Petty

Well, the good rains are still falling in this part and the crops are looking good. Most every one is planting a fall turnip patch. Brooks Smith's two brothers from Yuma, Arizona, visited him last week and they report that crops look better here than any they saw along the road.

We had a very good attendance at Sunday School last Sunday. We want to ask the young people to come every Sunday and take a part. There is nothing better for young folks than a good Sunday School, and if we older people will say "Come on" they will follow.

Mr. and Mrs. Thad Smith of Anton visited Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Smith Sunday.

Miss Pearl Dockery spent Saturday night with Miss Virginia Blair. Mrs. Brooks Smith's mother was quite ill two days last week but we are glad to know that she is better at this writing.

Warren Smith has bought him a new Whippet car. Mrs. Beaky and Mrs. Blocker visited Mrs. Kaffel last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blair visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Smith last Sunday.

Mr. Frank Blair's uncle from Coleman visited him last week end, and he was well pleased with Lynn county and the good crops.

The social at O. S. Smith's Monday night was enjoyed by all. Ice tea was served.

COUNTY COURT IN SESSION THIS WEEK

County court is in session this week. A jury was here Monday and Tuesday, but on account of the business of the court being light and much demand for the farmers in their crops, Judge Cain dismissed the jury Wednesday morning. A number of judgments by default have been taken and some probate matters disposed of. No criminal cases have been tried.

Gorilla Fussy About His Sleeping Place

The main apparent preoccupation of the male gorilla is fighting for the continued possession of his wives. As the family party moves along through the forest, rarely sleeping twice in the same spot, there is every night the business of making beds. For the gorilla has at least this in common with his human cousins, that he likes and demands a comfortable sleeping place and, what is more, he prefers to make his sleeping arrangements well before darkness falls.

For this purpose patrifanillas bends down saplings and covers them with leafy branches, while the members of his harem, who are sent up neighboring trees, make each her own bed in a suitable fork by breaking off branches within her reach. Their beds are never very high up—never too high for the old man to be able to keep his eye upon them. You may find chimpanzees nesting in the tree tops, but never gorillas.

Once I had a chance of studying this proceeding. I made my camp close to two parties of gorillas. My own bed was made in five minutes, but the gorillas took twenty minutes to finish theirs to their liking, and probably were more comfortable than I. They are certainly very fastidious in this matter. Even when they remain in the same spot for a few days they make fresh beds every night, sometimes even in the same trees as the night before, but in other forks.—Dr. N. A. Dyer Sharp in the Continental Edition of the London Daily Mail.

"Lost Chord" Dear to Heart of Composer

Arthur Sullivan sketched out the complete setting of "The Lost Chord" while he sat by the deathbed of his brother, Frederic. It was his last composition for many months. The song, when published, swept the world, and the inevitable penalty of popularity followed—it was parodied, to Sullivan's disgust. He wrote to the parodist:

"I wrote 'The Lost Chord' in sorrow at my brother Fred's death. Don't burlesque it."

Sullivan gave one of his manuscript copies of "The Lost Chord"—those scribbled notes that had come from the depth of his suffering—to his life-long friend, Mrs. Ronalds, a famous American hostess, living in London. She was a very gifted amateur singer and Sullivan openly said that she alone brought tears to his eyes with his own notes. Mrs. Ronalds' rendition of "The Lost Chord" was famous. King Edward—then prince of Wales—once remarked that he would travel the length of his future kingdom to hear Mrs. Ronalds sing "The Lost Chord."

When she passed on the manuscript was, by her instructions, buried with her.—Kansas City Star.

Li Hung Chang the Buffer

Li Hung Chang was a Chinese statesman and diplomat born about 1823. Early in life he became noted as a scholar and soon became prominent in the army by suppressing the Taping rebellion. His career was most checkered as he was alternately raised to the highest rank in power and degraded and stripped of his honors. In 1896 he made a tour of the world and returning home became even more powerful. His shrewdness and thrift were his outstanding characteristics and he was responsible for much of the progress made by China during his life. He has often been called the "buffer" between China and the rest of the world.

Difficult Language

Pity the Finnish schoolboy! There are many strange things about Finland, and the strangest is the language. It properly is called either "Finno-Ugric" or "Ugro-Finnic," is Asiatic in nature and incomprehensible except to Finns or specialists. And the specialists aver that it is probably the most difficult language in the world. For instance, a noun declines into 15 different cases! That is, every noun has 15 different forms other than those of gender and number. The cases are as follows: Nominative, partitive, genitive, inessive, relative, adessive, abessive, illative, allative, abessive, prolativa, translativa, essive, comitative and instructive.

Harnessing Tides

The most practical system as yet suggested for harnessing the tides is the basin system, because it permits large scale installation. It consists of large or more basins cut off from the sea by dams. As the tide rises and falls gates permit the maintenance of differences of level of water between the basin and the sea, or between one basin and another during part of the tidal cycle. These differences in level produce the necessary heads of water for the production of power through turbines and auxiliary machinery.

Locals

Thomas H. Speight of the Jones Dry Goods announces that he has accepted an invitation to join a party of merchants who will enjoy a pleasure trip on the St. Paul, the largest steamer which plies the Mississippi, on August 7th. The party will be the guests of Ely & Walker, wholesale Dry Goods merchants of St. Louis, who, on that date, will celebrate the "Golden Anniversary" of their business career. Mr. Speight will leave here Saturday.

W. Z. Florence, nominee for commissioner of Precinct No. 2, was in the News office Tuesday and stated that he and family were preparing to leave on Wednesday for Lincolnton, Ga., where they will visit relatives. Lincolnton was their former home and they had not been back in a number of years. They expect to be gone about four weeks.

W. O. Henderson left this morning for Weatherford, called by the serious condition of his mother, who has been ill many weeks. Mrs. Henderson is 79 years of age and it is feared that she will not recover. Mr. Henderson was unable to say just how long he must be away, but he felt that he must be by her bedside at this critical time.

J. W. Roberts, editor of the O'Donnell Index, was a Tahoka visitor Wednesday. Mr. Roberts says that they turned the water in the mains for the first time in O'Donnell Wednesday morning, and it all looked good to him. A water system for O'Donnell has been one of Roberts' pet enterprises.

Judge T. L. Price of Post, district attorney, was here Wednesday, and upon being shown the election returns for this county expressed great appreciation of the practically unanimous vote that was given him. He threatened to move to Tahoka. There's lots of room here for good folks of his type.

David and Darlyne Evans, children of Mr. and Mrs. E. Evans, each underwent an operation in a Lubbock sanitarium a few days ago, having their tonsils removed. Darlyne was in a rather serious condition for a day or two following the operation but is improving.

Messrs McNeess, father and son, with their families, who recently purchased the Larkin farm near here, removed from Abilene to Tahoka this week, coming with a truck load of household goods. They are located temporarily in the Curry residence here in town.

W. S. Anglin says he and the good lady are a bit lonesome this week. Miss Floy is attending the Tech, Herman is visiting relatives in Comanche, Miss Hazel and Mrs. Teague, Mrs. Anglin's mother, are visiting in Littlefield.

Complaint has been made to the school board about parties trespassing at night on the high school premises. Unless the evil practice is discontinued, the board will doubtless take all proper and necessary steps to stop it.

Walter H. Smith and J. W. Ritter of Dawson, Navarro county, arrived a few days ago to make repairs on the Law gin, and they expect to remain here several months at least. Mr. Smith is a brother-in-law of F. L. Prater.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Haney and relatives who were visiting them went on a sight-seeing trip out into New Mexico last week, returning Friday. Ruidoso and the Carlsbad Cavern were among the places visited.

Dr. R. F. McCasland of Lamesa and Dr. K. R. Durham of Shreveport, La., were here Wednesday as the guests of Dr. Singleton. Both are dentists and they are looking for a location.

Geo. B. Law left this morning for Cameron, where his wife is visiting relatives. He and wife and little son expect to return to Tahoka next week.

Prof. and Mrs. Taylor White returned Thursday from College Station, where Mr. White spent several days doing special vocational agricultural work.

Mrs. G. M. Milliken of Ballinger arrived Tuesday to spend several weeks with her mother, Mrs. I. N. Lewis.

Mrs. J. R. Pennington of White-wright is here visiting her mother, Mrs. I. N. Lewis.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Osborn, who live on the Will Montgomery farm two miles northwest of Tahoka, Frances Jean, July 18.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Robinson of Tulsa, Okla., Mrs. H. B. Robinson, Mrs. L. S. Mast and Mrs. Hattie O'Hair, all of Lubbock, were guests Tuesday of Hall Robinson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Leftwich of Dallas have been the guests this week of H. P. Burkhalter and family of Grassland. Mrs. Leftwich and Mrs. Burkhalter are sisters.

Mrs. Harley Henderson and Mrs. Frank P. Hill and little daughter Patricia visited their parents, Judge and Mrs. B. H. Howard at Crosbyton this week.

Fred Haney and Sanford McCormack left Tuesday on a pleasure trip of several days into New Mexico.

Mrs. J. W. Dawkin and little son Glen Bruce of Fort Worth are visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Osborn.

Miss Lucille Howell of Lamesa is the guest this week of Miss Laverne Brasfield.

G. E. Hogan was called to Littlefield Monday to look after business matters.

Miss Ruth Platt of Myra, Cooke county, is visiting Mrs. E. A. Park.

C. A. Rayburn was a business visitor to Sterling City on Wednesday.

Fred Barker is building a new residence on the site of the old, which has been torn away. The new structure will be 28 by 32 feet in size and will contain five rooms and bath. It will be of stucco finish and attractive in appearance, another nice home in that section of the city.

PRESBYTERIAN SERVICES NEXT SUNDAY, AUG. 8

We are requested to announce that the Presbyterians will have their regular services here next Sunday. Rev. W. K. Johnston, D. D., the pastor, will be here to preach at both the morning and the evening hours. The presence of a large congregation at each service will be appreciated.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

Any erroneous reflection upon the reputation or standing of any individual, firm or corporation, that may appear in the columns of the News, will be gladly corrected when called to our attention.

With the country almost floating in water, residents of the South Plains are now little interested in the subject of irrigation. But when the skies become brazen, as they sometimes do, and as crops wither and parch under the blighting glare of a sun that shines down day after day from a cloudless sky as sometimes happens, then our people begin to "pant as the hart for the water-brooks" and to wonder if irrigation will ever become a reality on the South Plains. We understand that "Big Business" is of the opinion that some day this country will be threatened with irrigation ditches and that already tests are being made,
which, if successful, will revolutionize farming in this section within the next few years.

The News stated last week that the indications were that Moody would be nominated in the first primary.
The editor made the prediction to friends that Moody would defeat
Wardlaw by 125,000 to 150,000 votes.
These were not false claims made for propaganda purposes but were our honest judgment after carefully sizing up the situation. We admitted that Wardlaw might carry Lynn county but predicted that the race would be close. All these predictions were hooted at by Wardlaw's supporters. We have the sweet pleasure this week of saying "I told you so."

Following the abundant rains that have fallen over Lynn county during the past two weeks, farmers are watching anxiously lest leaf worms and boll worms should put in their appearance. At the very first sign of worms, farmers should call for poison
to dust or sprinkle on their crops.
Poisoning the worms has saved many a cotton crop.

It seems to be about as dangerous to be elected President in Mexico as it is to be convicted or murder in the United States.

Moreover if these rains continue the steamboat business is expected to pick up on the south plains.

The Smith forces in the Democratic Convention sought to soft-pedal
the whole question of prohibition.
Keynoter, Mr. Claude Bowers, spoke for an hour and did not even refer to it. Franklin D. Roosevelt nominated Smith in a speech which took thirty minutes to deliver and was as oblivious of this subject as was Mr. Bowers.

The platform which took up a page of the Dallas News devotes less than one hundred words to the whole question of law enforcement and twenty words to the Eighteenth Amendment.
It doesn't endorse the Amendment.
Something had to be said about it,
so a sop was thrown to the friends of the Amendment "pledging" the wettest convention that ever assembled and the wettest nominee they could find to an "honest effort" to enforce it.

In order to draw attention away from the big issue, Prohibition, a lot of fiery and vehement oratory was indulged in on the subject of corruption in the Republican Party. But the thing was somewhat overdone.
The spectacle of a Democratic Convention controlled by Tammany bawling its head off about corruption is ludicrous to the nth degree. But in the judgment of these spotless apostles of Tammanyism that was the best way to detract attention from the biggest issue in this campaign.

This sort of thing will be kept up throughout the campaign. The new Tammanyized Democratic Party will play up for all it is worth this hue
and cry against corruption in the Republican Party. Tammany leading a great crusade against corruption in politics is a sight which raises the ludicrous to a fine art.

The South has been betrayed in the house of her friends. The issue is fairly drawn. Eight years of Smith in the White House, with Tammany as the Col House of the administration, would tear the Eighteenth Amendment into tatters.—Texas Christian Advocate.

The people of Lamesa are to have a municipally owned band in the future, according to official returns of an election held on the 17th day of July for the purpose of levying a tax for the support of Lamesa's band in the future. Results showed 617 voters favored the tax levy while 132 voted against the proposition.

Every town should have a band in the opinion of the Index there is no better or fairer way to support a band than by the levying of a tax for the purpose. At one time O'Donnell had as good a band as could be found on the South Plains and the burden of supporting it was borne by a few of the most progressive citizens. An election was called for the purpose of levying a tax for the support of our band which resulted in a victory for those opposing the measure and incidentally dealt a death blow to O'Donnell's band. The band that attracted so much attention at the Amarillo convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce 2 years ago winning first prize in its class, today lives only in the memory of those who loved it so well—all because of the lack of support.—O'Donnell Index.

Senator Robert L. Owen, former United States Senator from Okla., and one of the leaders in that body
during the Wilson administration, has announced that he can not support
Smith for President. Too much Tammany to suit him.

Those east Texas folks are slow that even their rivers run uphill occasionally. The Sabine is said to have pulled a stunt of that kind a few days ago when a tributary creek got on a rampage.

FINLEY THANKS VOTERS

I desire to express my deep gratitude to the voters of commissioners'

given me on last Saturday. While I am especially grateful to those who voted for me, I have no ill will what-opponent. I shall ever try to merit the confidence reposed in me and shall strive to serve all the people to the best of my ability. I sincerely thank you.

H. J. R. No. 20.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION
Proposing an amendment to Section 2, Article 8 of the Constitution of the State, so as to authorize the Legislature to exempt from taxation any property owned by a church or by a strictly religious society for the exclusive use as a dwelling place for the ministry of such church or religious society, and which yields no revenue whatever to such church or religious society, and property used exclusively and reasonably necessary in conducting any association engaged in promoting the religious, educational and physical development of boys, girls, young men of young women operating under a State or National organization of life character; providing for an election upon such proposed Constitutional amendment, and making appropriation therefor.

Locals

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Crockett of Mercedes were Sunday visitors of the J. H. Coltenback family. They were on their way to Colorado state for a few weeks visit. They left with the Coltenbacks a sample of the lemons that are being raised in the lower Rio Grande Valley. It measured just 12 inches in circumference, and the Crocketts claimed that it was only two thirds as large as is present stage of development as when fully grown. They claim to raise lemons there that produce a full quart of juice each. Great is Texas.

A. A. Lawson of Grassland, whose hand was seriously injured in an automobile wreck a month ago, necessitating treatment in a sanitarium for three weeks, was in town Monday and reported that the injured member was slowly improving. It was thought for awhile that amputation of the injured member might be necessary. The skin and flesh were completely torn away. The wreck occurred while Mr. Lawson and others were on their way to a Primitive Baptist meeting at Crosbyton.

G. M. Reid of the local post office force is a lucky man. He received a shipment of the finest Alberta peaches from Highland, Arkansas, a few days ago. He donated one of the finest specimens to the editor. It weighed 9 1-2 ounces and was just as luscious as it was large. We'll admit that Arkansas has its redeeming features.

Cleo Hickson of the New Lynn community desires to thank the people of his community and of Tahoka for the assistance rendered himself and family on account of the loss of their household goods by fire recently. They greatly appreciate the contributions made them.

PICTORIAL LIFE OF HERBERT HOOVER

No. 3

By Satterfield

1. On August 10, 1874, Herbert Clark Hoover was born in West Branch, Iowa. He had one brother and a sister.

2. As a boy, Herbert loved all sports and outdoor pastimes. In winter he delighted in snow sports.

3. Herbert's father died when he was six, and Aunt Agnes took him on a visit to Oklahoma.

4. The boy's playmates during his visit were little Ojaga Indian boys, who taught him many Indian sports.

WHO REALLY PAID?

Once upon a time there were three competing mousetrap makers, all doing about the same amount of business. Each charged the trade twenty cents a trap. The merchant retailed for thirty cents.

One day one of the manufacturers decided to spend one cent per trap to advertise. He did not raise his price to the dealer, and the dealer did not raise his price to the public.

The advertising trap maker kept up the advertising for a couple of years when it was found that his business had grown to such a volume that he could build better machinery. So, instead of turning out a trap for fifteen cents, by quantity production, he could make a better trap for ten cents.

This he was able to sell to the dealer for fifteen cents, and the dealer sold it to the consumer for twenty-five cents.

Now, who paid for the advertising? Not the customer, who now got a better trap for less money. Not the dealer, because he now made a better percentage of profit, gave his customers better value, and made a quick turnover.

Neither did the manufacturer pay for the advertising, because he now sold so many more that where he used to make five cents profits per trap and sold a thousand a day, he now made three cents per trap and sold three thousand a day.

He was selling three times as many traps. Yet the supply of mice had not increased like that.

By looking closer it is discovered that the other two mousetrap men had gone out of business.

The men who really paid for this manufacturer's advertising were the two who had not advertised, and who paid with their business. If the non-advertisers only realized it, while they are talking about needless expense of advertising, they are really paying the advertisers' advertising bill.—Clay Center, (Nebr.) Sun.

TEXAS DEVELOPMENT HAS PART IN EXPANSION OF PUBLIC UTILITIES

Rapid development of cities and industries in many sections of Texas undoubtedly figures in the general expansion program of public utilities throughout the country this year which is revealed in statistics received from New York by the Texas Public Service Information Bureau.

Nine hundred million dollars in new capital will be required this year by the electric utility companies of the United States for expansion to meet increasing service demands, according to a report made public by Pynchon & Company, of New York City.

"It is generally conceded that its power supply is the greatest single factor in the steady industrial growth and prosperity of the United States," says the report. "In order to keep abreast of the constantly increasing demands of the country at large for electricity some long-distance figuring has to be done and calculation made by engineering and financial staffs, and in line with this necessity there has been appropriated by the industry approximately $900,000,000 to be spent during 1928 in plant expansion.

"When it is realized that the estimated total capacity of all power producing machines in the United States is 750 million horsepower, and that further expansion of electric generating facilities is needed the value of the electric utilities to the commercial and domestic life of the nation is made clear.

384 Per cent Increase
The generating capacity of public utility plants in the country is now more than 27 million kilowatts, as contrasted with five and a half million in 1914, an increase in fourteen years of 384 per cent. Production of electricity in the same period has jumped 456 per cent; number of customers has increased 371 per cent while gross revenue has advanced 429 per cent.

Such increases in facilities for providing home comfort and creating more efficient operation in industry have entailed huge expense. Including the 900 million dollars budgeted for 1928, there will have been spent by the electric utilities over an eight year period an amount exceeding five billion dollars, of which the greater proportion will have been used in extending transmission and distributing systems.

"The tremendous sum thus invested is apportioned about as follows: For transmission and distribution systems, two billions, eight hundred million dollars, or 56 per cent of the whole; for generating plants, two billion, two hundred million dollars, or 44 per cent of the whole."

MRS. PAUL MILLER RESIGNS AS C. OF C. SECRETARY

Mrs. Paul Miller has tendered her resignation as secretary of the Tahoka Chamber of Commerce. She so stated to the News this morning. She expects to spend the month of August with her husband at Hobbs but she and Paul Jr. will return to Tahoka the first of September for the beginning of the school.

Mrs. Miller has done some efficient work in this position. It is to be hoped that the work of the Chamber of Commerce will be carried on and that much may yet be accomplished during the remainder of this year by this body.

TO THE VOTERS OF LYNN COUNTY

I take this method of thanking every one who voted for me in my efforts to get the nomination for county and District Clerk.

I tried to conduct my campaign on a high plane and have no regrets as to the course I have pursued.

Though defeated I find great satisfaction in knowing I have the friendship of so many of Lynn county's good citizens.

Sincerely,
E. W. HOLLOWAY

A current magazine says that a typical American is one who will fight to defend the church he stays away from on Sunday. And we've noticed too that it is typically American to knock your community while at home and then boast it to be the best as soon as you get away from home.

You don't take your a loan to a Dr. to get them half-sold; and you never go to a blacksmith to get your self cured of a cold. Now you may not be sick nor shabby, and we couldn't help much if you were; But when it comes to good building material; You bet, that's just what we're here "For". The Merchandise you buy from us has to make good—or we do.

We like your trade and believe we appreciate it about as well as the average Lumber Merchant concern, or may be a little better. That is the reason why we try to have our service always better than the average.

We put the "u" in service—if we serve "U" well, you will SERVE US well.

Of course we want your business. That is what we're here for, but we do not consider that you OWE it to us just because we are here. We must give you value for your money, else we do not want it.

Buy your lot, give us the number of lot and block. We'll see that you get your house.
