Care Center services, staffing discussed

BY MELISSA PERNER THE OZONA STOCKMAN

Being better than the minimum standard, meeting the basic needs of residents and working to improve the quality of services was discussed during last week's Crockett County Care Center, Health and Emergency Board of Directors meeting.

Care Center nurses, staff members and resident family members were all present at the EMS Building.

The nurses and staff said quality of care has diminished at the care center in the last few months, with a lot of problems being attributed to needing more nurses and aides on staff.

"We are struggling to meet just the basic needs of these residents. We have been told we are lazy and spoiled and need to go back to school. Spoiled and lazy doesn't sit with our residents. It doesn't said employees are doing their requiring the students to work hold the hand of a dying soul. We do not have that kind of staff," said LVN Megan Nowell. "Our patients always come first. Common courtesy is lacking. Please look to this. I am here tonight care about what happens in this community and within the care center." Nowell said mileage has been cut for employees who travel from other towns to work in the center. She also best, even cutting time on their breaks, to go above and beyond caring for the residents.

Right now, the care center has 48 residents. The maximum for the facility is 54.

Three of the current residents required three employees for assistance in mobility, said Tonya Aldridge, LVN.

Aldridge also said more certified nurses' aides are needed and that another class, at the care center after completion, would help.

"We're not asking for a ton of people. Six people right now would be adequate. Our girls are really good about working together," Aldridge said. "I'm not asking for us, I'm asking for our residents. That's our bottom line, taking care of our residents.

Nowell said Administrator Robert Stecher has made good decisions in letting go employees who fail to show up for work.

Also, there are a number of regular employees out due to illness, injury or other health reasons.

"We do not expect any changes overnight. We want you guys to know our position and how we feel. As long as our residents are taken care

Commissioners adopt budget, tax rate

BY MELISSA PERNER THE OZONA STOCKMAN

The Crockett County Commissioners' Court unanimously approved and adopted the 2014 official County Budget and tax rates during Monday's regular meeting. Taxpayers will see an increase in the overall tax rate of $.054. The total property tax rate is $1.62158 per $100 evaluation compared to last year's rate of $1.56723.

The CCCCSD tax rate increased two cents from $1.04 to $1.06 after voters approved a tax ratification election on Sept. 3.

The additional two cents will raise around $400,000 for the school district. These funds are not subject to state recapture.

The county effective tax rate increased from $.051 to $.055. The commissioners voted in a previous to stay with the effective tax rate, which raises the same amount of revenue from property taxes as last year's budget. Property added to the tax roll this year is $334,216. The county has no debt obligations.

In the 2014 county budget, employees will receive salary increases of $150 a month, or $1,800 per year.

Also, the budget includes $55,000 for a new fire truck, $6,500 in animal control for postage and supplies and a $400,000 increase for care center expenses.

Estimated revenues for the care center also increased around $400,000 and $44,000 for the Crockett County EMS.

Copies of the county budget and tax rates are available to the public by request through the county auditor's office.

Lions fall short to Braves

BY MELISSA PERNER THE OZONA STOCKMAN

LION STADIUM - The Ozona Lions lost in a tough home opener Friday night, 20-16, against the Iraan Braves.

The Lions, just off of a comeback win against Eldorado, tried to do the same against the Braves but fell short.

"I am very proud of our Lions coming back from a 14-point deficit again to make a game of it. Unfortunately, we fell a little short," said Coach Edward Perez. "The team was a little shorthanded last week with some key players being taken out of play for safety precautions. Thus, I was proud of the many individuals

A set of values is important to businesses

As we go about our business of assisting small businesses, we understand the need for basic policies and procedures, especially as a business grows. It is important for small businesses to have some policies and procedures committed to writing to avoid different interpretations and to ensure understanding. Most small businesses also need a set of values, committed to in writing that is revisited often and used as a guide in making decisions, large and small.

If you try to commit all necessary and needed decision guidance to written policies and procedures, you would have a policy and procedure manual of many pages. Instead owners and employees can be better served by adding a set of values, which they believe in, and use

BUSINESS TIPS

as they encounter the many daily decisions of the business. Obviously the important goals of any small business are to survive and flourish with positive cash flow and making a profit.

Examples of a set of values are integrity, excellence, service, and innovation. Once adapted, the values need to be discussed as they relate to employees holding responsibility in the business. This way, when they encounter decisions, opportunities, circumstances, etc. they have a "compass" that should guide them to the right answer.

If one of your key employees is having a difficult and busy day with all sorts of issues, then what happens when a good customer has an immediate request for help they cannot avoid? If your key employee understands the value of service, they will understand the need to take care of the customer first, without having to check with the owner. If a key employee is asked to make up a fake invoice for a good customer so they could use it fraudulently, then the answer is clear. The value of integrity will lead then to a quick no answer. Show all candidates interviewed your set of values and ask them to discuss how they interpret them as it relates to the position they have applied for. It can be eye opening and it can help you make your hiring decision.

The set of values discussed above happens to be the set of values for the ASU Small Business Development Center. It is what we strive to every day. We may fall short on occasion, but we all strive to adhere. We understand how they relate to our individual positions. Perfection is not always possible, but excellence in adhering to our values we believe helps make us the organization that we are.

Shut Down Obamacare, Not the Government

exas' junior senator in Washington, D.C., is causing quite a stir. This is nothing new, considering Ted Cruz has been doing just that since being sworn in January. Cruz has not followed the advice that freshman senators are there to be seen, not heard. And I, along with many other Texans, am glad he is defying conventional wisdom.

He now finds himself in the eye of the storm regarding the upcoming debate on the federal government's continuing resolution which will allow the federal government to operate for a bit longer (it appears D.C. has all but given up actually passing a budget during the Obama presidency).

At issue is Cruz's advice to defund Obamacare as part of the package to keep the federal government running.

The basic argument against the defund strategy goes like this: If Republicans choose to defund Obamacare, then the federal government will shut down. If the federal govern ment shuts down, the Republicans will be blamed for it. If the Republicans are blamed for it, then the disastrous consequences of the mid-1990s shutdown will be repeated. Therefore, it is necessary to keep the government going and live to fight another day, on another issue.

However, I prefer Cruz's strategy. First of all, the scenario he has proposed is not analogous to the shutdown in the mid '90s. The senator has posited that Republicans should fund all of the government except Obamacare. In the mid '90s, the entire federal budget was held ransom to the shutdown. Secondly, as one close Obama advisor put it, "Never let a crisis go to waste."

What we are seeing every day out of D.C. is the inability of the Affordable Care Act and its caretakers to properly implement (or understand) the law. U.S. Rep. Nancy Pelosi, D-Calif., presciently stated, "We have to pass the bill to know what is in it." Unfortunately, the more we come to know what is in it, the more the American people do not like what they see. In the past few days we learned that UPS will no longer cover spouses for health care. Delta Airlines has said that its health care costs would skyrocket $100 million in 2014. The Nevada that Obamacare hurts employee prospects. And retailer Forever 21 has announced reduced hours for employees because it cannot bear the weight of the costs associated with Obamacare.

Add to these items the president's unconstitutional decision to postpone the employer mandate until after mid-term elections in 2015, congressional staffers and aides doing all they can to obtain a waiver from the bill many of their bosses helped write, and the fact the Obama administration has failed to meet any meaningful deadline for implementation of the behemoth health care bill, and it is easy to see why Cruz is calling for the

The bill was so ill-conceived and rushed through Congress that Americans have no idea of what this legislation will look like in six months, let alone six years. Now, Cruz is taking the bold step and calling for its complete defunding. What is so alarming is the opposition he is facing in his own party from elected officials who have denounced Obamacare with ferocity but are unwilling to take the steps necessary to fix the problem.

defunding of the legislation.

The senator has presented a sensible solution. Fund the federal government except Obamacare. Then President Obama and Senate Majority Leader Harry Reid, D-Nev., will be forced to make the decision to defund the president's signature piece of legislation or shut down the government (my guess is on the latter). Then, as Cruz has said, conservatives will have to do something they have not done in a while win the argument. But, it can happen with articulate and knowledgeable men such as Cruz and Sen. Mike Lee, R-Utah, leading the charge. And now is the perfect time to make that move.

If this is not the issue to fight on, what is? I applaud Cruz's efforts and join in his desire to "defund it."

MATT KRAUSE, R-Fort Worth, represents District 93 in the Texas House.

Cow College

Many college graduates are now finding that it made no sense to spend $200,000 of their parent's money, or to go in debt $100,000, for a degree, just to discuss the classics with other college grads in the unemployment line. Some schools now are offering "diseducation" courses to untrain people who are having difficulty getting jobs because they are overqualified. While these overeducated people had their heads buried in books their high school classmates who didn't go to college were getting

As for myself, I didn't pursue a formal education... I was an animal science major. Other than a small scholarship I paid every cent of my college education and it was worth every penny, but not because it gave me job skills. I have made my living as a writer for 40 years and guess how many writing classes I've taken? ZERO! But college was great because I met my wonderful wife there, and my dear friend and teacher Frank Fox, who got me my first two jobs in the cow business, first as a cowboy and then as a field editor, which launched me on my career as a rancher and a writer. So if you don't like something I've written don't complain to me... blame Frank.

I graduated from college in three years. (I had to because that's all the money I had.) I could have graduated in two if I didn't have to take all the required general education classes. To get my animal science degree I almost had to minor in chemistry and yet in raising cattle. I was so busy taking classes like Philosophy of World Religions that I didn't have time to take two classes that would have served me well: horseshoeing and colt starting.

I often encounter old college chums whose Breathalyzer scores were higher than their GPA's who are now very successful businessmen.

They've done exceedingly well despite having failed zoology, and not once has a cow asked to see their college transcripts. I can think of another couple of guys who did pretty well too after dropping out of college, you may have heard of them: Bill Gates and Steve Jobs.

Speaking of jobs... I don't know how a class in music appreciation gets you one. I remember one class where the professor asked us to discuss the meaning of a popular song at the time: A Horse With No Name. I made no points when I replied, "That's just silly. Whoever heard of a horse with no name?"

In Ethics we probed the depths of Confucius and Kant when we should have been probing the depths of a good post hole. For our final exam we had to compare three famous philosophers when we should have been discussing the pros and cons of batwings, chinks and shotgun chaps. Six quarters of PE were required so I wasted my time and my money taking classes like bowling and golf when I should have been taking 12 quarters of roping. Which, of course, wasn't offered.

In zoology we had to dissect a frog but I've never had a frog ranch, yet there's been many a time when I wish I knew more about the inside of a cow. I had to memorize countless formulas in Statistics but it would have served me better if they'd have taught me how to figure the odds it would rain. I took several business classes but not one of them taught me how to survive on $600 a month cowboy wages, why you should sleep with your bit so your horse won't have a frostbitten tongue, or how to do a cost-benefit-analysis of loading too much weight on a truck.

Instead of all these worthless classes here are a few I wish I could have taken: Introduction to Fence Pliers; Making A Bridle From Baler Twine; Cowboy Card Games; Pawn Shops 101; How To Find A Wife Who Can Cook, Clean and Pull A 24 Foot Gooseneck; and 150 Ways To Cook Beans. What should be "required" in college is practical stuff you need to earn an honest living, like, How To Sew Up A Prolapse With A Saddle String or a Hair From Your Horse. You know, the one with no name.

Court lets redistricting maps stand, for now

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS By Ed Sterling | Texas Press Association

AUSTIN — A San Antonio federal court on Sept. 6 ordered that redistricting maps passed by the 2013 Texas Legislature will serve as interim plans and those plans would be used in upcoming elections, including 2014 elections.

Plaintiffs challenging the maps allege racial discrimination in the drawing of boundaries in certain districts.

In its order, a three-judge panel of the U.S. District Court Western District of Texas San Antonio Division noted the litigation would continue "for as long as it takes to reach a legally correct decision on very important issues, but elections must go on." And, the panel reasoned, that because "a full, fair and final review of all issues before this Court cannot be completed prior to the upcoming deadlines for the 2014 elections" the current set of maps being challenged will stand for the time being.

The complexity of these matters increased in June after the U.S. Supreme Court, in effect, ruled that certain sections of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, and preclearance in particular, may no longer apply unless plaintiffs prove racial discrimination still exists. Prior to the ruling, Texas had been a "covered" jurisdiction, meaning that because of its history of racial discrimination in voting practices the state was subject to federal preclearance of redistricting maps and other proposed changes to election laws.

The case resulting in the order is Shannon Perez; Harold Dutton, Jr.; Gregory Tamez; Sergio Salinas; Carmen Rodriguez; Rudolfo Ortiz; Nancy Hall and Dorothy DeBose, Plaintiffs, v. State of Texas; Rick Perry, in his official capacity as Governor of the State of Texas; and Lt. Gov. David Dewhurst, House Speaker Joe Straus and Secretary of State John Steen, in their official capacities, Defendants.

Jefferson to leave office Chief Justice Wallace B. Jefferson on Sept. 3 announced he would leave the Texas Supreme Court effective Oct. 1.

Reduction in number of cases carried over from one term to another, increases in use of technology to improve efficiency, increases in transparency and decreases in costs are listed among achievements during Jefferson's nineyear tenure as chief.

Furthermore, in 2007 under Jefferson's leadership, a rule was adopted to allow cameras in the courtroom "to bolster the public's understanding of the court's work." In 2012, the court mandated electronic filing of court documents to decrease the cost of litigation and increase courts' productivity.

Teachers award scholarship to Ozona High School graduate

AUSTIN-This fall, Cynthia Garcia, a 2013 graduate of Ozona High School, is starting college with the help of a $1,000 scholarship from the Texas Classroom Teachers Association.

Garcia, who attends West Texas A&M University, is among 82 deserving students across the state to receive scholarships totaling $128,500 from the TCTA Scholarship Program, which is funded by the estate of the late Charles and Phyllis Gottlieb.

When establishing the scholarship criteria, TCTA honored Phyllis Gottlieb's wishes, which were to create a program unlike most others. Rather than looking solely at transcripts and selecting only top academic performers, who often have multiple financial aid sources, TCTA chooses recipients who have faced hardships that make higher education unlikely without help.

After two years at West Texas A&M, Garcia plans to transfer to The University of Texas Health Science Center at San Antonio to complete her nursing degree.

"I love children and the medical field. I find both very interesting and just thinking about the two makes me excited," she wrote in her application. "I want to do the best I can as a pediatric nurse, because that is what patients deserve."

Now in its fourth year, the TCTA Scholarship Program awards scholarships in amounts up to $5,000 per year for tuition and required fees.

In 2010, the program first awarded a total of $29,500 to 17 students and has increased those numbers each year, making the total awarded by the program so far $335,000.

Scholarships must be used to pursue courses of study leading to recognized degrees at accredited two- or four-year colleges, community colleges or career/technical schools. Recipients may apply for continued assistance based on satisfaction of specific academic criteria and availability of funds.

TCTA scholarship applications are due May 1 each year and can be submitted online at scholarship.tcta. org<http://scholarship.tcta. org>.

To be nominated, a student must: be a high school senior and a U.S. citizen and Texas resident; demonstrate financial need; have a minimum GPA of 2.0 on a 4.0 scale; and demonstrate the traits of strong personal character and potential for success. Nominators' or nominees' parents' membership in TCTA is neither an advantage nor a disqualifier. However, teachers/counselors may not nominate their own children.

The Texas Classroom Teachers Association is a nonprofit, independent professional association serving more than 50,000 Texas educators. Founded in 1927, TC-TA is based in Austin and is the only statewide teachers association that limits activelevel membership to those directly involved in classroom teaching or teaching support, including librarians, counselors and teacher aides.

SEPTEMBER 11, 2001

It was a terrible day when 19 terrorists hijacked four passenger planes and openly attacked the United States of America. The attack was well planned, coordinated and successful by their standards. Around three thousand and were killed and no telling how many others have died or are suffering severe illnesses due to the dust and smoke inhalation. Those terrorists wanted to inflict hurt, destruction and death to all who do not hold to their religious beliefs. They believe they will get a big reward in the afterlife if they die killing or fighting anyone who does not believe like them and the more they kill the bigger the reward. Life of others has no value if you do not believe like them. One of their goals or beliefs is to have total world dominance and control. This situation reminds me of something in the Bible. The Bible does not promise peace as time moves on but just the opposite, (Matthew 10:34). There will be more wars and rumors of wars, (Matthew 24:6). It is not just a physical war but it a spiritual war led by evil forces that control them, (Ephesians 6:12). They are against Jesus Christ and those who believe in Him, (Matthew 10:22). The Bible says Christians will be hated because of His name but hold fast to trusting in Christ; He will rescue us, (Matthew 24:4-14, Revelation 17:14). See you in Church next Sunday.

OZONA SENIOR HAPPENINGS

Senior Bingo Social Sept. 23

BY BRENDA NEWTON SENIOR CENTER DIRECTOR

I told you last week about my birthday. Well, it got even better! We went to Alpine to the Balloon Festival and had a great time.

Then on Tuesday, my kids gave me the prettiest picture of my grandkids you have ever seen. I bored everyone that came to the center on Wednesday talking about how great my grandkids are. Oh well, they just have to put up with it. Just so you will not forget, our bingo social will be on Sept. 23 at 6 p.m. We will have ham sandwiches with chips and apple cobbler with ice cream for dessert. Sounds good to me and all you have to do is bring a small bingo prize to join in on the fun.

Area Agency on Aging will be here the second Tuesday of each month at 10:30 a.m. to help you with questions about Medicare, Medicaid, and other things seniors need to know.

I found out the last time Triple A was here that Lynne is also the representative for Concho Valley Transit. This is the agency that takes care of the Thunderbird Bus along with CVOG. Maybe you could come and help me clue her in about the senior's problems with the bus. If you are reading this, pass the info around.

The Texas RioGrande Aid, Inc will be here Thursday, Sept.

12, to offer legal services for low income persons. If you need assistance before then, call 1-888-988-9996. Even if vou do not need legal aid, come listen to what they have to say.

Carl Punch, director of the Eldorado Care Center, called this last week and asked if he could come here to give a talk on Miller Trust, which is a program on how to get into a care center. I agreed to have him come on Tuesday, Sept. 17, at 10 a.m. I think this might be a really good thing for any of you that are facing putting a loved on in the care center.

Exercise is still available on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays at 9 a.m. Bridge is happening at 1:30 p.m. on Mondays. Tuesdays and Thursdays we have balance exercise at 2 p.m. Mexican Train is at 1:30 p.m. on Wednesday afternoons. The Prayer Ladies still meet at 3 p.m. on Wednesdays. Quilting is on Thursday Morning at 9:30 a.m.

Remember your "trash" for the trade table. We all look forward to seeing what everyone brings. Come see us! We will try our best to make you feel welcome. We have puzzles to work on that are a bit challenging. If you have not tried the Helping Hands meals, you should. They put on a pretty good feed. I still think you guys would enjoy the pool table and games. Come on out, the coffee is on.

of, we're okay. We're going to be okay. We can provide adequate care for the patients. If adequate care becomes an issue, absolutely we are the first to say we need to look at this," Nowell said.

Stecher said the center has received incompliance tags on a resident's family member complaining about not enough staff, an incident where a resident fell and a resident developing a bed sore. He said the center has not been tagged for inadequate staff.

The center has 10 days to come up with a plan of correction, has been fined $2,500 and must have in service training. Also, until the center is cleared no new residents can be accepted.

Stecher said the goal is to have everything cleared up within a month. He also said his own license will be reviewed.

"Part of our problem with our nursing staff is they have very little knowledge of state regulations. Especially Paula (Hester) being a new director of nurses," Stecher said. "Dr. (Marcus) Sims, Paula and I are taking a much harder look at these residents to make sure we can give them adequate care."

Board President John L. Henderson said a balance between the staff, supervisors and the board needs to be found.

"The board's concern was to never deny patient care. What we're looking for and trying to achieve is a balance. That doesn't come overnight. Our business is to watch the budget, as it is Robert's. We have to please our residents first, then our employees, but we also have to meet the wants and needs of people paying for all this and that's the taxpayers," Henderson said. "Chain of command is very important. It is truly a violation to avoid who is your supervisor. We as the board, it's good that we're hearing this tonight. It helps us understand the needs and the wants. Without you all we would not have a facility, but at the same time we ask that you all pull together and do

The board has increased the care center's budget by $400,000 for employee salaries and benefits. Dr. Marcus Sims said cost of the care center has increased to more than $1,000 a day. Crockett County pays $3,000 a month for each resident.

"We want as many employees as we can get. If you have a good way of financing this. I sure would be interested in hearing it. We're a community so we're going to work on it together. People need to understand the tremendous expense," Sims said.

A suggestion was made by Sims about closing down one of the center's hallways through attrition, as residents leave or pass away, and start limiting incoming residents to just those that live in Crockett County.

'This care center is for Crockett County and paid for by Crockett County. It comes down to being able to care for our residents," he said.

Stecher said the center is also having issues with family members not paying resident's bills.

Henderson said it's time to take steps in getting the unpaid bills paid.

"We hate to deny care to anyone, but people need to pay. If they have a problem with it, tell them to come see us," Henderson said.

Board member Jim Skehan said communication from all sides is the key in running the facility.

"I believe there needs to be a commitment. It seems to me there are some good ideas on how we can make this better. There were a lot of good comments and there's a lot to work with," Skehan said.

AMBULANCE SERVICE

The board approved to buying a refurbished cardiac monitor for the Crockett County EMS. Cost will be around $10,000.

EMS Coordinator Eddie Martin said the Crockett County DeerFest has offered to purchase new automated external defibrillators (AED) for the EMS and the Crockett County Sheriff's Office.

Martin said the DeerFest can purchase have of the defibrillators now and then the rest in March.

JAIL SITUATION Crockett County Sheriff Robert Rodriguez said Upton County has limited his office to only 15 inmates. Rodriguez said Crockett County has hit the limit in Upton County, has one inmate in Sutton County and three in the local county jail.

Upton County has told Rodriguez they might make room for two more inmates. Reagan County is no longer taking inmates from other counties.

"The only solution I have right now is to turn some loose that really don't need to be turned loose. We need to keep in mind that we need to start thinking of getting our own facility here pretty quick," Rodriguez said.

County Judge Fred Deaton said that decision of a new jail is one that needs to be voted on by local citizens.

"I think we need to give the citizens of Crockett County an opportunity to decide what to do," Rodriguez said. The county budgets $147,000 a year for inmate housing, as well as $10,000 a year for prisoner transportation.

"The public has not come to us enough to put it out to the people to vote," Deaton said.

RENFROE HIRED AS COUNTY AGENT

The commissioners approved the hiring of Aaron Renfroe as the new Crockett County Texas AgriLife Agriculture Extension Agent. Renfroe takes office Nov. 1.

Renfroe is an Ozona High School graduate, former Crockett County 4-H member and a Texas Tech University graduate. He has previously worked in San Angelo for the Texas AgriLife Extension Agency. He is the son of Bobbie and Billy Dell Renfroe, of Ozona.

"This is a great chance to build the program. I would like that opportunity to bring it back, and get it back to the elite level," Renfroe said.

PARKS AND RECREATION

the best you can."

Heidi Sullivan presented the commissioners with a report from the Parks and Recreation Board.

Sullivan and the commissioners discussed placing restrooms, new playground equipment, picnic areas, shade and new trees at the swimming pool park.

Sullivan said they are also working on other plans for other local parks, including the north baseball and softball park and the rodeo park.

One idea for the rodeo park is to give it a Wizard of Oz theme, Sullivan said.

EMERGENCY SIREN

A change in the fire department emergency sirens will be put into place regarding vehicle accidents.

The siren system will now be sounded for fires and weather emergencies primarily. For vehicle accidents, the call will go out on emergency officials' radios and pagers with the siren to be used only if people do not respond.

The request for a change came from local citizens Dennis Clark and Louise Ledoux who said the siren near their house on the west hill is very loud.

"I know it may seem a little unappreciative of our volunteers, but I do feel that with our modern and current communications we have sometimes those sirens are pretty excessive, especially when you live near them. I'm not requesting you take them down or not use it," Clark said.

"I don't want to totally take it down and not use it. Maybe move them further out and not be in the middle of houses," Ledoux added.

The fire department uses the sirens to alert firefighters because radios and pages don't always work, said Fire Chief Brian Morrow. Also, not all of the 34 firefighters have radios right now.

Morrow said the department is working in correcting

Also, the sirens are turned off from 9 p.m.-8 a.m.

"There are several options we can do, but I believe the public needs to be educated why we use the sirens. We are trying to get the maximum amount of people there at that time. Once we get everyone with a regular handheld radio, I think we can trim it down," Morrow said.

Commissioners Randy Branch said to tone out on radios and pagers first for vehicle accidents. If nobody shows up to respond, then use the siren. When the emergency is a fire or weather, such as a tornado, use the siren.

Branch also said he would donate his radio back to the fire station.

OTHER ITEMS APPROVED: · 2014 RAMP Grant for the Ozona Airport.

· Entering into an interlocal agreement with Tx-DOT, Texas Department of Public Safety and Crockett County for a local driver's license office.

· Painting the crosswalk on Avenue G at Ozona Middle School.

The commissioners will have a special meeting at 6 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 12, at the courthouse annex to canvas the 2013 CCCCSD Tax Ratification Election.

This rate is lower than the maximum tax rate allowable for hospital districts in all other counties in the State (75 cents per $100 valuation). The repeal of the constitutional cap would authorize hospital district tax rates in Hidalgo County equal to the hospital district tax rate laws applicable to all other Texas counties.

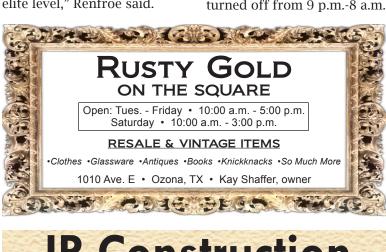

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment repealing Section 7, Article IX, Texas Constitution, which relates to the creation of a hospital district in Hidalgo County.

that stepped in and played positions that were required. Overall I was proud of our effort and we will continue to work diligently on technique and fundamentals. We must continue to place an emphasis on the details if we have any ambitions of going from being a good team to a great team and eventually and excellent team."

The game would start with Iraan recovering a fumble on the kickoff. That would lead to a 35-yard touchdown pass from Robert Reyes to Tanner Meyers making it 7-0 Iraan after the extra-point.

The Lions would fail to convert on fourth down during their first offense series, an issue that the team struggled with all night, giving Iraan the ball back.

This would lead to the Braves second touchdown, a 15-yard pass from Meyers to Jarrett Doege making it 14-0 at the end of the first quarter. Ozona's defense would put the first points on the board for the Lions with a safety in the second quarter.

That was quickly followed by a four-yard Tyler Galindo touchdown. After Galindo's kick, the score would be 14-9 still in favor of the Braves. Galindo had five carries for 87 yards.

In the third quarter, Ozona would get the momentum rolling with a six-yard touchdown run by Daniel Gonzalez. Chase DeHoyos' extrapoint kick would give Ozona the lead, 16-14.

The score would stay that way until late in the fourth quarter when Iraan's Reyes caught a 43-yard touchdown pass from Doege.

Quarterback Jayton Rodriquez was 4 of 12 for 53 yards. Evan Raymond caught four passes for 44 yards.

The Lions (1-1) face Crane (2-0) Friday. The Golden Cranes are coming off a 27-20 victory over Colorado City.

"In preparation for Crane we are trying to simplify some of our schemes and looking at taking advantage of some of the skill sets our kids have shown us in the last few weeks. Crane is going to be a very tough test, and we can not make the same mistake of spotting them 14 points before we start to really execute our game plan," Perez said. "In the next few weeks we hope to start to solidify a good rotation to keep kids as fresh as possible and remain competitive throughout a ball game. Our kids are starting to really feel comfortable in our offensive and defensive schemes, so we should see a definite upswing in play due to familiarity and comfort. Once we get the confidence we need in everything we are doing, we will start that move from good to great and then to excellent. The kids are still working hard and are a great pleasure to work with, I feel blessed to have all these young men in our program."

Game time is 7:30 p.m. at Lion Stadium.

OHS Cross-Country conquers ASU Stampede

The OHS Cross Country teams competed Saturday in the Angelo State University Stampede at San Angelo.

The Lions finished fourth behind Del Rio, Central and Lake View, but above Del Rio JV, Wall, Central JV, Harper, Ballinger, Christoval, Lake View JV, Wall JV, Eldorado and Co-

This is the second year in a row the Lions have finished as the top small school at the ASU Sampede.

"The majority of the boys did not run very well, but they did run hard. Last week was the first week we cranked up the speed into our training and that sometimes leads to a difficult race for most," said Coach Erik Thormaehlen. "The boys' times were 18 seconds slower than a year ago, but that had a lot to do with the heat."

Omero Rodriguez was the top runner for the Lions finishing fifth with a time of 17 minutes, 40.52 seconds.

"Omero Rodriguez had a great day with about a minute improvement over his time a year ago," Thormaehlen said.

Also running for the Lions: 18. Josiah Jurado, 19:02.34; 24. Alex Hopper, 19:32.43; 32. Saul Vargas, 19:52.74; 45. Alan Landa, 20:46.87; 48. Adrian Rodriguez, 20:57.58; 57. Bryce Gutierrez, 21:24.99; 63. Noe Medina, 21:41.81 and 89. Garry Held, 23:43.43.

"Josiah Jurado improved his time as well, while grinding throughout the hot race. Alex ran an outstanding race. People came up to me after the race asking 'Wow, what go into Hopper?' Hopefully, whatever it was that got into him, stays there because he ran great," Thormaehlen said.

The Lady Lions placed seventh. Team results: 1. Del Rio; 2. Del Rio JV; 3. Central; 4. Ballinger; 5. Harper; 6. Wall; 8. Lake View; 9. Christoval; 10. Garden City; 11. Coahoma; 12. Ballinger JV; 13. Irion County; 14. Eldora-

"The girls did have a big victory in this race, beating last year's district champion Christoval by nearly 30 points," Thormaehlen said.

Top runner for Ozona was Daisy Guerra who finished sixth.

"She was right on the heels of some of the most elite girls in the state," Thormaehlen said.

McKenna Moses was next for the Lady Lions finishing 54th overall. This was her first race of the season.

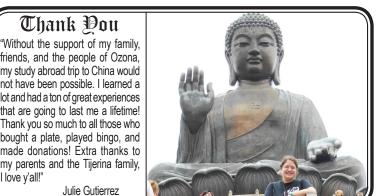

"Moses was returning from an injury and once she gets more practice and a couple more races in, we're really expecting her to break out and prove that she is one of the top girls in the region," Thormaehlen said.

Rounding up the Lady Lions was: 57. Lexi Poindexter; 65. Madison Childress; 72. Bobbi Jo Vargas; 79. Estefania Torralba; 89. Gabby Treto; 120. Alyssa Newlin and 144. Alondra Rodriguez (times were not available).

The OHS teams will compete Saturday at the Harper Longhorn Invitational. The boys will run at 10 a.m. followed by the girls at 10:30 a.m.

PERTUSSIS ALERT IS ISSUED

The Texas Department of State Health Services on Sept. 3 urged people to make sure they're vaccinated against pertussis, or whooping cough, which often starts with cold-like symptoms and a mild cough.

The number of people sick with pertussis this year is on track to reach the highest level in more than 50 years, the agency said. Doctors who suspect a pertussis infection are required to report it to their local health department within one working day and patients who have pertussis should not go back to work or school until they have completed five days of antibiotic treatment.

The agency is urging parents to check their children's shot records to be sure they are completely vaccinated against pertussis and should keep infants, especially those less than 6 months old, away from people with a cough. Adults should see about receiving a booster dose of the Tdap (tetanus, diphtheria and pertussis) vaccine."

DEBT INFO SITE DEBUTS

State Comptroller Susan Combs on Sept. 3 announced a new "Debt-at-a-Glance" resource that offers details on state and local debt.

The website tellthetruthtexas.org/debt lets users pick from the state's 20 largest cities and 20 largest counties to see debt totals and trends, plus details on tax rates, debt elections, authorized but unissued debt, certificates of obligation and links to a comprehensive annual financial report for each city or county.

LITTER LEVEL DECREASES

Texas Department of Transportation on Sept. 3 released results of its 2013 Texas Litter Survey.

"Considering an additional 1.1 million drivers have taken to Texas roadways during the survey period of 2009 to 2013," TxDOT said, "the 34-percent reduction in visible litter is even more impressive."

According to the survey, the leading type of visible roadside litter was tire and rubber debris, followed by miscellaneous paper, plastic and beverage containers.

CROCKETT COUNTY SHERIFF'S REPORT

Crockett County Sheriff's Weekly Activity Report

Upton County Jail was full to capacity this past weekend which forced Crockett County Sheriff Robert Rodriguez to make arrangements with other surrounding counties for housing our overflow of inmates. Some of the surrounding counties will not house female inmates. This situation is expected to occur more regularly with the upcoming holiday months. Our county's aging jail facility has been reduced to a 72-hour lockup facility by the State's Jail Commission and could eventually be shut down completely. We currently are only allowed to keep inmates for 72 hours maximum before sending them out to other holding facilities. Crockett County citizens are paying at an average of $9,000 to $15,000 per month for the housing of inmates in other counties, where as a new jail facility would help keep this money within our county. The decision to release non-violent inmates from custody, so as to relieve overcrowding, will be the sheriff's only option. If you are concerned, or wondering why Crockett County cannot build its own jail facility, you are welcomed to talk with your commissioners or the sheriff.

"We are very proud of our Crockett County heroes," said County Judge Fred Deaton.

Hickman said he at the time of the flood he was working in the oilfield east of Ozona. He said the night of the flood, he saw Gurley Draw come up around midnight.

"It was pretty interesting to see that draw come up. It was pretty exciting for Ozona to have that draw come up like that. Little did we know what was in store for us," Hickman said. "The water kept rising."

Hickman and Conklin found a tourist with a boat near the town square and started traveling through the town finding people that needed help.

"If we had gotten across the draw, we might have saved some lives. That's where they really needed it, but it was flowing too fast," Hickman said.

Local resident Roy Harrell wrote a letter earlier this year to the commissioners' court about Conklin and Hickman asking them to be recognized.

Conklin, now deceased, is a cousin to Harrell and gave Harrell the suggestion of being recognized before he died. Hickman now lives in Midland.

"Wilburn suggested and I concur that Scott should be recognized after all these years as the unsung hero during this traumatic time in Ozona's history," Harrell wrote in his letter. "Wilburn said that more than 18 would have died had not Scott and young cousin Conklin not contacted this tourist and awakened him."

After the 1954 flood, the county constructed seven conservation dams to help prevent another flooding disaster in the county.
