FOOTBALL MEN WORKING OUT

Prospects For Winning Team Are Best Ever; Squad Will Play At Three Fairs

Coach W. W. Nicklaus is all smiles. Prospects are that Tahoka will this fall have the best football team that has ever represented the school and town. Although only eight of last year's letter men are eligible for play this year, all of them are good men and in tip-top condition. In addition, about twenty likeliest looking recruits that could be expected are working out for first team berths.

The complete schedule for the year will not be worked out until a meeting of South Plains coaches in Lubbock next week. However, Nicklaus says that Tahoka will play Littlefield at the South Plains Fair, Oct. 4th, O'Donnell at the O'Donnell Community Fair Sept. 23rd, Brownfield here Thanksgiving, and some team yet to be selected here on Sept. 27, during the Lynn County Fair.

"We do not intend to play teams like Lubbock, and Big Spring which are out of our class, but will match all games, if possible with teams of approximate equal strength, Nicklaus says. "We intend to have some excellent games here this year, and we are very anxious that the town people give us their support by attending them."

Letter men who have returned are: Capt. Edgar Edwards, guard; Line Capt. Robert Benson, tackle; Oran Short, end; Jack Minor, half; Coughran Ketter, quarterback; Frank Greathouse, guard; Edward Welch, quarterback; and "Dub" Lowery, tackle. It will be noted by followers of the game that several of these stars of last year are being shifted to new positions this year.

A wealth of new material is on hand from which the coach hopes to pick other capable team members. Among them are several boys who are attending the local high school for the first year. Blair Fox, an all-around athlete from New Home, who created such a sensation at the district meet last year as a broad jumper, is here. Then there is Walter Chaney, who played with Wilson; Thomas of the Corsicana squad; Clyde Tankersley from Grandland; Earl Grider, from O'Donnell; and Jess Gurley of Tulsa. Boys who went to school here last year and who are making excellent football men are Dee Eastridge, guard; Boswell Edwards, end; Louis Spears, backfield; Vance Tredway, backfield; Curtis Stephens, fullback; Clifton Janak, backfield; Graham George, line; and Norvell Redwine, center. All of these boys are working hard and will be valuable in helping Tahoka win her share of games this year.

NEXT DISTRICT KIWANIS CONVENTION AT LUBBOCK

Dr. C. B. Townes, President of the Kiwanis Club, received a telegram from G. H. Nelson Wednesday morning from Tulsa, Oklahoma, that the big district convention there had just closed and that Lubbock won the next convention. This convention will bring delegates from all over Texas and Oklahoma.

Gins Are Ready For Cotton Season

The five gins in Tahoka are all practically ready for the 1929 ginning season. One or two of them have undergone extensive repairs and improvements since the close of the last season. One has installed new machinery throughout. Another has built a practically new house. One has dispensed with steam heat and installed electric power. All announce that they are now in the best of condition for handling the 1929 crop. They are equipped with burr extractors and cleaners of the latest and best type. The indications are that much of the crop this year will be pulled, but in this day of highly improved gin machinery this makes little difference in the sample after the gin gets through with it. The indications are at the present time that the crop this year will open earlier and be gathered much more quickly than usual. Since the Texas crop will doubtless be below the normal production, it is confidently believed that the price will gradually rise and that Lynn County farmers will get good prices for their cotton this year.

County Officials Plan Organization

The county judges and commissioners of West Texas are to organize at an early date, according to Judge G. C. Grider of this city. The initial meeting will be held in Lubbock on October 3, when officers will be elected.

There is a state organization of these officials but Judge Grider says that most of the meetings are held in places so far distant from this section that few West Texas judges and commissioners find it practicable to attend. He has been encouraging the organization of a West Texas body ever since he has been in office, he says, and he hopes that much good will come from the new organization.

DRILLING OIL TEST DEEPER

Contract Calls For Extension of Ash Hart Well To 5,280 Feet Depth - Work Is Started

Drillers resumed work on the Ash Hart well five miles west of town Wednesday under a contract with the Hart Oil Corporation of Fort Worth. Two sets of drillers are on the job, a day and night shift. Fred Moellendick of Cisco and C. B. Quennie constitute one crew and R. E. Gump and C. C. Benny the other. The contract calls for completing the well to a depth of 5,280 feet unless pay sand should be struck sooner. The well is now a little more than 4,500 feet.

Many County Schools Opened Up Monday

School opened Monday morning in many of the rural districts of Lynn County, as well as in Tahoka, O'Donnell and Wilson, according to the County Superintendent, H. P. Caveness. At Lakeview, Petty, New Home, Dixie, Joe Stokes, Redwine, Draw, Pride, Wells, Three Lakes and West Point the school children with many of the patrons gathered to begin another year's work in the school room. At Midway the school has been in session a month already. At all of these places and possibly in some other districts Superintendent Caveness is of the opinion that terms of nine months duration may be maintained this year. "It depends to some extent on the amount of state aid that these schools may be given respectively," Mr. Caveness stated, but he thought the prospects good for a nine months term in each of them.

Quite a number of schools will begin about the first of October. Two or three schools in the county will not begin their terms until a little later, possibly November.

The schools of Lynn County have "gotten on their feet" pretty well financially, Mr. Caveness states, and unless the prevailing drought affects them adversely they should continue to grow in efficiency. At present, few counties in Texas can show a better group of rural schools than those of Lynn County.

Kiwanians Hear New Teachers Talk

At the Kiwanis luncheon Wednesday noon, Prof. John C. Allen, teacher of commercial subjects and director of the high school band being organized, gave a brief outline of his plans for the current school year and appealed to the members of the Kiwanis Club to give him their full cooperation. He declared that the members of the band are to be trained in the most scientific way and expressed confidence in the ultimate success of this work in the school here. He also made an announcement as to the work to be done in the new commercial department.

Entertainment for the occasion was furnished by Miss Bessie Mae Bivins, teacher of Voice and Piano, who sang a couple of old negro melodies and asked the Kiwanians to join in the chorus of the last one, which she did. Mrs. W. E. Suddarth accompanied on the piano.

ABERNATHY is the home of Elton Beene, the youngest cornet champion in the United States. The boy is twelve years old and has played the cornet half his life. He is the son of C. W. Beene, band master at Abernathy.

BAPTISTS TO HOLD MEETING

Dr. J. J. Kellam, Dallas, To Preach, Johnny Cohen To Sing; Starts Wednesday Night

Revival services will begin at the Baptist Church on next Wednesday evening to continue through the following week. Dr. J. J. Kellam of Dallas will do the preaching and Johnny Cohen of Palestine will direct the music.

Dr. Kellam conducted a revival here two or three years ago and his discourses were universally pronounced very fine. Thoughtful and deeply devotional, his messages appeal strongly to all classes and creeds. All Tahoka should hear him.

Johnny Cohen has been here before also. He sang through a revival held here several years ago and everybody enjoyed the music and fell in love with the man. He will not arrive till Sunday, September 8, however, according to the pastor, Rev. B. N. Shepherd.

You are invited to attend these services from the beginning and all Christians are invited to co-operate in an effort to win souls.

DIXIE REPORTS EXCELLENT SCHOOL OPENING MONDAY

Among the many schools that opened in this county last Monday morning was that at Dixie, and Superintendent H. M. McEachern reports that every patron of the school except two or three was present. Several of them made brief talks. This indicates an interest in school work that doubtless can be duplicated in but few communities in Texas. County Superintendent H. P. Caveness was also present and made a helpful talk.

Prof. McEachern says that 125 pupils enrolled, and the work starts off under most auspicious circumstances. There are three other teachers as follows: Miss Veda West, high school; Miss Hazel Coleman, intermediate department; Miss Frances Dulaney, primary. Mrs. Rafe Richardson of this city has also been engaged to teach Music and Expression.

Mrs. Irene Wells Smith and daughter, Patricia, from Moscow, Idaho, visited Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Smith last week-end.

Preacher's Car Is Stolen From Church

While Elder W. A. Kercheville, pastor of the Church of Christ, was attending services in his church last Sunday night, his car was taken from the street at the curb in front of the church where it was parked, by some unknown person. He missed the car upon emerging from the church and immediately notified officers and instituted a search for the missing vehicle. It was found parked at the rear of a lumber yard in O'Donnell early Monday morning. A young fellow was picked up and brought to jail charged with the offense of stealing the car but after a thorough investigation the evidence of his guilt seemed insufficient and he was ordered released by Judge I. P. Metcalfe, justice of the peace here. The gasoline tank still had about three gallons of gasoline in it when the car was found and officers are of the opinion that the person taking the car merely wanted a ride to O'Donnell or else got frightened and decided to abandon it.

TAHOKA CROQUET CLUB STILL WINNING GAMES

The members of the Tahoka Croquet Club are still crowing over their many victories won recently. On last Thursday night they won over Post. Then they won a series of games from Loraine on Saturday night, Sunday and Sunday night. On Tuesday night they again defeated Wilson. So they are feeling a bit chummy.

BROWNFIELD BAPTIST ASS'N. TO MEET AT SEAGRAVES

The Brownfield Baptist Association is to meet with the Seagraves Baptist Church on Tuesday evening, September 10, at 8 P. M. and will continue in session through Wednesday and Thursday.

Rev. I. N. Allen will preach the introductory sermon on Tuesday evening.

APPOINT FAIR EXHIBIT HEADS

8 Communities Have Already Reported That They Will Have Exhibits At Fair

(By G. C. Williams)

To date eight communities in Lynn County have expressed themselves as being willing to lend their cooperation toward the end of advertising their community and Lynn County by putting a Community Agricultural Exhibit at the Lynn County Fair on September 25th and 26th.

Mrs. John Berry of Draw reports that she will have a committee appointed in that community by the end of this week and Mr. I. M. Draper is also working on a committee for the Midway community. No doubt other communities are at work but have not reported.

Excellent committees have been appointed in the following communities and are at work and excellent exhibits no doubt will be placed by them:

O'Donnell—Mr. Vernon Martin, Chairman; Perry Howard, John Earls and E. W. Wilder.

The various committees are working hard to give the people of Lynn County the best fair in this section of the state and it is hoped that other communities will appoint their committees and have their communities represented with a community Agricultural Exhibit.

Hi-Leaguers Have Rodeo Party At T-

Seventeen of the Methodist young people gathered together out in the T-Bar pasture near the High School last Friday night, and held an annual "round-up". Clever stunts and games in keeping with the rodeo idea were a source of much pleasure to the bunch of hatted and spurred cowboys and cow-girls who participated. Lariats, Indian stories, camp fires, etc., were interesting features of the program.

After every one had told all the stories they could remember as "after-dinner" speeches (dinner consisting of roasted wieners, pickles and rolls) all joined in a number of songs closing with "Blest Be the Tie That Binds" and "Taps" followed by a prayer by the Counsellor, Mrs. Suddarth.

This was one of the most delightful socials the Leaguers have had recently, and thanks are due to Miss Mabel Lee, the Superintendent of Recreation and to Miss Lorene Childers who assisted her.

DRAW WILL HAVE BOOTH AT FAIR THIS YEAR

Mrs. John C. Berry of Draw was a caller at the News office Saturday afternoon and she stated that Draw is preparing to have a booth at the Lynn County Fair this year. She requests that any one intending to enter an exhibit from that place shall report to some member of the committee representing Draw. This committee is composed of Mrs. Berry, Walter Florence and A. Z. Sewell.

Draw expects to make a creditable showing at the fair in spite of the drought. It is one of the finest communities and one of the best farming sections in Lynn County and may be counted upon to do its part in a great way.

Two Hen Roosts Raided Tuesday Eve

Chicken thieves have been operating in Lynn County again. On Tuesday night the hen roost of T. S. Williams, proprietor of the Texas Filling Station, was raided and the next morning he missed about fifty fowls of the Black Giant variety. On the same night A. B. Hatchell, who resides about eight miles north of Tahoka, lost about one hundred Cornish games.

The sheriff and other officers were investigating Wednesday but so far as we know no clue as to the identity of the thieves has been obtained. A negro was detained a few hours and questioned Wednesday but was later released.

WEIGH THIRTY BALES COTTON

Moving Slowly Yet; Prices Ranging From 17 to 18 Cents; Seed $30 to $31 Per Ton

A bale of cotton is brought in to be ginned now and then but the picking season has not yet really opened. W. O. Henderson, public weigher, reports that 30 bales had been received up to Wednesday night, but about half of these were from last year's crop.

The price of cotton has been advancing slightly. It ranges from 17 to 18 cents now in Tahoka. Seed are selling for $30.00 to $31.00 per ton. Unless we should have some rainy weather picking is expected to start in earnest within the next ten days or two weeks.

G. W. Knoy Honored On 72nd Birthday

Bulman Trades For New Mexico Ranch

J. H. Bulman has traded his farm west of town for a sixteen-section ranch out in New Mexico and will move to the same at an early date. In fact he is removing his stock to the new ranch now.

Mr. Bulman has resided in this county for a number of years. Since the first of January he has been deputy sheriff under S. W. Sanford. He and Mrs. Bulman have many friends here who will regret that they are to leave the county.

We are not advised as to who will be selected to succeed him as deputy sheriff.

MRS. SANDERS ENTERTAINED

The Sans Souci Bridge Club and several guests were entertained Thursday morning at 9 o'clock in the home of Mrs. A. D. Sanders, Jr.

SCHOOLS OPEN FOR '29-'30 TERM

Opening Exercises Held At Three Schools Monday Morning; Enrollment Is Large

All three schools in the Tahoka Independent School District opened last Monday morning, with possibly the largest attendance on the first day in the history of the schools. The superintendent and principals have been so busy thus far that we have been unable to gather any statistics as to the enrollment in the various departments.

The opening exercises both at the High School building and at Central Ward were strictly informal.

At the High School the exercises opened with the singing of "America" followed by invocation by Rev. R. T. Breedlove. Supt. Baze then called upon a number of citizens for brief talks, including Rev. R. T. Breedlove, Rev. B. N. Shepherd, R. C. Wood, president of the school board, E. I. Hill, past president, C. C. Williams, secretary of the chamber of commerce, Dr. C. B. Townes, member of the school board, Prof. Taylor White, vocational agricultural teacher, W. W. Nicklaus, coach, John C. Allen, commercial and band instructor and B. M. Hays, principal, also made announcements.

Quite a number of business men and a large number of patrons of the school were present.

The exercises at Central Ward were very brief consisting chiefly of devotional exercises conducted by Rev. R. T. Breedlove and a brief address delivered by him. Many patrons were present to show their interest in the work of the school.

We have been given no report of the opening exercises at South Ward but Mr. and Mrs. Carson are in charge there.

AUTO RACES AT WILSON FAIR PROMISES THRILLS

According to Rama Grigg, chairman of the racing committee of the Wilson Community Fair, speculation is already running high as to which "Lizzie" will win the race in the 5 mile "Wreck" race that will be run each day for a purse of $10.50 each day during the fair, September 20th and 21st. The speeding boys will also be given a chance to do their stuff on the one mile circle track when the sweep stake 10 mile race of any make or any model car line up for the starting gun. The track has already been laid off and work is progressing nicely on placing it in condition.

The lover of fast horses will also be given thrills when the fastest horses of the section line up at the barrier. Three races will be run, half mile, 220 yard and 440 yard. Cash premiums will be given the first and second place winners of each race. A Croquet Tournament will be staged daily with the county's best competing. Mr. Griggs stated; and those wishing to enter either the races or the croquet tournament should communicate with Mr. Griggs at once.

Despite the fact that the dry weather has affected the crops this year, the agricultural and Home Demonstration Club exhibit promises to surpass the one of last year by far" states J. Carl Holden, secretary of the Fair Association, and the largest crowd ever to visit Wilson is expected to visit the fair during the two days.

Methodist Leaguers Have Unique Service

Last Sunday evening the program of the M. E. Hi-Leaguers was: "What Place Has Christ in Art?"

The lesson was very beautifully carried out with the help of copies of several sacred masterpieces in painting and with artist records from masterpieces in sacred music; selections from "The Messiah", "Elijah", and "The Holy City" assessible thru the courtesy of Mrs. Suddarth and Miss Venoy Coughran. The Lesson was led by Miss Mabel Lee and forcefully set before the young people the ideals of the Master in Art, to the exclusion of cheap and trashy pictures and jazz music.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Johnson and children of Brady are here this week visiting Mrs. Johnson's parents Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Knoy.

Was Almost In Despair, She Says

Lubbock Carpenter's Wife in Miserable Health For Over Year—Gains Daily on Orgatone

"I was almost in despair and did not know which way to turn for relief when some friends told me about Orgatone and I honestly believe the medicine has done me more real good than anything else I have ever tried," said Mrs. C. A. Anderson, wife of a well known carpenter and residing at 1416 Eighth Street, Lubbock, Texas, while in the drug store.

"About a year ago," continued Mrs. Anderson, "I started having pains in my back, and this seemed to be the beginning of serious trouble for me. I soon got so I couldn't eat without suffering severe pains in the pit of my stomach. Gas would form causing intense pains in my back, and some times I would have awful headaches. I kept getting worse until almost everything disagreed with me and I could not rest at night. I tried everything, but kept going down until it looked like nothing would ever reach my case. I was so nervous—and restless—at night I could hardly sleep at all. I would lay awake half the night and get up in the morning feeling about half alive.

"A number of my friends advised me to try Orgatone and, oh, I'm so glad now I did, for as I said, it has done me worlds of good. I began to feel better with my first dose, it seemed to soothe and strengthen my stomach and my appetite has improved until now I can eat just anything other people can. My suffering is all gone and my back don't bother me like it did. My sleep is sound and restful and I wake up in the morning feeling fine and full of vigor. I can do my housework with ease now and I can't say too much in praise of Orgatone for its wonderful work in my case."

Genuine Orgatone may be obtained in Tahoka, Texas, at Thomas Bros Drug Company.

NEW STORE REPORTS GREAT OPENING DAY

The new store of the United Dry Goods Stores, Inc., on the west side of the public square, was opened for business last Friday, and the management reports one of the best openings in Tahoka that the Company has had anywhere. On both Friday and Saturday great numbers of people visited the new store and A. P. Conway, the local manager, says that he is more than gratified with the results.

This is the third store that this company has opened in Texas, the management stating that after visiting many places in this section they felt that Tahoka's possibilities of growth and prosperity were among the best. Thus far their expectations have been fully realized and Mr. Conway and the entire company are very sanguine as to the future of the town and their business here.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Law of Abilene, former residents of Tahoka, visited friends here Sunday.

DAIRY FACTS

GENTLE BULL IS EVER DANGEROUS

Animals With Bad Reputations Closely Watched.

"All bulls must be regarded as dangerous," says H. A. Hopper of the New York State College of Agriculture. "It is the gentle bull, not the vicious one, that most certainly kills or maims his victim. Those with bad reputations are more closely watched."

Since improvement in dairy herds comes slowly, promising bulls should be kept in service long enough to determine the worth of their daughters. With proper care, bulls may give satisfactory service until fourteen or sixteen years old.

The chief reasons for frequent changes of bulls as indicated by owners, are: Sold for beef, changed to another breed, his calves were mostly bulls, his daughters lacked type and were poorly marked, sold for beef to avoid inbreeding, lacked arrangements for exercise and safety, he was often neglected, became useless as a breeder and was killed, he killed his keeper.

The first four reasons are, in part, valid; under certain circumstances they might justify the disposal of a bull, Professor Hopper says. The last four causes turn upon inadequate facilities for housing, for controlling, and for maintaining the health of the bull and a more serious cause.

Professor Hopper is the author of a bulletin just issued by the New York State College of Agriculture on "The Housing and Handling of Bulls." It is in it he says that bulls respond to care and training.—The author describes the bull stall, the safety bull pen, handling the bull, trimming the feet, ringing and dehorning. The publication will be sent free upon request made to the office of publication, Roberts Hall, Ithaca, N. Y.

Excellent Plan to Keep

Calf Little Bit Hungry
A calf fed three times daily can assimilate more food than when it is fed after it has finished drinking its milk. Milk fed to young calves should be at about body temperature. Cool milk should be warmed to a temperature of 35 degrees Fahrenheit by setting the pail in a vessel of hot water before being fed. One cannot depend upon guesswork—be sure to use a thermometer! Cold milk will almost always cause digestive troubles, resulting in scours which tend to stop the calf's growth and hinder its getting a good start.

No one can accurately estimate with the eye the quantity of milk in a pail. Milk scales are very convenient for this purpose.

Clean feeding pails are absolutely essential to successful calf raising. They should be washed after each feeding as carefully as milk utensils and sterilized if possible. Dirty pails invariably cause digestive troubles. All mangers and feed boxes should be kept scrupulously clean. Plenty of bedding, straw, corn stover or shavings should be used, especially in the winter, to insure the calves always being on dry litter and not on the cold stall floor.

Contamination of Water

Will Lead to Disorders
The water supply of dairy farms should be carefully examined and its purity established. The farmer owes this protection to his own family, to his business interests, and to those who use milk that comes from his dairy. Contamination of water may lead to typhoid fever. All water on the farm, even that to which only the cattle have access, should be above suspicion as to its purity. If cows wade in polluted water, disease bacteria may adhere to their bodies and later fall into the milk pails. Special attention should be paid to the purity of the water in which milk pails and other utensils are washed.

DR. AND MRS. DURHAM ARE GIVEN SHOWER

Dr. and Mrs. K. R. Durham were the recipients of many useful and dainty gifts tendered them Monday night at the home of Rev. B. N. Shepherd by the members of the Senior B. Y. P. U. The complete surprise of the happy recipients only added to the pleasure of the occasion.

Only a social meeting of the B. Y. P. U. had been announced. At the social, one of the diversions was a "track meet" in which there were three contesting teams. Taylor White, Boswell Edwards and Dr. Durham were the leaders of the respective teams, the Doctor having first choice, and of course he choose his wife as one of his team. It "happened" that the Doctor's team won, and the big "loving cup" was presented to him when lo and behold it was found to contain all the beautiful and valuable presents which the members of the B. Y. P. U. had procured to be presented to the happy couple in this way.

About thirty guests were present. Refreshments of ice cream and angel food cake were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Knoy of Paris, France, are here for a two weeks visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Knoy. Young Mr. Knoy and his father were callers at the News office Tuesday and he talks interestingly of affairs across the Atlantic. He says that conditions are yet very unsettled and that there is constant turmoil in all the leading nations of Europe. But he is optimistic. He thinks that conditions are gradually growing better and will continue to do so.

Earl Grider, son of Judge and Mrs. G. C. Grider, returned Saturday from a pleasure trip which took him to Austin, San Antonio, Houston, Galveston, Dallas, and many intervening towns. Earl was just out taking a look at Texas. He was accompanied home from Dallas by his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hughes of that city, who will visit here several days in the Grider home.

Norvel Redwine, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Redwine, underwent an operation for appendicitis in a sanitarium in Lubbock late Friday afternoon. He is reported to be recovering in a satisfactory manner.

J. H. Smith of New Home recently visited his mother in Alabama. She is now ninety-one years of age. He reports many changes in the old state since he visited it last, which was several years ago.

Luther and Wilmer Durham of Jasper, Alabama, are here visiting the family of J. H. Smith out at New Home. They may decide to remain permanently on the South Plains of Texas.

Rev. L. B. Owen of Big Spring was a caller at the News office Monday. He had just closed a meeting at West Point Sunday night which greatly strengthened the little church at that place. There were only 12 members of the church at the beginning but there were twenty additions as a result of the meeting.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

THE STATE OF TEXAS,
To the Sheriff, of any Constable of Lynn County, Greeting:

YOU ARE HEREBY COMMANDED to summon E. X. Minor by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in the nearest County where a newspaper is published, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Lynn County, to be holden at the Court House thereof, in Tahoka, on the fourth Monday in September A. D. 1929, the same being the 23rd day of September A. D. 1929, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 4th day of February A. D. 1929, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 762, where in D. N. Arnett is plaintiff and E. X. Minor and Zappe Land Company, Incorporated, are defendants; and a brief statement of plaintiff's cause of action, being as follows:

II.

That heretofore to-wit, on or about the 7th day of December A. D. 1926, the defendant E. X. Minor, made, executed and delivered to the plaintiff ten certain vendor's lien notes, as follows: Note No. 1 for the sum of $100.00 and due December 31st, 1927; note No. 2 for the sum of $100 and due December 31st, 1928; note No. 3 for the sum of $300.00 and due December 31st, 1929; note No. 4 for the sum of $150.00 and due December 31st, 1930; note No. 5 for the sum of $300.00 and due December 31st, 1931; Note No. 6 for the sum of $150.00 and due December 31st, 1932; note No. 7 for the sum of $200.00 and due December 31st, 1933, Note No. 8 for the sum of $400 and due December 31st, 1934, Note No. 9 for the sum of $800.00 and due December 31st, 1935; Note No. 10 for the sum of $1800 and due December 31st, 1936; said notes dated Dec. 7th, 1926, and payable to D. N. Arnett, bearing interest from December 31st, 1926, until maturity at the rate of 6 per cent per annum, payable annually on December 31st, in each year, said notes secured by a vendor's lien on hereinafter described land. Said notes and each installment of interest to bear interest at ten per cent per annum from maturity, and further provides, "It is understood and agreed that failure to pay any installment of interest on this note when due, or to keep and perform any covenant or agreement contained in the Trust Deed securing this note, shall at the election of the holder or holders hereof, at once mature this and all notes of same series with all interest then accrued", and further providing that if said notes are placed in the hands of an attorney to pay 10 per cent addition on the full amount due as attorney's fees, and signed E. X. Minor.

III.

Plaintiff further alleges that on December 7th, 1926, he joined by his wife, Ophelia Arnett, made, executed and delivered to Defendant E. X. Minor, a certain deed, conveying to the defendant, E. X. Minor, the Southwest one-fourth of section fifty-four (54) block No. Twenty (20), H. E. & W. T. Ry Co., Certificates No. 654, Patented to Albert Taylor, Assignee, by Patent No. 250, Vol. 28-A, abstract 707 to which patent reference is made, which said deed is recorded in the Deed Records of Lynn County, Texas, and did in said deed retain the vendor's lien to secure said notes.

IV.

Plaintiff further alleges that simultaneously with the making of said deed the Defendant E. X. Minor made, executed and delivered to Plaintiff a certain deed of trust, said deed of trust recorded in Vol 14, pages 33-35 Deed of Trust Records of Lynn County, Texas, upon the above said land to better secure the payment of said notes, and in said deed of trust it is also provided that in case of the default in the payment of any of said notes, or installment of interest when due the holder may at his option declare all of said notes due and payable. And this Plaintiff says that said notes No. 1 and 2 are past due and unpaid and that the interest on Notes No. 1, 2, 4, 6, 7 and 8 is past due and unpaid, and that by reason of the default, as above he has declared all of said Notes No. 1, 2, 4, 6, 7, and 8 due and payable, and does herenow declare said notes due and payable.

V.

Plaintiff further alleges that he has transferred notes No. 3, 5, 9 and 10 to the Texas Land and Mortgage Company who are the owners and holders thereof.

VI.

Plaintiff further alleges that the Defendant, Zappe Land Company, Incorporated, is the owner and holder of one certain vendor's lien note against said land in the sum of $1,300.00 and that said note is an inferior lien to the lien held by plaintiff against said land.

VII.

Plaintiff further alleges that all of his said notes are due and unpaid and that though often requested the defendant, E. X. Minor, has failed and refused to pay the same or any part thereof, and that he has placed the same in the hands of his attorneys for collection and agreed to pay them the attorneys' fees mentioned in said notes of 10 per cent which is a reasonable and the customary attorneys fees.

Wherefore plaintiff prays the court that the defendants be cited to answer this petition and that on hearing hereof he have judgment for the amount of his debt against the defendant, E. X. Minor, including principal, interest and attorney fees and cost of suit, and that he have judgment against the defendant E. X. Minor and Zappe Land Company, Incorporated, foreclosing his vendor's lien and deed of trust lien, as above set out, and that said land be ordered sold according to law, and that the proceeds be applied first to the payment of the cost and sale, second to the payment of the judgment rendered herein and third the remainder, if any, to the person to whom the court finds entitled to the same. Plaintiff further prays the court that the notes held by the Defendant, Zappe Land Company, be adjudged an inferior lien to the lien of plaintiff and that the plaintiff's lien be held a superior lien to the lien of Defendant, Zappe Land Company, and for such other and further relief as in law and in equity he be entitled to and in duty bound will ever pray.

Herein Fail Not, but have before said Court, at its next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Tahoka, Texas, on this 13th day of August, A. D. 1929.

Any erroneous reflection upon the reputation or standing of any individual, firm or corporation, that may appear in the columns of the News, will be gladly corrected when called to our attention.

City Secretary Mrs. J. B. Walker is authority for the statement that the revenue derived from the municipal water system during sixteen months of her term of office has exceeded expenditures of all kinds in the department by approximately $1,425.00. In other words the monthly receipts have exceeded the monthly expenditures on the system, which includes repairs, new connections, pumping charges, employees' salaries and expenses of all kinds, $89.00, on an average for each of the sixteen months, or more than $1,000.00 per year. This sum of $1,000.00 above operating expenses, which is put into the city treasury annually, would pay interest on a 5 per cent bond issue of $20,000, if a bond issue should be deemed necessary to provide the city with an adequate water supply.

DROVE POISON OUT

Constipation Troubled Alabama Lady Until She Had Taken Black-Draught, Then Felt Fine.

Florence, Ala.—"For two years, I suffered with pains in my back and head," writes Mrs. J. E. Sloan, 810 Park Street, this city. "I felt dull all the time, and was not able to do anything. I was constipated most of the time. My complexion was bad and I had no appetite. An old lady advised my father to give me Black-Draught. As quick as she told him, he got it for me. I took Black-Draught three times a day for three weeks, and I began to feel like a different person. I developed a good appetite; the poison left my system, and I felt fine. I thought my trouble came from constipation, and as soon as the cause was removed, I got all right. Since that time, I have tried to keep a box of Black-Draught in the house, as I find it corrects biliousness and relieves sick headache. It is our family medicine. Constipation dams up poisons in the bowels, causing their bad effects to be felt in other parts of the body. At the first sign of constipation, take Theoford's Black-Draught. Costs only 1 cent a dose. MC-215 be nearly 1,000 feet tall, 200 feet taller than the Woolworth building, which towers 792 feet about the pavement, and almost 200 feet taller than the Chrysler building soon to be completed, which will extend 808 feet heavenward. The Woolworth building has 60 stories, the Chrysler 67, and the Empire State which Smith is to erect will have 80 stories. John J. Raskob is a member of the company and is helping to finance it. It is expected to cost $60,000,000 and when completed will house 60,000 persons. Smith will be in "executive control of construction" and will receive a salary of $50,000 and a stock interest. Al may be a good Democrat but he seems to be fast becoming what William Jennings would have termed a "plutocrat."

One can go out in the country in almost any direction from Tahoka and see many more Jersey cows than could be found in any previous year. Still there are not as many dairy cows in the county as there should be. Many of the dairy cows are of high grade quality but there are many that do not measure up to the best standards. We hope that both the number and the quality of dairy cows in this county may be steadily increased until Lynn county becomes famous for its dairy products. Dairying alone should make this a rich county.

Since the feed and cotton crops will probably be cut a little short by the drouth which prevails over this section, and since much interest has developed in dairying, hog-raising, and poultry-raising during the past two or three years, we believe that the people of Lynn county should give unusual attention to the exhibition of live stock in the local fair this year. Let's bring the best that we have in dairy cows, hogs, chickens, and turkeys and enter them in the fair. We can make this department a most excellent one this year. Why not?

The school board is to be commended for making a start toward the beautification of the school grounds in Tahoka. A plot of verdant grass now adorns the premises immediately in front of the high school building, while the entire northeast quarter of the premises at Central Ward is now covered with grass. It is the purpose of the board, we understand, to continue this character of improvement until a solid mat of Bermuda or other lawn grasses carpet the entire campus at each of the buildings. This is fine. But to get the best results, Tahoka will have to have more water.

There are many fine dairy cows now in Lynn county and it is hoped that a large number of these will be exhibited at the Lynn County Fair to be held here on September 25-26. Some of them will win prizes and all of them will add to the value of the fair. The exhibition of a large number of fine dairy cows will greatly stimulate the dairy business in the county. Begin now to get your cows in the best possible condition for exhibition on September 25-26.

Our fellow citizen J. K. Callaway calls attention in another column of this paper this week to a situation that exists here that truly does need some attention. We do not suppose that traffic laws are disregarded here any more flagrantly than they are in most other towns, this size but people are flouting these regulations everywhere. The road hog and the speed fiend are two species that should be reminded by means of the imposition of a few stiff fines that other folks have some rights on the streets and highways as well as the said fiends—among them, the right to use the highways without their lives being endangered by some reckless fool. Officers have a difficult task in enforcing these regulations but in our opinion officers in Tahoka are going to have to get "hard-boiled" before the abasa is stopped.

WHAT OTHERS THINK

PRaise FLOYDADA!

Who says the world isn't improving right along? Evidently they have not heard of Floydada and its plans for the first noiseless goodwill tour on record.

A group of 35 or 40 Floydada business men will go on tour this coming week to a number of neighboring towns. They will carry no bard with them. There will be no speech making, no parades, no shilly-shallying. Just a neighborly, friendly little visit.

The Floydadans will mix and mingle with the business men and citizens of neighboring towns. There will be no formality about it. Each man will be left to his own devices, to visit here and there as he sees fit. The glories of Floydada as a municipality will be left unsung. In short, the evangel of goodwill will make a purely social call on the neighbors. It is something new. It is worth emulating. No city ever gained much by beating the countryside with flamboyant methods of self-advertising. Resentment is aroused by such tactics. The resentment is natural. Let us give praise to Floydada for creating something new in intercity relations.—Abilene Morning News.

It won't be long now, according to a scientist until it will not be necessary for men to grow old, and in the process of keeping young they will not have to submit to gland grafting or operations, but merely take a little white pellet this estimable man has discovered. Seeing as how we are getting long toward the road that leads down we're always hoping that these experiments will amount to something and that with little efforts we may return to the vigor of our youth. It sounds good. Think of going to bed at night an old gray headed man, bent with the weight of years, a dependent and unable to work, and then wake up in the morning a strapping and vigorous youth. It would, indeed, be a grand and glorious feeling.—Ropes Hustler.

Note is taken of considerable criticism being directed against the legislative committee which is making a tour of inspection of prisons in various states. The criticism is unworthy and unjust. Texas has been fooling along for fifty years with an antiquated dilapidated penitentiary system. The people are weary of paying out millions of dollars upon a senseless organization which will never be, and can never be made to prove efficient in any sense of the word. If there is any state which has a system that is proving satisfactory, and is not keeping the state bankrupt, then Texas should know about this system. The only way to really know and find out what any system is doing is by going and making a personal inspection. The money which is being spent by the members of the legislature who are upon this investigating committee is very meager indeed, compared with the great benefits which will likely result. Let's have more information on governmental affairs. More light and more business sentiment is needed in Texas in handling governmental affairs.—Canyon News.

BETTER PREACH PEACE

"If there is going to be war, let's be glad it will be in Manchuria, where it can't possibly involve us," says an exchange reaching our desk. It sounds good—but it's wrong. We thought the same thing in 1914 when some idiot assassinated away over in Serbia a prince we never even heard of. That didn't mean anything at the moment, but the World War grew out of it—and we certainly got into that good and plenty. No sir, we don't want to hear of a war anywhere on earth any more. And neither do the fathers and mothers of Littlefield boys. Even one war in a generation is one war too many, regardless of where it starts or what it starts over.

So don't sit down complacently and feel that we can't possibly be involved. Just feel that we might in some way be dragged into it, and keep on preaching peace.—Lamb County Leader.

WANTED: RAIN! RAIN!

We remember when the citizens of Wichita Falls bought enough explosives to rock Gibraltar, to burst the clouds and then get results through a downpour of rain. This idea was carried out all right, but it failed to get the desired results.

Wellington citizens are going Wichita Falls one better. They run a page advertisement in the Wellington publication praying to the Almighty for rain and then more rain, and we await to see whether He will read the advertisement and answer their cry.

Whether they get rain or not you can't get away from the fact it is good advertising for the town.—Chillicothe Valley News.

An exchange in an effort to be facetious urges that every couple about to be married should follow the well known advice found at the railroad crossing, to "Stop! Look! Listen!" If the promoters of this movement have no more success than the railroads have had with the same sign, it is not likely that economical conditions will be upset very soon.—The Roscoe Times.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE NEWS NOTES

(By C. C. Williams)

Plans for the Lynn County Fair are in fine shape and good interest is being shown by several of the communities, even in the face of the drouth. Several communities have reported that they have their committees appointed to prepare their community agricultural exhibit, and all the communities are being prevailed upon to appoint such committees. The membership of this organization can render a most valuable service by talking Fair to your customers and farmer friends and urging that they have their community represented at the fair with a community exhibit and a number of individual exhibits, and that their school be represented with a decorated float in the parade on the first day. The weather conditions make the outlook for the fair seem rather dark, but let's put our shoulders to the wheel and make the best that we can of the situation. Prospects are that we will have the best live stock exhibit that has ever been shown in Lynn County. Do not forget, that we are expecting the people of Tahoka to decorate floats and cars for the parade on Sept. 25.

At the last meeting of the board of directors they voted unanimously for the Chamber of Commerce to sponsor the importation of good Jersey cows, heifers and bulls into our territory and to encourage a greater diversified program for our farmers. Special stress was placed on the need of good Jersey bulls in our county. A committee consisting of Messrs. Shaver, chairman, Lockwood and Calloway was appointed to work out the plans for the program. It has been found that there are some mighty good dairy cows in Lynn county, but it has also been found that there are a great many which do not come up to the point in production were they are the most profitable to the men who are feeding them. A steady income is the thing which is needed by our farmers, and the Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring this movement, trusting that the dairy industry will become a better paying proposition for our farmers, and thus increase their buying power. Several farmers have already signified their intention of taking advantage of this co-operation offered by the Organization.

Replies have been received from several of the letters which accompanied the reports of Geologists on the Potash Deposit west of Tahoka, and two Fertilizer Manufacturers have expressed an interest in the deposit. One of them stated that they would have their chief engineer visit the deposit this fall. If the proper people could be induced to become interested in the development of this product it would perhaps mean that many thousands of dollars would be invested in Tahoka and a good payroll for the city. It is reported to be the best potash deposit in the United States, and the most accessible. Potash in Germany is taken from the earth from a depth of 1,600 feet while it is found west of Tahoka at a depth of from eight to thirty feet.

We are pleased to report the membership this month of the new M-System. We are glad to welcome these people into the Organization and appreciate the spirit of community co-operation as expressed by their joining the Chamber of Commerce.

In the News Letter of last month you were asked to let the Fair Committee know if you wanted advertising space at the Lynn County Fair. So far only five firms and individuals have indicated that they desire this advertising space. There are possibly others who would like to have space but have neglected to say anything about it. If you desire a space to exhibit your merchandise or to do some advertising it will be necessary to let the committee know about it within the next two or three days as the tents will be ordered about the last of next week.

Last month your attention was called to the possibilities of a Regional Poultry or Swine Show being built up at Tahoka for the South Plains or the Panhandle South Plains section. It was not more than two weeks later that the Star Telegram carried an article under a Littlefield date line stating that a Great Plains Poultry Association had been organized at that place and that they would have their show in November or December, and that it would be open to the world. These regional live stock and poultry shows are very important factors in the development of our country and are especially valuable to the town and the immediate section where they are held. The people of Tahoka and Lynn County should endeavor by some means to secure a Fair Ground and improvements and start in the near future to secure one of these regional shows. If the people desire a permanent Fair Ground and the accomplishment of one of these shows there are several ways by which a fair ground and improvements may be had. If the people desire they may vote a city or county special tax to buy and improve a fair ground or they may secure it by the stock company route or may get it via the straight donation route. These projects have proven great assets to the towns which have secured them and there is no reason why a Regional Show would not be a great asset to this community. Give it your thought.

HEREFORD'S Farmers Creamery distributes $500.00 every day to the farmers in the Hereford trade territory. The money is given out in amounts ranging from $3 to $25 for cream. Approximately $15,000 was paid to the farmer patrons of the creamery during the first month of its existence.

D. 1929, when by reason of the cruel and harsh treatment and improper conduct of the defendant toward plaintiff, she was forced and compelled to permanently abandon him; since which time they have not lived together as husband and wife.

2. Plaintiff alleges that during the time they lived together she was kind and affectionate to defendant and performed all her marital duties; that about nine months prior to their separation defendant began a course of unkind, harsh and tyrannical treatment toward plaintiff which continued until Plaintiff was forced to abandon defendant as aforesaid; that on June 25th, 1928, while plaintiff and defendant were visiting defendant's relatives in Point Isabel, Texas, defendant got drunk and cursed and abused plaintiff because she would not drink liquor with him; that defendant got his pay every two weeks from the middle of June 1928 until the time of their separation and just that often defendant got drunk and abused and cursed plaintiff; that on the 23rd day of February 1929, plaintiff came home drunk and knocked plaintiff out of her chair with his fist and spit in her face; that on the 28th day of June, 1929, plaintiff and defendant were riding in the country; that defendant dragged plaintiff out of the car, struck plaintiff with his fist, cursed her and made her walk home and that since that date plaintiff has not seen defendant. That plaintiff's name before she married defendant was Lenore B. McCamey; Plaintiff alleges that defendant's actions and conduct toward her generally are of such nature as to render their further living together as husband and wife insupportable.

Wherefore Plaintiff prays the court that defendant be cited to appear and answer herein, for judgment dissolving said marriage relation, that plaintiff's maiden name be restored, for costs of this suit, and for such other and further relief, special and general, in law and in equity to which she may be justly entitled.

Herein Fail Not, and have you before said Court at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the Seal of said Court, at office in Tahoka, Texas, this 19th day of August A. D. 1929.

Make this Simple Test!
and Decide for Yourself
Which is the BEST FEED for Your Hens

ALK—like some poultry feeds—is cheap. Confronted by the conflicting claims of many feed manufacturers (all claiming "the best") you are apt to conclude that all feeds are alike—or else that their makers have but scant regard for the truth.

Why not decide for yourself—uninfluenced by personality or arguments?

When you buy feed, you want to get your money's worth; you want egg-making material—not alfalfa meal and other high-fibre "fillers" which are condemned by the leading agricultural colleges and experiment stations.

Here's How You Can See How Much FEED You Get!

USE any glass receptacles (two fruit jars will do). Place in one, 1/4 lb. of RED CHAIN Orange-Vitamine Egg Mash; in the other, 1/4 lb. of any other commercial egg mash. Then add 2 lbs. of water to each, stir thoroughly and allow to settle.

(The "floats" of the "wasteb" were made from actual photographs of a test between RED CHAIN and another well-known egg mash.)

THE difference is astonishing! In both jars the real feed settles to the bottom and the waste matter rises to top. In the RED CHAIN jar only a few black specks (charcoal) float; but in the other you'll find a thick rim of alfalfa stems and other fibrous waste matter!

We Sell RED CHAIN Because It's SUPERIOR FEED

Lubbock Man Tells Of Early History In This Section

I read with interest and pleasure an article in recent Avalanche concerning "Early Inhabitants of Plains Section Are Still Unknown". Reference to the last Indian raid, which occurred in 1883, was in correct in some particulars and I am sure that you will be glad to have corrections made.

The raid was made by a small band of Comanches passing through the country from New Mexico to Fort Sill in May or June, 1883. They came through the Llano ranch (now Post properties) and during the night stole twenty horses all branded. (Curry Comb). The ranch outfit was camped on Yellow House creek the night of the theft, and I was there at the time. In the early morning the horse wrangler reported some horses missing. B. Galbraith was manager of the ranch and ordered the wrangler to make a careful search, which he did while the remaining men made the drive for the roundup and returned to camp about the middle of the afternoon. The wrangler said the twenty missing horses could not be found where the remuda had been rounded up. When he made such report, Old Sam Gholsen spoke up and said, "Boys, that looks like Indians." Then the wrangler took us to the place where the remuda had been rounded up, and we soon found a trail leading northeast. This was late in the afternoon after the horses had been missed in the morning. Five or six men started on the trail. Among those who followed the trail were Sam Gholsen, Ben Galbraith, Pink Hays, and I. The names of two or three I do not remember. Several men were sent to nearby ranches to give the alarm.

The trail led in the direction of Dockum's store. We followed it until dark, then camped. At daylight we took up the trail again, which led three or four miles west of the store and when opposite the store, we left the trail and went to the store to fill up and get coffee or anything else, as we had missed our supper. Mr. Dockum told us that the Indians had captured and whipped his son, Charley, and then turned him loose, but that the other boy with Charley had out run the Indians.

We concluded that it was useless to follow the trail further as the Indians had several hours start. They had stolen only these twenty horses in the Comanche camp. The agent at the Fort Sill told Mr. Galbraith that it would be the best to pay the chief of the Comanches about ten dollars per head for the horses which he did. The agent said that if Mr. Galbraith did not pay a ransom that more than likely the Indians would steal the horses again before he could get out of the Indian territory. Galbraith was furnished by the Indian chief with an escort to Red River and across into Texas.

Soon after this Indian raid I was elected manager of the Llano Cattle company, succeeding Mr. Galbraith. I selected two top horses, Butch and Buncum. They were two of those stolen by the Indians.

Your story mentions a horse named Tallow Eye, as being one of those stolen in the raid. This was a noted horse on the Square and Compass ranch (now the John D. Slaughter ranch). He has been referred to by several writers whom I am sure never saw the horse. When I took charge of the Square and Compass ranch, Joe Sherman had Tallow Eye as his mount. Joe was quitting the ranch, and told me the names of several good horses that I should have in my mount of eight horses. He named Tallow Eye as the best all round horse on the ranch. There were 140 head in all. He cautioned me that Tallow Eye would "back" once in a while. I rode him from July, 1884, until January, 1887, when I had a severe spell of sickness, and thereafter was not able to ride cutting, or rough gaited horses. In cutting cattle out of the herd, Tallow Eye would lunge at the animal and bite it on the tail and hips, if it did not move fast enough. Then it moved out quickly from the herd and was in the cut before it realized where it was going. George Boles rode Tallow Eye from January 1887 to November 1888.

When George Boles and I moved to Lubbock county, Jim (J. S.) Weatherford, who is now tax assessor of Lynn County fell heir to Tallow Eye and rode him several years.

I was riding Tallow Eye when I killed a big buffalo cow at Cedar Lake in March, 1885. I gave Tallow Eye due credit for killing the last Buffalo killed on the South Plains. As Tallow Eye was fast, he ran up within fifteen feet of the big animal. When I got alongside of the buffalo, running at full speed I pointed my rifle at his shoulders. The bullet took effect and the buffalo began to slow down. I then put a bullet in the heart of the animal. I had 5 men with me besides cook and horse wrangler. Nick Beal had three men with him, but I don't remember their names. Among the men with me were W. S. Boles, a brother of George, and S. H. Holloway who is the father of Mrs. Tom Gerrard, of Lubbock. We made this trip to Cedar Lake after cattle that had drifted there during the winter. We found that the cattle had been driven back to the brakes by another outfit. The next morning I mounted Tallow Eye with a big chunk of buffalo loin for the ranch. It was about fifty miles to the Square and Compass ranch and I wanted Mrs. Burns to eat some buffalo meat that I had killed. I left the boys with the wagon to go back to the head of the Tobacco creek, where they would strike the Big Spring and Lubbock road.

R. C. BURNS, Lubbock

After reading the above story we sought out Jim Weatherford in his office and asked him if he remembered old Tallow Eye. With a hearty chuckle and a twinkle in his eye that always shows up when those old days down on the Square and Compass (or Slaughter Ranch) are recalled, Jim declared with emphasis, that old Tallow Eye was the best cow pony he ever saw. Then he lit into reminiscences. He told several interesting incidents of those early days. Among these was that a man rode 35 miles from a ranch down south of Gail to his home voting box up in Garza county, which was then attached to Borden county for judicial purposes, just to vote for Bill Nevels for county and district clerk and Bill won by two votes. This voting box was at the present site of the Boy Scout camp four miles south west of Post, and nine votes were polled at this box. There were possibly less than a hundred votes in the two counties. And so Bill Nevels has been guilty of serving as county and district clerk of Borden county—but that was a long time ago and Bill has long since been forgiven. But it was a bad example he set, for Jim Weatherford followed in his footsteps and served several terms in the same office. Bill got well of the office-holding habit but Jim never quite recovered.

Old Tallow Eye died long ago—and it must have been a terrible blow to Jim when he died, for he yet goes into hysterics of praise when Tallow Eye is mentioned. Not too large, not too small, just the right size, and given up to be one of the three best cow ponies that ever lived in northwest Texas is the way Jim described him. What a noble animal is a good horse!

TULIA has a farmer named Muirhead who is past 80 years of age who successfully farms his 100 acre farm alone. This year he had 80 acres in wheat which averaged 20 bushels per acre. All of the work except combining was done by him. The land was summer fallowed with a team of mules.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

THE STATE OF TEXAS,
To the Sheriff or any Constable of Lynn County, Greeting:
YOU ARE HEREBY COMMANDED to summon Jesse Williams by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in the nearest County where a newspaper is published, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Lynn County, to be holden at the Court House thereof in Tahoka, Texas, on the fourth Monday in September A. D. 1929, the same being the 23rd day of September A. D. 1929, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 21st day of August A. D. 1929, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court as No. 792, wherein Lottie Williams is plaintiff and Jesse Williams is Defendant and said petition alleging plaintiff was lawfully married to defendant in Lubbock County, Texas, on or about the 15th day of February, A. D. 1925 and was abandoned by the defendant without cause or provocation or with the consent of plaintiff on or about the 13th day of July A. D. 1925, since which time the plaintiff has not seen nor heard from the defendant; that defendant's actions toward her are of such a nature as to render their further living together insupportable.

Wherefore plaintiff prays the court that defendant be cited to appear and answer herein and for her judgment dissolving said marriage relation, for costs of suit, and for such other and further relief, special and general in law and in equity to which she may be entitled.

Herein Fail Not, but have you before said Court, at its foresaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

ROAD EAST NOW GRADED

(Wilson Pointer)

The roads east to the Garza County line is now graded and in first class condition according to those who have traveled it. The Garza county commissioner has graded from the line to the intersection of Highway No. 7 and a new culvert is being installed.

This is a piece of work that has been needed for a long time and we know the whole community will join the Pointer in expressing their appreciation to Commissioner Finley for this work.

We have lived here for more than five years and in that time have been to Post many times but so far as we can remember we haven't traveled the same road more than twice. There is a road every mile in Garza county and to find your way from here the services of a surveyor were needed. A number of times we have been asked the way to Post and about all the information we could give was to cross the railroad between the hotel and Rockwell Bros., and to go seven miles south and twenty miles east. Vague we will admit but there were so many roads and all looked about alike that it was a very difficult matter to direct.

SAN ANGELO building permits for the year have already exceeded a million and a half dollars. The western Reserve Life Insurance Building, for $185,000, the new Texas Theatre for $135,000, the Baker-Hemphill building for $121,000 and other buildings of like kind for similar prices are nearing completion.

LOCKNEY is expecting a vast deposit of what technicians term "caliche" on the Runningwater draw to help solve the paving problems of Floyd County. Property owners on the busiest thoroughfare in town are planning a test strip of paving using it.

HALE CENTER furnishes the statistics on Hale County's cows, and reports that it has 14,174 dairy cattle. Of this number 7,109 are giving milk, and 5,489 are heifers two years old and under. There are 771 males. There are 356 registered cows according to the report.

Kentucky Lady Was Weak And Felt Miserable. Dizzy Spells Quit After She Took Cardui.

Danville, Ky.—"For a long time, I suffered with severe headaches and pains in my sides and back," says Mrs. Lottie Smallwood, residing at 118 Fourth Street, this city.

"I was very weak, and just not able to go about or do my work. I just felt miserable.

"I was all out of heart. I would have spells when my head would hum, and my feet and hands were clammy and cold.

"I would be so dizzy, I would fall. I had read of Cardui and what it had done for others, and so I, too, began taking it. I had been aching and hurting awfully.

"After I took Cardui, I quit having the dizzy spells. I kept on taking Cardui, and saw that I was being helped. I was not nearly so weak, and from that time I have felt better. I took six bottles in all."

Cardui is a purely vegetable remedy and contains nothing harmful or injurious. It may be safely taken by a delicate young girl as well as by a feeble old lady. Cardui has been in use by women for over 50 years, and great numbers of women have reported that it helped them back to health. Get a bottle today. CARDUI

CALLAWAY APPEALS FOR PROTECTION AGAINST SPEED FIENDS ON HIGHWAYS

To the Mayor, Aldermen, and City Marshal of Tahoka, Gentlemen: The expected has happened, but it was not as bad as I expected it. On Monday afternoon, September 2nd, the accident occurred in my front yard.

It seemed that a man from Tulia was passing through our little city, by the name of Jordan (at least that is the name he gave), and like everybody else that passes this way up or down North Main, he was in a great hurry, and those that saw him says that he was making at least 50 miles an hour (he says only about 20 or 25). These little boys up here in this part of town told me that he was going 90 to nothing. I was not at home, hence have to take what others say about it. Any way it happened, and all because Mr. Jordan was driving too fast.

The way he (Jordan) gave it to me is as follows: There were three of them in a Ford Coupe going back to Tulia, and just before passing my house they overtook a Mr. Thornton from near Midland, who was also going north but who attempted to turn west at the street crossing just south of my house. Mr. Thornton did not know that the other car (Jordan's) was behind him and did not put out his hand as he was turning west, and the Jordan car was so of driving too fast, of course) and had to run square into one of my shade trees, which he did with such force that it knocked the tree out by the roots and bent his front bumper back almost against the front of his car, and other minor injuries were done, but he managed to miss Mr. Thornton's car, which saved two or more lives, which was indeed fortunate.

I guess that Mr. Jordan thought that this was just a hick town anyway not having any speed signs up or anything else as to that matter, and thought that he would just "high-ball" us once for all.

Well, now listen, you above gentlemen: Can't you do something to stop this fast driving up and down Main Street? I think you can. If only the public would observe the traffic laws and drive sanely, it would insure against accidents like the above and also keep down the dust which is a fright on this street. These 50 and 60 mile drivers send up such a cloud of dust that you can hardly see your way if you are driving behind them. Please have this stopped. We are not writing this as a criticism but as an appeal to you City Dads for protection. We people up here are tax payers and are entitled to some consideration, we think.

Trusting that you will see fit to relieve this terrific condition on North Main Street, I am with best personal regards, yours very truly,
J. K. CALLAWAY

FLOYDADA business men made a get-acquainted tour of Lockney, Stepley, South Plains, Silverton, Quitaque, Flomot, Gasoline, Whiteflat, and Matador in what they called the quietest "good" will tour on record. No talks were made, and no brass band was carried. No scheduled program was held in any town.

SEYMOUR entertained bankers from Baylor, Haskell, and Knox Counties on September 2. Eighteen banks are represented in this bankers association. Bankers in Throckmorton county will probably be present next year. A committee of Seymour women entertained the wives of the bankers.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

THE STATE OF TEXAS,
To the Sheriff or any Constable of Lynn County, Greeting:

YOU ARE HEREBY COMMANDED to summon G. G. Adams by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in the nearest County where a newspaper is published, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Lynn County, to be holden at the Court House thereof, in Tahoka, on the fourth Monday in September A. D. 1929, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 4th day of February A. D. 1929, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 763, wherein D. N. Arnett is Plaintiff and G. G. Adams and Zappe Land Company, Incorporated, are defendants and a brief statement of plaintiff's cause of action, being as follows:

That heretofore to-wit, on or about the 26th day of November A. D. 1926, the defendant G. G. Adams made, executed and delivered to D. N. Arnett ten certain promissory vendor's lien notes as follows: Note No. 1 for the sum of $100.00 and due December 31st, 1927; note No. 2, for the sum of $100.00 and due December 31st, 1928; note No. 3 for the sum of $300.00 and due December 31st, 1929; note No. 4 for the sum of $150.00 and due December 31st, 1930; note No. 5 for the sum of $300.00 and due December 31st, 1931; note No. 6 for the sum of $150.00 and due December 31st, 1932; note No. 7 for the sum of $200.00 and due December 31st 1933; note No. 8 for the sum of $400.00 and due December 31st, 1934; note No. 9 for the sum of $800.00 and due December 31st, 1935; and note No. 10 for the sum of $1800.00 and due December 31st, 1936, said notes dated November 26th, 1926, and payable to D. N. Arnett, bearing interest from December 31st, 1926 until maturity at the rate of 6 per cent per annum, payable annually on December 31st, in each year, said notes secured by a vendor's lien on the herein after described land. Said notes and each installment of interest to bear interest at ten per cent per annum from maturity. And said notes further provide, "It is understood and agreed that failure to pay any installment of interest on this note when due, or to keep and perform any covenant or agreement contained in the Trust Deed securing this note, shall, at the election of the holder or holders hereof, at once mature this, and all notes of same series with all interest then accrued," and further providing that if said notes are placed in the hands of an attorney to pay 10 per cent additional on the full amount due as attorney's fees, and signed G. G. Adams.

Plaintiff further alleges that on November 26, 1926, he joined by his wife, Ophelia Arnett, made, executed and delivered to Defendant G. G. Adams, a certain deed, conveying to the defendant G. G. Adams, the southeast one-fourth (SE 1/4) of Section Fifty-five (55) in block Twenty (20) H. E. & W. T. R. R. Co. survey, certificate No. 655, patented to Ida M. Charles Assignee, by Patent No. 672, Vol. 47, Abstract No. 404, situated in Lynn County, Texas, which said deed is recorded in Deed Records of Lynn County, Texas, and did in said deed retain a vendor's lien to secure said notes.

Plaintiff further alleges that simultaneously with the making of said deed the Defendant G. G. Adams, made, executed, and delivered to Plaintiff a certain deed of trust, said deed of trust recorded in Vol. 14, page 25-27 Deed of Trust Records of Lynn County, Texas upon the above said land to better secure the payment of said notes, and in said deed of trust it is also provided that in case of the default in the payment of any of said notes or installment of interest when due to the holder may at his option declare all of said notes due and payable. And this Plaintiff says that said notes No. 1 and 2 are past due and unpaid and that the interest on notes No. 1, 2, 4, 6, 7, and 8 is past due and unpaid, and that the reason of the default as above he has declared all of said notes No. 1, 2, 4, 6, 7, and 8 due and payable and does here now declare said notes due and payable.

Plaintiff further alleges that he has transferred notes No. 3, 5, 9 and 10 to the Texas Land and Mortgage Company, who are the owners and holders thereof.

Plaintiff further alleges, that the defendant, Zappe Land Company, Incorporated, is the owner and holder of one certain vendor's lien notes against said land in the sum of $1300 and that said note is an inferior lien to the lien held by Plaintiff.

Plaintiff further alleges that all of his said notes are due and unpaid, and that though often requested the defendant G. G. Adams has failed and refused to pay the same or any part thereof and that he has placed the same in the hands of his attorneys for collection and agreed to pay them the attorneys fees mentioned in said notes of 10 per cent which is reasonable and the customary attorney's fee.

Wherefore Plaintiff prays that the defendants be cited to answer this petition and that on hearing hereof he have judgment for the amount of his debt against the defendant G. G. Adams, including principal, interest and attorney's fees and cost of suit, and that he have judgment against the defendants G. G. Adams and Zappe Land Company, Incorporated, for foreclosing his vendor's lien and Deed of Trust Lien as above set out, and that said land be ordered sold according to law, and that the proceeds be applied first to the payment of the cost of suit and sale, and second to the payment of the judgment rendered herein and third the remainder, if any, to the person to whom the court finds entitled to the same. Plaintiff further prays the court that the note held by the Defendant, Zappe Land Company Incorporated, be adjudged an inferior lien to the lien of Plaintiff and that Plaintiff's lien be held a superior lien to the lien of Defendant, Zappe Land Co., Incorporated and for such other and further relief as in law and equity he may be entitled and in duty bound will ever pray.

Herein Fail Not, but have before said Court, at its next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Tahoka, Texas, on this 13th day of August A. D. 1929.

YOUTH--AND THE NEW LEADERSHIP

By CRAIG B. HAZLEWOOD
President American Bankers Association

LEADERSHIP is a picturesque word. With it, one pictures Hannibal fighting his way through the passes of the Alps—Napoleon in his campaigns—or Washington holding together his half-frozen army by the sheer magnetism of his character at Valley Forge. But I visualize something that holds a more astounding spectacle in many respects than any of these. It is the onrush of our business life. Our economic progress plunges ahead at a rate unheard of in the history of the nations of the world and every industrial and financial leader is daily brought face to face with new and perplexing problems requiring the highest courage and intelligence for their solution.

Ninety billions a year, they tell us, this country is now producing in new wealth. The rate of increase is even more staggering than the amount. It is difficult to say where it may lead us in even ten or fifteen years.

We are moving exceptionally fast. Our economic and industrial structure is placing before us problems of greater and greater magnitude. Few men can see far ahead. Few are in complete control, for this is a changing world, as even the most inexperienced business man will readily testify. Our methods of adjusting ourselves rapidly to economic changes and of cooperating are far from perfect.

What an opportunity the leadership of five, ten or fifteen years from now presents! What an adventure it will be! What responsibilities it will lay upon the broadest shoulders that may be found! This is the challenge to leadership as I see it. In the hands of the young men must rest the responsibility for this leadership.

Boys Who Reached the Pinnacles

Business is full of the romance of youngsters whose chief characteristic was working hard and, keeping at it. There was a green farmer boy who decided he would rather stand behind a counter than follow a plow. He seemed so obviously lacking in sales ability that for a time no merchant would hire him. He failed in his first position, and in his second his salary was reduced. He even agreed that he was a misfit—but he stuck. Out of his first five stores, I believe, three failed. But he persisted and worked hard. And that boy, Frank W. Woolworth, became the greatest retail merchant in the world with a store in every city of eight thousand or more population in this country.

There was another lad who clerked in a grocery store sixteen hours a day and studied mathematics in his odd moments. He became interested in the doings of the steel plant whose employees traded at this store. He began to study steel and sought a position in the plant. He carried a surveyor's chain and drove stakes. At night he studied mathematics and engineering. He did not despair. He kept the pressure on for seven years. And that boy, Charles Schwab, mastered the iron industry and became one of the country's great industrial leaders.

There was a lad who sold papers on a train. When he grew up, several million men and a score of billions of dollars of capital were given profitable employment through his inventions. Even in middle life, Thomas Edison continued to work twenty hours a day, if necessary to achieve his purpose.

Leadership is not play. Leadership offers countless positions of varying opportunity, of which the highest pinnacles will mean almost unbearable responsibility in the new era. There will be men with the fire and iron to qualify even for these places. Such men must have had the very finest preparation and the most grueling tests. Their reward will be the attainment of these highest pinnacles of achievement, and the rendering of an immeasurable service to their times.

MAIL BOX THEFTS AID CHECK FORGERS

American Bankers Association in Nationwide Warning Exposes Methods and Gives Rules to Combat Them.

NEW YORK.—Active operations in many cities of mail box thieves, who open bank communications to customers, containing details of their accounts and cancelled checks showing their banking signatures, and use this material in perpetrating check forgeries, have led the American Bankers Association to issue a nationwide warning to its members with instructions for combating this form of crime. The warning as sent out by James E. Baum in charge of the association's Protective Department says:

"Heavy losses are being sustained through cancelled vouchers and statements stolen from the mail boxes of bank depositors in apartment and office buildings, thus divulging the depositors' balances and supplying models for forged checks. As a step to put customers on guard against these methods, banks are urged to instruct every depositor to whom they mail statements of deposit accounts on the last business day of each month to notify them promptly if such statements are not received by the close of the next day.

"Also banks should educate depositors to safeguard blank checks and cancelled vouchers as they would money. Such paper stolen by forgers soon puts real money in their hands. If all blank checks and cancelled vouchers were securely kept in safes instead of filing cabinets or desks, the check crooks would be denied their chief stock in trade, namely, genuine blank checks and signatures. Warnings to depositors against leaving blank or cancelled checks accessible to sneak thieves or burglars should be sent out at once.

"Estimates broadcast by surety companies indicate that individuals, merchants, hotels and others outside of banking are shouldering more than 99 per cent of the total amount of forgery losses. The bulk of forgery loss on checks is sustained by those who are willing to risk accepting them without reliable proof of identity or title of the presenter.

"Years ago the Protective Department of the American Bankers Association adopted the slogan, 'Strangers are not always crooks, but crooks are usually strangers.' If those outside of banking could be prevailed upon to observe this rule and think about it when considering accepting a check for their merchandise or services, for which they are also asked to give a substantial sum in cash in change, one of the biggest aids to the forgery business would be denied the crooks."

SCRUB BULL IS HALED TO COURT

Placed on Trial for Hindering Development and Prosperity of Dairy Industry.

Indicted for robbery, larceny, and a few other such charges, Scrub Bull went on trial for his life at Laurel, Mississippi, recently. It seems that for some time people had suspicions that Mr. Bull was hindering the right and lawful development of the dairy industry, thereby "maliciously and wilfully lowering production and decreasing profits in the dairy business," says the Bulletin of the American Bankers Association Agricultural Commission in commenting on the case.

This, it says, was the first trial of its kind ever held in that section and was attended by several hundred people. The jury, representing every vocation within the boundaries of the Laurel trade territory, rendered a unanimous verdict of "guilty." The death sentence was pronounced, "but during the night, before the sentence could be carried out, friends of the convict secretly spirited him away and he has not been seen since."

The arraignment came during the Milk Products Show sponsored by the banks of Laurel. People attending the show had the opportunity of also attending the bull's "trial" and went away firmly convinced of the seriousness of lax and out-of-date methods in the pursuit of dairying. The purposes of both the Milk Products Show and the trial were threefold, namely: to develop public sentiment for more and better Jerseys; to foster a more cooperative spirit for dairying and livestock growing, and to promote tick eradication.

The banks of Laurel entered into a cooperative arrangement in their efforts for fostering agricultural development and successful farming in the community, offering $2,165 as premiums to the outstanding farm workers throughout the territory during 1929. An instructive booklet has been issued, showing the agricultural activity of the banks, together with announcements of contests for farmers, exhibits in the bank lobbies and prizes offered.

BANKERS DEVELOP NOVEL INSTITUTE

The Georgia Bankers Association in cooperation with the State College of Agriculture has sponsored a series of farmers' institutes in various parts of the State of an entirely new character. The principle feature is a large and comprehensive exhibit transported in four large trucks and set up at each stop. When set up it fills a space 40 by 60 feet and consists of panels, charts, and models on practically every phase of agriculture, including agronomy, horticulture, agricultural engineering, poultry, animal husbandry, soils and fertilizers, home economics and marketing. A large electrified farm model, showing the uses of electricity on the farm, model farm buildings and the ideal layout and landscaping of the farmstead, is one of the most elaborate and attractive exhibits.

Local bankers in each locality visited gave the money to cover expenses for the transportation and installation of the exhibit in their territory and assisted in the preliminary advertising and publicity. The College of Agriculture assembled the exhibit and conducted the tour through its various extension specialists.

Draw Items

Our public school opened Monday morning, September 2nd, with ninety-three pupils in attendance. Rev. Z. B. Pirtle was called on to make the principal address; and Supt. H. C. Rankin addressed the school, outlining what the school hoped to accomplish this year. Each member of the faculty was introduced as follows: H. C. Rankin, Superintendent; J. S. Rankin, Principal; Mrs. R. L. Pirtle, fifth and sixth grades; Miss Leta Martin, third and fourth grades; Miss Alice Lord, Primary; Miss Addie Belle McGonagill, music teacher. The trustees and quite a good turnout of the patrons were present, and the school starts off well.

The Methodist revival at Draw closed Sunday night. The preaching was done by the pastor, Rev. Pirtle, and the singing was led by Messrs Sargent and Janak of Tahoka. These young men are splendid for beginners. Mrs. Williams was the pianist. A liberal contribution was taken for the singers and pianist. The meeting was quite a success.

Bob Traweck was the first to have a bale of cotton ginned at the Thomas Bros. Gin at Draw this season. It brought 17.65 cents per pound. Mrs. S. A. Agnew gets the second bale.

Those who have recently been off on summer vacations are: D. G. Cook and family, Dave and Jim Cook and families, A. C. Evans and daughters, T. S. Parks and family, A. H. Moyers and family, J. E. Sherrill and family.

Claude Lemond will be home from McMurray College a few days this week and will preach at the Methodist Church at Draw Sunday at 11 A. M. and 8:30 P. M.

Glad She Took Friends' Advice

"I am so happy over the wonderful benefits received from Sargon that I will always be grateful to my friends and relatives who insisted that I take it.

"For many years, I suffered with stomach trouble. Everything I ate caused me great distress. I even thought I had heart trouble. Billiousness caused such dizzy spells at times I thought I was going blind. I had awful pains in my back, legs and arms and was so nervous I hardly ever got any good sound sleep. I was always taking some strong laxative for constipation, but never got any real relief.

"Finally I started Sargon and Sargon Soft Mass Pills and my relief was almost immediate. My appetite is now splendid, I never suffer with indigestion and those terrible pains have gone. The pills regulated me perfectly and relieved my billiousness and constipation.

"I could talk all day and never praise Sargon half enough."—Mrs. Julia H. Mate, 2101 Commerce St., San Antonio.

Out of this five thousand fully four thousand are prospective customers of yours if you are in business in Tahoka.

The out of town business firms keep their messages before the prospective buyers, and profitably so. And people are influenced in their buying by the advertising they read, for the present day advertiser cannot afford to misrepresent anything in his printed statements.

Somebody is getting a regular cash business from people of the Tahoka country. It is the house that tells the people what they have for sale.

The News offers a service that is valuable to both the buyer and the seller. The buyer can save money and secure the most satisfactory goods by reading the advertisements, and the seller can present his display of goods and prices most effectively and most economically through newspaper space.

When a merchant fails to take advantage of the facilities of the local newspaper he not only loses money through lost sales opportunity, but the buyer of the territory loses money through failing to learn of the opportunities he offers them.

The Wilson Epworth League of the Methodist Church, South, of Wilson, Texas, was the hostess to a meeting of the Live-Wire Epworth League Union last Thursday evening, August 29th. In the business session following a short devotional service several important business items were acted upon. A Union Standard and also a Union Policy were adopted by the body for the year 1929-30. It was also voted to systematize the finance of the Union by placing it upon a budget basis.

Following the business session, a social hour was enjoyed at the close of which delicious refreshments were served.

The following members from Tahoka were among the twenty-eight Leaguers present: Misses Mabel Lee, Mary Fenton, Hazel Anglin, Marie Brown, Eloise Clark, VeNoy Coughran, Emily Lou Roberson Elizabeth Minton, and Frank Sargent, Jesse Roberson, Gene Ramey and the Hi-League Counsellor, Mrs. Rubie D. The color scheme of purple and yellow was carried out in the decorating of the living rooms and refreshments.

The program included a reading by little Miss Mary Jane Weathers, "We Never Quarreled." "Those Wedding Bells Are Breaking Up That Old Gang of Mine," was sung by Misses Tommy Grace Clinton, Faye Brown, Eva Doak and Charlene Maddox and Mrs. Harlan Cook.
