BUSINESS MEN FEED BULLDOGS

Express Appreciation for Football Team at Banquet Last Thursday Night

A banquet was given by some of the business men of Tahoka on last Thursday night honoring Tahoka's football team, the Bulldogs.

Fresh from witnessing the game which the Bulldogs had played the Brownfield team that afternoon, the business men present all voiced their admiration of the fine, clean fight that the Bulldogs put up. Not an unfair or questionable act or play was done by a single member of the local team, and they were given unstinted praise for their splendid sportsmanship, while many of the speakers voiced their criticism of the methods employed by the opposing team and especially of the umpire. Not only did this criticism come from the business men but the same sentiments were expressed by members of the faculty present.

Captain Edgar Edwards responded in a most appropriate speech on behalf of the team but expressed none of the bitterness that he must have felt in his heart for the shameful treatment that he and his team had been given by the umpire and some members of the opposing team in the afternoon. Earl Grider also made a neat speech on behalf of the boys which was much enjoyed.

Business and professional men present and making brief talks were Judge C. H. Cain, Jack Applegate, Dr. C. E. Townes, C. W. Conway, Homer Harrison, Judge G. C. Grider and the editor. Coach W. W. Nicklaus, Supt. M. L. H. Baze, Principal Hays, and Prof. Allen represented the faculty. Claude Wells of the Board of Trustees was also present but declared that he was no speaker and declined to take part.

The splendid feast was prepared and served by Miss Bliefus and the members of the Home Economics class.

TECH STUDENTS REPRESENT LARGE TERRITORY IS SHOWN

LUBBOCK, Texas, Dec. 4th.—That the education facilities of Texas Technological College are serving the people of a very great territory is shown by figures recently obtained from the registrar's office. These figures show that two foreign countries, 18 states, 71 per cent of the counties in Texas and 384 Texas towns are all represented in the total enrollment of 2,050 students in Tech. One hundred and one of the 254 counties in Texas are included in these figures.

Alfredo Navarro and A. Melendez from Pueblo, Mexico, and Quetzaltenango, Guatemala, respectively, are the representatives from the two foreign countries and are the first foreign students to enroll in Tech.

New Mexico leads among the states other than Texas in the number of students in Tech, with a total of 50. There are 21 students in the College from Oklahoma. States other than Texas have contributed a total of 102 students to Tech.

The county of Lubbock with 708 students and the city of Lubbock are far in the lead in their respective categories. The next highest among the towns are: Lamesa, 27; Amarillo, 26; Slaton, 23; Fort Worth, 23; Dallas, 22; and Waco, 22.

Among the states in addition to the ones given above there are California with six students, Arkansas with five, Alabama with four, Missouri with three and Virginia and West Virginia with two each. There is one student also from each of the following states: Colorado, Iowa, Indiana, Louisiana, Montana, Ohio, South Carolina, South Dakota and Tennessee.

The following counties in addition to the ones listed above are each represented by 20 or more students on the Tech campus: Coleman, Dallas, Dickens, Eastland, Hall, Lamb, Lynn, McLennan, Potter, Scurry, Swisher, Tarrant and Terry.

Texas town with 10 or more students attending Tech in addition to those given above are: Abertamy, Abilene, Big Spring, Brownfield, Lampasas, Littlefield, Lorenzo, Memphis, Plainview, Ralls, Snyder, Spur, Tahoka, Tullia and Wellington.

Messrs. Earl Ellison and Charley Pierce of Seagraves were business visitors in Tahoka Wednesday.

Make Improvements At Central Ward

The trustees of the Tahoka Independent School District have just had all the windows on the north and west sides of the Central Ward school building weather-stripped—thirty-two in number—at a cost of $107.00. It is said that the rooms are now much warmer than they have been. This will also keep much of the dust out when the winds get high. This is an improvement that has long been needed and the Board is to be commended for this action.

Wells Edwards Gives Recital at School

Wells Edwards, the ten year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Edwards, was presented in a musical and expression recital at the high school auditorium on Wednesday afternoon at 3:15.

The young artist showed himself proficient in expression and in music, played well the piano, the violin, and the saxophone. His saxophone playing brought applause after applause from the audience.

He has been taught music by his mother, who accompanied him at the piano during the program, and expression by his aunt, Mrs. Ruby Wells.

Arkansas Man Buys City Bakery

Paul Lewis, who came from Arkadelphia, Ark., to Lamesa a few weeks ago, has purchased from Mr. Thomas the City Bakery. He has already taken charge and his family, consisting of a wife and five children, have removed here.

Mr. Lewis is an old-time friend and acquaintance of E. H. Bouillon, the two having resided for a long time in the same town.

We are not advised as to Mr. Thomas' future plans.

Several Marriages Performed Recently

A number of marriage licenses have been issued during the past two or three weeks of which we failed to take note at the time. Among these uniting their hearts and destinies for life were A. F. Anderson and Miss Betty Lou Renfro, who were married on November 14th, Elder W. A. Kercheville performing the ceremony.

Mr. Leslie Cook and Miss Jewel Sewel, two splendid young people of Draw, were married on November 19. Rev. C. W. Hart of O'Donnell officiated.

Lloyd Ward and Miss Hazel Whitmore were married on November 23, and Dennis Wheeler and Miss Merle Russell of O'Donnell were married on December 3rd, Judge G. C. Grider officiating.

Other marriage licenses have also been applied for but returns not yet been made. One Mexican couple was recently married.

SHOW INTEREST IN FOWL SHOW

Event Takes Place Here Next Friday and Saturday, December 13th and 14th

The Lynn County Poultry Association is to be held on Friday and Saturday, December 13th and 14th, promises to be the largest in the history of this county. Owing to the interest which is being shown arrangements have been made for two hundred coops to house the fowls during the show.

Four widely known poultry specialists have been invited to conduct a Poultry Short Course on the second day of the show. These speakers will address those interested in better poultry and more profit from poultry in the County Court room, beginning at 10:00 Saturday morning.

There will be no entrance charge made at the Show and a large number of chickens have been assured, but arrangements have been made to take care of all the poultry brought to the show. The fowls will be housed in a warm brick building.

MRS. RICHARDSON WILL PRESENT HER PUPILS

Mrs. Rafe Richardson will present her expression pupils in a recital to be held in the High School auditorium Thursday night, Dec. 19th, at 7:30 o'clock.

The public is cordially invited.

Dixie Ladies Form Demonstration Club

Miss Greenwade met with the ladies of Dixie November 26th for the purpose of organizing a Home Demonstration Club. There were ten ladies present and the following officers were elected: Mrs. A. F. Pitts, president; Mrs. Creed Clements, vice president; Mrs. H. M. McEachern, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. E. R. Tunnell, chairman of Better Homes, and Mrs. Jeff Noble, reporter.

It is hoped there will be others who will become members of the Club.—Reporter.

Theatre Draws Patrons Of Many Towns

The new English Theatre, recently erected, is drawing patronage from a distance beyond expectations. Mr. D. B. English says. Many people are coming to Tahoka because of the show who have not been in the habit of coming here. There has not been a week since the new theatre opened that there have not been visitors to it from Slaton, Post, Brownfield, Lamesa, Wilson, O'Donnell and even Lubbock.

Expressions from out-of-town people are to the effect that the Tahoka "Talkie" is the best they have ever heard.

Mrs. Stratton Connolly and children and Olive Clark of Whitney were here on Wednesday and Thursday of last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Connolly and also Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Clark residing north of town.

Santa Is Coming!

Tahoka, Texas, December 5th, 1929.

Santa Claus, North Pole.

Dead Santa Claus.— This is to extend to you a cordial invitation to visit the children of Lynn county a few days before Christmas. We have a fine bunch of children and they have all been good children this year and we feel that they deserve a visit from you in person before you make your regular trip on Christmas night.

We also would like for you to bring the children some thing when you visit our city, as they would be much much disappointed if you did not bring them something.

It will probably be necessary for you to plan to come by airplane, as the roads are likely to be impassable about that time.

Trusting that you will have many presents for our children this year and that you will be able to visit them before Christmas night, we remain,

Yours truly,
Tahoka Chamber of Commerce

WILSON HOST TO BAPTISTS

Local People Attend Workers' Council; District Attorney T. L. Price Is Speaker

A number of local Baptists attended the Workers' Council of the Brownfield Association which was held at Wilson Tuesday, and they report one of the best programs thus far.

Among the speakers on the program was Judge T. L. Price, district attorney of the 106th judicial district. The Judge quoted some statistics showing the relation between the Church and the courts—or rather, showing that the work of the church is conducive to good morals and law observance. Very few children who are brought up in the Church or the Sunday school ever fall into the coils of the law, he is quoted as saying. There were other addresses and sermons that were much enjoyed.

The women's meeting was held in the afternoon, when some most excellent addresses by the women were heard.

At the board meeting in the afternoon, the advisability of discontinuing the services of the missionary were seriously discussed unless the churches make better provisions for financing the work. Definite action will probably be taken at the Fifth Sunday meeting which will be held in Brownfield in December. Rev. D. D. Johnson of this city is the missionary.

Chan y Boy Recovering From Lockjaw

Little Gordon Chaney, the nine year old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Chaney of the Central Cafe, is still seriously ill in a sanitarium at Lubbock from an attack of tetanus or lockjaw which he suffered early last Saturday morning. He is thought to be considerably improved, however, now. For several days his life seemed to be hanging in the balance and little hopes for his recovery were entertained. The tetanus developed from a powder burn from a toy pistol, which became infected.

Physics Class Study "Talkie" Equipment

Prof John C. Allen of the Science department of the Tahoka High School brought his class in Physics down to the English Talking Theatre to inspect and study the equipment on Tuesday morning. The class visited the projecting room where Mr. English explained and demonstrated the operation of the machinery. He also ran off one reel of a film for the benefit of the visitors. The teacher and class were very grateful to Mr. English for the demonstrations, and Mr. Allen expressed his gratification at the high class of pictures that Mr. English is running.

Mr. and Mrs. Connolly Entertain Employees

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Connolly entertained the employees of the Connolly Motor Co., with a 6 o'clock Turkey dinner at their home on West North Fifth Street Wednesday evening. The table was beautifully decorated in the center of which was a white angel food cake with the word Ford written in pink. A lovely dinner was served in courses to Messrs. Jeff and James Connolly, G. B. Sherrard, Beacher Sherrard, Dick Bates, H. A. Pennington, Frank Brown, A. L. Porterfield, Loyd Edwards, S. M. Swan, John Evans, Misses Loyce Shaffer and Floyce Sherrard, and the hostesses, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Connolly, and little daughter, Jeraldene.

Sweetwater Minister Fills Local Pulpit

Rev. H.M. Weldon, pastor of Lamar Street Baptist Church at Sweetwater, filled the pulpit at the local Baptist Church Wednesday night. A large congregation was present and greatly enjoyed the sermon. Brother Weldon is a forceful and able speaker.

Services are being arranged for Sunday.

Tahoka-Brownfield Game 6 to 6 Tie

Completely outplaying their opponents throughout the game, the local high school football team battled Brownfield to a six to six tie on the local gridiron Thursday before the largest crowd ever to assemble at a football game here. This crowd saw the local lads completely outclass their rivals through four quarters of real football. Time and time again Tahoka ripped off long gains only to be deprived of a score through poor officiating and undeserved penalties. The truth of the matter is the boys were playing against one complete team and an umpire. The latter seemed to feel it his supreme business to see that Tahoka was penalized a plenty and that the Brownfield team was given instructions as how to meet the attack. Poor officiating was one outstanding feature of the game Edwards was called back by the referee's whistle after he had snatched a ball out of the air and headed toward the opponents goal with 20 yards the start of any one. And again when Captain Edwards received a forward pass and side-stepped to the two-yard line, from which place certainly four driving downs could have carried the ball across, the Tahoka team was penalized fifteen yards because, so the umpire said, the crowd was interfering with the game. Really the penalty was the only means of stopping the fleet Tahoka backs. And so the game went throughout, until the end came. Every man on the Tahoka team seemed to be inspired. Several were playing their last game and were making it the best of their career in high school.

As a summary the Tahoka team made sixteen first downs; Brownfield made seven. Tahoka was penalized fifty-five yards; Brownfield was penalized five yards.

Tahoka thus ended the season with six games won, three lost, and one tied.

Edith Club Meets With Mrs. Stevens

The Edith H. B. Club met with Mrs. D. A. Stevens Nov. 27th. There were five members present and we had a very interesting meeting. We elected officers for the coming year as follows:

Mrs. J. T. Owens re-elected president; Mrs. D. A. Stevens, vice president; Mrs. J. K. Nowlin, Secretary and Mrs. R. W. Fenton, Better Homes Chairman.

Mrs. Stevens served delicious chicken sandwiches and chocolate. We will meet next with Mrs. J. T. Owens. All members are urged to come.

GRASSLAND H. D. CLUB MEETS

The club met on November 27 with seven members present as follows: Mmes. Luther Thomas, Willie Thomas, Auvie Thomas, Thralkill, Lena Short, A. A. Lawson and Miss Greenwade.

Not much business was transacted, but a social hour was enjoyed. Miss Greenwade gave several new recipes and changes our meeting days. We will meet hereafter on the first and third Wednesday of each month. Every member is urged to come and bring some one with you.—Reporter.

Plan Santa's Coming; Wagons Are Picking Up Trash; Report On Fair Finances

(By C. C. Williams)
Plans have been made to bring a real Santa Claus to town on the 9:30 bus on Saturday, December 21. The children of the county will be notified of his coming and we will no doubt have many people from all parts of the county in Tahoka all day on December 21st. Plans are for Santa Claus to spend the entire day here visiting the various stores and entertaining the children.

Clean-Up Campaign
The Clean-Up Campaign seems to have been a great success. A survey of the alleys of Tahoka reveal a pile of cans and rubbish at the back of nearly every house. Mr. Skip Taylor stated that a wagon would start around to gather up the rubbish this morning.

Advertising Folders
Work has been completed on the material for the 5,000 Lynn County advertising folders which were authorized some time ago and they will probably be printed this week. These folders will be mailed to the people who have made inquiry for information about the South Plains to the South Plains, Inc.

Railroad Furnished Information
This office was called on to furnish data on the growth and development of Lynn County to one of the Railway Companies recently for presentation before the I. C. C.

Out of Town Solicitors
A recent survey made by this office has revealed the fact that recently the merchants of Tahoka contributed to the extent of $600.00 to a rural school in this county for the purchase of curains for their school building. There should be better cooperation among the business people of Tahoka on these matters and thereby save from 50 to 75 per cent on these donations. The curtains which were bought with this $600.00 could have been bought for something like $200.00. If this organization would appoint a committee, and the merchants would co-operate with the Committee there could be a

President Hoover has sent Senator Edge of New Jersey as Ambasador to the court of St. James. Edge is a dripping, slopping wet. We wonder why he did not think of Tommie Love, the dry dry, or yet Little Oscar, the wet dry in this connection.
Either would have been pleased with the job.—Brownfield Herald.

Senator Edge ought to be happy
in France; it's a dripping wet country. He has never been quite satisfied with America since it went dry.
If Hoover can find some excuse to deport a lot of these other "dripping slopping wets" to Europe, it will suit us all right.

WHAT OTHERS THINK

A national victory for the Democratic party accomplished through a combination of the South and East would be purely a political triumph devoid of all economic value so far as the South is concerned. On the contrary, a Democratic victory achieved through a combination of the South and the West would be of value in the fullest sense of the term—political, moral and economic—for there is a community of interest in almost every line between the South and the West. But would a combination of the South and the West be possible under the leadership of Roosevelt and his subservient lieutenants now directing the destinies of the Democratic party? Is it not high time that Southern leaders were waking up to the great opportunity that now presents itself as a result of the split in the Senate between the eastern and western wings of the Republican party? If something is not done quickly the opportunity of a generation may pass without profit to the producers of the South and the West.—Rogers News.

Law-abiding citizens are very much opposed to lynching, such as witnessed at Eastland last week.
But law-abiding citizens are becoming thoroughly disgusted with delays in court procedure, and the technical path over which every criminal travels before he is brought to justice. It is no wonder that after three men had fallen to death at the hands of this murderer, and these seemed to be no punishment
for him in light of the citizens
decided to take the matter in hand.
The lawyers of America who believe in justice and in the dignity of the trial jury should take a hand in court reform and demand that the technical hump which has impeded justice be done away with. It is no wonder that life is cheap in this country, when it is a well known fact that murder may be committed under almost any provocation and the chances are about 99 to 1 that the murderer will never be convicted.

New interest is being revived in the inland waterways of the country and the latest plan, advocated by leaders of both political parties
should be of far-reaching benefit.
It is proposed to scale down the program of battleship building by many millions a year, and then to use that money for dredging our rivers and making them fit for carrying commerce to the sea. Such transportation facilities would aid the entire nation; every section would profit by it, and we wouldn't be long in feeling the benefits right here in Lorenzo. We need waterways far more than we need battleships, and we need the better marketing facilities such waterways would bring far more than we need big guns. The plan is a sensible one. Now let us hope that it can be kept out of politics long enough to be put into execution.
—Lorenzo Tribune.

The days of gun toting may have been more thrilling than the more peaceful era of today, but the gun toter ran many chances of passing west without warning. Today judge and jury may see fit to turn a shooter free, but there is always the chance of the chair reaching up and grabbing the murderer. The gun man of today is not thought much of and that makes the difference between the gun toter of the olden days and the gun man of the new era of civilization. The world is moving slowly, but surely toward better things. If you don't believe it, read some of the wild tales of the frontier.—Higgin News.

Speaking of ticket jumpers, from what we can gather from the press,
we are going to have a batch of them on the ticket for Governor of Texas next year. They are Love, Miller and Ferguson; all equally guilty. The campaign will be interesting from the fact that those who live in glass houses must not have any brick bats piled around the premises.—Brownfield Herald.

GEMS OF LITERATURE

By J. A. HUMPHRIES

Dear Reader: We trust that our initial number did not meet with the fate the young minister's first sermon did. On returning to his seminary after filling an engagement in a country church, he was asked by one of the teachers how he fared in his maiden sermon. He replied that his sermon was moving, soothing and satisfying. "What do you mean?" said the teacher. "Well,"
he said, "It was moving because half the congregation left before I was half finished; it was soothing because the other half were asleep before I had finished; and it was satisfying because they did not invite me back."

So, my friends, we have no way of knowing whether we were taken as contributor or impostor. Let us hope, however, that the charitable public will indulge us until we can adjust ourselves to the new field.

We are loath to leave our greatest American with only one quotation. The speech at Gettysburg alone would have placed Lincoln in "The Hall of Fame", but it was one of many of the utterances of this great and splendid man. This we wish to say in again referring to the Speech at Gettysburg. On that occasion and at the time of delivering that two minute address it should not be forgotten that Edward Everett, at that time by common consent, was the greatest rhetorician on the American stage. He preceded Lincoln in a two hour address which from the stand-point of English was regarded as a master piece but Everett, himself, admitted that he had fallen far short of getting before the public the central thought that Lincoln presented in his two minute address. The speech of Everett is never read and seldom found, while the address of Lincoln will live until languages are dead and lips are dust. The speech of Everett was the type of the elocutionist, while that of Lincoln was the expression of an orator. The elocutionist believes in the genius of gesture, the sublimity
of syntax and the influence of voice, while the orator loves the real, the simple, the natural. He places the thought above all. He knows that the greatest ideas should be expressed in the least words—that the greatest statues need the least drapery.

If Lincoln had never made but the one speech, viz: that at Gettysburg
he would still be remembered, admired and honored but that wonderful speech has been supplemented by many more speeches and writings
that projects this matchless American.

We wish in this connection to quote
from the record of his life as President the following which was written to Mrs. Bixby, Washington, Nov.
21, 1864. The letter follows:

Dear Madam: I have been shown in the files of the War Department
a statement of Adjutant General of Massachusetts that you are the mother of five sons who have died gloriously on the field of battle. I feel how weak and fruitless must be any words of mine which should attempt to beguile you from the grief of a loss so overwhelming. But I can not refrain from tendering to you the consolation that may be found in the thanks of the Republic they died to save. I pray that our Heavenly Father may assuage the anguish of your bereavement, and leave you only the cherished memory of the loved and lost, and the solemn pride that must be yours to have laid so costly a sacrifice upon the altar of freedom.—Abraham Lincoln.

But few men in high station have the time and consideration for humble and helpless widows to pause in the busy hours of official labor and pour out the wealth of their goodness, yet Lincoln did this. Nothing, to my mind, discloses real character like the use or abuse of power.

It is easy for the weak to be gentle.
Most people can bear adversity. But if you wish to know what a man really is, give him power. This is the supreme test. "It is the glory of Lincoln that having almost absolute power that he never abused it only on the side of mercy."

The young man had been confined to his room for a number of months with a broken leg. A few weeks ago he was able to go to work again in a store but was still on crutches. Wednesday morning he accidentally fell and broke the leg again. It is a serious fracture and the young man is in a rather serious condition. The accident is greatly regretted by Mr. Hogan's friends here and it is hoped that the wound may speedily heal.

ICE CREAM

The colored preacher was describing the "bad place to a congregation of awed listeners. "Friends," he said, "you've seen this here melted iron running out of a furnace, ain't you—all white hot, sizzling, and hissing? Well—" The preacher pointed a long, lean finger at the frightened crowd. "Well," he continued, "they use that stuff for ice cream in the place I been talking about."

THE DEAR BOY

"Did the children behave when you bathed them?" asked the mistress of the new French nurse. "All but ze biggest boy—ad, mirableu—how he fight and kick and nearly tear ze face off me before I could get him in!" "Which biggest boy? We've only one boy and he's only two years old." "Et is no him at all, I mean. 'Tis a boy who wears glasses, and has ze curly hair." "Boy! Boy! That's not a boy! That's my husband!"—The Ink Spot.

I FEEL JUST FINE NOW!

Amarillo Railroad Man Says His Troubles Are All Disappearing After Taking Orgatone

"I get up in the mornings now feeling like a two-year-old, and I've gained in weight and strength since taking Orgatone," said L. D. Priest, who lives at 108 Roberts St., is in the railroad store department for Santa Fe Railroad which position he has held for the past ten years. "I suffered terribly for more than five years," he continued, "and got in an awfully run down condition. I got so I didn't want anything to eat and what little I did force down would cause me trouble from the gas that would form on my stomach. I would have smothering spells and a choking sensation in my chest, and I want to tell you this is real suffering. My kidneys bothered me a great deal which made me very restless at night and would get up in the morning feeling so tired and worn out that I actually hated the thought of going to work, and then when I did get to the shops I would feel bad all day. I took everything I could find trying to get some relief, but just got worse and worse and there's no telling what would have become of me if it hadn't been for Orgatone.

"I heard a lot about what this Orgatone was doing and read so much in the papers where people all over Amarillo were being helped by it that I decided it might do me some good, and I tell you it was the best day's work I've done in a long time when I started taking Orgatone, for I'm a well man and my nerves are as steady as a steam engine. I can eat anything I want without a bit of suffering and I enjoy every mouthful. I noticed before I had finished the first bottle my appetite was improving and now after taking four bottles of it, it seems like I can't get enough to eat. It sure is a fine feeling to sit down to a good dinner, like I do now and know you can eat everything on the table and not have any trouble afterwards. And sleep, why I never wake up until time to get up and go to work and I feel as fine and full of life as a boy going hunting with a gun.

"Yes sir, this Orgatone has got me feeling like my old self again, and I know it's the right medicine for me. Everybody I know asked me what's making me look so much better and I don't lose any time telling 'em, 'Orgatone', and I'm glad to tell you about it so you can publish it and let other suffering people know what Orgatone has done for me." Genuine Orgatone may be purchased in Tahoka at Thomas Bros.

Al Lehman of Levine Bros. is a great optimist. He thinks that about half our troubles are imaginary. He says there is no use for anybody to be whining about short crops or hard times. He says conditions are not so bad, that business is fairly good, and that he thinks January and February are going to be better business months than December. In fact he thinks next year is going to be a good one. Say, folks, it does an editor's heart good to hear a business man talk that way. Usually the editor has to sing a solo when he sings a song of optimism. If all our business men would take this view of the situation and begin handing out this kind of optimism, we would have a much happier and better town and country. Let's all try it, folks.

Mr. Griggs made a very interesting talk last Friday night. We are to have Mr. Griggs back again in the future.

We had a good crowd at Sunday school last Sunday morning but no preacher came. The preacher either misunderstood that he had an appointment, or he forgot about it entirely.

Lorene Lowrie has returned to school. We thought that we would lose her but she has returned. We hope that she does not have to move from South Ward.

It is urged that every person have an opinion to give next Friday night on whether or not we should have a Christmas tree for the community.

A miniature orchestra is being organized at the school. This orchestra will be composed of small children. They will plan on a program in the future.

School attendance is rapidly increasing as the cotton picking season ends. Attendance has changed from about twelve to about thirty during the past week.

Our carnival was a big success and enjoyed by everyone. Eleven dollars and fifty cents was made. One dollar was damaged and was not passable. The remainder is in the bank. The money is to be kept until needed for playground equipment.

Wandine Greenwood has been kept out of school for the last several weeks on account of a minor operation. We hope she returns soon.

METHODISTS WELCOME PASTOR'S RETURN

(Delayed)

On Monday night about seventy members and friends of the M. E. Church and its pastor assembled in the church basement for a Thanksgiving "get-together" in honor of Rev. Breedlove's return to this charge for another year.

The Epworth Hi-League was responsible for the occasion and varied forms of entertainment were offered with their Counselor as "master of ceremonies."

The meeting began with the good old fellowship song, "The More We Get Together the Happier We'll Be" led by the Leaguers; Judge Cain and W. E. Suddarth spoke representing respectively, the Boards of Trustees and Stewards and left no one in doubt of the harmony that exists between those boards and the preacher in charge. Mrs. R. W. Fenton admirably expressed the feeling of the W. M. S., also giving a brief but interesting outline of the splendid work they will attempt this year.

Acting superintendent of S. S., W. E. Suddarth, spoke for that organization of the church, supplemented by a special appreciation given by Miss Mabel Lee in behalf of the "Crusaders" class which Brother Breedlove organized and has been teaching. Miss Mary Fenton, Hi-League President, opening the program, made the first pledge of loyalty and co-operation for the coming year's work, speaking for the League membership. The Epworth Juniors were ably represented by two of their own number, little Miss Mary Lenore Anglin and Master Tom Ross Neyland, who both gave particularly appropriate and clever readings.

Mrs. Layne Moreland sang two entertaining little numbers, "The Lilac Tree" and "Nothing but Love"; and Clifton Janak sang Kipling's "On the Road to Mandalay" "putting it over" in his usual style. At the end of the program Miss Fenton, for the League, presented the pastor with a copy of "The Efficient Epworthian" for his library and he gave a fitting response. Refreshments of home-made cakes, coffee, and hot chocolate were served by the young folks, and official information given out that some of the officials partook even unto the sixth piece and the sixth cup. (Ye Ed refuses to be held accountable for the accuracy of this statement.)

During the social hour the men's prayer-meeting dismissed and everyone was happy to hear a fine talk by Brother Shepherd of the Baptist Church, since all recognized with regret the probability of not hearing him soon again. Even as they welcomed the return of their own leader, they bade Godspeed to their friend and co-worker who has been called to a larger field of endeavor. Later, Brother Breedlove spoke appreciatively of the year's work ahead. The company was dismissed with a prayer offered by Clyde Sargent. We are advised that the parsonage pantry was fairly well stocked by the friends of the family, during their absence at the church throughout the evening.

LAKEVIEW SCHOOL

Some very interesting happenings have taken place in the Lakeview Community of recent date. The school there is truly the community center. The co-operative spirit is very outstanding.

The last two years there has been added much play ground equipment as well as library and teaching equipment. The building has been gone over both inside and out and is now quite attractive and comfortable. It is regarded as being one of the best equipped rural schools in the county.

Under the leadership of the principal, Miss Grace Cade, the patrons respond to any plan which will improve the school. Through community entertainments, such as sox suppers, hen campaigns and home talent plays, funds have been obtained with which to purchase basket ball suits for both boys and girls. There is also enough money in this fund to pay for the needed balls.

This year one teacher was added to the faculty bringing the number to four. The average attendance for the term is well above 80 per cent. This is a remarkable record.

In the Lakeview community there is a Community Club. Last Friday fifteen patrons met and worked all day leveling the ground and preparing for the planting of sixty trees, together with flowers and shrubbery planting around the building. The school management is encour-

Imagine your Motor

Constantly immersed in Oil

That, in effect, is what happens when you fill your crank case with Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil—none of its hundreds of moving parts are ever without lubrication.

A MOTOR OIL, to do a 100% job, must lubricate all the time. That means that it should provide a lubricating film at every stage of motor operation including starting when the engine's cold. In other words, the motor should have a perpetual oil bath.

And that's exactly what happens when you use Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil for the very good reason that this super-lubricant because of the patented germ process by which it is produced, actually combines with the bearing surfaces to form a film which adheres indefinitely. It never leaves the bearings—and that means constant lubrication.

Think of the saving this means to the motoring public! Automotive engineers estimate that from 40% to 60% of the destructive wear and tear on a motor is caused in the starting operation because, with ordinary oil in the crankcase, the moving parts have no lubricating film when the engine is cold—and the oil is not distributed until 5 or 10 minutes after starting. Imagine the abuse to the engine during these periods of running with absolutely no lubrication! No wonder Conoco Germ Processed Oil is hailed as the revolutionizing motor lubricant. Its "carry-over" film has solved the greatest lubrication problem of the day. It assures longer life and smoother operation in any motor where it is used.

And never forget that to produce Conoco Germ Processed Oils the exclusive germ essence principle is applied to carefully selected paraffin base crudes, resulting in a lubricant with greater film strength, greater adhesiveness, greater tenacity, greater stamina and lower friction than any other oil on the American market.

Draw up to the Conoco Red Triangle and give your motor a perpetual oil bath. Ask for Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil.

Although out-played in every phase of the game the Brownfield gridsters managed to hold the Tahoka bulldogs to a 6-6 tie here Thanksgiving Day.

As usual the backfield came to the front in those hard-to-stop driving plays. All four backfield men, Minor, Edwards, Ketter and Stevens showed up great.

SECOND QUARTER

Edwards made a ten yard run for first down. Then a fumble caused a three yard loss. Stevens completed a pass to Fox for a ten yard gain.

THIRD QUARTER

Brownfield kicked off. Minor carried the feat and made another ten yards. Stevens fumbled and lost ten yards.

FOURTH QUARTER

LUBBOCK VISITORS ROYALLY ENTERTAINED

On Friday night, Nov. 29, the Epworth Hi-Leaguers were hosts to a delegation of thirty-eight Leaguers from the First M. E. Church at Lubbock, the occasion being a purely social event.

Superintendent of Recreation, Miss Mabel Lee, and her committee had planned an evening of real enjoyment which the visitors seemed to realize to the full capacity. Every minute was occupied. "Get-acquainted games and others; contests, both mental and physical; and, perhaps the most entertaining feature, a series of several novel stunts, worked progressively, kept everyone "on their toes." A "Turkey" contest was featured also, and harmonized the program with the Thanksgiving and autumn motif in the crepe paper decorations of yellow, brown, green and orange.

Some of the Lubbock young people preceded the refreshment hour with several piano selections excellently done.

Refreshments were supervised by the local Counselor, Mrs. Suddarth, and consisted of two courses planned to fortify the guests for their long, cold trip home. Hot cream-potato soup served with croutons, mock plum pudding topped with whipped cream, and coffee composed the menu. Plate favors were twenty confections.

The pleasure of this event appeared to be entirely mutual, and the good-bys at a late hour, were mostly "au revoirs" since many of those present expect to meet again at the District League Rally at Levelland on Friday and Saturday, 6 and 7th, inst. If transportation can be arranged, the local League has hopes of sending between fifteen and twenty delegates.—Reporter.

great savings made. It is hard to refuse to contribute to this kind of a proposition because as a general thing your best customer comes to you for the donation and you just can't afford to tell him NO. BUT, it would be very easy to tell him that the city has a committee which handles all matters of this kind and that you would suggest that he get in touch with the Committee. The Committee could then investigate the proposition and either satisfy the person or give him some instructions as how much to ask the merchants for.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR POISONING COYOTES AND WOLVES

Preparation of Baits
Secure back fat from heavy, corn fed hogs. Fat from hogs fattened on acorns of peanuts is so flabby as to be undesirable for this purpose, though it may be used if no better is available. Cut this fresh pork fat into strips full length of the piece of about 2 inches by 1 1/2 inches. Start at the end of the piece and cut one thin slice almost through, then cut the next slice entirely thru, making a bait somewhat after the fashion of the cover of a book.

Secure from your druggist 3 grain capsules filled with an equal proportion of alkaloid strychnine and baking soda. Each bait should be opened, one capsule placed therein, and the bait carefully closed. One's hands should be clean and well greased with pork fat before commencing work in order to eliminate as far as possible all human scent.

Prebaiting
In making up the baits there will be many small pieces of fat of such shape and size that they will not hold the poison capsule. These small waste pieces can be used to advantage in prebaiting, that is, they can be placed over the country to be poisoned about two days before the poison baits are put out. These harmless baits help to allay the suspicion of the animals.

Location of Poisoned Baits

In putting out the pre-baits and afterwards the poison baits, the baits should be strung out in such a manner as a trap line is put out. In other words any place that is a good location for a trap is a good location for four or five poison baits. Near gates, cross-roads, watering places, near carcasses of domestic animals, are all good places near which to put traps or to put-out poison.

General Remarks

One cannot be too careful in keeping the poison or the poison baits. The poison itself should be placed in a strong box and nailed up or locked. The poisoned baits should be kept in a can with a pressed top or in a jar with a screw top.

Poison should never be put out where there is any likelihood of killing dogs. Notices should be put up at gates notifying the public of the presence of poison. Poison should never be put out on any private land without first obtaining the consent of the owner. Poison should never be placed in carcasses as relatively few coyotes can be killed in that way while it forms a menace against dogs for months to come.

While fresh pork fat is the most desirable material that can be obtained, when it is not available, beef fat, or shepper or goat fat can be used to fairly good advantage. Under no circumstances should salt pork or bacon be used in preparing baits lest the salt contained therein should prove an attraction to stock.
