and extension parts of the Texas A. & M. College System and many other state and federal agencies meet with the recommending group while the final plans are being made, says Young.

Young also says the latest information on acreage controls and related subjects connected with ACP and ASC programs will be discussed. However, he adds, the big job will be the outlining of conservation and soil building practices which producers can carry out on their farms and ranches during 1955 and thus earn conservation payments.

Rotary Club's Public Projects Planned Tuesday

In the absence of a program, the Rotary Club got down to brass tacks on business matters concerning the club Tuesday, and Bob Gregory, president, put the members through their paces on several projects that are hanging fire.

When one member offered to donate $25 to the club's projects fund, the membership voted to refuse to take it and instead to get busy on worthwhile community projects that would put money into the club's treasury to be devoted to worthwhile causes.

Therefore, two committees were named to look into the two projects. Ralph Mardis is chairman and Woody Lambert helper in a project to sponsor a show. Onard Upton heads a committee to see about another pancake breakfast by the club soon, and D. B. Lancaster and G. A. Paquin are helpers on this committee.

After the meeting a club assembly was held, attended by officers, directors, and committee chairmen, the purpose of which was to begin arrangements to receive the district governor here a little later on. Various committees are to prepare a statement of plans for the year and present written reports to the president for inspection by the governor on his official visit to the club.

Five Sudan Rotarians attended the meeting: Joe Salem Edgar Chance, Jim Arnold, Andy Harris, and Drew Watkins. Dr. W. F. Birdsong, of West Plains Hospital was introduced by Myron Pool as a new member of the club.

Spearfishing Club May Be Organized In Muleshoe Sometime In The Near Future

A twenty-eight pound group of speared at ten fathoms, off Key Largo, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Locker recently returned to Muleshoe after spending five months on the west coast of Florida. Most of their time was spent in training for deep sea fishing and underwater photography. Mr. Locker along with the Diving Club of Sarasota, explored two sunken ships, one seventeen miles off the coast of Clearwater. No treasure was found, but Mr. Locker reports that there was fish for everyone. He writes the following article:

Recently several of my friends approached me on the matter of organizing an underwater spearfishing club. At first this sounded impossible and ridiculous. The very idea of an organization such as this so many miles from suitable water. But on second thought, why not? Boating and line fishing clubs make trips that are hundreds of miles away. I can remember in the thirties, how strange it was to want a boat in Bailey County, but now there are I believe, about as many boats in the county, and especially around Muleshoe, as in some countries that border the Gulf.

Just a few years ago, underwater spearfishing was virtually an unknown sport. Today it is gaining the attention and recognition of sportsmen everywhere. Formerly the sport was confined to favorable localities such as Hawaii, southern California, Florida and the Mediterranean. Now it is slowly spreading throughout the United States and to many foreign countries.

Today's high quality diving gear has made it possible for thousands to obtain their first thrilling glimpse of the underwater world. Given this first view under favorable conditions, there are few who do not return amazed and greatly enthused. Some excitedly make plans to spear the big one that got away, while others cannot wait to take underwater movies or still shots. Many are content to drift and look to explore and marvel at the never ending stream of life that fills our oceans. These people have joined the skin diving fraternity hardly conscious of having made the decision. The sport is vigorous, clean, healthful, always interesting, and sometimes positively exciting. With skill and good luck it will provide food for the table. What sport can offer more?

Spearfishing is not dangerous if common sense precautions are taken. The truth of the matter is that eight out of ten persons can be successful spearfishermen. There is less danger in spearfishing than taking a trip in your car, and the only requirements are a liking for the water, and the desire to explore a new world.

If enough interest is shown to organize a club, not only can the fundamentals of diving be taught in our local pool, but as an organization we can buy equipment at a big discount.

Anyone wishing to help organize a club, contact Harlan Davis, Sudan, or Morgan Locker, Muleshoe, Phone 3363.

New Scout Camp To Be Developed

Joe T. Salem, South Plains Boy Scout Council president, announced that the Council's executive board in session at a meeting at Camp Post on Friday, July 23, voted and approved the development of the Boy Scout camp, Camp Haynes, located ten miles northeast of Silverton, Texas.

The camp construction to be included within the development project is the development of three Troop campsites—construction of a complete water system, a swimming pool, and a large open shelter.

Each of the Troop campsites, three in number, will have an Adirondack shelter 9 by 14 ft., a Troop cabin 12 by 14 ft., and Troop washing and shower facilities and sanitation facilities. The swimming pool, to be an all concrete construction, will be 20 by 50 ft., in length surrounded of course, by a cement apron for a sidewalk and with a fence all the way around. The bath house facilities are to be in one corner of the pool.

Mr. Salem also announced that the board had tentatively approved, of course contingent with the ability of the Council to raise the necessary money, the purchase of a campsite for the Council in the mountains of New Mexico and the purchase of canoes and row boats so that aquatic camps could be held for Explorer Scouts within this Council. Mr. Salem stated that the Council Executive Board had approved the inclusion of these items in the Annual Fall Operating Campaign to be held this October and November in all of the communities of the twenty counties of the South Plains Council.

Mrs. E. C. PATTON of Guymon, Okla.

Says— "I always look for ECONOMY and my ELECTRIC Home Freezer gives it to me!"

Mrs. E. C. Patton of Guymon, Oklahoma: "I use my left-overs for planned-overs! There are many reasons my home freezer is a saving. I always look for economy, because with four growing boys, it takes plenty of food and clothing."

"Behind my home freezer door, I have a store at home that is open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. No more trips to the grocery store when unexpected company drops in. I have complete meals in my freezer which include a variety of meats, vegetables and desserts."

ELECTRIC HOME FREEZERS ARE AVAILABLE IN UPRIGHT OR CHEST MODELS

All homemakers are looking for economy these days, and the home freezer is one of the best places to find it. Better meals at lower cost, with less work, is the assurance a home freezer will give you.

Freezers save as much as $250 a year on food costs, and completely eliminate food waste and spoilage, which "eats up" 10% of the amount of money that you spend for food.

"I freeze my ground meat in patties, which is a big time saver. Any time my family decides on hamburgers, it takes but a few minutes to have them ready for eating. I also freeze my cakes in slices, so I can take out just the amount needed for meal time."

BABSON DISCUSSES—

The Lindbergh Theory

By ROY DYER

Television takes on an international flavor in NBC-TV plans for the coming months. First there's the plan to telecast the British Empire games from Vancouver, B. C., climaxing with the heralded race between Roger Bannister of England and Jack Landy of Australia, the world's two under-four-minute milers.

On top of that, NBC has paced the Canadian professional football games for Saturday afternoon showing, having lost out on the college football telecasts to ABC-TV. NBC will follow up its Canadian football coverage with the season of American pro basketball contests. Sounds like a lot of action on the nation's TV screens this fall.

Edward R. Murrow is on a summer vacation but he's not resting. He "accidentally on purpose" will be vacation-bound for southern Asia in August... with his cameramen and crew. The fare is Indo-China, and the odds are that Murrow's first "See it Now" show for the fall will be the Indo-China story on film, gathered on the spot.

Red Buttons has obtained his release from his CBS-TV contract, and other networks are bidding for the comic's signature. After a bad season, Red's popularity rating started to climb again at the close of the series in June.

You won't have to worry about "ups and downs" in your TV set's performance if you choose a PHILCO. The new Philco sets have earned their high rating for consistent performance. See them in our big display. DYER HARDWARE AND FURNITURE, Phone 2590, Muleshoe.

Babson Park, Mass., July 29 — Readers have been disturbed by General Lindbergh's important article in the July 17 issue of the Saturday Evening Post. The gist of the Lindbergh article is that the H-Bomb is bringing about a new era in world history against which it will be almost impossible for any country to protect itself. This means that unless the United States is willing to start a surprise World War III, our only chance is to have such elaborate powers for retaliation that no other country will dare start one. This will mean continued high taxes until a revolution in Russia or something unforeseen happens.

WHAT LINDBERGH'S THEORY MAY MEAN

Although my Organizations are not authorities on military affairs, we do know world history. Certainly conditions today are very similar to what they were 500 years ago. Any reader can check this by studying H. G. Wells' Outline of History, or Munro's The Middle Ages, or books on the Reformation and European Revolutions.

As was the case around 1450, the power of the established Churches today has distinctly weakened. The rulers of the Western Nations have today become timid, while the Russians are trying to absorb other nations—repeating the pattern of 500 years ago.

H-BOMBS VERSUS MOVABLE TYPE

History shows similar conditions existed when printing became powerful in 1450. This, like the H-Bomb, became a threat to the entrenched rich political Kingdoms. The Church and Kings fought by legislation, persecution and wars; but the rise of the masses could not be stopped. The printed word became more powerful than the sword. Reformations, revolutions, and beheadings followed. The discovery of the H-Bomb is unsettling civilization today as did the birth of printing in 1450.

WHAT ABOUT CAPITALISM?

Naturally we do not want to see entrenched capitalism collapse as did entrenched mon-archism. We now use legislation, submit to high taxes and endure small wars to protect our way of life, as these same methods were practiced 500 years ago to protect established monarchism. Could it be that the fear of the H-Bomb will become as powerful as was the fear of printed books 500 years ago?

For the longpull, I am optimist. I don't believe in the Lindbergh Retaliation Theory. I, however, do believe that the fear of the H-Bomb (like the fear of printing 500 years ago) could handicap our Western Democracies with a blow to the capitalistic system.

WHAT ABOUT RETALIATION?

Lindbergh's only hope of preventing our big cities from being destroyed is by constant threat of retaliation. Such will retard the forces of Communism, but it will not accord with Christian teachings. Will the threat of retaliation save capitalism as we now know it?

The Communists will not ever win a Third World War; but they may gradually increase their power and influence by constantly threatening to start such a war. Surely we may expect continual small wars, big military preparations and high taxes.

PREPARING FOR THE WORST

My grandchildren agree with me that security cannot be obtained indefinitely by legislation, pensions, and tariffs. As our ancestors learned to live with "printed bombs", we must be prepared to live with H-Bombs. Jail-Communist today may be no more effective than was beheading or burning heretics 500 years ago. One of my own ancestors, Reverend John Rogers, was so burned "at the stake" for translating and printing the Bible in 1555.

Hence, I urge my grandchildren: (1) To develop a strong and sane spiritual faith; (2) to acquire robust health and good habits; (3) to become an expert in some useful industry; (4) to own a home and raise a family in an agricultural center; (5) to have investments widely diversified both geographically and industrially, avoiding large cities.

RETURNED HOME

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Starnes and granddaughter, Leola Mae of Medford, Ore., have returned home after a two-week vacation here looking after business interests and visiting in the home of her brother, S. H. Pierce and other relatives and friends at Lubbock, Littlefield, Levelland, and Turkey.

SAND HILLS PHILOSOPHER—

Blames Texas Water Shortage On Desire of City Folks For Carpet Grass

Edior's note: The Sand Hills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm is clearly mistaken in his letter this week, but we're publishing it in the interest of freedom of the press. Dear editor:

As everybody knows, it's dry in lots of places in Texas and the problem of saving water is a hot topic of conversation and probably the only subject all of office holders are unanimously in favor of, outside maybe of lower taxes and integrity, which have been known to hit long dry spells themselves, but up to now most of the people who favor conserving water talk in vague generalities. They're in favor of it but they never come out and say how.

Therefore I was pleased to run into a man in town the other day who has come up with a definite, concrete plan for saving water from one end of Texas to the other.

Accordin to this man, one of the biggest consumers of water and one of the most useless in Texas is carpet grass, the stuff most city dwellers figure they ain't livin' till they've got a good stand of.

If all the water which was poured on carpet grass on the lawns of just one town in Texas, as yesterday alone was diverted to agricultural use, especially mine, I'd have Johnson grass four feet tall and cattl that were full and restin in the shade every morning by 9:30. You multiply this by all the lawns in all the towns in the state, plus a good many out in the country and you can see where a tremendous amount of Texas water is goin.

Carpet grass is a puzzle to me. Cattle won't eat it, it dries up if it goes longer'n a week without water, and it costs something to get it started but town dwellers with 360 more monthly installments on their new home feel like they're living in a house without window shades if they don't get some carpet grass set out, and when they do, they stake out claims on another hundred thousand gallons of Texas water.

Of course, I don't expect any politicians to come out in opposition to carpet grass, because if you've got the carpet grass vote, you've got a majority, but me and this man in town, we ain't office holders and we're hereby startin a campaign against the stuff. I think his motives may not be as agricultural as mine, he's not as interested in conserving water as he is energy and water bills, but we both agree there just ain't enough water in Texas now for farmin and carpet grass both, and one of em ought to go.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Today's Meditation

SOME GREAT EVENTS IN THE BOOK OF ACTS

And daily in the temple, and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach Jesus Christ. (Acts 5:42.) Read Acts 5:29-32.

This text describes the daily practice of the early Christians. The coming of the Holy Spirit upon them as they waited and prayed together in the upper room had been a real experience. After His coming they were not content to sit quietly. Indeed, they could not keep their newfound joy to themselves. This power in them stirred their feet to run and their lips to tell.

Words fail to express our amazement when we read of the early Christians. They were courageous in the face of scourging imprisonment, persecution, and even death. In spite of all that the world did to them, they had victory.

What they had then, we can have today. God is always ready to possess our hearts and minds with His love. He wants us to go out to serve in Christ's name and for His sake. Can He depend upon us?

PRAYER

Dear God, we pray for the power of the Holy Spirit to possess us. Grant unto us courage and faith to go forth each day preaching and teaching our Lord Jesus Christ by all we do or say or think. In the name of Christ we pray. Amen.

Farmers Are Opening Wallets Wider In Rain-Aided Areas of Southwest

A lead story in the July 15 edition of The Wall Street Journal was devoted to the economic conditions of this section of the country. The story, bearing a Muleshoe lateline, is reproduced below.

By LAMAR MACKAY
Staff Reporter of
THE WALL STREET JOURNAL

MULESHOE, Texas — Drought-ridden farmers in this vast South Plains country are buying more eagerly again. Merchants hereabouts are counting on their spending to keep climbing.

"We're doing a right fair business right now, and it'll get better," draws one merchant. Says a tire and appliance dealer: "If business all over the country is like it is here, I don't see any reason to worry about any depression."

This talk typifies what you hear in these parts since spring rains eased the three-year drought that had crippled farmers' buying and merchants' ordering. Judging from reports heard here, and for many miles to the south and east, the promise of generally-fatter crop incomes has farmers spending more liberally for goods from farm machinery to autos to furniture. This news, of course, brings cheer to makers of these things in all parts of the land.

The End Is Not Yet
This doesn't mean the drought is over. In Central Texas, a new drought emergency, intensified by the current heat wave, has hit 10 of the states' 254 counties. In southern Bailey County, near here, the situation is still critical. But many West Texas areas seem sure to pull out of the drought if more rains come. Right now carloads of alfalfa are being rolled out of this farm center, and the potato harvest is under way.

In Muleshoe, the Bailey County seat (population: 2,477), traders are accustomed to taking the bitter with the sweet. Despite the heat wave, they say, business is flourishing.

Walk through the wide streets of this old cattle town, which bears the name of one of the Old West's fabulous ranches, and more than half the storekeepers will tell you their sales are running well ahead of the drought-slaved pace of a year ago. The others say they're about even, or maybe a little behind, but these expect to be ahead by the end of the year.

Relatively speaking, Muleshoe retailers are faring better than their fellow merchants elsewhere in Texas and the nation. Retail sales of the nation's stores in first-half 1954 were off about 2 per cent from a year ago; Texas sales for the first five months were down 3 per cent.

"Ahead Every Month This Year"
Here's what Muleshoe merchants are saying:

"Our sales are up 15 per cent over a year ago, and they've been steadily ahead of 1953 every month this year," asserts Randy Johnson, tire and appliance dealer. "Sales some months have exceeded the same months last year by as much as $10,000."

"For the first six months, business was about 20 per cent over the first half of 1953," says the manager of the Ben Franklin variety store. "We look for sales to pick up even more as the summer rolls along."

"Sales are about normal on new cars, but we've had a big jump in used car demand, and our parts business is about 20 per cent ahead so far on the year," comments Arthur Crow, the local Chevrolet dealer.

"The grain trade is fixing to have another holiday in the King-handle," says Robert King of King Bros. Grain & Seed Co., one of six grain dealers in town. "The elevator business is really looking up, due to the cut in cotton acreage." Many farmers in this region have shifted from Federally-controlled cotton to uncontrolled grains. "Our overall business for the first six months is up at least 25 per cent," Mr. King adds.

Grain for 10-Store Chain

While Muleshoe and Bailey County comprise only a small part of the South Plains farming region, what is taking place here seems typical of the West Texas area. Says R. N. Kayal, owner of the Fair Stores, a 10-store clothing and dry goods chain in west Texas: "We're running about 25 per cent ahead of last year's sales in all our stores." A recent Saturday, he says, was the best day he's had in more than two years.

While this West Texas area suffered some of the worst drought damage and enjoyed perhaps the greatest relief, the better-business trend evident here may be significant for other parts of the five-state dry region that received rains — notably sections of Kansas and Oklahoma.

The big sales booster in West Texas was the April and May rains, the first appreciable amount of moisture some sections had received in three years. Talk to merchants and farmers at Lamesa, about 100 miles southeast of here in Dawson County, a mostly dry area that was nearly paralyzed by the drought, and they'll tell you about April 11, "the day the rains began."

"It didn't exactly rain $20 bills but it sure helped the morale of the people and business, too," says W. B. Collins, owner of Collins Dry Goods Co. in Lamesa.

Sunny Saturday
Says Weldon McKinney, manager of Martin's Dry Goods in the same West Texas town: "This first Saturday after the rain we did four times as much business as we had done on any Saturday in four years."

And J. B. Leavelle, owner of Leavelle's nickel and dime variety store, explains: "The attitude of buying definitely changed on the part of all the people. Our sales since early April have been 25 per cent ahead of the preceding three months; business is definitely on the up-trend. But don't forget business had sunk to its lowest ebb." At Lubbock, the "capital of the South Plains," some 70 miles southeast of Muleshoe, retail sales for April jumped 23 per cent over March. That leap left sales still down about 15 per cent for the year, compared with 1953, but sales in each of the first three months were off more than 20 per cent from a year ago.

Typical at Lubbock right now is this statement of Joe Booth of Farmers Supply Co., Massey-Harris farm machinery outlet: "Our sales are running 15 per cent to 20 per cent better than a year ago and we'll run ahead by about the same amount the last six months of 1954 because of the larger grain crop. The increase is due mainly to the rains we had this spring."

Word from Neal Deal

At New Deal in Lubbock County, John Abbee, a farmer who also farms in Hale and Hockley Counties, 1,100 acres in all, says: "Farmers almost everywhere around here seem to be in pretty good shape after the April-May rain, but more is badly needed right now. Irrigated crops are about two weeks behind last year, but I believe they're looking a lot better, and the dryland boys, for the most part, are in better shape than they've been in several years."

And this is pretty Mrs. Coy Morris, a housewife talking: "I tell you, the crops look just wonderful. It's making managing the household seem a lot easier already, just to see them up and growing." She and her husband bought 253 acres of land two years ago but "we've never made a payment on it," says the 29-year-old farm woman. "We missed both crops." They farm at Afton, on the eastern leg of the Texas drought area.

At Lamesa, Leory Colgan, Dawson County agriculture agent, observes: "This county is in the best shape it's been in three years, and with a little rain, farmers will have the bumper year of 1949." A merchant there puts it this way: "This entire county looks like a garden again. We've got a $20 million cotton crop on the way, and if the season is right and we get more rain, it'll put us all on our feet again."

Here around Muleshoe, geography has a good deal to do with how well the farmers are doing. Just south of here a narrow sandy ranching belt stretches across Bailey County east to west and cuts it into two parts — 100,000 acres of irrigated crops in the north and farming in the south.

W. T. "Bill" Millen, slow-talking president of the Bailey County Farm Bureau, sums it up this way: "In the north, the farmer is sitting pretty; in the south, it's rough."

Adjusting his faded straw hat and stuffing farm literature into his bulging shirt pockets, Mr. Millen goes on to say: "The irrigated farmer's only worry is getting caught in the squeeze between prices of farm crops getting a little lower and machinery, repairs and labor not coming down any. In the south, though, they haven't had a crop in three or four years, and they're so far in debt now, it will take two good crops to pull them out."

Mr. Millen, who farms 1,300 acres to the northeast of Muleshoe, rubs a hand across his sun-tanned chin and muses: "The only thing we need out here is a little more rain. Prices are still pretty good, except hay and castor beans. We want to buy everything we can get our hand on—TV, new cars and lots of household goods."

Bailey County's farm income last year amounted to about $14.5 million. Running counter to the regional up-trend, it may be down some this year due to a cut in the cotton acreage and continued drought in the southwest corner of the county. But a typical merchant says: "This is still a good place to live and have a shop. Farmers are continually making money and spending money. Crops are coming off all the time around here."

Besides cotton, which accounts for about $9 million of the county's total farm income in normal years, other local crops include grain sorghums, green beans, onions, castor beans, wheat, oats and barley.

Bank Deposits Creep Up
Deposits of the Muleshoe State Bank at the end of June stood at over $5.2 million, up slightly from the $5.1 million a year ago. "And it could be $2 million or $3 million had had a crop two or three years ago," states cigar-smoking Jesse M. Osborn, president of the town's only bank. Loans, meanwhile, at $2.1 million, are up slightly from the $1.9 million of last year.

Sitting in his office in shirt sleeves and going over bank papers, Mr. Osborn declares: "Buying of the farmer has slowed down all over, it seems, and it has here, but we're not suffering too much. In fact, we're doing as well as anywhere, and a lot better than some places. I've seen these things before, and with a little rain farmers in the southern part of the county will bounce right back. Business in town is doing right well."

4 bedrooms of comfortable size with ample storage space. If you do not need the chimney (see dotted squares labeled "c"), you can easily utilize these spaces for storage.

You will like the arrangement of the rooms. The front entrance hall has a large closet for wraps and anything you need to store there. The central hallway saves unnecessary travel through other rooms and simplifies house-keeping considerably.

The dining room can accommodate a large family and quite a few guests; but if you prefer nice bedroom by cutting a door into the hall.

The living room, which has a wide opening into the dining room will comfortably hold large groups. A lot of window area makes it very cheerful to live in, and three walls are unbroken by doors, which makes furniture arrangement easy.

The conveniently arranged kitchen gives ample eating space for the family, plenty of counter top and work area, and enough room so that several people can work there without stumbling over each other. If you want a chimney, we suggest you place it in the corner as shown on the floor plan.

A very helpful feature is the workroom, which contains a good-sized pantry, a large closet, space for laundry equipment, it may be converted into a very home freezer and a lavatory — for the menfolks after work.

The front porch may be screened in to provide summer living space without detracting from the appearance of the house in any way.

In case you do not want the garage, you still can have an attractive house without it.
