BUREAU BUYS HOLLOWAY GIN

Plant Bought By Farm Organization Tuesday; Will Not Build New Plant

A deal was consummated Tuesday afternoon whereby the Texas Farm Bureau Gin Company became the owner of the Holloway Gin. The property was purchased from J. K. Jackson, who recently purchased it from J. H. Holloway. The deal was made on behalf of the Farm Bureau by Lynn Stokes of Dallas, General Manager of the Farm Bureau Gin Company, and a committee of local citizens consisting of E. W. Holloway, A. M. Willingham, W. A. Yates and Wiley Curry. The consideration for the property was $23,000, according to D. A. Adams of Post, the field representative of the Farm Bureau, who was here, and who had been working for six months on the matter of the building or the purchase of a gin here by the Farm Bureau. "Short," the negro helper about the gin, was included in the deal, Adam laughingly remarked. Mr. Stokes and the four citizens named above constitute the board of directors and will have control of the plant and its operation. Immediately following the purchase of the property, A. M. Willingham was elected local manager, who will operate the plant. Mr. Willingham will be placed under a bond and will give a strict accounting daily of the business.

The above action followed a meeting attended by thirty or forty Lynn county farmers, held in the district court room here Tuesday afternoon, at which the matter of building or acquiring a gin here was discussed.

A brief address was first made by Mr. Overstreet of Ballinger, in which he emphasized the point that any gin built or purchased would belong to the farmers themselves, and he argued that they patronize it and seek to make it a success as they would their own individual property.

Mr. Stokes explained some of the advantages to be derived by the farmers owning and operating their own plant. Last year was the first year that the Farm Bureau operated any gins, Mr. Stokes stated. It began about a year ago and built and operated sixteen gins last season and ginned 28,000 bales of cotton. The Farm Bureau Gin Company can not make a cent of profit out of the gin business, Mr. Stokes declared. It gives the farmers the benefit of all the profits made. Mr. Stokes mildly rapped the Round Bale people, claiming that they had gone into the business of speculating in cotton and were giving more attention to this than they were to the ginning of the cotton property. He advised the local farm bureau members to either buy or build a gin plant here, depending on whether they could buy advantageously.

D. A. Adams stated as a matter of information that the proposition to build or buy a gin in Tahoka was begun exactly six months ago, and the proposition seemed to be now rapidly materializing.

Following these talks the committee was appointed to act with Mr. Stokes, consisting of Messrs. Holloway, Willingham, Yates, and Curry.

More Rains Are Help To Crops

Heavy rains visited many portions of Lynn county Saturday night and Sunday afternoon and night. Three Lakes, Wells, and T-Bar communities each received heavy down-pours, the precipitation in some places being reported as high as two and three inches. A heavy rain fell in the southwestern portion of the county Saturday night, growing lighter as it approached Tahoka, practically no rain falling here. Showers at New Lynn and other communities in the east half of the county Saturday night and Sunday night amounted to a half to more than an inch of rain. The precipitation in Tahoka amounted to .40 of an inch.

These rains were not greatly needed at this particular time but nevertheless they were very fine for the young cotton and feed as well as for gardens and pastures. While crops are just a bit late, yet farmers generally report that prospects for good crops are excellent at this time.

Hogs Are Stolen From Park's Pen

E. A. Parks has been unable to find any trace of the thieves who recently stole 11 hogs of various sizes from his pens near the cemetery. The hogs were taken on the same night that Sheriff Simpson's car was taken. A rain that night obliterated any tracks that night, have been made by a truck of other vehicle, and hence it has been impossible thus far to get any clue as to the identity of the thieves or the direction they went with the stolen property. It is said that some chickens were stolen from a car in Tahoka along about the same time.

NO ACTION ON COUNTY AGENT

Commissioners Court Puts Off Passing On Selection Of County Farm Agent

Petitions containing two hundred names were presented to the commissioners' court Monday by a delegation of farmers asking for the appointment of a county agent in this county. Other petitions, containing about one hundred signatures, it is said, were out, but the circulators failed to bring them in and present them at the appointed time. These petitions were signed chiefly by farmers and land owners. It is said that approximately 99 men out of each 100 to whom the petitions were presented signed them. The sentiment among farmers throughout the county is apparently very strong in favor of the appointment of a farm agent.

The petitioners were advised by Judge Cain and the commissioners that the matter would be taken under advisement. The court, it seemed, desired to make some further investigations with reference to the matter. At any rate, no action was taken, and we understand that action will probably be deferred until the August term of court.

FACULTY OF DRAW SCHOOL FOR NEXT YEAR SELECTED

Prof. Gordon King, who has been teaching in the O'Donnell schools the past two years, will be superintendent at Draw next year. M. M. Griggs, brother of J. R. Griggs, will be coach and teacher of the fifth and sixth grades, Mrs. Gordon King will be teacher of the 7th and 8th grades, Miss Opal Knowles of the 3rd and 4th grades and Miss Eula Knowles will be primary teacher.

County commissioner T. J. Yandell attended the funeral of the latter's father at Caddo Saturday, the aged man having died in a sanitarium in Fort Worth on Friday. Mr. Yandell says that our crops in Lynn county are better on the whole than the crops in any county through which he passed.

Gun Club Doing Much Practice

The Tahoka Gun Club is developing some "crack" marksmen, according to Ruby Wells. So far, Grover Stewart has the highest record. Recently he scored 24 out of 25 shots. Some time ago the club purchased a watch, and the member who can make the highest score three Sunday in succession gets to keep the watch permanently. Buford Swan won the watch the first Sunday, Charles Shook the second Sunday and Ruby Wells last Sunday. The club now has 34 members.

Mr. Wells states that some time soon the club expects to invite in a number of the neighboring clubs and have a big meet here. Later, a number of the local boys expect to attend the state meet, which will be held next time at Sweetwater.

WESTER ANNOUNCES SPEAKING APPOINTMENTS

J. K. Wester, candidate for Representative from the 119th District will speak at Tahoka June 16 (Saturday) at 3 p. m. and Grassland at night 8:30 p. m. Lamesa, Saturday, June 23 at 3 p. m. and O'Donnell at night 8:30 p. m. He will divide time, at any or all of these appointments with his opponent, County and district candidates will be given an opportunity to announce.

RURAL SCHOOLS NO. STUDENTS WILL IMPROVE

Many Schools Planning To Increase and Better Facilities By Opening This Fall

Many of the schools of the county are preparing to make improvements of one kind or another before the opening of school again next fall, according to County Superintendent H. P. Caviness.

New Lynn has just voted bonds in the sum of $24,000 with which to construct a modern and commodious building, possibly the largest and best rural building in the county.

An election will be held at Redwine on Saturday, June 23, to vote bonds in the sum of $15,000 for building purposes.

T-Bar and New Moore districts are likewise figuring on bond elections for the near future.

Edith, which has a two-room brick building, is preparing to add another room and another teacher.

Pride has filed a petition with the county board to be converted into an independent district, which will be acted upon Saturday. It plans the construction of an additional room.

Joe Bailey will use three teachers next year instead of two as heretofore, and Petty will employ two teachers instead of one.

Movements for other improvements may develop before the new school year opens. The school spirit in Lynn county is gradually improving.

WILL LEAVE FOR FORT WORTH EARLY SUNDAY

The band and members of the Tahoka Chamber of Commerce will leave Tahoka at 5 o'clock Sunday morning for the WTCC meet at Ft. Worth, according to Monte Bowron. They must leave not later than 5 a. m. in order to make the trip in one day. Those going from O'Donnell and Wilson are invited to meet the Tahoka bunch here at that hour. Stops will be made enroute at Snyder, Albany, Breckenridge, Mineral Wells and Weatherford, where concerts will be given. Those going are advised to take lunches with them, as there will not be time to stop enroute for lunch.

Expenses At C.-C. Meet To Be Light

The Tahoka delegation to the meeting of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Convention, which will be in session in Fort Worth on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, are expecting to leave Tahoka early Sunday morning. The delegation have been tendered the use of the Club House of the Fort Worth National Bank, which will accommodate at least a hundred people, absolutely free of charge, and the Tahoka people are expecting to get by at Fort Worth at a most reasonable expense. Of course the Tahoka people are expected to furnish their own bedding.

Mrs. Miller and others urge that as many Tahoka people as possible make their arrangements to go and thus give Tahoka as large a representation and as much publicity as possible. All who are contemplating going should notify Monte Bowron.

At a recent meeting of the executives of the various chambers of commerce on the South Plains, Mrs. Miller was selected as "Miss South Plains" to represent this section at Fort Worth. Miss Cleome Wells will go as "Miss Tahoka." "Miss South Plains" to represent this section at Fort Worth. From many other cities and towns on the South Plains will occupy a gorgeously decorated float, which will head the South Plains section of the great parade.

The members of the Tahoka band have received their fees and will be in Fort Worth in full uniform. The Tahoka band is now recognized as one of the best in this section, and with their brilliant uniforms and stirring music they should attract much attention at Fort Worth, even though there will be numerous other good bands there.

Get in the procession and go with the crowd to Fort Worth.

Drug Clerk—"Did you kill any moths with those moth balls I gave you?"

Disconsolate Customer—"No, I tried for five hours, but I couldn't hit one."

Scholastic Census Shows 3,568 Children in Lynn County Of School Age

According to returns made to County Superintendent H. P. Caviness by census trustees, there are 3,568 scholastics in Lynn county this year. This is an increase of 86 over last year, the census last year showing a total of 3,482.

While there is an increase for the entire county, there are a number of districts that show slight decreases, Tahoka being among this number. These decreases in some cases are inexplicable, for there has been no apparent decrease in the population. In Tahoka, for instance, a number of new residences have been built the past year and the population has increased decidedly, yet the scholastic census shows a decrease of twelve pupils. In some other districts, where there has been little or no building, the census shows a material increase.

Below we give the number of scholastics this year and last year for the districts of the county respectively:

DO YOU KNOW?

Do You Know That The Lynn County News is one of the very oldest business institutions in Lynn County?

Do You Know That for twenty-four years its several editors have been helping to build a bigger and better Tahoka and Lynn County—always looking for and boosting improvement enterprises?

Do You Know That during these twenty-four years of service there have been 1,250 issues of this paper and not one issue of them has gone to press that did not boost our town and territory?

Do You Know That we contribute at least $20 worth of space in addition to our time, every week to the mere boosting of Tahoka, and many times print boosting material that should be paid advertising, pure and simple?

Do You Know That we are in the newspaper business to make a livelihood, as well?

Do You Know That we expect to remain here in the best town on the Plains and keep on boosting the town, the county, the Chamber of Commerce, the schools, the churches, and all worthy enterprises while we are making a living?

Do You Know Tahoka needs more boosters?

Style Show Will Be Staged Here

Much interest is being manifested in the Style Show which is to be given at the Star Theatre Friday night. Five of Tahoka's leading merchants will be represented in this show by fifteen Tahoka Beauties as models. Miss Cleome Wells as "Miss Tahoka" will also appear on the stage. Some funny stunts are also promised. Monte Bowron's Orchestra with Mrs. Jackson at the Piano will furnish the music. A style picture "The Latest from Paris" will also be shown. The show is sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce to help defray the expenses of the trip to Fort Worth.

SEC'Y. HOOVER IS NOMINATED

Pennsylvania Votes Make Sure That Hoover Will Be Selected In Today's Balloting

Although the balloting on a Presidential nominee at the Republican National Convention at Kansas City has not begun as our forms are closed, yet the "stakes are all set" for the nomination of Herbert Hoover. His nomination was made certain Tuesday when Secretary of the Treasury Andrew Mellon and the 79 delegates from Pennsylvania announced that they would cast their votes for Hoover on the first ballot. The Massachusetts delegation made a like announcement and Idaho and Vermont followed. Even the opposition have conceded his nomination and it is now all over but the shouting. The wires will doubtless bring the news of his nomination by the time this paper is in the post office.

Hoover had been Secretary of Commerce during the Harding and Coolidge administrations. He was food administrator under Wilson during the war. He is regarded as one of the strongest men of the Coolidge cabinet and if elected will carry out the Coolidge policies.

The Republican platform will contain a dry plank, or at least a strong law-enforcement plank.

BOX SUPPER AT WILSON SATURDAY NIGHT

The box supper which was postponed last week on account of the county candidates being engaged elsewhere will be given on Saturday night, June 16, at 7 o'clock, at school auditorium.

All the ladies are asked to bring boxes filled with good "eats," and the men are expected to open their hearts and pocket-books. A set price of $1 for adult's boxes and 50 cents for young people under 12 years, will be charged, the proceeds to be placed in the cemetery fund.

There will be plenty of music, and speaking by the candidates. The hour was set for 7 o'clock, so that those desiring to attend the movies or other places of amusement could do so after the box supper.

Come early, enjoy the evening, and spend your money in a good cause. Sponsored by the Community Club.

Candidates Must File This Week

County and precinct candidates must file their applications with the county Democratic executive committee not later than Saturday, otherwise their names will not be printed on the official ballot. This is a requirement of the law which candidates must observe. In the absence of H. M. Larkin, county chairman, these applications should be left at the Larkin store or at the News office. It is understood that Mr. Larkin will be here in person Saturday.

TERMS OF SEWER FRANCHISE ACCEPTED

Mrs. J. B. Walker, city secretary, received a communication Monday from Donald O'Neil of Dallas accepting the terms of the franchise granted by the City of Tahoka several weeks ago to install a sewer system here. We have no further information concerning the matter, but it is presumed that work on the system will begin at an early date.

Stephenville—The Brazos Valley Pecan Growers Association will hold their fall session in this city.

BONDS VOTED BY NEW LYNN

District Will Erect New $24,000 Brick School Building As Election Result

Bonds in the sum of $24,000 were voted at an election held in New Lynn school district last Saturday by a majority of more than two to one, the vote being 54 in favor of the bonds and 24 against. The proceeds of the sale of the bonds will be used to erect a new school building for the district. Contract for the structure will be let just as soon as the bond record is approved and other preliminary matters disposed of. It is contemplated that a seven or eight room building with auditorium will be constructed.

New Lynn district has a scholastic population of about 150, and there were more than 160 pupils actually enrolled in the school the past year. The school has ten grades, taught by four teachers, Prof. A. V. Price has been the principal the past two years and has greatly strengthened the school and the school spirit in that community during this time. Another grade and another teacher will possibly be added after the school gets into the new building.

New Lynn, situated ten miles northeast of Tahoka, is a splendid community, with three church buildings, Methodist, Baptist and Nazarene. The Baptist Church was recently constructed. New Lynn is rapidly taking its place as one of the really progressive communities of Lynn county.

Wardlaw Addresses Large Audience

Louis J. Wardlaw, candidate for governor, addressed a large crowd of citizens of Lynn county in the district court room last Thursday morning, too late for us to publish a report of the speech in last week's paper. Almost every section of Lynn county was represented and it is conservatively estimated that more than 300 persons heard the address. A majority of the crowd apparently were in sympathy with the speaker and gave him liberal applause.

Wardlaw devoted practically all of his time to a criticism of Governor Moody and his administration. As a critic and knocker he was unusually entertaining. He used ridicule with telling effect—at least in a manner that pleased his supporters. Not only did he train his guns on Dan Moody personally but he bombarded the state highway commission, criticizing each of the members severely. He charged that Cone Johnson knew nothing about road building and that Sterling was spending too large a share of the highway funds in the vicinity of Houston; likewise that Ely was spending more than Taylor county's share in the vicinity of Abilene. He held Moody up as an intellectual weakling who "doesn't know what it is all about." He charged that there is extravagance in the administration of the state government and promised to cut expenses. He said that if elected governor he would favor the reduction of the auto license tax to $3.00 per car and would favor a law which would take the tax off of gasoline used in tractor engines.

Judge Wardlaw was introduced by Judge B. F. Maddox, who severely criticized Dan Moody and denounced the proposed state highway bond issue, proposed by the highway commission, as another "graft scheme".

Forrester Sells Wilson Pointer

R. C. Forrester has sold the Wilson Pointer to Carl Holden of Wilson the latter gentleman having taken charge the first of this week. Mr. Forrester has other interests, to which he will give his attention, and about the middle of July he and Mrs. Forrester expect to leave in their car for far-away Boston on a pleasure trip and to bring back their daughter, who is in school there.

Mr. Holden is a young man of splendid character and with many friends, who wish him success in his new adventure. He will be ably assisted in his newspaper work by his wife.

The Berger officers told Mr. Simpson that "Whitey" Walker was the man they found with his car. They succeeded in capturing the car but failed to get the man. They chased about five miles when he abandoned the car and got away. Walker is reputed to be one of the Matthew James gang. He is supposed to be one

ACCUSED NEGRO STILL IN JAIL

District Attorney T. L. Price was here Friday of last week making an investigation into the charges against Andrew, the O'Donnell negro who is alleged to have attempted an assault upon a little white girl. He filed a complaint in Justice Metcalf's court charging assault with intent to rape. Judge Metcalf fixed the bond at $1,000, which the negro has been unable to give, and he is still in jail.

RAYMOND EDWARDS HAS OPERATION FOR APPENDICITIS

Raymond Edwards, son of Wright Edwards of Three Lakes, underwent an operation in a sanitarium at Lubbock Monday afternoon for appendicitis. S. P. Attendance At C.-C. Convention To Be Large

More than a thousand South Plains citizens will attend the annual West Texas Chamber of Commerce Convention at Fort Worth, June 18-19-20, and a cooperative movement to attract as much attention and publicity as possible to this section has been worked out by the South Plains Commercial Executives.

A sign will reach across the street, pointing to Ellisons and reading: "The South Plains of Texas," and another sign will be hung over the main entrance giving the names of the towns cooperating in the movement.

One mammoth float is being prepared for the South Plains delegation which will carry the sponsor from each town cooperating and Mrs. Paul Miller, Tahoka secretary and president of the South Plains Commercial Executives Association. Mrs. Miller will be "Miss South Plains." Behind the float, the Junior Cowboy Band of Post will march, followed by other bands and delegations in alphabetical order. NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

Any erroneous reflection upon the reputation or standing of any indi-

appear in the columns of the News,
will be gladly corrected when called
to our attention.

The ordinary weekly newspaper is usually the biggest booster in town.
It gives publicity weekly or at frequent intervals to the work of the various clubs and organizations of the town. It constantly calls attention to the good things in the town and about the town not only as a matter of pride but also in order to help sell the town to the rest of the world.
It sometimes calls attention to the bad things and the defects with the sole view to having them remedied.
It does all this publicity work free of charge. It does not receive a cent for thus advertising and boosting the town. But, if through accident or oversight, it fails to call attention to some worthy undertaking, if it fails to give publicity to some stunt that is about to be pulled, woe unto the newspaper guilty of such an offense.
It gets skinned up one side and down
the other for such omission, and all it can do in return is to grin and endure it.

Somebody was complaining the other day about the wind. We often do so. But do we ever stop to think what this earth would be if the wind
never blew, if the air were perfectly motionless? There would not be a drop of water anywhere outside the sea. There would not be a tree, nor a blade of grass, nor a flower. The entire earth would be as barren as the pavement. There would not be a man, nor a beast, nor an insect on the earth, except such as might live in the sea. This would be a lifeless planet, as far as the land is concerned. If the wind did not blow vigorously, if it blew only gently on these plains, so far away from the sea, the probabilities are that we would have a drier country than we have. There is life and prosperity in the howling winds.

It is reported to the Herald that a man holding forth here Sunday afternoon says all the papers in the United States are owned or controlled by the Pope, and intimated that the Herald but perhaps not. Of course this fellow knows, but we wish by-gum
the Pope would happen along about tax paying time and every Saturday
when we have to shell out wages.—
Terry County Herald.

We heard that same charge made in Tahoka once by a speaker who ought to have known better—a man who holds a high position and yields much influence in the politics of this state. We have heard similar statements made at other times and places.
It is all pure bunk. Of course it is possible that a newspaper here and there may be owned or controlled by Catholics. Possibly many of them are so owned and controlled in the cities of the North and East, for there are many Catholics there. But that the Pope of Rome undertakes to direct or control the politics of these secular newspapers in this country which happens to be owned by Catholics even, is absolute nonsense. The country weekly in particular is independent. In ninety-nine cases out of a hundred, the editorial and news columns of the country weekly are controlled absolutely by the editor and owner. The Pope of Rome has about as much to do with the polity of the American press as a donkey in the desert of Gobi has to do with the operations of the American navy.

What is the "Spirit of West Texas"? Some fellow asked that question, and Wm. A. Wilson, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce of Lamessa, has undertaken to answer it.
Here is his definition:

"The Spirit of West Texas is, that siderate, forbearing, forgiving,

pleasant, happy, gracious, graceful,
magnanimous, progressive, ambitious,

IMPROVEMENTS MADE

LAMESA, June 4—The board of education of this city has the past week sodded the school campus with Bermuda grass. With the recent rains just at the closing of school and the planting of the grass so soon, it is expected to have a beautiful lawn by next September at the opening of school. Other civic projects to beautify the school campus was the planting of shade and evergreen trees around the high school building early in the spring.

WARDLAW AND HIS TAOKA VISIT

Will wonders never cease? We guess not—not in politics.

Louis J. Wardlaw, candidate for governor, made a speech here on Thursday of last week, and on this occasion we saw a strange thing happen.
We saw the wolf and the lamb lie down together, the leopard and the kid, the lion and the calf.

In ancient days David sang of his Lord, "Thou has prepared a table before me in the presence of mine enemies." But on last Thursday we saw the Israelites eating at the table
of the Philistines, gleefully devouring the meat that the chief cook and bottle-washer of the great Goliath dished out to them. We saw these same Israelites and Philistines dwelling in the same tents together, and we said unto ourself, "Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity." We heard the captain of the Philistine hosts sound the trumpet and we saw the Israelites rush to arms under the banner of the Philistines, making war upon the common enemy, the tribe of Dan.

Will wonders never cease? Never.
Before this campaign is over we shall expect to see Felix Robertson
and Jim Ferguson falling upon each other's neck and weeping.

War on Dan seemed to be Ward-law's chief occupation. He has only one tune to sing, only one string to his fiddle. It is all about Dan, or Dan's highway commission. Dan is a weakling. Dan is an ignoramus. Dan is an intellectual pigmy. Dan is a promise-breaker. Dan is a near grafter. Dan has filled the offices with incompetents from his political incubator. Dan is a spendthrift when handling the people's money. Dan has a long list of political and official sins; and Wardlaw is the anoint-ed one whose duty it is to point them out to the people—appointed by Jim Ferguson.

The three highway commissioners are likewise hardened and unrepentant sinners. First, there is Sterling.
He is a Houston millionaire and owns a flock of sky-scrapers. Moody is not competent to be governor, Wardlaw argued, because he had never handled a big business transaction.
Prior to his elevation to the office of Attorney General he had never handled a thousand dollar proposition in his life, Wardlaw claimed.
Not having had any property of his own, being just a poor boy, he has not had the business experience to qualify him for the governorship. But Sterling is too rich. He has been too successful. He owns a lot of Houston property and is therefore unfit to be a highway commissioner. To make a good governor or other high official, a man ought to be moderately well off. For instance he ought to own a goat ranch or two; that fully qualifies him. Then there is Cone Johnson. Cone doesn't know a thing in the world about building roads. He has held some high positions. He was assistant solicitor for the State Department at Washington or something of the kind, under the Wilson administration. He is recognized as one of the ablest lawyers of Texas.

In a political contest with Joe Bailey
when Joe was at the prime of his intellectual powers, he pulled so many of Bailey's tail feathers and clipped his wings so short that Joe has never been able to get off the ground

any more. He's been a lame duck ever since. Cone came very near being elected governor himself when He is recognized as a big name in this nation. But he is too small for highway commissioner, (Continued on Next Page)

An Investment with an EXTRA DIVIDEND

THERE'S a big difference between an investment and a speculation. You can speculate in any old gasoline and hope it will deliver a satisfactory number of miles per gallon. You can invest in Summer Conoco and be sure of an extra dividend—a bonus of extra miles.

Your purchases of gasoline during the touring season represent a substantial investment. Make sure that the returns from that investment are the highest you can get.

Fill at the Conoco pump.

eyes of Louis Jeremiah Wardlaw. Louis would pick a big man for the place. And then there is W. R. Ely of Abilene, another little runt. He was just a little old district judge down at Abilene before Moody made a highway commissioner out of him. Why should a lawyer like Ely or Cone Johnson, or a business man like Sterling, be placed on a highway commission anyway? Wardlaw said that a lawyer, a doctor, a dentist, a business man, or a politician had no more business on a highway commission than a carpenter, if as much. When he got through naming the ineligible occupations from which to select a highway commissioner, we began to wonder where in the world he would find men for the job if he should be elected governor. Possibly Farmer Jim would just about fit in to the place. And he has had experience too.

Wardlaw had a lot of criticism to offer. He criticized this and that and 'other. Nothing was just right. But we listened in vain for any constructive suggestion. If he offered anything in the world of a constructive nature, we failed to catch it. He pointed out some evils, but didn't offer a single remedy. He said that Dan had been extravagant. As proof, he cited the fact that Dan had signed a bill raising the salaries of the district judges. But not one time did he say that if elected governor he would recommend to the legislature that these salaries be reduced. He never did put his finger on one single item and say that he would undertake to get it cut out. He merely states in a general way that taxes were too high and that he would reduce them. It is true that he did say he would reduce the auto license tax to $3.00 and cut out the tax on gasoline sold for use in tractor engines. But he did not point out what items on the appropriation bills he would cut out. In fact, if he keeps the promise made in his opening speech at Center in Shelby county on April 14, the prospects are that the expenditures will be increased rather than diminished. In this speech Wardlaw advocates perfecting the school systems and then proceeds as follows: "I would make higher education higher, and advance our higher institutions of learning until the facilities offered by them for training would meet the demands of the most exacting of educational standards". He has never named an office that he would abolish, but he does propose to increase the number of highway commissioners from three to five—four district commissioners and one state-wide commissioner. If Wardlaw improves the schools as he promises and gives us more tax-eating office holders instead of fewer, we wonder how he is going to reduce taxes.

Wardlaw is going to be a wonderful economist. He is going to reduce the auto license tax to $3.00 per car. It doesn't matter whether it is an old 19-steen model Ford or a big new palatial Cadillac, it will cost the owner just three dollars a year to operate it, so far as the State is concerned after Wardlaw becomes governor. He seems to have a most discriminating sense of justice. And then he is going to cut out the tax on gasoline used in tractors and stationary engines. Well if he succeeds in doing that, mighty few people will have cars and everybody will have tractors. Every fellow will come in and have a tank of gasoline sent out to his place for use in his "tractor." All the gasoline many a fellow will buy will be for use in his "tractor" or some other kind of a stationary gasoline engine. That is, this would be true if Wardlaw could reduce the price three cents on "tractor" gasoline by cutting out the tax on it. But how could he do it? The tax is charged up against the wholesale dealer. He fixes the price so as to include the three cents tax. But the wholesale dealer does not know and can not know how much of this gas will be sold by the retailer to be used in automobiles nor how much will be used in "tractors and other stationary engines." How is Wardlaw going to remedy this. He didn't tell us, but the only remedy would be to charge the tax up against the retailer instead of the wholesaler, and the retailer would have to charge the tax up against every gallon sold or keep an account of that for each specific purpose. It would be a beautiful mess. In fact, this was a bright idea of Wardlaw's.

Wardlaw also favors dividing the state up into four districts, just as counties are divided into four commissioners' precincts, and electing one commissioner from each district. He also favors one commissioner to be elected from the state at large, corresponding to the county judge. Well, that might be an improvement over the present system and it might not. Ferguson's highway commission, without any law requiring it, did a similar thing. They divided the state up into three more or less distinct divisions and each looked after the highways in his own division and paid no attention to the highways in the other two divisions. Joe Burkett had west Texas as his own individual preserves, Frank Lanham had another division including Fort Worth and Dallas, and Bickett of San Antonio had all south Texas. What Joe Burkett did in west Texas was none of Lanham's business. It was not of Bickett's business. Same all the way around. Result: we had a mess of it. There is much more temptation and opportunity to graft when one man is handling the money than when three are handling it. We doubt if Wardlaw's plan would be any better than the present plan. We doubt if it would be as good.

on the part of anybody connected with the Moody administration. Moody is clean, and we are for him. Wardlaw may be a good old dog himself—we do not know—but he trots under Jim Ferguson's wagon, and we don't want him sleeping on our front porch. We had Ferguson for governor; then Ferguson's wife. We don't want Ferguson's office boy.

"Cotton is my shepherd and I am in want. It maketh me to lie down without supper; it leadeth me beside mortgage windows; it restoreth my doubt in one-crop farming; it leadeth my children from the paths of education for the crop's sake. Yea, though I walk thru the valley of starvation I fear no evil, for the crow will feed me; the pig and the hen they comfort me. Thou preparest a reduction in my income before me in the presence of my creditors, thou anointest my household with debts, my expenses runneth over my proceeds without the cow, pig and hen; misery and poverty will follow me all the days of my life, and I will live on a mortgaged or rented farm forever."

Now we are sure that Dan Moody has made mistakes. He has possibly committed a sin or two since he became governor. We have never heard of his laying claim to being perfect or holy. We think he made a grievous blunder recently in the Al Smith fight. It seemed to us that he was playing into the enemy's hand. We said so. We criticized him rather severely. We have done so before. But we have never believed Dan Moody was either dishonest or a weakling. He is a clean, honest, courageous, patriotic gentleman. He has given us a clean, honest administration. Not even Jim Ferguson, who is Wardlaw's god-father in this campaign, has ever been able to put his finger on one single act of graft

SANTA FE RAILWAY IS EYEING OIL FIELD

If the Texas and Pacific Railway and the Santa Fe system are not lined up to fight for the oil field business of Howard and Glasscock counties we are going to miss our guess.

It is rumored that the investigators for the Santa Fe Railway have been looking over the oil development to the southeast of Big Spring. Santa Fe officials are not going to be satisfied to permit the Sterling spur to remain a small money maker with a wonderful oil field within 20 to 30 miles.

We can't believe the Texas and Pacific will remain inactive while the Santa Fe is pulling off the scoop because the T. & P. officials know the value of oil development to their line.

One or two refinery men, we understand, are postponing the establishment of plants pending this railroad situation. If a railway is to tap the field, the refinery or refineries will be located right in the oil field; but if the railroad building is to be postponed, the refineries will be located near Big Spring.

Big Spring would certainly like to see a railway line from Lemess to Sterling City and if no big system cares to build such a line it would prove a good thing for local citizens to sponsor the proposition.

There is not a doubt but that tonnage a plenty could be secured for such a line.

We haven't built a railroad for a good many years. Here's a chance for us to tackle one that will be a winner.—Big Spring Herald.

D. 1928 in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 721, wherein John F. Staudeler is Plaintiff, and Mary A. Rainey, Ambrose D. Rainey, Martha Talkington, Clem Talkington, Jane Bivins, David Bivins, James E. Banister, Emory T. Banister, Ruth Banister, Mae D. Verburg, Joseph W. Verburg and their unknown heirs are Defendants, and said petition alleging the State of Texas, County of Lynn: In the District Court of Lynn County, Texas, September, Term A. D. 1928.

To the Honorable Gordon B. McGuire, Judge of said Court: (1) Now comes John F. Staudeler, who resides in Lynn County, Texas, Plaintiff, complaining of Mary A. Rainey and husband, Ambrose D. Rainey, Martha Talkington, and husband Clem Talkington, Jane Bivins and husband, David Bivins, James E. Banister, Emory T. Banister, and wife, Ruth Banister, Mae D. Verburg and husband, Joseph W. Verburg, and their unknown heirs, defendants all of whose addresses are to this plaintiff unknown. (2) And for cause of action, plaintiff respectfully shows the court that on or about the 4th day of February, A. D. 1928, he was lawfully seized and possessed of the following described land and premises situated in Lynn County, Texas, holding and claiming the same in fee simple, to-wit: Being all of survey No. Five (5) in Block D-20, located by virtue of Land Scrip No. 262, issued to the W. D. 1928, and recorded on the same date in Volume 24, on pages 285 and 294 of the Lynn County Deed Records and the defective acknowledgments to said instrument as aforesaid create a cloud on this plaintiff's title.

Wherefore plaintiff prays the court that citation for the above named defendants be served by publication, they all being non-residents of this State and their residences being to this plaintiff unknown, to appear and answer this petition, that upon final hearing hereof, he have judgment for the title and possession of said above described land and premises, that any cloud or clouds created upon said title by virtue of said defective acknowledgments to said above mentioned instrument be forever swept away and held for naught, and for costs of suit and for such other and further relief, special and general, in law and in equity, to which he may be justly entitled, etc.

Among the arguments presented in favor of the relocation of the road are that the new route would be shorter, straighter, and more easily maintained, and it would eliminate two railroad crossings.

This last argument is regarded as the most important one, in view of the fact that in the location of new roads that are built everywhere now effort is made to eliminate grade crossings.—Slaton Slatonite.

YOUNG METHODISTS ENJOY TRIP TO ABILENE

The Tahoka Methodist Hi-League sent five delegates to the annual Epworth League Assembly of the Northwest Texas Conference at McMurry College, Abilene, last week. The party included VeNoy Coughran, Lucille Slaton, Jesse Robertson and Frank Sargent, accompanied by their Counselor, Mrs. Rubie D. Suddarth, and the trip was made very comfortable in Jesse Robertson's new car. With the exception of the church at Crosbyton, which sent a party of six, including their pastor, who was assistant dean of the assembly, Tahoka sent the largest delegation in the Lubbock District.

The young people report a most inspirational and enjoyable Assembly, lasting from Monday night through Friday night, with some three hundred in attendance, including thirty ministers and six presiding elders. At the closing session 225 students were awarded credits, the entire local group having satisfactorily earned the maximum of two units each. They likewise brought back several honors as a reward for their splendid work the past year. These included first place on exhibit work, prepared by Miss Coughran for use with the Junior Chapter; recognition as the only Hi-League in the conference over 90 per cent efficient; selection of two members as participants in the impressive pageant which concluded the week's entertainment; and, in the awarding of the conference Hi-League contest banner which was won by the Lubbock District, seven points out of ten. The Tahoka league was given honorable mention as being largely responsible for that victory. The delegation also did their full share of committee and original recitation work. They report having been delighted with the cordial hospitality dispensed by the College and Assembly personnel and highly commend the wholesome moral atmosphere evidenced on every hand. We are informed that plans are already under way for the attendance of even larger representation next year.

Petty

Well, the good rains still continue to come and crops are looking good in this part of the county. Some have had to plant a small amount over on account of the hard rains. Prospects are good for a bumper crop. We learn that there are lots of places getting hailed out but Petty has been smiling on so far.

MAKING PLANS FOR ELECTION

Candidates Are Assessed By County Committeemen in Session Monday

The county Democratic executive committee met Monday and assessed the county and local candidates and determined the order in which names should appear on the official ballot. They also made arrangements for the printing of the ballots and appointed election judges.

The assessments made against candidates for the various offices are as follows:

Candidates for county judge, $50.00; sheriff and tax collector, $50.00; county and district clerk, $50.00; county attorney, $40.00; tax assessor, $40.00; county superintendent, $40.00; county treasurer, $40.00; county commissioner, $20.00; justice of the peace, $10.00; constable, $10.00; public weigher, O'Donnell, $40.00; public weigher, Tahoka, $40.00; public weigher, Wilson, $30.00; public weigher, Draw, $10.00; public weigher, New Home, $10.00. All the candidates remain in the race and "kick in" with their assessments, the total amount will be about $1,200.00.

The above assessments must be paid to the county chairman, H. M. Larkin, not later than next Monday, June 25.

The committee also adopted a rule as heretofore, requiring a majority vote in order to nominate, and hence there will be a run-off for county offices as well as for state offices in August in those races in which a candidate gets a majority of all the votes in the first primary. Tris run-off primary will be held in August just four weeks after the first primary.

Election judges and associate judges for the various election precincts were named as follows:

- Prec. 1. S. J. Smith and N. C. Ralney;
- Prec. 2. J. E. Richardson and Cliff Ford Young;
- Prec. 3. G. W. Hickerson and J. W. Edwards;
- Prec. 4. J. H. Smith and W. H. Inard;
- Prec. 5. C. C. Johnson and Grady Leonard;
- Prec. 6. W. S. Swan and S. E. Reid;
- Prec. 7. C. H. Doak and L. G. Phillips;
- Prec. 8. W. J. Burkhardt and Price Thomas;
- Prec. 9. Ed Millikin and W. R. Corbell;

- Prec. 12. L. F. Good and Bob Pharr;

Attending the meeting of the executive committee Monday were H. M. Larkin, chairman, J. E. Morgan, J. N. LeMond, and R. B. Floyd.

Guy King's Car Runs Into Truck

As Mr. and Mrs. Guy King and little daughter of Loveland and Mrs. King's mother, Mrs. G. W. Sanford, of Tahoka were on their way to Abilene Saturday afternoon, the car which Mr. King was driving collided with a truck on the highway near Anson. All the occupants of the car received minor injuries. Mrs. Sanford, who is an elderly lady, was more severely injured than any of the others. Besides receiving some painful bruises, she also sustained a fracture of one of the bones of the fore-arm. She was taken to a hospital in Abilene for treatment. Mr. King later took Mrs. King on to Abilene to remain with her mother until he and his little daughter could make the trip to Dallas and return.

The car which Mr. King was driving was a Ford coupe, and the front wheels were completely wrecked and the fenders knocked off.

Mr. King formerly resided here and the family have many friends here who deeply deplore their misfortune.
