Lions begin new season

BY MELISSA PERNER
THE OZONA STOCKMAN

The Ozona Lions began workouts for the 2015 Football Season Monday.

This year the Lions are once again focusing on defending their 2014 District Championship.

"We had a good first day. We had some new faces. I enjoyed having these guys out," said Athletic Director Edward Perez.

This year's Lions have big shoes fill after losing 13 seniors.

Also, three players, Ben Badillo, Kobe Rodriguez and Jadon Perez, are vying for the varsity quarterback position.

Senior Bryce Martin is recovering from knee surgery and will be out for six to eight weeks.

"Our younger kids will have to step up and fill holes," Perez said.

The Lions once again have tough district opponents.

Perez said he expects Forsan, Christoval and McCamey to be strong teams.

"Our district is very competitive. I'm not over-looking anyone this season," Perez said.

Perez said some of the key players to watch this season include Tommy Fay, Kalen Perez, Jose Ojeda and Johnny Venegas on defense,

The meeting is open to the public.

Item on the agenda is discussion and action on approval of plans for Crockett County 2011 Community Development Block Grant Water and Sewer Infrastructure Improvements for Hampton Inn Ozona, Crockett County, Texas, Texas Capital Fund No. 7214343.

Ozona Chamber is 'a front door to the community'

BY MELISSA PERNER
THE OZONA STOCKMAN

Learning about what the Ozona Chamber of Commerce does and offers were the subjects of last week's Lunch & Learn at the Ozona Chamber of Commerce Visitor Center.

Chamber President Shannon Biggerstaff and Interactive Media Coordinator Cathy English both made presentations about what services the chamber offers to its members.

"There are a lot of misconceptions out there about chambers. Chambers are not civic organizations. We have a paid staff with a board of directors," Biggerstaff said. "A lot of people don't understand that we are a corporation. We are bound by federal laws and guidelines."

In the state of Texas there are 600 chambers of commerce, Biggerstaff said. Each chamber operates based on the specific needs of their community.

"Our job is to be the front door to the community and their businesses. We support those businesses that come into town and market those services to residents. We support local businesses," Biggerstaff said.

The chamber deals with an average of 120 phone calls a month.

Biggerstaff said the Ozona Chamber's focus is on the two industries that provide the economic base for Ozona: the oil and gas and tourism industry which consist of travelers that stop for gasoline, eating and spending time in the community.

The chamber has created a GPS game that gives visitors a 60-90 minute tour of Ozona by using a GPS, and a historical walking tour.

They also get information out through their website at Ozona.com, social media on Facebook, Twitter, Pinterest and Instagram, email and monthly newsletters.

The chamber has 3,200-5,000 hits every month on their website.

"People are staying with us. They are remembering us and talking about us," Biggerstaff said.

This year the chamber is hosting their annual Oil and Gas Show in October. They host this event every other year.

"This serves a purpose to support the number one service in the county, it puts people in the community in hotels and restaurants and it's a fundraiser for the chamber," Biggerstaff said.

The Ozona Chamber is funded through dues, the local motel occupancy tax which is used to promote tourism in Crockett County, and fund raisers.

OVFD battles three grass fires

OZONA FIREFIGHTERS fought three grass fires last week. Two were off of County Road 208 north of Ozona and another was located off of State Highway 137 about five miles south of the Reagan County line. Cause of the fires is still being determined. Temperatures this week are expecting to soar into the upper 90s this week with no rain expected. Crockett County is not under a burn ban at this time. Reagan County and Iraan Firefighters also responded.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Blessing in a Backpack is now OUMC-Loaves and Fishes

Dear Editor,

The Wednesday Women's Bible Study class that meets at the Ozona United Methodist Church has offered to take over the Blessing in a Backpack program that Paige Skehan started in the Ozona Elementary School four years ago.

The program provides weekend meals for students who may not have regular meals on the weekends. Ozona has a high percentage of elementary age children who fall below the poverty line. That translates into many being at risk for hunger.

School personnel confirm that there are children in our community that come to school on Monday mornings with empty stomachs and hunger headaches. Since Paige has relocated to Upton County, she is no longer able to run this program. Our class has decided to take on this project.

However, because of the restrictions of the Blessings in a Backpack program, we have decided to create our own local ministry to accomplish the same goals. We will be able to provide fresh produce along with other items not included in the Backpack program. We have named our ministry Loaves and Fishes. We can feed a child for weekends during the school year for about $110.

We are asking for the community's support through prayers and monetary gifts. Paige has been able to provide food for 50 children each year. Our goal is to double that number.

If you wish to send a donation, please make your check to: OUMC-Loaves and Fishes. Please mail your check to OUMC, P.O. Box 983, Ozona, Texas 76943. Your donation will be tax deductible.

We would like to thank Paige for starting such a valuable program in our community. As former teachers, we strongly believe that this program should continue. We know that this program will help students be more successful in school. Other communities have reported great success with similar programs.

Our class is excited to take on this challenge and we appreciate all the organizations in our community that have enthusiastically offered to help us. Thank you in advance for your support.

Minding others' beeswax

By any measure, there's ample global evidence that humankind is finding ways to "mind others' beeswax" despite our being on a downhill slide toward abysmal failure to handle our own.

It is, though, a statement worthy of contemplation in a wobbly world-one crying out for a cosmic shift that may date back as far as Paul the Apostle, who wrote letters to the Church at Thessalonica advising adherents how to "do life."

Some believe the expression was hammered out by Greeks. Googling in overdrive suggests it probably picked up speed during the 19th century world-wide smallpox epidemic. The disease left deep facial pockmarks, and application of an ointment called "beeswax" provided ready touch-ups.

The sun and other heat sources often did a number on the make-up, however, and retorts popped out of mouths of savvy "friends" offering second coats of beeswax.

"Mind your own business," "pox victims may have said. Later, it was shortened to MYOB. The letters now are sometimes confused with BYOB, letters which provide directives concerning beverage conveyance to meetings, including suggestions as to "concealed carry" or "open carry" manner

For folks of a certain age, MYOB was a handy playground term often used during recess. It was a soft-spoken bluff to big, tough bullies masquerading as classmates who insisted the rest of us dance to their fiddles. Like Indian rain dances, sometimes the bluffs worked.

Suffice it to say that in practice, there are massive, planetary efforts--accelerated by technology--for the world's beeswax pot to be accessible to all.

A current news piece from England claims that Britons-for an all that costs $4.65 American-may access air ambulance locations at all times.

This includes the one piloted by Prince William, a volunteer during paternity leave.

Fearing his political foes might find such information helpful, I'll choose a four-wheeled ambulance should I have need when visiting "unjolly" old London.

For several years, flightstats.com has provided status and locations of aircraft with filed flight plans. All that's needed for access is the aircraft number.

IDLE AMERICAN

"Need-to-knowers" may while away hours-morning or evening tide-watching blips moving across the computer screen.

I don't think bees have a whit of involvement in beeswax production. In fact, if encouraged to ratchet their work up a bit, they might tell us to buzz off.

Bees already are doing more with less--er, fewer--and great minds are spinning around the world in efforts to make the world more "bee compatible." (We've got pollen going un-touched.)

While there are no apps yet identified to fortify bee populations, it is worth noting some specific-albeit unusual-projects in place to increase their numbers. Who would have guessed that hives are being moved to unlikely places, such as the roof of Dallas' new Omni Hotel? (This may mean they'll charge extra for honey you want to slather it on breakfast toast.)

Honey itself warrants more minding than beeswax. There are folks--like those who believe an apple a day keeps the doctor away--who consider honey to be an elixir for many ills. (I know--there's still another group countering that "stupid" can't be cured.)

If honey helps to smarten us up, let's get a shipment to the lottery office in Indiana. There, they are selling bacon-scented lottery tickets. Aren't there other ways to plug "bringing home the bacon"? And include a honey shipment to Van Meter, Ind. They're pushing a fund-raising lottery; the winner gets to fire a police laser at a volunteering city official. (Sad to say, but for some, it is may be way too late for apples, honey or beeswax.)

Help us, Lord, to exercise a modicum of common sense, and may our beeswax quests focus inward, now and forevermore. Amen....

The FFA Way

IT'S THE PITTS

LEE PITTS

I don't do meetings because once you've been to an FFA meeting everything else is amateur hour. Attend any meeting today and you'll see folks holding a discussion without a motion on the floor, no flag salute, and no knowledge whatsoever of Robert's Rules of Order. As an ex FFA member who proudly presided over opening and closing ceremonies with strict adherence to parliamentary procedure, it drives me nuts to watch C SPAN.

Here's how a typical government meeting might go if they did it the FFA way.

This party will come to order. We are now holding a meeting of government parasites. Madame Vice President, are all officials at their stations?

Mr. President, I shall call the role of crooks to find out if they are here and if they are sober. Madame Secretary of State. Where are you stationed?

Here by the shredding machine.

Why by the shredding machine? Because I want to be President some day and if the public ever saw this stuff I couldn't get elected dog catcher in Little Rock.

Supreme Court Justices, where are you stationed?

We're sorry, can you speak a little louder? I said SUPREME COURT JUSTICES, WHERE ARE YOU STATIONED?

We are stationed in an assisted care living facility.

Why are you stationed there? Because we're older than Methuselah. We are here to rewrite the Constitution, wear long flowing robes, take long naps and vacations, be waited on hand and foot and to live off a big fat pension while we write books that nobody reads.

Members of the House of Representatives, where are you stationed? Here by the dollar sign. Why are you so stationed?

The dollar sign is the time honored symbol of lobbyists and Political Action Committees. Without them we can't accomplish much. We burn all records of receipts and disbursements and take money under the table from multinational corporations just as Washington kept his farm accounts, very carefully. It is our duty to see that the lobbyist's checks don't bounce and everyone gets their share of the payola. We encourage graft amongst the members, give meaningless speeches, make promises we have no intention of keeping and live like billionaires. We conduct the nation's business with direction from our major contributors.

Members of the Senate, where are you stationed?

Here by the revolving door.

Why are you so stationed? In case we lose in the next election, we can retire on a huge pension and get a job as a lobbyist with a green group, a defense contractor or as a lobbyist for a Chinese corporation. As highly paid lobbyists we can continue to go to strip clubs with our old Congressional friends.

Federal Reserve, where are you stationed? Here by the wise old owl.

Why are you stationed there? We are asked to advise from time to time as the need arises. It is our job to keep interest rates low so the stock market will soar and our mutual funds will provide for us in the style we have been accustomed. Madame Vice President, why do you keep a bag of golf clubs at your station?

Because you never know when the President might want to play a few rounds.

And Madame Vice President, what is your duty there?

I wish I knew? Mostly I preside over cabinet meetings in the absence of the President when he is on vacation and I go to funerals in foreign countries on Air Force One. If we would but follow the leadership of our King we will be led into bankruptcy and away from a Democratic Republic into the glorious sunset of a Monarchy or dictatorship.

John Q. Public, where are you stationed? Here under the bus with tire tracks on our bodies.

And why are you so stationed? Because that's where you and your fellow government officials threw us.

Panel hears testimony in wake of jail death

AUSTIN — The Texas House Committee on County Affairs met on July 30 to hear testimony on Sandra Bland and jail standards.

Bland, 28, was pulled over by a state trooper in Hempstead on July 10. Soon after, she was placed in the Waller County Jail and was found dead in her cell on July 13. Investigators ruled the death a suicide. The story, covered by local, state, national and world news agencies, has emerged in the context of other tragic outcomes involving black citizens and law enforcement.

"How does someone get pulled over for not signaling and end up dead three days later? It just does not compute," said Committee Chair Garnet Coleman, D-Houston, in opening the hearing. Coleman called for discussion on how such an event might affect the Texas Department of Public Safety's training of officers and how Texas county jails might adjust their practices in the incarceration of mentally ill inmates.

Brandon Wood, director of the Texas Commission on Jail Standards, said mental health has become the commission's top priority and that state funding to add beds for inmates with mental issues is forthcoming. Wood testified that there have been 140 in-custody suicides in Texas since 2009 and 22 in 2014. He recommended enhancements to mental health screening processes, such as the addition of personnel who are qualified to assess mental health and deliver mental health care.

Texas Department of Public Safety Director Steven McCraw said the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Texas Rangers are investigating the arrest and death of Bland and suggested the public release of the arrest video was an act of transparency on the agency's behalf.

Yannis Banks of the Texas NAACP testified, suggesting that transparency issues include official documents that could be altered and video recordings that do not capture everything that happens. Several audience members spoke about their personal experiences related to racial profiling by law enforcement.

Greg Hansch, public policy director of National Association of Mental Illness of Texas, called for Texas to better address racism in law enforcement. And, while acknowledging increases in the Texas Legislature's attention to mental health issues generally over the past couple of legislative sessions, Hansch said Texas still has long way to go in addressing needed improvements in its mental health system.

Sales Tax Holiday this weekend

This year's Sales Tax Holiday is this weekend, Aug. 7 - 9. As in previous years, the law exempts most clothing, footwear, school supplies and backpacks priced under $100 from sales and use taxes, which could save shoppers about $8 on every $100 they spend.

All sales of qualifying items made during the holiday period qualify for the exemption, including items sold online, or by telephone or mail. Lay-away plans can be used again this year to take advantage of the sales tax holiday. The dates for the sales tax holiday are set by the Legislature.

OZONA SENIOR HAPPENINGS

Food group program Tuesday

BY BRENDA NEWTON
SENIOR CENTER DIRECTOR

We missed the rain again. I don't know about you but I am having a hard time keeping my yard alive. My poor elephant ears are burning around the edges from the sun. Oh well, at least we had half the summer without 100 degrees. We should be thankful for that.

County extension agent-FCS Kailey Roberts will begin Better Living for Texas programming on Tuesday, Aug. 11, at 1:30 p.m. This program will be educational series with a focus on the MyPlate food groups. MyPlate illustrates how to build a healthy plate using the five food groups that are buildings for a healthy diet. Join us as we begin this series with a discussion about the nutritional and health benefits of grains.

The movie for Aug. 4 will be "Message in a Bottle" starring Kevin Costner, Robin Wright Penn and Paul Newman. This movie was based on the novel by Nicholas Sparks. Don't miss it.

Come on out and enjoy yourself with popcorn and drinks Thursday at 2 p.m.

Don't forget the Thunderbird. They are available to help you get around. Just give them a call and leave a message. Be sure to say who you are and where you are. They will call you back. Call us at 392-9094 if you do not have their number.

Clean your mini blinds-close all the way, spray with vinegar, let set a few minutes - wipe clean. Open all the way and do the same.

Clean sliding door tracks - sprinkle baking soda in track, pour a bit of vinegar into track - wipe clean.

Exercise - 9 a.m. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday

Bridge - 1:30 p.m. on Mondays

Balance exercise - Tuesday and Thursday at 9 a.m.

Prayer Group - Wednesday at 3 p.m.

Quilting - Thursday morning at 9:30 a.m.

Movies - Thursday afternoon at 2 p.m.

Come on out, the coffee is on.

Independence Day celebration

BY MARY WILLIAMSON
ASSISTANT ACTIVITIES DIRECTOR

We celebrated Independence Day on July 3 with Blueberries, strawberries and pineapple arranged in the colors of the US flag, another arrangement consisted of strawberries and watermelon. Strawberries were dipped in white chocolate and coated with red, white, and blue sprinkles. Watermelon, pineapple and rice crispy treat were shaped like stars and served also.

The residents were decked out in red, white and blue colors. Red, White, and Blue leis were provided by Jan Patterson for residents and staff to wear.

RESIDENT COUNCIL

Every first Monday of the month residents meet in council to discuss any issuues or concerns and select a meal for the month. Dietary does a great job of providing the meal of their choice, this months choice was enchiladas with rice, beans and guacamole.

NEW ACTIVITIES

We played dancing bear and set out some games to play. Dancing Bear was played similar to Musical Chairs, a bear was passed around to music when the music stopped the person holding the bear had to tell a childhood memory instead of being pulled out of the circle.

The games consisted of Yahtzee, Checkers, Dominoes, Chinese Checkers, Skip-Bo, and Uno.

Crockett County Public Library has been kind enough to lend us large print books so that the residents could read some newer books.

For our residents that cannot see print, we have services from the Texas Talking Book Program. Book players and books on tape are provided by this program.

Care center residents are staff had ice cream on July 23 in honor of National Ice Cream day, which was July 19.

Everyone had a choice of toppings such as Chocolate syrup, strawberry syrup pr caramel syrup on chocolate or vanilla ice cream.

On July 17 Jonny Jonson had an art show, she had 44 bird pictures, 24 butterfly photos and various other pictures that she has drawn. Jonny also had some pictures that she drew for children to color.

Cookies, punch and watermelon were served during the art show.

BACK TO SCHOOL

People returning home from last minute vacations and clothes being bought, along with pencils and paper and other supplies, yes, it's back to school. Seeing all the preparations and activities reminds me of a great opportunity that Christians face. It is getting ready to or continuing to learn the Bible. I don't know how many people have told me they walked the isle of some Church and that was it, they were forgotten. How sad, that is just the beginning, not the end. We are in times when very few people really know the Bible or God. That is one of the main reasons for so many problems in our homes today. We are told to hide God's word in our heart, know it forward and backwards (Deuteronomy 11:18-21) We need food to eat but God's word is more important (Deuteronomy 8:3) We are to keep reading it and reviewing it and applying it or obeying it (Joshua 1:7,8) His word, if known and applied can keep us from great troubles and make us wise (Deuteronomy 4:6, Matthew 7:24) God promises that His word will never change and always be there (Isaiah 40:8) Revelation 1:3, says if we read and hear and obey it we will be well off (blessed). God's word promises eternal life for those that have accepted Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior, (John 3:16&17). Personally, I want to be blessed.

See you in Church on Sunday.

CCCCSD 2015-2016 Free/Reduced Price Lunch Program

Crockett County Consolidated Common School District
 $.30 $.40

Dear Parent/Guardian:

Children need healthy meals to learn. Crockett County Consolidated Common School District offers healthy meals every school day. Breakfast costs free at OES, $1.30 at MS & HS; lunch costs $2.30 at OES and $2.45 @ OMS & OHS. Your children may qualify for free meals or for reduced-price meals. Reduced-price is $0.30 for breakfast and $.40 for lunch. If you received a notification letter that a child is directly certified for free meals, do not complete an application. Let the school know if any children in the household attending school are not listed in the letter.

The questions and answers that follow and attached directions provide additional information on how to complete the application. Complete only one application for all the students in the household and return the completed application to Ludy Vargas, PO Box 400, Ozona, Tx 76943, 325/392-5547. If you have questions about applying for free or reduced-price meals Ludy Vargas, PO Box 400, Ozona, Tx 76943, 325/392-5547.

Step 1: List All Household Members Who Are Infants, Children, And Students Up To and Including Grade 12.

- List each child's name.
 - Print the first name, middle initial, and last name for each child in the household in the spaces provided. If there are more children in the household than lines on the application, use the back of the application to record additional names.

Special Directions:

Include all members in the household who are age 18 or under and are supported with the household's income. Children do NOT have to be related to anyone in the household to be a part of the household.

- Mark the box following the child's name if the child is a student in the Crockett County Consolidated Common School District.

- Check the appropriate box if the child qualifies for free meals as participant in the foster care system; as a participant in a Head Start, Early Head Start, or Even Start program; or as a child meeting the criteria for homeless, migrant, or runaway.

Special Directions

On this application, checking Foster indicates that a foster care agency or court has placed the child in your home. Foster children who live in the household may count as members of the household and may be listed on your application. If the application is being submitted for foster children only, complete Step 1, skip Steps 2 and 3, and go to Step 4.

If all children in the household are participants in one of these programs, skip Steps 2 and 3 and go to Step 4.

Step 2: Do Any Household Members (Including You) Currently Participate in the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF), or Food Distribution Program on Indian Reservations (FDPIR)?

- If no one in the household currently participates in any one of these programs

Skip the remaining questions in Step 2, and go to Step 3.

- If anyone in the household participates one of these programs

Record the Eligibility Determination Group Number (EDG) in the space provided, skip Step 3, and go to Step 4.

Step 3: Report Income for All Household Members.

Part A. Income for Children in the Household

- Record the total income for all children by how often the income is received (frequency). Do not include income for adults in this section. Record the income of adults in Part B.

Special Directions:

It is not necessary to record the income of the children in the household individually. Instead, combine and report children's total income by frequency. For example, combine all income received weekly and record the total amount in the space under weekly.

The Child Income Information Box (on the right) provides additional information on the types of income that needs to be reported for children in the household.

Earnings from work For Example: A child has a job where she or he earns a salary or wages.
Social Security, Disability Payments For Example: A child is blind or disabled and receives Social Security benefits.
Social Security, Survivor's Benefits For Example: A parent is disabled, retired, or deceased, and their child receives social security benefits.
Income from any other source For Example: A child receives income from a private pension fund, annuity, or trust.

Part B. Income for All Adult Household Members (Including Yourself)

- Record the first and last name of each adult in the household in the space provided.

If there are more adults in the household than the spaces provided, use the back of the application. Do not include the income of children in Part B. Children's income is reported in Part A.

Special Directions:

In this section, include all adults living in the household that share income and expenses, even if the adult is not related to anyone in the family and even if the adult does not receive income of her or his own. Do not include people who live in the household but are not supported by the household's income and do not contribute income to the household.

- Record the amount of income the adult receives under the type of income:

- Working Earnings
- Public Assistance/Child Support/Alimony
- Pensions/Retirement/Social Security/ Supplemental Security Income (SSI)
- All Other

Special Directions:

Report all amounts in gross income only and in whole dollars. Gross income is the total income received before taxes or deductions. Many people think of income as the amount they take home and not the total, gross amount. Ensure that the income reported on this application has not been reduced by the amounts deducted for taxes, insurance premiums, or any other purpose. The Adult Income Information Box provides additional information on the types of income that need to be reported. Foster children may be included as part of the household, but are not required to be included.

Write a 0 in any fields where there is no income to report. Any income fields left empty or blank will be counted as zeroes. If you write 0 or leave any fields blank, you are certifying (promising) that there is no income to report. If local officials have known or available information that the household income was reported incorrectly, the application will be verified for cause.

- Circle how often each type of income is received (frequency).

- W = Weekly
- E = Every 2 Weeks
- T = Twice per Month
- M = Monthly
- A = Annually

- Record the total number of children and adults in the household in the appropriate box.

Special Directions:

This number MUST be equal to the number of household members listed in Step 1 and Step 3. If there are any members of the household that have not been listed on the application, go back and add them. It is very important to list all household members, as the size of the household determines the household eligibility.

- Provide the last four digits of the Social Security number (SSN) of the adult signing the application or check the box for no SSN.

Special Directions:

A social security number is not required to apply for these programs.

Step 4: Provide Contact Information and Adult Signature.

- Read the certification statement.
- Write your current address and contact information in the fields provided. Sharing a phone number, email address, or both is optional, but helps us reach you quickly if we need to contact you.

Special Directions:

If you have no permanent address, this does not make your children ineligible for free or reduced-price school meals.

- Print the name of the adult completing the form in the spaced provided.

- Sign the form.

Special Directions:

All applications must be signed by the adult household member completing the application. By signing the application, the household member is promising that all information has been truthfully and completely reported. Before completing this section, please read the privacy and civil rights statements on the back of the application.

- Record today's date in the appropriate box.
