CITY'S DEBTS ARE REDUCED

Council, Under Old Administration, Takes Up Warrants For $37,000 As Last Act

One of the last acts of the city council before the two old members retired was to take up outstanding warrants against the City in the sum of $37,000.00. It was first planned to have a bonfire of these warrants on the streets Tuesday afternoon but the idea was abandoned upon the suggestion that the canceled warrants should be preserved.

In speaking of the work of the City Council during the past two years, Jack Applewhite and H. W. Calaway, the two retiring members, stated to the News that during this period of time the City's indebtedness has been reduced from approximately $188,000.00 to approximately $80,000.00.

Dr. Singleton, the retiring mayor went a little more into detail and stated that actually the outstanding indebtedness against the City is approximately $128,000.00 plus about $800.00 current expenses, but that the City has $16,000.00 cash in the sinking fund, $6,920.00 in transit to New York to take up some outstanding bonds, $4,600.00 in general and special funds of the City and $27,000.00 in 6 per cent municipal bonds. All these assets applied against the City's indebtedness would reduce it to about $18,000.00.

Also, during the past two years, the City has purchased street grading machinery at $4,200.00, a fire engine at a cost of $5,575.00, new fire hose at a cost of $1,500.00, a new siren at a cost of $340.00, and has done paving at a cost of $250.00.

The retiring mayor and city councilmen felt that the people were entitled to this information, and we gladly publish it.

These gentlemen as well as the other members of the council are to be commended for the excellent services rendered.

LUBBOCK GIRL KILLED BY BITE OF RATTLESNAKE

Little Mary, Frances Slaton, 10, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Slaton of Lubbock and niece of W. B. Slaton of this city, died at 8:00 o'clock Monday morning from the bite of a rattlesnake inflicted Sunday while the little girl and her father were climbing from a canyon on the Slaton Ranch near the city of Slaton. The big rattler struck from a clump of bushes which the little girl was passing, sinking its deadly fangs into her ankle. The father immediately tried to suck the poison from the wound and then with the little girl was hurried to Slaton where a serum treatment was given. But in spite of all that physicians could do, the poison did its deadly work. The father was also compelled to take a serious treatment to avoid serious effects from the poison taken into his system in sucking the virus from the little girl's wound.

Funeral services were held in Lubbock Tuesday afternoon. W. B. Slaton and family of this city attended the funeral.

MIDWAY HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB MEETS

Midway Home Demonstration Club met April 12th at the home of Mrs. J. W. Slover. Five members and two visitors and the agent being present. All members gave reports of work done since last meeting. The program as planned in the year book was carried out and proved very interesting and profitable. Committees were appointed to represent our club during Better Homes week and at the Chamber of Commerce banquet. All seemed very much enthused over the work.—Reporter.

Revival Results In Church Additions

As a result of the revival services conducted at the Baptist Church last week by the pastor, Rev. B. N. Shepherd, five persons were baptized Sunday night at the close of the services and others remain to be baptized. The attendance was good throughout and the congregations were unusually large on Sundays and revival nights.

PAPER ISSUED EARLY NEXT WEEK

On account of the big South Plains Chamber of Commerce convention which will be here Wednesday, we expect to have the News off the press on Tuesday night of next week, and we will print several hundred extra copies to distribute among the visitors.

We therefore urge all the business men to prepare copy for their ads early. Let us have them not later than Monday. We must have some of them earlier than that. We want the paper to be a good one next week and we want it to reflect the prosperity of the town and the county. The business men will all doubtless want ads in this issue and they can help us greatly by preparing their copy of the ads at once.

INTEREST IN OIL RENEWED

Scouts and Geologists Making Survey of County; Ash Well Is Changing to Rotary

Local interest in possible oil development here has been renewed by the return to this city within the past few days of representatives of the Shell Oil Company, successor to the Roxana Company. Several men are here taking a torsion balance survey beginning in the neighborhood of Three Lakes and extending eastward to the Garza County line.

Scouts and geologists for other companies are here also, and several of the larger companies have made purchases recently. It is rumored that some of these companies are to drill soon but others predict that no additional drilling will be done until the price of crude oil advances.

A crew is busy out at the Ash Syndicate well five miles west of Tahoka installing a rotary rig. The change from a standard to a rotary was found to be necessary several weeks ago on account of continual caving in this hole. The driller says that work with the rotary will probably begin within the next two or three days and it is expected that rapid progress will then be made.

O'Donnell Section Visited by Hail

County Commissioner T. J. Yandell of O'Donnell was here Tuesday and stated that a terrific hailstorm visited O'Donnell and a portion of the contiguous territory last Sunday afternoon, working havoc with fruit and gardens in the path of the storm. A strip about a mile and a half wide and of undetermined length extending from the northwest to the southeast suffered terribly. The hailstones were not large but the down pour was heavy drifting to a depth of eight and ten inches in some places. Mr. Yandell reports that his garden and fruit were utterly destroyed. A heavy rain accompanied the hail.

TO BUILD ANOTHER FILLING STATION ON HIGHWAY NO. 84

S. E. Reid has purchased one acre of land six miles east of town just south of the highway opposite the Vaughan home and will erect a building thereon, 24 by 70 feet, to be used as a filling station and grocery store. The building has been leased to young Mr. Pendergrass, who will operate the business. Construction is expected to begin this week.

WORK PROGRESSING NICELY ON NEW BUSINESS BUILDING

Work is progressing nicely on the Doak Building being erected on the corner just across the street from the Highway Garage. Floors which are of concrete have already been finished and the walls are of brick and tile and are rapidly rising. When the building is completed which will probably be within the next two weeks, it will be one of the most attractive in the city.—O'Donnell Index.

Twin boys were born Tuesday night to Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Edwards but one of the little fellows failed to live. The other one is vigorous and healthy, weighing nine pounds.

MORE BRICKS IN PROSPECT

Miss Cooper to Enlarge Hogan Building; Hill Plans Excellent New Structure

Miss Minnie Cooper, owner of the building occupied by the Hogan Dry Goods Company, has let the contract for the extension of this building back to the street on the east. The building is 30 feet wide and the extension will be 35 feet long. Work is to begin at once. The front of this building is also to be remodeled so as to give more show window space. The addition will give Hogan Dry Goods Company much more floor space for their stock of goods and will enable them to carry a larger stock.

Mr. Hill of Lamesa, owner of the Buick Service Station and Garage on Sweet Street, is planning to tear down the old red frame building which has occupied this corner for many years and build a brick on the site. The new structure will be 50 by 125 feet in size and in addition to the filling station there will be a neat and commodious show room at the front while the rear will be used as a workshop. The contract has not yet been let but contractors have been bidding on the job.

There are rumors of other buildings also to be erected soon but plans have not yet been perfected to the point that definite announcement can be made.

With several new bricks already completed since the first of the year, others now under construction, and still others to be built, this year promises to be the most active in building in the history of Tahoka.

New Home Farmer Makes Hogs Pay

Lit Moore, who lives out seven miles beyond New Home near Slide, was here Wednesday marketing some of his farm products and called at the News office to drop a little ad in the Want Ad Column.

In speaking of his operations the past year, Mr. Moore stated that he had sold during the last thirty days $1175.00 worth of hogs, and he still has about 75 hogs left. Mr. Moore says that to raise hogs profitably they should have a pasture to run on, either wheat or Sudan. His hogs have been on a wheat pasture and he is now preparing to sow Sudan for summer and fall pasturage. He feeds his hogs grain only a month or two ordinarily.

Mr. Moore also says that he has made money out of red-top cane. He has just sold the seed from thirteen acres of red-top at $282.86 and kept 100 pounds for planting, valued at $1.60. That figures $21.88 per acre, and in addition to this he had the bundles left for feeding purposes.

What Mr. Moore is doing many other farmers are doing and still others could do.

Attending Methodist District Conference

R. C. Wood, A. L. Lockwood, J. H. Wyatt, J. N. Thomas, E. S. Davis, L. F. Craft, George M. Reed, and Miss Myrtle McNeese are attending the district conference at Levelland today and to morrow as delegates from the Tahoka Methodist Church. Jesse Roberson is also attending the conference and expects to be licensed to preach at this conference.

COUNTY OFFICIALS ATTEND BOUNDARY MEETING AT POST

Judge G. C. Grider and all members of the commissioners' court met with the county judge and commissioners of Garza county Tuesday for the purpose of coming to some kind of an understanding as to the boundary suit now pending between these and other counties. Terry, Hockley and Crosby counties were also officially represented at the meeting. The boundaries of a number of West Texas counties seem to be involved.

ANOTHER FILLING STATION TO OPEN HERE

T. R. Cathcart is preparing to open a filling station in the building formerly known as the American Filling Station at the southwest corner of the square. Mr. Cathcart will handle the Gulf Products.

District C. Of C. Convention Meets In Tahoka Wednesday

Convention Plans Almost Complete

On next Wednesday we will have as visitors in our city somewhere between five and ten thousand people of the South Plains and quite a few from other sections of the State. The people of Tahoka have co-operated splendidly in planning for the visit of our friends of the South Plains. Tahoka and all Lynn County welcomes these people to Tahoka on the occasion of the South Plains District Convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

Yards Being Cleaned

To the residents of Tahoka should be extended congratulations and a vote of thanks for the interest, pride and work which has been going on in the yards of our homes for the past two weeks. There was some talk of a Clean-Up Campaign, but from watching the activities in the yards and gardens for the past few weeks it seems that everyone was taking great pride in getting his or her home to look its best. The Civic Committee of the Chamber of Commerce of which Emory Nance is Chairman wishes to thank each and everyone who has taken such a great interest in beautifying their yards and homes. To those who have not:

Plan Bigger Fair For Next Fall

The committee appointed by the Chamber of Commerce directors a few weeks ago to work out plans for the fair to be held here next fall met Tuesday night and made preliminary plans.

It was decided to organize a fair association having a board of directors composed of one or more members from every community in the county. Some one or more persons in each community will be asked to serve on this board, and they will determine the policies and direct the activities of the association. In other words, it is to be in reality a county wide organization, and it is hoped that every community in the county will have an exhibit.

Members of the committee which met Tuesday night were: Prof. Taylor White, teacher of vocational agriculture, C. C. Williams, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, Ray Shaver, county farm agent, Miss Thelma Greenwade, county home demonstration agent, County Judge G. C. Grider, J. E. Nance, and E. I. Hill.

NEXT MONDAY IS TRADES DAY IN TAHOKA. COME!

Next Monday will be Trades Day in Tahoka again.

Many people are expected to be here with their wares to be offered for sale as on previous occasions of this kind.

Judge G. C. Grider of Tahoka and Col W. V. Tolbert of Lamesa will act as auctioneers.

Let's everybody come.

GLEN WALLACE Who will conduct the revival at the Church of Christ.

Church of Christ To Hold Revival

Revival services will begin at the Church of Christ next Sunday morning to continue through the following week.

The preaching will be done by Elder Glen Wallace, who is said to be one of the strongest young evangelists in the state.

Elder Kercheville, the local minister, will assist, of course, in every way possible.

Members of other denominations and the public generally are cordially invited to attend these services, beginning at 8:00 o'clock each evening.

FOUR TRUSTEES TO BE ELECTED

Election Will Be Held May 4th, Terms of Thomas, Wells, Sanford and Hill Expire

As will be noticed from a notice of a trustee election published elsewhere in this paper, four trustees are to be elected for the Tahoka Independent School District on May 4th to serve the ensuing two years.

The terms of C. A. Thomas, S. W. Sanford, W. C. Wells, and E. I. Hill expire and their successors are to be elected. They have each served four years and it is our understanding that none of them intend to permit their names to appear on the ballot this year. The last named above, who is president of the board, has been too busy getting out this great moral and religious weekly to make a good school trustee but the other three gentlemen named have been dandies. We doubt if three better men for the job could be found. They are men of sound business judgment and have the best interests of the school and the community at heart, and they have rendered a patriotic and valuable service to the district, but having served four years they feel it is

Farm House South Of Town Burns

The residence of V. S. Castle on the former J. B. Nance farm five miles south of Tahoka on Highway No. 9 was destroyed by fire last Friday afternoon while both Mr. and Mrs. Castle were in the field. The building and contents were completely consumed. Insurance was carried on the building in the sum of $750, which was possibly less than half of the value of the building.

The origin of the fire is unknown. It seems to have made rapid headway and the building was consumed within a very few minutes.

LAMESA TO HAVE LARGE DELEGATION AT TAHOKA

LAMESA, April 16.—A large delegation will attend the South Plains West Texas District Convention of the Chamber of Commerce to secure mercy at Tahoka on April 24th. S. L. Forrest heads a committee from the Chamber of Commerce to secure a large attendance upon this meeting. Local talent will also appear on the program at this meeting. Judge Gordon B. McGuire, district judge, of this judicial district will deliver the principal address of the occasion.

Wm. A. Wilson, local secretary has been selected by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce to serve as toastmaster for the banquet given at noon at this meeting. Other local talent that will attend will likely be the Lamesa municipal band, high school old fiddlers, male quartet and ladies' chorus.

TAHOKA GIRLS ON HONOR ROLL AT TECH

The News has received communications from the Texas Technological College at Lubbock advising that Misses Floy Anglin and Mary Great-house, both of Tahoka, made the honor roll for the winter term in that institution, each having an average grade of B plus.

LARGE CROWD IS EXPECTED

Nearly Every Town on South Plains Is To Be Represented In Big Meeting

Next Wednesday is going to be a gala day in Tahoka.

The old town will be all dressed up in gay colors.

Bands will be parading the streets and there will be music everywhere, the blare of drums the raucous notes of the saxophone as well as the classic strains of the clarinet and the cornet. "The Old Gray Mare" will inevitably be one of the favorites.

And there will be thousands of people on the streets, people from all over the South Plains, some from the north plains, many from below the cap rock—in fact they will be here from over West Texas, and a few will be here possibly from that fine city which Dallas delights to dub as "Cowtown", the city "where the West begins."

It will be such a day as Tahoka has never seen.

The occasion is the annual meeting of the South Plains District of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. Nearly all the fine towns of this section will have delegations here—Lubbock, Plainview, Floydada, Crosbyton, Ralls, Littlefield, Levelland, Abernathy, Slaton, Wilson, Post, Brownfield, O'Donnell, Lamesa, Seagraves, and numerous other fine towns that we haven't space to mention.

They are all coming to Tahoka, to be entertained and to put on a show themselves. They will vie with each other in friendly rivalry in an effort to attract the most favorable attention, and at the same time they will all, consciously or unconsciously, size up Tahoka. They will leave with a good impression or a bad impression of the town. There will be a lot of fanfare and ostentation but it will not all be that.

A splendid program has been prepared. The morning session will be held in the English Theatre. The afternoon session will be held in the old Connolly Motor building. At these meetings, questions of vital importance to all West Texas will be discussed. Much good should come from these discussions. There will be a "My Home Town Contest", in which the youth of the land will vie one with another for mastery. All of which is fine.

But how is Tahoka going to receive the visitors? Are we going to make them like us? Are we going to give them a good impression of the town and the people?

Of course we are. We are going to be friendly and courteous and helpful. Surely we are going to have our vacant lots and streets and alleys as clean as possible under the present building conditions. We are going to make them love Tahoka. And—not only Tahoka but all Lynn County. O'Donnell helped Tahoka to get this convention, and we want O'Donnell to be here strong. We want them to let the visitors know that O'Donnell is very much on the map. Also our fine little sister to the north, Wilson. All Wilson should be here and many of them doubtless will be here with banners flying. And of course we want all the people from the rural communities to be here. Hundreds of them will be here. It will be a gala day for all Lynn County.

Let's make all the folks glad they came.

Me must.

Names Are Filed For School Trustees

The following names have been filed with J. S. Weatherford to be printed on the ballot as candidates for trustees to succeed the four men who are retiring from the board: Judge B. P. Maddox, R. C. Wood, J. K. Applewhite and John Evans. Others are being favorably mentioned and it is possible that several other names will be filed. The election is to be held on Saturday, April 24th.

Locals

Little Bertie May Childress, 12, daughter of Mrs. M. L. Haynes, who lives several miles south of Tahoka, underwent a very serious operation at a Lubbock sanitarium last Thursday when one of the bones of the right forearm was removed, from the wrist to the elbow. A few weeks ago the arm began to pain her and the pain increased in intensity until finally she was taken to the sanitarium in Lubbock last Thursday when it was found that one of the bones had so badly decayed that an operation was imperative. The diseased member is now doing as well as could be expected.

In renewing his subscription for the Lynn County News and the Dallas News, W. N. McAllister of Draw stated Monday that he had been reading the Dallas News most of the time for the past forty years and that he or other members of his family had been a regular subscriber for about thirty years. Dallas was just a small town when he began reading the News, and since he has always been interested in public affairs, he has gained an unusual fund of knowledge concerning the political history and the agricultural, economic and industrial development of this state.

We were in error recently in stating that the residence of John Donaldson was to be of stucco finish. It is to be a brick veneer structure and when completed will be one of the most handsome and substantial homes in the city.

E. Evans, S. B. Wilson, and H. W. Wilson left for their home at Fort Worth Sunday after a few days visit here with Mr. and Mrs. John Evans. Mr. Evans is a brother of John while the Wilsons are Mrs. Evans' brothers.

J. L. Frazier of Decatur spent a few days here this week giving the town and the country the once-over. He expressed himself as being well pleased and intimated that he might buy property here later.

Pat Swan, O. L. Woody, and Louis D. Mueller were elected as members of the school board at Wilson in the election recently held there, according to the Wilson Pointer. A very light vote was cast.

Miss Berta Hill, who is a student of the West Texas State Teachers' College at Canyon, visited the home folks over the week end.

G. A. Brasfield and Chas. F. Shook attended the State Lumberman's Convention which was in session in Waco last week.

J. C. Welch, who recently closed his grocery business here, has opened a grocery business at Slide.

AMERICA'S FIRST RAILROAD WAS LOCATED IN THE SOUTH

The First Successful Steam Locomotive in U. S. Put Into Operation In The South

In his search for facts relating to the industrial development of the Southern States, Arthur Coleman, Associate Editor of Holland's, The Magazine of the South, learned that the first railroad in the United States chartered for general use was in the South. Beginning with a brief mention of the historic "Tom Thumb" locomotive, followed by the "Best Friend", which exploded after six months of successful operation on the South Carolina Railroad, Mr. Coleman brings his readers down to modern Southern good roads and airways and shows what the South's transportation system means toward developing Southern business.

In the current issue of Holland's, he states that over 34 per cent of the total railroad mileage in the country is in the Southern States and that since 1860 the South has shown an increase in railroad mileage of 845 per cent, as against 465 per cent for all remaining states. The first steamship to cross the Atlantic, according to Mr. Coleman, was owned by Savannah capital and sailed from Savannah, Georgia. He says that last year Southern export values more than doubled those of the Pacific coast, while import values through Southern ports, in the past quarter century, increased more than 240 per cent as against approximately 350 per cent for all remaining ports in the Nation. Southern ports handled 42 per cent of the country's total water-borne tonnage. Export values from Galveston and Houston alone exceed the combined ports of the Pacific Coast. Navigable rivers of the South handle over 17,250,000 tons of commerce annually. Texas alone carries 4,500,000 passengers annually, and operate over 21,000 miles of highway. In 1928 there were in the Southern States, a total of over 2,900 miles of air mail routes and more than 300 air ports and landing fields.

"As these various phases of the commercial world are expanding, so is expanding this entire region—industrially, socially, economically—rising head and shoulders above every other section of the Nation until its pre-eminence, so swiftly and so soundly attained, is the wonder of the United States today. But as its people prosper in the world of business and trade, they are giving thought, too, to those things in life which make cultured and happy minds; for beauty and charm and grace of living. They are giving their attention more and more to the planning and esthetic improvement of their cities and their towns and even their rural sections. Their forethought is repaying them richly in dividends immeasurable in terms of financial gains; and, as is always true, when men do worthwhile things without thought of money, they are being repaid in money, also. Money which, in turn, is put back into further service for an appreciative people."

ANOTHER TITAN PASSES

The sudden death of ex-Senator
Joseph Weldon Bailey last Saturday brought genuine sorrow to multiplied thousands of Texas citizens and to innumerable friends and admirers throughout the nation, for Bailey was one of the most picturesque, and at one time one of the most powerful political leaders of this country.

Born and reared in Mississippi, receiving his law education in Tennessee, locating first in Georgia for the practice of his profession, he came to Texas and located at Gainesville in 1885 at the age of 22. A born fighter and an intellectual giant, his neighbors and friends turned immediately and instinctively to him for leadership and within four years he was a Representative in Congress
from the old Fifth District of Texas.
After serving in this capacity ten or twelve years, he defeated Horace Chilton for the United States Senate and served two terms in that body.
Both in the House and the Senate he was a real leader. No man could command the attention of the Senate as Joe Bailey could. When it was announced that Bailey was to speak, every Senator was in his seat and the galleries filled to capacity. Some of his deliverances in that body were pronounced by his fellow-Senators and by the country at large as among the greatest ever heard in the United States Senate.

But in spite of his extraordinary intellectual and oratorical powers, in spite of his commanding personality,
the confidence of the people of Texas
in their idol received a terrible shock in 1906 when they learned that while a U. S. Senator he had received numerous "loans" from H. Clay Pierce of St. Louis, President of the Waters Pierce Oil Company, and had used his powerful influence with Tom Smith, then Secretary of State at Austin, to induce the latter to permit
the Waters Pierce Oil Company to re-enter Texas, its right to do business in the state having been forfeited in a suit filed by the attorney general charging a violation of the Texas Anti-trust law. A legislative investigation followed in which the whole matter was aired. In 1907, Bailey was a candidate for delegate at large from Texas to the National Democratic convention which convened at Denver. Cone Johnson was his opponent. A red-hot fight was waged throughout Texas, in which Bailey's connection with the Waters-Pierce
Oil Company was the all consuming issue. Bailey won, but by a small majority and from that time his influence waned.

In the state prohibition election in 1887, Bailey had espoused the cause of Prohibition. In the numerous local option contests that were fought out in the late '90's and in the early years of this century, Bailey was rated as an uncompromising dry. But in his fight for election as a delegate to the Denver convention in 1907, in a speech at San Antonio, he definitely aligned himself with the wets. Cone Johnson, his opponent, who had been a wet in early manhood thereupon aligned himself with the drys, and while the liquor question was only a minor issue in this campaign, yet it probably had much to do with the future course of these two outstanding leaders with reference to the liquor question.

While serving in the House and Senate at Washington, Bailey was rated as one of the most powerful Democratic leaders. In the power of his oratory he ranked with Bryan
while intellectually he was generally regarded as Bryan's superior. He is yet believed by many admirers to have been the paragon of political wisdom and one of the greatest statesmen of the country. Had he kept his political conduct free from suspicion, had he maintained the high moral standards and been guided by the high ideals that characterized Bryan, had he been progressive instead of reactionary in his thinking, there can be little doubt that he would have won a higher place on the scroll of fame than did the silver-tongued orator of the Platte.

Like Bryan's, his death was sudden and dramatic; to many, it was tragic.
To us it seems that his life was more tragic than his death. As a leader of the moral and progressive forces of this country, he would have been invincible. But as a reactionary, as an implacable foe of woman suffrage and national prohibition, as a defender of certain distinguished politicians accused of political corruption, under suspicion himself by reason of his connection with the Waters-Pierce Oil Company, he threw away every claim to greatness that he otherwise might have possessed, and he will go down in history merely as one of the near-great.

FIDO MAKES UP WITH BULGER

Two months ago, Senators Hal-brook of Galveston, Woodul of Houston, Williams of San Antonio, Horns-
by of Austin, Hardin of Stephenville, Miller of Weatherford, Small of Wellington, and a majority of the others were cursing the "Hoovercrats", denouncing them as "traitors" to the Democratic party, and voting for the Wirtz bill to exclude "Bolters" from participation in the Democratic primaries next year.

Now, according to the Fort Worth
Star Telegram's staff correspondent in Monday's issue of that paper, Byron C. Utecht, all these gentlemen have faced about. They are in favor of forgetting the campaign of last year, forgetting the sins of the "Hoovercrats", forgetting that there ever was such a thing as the "Bolt-er Bill" forgetting all the differences of the past. They are suggesting that all factions kiss and make up and that all dwell together hereafter in peace and harmony under the same vine and fig tree.

Instead of hurling bitter invectives, these gentlemen are now speaking honeyed words. Instead of displaying the mailed fist, they are extending the olive branch. Instead of meting out punishment in the shape of Wirtz bills, they are now ready to shelve "shopworn" issues and join with the despised Samartians in the common task of rebuilding the walls of their own political Jerusalem.

They seem suddenly to have seen a great light. A wonderful change has come unexpectedly over the spirit of their dreams. The scowl of their faces has given away to a smile.

Having faced about, of course an explanation must be given, and Mr.
Utecht gives the explanation which they have so artistically contrived.
These gentlemen made a trip to West Texas. They talked with the common people, the "hoi polloi". These people asked no questions about the Wirtz bill, about the Smith-Hoover campaign, about the Klan and anti-Klan business. Therefore, they decided that the people are not interested in these things but that they are interested in vital issues of the present, in the development and prosperity of Texas. And so these party purists are willing to forget the "apostasy" of the "Hoovercrats" in the last campaign.

But is that the real explanation of the sudden reversal of these gentlemen—these pious party purists that never fell from grace politically in their lives?

It is not. The real explanation
may be found in the fact that Governor Moody recently vetoed the Wirtz bill and the Bolters will therefore be allowed to participate in the Democratic primaries next year, in spite of the frantic efforts of these now conciliatory gentlemen to kick
every every last one of the "Hoover-crats" out of the party. And these gentlemen may need some help
the next time they run for office. It was a vision of their own political hides hanging on the backyard fence
of the sinful "Hoovercrats", doubtless, that inspired in the breasts of these would-be statesmen this suddenly-developed spirit of magnanimity and these tender sentiments of brotherly affection.

And so the worm has turned.
The wind has changed, and these gentlemen are hastily trimming their sails.

For a time Fido was terribly noisy and vicious, but when he found out that he must sleep in the same kennel with quiet old Bulger, he decided that Bulger was a pretty good dog after all.

The First Bottle of Cardui

Montgomery, La.—"I was in a dreadfully run-down condition," says Mrs. Charles L. Lacroix, of this city. "I suffered a great deal of pain. I was in misery all over. I could not sit up and I could not lie down. I couldn't sleep and at times
I would have dreadful vomiting spells. The aches and pains seemed to cover my whole body.

"I had taken Cardui, off and on,
since 1903. It had always done me good, so when I got in this bad condition, I thought I would take it again.

"One night, my husband brought me home six bottles of Cardui and I began to take it. I could tell that I was improving from the first bottle, but I kept on taking the medicine, for I knew that I needed a tone that would build me up and strengthen me where I was weak and run-down. That is exactly what Cardui did for me. After I had finished the sixth bottle I felt fine. I feel truly thankful for what Cardui has done for me, for I could not have gone on living in the des-

Cardui is a harmless extract of valuable medicinal herbs, and acts

Scout Work's Value Told By Nevill

On behalf of the Boy Scouts of Troop No. 40 of Tahoka, we wish to thank the editor of the News for the article appearing in the columns of the News some time ago in reference to the work and purposes of our local Scout organization. We also desire to thank those parents and citizens of Tahoka and surrounding vicinity for their presence at our Court of Honor, for their interest and encouragement, and we feel sure that if more of the parents of the Boy Scouts would investigate the objects and purposes of the Scout movement, they would lend their aid and assistance more readily to the cause for which we stand. We wish to say to the fathers and mothers of Tahoka whose boys are members of our troop and also to those who have sons eligible to membership, that Scouting is a program of interesting, useful things for boys TO DO in their leisure time. These boys are taught the mysteries of Woodcraft, of First Aid to the injured, of Swimming and Life Saving, of Outdoor Cooking and Camping, of Signaling, Map Making and Hiking, of Citizenship and other useful subjects to boys who will some day be citizens of our country. The Scout Masters give their time without pay because of their interest in the boys of America.

The Boy Scouts are taught that lost time like water that has passed beneath the bridge, is gone forever, that they are only a boy once and that they should take this opportunity to prepare themselves for their future life. The time which boys waste while they are boys is never regained so Scouts value time and use it thriftily and with purpose.

To become a Scout a boy must be at least 12 years of age. The age limit is not set as to how long one may belong to the Scout organization. There are some men over 21 years of age who are Scouts. Following we give the Scout Oath and the Scout laws which a Scout must subscribe to and obey before he can become a Scout:

The Scout Oath
On my Honor, I will do my best:
To do my duty to God and my Country, and obey the Scout Laws.
To help other people at all times.
To keep myself physically strong, mentally awake and morally straight.

The Scout Laws
1. A Scout is Trustworthy.
2. A Scout is Loyal.
3. A Scout is Helpful.
4. A Scout is Friendly.
5. A Scout is Courteous.
6. A Scout is Kind.
7. A Scout is Obedient.
8. A Scout is Cheerful.
9. A Scout is Thrifty.
10. A Scout is Brave.
11. A Scout is Clean.
12. A Scout is Reverent.

Now that we have given you a small portion of what Scouting stands for we hope that you will be present at our next meeting and see for yourself what a fine bunch of Scouts we have here. If there is anything else you wish to learn about the Scout movement you can do so by borrowing a hand book from the Scout Master or some of the boys. This hand book tells everything a Scout stands for from the time he

We urge the parents of the boys and other citizens of the town who are interested in Scouting or who want to become interested to meet with us in the basement of the old Central Ward school building in the Southwest part of town at 7:30 each Friday evening of the week. We have Scout programs which we put on and which we are sure will be worth your time to come and see besides the moral encouragement which you give the boys. We are training for a Scout field meet to be held at Lubbock, May 18th, in which contests will be held between the different troops of this district. The contests will be Signaling, Message carrying, fire building and other interesting outdoor activities. The boys are training for these contests at the present and we hope to bring back the banner in Class B. Our meetings are closed with taps and a short word of prayer between 9:30 and 10:00 P. M. We are hoping that the parents will hear this call and come out and lend their moral support to the local Scout Troop.

Soil Erosion

Soil washing or erosion is one of the biggest problems facing the farmers who are farming rolling lands. H. H. Bennett, of the United States Bureau of Soils, has stated that an annual loss of at least $200,000,000 is sustained by farmers of the United States as a result of soil erosion.

Although some types of erosion are readily noticed, there are forms of erosion, such as sheet washing, that are taking place so gradually that the loss is overlooked. Some soil washing takes place in a cultivated field, even when there is little slope to the land. The severe erosion resulting in the formation of gullies is readily noticed. In many sections of the country gullies have progressed until millions of acres of formerly cultivated land have been thrown out of cultivation and under present conditions could not be profitably reclaimed.

The character of the rainfall has much to do with the amount of washing. If rains come in heavy down-pours, much more soil washing will result than under similar conditions where gentle rains are the rule. Some soils are more affected by run-off water than others, due to their different abilities to absorb water and for their soil grains to hold together and stay in place.

First Step
Much of the loss from soil erosion can be prevented. By checking erosion the farmer is not only able to hold the soil that he now has in its place, but he is also taking the first step in a program of soil improvement.

Building of terraces and growing of cover crops are probably two of the most important means of checking erosion in cultivated fields. Terraces help to reduce damage from run-off water by slowing down its movement over the soil surfaces, and thereby reduce the amount of soil that can be picked up by the water. This slowing down of the rate of run-off enables the soil to absorb more of the rainfall and at least on compact heavy soils this will be of benefit to the crop grown. Winter cover crops, such as small grains, vetch or other suitable winter legumes, will not only reduce loss of soil through erosion, but also will conserve soluble plant food which would otherwise be lost from the soil through leaching.

Well drained land is essential to most profitable production of cotton or tobacco.

Pete Coleman, fire chief, this week received a communication from the State Insurance Commissioner advising that in order to prevent a raise in the key rate for the city of Tahoka it would be necessary for the fire hydrants to be painted and for the old Ford fire truck repaired and placed in a serviceable condition. Mr. Coleman says that as a matter of fact the city needs an entirely new fire truck, since two trucks would be needed in case of a serious fire anywhere in the business section of town.

The largest of the tribe weighed twelve pounds.

Chautauqua Brings Bang-Up Program

Olivar's Philippine Troubadors, the third day Chautauqua attraction, is, as the name indicates, "something different" in the entertainment line. While the group are all native Filipinos they are also college men educated in the United States. They play the poignant, exotic South Sea music as only islanders can play, but to this natural ability is added the technique and training acquired in American schools. While the Troubadours use chiefly their native instruments they do not confine themselves to South Sea music. The program is well balanced and contains many American numbers which attained added charm when played in this delightful style on the stringed instruments. Olivar and his Troubadours are a group of jolly carefree entertainers who have the native talent of unconscious funsters. They put much vim and spontaneous joy into their programs as they romp through each number and enjoy them as much as the audience. A moment is taken during the program to discuss the life in these distant islands and the problem confronting the Philippine people in the new opportunities offered by Uncle Sam.

REAL PASTURE GIVES CHEAP DAIRY FEED

PRODUCES MORE MILK THAN ANY OTHER RATION AT SMALL COST.

Real pasture provides the cheapest dairy feed. It produces more milk than any other ration at one-sixth to one-tenth of the cost. Quite true, a cow cannot hold enough pasture feed to provide all required nutrients and some concentrates must be supplied.

This statement, made by J. P. LaMaster, chief of dairying of Clemson College, S. C., was inspired by the fact that he found that many dairy farmers are making the mistake of feeding cows almost exclusively of grain or concentrates, and according to the survey made by economists at Clemson, are often "burning them out" so they can be milked only three years.

LaMaster points out that the fact overlooked that a cow is adapted to use larger quantities of roughages that roughages can be produced more cheaply than concentrates, and the feed is the greatest cost in milk production.

In addition to pastures, properly seeded and fertilized, LaMaster suggests a greater acreage of legume hay and silage.

Seed Mixtures

The various experiment stations of the South have worked out proper seed mixtures for various conditions and soils. For instance, one of the general mixtures recommended by the North Carolina Experiment Station is for well-drained soils of sandy loam type of the Coastal Plain, and calls for eight pounds per acre of red top seven pounds of tall meadow oat seven of orchard grass, five of mammoth clover, and three of white clover; or thirteen of orchard grass and four of white clover; or seven red top, nine orchard grass, seven tall meadow oat, four Alsike clover and three white clover. Other mixtures for bottom lands in the coastal plain section to be sown in the spring, and for lowlands in the hilly and mountainous sections are given out by the North Carolina station and county agents. Similar mixture recommendations may be obtained by farmers by writing their own experiment stations or consulting their county farm agent.

Heavy applications of well-rotted barnyard manure, supplemented by commercial fertilizers, are good for pastures.

H. J. R. No. 6.
A JOINT RESOLUTION
proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas providing for a Supreme Court of nine members, and for continuous session of that Court.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Sections 2 and 3 of Article 5 of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

"Article 5, Section 2. The Supreme Court shall consist of a Chief Justice and eight Associate Justices, any five of whom shall constitute a quorum, and the concurrence of five shall be necessary to a decision of a case; in other matters, until otherwise provided by Law, the jurisdiction of the Court shall be exercised under such regulations and orders as the Court by a majority vote may prescribe. No person shall be eligible to the office of Chief Justice or Associate Justice of the Supreme Court unless he be, at the time of his election, a citizen of the United States and of this state and unless he shall have attained the age of 30 years, and shall have been a practicing lawyer or a judge of a court, or such lawyer and judge together at least seven years. Said Chief Justice and Associate Justices shall be elected by the qualified voters of the State at a general election, shall hold their offices six years, or until their successors are elected and qualified, and shall receive such compensation as may be provided by law. In case of a vacancy in the office of Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, the Governor shall fill the vacancy until the next general election for State officers, and at such general election the vacancy for the unexpired term shall be filled by election by the qualified voters of the State. The Judges of the Supreme Court who may be in office at the time this amendment takes effect shall continue in their office until the expiration of their term of office under the present Constitution, and until their successors are elected and qualified. When this amendment takes effect, the Governor shall immediately appoint six additional Associate Justices of the Supreme Court for terms of office so that the terms of two of such appointed Associate Justices shall expire with the term of office of each of the present members of the Supreme Court, and, upon the qualifications of such new Justices, the Commission of Appeals of the State of Texas shall terminate."

"Article 5, Section 3. The Supreme Court shall have appellate Jurisdiction only except as herein specified, which shall be co-extensive with the limits of the State. Its appellate jurisdiction shall extend to questions of law arising in cases of which the Courts of Civil Appeals have appellate jurisdiction under such restrictions and regulations as the Legislature may prescribe. Until otherwise provided by law, the appellate jurisdiction of the Supreme Court shall extend to questions of law arising in the cases in Courts of Civil Appeals in which the Judges of any Court of Civil Appeals may disagree or where the several Courts of Civil Appeals may hold differently on the same question of law, or where a Statute of the State is held void, and shall extend to such other questions as may be within the Court's Appellate Jurisdiction under the Statutes of the State in force when this amendment takes effect. The Supreme Court and the Justices thereof shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus, as may be prescribed by Law, and under such regulations as may be prescribed by Law, the said Court, and the Justices thereof may issue the writs of mandamus, procedendo, certiorari and such other writs, as may be necessary to enforce its jurisdiction. The Legislature may confer original jurisdiction on the Supreme Court to issue writs of quo warranto and mandamus in such cases as may be specified except as against the Governor of the State.

The Supreme Court shall have power, upon affidavit or otherwise as by the Court may be determined, to ascertain such matters of fact as may be necessary to the proper exercise of its jurisdiction. The Supreme Court shall be open at all times and shall sit at the State Capitol for the transaction of business at such times as may be designated by the Court.

The Supreme Court shall appoint a clerk, who shall give bond in such manner as is now or may hereafter be required by law, and he may hold his office for four years and shall be subject to removal by said Court for good cause entered of record on the Minutes of said Court, who shall receive such compensation as the Legislature may provide."

Section 2. Said proposed Constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at a special election to be held throughout the State on Tuesday, July 16, 1929, at which election each voter opposing said proposed amendment shall scratch off of the ballot with pen or pencil the following words printed on said ballot: "For the amendment to the State Constitution providing for a Supreme Court of nine members and for a continuous session of that Court."

Section 3. The Governor shall issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have the same published and said election held at provided by the Constitution and Laws of this State.

Section 4. The sum of Five Thousand ($5,000.00) Dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated out of the State Treasury to pay for the expenses of said publication and election. Approved February 19, 1929. (A Correct Copy)

O'DONNELL BUYS STREET WORKING MACHINERY

The City Council recently purchased a brand new Bates Cotipillar tractor together with a Stockland Grader for street work, representing an outlay of $4075.00. The new machinery arrived the latter part of last week and was immediately put to work on the streets of the city. Several of the town's main streets have already been put in fine shape and it is the intention of the City Council to grade every street in town just as fast as they can get to them. So far the work has been highly satisfactory and by the time the work is finished all streets will resemble a speedway compared to what they have been in the past. The Council is to be congratulated for this progressive step.—O'Donnell Index.

We were glad to have Mrs. Williams give her name as a member. Our membership and interest is growing nicely. Those who do not attend are missing some instructive lessons.

The Society will meet again Monday at three o'clock. Come!

O'Donnell responded nobly to the call of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce as they have done in the past when Messrs. Whitehead, Camp-

Twenty-five members were taken by the business men of O'Donnell which is about the same number that subscribed to that organization last year. We believe O'Donnell's membership in this organization is larger than any other town in West Texas figuring from the view point of population.—O'Donnell Index.

BILIOUSNESS
Arkansan Convinced Since His Childhood That "Black-Draught Can't Be Beaten" For It.

West Helena, Ark.—"I am fifty-two years of age, and I have taken Black-Draught, when needed, all my life," writes Mr. G. L. Smith, of 253 North Third Street, this city.

"When I was just a child, my mother made Black-Draught tea, and gave it to me for colds and biliousness. It was a family medicine with us.

"After I was grown and went out on the farm, working hard, I would get a dull, tired feeling and a bad taste in my mouth. I would know then, that I was bilious. I would take a few doses of Black-Draught, and soon feel good as new.

"In later years, I have taken Black-Draught and it has helped me for constipation and biliousness, and I am still of the same belief, as when a child, that Black-Draught can't be beaten."

Thousands of men and women find Black-Draught of great help in relieving the common ailments, due to constipation, biliousness and indigestion.

Black-Draught is prepared from selected medicinal herbs and roots. A natural remedy for unnatural conditions of the system.

Costs only 1 cent a dose. NC-307

ANNOUNCE PROGRAM FOR CHAUTAUQUA WEEK

The citizens of Tahoka and Lynn County are to have the opportunity beginning April 27th to hear some of the best entertainers in the South. We are to have a series of seven programs by people of the Associated Chautauquas of America. This same company was with us last year and gave a series of programs that were highly pleasing to those who attended them. The programs this year will begin on the evening of April 27th, and will last through May 1st. These entertainers, and there will be a complete change of personal each day, are of the highest type in their profession.

The first number starts with a play, "The Clean Up". It's a real comedy and is a story of a wife who got into politics against her husband's wishes. She runs for Mayor with the supposedly crooked ward boss as her campaign manager. Of course she wins the election.

Radio Warbles With Corinne Jessop

The second day is a radio entertainment program. It is a sort of informal intimate type of program, just as if the audience was gathered around the microphone with Miss Jessop, Mr. Hartley, and Miss Zinser. Miss Jessop is primarily a funster. Mr. Hartley was a member of the Howard Collegians. Miss Zinser comes from the Chicago Civic Opera, which of course spells real musicianship.

Junior Town

All of the superintendents of the circuit are ladies and devote the morning each day to the youngsters. This year the Junior Department is an enlarged plan.

Mrs. Private Peat

A real headliner for the program this season has been secured in the wife of the famous Private Peat, who was out-standing war speaker in 1917 and 1918. Mrs. Peat is fully as accomplished as her husband. She was born in North Ireland and has that ready Irish wit. She speaks on the "International Future of Our Children."

Oliver's Phillipine Troubadours

This is Phillipine and Hiwailia music. Many companies have toured the West, none of them with a better understanding of popular Ekes nor more ability to satisfy than Oliver and his boys.

Dr. Henry Black Burns

Dr. Henry Black Burns speaks on "Cords and Discords", which deals with the prevention of crime and disease. Intelligent law enforcement can never be secured without intelligent popular support.

"Smilin' Thru"

The second great play of the week is more serious than the first, and yet there is plenty of humorous situations throughout. "Smilin' Thru" is one of the outstanding plays of the twentieth century. It has been given in many of the cities over and over again, but has not been generally presented throughout the West. Special scenery was built to move it over the circuit. "Smilin' Thru" is a great climax to a great week.

The Programs such as the above are programs which most any minister of the Gospel would recommend for his congregation. They are educational, inspiring and up-lifting. Every father and mother in Lynn County should not only attend the programs but they should insist that their children attend each and every program. There is no telling what child or grown up will get a new slant on life or will be inspired to reach out for a higher calling in life from these Programs.

The Chautauqua offers the best in their programs and yet the cost is about 35 cents per show for grown people and only about 21 cents per show for the children enrolled in the schools. This will be a week of real entertainment and education so get your season tickets and enjoy each and every performance, beginning the evening of April 27th.

LOUISIANA WINS FIGHT TO SAVE CANE SUGAR CROP

NEW ORLEANS, La.—Louisiana's sugar cane industry, threatened with complete destruction several years ago, has recovered to such an extent that the state will produce 300,000 tons of sugar for American tables in 1929, according to E. A. Burguierea, president of the American Sugar Cane League.

"Recovery of the Louisiana sugar industry is one of the most remarkable achievements of agricultural science," declared Mr. Burguierea. "Between 1922 and 1927 the state's cane sugar yield fell from 305,000 tons to only 43,000 tons. Spread of the cane borer and other plant parasites threatened to ruin all sugar plantations.

"Agronomists employed by the American Sugar Cane League discovered in Java a new hardy variety of cane called 'P. O. J.' after the Dutch name of the Java Experimental Station, 'Protestation Oost Java.' The new cane was of high sugar content and heavy yield with strong roots and resistant to disease.

"Samples of the new cane, brought to Louisiana by the U. S. Department of Agriculture a few years ago and distributed among planters, prospered in Louisiana soil and resisted attacks of the cane borer. In 1928 about 150,000 acres were planted and the state's sugar production reached 190,000 tons. With increased acreage in 1929, Louisiana's sugar output will again reach 300,000 tons.

"Cuban sugar produced by tropical labor far below American living standards and shipped into this country under a 20 per cent lower tariff than other foreign countries pay threatens to swamp the domestic industry. The only solution for this problem is an increase in the tariff that will enable Louisiana sugar producers to meet the competition of Cuba."

HAWAII WORLD'S PREMIER PRODUCER OF SUGAR TO ACRE

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Hawaii's sugar production reached 904,000 short tons in 1928, setting a high output record for all time, according to the annual report of the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Association, made public here by Royal D. Mead, vice president.

"Practically the entire Hawaiian production will find its way into American sugar bowls this year," declared Mr. Mead. "The territory has become one of the most important contributors to the domestic sugar industry of the United States.

"Scientific development of cane culture has given Hawaii world leadership in the production of sugar per acre in recent years. Between 1923 and 1928 the output of sugar in the islands has risen from 4.85 tons per acre to 7 tons per acre. Crop improvement work is constantly being undertaken by the Experimental Station of the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Association on the island of Oahu near Honolulu. Irrigation, fertilization, development of new and heavy-yielding types of cane and control of plant diseases and plant parasites have all contributed to the high development of Hawaii's sugar industry.

"More than $170,000,000 of American capital is invested in the territory's sugar plantations and raw sugar factories. The value of the islands' sugar crop averages about $75,000,000 annually."

O. J. Jackson and family returned Wednesday night from Christoval, where they spent a few days fishing.

OUR CHAUTAUQUA! EVERY-BODY GET IN AND BOOST

Let's try taking Chautauqua to everybody we meet for a week and see how popular it will grow in an incredibly short time. There is plenty to talk about. Either the opening or closing nights will be worth the price of your season ticket, with seven other appearances of talent thrown in for good measure. There will be more than twenty talented performers in the four day's program any individual or group of which may be seen or heard, if you go to all of them for less than the amount you would spend at any cheap carnival show.

If you can attend only at nights, buy a season ticket anyway and save $1.25, as the single admissions for the four nights total $3.25 while season tickets for the entire Chautauqua are only $2.50. Any member of your family may then attend the afternoon sessions as well. The standing of Tahoka is measured by the number of season tickets sold before the opening date; that is the real measure of the town's ability to appreciate the highest class of entertainment which can be purchased anywhere. This is made available to Tahoka at this time by the definite sponsorship of a few public-spirited citizens, at a minimum of cost.

Nothing less than a big success would satisfy us, for it is only the more progressive and enterprising towns that successfully put over as big a thing as a Chautauqua. Our sister city, Lamesa, went "over the top" with plenty to spare on their first day last year, with the same program we had. There is no reason Tahoka should not do just that this year, provided the citizens co-operate with the committee. This committee is pledged to every possible effort to make it a success from all standpoints and to that end they are attempting to carry out proven methods in publicity, ticket campaigns, and every known method of accomplishing this purpose.

Maybe you are planning a vacation this summer. Let's all have a big "get together" vacation for these four days of the Chautauqua, beginning April 27th; meet our friends there and enjoy the fine fellowship along with the splendid entertainment. A vacation will cost railroad fare or gasoline, new clothes and entertainment besides.

Since this is the only Chautauqua to be held in Lynn County this year, it will be well advertised in every community and it is confidently expected that many persons from every part of the county will attend. Farm work can be laid aside for at least a part of the time and everybody is invited to come in, share our good time and make themselves at home with us. It is a fine chance to ease up a bit and enjoy some of the good, clean fun without which life, to all of us sometimes grows tedious.

Your Committeeman-Salesman will not wait for you to come to him, and when he sees you it would be fine for you to have your mind made up to go, and meet him with a smile and a check for the season tickets. Remember, neither he nor any member of the committee is getting a cent out of it, only the satisfaction which comes from rendering a splendid service to the community. You can share this with him by helping to put it over BIG!

Neuritis Ended By New Sargon

"Sargon is the only medicine that relieved me of neuritis after suffering for six years. disagreed with me. I had taken so many medicines without lasting relief, and was so tired worn and distressed with pain, that I was on the verge of despair. But I will never cease to be thankful to Sargon. If it had done nothing but help my neuritis, that would have been enough, but it helped me in every way, and I feel better than in years. I eat and enjoy hearty meals and nothing disagrees with me. Every ache and pain is gone, my strength and energy have returned and I feel like a different woman.

"While the Sargon tonic was building back my strength, Sargon Soft Mass Pills cleansed my system of poisons and ended my constipation. I can never say too much in praise of this wonderful new treatment."

The above statement was made recently by Mrs. Gertrude McDonald, highly-esteemed resident of 737 Melba St., Dallas. Sargon may be obtained in Tahoka from Thomas Bros. Drug Co., and in O'Donnell from Corner Drug Store.

done any cleaning the Committee wishes to request that you do your best to make your place just as attractive as possible before the arrival of our guests on the 24th. If there are unsightly objects about your place they should be removed or at least put out of sight. Through the co-operation of our citizenship we can have the prettiest and cleanest town in West Texas. Let's do our part in making it such before April 24th.

Talented People On Convention Program

Elsewhere in this paper you will find a copy of the program which will be held in the English Theatre next Wednesday morning and continued in the building recently occupied by the Connolly Motor Company in the afternoon. If you will study this program you will find that it promises to be very entertaining and instructive. We should feel fortunate in getting people of talent such as we have on this program to come to our city and help us put over this wonderful program. It is the duty of every man, woman, and school boy or girl of Lynn county to attend this program for the entertainment and education which it affords.

late their co-operation and hope they will join with us in helping to entertain the many who will be here on April 24th.

Every person in Lynn County has been placed on the Reception Committee and your duty is just this: Try your best to act the part of a host and meet just as many of the visitors as you can and extend to them a hearty welcome to Tahoka and Lynn County and make them feel that they are glad they came to see us and that they will want to come again.

Many Bands Coming

If the weather is favorable there will be somewhere between eight and twelve bands, choral clubs, glee clubs and quartets and various other organizations here for the convention. The Boy Scouts of Tahoka will be on duty to render what ever service that they may be called upon to do. This is the real spirit of the Boy Scouts of America and we should feel proud to have this organization in our city.

The County Home Demonstration Clubs under the direction of Miss Greenwade will serve the luncheon. Miss Greenwade states that plans are well made and that she is having splendid co-operation. The Home Demonstration Clubs are alive and wide awake or they would not be able to put on such a program as this and the Better Homes Week program as has been put on here this week.

Jim Izard, merchant, of New Home had business in Tahoka Wednesday and called at the News office to set his subscription ahead. Mr. Izard says that many farmers in his community have almost finished planting while others have just begun. Much cotton and feed will be up within a few days, he thinks.

FOUR TRUSTEES TO BE ELECTED MAY 4TH

now the turn of others. Three most excellent gentlemen remain on the board another year, to-wit: Dr. C. B. Townes, S. D. Sanders and J. W. Russell. Four good men should be selected to serve with them, and it is hoped that the names of the very best material to be found in Tahoka will be filed with the President or Secretary of the Board to be printed on the ballot.

Tahoka has grown steadily during the past few years and her schools have kept pace with the growth of the town. A splendid high school building has been constructed and equipped at a cost of a little more than $100,000. The scholastic population has increased almost 30 per cent, several teachers have been added to the faculty, the curriculum of the school has been broadened, standards for qualifications of teachers have been raised, a number of credits for affiliation with higher institutions of learning have been gained, a better school spirit has been created in the town, and there has been improvement in every way. There should be continued improvement in our schools and men who are imbued with the school spirit but possessed of good business judgment should be selected to serve in the place of the four men who are retiring.
