Jury Disagrees In Bootlegging Case

The jury in the John Rochelle case was discharged Wednesday morning by Judge McGuire without having arrived at a verdict. It is currently reported among court officials that the jury stood 11 to 1 in favor of conviction.

Rochelle was charged with having sold a bottle of whiskey while running a cafe in O'Donnell several months ago to Charley Brown, a negro. The negro was apprehended by officers soon after he brought the whiskey to a negro cabin in O'Donnell and he was indicted for selling and transporting liquor. His defense was that he had been induced by the negro occupants of the house to get it for medicinal purposes and that he merely bought it for them.

He was convicted of unlawfully transporting the liquor and given a suspended sentence at the last term of the district court. Rochelle was then indicted for having sold the whiskey to Brown. On the trial here Tuesday Rochelle denied that he had sold the negro whiskey but admitted he had witnessed a transaction in his place of business where another party sold some whiskey to the negro. The evidence of the negro and the defendant was sharply contradictory all the way through, and the jury was unable to agree.

MURDERER OF ROBY SHERIFF ARRESTED

Bill Smith, charged with the murder of Bob Roby, late sheriff of Fisher county, has been arrested at Morganfield, Kentucky, according to press reports, and sheriff Parker of Roby has gone to that state for the prisoner.

Smith and a young man working for him named Conatser had been arrested by Sheriff Smith and one of his deputies on a charge of cotton theft and were being taken to Roby, when Smith drew a revolver and began firing into the bodies of the officers, it is claimed. The two men then hurried to Smith's residence and they and their wives left in a car. Conatser surrendered to the officers in Mississippi but Smith was not apprehended until he was arrested in Kentucky a few days ago.

Conatser claimed that he was innocent of any complicity in the crime, and knew nothing of Smith's murderous intent. He was indicted, however, and his case was called for trial at Anson Monday but upon motion of defendant was postponed until October 20.

HAIL DAMAGES LARGE SECTION

Crops In Several Communities Badly Injured By Sunday Mornings Hail Storm

A severe hailstorm visited a section of country from a mile to two miles wide and extending several miles east and west, covering parts of the New Moore, Wells, Three Lakes, and T-Bar communities at an early hour Sunday morning, accompanied by a heavy rainfall. Some crops were almost totally destroyed and others badly damaged in the path of the storm. Hail at this season of the year is so unusual that it is hard to estimate just how great the loss will prove to be. In some fields almost every boll of cotton was badly bruised and many of them knocked off the stalk. Whether the immature bolls will mature and whether the mature bolls will open are moot questions among farmers and others. Weather conditions henceforth will possibly have much to do with it. Rain in varying amounts visited practically the entire county. The rainfall in Tahoka was 2 1/2 of an inch. In the hail-stricken region, one to two inches of rain is reported. In some other sections of the county the rainfall is also reported as being much heavier than at Tahoka, while other portions report about the same rainfall.

MAN PAYS FINE FOR DRUNKENNESS

Uncle Ike reports that a citizen of the county paid a fine in his court Monday morning for drunkenness. The gentleman had been incarcerated in the county jail Saturday night for having a bit too much of some bootlegger's concoction under his belt, where he remained until Monday morning. His spree cost him fifteen bucks, besides the coat of the "bicker" and his loss of time, if some time was worth anything. Bad business.

Hundreds of Lynn county people were there to see the exhibits, to enjoy the amusements, and to let the world know that Lynn county is on the map.

Shortly after ten o'clock a parade of Tahoka and Lynn county stars formed just south of the business district and passed through the business section to the fair grounds, led by the Lubbock Fire Truck. According to Monte Bowron, there were 34 cars in the parade, many of them being from Tahoka and some of them bearing pennants and decorations advertising the town. Many of the Tahoka people wore a ribbon around the hat or on the shoulder with the words "Tahoka, Lynn County" imprinted thereon, and Tahoka people were in evidence everywhere all day.

The Tahoka Concert Band entertained the occasion with music and attracted most favorable comment. Lynn county had a splendid agricultural exhibit there, collected hurriedly by Supt. M. L. H. The old long-horned steer will be followed by the best type of high grade stock and thus bring back memories of days gone by and indicate the advance of civilization. The Indian, the Gypsy, the Mexican, and other people will be represented.

At the same time a display of some of the school work will be made at the building. Booths will be established to feed the hungry. Committees are being appointed to make arrangements to carry out a full program on that day.

TEMPLE BRASHEAR HAS APPENDICITIS OPERATION

Temple Brashear was taken to the West Texas Hospital at Lubbock Monday morning, where he underwent an operation for appendicitis. The operation seems to have been successful and it is hoped that he will be able to come home within a week or ten days.

Murderer Of Roby Sheriff Arrested

Bill Smith, charged with the murder of Bob Smith, late sheriff of Fisher county, has been arrested at Morganfield, Kentucky, according to press reports, and sheriff Parker of Roby has gone to that state for the prisoner. Smith and a young man working for him named Conatser had been arrested by Sheriff Smith and one of his deputies on a charge of cotton theft and were being taken to Roby, when Smith drew a revolver and began firing into the bodies of the officers, it is claimed. The two men then hurried to Smith's residence and they and their wives left in a car. Conatser surrendered to the officers in Mississippi but Smith was not apprehended until he was arrested in Kentucky a few days ago. Conatser claimed that he was innocent of any complicity in the crime, and knew nothing of Smith's murderous intent. He was indicted, however, and his case was called for trial at Anson Monday but upon motion of defendant was postponed until October 20.

Clint Wright Gets Five Years In Pen

The jury in the case of the State of Texas vs. Clint Wright, charged with statutory rape, and tried in the district court here last week, brought in a verdict of guilty and assessed the punishment at five years confinement in the penitentiary. Wright was represented by Stewart & Marshall of Lubbock while Judge G. E. Lockhart assisted District Attorney Price in the prosecution. The defendant has filed a motion for a new trial, which the court will pass upon the latter part of next week, we understand.

Bulldogs Play Lamesa Tomorrow

The Tahoka Bulldogs will go to Lamesa Friday afternoon to play the Golden Tornadoes of that city. The home boys are hoping to win. It will be remembered that Lamesa had one of the strongest teams on the south plains last year, and it is to be presumed that she has a strong team this year. The Tornadoes defeated Spur by a score of 7 to 0 at the Panhandle-South Plains Fair at Lubbock. A lot of Tahoka people should go along Friday afternoon and help "root" for the Bulldogs.

Prof. and Mrs. Joseph R. Griggs and Miss Euna Knowles arrived Tuesday night from their home at Stephenville to prepare for their duties as teachers in the Draw public school, which will begin Monday, Oct. 17. Miss Tennis Thompson of Canyon and Miss Ruth McKibben of Denton are other members of the faculty. Mr. Griggs says that considerable preparation for the opening of the school have been made already and he anticipates a most successful school year. The school will continue in session eight months. The faculty members and their respective positions are as follows: Joseph R. Griggs, Superintendent and teacher of the higher grades; Miss Tennis Thompson, principal and teacher of the 7th and 8th grades; Miss Ruth McKibben, teacher of the 5th and 6th grades; Mrs. Griggs, teacher of the 3rd and 4th grades; and Miss Euna Knowles, primary teacher.

HAIL DAMAGES LARGE SECTION

Crops In Several Communities Badly Injured By Sunday Mornings Hail Storm

A severe hailstorm visited a section of country from a mile to two miles wide and extending several miles east and west, covering parts of the New Moore, Wells, Three Lakes, and T-Bar communities at an early hour Sunday morning, accompanied by a heavy rainfall. Some crops were almost totally destroyed and others badly damaged in the path of the storm. Hail at this season of the year is so unusual that it is hard to estimate just how great the loss will prove to be. In some fields almost every boll of cotton was badly bruised and many of them knocked off the stalk. Whether the immature bolls will mature and whether the mature bolls will open are mooted questions among farmers and others. Weather conditions henceforth will possibly have much to do with it. Rain in varying amounts visited practically the entire county. The rainfall in Tahoka was 2.9 of an inch. In the hail-stricken region, one to two inches of rain is reported. In some other sections of the county the rainfall is also reported as being much heavier than at Tahoka, while other portions report about the same rainfall. Among the farmers and landowners whose crops were most severely damaged, as reported to the News, are the following: R. L. Moore, M. A. Dorman, L. C. Crews, and W. H. Crews in the T-Bar community; Walter Smith and others on the C. E. Donaldson farm near Three Lakes and also the crops of Fred McGinty, Carroll Edwards, Wright Edwards, W. B. Edwards, Tom Ellis in the Three Lakes community.

COUNTY MAKES HIT AT FAIR

Is In On Prize Money; 500 Parade Band Plays; Tahoka And Littlefield Tie, 0-9

Last Thursday was Lynn County Day at the Panhandle-South Plains Fair. It was also Amarillo Day and School Children's Day. All the daily papers report that it was the biggest day of the fair. Lynn county was given a place in the sun. No, she took her place there. Hundreds of Lynn county people were there to see the exhibits, to enjoy the amusements, and to let the world know that Lynn county is on the map. Shortly after ten o'clock a parade of Tahoka and Lynn county cars formed just-south of the business district and passed through the business section to the fair grounds, led by the Lubbock Fire Truck. According to Monte Brown, there were 34 cars in the parade, many of them being from Tahoka and some of them bearing pennants and decorations advertising the town. Many of the Tahoka people wore a ribbon around the hat or on the shoulder with the words "Tahoka, Lynn County" imprinted thereon, and Tahoka people were in evidence everywhere all day. The Tahoka Concert Band enlivened the occasion with music and attracted much favorable comment. Lynn county had a splendid agricultural exhibit there, collected hurriedly by Supt. M. L. H. Baze and Vocational Agriculture teacher Taylor White. It was arranged by Prof. White and W. J. Crouth of Tahoka, and considering the fact that this exhibit was hurriedly collected

Another Meeting Held By Doctors

The Physicians' Scientific and Business League met in the county court room here Monday night, with a good attendance. A paper on Appendicitis was read by Dr. Krueger of Lubbock, and this was followed by a general discussion of the subject, a number of physicians taking part in the discussion. Those present were Doctors Krueger and Stiles of Lubbock, Doctors Tate, Campbell, and Shepherd of O'Donnell, and Doctors Callaway, Turentine, Townes, Smith and McCoy of Tahoka. The next meeting will be held at the same place the first Monday night in November. Building permits in excess of $200,000 have been issued in Floydada during the present year.

LOCAL PEOPLE SEE LINDBERGH AT ABILENE

Dr. J. R. Singleton, as mayor, and Miss Frankie Wells as the "Spirit of Tahoka" represented our little city at Abilene on the occasion of Lindbergh's visit. They were accompanied by Miss Mary Squires. They gave Lindy a royal welcome all right but had a little inconvenience in negotiating the trip back home, on account of mud. They finally got back home Wednesday afternoon.

Man Pays Fine For Drunkenness

Uncle Ike reports that a citizen of the county paid a fine in his court Monday morning for drunkenness. The gentleman had been incarcerated in the county jail Saturday night for having a bit too much of some bootlegger's concoction under his belt, where he remained until Monday morning. His spree cost him fifteen bucks, besides the cost of the "licker" and his loss of time, if some time was worth anything. Bad business.

Cisco Man Loud In Praise Of City Of Tahoka

Editor Lynn County News:—

Dear Sir:—
It having fallen to my happy lot to spend a few days in your little city, on going away I want to make a few observations, and give you my impressions gained touching the South Plains in general, and Tahoka in particular. This being my first visit to the South Plains, it is needless to say that I had very vague and indefinite ideas as touching the possibilities and potentialities of this section.

In my judgment, this section, from an agricultural standpoint, is not surpassed anywhere; and I find the citizenship, both urban and otherwise of the very highest type.

I want to congratulate you on the civic pride of your citizenship, as evidenced by the character of your public buildings; your court house, especially, while not the most commodious in the state, is, in my judgment, the best and most neatly kept public building I have ever seen; your school buildings cannot be surpassed and stands as a lasting monument to the progressive spirit of your citizenship.

In all my meanderings, here and there, I have never met a more cordial and fraternal greeting than from the people of Tahoka; they may, possibly be lacking on some lines, but when it comes to welcoming a stranger coming within their gates, they are par excellent.

Last, but by no means least comes your church buildings—built and in process of building—evidences the fact Tahoka is not neglecting the most important matter: the spiritual welfare of her "home folks" as well as the stranger who, perchance may enter her gates, even for just a while. The cordial greetings extended by the Christian people of your little city has been a benediction to my life and heart, and will be long cherished as a happy episode in my life, and in my wanderings.

In bidding you "adieu." I do so with exalted ideas, and changed views of your section, your citizenship and your possibilities for the future. I am mighty happy, in that it has been my good fortune, to spend a few pleasant days in Tahoka.

I must not forget to congratulate you, Mr. Editor, on the fact of your turning out one of the cleanest and most conservative weekly papers within my knowledge, and one that the citizens of Lynn county should, and no doubt are, justly proud.

Yours truly,
J. H. SURLS, Cisco, Tex.

OFFICERS ARREST THREE AFTER EXCITING CHASE

Upon notification from Brownfield to be on the lookout for three men in a Nash sedan, suspected of auto theft, Sheriff Frank House and Traffic Officer L. C. Winters headed out the Gail road Wednesday afternoon, and about 12 miles out they encountered the car, but the men refused to stop. While Sheriff House was turning his auto they got quite a little start but he was rapidly overhauling them when they saw another car approaching, so they jammed on the brakes and jumped out as the car started to slow down. Deputy Sheriffs Andrew Merrick and Layne were in the car approaching. The trio in the sedan ducked under a fence, ran across a pasture and into a cane field. The two cars in which the officers were coming, crashed through the fence and kept on across the pasture in pursuit of the fugitives; and were not far behind them when the cane field was reached. The officers were not long in capturing the trio.

It is said they admitted stealing an automobile in Fort Worth. Officers had been notified to be on the lookout for three men who attempted to rob the Stockyards National Bank, at Fort Worth about 4 o'clock Tuesday and local officers have wired Fort Worth to send some one out to see if the three men captured near this city fit the description.

Sheriffs Frank of Brownfield and Jenkins of Gail who had been chasing this trio for some time were hot on their trail and arrived shortly after the Howard County officers had made the capture.—Big Spring Herald.

Roswell, N. M.—In celebration of the annual Cotton Carnival, the Southwestern Dispatch of Roswell, N. M., recently came out with a special edition of 7 sections. Those were devoted to written and pictorial matter on the town of Roswell, Carlsbad, Artesia and the mountain section, Rodeo, Dexter, Flower and Hagerman, to a history section, and a section on masonry and the premium list.

Cooking Chats with 6 Famous Cooks

SAVE TIME WITH OVEN COOKERY

(Editor's Note: This is one of the series of cooking articles by 6 famous cooks running exclusively in this paper. Paste it in your cook book.)

When days are fullest, and time is most precious, try an oven-cooked meal. You will save yourself many minutes in preparation and watching.

And you will be able to serve a tasty meal—the kind which will make your family exclaim, "Let's have this again soon!" The menu given today is by Mrs. Belle DeGraf, San Francisco, home economics counsellor.

A Delicious Oven Meal

Beef and Macaroni, San Francisco
Baked Lima Beans, Paprika
Pineapple and Cheese Salad
Stanford Prune Whip Pie
Beverage

The actual cooking time for this meal is three hours. But, with a reliable stove, the cook does not need to stay in the kitchen more than half an hour!

First, heat the oven well for 3 minutes to 425 degrees, while you make a pie crust. Bake for 10 minutes. Then put meat and beans into oven, and reduce heat to "moderate," or 350 degrees. You need pay no more attention to this cooking for 2 hours, when meal is ready to serve.

A heat regulator takes the guess-work out of baking. It registers the exact degree of heat. One, made especially for oil stoves, may be fastened easily to practically any glass-door oven.

Beef and Macaroni San Francisco
Select about 2 pounds of lean beef, cut into pieces suitable for serving. Sprinkle each piece with salt and dredge with flour.

Heat drippings of fat, flour, salt pork in a frying pan, then add meat and quickly brown each piece on all sides. When browned place in a large casserole and pour over 2 cups of tomato sauce, or purée of tomato, one teaspoon of salt and enough hot water to cover meat. Add 13 or more ripe or stuffed olives. Cover casserole.

Place in a moderate oven and cook about 2 hours. An hour before meal is to be served add 1 1/2 cups elbow macaroni or macaroni broken into inch lengths. If more liquid is needed add either tomato or stock.

Baked Lima Beans, Paprika
Soak lima beans overnight, or at least for several hours. Drain, cover with fresh cold water and set over flame, bringing slowly to the boiling point. Drain, again, and place in a casserole or bean pot.

Cover with water, add 1 teaspoon of salt, 2 teaspoons paprika, and 2 tablespoons butter. Cover and cook with the meat, allowing about the same time.

If your oven so built that you can cook fish, cake, and onions in it at the same time with no blending of flavors. One manufacturer is selling just such ovens. They have such perfect air circulation that all odors are carried away. There is not the slightest blending of flavors.

Pineapple and Cheese Salad
Allow one slice of pineapple for each serving. Place a tablespoonful of well seasoned cottage cheese in the center of each slice or make cheese balls with butter half peddles. Make a French dressing with lemon juice.

A good French dressing is made as follows:
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon sugar
1 teaspoon mustard
1/2 cup vinegar
1/4 cup lemon juice or vinegar
1/4 cup olive oil (or other good salad oil)

Oil and juice should be cold. Put all ingredients into fruit jar and shake well.

Stanford Prune Whip Pie
Bake a pie crust, then add the prune whip:
1 cup prune pulp
1/2 cup sugar
1 egg white unbeat
1 cup finely shredded almonds or walnuts

Rub stoned stewed prunes through a coarse sieve. Put sugar, prune pulp and unbeat egg whites in a bowl and beat with a whip egg-shape. Fold in part of the nuts. Then mix mixture in the baked pie crust. Sprinkle nuts on top and place on top grate of oven until nuts are delicately browned.

This is a good, substantial meal which hungry folks will relish. There are innumerable combinations, for example, roast beef, Yorkshire pudding, potatoes browned in the oven, cauliflower, and custard pie. You can readily think of many others.

If you wash rice in two warm waters instead of cold, it will cook more the starch goes quicker.

More Talk Of Santa Fe Extension

Midland, Oct. 4.—The most vital news in months affecting both the South Plains and Edwards Plateau regions, is the Santa Fe's reported determination to go after tonnage in the Southwestern oil fields, its initial step being construction of the Lamesa-Midland link across the southern half of Dawson, all of Martin, and the northern end of Midland county.

The proposed extension's survey drops directly south out of Lamesa, lying entirely south of the line of the "Rimrock," and crossing the headwaters of the North Concho river on the lower part of Mustang Draw.

This new piece of railroad would give Midland a crossing of two great railroad systems,—namely, the Texas & Pacific main line, already built from Fort Worth to El Paso, and the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe.

Completion of this Lamesa-Midland link would give Midland a Northern connection via the P. & S. F. branch to Salton Junction, in the southeastern corner of Lubbock county, where it would meet the main line of the A. T. & S. F. northwest into Lubbock.

From Lubbock, the Midland oil district would get connection north over the Santa Fe via Plainview, Tulla and Canyon, into Amarillo.

From Salton Junction, it would also get a southeastern connection over the Santa Fe to the refineries on the Gulf of Mexico, via Sweetwater.

Out of Sweetwater, it would also get an eastern connection to Ranger, Eastland, Fort Worth and Dallas.

MAY EXTEND LIFE

By the great reduction in infant mortality a tremendously larger number of our citizens are reaching mature and old age. It is evident that if we can in any way limit death from heart disease in the proportion we have saved infants from premature death, we shall thereby add at least ten years to the average length of life on this planet.—Harvey W. Wiley, M. D.

OUCH SAYS FAIR EXHIBIT WAS HIGHLY PRAISED

W. J. Crouch, who for a great deal of the time had charge of the Lynn county exhibit at the Panhandle-north Plains Fair last week, says that much interest was demonstrated in our exhibit. He believes that the exhibit was of great advertising benefit to the county. Although Lynn county took sixth money, Floyd county only beat us by one point in a thousand, and Crosby was only a short distance ahead. Mr. Crouch made a number of individual entries and received six prizes.

HI-LEAGUERS TURN TRAMP

About twenty of the young people of the Methodist Hi-League treated themselves last Saturday night to a "tramp party" which was very amusing and enjoyable affair. Chaperoned by their Counselor, Mrs. W. E. Suddarth they "tramped" to the back doors of several of the homes represented where generous "hand-outs" were received. The final rendezvous was the church basement, where delicious coffee, prepared by Mrs. R. W. Fenton and served in the proverbial tin cups, completed a menu of sandwiches, pickles and potato salad.

An unsuspecting visitor seeing the company all seated on the floor and dressed in their ludicrous tramp outfits, might well have believed that a real gang of "Knights of the Road" had taken temporary possession. These are a fine bunch of young people and enjoy these wholesome good times frequently and completely.

Rev. Shattuck filled his appointment here Sunday at noon and Rev. Shumake of Post preached in the afternoon.

Some of the ladies met with Mrs. D. Henderson one day the past week and quilled some for Rev. and Mrs. H. B. Hicks.

Doyle Beasley returned Tuesday from an extended visit with relatives at Wichita Falls.

Considerable damage, but have no estimates, but some damaged worse than others, by a hail storm between two and three o'clock Sunday morning. The hail lasted only a few minutes but the rain fell for about 30 minutes, and such a rain—seemingly the largest since June, when we got four inches, but we had no way of telling how much fell Sunday morning. A strip about a half-mile wide and passing through the community entirely stripped cotton of all its leaves in several fields and some report bolls being plentiful on the ground in their fields. Lester Crews southeast of the school house says he has no cotton left. Some maize was stripped but seemingly no grain was damaged or lost.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McCarty died Monday and was buried last Tuesday in the O'Donnell cemetery.

H. W. Crews lost his second horse last Friday from an unknown disease.

Boyd, Helm came in Tuesday. Carl Ballard is digging a well on one of the Estes farms, and if a sufficient supply of water is found he will erect a windmill. This place has no well at present but a number of efforts have been made to get water, and Carl is hoping water will be found this time.

FOOD SALE

The members of the Methodist Hi-League will hold a Food Sale at Mr. Boullion's Store on Saturday, October 8th, at 2 o'clock. Cakes, pies, cookies, candy, etc. will be offered and the generous patronage of the community is earnestly solicited.

The Midwest Exposition opened at Sweetwater yesterday and is to continue through today and tomorrow. Great preparations have been made for this fair and it is being staged on a much larger scale than ever before.

Claude Wells, accompanied by his little daughter, Marjorie, Mrs. Ruby Wells, and Mrs. A. Z. Jackson made a trip to Fort Worth last week. Mr. Wells declares that the cotton crop all the way east from Roby was exceedingly poor and that most of the crop had been gathered.

T. J. Bovell of Abilene was here on business Wednesday. He declared that he saw more cotton between Post and Tahoka than there is all the way from Post to Fort Worth. He admitted that this might be a slight exaggeration but he was greatly enthused over the plains crop.

An addition to the building occupied by O. J. Packson as a hamburger and confectionery business has been constructed at the rear. It is constructed of tile and is 14 by 14 feet in size. The building belongs to Mr. Miller of O'Donnell. Mr. Jackson needed more room for the anticipated fall and winter business.

Rev. B. N. Shepherd and a number of Tahoka people attended the Worker's Conference of the Brownfield Baptist Association which was held in O'Donnell Tuesday. A rather small attendance but a most excellent program is reported by those attending.

J. E. Moore, who lives on the south route out of Brownfield, ten or twelve miles west of New Moore, was here Monday on business. He ordered the News sent to his address for a year.

The Midland schools have enrolled 867 pupils during the present term, which far exceeds the enrollment of any previous year.

Party Is Given For Clay Bennett

A surprise party was given Clay Bennett last Friday night at the home of his mother, Mrs. Jack Corley, in honor of his twenty-first birthday. When Clay came home for supper, he found his friends gathering, to his great surprise and delight, having had no previous intimation that he was to be thus honored. A beautiful and delicious birthday cake had been baked, bearing 21 candles, which added to the pleasure of the occasion. The evening was spent playing "42". Mrs. Jack Corley, the hostess, was assisted by Mrs. Bill Burleson.

Simmons Enters International Debate

Abilene, Oct. 6.—The first international debate ever held in West Texas is scheduled for November 18 when Simmons University of this city meets Cambridge University of England in the local school's auditorium. The date was recently closed when representatives of Simmons wired an acceptance, in answer to a letter proposing the contest.

The English team is composed of three men, who will be graduated at Cambridge in June. The Simmons team has not yet been chosen, said Prof. W. A. Stephenson, debating coach.

The question, selected by Simmons out of a list submitted, will be: That in the opinion of this House compulsory military training should be adopted as a part of the educational system in all schools and universities. Cambridge will take the negative side of the question.

The American tour is being arranged through the Institute of International Education, with headquarters at New York City. Last year the Englishmen toured the east and south and this year are going through the west and southwest.

Each team will be given 45 minutes for speaking with no rebuttals. The judging will probably be done by the English system which lets the audience decide the winner at the close of the debate.

Hundreds of Lynn county people attended the big fair at Lubbock last week, especially on Thursday, which had been designated as Lynn County Day. They report the best exhibiits ever displayed in Lubbock and the best fair in its history.

The Graham Leader issued a special edition of thirty pages last week, featuring the county fair. It was filled with big ads and good reading matter and was a credit to the town of Graham and to Young county. We congratulate the Leader upon its great feat.

The Tahoka Bulldogs played the Littlefield Wild Cats to a scoreless tie at the Panhandle-South Plains Fair last Thursday. The home boys did some fine work, and with a little more practice they will be one of the best teams on the south plains.
Three cheers for the Bulldogs!

There can be no sweeter music to a Lynn county man just now than the whistle of the cotton gins and the whir of the machinery. Every gin stand seems to sing of prosperity and every sound of the whistle is an exultant cry of victory. On with the music.

Arthur Brisbane, the noted paragrapher says: "When some good ignoramus tells you that it is a shame to vaccinate children, that such action isn't necessary or effective, you can usually divert his mind by asking whether he would be willing, unvaccinated to spend a week in a small-pox pest house? You will find that he will not."

The Haskell Free Press came to our desk last week in a special edition of 24 pages, the occasion being the staging of the Haskell County Fair. It was literally filled with full-page, double page, and smaller ads. The merchants of Haskell certainly do believe in advertising, for they not only patronized this issue of the Free-Press most liberally, but they patronize every issue of it in a great way. The Free-Press is to be congratulated.

COLLEGE AND POCKET

Another thing, the boy or girl who goes to college with a pocket full of money or a free shot at dad's bank account very rarely learns as much as the boy or girl who faces a school year with only enough to pay his first month's board. The college student who has to work for his education is the one who wins along life's pathway. And, if you are not going to college to learn, it will be much better on dad's pocket, if for not other reason; if you stay at home.—Lynn County News.

Some of the youths of both sexes who enjoy liberal means while attending college acquire good educations. Of course that is not the rule. The rule is quite the reverse.
Nevertheless such things do occur,
as above stated. It is well enough that the best educations are obtained by students of narrow means. Their ambition for learning is superior to the discomforts of poverty, and it is ambition—not poverty, not riches—makes the student study. We need ambitious students much more than we need rich students or poor students. The student's wealth or poverty is of no consequence to the country. All the country expects to get out of its colleges is an annual dispersion of young men and young women who have absorbed a store of knowledge which will help them help the country. A nation of illiterates is a poor Nation, and even where poverty is general and the accepted rule it does not make a nation great.

Vide Russia, China & Co. Neither does a Nation which boasts of its public school system necessarily spread its prosperity evenly over all the people. On the average, however, the best-educated Nation enjoys the most creature comforts as well as the best mental stimulation, the best social discipline. If these attributes of citizenship are worthy, then the more educated minds we have the better it will be for all of us. The factor of wealth and the factor of poverty, as applied to the individual college student, is insignificant. Civilization, which is organized decency, is built upon minds, not pockets.—State Press in Dallas News.

SULPHUR SPRINGS PAPER SAYS HOPKINS MAKING COTTON

A few weeks ago the News quoted J. H. Holloway as saying that the boll weevils had utterly ruined the cotton in Hopkins county, where he formerly lived and where he had been visiting. The Daily News Telegram of Sulphur Springs quoted our news item and then commented as follows:

"Maybe Hopkins county is not making cotton and maybe she is. We are getting between 450 and 500 bales per day with Sulphur Springs far in the lead of all towns in this section of the state in cotton receipts.
Saturday was not a good day, but the receipts were 487 bales. Friday the receipts were 499 and the total receipts for the season at the close of business, 6,891 bales.

"More than 2,000 bales were received last week. Tahoka had one bale last week and have half a dozen by this time unless a big sand storm has interfered with picking or maybe blown the cotton out of the fields.

"Hopkins county will remain in the average cotton crop list when the season shall have closed and that is not so bad, boll weevils or no boll weevils."

We are glad that old Hopkins is making some cotton. We are glad that it turns out that Mr. Holloway was mistaken, and that the ravages of the boll weevil were not as bad as he thought. Old Hopkins county "rise" again this year. That is very according to Mr. Holloway. The News-Telegram thinks the county will be in the "average cotton crop is a good old county for east Texas, fine for old Hopkins. But Lynn county would not be at all satisfied to find herself back in the "average" list.
Her crop is a little late this year,
but, barring an early freeze, she expects to stand, when the season shall have closed, in the list of big producers.

We note also that the News-Telegram seems to be considerably worried about these west Texas sand-storms. We have noticed for many years that those east Texas fellows do a lot more worrying over our sandstorms than we do. We do have a terrific sandstorm occasionally, but this fine, pure ozone that we have the pleasure of breathing, out here on these plains more than com-pensates for the discomforts of a few sandstorms. The people who have tried it like to live on the plains, Mr. Bagwell, in spite of a little obstreperous wind now and then. If your people could spend just a few summer nights or autumn days out here, they might decide to move out en masse.

Anyway we are glad that Mr. Holloway was slightly mistaken and that old Hopkins is making another "average" cotton crop. No doubt she needs it.

COURTSHIP AND MARRIAGE OF ADAM AND EVE
(Prof. J. H. Surles)

Sometime, somewhere, alone, above,
Without a thing to make it of,
The world was made without a flaw
Without a hammer or a saw,
Or anything at all but space,
Without a board or nail or screw,
Or anything to nail it to.

Now flowers grew and forest trees,
Bugs were made and humble bees,
Reptiles, worms, and creeping things
Some without and some with wings,
Just lots of things did God make,
And in them all just one mistake,
And this was no mistake in plan,
The dirt was bad when He made man.

Now, Adam was not satisfied,
So Miss Eve was made to be his bride,
And down the flowery path they walked,
Of love's young dream together talked.

He asked her if they could wed,
I do not know just what she said,
But from the sequel I would guess
She must have answered Adam yes.

And quickly then the gossip said
That Adam and Eve soon would wed.
Without a mansion, house or cot,
Adam went, and the license got,
No mother-in-law took him to task,
He had no father-in-law to ask,
So they just stood there side by side,
And Eve became the world's first bride.

Her husband she desired to please,
So she went shopping among the trees.
Some applesauce she wished to make,
And got the apple of a snake.
She made it very nice and sweet
So Adam took it and did eat.

Lynn County Day At South Plains Fair Observed In Creditable Manner

Lynn county day at the South Plains Fair at Lubbock last Thursday was very creditably observed by Lynn county people, and as a result much beneficial advertising resulted both from the showing made during the day and from the publicity received in several daily papers of the state. Below are excerpts from a number of papers which graphically tell of the visit:

CITY STORMED BY TAHOKA CITIZENS ON VISIT TO FAIR

(Lubbock Daily Journal)

Headed by the Tahoka Municipal band, more than 75 cars of Lynn county citizens took Lubbock by storm this morning at ten o'clock and are spending the day here as participants in Lynn County Day at the Panhandle South Plains Fair. After touring the business section of the city behind the Lubbock Fire Department the delegation went to the fair grounds where they visited the greatest display of agriculture products, livestock, and industrial products ever shown in this section.

This afternoon, the delegation, bolstered by other from Tahoka who were not able to get off this morning, will root for the Tahoka high school football team as they do battle with the Littlefield squad. Approximately 800 people from Lynn county are to be here during the day, members of the delegation reported this morning.

Tahoka and Lynn county have captured the fair grounds and everywhere on the grounds, the banners, "Tahoka, Lynn County," may be seen flying. The delegation is the largest to attend the fair this year, and have shown more interest in the exhibits than any others.

Superintendent Base, of the Tahoka schools and secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, is in charge of the delegation here. His group is composed of the most enthusiastic citizens of the South Plains. The Tahoka band, directed by Monte Bowron played in concert at the grounds this morning. O. G. Lewis, coach of the Tahoka Bull Dogs, states that his team is in prime and awaiting the Littlefield team.

Miss Millie Halsey, county home demonstration agent of Lynn county is here and has charge of that division in the woman's building. Taylor White, vocational agriculture teacher of Tahoka, has one of the best exhibits at the fair.

Today is surely Tahoka and Lynn county's day.

PANHANDLE SOUTH-PLAINS FAIR HAS RECORD CROWD

(Dallas News)

LUBBOCK, Texas, Sept 29—Tahoka, Amarillo, and the school kids and Plains people in general came in Thursday to swell the attendance figures at the Panhandle South Plains fair and to make the biggest single day crowd ever had in the history of the exposition.

It was Tahoka and Lynn County Day. Their delegation arrived early Thursday in seventy-five cars, 350 strong, while over 500 were here from the southern county. M. L. H. Baze, secretary of the Tahoka Chamber of Commerce, headed the delegation. Monte Bowron, band director and the thirty-five-piece Tahoka Band, was along. The Lubbock fire department trucks met the delegation at the entrance to the city of Lubbock and led the parade over town.

O. G. Lewis, coach had his high school football team up for battle with Littlefield on the fair park gridiron.

Have Lynn County Exhibit

Over in the agricultural building Taylor White, vocational agriculture teacher, had a neat Lynn County Exhibit. Miss Millie Halsey, home demonstration agent, was assisting in setting up the women's and girls' club exhibit in the women's building which is the best ever assembled.

The winners in the agricultural building were announced as follows: Counties, Hale first, Garza second, Dawson third, Crosby fourth, Floyd fifth, Lynn sixth, Bailey seventh, Roosevelt, ninth, Hockley tenth and Gaines eleventh.

RECORD CROWDS ATTEND FAIR AT LUBBOCK

(Star-Telegram)

The biggest crowd that ever passed through the gates of the Panhandle South Plains Fair came clicking their way through the turnstiles today to see the 'Show Window of the Plains,' being held here from Tuesday to Saturday of this week.

It was the Tahoka and Lynn county Day and the people from the south came to Lubbock almost en masse. They were the first organized delegation in the city for the fair this year and with over 500 people from Tahoka, the delegation likely will be the biggest organized delegation to the fair. About 75 cars with 350 people arrived in the city at 10 o'clock, headed by M. L. H. Baze, secretary of the Tahoka Chamber of Commerce and the Tahoka 35-piece band, under the direction of Monte Bowron. The Tahoka school turned out for the day, which was also designated as school day.

The Tahoka High School football team was here under the tutorage of Coach O. G. Lewis, to meet the Littlefield High team this afternoon on the gridiron. Over in the agricultural building Taylor White, vocational agriculture teacher from Tahoka, has set up a neat exhibit from Lynn County. Miss Millie M. Halsey, home demonstration agent of Lynn County, has been here since early Monday assisting with the home demonstration club exhibit in the women's building and assisting in the judging in the agricultural building. Everywhere one looked today, hats carrying the banner, "Tahoka, Lynn County," dotted the crowd. It was Tahoka Day and the people of that city took in the fair.

(Amarillo Daily News)

Amarillo wasn't the whole show in Lubbock today by any means Lynn county of which Tahoka is the capital, came over about 500 strong. It was their special day. In addition it was school day, and the hundreds of students from Lubbock and a score or more of South Plains cities were on hand.

LYNN COUNTY FOLKS STRONG AT FAIR

(Lubbock Avalanche)

Tahoka and Lynn county captured the Fair grounds without a skirmish yesterday as a strong delegation from that section engulfed the city, attracted by "Lynn County" day at the Fair and the football game between Tahoka and Littlefield scheduled for the afternoon.

Banners of "Tahoka, Lynn County" were flying all over the ground and the arrival of the delegation, which came in about 75 cars was celebrated to the tune of a parade through the downtown streets. Heading the parade were the Tahoka Concert Band and the Lubbock fire department.

In charge of the Tahoka and Lynn County delegation was Supt. Base of the city schools, who is likewise secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. Monte Bowron was director of the municipal band. Miss Millie Halsey, county home demonstration agent, was also here.

Lynn county advertised its location in the 'heart of the South Plains' with a cane lettered design to that effect. Maize was used for the diagram of a heart, and white cotton was beautifully arranged. Potatoes and onions were prominent in the display. The county carried off first honors in peanuts and cowpeas.

EXHIBITORS BANQUET HERE IS BIG SUCCESS

(Lubbock Daily Journal)

Twenty different communities and counties were represented at the Hotel Lubbock last night when an exhibitor's banquet and program was tendered to out-of-town visitors.

Communities represented included Seminole, Dallas, Shallowater, Lamesa, Acuff, Sudan, Brownfield, Muleshoe, Tahoka, Post, Ropesville, Posey, New Hope, Canyon, Bledsoe, Crosbyton, Ralls, Portales, College Station and Lubbock. There were 85 people present.

TAHOKA DRIVES DOWN-FIELD ARE HALTED

(Lubbock Avalanche)

A scoreless tie—a victory won and a victory lost—was the result of the encounter yesterday afternoon at the Fair Ground park as the Littlefield and Tahoka football elevens battled furiously in the third classic of annual exposition. Thrice the Tahoka eleven penetrated the Littlefield defense in an onward march for a touchdown—but thrice did the Littlefield gridsters throw the slashing offense of the Tahoka crew back and take over the offense to punt out of danger.

As Del Morgan's final whistle shrilled out, the Tahoka Bulldogs were on their third driving spree and within a few yard of victory, but time overtook the charge and wrested the offensive drive of the Tahokans from them to terminate the gruelling contest.

Littlefield Threatens Just before the initial half concluded the Littlefield eleven attempted the pass incomplete in that the receiver as if they had counted a score—but Umpire B. F. Condrey was on the play like a flash and ruled the pass incomplete in that the receiver of the pass was ineligible for the play. Some dispute arose over the play but by consultation of officials on the call of Coach Tucker, of Littlefield, the ruling was confirmed and the play was ruled an incomplete pass.

Offensively, the Tahoka eleven displayed more punch, more aggressiveness, and more yardage up and down the field. "Fuzzy" Edwards, right half of the Tahoka aggregation, was the flash of the offense work of the Lewismen and was a consistent gainer throughout the tilt. Munn, running mate of Edwards, too was impressive, and a good ball toter and effective for occasional yardage. The passing ability of either club was nothing to boast of and frequently the aerial attack was rensorted to and no benefit was derived from it from a standpoint of either eleven.

Goertz Is Star Goertz, hefty full back of the Tuckermen, lead the offensive attack of the Littlefield organization and was a smashing tackler on the defense, helping stop many attacks by the Tahoka eleven. Gray, rangy built wingman of the Littlefield club, too, was equally as impressive in the defense work of the Lamb County entry as he was a prominent figure in cutting back the offensive drive of the Tahokars.

An unusual number of penalties were assessed to both machines in the game yesterday. Possibly it was due to the over-anxiousness of the two clubs.

A great delegation followed the Tahoka eleven to the fair exhibition and were heard from at all stages of the game as they constantly rose to bolster their warriors onward. The crack band of Tahoka was present and furnished music for the occasion.

BAD SPELLS

Of Backache and Weakness Helped by Cardui

Because she wants other women to know about Cardui, Mrs. Ina Mae Jirright, Route No. 2, Troy, Ala., says this:
"Mostly, I was afflicted with bad spells of backache. At times I felt as if my back would break. I would drag one foot after another, in a helpless sort of a way, and once I got down in bed.
"My husband told me about Cardui and got me a bottle. I soon found out what a fine medicine it was. Ever since my first experience with it, I have continued taking it for womanly troubles and, after a few bottles, I have always been well."

Explosion Kills Sweetwater Man

Mrs. Grover Stewart was called to Sweetwater Wednesday afternoon of last week by the death of a cousin, Gene Hopkins, which resulted from a boiler explosion. Funeral services were conducted Friday afternoon. The peculiar circumstances of his death are related by the Sweetwater Reporter as follows:

"E. L. (Gene) Hopkins, Jr., 23 was instantly killed about 11:30 o'clock this morning when the steam boiler and pressure oil tank in his place of business, the Motor Inn, exploded.

"Death was caused by the crushing of his head which was struck by a piece of flying metal, and his body was burned almost to a crisp by the fire that followed.

"The tragedy was not discovered until the flames had been extinguished.

"That Mr. Hoskins was in the fire was not realized by anyone, the first intimation of it being when the firemen had extinguished the flames and saw the body lying on the floor next to the boiler. Examination showed that the top and back of the head had been crushed and the head, arms, and chest were burned until recognition was impossible.

Just how the explosion occurred could not be determined. The end had been blown out of the oil tank which held the fuel for the burner with which the boiler was heated and parts had been blown off the boiler.

"Mr. Hopkins had been reared here where he has many relatives and a great many friends.
Damage to the garage from the fire was light.

First Section Of Tech's Proposed Stadium Ready Soon

Lubbock, Oct. 6.—The illustration shows the football field of Texas Technological College and the first unit of steel grand stands of the proposed stadium which will ultimately surround the entire field. This unit will seat 4,000, and while these will be used for the Simmons University game October 15, their installation was made necessary by the scheduling of the game with Texas A. & M. College on Friday, Oct. 28. Tech college is planning a gala day when the Aggies come to the Plains for their first time. Special trains will be run into Lubbock and many former Aggie students and football fans from all over the Panhandle are already reserving tickets for the big football classic. This will be the first major football game ever played in the Panhandle, but with Texas Tech likely to be admitted to the Southwestern Conference in the near future it is to be the forerunner of many big games later on.

In addition to the 4,000 new steel bleachers there is a present seating capacity of 3,250, making a total of 7,250 seats. Enough temporary seats will be erected to make the total seating capacity for the A. & M. game at least 10,000. The admission price for all other Tech games on the home field this year is $1.00 but on account of the heavy expenses of the big game of October 28 it is necessary to charge $2.50.

It was built in the workshop of the physics department of which Dr. S. L. Brown is chairman by the personnel of the department. The station has a power of 500 watts and transmits on a wave length of 232.4 meters or 1290 kilocycles. R. E. Shelby of Austin, a government licensed operator, is in charge of the transmitter, and J. G. Adams of Cleburne is in charge of the studio. Both Adams and Shelby are student assistants in the physics in the physics department of the University.

Buffalo Remodeled Into Bison Barbecue

Sweetwater people will have an opportunity next Friday to taste the kind of meat their forefathers used to chase across these bald prairies. To say merely that buffalo barbecue will be served Friday noon at the Fair Grounds, would be doing an injustice to his indomitable animal that "died with his boots on." Several weeks ago when plans were being completed for the Fair parade it was decided to procure real Indians and also a real buffalo to represent the days of yore. After extended negotiations the Sweetwater Club purchased a real buffalo from the famous herd on the Colbert Ranch near Stamford. According to plans Will Wade was to take the animal to his stock pens and tame it so that it could be used as the main attraction in the parade. The plan, however, did not work easily. When Ike Inman and his big truck went over to bring him to Sweetwater, ten horses, five cowboys, and several hours were used up before this particular buffalo could be persuaded to take a ride in Ike's modern vehicle of hauling. Safely locked in one of Mr. Wade's pen, he went on an Irish hunger strike, defying everyone who came in striking distance of his abode. According to those who jumped fences to keep out of his path, he had a way of shaking his head that would make the average Spanish toreador turn sick and upchuck his hot tamales. Well, anyway, after it was seen that this was one buffalo that could not be modernized, the Bison Committee decided to remodel him into buffalo barbecue for the Exposition visitors.—Nolan County News.

New Use Found For Wheat Straw

Turning wheat straw—a waste by-product of the farms of the Central West—into insulating "boards" is the latest and most interesting development of the scientific investigation of the possibilities of utilizing waste material of the farms in industrial enterprises and as a source of revenue to the farmer. Wheat straw is of virtually no value to the farmer except as bedding material for his stock. It isn't worth the cost of the time and labor that is required to spread it over the land, because it has no fertilizing value. By turning it under a little humus is added to the soil, but it takes so long to break down its fibrous structure that the straw is more of a nuisance than a benefit, because it interferes for several seasons with the work of putting the land in proper tilth for succeeding crops. Now comes the scientist with the demonstrated fact that wheat straw because of the long tough quality of its fiber, its low moisture content and its resistance to the corroding influence of the elements can be manufactured into insulating "boards" of the highest quality known through the use of vegetable fibers. When reduced to a pulp and formed into "boards" the product is an ideal non-conductor of heat and cold and is fire resistant to a high degree. These boards are used in the roofs, and as a plaster base in place of lath in the construction of buildings and as insulating material for refrigerators and cold storage warehouses. The first mill to engage in the manufacture of straw into insulating boards has just been completed at St. Joseph, Mo., and includes among its stockholders the Henry L. Doherty Company, operators of public utilities, refineries and oil properties; Swift Estate interests, internationally known packers; bankers, financiers and other prominent business men of the west. The mill at St. Joseph will use over 20,000 tons of straw annually and will give to the southwestern states a new industrial impetus, for it is one of those essential enterprises whose conception and development was undertaken in response to an already existing demand for an industry of this particular type in this particular section of the country. Here is raw material in plentiful supply, much of it representing an economic waste to the Central West of several million dollars yearly. The opening of a market for this waste straw will add materially to the income of the wheat farmers of this section and give them an annual outlet for a heretofore waste by-product.

Forty Quarts of Whiskey Destroyed Here Friday

Acting on orders from District Judge Frits Smith on last Friday afternoon, Sheriff Frank House and Deputy Andrew J. Merrick destroyed forty quarts of alcohol, whiskey and other intoxicating liquor. The destruction was carried out in the jail yard, with a representative of the Herald as a witness. This liquor was of various kinds, color and quality and it required a strong stomach to withstand the sickening odor that emanated from same. In quite a bit of the non-colored liquor, bugs and insects could be plainly discerned. There was murder, suicide, tears and trouble packed in this stuff and on inquiry we learned this little batch of forty quarts had brought twelve men into court on charges of felonies, and had brought prison sentences aggregating fourteen years to those who had attempted to sell or transport this stuff. In addition to this forty quarts, Sheriff House has in his keeping some 200 quarts of whiskey and alcohol which must be produced in court when another term of court will call up men charged with violation of the prohibition law. Men seem willing to take big chances on violating the Volstead liquor law but sooner or later they must pay the penalty.—Big Spring Herald.

SCHOOL YEARS IMPORTANT TO PERSONALITY

While the years before a child enters school are important in shaping his attitude toward life, the school years exercise a larger influence, and the personality is really not formed in the first two or even the first ten years, according to Dr. Charles Judd of the University of Chicago. Fears and other emotional reactions are often established in young children, but social adjustments, attitudes toward property and taste in the fine arts are acquired only after long training and experience. Good manners and promptness, for instance do not come in a day. While overcoming a perverted habit or an unfortunate attitude is difficult, it is not impossible, and has often been successfully accomplished.

Messrs. M. L. H. Baze, Taylor White, W. J. Crouch, W. O. Henderson, R. W. Fenton Jr., L. C. Haney, Miss Millie M. Halsey and the club women and girls of the county and to Monte Bowron and the band. Possibly some others deserve special mention but the above named certainly did their part.

The football game between the Tahoka Bulldogs and the Littlefield Wildcats in the afternoon was one of the best games of the fair, the two teams playing to a tie.

Monte Bowron, band director, asks that we express the thanks of the band and the people in the parade to Ed Twitty, Lubbock Fire Chief, for clearing the streets for the parade with the big fire truck and for other courtesies shown. In fact, all Lynn county, we think, appreciates the many courtesies extended by Lubbock, by the Chamber of Commerce, and by the Fair officials on Lynn County Day at the Fair.

C. W. Bartlett of the Higginbotham Bartlett Company of Dallas was here on business Wednesday.

New Home

The Plains Fair Last Thursday our school board gave all the pupils a holiday. Over one hundred pupils and parents attended the exposition. Amusement row had its share of visitors, but our boys were deeply interested in the livestock, while the girls admired the needle work and poultry exhibits. As this was Lynn county day, we greeted many friends from other sections of the county. We enjoyed the music furnished by the Tahoka Band. Their uniforms and concerts caused much favorable comment. We wanted Tahoka High to win the football game, but Littlefield had a strong defensive team. The Slaton School exhibit was unique and worthy of commendation. Miss Halsey's and Prof. Taylor White's efforts gave Lynn county a splendid showing in club work and farm products. Why can't Lynn county have a fair of its own?

At the beginning of school about a month ago all pupils were supplied with balls, bats, etc. Even our primary students were given rubber balls of various sizes. Swings and seesaws have been built since the opening of school. Boys are making their muscles strong by the use of chinning bars, rings and trapeze. A volley court is in course of construction. We shall not have a football team, but we are going in strong for other Interscholastic League activities.

Recently we have installed two modern drinking fountains. The bubblers are equipped with mouth guards. On the grounds we have a lavatory, and all drainage goes into cess pools. In freezing weather the pipes can be drained.

The first week of school our grounds were plowed with a disc and harrowed. Since then we have been keeping the yard clean of papers and other refuse. We shall soon make preparation for trees and flower planting.

Our Merry Maiden Glee Club, composed of twenty-three girls and directed by Miss Addie Jane Hancock, entertained the school in the auditorium the other day. We may organize a school orchestra. Miss Willa Davis of Slide has several piano pupils. Listen for you may hear our community singing when our new books arrive.

Rev. R. E. Bost filled his regular appointment at New Home last Sunday. The B. Y. P. U. used as its subject Sunday evening, "The Need of Missionaries in Turkey." Geo. Hancock, J. B. Zimmerman, Wilmer Smith and Louise Hancock discussed this subject. Maurine Fulton sang a solo and Vera Smith played a piano solo. Esther Smith was leader.

Our hearts are saddened by the serious illness of Miss Tressie Patterson. We trust she will soon be well again.

Mr. Editor, now is the time to begin working for the Lynn county fair for next year. Your efforts thus far are meeting with enthusiastic applause.

Mr. Serginer and daughter are visiting relatives of this community. Mr. and Mrs. Sid Poyner of Lubbock spent last Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Smith. R. L. Smith returned home from Darnell, Ark. last week. He was accompanied home by his mother. Mr. Homer Franklin spent last week end in Lubbock.
