HE BRINGS OUT WORKS
The sweet sign of spring in children is pleasure, but of interest in play, freshness, variable appetite, prying at the nose and snoring during sleep. When these symptoms appear it is time to give White's Cream Vermifuge. A few doses drive out the worms and give the little ones the road to health again. White's Cream Vermifuge has a record of fifty years of successful use. Price 6c. Sold by THOMAS BROTHERS.

NAUSEA
This and other troubles relieved by Black-Draught.
Mrs. Ada Blackman of Alameda, Cal., writes: "From time to time, I would have spells of nausea which would put me to bed. I would turn a dull, yellow color and, for days at a time, would have no appetite. Everything I ate did me no good. My mother had been a user of Black-Draught for years, so while I was at home, visiting, she asked me why I did not try Black-Draught for my troubles. I began taking a small dose three times a day, before meals. I kept this up for several weeks, and it was just a little while before I began to notice an improvement in my condition. 'Black-Draught' is certainly a fine medicine. You will say the same thing, once you have tried Black-Draught."

Newmoore

The farmers of this section have their heads in the air these days. They are scanning the skies for some sign of rain. Some few of the farmers have stated that they were doing some dry planting. However, it seems that most of them are waiting for a rain.
Messrs John and Walter Rogers were called to Lubbock last week on account of the death of their father.
Several members of the Newmoore church attended the Fifth Sunday service in O'Donnell last Saturday and Sunday. They reported a fine meeting, as highly praised the hospitality of the O'Donnell people.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Good went to Lubbock on the twentieth of the month where they spent the weekend with friends. They attended the District meet.

Three Lakes

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Yates were paying their annual visit to the tropical city of Corpus Christi the other day and W. A. was taken by the police force. He was taken as humble as any violator, but it came about like this: While he and Mrs. Yates were sight-seeing over the city they became separated. Mrs. Yates got her nephew, who is on the police force, to look him up. It was then a very pleasant meeting. Mr. and Mrs. Yates enjoyed their trip very much but were glad to get back to the plains where they can enjoy their freedom and breathe the bracing air of liberty.
The birthday party at Mr. Charley Donaldson's for Miss Loraine Smith last Wednesday night was enjoyed by a big crowd of young people. Two kinds of pie, three of fruit, and hot chocolate were served. We hope Miss Loraine has many more birth day parties.

Mr. Tom Ellis and George Duckett spent a week at Christoval fishing and visiting Mr. Ellis.

Dutch Robertson's father and mother from Haskell are visiting here now.
Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Edwards from Crawford are visiting the children.
Mrs. Wright Edwards and brother, Charley Smith, were called to Waco to see their sick father, who was thought to have pneumonia.
We would surely like to see some rain soon.

CHURCH SAYS STAY WITH THE PARTY

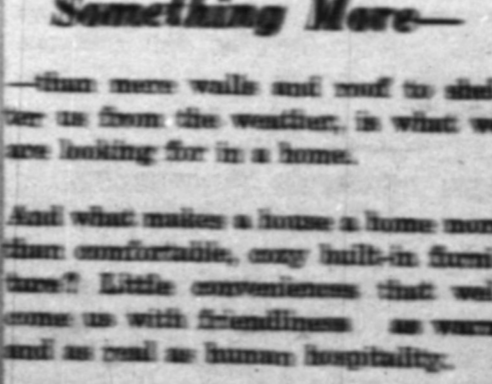

From the tone of your editorials to last week's issue one would infer that you advise Texas Democrats who favor enforcement of the prohibition laws to not participate in the precinct and county conventions, or in other words to "hog-tie themselves" to help the vote elect a President, and further you say, "the big battle is on and consistent dry Democrats are not going to fight on the wrong side," all of which implies to the casual mind a threat of bolting the party and going over to the Republican camp and support a platform that will probably ignore the prohibition question entirely.
There never was a more opportune time for harmony than now, for with a harmonious and unified party success is almost assured, but with a divided party defeat is certain. As a consistent prohibitionist I consider that prohibition is a settled question, written into the organic law of the nation, with the Volstead Act to back it up. Besides most states have laws looking toward its enforcement. Then why should we want to do more than to write into our national platform a plank demanding its enforcement of all laws, which of course would include prohibition laws too?
The politicians, both pro and anti, can not let the prohibition question rest, because it has served so well to stir up strife, and they realize that many of them owe their political existence to the agitation of this question and they are again at the same old game. Voters are becoming tired of hearing the politicians hoot around the same old horse and would gladly welcome some practical questions that would benefit our state and nation. Ten years have elapsed since the eighteenth amendment was adopted. We of Texas have lived under pro and anti administrations and the enforcement of the law has been about the same under each. Then why divide our ranks? or split in our tents where other national issues of great importance confront us?
The writer has been a life-long Democrat and for fifty years has voted "her straight", classed as a "transcendental Democrat," and glad it always went into the battle within the party lines, and if my name or measure failed I voted for the nominee of the majority of my party. I stayed with my party because its principles were in accord with my political views; went down in defeat many times but still in the ring.

LIGHT SHOWERS FALL WEDNESDAY NIGHT

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

Any erroneous reflection upon the reputation or standing of any individual, firm or corporation, that may appear in the columns of the News, will be gladly corrected when called to our attention.

Some of the politicians just at this time are having much to say in criticism of "bolters" and those who threaten to bolt if certain candidates are nominated. But we have noticed that many of the really big men of this country have "bolted" the party action at some time or other during their respective careers. When Bryan was nominated in 1896, Bourke Cock-ran and Taunamy Hall bolted and either voted for McKinley or Palmer and Butler. Later, when Parker was nominated, Bryan virtually bolted.
He at least made it clear that he did not desire to see Parker elected.
Woodrow Wilson bolted in 1896 and refused to vote for Bryan. Roosevelt and his followers bolted the action of the Republican convention in 1912 and formed the Bull Moose party.
There have been many instances of "bolting" in Texas. A lot of fellows who are now denouncing prospective bolters, themselves bolted the Democratic ticket in 1922 and voted for Geo. B. Peedy, the Republican nominee in preference to Earle B. Mayfield. Jim Ferguson denounced and described the Democratic party and tried to form a new party, which he called the American Party. Hogg and Clark split the party wide open in 1894 and each ran as the Democratic nominee for governor. Possibly Dan Moody has never scratched a Democratic ticket, and possibly he never will as long as he believes and preaches that party loyalty is one of the chief virtues, but every man's chickens come to roost sooner or later, and if Dan Moody lives to be an old man he will probably have occasion to learn that loyalty to party is not the chief good, that loyalty to country is a greater virtue, and that under certain circumstances it is noble and heroic to "bolt."

A commission was appointed by the Baptist General Convention of Texas at its last session to make a study of the matter of religious education and to submit recommendations concerning the future policy of the Convention relating to the Baptist schools of Texas. This commission has had a number of meetings, and at Dallas last week it decided by a vote of 15 to 2 to recommend that Baylor University be removed from Waco to Dallas. The Dallas Chamber of Commerce has offered 1,000 acres of land and $1,500,000 in money to the University if it will remove to Dallas. R. E. Burt, chairman of the executive committee of the Convention, who is also mayor of Dallas, has announced that he will call a special meeting of the convention to be held in Mineral Wells on June 5 to consider the recommendations of the commission. The proposal to move Baylor will doubtless meet with stubborn opposition. Founded at Independence in 1845, while Texas was yet a Republic, it was removed to Waco more than a half century ago. There many thousands of the sons and daughters of Texas, including many of the men and women who have figured prominently in the history of the state, have been educated. For sentimental reasons most of these will protest against the removal of Baylor to another city.

The fact that Waco is more nearly the center of population than is Dallas will also be urged as a reason why the University should remain at Waco. The fact that Dallas is a much larger city and is able to offer large financial inducements for the institution to locate there seems to be the chief argument in favor of its removal. We seriously doubt the wisdom of the move.

Texas Farm & Ranch quotes a West Texas orator who was fighting the establishment of a non-cotton zone as stating that if West Texas farmers were compelled to plant all their land in feed they would starve to death hauling it to town to sell.
The Farm & Ranch replies that while that might be true yet they could feed it to hogs and to dairy cows and make big money. They might make big money feeding it to hogs—and they might not. Frequently there is very little money in hogs raised for the market. As for dairy cows, it would hardly be possible to convert any section from a cotton-cropland to a strictly dairy country in a single year. The trouble with Farm & Ranch and other North Texas publications as well as with the state and federal departments of agriculture is that they are bent on the establishment of a non-cotton zone in West Texas if any excuse for it whatever can be found, regardless of the danger that it will inflict upon the farming and business interests of this section, under the hallucination that a non-cotton zone is necessary for the protection of cotton farmers further east or with the desire to compel a reduction of cotton acreage and the idea that this is the best way to do it.

A Dallas man pokes fun at West Texas for always talking about rain.
He believes that Panhandle folks get along about the same year after year regardless as to rain or no rain. As a matter of fact there is a good deal of truth in what he says. Ever since this became a farming country every year there is the terrible suspense of "when will it rain?" Somehow or other it has always rained just about fifteen minutes before it was too late.
—Canyon News.

Cone Johnson is making a heroic effort to keep Texas out of the Smith column in the state convention at Beaumont and the national convention at Houston. He may win or he may lose, but whether he wins or loses, he stands out as a giant among pigmies in the ranks of Texas politicians. In our opinion Cone Johnson is one of the biggest men of his day and generation.

Wheat is now said to be selling at $2.00 or more per bushel, but the trouble with Panhandle and Plains farmers is that they have very little wheat in sight.

AN EXPENSIVE PEST

It is pretty hard to realize that common, ordinary house rats destroy $200,000,000 worth of property in the United States last year. Yet that is the statement the government is sending out, and it has no reason for magnifying the destruction. In this new and interesting bulletin, dealing with a pest which every Littlefield citizen is familiar with, it is pointed out that the rat is not only a deadly enemy of mankind, but he is one of the most costly, when his destruction is measured in dollars and cents.

Rats kill and destroy far more than they eat; they increase fire hazards by carrying matches to their nests and chewing them until they burst into flame; and they carry fleas which are often loaded with disease germs, thus starting epidemics which sweep entire communities. They multiply rapidly and quickly overrun any place in which they are allowed to gain a foothold.
Last year, it is stated, the loss in corn alone, consumed by rats, reached a total of $7,000,000.

While the government is glad to furnish advice on getting rid of these pests, the suggestion is offered that school pupils be encouraged to hold rat-killing contests, with prizes offered by local merchants to those bringing in the greatest number of dead rats. It has been worked in scores of communities with good effect, according to the bulletin. And on second thought it might not be a bad idea to try it out in the rural school districts of this community.

We cannot abandon our education at the school house door. We have to keep it up through life.—Calvin Coolidge.

pearance. The top, however, is fully collapsible and folds so completely out of the way that full vision ahead is possible from the rumble seat. An additional feature is the inclusion of a nickel banding around the windows which gives them rigidity and permits raising of the windows, with the top lowered, as an extra protection against the wind.

Finished in Roman Red, with black body beading striped in gold, and embellished with artistic touches of polished nickel, the new model sounds a distinctive style in the field of low cost transportation. The disc wheels are of the same brilliant color combination as the body.

The soft folding rubber fabric top is jet black in pleasing contrast to the dominant tones of the body. The Body by Fisher retains the sweeping graceful lines that distinguished the former cabriolet; while other features are of the same dependable construction that is winning unprecedented numbers to the Bigger and Better Chevrolet.

Youth should be taught how to swim, play games, drive motors and other things that make them strong, sensitive and sympathetic, but they should also be taught many other things, amongst which how to read the newspapers and how to profit by it, which is also important if we are seeking development of their intelligence. There is no avenue of education that is so studiously neglected.
Worthwhile education is to be obtained readily and directly from newspapers supplemented by literature.—Niagara Falls Review.

Locals

W. L. Carley of Groesbeck is here visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Callaway and expects to remain several weeks. He is a brother of Mrs. Callaway.

J. H. Dunning went to Amarillo Friday to enter the Old Fiddlers Contest there Friday night but was unable to enter on account of not having been sent by the local chamber of commerce.

Frank Lisemby of Midway was among those who came in Saturday and ordered the paper sent to his address another year. Mr. Lisemby wants to keep informed as to county and local affairs.

Mrs. Ples Rhea out on Route 1 came in Saturday to have the paper sent to their address and also to have it sent to her father, A. Seals, who is now visiting a daughter in Detroit, Mich.

Mrs. Florence King is spending the summer with a sister in Booneville, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Connolly are the parents of a fine little Miss who came into their home at 7 o'clock Friday evening. They are receiving the congratulations of many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Dulin living 9 miles north of Tahoka came in Saturday and ordered the News sent to their address another year. Mrs. Dulin says that the recent freezes killed all the fruit on their place, not even leaving any plums or cherries to amount to anything.

Oliver Todd is among those who came in a few days ago and took advantage of our combination order with the Semi-Weekly Farm News. It's a combination that's hard to beat. From the Dallas News he gets state news and general farm news, while from our paper he gets the home news. Others should try this combination.

M. E. Baldrige of Clovis was here Monday shaking hands with friends. He has 1,300 acres in wheat near Clovis this year and says that while it is getting rather dry there is a chance to make a wheat crop yet. They had a light rain in that section last week. Mr. and Mrs. Baldrige had been visiting in Abilene and O'Donnell.

A chartered Training School for Nurses is conducted in connection with the Sanitarium. Young women who desire to enter nursing may address the Lubbock Sanitarium.

E. R. Terry of Lynn came around Monday and renewed his subscription for the paper. He says that while he does not enjoy the sandstorms, he feels that we are fortunate as compared with those sections further east where windstorms and freezes have been working havoc. So say we.

Miss Frances E. Dulaney arrived from Temple Monday to make her home here with her mother and sister who are residing with the J. H. Edwards family. Miss Dulaney has been teaching near Rosebud.

R. L. Craig dropped in Saturday and said "keep 'er coming." The News will keep going to his address. Mr. Craig is one of the good farmers of the Magnolia community.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lovelady are removing this week to Slaton. They have been residents of Tahoka many years and have a great many friends here who regret their removal.

Miss Ethel Campbell, daughter of C. J. Campbell, underwent an operation for appendicitis in a Lubbock Sanitarium last Saturday. The operation is said to have been altogether successful and the patient is recovering satisfactorily.

Dr. E. E. Callaway received a telephone message from Fort Worth Tuesday morning advising that the condition of his father was worse, and he and Mrs. Callaway left almost immediately for that city. The afflicted father is more than eighty years of age and has been in feeble health for some time, and it is feared that the end is drawing nigh.

While in the News office renewing her subscription, Mrs. S. H. Windham stated that the high winds and the continued dry weather were not worrying her in the least. In fact she is so confident that it will rain in ample time to insure a fair crop that she has just purchased a new Willys-Knight, and it is a beauty. Mrs. Windham says that she has been here twenty-two years and there have been exceedingly few crop failures on account of drouth.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Griggs of Stephenville were here the first of the week visiting their son, Prof. Joseph R. Griggs, principal of the school at Draw.

M. M. Griggs and his sisters were here the first of the week from Stephenville visiting their brother Joseph R. Griggs at Draw and looking for a location to teach. They are now students in John Tarleton College at Stephenville.

J. O. Tinsley, a new-comer, came in and ordered the paper sent to his address. He wants to keep posted as to local affairs.

W. C. Huffaker of Wilson called Saturday and paid up for another year. Mr. Huffaker is one of the most successful farmers of Lynn county.

T-Bar

The weather seems like real summer time here. If it doesn't hurry up and rain we will all be so lazy out here that when it does rain we will still want to sit around.

The Sunday School is still improving in attendance. There were 94 present Sunday. We think this pretty good, but people, let's keep this up. We welcome visitors.

There was a singing at Miss Hillie Ward's home Sunday night, which was enjoyed.

Miss Ruby Moore was appointed secretary Sunday by the old Sunday School secretary when she resigned.

Several of the club women and girls from here visited the Legion Home last Thursday, which was T-Bar's day to be present. Also two of our girls helped serve the business men that night.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cook from Wells took dinner with the latter's sister Sunday when later they all visited their father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Crews.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lindley from Edith are visiting relatives and friends here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Vickery and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Beasley attended the all-day Baptist services at O'Donnell Sunday.

Girls, don't forget that Monday is club day.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Crews spent last Tuesday night with his brother, Mr. Roscoe Ward, who resides near town.

We understand that Miss Thelma Waldrep is now working in town at her old job.

Brother Shumake will preach for us Sunday eve, and it is possible that he will begin his meeting on this date. You who have heard him know what he is. Tell your friends and let's have a crowd.

Three Lakes, come on with your news. We little country places have got to give the town people something to talk about. So let's just rave on.

APPLE BLOSSOM

Tamper With Bills; Two Land In Jail

Two strangers who undertook to work a smooth scheme here and in other South Plains towns last week, whereby they sought to make ten dollar grow where one grew before, are now in the hands of the federal authorities at Abilene.

Their game was to tear the ends off of five and ten dollar bills and paste these ends onto one-dollar bills so as to make the latter appear to be a five dollar bill or a ten-dollar bill as the case might be. The mutilated bill was still a good bill, worth five or ten dollars according to its original denomination, while the doctored one dollar bills were apparently worth just five or ten times the denomination of the original bills. They passed several of the mutilated bills here but none of the bills that had been raised.

When they passed a five dollar bill and a ten dollar bill at O'Donnell that had been raised, the fraud was soon afterwards discovered and Sheriff Wesley Simpson was notified. He followed the gentlemen to Lamesa and there caused their apprehension. District Attorney T. L. Price notified the federal district attorney at Abilene and a secret service man was sent immediately to Tahoka, to which place the culprits had been brought and placed in jail. It developed upon investigation that they had also passed these fraudulent bills at Lubbock and Slaton. They were taken to Abilene by the federal officer, and their operations will be investigated by the Federal grand jury which will meet in Amarillo May 7.

In the meantime charges have been filed against them here, and when the federal court gets through with them they will be turned back to state officials to be dealt with in the state courts. They are charged with forgery in this county.

PRESBYTERIAN SERVICES

Services at the Presbyterian Church Sunday morning and night, Rev. W. K. Johnston will preach at both services, giving report of the Presbytery which convened at Carlsbad recently, also a word from the Presbyterial at Colorado, Texas, where Miss Maggie Hickerson went as our Tahoka representative to attend the women's Presbyterial of the El Paso Presbytery. We shall be glad to have you in all our services next Sunday.
W. K. JOHNSTON, Minister.

BOX SUPPER AT SOUTH WARD

We are requested to announce that there will be a box supper at South Ward on Friday night of next week, May 11. The candidates and the Tahoka Chamber of Commerce are invited to be present and furnish the entertainment for the occasion.

LAW FAMILY RETURNS FROM EXTENDED VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Law and little daughter returned Friday night from an extended visit in Central Texas. They visited relatives at Cameron and Calvert and also spent a day or two over at the A. & M. They spent one week in Corsicana attending the State Sunday School Convention, and Mr. Law reports that it was very fine.

Mr. Law also says that crops are looking good in Central Texas. Corn is up and growing nicely. The early cotton was killed by the freezes but most of the cotton is now up to a stand and some of it being plowed out. Still, Mr. Law was glad to get back. He likes the spirit of progress in the West and the attractive appearance of four towns, particularly Tahoka.

Mr. Law says that while he was down at Corsicana, a preacher friend of his was held up by a hi-jacker near Waco. The hi-jacker found only 75 cents on the preacher's person, and finding out that his victim was a preacher he returned the money.

HAS GOT IT FIGURED OUT

Judge G. E. Lockhart was in Tahoka on business Tuesday and while here he told the News man that he thought he had figured out all this pink bollworm business. The Judge says that we maintain A. & M. Colleges where they teach the boys all about the bugs, that having learned all about bugology, the boys must find a job, and that he does not know of any other place where they can get a job except from the State or National Government. Having gotten a job, they must earn their money, and hence they begin raising all kinds of Gehenna about some little pink boll worm, or corn borer, or other insect.

In the North they are raising Hades or something worse about the corn borer, the Judge says, and are appropriating ten million dollars at a whack to fight the little monster and yet the farmers of the North just keep on raising more corn all the time than they can find a market for—can't get a dollar a bushel for it.

There is entirely too much bogology in this country, the Judge thinks Bugology is much worse than the bugs.

KIWANIANS GIVE PROGRAM AT LUBBOCK THURSDAY

Several members of the Kiwanis Club are in Lubbock today meeting with the Lubbock Club at their regular weekly luncheon. The Tahoka people are to put on the program. Besides members of the Kiwanis Club, Ms. Jack Jackson and a number of the public school pupils are there to furnish the music for the occasion.

WOMAN TRIED FOR THEFT; ACQUITTED

A young man from Minnesota is claiming the championship of something or other because he ate 53 spring onions at one sitting. As a prize we would suggest that some kind druggist present him with a bottle of Listerine. Phow!

A woman may diet at home but she never diets at hotels where they charge sixty cents for a dish of ice cream.

Ambition delivers the goods.

Mr. S. N. McDaniel has just returned from an extended trip through South Texas. He states he has seen some fine country and has been greatly benefited in health, but is loud in his praise for his own fair city. He is now erecting some modern camp cottages to take care of tourists. He says they are coming this way.

Foot Proof
Spring is the season when sap in the timber keeps the sap in the silver from starting forest fires.

We notice that the painters are busy giving the outside wood work a coat of paint on the Keltner Hotel. This Hotel always looks good.

Our good townsman, Mr. Seney has let the contract for a modern six room Bungalow. Contractor Joe Nevils will have charge of the construction.

If in doubt about it, see the Clerk Smith, Lumber Co. They will probably know.

Who in the land said it wasn't going to rain any more?

No, it never can be done. If we all were to love our neighbors as we love ourselves the flattery would be sickening and there would be nobody to blame anything on.

be in May, 1929. Tahoka has never had a meeting of this kind, and every citizen of the town should bend every energy to bring the meeting here next year.

These are a few of the many things which the Chamber of Commerce is doing. This is a nice start, and Mrs. Miller says that there are many other important things which she hopes that body will accomplish this year.

Business of more than a million dollars was transacted during the past year by the Equity Union Creameries, Aberdeen, S. D. the exact figures being $1,068,977. The creamery manufactured 2,284,781 pounds of butter during 1927, also 66,000 gallons of ice cream, and 28,480 pounds of cheese. Members received an average price of 46 cents for their butterfat. Net earnings amounted to $50,130, from which a patronage dividend of one and one-half cents per pound butterfat has been declared. The organization closed its 14th year with assets of $259,971, and a net worth of $228,674.

had been lost in that little republic and yet American soldiers are being required to sacrifice their lives in that country merely at the behest of certain New York corporate interests. His arraignment of members of the cabinet of the late Harding administration and the present Coolidge administration for the shameful graft and corruption which they are shown to have practiced was terrific, as was also his castigation of Republican candidates for the Senate whose seals had been bought for them by "big business".

Mr Connolly never mentioned the name of any of his opponents except that of Earle B. Mayfield. He asserted that Senator Mayfield had defeated Senator Culberson five years ago by raising a false issue and practicing a gross deceit on the people.

One by one he answered the claims of Mayfield wherein the latter claimed credit for certain important measures enacted into law or now pending in Congress, showing that these claims were false and baseless and that others in Congress, and not Mayfield, were due the credit for these measures, such as the resolution to investigate new uses of cotton, the resolution to investigate the conduct of the governor of the federal reserve bank at Dallas, and others. He also charged that Mayfield had voted with the Republicans and the big corporate interests and against the Democrats who were fighting these interests on several separate occasions, notably when he joined the Republican in voting for the confirmation of Wood as a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission when Wood was a stockholder in the Pennsylvania Railway, owning $50,000 of stock, and when the interest of this and other railways would be adjudicated by the Commission. He also charged that Mayfield deserted the Democrats and voted with the Republicans in referring to the Federal Trade Commission a resolution by Senator Walsh to investigate the big Insull interests constituting a powerful electric power trust. The Federal Trade Commission was notoriously friendly to the corporations and big business and the Republicans were tired of investigations which had exposed so much Republican corruption, and so the Republican Senators desired to refer the Walsh resolution to the Trade Commission where they knew it would be buried, Connolly charged, and Mayfield deserted the Democrats and voted with the Republicans.

Mr. Connolly met a number of friends here, some of whom had formerly resided down in his Congressional district and some of whom he had met at other places since entering public life. One friend declared that he and Tom went to ride the same mule at the same time, and Tom agreed that this was true. Mr. Connolly went from this place to Lamesa, where he was to speak in the afternoon and from there to Snyder. His address here seems to have made a most favorable impression.

EPWORTH LEAGUE HOLDS DISTRICT INSTITUTE

Fifteen young people of the Methodist Hi-League of Tahoka, with their Counselor, attended the district meeting at Post last Saturday and Sunday. About seventy five delegates from Leagues throughout the District shared in the helpful and inspiring programs that were given. During the sessions inspirational talks were given by Rev. T. J. Rea, of Post, Clarence Whiteside of Lubbock, Leslie Pratt of Lamesa, and Ve Noy Coughran of Tahoka, all following the line of the Institute slogan: "Leaguers today, leaders tomorrow." Frank Sargent of Tahoka, District Pep Leader, led several delightful recreational periods.

Saturday evening the guests were escorted to Two Draw Lake where a picnic supper was thoroughly enjoyed. After the night's splendid sermon by Rev. McCollum of Lubbock 19th St. Church, a social hour was passed in the church basement, when there were games and refreshments. The W. M. S. of the church served delicious dinners at the noon hours each day, a la cafeteria.

Rev. D. B. Doak delivered the sermon Sunday morning while the afternoon was occupied with the business session and Union meetings.

The next District session will be held at Lubbock next quarter, and the League will also hold an Efficiency Institute this month at Lynn, the most central location of the District, which all Leaguers are urged to attend.

Our young people appreciated the many courtesies extended by their fellow members at Post, and enjoyed the hospitality of their beautiful new church home and its members homes

BOY INVENTS MACHINE THAT RESPONDS TO SPEECH

An automatic peanut machine that responds to human speech and which is one of the distinctive novelty inventions of the age, was exhibited at the Pool Drug Store here Tuesday afternoon and proved a sensation of unending interest to the crowd who saw it. The usual procedure to make a vending machine deliver is to put a nickel in a slot and pull a lever. But this machine is different, inasmuch as you put your money in the slot, then say "peanuts", and out comes a nice package of shelled peanuts.

This machine was perfected by Geo. J. Whitlow, a boy now 19 years of age and who was reared at Ropesville in this county. Young Whitlow has always been of a mechanical turn of mind and the idea came to him when only 16 years of age, but he was almost two years in perfecting the machine and obtaining a patent. It has been demonstrated in many parts of the United States and has always proven an attraction.

From what we can learn it is electrically operated, and the driving apparatus is tripped by an instrument somewhat similar to that used in making phonograph records, but is so sensitive that it will operate only at the utterance of the word "peanuts." It can be fixed so that other words such as "candy" or any series of words or sounds would do the trick.

A large manufacturing company is now making the machines but we understand that the sale rights still belong to the original inventor.—Levelland Herald.

20 per cent off ladies' dresses, flat crepes, Georgettes and Russian ones.—Cooper Noble Merc. Co.

Brownfield—Brownfield, Tahoka, and Floydada are contenders for the hostship to the South Plains District Convention of the WTCC in 1929.

Levelland—Sixteen new business houses are under erection here.

FOR WORKING PEOPLE
The best of workers get out of bed when the liver fails to act. They feel languid, half-sick, "blues" and depression. They think they are getting lary. These symptoms might result in a fatal illness, therefore the sensible course is to take a dose or two of Herbol. It is a medicine needed to purify the system and restore the vim and ambition of health. Price 60c. Sold by THOMAS BROTHERS
