LEADY'S INVENTIONS COOLING SYSTEM

John Leady says that with all this political news that is brooding he is expecting hot times this summer. Therefore he is preparing to keep all his customers cool. He has installed a big fan system that pumps the air from the outside and distributes it throughout the entire building. Fresh air is constantly entering and yet no unpleasant draft is created. We believe John's cooling system will keep his customers cool physically, but we doubt if it keeps them cool politically.

MRS. O. B. ADAMI DIED MONDAY

Paralysis Cause Of Death At Abilene Sanitarium, Of Well Known Tahoka Woman

Mrs. O. B. Adami, until recently a resident of Tahoka, removing a few months ago to Abilene, died about 8:30 Monday morning in the Abilene Sanitarium in that city. Mrs. Adami had been in bad health for several months but a stroke of paralysis was the immediate cause of her death. Funeral services were conducted at the residence in Abilene at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, Rev. E. K. Sheppard, pastor of the Baptist Church of this city, officiating. Members of the choir of the First Baptist Church of Abilene conducted the song service. A large number of friends and relatives from Abilene, Winters, Tahoka, and other places were in attendance upon the funeral.

Mrs. Adami was 22 years of age, her maiden name being Miss Florence Womack. She became a member of the Baptist Church at the age of 21, since which time she has remained a faithful member. She was married to O. B. Adami thirteen years ago. She left surviving her, her husband, O. B. Adami, and three children, two boys and a girl. Also surviving her are her father, four brothers, and two sisters. Among those attending the funeral were her father, E. J. Womack of Denton, two sisters, Mrs. Gail Smith

Old Landmark Moved From Square

Another old landmark was removed from the south side of the square Wednesday. The little frame building recently vacated by the Prairie Produce Company and belonging to E. K. McDaniel was moved from the lot on which it had stood for many years to the new tourist park being constructed by Mr. McDaniel and it will be used as one of the camp houses.

This old structure was first used as a real estate office, being one of the first business houses erected in Tahoka, and it continued to be so used for many years. No doubt many a son of Adam has been constructed in that office and it has played its part in the construction of Lynn county from a cow country to a farming country. Later it was used as a studio, then as a produce house. Now it is to afford temporary shelter for tourists spending the night in Tahoka, and it may yet play its part in the further development of the country, for many a prospector may yet camp under its roof. But it is off the public square.

SIXTON MEN BOLD EXPERIMENT WITH FROG IN BOTTLE

More proof of humped frog endurance has been furnished by an experiment conducted by two Sixton men, E. E. Nixon and Owen Porter. They put the frog in a pint milk bottle, covered it and then sealed the bottle in concrete four inches thick all the way around. Twenty days later the frog was taken from the experiment and when released went rattling across the floor. The result is now being applied in a down-town show window, giving signs of abundant vigor, although without food since before being sealed up—Sixton Sixtons.

HAIL DAMAGES HOUSE ROOFS

Large Storm Did Damage In Three Communities, Thursday Afternoon

A terrific hailstorm covered a large territory lying northwest and west of Tahoka on Thursday afternoon of last week. Lynn, Magnolia, and Central Church were in the path of the storm. Hailstones of almost incredible size made havoc of car tops and house roofs. Some of them are said to have been larger than a man's fist. Many families took refuge in storm cellars. Mrs. George Knight and Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Knight were caught in the storm with their car out east of Central Church. Hastening to a farm house, they succeeded in effecting an entrance, though the family had taken refuge in the storm cellar. When the storm was over, they found the top of their car mangled. Some of the hailstones had gone entirely through the top, even breaking some of the jaws. Other cars in the storm met a like fate. Many farmers in the stricken territory have been compelled to repair their roofs.

A terrific hail accompanied the hail, some reporting as much as two inches or more, and the rain covered a much larger territory than the hail. Only a light shower amounting to .25 of an inch fell in Tahoka but two miles north of town a two-inch rain was reported, extending as far north as Dixie.

A. Z. Jackson was a business visitor to Lubbock Thursday.

Regents Approve New Buildings For W. T. College

Canyon, May 22—$1,500,000 is the amount which has been approved by the Board of Regents for the State Teachers College budget for the next biennium, according to the statement of President J. A. Hill, who recently returned from a meeting of the Board.

This amount includes a Museum and Arts Building, $250,000; and a science building, $500,000; an addition to the power plant to house the normal training department, $50,000; and a home demonstration building, $20,000.

The recent rapid growth of the College has shown conclusively that the Education Building under construction at this time will not relieve the crowded conditions for even a single year, and the demands of the territory which this college serves are increasing constantly.

The records of the Registrar's office show that 1,560 students have been enrolled during the long session of the college, which opened in September and which will close June 2.

C. C. DIRECTORS PLAN FOR TRIP

Will Attend Fort Worth Convention As A Part Of South Plains Towns Group

The Board of Directors of the Tahoka Chamber of Commerce at a meeting Tuesday morning voted to join the entire South Plains in advertising this section at the meeting of the W. T. C. C. at Fort Worth. It is planned to have a float on which all sponsors for South Plains towns will have a place, and this will be followed in the parade by representatives of South Plains towns, taken in alphabetical order. It is hoped that all these towns, more than 30 in number, will join in this big South Plains parade. Each group of towns will be allowed to have such local and individual advertising, such as banners and decorations as it may wish.

Terrapin Branded Seven Years Ago Is Found Again

Nearly seven years ago Miss Winona Swan, now Mrs. Ben King, carried on the back of a terrapin her initials and the date "W. S. Aug. 28, 1921," and turned the animal loose. This was in a field on the Swan farm seven miles south of Tahoka. Time passed, and Mrs. King had almost forgotten the incident. She never dreamed that she would ever see this branded specimen again. But Mr. Terrapin evidently is not much of a globe trotter. Presumably he has never wandered far from home, for a few days ago Mrs. Swan found the same terrapin, bearing on the back the same letters and figures that were carved nearly seven years ago, in almost the identical spot where he had been turned loose, still alive and apparently enjoying perfectly good health. We have no idea how long the little beast has made his home in that community nor how long he may yet live, for the terrapin is a long-lived animal.

DISTRIBUTION TO FARM BUREAU MEMBERSHIP IS ANNOUNCED FOR JUNE 10-15

In accordance with instructions from the Board of Directors, the management of the Texas Farm Bureau Citizens Association, through Harry Williams, General Manager, announces a distribution to the membership between the 10 and the 15 of June. Full details on the basis of the distribution and the amount thereof will be reported in the June 1st issue of the Farm Bureau News.

The office force of the organization for several weeks has been engaged in the large amount of preliminary work necessary to get out a distribution follows closely on the special distribution made the early part of the month, winding up the extra distribution on 1926-27 cut-out which approximated a dollar a bale.

E. T. Merritt, a publisher of the Hale Center American, is erecting a two-story, modern, fire-proof hotel at Hale Center. The building will be 50 by 120 feet in size, will contain a modern coffee shop, each room will be equipped for hot and cold running water, baths will be attached, carpets will be laid on the floors, etc. The Hale Center American and other business concerns will occupy the lower floor. All this is being done by a small town newspaper man. Will wonders never cease?

The corn production of Texas ranges from 25,000,000 to 125,000,000 bushels annually.

MIXED WEATHERS WINS CERTIFICATE FROM LEAGUE

Miss Weather, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larkin Weather, has been awarded a certificate from the officials of the University Interscholastic League certifying that in the recent spelling contest she made 100 per cent. One hundred and twenty words were given and she spelled every one of them. James Applowhite of this city in the same contest missed just one word. We claim these little folks are doing some fine work.

KIWANIANS OF LUBBOCK HERE

Fifty Visitors Dine With Tahoka Club Had Finnish Interests Program

Lubbock Kiwanians almost fifty strong visited the Tahoka Kiwanis Club at luncheon Wednesday and put on the program for the day. It was a rific program from start to finish.

Miss Walmacher captured a beautiful piano solo, while Mrs. Beulah Dunn, formerly a resident of Tahoka, favored the two clubs with a violin solo. Both responded to applause.

The principal speakers of the day were W. E. Spange, an architect, and Dr. E. E. White, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Lubbock. Both proved to be very humorous and entertaining speakers and they each took care of themselves in fine fashion under the friendly glee of their fellow visitors. Quite a good deal of merriment was indulged in throughout the luncheon hour, several Tahoka citizens becoming the victims of the fun.

Among the visitors were Presiding Elder D. B. Dink, two Lubbock pastors, Dean of the Texas Tech, several eminent physicians and surgeons, and numerous other prominent citizens of Lubbock. The party also included several ladies. All expressed their appreciation of the fine dinner served by the Baptist ladies and had a good word to say for Tahoka.

That the Tahoka Kiwanians enjoyed the visit every minute of the time was self evident. They are hoping that such meetings as this may occur often hereafter.

O. G. Lewis Married Post Girl Saturday

Prof. O. G. Lewis, athletic coach and teacher of Science in the Tahoka High School, and Miss Hazel Morris, a teacher in the Post schools, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Morris, in Post at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Methodist pastor. After the ceremony they left for Canyon, where they will attend the West Texas State Teachers' College this summer.

Prof. Lewis has been a member of the faculty of the Tahoka High School the past two years. He is a young man of the highest character, genial, and good-natured, and everybody here is his friend. Miss Morris is a teacher in the Post schools and is the daughter of M. L. Morris, tax assessor of Garza county. She is said to be a young lady of high attainments and of a most lovable disposition.

MAYFIELD DISTRICT COCKET BILL O. K.

Washington, May 22.—A bill by Senator Mayfield, Democrat, Texas creating a new division of the District Court of the United States for the Northern District of Texas, was ordered reported favorably by the Senate Judiciary Committee Monday.

The new district would include the counties of Bailey, Borden, Lamb, Floyd, Kent, Motley, Hale, Dickens, Crosby, Lubbock, Scurry, Hockley, Cochran, Yoakum, Terry, Lynn, Garza, Dawson and Garza, to constitute the Lubbock division of the district.

Ellis, Williamson and Nueces are usually the leading cotton growing counties, but in 1926 there was 27 counties that produced more than 10,000 bales each.

Pounding Given Baptist Pastor

On Wednesday evening of last week a surprise pounding and social hour was held at the Baptist Church, honoring Rev. and Mrs. E. K. Sheppard.

At the close of the prayer meeting hour, the congregation gathered in the main auditorium, where the Euclid Class offered a fun-making program in the form of a burlesque on the intermission period between Sunday School and Church hours. At the close of this hour, Mrs. J. E. Walker, who was impersonating Rev. Sheppard, called for material with which to present an object lesson. This, when presented, proved to be several little and wags, loaded with all kinds of groceries and odds for the pastor and family.

During the social hour punch was served to those present.

Yandle and little son and Miss Ruby Barton of Tulsa, Oklahoma, were here last week at the home of R. F. Barton near Dixie, having been called by the death of father, G. W. Barton. Mrs. G. T. Brewer, who has been so seriously sick the past week, is somewhat improved but is still very sick and the nurse is yet with her.

MRS. JACKSON'S PUPILS IN RECITAL

Mrs. Jackson's piano and voice pupils gave a recital in the High School Auditorium Monday night. Notwithstanding the fact that the people had attended many school entertainments and exercises the preceding week, quite a good-sized crowd was present and greatly enjoyed the program. It was said to be very fine.

GONE TO REST

One more old soldier has gone to the great beyond. G. W. Barton, age 82 years and six months, was born Nov. 16, 1845, in South Carolina, and died at the home of his youngest son, R. F. Barton, near Tahoka on May 16, 1928. He had been in poor health for some time. His death was sad news to everyone, for he was a dear loving husband and father. The remains were sent to Eola, Texas, about 25 miles east of San Angelo for burial. The funeral was preached at the Methodist Church of that place. He was a Missionary Baptist but the Minister of that church being gone on a long journey, the Methodist minister officiated and rendered a nice talk. He moved from South Carolina to Georgia where he enlisted in the army Nov. 1, 1863, serving 2 1/2 years in Co. D, 30th Georgia Battalion, serving under Major Graham in winter of 1864-65. The branch of service enlisted in was Cavalry. He was honorably discharged by General Palmer. After the war was over, he moved to Texas in 1869, and engaged in cattle business for several years. Was one of the early settlers, going thru many hardships, as all our forefathers did, for their country. It was about this time when he met and married Miss Josephine Davis. They were married Sept. 5, 1878 at Camp San Saba Texas, and born to this union were 12 children, of whom 8 are now living. Mrs. R. M. Miller of Paintrock, Texas, J. F. Barton, Wickett, Texas, W. T. —Loved Ones.

 MOODY-SMITH FORCES CONTROL STATE CONVENTION

No final report has been received from the Democratic State Convention which convened in Beaumont Tuesday morning, but the Moody forces assisted by the Al Smith supporters were in complete control of the convention.

Governor Moody nominated W. L. Dean, author of the state prohibition law, for temporary chairman. The Constitutional Democrats led by Tom Love nominated V. A. Collins of Dallas. Jim Ferguson nominated E. A. Berry of Houston. Dean's nomination was seconded by a number of Smith supporters and practically all of them voted for Dean. Seeing that Collins had not chance to win and recognizing Dean as a genuine prohibitionist, some of the Love faction also voted for Dean.

The platform contained a declaration in favor of the strict enforcement of all provisions of the constitution and denouncing Republican graft and corruption. Planks instructing against Al Smith or any wet candidate for President were voted down.

Press reports Thursday morning stated that at the last moment Moody deserted the Smith crowd, which had helped him to organize and control the convention, and he and his followers voted with the Constitutionalists to send a strictly dry delegation to the national convention; and this was done by a vote of 483 to 252.

SOME THINGS I DON'T KNOW ABOUT

I don't know how many acres the Delco Light factory covers—how many thousand square feet of floor space there are in it—or how many skilled craftsmen work there. But I do know that Delco Light is a fine plant, backed by General Motors and that a lot of people around here go the limit in endorsing it. For instance, here's what two men say:

C. R. Cargile—I would rather do without my automobile than my Delco.

Cook Bros: Would not be without Delco-Light at any price.

These are only two. Come in and I will show you a lot of other hot letters.

HOW THE NORTH AND EAST INTERPRETS THE SMITH CANDIDACY

They are telling us down here in Texas that Al Smith's nomination and election will not mean that any attempt will be made to nullify the eighteenth amendment or to modify the Volstead Act; that prohibition is written into the Constitution and that it is in no danger.

The New York World is one of the most powerful Democratic newspapers in the United States and it is one of the staunchest supporters Smith has. It has probably done more to advance Smith's candidacy than any half dozen other papers in the country; and this is what the New York World recently stated editorially: "Governor Smith is being swept along toward the nomination because the Democratic masses in the North and East are aligned behind him. These voters are wet. They are wet in principle and they are wet in practice. They are wet because they detest the whole philosophy of prohibition with its denials of home rule and its violation of personal liberty. They know, and they are fundamentally right, that Volsteadism is not merely a prohibition of liquor, but that it is the citadel of all manner of ku-kluxery and tyranny. They know that the fight against Volsteadism is much more than a fight to replace bootleg liquor with honest liquor, that it is a fight against that whole array of prejudices which are at the bottom of the attempt to close the door of opportunity to a man like Smith. There is no disentangling the Smith candidacy from the fight on Volsteadism, ku-kluxery, ancestor worship, and social discrimination. That is what it means in the minds of the people. The attempt made by Governor Smith a few months ago to satisfy shortsighted politicians by stepping away from that reform of prohibition with which he is identified, has been, fortunately for him, a complete failure. When he tried to talk the language of the conventional politicians in regard to 'enforcement', neither his opponents nor his friends took him seriously. He is irrevocably a wet and as a wet he will inevitably run."

That tells the whole story. The Democrats of the North and East are backing Al Smith because he is a wet. If he is elected they will expect him to function as a wet—to bring about a modification of the Volstead Act so as to permit the sale of light wines and beer and a virtual nullification of the eighteenth amendment. Yet there are some Texas Democrats who are trying to kid themselves into believing that prohibition is not involved in this fight. It makes no difference what kind of a prohibition plank or enforcement plank may be put in the platform in order to camouflage the issue, the Al Smith candidacy if successful means a relentless assault is to be made on prohibition.

Every citizen of Tahoka who is loyal to the town will buy from the home merchants. It's more patriotic and it's cheaper in the long run. Some folks will burn a dollar's worth of gasoline and lose a half a day's time trying to save four-bits on a grocery bill or a pair of trousers. It's poor economy and a poor brand of loyalty. We practice what we preach.

More trees around our country homes would add much to the attractiveness of Lynn county.

Before this appears in print, the Beaumont convention possibly will have adjourned. In all probability Dan Moody will head the delegation to the national convention at Houston. If Texas performs to suit the Smith forces, it is probable that Dan Moody will be the Democratic nominee for Vice-President. In our opinion that is the slate that the politicians of the North and East have made out, and that may explain why Dan Moody has been so vigorous and determined in his opposition to the proposal to instruct against Smith.

Tahoka should keep the highway department constantly reminded that we have a highway running east and west through Lynn county. It is important that this highway be kept in tip-top condition. It affords the shortest and best route from Abilene, Fort Worth, Dallas, and all North Texas, Central Texas, and East Texas to Roswell and the mountains.

There are just a few old shacks remaining in the business section of Tahoka. It is to be hoped that they will soon give way to new and handsome structures. Nice buildings on two or three corners now occupied by ancient, dilapidated buildings would add much to the attractiveness of the town.

Farmers are bringing in much farm produce, such as cream, butter, eggs, and poultry. This is helping to make this country prosperous. The more attention we give to dairy and poultry products, the fewer mortgages we will have to lift in the fall.

If you are going to visit any portion of the plains this summer, don't fail to see the beautiful, bustling little city of Tahoka, and the fine farming lands of Lynn county.

Crop prospects in Lynn county are very fine, though crops are a little late. Hail and insects are about the only things that farmers have to fear.

Save money by patronizing Tahoka merchants.

Oranges can stand a lower temperature than lemons.

LET'S KEEP TAHOKA CLEAN

Now that the rains and warm weather have come, the weeds are going to grow rapidly and almost before we have time to think about it they will be rank and ugly all over town. In addition to making the town unsightly they will afford shelter and breeding places for flies, mosquitoes, and disease germs. From the standpoint of both sanitation and civic pride, means should be adopted speedily to keep the weeds down. Besides, much refuse has collected in some of the alleys and sidestreets of the town that should be removed. Not only the city council but every property owner and householder in the town should enlist in a clean-up campaign.

The graduating class in our high school this year consisted of six boys and eighteen girls. Assuming that there are approximately the same number of boys and girls in Tahoka of high school age, then there should have been about eighteen boys in the senior class. About twelve of them were not there. We wonder why. We wonder if they had been compelled to drop out of school to work. We wonder if they lacked the mental ability or the moral fiber to make the grade. We wonder if the fact that about ninety per cent of them are cigarette fiends affords an explanation of their absence from school. If somebody can give proof that other causes took them out of school, then we'll let up on the cigarette.

Our little city, like most others its size, puts on a special clean-up campaign two or three times each year. This is much better than no clean-up at all, but why not clean up and keep clean? We act much like the ordinary small boy who never washes the back of his neck or behind the ears until his mother takes a paddle and compels him to do it or gets a rag and does the job herself. We think Tahoka has become old enough and large enough to keep her neck and ears washed all the time. We believe that every householder should be required to keep a receptacle in which to deposit his junk and refuse and a wagon or truck should be sent around at frequent and regular intervals to haul it away. This is no criticism of anybody. It is just a suggestion that may be worth something and may not.

Pies, pastries and frankfurters have been banned from New York school lunches in an effort to encourage more balanced meals.

Greenland Ranch, California, has observed the maximum recorded temperature, 134 degrees Fahrenheit.

PARTY LOYALTY ONCE MORE

(Chris L. Adair)

Moving read the latest Crouch article on the Smith and liquor question, it seems needless to write any more on the same subject for the time being. The News editorials in the same issue along with the fact that both Texas and Alabama will both stand like a stone wall across the slippery pathway of the wets and their chosen leader is more powerful to the "my party right or wrong" class of writers than anything my little Underwood can put together. Suffice it to say that like many other voters in the South I am willing to go to the last extreme in keeping out of the highest public office the sworn enemy of the dry laws and who has the financial and moral support of every brewer and distiller on earth. Our good friend Crouch reminds us that thruout a long and strenuous life he has always stood on the dry side of the question; then why this late in life marr such a splendid record by helping to put in office a man who will do everything in his power to destroy that law? We are also reminded in the article that its author will claim the American right to vote, write and think as he pleases for the best interests of the whole people. That is all the drys are contending for in the matter of electing the President, which office many of us think is beyond the control of any State committee or convention. The only coercion which is likely to become a reality is that the wets are to try coercion in making many of us vote for a man for national office whom the majority of lifelong and loyal Democrats regard as detrimental to the welfare of both nation and party. Something was said about lending our loyal support to those charged with the enforcement of the liquor laws. In a previous article mention was made of the constitutional power of Congress to force wine and beer saloons onto States that have been dry fifty years or more. Should such a law pass Congress by a bare majority, Smith would sign it while it would take a two-thirds majority to over-ride the certain veto of Mr. Hoover. So it is silly to talk about enforcing a law and voting for enforcement officers who are opposed to its enforcement and in favor of its repeal.

The re-printed letter of Tillet of Abilene is a sample of some of the Smith propaganda which has been set afloat to mislead voters of limited education. It is easy to think of Washington, Jefferson, Lincoln, Bryan, Roosevelt and Wilson as being in the same class but when you go to mix up Al Smith with men of that calibre it is somewhat like trying to hatch a banty egg under an ostrich and makes some of us wonder what cruel stroke of misfortune forced Mr. Tillet to quite school before completing the third reader. It is also surprising how much bunk a newspaper must sometimes print to avoid being accused of prejudice and one-sidedness.

And that brings me back to the

FOR WORKING PEOPLE
The best of workers get out of sorts when the liver fails to act. They feel dazed, half-sick, "blue" and discouraged and think they are getting lazy. Neglect of these symptoms might result in a sickly therefore the sensible course is to take a dose or two of Herbine. It is just the medicine needed to purify the system and restore the vim and ambition of the worker. Price 60c. Sold by first person singular once more. The reading public would suffer very little if my occasional articles were replaced with clippings from the Almanac and the Wilson Pointer, tho it might be a more serious matter to do without Crouch, Tillet, Brisbane and Will Rogers. But it could spare the whole bunch more easily than it could stand for the dry law to be weakened in the least. This is a fight which Hill should not be left to make all alone through his editorial columns and it is a matter of duty rather than of pride in my own ability that I am doing my part in it. As a matter of fact it is much more pleasant to write about straightline highways and the detestable cruelty of those Continental Oil men who walled up a like horned frog in their new building at Lubbock. A beneficent Texas law forbids such brutal cruelty to these harmless friends of the farmer and gardener and if the Lubbock county officials are really ignorant of such a law I do not know what else to do about it except to use and recommend a more civilized and humane brand of oil and gasoline. The frog recently imprisoned in the Eastland county courthouse was liberated by the commissioners' court after this august body had brought themselves into world-wide contempt.

Both of the writers who favor Smith charge all who oppose his candidacy with "abuse, vituperation and slander." As a matter of fact all of us readily admit that Al is a hard-working man and plays golf better than the average, he has a charming wife and several beautiful children, he is a good kind neighbor who never even stole a chicken, and last of all a true and loyal member of the Roman Catholic church. To those ill-informed people who prate about religious bigotry, let me state that in France and twenty other republics where Al's church controls the votes no Protestant ever even thinks of running even for dog-catcher, so why not forget this part of it? Al's own official record on the liquor question is more to his discredit than all the lies that could have been told about him and all the constructive legislation he ever sponsored can never atone for the outlaw saloons he helps to protect from Federal Justice. Some young mothers who never saw an open saloon seem to have fallen for the wine and beer bunk of the Smith propaganda and seem to think that the only cure for the bootlegger evil is to turn a flood of licensed liquor loose on the land. A vote for Smith is a vote for wide open beer saloons, so if your own growing boy grows up to be a lager beer sot please remember that you got what you voted for.

Two marriage ceremonies were solemnized here last Saturday. Miss Ileta Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cook, became the bride of Barcus Standifer. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. Ham Wright, pastor of the Methodist Church.

About an hour later L. D. Carroll, prominent young farmer of the Joe Bailey community, was united in marriage to Miss Fay Coursey at the Methodist parsonage.

The two couples will make their homes in this section.

The Draw Club Girls entertained with a luncheon Tuesday evening in their club room in the Draw school building. Guests were trustees and teachers of the school and others. Miss Halsey, county home demonstration agent, was present. Mrs. Berry, with her girls lavishly entertained. Excellent music was also provided. Fried chicken was the piece de resistance.

Farmers are busy planting. The rainfall in this section is believed to have amounted to between four and five inches. While the lake in town did not fill it has some water in it. The rain was gentle and penetrating.

The Draw nine defeated Grassland in a ten-inning game here last Friday afternoon. The locals played Joe Bailey here Wednesday afternoon.

About $350 was pedged at the morning service at the Methodist church Sunday morning for the superannuate endowment fund for retired ministers of the church.

Rev. R. T. Breedlove, pastor of the Tahoka Methodist church, will preach the baccalaureate sermon to the graduates of the Draw high school at 11 a. m. next Sunday at the Methodist church.

Considerable number of cases of measles, both German and red, and whooping cough is reported in this section, none of which is serious.

Draw is making preparations to entertain the Tahoka chamber of commerce boosters when they gather here for a fellowship meeting on the evening of June 8. Several addresses probably will be made. The high-school auditorium will be the meeting place. Teachers of the Draw school were entertained at a dinner Sunday at the parsonage. Those entertained were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Griggs, Miss Ruth McKibben, Miss Knowles and Miss Thompson.

Commencement exercises for the Draw schools will be held in the auditorium on the evening of June 1. The program will be extraordinary, according to those who are arranging it.

Several Draw people will go to Tahoka Saturday for the county meet of women demonstration clubs. One or two women are on the program, it is understood.

A play entitled the "Old Maids" will shortly be staged here by members of the Draw-Redwine Home Demonstration Club.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Williams is reported considerably improved.

Farmers declare they have the best crop prospects in many years. There is an unusually good season in the ground. Much sudan has been planted.

Cook Brothers, Cargile, and Hensley have made some interior improvements in their stores recently, adding new show cases and shelves.

There was a nice crowd out to Sunday school. Brother Henderson preached in the morning. Then Brother Weems, our pastor, preached Sunday evening.
There will be a children's day program put on here the second Sunday in June. Mother has had her day. Children's day is set. What is poor old dad going to do for a day?
Mr. H. W. Crews and family, Mrs. Leslie Crews, and Mr. Lewis Henderson spent Sunday in the Draw community, visiting their friends, Mr. Tyne Smith's family. They report a wonderful time.
Grandpa Nichols of O'Donnell was in our midst Sunday. He took dinner with J. A. Beasley and family.
Mr. Pat Weems passed through here Sunday eve on his way to Fluvanna.
The singing given by Mr. J. C. McCarley Sunday was enjoyed by all. Miss Violet Smith of Draw is visiting Mildred Crews and other friends here this week.
Mrs. Dee Henderson and little daughter, Mary Helen, left Tuesday morning for Fluvanna, where they will spend a few weeks with her brother.

C. of C. MEETS AT MAGNOLIA

A joint program was given at Magnolia Wednesday night by Tahoka Chamber of Commerce and the school children of Magnolia. The candidates were also there with their speeches and following this a box and pie supper was given, which netted about $70.00.
The welcome address was given by Mrs. C. F. Carmack, teacher in the Magnolia school. Then followed a program of song and readings by the school children, which was very fine.
J. E. Nance made a response to the welcome address and acted as master of ceremonies during the remainder of the evening's exercises.
Uncle Ben Rogers gave his famous pantomime speech.
A little diversion different from anything that has yet appeared on one of these programs was a quartet contest led by G. H. Nelson and L. C. Heath respectively, these gentlemen being opposing candidates for county attorney.
Prof. Taylor White spoke on the matter of having a county fair again this fall.
A large crowd was in attendance and everybody seemed to enjoy the entire program.

MUSSULMAN ADDRESSES GRADUATING CLASS

Many were likewise kept away on this night by the inclement weather, but a most excellent program was rendered.

First a medley of national airs was sung by the class with much spirit and effectiveness.

Junior Baze was the salutatorian and delivered a neat speech.

Homan Edwards followed with an enchanting violin solo, and Blanche Swan recited a catchy and appropriate little poem of her own composition.

As she held a huge artificial rose and picked the petals one by one, Mildred Wetzel gave the class prophecy, which was so cute as to win universal praise.

Helen Applewhite was the valedictorian of the class and she delivered a splendid valedictory address, which would have done credit to a much older pupil.

In the absence of Rev. B. N. Shepherd, who was to have delivered the class address but who was sick, Supt. M. L. H. Baze performed this function, dwelling upon the marvelous inventions that have been made and that have come into general use since the beginning of this country.

Eighty-five per cent of the unfortunate girls who pass through the Army maternity homes are permanently reformed. Eight per cent of these girls come from small towns and rural communities, many being sent through County Advisory Boards.

Suitable employment is found for those ready to leave, and overnight maintained for three years afterward. The Home is always open to them when sick or out of employment.

The Salvation Army is considered a great charitable organization, but all its charitable enterprises, of whatever nature, have as their supreme object the bringing of a poor, weak, sinful humanity to a real conscious dependence upon the strength, the compassion, and the love of the omnipotent Saviour.

Without the electoral vote of the South, Al Smith could not hope to be elected President, Judge Hawkins said. "Without the 40 votes of Texas as in the Democratic National Convention he could hardly hope to be nominated. He carries but little personal appeal to any Southern or prohibition State. Hence the imperative necessity of placating and corraling the Southern Democrats; hence the necessity of sending the National Democratic Convention to Texas; hence the prime necessity of naming a Texan, instead of a Westerner, as running mate with Smith."

Governors Smith and Moody are essential to the success of one another, Hawkins said, adding that "each is helping the other."

The only chance of ever swinging the convention vote of Texas to Al Smith was to raise a dense smoke cover thereof, to select and run into the Houston convention a Texas delegation uninstructed, (or at least not clearly instructed against Al Smith) who, at the psychological moment, will vote for him," Hawkins said.

"To the success of that movement the leadership of a politically influential Texas prohibitionist who would talk 'platform' and pose as an ultra-dry' and as being 'against' Smith was essential. 'Dan's the man' for the job."

We wish to express our sincere thanks to the neighbors and friends who were so kind to us in the bereavement which we recently suffered in the death of our husband and father, G. W. Barton. We shall never forget their kindness.

SOME FACTS CONCERNING WORK OF SALVATION ARMY

The Salvation Army is regarded by the vast majority of people as a great and grand organization doing a splendid service for a class of people that no one else in any large scale serves—and of course, this is true; but specifically what the Army is and does is not common knowledge.

We will therefore answer some questions which, no doubt, arise in the minds of many regarding our organization.

The Salvation Army was originally founded by Catherine and William Booth in 1865. The organization commenced its work in the United States in 1877. Its religious belief is similar to that of John Wesley.

Only officers (or pastors) are supported from public funds. The membership work for their living, pay for their uniforms, and give as they can afford to support the work. The present General is William Bramwell Booth, the son of the Founder, who died in 1912.

The Salvation Army is absolutely non-sectarian in the application of its benefits. The needs of all creeds, all races, and those of no particular creed are the great consideration.

The Army operates 36 Maternity Homes and Hospitals in the United States. Our Maternity Home in San Antonio, which accommodates unfortunate girls from all over the state of Texas, gave refuge to 250 women and girls and babies last year. The institutions of the Army are open to the unfortunate of your county.

Eighty-five per cent of the unfortunate girls who pass through the Army maternity homes are permanently reformed. Eight per cent of these girls come from small towns and rural communities, many being sent through County Advisory Boards.

The girls are taught some self supporting occupation while in the Home.

Suitable employment is found for those ready to leave, and overnight maintained for three years afterward. The Home is always open to them when sick or out of employment.

Midway Women Act As Hostesses; Attendance Was Good

The Federation of Women's Clubs of Lynn county met at the Methodist Church in Tahoka on May 26. The club members of Edith and Midway were present.

As the crowd was so large, the meeting was held in the gymnasium. All present did justice to the feast which was served in the gymnasium, after which we retired to the parlors, where we spent three hours pleasantly and profitably.

Every mother in Lynn county could have enjoyed this program. We will have full attendance at our next meeting.
