te a Stand on Decency"

By Vanda Anderson Editor

You may be tired of hearing about the shocking halftime performance at the Super Bowl Sunday, but now is the time to take a stand against indecency on television.

How did we get from televising the football "game of the year" to the "disgusting performance of the century"?

Maybe I'm just old-fashioned, ^celt like the entire halftime br sh, was in bad taste. The theme of Janet Jackson and Justin Timberlake's show was basically sensual in nature—even down to the costumes. The dance routine was suggestive and totally inappropriate.

Then Kid Rock comes out draped in the United States flag with his obscene rap song. It was shocking to me, because I loved the country/western song, "Picture" he and Sheryl Crow made popular in 2003. My eyes agendas during this "athletic Bob Lapham on Tuesday, Febru- Angel. event".

Community Support for Tennison Benefit Outstanding

By Vanda Anderson Editor

The familiar logo "A Caring Community" is once again Dinner/Auction for Jeremy Tennison, who was critically injured in a vehicle/pedestrian accident. The event is scheduled for this Saturday, February 7, from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. at the First Baptist Church Family Life Center in Cross Plains. Take-out orders will also be availablejust stop by and pick them up.

Jeremy's condition is reported as improving daily. Monday, February 2, he was transferred to a private room (#508) at Parkland Hospital in Dallas. He underwent facial surgery Friday, January 30, and he is no longer on a ventilator. He and his parents, Clarence and Tammy Tennison, are very thankful for the many prayers on his behalf. Your continued prayers are still needed.

Merchants, churches and individuals have graciously donated the food items, etc. appropriate for Cross Plains, as needed for the dinner, while residents cooperate in the community residents will planning of a Benefit Spaghetti volunteer their time to prepare and serve the meal.

A Live Auction, conducted by Bob Golson, will be a highlight of the evening. A sample of items featured include a set of four tires; tickets to the musical "Fame"; quilt w/quilt rack; used washing machine; used exercise equipment (stair climbers, stationary bicycle, etc.); designer purses; jewelry; books; light fixtures; lamps (new/used); picture frames; pottery; vases; Coke Cola ice bucket and tray; Ticky-Tock designs (little girl designer clothes); Audrey Nicole Designs of Grapevine Antique Mall - variety of items; bird houses; and Lone Star chair in a bag.

Local businesses who have already committed their assistance include Cross Plains Frozen Foods (1/2 the meat); Harris Farms (1/2 the meat); Custom Tile (all the paper goods); T&K Tire and Alignment - set of 4 tires; Tim's Floral and Gifts; Cross Plains Parts Plus; Connie's Cuts and Curls; Hair Country; and the Cross Plains Review.

Numerous baked items have been donated for the auction. Six decorated cakes are already among the tasty delights.

If you would like to donate baked items or merchandise for the auction, volunteer your time, etc., please contact Susan Maxwell at (254) 725-6826. All merchandise and baked goods must be delivered to the First Baptist Family Life Center by noon Saturday.

Everyone is encouraged to come out Saturday and support this worthy cause. See you there!!!!!

Football District adds powerhouse Goldthwaite

UIL announced its realignment for the next two years. In football Cross Plains' Buffaloes will compete in Region II District 13-A. Gone are May's Tigers, Tolar's Rattlers and Rising Star's Wildcats. The new district is composed of Baird, Cross Plains, Gorman, Ranger, Evant and Goldthwaite. In basketball our Buffaloes will also have new opponents. The new district 10-A will have Baird, Eula, Ranger, Albany, Cross Plains and Gorman. Last year the district was No. 14-A.

May and Rising Star dropped from 14-A to 6-man and Tolar went to another district to the east.

Club Meeting Announc

Stalking is a crime, illegal and very dangerous

- 1. Stalking is a crime. Stalking is a course of conduct directed at a specific person that places a reasonable person in fear for her or his safety. It is against the law in every state. Stalking across state lines or in federal territories is illegal under federal law.
- Stalking happens to many people. 1 in 12 women and 1 in 45 men will be stalked in their lifetimes. 1.4 million people are stalked every year in the United States.
- Stalking can be very dangerous. 76% of women killed by their intimate partners were stalked by these partners before they were killed. All stalkers should be considered unpredictable and very dangerous.
- Stalking is harmful and 4. intrusive. Stalking victims often lose time from work or never return to work, and some even relocate to regain a sense of safety. Many suffer from anxiety, insomnia and severe depression as a result of being stalked.
- 5. Stalking can happen to not just anvone celebrities. The vast majority of stalking victims are ordinary people. Furthermore, most stalkers are not strangers, but are known to their victim.
- 6. Stalking can occur during a relationship, after a relationship, or in the absence of a relationship. Stalking often begins during a relationship. Stalkers may keep the victim under surveillance or threaten her or him. Others begin stalking after the victim has ended the relationship, and the stalker feels desperate to maintain or regain control. Still others become fixated on a victim without ever having had any relationship with the person. All forms of stalking are unpredictable, and all should be considered dangerous. Technology can be used to stalk. Although newlydeveloped technology enhances our lives, it can also empower criminals. Cell phones, computers and surveillance equipment are just some of the technologies stalkers now use.

An effective response to stalking includes the entire community. Police, prosecutors, advocates, educators, reporters, neighbors...everyone can and should play a art in stopping stalking. Working together, we can make victims safer. Help is available. If you or someone you know is being stalked, call law enforcement authorities, and call CVCC's 24-hour crisis hotline at 325-677-7895 for assistance. CVCC Regional Crime Victim Crisis Center P.O. Box 122, Abilene, TX 79604

Maureen Strahan Buried In Cottonwood Cemetery

Maureen Strahan died this past weekend in Abilene, Texas. As this column is being written, plans have been made for her funeral service to be held at 2:00 p.m. Wednesday, February 4, 2004, at the Higginbotham Funeral Home in Cross Plains. She will be interred in the Cottonwood Cemetery.

Maureen is a life-long resident of Cottonwood. She was married to E.D. "Bud" Strahan and the couple raised one daughter, Gloria, on their farm just South of Cottonwood. Maureen is survived by her daughter, a granddaughter, Lee Ann Coldwell, and a number of nieces and nephews. The Cottonwood Quilters are sewing on a quilt to raffle off as a fund-raiser in the near future. The club will meet on February 5, 12, 19, and 26. The Volunteer Fire

Control Group will meet February 19, 2004 at the Fire Hall at 7 p.m.

The Baptist Church builders are moving right along on construction of the new Family Life building. At present, the construction crew is preparing the site to get ready for pouring the walls full of concrete, which will happen soon. Then will come the roofing phase. The congregation is anxious to be using the new facility.

Albert Lovell is currently in the Regional Hospital in Abilene. He is recuperating from surgery and being treated for other ailments. Albert has served as President of the Cottonwood Historical Association for a number of years and is a very good one. Our prayers are with Albert.

(Please contact Wallace Bennett (254) 725-7474 about news or personal events for this column.)

LIBRARY NOTES

This is your last chance to take G.E.D. classes at the Cross Plains Public Library. February 16th is the last day classes will be offered unless 3 new students enroll. If this happens, classes will concan. tinue to be held on Monday and Wednesday from 7 to 1 p.m.

Classes were able to continue through January because 3 new students joined, but everyone is ready to take the G.E.D. exam. So this is really your last opportunity to take the class in the Cross Plains area for free.

We started the G.E.D. class in the middle of May with thirteen students. Then five new students joined in August, and one new student in November. Three of them have moved and transferred to another class. Four of the students have taken and passed the exam and will receive their G.E.D. certificate.

Congratulations to those students who have already taken and passed the G.E.D. exam. They put in a lot of hard work to accomplish their goal. You can do it too, so join the class while you still

"My Latest Sob Story"

If you just must break your ankles, do me a favor and do them one at a time—only. It is so much easier on you and on the world, also.

Wednesday, the 16th day of December, I guess I fell in my bathroom and broke the ankles of both feet.

I stayed in the hospital until the 24th of December, which was the day after my birthday on the 23rd.

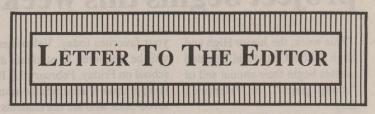

On the 24th I was transferred to a nursing home in Brownwood.

Now here I languish until next Sunday or Monday or Tuesday when I'm scheduled to go home for one day when my children and families arrived for our Christmas.

Languishing here all Christmas day and beyond. I am so tired.

The last night at the hospital my two daughters called and my two little granddaughters sang "Happy Birthday" to me so sweetly. They sang one of their school songs or yells for me to boot. It was worth hanging around for.

You know that song sung by George Strait, "All My Exes Live in Texas", well I've been singing my sad song lately "All My Children Live in Lubbock".

March 1, 2004 deadline for builders to register with Commission

Dear Editor:

According to House Bill 730, which was passed during the 78th regular legislative session, all builders in the State of Texas are required to register with the Texas Residential Construction Commission (the "commission"), using a commission prescribed form, and requiring a filing fee of $125 on or before March 1, 2004.

A builder is defined as any business entity or individual who for a fixed price, commission, fee, wage or other compensation construct, supervise, or manages the construction of a new home, a material improvement to a home, other than an improvement solely to replace or repair a roof of an existing home, or an improvement to the is responsible for registering new interior of an existing home when homes and home builders in the the cost of work exceeds $20,000. The builder registration form will collect information regarding the builder and whether the builder operates as an individual, a corporation, a partnership, sole proprietorship or other form of business. The form will collect contact information, such as addresses and phone numbers. The form will also collect information that allows the commission to conduct a required criminal background check and to otherwise make the statutory determinations that the applicant is at least 18 years of age, a citizen of the U.S. or a lawfully-admitted alien, and that the applicant is honest, trustworthy and has integrity to the satisfaction of the commission. Each builder will be required to designate an individual as a "designated agent" and that designated agent will be required to register as a builder separately from the builder entity. A builder who is an individual may serve as both the registered builder and the designated agent. Contact information will be collected about the "designated agent" addition to the builder. Builders who wish to do so may also designate secondary agents, however, each secondary agent will be required to provide the same information as the designated agent.

Within 15 days after the receipt of a completed registration form and the required $125 fee, the commission will issue to each builder that meets the requirements of the Act, a certificate of registration.

The commission, which was also created by House Bill 730,

I read this somewhere recently. I don't remember where so I don't know to whom to give the credit...

"A little boy and an old man - grandson and granddad - sat on the dock late one afternoon, fishing. They talked about red sunsets, the man in the moon, the stars, rain and thunder, the seasons, and what life is like. The little boy looked up at his aging grandfather and asked, 'Has anyone — does anyone ever see God?' The old man replied, 'Son, it's getting so I hardly see anything else; I see Him everywhere!""

The aging apostle Paul must have felt somewhat that way because he seemed to "not be able to wait" to see God face to face. "For to me, to live Christ, and to die is gain" (Philippians 1:21).

We encourage you to share with us in all the times of Bible study and worship as we meet together. We really do care about you!

Grand Ole Oplin Lineup for the month of February

The Oplin Community would like to invite everyone to come out to the Grand Ole Oplin for an evening of dancing and good friends every Friday night. On February 6th Muddy Creek will be here playing all your favorite dancing tunes, On February 13th Roland Smith and the Roadrunners will join us playing the kind of music that will make you want to get up and dance. On February 20th Texas Touch will be here to entertain us all and on February 27th Muddy Creek will return to play some of your favorite tunes again.

The Grand Ole Oplin is located at the intersection of FM 604 S. and FM 2926. Our dances begin each Friday night at 7:30 p.m., and end at 10:30 p.m. with admission being only $4.00 per person. Everyone is invited to bring a snack to be shared and enjoyed by all during the band's break. Alcohol and smoking is not allowed. So gather the family and all of your friends and come on out to the Grand Ole Oplin for an evening of good music, good friends and a real good time. Submitted by Pam Rumfield

Annual "Candy Gram" project begins this week

High School Gifted and Talented classes begin their annual sell of "candy grams" for Valentine's Day.

This is the second year the students have undertaken such a community-wide project. The students guarantee their work and place special care in each Valentine they handcraft. Each Valentine is hand-made and hand-stamped with a cut poem or message celebrating your love. Several designs are offered and you can purchase a Valentine for all of your loved-ones for $1.00 each.

Come by the school and choose

Sand Communities throughout t

This week, the Junior High and your favorites today. Valentines will be delivered to students at school on Friday, February 13. If you purchase Valentines for your loved-ones who are not students, please call the school to make arrangements for pick-up.

If you need your Valentines before Friday, please indicate this on your order form.

Money raised from this project will help offset student expenses on school-sponsored trips and support other student GT projects. Thanks so much for you continued support and we encourage you to share your love on Valentine's Day.

Disease.

In the emergency room, Landry received an EKG, or electrocardiogram, which measures the heart's electrical activity. The EKG was abnormal and showed that the left side of her heart was in distress.

Although Landry had reported five heart attack warning signs, and had a family history of heart disease, the doctor tried to release her from the hospital. He diagnosed her with a bad case of acid reflux.

But Landry refused to leave. She knew that something was terribly wrong.

"If I didn't fight with them, I would've died," Landry said. Aggie Landry had suffered a massive heart attack due to a rare condition called spontaneous coronary artery dissection, where a tear forms in the artery. Around one in a million people suffer this type of heart attack. Only about one in a trillion people survive.

Things you can't tell just by looking at her -Living with heart disease

Ms. Landry turned out to be one in a trillion.

After her insistence, a blood test was performed that suggested that Landry had heart damage, so the E/R staff rushed her into the catheterization lab. They discovered she had a blocked artery which had caused damage to her heart muscle, and three stents were placed in the artery to keep it open.

Aggie Landry did not look like your typical heart attack patient. She only weighs 110 pounds. She's young, physically active, eats right, and her cholesterol and blood pressure levels were perfectly normal.

"If I were a man in my 40s, if I were overweight, I would've been in the cath lab in 15 minutes flat," Landry said. Landry says she's thankful to be alive. But her life expectancy will likely be shortened because she suffered a heart attack. She used to look forward to seeing her young children get married, and seeing her grandchildren some day. Now, she says she just hopes she makes it to see her oldest girl through the second grade.

"Hospitals make errors, doctors make errors," Landry said. "Women know their bodies best, and they have to advocate for themselves."

More than 260,000 women each year die from sudden cardiac arrest. The warning signs of a heart attack for women can be markedly different than those for men. Studies show that 38 percent of women die within a year of a heart attack compared with 25 percent of men. During the first six years following a heart attack, the chance of having a second attack is 35 percent for women compared with 18 percent for men.

"Having a heart attack affects every aspect of your life," Landry said.

Every woman should be aware of the heart attack warning signs and seek medical advice immediately if they appear. Heart disease is not a man's disease - it can be just as devastating to women.

February marks the beginning of the American Heart Association's Go Red for Women campaign, a national call for women to take charge of their heart health and live stronger, longer lives. To learn more about women and heart disease, visit website our at

COPIES MADE AT THE CROSS PLAINS REVIEW

Common Questions The City of Cross Plains Asked About Rabies Represented on Regional

One of the most common subjects that I receive questions about is Rabies. These questions commonly include the number of positive cases in the area, common symptoms of rabies, what to do in case of exposure, and vaccination requirements.

Confirmed cases of rabies in Texas have steadily increased the past several years. This includes several of the area counties. Callahan, Brown, Taylor and Comanche counties all experienced increases in positive rabies cases in 2003 over 2002. Eastland county was the exception with a decrease in positive cases. Although rabies can occur in any mammal, skunks remain the most common carrier for the disease. Most people associate a rabid animal with the aggressive, rage filled dogs portrayed in the movies "Old Yeller" and "Cujo". Actually, this form, the 'mad' form, is the least common form. Regardless of the symptoms, rabies should always be considered in an animal displaying unusual behavior.

During the latter stages of the disease, rabies virus is contained in the saliva of the infected animal. The most common type of exposure is through animal bites. If contact with rabies is suspected, several steps should be taken. The first step is to limit further exposure. If human exposure is suspected, contact your physician. If exposure is to animals, contact your veterinarian. To test an animal suspected of having rabies, the brain is needed intact. This means that damage, such as hitting or shooting the head, could present accurate testing. Prompt action should be taken regardless of the situation. Depending on the circumstances, pet exposure can result in anything from quarantine to euthanasia

The most effective method to protect humans from exposure to rabies is the proper vaccination of your pets. Vaccination should begin at 3 months of age. A booster should be given 1 year later and every third year there after. Keeping pets current on vaccinations can greatly reduce the headaches encountered if there is exposure to a rabid animal or if the pet bites someone. Remember, its state law that all dogs and cats be kept current on rabies vaccinations.

For more information on rabies, or other animal health questions, contact Dr. Creach with Cross Plains Veterinary Clinic at (254) 725-4359.

Heart health-know the risks and consequences and heart health should be at the forefront for all Americans. Cardiovascular disease is the No. killer of Americans today. According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, heart disease leads as cause of death for all racial and ethnic groups in the United States. The best way to prevent and control heart disease and illness is to take better care of ourselves in the first place.

Cardiovascular diseases include high blood pressure, coronary heart disease, congestive heart failure, stroke and congenital heart defects.

Men have more heart attacks

Health issues affect everyone, In addition, women are more likely to die once they have a heart attack.

> While age, race, gender and genetics play a role in the development of cardiovascular disease, lack of awareness about behavioral risk factors also contributes to its eventual onset.

Recognizing these risk factors is the first step in preventing cardiovascular disease. Early medical detection and treatment of conditions such as high blood pressure, high cholesterol and diabetes through screenings are key prevention measures.

The American Heart Association reports that one in five cans has high blood pressure. And two out of threetpeople with diabetes die from heart disease and stroke, according to the American Diabetes Association. These are grim numbers, but the encouraging news is that both high blood pressure and diabetes can first be preventedand for those who already have these diseases, can be controlled. Other contributing factors include obesity, physical inactivity, poor nutrition and tobacco use

In 2001, 65 percent of the adult American population was overweight or obese - a significant risk for both diabetes and heart disease. While the incidence of smoking has declined in the United States, an estimated 3.2 million Americans tried their first cigarette in 1997 - (and most of these new users were between ages 12 and 17). One-third of smoking deaths each year are cardiovascularrelated. More than 60 percent of American adults do not get the recommended level of physical activity and 25 percent are not active at all.

Decisions to quit smoking, become active and get checked for high blood pressure and cholesterol start prevention. According to the American Heart Association, heart disease is almost twice as likely to develop in those individuals who are inactive and don't exercise regularly.

Health or wellness fairs can be a great source for free screenings for cholesterol, blood sugar and blood pressure levels. For disease management though, it is imperative that patients see their physicians regularly.

If you have not started a healthy eating and exercise plan this year, start now. Be your own advocate for your health and know the risks for cardiovascular disease. By becoming aware of how our behavior affects our health, we can reduce those significant health risks. Prevention, after all, is the best medicine.

The 1st TSHL Session was held in the Texas House of Representative at the state capitol in 1986. The 10th TSHL legislative session will be conducted in the House Chambers in September 2004.

During January, announcements for candidates for election to the Texas Silver Haired Legislature are posted in places frequented by seniors. Candidates may pick up candidacy forms and petitions from Gail Kaiser, AAA Director of the West Central Texas Area Agency on Aging located at 1025 E. N. 10th Street, Abilene, Texas 79601. Deadline for candidates to file all forms for election is February 27, 2004.

"From its beginning in 1985, TSHL has had unusual success in seeing its priorities become law. We welcome the challenges of the 10th TSHL session and urge all seniors to vote in their local elections for their TSHL representative," said Chris Kyker, TSHL Speaker of Abilene. Region 4 includes Callahan, Eastland, Shackelford, Stephens and Throckmorton Counties. The current TSHL representative has been Eugene Kribbs of Breckenridge; however, he recently passed away and will be sorely missed in the Texas Silver-Haired Legislature.
