Crowd At Norris-Holbrook Speaking

FRANK NORRIS DRAWS CROWD

Senator Holbrook Pleads For Democrats To Cast Their Votes For Al Smith

The biggest political rally ever staged in Tahoka was held at the City Tabernacle Wednesday afternoon when fully two thousand people heard J. Frank Norris of Fort Worth speak in behalf of Herbert Hoover and Senator J. T. Holbrook of Galveston in behalf of Al Smith.

Senator Holbrook, who was on his way to Lubbock to address a political rally Wednesday night, was taken from the train by his friends at Post and hurried to Tahoka to address the gathering here. For nearly an hour he defended Al Smith, Tammany Hall, and the Democratic party in the present campaign and scored Herbert Hoover, the Republicans and bolting Democrats. He evidently greatly pleased those who agreed with him and received considerable applause at several points in his address and at the close.

He was followed by Dr. J. Frank Norris, who spoke for nearly two hours, arraigning Smith and upholding Hoover. His address was generally pronounced by his sympathizers as the most masterful and effective political speech ever delivered in Tahoka. Through the entire address he held the unflinching attention of the great multitude that heard him, hundreds of them standing. His address was punctuated by frequent outbursts of applause and cheering, and it was evident from the start that the great majority of the throng was with him. Many who came to criticize and find fault were held spell-bound by his eloquence and logic as he hurled indictment after indictment at Al Smith, Tammany Hall, and the Catholic hierarchy. The main points of discussion were the liquor question, the political activities of the Catholic Church, the rottenness of Tammany Hall, the negro in this campaign, the achievements of Herbert Hoover, etc. At the close of his address he took a vote of the crowd, and fully eighty per cent of those present expressed the intention of voting for Herbert Hoover. It is but fair to say, however, that quite a number were present who refused to go on record for either Hoover or Smith and quite a good many left at the close of Senator Holbrook's address, Norris, however, had a larger audience than Holbrook, and while Holbrook's audience was not very responsive, Norris' audience was very responsive.

Prior to the arrival of the "big guns" J. B. Walker, chairman for the Smith forces, and W. J. Burkhardt entertained the audience with speeches. The speakers and the crowd had a hilarious, good time during this period of waiting. When Holbrook arrived he was introduced by Mr. Walker, Judge B. P. Maddox introduced Dr. Norris.

Calls Meeting Of County Republicans

The people of Lynn county are called to meet in the court house in Tahoka for the purpose of organizing "Hoover for President" club and combat the evil influence and domination of Tammany Hall and the set element of the United States.

Republicans and others, especially the ladies interested in this movement are invited to attend this meeting, all are welcome. Remember the date, Saturday, October 6, at the court house in Tahoka, at 2 p. m.

JACK ALLEY,
Rep. Chairman Lynn County.

Lubbock Jr. H. S. Falls Before Wilson

Wilson High School decisively defeated Lubbock Junior High School 45 to 0 in a game at the Lynn County Fair Tuesday afternoon that was very interesting in spite of the lopsided score.

Although Lubbock fought hard and made some good end runs, Wilson with her passing, end-sweeping, line-plunging machine charged down the field to cross the larger city's goal line six times. Principal ground gainers for Wilson were Chaney, who swept around the ends, and Todd and Crews, who ripped open Lubbock's line. Key and Monroe broke up play after play attempted by the opponents. A number of forward passes were completed.

Nicklaus, Tech, officiated as referee, an Baze, A. C. C., as umpire.

BUILDING NEW LIGHT LINES

Texas Utilities Company Begins Reconstruction Work Of City's Entire System

A gang of about thirty men began work here Tuesday morning rebuilding the lines of the company in the city. A. D. Chase of Lubbock is foreman of the gang.

The company will completely rebuild its distribution system, placing new poles and stringing new wires wherever needed. It will require about thirty days to do the work, according to W. S. Anglin, the local manager. When the work is finished, the system here will be as good as the best anywhere, it is claimed.

Mr. Anglin requests that the public be patient while this work is being done. If the service is cut off at any time, just remember that the line is being rebuilt and that it is for the good of the service later. The company will cause just as little inconvenience to the public as possible, he states.

Truett Smith Begins Work In Office Of County Clerk

Truett Smith, Democratic nominee for county and district clerk, began work in this office Monday morning as a deputy under Happy Smith, the present incumbent, who was an opponent of Truett's in the recent primaries.

In order that the in-coming official might become acquainted with the work and thus be able to take up his duties the first of January without difficulty the present incumbent generously offered him a "job" as deputy, which the in-coming official accepted.

Perfect good will and friendliness was maintained between the two Smiths while they were candidates, and indeed among the three candidates during the first primary. E. W. Holloway having been a candidate also in the first round. This shows a fine spirit, which should be practiced more by opposing candidates for office.

OLD FOLKS SINGING AT RAGTOWN NEXT SUNDAY

There will be an all-day, old folks singing at Close City, better known as Ragtown, next Sunday, beginning at 10 a. m. and continuing till late in the afternoon, according to M. E. McCord. Everybody is requested to bring lunch and spread same on the grounds at the noon hour.

The old song books, "The Sacred Harp" and "Christian Harmony" will be used. Everybody cordially invited.

TAHOKA WINS OVER LUBBOCK

Lubbock Reserves Bested By Score Of 6 To 0 In Game Here Saturday

The Tahoka High School Bulldogs showed lots of fight and endurance to win over Lubbock High School Second Team Saturday at the local High School field. The score which was 6-0 tells how evenly matched the two teams were. The one and only score made came in the fourth quarter following a determined drive down the field for about sixty yards by the Bulldogs. The ball came into Tahoka's possession on the six-yard line when the Lubbock boys failed to make the required ten yards in four downs.

Minor, small left half back and Short, lanky full back earned most of the distance to the goal. When in fifteen yards of the goal, the Tahoka boys failed to make the required yardage and were forced to punt and the Lubbock man who caught the punt on the five yard line was caught in his tracks. Lubbock immediately punted out, but Edwards who received the punt returned it to the twenty-three yard line. From this point Minor carried the ball nine yards around left end. Fulton made six yards through the line, Short hit the line for five yards and again for two more, and this put the ball on the one yard line. Short hit the line again for the lone score of the game. Short failed to kick goal for extra point but it was not needed for a victory since there was only a minute and a half left to play.

The local boys showed that they were in good condition. In the last three minutes of the game they possessed the required punch to put the ball over the goal line. In the

Training School In Session At O'Donnell

The Northwest Texas Conference Sunday School Board of the M. E. Church South is conducting a standard training school at O'Donnell this week with a probable enrollment of more than one hundred persons taking work for credit.

This makes the tenth school that the Rev. B. L. Nance, Conference Sunday School Superintendent, has held this year, with an enrollment of more than 1,000, and as many credits given—He expects to hold five others in as many weeks.

The O'Donnell, Draw, Grassland, Lamesa and Tahoka Churches are patronizing the school. Each of the churches is well represented, about 25 going each evening from Tahoka.

Four courses are offered by the following faculty: "The Pupil", Mrs. J. W. Chisholm, Brownfield.

"The Primary Pupil", Mrs. W. E. Lyon, Abilene. This is a specialization course.

"The Organization and administration of the Sunday School", Rev. B. L. Nance, Abilene.

"The Life of Christ", Rev. J. W. Chisholm, Brownfield.

Report Slight Frost Last Monday Morn

H. P. Burkhalter of Grassland reports that there was a little frost at his place Monday morning. Of course it was very light and was hardly distinguishable but there was no doubt of its existence. Of course it was not heavy enough to do any damage to vegetation.

LAMESA MAN OPENS COAL BUSINESS IN TAHOKA

A. L. Standefer of Lamesa is opening a coal business on the corner formerly occupied by the Tahoka Coal & Grain Co., near the railway tracks. His family will remove to Tahoka as soon as he can find a residence here. Mr. Standefer says that he has been residing on the plains for many years.

FALL TERM OF COURT OPENS

Grand Jury Impaneled; Six Divorce Cases Disposed Of During This Week

The fall term of the district court opened Monday morning with District Judge Gordon B. McGuire on the bench and District Attorney, T. L. Price present.

The first work of the Court was to impanel the grand jury. That body was selected and set to work and is still busy with its investigations. A number of indictments are to be turned in today, it is said. The body consists of W. H. May of Wilson, foreman; J. W. Armoutrot, New Home; A. H. Ash, Draw; E. Bosworth, Magnolia; William Lester, Gordon; C. T. Tankersley, West Point; H. B. Burkhalter, Grassland; J. M. Payne, O'Donnell; Chester Connolly, Tahoka; J. W. Elliott, Tahoka; J. D. Hord, Southland; P. W. Goad, New Home.

Porter Tredway and Dee Sanders of Tahoka, and D. L. Parker of O'Donnell are bailiffs.

The case of C. F. Carmack vs. W. M. Thompson, involving a boundary line, was on trial Tuesday and Wednesday.

A number of divorce cases have been disposed of. Divorces were granted in the following cases:

Dorothy Riordon vs. J. C. Riordon. James Chandler vs. N. C. Chandler.

Mattie Pearl Setser vs. William Setser.

Emma Gene Hodges vs. Arnold L. Hodges.

A. T. Taylor vs. Virgie Taylor.

Edna Harkins vs. Drew Hawkins.

The criminal docket will be taken up Monday. One murder case is on the docket this term. It is expected that a number of criminal cases will be tried.

Fire Destroys Home Of Midway Farmer

The home of T. Cowan in the Midway community was completely destroyed by fire Friday afternoon, together with all its contents.

A gasoline stove was responsible for the fire. Mrs. Cowan had a fire in the stove and had just stepped out in the yard to get the baby, and when she went back into the house two or three minutes later she found the kitchen full of smoke and flames. She hurriedly picked up the baby and took it back into the yard and was never able to enter the house again. It was a two room structure and was completely consumed by the flames within a few minutes.

No insurance was carried on either the house or the furniture. Neighbors and business men of Tahoka made up a purse for the benefit of Mr. Cowan and family.

RASKOB DEPLORES RUMOR OF HOOVER LIQUOR DRINKING

NEW YORK, Sept. 25. — John J. Raskob, democratic national chairman, said today he deplored rumors that Herbert Hoover had violated the prohibition law. The chairman declared he knew that Hoover's household had been absolutely dry while he was in the cabinet and said he admired him for it.

A statement attributed to Senator William C. Bruce of Maryland, democrat, that Secretary Hoover had taken drinks with Clarence Darrow, Chicago criminal lawyer, was publicly denied in Washington yesterday by George E. Akerson, Mr Hoover's assistant. Mr. Raskob did not mention Senator Bruce.

Referring to Mabel Walker Willebrandt's attacks on Governor Smith, Mr. Raskob said people had not forgotten that she was a character witness for Harry A. Daugherty, former U. S. Attorney General, who was charged with defrauding the government and was cleared after two trials.

Reports from the middle west and northwest become more and more promising, Mr. Raskob said.

Oct. 5 Is Tahoka Day At S. P. Fair

Friday, October 5, has been set aside as Tahoka Day at the Panhandle South Plains Fair to be held in Lubbock.

The Tahoka Concert Band will be there to furnish music for the occasion, according to Monte Bowron, band director and he urges that as many Tahoka and Lynn county people as possible be there. "We would like to have at least 100 cars there from Tahoka", Mr. Bowron stated to the News.

Lynn county will also have an exhibit of farm products there, according to Prof Taylor White, manager of the Lynn County Fair. Many counties of the South Plains will have exhibits, and it is hoped that Lynn county will have an exhibit there that will rank well with the others.

If you expect to attend the South Plains Fair, make it a point to be there on Tahoka Day.

GOOD RESULTS FROM MEETING

Ten Additions To Church Of Christ; Kercheville Is Doing Preaching

There had been ten additions to the Church of Christ up to Wednesday noon as a result of the revival services being conducted by that church, according to Elder W. A. Kercheville, the minister. Good crowds have been in attendance and much interest manifest. Rev. Kercheville is doing the preaching while the song services at night are being conducted by M. L. Baze. Services begin at 10 a. m. and 7:45 p. m. The services are being held in the church building and will continue to be held there until such time as the preacher and the congregation may decide to remove to the tabernacle.

Grassland Church Formally Dedicated

GRASSLAND, Sept. 26.—The M. E. Church at this place was formally dedicated Friday evening. Rev. Mark Leveridge, pastor of the Slaton Methodist Church, in lieu of Dr. D. B. Doak, presiding elder, ill, preached the dedicatory sermon. The presentation of the church to be used "only for divine services" was made by the officials of the Grassland Church. The actual presentation was made by A. L. Sheppard, superintendent.

The church was erected about three years ago under the administration of Rev. "Bill" Hart. It was paid for when completed, but the actual dedication was postponed because all the officials could not be present. The structure cost around $2,000. The attendance at the dedication was good.

BAPTIST W. M. SOCIETIES HAVE BUSINESS MEETINGS

The Baptist W. M. S. met in circles Monday. Circle A met with Mrs. W. M. Harris with eleven present. Circle officers were elected for the coming year. After business meeting punch and cake were served and were much enjoyed by all. Mrs. Chester Connolly and Miss Sherrrod visited the Circle. Circle B met with Mrs. Shepherd with five ladies present. They had a business meeting and elected Circle officers. They will take up the book "All the Word and All the World" for their study course.

Circle C visited the sick and new members in their circle.

EXHIBITS ARE FAIR FEATURE

Ten Communities Have Displays; Large Crowds Attracted Each Day

The Lynn County Fair is in full blast as our forms are closed, and it is universally pronounced as one of the best, in so far as agricultural exhibits are concerned, ever held on the South Plains. It is unquestionably the best ever held at Tahoka; and the crowds have been large.

Besides the magnificent general display of farm and garden products, there were ten community exhibits. These were O'Donnell, T-Bar, Joe Bailey, Midway, Edith, Magnolia, New Lynn, Wilson, Dixie, and New Home. These various community exhibits were simply superb. Most of them were artistically arranged and made a splendid show. Almost every variety of farm and garden products were to be seen in these exhibits. Cotton, sorghum grains, wheat, corn, potatoes, pumpkins, kershaws, melons, and numerous varieties of garden vegetables, as fine as any country can produce made up the display. "It is as fine an agricultural exhibit as I have ever seen at the larger fairs", Taylor White said to the News man in discussing the fair.

Several home demonstration clubs also had splendid exhibits of their work, including all kinds of canned goods. There is an exhibit also of school work, of flowers, of curios, etc. A carnival company is on the grounds furnishing entertainment for young and old alike. The races and the football games are also attracting good crowds.

The school parade at 1:30 Wednesday afternoon was a most attractive feature. Several decorated school floats from various school districts and hundreds of school children were in the line of march, the Tahoka Concert Band leading.

Next week we will be able to give a list of the winners in the various departments of the fair.

SISTER OF I. M. DRAPER BURIED MONDAY

I. M. Draper returned Wednesday morning from Lometa, where his sister, Mrs. J. S. Longley, was buried Monday morning. Mrs. Draper died Saturday evening in the Scott and White Sanitarium at Temple from pneumonia, which set up following an operation.

Mrs. Longley's home was at Inadale in Scurry county but the remains were taken to the old home at Lometa for burial. She was 66 years old and for many years had been a faithful and devoted Christian woman. Mr. Draper and family have the sympathy of many friends.

The ratio of increase in electrical production in Texas is greater than the average for the United States. Interconnection has made electricity available to hundreds of Texas towns which otherwise would not have had this convenience.

Local Power Plant Pulls Heavy Load

On account of the high line of the Texas Utilities Company being rebuilt across the new Denver railway between Lubbock and Slaton, it became necessary Sunday for the local plant here to supply power and light for Wilson, Slaton, Southland, and Post during that day, according to W. S. Anglin, the local manager. It was a heavy load but the Tahoka plant proved to be equal to the task.

The church was erected about three years ago under the administration of Rev. "Bill" Hart. It was paid for when completed, but the actual dedication was postponed because all the officials could not be present. The structure cost around $2,000. The attendance at the dedication was good.

BAPTIST W. M. SOCIETIES HAVE BUSINESS MEETINGS

The Baptist W. M. S. met in circles Monday. Circle A met with Mrs. W. M. Harris with eleven present. Circle officers were elected for the coming year. After business meeting punch and cake were served and were much enjoyed by all. Mrs. Chester Connolly and Miss Sherrod visited the Circle. Circle B met with Mrs. Shepherd with five ladies present. They had a business meeting and elected Circle officers. They will take up the book "All the Word and All the World" for their study course.

Circle C visited the sick and new members in their circle.

EXHIBITS ARE FAIR FEATURE

Ten Communities Have Displays; Large Crowds Attracted Each Day

The Lynn County Fair is in full blast as our forms are closed, and it is universally pronounced as one of the best, in so far as agricultural exhibits are concerned, ever held on the South Plains. It is unquestionably the best ever held at Tahoka; and the crowds have been large.

Besides the magnificent general display of farm and garden products, there were ten community exhibits. These were O'Donnell, T-Bar, Joe Bailey, Midway, Edith, Magnolia, New Lynn, Wilson, Dixie, and New Home. These various community exhibits were simply superb. Most of them were artistically arranged and made a splendid show. Almost every variety of farm and garden products were to be seen in these exhibits. Cotton, sorghum grains, wheat, corn, potatoes, pumpkins, kershaws, melons, and numerous varieties of garden vegetables, as fine as any country can produce made up the display. "It is as fine an agricultural exhibit as I have ever seen at the larger fairs," Taylor White said to the News man in discussing the fair.

Several home demonstration clubs also had splendid exhibits of their work, including all kinds of canned goods. There is an exhibit also of school work, of flowers, of curios, etc. A carnival company is on the grounds furnishing entertainment for young and old alike. The races and the football games are also attracting good crowds.

The school parade at 1:30 Wednesday afternoon was a most attractive feature. Several decorated school floats from various school districts and hundreds of school children were in the line of march, the Tahoka Concert Band leading.

Next week we will be able to give a list of the winners in the various departments of the fair.

SISTER OF I. M. DRAPER BURIED MONDAY

I. M. Draper returned Wednesday morning from Lometa, where his sister, Mrs. J. S. Longley, was buried Monday morning. Mrs. Draper died Saturday evening in the Scott and White Sanitarium at Temple from pneumonia, which set up following an operation.

Mrs. Longley's home was at Inadale in Scurry county but the remains were taken to the old home at Lometa for burial. She was 66 years old and for many years had been a faithful and devoted Christian woman. Mr. Draper and family have the sympathy of many friends.

The ratio of increase in electrical production in Texas is greater than the average for the United States. Interconnection has made electricity available to hundreds of Texas towns which otherwise would not have had this convenience.

Local Power Plant Pulls Heavy Load

On account of the high line of the Texas Utilities Company being rebuilt across the new Denver railway between Lubbock and Slaton, it became necessary Sunday for the local plant here to supply power and light for Wilson, Slaton, Southland, and Post during that day, according to W. S. Anglin, the local manager. It was a heavy load but the Tahoka plant proved to be equal to the task.

South Texas Will Hear Many Notables

A somewhat imposing group of speakers will be in the field in South Texas during the coming month in the interest of the Hoover candidacy for President.

Former United States Senator Robert L. Owen of Oklahoma, one of the farmers of the Federal Reserve Act and an authority on legislation affecting Indian affairs, will speak at Houston September 27, and at San Antonio September 28. He also will speak at Ft. Worth September 29.

Mrs. Clem Shaver of Virginia, wife of the national democratic executive committeeman who had a hand in arranging for the democratic national convention at Houston recently, will devote two weeks in October to campaigning for Hoover in Texas.

William E. Sweet, former democratic governor of Colorado, has tendered his services to Alvin Moody, chairman for Texas of the Anti-Smith democrats and will be summoned to Texas soon.

Judge B. D. Sartain of Wichita Falls, former president of the County Judges and Commissioners Association of Texas, will deliver a series of addresses in the interest of Hoover in South Texas at an early date.

United States Senator Borah of Idaho will campaign in this state during the first half of October. His itinerary will be announced later.

SHOOK BUYS COOPER-NOBLE BUSINESS

Charles F. Shook has purchased the ready-to-wear business of the Cooper-Noble firm. Mr. and Mrs. Shook are already in charge. Miss Cooper states that she expects to leave Tahoka soon on account of her mother's health. They will probably go to the coast country.

The Lynn County News and the Dallas Semi-Weekly one year for $1.50.

Locals

J. M. Jones of Myra, Cooke county, spent several days here this week as the guest of E. A. Park, J. C. Fenton, and other friends. Mr. Jones says that the boll weevils have damaged the cotton crop terribly in his section of the state. While he noted that the cotton had been seriously damaged here by the boll worms yet he was loud in his praise of this country. He says that he never saw such a feed crop in his life as we have on the plains. Yet, he says that he can not make the people down in his section of the state believe that we have such a wonderful country out here.

At the business session of the Lynn County singing Convention held in the new Baptist Church at Lynn last Sunday, M. C. Richey was again elected president and M. E. McCord secretary. The next meeting of the convention, they report, is to be at Dixie on the fourth Sunday in May, 1929.

A number of Tahoka young people have gone away to college recently. We have not been able to get the names of all who have entered the various institutions of higher learning. We would appreciate it if relatives or friends would furnish us with these names.

J. R. Duncan, J. W. Catching, and "Sharky" Wampler of Lorenzo were here today visiting the fair. Mr. Duncan is an uncle and Sharky is a brother of Pflugger Wampler, linotype operator in the News office.

R. C. Wood is constructing a handsome six-room residence in northwest Tahoka. It will have a beautiful stucco finish and will be one of the attractive residences of the city.

Larkin Weathers is building a six-room brick veneer on the lots just north of the Baptist Church. When completed it will be one of the most attractive and most substantial homes in the city.

Ladies' and children's dresses, gingham, satens, ladies' hats, etc. at Larkin's.

J. S. McKaughan is building a new six room residence in South Tahoka. It will have a stucco finish and will be one of the most attractive homes in that part of the city.

Miss Ida Small has opened a beauty shop in her home, and she will be glad for her friends to call for any work in her line at any time.

Misses Montie and Mabel Draper left Monday for Canyon where they will again attend the West Texas State Teachers' College.

Misses Dimple Caloway and Berta Hill left Monday morning to re-enter the West Texas State Teachers' College at Canyon for the ensuing session.

Miss Jeanette Caveness returned to Simmons University Monday, in which institution she will be a student this session.

Fit the school children up in our shoes. Good line and prices right.—Larkin's.

GOVERNOR SWEET WILL SPEAK IN TEXAS FOR HOOVER

Among the outstanding democrats of this country who will be in the field in Texas soon in behalf of the candidacy of Herbert Hoover will be William E. Sweet of Denver, former democratic governor of Colorado and former national elector. "Governor Smith did not accept the platform as adopted," said Governor Sweet. "He cannot consistently challenge the democracy of those who insist upon the platform. The fact is that this election has ceased to be a contest between the republican and democratic parties, but it is a fight between the wet and dry forces of the nation. As president Mr. Smith could do much to bring about the modification of the Volstead Act. In all probability a change will occur in the personnel of the Supreme Court in the next six years. By every means in his power, Mr. Smith, if elected president, would seek to modify the Volstead Act by substituting another law which would give the antiprophibitionists what they want. The validity of this law would be submitted to the Supreme Court. Governor Smith would fill every vacancy that might occur in this court with men who were biased in favor of the wet cause. The new law might be held constitutional and modification become a fact. Those who believe in the dry cause should not take this chance.

Organize Fine W. M. S. At Grassland

Grassland, Sept. 26.—The Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church which was organized September 14 when members of the Draw society and Zone Leader Mrs. Gossett of Garlynn were here, has now increased its membership to 11 and is getting down to bedrock.

The pastor, Rev. "Hans" Wright, is authority for the statement that he has never known a group of women more aggressive, enthusiastic and successful as these women.

The society meets weekly. Those interested in the study of the Bible, in missionary work and general religious endeavors are urged to join this organization of faithful and consecrated women.

Plan Rabbit Races For S. P. Fair

LUBBOCK, Tex. Sept. 26.—From one hundred and fifty to two hundred dogs are expected to be entered in the rabbit races at the Panhandle South Plains Fair, October 1 to 6, according to A. B. Davis, manager.

Races will be one of the outstanding features of the six day exposition and $425 will be paid as added money during the event. The winning dog of each race will get his opponent's entrance fee.

Dogs will be entered from all over the Southwest, Gene Wofford declares after talking with the owners of the dogs entered in the Graham Fair coursing event that was held Sept. 19 and 20.

An additional number of Kansas Black Tail Jack Rabbits have been ordered and paid for and are being shipped to get here a few days before the fair opens.

Along with the plenty of jackrabbits, the coursing event here will be featured by a regular standard sized track with a good soft, yet firm footing. In the shape it is today, the track is one of the fastest in Texas. Competent judging, slipping, kennel space for the dogs on the [fair] grounds, veterinary service on the grounds and other features have been assured.

REGISTERED BREEDERS ASSOCIATION BEING ORGANIZED

A registered breeders association is to be organized this afternoon at the City Tabernacle here, according to G. C. Grider of O'Donnell, who is heading the movement. The association is to include all Lynn county. Its purpose is to encourage the breeding of pure-blood dairy cows, stock cattle, horses, mules, hogs, sheep, poultry, etc.

The organization should start off with 100 members, Mr. Grider stated to the News, and he hopes that the membership will increase greatly during the next twelve months. "We can have a real fair from the livestock standpoint next year if we will get in behind this new organization and give proper attention to breeding," Mr. Grider said. He had much praise for the agricultural exhibits this year.

COTTON SEASON OPENS LATER THAN LAST YEAR

Up to noon today only fifteen bales of cotton had been received at the local yard, according to public local yard, according to public weigher R. C. Wood.

The crop is even later than it was last year, due to the unprecedented rainfall in July and August, and also to the ravages of the worms.

Up to September 21, 1927, 65 bales had been received here. No report was given in the following issue due chiefly to heavy rainfall that week.

Cotton is selling for about 18 cents per pound.

Story-Telling Champion of Lithuania 100 Years Old

Dzūkija, Lithuania.—Wars and rumors of wars do not disturb the serenity of old Dede Pasakoras, famous story-teller of Lithuania. His home lies close to the Polish demarcation line, which is the apple of discord between the two nations.

The region is especially dear to patriotic Lithuanians, for all the beautiful age-old folk stories and songs, in which the Lithuanian language is rich, originated here.

Even this village, "Dzūkija," has a poetic name. It means "Song-Land." Pasakoras is known all over the country as the "story-telling uncle." He has an inexhaustible fund of them, and he tells them with a natural charm to delighted audiences. He is well over one hundred, but when one asks him how old he really is he says: "Oh, boy! No man can tell, I'm so old, I've forgotten."

Pop! Pop! Pop!

THERE are plenty of times in summer, as well as in winter, when you want to pop corn. Outdoors, over the glowing coals of a picnic fire, popping corn is a well liked diversion. Never do the puffy, snowy kernels taste better than when you eat them in the woods, or by a stream, as evening falls, and you can be sure of keeping your corn dry by taking along the kind that comes in cans. For there must be no hard centers to the popped pop. When you start to pop corn, you want it all to pop.

Must Be Dependable

Pop corn must be absolutely dependable, or any pop corn party is doomed to be a failure. If the pop corn that you carry along to pop over the picnic fire or pop at home has not been kept absolutely dry, many of its kernels may reward you with only a faint and ineffectual hiss. The canned variety remains absolutely free from moisture until the can is opened. If you put it into your popper it rewards your efforts with good resounding pops, and you soon have a mound of light, fluffy pop corn, to eat hot with butter and salt, or to use in some recipe like the following:

Chocolate Popcorn: Boil together one and one-half cups of granulated sugar, one and one-half tablespoons butter, one square of unsweetened chocolate and three tablespoons of water. When the mixture spins a long thread, pour it while hot, over three quarts of freshly popped corn. Stir until all of the kernels are coated.

It is easier, now, to kill insects

THE JANUS-FACED LIQUORITES

(The Advance)
Here in Texas where the prohibition sentiment is dominant Morris Sheppard and Joe Robinson are declaring that Al Smith, even if elected, couldn't injure our liquor laws nor weaken the Eighteenth Amendment.

Over in New York, the nesting place of Al Smith and his Tammany horde, it is the other way around. The New York Times, the ablest Al Smith paper in America, looks at the issue with different eyes and there Janus shows another face. Under the caption "What Smith Could Do" the New York Times in its issue of September 2, says:

Pursuing a familiar line of strategy, Republicans are saying to those of their party inclining toward Governor Smith's wet position: "What's the use of voting for him on that ground? Congress is dry, and will stay that way. The President can do nothing; at least, a wet President can't. A Dry President, in the confidence of a Dry Congress, can achieve reforms."

It is a hollow plea because its two assumptions are unsound. The first is that, even if Governor Smith is elected with the prohibition issue between him and Mr. Hoover drawn as clearly as it is now, Congress will not be affected. This disregards the laws both of arithmetic and politics. Should the Democrats win it would be by virtue of a tremendous shift of votes in all parts of the country. To some extent that vote would take on the character of a referendum on the predominant issue. The victory would sweep in many wet congressmen. Even in States which the Republicans would carry, such as Pennsylvania, the wet issue would lose them seats in congress. Dry congressmen elected after hard fights would take note of the changing popular sentiment. The size of the President's popular vote would have a decidedly softening effect upon their dry views. The Anti-Saloon League would lose so much of its terrorizing qualities because it would have been beaten in a national show-down and in many districts which hitherto its mandates had controlled. A large percentage of congressmen would hesitate to go against the recommendation of a popularly chosen President. When it is further remembered that many dry congressmen are dry only in their voting, the pleasure which it would give them to get away from Anti-Saloon League domination becomes a factor.

The second base of the argument is the assertion that Mr. Hoover really favors modification of the terms of the Volstead Act, and not being a wet, could more surely influence a dry congress. Nothing in the Palo Alto speech justifies the interpretation. Mr. Hoover spoke warmly of "abuse" of enforcement and proposed to investigate them with a view to their elimination but that left the amendment and the Volstead Act untouched. And Mr. Hoover made it clear that he views as "nullification by indirection" any attempt to amend the alcoholic content section of the act in such degree as to make legal, for example, light wines and beer.

Governor Smith recognizes the same "abuses" of enforcement, but proposes no commission to catalogue them. He will stamp them out with the means in his power. But he favors an amendment to the Eighteenth Amendment itself, so that those States which conclude to do so by popular referendum shall control the liquor business as Canada has done. These States may manufacture, import and sell alcoholic beverages for home consumption "and not for consumption in any public place." The return of the saloon is thus prevented, but absolute prohibition of intoxicating liquors is repealed in any State so choosing.

Here is a clear issue between the candidates. If the dry candidate shall be elected, the Anti-Saloon League will properly construe his success as its own, and congress will follow its dictation for many more years. If the wet candidate is elected, the whole professional prohibition structure begins to crumble, the Anti-Saloon League is destroyed as a national force, and politicians, in congress and out, will look to the new leader of the people as their guide and their hope of retaining office.

Rural Churches Hold Quarterly Conference

The fourth quarterly conference of the Draw-Grassland-Gossett Methodist churches, held here Saturday, and presided over by Rev. Mark Leverage, pastor of the Slaton Methodist church, was well attended. Dinner was served on the ground at the noon hour. The drizzling rain curtailed attendance appreciably.

The presiding officer preached in the forenoon and afternoon. His messages were timely, inspirational and edifying. Following the afternoon sermon the business session was conducted.

On nomination of the pastor in charge the following stewards were elected for the fiscal year 1928-29: Draw: John Sherrill C. C. Johnson, R. R. Luttrell, Kenneth Williams, Austin Porterfield, I. N. Standefer, A. H. Pennington. For Grassland: Mrs. O. H. Hoover, Mrs. W. Price Thomas, Hardy Chapman, Orin Ramsey, Avey Thomas. For Gossett: C. W. Dodson, Oscar Rogers, Grady Stewart, Thomas Ashley.

Superintendents of Sunday Schools were elected as follows: Draw, J. M. Gasbeer, Grassland, H. C. Aten; Gossett, DeWitt Parsons. J. N. Lemond of Draw was elected recording steward.

The conference year ends November 21. It is probable that an adjourned fourth quarterly conference will be held in the interim.

Dr. D. B. Doak, presiding elder of the Lubbock district, was unable to be present to preside due to illness.

The pulpit Sunday at the Methodist church was supplied by the pastor, Rev. "Ham" Wright. In the forenoon he preached on "Hope Purifieth," and in the evening on "The Second Coming." Attendance was large.

Several Draw people have enrolled for the Sunday School standard training course being conducted at O'Donnell by Rev. E. L. Nance and associates of Abilene.

Two bales of cotton were ginned here last week. With the present weather cotton is opening rapidly in some spots and the gin should be humming regularly for a short run. The plant has shown a terrible deterioration under the dry weather. Little fruitage has resulted. The average yield is expected to be about one-fifth bale to the acre. Luther Thomas, prominent ginman of the Grassland-Draw area at around one-fourth bale to the acre. The Grassland gin had pressed two bales and the Gossett gin one bale up to Saturday, according to Mr. Thomas.

The Epworth League at Draw expects to put on a special program next Sunday evening. "Billie" Porterfield is arranging the program for the occasion.

A large crowd attended the afternoon singing at the Methodist church Sunday afternoon. These singings are held every second and fourth afternoons on Sundays. W. W. Caswell is president.

Miss Opal Knowles who was unable to take charge of her room at the local school at the beginning of the term is now on the job. She underwent an operation before she arrived.

Among those who attended quarterly conference here Saturday from Gossett were Dewitt Parsons and Miss Jewell Parsons; C. W. Dodson and family, and D. C. Stewart: from Grassland, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Hoover Hardy Chapman, Mrs. Price Thomas, H. C. Aten. Uncle Bill Hart, former pastor of this charge, was present on the occasion.

 and negroes ride together in the street cars. Tammany rules New York City and the Tammany-Democratic administration in that city has appointed hundreds of negroes to official positions in the city. In fact there is a negro wing of the Tammany organization, of which a negro named Morton is the boss. Smith is a schemer of Tammany and must bear his share of responsibility for these racial conditions in the city.
 He is serving his fourth term as governor of the state of New York and has never attempted to have a law passed separating the negroes from the whites in the public schools, in railway trains, in street cars, or other public places.
 Negroes and whites ride together on the street cars and trains and negro children and white children attend the public schools together. He has not even tried, so far as we have ever heard, to have a law passed prohibiting the inter-marriage of whites and negroes. He is serving his fourth term as governor, and white men still marry negro women and white women still marry negro men whenever they desire to do so in New York. There is no law against it. Congressman Rayburn and other Texas politicians may undertake to raise the race issue in an effort to save their Tammany sacheem nominee, but we'll bet our ears that Al Smith never attempts to raise it in a public speech.

John Jonah Raskob, the Republican Chairman of the Democratic National Campaign Committee, says that "the tariff is not an issue" in this campaign, that the Democratic party stands for high wages to labor and consequently for a high tariff, that Smith will not do anything to disturb big business, etc. In fact, about the only difference between the two parties, according to Raskob, is that if Smith is elected the "wets" have a chance to get rid of the "damnable affliction of prohibition."
 In other words a combination of Raskob, Big Business, Protection, Tammany Hall, Al Smith, and Liquor have captured the Democratic party. Isn't it great to be a Raskob Democrat?

John Agramonte celebrated his ninety-eighth birthday in the city of Mexico a few days ago. Query: How in the world did a Mexican General live to be ninety-eight years old without having been assassinated by Congressman Sam Rayburn made a pro-Smith speech the other day in which he waved the bloody shirt and tried to raise the "nigger" scare. He and a few other Texas gentlemen have been frothing at the mouth recently because Hoover, they claim, compelled negroes and whites to work side by side in a government department at Washington. They believably overlook the "nigger" sit-

GETTING THE HAIR AND HIDE
 (Chris L. Adair)
 Some years ago on a far-away desert it fell to my lot to shear a couple of husky old billy goats. I recall now that the only shears available were old and dull and the whet-rock could not be found and so of course I did not do a very artistic job. The consequences were they kicked about it, and butted into several rather sensitive parts of my anatomy, but anyone listening in on this pre-radio program could tell from the sounds that the poor billies made that I was getting most of the hair and some of the hide. So when I read the printed criticism of a Mr.
 Fred Matthews on a recent article
 I wrote for the News about the campaign issues I was almost instantly reminded of that long-gone incident.
 The rather uncomplimentary reference the writer makes to myself and other bolters is the highest compliment that could be paid the article in question except to denounce it as a fabrication of lies. I am also glad to hear any of the Smith boosters break into print or onto the platform, for the more they talk and write the more people will think and the more they think about Al's liquor record and his advocacy of giving away over four million dollars of public money to Catholic institutions, the Sisters of Mercy alone being allowed over a third of a million, the less they will want Al for President.

Some of my intimate friends have asked if I would "answer" Fred's article but since the opposition has really said nothing that proves or disproves any point in controversy, this article should be brief. I can answer the coyote's mournful wail with a thirty-thirty bullet, or the burro's discordant bray with an inverted singletree, but how to answer a French scientific lecture when I know less than a dozen French words is more difficult, but anyone of the three is easy compared with sounding the depths of the writer's system of logic. As to the Terrill election law, an able lawyer has quoted its statutory pledge through these columns to the effect that all

A message to the editor of this paper from GENERAL MOTORS

JUST about a year ago we published, in your advertising columns, a message in which we sought to give you and your readers an idea of what General Motors is and what it is trying to accomplish. At that time the public was purchasing our cars at the rate of about one in every three;
 and our Frigidaire automatic refrigerator and Delco-Light electric plants were leading in popular preference in their respective fields.

Since then each of our car divisions has introduced new, further improved models and public patronage has reached the point where almost one out of two automobiles purchased is a General Motors car. Frigidaire and Delco-Light products have showed comparable increases in sales.

The reason for this is two-fold. First, the public wants value for its automobile dollar and recognizes value when it is given. Second, General Motors is seeking so to conduct its operations as to deserve the goodwill of the public.

We are particularly impressed with the number of letters which have come to us from editors of small city newspapers during recent months.
 These editors, who are in a position to reflect local sentiment, speak of the goodwill which attaches to General Motors in their communities and express an obviously sincere appreciation of the character of General Motors' advertising in their publications.

For our advertising has been as much concerned with giving your readers facts of helpfulness to them in the purchase of automobiles as with the merits of our own products. Our messages have set forth the principles of trade-in transactions and used car allowances. They have dealt with time payments and the change in the public's attitude toward the used car. Other messages have told of the policies of General Motors and of how our resources are being employed to effect them.

That General Motors enjoys the goodwill of the people in the small cities and on the farms of America gives us an especial satisfaction and confidence in the future. It is in the country sections of the United States that half our population lives. It is there that the whole industry must look in increasing measure for maintenance of the production volume upon which high values and low prices depend. And it is there that General Motors is paying particular attention to its facilities for sales and service.

To our friends in your community we express our thanks.

GETTING THE HAIR AND HIDE

(Chris L. Adair)
Some years ago on a far-away desert it fell to my lot to shear a couple of husky old billy goats. I recall now that the only shears available were old and dull and the whetstone I did not have and so of course I did not do a very artistic job. The consequence was they kicked about it, and butted into several rather sensitive parts of my anatomy, but anyone listening in on this pre-radio program could tell from the sounds that the poor billies made that I was getting most of the hair and some of the hide. So when I read the printed criticism of a Mr. Fred Matthews on a recent article I wrote for the News about the campaign issues I was almost instantly reminded of that long-gone incident. The rather uncomplimentary reference the writer makes to myself and other bolters is the highest compliment that could be paid the article in question except to denounce it as a fabrication of lies. Some of my intimate friends have asked if I would "answer" Fred's article but since the opposition has really said nothing that proves or disproves any point in controversy, this article should be brief. I can answer the coyote's mournful wail with a thirty-three bullet, or the burro's discordant bray with an inverted singletree, but how to answer a French scientific lecture when I know less than a dozen French words is more difficult, but anyone of the three is easy compared with sounding the depths of the writer's system of logic. As to the Terrell election law, an able lawyer has quoted its statutory pledge through these columns to the effect that all participants promise to support the nominees of "this primary". So one is legally or morally bound to support the Tammany ticket in November. As to the matter of Tammany hall not being so bad as the Texas verley of machine, one of its high lights was Boss Tweed who died in prison for wholesale theft and Boss Croker who fled to Europe till the witnesses were all dead. As a young man, Roosevelt fought its corrupt and criminal methods, tooth and toenail and more recently occurred the Becker-Rosenthal police murder which was instigated by the Tammany ring, but the criminal talked too much and the ring let him go to the chair. To say that Al is not lenient to criminals is begging the question—he would not dare to be to those who had not done homage to the crime protection department of Tammany. By controlling the district attorney's office Tammany never allows any of its criminal proteges to be indicted. Our own Frank Norfleet in his nation-wide swindler hunt found the king criminals living in palaces in New York and immune from prosecution by the Tammany-controlled authorities—Al was governor then, if the records are correct.

Now as to the religious issue and the so-called "whispering campaign". This issue was first raised by Smith and the rest of the Catholics when they blocked McAdoo's nomination on the plea that he was supported by the Klan, a radical secret society which would never have been started but for the premeditated political activities of a similar Catholic secret order which never should have been organized. If some legal means were found for the suppression of both these societies on the same day the world might be better off. A short time ago the immigration laws were amended to bar the vast illiterate horde from Southern Europe and now Smith wants them back like they were and so does the political department of the church he belongs to. The enforcement of the Monroe doctrine lies largely with the President and Al's church has opposed that doctrine for almost a century. This is a serious matter with many able life long Democrats right here in Lynn county who have always fought the Klan. For the first time in life I will this fall support a national Republican nominee. Mr. Matthews frankly says that his Catholic acquaintance is limited. My own parents grew to maturity in Louisiana where Catholics predominate and always have. For several years I lived in New Mexico where the majority of the population are members of that church and once I voted for a Catholic candidate for governor, who I knew to be an honest man against a Lutheran whom many people believed to be a crook. Some of my best friends, neighbors, customers and employers have belonged to Al's church and such Catholics as Savonarola, Galileo, Columbus, Luther, Damien, Joan of Arc and Evangeline will never fade from history and the heroism of Hidalgo, the patriotic priest of Mexico who faced a firing squad at the behest of the priestly exploiters of his people is one of the bright spots in the dark history of that benighted land. It must not be forgotten that several of the prominent Protestant churchmen now fighting Smith used all their influence with Soviet Russia to save a Catholic bishop from death who had been convicted of plotting against that government. Why then all this talk about bigotry, intolerance and religious persecution? Simply a well-planned effort of the Smith forces to scare the conservative Catholic vote into solidly supporting Smith, as many people believe they will do, but Fred tells us of one good old honest sober Catholic right here in Texas who is solid for Hoover, so there may be others. My own father, a Methodist minister, spoke on the same platform and in the same hour with a Catholic priest and both favoring prohibition in Texas. In father's boyhood home, Jefferson Davis and his Catholic wife were always welcome visitors and many of the returned soldiers speak warmly of the heroism and devotion of Catholic men and women on the crimson fields of France and Flanders. Taft and one or two other Presidents believed that Christ was a real good man but not much better than Moses, so these folks who have raised the religious persecution yell would show good taste to soft pedal it—there ain't no sich animal, as the old rappers used to say. It is a notable fact, however, that Catholic papers printed in parts of the world where anti-Monroeism is strongest have strongly expressed a wish to see Smith elected and for this reason at least, the Governor's election is opposed on account of his church affiliation. So far from a "whispering campaign", I would like to yell my anti-Smith sentiments into every radio in the land.

Now in conclusion, let no one either on the platform or through the press misquote my sentiments as expressed in this article. No one doubts or denies that Al Smith is a man who is morally, mentally, socially and financially head and shoulders above many of those who are trying to keep him out of office and so are Dan Moody, Morris Sheppard and many of my own personal friends who are supporting him, but as previously stated, they are lined up with the wrong crowd. Get this straight and then don't twist it: The criminal and hoodlum element all over the land is lined up almost solid under the Smith banner because they have been assured from higher up that Smith, if elected will bring back the saloon or something that smells and tastes and foams just like is used to do. Again, the supreme question of the hour is: Men and women of Texas, which side do you stand on, whose flag do you fight under?

Something was said about having little or no respect for the bolters and their leaders. Chief among these is the only surviving son of Sam Houston the hero of San Jacinto, and by the way, the bloodiest war of modern history according to its length and numbers engaged was fought right here in Texas at the instigation of the Roman Catholic hierarchy and the cruel butchery of the Alamo and Goliad was accomplished by an arch-villain who for lust of gold and power had sold himself to serve the devil dressed in priestly robes. Perhaps the younger Gen. Houston will remember both the Alamo and Goliad when he votes for Hoover in November. But he is not alone, for up here in Northwest Texas where brick school houses are commonplace all over the rural districts the Hoover sentiment is strongest, but down in Medina county where rural schools are largely taught in box houses the Al Smith tide of sentiment runs the highest. The personnel of these anti-Smith Democrats, both men and women, is very high and the fame of many of them is written in the history of Texas.

Now in conclusion, let no one either on the platform or through the press misquote my sentiments as expressed in this article. No one doubts or denies that Al Smith is a man who is morally, mentally, socially and financially head and shoulders above many of those who are trying to keep him out of office and so are Dan Moody, Morris Sheppard and many of my own personal friends who are supporting him, but as previously stated, they are lined up with the wrong crowd. The Gossett Methodist church will be supplied Sunday morning and evening, September 30, by Rev. Hans Wright pastor. Sunday school at 10 a. m. with De Witt Parsons as superintendent. Everybody is invited to these services.

It is estimated that 5,000,000 persons outside of Texas are engaged in industries directly dependent on or connected with Texas cotton.

PICTORIAL LIFE OF HERBERT HOOVER

No. 12 By Satterfield

1. As Director of Belgian relief, Hoover became the center of great diplomatic and financial questions.

2. At his command food and supplies were safely conveyed through a blockade made bitter by hate.

3. Despite almost insuperable obstacles, the Hoover food got through to the people of little Belgium.

4. His first meeting with King Albert of Belgium was on the basis...

Texas ranks first among the states in number of ice manufacturing plants and number of persons engaged in the industry. The annual production is valued at $25,000,000. The Lynn County News and the Dallas Semi-Weekly one year for $1.50.

Alamo City Ready For Legion Meeting

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Sept. 26.—San Antonio is ready for the coming of 100,000 veterans of the World War and their wives, mothers, sisters and daughters for the tenth national convention of the American Legion October 8 to 12.

Even the weather man is all lined up and ready to serve the finest brand of convention weather the organization has ever had. Inquiries have come to the bureau from all over the country and an investigation of records at the local weather bureau office going back 50 years shows:

Delightful fall weather holds for the period from October, 6 to 13. Average low temperature runs at 62 degrees, with the average high at 85. There is only the slightest chance for a rain, and that a mere sprinkle. Sunshine prevails during that week of October between 67 and 87 per cent of the time.

Veterans attending the convention, in addition to the pleasant weather and the reunion with their war records on the spot where thousands of them trained, will find the greatest entertainment program ever planned for a Legion gathering, according to Phillip B. Stapp, general convention director.

A world's champion rodeo, a decision prize fight with leading championship contenders, spectacular battle exercises by the Second Division, a Follies Bergeres show with dancing beauties of six nations, dancing every night on Alamo Plaza, an air circus with a thousand planes participating, the greatest parade of 60,000 men and women, dinners and social functions beyond number are on the program at San Antonio.

Bull fights and Spanish fiestas on the Mexican Border are an added attraction. Side trips will be run to Laredo and Nuevo Laredo, Eagle Pass and Piedras Negras and also to King ranch, the Lower Valley of the Rio-Grande, Corpus Christi and the Gulf coast and Brownsville and Matamoros. A 12-day tour will take a large party to Mexico City.

Field Marshal Viscount Allenby, of Great Britain; Major Georges Scapini; General John J. Pershing, Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, Judge Kenesaw M. Landis, William A. Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, are among the distinguished guests who will be present at San Antonio.

HOOVER AND THE RACE QUESTION

The mere routine of transferring 16 negro clerks to a separate room in the Census Bureau to facilitate their work in compiling data on their race and a transfer back again under order of the President has given rise to two political rumors of opposite meaning against Herbert Hoover.

Instead of Mr. Hoover's doing a way with segregation—a charge often heard of late—the real charge was that he put segregation into effect. This accusation, according to Arthur F. Well, Washington correspondent of the Buffalo Evening News who investigated the matter fully, figured prominently in the bitter pre-convention campaign in Ohio when friends of the late Senator Frank B. Willis attempted to prejudice the negro vote against the Secretary of Commerce.

The Anti-Hooverites even carried the charge to President Coolidge. As evidence, the Willis faction pointed to the transfer of the 16 negro clerks to a room to themselves. Census Bureau officials made no denial, but they explained that the work had been turned over exclusively to negro clerks because they would naturally take greater interest in it than would white clerks. The separate room was given them to facilitate their task.

Now for over 50 years the Federal laws have forbidden segregation of races in governmental service. While negroes and whites may not be forced, necessarily to work side by side at desks, there are many rooms in government buildings where negroes work at one end of the room and whites at the other. So President Coolidge communicated with Mr. Hoover and advised him that anything of that sort was a violation of the Federal law. Thereupon, at the President's order, Mr. Hoover redistributed the 16 clerks to their old positions—which, when the newspapers got wind of it, meant only one thing—the end of segregation. The entire matter was apart from any opinion Mr. Hoover might have had on race segregation.

South Ward Items

We have heard from Mr. Greenwood, who is visiting in Mexico and he says that his health has improved.

Mrs. Waldrop has returned from a visit with her mother at Hico.

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Smelser have been attending the meeting at Grassland regularly.

Mr. and Mrs. Cobb entertained a group of friends Saturday night. Music was greatly enjoyed and games were played during the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Hood visited Mr. and Mrs. Rhyme Sunday.

The Sunday School has been reorganized under the leadership of Mr. Hood. New officers and teachers have been elected and they are planning to have the best program for the year that this organization has ever adopted.

Mr. and Mrs. Leete Jackson from Lubbock visited Mr. and Mrs. Carvey last week.

There will be a program at the South Ward School Friday night at 8 o'clock.

For eight years Texas has been the leading state in total value of crops produced. It is estimated the production could be more than doubled by increased land in cultivation.

W. A. Kercheville, who is conducting the revival meeting which has been in progress at the Church of Christ since the first of last week.

Grateful to Friend for Deserved Rebuke

James Stillman, who for several years was one of the Titans of Wall street, sat in his office one day talking with a business man who had called, when it developed that some error had been made in Stillman's bank. An official was summoned and Stillman, without moving or raising his quiet voice, berated the offender in terms so harsh, with an irony so coldly insulting, and concluded in such a savage intensity of speech, that the unfortunate man trembled and beads of perspiration stood out upon his forehead. When the culprit had been dismissed, the horrified visitor spoke: "Stillman, I never in all my life heard anything so outrageous! That man holds an important position in the bank and you have insulted him before a stranger. Why—I shouldn't be surprised if he put a knife into you! A man has no right to treat another so, nor to let himself go like that. The most charitable thing I can think is that you are on the verge of a nervous breakdown and that you have no business to be in your office!" Stillman heard this outburst in a white silence, his powerful face a very mask of rage. The visitor waited a few moments, then picked up his hat and went out. Sometime later the visitor received a card inviting him to a function at the Stillman home. He and his wife attended and received a gracious welcome. To the wife Stillman said: "Tell your husband from me—won't you?—that owing to something he said to me, I am just back from the best holiday I ever had."—Anna Robeson Burr, in World's Work.

Odd Power of South American Vampire Bat

In his story of his explorations in South America, Dr. William McGovern has something to tell us about the dreaded vampire bat. Bats are not believed to possess any saliva which could act as a local anesthetic; and yet it is a fact that they can insert their long teeth and suck out the blood of their victims without awakening them. Not a single case is known in which a sleeper has awakened while the vampires were at their work. It is also very curious that the bats never attack a person who is awake, however silent and motionless he may be. He writes interestingly of the Amazonian medicine men.

The Indian medicine men are no doubt charlatans in many respects, but many of them are certainly possessed of really remarkable powers. They appear to know a great deal more than most Europeans about massage, and they are unquestionably acquainted with the nature and use of many strange herbs, drugs and poisons. It is also highly probable that these men are more than superficially acquainted with principles of hypnotism.

Types of Women

There are four types of women, Charlie. There are the unfortunates who have been granted no attractions physical or otherwise. They have heaps of friends of their own sex and kind, they live in women's clubs or in situations, and find an outlet for their emotions in religion and the love affairs of other people. Then there is the latest model, the aggressive variety, elbowing men out of the way; there is something rather attractive about them, but they know it too well. Then your feline women, the mischief makers, often most attractive. Then the bovine variety, which makes for peace in the home and a comfortable sluggishness in the heart of man. Worthy women.—Lesley Storm in "Lady, What of Life?"

Remove Wet Garments

All of us at some time or other get caught in a rainstorm, fall into water, get our feet wet in rainy weather, etc. These occasional "soakings" are harmless, if the right thing is done afterward. Dr. R. S. Copeland says getting wet does no more harm than taking a bath, if you do not stay in the wet garments. This, he points out, is particularly true of wet shoes. His advice is: Don't stay in wet garments. Get out of them into dry clothing. If you feel chilled after exposure, it is important to restore the circulation. The best way to do that is to take a good hot bath and go to bed.—Pathfinder Magazine.

The Lesson

If youth, with all its progressive-ness and buoyancy, could only learn one great lesson that comes with advancing years, so much disillusionment and unhappiness would be prevented. If youth could only learn, while it is still youth, that there are certain fundamental things which it cannot do and "get away with," certain things that must be done and must not be done, certain things that are not only conventional but essential, half the tears of boyhood and girlhood would never flow.—Grove Patterson, in the Middle West.

Crack Shot

A man brought home three turkeys from a shooting match. His neighbor and four-year-old were congratulating him on his success. The father told his neighbor he was a crack shot. The turkeys were being discussed at dinner and the four-year-old informed the family that "he shot 'em with freerackers and never burnt 'em one bit."

MAGNETIC DECLINATION IN TEXAS IN 1927

The Coast and Geodetic Survey, Department of Commerce, has just made available a new publication of particular value to surveyors of this state who are required to use magnetic methods in recovering the lines of old surveys. The publication also contains the information necessary for testing compasses at the magnetic stations established by the Coast and Geodetic Survey, description of which stations are given in full in the publication. With this publication, it is possible to find changes in the magnetic barings at different localities in the State as time has elapsed. The use of this information for every degree of longitude and latitude makes it easy to find the correct values for any given place.

A copy of this publication may be obtained from the Superintendent of Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C., by remitting fifteen cents and requesting a copy of Coast and Geodetic Survey Serial No. 417, "Magnetic Declination in Texas in 1927."

CHAIRMAN THOMAS SAYS NEED OF SPEAKERS URGENT

The Al Smith campaign committee in Texas is getting desperate. Judge B. P. Maddox received a letter from W. A. Thomas, of Dallas, the chairman, urging him to take the stump at once for Al Smith, and in his appeal to the Judge says that "the need is urgent." Since the Judge has been making anti-Smith speeches in this county, he will hardly be able to accept the urgent invitation.

Sousa's Band To Play In Abilene

ABILENE, Sept. 26.—Sousa's Band, making its first appearance in West Texas, will be heard here twice on October 18, at the Simmons University auditorium in concerts sponsored by the Cowboy Band of Simmons University. Sousa and his band have already started on the Golden Jubilee tour which is taking them across the continent.

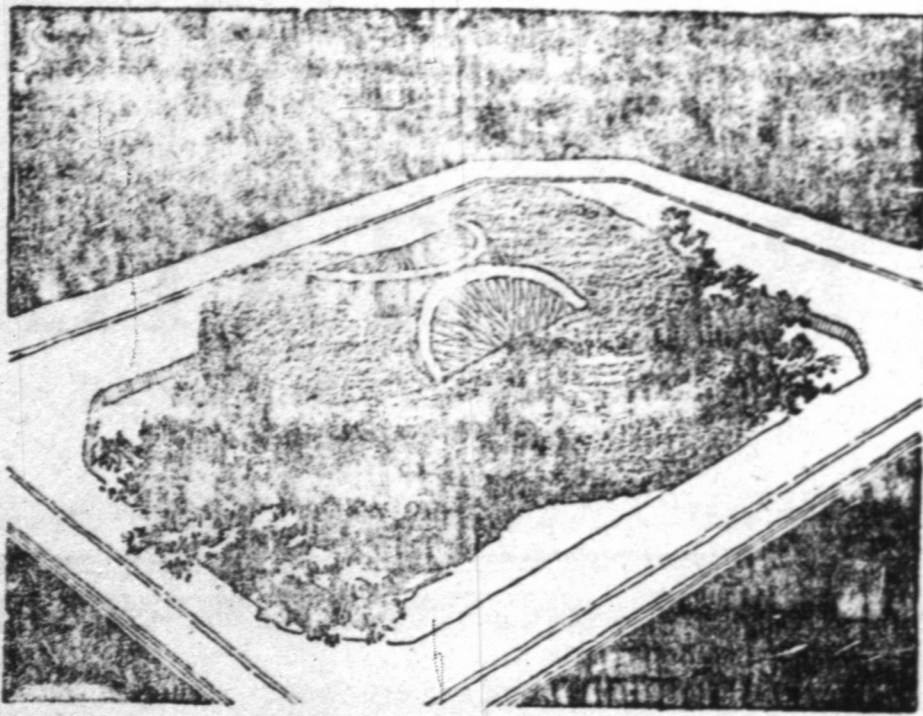

An unusual feature of the engagement here is an afternoon matinee for children only. According to the plans of the local management this concert will be given at prices ranging around fifty cents for the benefit of children, and an audience of two thousand youngsters is expected to take advantage of this unusual offer.

This is Sousa's fiftieth year as a band leader and he is celebrating it with the Golden Jubilee tour. He will make only a few stops in Texas.

Fish For Breakfast

THEY say that you can't have your cake and eat it, but you have no desire to keep it, and you are very eager to eat it, when you can get it in the form of fish cakes with so little trouble out of a can.

Although you may be miles removed from river or ocean, and years away from your last fishing trip, the finest catch of the sea can be served at your breakfast table. Here are some new fish breakfast dishes and some old favorites which will lend a grateful variety to your breakfast menus.

Some Delicious Recipes

Codfish Cakes: There never has been a more popular breakfast dish than codfish cakes. And there never was an easier dish to prepare. For codfish cakes can now be bought in ready-to-try form, and there is no need for soaking and picking over the fish, or for cooking potatoes. Just open a can of prepared codfish cakes, shape into cakes or balls, and drop them into a pan of smoking hot fat. When brown and crisp serve on hot plates.

Clam Cakes: Clam cakes will be a new treat to most families. They come ready to fry, as do codfish cakes, and are just as easy to prepare. They are sure to have an unusual appeal to all who like clams. Take the clam cakes from the can, pat them out and fry in fat that is sizzling hot. Serve as soon as they are brown and crisp.

Grassland

The Church of Christ revival closed Wednesday of last week instead of continuing through the week as some thought.

The cotton is not as bad in this community as people were thinking. Still, some say it will take eight to ten acres to make a bale on their land, some of it anyway. Mr. E. Greer reports he has a bale open now on every five or six acres and was looking for pickers enough to gather a bale a day. Every farmer will be busy with their cotton in a week or so if dry weather continues. Feed cutting is in full progress, some burning before hardly ripe. But, take the community over, the feed crop has never been better.

The Methodist church of this place was dedicated last Friday night. The pastor at Wilson preached the dedication sermon. Our old pastor, Rev. Bill Hart was with us. Glad to have him with us again. A large crowd was present and the services were greatly enjoyed. Miss Zuella Fox from Tahoka visited Miss Cressie Turner last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Odom from Draw visited Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Thomas Sunday.

Quite a number of our people attended the singing convention at New Lynn Sunday. They reported lots of fine singing and plenty of good dinner, especially fried chicken.

A ten days singing school will begin Monday night of next week with Mr. Luther Rudd as the teacher. Everyone in this section is cordially invited to attend. We will have a box supper Thursday night week with which to pay for the teaching. Let everyone who is interested in good singing come and help out. Most of you know what good singing Mr. Rudd can do.

There has been quite a bit of sickness in our community the past week but am glad to report all are about well again.

Mr. A. A. Lawson is remodeling his home this week. It looks as though it is going to be something fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Gile Mathis and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Thomas went to Lubbock Monday night to hear Rev. Frank Norris of Fort Worth speak on the presidential campaign. Miss Ebbe D. Bearden was carried to Lubbock early Monday morning, where she underwent a very serious operation. Her appendix was already burst when they arrived at the sanitarium. We hope and pray that she will soon be well again.

SMELL OF SAWDUST TANBARK WHEN SCHELL BROTHERS TRAINED WILD ANIMAL SHOW COMES TO TOWN

"Wagons lumberin' from the station, Urchins flocking to the sight, Tents spring up like fairy mushroom rooms

Grown to cities in an hour. An' the ponies go to water at the trough upon the square. An' the youngsters who are sick in bed are all that aren't there.

For the blood is fairly dancin when the circus comes to town.

The Schell Bros. Big Four Ring Trained Wild Animal Show, gayest, grandest, gladdest pageantry is coming to Tahoka on Tuesday, Oct. 16 for two performances.

The country for miles around is aglow with the noisy circus bills of purple and gold and the down-town billboards are gazed upon by thousands of eyes. The joys and memories of circus day keeps a steady hold upon the heart—of the American people.

Schell Bros. performance this year is entirely new. Hundreds of wild animale, jaguars, elephants, lions, leopards, tigers, monkeys are trained to do all kinds of tricks. Edward Oatz and his troupe of elephants are recognized to be the best trained in the world.

Captain Alfred has done wonders in his training of lions, capping the climax of his wonderful lion act by putting his head in the largest lion's mouth.

Fearless Little Vola Engesser is seen in the steel arena with a group of the most ferocious animals. Leopards, panthers and tigers. These acts are sensational and keep the audience on tip toe of expectancy during the entire two hours' performance.

The remarkable performance of the troupe of Japanese acrobats attracts especial attention everywhere.

The Wizard troupe of wire walkers are in a class by themselves.

The troupe of funny clowns headed by Ole Larson, keep the audience in good humor.

No Dull Moments At Lubbock Fair

LUBBOCK, Sept. 26.—Next Monday the Panhandle South Plains Fair will open in Lubbock for a week of educational entertainment.

There won't be a dull moment, Dr. I. E. Barr, president of the Fair Association has assured the general public.

Eleven counties and thirteen communities have signed for space in the Agricultural building for an agricultural exhibits. The counties are Cochran, Crosby, Floyd, Hockley, Lynn, Swisher, Terry, Bailey, Gaines, Dawson, and Lamb. The communities are: Carlisle, New Hope, Union, Grovesville, Caldwell, Idalou, Foster, Shallowater, Canyon, Hardy, Woodrow, McClung, and Liberty.

A new live stock building has been constructed for the extra hundreds of live stock that are expected. Largent, Gist, Lillard, Taft Branch, and other big live stock exhibitors have entered their herds here again.

The Women's department will be filled again with exhibits of excellence.

The Industrial building and machinery shed will have the latest machinery, merchandise and other commodities that are offered on the market.

Poultry exhibits will fill the Poultry building.

The Cotton Belt Carnival will be set up on the Mid-Way with new rides, clean shows and abundance of cat racks and other concessions. Three free act troupes will perform twice daily. Rabbit races will be a feature, each day. Fire Works will be shot each night. Premiums and prizes totaling more than $15,000 will be given away, including six Chevrolet automobiles.

Hundreds of good will boosters from Lubbock have journeyed over the South Plains within the past two weeks, to tell the citizens of this section about the fair and to give personal invitations to attend. "It's your fair—so be there," the boosters declare.

first half they seemed to be a bit frightened, but came back in the second half with their confidence restored. This game, when compared with the one with O'Donnell a week ago shows that the boys are improving and if they continue to do so will make some team play good football to take the district championship from them.

The line-up follows:		Tahoka
Lubbock	Position	Moffett
Hardberger	left end	Benson
Wright	left tackle	Speight
Alverson	left guard	Barnes
Levertton	center	Thompson
Johnson	right guard	Lawson
Sparks	right tackle	Willingham

Kimbrough	fullback	Substitutes: Taikoka—Mourfield, George, Greathouse, and Ketter.
		Officials: Referee—Archibald, Tech; Umpire—Ingerton, Tech; Head Linesman, McCoy, John Tarleton.

Petty

Most every one in this part of the county have gone to picking cotton and we need lots of sunshine. We can see binders running in most every field. Feed is turning out good.

Warren Smith and George McCracken visited at Tahoka last Sunday.

Mr. Overstreet is building some more houses on his farms. We are glad to see Petty improving. We also learn that Mr. D. C. Baker is building a new house on his farm.

Brooks Smith was called to Swenson last Friday to be by his mother's bedside. She is quite ill.

The social given at O. S. Smith's Saturday night was well attended by New Home and Lynn folks. Had lots of music and every one had a good time.

Our school will discontinue after this week for cotton picking.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott of Hereford and Mr. and Mrs. Nowlin of Meadow were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Smith Monday.

Mrs. Wayne Stanford and two daughters of Hall county visited friends at Petty last week.

Little Lila Mae Beatty has been on the sick list the past week. The ice cream supper at Mrs. Foster's for the high grades of the Petty school was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Brooks Smith's two brothers from Duke, Okla., are visiting in the Smith home this week.
