Mr. and Mrs. Hays Move To Spade

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hays, principal of the high school and Central Ward teacher, respectively, are moving this week to Spade, Lamb county, where Mr. Hays becomes superintendent of the newly created school district. The Hays have just returned from Goldthwaite, where they visited Mr. Hays' parents, and Austin, where they attended to school business.

Mr. Hays says a nice teacherage was built for them at Spade while they were gone, and work will start next week on the new $75,000 school building, completion of which is expected in time for the opening of school October 1. Spade is the new district created out of the huge Littlefield consolidated district and is in the Spade ranch twelve miles east of Littlefield on the Anton-Olton highway. A nice inland town is almost certain to come into being there as a result of the school's location and the conversion of the ranch into farms.

T-BAR RANCH HAS ROUND-UP

Nearly Thousand Calves Branded and Vaccinated On Ranch During Last Week

Many Tahoka people visited the T-Bar Ranch west of town at intervals through the past week to witness the round-up and the branding of calves, which began Tuesday and ended Sunday. The branding iron was applied to 972 animals during the six days. About thirty men were employed in the work of rounding up and branding the beautiful fat, young Herefords. There are about a hundred sections of land in the T-Bar, stocked with several thousand head of fine white faces. Nearly all the other ranches in this county have been converted into farms, the T-Bar being the largest remaining in this entire section of the state.

The round-up and branding is an annual affair and usually attracts quite a bit of attention, as it is reminiscent of other days when this was strictly a cow country and real cow boys were numerous.

Dave Childers, foreman on the T-Bar had charge of the branding operations.

One and seven hundredths percent of the children born in the United States are twins. One fifth of these are of the identical type.

NEGROES HOLD PICNIC TODAY

Are Celebrating June 19th, Emancipation Day; Speaking And Ball Game On Program

For the first time in the history of Tahoka, June 19th is being celebrated here by the colored population.

Since there are only a few negroes here, the celebration is on a small scale. A gathering out in the northeast part of town with some holiday festivities and possibly some speaking is about the only evidence of the day's observance here.

A baseball game is to be staged this afternoon.

The program for the day is being sponsored chiefly by Charles Deo.

The negroes of Tahoka, for the most part, are law-abiding citizens and there has never been any friction here between the races.

The News hopes that our colored citizens thoroughly enjoy the day.

ROBBITS OPENS CAMPAIGN FOR FIRST ELECTIVE TERM

HILLSBORO, June 18. (Special)—Speaking before a large and enthusiastic audience, Attorney General Robert Lee Bobbitt Wednesday night opened his campaign for his first elective term before a "home town" audience, with a pledge to continue a just and vigorous enforcement of laws falling within the administration of his office.

"Just 24 hours after plaintiffs had perfected an injunction tying up $5,000,000 in the rural aid appropriation bill affecting 400,000 school children, the attorney general's department had the higher courts suspend that injunction and leave school officials at liberty to administer the fund and keep approximately 4,000 rural schools open," he declared.

Prompt action by the State legal department averted a real crisis in the field of education and further exemplified the duty of his department to stand ready at all times to fight for those things consistent with the constitution and laws of the state, he pointed out.

Touching on the recent Sherman riot, General Bobbitt said he would in the future, as in the past, render communities assistance to safeguard the law in any locality when requested to do so by local officers and citizens.

Asserting that the attorney general should be a trained lawyer of experience, common sense, judgment, integrity and ability, General Bobbitt recited several rulings handed down by his department which had been attacked but later sustained by higher court rulings.

"When the attorney general's department was asked to render a ruling on whether or not those who voted for Hoover could be barred as voters or candidates in the democratic primaries, our ruling was that under the laws of Texas they could neither be banned from voting nor barred as candidates. The Supreme Court of Texas recently upheld that opinion," he pointed out.

"The integrity of the anti-trust laws of the State should be preserved in all their vigor and should be reasonably and fairly safe-guarded and enforced in the interest of the public. Both capital and labor have their just rights under the laws of Texas and each should be safe-guarded in every just and legal way," he said.

Locals

P. G. Barton, who removed to Tahoka from Munday a few months ago, reports that he had a phone conversation Monday morning with a friend in the old home town, who told him about the unprecedented flood that visited that section Saturday afternoon. It is claimed that the rainfall within a few hours amounted to 10 inches. At any rate, water stood in some of the stores of the town to a depth of 12 to 18 inches and a family of five persons residing near town were caught by the flood waters of a stream and drowned.

The Kiwanians were entertained at luncheon Wednesday with several piano selections rendered by little Marjorie Wells. W. S. Anglin read a statement from the Kiwanis Magazine of interest to the Club and Judge Cain read and commented on a letter received from some organization proposing a remedy for the unemployment situation. There was no further program for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Nevels returned home from Lampasas Wednesday afternoon, where they have been visiting. They were accompanied by Miss Willie Lois, who has been attending Sullins College in Bristol, Virginia. W. D. made it rather emphatic when he declared to the News man that the entire family and the dog are now at home.

There was a service a little out of the ordinary at the Baptist Church Wednesday evening, when two deacons were ordained, R. E. Key and A. J. Mullins. Visiting ministers assisting in the ordination were Rev. M. C. Bishop of Post, Rev. E. V. May of Brownfield, Rev. A. A. Brian of Ropes and Rev. H. F. Aulick of Plainview.

Claude Wells and Sam Sanford made a trip to Abernathy last Thursday. Claude says that crops north of Lubbock appeared to be very backward. He saw practically no cotton and little feed up. Crops are also said to be rather unpromising in Crosby county, where little rain has yet fallen this year.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Kent and children and Mrs. H. T. Maasen, all of Dallas, arrived Tuesday for a few days visit with H. A. Maasen and family. The entire party left Wednesday morning to visit the wonderful Carlsbad Cavern. Mrs. Maasen is the mother and Mrs. Kent is a sister of H. A. Maasen.

John Thomas left Wednesday morning to do some campaigning over in the western part of the district. John says he has already visited every village and town in the district as well as much of the rural territory. He finds crop prospects generally very promising.

O. J. Jackson, C. C. Williams, G. H. Nelson and S. W. Sanford visited Hobbs Tuesday. Mr. Jackson says that Hobbs has all the appearances of a typically tough, boom oil town. Thousands of people throng the streets, nearly all of them being visitors or new comers.

Mrs. Raymond Hatch and little daughter of Lamesa, Mrs. C. M. Traylor and daughter of Lubbock, and Mrs. Maurice Small and little son of Lovington spent last week end here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. English.

S. L. Forrest of Lamesa was here Wednesday on business. He estimates that on account of the heavy rains which covered most of Dawson county Saturday, the cotton acreage has been cut in that county possibly 20 per cent.

"I Cannot Praise Konjola Too Much"

Says Wichita Lady Suffered For Twelve Years From Stomach Trouble

MRS. DELLA SETTLE

"I cannot praise this Konjola too strongly, because I tried many other medicines and treatments, but none gave the remarkable relief that Konjola did," said Mrs. Della Settle, 1719 Mildred Avenue, Wichita. "I just had to force myself to eat, and nearly every thing I ate made me sick. I had cramping pains in my stomach and bowels until I could hardly endure them, and I simply felt miserable all the time.

"Finally I decided to put Konjola to the test. That proved to be a wise decision. Right from the start I noticed improvement. I now have a much better appetite, and meals are a pleasure as food digests without pains or misery in my stomach. My bowels are functioning as they should and it is certainly a relief to be rid of that tired, worn-out feeling. I gladly endorse this splendid medicine that restored my health."

Konjola has become the most talked of medicine in America because it makes good. And Konjola makes good in the most stubborn cases when given a fair trial and from six to eight bottles are used.

Konjola is sold in Tahoka at Tahoka Drug Co. and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

DANGER HEADED OFF
Constipation Troubles Soon Go Away Following Use of Black-Draught.

Burke, Texas—Mrs. Orea Crawford, of this place, tells of her use of Theford's Black-Draught which she says covers a period of "a good many years."
"We use Black-Draught as a regular family medicine for constipation, and I try always to keep it in the house."
"I have found it a reliable medicine to give the children when they get upset from over-eating, or have colds, for after taking Black-Draught they get all right in a little while."
"I use Black-Draught for bilious, sick headache. I have found that a dose or two, taken at night, will give quick relief for constipation and the complications which follow when that condition runs on."
"A bad taste in the mouth in the morning, dizziness and a dull headache, all leave quickly after a few doses of Black-Draught. I find it is not safe to let such things run on. I try to head off the danger by taking Black-Draught in time. It is a dependable medicine."
At the first sign of constipation, take Theford's Black-Draught. This purely vegetable medicine has been in use nearly 100 years. Sold everywhere. Try it. NC-225

Locals

J. E. Morgan, who lives out in the Magnolia community, is one of Lynn county's most progressive farmers. Like many other farmers, he has become a strong believer in terraces. He has had his land nicely terraced and contours his rows and he says that during the recent rains each row carried its own water nicely and he lost none. On the other hand his field got the benefit of some water that ran onto it from the public road and took care of this water nicely without being damaged by it. Mr. Morgan is also experimenting with alfalfa. For several years he has had a small patch which he irrigated and he usually gets five cuttings a year from it. This year he is trying an acre of alfalfa without irrigation. We shall expect him to tell us what kind of success he had about the end of the year.

A. L. Lockwood requests that we state for the benefit of any inquiring friends that W. D. Nevels is not gone for good. He is down at Lampasas visiting among his wife's kin folks during these hard times. Mr. Lockwood says, Bill will be back home when times ease up a bit. Mr. Lockwood also asks us to explain that W. L. Knight will also be back in due time. He says Mr. Knight got stranded on his way back from Washington and is now over in Georgia chopping cotton to make money to get home on. He will come driving in one of these days with corns all over the palms of his hands.

Several weeks ago an account of the death of Paul Henry, 21, of Draw was sent to us but was overlooked and we failed to make any mention of his death, which we sorely regret. His death occurred on May 7th and interment followed in the Tahoka Cemetery. He is said to have been a model young man, with many friends, loved by all who knew him, being a member of the Baptist Church and a fine Christian character. We regret the omission, which was purely an oversight.

Mrs. Ross Ketter and daughter, Fayna returned to their home in Abilene Saturday after a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Parkhurst and other relatives, and were accompanied home by Mrs. Parkhurst, who will spend a month there. Mr. Parkhurst took them to Abilene and was forced to leave his car there and return on the train by the excessive rains along the route.

"I have read The News for three or four years and think it a good county paper," testifies Doc Everette of New Lynn. Doc has promised to send us the news from that fine community each week, and we are sure the people out there will appreciate it as well as we will. If you've had any visitors or have been visiting just let him know or phone The News office.

Marvin and Elmer Coughran and the latter's two children of Fresno, California, were here last week end visiting their brother, Anson Coughran. They had been to Miles in Rannels county visiting their parents. The Coughrans resided here many years ago and have many friends here among the old-timers, who were very glad to see them again.

The I. M. Draper home southeast of town was visited over the week end by J. C. Hooker and wife, Lorraine; Mrs. Bessie Draper and sons, Foy and Jack, Fort Worth; Dewey Longley, Post; and Miss Grace Draper, Lubbock. Mrs. Hooker is a niece of Mr. Draper's, Mrs. Bessie Draper a sister-in-law, Mr. Longley a nephew, and Miss Grace, a daughter.

Martin Kuykendall, Lubbock, has bought the M-System market from Ivan Cathcart, and has a brother here operating it. He says he will continue the same good grade meat service.

Another new community correspondent we are adding to our list is Mrs. A. C. Sosebee of Redwine. Folks out there should tell her the news of the community and help her to make the Redwine column interesting reading.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Green and family and C. C. Kuykendall and family spent the week end here visiting their mother, Mrs. L. S. Kuykendall. In fact most of the children were here Saturday in a family reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Symons of San Antonio were the guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Alley and Mr. and Mrs. Hall Robinson. Mrs. Symons is a niece of Mrs. Alley and a cousin of Mrs. Robinson.

Mrs. C. C. Bennett and baby of Boise City, Oklahoma, are here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jack Alley and other relatives.

Redwine

As I haven't seen any news from this community, I will send a few items.

The farmers are getting behind with their work, owing to so much rain. Crop prospects are good.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hunt are the proud parents of a little girl born June 11.

The Joe Bailey school presented a play at Redwine Friday night but owing to the inclement weather only a few attended.

A. C. Sosebee of this place left last Wednesday for Corpus Christi, where he has a position managing a gin.

Mrs. Jesse Osborn and little son of New Lynn are visitors in the home of her father, A. M. Hunt, of this place at present.

Messrs. Otto, J. M., J. O., and Frank Sosebee of Jones county visited their brother, A. C. Sosebee, and family last Sunday.

Mrs. Lewis Johnson of Tahoka spent the week with her father, A. M. Hunt, of this place.

Wiley Curry and family, Bill Thompson and wife, and Mrs. Nan Curry of near Tahoka spent last Sunday with T. W. Early and family.

J. F. Sosebee and wife and D. D. Skipper, wife and little son of South Ward spent last Sunday with A. C. Sosebee and family.

Mrs. Leona Knight of Tahoka visited her cousin, Mrs. R. M. Hunt, Friday.

Mr. Tandy Reed and sons, Tom, Omar and Onnie, were in O'Donnell on business Thursday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hammonds visited their niece, Mrs. R. M. Hunt, last Monday.

Little Eugene Hunt has been on the sick list but is better at this writing.

Mr. H. H. Denton's mother of Coahoma is visiting him at this writing. Quill Driver.

NORDYKE LEAVES FOR TREATMENT IN SANITARIUM

To the Voters of Commissioners Precinct No. 2:—

I desire to state that I am leaving for El Paso to undergo an operation and treatment in a sanitarium for a few weeks. I expect to be back, however, about July 1. I am making this statement so that my friends and supporters may know that I am not neglecting my candidacy for the nomination for commissioner from this precinct, and I assure the voters of the precinct that I will appreciate their support on July 26.

L. M. NORDYKE

Al Lehman and Ed Hamilton returned Saturday morning from South Texas, where they visited friends and relatives for a week. Al reports that crops are spotted good east of San Antonio, unusually good in some places.

An Unpleasant Subject

All of the functions of life are not pleasant to consider. Perhaps this is why some mothers refuse to think that such symptoms as restless sleep, loss of flesh, lack of appetite or itching nose and fingers in their children, can be caused by round or pin worms. Many mothers have proven, however, that a few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge, that sure and harmless worm expellant, will make these symptoms disappear. You can get White's Cream Vermifuge for 25 cents per bottle from THOMAS BROS. DRUG COMPANY

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

Any erroneous reflection upon the reputation or standing of any individual, firm or corporation, that may appear in the columns of the News,
will be gladly corrected when called
to our attention.

Some members of the State Press Association take the position that newspapers should give no free publicity to candidates. In this, we think they are in error. It is true that there are candidates who will work the newspapers for all the free space they can get. Newspaper publishers should use proper discretion
in the publication of political matter free of charge, but we believe that the newspaper would be failing miserably in their duty to the public if they cut out such free publicity entirely. For instance, candidates for state offices in Texas must rely largely on the newspapers to acquaint the people with their experience, qualifications, and merits generally. To visit every village and town in the state or to send literature through the mails to the voters
would be so expensive that no man except a very rich man could afford to become a candidate for any state office. The public—the readers of the newspapers—are entitled to some information about the various candidates for the state offices. The newspapers owe it to their subscribers to give this information. This newspaper has given much free publicity to the candidates heretofore,
not for the benefit of the candidates primarily, but for the benefit of the public, and we expect to keep it up.

PRACTICE WHAT YOU PREACH.

Elsewhere in this issue is an editorial from the Lamb County Leader that we wish every merchant of Tahoka would read and think over its contents. Maybe it hits you;
maybe not. One of The News force walked into a certain Tahoka store
the other day to buy a bill of goods and his eyes accidentally fell on four boxes of stationery printed OUT-SIDE OF TAHOKA!

And, that's not all. This same merchant has been much disturbed
recently because some of our citizens trade out of town or with chains. The employees of this paper buy everything they can buy in Tahoka, pay taxes in Tahoka, help support her churches and other institutions. This paper annually prints columns and columns of "trade at home" publicity, boosts the county, town, churches schools, chamber of commerce, and a hundred other things that will benefit our people. Just this word to you merchants, schools, organizations, public officials: We help support you. Should you support the mail order printer and the high pressure printing salesman or should you support your home printer? Should you not be willing to treat the home
printer as he treats you?

CONSISTENCY, THOU ART A JEWEL!

(Lamb County Leader)

Will H. Mayes is widely known throughout the state as a columnist of considerable import, his column entitled "Texas and Texans" appearing weekly in hundreds of papers published in the Lone Star State. Recently he had an article of interest about the "home merchant" who preaches "trade at home" and then spends his money for stationery and other supplies, which the home printer could furnish as good and as cheaply as they are bought from the "glibtalking traveling salesman."

Most Littlefield merchants are loyal to all the home enterprises, including the newspaper, but we can name two or three of the most "prominent ones"—those who preach loud and long about trading at home and "keeping Littlefield money in Littlefield," who are guilty of the very charge that Mr. Mayes makes in his article.

It is generally conceded that a newspaper, at least of high quality such as is the Leader, does as much if not more than any other one agency to build up the community, bring in more people and increase property values. It pays taxes and never kicks about its rental values to the assessor, contributes to the upkeep of the schools, churches, athletic programs, charity, and everything else that comes along in addition to giving away free in its columns yards and rods and miles of space in boosting the town, community and county. Should not the local newspaper, which is admirably equipped to turn out first class job and commercial printing at very reasonable prices, be considered when "keep Littlefield money in Littlefield" is being preached, and demand the same consideration that the grocery stores, dry goods stores, confectioneries, filling stations and every other line of business in Littlefield is demanding.
We believe such is only right and fair. Read Mr. Mayes' article and think about it:

"HOME PRIDE FIRST. The citizen without pride in his own community has no pride in his state and mighty little patriotism. One's first duty is to home enterprises. An editor of one of Texas' best weekly newspapers—a man who has all his life given more time to work for his town and county than to his own financial interests—recently told me that some of the business concerns of his town that have much to say about "mail order business" and who would boycott a citizen who orders goods in their line out of town, are getting their stationery and job printing from glib talking traveling salesmen, instead of buying it at home. Putting it down plainly, in terms that can't be misunderstood: The business that doesn't support in every possible way home enterprises, including the home printing plant, doesn't deserve support."

Consistency, thou art a jewel!

At last Chicago seems to be aroused over the carnival of crime that has cursed the city for several years. The murder of a newspaper reporter last week seems to have brought things to a head. Public indignation at the inefficiency and corruption of city officials has forced the resignation of Police Commissioner William F. Russell and Detective Chief John Stege. In resigning Commissioner Russell blamed the crime situation on Prohibition. Bosh!
Everybody knows that it is due to the inefficiency and corruption of officials. When thirty-nine murders can be committed in a city in six months and not one of the murderers apprehended or indicted, there must be something rotten in Denmark. It is not Prohibition but defiance of Prohibition and other laws together with corruption in office that are responsible for conditions in Chicago. If there had not been a bunch of criminals in office the gangsters would not have been able to stage an uninterrupted and almost unending reign of terror in the city. It is to be hoped that the people will see to it that Chicago is thoroughly cleaned up.

Last week-end we passed through vast stretches of near-desert land out in New Mexico, fit only for pasturage for sheep and goats, and worth possibly not more than three to five dollars per acre. Yet, winding down through the midst of this desert, was a narrow strip of soil as productive
as the valley of the Nile, worth from $300.00 to $1,000.00 per acre. What is the secret of the difference in values. Water! True, there is a difference in the soil, but with plenty of water the arid stretches would also be productive and valuable. This week we have been reading of torrential rains and swollen streams in West Texas, taking their toll of life and property. Yet, before the crops are matured in the devastated sections

it is possible that they will suffer from lack of rainfall. It is to be hoped that some time practical means may be devised to conserve much of the flood waters of West Texas for use during periods of drouth. If this could be done, millions of acres of semi-arid lands
might be converted into rich farms and gardens and orchards. Possibly some time it may be so.

A. H. King of Throckmorton is a candidate for Commissioner of Agriculture to succeed George B. Terrell, who is not a candidate for re-election. Mr. King has been a member of the legislature several terms and ought to be fairly well-acquainted with the various sections of the state.
He claims to have had many years experience as a farmer and stock-raiser and ought to know something of the needs of agriculture. In his platform he promises to attempt much in the interest of agriculture in this state. We do not believe that any commissioner of agriculture can do very much for the farmer but by intelligence and energy he can do something. West Texans would possibly do well to support Mr. King.
He has one friend here in the person of J. F. Tharp, a farmer, who says that he is all right and should receive the support of farmers everywhere.

We are wondering if something
can be done for that portion of Highway 84 which lies within the city limits of Tahoka, known as Lockwood street. For some reason which has never been explained to us, less work has been done on this street during the past five or six years, we believe, than any other important street in Tahoka. If the concrete dips on this street could be removed, the lakes thru which it passes drained, and the roadbed graded occasionaly, we believe the whole town would appreciate it. We are sure that the city authorities feel that they are doing their best with the money they have at their disposal—and we are not criticizing anybody—but for years we have been wondering why this particular street is not kept in better condition.

It is said that there are a number of persons in this county suffering from "jake" paralysis. It was long ago declared that "Wine is a mock-er." This is peculiarly true of modern bootlegger's goods. It does seem that folks would learn some time not to monkey with an "unloaded" gun
nor with bootleg booze.

Will Hays, Czar Of Movies, Writes Editor Of The News

A few weeks ago the News carried a story setting forth the plans projected for improving the type of pictures to be shown in the theatres throughout the country and eliminating objectionable features, and in some way a copy of the paper reached Will H. Hays, President of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America. This week the News editor received the following letter from Mr. Hays, commenting on our story and making some additional observations concerning the Motion Picture Industry.

New York City,
June 9, 1930.

Mr. E. I. Hill, Editor,
The Lynn County News,
Tahoka, Texas.

My dear Mr. Hill:

Your editorial of May 22 regarding the Production Code is read with interest and appreciation. An important factor about this code is that it was worked out at Hollywood by the men who actually make pictures. They were in agreement in wanting some standard of guidance so that vulgarities and lapses of taste might be more uniformly kept out of pictures. Sound has broadened the field of picture themes, and we have a corresponding obligation to exercise due care in respect to treatment. This step is in the direction of the aims of the industry for the past eight years to furnish wholesome pictures, and during this period there has always been a supply of such

Dangerous Business

Our stomach and digestive systems are lined with membrane which is delicate, sensitive and easily injured. It is dangerous business, then, to use medicines containing harsh drugs, salts or minerals, when we are constipated. In addition to the possibility of injuring the linings of our digestive system, these medicines give only temporary relief and may prove harmful. The safe way to relieve constipation is with Herbine, the cathartic that is made from herbs, and acts in the way nature intended. You can get Herbine at THOMAS BROS. DRUG COMPANY

HURT TO STAND

"Cardui Seemed to Build Me Up and I Was Rid of Pain," Says Virginia Lady.

Roanoke, Va.—"Some years ago, I was in a very run-down condition," writes Mrs. T. B. Akers, of 533 Nelson Street, S.E., this city. "I suffered a great deal with pains in my sides and back. Standing on my feet hurt me so much, that I would get very weak and nervous. I knew that if I didn't get something to help me, I would have to go to bed and stay there, which is hard to do for a woman who has small children. So I kept dragging about, until one day, when feeling unusually bad and discouraged, I happened to pick up a little book with a Cardui advertisement. I decided to try it.

"Cardui seemed to build me up at once, as I was able to do my work with ease, and was rid of the pain by the time I had taken six bottles. I have taken Cardui since then, whenever I felt that I needed a tonic, and it always helped me. I recommend it to my friends."

Thousands of other women have written to tell how Cardui had helped them to health.

Cardui is a purely vegetable remedy and contains nothing harmful or injurious. It may be safely taken by a delicate young girl as well as by a feeble old lady.

pictures ahead of the demand, which is as it should be.

Just recently on Broadway there were shown such pictures, as for example: John McCormack in "Song of My Heart," George Arliss in "Disraeli" and "The Green Goddess," Ruth Chatterton in "Sarah and Son," a beautiful drama of mother love; and two war masterpieces—"Journey's End," and "All Quiet on the Western Front." Dennis King in "The Vagabond King," and Lawrence Tibbett in "The Rogue Song." Many additional splendid pictures will be found in the enclosed list of 170 features and 114 short subjects among some pictures in circulation now and made in the past six months.

It will be the purpose to interpret this code in the light of the best and most sensible public opinion from everywhere. Obviously, it is impossible in a world where there is such divergence of opinion upon religion, politics and art, to please everybody with every picture. The industry is glad, however, to have expressions of opinion from all sources that it may more nearly satisfy everyone and it will continue to analyze conscientiously and make use of every constructive suggestion and criticism.

That there is a responsibility on the part of the public you will agree and that is best illustrated by some excerpts from editorial comments enclosed.

In the enclosed pamphlet entitled "Introducing—A Shopping Guide to the Movies" I would be glad to have you read about "The Studio Relations Idea" and "The Previewing Plan" which represent the efforts to approach the problem of better pictures from the stand-point of the primary responsibility of the industry, and through public support of good pictures.

With kindest personal regards and best wishes always, I am Sincerely yours,
WILL H. HAYS

THANKS

I take this occasion to thank my pastor and many friends who since my accident, by their ministrations, visits, messages, cards, literature, flowers and other tokens, have helped to beguile the tedium of the shut-in.

May the richest blessing of our Father enrich their lives, may they have help and sympathy in their times of trouble.

Over a Billion Deadly Germs in a Single Drop of Water

Germs are so small that there may be as many as one billion, seven hundred million of them in a drop of water. And just a few of these tiny germs, if they get into your blood through a cut in your skin, may make you so sick you will be in bed for weeks—may cause the loss of a limb through blood poisoning—may even infect you with that most dreadful and fatal of diseases, lockjaw.

Just because you can see no dirt in a cut does not mean that it is clean. You cannot see germs. The only safe and sane thing to do, is to thoroughly wash every cut, no matter how small, with Liquid Borosone, to kill the germs, and then dust it with Borosone Powder, to hasten the healing. Liquid Borosone costs 30 cents, 60 cents, $1.20 and $1.50; Borosone Powder, 30 cents and 60 cents, and can be had at THOMAS BROS. DRUG COMPANY

After the First Twenty-five Thousand Miles

THE VALUE of sound design, good materials and careful craftsmanship is especially apparent in the new Ford after the first twenty-five thousand miles. Long, continuous service emphasizes its mechanical reliability and economy of operation and up-keep.

As you drive the Ford through many months and years you will develop an increasing pride in its appearance and a growing respect for the substantial worth that has been built into it. From every standpoint—in everything that goes to make a good automobile—you will know that you have made a far-seeing, satisfactory purchase.

Wherever you go, you hear enthusiastic praise of the car and this significant, oft-repeated phrase—"I'm glad I bought a Ford."

A FORD owner in New York tells of a 13,000-mile trip across the United States and back in sixty days and says "the car was extremely economical to operate, comfortable and speedy." A grateful father tells how the Triplex shatter-proof glass windshield saved his wife and children from serious injury.

To test tires, a large company drove a new Ford day and night, for an average of 500 miles every twenty-four hours. It was still giving satisfactory service after 105,000 miles.

A Ford car that had fallen into Fernan Lake was submerged for twelve days before being raised. After a new battery and carburetor bowl were installed, it was driven back to Spokane under its own power.

Many police departments have written of the special advantages of the Ford in crowded traffic because of its alert speed, acceleration, and ease of control. An increasing number of fleet owners are also purchasing the Ford because their cost figures have given conclusive proof of its economy of operation and up-keep.

In addition to important triumphs in Germany, France and Italy, the Ford won six out of seven leading places in a contest in Finland, first and second in the Rafaela races in Argentina, first and second in the run from Copenhagen-to-Paris-to-Copenhagen, three gold medals in England, first ranking in the durability test over the tortuous Amancaes road in Peru, and first place in the 1930 reliability run conducted by the Royal Automobile Club of Sweden.

This contest was an exceptionally severe test of endurance and sturdy construction because it was held in the dead of winter and covered 600 miles of steady running over snow-covered country roads and mountainous hills.

Boy Scout "Does His Duty" With Byrd

When the ships of the Byrd Antarctic Expedition arrive in the United States in June, one of the most interesting members will be Sea Scout Paul A. Siple, of Erie, Pa., who has won highest commendation, from Admiral Byrd for the work he has done since the expedition left New York nearly two years ago.

Information to this effect was contained in a letter received by Scout Executive D. T. Jennings from the National Scout offices in New York.

Sea Scout Siple who is an Eagle Scout, the highest rank which a Scout may obtain, was selected from among thousands of Boy Scouts at the invitation of the Commander Byrd, to be his personal aide. He sailed away from New York on August 25, 1928, the most envied boy in America, with a man-sized job to fill on one of the greatest exploration expeditions of all time. On December 2, 1928, Siple with the others of the husky group comprising the expedition party said goodbye and left Dunedin, New Zealand, the last port of call en route to Antarctica.

Much has come back over the radio of what the expedition was doing as a whole, but little concerning any individuals, except the leaders. There have been only a few words, from time to time, of what the Sea Scout was doing during the fourteen bleak months on the ice. Such messages as did come through however, were all to the effect that Siple had made good splendidly. But it was left for Admiral Byrd to sum up the Sea Scout's accomplishments a few days ago in a radio message to the Boy Scouts of America, as follows:

Sea Scout Paul A. Siple took up his work in the expedition as a man among men. He stood regular deck watches on shipboard and turned himself into an able seaman on a full rigged sailing vessel.

"At the base he was given a dog team to drive and soon learned to handle the dogs like a sourdough and soon went out on the trail. Paul was given the young pups to train and turned out a most useful team that answered many calls for odd jobs around camp. As zoologist he has worked diligently in getting specimens of Antarctic bird and animal life, spending many hours in cleaning and preserving the skins. He has also done good work in taking depth soundings in the Bay of Whales and has been a keen observer on his many pup team trips on the bay ice of animal life and of ice conditions. Along with the rest he has taken his turn at menial tasks such as shoveling snow, house duties, kitchen police and standing night watches. Paul is now on the whaler "Larsen" enroute to Wellington in charge of live penguins that we are making an effort to bring back to the state and will rejoice in New Zealand." (Signed) Byrd.

Siple has since returned to Dunedin from Wellington where he had charge of stowing the penguins aboard the whaler "C. A. Larsen" for the trip to the United States. At Dunedin he was royally welcomed by the Dunedin Boy Scouts headed by District Commissioner W. F. Meek.

On March 3, "City of New York" weighed anchor with Siple aboard as an able seaman. About April 14, the ship will stop at Papeete, Tahiti, to take on coal and for necessary repairs. After a few days at Tahiti, the "City of New York" accompanied by the "Eleanor Bolling", second ship of the Expedition, will cross the Pacific to the Panama Canal. This is the longest stretch on the homeward voyage, a distance of 4,509 Siple will see and be greeted by the first American Scouts and Sea Scouts he has seen in many months. The several troops and two Sea Scout units are already planning a reception in his honor under Major R. A. Wheeler, President, and Scout Commissioner J. A. Kemmer, of the Canal Zone Council, Boy Scouts of America.

The final leg of the voyage is a 211 mile journey from the Canal Zone to New York.

PARALYZED ON TRACK
Corning, N. Y.—Temporarily paralyzed by a fall from the caboose of a freight train, A. J. Howe, 39, heard another train and saw its headlight beaming down on him. WHAT OTHERS THINK

DO IT NOW.

The time to advertise is always present, but never more importantly so than when business is dull; but it seems difficult to make the average advertiser understand the fact. It took a long time to teach business the value of advertising. The next process in education will be that advertising is more of a necessity in dull times than it is when trade is good.

There are conspicuously successful advertisers who never curtail their appropriations in slack times. The policy costs money and may create losses during a considerable period, but it places the advertiser in a wonderful position to reap a harvest when business turns good again. He has kept himself before the public, while some of his competitors have been forgotten. Many concerns have lost the benefit of their good-times publicity by stopping their advertising during dull times.—The Memphis News.

LOSS OF HOME TRADE

While any community must expect that its business will be rather slow, if a large part of its people buy their merchandise elsewhere, this distance buying frequently occurs because the trade of the home people has not been solicited with sufficient persistence.

In most towns there are merchants who grow eloquent in criticizing people who buy goods in distant cities. But such criticizing does not land the trade of these people. The way to get that trade is to imitate the methods of the mail order houses and big city stores. That trade has been thus drawn by advertising. And advertising in the home town paper will get it back. It will make the home stores look just as attractive as the distant ones.—The Memphis News.

THE 41ST LEGISLATURE

The personnel of the house of representatives was composed of seven preachers, a few farmers, a few business men and large majority of lawyers. When they came together they were much out of sorts on account of the way the general election went on the 6th of November. They were mad at the preachers on account of the part they played in the general election.

A bill was offered to make it unlawful for preachers to hold office in Texas. This bill was voted down but it showed a bad spirit and an unwise movement. A bill was offered to make it unlawful for women to wear shoes with heels over one inch high. This little bill died a-burnin' in the committee; but it shows how unwise some men are.

Halt Race Bill

A large sum of money was spent trying to pass a horse racing bill; but this bill was consigned to the waste-basket. A bill was passed by both houses to bar all the Hoover Democrats from the Democratic primary. General Dan's blue pencil put the fixin's on this spite bill.

These Lilliputian legislators made large appropriations for various things and much of it was vetoed by the governor.

Say Water Softening Instrument Is Great Success

This is to certify that I have examined and have seen the instrument used that Mr. Harv Norwood and H. A. Wilhelm are demonstrating and selling. In fact it has been used in my home and I can say beyond a doubt that it is one of the best devices for softening and removing the impurities from water that I have seen. It renders the water so much better and purer for all purposes and especially for drinking, removing the alkali, etc., and making it finer for drinking purposes, and especially for any one with stomach or kidney trouble. The water after passing through the instrument is suitable for washing or any purpose, and I think that people who have alkaline water will find a means in this instrument of ending all their troubles.

I would especially recommend it as being more agreeable and healthy for drinking purposes and probably helpful in doing away with so much stomach and kidney ailment.

I will be glad at any time to recommend this instrument, as it has been proven in my own home.

The worst spirit was shown when the house of representatives refused to investigate two contest cases.

Cite Wallace Case

Rev. H. H. Wallace of Marshall served in the Fortieth legislature and was nominated in the Democratic primary for the Forty-first legislature without opposition. When it was ascertained that he would not vote for Al Smith, democratic committee met without a quorum being present, committed the high-handed act of taking Rev. H. H. Wallace's name from the record. Investigation was refused by the Legislature.

The other contested case was from Hidalgo county, E. N. Smith vs. W. R. Montgomery.

The constitution guarantees to every man the right of petition. All of these representatives had taken an oath to uphold the law and constitution. The trouble in both cases was that Rev. Wallace and E. N. Smith were counted as Hoover Democrats.

E. N. Smith's petition in part is as follows: "Your petitioner submits that action of the house in passing Mr. Beck's motion to declare Montgomery elected is in open and notorious violation of all the sections of the constitution mentioned, and especially of articles 3063, 3064, 3065, of the revised civil statutes providing the method of contests for a seat in the house of representatives."

Stevenson Quoted

Rep. Coke Stevenson gives the reason why he favored investigation. Mr. Stevenson says, "I vote not on the point of order because it is contrary to the advice of the attorney general. On pages 415-417 of the Journal. The action of the house on February 4th in this matter sets a precedent which cannot be justified. I voted then to sustain the point of order and I now vote to correct what I conceive to be a serious mistake on the part of the house."

Seventy-four members of the house voted not to investigate the Hidalgo county. I don't think any of these men should be returned to the Forty-Second legislature. I have been in Texas over 78 years. I am a graduate of B. U. I can state without a quail of conscience that I think the Forty-first legislature is the 'sorriest one Texas ever had. They wish to blame the governor for the failure of the administration. All the governor can do is to veto bills. Dan has made a good hand at that.
