LIBRARY SUMMER READING PROGRAM

Solider heroes

BY LOUISE LEDOUX
CROCKETT COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY

June is here and with it all the Summer Reading Programs at the Public Library.

This year's theme "Every Hero Has A Story" will be great fun.

Children can come and enjoy stories and games and crafts with a "superhero" theme covering a wide spectrum of heroic activities including archeology, insects, local heroes, drawing comics, animal heroes, story time and Hank the Cowdog.

Our goal is to make the library a fun place to visit where children can check out books and learn new things that will help them be successful in school.

Making the library a part of a child's routine can bring great rewards and pleasure in reading, and keep their reading and comprehension skills sharp for school.

Last week, soldiers from Fort Lancaster talked about the history of the fort and the archeology projects and the restoration at the fort.

On Thursday, June 18, CCPL welcomes graphic artists from Austin presenting "Science of the Superhero." The program will also be at the Civic Center at 7 p.m. Don't miss this great opportunity to learn how to draw superhero comics. It is free to the public. For more information, visit www.comicartist.net.

We will wind up our special programs by presenting John Erickson and Hank the Cowdog, the original ranch hero. The program will also be the Civic Center at 7 p.m. on Thursday, June 25. The program is free to the public. For more information, visit www.hankthecowdog.com.

Summer reading programs will be every Monday and Thursday morning in June. Older children 6-12 years come from 10-11 a.m. and the younger children 3-5 years come from 11 a.m. to noon.

Mark your calendars now and don't miss a minute of "Every Hero Has A Story" at the public library.

DIGITAL MAGAZINES

Crockett County Public Library is now offering digital magazines through Overdrive and the Big Country Digital Consortium.

You can check them out on your personal digital device just like books or audios.

We have a great selection for adults and for kids; such as "Car & Driver," "Bloomberg Businessweek," "Latina Magazine," "Cosmopolitan," "Food Network Magazine," "HGTV Magazine," "Woman's Day," "ESPN Magazine," and just for kids - "Zoobooks," "Seventeen," "National Park Trips," "Game Informer," and many more. Check it out today.

School district closes fitness center

BY MELISSA PERNER
THE OZONA STOCKMAN

Due to recent vandalism, the CCCSD decided to close the school district's public fitness center.

At last week's regular board meeting, Superintendent Raul Chavarria said that there had been another incident of vandalism at the fitness center since the May 20 regular meeting.

Chavarria said another monitor on a treadmill had been broken.

The district spent $3,000 last year on repairs to the fitness equipment and $4,000 this year.

The board verbally agreed to close the fitness center effective immediately. They then asked Chavarria to put the item on the July meeting agenda so they could formally vote on the issue.

Chavarria said the district is looking to convert the building into a usable classroom or office space.

"We are looking to address our career and technology course offerings and this space could be better utilized for such classes," Chavarria said.

OUTSTANDING CAFETERIA CHARGES

A total of $8,136.55 is currently owed to the district in cafeteria charges.

Chavarria said that the district's procedure is if a student does not have money they are served a sandwich for lunch.

Parents are then notified when their child's account is low and notified again when they fall behind. Charges now range from $1.10 to $300, Chavarria said.

Parents are also notified weekly that they have an outstanding balance.

"We currently have a procedure in place that has not been followed that does not now allow charges at CCCSD Cafeterias. I feel that we need to follow our procedure on not allowing charges," Chavarria said.

Some of the board members suggested bringing back peanut butter sandwiches if student's do not have money to pay.

"This is irresponsibility of the parents," said Grizz Medina, board secretary.

If students have parents employed by the school district, then wages should be garnished, said Orlando DeHoyos, board vice president.

Chavarria also said that many of the students would qualify for free or reduce lunch, but that it is difficult to get parents to fill out the paperwork.

Board President David McWilliams told board members to think about the issue before the next meeting.

PRELIMINARY STAAR RESULTS

Chavarria said the district is still waiting on the official results from Texas Education Agency on where the schools stand on STAAR ratings.

TEA will release the results once they have set the standards, Chavarria said.

"Preliminary results show that we have improved overall, but we do not yet know how we stand on school ratings," Chavarria said.

Water talks start next week about the Devils River Basin

Anyone interested in private water well management is invited to a Texas Well Owner training.

Training dates:

· June 22 - 9 a.m. - 4 p.m. at Mitzi's Hookers Restaurant, near Lake Amistad's Rough Canyon Recreational Area, in Del Rio.

· June 23 - 9 a.m. - 4 p.m. at The Kitchen Table and Mercantile, 34871 State Highway 163, located south of Juno.

· June 24 - 9 a.m. - 4 p.m. at the Sutton County Community Center, 1700 N. Crockett Avenue in Sonora.

· June 26 - 9 a.m. - 4 p.m. at John Shanks Chapel in the Blue Sage West Community near Del Rio.

The Texas Well Owner program is for residents who depend on household wells for their water needs so they can learn about improving and protecting their community water resources.

This program will offer private well water screenings. In addition, it will help well owners become familiar with Texas groundwater resources, well construction and maintenance, septic system maintenance, water quality and water treatment.

Participants may bring well-water samples to be screened for common contaminants including fecal coliform bacteria, nitrates, arsenic and high salinity. The cost is $10 per sample, with payment due when samples are turned in at the program.

Well owners who would like to have their water tested can pick up sample containers from the Crockett, Val Verde or Sutton County Extension Office. Bringing water samples to the training is not required.

The event is sponsored by Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service, Sutton County Underground Water District and the Nueces Rivery Authority.

Space is limited, so attendees are asked to register at <http://twon.tamu.edu> or by calling (830) 278-6810 as soon as possible. Lunch will be provided. The course also offers 1 CEU in the general category.

Death Tax adversely affects domestic economy

The federal estate tax, also known as the death tax, is a levy on the transfer of the estate of a deceased property owner. The Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association (TSCRA) doesn't believe death should ever be a taxable event.

The death tax is a topic that makes many ranchers, agricultural producers and landowners cringe. As a seventh-generation rancher who has dealt with this onerous tax on several occasions, I understand how difficult it can be, especially while copied with the loss of a loved one.

In 2012, Congress passed the American Taxpayer Relief Act (ATRA), narrowly avoiding a return to a $1 million estate tax exemption with a 55 percent tax rate. The ATRA set the estate tax exemption level at $5 million per individual or $10 million per couple, and the top tax rate was set at 40 percent. While this legislation provided some protection for ranchers from the estate tax, a full repeal is still needed.

CATTLEMAN'S COLUMN

We too often hear stories about how ranchers are adversely impacted by the death tax, however it doesn't only affect ranchers, landowners and small business owners - this tax creates a ripple effect that causes the domestic economy to suffer.

According to the USDA, agriculture is responsible for 1 out of every 7 jobs in Texas and 1 out of every 12 jobs in the country. Each time a rancher or farmer is forced out of business to comply with the death tax, jobs are lost and the monetary output of the agricultural industry is negatively impacted, causing a major gut-punch to the economy.

Some see the death tax as a minor inconvenience for the wealthy, but this is simply not the truth. These individuals don't realize many ranching and farming families are asset-rich and cash-poor. Most of their estate is attributed to the value of the land they own and use to raise cattle and grow food and fiber for millions worldwide. The amount of money a rancher's property is valued at can easily trigger the estate tax. This is before including the worth of the other equipment and infrastructure on the property.

If Uncle Sam comes knocking on the door demanding millions in taxes, many have no other choice but to sell off assets to come up with the cash. Piece by piece, their family's culture and heritage is sold off to pay the unreasonable tax bill. This forces ranchers to lay off skilled employees, leaving them jobless, while in-turn taking away their ability to feed and clothe their family. This costs the federal government more in reduced economic growth than it is as a source of positive tax revenues.

The middle-class takes one of the hardest hits from the estate

Unleash the innovators

Let me ask you a question. Would you rather our best scientists spend their time in an office writing research grant proposals or in the laboratory finding a cure for cancer? This week in Congress we're working on bipartisan legislation which promotes less of the former and more of the latter.

America may be the health care innovation capitol of the world, but antiquated drug and device approval processes and other regulatory hurdles are standing in the way of truly outstanding innovations that will allow us to stay at the forefront in an increasingly competitive global market.

The 21st Century Cures Act will help the discovery, development and delivery of life-saving and life-improving therapies move through the maze of bureaucracy in several ways. First, it facilitates increased collaboration between researchers by removing current barriers standing in the way. The data created during research and clinical trials can be shared and analyzed, while still protecting the privacy of patients.

This bill will also allow the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) to work closely with patients who are using drugs still going through the regulatory process, taking their perspectives into consideration while helping to understand what works and what does not.

21st Century Cures also advances personalized medicine by the use of development tools such as biomarkers. These tools give researchers early assessments of how well a drug is working for a patient, allowing them to be nimble in their reactions and provide a more personalized and effective approach in continued therapy.

Clinical trials will be modernized, allowing scientists to produce faster results through more targeted research. Researchers will be able to screen patients to look for genetic markers for these targeted trials and make use more modern statistical and data tools.

Unnecessary red tape that surrounds the development of new medical apps will also be removed, unleashing the innovation that America is known for.

For rural areas, there will be additional support for the innovation we need that will allow patients to communicate with their doctors even when they are miles apart. In many cases, the fastest way for a doctor in the 23rd Congressional District of Texas to assess a patient's needs may be over an online video chat. This approach will allow patients to see physicians who are leaders in their respective fields without needing to travel, increasing access to care and driving down costs at the same time.

HURD ON THE HILL
WILL HURD

This legislation will also provide a way to aggressively pursue cures for rare and devastating diseases by giving new economic incentives to develop therapies for serious and life-threatening conditions that the market previously could not support.

In addition to the 21st Century Cures Act, we will also vote to repeal the Medical Device Tax contained in the Affordable Care Act. This is a tax that has destroyed jobs and suppressed innovation by increasing costs on manufacturers of everything from replacement joints to surgical gloves. Companies, including several based in San Antonio, invest their own money in Research and Development only to have to pay the federal government before they even turn a profit. There has been a bipartisan effort to overturn this tax almost from the moment it was passed, so it's exciting to see Congress put politics aside and repeal a law that is having such a negative impact on the lives of many Americans.

Ultimately, these are jobs bills that we are passing in Congress this week. Laws and regulations that kill innovation will also stifle job creation in America and send these opportunities to other nations. America has led the global medical device and biopharmaceutical industries for generations, and if we want to keep the best minds here at home, we need policies coming out of Washington that encourage innovation. Doing so means we can save lives, create jobs and make sure our nation stays on top.

Dear Clueless

IT'S THE PITTS

LEE PITTS

An open letter to my urban brothers and sisters.

Dear Clueless, Thanks for all your ideas and laws about how we in agriculture can save endangered species, use less water and fight global warming. We must have done a great job because there hasn't been any global warming in the last 18 years! For those of you who shivered through last winter in the chilly northeast, it seems like cows may have done too good a job in stopping global warming.

It seems unfair that we in agriculture and the other "extractive industries" should be getting all credit for reducing global temps. You urbanites should also get to enjoy the hassle, expense, regulations, paperwork and government overreach that we get to enjoy. Because I know how strongly you believe in these issues I thought I might suggest a few rules so that you too would get to participate in solving these problems instead of just being a cheerleader on the sidelines.

Henceforth, on those cold New England mornings you'll no longer be allowed to burn wood, coal, natural gas, cow chips or pellets in your stove because they produce greenhouse gases. You'll no longer be allowed to use any appliance or machine that uses fossil fuels that may have been produced by fracking. These activities would include driving a car, a snowmobile, taking mass transit and heating your home. You should refrain from taking any vacations that involve the use of planes, boats, trains or cars. I think we can all agree that we need to ban SUV's, ATV's and RV's. Better yet, why not ban any vehicle that has a "V" in it?

Vegetarians should no longer be allowed to eat beans because they produce methane and their uneaten zucchini is filling up our landfills. Earth Day should be permanently canceled because you environmentalists are leaving behind way too much trash and pollution.

If you really want to be green you shouldn't live in a house or apartment that was built with lumber. Instead, you should dig up your water-wasting front lawn and build a sod house to live in, thereby also providing lodging for endangered insects and snakes. Speaking of endangered species, it's unfair that we get to enjoy over 90% of endangered species while you in the east get just a tiny fraction of them. So take down your fences and create an urban park for bears and coyotes. We wouldn't want to create an imbalance in the natural ecology of the urban and rural landscape, would we?

My friend Caren Cowan recently read about a book with a great way to not waste resources: EAT YOUR DOG! It turns out that dogs are worse than cows when it comes to the environment. In the book, Time To Eat Your Dog: The Real Guide To Sustainable Living, the authors said that a medium sized dog has the same negative impact on the environment as a Toyota Land Cruiser driven 6,000 miles per year. A cat is equivalent to a Volkswagen Golf. Did you know the average collie eats 365 pounds of meat per year and nearly 210 pounds of grains. All that poop that is picked up and placed in plastic bags is responsible for 4 percent of the trash that goes to landfills in San Francisco. It also produces greenhouse gases. Chicago's 68 million pounds of dog excrement creates 102 million cubic feet of unburned methane per year.

After eating your dog you may want to get a wolf or two as pets thereby killing two birds with one stone. (Oops, poor choice of words.)

My dear city dwellers, art history majors and radical greenies, if you want to be part of the solution and not just part of the problem, don't just put a bumper sticker on your car, start suffering like rural folks are. If you really want to save the world eat your dog, sell your car, don't feed the birds (birdseed includes non-native varieties), and start a ferret or prairie dog town in your yard.

Adopt a red legged frog, sucker, or chub, stop having sex (it produces more people), stop eating and stop breathing because you are releasing carbon dioxide. Because, as you've told us many times, carbon dioxide is a greenhouse gas that causes global warming.

Sincerely yours for a greener globe.

Federal court of appeals rules on abortion law

AUSTIN — A three-judge panel of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit on June 9 upheld the constitutionality of House Bill 2, the state abortion law revised by the Texas Legislature in a July 2013 special session.

HB 2 and its provisions may be applied throughout Texas, the panel stated in a 56-page ruling, but drew two narrow exceptions: (1) a health clinic that performs abortions in McAllen may continue to function without upgrading its facilities to comply with standards set for ambulatory surgical centers; and (2) the law's admitting privileges requirement does not apply to a certain medical doctor when he is working at the McAllen facility. Elsewhere, a physician performing an abortion must have admitting privileges at a hospital within 30 miles of the location where the abortion is performed in accordance with the 2013 law.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS By Ed Sterling | Texas Press Association

Governor Greg Abbott, Lt. Gov. Dan Patrick and Texas Attorney General Kent Paxton each released a statement applauding the Fifth Circuit's action. Planned Parenthood of Greater Texas Inc., while not a plaintiff in the case, also reacted to the Fifth Circuit ruling, saying: "If allowed to stand, this ruling will have a devastating impact statewide as access to safe, legal abortion is reduced to fewer than 10 providers for millions of Texas women. Limited access to other critical care provided at these and other health centers has already taken a terrible toll as clinics began closing two years ago."

The plaintiffs, who are abortion providers and their patients, filed court papers seeking further review of the case by the U.S. Supreme Court.

COMPTROLLER CERTIFIES BUDGET

State Comptroller Glenn Hegar on June 9 announced he had certified House Bill 1, the state budget. Certification is the last step before advancing to the governor's office for final approval.

HB 1 appropriates $209.4 billion in total spending for the state's budget for the 2016-17 biennium.

"This is a fiscally sound budget that is well under the constitutional spending limit and falls within the revenue estimate our agency provided lawmakers back in January," Hegar said.

SALES TAX REVENUE INCREASES

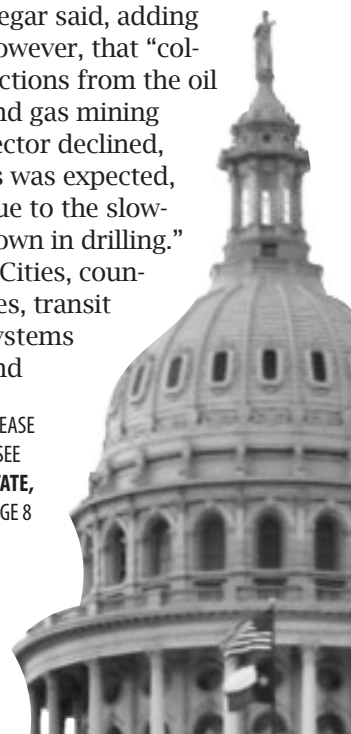

Comptroller Hegar on June 10 said state sales tax revenue in May totaled an estimated $2.6 billion, up 5.2 percent compared to May 2014. "This marks the 62nd consecutive month of growth in sales tax collections," Hegar said, adding however, that "collections from the oil and gas mining sector declined, as was expected, due to the slow-down in drilling."

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE NEWS

ROMIE FIERRO, owner of Parties to Go, is the Ozona Chamber of Commerce's Business of the Month. The store is located at 708 8th Street.

Business of the Month: Parties to Go

BY SHANON BIGGERSTAFF
OZONA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The Chamber of Commerce would like to recognize Parties to Go, operated by owner Romie Fierro, as our Business of the Month. Parties to Go first opened its doors in December 2012.

"This all came about after I had collected so much stuff at home, my husband Federico, known as Lico by most of his friends and family, told me I was going to have to do something! He is my biggest fan and encouraged me to open up a shop," said Romie. "So that's what I did with the help and support of friends and family, but it has been difficult to run the shop and work full-time."

"Many people are not aware that I am no longer at the Care Center. This is my passion! I love helping people prepare for whatever occasion they are planning. I am so excited! This kind of work makes me happy, and now I plan to dedicate myself to the shop."

"People come to me with their needs. My best ideas come to me in the middle of the night, or when I am under pressure from someone who has forgotten an occasion and needs help! I had a gentlemen stop in off the interstate who wanted to take home an arrangement for his wife in New Mexico. I can work in Ozona and out-of-town."

You can find a variety of items at Parties to Go. Everything from party decorations including birthday themes, gifts, wrapping, housewares, purses, jewelry, party favors, frames, balloons and much more. "We can help you create a theme and select accessories for weddings, quinceaneras, baby showers, graduations and more. We also now carry items for baptisms and communion," said Romie.

"Very soon we will have supplies available so that you can come in and pick out your own center piece. You can either build it yourself or we will help. No two centerpieces are ever the same. I try to make everything unique. We also plan to offer classes in the future. These will be learn-how-to workshops."

"Parties to Go has rental supplies such as table linens, chair covers, chair sashes, arches, columns, chandeliers, tables and chairs. If we don't have it we will order it for you and have it for you in no time."

The Chamber of Commerce would like to recognize Parties to Go for providing a quality business that is an asset to the community.

OBITUARIES

Crystelle Carson Childress

Crystelle Carson Childress passed to a quiet life June 10, 2015. She was born Oct 2, 1921 in Ozona, Texas to Ira and Wilma West Carson, true pioneers.

After finishing high school in Ozona, she attended Baylor University, just like her mother.

Through the eyes of her children, this is what her husband-to-be, James Childress, saw in Crystelle while he was playing basketball for SMU. James saw a beautiful young blonde woman raised on a ranch, from a Pioneer Family who were some of the founders of Ozona, Texas. He saw a girl that was very smart, self starter, very Baptist, gentle and kind and a person who would really love and nurture their family. Crystelle was all of this and much more.

She and James were married January 18, 1941. Their first home was on the Childress Headquarters Ranch west of Ozona. The following year, 1942, James R. (Bob) Childress Jr. was born. With a new baby came lots of work, feeding the men on the ranch and taking care of animals. About this time, a man arrived at the ranch who would help Crystelle for the next 3 decades, his name was Pancho Vela. Pancho came from Chihuahua City where he was a horse wrangler for Pancho Villa. He was a kind little man, who would teach Crystelle Spanish and help with house chores, yard work and laundry, which had to be done with an outside gasoline powered washing machine, ringer and cistern water.

When James returned from the war in 1946, where he served in Guam, he and Crystelle moved 30 miles south of Ozona to the Ira Carson Headquarter Ranch. Soon after Chris Carmen Childress was born.

In 1954 James and Crystelle bought a house in Ozona so the kids could go to school. Crystelle was very active in the Baptist Church. History was very important to Crystelle. She was a long time member of the Crockett County Historical Commission, the Crockett County Museum was something she loved dearly. She was instrumental in collecting the information for the Crockett County History Book in 1976. She was President of the PTA, President of 4-H adult group, member of the Garden Club and Ambassador for Ozona Chamber of Commerce. Crystelle was a Boy Scout leader and a Girl Scout leader. She owned a children's store, Small Fashions, in conjunction with her daughter Carmen for 24 years.

She was preceded in death by her husband James R. Childress January 1979.

Crystelle is survived by son Bob and Vivian Childress of Ozona and daughter Carmen Sutton of Ozona. Grandchildren Ira and Karin Childress of Ozona, Clay and Shelly Childress of Ozona, Cody Sutton of Houston, David and Stefyn Nance of Aledo. Great grandchildren Claire Childress, Carson Childress, Grant Childress, Weston Nance and Wells Nance.

Pallbearers are from the families of long time friends. Sooner Williams, Douglas Bean, Ben Ingham, Ronald Shaw, Moe Barbee, Steve Kenley, George Cox, James Owens, Terry Dickerson, Rick Hunicutt, Paul C. Perner III, Clay Richardson and Fred Deaton.

The family would like to give special thanks and appreciation for the Crockett County Care Center, doctors, nurses, sitters and all the friends who helped during these last few years.

Crystelle was one who bubbled with kindness and was certainly a mother, grandmother and great grandmother anyone would want to have. Her favorite saying to all he kids and grand kids was "It's much more gratifying to give than to receive".

In lieu of flowers the family would like request memorials to Crockett County Historical Commission, Baptist Church, West Texas Rehab or charity of your choice.

Services were Saturday, June 13, at the First Baptist Church of Ozona with burial following in Cedar Hill Cemetery.

OZONA SENIOR HAPPENINGS

Senior Bingo Social will be Monday

BY BRENDA NEWTON
SENIOR CENTER DIRECTOR

The Senior Bingo Social will be 6 p.m. Monday, June 22. The menu will be chicken enchilada casserole by Corina Diehl and salad. Dessert will be apple dump cake made by JoAnn Babbitt, Alda DeHoyos and Sandy Bebee. Sandy will also get the ice cream from Schwans. Wow! What a deal!

For the next four weeks, I will be posting the top 10 things that you can do for arthritis. 4. Ask about prescription medications. When over the counter meds are ineffective in reducing the pain, swelling and stiffness from arthritis, prescription medications may be helpful. There are four general classes of prescription meds: 1. NSAIDS

- to reduce the production of prostaglandins that are a major cause of pain and swelling; 2. NON-NARCOTICS - several drugs, such as Ultram are usually well tolerated and effective for pain relief; 3. NARCOTICS - medications that are usually reserved for severe pain of a short duration; 4. RHEUMATOID, LUPUS DRUGS - Methotresate, Plaquenil, Remicade, Arave, Enbrel Prednisone and others. These are used mainly by rheumatologists, internist and family doctors.

The movie for 2 p.m. Thursday, June 18, will be "The Diary of Anne Frank" starring Shelly Winters, Ed Wynn, Richard Beymer and Lou Jacobi. This DVD was made in honor of the movie's 50th anniversary. Come on out and enjoy yourself with popcorn puffs and drinks.

For your planting information, do not beans of any kind chives, garlic, leeks or onions. Beans do not grow well with peppers. Beans do not grow well with marigolds even though marigolds are planted to deter pests. All the plants that the bean family shuns are those that deter pets. Go figure.

THIS SUNDAY IS FATHER'S DAY

They are the real heroes! Last Friday evening I went to a large store to do some shopping and while there some families caught my attention. There was the dad in work clothes greasy and still in his work boots. He was pushing the shopping basket surrounded by his wife and children. No, there basket was not running over but it was not filled with cartons of cigarettes or thirty packs of beer. The dads looked tired but the neat thing was that they were there as a family. I would guess they lived in a rent house and they did not have the shiniest car in the parking lot. I would hope on Sundays he would be in Church with his family and that he would try and set a good example for his family. He would not think of being unfaithful to his wife would pray for each child and his wife. Also he would try to teach them about the love of God, (James 5:16). It is not easy to be a Christian dad but God is pleased when Husbands and Fathers try to live this way (Deuteronomy 4:9&10, Proverbs 20:7, Ephesians 6:1-4). Next Sunday say a special thanks to your Dad or give him a little gift or a hug if he is living, if not say a prayer of thanksgiving to God for him.

See you in Church next Sunday.

Wesley Nurse: tips for summer

Bug bits and cuts: Applying a thin layer of coconut oil will protect and prevent bug bites and cuts from being exposed to dirt and bacteria. It can also stop the itching sensation.

Insect repellent: Mix some coconut oil with either peppermint, tea tree or rosemary essential oils and apply to your skin to help ward off mosquitoes and other summer insects.

Wesley Nurse summer office hours are 9 a.m.-4 p.m. Monday, Wednesday and Thursday at the Ozona United Methodist Church, and 9 a.m.-4 p.m. Tuesday at the Food and Resource Center, 704 Glasscock, in Sonora.

Wesley Nurse services are free of charge to all participants.

in most areas, but the district doesn't know if it will be enough to meet standards, Chavarria said.

OHS continues to be a strong campus, and OHS has also seen growth and should be removed as a campus in need of improvement, Chavarria said.

Official results should be available by July.

DUMPING GROUND BY OES

An area near Ozona Elementary School has been used as a dumping ground for various items.

Chavarria said photos of the items have been sent to the district's lawyers, Powell & Leon in Austin, and a letter of notice to the perpetrators will be delivered ordering that the items be removed and the area cleaned up.

"This has been addressed in the past and legal action is taking place to resolve this issue," Chavarria said.

NEW HIRES AND RESIGNATIONS

After meeting in closed session for an hour and a half, the board approved hiring Cindy Hamer for OES Special Population Resource and Inclusion, Alyssa Young for OES Special Populations Resource Life Skills, Jessica Everett for fifth grade, Paula Renfro for pre-kindergarten, Morgan Smith for third grade, Jonathan Graves for eighth grade math and algebra, Dustin Martin for OHS

Ag Science and Metal Shop and Butch Hamer for computer science.

They also approved resignations from Brandon Allen, Ross Johnson, Lae Titia Johnson, Thelma Soto, Gina Hochreiter, Audrey Holmes and Valerie Moos.

OTHER AGENDA ITEMS:

The board approved the depository agreement with Crockett National Bank as accepted by Crockett County.

They also approved the purchase of a charter bus from ABC Bus Sales.

The board will hold a budget workshop at 6:30 p.m. June 29 at the Administration Building.

Board member Ryan Bean was absent from the meeting.

Public Notice

Q&A

Should government simply post its own public notices online?

Government websites have very low readership. They're notoriously difficult to navigate. And do you really want the government to be responsible for monitoring itself?

Newspapers provide an independent, third-party source for public notices. Newspaper notices get NOTICED. And they're archived, in unalterable form, after they're published both in print AND online.

Newspaper notice has worked in Texas since 1836. And it still does.
