Ask Moser To Talk On Farmers' Co-op

MAY ASK FOR BRANCH HERE

Local Citizens Believe Plan Is Only
Method Out For Farmers
To Market Cotton

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Tahoka Chamber of Commerce Tuesday afternoon, President Taylor White proposed that some action be taken looking to the establishing of a branch office of the government cooperative association being organized to handle the cotton crop this Fall and thereafter. This association has been formed in accordance with the provisions of the government farm relief law enacted by the last Congress.

The matter was discussed at considerable length, resulting in the final decision to invite Mr. C. O. Moser, one of the officials of the organization, to visit Tahoka and speak to the business men and the farmers of Lynn County at an early date to suit his convenience.

Jack Applewhite of the firm of Harris & Applewhite heard Mr. Moser explain and discuss the plan which the government is offering when he spoke in Lamesa a few weeks ago, and he has become thoroughly convinced that this plan "is the farmers' only salvation." Mr. Taylor White, who has also given the matter considerable study, expressed the opinion that this is the one chance which the farmers have to market their cotton profitably. It is believed that when business men and farmers thoroughly understand the plan they will cooperate in every way possible. It was deemed advisable, therefore, to invite Mr. Moser to Tahoka to explain the plan to our business men and farmers. It is understood that he will be in this section of the state any way some time this month.

There are many features of this plan, according to Messrs. White and Applewhite, which make it far superior to any of the cooperative marketing plans that have been devised heretofore. They believe that it merits the closest study of every business man and farmer in Lynn county. The date of Mr. Moser's visit to Tahoka will be announced soon, and it is expected that a great crowd of farmers and business men will be here to hear him when he comes.

UTAH WELL PRODUCES SNOWSTORM; OIL MEN GO INTO ICE BUSINESS

Salt Lake City, Utah.—Dry ice is being obtained from an oil well in North Park, Jackson County, Utah. Oil production is small, but the gas which flows from the well has been found to be largely carbon dioxide, so cold that the oil is frozen into snow. Above ground the carbon dioxide evaporates and the oil is recovered.

Scientists say that the well is large enough to produce daily a trainload of dry ice.

Boy Scouts Are Enjoying Camp Life At Post; Honors Are Won

The News has received a communication from Everton Nevill, assistant scout master of Tahoka troop No. 21, Boy Scouts, who has been in charge of the Tahoka boys in the camp at Post, giving an account of their work and record in the camp. The letter, written on July 4, is as follows:

"The boys here in camp are doing fine and are enjoying themselves to the greatest extent.

"We are taking tests of all kinds such as beadwork, horsemanship, life saving, first aid, archery, adobe building, camping and expect to take many more before the camp is over.

"All the boys are out now taking their studies, which are about ten o'clock in the morning.

"The first thing in the morning is a bugle call for all the boys to get up and dress. In about fifteen minutes a second call is sounded for the

Septic Tank Costs Farmer Only $23.10

Gainesville.—A septic tank for $23.10 has convinced Fred Lubbert, Cooke County farmer, that sanitary farm sewage disposal isn't so expensive after all. In a demonstration arranged with the county agent 16 sacks of cement, two joints of tile, and 160 feet of drain tile represented the only cash outlay. Sand and gravel cost nothing and the forms were made from old scrap lumber.

OPPOSE TRUCK RATES CHANGE

C. of C. Protests Classified Rate To Lubbock Proposed By State
Railroad Commission

A resolution was adopted by the board of directors of the Tahoka Chamber of Commerce at a meeting held Tuesday afternoon asking the State Railway Commission to refrain from applying classified freight rates to transportation of merchandise and commodities by truck between Lubbock and Tahoka. It is claimed that if classified freight rates were applied to transportation by trucks, there would be an increase in rates on the whole of 25 to 30 per cent. This change would also require the services of an expert to classify the freight. Local business men and the truck operators seem to be satisfied with the present arrangement, and hence the change being contemplated by the railway commission is opposed.

C. C. Williams and others were in Lubbock Wednesday presenting the matter to Governor Pat Neff, chairman of the railway commission, who was in Lubbock to give the proposal a hearing.

Waco Man To Speak Here For Young

Claude Miller of Waco, well known campaigner, takes the stump for Jim Young next week. His speaking schedule, which is incomplete so far, reads as follows:

Big Spring, July 15, 8 p. m.
Lamesa, July 16, 2 p. m.
Tahoka, July 16, 8 p. m.

Increased only about 5 per cent if provision were made for lighting them at night with powerful roadway lamps at 100-yard intervals, according to electrical engineers. Three states have laws authorizing lighting of major highways in populous areas and Michigan has 345 miles of lighted roads.

TAHOKA HEARS HON. PAT NEFF

400 to 500 People Hear Former Governor In Maserful Address
Here Tuesday Night

Tahoka will not soon forget the visit of ex-governor Pat Neff to this city Tuesday evening and night. After being entertained at a luncheon given in his honor at the St. Clair Hotel, where he addressed a group of twenty-five members of the Kiwanis Club, talking to them in a quiet, heart-to-heart fashion, he spoke at 8 o'clock to an audience of 400 or 500 people in the district court room.

His deliverance on this occasion was not only a rhetorical gem; it was one of the most instructive and inspirational addresses ever delivered to a Tahoka audience. Although a candidate for railway commissioner, an office which he now holds by appointment, he made little reference to his candidacy except in an incidental way.

The purpose and purport of his address was to impress his auditors with the matchless achievements of our forefathers in laying the foundations of this great empire state. They were men of superior character and intellect, he averred, who came from the states to the then Mexican province of Texas and a little later won independence and founded a new republic. A series of the most momentous events in the history of our country were wrought out here by our forefathers in a period of fifty

Vernon Massengale M-System Manager

Vernon Massengale has succeeded Bill Holland as local manager of the M-System.

Mr. Holland has accepted the position as manager of a Clarence Saunders store in Lubbock and checked out here Monday morning. Mr. Holland made many friends while here who will wish him continued business success.

Mr. Massengale is a young business man who has grown to maturity in Tahoka and who by his industry, honesty, and loyalty to his employers has won the confidence and esteem of all. He is to be congratulated upon his promotion—this recognition of his worth by his employers.

The number of cows kept for milk in the United States has increased about one per cent since 1900. There are at present about 22,500,000 milk cows in the country.

Tahoka Still On Top In League; Wins Five

4-H CLUB GIRLS WORK
TO IMPROVE BEDROOMS

Decatur.—Cathay Harrison, 4-H club girl of Boyd, Wise county, has earned enough money from her poultry flock to paper the walls of her bedroom, add a new rug, paint her bed to match the other furniture, and hang new draperies and shades. Cathay is one of 106 Wise county girls reporting extensive bedroom improvements in the home-making work directed by Miss Gladys Stanford, home agent. In 42 rooms furniture has been moved to harmonize with the lines of the room; 35 floors have been cleaned; 14 rugs laid; nine walls papered; six floors painted or varnished; and 18 bookcases, three dressing tables, and one desk and one closet added.

Because of improvements in the lamp itself, electric lights now give four times the illumination from the same amount of current as they gave in 1907. In other words illumination that would have cost $1 twenty years ago now costs far less than 25c, for electric rates have gone well below what they were twenty, ten or even three years ago.

LOCKHART AND THOMAS SPEAK

Candidates For Representative Are Heard By Crowd In Talks
Here Tuesday Night

Following the address of Governor Neff in the district court room here Tuesday night, John N. Thomas and Judge G. E. Lockhart spoke at some length in behalf of their candidacies, respectively, for Representative in the legislature.

Mr. Thomas was the first speaker. He spoke mostly in general terms but giving expression to high ideals in government and a noble purpose to serve the people among whom he has lived so long. He expressed opposition to the proposed state bond issue in the sum of $350,000,000 for building highways but did not elaborate on the subject. He also declared his devotion to the cause of Prohibition, and declared it his purpose to stand for everything that will redound to the moral and material welfare of the people.

Judge Lockhart devoted the major part of his time to a discussion of the state highway problem and the penitentiary problem. He was very frank in stating his position on every subject mentioned and gave his

Boaz Is Coming To Slaton Tuesday

There will be an all-day meeting at the Methodist Church at Slaton next Tuesday, July 15th, at which Bishop Hiram A. Boaz of the Southern Methodist Church will be in attendance and will preach at the eleven o'clock hour.

This will also be the occasion of the third quarterly conferences of a group of churches around Slaton, including Tahoka. All the officials of the churches and members of the quarterly conferences and others who may care to go are invited to attend, and to carry a basket dinner. Slaton people will furnish tables and cold drinks.

Bishop Boaz is deservedly one of the most popular chief pastors of the church, and has been assigned to preside over the Northwest Texas Annual Conference to be held in Sweetwater, November 12, of this year.

Detour South Of Town Open Soon

The detour around the Nance lake seven miles south of town will be ready for traffic within a week or ten days, according to information given out by G. E. McPherson, Post, of the State Highway Department.

The lake covers the road for fully a half mile and a temporary detour of three miles in length has been in use since the heavy rains several weeks ago. The new detour will be not more than two hundred yards longer than the original highway through the lake.

LOVE CLUB IS FORMED HERE

Organization Made County-Wide In Scope; Push Campaign Of "Dry"

A few citizens representing various voting precincts in the county met in the district court room Saturday afternoon and effected the organization of a Tom-Love-for-Governor Club and took steps to extend the organization throughout the county.

The editor was elected chairman and Judge J. W. Elliott was elected secretary. Talks were made by the chairman, Judge B. P. Maddox, Judge J. W. Elliott, J. N. Lemond, P. W. Goad, E. S. Davis, W. A. Yates, and Joe Poindexter. All the speakers were remarkably restrained and conservative, making no harsh or rash expressions, but evincing a deep earnestness and an unflinching purpose to promote the nomination of Tom Love in the democratic primary election soon to be held.

It seemed to be the consensus of opinion of those present that altho

Knights Back From Washington Trip

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Knight returned Wednesday afternoon from an extended visit with their daughters in Washington, D. C., Mrs. F. T. Carson and Mrs. J. Emory Nance. On their way back they stopped for a week at Columbus, Georgia, to visit relatives, where Mr. Knight declares he met sixty-six of his cousins, sixty-five of whom he had never seen before. He says there were probably that many more running loose around there that he failed to meet.

Mr. and Mrs. Knight greatly enjoyed their visit in Washington. They visited many places of historic interest in the vicinity of Washington and spent much time in the rural district enjoying the mountains and the rivers and the bubbling springs and the fine trees. They went up to Gettysburg and heard President Hoover deliver his Memorial Day address and had the pleasure of shaking his hand but failed to

Former Local Citizen Shoots Employee At Lubbock Dairy

Editorial Note: Mr. and Mrs. Sessums lived near Tahoka until a few months ago, and they have many friends here who deeply deplore this terrible tragedy, which seems to have been unavoidable on their part.

(Lubbock Avalanche, July 6)
Bob White, about 28, is dead, and W. T. Sessums, local dairy owner, is in the county jail following a shooting affray which occurred about 9 o'clock last night at Sessums' dairy, five miles northwest of Lubbock.

Shortly after the shooting Sessums asked his wife to go to a nearby house and telephone officers to come after him. A Mr. Cox, living one-half mile north was called and he telephoned the police. Deputy Will Earnest and Policemen C. E. Luce,

MEETING WILL BEGIN SUNDAY

Baptist Pastor Owen J. Hull Will Preach; Fort Worth Man
Will Direct Music

Preparations for the approaching revival services which are to begin at the City Tabernacle next Sunday under the direction of the Baptists are being completed Friday, according to Pastor O. J. Hull.

The tabernacle itself has been repaired and the platform and seats rearranged. The platform has been erected at the south end and the seats turned about, so that the preacher and the choir may be better protected from the prevailing south wind. Bagging will be strung along the sides of the tabernacle so as to protect the congregation from the winds and from possible interruptions from the outside. The platform will seat at least a hundred singers. The seats out in the auditorium have been made more comfortable. The building and grounds will be well lighted and there will be ice water on the grounds.

The pastor, Rev. O. J. Hull, will do the preaching. He is a most able and forceful speaker and has held many successful revivals heretofore. Among the places where he has conducted such revivals are Midland, Big Spring, Abilene, Eastland, and Waco. Soon after becoming pastor at Gatesville he conducted a revival there in which there were 120 professions of faith. He is uncompromising in his attitude toward sin and makes a powerful appeal to the unsaved to turn to Christ for salvation. The people of Tahoka may expect to hear some powerful gospel messages during this series of meetings.

Mr. Grady Helm of Fort Worth has been engaged to lead the song services and he has wired that he will be here Sunday morning. Singers from the other church are extended a cordial invitation to join the choir and assist in the song services. In fact, the singing is expected to be one of the features of the meeting. Two pianos will be used. Mr. Helm is unknown here but he is a graduate of the Southwestern Baptist Seminary at Fort Worth and Texas exported through Texas ports 9,594,922 short tons of its products in 1929. Petroleum and its derivatives totaled more than half of it, 5,396,634 tons. Cotton furnished 1,188,938. Sulphur gave 883,121 tons and wheat was next with 851,555 tons. Imports totaled 1,421,669 tons.

Work on the $1,000,000 22-story Tower Petroleum building will be started in Dallas July 1st and on the $1,700,000 31-story National building about August 1st. Construction is under way on the 18-story Dallas Power & Light building and the Republic Bank Annex, while the $1,250,000 Federal building will be ready for occupancy by early fall.

J. D. Johnson and Bill Mabray hurried to the scene.

Heavy Wrench Is Found
White was found lying in a small room with blood stains over the floor and bed. A heavy piece of wrench, about 18 inches long, was found near his left hand, according to officers. He was said by Mrs. Sessums to have been left handed.

Examination of the body revealed four wounds, one through center of the heart, another over the left eye, a third through the neck and the last in his left wrist. Sessums gave officers a .38 pistol from which five empty shells were extracted. A fifth bullet was found imbedded in the wall behind White's body.

Recognizing the officers when they drove up, Sessums was said by views with much force and clarity.

After calling attention to the fact that commissioners courts have no power whatever with reference to the location, the building, or the maintenance of state highways and that the state has sole power and authority over these highways, he expressed the belief that the State alone should be required to build and improve the highways without asking or demanding any aid from the counties.

He also laid down the proposition that those who use the highways should build them. Therefore, he did not believe that any ad valorem tax should be levied upon the property of the citizens of this state for the purpose of building these highways. They should be built, he maintained, from the gasoline tax. In this connection, he also stated that he believed in using convict labor to build the highways. The convicts, he declared, should be paid reasonable wages for their labor, and upon being released from prison the amount due them after deducting the cost of maintaining them should be paid to them or to their families. He also favored the use of convict labor to manufacture all the cement necessary for building the state highways. He expressed opposition to the system of building the highways by contract. Let the state employ competent men and build its own highways without letting the job out to contractors, he proposed. By working the convicts on the highways, by manufacturing the cement by convict labor, and by building its own highways without resorting to the contract system, the Judge claimed that the State could make enormous savings.

He favored, however, submission to the people of a constitutional amendment authorizing a state bond issue in order that the state might have sufficient funds to build a continuous and connected system of highways now. Under the present system it will be thirty years before such a system of highways can be completed and by that time most of us will not be here to use them, he declared. The state should have the highways appraised and should make a fair remuneration to the various counties of the funds they have expended in building state highways. No county should be called upon to help build state highways and counties that have already done so should be fairly reimbursed, he contended.

He also answered many objections that have been raised to a state bond issue. Among these was the objection that investors would not purchase bonds based on a gasoline tax. That is the safest investment in the world, he contended. Gasoline has the most ready sale of any commodity. A man may refuse to pay his grocery bill and his clothing bill but he will hustle around for the money to buy gasoline. Investors know that the gasoline tax is a safe bet and they have bought such bonds issued by other states. But if they should refuse to buy the bonds then the state would owe no debt and no harm would have been done, he pointed out.

Judge Lockhart also stated that he favored the election of the state highway commissioners by the people. He believed that the state should be divided into four or five districts and commissioners elected from each district.

The Judge's discussion of this matter has provoked much comment on the streets, both favorable and unfavorable. In fact it provoked more street discussion, possibly, than the visit to Tahoka of any candidate for governor this year, some of his warmest personal friends differing from him radically on the matter while others as warmly defended his position. That his speech made a profound impression is expressing it mildly.

"TOM LOVE FOR GOV." CLUB ORGANIZED HERE SATURDAY

Clint Small is a West Texas man yet they could not afford to vote for him for the reason that he had exhibited a degree of narrowness and vindictiveness that they deemed inexcusable when he worked and voted for the Wirtz bill in the state senate last year undertaking to bar from the Democratic primaries this year all who rebelled against Al Smith two years ago. Attention was also called to Jim Young's intolerance, but no bitter denunciation of him or other candidates was indulged in. All recognized the worth and the services of Tom Love and felt that he should have the undivided support of the so-called "Hoovercrats" this year. He was characterized as the biggest and best man, intellectually and otherwise, and the best qualified man in the race.

Chairmen for the various voting precincts in the county were selected as follows: North Tahoka, D. C. Davis; South Tahoka, J. F. Tharp, assistant, J. R. Strain; O'Donnell, C. H. Doak; Wilson, J. R. Richardson; New Home, P. W. Goad, assistant, Joe Poindexter, and J. K. Milwee; Dixie, O. B. Davis; Magnolia, B. J. Emanuel; Grassland, G. W. Godwin; Draw, J. N. Lemond; Three Lakes, G. M. Duckett, assistant, W. A. Yates; Pride, Mr. Yates; West Point, C. T. Tankersley.

Truett Smith Back From Atlantic City

County Clerk Truett Smith returned Wednesday from Atlantic City, New Jersey, where he attended the Kiwanis International as a representative of the Tahoka Club. He will give a report of this meeting next week.

Mr. Smith stopped over in Washington and visited the Capitol, where he saw Congress in session. Also he witnessed a baseball game in Washington between the Washington Senators and a visiting team and saw Babe Ruth knock a home run. He saw Sam West, a West Texas man well known in Tahoka, who is center fielder for the Senators and he says that Sam is regarded as one of the best fielders in the big league.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank the people of Tahoka who have been so kind to us, for all visits paid me during my recent illness, and I especially want to thank the Methodist, Baptist, and Catholic people for the check to be applied on my account, I so much appreciate everything done for my recovery—Mr. Anson Coughran for the use of his car, Mrs. Julia Maasen for the use of her car. If I should be unable to repay the good people for their assistance while I stay in Tahoka, then if sickness comes my way I may be of some little assistance to you at the Sanitarium, where I will go again soon to continue my studies and work—to be a servant of humanity. With all good wishes for all,

"The Home Is The Seedbed Of Civilization"—Breedlove

Everybody says there is something wrong with the home! Is there? Or is this a sort of brainstorm that is sweeping the country? Is the "crime wave" that is so much talked about related in any way to the alleged breaking up of the old fashioned home? Is the common violation of certain laws and of certain commandments a product of a loosely held together home?

The seeds of civilization and of Christianity are in the home. There is the hope of the future, of God and man. The most solid blessing a home can have is a godly heritage in ancestry. That "Blood will tell" is not a mistaken saying at all. If there is, then, a criticism to be made of our young people, it most emphatically is a seedbed from which they are sprung.

The subject and text for discussion at The Methodist Church Sunday morning is: "All the children of Israel had light in their dwellings," Exodus 10: 23. This text shows that in the midst of hopeless darkness that could be felt about the Egyptians in all the land there was gracious light and eternal life in the houses of Israelitish slaves. If there is light and life in this world today it is found in the homes of the Children of God who "walk not after the flesh, but after the spirit." "Ye are the light of the world." "I am the way, the truth and the life."

The public is cordially invited to hear the discussion of a most important subject. We want the people to know there are too many social affairs in proportion to the number of prayer meetings and home altars. There are too many homes that do not have the spirit of Christ. There are too many children who, because of home surroundings, are damned before they are born. A child without the right culture had better never have been born than to become an occupant of a criminal institution.

There will be no night services except that of the League because of the Baptist meeting.

Attend Truck Rate Hearing at Lubbock

A party of Tahoka business and professional men attended the hearing held in Lubbock Wednesday on the matter of changing the freight rates charged by truck operators transporting freight over the highway between Lubbock and Tahoka. Truck operators are charging a flat rate for hauling. It has been proposed that the freight be hereafter classified and that classified rates be charged, as is done by the railways. The Tahoka citizens are favoring the retention of the flat rates. We understand that the same position was taken by all the other representatives from various towns lying on the south plains with respect to the rates over their highways. The only advocate in favor of the change appearing at the hearing was a Fort Worth truck operator, who thought that granting a flat rate would be a bad precedent. Possibly the Railways are likewise favoring the change from a flat rate to a classified freight rate.

Those present from Tahoka were C. C. Williams, D. W. Gagnat, J. H. Powell, Bill Burleson, Larkin Weathers, G. H. Nelson and H. A. Maasen.

DAIRYING DISCUSSED AT MASS MEETING RECENTLY

The first of a series of community meetings to be held in the interest of dairying in this section was held at the Wells school house Tuesday night when William Wittkamp, manager of the new powdered milk plant at Lamesa and Jpe Peterson, field man, were the principal speakers.

G. S. Dowell of O'Donnell was chairman and introduced the speakers.

There were about two hundred and fifty present, including children.

Music was furnished by the Davis-Burkett String Band, which is composed of Elmo and Jake Burkett and Arnold and Esther Davis, who made the violin, banjo, mandolin and guitar literally "talk." Arnold Davis sang several yodeling solos.

R. E. Echoles of near Lamesa, master farmer in 1929, also made a short talk in which he boosted dairying as a money-making sideline to farming.

BIG SPRING MAN AWARDED MAIL CONTRACT RECENTLY

Mitchell L. Reed of Big Spring was last week awarded the contract for carrying the mail from Big Spring to O'Donnell, and service was established Tuesday, July 1st, according to Sam Singleton, acting postmaster at the local office.

The line is 75 miles long. The car leaves Big Spring railroad station at 7:15 a. m. and will arrive in O'Donnell in three hours and fifteen minutes. It will leave here at 6:10 p. m. and arrive at Big Spring at 9 o'clock. The service will be given seven days a week, while only first class mail and special handling parcel post matter will be handled on this route.

Mr. Reed's bid was $2,100 per year on a contract of four years.—O'Donnell Index.

TELLS HOW O. K. COMMUNITY GOT ITS NAME

In response to a recent request made by the Index, R. F. Hester comes forward and tells just when and how the community known as O. K. got its name.

About twenty-eight years ago Mr.

Aester came to this country and Hester came to this country and house now stands. He operated a little grocery store in connection with his farm home, and later was named postmaster of the newly created postoffice, which was named Central. When the school was started, it was known as Central.

Miss Pansy Pope was the teacher of this school. A man by the name of O. K. Jones, who lived at Lamesa, became more or less interested in Miss Pope and made rather frequent visits to see her, both at the school and at the home of Mrs. White, where she boarded. Mrs. White, being quite a joker, took delight in teasing Miss Pope and began calling the school "O. K." It was about this time that the postoffice was discontinued and since the name of "Central" had not become well fixed in the minds of the few people, and as many new comers were arriving, the new name "O. K." was readily adopted.—O'Donnell Index.

The first oil pipe lines built in this country in 1879, connected the Pennsylvania oil fields with the Atlantic seaboard 20 years after petroleum production was begun on a commercial scale.

The slow turn-over of capital in the electric industry is one of its problems. That it is getting slower as increased capital investments are required is shown by the fact that where in 1922 the rate was once every four and three-fourths years, in 1926 it had gone to five and a half years and in 1930 it is expected to fall to less than once in six years, figures for 1928 having been five years and eight months.

Sheep seldom make profitable use of grain when good grazing is available. One hundred pounds of grain in a year for one ewe and her lambs is usually the maximum that can be fed profitably. Under some conditions flocks keep in good condition and lambs may be marketed without any grain.

Just Like An Ostrich
A medical authority says that a person who tries to cover up skin blemishes and pimples with toilet creams and powders is just as foolish as an ostrich that buries its head in the sand to avoid danger. Skin eruptions are nature's warning that constipation is throwing poisons into your bloodstream and weakening your whole constitution. Remove the constipated condition and you will strengthen your system against disease and clear up your disfigured skin. The best way to do this is with a course of Herbine, the vegetable medicine that acts naturally and easily, which you can get at THOMAS BROS. DRUG COMPANY

CROSBYTON PHONE PLANT TO BE REBUILT THIS YEAR

CROSBYTON, June 30.—The State Telephone company of Lubbock will rebuild its Crosbyton plant, F. A. Robinette, district superintendent at Tahoka announced following a visit here.

While here Mr. Robinette inspected the local system. The local work will not start until late in the year after the cable has been rebuilt.

Crosbyton, Ralls and Post are included in a rebuilding program, Mr. Robinette explained.

In 1929 the State of Texas appropriated $22,780,193 for its public schools—this exclusive of local and district taxes.

WHY NOT KEEP QUIET?

In a statement in which he refrains from endorsing any candidate, Lynch Davidson denounces Sterling, Ferguson, Love and Mayfield, and closes his voluntary statement thus: "There are no personal differences between myself and these men nor do I have any personal interest to serve. Texas and her people are my first and only thought. I could serve my own interests far better by saying nothing."

All right, Mr. Davidson, why not say nothing? There has been no demand from any source, so far as we have heard, for him to say a word. No considerable groups of voters give a hang how Mr. Davidson votes. It is his affair, purely and simply.

On the whole, the voters have a surprising amount of disinterest in the words and deeds of defeated candidates of former years. What they are interested in is the candidate who is now up before them for consideration.

A large number were interested in Lynch Davidson and what he had to say as long as he was a candidate himself; but what he has to say as a more or less innocent bystander is supremely uninteresting to the average voter.—Abilene News.

Street railway companies in the United States purchased and put into service more new cars in 1929 than for several years past, the figures being 1,374 as compared with 897 in 1928. In the same time 2,325 old cars were junked or sold, a new record in the industry.

KONJOLA For Sale By TAHOKA DRUG COMPANY

A Great Discovery
When Pasteur discovered, in 1852, that the infection of wounds was caused by malignant bacteria, he performed a service of incalculable value to mankind. Since then medical science has been producing better and better antiseptics, to kill these germs that may enter the smallest cut and give us diseases such as typhoid, tuberculosis and lockjaw. Now, all you have to do to be sure that these dreadful germs will not infect a wound, is to wash that wound, however small, thoroughly with Liquid Borosone, the modern antiseptic. You can get Liquid Borosone, in a size to fit your needs and purse, from THOMAS BROS. DRUG COMPANY

Konjola Ended Two Years Of Stomach Misery

Again This New and Different Medicine Shows Why It Has Become Famous

MRS. BERTIE COWAN

Strange, but absolutely true—Konjola, the new and different medicine seems at the very peak of its powers when pitted against the stubborn cases that have held on with bulldog-like tenacity. Take for example, the experience of Mrs. Bertie Cowan, 614 West Second St., Fort Worth, Texas, who says:

"For two years the lightest of foods caused misery. At times I had to grasp for death and I bulched up bits of un digested food. I took soda constantly. My kidneys gave me trouble too. I had backache and had to rise many times at night. But Konjola ended all this, and today my back is free from pain, my nerves are steady, I sleep soundly and wake up every morning rested and refreshed."

Thus Konjola works, swiftly yet surely. It is strongly recommended however, that a complete treatment of from six to eight bottles be used if best results are to be obtained. Konjola is sold in Tahoka at Tahoka Drug Co., and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

COATED TONGUE

Often Sign of Biliousness That Indicates the Need of Black-Draught.

Austin, Texas.—"In the sixteen years of my own housekeeping, Theford's Black-Draught has been my best stand-by in the way of medicine," says Mrs. J. M. Rich, of 1700 Holly Street, this city.

"I have found Black-Draught to be the best medicine I have ever used for the relief of colds. I have been using it in my home for years."

"My father used it also in his home and gave it to us children. Whenever we had the usual children's complaints, mother would make up a tea of Black-Draught and give us. We always felt better after taking it."

"I also give it to my children when they have colds or upset stomach. Sometimes they get feverish from biliousness. If they begin to get yellow, or their tongues are coated, I make a tea (of Black-Draught) and give to them in small doses. They don't mind taking it at all."

In thousands of families, Theford's Black-Draught has a corner all its own on the medicine shelf. In use nearly 100 years.

Theford's Black-Draught is a purely vegetable medicine, free from harmful mineral drugs. Costs only 1 cent a dose. NC-231

SOME FIGURES THAT MAKE US THINK

Under the present system of building state highways, the State will match the various counties dollar for dollar. That is, when any county is willing to vote a bond issue, the State will advance a like amount to build highways through the county. For the paving of Federal highways, the county gets two dollars for one. Therefore, under this system, no county can get the highways passing through it paved until it votes bonds. Most of the counties in Texas have voted bonds in varying amounts to pave the highways.

The inequalities and the injustice of this system is forcefully set forth in The Texas Weekly of July 5, published by Peter Molyneux of Dallas.
A table is given showing the amount of bonds issued and the tax rate required to pay the interest and the sinking fund in 225 counties in Texas.

It is shown that Dallas county, for instance, has voted bonds in the sum of $19,194,000 and that an ad valorem tax of only 22 cents is necessary to take care of the bonds; while Delta county with a bond issue of only $1,034,000 requires a special ad valorem tax of $1.00 to care for the bonds, and Eastland county with a bond issue of $4,500,000 must levy a special ad valorem tax of 95 cents.

Harris county with bond issues amounting to $7,965,000 is required to levy a special tax of only 19 cents to take care of its bonds; while Grimes county with a bond issue of $1,549,000 must levy a special tax of 93 cents, and Madison county with a bond issue of $800,000 must levy a tax of $1.03, and Walker with $1-500,000 in bonds must levy a tax of $1.07.

Tarrant county with bond issues amounting to $8,358,000 has a tax rate of 42 cents to care for the bonds; while Stonewall county with a bond issue of only $80,000 must levy a tax of 80 cents to care for its bonds, Knox county with $515,000 in bonds must levy a special tax of 60 cents, and Kent county with $480,000 in bonds must levy a special tax of $1.20.

And thus we might go on at much greater length showing that the less populous and wealthy counties can never build the desired highways through them except at great expense to the local tax payers, while the wealthy counties can and do build all necessary highways within their boundaries at comparatively small expense.

The deduction is drawn from these facts and figures that the only just, wise and practical method of building a connected system of state highways is by a state bond issue.

Those advocating such a state bond issue are proposing that the interest be paid and the sinking fund provided from the present gasoline tax. They are also proposing that counties which have issued bonds and assisted in building state highways shall be justly remunerated for their expenditures when the state shall assume full responsibility for building the highways.

This is a business proposition that should be studied earnestly and dispassionately. Prejudice and narrowness have already cost Texas too much.

Milt Finch has received a letter from his old-time friend, Olin Culbertson, former county judge of Hill
County, commending Robert Lee Bobbitt, Attorney-General, who is a candidate for re-election. Bobbitt has been in office only a few months but seems to be making a splendid record. His friends all say that he is clean, honest, industrious, and able, and we see no wisdom in turning him out after so short a period of service for some untired man. In filling out suits against the tax collector and sheriff of Bexar county recently on charges that poll tax receipts were being fraudulently issued in that county, he challenged a political machine that has been almost as powerful in San Antonio as Tammany Hall has been in New York, and he has exhibited a degree of courage not common among politicians. We think Texas would do well to re-elect Bobbitt as Attorney General.

Prof. M. E. Witt, teacher of Science in the Lubbock High school, dropped into the News office Tuesday to speak a word in behalf of his cousin, Senator Edgar Witt of Waco, who is a candidate for lieutenant governor. Witt is an experienced lawyer and legislator, his district having elected him four times to the state senate. He is a life-long dry.
He remained regular and voted the ticket straight in 1928, however. In his campaign literature he makes this promise: "If elected will endeavor to dispose of the State's legislative business at its regular sessions and avoid special sessions." He is a clean, manly man, with high ideals, and would make a splendid lieutenant governor.

Whoever may be elected governor of Texas this year, we hope that the "drys" in this state may be able to get together after the election and put up a united front against the wet forces of the North and East that are already laying their plans to control the next Democratic national convention and nominate another "wet" for the Presidency.
There is plenty of evidence that the "wets" will seek to dominate both parties two years hence. If they can succeed in making one of the great parties actively wet and the other even passively so, then Goodbye Mr.
Volstead. The saloon is staging a supreme effort to come back and all "drys" should resist it to the last ditch.

It is funny how some candidates who are such devoted apostles of peace and harmony during the campaign can turn out to be so intolerant and vindictive after the election.

While there is some violation of the law in Lynn county and while some violators go unpunished, yet we believe that our county is as free from crime as any county in this entire section. While some liquor is doubtless being sold unlawfully, yet the amount of liquor sold and consumed is but a drop in the bucket as compared with what would be sold if saloons were allowed to operate here. In spite of all this hue and cry about prohibition being a failure, we claim that it is a howling success, especially where it is backed up by public sentiment and where local officers do their duty. It is a success in Lynn County.

All West Texans should forget their differences as to other candidates long enough to cast their votes for George H. Sheppard of Sweetwater for Comptroller. He is now holding the office by appointment and is running for the elective term.
He has served his home people for many years in various capacities and has always made good. His neighbors and fellow townsmen are practically unanimous for him. Honest, efficient, always considerate of the rights and feelings of others, he makes many friends and few enemies. He is the man for the job.

We are not going to fall out nor even criticize any of our friends who may disagree with us, but we believe that Tom Love is the biggest man in point of intellect and character in the race for governor this year. He has a record of achievement in legislation that no other candidate can claim. We believe that much of the prejudice against him is due to misinformation. He is a big, patriotic man, and we are for him. We say this without the least bit of malice or ill will toward a single one of his opponents.

Sterling P. Strong and Senator H.
L. Darwin are among the candidates for lieutenant governor. Sterling
P. Strong is one of the old war horses of prohibition. He bolted and voted for Hoover two years ago.
Darwin is likewise a dry. He served his district in the state senate several years ago and once before he was a candidate for lieutenant governor. Strong is a business man, Darwin is a lawyer.

The city authorities are to be commended for the work that has been done on the streets recently. Many of the streets have been gone over with the grader, the ditches have been cleaned out, low places have been filled in, and it is hoped that when the next rain comes less water will be impounded along and across the streets of the city.

There was a long drawn out but successful fight extending through four legislative sessions to pay all Confederate widows, regardless of age, $25.00 per month, and all Confederate veterans $50.00 per month.
The bill making the increase also relieves Confederate veterans and widows of the necessity of proving that they are indigent as a condition of receiving a pension. The man that led this fight for the old Confederates and their widows is now being dubbed as a Republican by his political enemies. His name? Thomas B. Love.

A bill was passed through the Fortieth Legislature providing that every Texas boy and girl of high school age living in districts having no high schools of their own be afforded the privilege of attending high school elsewhere without paying tuition. A "broken-down politician" was the author of this law. His name is Thomas B. Love.

A change was recently made in the law reducing the free school age from seven to six years. One Thomas B. Love was the author of the bill making the change.

Jim Ferguson says that he has long since "made his peace with God", but some of us will be a bit uneasy until we hear from the other end of the line on that matter.

WHAT OTHERS THINK

CORRECTING MR. MILLER

The number of Texas voters familiar with the broad outlines of the finance figures of the Highway Commission should be large. Chairman Ross Sterling has spared no effort in advocacy of his State bond issue plan to make clear the exact financial condition upon which it is predicated. Certainly those who are conversant with the figures saw in Lieutenant Governor Miller's substitute plan a $10,000,000 discrepancy which would prevent the utilization of that sum for the purpose to which he would dedicate it. Mr. Sterling called to the defense of his own plan, now points out Mr. Miller's error.

The $10,000,000 in question is that part of the Highway Commission income received from county aid in its program. Governor Miller left himself no defense in overlooking it, for he stated in his substitute plan that he would have the Commission use its $40,000,000 income (of which the county aid is a part), receive no other income, and drop the county aid.
Since he then proposed to use $10-000,000 to retire existing county bonds, the actual effect would be to cut the present income in half, since the Highway Commission would be deprived of $10,000,000 it is now receiving and would be required to set aside in addition $10,000,000 for county bond retirement. Mr. Sterling leaves the Lieutenant Governor to explain how he would finance the highway construction and maintenance program on the remaining $20-000,000.

The meat in the coconut of the Sterling plan is the county aid situation. The $10,000,000 the Commission receives is on the basis of one-third county aid State highway construction. In many counties there is either no longer possibility of raising tax money to pay it or there is in sight early exhaustion of tax-assessment for the purpose. Where that situation exists the county aid must cease. And State highway construction in that county is practically doomed.

The true value of the Sterling plan is in relieving the counties of bonded indebtedness accumulated for State roads, leaving them with the available means to construct their lateral roads and bridges while the State bears the cost of main highway construction.—Dallas News

Jim Ferguson came to West Texas last week to make a desperate effort to rally votes to Ma's side of the political controversy. The wise, clever political "fox" that he is, played his hand well in bidding for Panhandle votes. At least in his appearance at Amarillo he used much more tact than Tom Love a week previous.

Farmer Jim praised Clint Small whereas, Tom Love lambasted him and drove many votes into the Small camp. Ferguson was high in his praise of the candidate from the Panhandle.

In the first place there is nothing about Clint Small about which they or others can justly lambast Senator Small. His record and platform are high and clean and he is conducting himself in the campaign accordingly.
Small is meeting great favor where-ever he goes and the tide is swiftly swinging his way. His platform is one of business and the people of all sections of the state are readily realizing it.

The Ferguson plea for votes was indeed thin. One minute Jim was after the wets by declaring that he was an anti-prohibitionist and would always be, while the next minute he was going after the dry element by pleading for the dry plank in Ma's platform.—Canyon News

The situation at Malta is doubly interesting now that the McDonald Government has backed up the action of Lord Strickland in suspending the Constitution of Malta. The Premier of the island considered that there was no other course open when the Catholic authorities of Malta held it to be a mortal sin to support those hostile to the Church, the verbiage of the pastoral letter being such as plainly forbid Maltese Catholics to vote for Lord Strickland's party.

The issue is now joined directly between the Pope and the British Government on a definite question of temporal power. The Pope claims, in effect, the right to banish from Malta a Maltese citizen and British subject on the ground that he is a member of a religious order whose discipline he has transgressed. Great Britain holds that no church has the authority to force a Briton to leave the Empire.

Aside from these questions of dual citizenship apparently raised in the assertion of papal sovereignty over the person of a religious subordinate there is the further point of asserting that sovereignty while the person involved is on the soil of the British Empire. As to what happened to a papal subject in the Vatican State, Britain, of course, would have no say. Assuming that such a subject were temporarily resident on British soil, Britain doubtless claims some rights in relation to what is done to him by orders of the Pope. But the Maltese case goes even further and involves the disposal of the person of one under the protection of the British Crown.

MacDonald could take only one position on that issue, under the traditions and Constitution of his country, and he took it. The next step of the Pope ought to be interesting.
—Dallas News.

One of our good subscribers got very much "agriffeted" at the News man for saying last week that grain trucks are going to have the road and might as well give it to them.
He said some of the trucks are already pushing cars almost into the ditch, and now since they read that they will try to run passenger cars into the fence on the other side.
When trucks begin to run cars into the fence they will incense passenger car drivers so much that they will look towards placing all trucks where the horse now goes in some towns—rule the trucks off the highway—passenger car drivers pay over 75 per cent of the road tax, and are entitled to half the road, and when they fail to get it, they will make a kick that can be heard at Austin.

There is plenty of room on the average highway for cars and trucks both and good truck drivers will stay on their side of the road, never crossing the center of the high-

FROM AN ADVERTISEMENT

"Some of the best reading is to be found in the advertisements," says William Feather. "The following appeared in an advertisement of Cosmopolitan, and, to me, it was the most interesting paragraph in the paper that day:
"It is all very well to learn how Henry Ford made a billion and why Napoleon met his Waterloo, but what you and I must know is why we were not promoted, why we were fired, why Brother Bill will not speak to us and why our wife cannot keep a coop. We live discreet lives, our problems are concrete. On our ability to get along with wife, husband, parents, children, friends, associates, and society hangs the difference between heaven and hell on this earth."

Relief From Curse Of Constipation

A Battle Creek physician says: "Constipation is responsible for more misery than any other cause."
But immediate relief has been found. A tablet called Rexall Orderlies has been discovered. This tablet attracts water from the system into the lazy, dry, evacuating bowel called the colon. The water loosens the dry food waste and causes a gentle, thorough, natural movement without forming a habit or ever increasing the dose.
Stop suffering from constipation. Chew a Rexall Orderlie at night. Next day bright. Get 24 for 25c today at the nearest Rexall Drug Store, Thomas Bros. Drug Co. 48-24tc

An unexpected result from night baseball in the Des Moines (Western League) ball park was the hearty approval given it by nearby poultrymen. As a result of the brilliant night illumination hens on adjacent dairy farms were fooled by the lights and inspired to work overtime. Poultrymen agree that extending daylight hours by electric lights will increase egg production.

Highway No. 83, running from Perryton, Ochiltree County, to Brownsville, a distance of 860 miles and the longest state highway in the United States was a third. "TEXAS, THE MAGNIFICENT" AT A. & M. SHORT COURSE

COLLEGE STATION, Texas, July 9.—"Texas, the Magnificent," is the title of pageant announced as an entertainment feature for the Farmers Short Course, July 28-August 1, at the A. & M. College of Texas this year. The pageant, written and to be directed by Dr. F. W. Jensen, of the college faculty, will depict the development of Texas in song and spectacle and will bring out the wealth of the state's agricultural, mineral and other resources.

Members of the Extension Service staff will assist in staging the pageant which will be held as an open air performance some evening, yet to be decided, during the short course. Characters for the performance will be selected from those attending the short course. Decision to present the pageant was reached in the belief that it would afford a feature of interest and benefit to the short course crowds.

Doctors Disagree

When children are irritable and peevish, grind their teeth and sleep restlessly, have digestive pains and disturbances, lack of appetite, and have itching eyes, nose and fingers, doctors will not always agree that they are suffering from worms. Many mothers, too, will not believe that their carefully brought up children can have worms. The fact remains that these symptoms will yield, in a great majority of cases, to a few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge, the sure expellant of round and pin worms. If your child has any of these symptoms, try this harmless, old fashioned remedy, which you can get at 35c per bottle from THOMAS BROS. DRUG COMPANY

Buck Jones Thrives On Thrills with Horse

Thrills are the breath of life to Buck Jones. The ace of adventure stars thinks no more of making a perilous leap across a thousand-foot deep canyon on his jumping steed, Silver, than the average man does of sitting down to a game of dominoes. It's all in a day's work to him, and when he buckles on his spurs he's ready for anything from a revolution to a trip down the crater of a volcano—provided he can make it on a horse.

However, Buck, who is starred in "The Lone Rider", the Columbia all-talking outdoor action-drama which comes to the English Theatre on Friday and Saturday didn't by any means acquire all his daredevil nonchalance in a day. He's been courting thrills and hazards all his life. True, he started his career serenely enough as a mechanic in the little town of Vincennes, Indiana, but he soon chucked that orthodox employment to go cow-punching in Montana. That's when the urge entered his soul—for he discovered that he liked to ride better than do anything else in the world.

Three demonstrations are underway in Nueces county to show the advisability of a long beef cattle feeding period. Eighty-five white faces are on sudan pastures and a ration of 1 1/2 pounds daily of cottonseed cake. After re-weighing in October they will be fed home grown grain sorghums for the finishing period. This is similar to the Corn Belt feeding system.

Locals

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Heare returned Thursday last week from a visit of several days with relatives at Miami and Shamrock. Joe never loses an opportunity to make his vacation profitable. During this vacation he won a pair of trousers off of each of his brothers, if he is to be believed, one of his brothers being a doctor and the other a lawyer—and, believe it or not, he won over the lawyer as well as the doctor by trickery. It all happened in a golf game. We are not going into details, but if Joe is telling the truth on himself, he pulled a stunt on that lawyer and that doctor brother of his that would make Jacob's trick whereby he slicked his brother out of his birthright look like a crude affair. These railroad men will do to watch.

Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Smith spent two or three days the first of the week visiting relatives at Shamrock. Dr. Smith declared that on the entire trip he saw no crops as good as those in Lynn county. He thinks there has been no reduction in the cotton acreage this year, judging from his observations from the highway.

R. C. Wood reports the death of Mrs. E. H. Wood, his sister-in-law, which occurred at Muleshoe on Friday, June 27. Mrs. Wood lived in Tahoka four or five years, leaving here eight or ten years ago, and had many friends here. She was forty years of age and is survived by a husband and one son, George.

M. E. McGaha, local manager of the United Dry Goods Store, is still limping from a blow received on the foot when he was struck by a baseball bat at a game of ball in Brownfield on Sunday of last week. He fears that some of the bones of the foot were fractured.

A number of Tahoka citizens are planning to run up to Amarillo Friday and hear Mr. Legge, member of the Federal Farm Relief Board, speak. They are going under the auspices of the Tahoka Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Swan left Wednesday morning on a trip of several weeks which will take them to Arizona, California, and other western states. In California they will visit relatives as well as view the scenic spots.

Elwayne Nevill badly sprained his ankle Tuesday while attending the Scout Encampment near Post. It is hoped that the injury will not prove to be permanent.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lowery of Terrell are here visiting A. G. Freeman and family. Mrs. Lowery is a niece of Mrs. Freeman.

PREPARATIONS COMPLETED FOR BAPTIST REVIVAL

comes highly recommended. Committees have been appointed to make provision for the prayer services, and announcement has already been made that prayer meetings will be conducted by the men, by the women, by the young people, and by the Juniors, beginning at 7:45 each evening. The men are invited to come to the men's prayer meeting in their shirt sleeves, if they so desire. These prayer services will probably be conducted in the various compartments in the church, the places being announced later.

Pastor Hull says that a cordial invitation is extended to all Christians to cooperate in the meeting, accepting the good and discarding whatever of error or evil they may find in the services. The unsaved are specially invited and urged to attend.

A great revival of religion in Tahoka is desired and expected, Mr. Hull declares, and he is anxious that all Christians and especially all Baptists shall throw themselves unreservedly into this campaign for souls.

HON. PAT M. NEFF SPOKE HERE TUESDAY NIGHT

days, he said. Within this brief period of time, the Texas Declaration of Independence was adopted, a constitutional convention was called and a constitution drafted, the President and the Congress of the new republic was elected, the Alamo fell, the slaughter at Goliad occurred, the glorious victory at San Jacinto was won and the "Napoleon of the West" taken captive, and Anglo-Saxon supremacy was extended from the Sabine River to the Pacific Coast, Mr. Neff declared.

Texas was the first state in the union to enact a homestead law. It was the first state to set aside a part of the public domain for free school purposes. "And the very same men who laid the foundations for a system of public free schools, also laid the foundations for religious education. The Presbyterians established an institution now represented in Austin College at Sherman. The Methodists laid the foundations of institutions which now find expression in the Southwestern University at Georgetown and the Southern Methodist University at Dallas. The Baptists laid the foundations of Baylor College at Independence, now represented by Baylor College at Belton and Baylor University at Waco.

Reciting the achievements of the forefathers in statesmanship, in education, and in religion, the speaker called upon his hearers to properly appraise and appreciate the wonderful heritage handed down to the present generation and called upon them to strive to bequeath to posterity even a better and greater heritage than our forefathers have handed down to us.

The audience listened intently to every word of the speaker and a number of times expressed their approval by applause.

Mr. Neff left soon after the speaking in company with J. H. Edwards for Lubbock, where he was to hold a railway hearing Wednesday.

Measured by the electrical output yardstick, business conditions in Texas are eight times as good as the average over the United States. For the last three months Texas' electrical output gained 8 per cent against an average over the United States of 1 per cent.

W. T. SESSUMS SHOOTS MAN—

Will Earnest to have declared, "I've done the worst thing I ever did in my life. Mr. Earnest, I've killed a man." He was brought to town immediately and lodged in jail.

Inquest Continued

Justice of the Peace G. R. Scott opened his inquest last night but stated that it would not be completed until today when officers said charges probably would be filed against the dairy owner. Nature of the charge, according to Judge Scott, will be either murder or homicide.

In a verbal statement to officers, Sessums said White had started toward him with the heavy tool in his hand. He said White, who came here two months ago, had quarreled with other workmen at the dairy and several of them had left. Sessums also was said to have told of having heard threats against himself and family of ten children, oldest being 12 years.

Wife Feared White

Describing events leading up to the shooting, Mrs. Sessums last night told officers she often had lain awake at night through fear of White and what he might do. "We hired him about two months ago," she related, "and knew practically nothing about him. I have heard him speak of a brother in Saint Louis. Last Sunday he had a fight with Frank Graham, another employe, and Graham left. He had told Longley Adams, who also worked for us that he was going to kill my husband and that he had a heavy piece of iron under his mattress.

"My husband overheard him tell another man this afternoon that he was going to kill him and the children tonight. We ate supper as usual and White retired to his room. I went to the well after some water and when I returned I heard him and my husband arguing, quarreling, calling each other liars and other names. I slipped around the corner of the house to listen but when the shooting started I ran away.

Tells Of Argument

"My husband went to ask him what he meant by his threats and to make him leave. When he refused, giving as his reason that he had been hired for two months and intended to stay that long, my husband said he would take him to town and turn him over to officers. After that they quarreled and the shooting followed.

"After it had all happened my husband came to me, put his arms around my neck and started crying saying, 'I had to kill him, or he would have killed me.'

White's body was badly powdered, indicating that the shooting had occurred at close quarters. His body was taken in charge by Rix-Sanders and funeral arrangements are being held up pending location of relatives.

SESSUMS OUT ON BOND

(Lubbock Avalanche, July 8)
 Mrs. T. J. White of Baird, late yesterday identified the body of the 28-year-old youth known here as Bob White, who was killed at the home of W. T. Sessums, five miles northwest of Lubbock, Saturday night in a shooting affray, as that of her son, Robert Solan Winn, by a former marriage. In a signed statement she said he had escaped from the state insane asylum at Rusk.

Sessums, who gave himself up to officers shortly after the shooting, has been released on $2,500 bond charged with murder in connection with the slaying.

Holds No Grudge

"As I am personally concerned, I don't hold any grudge against the man who did the shooting," Mrs. White declared in a statement made late yesterday afternoon, "for I don't know what I would have done in the same place. I have been in places like that and I would have done some killing myself but I guess I was afraid of the law."

Young Winn was adjudged insane in 1927, according to his mother, and was sentenced to the asylum at Rusk. He escaped a year later, but was recaptured, only to escape again.

"Robert was over-bearing," she continued, "and I guess he just got it in his head that he was going to rule this man, that was just like him."

Burden Lifted

"I feel just as good about it as I would have felt if they had taken him back to the insane asylum. Since he is dead now, I know where he is, and it is the best to take it that way and I feel like it is a big burden off of me.

"I began to see there was something the matter with him, in 1927 when he commenced to talk about religion and the stars being pulled down," the statement continued. "One night he telephoned the light plant to turn all the lights out and when they wouldn't he picked up a stool in a restaurant and commenced to 'bust' the lights himself. A few months before that the man for whom he was working found him in his bedroom with all the drawers pulled out of the dresser and he was sitting in the middle of the floor playing with a doll.

"The day before I had him locked up at Baird he ordered me to get him a gun and some money. That night he hit his younger brother with a belt and I stayed awake all night afraid that he would hurt some of the children. The next day I had Mr. White phone the sheriff to come and get him," she stated.

"The last time he was home for him. He said he was leaving but would come back if he came back feet first."

The body was taken overland late yesterday to Baird where funeral services are to be held this afternoon.

Dairy Employe

Winn had been an employe of Sessums for the past two months, living under the assumed name of Bob White. According to statements of other employes, as corroborated by testimony of Sessums, the youth had frequently threatened his employer and the Sessums family. He is said to have had fist fights with employes of the dairy and had created unrest.

Five shots were fired in the altercation, four of them taking effect in Winn's body. One entered the heart, another over the left eye, and a third through the neck and the last in the left wrist. The fifth bullet imbedded itself on the wall behind the body.

bring back any message from Herb to this humble editor. They visited the White House and Capitol and many other government buildings. They met Senators Sheppard and Connolly and were shown many courtesies while there.

Mr. Knight says that he saw practically nothing to drink but water, the finest water in the world, cold spring water. We could fill up this paper with interesting things he has been telling us, but you will appreciate it better if he tells you personally. So we refer any and all persons desiring information about Washington, or the government, or Hoover or good roads, or prohibition to Mr. Knight in person, himself.
