Mules Win Bi-District; Play Regional Saturday

The Muleshoe Mules, Tuesday night, whirled the Floydada Whirlwinds right out of the regional playoffs, downing them 62-58.

Playing a calm, safe game, the Mules racked up an early 13-4 first quarter lead. The Mules completely dominated the first half, and used a stall to foil a second half rally by the Whirlwinds.

Three Members of the Muleshoe FFA groups left Thursday afternoon for Houston and the Fat Stock Show.

Stanley Wilson, Buddy Black and Joe Don Jackson will enter the livestock judging contest at the stock show there this week-end.

The group will return early next week. Richard Greene, president of the Muleshoe FFA Chapter received the keys to a new Ford pickup truck, furnished the chapter by Muleshoe Motors in presentation ceremonies Thursday morning. Jack Morris made the presentation.

performance of the year, pouring in 32 points for Muleshoe. Charles Jennings, the only other member of the Muleshoe squad to score in the double figures had 10. Until this game Black had a 12.5 points per game average, and Jennings a 12.3.

Don Colley, Floydada's leading scorer with 15.1 average, only hit 2 of 13 attempted field goals in the first half, but came back strong in the last half to hit 9. Despite the slow start he led the Whirlwinds scoring with 22 points. He was followed by Ronnie Downing and Bill Patterson with 14 each.

Following a cold first half, when they were trailing 32 to 13, the Whirlwinds came back strong to outscore the Mules 13 points the last half.

Stalling the ball in the final period didn't seem to slow the Mules as much as they poured in 21 points. Bill Black and Don Copley were outstanding players offensively. Black hit 10 field goals and 12 out of 18 free shots. Copley hit 9 field goals and 4 out of 7 free shots.

City Council Discusses Proposal To Buy Water Rights; Enlarge Facility

A graphic example of how rapidly Muleshoe is growing occurred Monday afternoon when members of the City Council began to discuss a proposal to buy water rights on 1713 acres south of town from John McMurry, and develop the water field as the need arises.

The city has taken an option to buy water rights on 1713 acres south of town from John McMurry, and develop the water field as the need arises. Securing water rights before they are needed is justified, members of the Council state, in view of recent purchases of nearby water rights by Lubbock and other large municipalities.

Circulating Percolator Cuts Coffee Costs

BY EDNA MILES

TRIMMING the family food budget and keeping it that way is a big concern of most homemakers these days. Any real aids in holding the food money line are most welcome.

For the household consuming cups and cups of coffee each day, there's a new coffee maker that's said to effect a 40 per cent saving in coffee costs.

It works like this: What looks like a conventional percolator contains a flaring funnel and coffee container into which you place 60 per cent of the usual amount of coffee you use. A mild pressure builds up in the funnel and swirls and reswirls the hot water through the ground coffee to extract full flavor.

Actually, the coffee-making method is a combination of percolator, drip and espresso. As with a percolator, the boiling water is brought by pump to the top of the stem. As in the drip method, the water temperature is reduced to the correct point for best coffee. And, like espresso, hot water is swirled through ground coffee to extract full flavor.

New coffee pot is said to mean a 40 per cent savings in coffee costs with the espresso flavor to boot.

tern New Mexico and West Texas.

Guest conductor will be A. Clyde Roller, director of the Amarillo symphony, and guest soloist will be Ruth Fischer, Portales, cellist. Resident conductor is C. M. Stookey, chairman of the Eastern School of Music.

Roller will conduct the first section of the program when Mrs. Fischer is a soloist for the first two numbers. In this division of the program, the orchestra will play Handel's "Overture in D minor," Bruch's "Kol Nidren," and the allegro con brio movement from Beethoven's "Symphony No. 5."

After an intermission, Stookey will conduct as the orchestra plays the farandole from Bizet's "L'Arlesienne Suite No. 2"; "Over the Rainbow" from "The Wizard of Oz" by Harburg-Arlen; and "Finlandia," Sibelius.

COUNTRY PLATTERS

LES CARROLL

SEVERAL unusually fine 12-inch selections have just been released which include many top country songs of the past few years.

MGM's "Red Sovine" includes Red's big number, "The Intoxicated Rat," along with "Please Don't Let Me Love You," "Sundown Sue," "Billy Goat Boogie," etc.

Sony's "Southern Gentlemen" offers "Cold, Cold Heart," "Lonesome," "Only a Shadow Between," "Forgive Me," etc. "Sweethearts or Strangers" by Faron Young, in addition to the title song, has "Your Cheatin' Heart," "Worried Mind," "You Are My Sunshine," etc.

"Words and Music Country Style" by Tommy Collins, among others, has "All the Monkeys Ain't in the Zoo," "Smooth Sailing," "Upon This Rock" and "Are You Ready to Go?" (all Capitol). Porter Wagoner's "Satisfied Mind" also includes "Ivory Tower," "Company's Comin'," "I Like Girls," and "Midnight" (RCA).

Fans of Ferlin Husky will enjoy comparing his "Gone" with the same release of a few years back when he recorded it under the name of Terry Preston... quite a difference. And the Louvin Bros. have an excellent release in "Don't Laugh," backed by "The New Partner Waltz."

Hank Thompson's "Rockin' in the Congo" is a real cutie, backed by a nice ballad, "I Was the First One" (all Capitol). Porter Wagoner's "I'm Day-Dreamin' Tonight" could well be his biggest since "Company's Comin'" and is backed by "I Should Be With You." PeeWee

King has a fine ballad number, "Alone in a Crowd," and Elvis Presley has two big sides in "Tou Meuh" and "Playing for Keeps" (all RCA).

"Nice Rockers" are Buddy Holly's "Modern Don Juan," and Chuck Reed's "Another Love Has Ended," backed by the intriguing

"Whispering Heart." Bob Wills' "Lilly Dale" is a beautiful love ballad and well handled (all Decca).

Anita Carter's "Maybe" is very appealingly sung and Myrna Lore has a good one in "That's What Sweethearts Do" (both RCA). Kitty Wells' "Repenting" is perfect for her style of singing and another big one for her (Decca).

For snappy instrumentals, try Chet Atkins' "Blue Echo" (RCA); "Rolling Sky" by Jimmy Bryant and Speedy West (Capitol), and "Buttatachee" by Jackson and Bryant (King).

OTHER FINE RELEASES are: "The Way That You're Living" (Jimmy Newman, Dot); "After All" (Wiley Barkdull, Hickory); "There Must Be a Way" (Delbert Barker, King); Eddy Arnold's "A Little on the Lonely Side" album (RCA) and Chet Atkins' album "Finger-Style Guitar" (RCA).

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Thompson, Mo.

Dear Mr. Forbes: Following is an open letter to Bill Millen:

Dear Bill: Don't go down with the ship! I read your letter to the editor concerning Free Enterprise for farmers. I do not for a moment doubt your sincerity. I gave service to that cause as long as there was any hope that it could be successful. Now the ship is sinking and I am asking you to help build a new one rather than perish with the old one.

Don't go down with the ship! The Free Enterprise ship really is sinking. Organized Labor has abandoned it. Organized Industry has abandoned it. Small businesses are taking to the lifeboats through local pricing agreements. Farmers will go down and die economically, if they persist in trying to remain aboard.

Don't go down with the ship! Of course it is admirable to see a man try to save a magnificent ship as long as there is a ray of hope that he may succeed. But it is folly for a man to die for nothing, taking all his men down with him. The last ray of hope was gone on the day that Eisenhower was proven incapable of putting curbs on Labor's wage excesses, incapable of stopping Industry's profit excesses, incapable of keeping down big government spending, incapable of reducing taxes, and incapable of bolstering farm commodity prices.

Don't go down with the ship! We, the farmers of America, have as much right as any other group to a fair share of the national income. Yet in this modern day of forced economy, no one is going to give it to us. We will obtain it by pressure just as the others have done, or we will go beggled and nobody cares! Recognize this reality. Don't bury your head in the sands of wishful thinking.

Don't go down with the ship! Get out of the Farm Bureau now. It's national leadership has finally and stubbornly refused to face reality. It's usefulness has come to an end. Bring your men and join with us, the National Farmers' Organization. We welcome you and we need you. We sell nothing, we buy nothing. Our only business is getting for farmers, the fair prices they are entitled to have. By force of numbers we will use every means consistent with decency to get those fair prices. We may get them by the use of collective embargoes. We may get them by means of legislative subsidies. It matters not, the main point is: We are entitled to fair prices by all standards of justice and we are going to fight until we get them. Join us now and help us build the kind of ship that will survive this economic revolution.

With kindest regards,
RICHARD O. SMITH

Dolores Lowe Becomes Bride of Dale Wood In Double Ring Ceremony

MR. AND MRS. DALE WOOD

Miss Dolores Lowe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Lowe and Dale Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Wood, exchanged marriage vows Sunday afternoon the 17th, at 3:30 in the Church of Christ.

Ebb Randol, minister from Clovis read the impressive double ring ceremony before an archway of greenery and silver wedding bells. The archway was flanked with seven blue candles and baskets of white gladiolus and mums.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a white satin waltz length dress, complimented by a lace bolero with tiny lace covered buttons down the front with pater pan collar lace edged and embroidered with seed pearls. The long sleeves came to a point over the hands. She wore a finger tip veil that fell from a lace head piece embroidered with seed pearls and rhinestone. The brides dress and veil were made by her mother. She carried a white Bible topped with white carnations and streamers.

For something old, the bride wore a beautiful gold locket that belonged to her grandmother was brought from Germany in 1918 by her grandfather returning from World War I. Something borrowed were earrings from her aunt and also a white Bible from her sister-in-law. For something blue she wore a blue garter given to her by little Susan Pendagrass, a student in her Sunday school class.

Attending the bride as maid of honor, Mrs. Jimmy Patton wore a blue cotton satin princess dress made on the same lines as that of the bride, with blue flowered head piece and white carnation corsages.

The bridesmaids were Judy Lowe, cousin of the bride and Glennas Lowe, sister of the bride who wore identical dresses as the maid of honor, and white carnation corsages.

The flower girl, Norma Jean BeBord, a cousin of the bride wore a pale blue cotton satin dress and a blue net head band and carried a little white basket of rose petals.

Bob Gage of Kermit served as best man and Jack Henderson as groomsmen.

Bob Lowe and Lonnie Wood were the candlelighters, Gordon Wilson and Terry Dill were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Lowe chose a blue crepe dress with black accessories and a white carnation corsage. Mrs. Wood wore a navy blue dress with a corsage of white carnations.

Bula Boys Lose Bi-District Game To New Deal Lions

New Deal's Lions roared to their 23rd victory of the season at Abernathy Monday night whipping the Bula Bulldogs 67-36 in an important Conference B bi-district game.

The win sent Coach Neal Laminaak's quintet into the Regional Tournament in Canyon this weekend. Their first-round opponent in that meet will be the winner of the Cotton Center-Adrian game at 3 p. m. Friday.

BULA JUMPS AHEAD

Bula jumped off to an early 5-2 lead but once New Deal narrowed that gap the Bulldogs were never again in contention.

The Lions held a 16-11 advantage at the end of the first quarter and continued to widen the margin until the fourth quarter when reserves scored only three points.

New Deal led 36-23 at halftime and held an overwhelming 64-39 lead at the end of the third quarter.

Clarence Ashmore and Wayne Teal both scored 22 points for New Deal, while Wendell Jones hit 20 and Dusty Bogard 16 for Bula.

In an exhibition girls game played after the varsity test, the Bula sextet trimmed New Deal 71-55.

That game was close for the first half, but Myrlene Nicholas, who played only in the last two quarters—scored 25 points during her short stay and pulled the Bula girls far away.

Game high scorer was New Deal's Glendean Price, who hit 29 points. Miss Nicholas and Halford had 25 each for Bula. Other big point-getters included Siegler with 11 and Cook with 10 for Bula and Shirley Perkins and Mildred Crosnoe 1 each for New Deal.

Bula's girls will play Roosevelt in a bi-district game next week.

Mullettes End Season With 18-12 Record

The Mullettes didn't fare so well this year as did the Mules. They wound up with an 18-12 seasonal record. However, they will lose only one starter, forward Shirley Mathieson, a senior. Gwen Williams, a sophomore reserve this year, will probably fill the vacant spot. The other members of the starting lineup who will probably be returning next year are forwards Sandy Briscoe and

BACKACHE

Case History: Man age 31, came to the Chiropractic Clinic after reading an ad describing a condition similar to his. He had been confined with extreme back pain which was aggravated by a spinal tap which in turn started terrific headaches. He was medically diagnosed "ruptured discs" and was told it would take a year or more to recover. In an effort to avoid an expensive and dangerous spinal fusion operation, he consulted us. After an examination consisting of nerve analysis and spinal X-Ray at the clinic, this man began corrective spinal adjustments. His pain was lessened from the first adjustment. His condition continued to correct rapidly until in less than six months he was doing heavier mechanic work than ever before.

HEADACHES

Headaches may mean that something is wrong with the liver, stomach, the ears the eyes or other organs. As a red light on the railroad track warns one to stop, look & listen, a headache is the beginning of PREVENTABLE illness, and it comes as a warning in time to repair and ward off the ultimate consequences. Taking an aspirin or other drug to relieve the headache is like the ostrich putting his head in a hole in the ground to avoid danger.

The drug may temporarily relieve the pain, but will not remove the cause. Chiropractic adjustments remove the cause of many types of headache and may avert future trouble.

The following young lady, age 30, consulted us after suffering migraine type headaches for eight or nine years. Her headaches occurred at least two or three times a month and she was incapable of doing her work efficiently. She also complained of tension in shoulders and susceptibility to colds, and hurting in the lower back. Under recommended Chiropractic care, this young lady does not know what it is to have a headache now. This absence from headaches has lasted for several years, and the patient knows it will last for she checked to prevent any further headaches or entrance ailments which have been corrected.

Clover and Cotton Profit Producing Pair On Farm of Bill Connell Here

Bill Connell, cooperater with the Blackwater Valley Soil Conservation District, has started a proven profit-producing crop rotation on his rented farm one mile south of West Camp.

In 1955 Bill seeded on April 1 eight acres of his shallowest, rocky soil to Hubam clover. On this same land in 1954 he produced 3/4 bale of cotton an acre, and this past year following the Hubam, he produced 1 1/2 bales per acre, a 100% increase.

Bill believes that most of this increase is due to added fertility obtained from this excellent soil building crop. At maturity forage clipping made by technicians of the local work unit of the Soil Conservation Service showed this clover produced 20 tons per acre.

The clover was six feet high, and an excellent seed crop was produced. Due to prolific growth as vividly seen in above picture he was not able to successfully harvest the seed crop. Row binders could not be used, but he did start to combine with a 2-row A-C harvester, cutting 2000 pounds off of four acres.

Then our last effective rainfall fell in September 1955 and by the time he got back in the field the seed had shattered. This 500 lbs. per acre more than paid for cost of growing the clover.

He doesn't think that it is so good a cash crop, but as soil builder it is tops as results showed. These results are even more remarkable because the land was the least productive of the entire farm. He had to hand pull the eight acres because it was too rocky to use a boll stripper.

Bill did say that with proper equipment Hubam could possibly be used as cash crop. He drilled it on beds with inter-row seeder he rented from the District. This seeder puts two rows on each side of listed bed. With legume row seeder he said he could plant on top of bed and use self-propelled combine.

Bill planted 10 pounds seed per acre, watered it up and then watered four more times, finishing middle of July. He did not cultivate and at first weeds were taking over but the clover came on and overcame weed growth. He pointed out to the reporter that on a recent Blackwater Valley soil conservation tour the speaker implied that the clover could become a pest. He did not find this to be true. With most of the seed lost on the ground and weed growth in clover he did not have one minute's trouble with volunteer clover or weeds. Routine cultivation controlled competing plants and cotton was easily kept clean.

1954 and 1956 were both good cotton years, and management was nearly the same on the same land. In 1954 Macha was grown and in 1956 Empire, 200 pounds of Phosphate per acre was applied to the land before clover was planted. 60 pounds anhydrous ammonia plus 200 pounds pelleted phosphate per acre used as a side dressing on 1956 planting when cotton was six inches high. No doubt this application boosted yield some, but hardly a 100%! From past records on other farms, a reasonable increase from fertilizer would be 25%.

How does clover produce such a substantial increase would be the next question. Several reasons are as follows:

Fixes nitrogen from air in the soil by symbiosis. (Seed must be inoculated to get best results.)

Improves soil structure thru deep root growth and discing in top residue. This is Organic Matter!

Thus improves and provides a good soil-plant-moisture relationship. Plants need air, water, and plant food in proper proportions to realize plants full inherent production potential.

Bill has another eight acres in Hubam clover this past year and plans to put in larger amounts each year as his water supply will let him.

In conclusion, Connell again expressed a firm belief in its monetary rewards (and for several years) as well as its soil building benefits. As long as this land is cultivated and this crop rotation is used he knows it will remain productive and will be protected from wind and water erosion. Clover puts cover on the ground, increases cloudiness, and cover and cloudiness will both increase surface roughness which are required to help prevent wind erosion. The organic matter added from clover has many fold advantages for soil improvement.

To mention a few organic matter causes aggregation increasing air spaces which allows proper soil aeration for good bacteria action and root growth. It acts as a buffer keeping soil acidity under control. For better plant growth, reduces extremes in soil temperatures for early growth, increases water intake rate of the soil reducing run-off and increasing total available moisture for plant use. Last but not least organic matter increases fertility (all nitrogen in soil is an organic matter) and fertility holding capacity. O. M. and clay are both necessary for high soil fertility. Conservation farming pays in many ways.

Why not see your supervisor within the next few days. He will be glad to help you become a cooperater with the Blackwater Valley Soil Conservation District.

C of C Discussed In Rotary Talk

Senn Stiemmons, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, gave a scholarly resume of the development of trade and commerce between nations and cities from its beginnings in the early years of our civilization and outlined the ideals and functions of a modern C of C organization in a talk before the Rotary Club Tuesday.

Men who feel a challenge to help make their community better, to aid in its growth and development, are workers in the C of C he said. The Chamber of Commerce is an association of men and women who want to be of service to the community and who unite in a combined effort to promote that which is best for all in the community.

Mr. Stiemmons was introduced by Jim Fowler, who had charge of the program. J. M. Forbes gave a brief news report. Guests included R. A. Axtell, of Springlake, and Rotarians Wayne Brown, Walter White and Sid Stone.

The club will meet in the school lunchroom the coming Tuesday as a part of public school week observance.

 Time has not been allowed to complete the improvements set by the school. The principal inefficiency was in the science department.
 Enough bonds have been voted and Bula will invite some consultants from the state department to advise on this equipment needed.

M. K. Thornton, 'Mr. Soils' of A & M Retires To Enter Commercial Field

M. K. Thornton, an employee of the Texas A & M College System since 1910 and agricultural chemist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service since 1938 will retire on March 1.

Thornton was still in his 'teens' when he graduated from Mississippi State College and came to Texas A & M to teach chemistry. He is said to be the fourth youngest graduate of the Missisissippi college. He later was awarded an M. A. degree from Columbia University. He taught at A & M until 1915 when he became an explosive research worker at the Picatinery Arsenal. He returned to Texas A & M in 1919 as professor of industrial chemistry and resigned January 1, 1935 to accept employment with the Extension Service as leather specialist.

In 1938 his title was changed and he commenced the work which has brought him state and national recognition. In 1951 he traveled to many states studying facilities at soil testing laboratories and that fall was placed in charge of a soil testing laboratory which he designed and equipped. He acquired the title of "Mr. Soils" from his work with county agents and farmers in all sections of Texas. A portable soil testing kit was a part of his working equipment. His knowledge of Texas soils was gained from study, on the ground conferences with farmers and work in the soil testing laboratory.

March 2-9 Set As 4-H Club Week

Governor Price Daniel has proclaimed March 2-9 4-H Week in Texas. The state's 4-H members for weeks have been making plans to tell others what 4-H has meant to them, and they will join with the more than 2,000,000 members in the nation in observance of the special National Week.

Governor Daniel in his proclamation said "Activity, achievement and adventure awaits the 117,257 4-H club members who participate in this program in Texas.

4-H Club work is the youth phase of the Agricultural Extension Service. This voluntary youth program has a nationwide enrollment of more than two million members, and 51 foreign countries now have organizations similar to 4-H Clubs.

The Texas program is directed by members of the Agricultural Extension Service, which is a part of the A & M College System. County extension agents in the 254 counties work with 4-H members, their parents, volunteer leaders and friends of 4-H to develop the future leaders of our State mentally, spiritually, socially and physically.

As Governor of Texas, I urge that due recognition be given to this fine organization which aids young people in useful, happy living by helping them to help themselves."

County 4-H councils, say the state 4-H leaders, are perfecting plans for the local observance of National 4-H Week. To be honored are local adult leaders, parents, friends of 4-H and the members themselves. The 4-H story will be told many times with special emphasis on the character building side of the now world wide rural youth organization.

4-H has grown from the boys corn clubs and the tomato clubs for girls of half a century ago into an organization that today involves every phase of farming and homemaking. Boys and girls who are not now 4-H members may obtain information on how they may become members from county extension agents or other 4-H members.

"Don't worry about dust any more — AMALIE L. P. G.!"

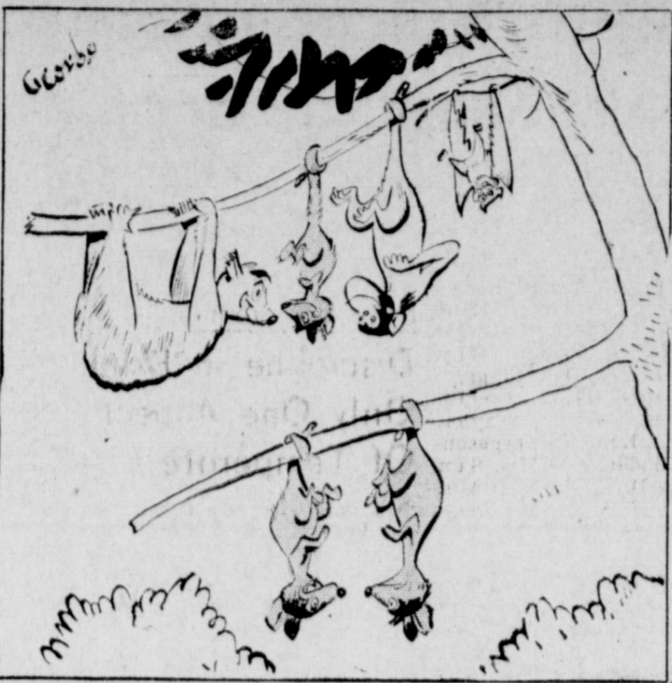

"AMALIE must have been thinking about this dusty country, when they brought out AMALIE L. P. G. Oil, the way it holds the dirt and corrosion in suspension, so they filter out. And the way it still flows freely — until drain time. If you burn butane or propane, there's just nothing like AMALIE L. P. G. Oil!"

It was a great oil ENGINEERING job — to get an oil that wouldn't thicken up till it looked like gear-grease. To get it to hold its viscosity, or flowing qualities, like AMALIE L. P. G. Oil. And then the additives that hold that grit in solution. Of course it's 100% pure Pennsylvania — no other oil equal to it, on earth. And it's a cross-graded 20W-30 oil (or 40) — just as efficient summer or winter. Give YOUR engine — and your bank account — a break.

THE FUTURE OF TEXAS AGRICULTURE

Texas Agriculture, like that of the nation, stands at a crossroads. And there is little doubt as to which path it will take.

The inevitable trend of progress has had a greater effect on Texas farming than any single phase of our economy, and this trend is continuing.

Although the past quarter-century has been a period of marked industrial development in our state, agriculture has kept its prominent place in a growing Texas.

During that time the farm labor force has been halved in size and more than doubled in efficiency. Whereas in 1930 more than 38 percent of all Texas employment was in agriculture, it was little more than 16 percent in 1954. Yet, production has increased steadily through mechanization and new techniques and farming has grown by nearly 25 million acres since 1930.

Progress of a Different Kind

The next quarter-century promises to be just as progressive as the last one, but it must be a progress of a different kind.

The swallowing-up of small farms into larger, corporate-type farm operations is not inevitable part of this progress. This is a trend which must be stopped.

Farming is unique among all occupations in the responsibility involved. He who farms must

FARMER COUNTY Farm Bureau News

By RAYMOND L. JLER

Miss Joan Vaughn, of Tullia, 1956 Texas Farm Bureau Queen, was honored by passage of a resolution presented by Senator Andy Rogers on Tuesday of last week. The Lieutenant Governor and all the senators signed the resolution, which congratulated and complimented Joan and her parents for their contribution of good will through their appearance in Miami, Florida in December as guests of American Farm Bureau.

Three bills sponsored by Texas Farm Bureau are well on the way to becoming law in the state, some of them already passed. The three bills referred to are regarding egg grading; commercial feed labeling, and use of farm registered pickups for passenger vehicles without extra license charge.

We would like to remind those of you who have wheat acreage allotments, but who have not planted wheat, to sign the proper forms at the ASC office to retain your allotment for future years. This is a privilege you have as the result of Farm Bureau's action, emanating from Farmer County in 1953.

We hear a lot about the decrease in the number of farms, but until recently had not notice stay with the land, understand and supply its needs and keep it intact. This can not be done by someone indifferent to the land itself.

The small farmer must stay put to see that proper conservation measures are followed, to supply specialized products which are coming into increased demand and to help care for the population growth Texas can expect.

Texas farming brought $2.1 billion into our economy in 1955. It is expected to increase to $2.9 billion by 1957. Increased efficiency — efficiency with a heart — will help us to exceed these expectations.

With the right kind of progress, natural disasters excepted, agriculture will keep its position as a principal factor in a bigger and better Texas.

Cadillac

Relaxing... Across America!

Behind them are the majestic mountain roadways of Southern California and the picturesque desert drive through Arizona.

And ahead lie the broad highways of Texas . . . the scenic roads that wind through Oklahoma and Missouri . . . and the great Midwestern turnpikes that lead to the Eastern Seaboard.

What's it like to spend the better part of a week in a 1957 Cadillac?

Well, first of all, there is the restfulness a Cadillac provides. The car is so incredibly smooth and quiet and comfortable that even the longest journey is an occasion for glorious relaxation.

And for the lucky gentleman in the driver's seat, there is the added reward of Cadillac's brilliant new performance.

In fact, the car is so nimble and eager, so responsive and alert that day's end will usually find them well beyond their morning's destination!

And then there will be the many other Cadillac virtues to enhance the pleasure of their journey . . . its vast areas of vision to give them the full panorama of America's great beauty and grandeur . . . its extraordinary safety and dependability to add to their contentment and peace of mind . . . and its remarkable operating economy to remind them how practical their odyssey is.

So there they are—seeing our wonderful land from the finest vantage point on the American road: through the windshield of a 1957 Cadillac!

Of course, you don't have to travel 5,000 miles in this newest "car of cars" to realize why its owners call it "the greatest of all Cadillacs".

The evidence is in our showroom now—and an hour at the wheel will tell you the whole story.

Clothes Dry Better Electrically

This woman is "sitting pretty" with her electric clothes dryer. She knows that clothes dry better electrically. She's seen the results of outdoor sun-drying... bright colors faded, the life literally bleached out of them. Why don't you start "sitting pretty" with an electric clothes dryer. Eliminate bending, stretching, stooping, the carrying of heavy baskets of wet clothes and the harsh fading of our bright Southwestern sun.

HOW MULESHOE GOT ITS NAME

By A. P. STONE

Ed Note: The article below relating early history of Muleshoe and the area was written for The Journal about 1917 by the late A. Stone, pioneer abstractor here, and for many years the local representative of the Muleshoe Ranch. It has been reprinted several times. The Journal will print some leaflets of this article and they will be available to anyone wishing them.

The Legislature of the State of Texas passed an act for the construction of a capitol building, approved February 20, 1879. A contract was made with Abner Taylor for the construction of the present State Capitol building at Austin, Texas, the cost to the State of Texas to be 3,000,000 acres of land located mostly in the Panhandle of Texas and as far south as Bailey and Lamb counties.

This land is known as Capitol Syndicate, or merely Syndicate land, and the ranch established on it was known as the XIT Ranch.

In September 1902, the Bovina Cattle Company, a partnership composed of W. D. Johnson, F. W. Johnson, Tom Hoghland, and E. D. Gage, bought some 125,000 acres of this land out of what was known as Blackwater and South Alamouche pastures from the Syndicate. The Bovina Cattle Company used the mule shoe as its brand, hence the Muleshoe Ranch and incidentally the town of Muleshoe.

This brand was registered December 4, 1903, and the record shows it with open end at the top, and leaning to the left. It was on the left shoulder or left side of the animal.

This brand was transferred to E. K. Warren & Sons, who had bought some 37,000 acres on the south side of the original Muleshoe Ranch, on November 1, 1907, and the mule shoe brand was discontinued.

In 1906 W. D. and F.W. Johnson, who had bought the interest of the other partners in the Bovina Cattle Company, cut the land into sections of 540 acres each, and during the next few years, sold the part of it lying north of the land sold to E. K. Warren & Son, to farmers, the first settlers being from Kansas, Nebraska, Missouri and other northern States.

In 1903, E. K. Warren bought 6,000 acres of land from L. T. Clark. This was known as the Y. Ranch and is still so known. Mr. Warren later sold the tillable land out of this 40,000 acres. It is east of the Bovina Cattle company land, and the subdivision is now Block W.

PLEASANT VALLEY NEWS

Farm Bureau Meeting Well Attended Tues.

100 percent of this land is in cultivation with farm homes on practically every 160, valued at from $4,000 to $15,000 each, surrounded by fine shade trees and flowers.

There are some 375 irrigation plants in operation, wells furnishing from 1,000 to 1,500 gallons per minute. The crops grown on the dry land are principally grain sorghums, cotton and wheat. In addition to these crops, the irrigated farms grow alfalfa, spuds, onions, and tomatoes, not to mention beans.

Thirty-five years ago there were a few farm shacks, not a tree to be seen. The motive power was Pete and Beck, a walking plow, a one row cultivator, and a farm wagon being the farm equipment. Now the farm equipment is all kinds of modern stuff, tractors, two to four row cultivators, combines, haying machinery handled by one man, occasionally by a woman, that puts this hay in the bale.

The kids, whose parents went to schools in horse shacks, now go to modern schools, travel for miles on school buses, would think old Pete was a horse if they were to see him.

Of course, horses are still used on the ranches, where they can still see native grass.

Mr. and Mrs. Alan Haley and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Engelking attended the Farm Bureau kick-off banquet at Littlefield last Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Calhoun and Glenda were Friday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Hicks.

Mrs. Alice Evans was dismissed from the hospital in Muleshoe last Friday. Mrs. Evans is recuperating in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Doyle Turner.

Mrs. Carrie Withrow underwent major surgery at an Amarillo hospital last Thursday morning. Mrs. Withrow is the mother of Mrs. Bennie Dyck.

Attend Sale

Doyle Turner and two sons Royce and Doyce attended the Duroc pig sale held in Lubbock last Saturday.

Oscar and Harold Allison visited E. K. Angeley who is a patient at the Methodist Hospital in Lubbock last Wednesday.

New Residents

The community welcomes Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Jones and son as new residents. The Jones' lived near Lubbock before moving to this area.

Mr. and Mrs. Rochelle Christian from Farwell were Sunday afternoon callers in the Leroy Hicks home.

Stag Supper

Some twenty-four men attended the "stag supper" Saturday night at the P. V. community center.

This supper was given in honor of the husbands of the Social Club women.

Games of "42" and pitch were played by those in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Stewart and sons were last Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Steinbock.

Farm Bureau

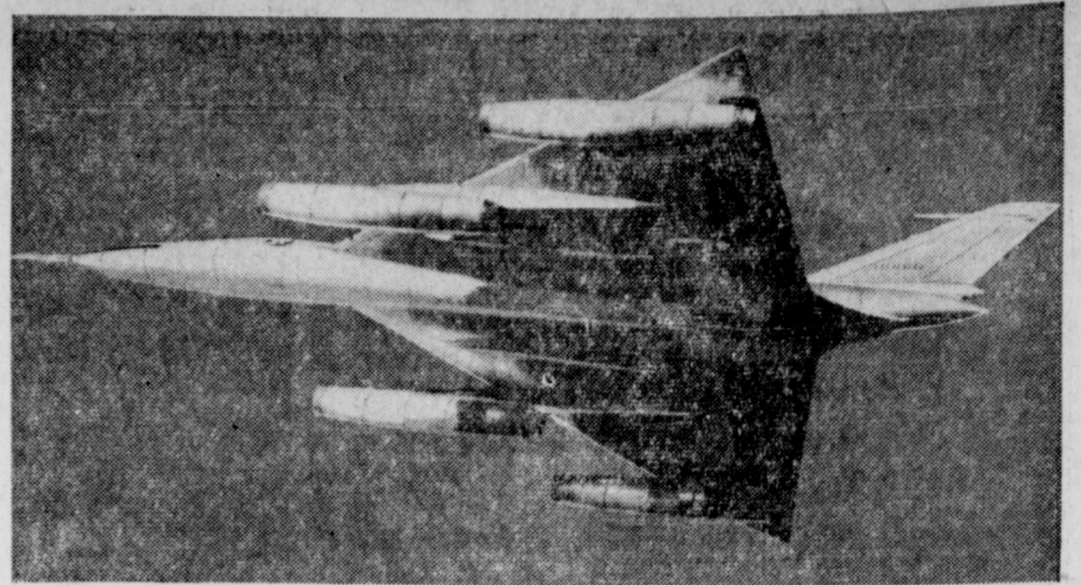

Approximately fifty men attended the P. V. Farm Bureau meeting last Tuesday night with Alan Haley, the vice-president, presiding.

A report was given by Oscar Allison on the county ASC meeting that was held in Littlefield recently.

There were discussions on promoting a natural gas line thru the community.

Seven directors were elected to obtain further information and an estimate on how much a gas line would cost.

Refreshments of coffee and cookies were served to those present.

AMERICA'S FIRST SUPERSONIC BOMBER — Four powerful J-79 turbojet engines are said to propel the delta-wing Convair B-58 "Hustler" faster than sound and to stratospheric heights. Slung beneath the B-58's wings, the G.E.-designed power plants, with afterburners, are among the mightiest yet developed for military aircraft. Intended for Air Force use, the B-58 is in initial production. The plane is about 95 feet long and the wings span a distance of about 55 feet.

Regional Playoffs Held Sunday By Lutheran Youth

Last Sunday afternoon, members of St. Johns Lutheran Church of Lariat were hosts to the winning boys teams of three zones as they met in the Farwell gym for regional volleyball and basketball playoffs.

Represented in basketball were teams from Midland, Olney and Amarillo. Volleyball teams were present from Olney and Lariat. These teams had all won in zone competition earlier in the season.

Olney won both first places by defeating Lariat in volleyball and both Amarillo and Midland in basketball. Midland won second place over Amarillo in basketball competition. St. Jones congregation was privileged to have members of the Midland and Olney churches present for their morning services Sunday.
