County employees present raise requests

BY BRENNHA HALE
THE OZONA STOCKMAN

The commissioners held a budget workshop at their meeting on July 9. County employees attended the meeting to discuss possible raises in the 2019 budget.

Crockett County Justice of the Peace Evelyn Kerbow said there have been no raises in three years and Crockett County has the lowest elected official annual salaries in the area.

Crockett County officials make $48,900 per year compared to Schleicher County, just above with $54,000, Kerbow said.

The commissioners asked county department heads to attend a budget workshop at 5:30 p.m. on July 23 to work out a possible sliding raise scale.

Shirley Kirby and Nancy Hale also attended the workshop on behalf of the Wellness Center Board to request the wellness center's three part-time employees be made full-time employees in the next budget, so they may receive county benefits.

The commissioners promised to consider the request but commented that they would most likely try to work in the three employees in the 2020 budget.

The three salaries would add at least $150,000 to the budget.

County Judge Fred Deaton said that the county employs roughly 140 full-time employees and 30 to 40 part-time employees who receive no benefits either.

Susan Williams also requested $3,800 to be added to the public library's publications and book budgets, as the new newsprint and paper tariffs have increased the price of books and newspaper advertisements. The commissioners will discuss the addition at their July 23 budget workshop.

CEMETERY CLOSING TIME

The commissioners set 9 p.m. as the new closing time for the cemetery, as it is too light at the normal closing time of 8:30 p.m. during daylight savings time. The extended hours will provide more time for the public to visit the cemetery in cooler evening temperatures. They commissioners also mentioned looking into installing automatic gates that can open from the inside and be set to close at any time.

WIND FARM

The commissioners voted to hire Allen Carmichael to serve as the county's attorney in negotiations with Apex Clean Energy, a wind energy company seeking a 312 tax abatement from the county for their White Mesa Wind Project. Faith Tyler reported that the company has access to over 78,000 acres in Crockett County and are in negotiations to acquire access to 30,000 more acres.

JAIL and WELLNESS CENTER REPORTS

Sheriff Robert Rodriguez provided an update on the jail construction's progress and Stormi Oglesby reported that there have been 113 memberships purchased for the new J. Cleo Thompson Wellness Center.

She also reported that in the few weeks the wellness center has been open, an average of 40 to 60 members use the facility daily.

Scherz Landscaping will complete the irrigation outside the building and Frank Tambunga requested Oglesby present more quotes for the landscaping from different companies. She has already

Work to reform Texas' Eminent Domain Laws continues

If you supported Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association's (TSCRA) work to reform Texas' eminent domain laws in the 2017 session of the Texas Legislature, then you will be pleased to know that our work continues.

Our association, with your help and support, will not give up on our efforts to change eminent domain laws that are unfair to landowners.

Richard Thorpe, our immediate past president, passionately led our reform efforts during the 2017 session. I was privileged to work alongside him and attended many of the same meetings and briefings and suffered the same bitter disappointment when our efforts were not successful.

In March, Richard passed the president's gavel to me and our three-member officer team shifted. Hughes Abell is now our first vice-president, and Arthur Uhl is second vice-president. Even with the change, you can rest assured that TSCRA's resolve to reform laws that are unfair to landowners remains strong. We will be quick to call on the tremendous knowledge base of our members, leaders and landowners like you.

We have been at this issue for a long time. In the January 1986 issue of our magazine, The Cattleman, the article "Landowners Should Know Rights in Condemnation Cases" addressed eminent domain. Authors Ed Small, Robert Neblett III and Gary Thornton wrote:

"For most landowners, the idea of someone 'taking' part of their land can be frightening and appalling. The concept of being 'condemned,' besides angering a landowner, might also be his first experience with our court system and the litigation process. In some situations, this anger and fear can result in unnecessary expense in time and money. For example, a landowner might refuse to settle at any price thus necessitating some unnecessary legal expense, or on the other hand, a landowner without proper guidance might settle for a price far below what he should or could have received for his land and the rights he is giving up."

We and other landowner organizations have surveyed our members to gauge attitudes about the use of eminent domain in Texas. Only two percent of respondents who have faced condemnation believe the initial offer from the condemner was fair and only 13 percent of respondents thought the final offer was fair.

Of the respondents who took their condemnation to a special commissioner's hearing or trial court, 77 percent received at least 20 percent more than the final written offer from the condemner. Clearly, the initial offers from condemnors are not reflecting market value.

During the 2017 legislative session, TSCRA and other landowner organizations formed a coalition called Texans for

I believe in newspapers

Sitting in the corner of the room I frantically type as Dr. David Walker, from Christoval ISD, talks about his district's gun policy. Walker is speaking fast with his thick, East Texas accent, and I don't want to miss anything.

As I look around the room, I'm surprised there are not more people in attendance. Those that are there are employees of the district and another group that is on the agenda to give another presentation.

No other members of the public are here to listen about a topic, conceal carry gun policy in our schools, which has been debated and discussed heavily throughout the state and nation.

So once again I sit in another school board meeting, representing my newspaper and my community as I report about what is happening in our school district. News that you will not find on Facebook, only in this newspaper.

Our industry is fighting a battle. It's a battle to prove that newspapers are still relevant. That we are still needed in this country. Well, I'm here to tell you that all communities need newspapers.

Nowhere else will you find discussion of the county commissioners possibly giving county employees raises other than this local newspaper. Oh, there might be discussion amongst locals on Facebook and Twitter, but if you want to know the facts, the real news, exactly what was said and discussed then turn to your local newspaper.

For me, there's no better job than getting to tell stories about the people in your community.

There's no better job than taking photos at middle school and high school sporting events, and seeing those photos cut out of your newspaper on your friends' refrigerators.

There's no better job than waiting endlessly for election night returns, and then reporting the results knowing you're the one everyone is waiting on you to see who won.

There's no better job than jumping into the pickup with your local volunteer firefighters to take food and water during a massive grass fire, while taking photos and getting details to report back to the community.

There's no better job than when someone says "I read in the newspaper..."

I've wanted to be in the

WHAT'S ON MY MIND

newspaper business since I was 14 years old. I will fight with everything I have in me to stay in this business until I'm a 104, I hope.

This past week, our office received good news. First in the form of being able to pick up 10 rolls of newsprint thanks to the help of The Kerrville Daily Times who let us put our order with theirs.

As you may have read in a past edition of the Stockman, newsprint is under a tariff with Canada. Because of this, we were having trouble getting newsprint.

Thanks to friends, our associations and many prayers, we now have newsprint, but the battle is not over.

Congressman Will Hurd, R-Helotes, has written a letter in support of removing this tariff to the U.S. Department of Commerce and U.S. Trade Representative. We thank Congressman Hurd for his support of community newspapers in this fight.

In his letter, he states "Many of my constituents, who are still without adequate internet access, rely on their local newspapers as a daily source of news."

Two weeks one of our own was attacked when a gunman shot and killed five people at the Capital Gazette in Annapolis, Md.

In the midst of this tragedy, Editor Jimmy DeButts praised his colleagues' work.

"There are no 40 hour weeks, no big paydays — just a passion for telling stories from our community," DeButts wrote. "We keep doing more with less. We find ways to cover high school sports, breaking news, tax hikes, school budgets & local entertainment. We are there in times of tragedy. We do our best to share the stories of people, those who make our community better. Please understand, we do all this to serve our community."

That is why I sit, in my corner at school board, county commissioners and other government, public meetings. I do it so you, the reader, will be better informed about this community we live in.

I am Melissa Perner and I believe in newspapers.

Don't Be These People

I've been in some form of the auction business for 45 years and have viewed auctions from all perspectives, from buyer, consignor, ring man, auctioneer, clerk, sale manager, etc. So I speak from some experience when I say there are some folks we'd just as soon NOT show up at an auction. Please, don't be any of these people:

#10- The Wannabe- These are young men fresh from auctioneer school who want to help by waving their arms and pointing out bidders for the professional ring men and auctioneers who don't really need their help, thank you very much. There's one at every auction and you can spot them because they're always overdressed in a tie and sports coat and they are just waiting in case the real auctioneer has a heart attack and they'd be called upon to finish the sale. In 45 years I've never seen it happen.

#9- The Wise Guy- This person sees auctions as his opportunity for 15 minutes of fame. Years ago at John Wayne's bull sale in Arizona there was a man who'd wave a huge American flag every time he wanted to bid. He got a lot of attention and even made the local nightly news but it was very disconcerting because folks in the crowd didn't know if they should stand and salute, say the pledge of allegiance or, in the case of any NFL players in attendance, take a knee.

#8- The Wasted- Auctions and an open bar are not a good idea. While a little alcohol might grease the bidding process

IT'S THE PITTS

it doesn't do anyone any good the next morning when it's discovered that a drunk homeless guy spent $500,000 on bulls.

#7- The Wishy Washy - It was difficult for some people to make the change when we went from using buyer names to buyer numbers. When we'd ask for their number after they bought a bull or a car they'd fumble around and have to search high and low for their bidder number. This takes up a lot of time and a clueless bidder can stop an auction faster than a contrarian bull that refuses to enter the sale ring.

#6- The Waiter- This person may never bid until after the auctioneer has said, "Sold!" I don't know if someone told them that waiting so long to bid is brilliant strategy or they just couldn't make up their mind. One minute they'll tell you an emphatic "NO!" And the next minute they're complaining to the owner of the cattle that the ring man wouldn't take their bid.

#5- The Winker- This bidder thinks they're being sly by bidding in the least conspicuous way possible, like a wink. The problem is someone with a nervous tick could end up buying a 50,000 pound load of stockers off the video. Or 17 range bulls

as happened in Madras, Oregon, one time when all the bidder thought he bought was three. Whoops. Try fixing that!

#4- The Wanderer- This bidder is always on the move. He may end up bidding three times in three different sections to three different ring men on the same animal thinking he was being smart, but really he only ended up bidding against himself. At horse sales some trainers, agents and owners actually bid behind the block, while others may bid and then disappear altogether. When the clerk or ring man tries to find them to sign a ticket they've vanished quicker than the cream puffs at a Weight Watchers meeting.

#3 The Wedded- The man is saying yes and is bidding aggressively while his wife is trying to grab his arms to pin them to his side, all while shaking her head an emphatic "NOOOOO!" Tell me, do you take the bid or not?

#2- The Waver- The waver has no intention of buying an animal but sees the auction as a social function or reunion. She sees a friend in the crowd and waves right about the time we're asking $10,000 for a bull.

#1- The Wrangler- This bidder tries to turn the auction into a negotiation. He will try to cut the bid in half every time. Auctioneers hate this. In Montana, where the auctioneers move along in $250 clips, if some wise guy tries to bid $25 he'll be completely ignored. Believe me, I tried.

Paxton sends letters to cities that passed bag ban ordinances

AUSTIN — Texas Attorney General Ken Paxton on July 2 notified 11 Texas cities that their ordinances against plastic shopping bags had been knocked down by the Texas Supreme Court.

Paxton said he issued letters to the cities of Austin, Sunset Valley, Port Aransas, Laguna Vista, Fort Stockton, Eagle Pass, Corpus Christi, Brownsville, Kermit, Freer and South Padre Island "to ensure awareness of the recent ruling and waste management responsibilities Texas law places on municipalities."

In January, the state Supreme Court heard arguments in the City of Laredo v. Laredo Merchants Association and on June 22 the court struck down the bag ordinance. The city maintained it was not a bag ban but "an incremental implementation plan towards a cleaner city."

However, the Supreme Court upheld an appeals court ruling siding with the merchants association in finding that the state's Solid Waste Disposal Act preempts the city's ordinance, and no city ordinance may conflict with a state law.

REQUEST FOR AID GRANTED

Gov. Greg Abbott's federal disaster request for individual assistance for Cameron and Hidalgo counties following recent severe weather and flooding has been granted, the governor's office announced July 6.

Abbott made the request to the Federal Emergency Management Agency on June 26 after visiting Edinburg, where local officials briefed him on the flooding and response and recovery efforts following a storm that hit South Texas June 18-22. The weather event and its aftermath are being referred to as "The Great June 2018 Flood." The National Weather Service has estimated that the event's breadth and impact could turn out to be greater than that of Hurricane Dolly in 2008.

"I thank the president and his administration for their swift response to aid Texans in the Rio Grande Valley as they continue to recover from these devastating floods. Going forward, the state of Texas will continue to work with local leaders to ensure the needs of those affected by the floods are being met," Abbott said.

ILLNESSES TIED TO PARASITE

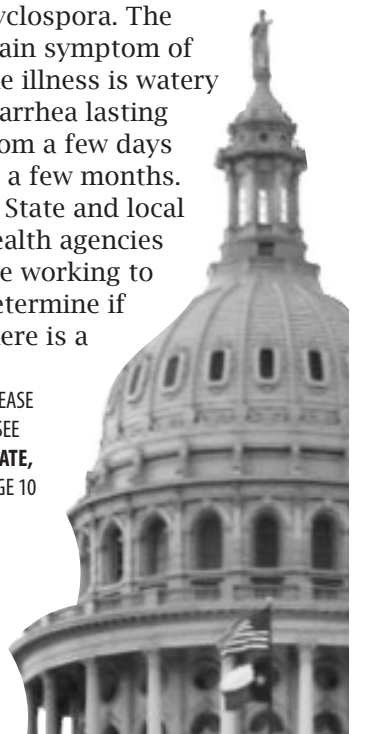

The Texas Department of State Health Services on July 2 announced some 56 cases of illness caused by the microscopic parasite Cyclospora had been identified since the beginning of May.

Cyclosporiasis is an intestinal illness caused by the consumption of food or water contaminated with Cyclospora. The main symptom of the illness is watery diarrhea lasting from a few days to a few months.

State and local health agencies are working to determine if there is a

OZONA SENIOR HAPPENINGS

Senior Bingo Social Aug. 13

BY BRENDA NEWTON
SENIOR CENTER DIRECTOR

As usual, we had a wonderful get together, parade, and fireworks for the Fourth of July. WOW, what a show it was! It was really worth the wait.

Please use the new exit on the south side of the center. It is a little hard to see, but it is the crossing that is across from Avenue D. It has been paved so it is really smooth. The exit in front of the center is dangerous because of truck traffic. There will be signs put up on this new entrance shortly. We do not want any of you to be in an accident leaving this facility. Please pay closer attention to traffic when leaving from town. Remember there is a curve there that blocks vision until it is too late.

Niki will be here this week. She starts at 10:30 a.m. and asks if anything has changed in your meds and how you are feeling. Then she starts the tapes and we do our exercises that are recommended by the Wesley Nurse Program to strengthen out muscles and are really good for our age group. You should all come try this plan to make you feel better and stronger.

Then we will be looking forward to Niki coming back on Thursday, July 19, to speak to us on Fall Prevention at 10 a.m. and noon. This is a free program to educate people of all ages on how to make environments safer.

We will be having Bingo on Monday, Aug. 13. Out board decided it would be easier for everyone to keep up with the date for the bingo social if it was on the second Monday of each month. We will be serving taco pile up at this social.

We will have afternoon bingo each Thursday. Bring your nickels and play as many cards as you can handle at a nickel a card per game. If you bingo for that game, you get all the nickels. We serve cokes and popcorn and have a good time. Then we have blackout bingo for a little prize for the lucky winner.

The center will open at 8:30 a.m. and close at 4:30 p.m.

Exercise at 9 a.m. on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday.

ASU planning Ozona 'War Stories' History Harvest

BY TOM NURRE JR.
ANGELO STATE UNIVERSITY

The Department of History at Angelo State University is planning a History Harvest event in Ozona sometime this fall for the grant-funded project, "War Stories: West Texans from World War I to the Present."

The "War Stories" project is an effort to collect and preserve the stories and experiences of current and former armed forces personnel and their families who have a past or present West Texas connection.

It is supported by a three-year grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Any Ozona and area residents interested in contributing to the project are asked to contact the ASU Department of History at (325) 942-2324 or warstories@angelo.edu to aid the project directors in planning when and where to conduct the Ozona History Harvest event this fall.

Previous successful History Harvest events have been held in Abilene, Big Spring, Brownwood, Fort Stockton, San Angelo and Uvalde.

Dr. Christine Lamberon and Dr. Kanisorn Wongrichanalai of ASU's history faculty are the directors of the project.

They are planning the Ozona History Harvest event to make it easier for individuals to participate in interviews and to bring materials, such as family photos, letters, journals, home movies and videos, and other documents, for assessment.

Items will be scanned on site, and originals will be returned to the owner, along with a digitized copy.

The scanned images and recorded interviews will be downloaded into a digital archive housed in ASU's Dr. Ralph R. Chase West Texas Collection to serve as a research resource for future generations and as a memorial to those Americans who helped shape the course of the 20th and early 21st centuries.

To view the current digital archive, go to www.angelo.edu/warstories.

For more information, call the ASU Department of History at (325) 942-2324 or warstories@angelo.edu.

Diet or exercise: which matters more for weight loss?

According to the Mayo Clinic both diet and exercise are important but one's way of eating yields greater results with weight loss than physical activity. However, physical activity, including exercise, helps preventing weight regain after weight loss...

"Weight loss through diet without physical activity, especially in older people, can increase frailty because of age-related losses in bone density and muscle mass. Adding aerobic and resistance training to a weight-loss program helps counter the loss of bone and muscle."

Healthy adults should avoid all refined and high glycemic index sugars, starches (flours and cereals), juices, and sugary carbonated drinks. These foods will spike blood sugar and insulin levels, destabilize brain chemistry and hormones, increase stored fat, and cause inflammation throughout the body. A Mediterranean type diet balances the macronutrients and is good for maintaining general health.

Over a lifetime, the over consumption of sugar can be fatal. The best strategy would be to eliminate them an item or two at a time, to insure your success and make your transition more tolerable.

Diabetics (both type 1 and 2) and all carbohydrate intolerant persons should base their ways of eating on healthy animal proteins and animal fats. All the nutrients a human organism requires can be found in a 9-ounce portion of lean red meat. When possible, choose grass-fed animals that are either wild caught or organically farm raised.

Georgia Ede, MD received my B.A. in Biology from Carleton College in Minnesota and spent seven years as a laboratory research assistant advises, "Animal foods (particularly when organ meats like liver are included) contain all of the protein, fat and essential vitamins and minerals our bodies need, many of which are significantly more bioavailable than those from plant sources."

Avoid dairy products as much as possible, except for fermented items, like cheeses, kefirs and yogurts. Mammals (humans included) are not designed to drink milk after they begin eating food.

Most dairy foods contain casein, an indigestible protein that can disrupt your digestive tract and compromise your immune system. Many people are lactose intolerant, which is an inability to process milk sugar.

"Milk naturally contains hormones and proteins that trigger spikes in human growth hormones, including insulin. If you eat dairy, you may want to choose naturally full-fat varieties over low-fat versions, as these are more satisfying, and contain lower percentages of lactose and potentially problematic proteins," adds, Georgia Ede.

If you are resolved to cut weight, nutritionally control type-2 diabetes, help improve cancer survivability, have gout, fatty liver disease, high blood pressure, or heart disease, a low-carbohydrate diet is absolutely your best option. These metabolic conditions are the result of insulin resistance and carbohydrate intolerance, and all of them can improve dramatically on a low or no-carb ways of eating.

For most healthy adults, the Department of Health and Human Services recommends getting at least 150 minutes a week of moderate aerobic activity or 75 minutes a week of vigorous aerobic activity. However, to effectively lose or maintain weight, some people may need up to 300 minutes a week of moderate physical activity. You can combine moderate and vigorous activity. The guidelines suggest that you spread out this exercise during a week, and sessions of activity should be at least 10 minutes long.

The Department of Health and Human Services also recommends strength training exercises at least twice a week. The guidelines don't include a recommendation for time to devote to each session, however.

"Moderate aerobic exercise includes activities such as brisk walking, swimming and ballroom dancing. Vigorous aerobic exercise includes activities such as running and aerobic dancing. Strength training can include use of weight machines, or activities such as carrying groceries or heavy gardening."

In general, we all should avoid processed foods, sugars, starches, all seed (vegetable) oils that require heat to extract the oil from the seed (especially artificial trans fats), chemical additives, artificial flavorings, artificial sweeteners, and artificial colorings as much as possible.

Shoot for at least 30 minutes of physical activity daily, even if it is simply a brisk walk. The human body was designed for movement. Regardless of the path you follow in pursuit of better health, fitness and wellbeing... educate yourself in all issues pertaining to you and the status of your health. Most importantly, take responsibility for your own journey and be your own primary health advocate.

Here's to your health.

OBITUARIES

Louise Taliaferro
June 23, 1922-July 3, 2018

Mary "Louise" Taliaferro went to be with her Lord and Savior on Tuesday July 3, 2018. She was 96 years old. Louise was born Mary Louise Taylor on June 23, 1922 in Eden, Texas, to Cecil and Emma Taylor. She attended elementary school in San Angelo, and moved back to Eden with her mother and sister where they lived on her grandfather's ranch. She attended Eden High School. She excelled in school and was involved in many extracurricular activities including softball and cheerleading. She enjoyed riding in the rumble seat of her mother's Ford.

She graduated from Eden High School at the age of 16 (she started school a year early because she was ready to go when her big sister was ready to go). She and her sister, Mozelle, packed their bags and headed off to Seguin, Texas, where they both attended Texas Lutheran College, a 2-year college at that time. Louise was popular at school and was selected to be homecoming queen in 1939. After completing TLC, the Taylor sisters were off to the University of Texas in Austin. Louise completed her degree in Business Administration, which was quite an accomplishment in that time. While at UT she and Mozelle attended football games and many social activities. She told stories of taking the train from Austin to College Station to watch the Longhorns play the Texas A&M Aggies and also taking the train to Dallas to watch the Longhorns take on the Oklahoma Sooners in the Cotton Bowl.

Louise remained a loyal Longhorn fan her entire life. She was also a great Dallas Cowboys fan. After graduating from the University of Texas at Austin, Louise worked for the Texas Company (which became Texaco) in Houston, Texas; Craig, Colorado; and eventually in Ozona, Texas. While in Ozona, Louise met Warren Taliaferro. They were married in 1947. They lived in Austin, Texas while Warren attended the University of Texas. They returned to Ozona, where they lived for the remainder of their lives together. They were happily married for 49 years until Warren's passing in July of 1996. Louise began teaching elementary school and eventually moved to Ozona High School where she taught business skills, including typing, shorthand, and bookkeeping to almost every Ozona High School student for 33 years. She retired from teaching in 1985. She was active with her friends in the Women's Forum and greatly enjoyed reading and working at the Ozona Library. She was a lifetime member of the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod and served as the church treasurer for Faith Lutheran Church in Ozona for many years.

She remained in Ozona until 2013, when she moved to San Antonio and began living at Independence Hill Assisted Living. She always enjoyed playing dominos, listening to music, and participating in the many activities at Independence Hill. She faithfully attended church services at Independence Hill.

She is survived by her two sons, Steve Taliaferro of Hollister, Missouri and Craig Taliaferro (Karen) of San Antonio, Texas; her five grandchildren, Scott, Stacy, Austin, Jarod, and Jacob; and great-grandchildren, Tobin and Simon. She was a hard worker, a good friend, wife and mother, and she will be greatly missed.

Services will be held at Faith Lutheran Church in Ozona at 1 p.m. on Tuesday, July 17, 2018.

PICKING THE RIGHT HORSE

We had to travel about fifty miles to look at them. Upon arriving my wife got in the pen with them and looked them over very carefully. After asking the owner some questions, she picked one and then I picked one. Hers was not the prettiest nor the largest but she thought he had kind eyes. We loaded them in the trailer and went home. She didn't saddle hers right away but started feeding him by hand and getting to know him real well. Eventually he became very gentle, (obedient) and she spent many enjoyable hours with her horse. She could even whistle out in the pasture and he would come to her. Mine never became trustworthy and would run off or totally disobey. Those two horses reminded me of a very important principle in the Christian life. It is one thing to accept Christ but another to grow up or become mature and obedient to Him, (Matthew 25:23, 1 Corinthians 3:1-3). To accept Christ is the first step and God is very pleased with this, (Romans 5:1&2). But it is another to learn how Christ wants us to live and then apply it day after day, (Matthew 23:11&12, 1 Corinthians 4:2). I had many unhappy moments with my horse and I had to sell him. Many Christian or people who say they are Christians yet live like they were enemies of God, (Luke 19:27). See you in Church next Sunday. Brother J

FROM THE PULPIT...

The Words of Jesus

Luke 4:22 "And all bare him witness, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth..."

Can you imagine God speaking to us by the Law? It would be utter condemnation and death.

God has chosen to speak to us by His Son, Jesus Christ and He does not speak with the power of the Law but with the authority of gracious words. Why does Jesus speak such gracious words and what gives Him the right to use such comforting speech? Who does He think He is to speak with such power and where does His authority come from?

Christ speaks with power and authority because He is the end of the Law. He is bold in His gracious words because God made Him to be sin for us who knew no sin, that we might be made the righteousness of God in Him.

Evidence of Christ's gracious words can be found in that the harlots and publicans heard Him gladly. Christ's gracious words gave a prostitute sufficient boldness to wash His feet with her tears and wipe them with the hairs of her head. She was not intimidated by the presence of the "morally clean" Pharisee because she had heard the gracious words of the Lamb of God.

PASTOR TOM SLOAN and wife MONA

Are you a sinner? Have you heard the words of this Man, the risen Christ, the Messiah of God? Does your sin keep you up at night? Does your guilt make you weak in the knees? Well, the gracious words of the Lord Jesus are for you because He died for sinners, just like me, just like you.

If you want to know what God thinks about you, listen to the gracious words of Jesus because...

...a bruised reed shall He not break, and a smoking flax shall He not quench.

TOM SLOAN is the pastor of Friendship Baptist Church in Ozona, Texas. Mona and Tom have been missionaries in Mexico since 1994. She was raised in a preacher's home in Austin, and Tom was raised in a missionary's home in Chiapas, Mexico. Mona and Tom have been married for 24 years and they have five children with the oldest being 22 and the youngest being 10.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE NEWS

Ozona Brochure wins award

BY AARON COX
TEXAS CHAMBER OF COMMERCE EXECUTIVES

Local Chambers from across the state of Texas convened Tuesday, June 19, for the Texas Chamber of Commerce Executives (TCCE) Annual Excellence Awards. The awards honor organizations for exceptional efforts in marketing, communications and media outreach. Awards are judged in seven categories: Outstanding Chamber Map, Outstanding Brochure, Outstanding Magazine or Directory, Excellence in Print or Electronic Newsletter, Outstanding Chamber Website, Excellence in Social Media Marketing and Communications, and Outstanding Marketing Campaign.

In the category of Outstanding Brochure the Ozona Chamber was honored as the best in Texas, winning first place in communities with a budget of $250,000 or less.

"Chambers of Commerce are the voice of businesses and quite often the communities they serve," said Aaron Cox of TCCE. "This highly competitive process demonstrates how these organizations fulfill this task with excellence daily, often with little or no accolades. This award demonstrates the exceptional work carried out by the Ozona Chamber and provides them well deserved recognition."

The overall competition had more than 200 entries from which the best were judged by panels of experts. "This prestigious honor is cause for the staff, members and community to celebrate," said RaDonna Hessel, 2017

TCCE Board Chairman and CEO of the Grapevine Chamber of Commerce. "This type of recognition is indicative of the great work, creativity and innovation that exists in these chambers. Congratulations to all!"

"The Chamber worked the better part of 2017 on a new brochure for Ozona," said Shanon Biggerstaff, Ozona Chamber President. "We were very excited to learn our entry had been selected as a first place winner. In response to our advertising, this is the brochure that we send when people request information on Ozona. Through May of this year, again in response to our advertising, we have fulfilled 11,381 requests for our brochure. It is displayed in the twelve Travel Information Centers across the state, and we hand it out daily at the Ozona Visitor Center. You can also view our brochure by visiting the home page of Ozona.com."

"We are so honored, and so proud that our marketing piece for Ozona was recognized for its excellence in its representation of our community. We thank TCCE and the panel for this award," said Biggerstaff.

The Texas Chamber of Commerce Executives (TCCE) is the professional society of chamber of commerce executives and professional staff in the state of Texas. Established in 1908, TCCE remains a strong, viable organization and the longest standing association of chamber of commerce professionals in the nation.

As a private not-for-profit 501 (c)(6) TCCE operates with the primary goal of serving its membership by providing excellence in professional development, networking, resource and idea exchange opportunities and grassroots advocacy information and coordination. Through its publications and other resources TCCE provides operational guidance and leadership to chambers across the state.

School board hears roof proposal, holds budget workshop

BY MELISSA PERNER
THE OZONA STOCKMAN

The CCCSD School Board heard a proposal about new roofs for Ozona High School Buildings during a special meeting Monday night.

Andrew Morrison with the Garland Company gave a presentation that showed where he evaluated the main building, auditorium and OHS Davidson Gym.

Total estimated cost for the roofing project was $1.2 million, Morrison said.

The board took no action on the proposal.

Also, the board held a budget workshop.

After meeting in closed session, the board approved the hiring of Leandra Adame as OES teacher.

The board will hold their regular meeting at 6:30 p.m. July 18 and another budget workshop at 6:30 p.m. July 30. Both meetings will be in the Administration Office Board Room, 797 Avenue D, and are open to the public.

CARE CENTER CHATTER

New Music & Memory Program for residents

BY MARY WILLIAMSON
ASSISTANT ACTIVITIES DIRECTOR

The Crockett County Care Center is bringing a new Music & Memory Program for the benefit of the residents, family members, employees and community.

Music & Memory's personalized music program has been field-tested in thousands of care settings throughout the U.S. and around the world, and is grounded in neuroscience research. Personalized music brings joy, eases pain, reduces stress and can facilitate social connection. For family members, sharing a loved one's music can enhance visits and deepen relationships that may have seemed lost, especially to dementia.

This certification has been made possible by the generosity of the D.A.D.S. program.

The certification process will initially provide music for a limited number of residents. Over time, the program will expand to include all residents who wish to participate. There is no fee for participation.

Family members will be invited and encouraged to get involved in helping to create their loved one's personalized playlist. This will be an ongoing opportunity for you and your loved one to take a musical journey together.

Loteria was played May 4 followed by margaritas and nachos supreme to celebrate Cinco de Mayo. Residents played for free while staff and guests paid $1 per card, we had some great prizes.

Mother's Day was celebrated on a Friday with Mariachis performing. While the Mariachis sang, Maria Arredondo, Josefina Treto and Jenny Tollett danced for the residents. Cookies, cupcake and punch were served to residents and visitors at the end of the performance. Thank you to all staff, volunteers and family that helped with the Mother's Day celebration.

Residents enjoyed a new exercise video this month titled "Sit Down & Tone Up." It proved to be a very good workout even though it is not an aerobic workout.

They also play poker at 3 p.m. Thursdays. Every week there is a chip winner, the person that has the most chips after the next to the last game and an all in winner for the last game.

We continue to enjoy the Dorman family once a month for a tea party in the afternoon. They bring snacks, tea cups and saucers and a game to play with the residents. This month's game the residents wrote down three things about themselves then we had to guess who those three things were about.

Coke floats were served to residents, visitors and family members on Memorial Day.

Father's Day was celebrated with Casino Day on June 14. We started with Bingo at 10 a.m. with lots of prizes. Then at 2 p.m. we played poker, with tables playing until 4 p.m. Snacks and drinks were served during the games.

Some residents went to the museum to view the tea sets on loan from residents of Crockett County and afterwards ate lunch at Mi Familia.

Students wanting community service hours, come in and let us set you up with some hours. We welcome volunteers who would like help with activities or would like to provide items for bingo prizes.

THE CROCKETT COUNTY VETERANS G.I. JOE 5K was held June 30 at the new J. Cleo Thompson Wellness Center. Overall top runner earning the G.I. Joe title was Roman Esparza at 19 minutes, 14 seconds. This year $615 was raised for Crockett County Veterans events, such as the Veterans Day Dinner, Memorial Day, Flag Day and assisting veterans in need. Sponsors and supporters included: West Texas Guidance and Counseling and Concho Valley Military Veteran Peer Network (T-shirt), J. Cleo Thompson Wellness Center Staff, CERT Members, Evelyn Kerbow, Joanie Medley, Kye Montgomery, Irma Tambunga, Michell Mendoza and Ozona Bank. "I certainly want to say thank you to all that participated, assisted or sponsored this year's event," said Frank Tambunga.

2, Oglesby reported that there have been 113 memberships purchased for the new J. Cleo Thompson Wellness Center.

She also reported that an average of 40 to 60 members use the facility daily.

The wellness center's weight room will house their free weight sets, ellipticals, PreCor treadmills, recumbent bikes and dual muscle group weight machines. There will also be TVs for members' use while using the exercise equipment. Video tutorials and information about all weight machines, free weights, and cardio machines can be found on the center's website. The wellness center also features a refreshment area that offers snacks and beverages to all members, locker rooms equipped with showers, hair dryers, and swimsuit dryers, and an outdoor walking trail. Hand towels will be provided in the weight room, and bath towels and wash clothes will be provided in the locker rooms.

Members can begin enrolling in exercise classes taught by Lozano and Oglesby online through their website or app. Classes for both adults and children will be offered. Lozano currently plans on holding beginner cardio and arms and abs classes for adults when the center opens in July, and Oglesby will teach water aerobics, yoga, and Pilates classes in the fall. Children's boxing, swimming, and tumbling lessons will also be offered when school begins in the fall. The schedule of these classes will be flexible to the needs of the community.

Unlike most community wellness facilities in West Texas, the JCT Wellness Center is not affiliated with a hospital. The wellness center's purpose is to offer preventive care against injury, and no rehabilitation or medical services will be provided.

"We are an entity of the county," Oglesby said. "Being tied to a hospital would help financially, but this way we can learn one day at a time and make the wellness center whatever the community wants it to be. I hope all citizens of Crockett County enjoy, appreciate, and utilize the services that are offered to them."

The wellness center project was spearheaded by Shirley Kirby who organized the wellness committee in August 2009. Their first meeting was held in September. The commissioners court granted the lot that is now the Shannon Clinic to the wellness committee and gave them five years to fundraise enough to begin construction on it.

In its largest fundraising efforts, the committee raffled off a playhouse donated by Ira Childress, and invited the 1995-96 state champion Lady Lions basketball team to play teams from the community. El Chato's also donated four meals for fundraisers.

After their five-year fundraising period, they petitioned for a $4 million bond and received over 600 signatures, which satisfied the requirement of 25 percent of registered voters. Crockett County Voters approved the bond in November 2015.

The committee approached the J. Cleo Thompson family with the goal of purchasing the plot of land adjacent to their office on Avenue H and across from the Crockett County Care Center. The Thompson family decided to donate the lot and asked that they name the wellness center after their father.

The committee plans to use the money fundraised before the bond election to pay for improvements that the county won't fund and to provide membership scholarships to those who have a doctor referral to use the center but cannot afford the membership fees. The committee will continue to have fundraisers to cover new equipment and extra expenses.

The committee toured other wellness facilities in surrounding towns like Sonora, Eldorado, Iraan, Rankin, and McCamey, to research what amenities were must-haves for Ozona's center. Committee members found that Sonora's wellness center administrators thought their facility needed more storage, and that McCamey and Iraan's single large exercise rooms were less practical than centers that have several smaller rooms or rooms divided by movable partitions.

The O'Connell Robertson architecture firm designed most of the wellness centers in the surrounding area. They firm met with the wellness committee and sold them the plan for the wellness center for $1. The county took the plan after the bond election, and the wellness committee has consulted since then.

Construction on the building began in 2016 and all irrigation and landscaping, aside from the trees donated by the architecture firm, has yet to be completed. Scherz Landscape in San Angelo has submitted a bid to finish the exterior work.

There will be a grand opening at the wellness center on Aug. 16 when it is fully functional and all fitness services, like exercise classes, will be offered.

"I have to pinch myself when I think of how wonderful the building tuned out to be," Kirby said. "After all our efforts and all the years of fundraising and planning, I can't believe it's finally happened. I hope the people of Crockett County use it."

who filed are Pete Flores, who unsuccessfully challenged Carlos Uresti in 2016; Jesse "Jay" Alaniz, the former president of the Harlandale ISD board; and Carlos Antonio Raymond, who unsuccessfully sought the Republican nomination for House District 117 in March.

The Libertarian candidate is Tony Valdivia, a senior reporting analyst at USAA Bank.

The contest will determine who will fill the seat of Carlos Uresti, who resigned

Thursday after being found guilty earlier this year of 11 felonies related to fraud and money laundering. Uresti was sentenced to 12 years in federal prison on June 26.

Uresti also is preparing for a separate federal criminal trial set for Oct. 22 in the same San Antonio courthouse. He will remain out on bond until that trial.

The winner of the special election will finish Carlos Uresti's term, which ends January 2021.

Outgoing state Rep. Tomas Uresti, Carlos Uresti's brother, also filed. Tomas Uresti, of San Antonio, lost his reelection bid during the March primaries.

The fourth Democrat who filed is Charlie Urbina Jones, a Potetee attorney who unsuccessfully ran for Texas' 23rd Congressional District in the 1990s.

attained quotes for the security system and automatic doors, and the commissioners have already approved $10,000 be spent to add a sidewalk to the rear end of the building.

COUNTY AGENT VEHICLE

County Extension agent, Dawson Owens received the go-ahead to purchase a county agent vehicle from Glasscock Chevrolet for $35,476.81. The commissioners plan to fund this new vehicle by removing $22,496 out of the salary, benefits, vehicle maintenance, and temporary help budgets that were unused.

Another $15,000 will come out of the county road department's building and maintenance budget.

CHAMBER REPORT

Shanon Biggerstaff reported that the Ozona Chamber of Commerce's new brochure highlighting attractions around Ozona won the Texas Chamber of Commerce's brochure contest. There have now been over 13,000 requests for Ozona brochures from traveler service facilities across the state. Ozona had more visitors than usual last month, with 900 stopping at the visitor center and Biggerstaff reports that the chamber has had over 3,500 visitors this year. She also emphasized that 23 videos highlighting attractions in Ozona are now linked on the chamber's website, ozona.com.

The road department had to put off paving due to recent rainy weather, but has acquired 100 tons of paving rock and 10,000 gallons of asphalt to begin paving this week, starting on Avenue G.

THE COMMISSIONERS ALSO:

- Took no action to consolidate precincts for the upcoming senatorial election. Voting will be held in all precincts and early voting will be held July 16 and end July 27.

- Took no action to pay the clinic's Natgas bill, and plan to get more information, as the county was billed so long after the clinic construction was complete.

ly served as commissioner of Precinct 4 for 15 years until he lost the 2006 March Primary Election.

COUNTY TREASURER

The Texas Secretary of State's Office also confirmed that Laura Conner will appear on the ballot as the Democratic nominee for Crockett County Treasurer in the Nov. 6 General Election.

Conner was appointed in May by the Crockett County Commissioners' Court to finish the term of Karen Webb, who died of a sudden illness in March. Webb's term ends in December.

Webb won the Democratic Primary in the March 6 Primary Election. She did not have an opponent in the Republican Primary, so her name would have been placed on the November ballot for the General Election running unopposed.

When there is a death, and the primary elections have already been held, it's up to the county party chair to decide who is put on the November ballot. Crockett County Democratic Party Chair is Margaret Riquelmy.

The party chair can consider the person the commissioners appoint.

The only other way a person could run as county treasurer in November General Election would be as an independent or write-in candidate.

No independent candidates filed by the June 21 deadline.

Filing period for write-in candidates is July 21-Aug. 20.

In order to become a write-in candidate in the general election, a person must file a Declaration of Write-in Candidacy with the Secretary of State or the county judge (depending on the office), during the filing period. The declaration must be accompanied by either a filing fee or a nominating petition signed by a certain number of qualified voters.

A person who was a candidate for office in the primary election is ineligible for a place on the list of write-in candidates for that same office in the succeeding general election for state and county officers.

Property Rights to fight for changes to the eminent domain laws in Texas. We were outgunned by numerous oil, gas and electric lobbyists and lawyers who opposed our efforts and ultimately brought about the demise of reform legislation.

We will take a different approach in the 2019 Legislative Session and the work starts, or I should say continues, now.

The most effective way to combat this opposition is for you to contact your legislators. Your state representative and state senators care about your opinions. You voted them into office and have the power to vote them out. TSCRA is working hard for you, but the grassroots influence of individuals like you is the most powerful tool in our arsenal for change.

Find your state representative and state senator at www.fyi.legis.state.tx.us, and ask them to support meaningful eminent domain reform in the next legislative session.

ROBERT E. MCKNIGHT JR. is the TSCRA President

REVENUE TOTAL INCREASES

Texas Comptroller Glenn Hegar on July 3 announced state sales tax revenue totaled $2.77 billion in June, an amount 13.7 percent more than reported for the month of June 2017. Sales tax revenue increased for almost all major economic sectors, Hegar said. "The strong revenue growth was led by collections from the mining and manufacturing sectors. The construction, wholesale and retail trade sectors also saw strong gains," he added. Also, total sales tax revenue for the three months ending in June 2018 was up 12.4 percent compared to the same period a year ago.

Sales tax revenue is the largest source of state funding for the state budget, accounting for 58 percent of all tax collections. Revenue from other major taxes on motor vehicle sales and rentals, motor fuel and oil and natural gas production also rose in June 2018, Hegar said.

More details are available online via the Comptroller's Monthly State Revenue Watch at comptroller.texas.gov.

INSPECTION TOTALS RELEASED

The Texas Department of Public Safety announced some 7,980 commercial motor vehicles were inspected in Road-check 2018, a national commercial motor vehicle safety effort conducted June 5-7.

Commercial vehicle enforcement troopers, specially trained highway patrol troopers, civilian inspectors, compliance review investigators and local partner agencies participated in the effort, in which 1,975 of the 18-wheelers, buses and other commercial vehicles inspected were placed out of service for a variety of safety violations until appropriate repairs could be made. Issues with brakes and defective tires were among the most common infractions that led to out-of-service violations.

Drivers also were checked for compliance with state and federal laws, and 301 drivers were placed out of service. Among the violations were failing to have the proper type of driver license for the vehicle being driven and violation of hours-of-service limits.

In all, 1,258 citations and 18,178 warnings were issued, the DPS said.
