WILSON LOSES DISTRICT RACE

Rails Wins Over Lynn County Entry Which Won District Championship In 1929

In the basketball tournament of District Two of the Interscholastic League held in Lubbock last Friday and Saturday, the Wilson Mustangs won their way into the finals, going down in defeat in a contest with the Ralls Jackrabbits Saturday night.

There are twelve or fifteen counties in this district, Lubbock, Slaton, Plainview, Lamesa and numerous other places having teams contesting in this tournament. Wilson was the champion team in Lynn County and hence represented this county in the big district meet. Ralls and Wilson each won over all competitors and hence the final contest for the championship of the district was between these two teams. Wilson was in the lead at the close of the first half, the score standing 11 to 7 in her favor at that time. The Jackrabbits forged ahead near the end of the contest, however, and at the end the score was 28 to 15 in their favor. The Jackrabbits were awarded a handsome silver statuette while the Wilson Mustangs were awarded a silver loving cup. The Ralls team will contest with Spearman, the winner in District One.

Wilson was the winner last year in the district tournament at Lubbock. The Wilson captives are to be congratulated upon the fact that in a district embracing such cities as Lubbock and Plainview they won first place last year and second place this year. If Wilson carries off first honors in Lynn County again next year, we are whooping her up for first place again in the district.

Simpson and Sanders Witnesses In Case

Wesley Simpson and Dee Sanders are to appear as witnesses for the State in San Marcos next Monday when the case of the State of Texas vs. Dumas and Woods is to be called for trial. The defendants are charged with murder in connection with the killing of two men in an alleged frame-up robbery in Rankin in the Spring of 1928. Defendants are alleged to have framed the killing of two alleged bank robbers in order to collect the reward offered by the Banker's Association of Texas for the capture of any bank robber dead or alive. Simpson and Sanders had some conversation with defendants here a short time before the commission of the crime at Rankin and suspected defendants then as being crooks.

Judging Teams In Texas Tech Contests

Taylor White, teacher of Vocational Agriculture, is busily engaged in eliminating contestants for the several live stock judging contests to be held in the near future at Texas Tech. Prospects are bright for the best teams yet entered by the Tahoka High School. Prof. White states that the chances are good for winning several cups this year. It will be recalled that the Tahoka team last year won a large cup in the live stock contest.

PHEBE WARNER IS HERE TODAY

Speaks At Courthouse In Afternoon; With Warner Club At Legion Hall Tonight

Tahoka has a distinguished guest within her confines today. Mrs. Phebe K. Warner of Claude, in whose honor the local Phebe K. Warner Club was named, is here to speak to that organization at a reception to be given in her honor at the American Legion Hall tonight.

This afternoon she is addressing an audience of Home Demonstration Club women in the court house.

Mrs. Warner has visited Tahoka several times before and she always meets a warm reception here, as elsewhere. She is loved and admired here not only because of her exceptional ability to inspire and to entertain but also because she is living a life of service. She has rendered such constant and intelligent and valuable service to the women and the men of Texas and the nation that her name has already become a household word throughout much of our great country.

The News desires to express the sentiment of our entire little city by stating that we feel honored by the presence today of this noble and capable woman.

Deputy Collector Is Coming March 6th

Editor, News, Tahoka, Texas. Sirs:

For the convenience of those who are required by law to file Federal Income Tax Returns, a Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue will be at Tahoka, Texas at the First National Bank on March 6th, 1930, to assist taxpayers in preparing their returns. No charge will be made for this service. The matter of filing Income Tax Returns should be given immediate attention, in order to avoid penalty and interest.

Yours truly,
John Taensmaier,
Deputy Collector.

Bill Ellis Will Pitch League Ball Again

S. W. Ellis, better known as Bill and sometimes as "Will Bill", who has achieved some fame on the baseball diamond, will probably pitch for the Selma, Alabama, club of the Southeastern League again this year. A letter from M. J. Bolch, president of the club, to the local star intimated that Bill is quite a pitcher. He enclosed a contract with a neat offer: however Bill has turned "hold-out" and says he will be ready for work at Selma March 10 if a little more money is offered.

Ellis has been owned by Oklahoma City of the Western League for the past two years, but was loaned to Selma last season. Only recently the latter club bought his contract. Bill will long be remembered by local fans for holding the Fort Worth Cats to a 3 to 2 score on the local diamond last year.

PHEBE WARNER CLUB ENTERTAINED BY MRS. TURRENTINE

The Phebe K. Warner Club was entertained by Mrs. Turrentine Feb. 18th. A brief business session was followed by an interesting study of Crater Lake and surrounding territory. Plans for entertaining Mrs. Warner were perfected. A dainty plate lunch consisting of sandwiches, eclairs and tea was served to the following members: Mesdames Applewhite, Calaway, Caviness, Elliott, Faney, Henderson, Nash, Nelson, Weathers, Stokes, Williams, Townes, Slaton Stewart and Shook.

CENSUS STARTS DURING APRIL

100,000 Enumerators To Handle Work; Absent Persons Should Make Report to Bureau

The Fifteenth Decennial Census of the United States will be taken during the month of April. The enumeration will be made by a force of about 100,000 enumerators who will go from house to house and secure the information required for the census. Every person is to be enumerated, so far as possible, at his "usual place of abode" or the place where he usually lives. Where individual members of a family are away from home at the time the census is taken they will be reported to the enumerator by other members of the family.

For cases where it is known in advance that the whole family will be away from home at that time, special provision has been made by the Director of the Census in the form of an absent family schedule which is to be filled out by some responsible member of the family in advance of the census date and transmitted to the local Supervisor of the Census. A copy of this schedule can be secured by application to Mr. Irwin E. Barr of Lubbock, Texas, who is the Census Supervisor for this district.

Families planning to be away during the month of April, leaving the home enclosed with no one in charge who is qualified to give the census information to the enumerator, are urged to obtain one of these schedules at once and to fill it out and send it to Mr. Irwin E. Barr at the earliest possible date. Or if the house is left in charge of a servant who will be sure to be at home when the enumerator calls, the schedule may be left with such servant for delivery to the enumerator. The information furnished on this schedule will be treated as confidential and will be used only for the tabulation of statistics which will not reveal any information with regard to individuals or families.

The commissioners court was in session Wednesday afternoon approving reports of officers and attending to routine matters.

Former Citizen Dies In Navarro County

Mrs. J. G. Price of this city received a message Monday informing her of the death of her brother, A. T. Sparkman, which occurred at Dawson in Navarro county on that day. Death resulted from an affection of the heart. Deceased, who was 38 years of age, was an ex-service man, having done service for Uncle Sam in the World War. He is survived by his wife four brothers and two sisters.

Mr. Sparkman formerly resided in his county in the T-Bar Community, leaving here about three years ago on account of his health. Many friends here will sympathize with Mrs. Price in her bereavement. She was not able to attend the funeral on account of a sick child at home.

Announce Baptist Services for Sunday

The pulpit committee of the Baptist Church desires to announce that the Euzealian Class of the Sunday School will have charge of the services at the eleven o'clock hour Sunday morning. They will doubtless have a most interesting and inspiring program.

At the evening service, Rev. E. V. May, pastor of the Brownfield Baptist Church, will fill the pulpit. Many of the members of the local church have never had the privilege of hearing Brother May and will doubtless be glad of this opportunity to hear him.

No definite answer has yet been received from Rev. O. J. Hull of Gatesville, who was recently extended a call to the pastorate here.

The merchandise will be donated by the business men of Tahoka and the auction will be conducted by Judge Grider. The proceeds are to be used in the purchase of a piano for the school.

Mr. Owen says that all the candidates are invited to come and bring their wives and their purses. Of course, if a candidate hasn't a wife a sweetheart will do. The main idea is to get the folks there with a little money in their pockets. A good time is promised.

Mrs. Martha Womack has been visiting relatives in Amarillo.

HUNG JURY IN ROBERTS CASE

Fail To Agree On Fate Of Alleged Petty S'ayer Several Years Ago

The jury in the Adlee Roberts case was discharged Wednesday morning after having been out since early Tuesday afternoon and after assuring Judge McGuire that there was no possibility of their being able to agree. It is our information that the jury stood five for conviction and seven for acquittal.

Roberts was charged with the murder of Calvin Petty, the homicide having been committed several years ago near O'Donnell. Roberts was convicted on a former trial but judgment of conviction was reversed and remanded for another trial.

The State was represented by County Attorney G. H. Nelson and the firm of Lockhart & Garrard. The defendant was represented by Mr. Vickers of the firm of Vickers & Campbell.

When the jury was discharged Wednesday morning, they were excused for the week, no other cases being ready for trial at this time.

The Mrs. Mollie Turner case, murder, has been set for trial on Monday, March 10.

Tahoka Men Attend Kiwanis Conference

Truett Smith, president of the Tahoka Kiwanis Club, and W. S. Anglin, secretary, attended a divisional conference of the Kiwanis clubs of district No. 6 held in Lubbock last Saturday. The district extends from Amarillo to Big Spring and comprises about twenty clubs. All of them except one were represented at the conference. Some member from each club was called on for a short speech and Mr. Anglin represented the Tahoka Club in the speech-making.

Messrs. Smith and Anglin report that the entire meeting was a very enthusiastic and business-like one.

The two gentlemen will exchange places Saturday.

Mr. Otis Carter who has also been with the Times will be associated with Mr. Ritzenthaler in the ownership and publication of the Index. Mr. Roberts will be associated with George (Jimmy) Smith in the publication of the Times, which is one of the best weekly papers in Texas. While we regret to lose Mr. Roberts as a near neighbor, we welcome the Messrs. Ritzenthaler and Carter to Lynn County and the South Plains, wishing them much success in the publication of the Index.

NO CANDIDATE FOR LEGISLATURE YET

The report is current that Carl Rountree, the present Representative of this district in the legislature, will not be a candidate for re-election. The names of two or three Tahoka men have been mentioned for the place but as yet none of them have consented to run. We have some good material here, and since this honor has not come to Tahoka in recent years we are hoping that some good man here may be persuaded to make the sacrifice and make the race.

ARREST LIQUOR LAW BREAKERS

Sheriff's Department Charge Man And Woman Of Possessing Liquor In Tahoka

Sheriff Sam Sanford and Night Watchman W. M. Lee took into custody a man and a woman on a charge of transporting and possessing liquor and seized 51 half gallon jars of whiskey found in their car, about 12 o'clock Wednesday night.

Early in the night Mr. Sanford was given a tip over the telephone that there was a bootlegger in town peddling whiskey. Inviting Mr. Lee to go with him, Mr. Sanford immediately instituted a search. The two drove about over town and out on the highways a short distance in two or three directions hoping to encounter the offender. Then they kept watch in the business section. About midnight they saw a car drive into town and stop in front of The Limit. The search and the capture followed immediately. Fifty-one jars of liquor were taken from the car, some of it white and some red. There was evidence that the car had contained quite a number of other jars which doubtless had been recently disposed of.

The man and the woman gave their names as Miller and their residence as Fort Worth. Miller made no statement other than to say that he and the woman had just riarrided and were on their honeymoon trip—just took a little liquor along for their own personal use. The two were placed in jail and complaints were filed against them this morning charging violation of the Dean law.

Comptroller Terrell Quits Under Fire

Comptroller S. H. Terrell, under investigation by the House of Representatives for alleged misappropriation of state funds, suddenly terminated the proceedings Tuesday by entering his resignation as Comptroller to Governor Moody. The investigation was being made with a view to filing impeachment charges in the Senate. The attorneys representing the House of Representatives had completed their testimony and witnesses for the defendant were being heard. Attorneys for Terrell asked for time to confer, and within less than an hour afterwards they came back into the House and read Terrell's resignation, which had just been filed with the secretary of state. This automatically stopped the proceedings.

Terrell had been accused of misappropriating large sums of money belonging to the state, aggregating more than $18,000. Witnesses had shown that he had just repaid to the State part of the missing funds. Evidence had been adduced tending to show that part of the funds in dispute had been used for repair of his residence, for the purchase of an automobile, and for various other private uses. The charges grew out of the report made by state auditor Moore Lynn, who was recently appointed by Governor Moody and who had thereafter audited the books of the comptroller's office. Lynn had been appointed by Governor Moody under a law enacted by the present legislature providing for such an office.

Governor Moody almost immediately tendered the position of comptroller to Representative John F. Wallace of Teague. Wallace has not yet indicated whether he will accept according to press dispatches in the daily papers this morning.

Local Singers Enter South Plains Contest

The Girls' Chorus and Boys' Quartet of the local school are preparing to enter the South Plains Music Contest to be held at Lubbock on March 22nd. A conflict with the County Meet prevents the Boys' Chorus from entering the contest, since the county athletic contests are held at Tahoka on that same date. The Boys' Chorus won the contest last year, but will not be able to appear this year because of the conflict mentioned above.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Henderson are the happy parents of a little daughter, Jean, who was born in the Lubbock Sanitarium Tuesday afternoon.

Many Uses For Peas

PEAS are just peas to the inexperienced cook, but they're an inspiration to a housewife who likes to vary her menu and yet include plenty of health giving vitamins for her family. She can make soups and salads with them and also combine them with other vegetables in ways to make your mouth fairly water. She can make pea and tomato soup, either plain or a puree, cauliflower and pea salad, pea and apple salad, potato and pea salad, and pea, cheese and nut salad; and some of the vegetable combinations are asparagus and peas on toast, peas with fresh tomatoes, pea oysters, dumplings with peas and carrots, pea and walnut roast, potato marbles with peas, lettuce and peas, English peas, new peas au gratin in carrot boats, parsley, peas and carrots, and potatoes creamed with peas.

There Are Others, Too

We know a lot of other ways to use them, too, such as curried pea omelet, pea waffles with bacon, round steak with peas and creamed chicken and peas, but we'll use the rest of our space telling you how to make:

Pea and Tomato Soup: Empty the contents of a No. 2 can of peas and a No. 2 can of tomatoes into a sauce pan and simmer ten minutes; then press through a sieve. Melt four tablespoons butter, add four tablespoons flour, and then add gradually one quart of soup stock, stirring till thickened. Add the strained vegetable pulp and season to taste. Serve with croutons. This serves six or eight.*

CRAMPING SPELLS

Mississippi Lady Tells How She Suffered Until She Had Taken Cardui on a Friend's Advice.

Greenville, Miss.—In describing how she suffered several years ago, Mrs. Mattie Dalton, of 112 Pecan Street, this city, recently wrote: "I would cramp, and my hands and feet would draw, so I came near having convulsions. I would have to stay in bed, sometimes a week, and when I would get up, I just dragged around, and did not feel like doing my work. I suffered a great deal with my back.

"A friend came to see me and saw how I suffered. She told me to try taking Cardui, which I did. I seemed to have more strength, after my first bottle. After I had taken about four bottles of Cardui, I saw a great improvement.

"I quit having such bad spells, and was stronger and better than in a long time. I gained in weight, took a few more bottles of Cardui and felt so well that I quit taking it. I certainly can recommend Cardui, for I know what it is to suffer, and I know that Cardui helped me.

Thousands of women have written to tell of the benefit Cardui has been to them in helping them to build up their health.

Having helped so many other Cardui should help you, too.

NEW LYNN CLUB MET

The New Lynn Home Demonstration Club held their regular meeting last Tuesday, February 18th, at Mrs. J. A. Jaynes.

A very interesting program was rendered at this meeting.

Mrs. Lola Higgins gave the club a demonstration on making baskets out of K. C. baking powder cans, which we all enjoyed very much.

Mr. E. B. Terry was very kind to the club and gave us the use of a house on his farm for our club house till fall, which we all appreciate very much. Our plan now is to fix our house up, and have all club meetings there after our first meeting in March.

There were twelve members present and two visitors.

The hostess, served cake and peaches topped with whipped cream, which was very delicious.

We adjourned to meet March 4th at Mrs. H. A. Winklers.—Reporter.

DON'T FORGET THIS

In 1925 the record cotton crop in the United States of 18,000,000 bales sold for $982,000,000, or $54.55 per bale, while the 10,000,000 bales crop of 1923 brought the producers $1,600,000,000 or $160.00 per bale. This means that the cotton farmers in 1925 picked 8,000,000 bales of cotton free of charge and paid, in effect, $600,000,000 for the privilege of doing so. Reduce the acreage.

A bee census (made by accurate estimate) shows 425,000 colonies of bees in Texas, producing annually about 10,000,000 pounds of honey. Uvalde is the capital of one of the largest honey-producing areas in the United States.

KEMP'S SALE PROVES THAT MONEY IS STILL IN COUNTRY

The big sale that opened at Kemp's Variety Store last Saturday seems to have met with a splendid response on the part of the shoppers of the county.

The manager informed us just before going to press that the crowds are still coming and that he was convinced that the country is not yet bankrupt by a big lot. Sales have been far beyond their expectations, he stated.

"The big specials are attracting big crowds at the hours of 9 a. m. and 2:30 p. m. each day and the result of this sale proves that it surely does pay to advertise," the manager declared.

The Lynn County News printed the big double-page spread for this big sale event, which were distributed throughout Tahoka's trade territory and the result shows that there is still much spending money in Lynn County.

NEW LYNN GIRLS CLUB MET

Miss Greenwade filled her appointment Tuesday morning, February 18, and we had another good meeting.

We are glad to report three new members this time. We hope they will find their places and be real good workers.

We went out on the school ground and Miss Greenwade demonstrated how to lay off a garden. There were about fifteen girls present.

Well, our valentine party went smash, but we learned something about singing.

Mr. White's Short Course is interesting.

Remember, girls, let's have our required work done next time and do it nicely.—Reporter.

THE HAUGHTY DOLLAR

Fresh and crisp in his new green attire, the dollar lay folded in the Churchman's billfold, jingling about with the pennies and nickles, a little dime played.

"You'd better have a good time," the dollar spoke through the partition, hearing the noise. "You won't be here long."

"How do you know?" the little dime stopped its frolicking, frightened at the idea.

"Because you're going to Sunday School."

"Do you go to Sunday School?" asked the dime of the dollar.

"I!" exclaimed the haughty dollar, in surprise. "Of course not! I go to shows and gasoline stations and parks. Sunday is my big day, but I don't spend it in Sunday school. That's a place for a small fry like you."

GOVERNOR MOODY IS RIGHT

Governor Moody has been revealing some startling facts to his radio audiences about the penitentiary system of Texas and the condition that exist within the prison walls and on the state farms. The people of Texas should know these facts.
They should know that the main penitentiary buildings at Huntsville occupy a tract of only ten acres of land; that some of the buildings were constructed approximately 80 years ago; that prisoners are crowded into these buildings like rats in a hole; that the so-called hospital
on the grounds is filthy and unsanitary, not fit for occupancy by sick human beings; that the buildings and prison-houses on the various farms are likewise unsanitary and filthy; that prisons are compelled to sleep on the floor, on filthy cots, anywhere they can find a place to lie down, in crowded rooms that afford practically no ventilation;
that the various state farms comprise approximately 52,000 acres;
that 41,000 acres of these are subject to destructive overflows, which occur almost annually; that only 28,000 of the 52,000 acres are in cultivation; that most of the private farms in the vicinity of the state farms have been abandoned for farming purposes for the reason that they are unfitted for the purpose; that during the past ten years
the state penitentiary system has lost more than $8,000,000; that the whole prison system is run-down, inadequate and hopelessly expensive.
Governor Moody argues that if private farmers do not find it profitable to farm the adjacent lands,
the State can never expect to make any profit farming its lands with convict labor. He says that in raising cotton, the convicts are necessarily idle much of the time. He believes that the state should go out of the farming business; that an industrialized penitentiary system should be built, that the inmates should be taught vocations within its walls, and that the system should manufacture much of the furnishings and equipment that are needed for the various eleemosynary and other institutions maintained by the State. He also suggests that these convicts, among other things, could manufacture cotton bagging, out of short-staple cotton, with which to wrap the farmer's cotton at the gin.

He advocates the building of this new system somewhere near Austin
so that the Governor and the members of the legislature might visit it frequently and keep informed as to the condition and the operation of the institution. In this connection he calls attention to the fact that when the legislature recently visited the penitentiary at Huntsville and several of the state farms, it was the first time in the history of the state that the legislature had made such a visit; most of the legislators had never seen the penitentiary at Huntsville and many of them had never seen a state farm. It is impossible for them to legislate intelligently about a system that they know nothing about.

Governor Moody draws an ugly picture of the whole penitentiary system and says that it is a disgrace to the state. We have heard one of the above facts converted or denied. It occurs to us that Governor Moody is right. The penitentiary is not expected to be a pleasure resort but it should be a work shop. The State should not be expected to treat its prisoners as if they were out on a picnic but it should treat them humanely. If the big state farms are largely unfit for farming operations, as seems to be the fact, the State should quit trying to farm them. Both as a business proposition and from a humanitarian stand-point, we believe that our penitentiary system should be rebuilt, and Governor Moody's proposal to rebuild it on lands situated near the capital of the state seems to us to be a wise and sensible plan.

WHOM THE GODS WOULD DESTROY

"Whom the gods would destroy
they first make mad."
If this old Greek adage is the correct dope then the wets up at Washington surely must be headed for destruction. If they are not mad, they at least talk and swear like mad
men. Even a few college presidents ever in the big moist centers seem to be absolutely "nuts" every time prohibition is mentioned.
For a long time Nicholas Murray
Butler, president of Columbia University, New York, seemed to have the entire field to himself among college presidents in saying intemperate and foolish things about prohibition and making an ass of himself generally, but recently he has been joined by another high-up in the education world, Dr. Samuel H.
Church, president of the Carnegie Institute, Pittsburgh.
Dr. Church recently appeared before the House Judiciary Committee in Washington to testify against prohibition. Contending that prohibition had been an utter failure and asserting that both the Republican and Democratic parties had become "amalgamated into one immense prohibition party", Church advocated the formation of a new party to be known as the Liberal Party, whose mission should be to bring about the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment and all supporting prohibition laws; and in his frenzied flights of indignation he delivered himself thusly: "It (the new party)

should dedicate itself to divorcing
the Government from every form of religious dictation, reject every law
that rests upon a religious basis,
seek the dissolution of every society that aims to subordinate any portion of our citizenship because of race or creed, and banish from Washington every hypocritical preacher who comes here demanding a law that shall make the morals and manners of other people as good as his own."
Then he launches out upon a tirade against the Methodist, Presbyterian and Baptist Churches, the Anti-Saloon League, and other "religious morality leagues." A dozen or more other witnesses, some of them society women, were just as rabid and intemperate as the learned Doctor.
In fact scarcely one of them could testify without applying such epithets as "hypocrites", "fanatics",
"political preachers," etc. to those good men and women who have led in this great reform movement that has resulted in the banishment of the rutilant saloon from our country.
Now let's just take a look at Dr.
Church's proposals. One of the objectives of his proposed "Liberal" party would be to banish from Washington all "hypocritical preachers"—which doubtless is intended to include all preachers actively favoring prohibition. It would indeed be a "liberal" party and a "liberal" government that would undertake to do a thing like that.

The Doctor would reject every law that rests upon a religious basis. All Sundays laws, therefore, should go.
No "portion of our citizenship"
should be "subordinated" on account of "race or creed". Negroes and Mexicans and Chinese should have the same rights, socially and otherwise, as the whites. All should be allowed the same privileges—at the ballot box, in the theatres, in the hotels, in the public schools, at the marriage altar. None should be "subordinated" on account of race.
Dr. Church's "Liberal" party would compel the South to accept the racial standards now maintained in New York and Chicago and throughout the North.
No Sabbath, no preachers fighting
for civic and political righteousness, absolute political and social equality of the races, and saloons everywhere—this is the ideal that Dr.
Church and his "liberal" crowd are seeking to bring about. It would be a wonderful America we would have if all these "hypocritical", "fanatical" dregs could be squelched and the "wise" and "liberal" Dr. Church and his crowd could have their way. But the learned Doctor and his crowd will never have their way, for they have lost sight of the highest ideals in American life, and it is they who have become "fanatical."
"Whom the gods would destroy
they first make mad."

The News.

Out in Arizona a woman was convicted of murder and sentenced to hang. The higher courts affirmed the case on appeal. Then a plea of insanity was interposed but a jury found her sane. The governor of the state refused to commute the sentence to life imprisonment or to otherwise interfere with the infliction of the death penalty. So, on last Friday the noose was placed about her neck, the trap was sprung, and she was hurled into Eternity. Mrs.
Dugan was doubtless a wicked woman. It was a shocking crime that she committed; but her execution
by the State was no less shocking.
As she dropped downward below the gallows, the rope about her neck severed the head from the body and each dropped to the floor. It was a gruesome scene. Such an execution is calculated to make no friends for capital punishment. The normal human heart naturally recoils from such barbarity. Certainly a more humane method of taking the life of the criminal should be adopted, and certainly the death penalty should never be inflicted except for the most brutal and shocking crimes.

Published statements from such men as Dr. S. P. Brooks, president of Baylor University and at one time
a candidate for the Senate, Dr. J. W.
Hunt, president of McMurry College, Dr. J. D. Sandefer, president of Simmons University, and scores of other eminent men in this state would indicate that the regular Democratic party may have some hard sledding next fall if the committee does not recede from its position in excluding from the ticket
all who voted for Hoover two years ago. Even Senator Walter C. Woodward of Coleman is quoted as saying that the "Hoovercrats" are "just as good Democrats as the Executive Committeemen."

Farmers are busy preparing the soil for planting. As one drives through the country and beholds the broad expanse of rich farming lands,
field after field, almost level or gently rolling, he involuntarily exclaims
"This is the greatest country on earth!" Yet we know that if too many of these numberless acres are planted in cotton here on these plains and throughout Texas, the price this fall will be disastrously
low. We hope that much feed shall be planted this year, for it can be converted into hogs and poultry and dairy products that will bring in a steady income throughout the year.

We do not believe that any political party should exact a pledge of any member in the primary that would compel him to vote against what he believes to be the best interests of his country in the general election.

The International Touring Contest, held recently in Hungary was miles and the Buick covered the won by a Buick. The race was 400 distance in two days.

Diversity of Texas production of raw materials is shown by the fact that sixty-five different raw materials contributed in a major way to the state's income in 1929.

An Army of

has Changed to CONOCO
Germ-Processed Motor Oil

The Seven Claims in Conoco's Challenge that Brought this Amazing Public Acceptance of Conoco's
Germ-Processed Motor Oil

- 1 Combines with metal surfaces and never leaves bearings and other working parts.
- 2 Refined from carefully selected paraffin base crudes by patented processes. That means stability.
- 3 Positively increases gasoline mileage
by reducing friction. That means economy.
- 4 Will not bog down under cylinder wall heat. That means less oil consumption.
- 5 Substantially reduces motor wear in starting because this oil penetrates metal surfaces and stays there. Other oils require 15 to 20 minutes to lubricate
all moving parts.
- 6 Crankcase dilution does not seriously impair its "oiliness" value. That means greater motor protection.
- 7 Will lubricate efficiently at sub-zero temperatures. That means thoroughly de-waxed oil.

Have you noticed that Conoco stations have been busier in the past few months? The reason is, of course, that amazing new oil, Conoco Germ-Processed.

Introduced only last November, this revolutionary motor lubricant has startled even its makers by its instant public acceptance.

There's a moral for you in this wholesale change of oil-buying habits by the motoring public. Everyone realizes now that something happened in the motor oil business when this new oil was announced.
When you start using this oil you'll realize it too.

By providing more economical car operation, by guaranteeing a radical reduction in motor wear, and particularly, by penetrating metal surfaces and providing constant lubrication under every conceivable operating condition... Conoco Germ-Processed oil sets up a new gauge of motor oil merit.

We firmly believe that you will buy no other oil except Conoco Germ-Processed oil after using it for a fair period of time. Won't you make that trial to-day, at any station bearing the Red Triangle?

CHURCHES AND ADVERTISING

Churches very often are misunderstood by some folks, and are blamed unjustly by others, but sometimes they deserve the censure of a community for using unfair business methods. When a church uses the sacred prestige of the Kingdom of God on Earth to collect money from business firms whose personnel may be at heart antagonistic to the local churches, it becomes a sort of religious hi-jacking. As a pastor I have experienced the fact that some kinds of advertising does not pay. Some propositions simply do not appeal to me at all.

Last summer a man came through here, attended services at our church several times, and while here imposed on the business firms of the town in the name of the different churches. He did not consult with the pastor or boards of the Methodist Church, nor, so far as I know, did he approach a single member of the church. Yet he carried off about seventy dollars from the community in the name of the Methodist Church as well as that of other organizations. Why didn't he consult with the local pastors? Simply because he knew that his scheme was a form of religious graft, and was fundamentally dishonest. He went into different mercantile establishments asking for advertising for a "church directory" to be printed on a card and displayed in windows about town. These business men, thinking their neighbors and friends were asking them to ante up to some church auxiliary, came across. Later, when I had learned all I could about the scheme, I asked certain business men whom I knew would tell me their frank opinion of such methods and advertising and everyone of them said it was not "worth a dime." They just felt that they could not afford to turn down a local church or churches, but I'm sure that each felt like they were being imposed upon by their friends and neighbors. Personally I do not in the least blame them. To my mind it is an unfair way to collect funds. And as for that matter, I don't see the use of charging a business twenty-five dollars, more or less, to ruin an otherwise attractive curtain for a school building. Our business firms call this sort of graft "good will advertising". They cannot afford to be without it, but they resent it many times.

These merchants are having hard enough times without the churches and schools imposing on them with unfair advertising. There are better ways, and cheaper ways of advertising, such as our local paper, other nearby papers, picture shows, handbills, circulars, etc. Now the editor and Mr. English did not ask me to say that; it is just thrown in free. The best advertising in the world is to furnish such service, products and prices as will bring the customer back again, and make him talk favorably about the goods.

And speaking of advertising, I do not like to buy from a man who is unethical as to knock his competitor. Not long ago I was investigating a certain article of commerce with a view to buying a little later. The salesman at one store immediately began knocking his competitor's article, having a lot more to say about the rival firm's goods than he did his own. I got afraid of the article he was showing. Evidently what he was showing was not in the salesman's mind superior to his rival firm's product. He seemed to be under the necessity of covering up some bad points by denying the good points of the other make of article.

All that is really beside the point. What I started to say is that I am asking the merchants of Tahoka not to subscribe to any advertising scheme in the name of the Methodist Church without finding out if it is authorized by the local people. It is safe to say that you will not be called on this year if you do not, for I believe the churches of the town are amply able to carry their own burdens.

Sometmes members of churches in their zeal as collectors ask and insist that people who are not members of their own churches, and none of the members of whose families are, to contribute to purely denominational causes. This is in manifestly unfair, and unless it is an agreeable exchange of funds, it should be discontinued. It leaves a bad taste. I know for I have had members of my churches to complain about that sort of collecting.

It is true that the Churches benefit all the community; that no man should be so small souled that he will not financially support a church—the one he chooses, of course. Every man in the community owes a part of his prosperity and happiness as a good citizen to the churches. But his paying should be a free and heart felt offering, not in response to a scheme he does not believe in. Common honesty in paying debts is far better than a legal process. And a great many men will voluntarily pay to the cause of the churches. I have had several unsolicited gifts to the cause of the church by men who very seldom go to services at any place. That is a very fine spirit and is what every good citizen of the community ought to show, whether he belongs or not. But I say again, it ought to be because he recognizes the worth of a church to his community, and not because some society asks him to contribute to its cause.

Cruel Neuritis Finds Foe In New Medicine

Happy Lady Enthusiastic In Praise Of Famed New Medicine

MRS. HARRY A. UNRATH

"No words can describe what this great medicine, Konjola, has done for me," said Mrs. Harry A. Unrath, 914 Lark Avenue, St. Louis. "Five bottles of this marvelous remedy put an end to a case of neuritis that I had despaired of ever shaking off. The pain settled in my forearm and fingers and for days at a time I was helpless from the frightful agony and could not move my hands. My kidneys were weak and added to my intolerable misery."

"The first bottle of Konjola indicated what could be expected. I continued the treatment for five weeks and my health troubles were at an end. Every vestige of pain had left my arms and fingers, there is no swelling and no stiffness in either. My kidneys responded weeks before and no back pains or dizziness occur. It is difficult, even now, to realize that one medicine could do all that Konjola did for me."

Konjola is sold in Tahoka at Tahoka Drug Co., and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

low-cost per bag

When anyone offers to "save you money" by selling you a "cheap" dairy feed, remember that the milk pail determines both the cost and the profit of any feed. Feeds selling for less than RED CHAIN usually contain an excessive amount of cottonseed meal; they produce milk for a while, but eventually they "burn up" your cows. Experienced dairymen know RED CHAIN 24% Dairy Ration is the most economical feed for cows because it produces more and better milk and keeps cows in better condition, insuring a long life of usefulness and profit. Everything considered, the best is always cheapest in the end.

Mrs. A. L. Standefer underwent a major operation in the Lubbock sanitarium last Saturday. We learn as we go to press that she is improving in a very satisfactory manner. Many friends here are hoping that she may soon be home again.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Knight visited Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Doshier at Seagraves last Sunday. Mr. Knight reports that the Baptist Church at that place, of which Rev. Doshier is pastor, is just finishing a new building, all paid for.

Paul Lewis (himself) and the family disappeared Sunday night. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis have been operating a bakery here but evidently decided to discontinue the business without bidding anybody goodbye. Their destination is unknown here.

Miss Floy Anglin, who is teaching at Morton, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Anglin. She was accompanied by Miss Travis, another teacher in the Morton schools.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Nevels returned Tuesday from a visit of two or three weeks in Los Angeles. Mr. Nevels says that neither of them were well while in California and they came home almost sick.

Mrs. T. H. Grisso and daughter, Louise, of Fort Worth, came in last Saturday night for a visit of several days with the former's sister, Mrs. Roy Poer and brother, C. W. Conway.

Taylor White reports that there were forty-eight men and women present at the last meeting of his night agricultural school at New Lynn. The project is proving a big success he says.

George Short reports that Mrs. Short is still improving steadily and that he expects her to be able to leave the hospital within a few days. She has been there almost seven weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Lewis are the parents of a baby girl, born recently in Lubbock. Mr. Lewis was formerly coach and teacher in Tahoka High School.

Mrs. G. M. Reid has leased the Jackson hamburger stand and is now in charge of the business. Bill Ellis has had the business leased for the past few months.

SNYDER MAN CANDIDATE FOR STATE TREASURER

Charley R. Lockhart of Austin, candidate for the office of state treasurer during the 1930 primary elections, was over Sunday the guest of his brother, Jim, and a host of old time friends who have known him ever since he landed in Scurry County back in 1898. If the total voting strength of Scurry County reaches 3,204 votes, Charley Lockhart will get 3,204 of them.

Sunday morning while attending services at the First Baptist Church Pastor Ferguson demanded that Mr. Lockhart come to the pulpit where he made a few brief remarks. So filled with emotion was the speaker when he thought of the many old pioneers that had answered the call that it was indeed a hardship for Charley to even tell what was in his heart.

Mr. Lockhart never fails to attract attention wherever he goes, being only 45 inches tall and weighing 120 pounds. He is 54 years of age, is married and the father of two children, one of whom is a football player on the Presbyterian College team at Kerrville and is 6 feet 5 1/4 inches tall, weighing 180 pounds.

Mr. Lockhart is a native-born Texan, having been born in Dallas County. He is a Baptist, an Odd Fellow and Knight of Pythias. He held the office of county treasurer of Scurry County for sixteen years before going to Austin where he now holds a position, in the State Treasurer's office, which post he has had for ten years, serving under six state treasurers, viz: C. V. Terrell, John W. Baker, S. L. Staples, G. N. Holton and W. Gregory Hatcher, the present incumbent.

In connection with his duties Mr. Lockhart is manager of the depository department which is composed of the state treasurer, attorney general and banking commissioner.

Mr. Lockhart while in the city spent most of his time with his brother, Jim Lockhart, and the large hosts of friends who have known him ever since he was elected county treasurer of Scurry County two years after his arrival in the county. Charley Lockhart is a gentleman who is thoroughly capable and efficient to rand the duties of the office to which he aspires. He should receive the heaviest majority ever given a state office and West Texas as a section will rise as a body and cast its vote verbal or written for Charley Lockhart for state treasurer. The Times-Signal, for one, can marshal six votes, and every one of them goes for this fine gentleman who is never too busy to tell the bystander that Snyder is his old home town.—The Scurry County Times.

Mr. Lockhart is a brother of our own Judge G. E. Lockhart, who resided in Tahoka many years but is now a resident of Lubbock. It is needless to say that Lynn County will go almost solid for the gentleman from Scurry.

THE IDEAL REPUBLIC

I can conceive of a national destiny surpassing the glories of the present and the past—a destiny which meets the responsibilities of today and measures up to the possibilities of the future.

Behold a republic, resting securely upon the foundation stones quarried by revolutionary patriots from the mountain of eternal truth—a republic applying in practice and proclaiming to the world the self-evident proposition that all men are created equal; that they are endowed with inalienable rights; that governments are instituted among men to secure these rights; that governments derive their just powers from

SQUILL KILL

Rats Cost Millions Annually

You can rid your premises of this deadly pest without danger to your poultry or domestic animals by using Squill Kill, a Red Squill preparation. Red Squill is recommended by the U. S. Department of Agriculture in farm bulletin No. 1533, as being taken readily by rats and relatively harmless to human beings and domestic animals.

Rats cost the American people $200,000,000 annually. They distribute the virus of plague of hydrophobia, or trichinosis, of equine influenza. When you can be rid of these pests by using Squill Kill at a cost of 50 cents, can you afford to have them?

Squill Kill carries a positive guarantee. If used according to instructions, your money will be refunded if Squill Kill does not kill rats and mice.

Behold a republic in which civil and religious liberty stimulate all t earnest endeavor, and in which the law restrains every hand uplifted for a neighbor's injury—a republic in which every citizen is a sovereign, but in which no one cares to wear a crown.

Behold a republic standing erect, while empires all around are bowed beneath the weight of their own armaments—a republic whose flag is loved, while other flags are only feared.

Behold a republic increasing in population, in wealth, in strength and in influence, solving the problems of civilization and hastening the coming of universal brotherhood—a republic which shakes throne and dissolves aristocracies by its silent example, and gives light and protection to those who sit in darkness.

THREE IMPORTANT FACTORS ENTER INTO THE COST OF YOUR AUTOMOBILE

1. How much it costs to make the car
2. How much extra you pay the dealer
3. How much it costs for operation and up-keep

THE PURCHASE of an automobile involves a considerable amount of money and it should be carefully considered from all angles before a final decision is made.

The value of the car to you depends on the value built into it at the factory, how much extra you pay the dealer for distribution, selling, financing and accessories and what it will cost to operate and maintain the car after purchase. Each of these factors, as it relates to the Ford car, is frankly explained below.

Economy in production

THE FORD CAR is made economically because of the efficiency of Ford production methods. The money saved through this efficiency is put back into the car in improved quality of material and in greater care and accuracy in manufacturing. The constant effort is to eliminate waste and find ways to make each part better and better without increasing cost—frequently at lowered cost.

Because of Ford economies in large production and because the Ford organization operates on a low-profit margin, the price you pay for the car is much less than it would be under any other conditions. Yet it brings you many unusual features of construction and performance.

At least $75 extra value is represented alone by the Triplex shatter-proof glass windshield, the Rustless Steel, the four Houdaille double-acting hydraulic shock absorbers, and the five steel-spoke wheels. The unusually large number of ball and roller bearings and the extensive use of fine steel forgings instead of castings or stampings are additional features that reflect the high quality built into every part of the car. Throughout, it is a value far above the price you pay.

Low dealer charges

THE SAME PRINCIPLES of efficiency and economy that characterize the manufacture of the Ford car are applied also to distribution. Obviously it would do the public little good to save in production if these savings were sacrificed later in excessive costs of selling, financing and accessories.

The Ford dealer, therefore, operates on the same low-profit margin as the Ford Motor Company, his discount or commission being the lowest of any automobile dealer. He does a good business because he makes a small profit on many sales instead of a large profit on fewer sales.

NOTE THESE LOW PRICES

Phaeton . . .	$440
Coupe . . .	$500
Two-window Fordor Sedan . . .	$600
Three-window Fordor Sedan . . .	$625
Cabriolet . . .	$645
Town Sedan . . .	$670

(All prices f. o. b. Detroit)

Low charges for time payments through the Universal Credit Company

The lower cost of selling, combined with the low charges for financing and accessories, means a direct saving of at least $50 to $75 to every purchaser of a Ford, in addition to the savings made possible by economies in manufacturing. The money you pay for a Ford goes into value in the car. It is not wasted in high dealer charges.

Low up-keep costs

IT IS IMPORTANT to remember that the cost of your automobile is not the first cost only, but the total cost after months and years of service. Here again there is a decided saving when you buy a Ford.

The cost of operation and up-keep is lower because of simplicity of design, the high quality of material, and the reduction of friction and wear through unusual accuracy in manufacturing and assembling. The reliability and longer life of the car contribute to its low depreciation per year of use.

The intelligent, painstaking service rendered by Ford dealers is under close factory supervision and is a factor in the low up-keep cost of the Ford. All labor is billed at a flat rate and replacement parts are always available at low prices through Ford dealers in every section of the United States.

In two, three or five years, depending on how much you drive, the saving in operating and maintaining a new Ford will amount to even more than the saving on the first cost of the car.

SEVEN TIMES AND OUT

Seven is a cabalistic number; it is also a favorite of poets.

The seventh child of a seventh child is reputed to have psychic powers.

But a Greek professor has discovered seven to be destructive. Writing for a Greek paper that appears in Paris, he produces a mathematical curiosity, which we reproduce from the London Evening Standard:

"The magic figures are 142,857. If they are multiplied by two, the result is 285,714. That is, the same figures and the same sequence. Multiply by three, and the figures (428,571) and the sequence are still undisturbed. Multiplied by four, the result is 571,428. Here again the same figures and the same undisturbed sequence. Multiply by five, and the result is 714,285; by six, it is 857,142. In this last example the result is even more curious, because the two sets of three figures are exactly transposed.

"When, however, the doubtless weary figures are multiplied by seven the magic formula breaks down, and the following curious result is achieved—999,999.

"I wonder if any of my Wrangler readers can produce a better mathematical curiosity than this."—Literary Digest.

LOOKS ARE ENOUGH

(By Pames J. Montague)

Little Cutie Crummett
Never will be bright,
But she has eyes like Summer skies
And cheeks of pink and white.

She cannot spell, she cannot add,
She cannot multiply,
But no one cares for such affairs
When Cutie passes by.

Many other maidens
Study night and day,
But Cutie whiles with idle smiles
Her lesson time away.

And though she's empty-headed
She never lacks for beaux;
She can't recite, but every night
She goes to "speakie" shows.

When examinations
Worry half the class
Cuties has her mind on jazz
And so she doesn't pass.

And never does she bother
Her pretty, fluffy pate,
Or shed hot tears because she fears
She will not graduate.

Little Cutie Crummett
Will marry by and by
Some rich man's son of twenty-one
And afterward live high.

And she'll be gay and happy
Through all the years to come,
And neither she, nor even he
Will ever know she's dumb.

A properly cared for pecan orchard will yield gross $125 an acre annually, says J. F. Rosborough of A. & M. College. Planting the orchard—not more than a dozen trees to the acre—costs from $25 to $35 per acre. Cultivation costs $10 to $15 an acre, which may be offset by planting row crops between the trees. The orchard will begin to bear in three to five years and will increase in yield until after its twenty-fifth year, when each tree should yield from 500 to 1000 pounds for an indefinite number of years. If you decide to try it, consult Dr. Rosborough or some other pecan expert for sound advice.

SOUTH PLAINS SEEKING RELIEF FROM COTTON BONDAGE

LUBBOCK, Texas, Feb. 24.—Ginners, bankers and other business leaders gathered from over the South Plains of Texas here today to discuss the South's greatest problem—the cotton situation.

Over 100 men, leaders in every South Plains community, were seeking to find or to develop a "Moses" to lead the South out of a cotton bondage.

C. J. Felmet of Lubbock, president of the South Plains Cotton Ginners Association voiced the sense of the meeting when he declared that no one man could do "Moses' job, but that it will take the hearty cooperation of the ginners, the bankers, the land owners, the farmers, and all other groups to solve the question.

The body adopted by unanimous approval, a set of resolutions, seeking first to encourage the planting of a better staple cotton that will produce a staple from 3/8-inch to 1 inch, and second to encourage the reduction of the cotton acreage by not less than 15 per cent, and third to eliminate the practice of South Plains ginners in buying cotton, "hog round", or all at the same price regardless of the staple quality of the product.

Don L. Jones, superintendent of the Agricultural Experiment Station at Lubbock gave figures relating to experiments at the station with the production of various cottons. He urged that the changing from poor staple seed to good staple be a gradual, rather than an immediate step, and to be done only when the farmer is sure that he will be paid for the quality of the cotton he produces.

A warning received by South Plains bankers from the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas was read by W. S. Posey, who stated that bankers in the South are facing a crisis due to the cotton situation. He pointed to the fact that at the present, on account of a progressive country, the banks of the South Plains section are in the best financial condition of any agricultural section in the entire section, according to a report from the Federal Reserve Bank but that only a sound procedure dealing with the cotton situation will keep the banks in this condition.

"Our loans are going to be fully secured, regardless of whether our farm customers make a bale of cotton or not," Posey declared.

The bankers and ginners, who have more influence than any other group of men with the farmers, are to work shoulder to shoulder, principally in encouraging the planting of a better staple of cotton on the Plains and secondly on effecting a reduction of acreage in this section.

Don L. Jones, in giving the figures of experiments during the years 1924, 1925, 1926, 1927 and 1928, with various cotton varieties submitted the following:

The name of the cotton appears to the left. The first column shows the average lint per acre, the second the staple length, the third the percent open in 134 days, the fourth the percent open in 143 days.

This is only for the years of 1925, 1926, 1927, 1928.

A number of the varieties have been grown longer than the five year period, however, all have not and the figures for five years will serve as a basis.

Three factors should be considered by farmers in selecting cotton varieties for planting, Don Jones said. They are: staple length of 3/8 to 1 inch, yield or production qualities, and early maturity qualities. The records of the Experiment Station will serve as a guide to farmers in selecting varieties that have the best combination of these qualities.

W. T. S. T. C. ENROLLMENT SHOWS TO BE NATION-WIDE

CANYON, Feb. 20.—The campus of the West Texas State Teachers College at this place has been e-tended until it is practically nation-wide. There are at present 580, ex-tension students of the college, most of them enrolled for correspondence courses.

Representatives of Florida and California find the courses equally valuable, for both Miami and Los Angeles are on the list. Montana and Mississippi have students enrolled, and New Mexico, Oklahoma, Kansas, Arkansas, Missouri and other states are found.

The greater part of these stu-dents from widely s-attered sections of the counry are enrol'ed with the Canyon College either because they have attended it in the past and expect to return later to receive their degrees, or because they expect to come to Texas to live and are lining up with Texas institutions.

Inquiries are frequently received regarding Canyon's correspondence work from places as far away as Hawaii and the Phil'pines and Alaska. According to those in charge of the work, these inquiries come through ex-students of the institu-tion who tell their associates of the work offered.

SILVER WEDDING ANNIVERSARY AT WILSON SUNDAY

Possibly one of the prettiest so-cial occasions ever experienced in this community was the celebration last Sunday of the twenty-fifth wed-ding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Forrester.

It will be interesting to their many friends to know that this coup-ey was the 14th one in Lynn coun-ty to get married. This fact togeth-er with many others of much inter-est was brought to light Sunday thru the dinner program.

It was a dinner program indeed! Guests were invited to reach the home at one o'clock P. M. In keep-ing with the plan the guests did ar-rive at about that time to face a most beautifully arranged table ex-tending the length of the dining room and into the living room. Since the airplane, too, has just completed its first quarter century, this was used as the motif for the dinner.

Blue and silver were used for the color scheme. The table itself was in the form of an airplane and was covered with blue linen. The tail and propeller were covered with a silver finish. The center piece rep-resented a landing field with an airplane running toward the hanger on tin foil. Several candles held by beautiful silver candle sticks served as beacons. The place cards were silver airplanes. Silver nut cups tied with blue ribbon gave addition-al decoration to the table.

An arch wrapped in silver and blue paper decorated the colonade and from the center of this hung the sil-er wedding bell.

Throughout the three course din-ner, Rev. Phillip McGahey did cred-it to the occasion as toastmaster.

In beginning the program the Rev McGahey gave "A Good Will Tour" comparing the married life of Mr. and Mrs. Forrester to a faithful airship and called it "The Spirit of Wedded Bliss." In doing this differ-ent friends were introduced who gave most detailed accounts of the many happenings connected with the love affair, marriage and life of Mr. and Mrs. Forrester.

The first to be introduced was Mrs. L. Lumsden who gave under title "Preparation for Flight" details of Mrs. Forrester's encounters in getting ready to elope. Rather than sacking her clothes as might have been done in those days Mrs. For-rester carried as many as three dresses on her body at one time. Mr. John Heck very interestingly gave an account of how Mr. Forrest-er traveled through deep snow and terrible cold to reach the spot where his bride-to-be was and how that he found it almost impossible to locate one to perform the marriage cere-mony. "The Take Off" which was an account of the wedding itself was given by R. E. Key. "The Endur-ance Test", an account of their ex-periences since their marriage was given by A. L. Faubion.

Much of the discussion was from facts given and experienced by Mr. and Mrs. Forrester. It was all most interesting and where imagination was permitted to run at large quite a gush of laughter was brought to surface.

Other numbers were "Looping the Loop" which was a collection of jokes on the married people and was given by Miss Waller, and "Trying for Altitude Record" which was jokes given for the benefit of the bachelor maids present.

The menu consisted of: grapefruit and orange cocktail, baked chicken and dressing, Green Beans, Stuffed Sweet Potatoes, Giblet Gravy, Hot Rolls, Cranberry Jelly, Olives, Fruit Salad, brjak ice cream, Angel squares, coffee, salted nuts.

After dinner the guests assembled in the living room where music was enjoyed together with several im-promptu talks. Miss O'Berá Forrest-er gave a reading to the wives and expressed wishes for the continued wedded happiness of the hon-rees. Following this part of the program the announcement came that Mr. and Mrs. Forrester were to start immedi-ately on another "Good Will Tour" of twenty-five years.

Many pretty girls were hten dis-played and good wishes were ex-changed. Very few people any where have more friends than do the hon-rees of this occasion. We are all hoping to live to see the end of the next "Good Will Tour".

The guests were: Rev. and Mrs. Phillip McGahey and son, Phillip, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John Heck, Mrs. J. D. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Wil-iams, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. May, Mr. A. L. Faubion, Mrs. L. Lumsden, Misses Sallie Beth Wright, Ruby Lee Waller, Clara May and John May-Heck, Mrs. W. L. Forrester, Mr. R. E. Key Tahoka; Mr. and Mrs. Os-car Roberts and family of Tahoka; Mrs. Van Swafford and children of Tahoka; Mrs. Homer Scott and Miss Zada Mae Scott of Lubbock; Misses Lillie and Ruby Brown and O'Berá Forrester of Ralls.

Texas has preferred to preserve the names of its heroes in its nomen-clature of towns and counties rather than Indian names such as many states more largely have used. Cher-okee, Comanche, Nacogdoches, Pec-ora, Paola and Wichita are the only In-dian tribes used in Texas county names, although the name of the state itself is of Indian derivation— from the Tejas Indians.

County Agent Patterson hopes to have 200 five-acre pecan orchards in Eastland County started this year. With the aid of 4-H boys and agricultural vocational students he secured enough nuts for 1,000 acres. In December they were stratified and at corn-planting time will be distributed to those agreeing to put out and care for the orchards. Five nuts will be planted in a circle one foot in diameter, the two best budded and finally the thirteenth will be left standing. Advice on care and culti-vation will be given to those ac-cepting the offer.
