Shower Given Mrs Robinson

Mesdames E. H. Boullious and W. L. Burleson were very charming hostesses Friday afternoon, when they gave a linen shower for Mrs. B. H. Robinson at the American Legion Home.

Bowls of beautiful roses and other summer flowers were used in decorating the entertaining rooms.

Miss Mabel Lee played very beautifully popular selections as the guests arrived and while they were leaving.

When the gifts were presented Miss Virginia Sanford granted a wish to the honoree. "Where the Shy Little Violets Grow" was beautifully sung by Miss Charlene Maddox. Miss Virginia Sanford read in her very pleasing manner, "The First Year College Girl."

The hostesses served punch to the following guests: Mesdames B. H. Robinson, the honoree, H. W. Callaway, Ovid Louallin, John Stokes, A. L. Lockwood, Joe Heare, Robert H. King, W. B. Slaton Sam Sanford, Jack Alley, M. O. Bridges, Frank Larkin, Storey, A. B. Swan, E. P. Maddox, D. A. Childers, L. C. Haney, W. O. Thomas, C. A. Thomas and A.

Grateful Lady Pays Tribute To Konjola

Now Giving This New and Different Medicine to Her Children—Read Her Statement

MRS. J. D. RHYNE

There is a reason why Konjola is America's best known medicine, and that reason can be summed up in just three words—Konjola makes good, even when all else tried has failed. Consider as a typical example of Konjola's 32 ingredients at work, the case of Mrs. J. D. Rhyne, 618 East Eleven street, Amarillo, who:

"I was in a terrible condition for many years, with constipation, nervousness, indigestion and kidney and liver ill. It seemed no use to try medicines and treatments further, for I kept growing worse right along. I lost weight and had headaches and dizzy spells and bilious attacks. Food caused indigestion, and many a night I lay awake until two or three o'clock. But words can not express my surprise over what Konjola did for me. All of my ills have vanished and now I am giving Konjola to my children, and my husband is about to start the treatment."

Konjola is a medicine for all the family; old and young. That is why Konjola is a household word in tens of thousands of American homes.

Konjola is sold in Tahoka at Tahoka Drug Co., and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

An Unpleasant Subject

All of the functions of life are not pleasant to consider. Perhaps this is why some mothers refuse to think that such symptoms as restless sleep, loss of flesh, lack of appetite or itching nose and fingers in their children, can be caused by round or pin worms. Many mothers have proven, however, that a few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge, that sure and harmless worm expellant, will make these symptoms disappear. Dangerous Business

Our stomach and digestive systems are lined with membrane which is delicate, sensitive and easily injured. It is dangerous business, then, to use medicines containing harsh drugs, salts or minerals, when we are constipated. In addition to the possibility of injuring the linings of our digestive system, these medicines give only temporary relief and may prove habit forming. The safe way to relieve constipation is with Herbine, the cathartic that is made from herbs, and acts in the way nature intended. You can get Herbine at THOMAS BROS. DRUG COMPANY

JEREMIAH WAS RIGHT

"The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked; who can know it?"

This combined statement and query was penned by the old prophet Jeremiah more than twenty-five centuries ago, but it's truth is yet being verified at frequent intervals with startling and dramatic force.

A. D. Payne was a promising young lawyer in Amarillo, not so youthful in years but young in the practice of his profession. For several years he engaged in the profession of teaching and for some time was superintendent of the Canyon High School. Prior to that time he had earned his degree from the West Texas State Teachers College. Several years before his graduation he married, since which time three children had come to bless his home, and during all these years he had seemed to be a model husband and father. As an attorney he had assisted in the prosecution of some of the noted murder cases of the Panhandle. While success rarely comes quickly to the young lawyer, yet the future for him seemed to hold a fair meed of promise.

Then came a terrible tragedy. Payne's wife was killed by the explosion of a bomb and their son terribly mangled as the two were driving the car from their home to town. Mystery surrounded the commission of the crime and for some time peace officers were at sea. The finger of suspicion began to point at Payne himself. A month after the perpetration of the crime he was arrested, charged with the offense, and then made a clean-cut confession.

This confession has revealed one of the most cold-blooded and heinous offenses in all the category of crime. It disclosed how the perpetrator had coolly and calculatingly planned the murder and had made several previous attempts to execute it. The crime is in a class with that of Leob and Leopold, who, a few years ago, murdered a boy just to find what kind of reaction they would feel.

There is some evidence that Payne's crime grew out of lust. His own profession is that it was due to financial worries. The evidence, however, seems to indicate that he was attempting to perpetuate the so-called "perfect crime"—that is, a crime leaving no clue for its solution.

While Payne declares that he is not insane, stating, however, that he is abnormal, and has expressed a desire for a speedy trial and execution in the electric chair, yet it is possible that a plea of insanity will be interposed for him. Whether he ever goes to the electric chair is problematical. That any man can coolly plan the death of his own wife and son, with no provocation on their part whatever, is past our understanding. That he can do so and thereafter exhibit no compunctions of conscience for the crime is likewise incomprehensible. Truly Payne's heart must have been "deceitful above all things and desperately wicked."

A few opponents of Ross Sterling are making a big to-do over the fact that he has so strongly favored the issuance of $350,000,000 for the building of a complete system of paved highways in Texas, and many are putting this up as an excuse for opposing him. As a matter of fact the election of Ross Sterling does not mean that we will issue these bonds soon or necessarily ever issue them. A vote for Sterling is not a vote for the bonds. Before these bonds are ever issued in Texas, the legislature must first vote to put the proposition before the people; then, the people must vote a constitutional amendment making the bonds possible. Ross Sterling has said in every speech he has made that he did not wish to, and could not if he did wish to, push the bond issue on the people; but has talked bonds because he believes bonds are a means of getting a road system quicker and a means of taking the road building tax off of the property and placing it on those who use the highways. He goes further to say: "I favor an adjustment of the state taxing system to remove part of the tax burden from the citizens of small means and to equalize as much as possible the levying of taxes for state purposes."

North Little Rock, Ark.—"Shortly after my marriage, my health wasn't very good," writes Mrs. W. E. Burghin, 315 West Second Street, this city. "I had severe cramping spells, and at times I would have to go to bed. This would be very weakening. I took about five bottles of Cardui at this time and my strength came back. I did not have any more trouble for some time." Several years later, Mrs. Burghin found herself debilitated by heavy home responsibilities, and she explains: "I seemed very slow in getting my strength back. I was too weak to do anything but just lie around. I would get very nervous over my condition. My mother told me I ought to try Cardui again. I did, and soon was getting better. When I had taken about four bottles of Cardui, I was able to do my work again, and haven't had to take it any more." If you are run-down, nervous, or suffer every month, take Cardui, a medicine used by women for over fifty years. As your health improves, you will share the enthusiasm of thousands of others who have praised Cardui for the benefits they have felt after taking it. Get a bottle today. NC-222

THE PREFERENTIAL BALLOT Several of Texas' cities have consistently used the preferential ballot through a number of years. Significantly enough, they have found that the will of the people is effectively expressed and the expense incident to run-off elections is saved to the people.

If the preferential ballot works satisfactorily in municipal elections, there is little reason to believe it would not operate as well in the state elections.

In one Texas county, some thirty-odd defeated candidates who have no further interest in the election, are contributing to the enormous expense of the run-off primary. It is not an equitable arrangement, and undoubtedly good men hesitate to announce for office when they compute the money-hazard involved.

There seems to be no good reason why the preferential ballot should not be used in state elections where three or more candidates announce for an office. Many Texas newspapers are advocating its use, and the electorate, in all probability, would not object to relief from the burden of a second primary.

Among the host of bills, good, bad and indifferent, which will be offered the 42nd legislature, it is hoped that some legislator will present one making mandatory the use of the preferential ballot in future primaries.—The Editorial Digest.

DANGER HEADED OFF

Constipation Troubles Soon Go Away Following Use of Black-Draught.
Burke, Texas.—Mrs. Orea Crawford, of this place, tells of her use of Theodor's Black-Draught which she says covers a period of "a good many years."
"We use Black-Draught as a regular family medicine for constipation, and I try always to keep it in the house."
"I have found it a reliable medicine to give the children when they get upset from over-eating, or have colds, for after taking Black-Draught they get all right in a little while."
"I use Black-Draught for bilious, sick headache. I have found that a dose or two, taken at night, will give quick relief for constipation and the constipation which follows when that condition runs on."
"A bad taste in the mouth in the morning, dizziness and a dull headache, all leave quickly after a few doses of Black-Draught. I find it is not safe to let such things run on. I try to head off the danger by taking Black-Draught in time. It is a dependable medicine."
As the first sign of constipation, take Theodor's Black-Draught. This purely vegetable medicine has been in use nearly 100 years.

Twenty Percent Increase in Light Trucks This Year

An increase of twenty per cent in production of light delivery trucks during the first half of this year over the same period in 1929 was announced today by Sidney Corbett, manager of the commercial car division of the Chevrolet Motor Company.
Figures for the comparable periods were 27,286 units as against 22,613 to July 1st last year.
This production increase Mr. Corbett attributed to the need for light delivery trucks in federal, state, municipal and public utility construction projects now under way, and to the growing use of the light truck in rural sections. Farmers, especially, are finding the light delivery an economical and necessary addition to farm equipment, he said, and the wide variety of body types available enables the user to choose the exact body for the work to be done.
While commercial car production is necessarily a minor part of the total output of the Chevrolet Motor Company, Mr. Corbett pointed out that it is accounting for a constantly increasing production of each year's output. The company first began building commercial cars in 1916, he stated, and since that date 1,169,000 units had been built, up to the middle of this year, or in the ratio of better than one commercial car to each six passenger cars.
Butterfat has been produced at a feed cost of from nine cents to twenty-one cents per pound in five dairy demonstration herds supervised by the county agent in Archer county. Balanced rations were fed and no roughage, but plenty of good mesquite grass pasture was available.

NEFF EXPRESSES HANKS

To the People of Texas:
In the recent election, to have carried as a candidate for Railroad Commissioner over my three opponents 231 of the 253 counties in Texas, and to have received nearly two hundred thousand votes more than my nearest opponent, are honors for which I wish to express, through the public press, to the people of the State my sincerest thanks. For this vote of confidence I shall count myself at all times debtor to the people of Texas, in the coin of sincere appreciation.

Notwithstanding the large vote received, a run-off is necessary, for the reason that I lacked a few thousand votes in the State as a whole of having a majority over the combined support of the other three candidates.

Thanking my many friends for the interest they manifested in my behalf, and coveting their support in the second primary on August 23rd, I am,

Yours gratefully and sincerely,
PAT M. NEFF

NEFF REFUTES CHARGES MADE BY W. G. HATCHER

W. Gregory Hatcher, in his speeches and statements published in the daily press, in discussing why I should not be elected Railroad Commissioner, has made the following charges:

First: He said: "During Pat M. Neff's administration as Chairman of the Railroad Commission, the International-Great Northern Railway has taken over the bus lines in the Rio Grande Valley." This statement is not true. The railroad took over its bus lines in the valley while the late Clarence Gilmore served as Chairman of the Commission.

Second: Mr. Hatcher said: "During Pat M. Neff's administration as Chairman of the Railroad Commission, the Cotton Belt Railway has taken over the bus lines in East Texas." This statement is not true. The Cotton Belt Railroad took over its bus lines in East Texas while the lamented Clarence Gilmore served as Chairman of the Commission.

Third: Mr. Hatcher said: "During Pat M. Neff's administration as Chairman of the Railroad Commission, Stone and Webster has taken over the Red Ball Bus Line." This statement is not true. Stone and Webster purchased the Red Ball Bus Line while the loyal Clarence Gilmore served as Chairman of the Railroad Commission.

Clarence Gilmore was a faithful and patriotic public servant, and while living no one questioned his motives and since dead, not even for political purposes should aspersions be cast upon his name.

Fourth: Mr. Hatcher said: "During Pat M. Neff's administration as Chairman of the Railroad Commission the Southern Pacific Railway Company has taken over the Greyhound Bus Lines paralleling the Katy Railroad from Denison to San Antonio." This statement is not true. There is nothing in the records of the office of the Railroad Commission either before or after I became its Chairman that even suggests that the Southern Pacific has taken over the Greyhound Bus Lines.

If Mr. Hatcher can show that I, at any time, either officially or unofficially, in public or in private, directly or indirectly, voted for, counseled with, or had any connection with any kind of a transaction between the Southern Pacific Company and the Greyhound Bus Line, I will withdraw from the race as a candidate for Railroad Commissioner.

If he cannot show the truthfulness of his statement, he should voluntarily withdraw.

Fifth: Mr. Hatcher said: "During Pat M. Neff's administration as Chairman of the Railroad Commission, the Dixie Motor Company, owned by the Rock Island Railroad, has taken over the bus lines paralleling the Texas and Pacific Railway from Texarkana to El Paso." This statement is not true. The Rock Island Railway does not own the Dixie Motor Company. The Dixie Motor Company is a corporation headed by two well known citizens of Texas, one living in Dallas, and the other in Fort Worth. Neither does the Dixie Motor Company parallel the Texas and Pacific Railroad from Texarkana to El Paso.

Sixth: Mr. Hatcher said: "During Pat M. Neff's administration as Chairman of the Railroad Commission, more than four-fifths of all the bus lines in Texas are controlled by the Railroad Companies." This statement is not true. In Texas there are approximately 200 bus operators free and independent of any railroad affiliations or connections. These 200 bus owners operate over 23,000 miles of Texas Highways, while the railroads combined operate busses on only 2000 of this 23,000 miles.

Seventh: Mr. Hatcher said: "During Pat M. Neff's administration as Chairman of the Railroad Commission, bus fares have been increased, if not doubled." This statement is not true. Many bus fares have been decreased, since I became Chairman of the Commission, and have been increased in only one instance, that was when the Commission added 13 cents to the bus fare between Dallas and Fort Worth, in order to make the bus fare equal to the interurban fare between these two cities. This after a public hearing of the case on its merits.

Anyone who will either recklessly, ignorantly or maliciously, make statements that are untrue, with the view of getting votes to win an office, is not temperamentally qualified to hold an office of trust and responsibility.

Yours, for the record as it is written,

PAT M. NEFF

Over a Billion Deadly Germs in a Single Drop of Water

Germs are so small that there may be as many as one billion, seven hundred million of them in a drop of water. And just a few of these tiny germs, if they get into your blood through a cut in your skin, may make you so sick you will be in bed for weeks—may cause the loss of a limb through blood poisoning—may even infect you with that most dreadful and fatal of diseases, lockjaw.

Just because you can see no dirt in a cut does not mean that it is clean. You cannot see germs. The only safe and sane thing to do, is to thoroughly wash every cut, no matter how small, with Liquid Borozone, to kill the germs, and then dust it with Borozone Powder, to hasten the healing. Liquid Borozone costs 20 cents, 60 cents, $1.20 and $1.50; Borozone Powder, 30 cents and 60 cents, and can be had at

Girl Grows Pig At 6c Per Pound

BOBY.—Changing a pig to a 213-pound hog in four months at a feed cost of less than six cents per pound is the achievement of Miss Lelia Webb, farmette demonstrator of Clantonville Community in Fisher County. When the county agent, G. J. Lane, brought the neighbors together at the girl's farm recently for the final weighing it was found that this high grade Duroc-Jersey hog had gained 2.9 pounds daily for 57 days at a feed cost of 5% cents per pound. It took only 128 days to bring this porker to the most desirable packer weight.

WHAT OTHERS THINK

FERGUSON AND THE PRESS

Turning his famous oratorical lash on the newspapers of Texas, James E. Ferguson announces he is "amused at Sterling's tirades that the big newspapers are carrying on for him against me," but adds, "I can't stay mad very long because I know it is being paid for at so much an inch." If Mr. Ferguson really knows where-of he speaks he can win the August election (in his wife's name) because he can ruin every newspaper published in Texas—including Mr. Sterling, who is publisher of the Houston Post-Dispatch.

that he'd pay a red cent for any support he might receive in these columns. He, or no one else, would be permitted to broach such a proposal and those who know Mr. Sterling realize full well the utter folly of such a charge.

The Avalanche and Journal sell advertising. If the copy is not offensive to public thought or morals and if it is not libelous in any detail, Mr. Ferguson, Mr. Sterling or any other person may purchase paid space in Lubbock's newspapers. Neither of the two, however, nor anyone else, can purchase one line of editorial support or news content. We continue to furnish both, at our expense, to the readers of these newspapers—and further claim that every other honorable paper in Texas is doing the same thing.

If Mr. Ferguson is sincere in his charges against the Texas press—and if, as he says, he "knows"—we'd be glad to see him prove his statements. A prostituted press should be exposed—and in this regard we say to Mr. Ferguson:

"Do your stuff, if you can—and if you prove your charges you will have done Texas a great service." But until Mr. Ferguson does something more concrete in this regard than he has up to this point—unless he starts talking facts instead of fancies—we brand his charges as a thousand-fold more ridiculous than he has branded his rival's campaign. —Lubbock Avalanche.

STERLING A RICH MAN

The most impressive charge that will be made against Ross Sterling in his run off campaign against Jim and Ma Ferguson will be that he is a rich man. It is a charge which neither Sterling nor his friends will deny, but it is not a charge that ought to cause any sensible man or woman to vote against him.

Sterling made his money honestly. He spends it lavishly in a philanthropic way. It is said that he has never drawn a dollar from the State of Texas for expenses as highway commissioner, though the law provides that the department shall pay the commissioner's expenses. It is said further that all of his salary as highway commissioner is given as the Confederate Veterans and Widows Home at Austin. Certainly there are no southern people who believe that it could be given for a better cause.

Sterling is a good business man, has made a success of both large and small business. Texas people generally have been demanding a business man for governor.

Sterling is a prohibitionist not only by precept, but by practice. He is a loyal and staunch Democrat.

Sterling wants road bonds, but he knows that they cannot be issued without, first, the consent of the legislature and then of the people of Texas through their vote on a constitutional amendment. While he wants the road bonds he is willing to accept a better plan if one is offered.

Sterling proposes to work in harmony with the legislature in solving prison problems. Ma proposes to solve the penitentiary problem by turning loose 2,000 of the prisoners.

Which do you want? Two governors for the price of one, as offered by the Fergusons or a business administration as offered by Sterling? Texas voters must decide this question in the August primary, and they should decide in accordance with the best interests of Texas. —Hillsboro Mirror.

Chinese Red cowpeas, extensively used in South Texas as a dairy hay for several years, are being saved for seed by Kleberg county demonstrators, the county agent reports. The success of this pea as a hay crop due to its upright growth and drought-resistant qualities, has resulted in a demand for seed in excess of supply during the last year. It was introduced from China by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station which found that the crop succeeded best at its Beeville Sub-Station.

In spite of doubts to the contrary, tractors have been found successful in planting and cultivating row crops on terraced land in Mitchell county. During the last 15 months 79 dual-purpose tractors have been bought by farmers there for use with two-row outfits.

Calcium Chlorate mixed with water at the rate of one pound of the chemical to one gallon of water furnishes a weed killing spray that has been demonstrated very effectively this year by county agents. It has been found very practical on relatively small patches of weeds and farmers reported using it are rapidly increasing in number. Among the weeds attacked by this method are Johnson grass, blue weeds and bind weed.

Quarter-size violins are used by children under six in a kindergarten class at Nebraska State Teachers College.

Nortex oats introduced into Hamilton county last fall by the county agent are making good according to preliminary reports of farmers. The average yield of the new variety from early crops was 65 bushels per acre as compared to yields of ordinary oats in the same fields of 35 bushels to the acre. Such a large difference is unusual, experiment station men stating that Nortex oats are only expected to outyield ordinary oats by five or six bushels per acre.

Twenty-five pounds of lespedeza sowed on an acre of hilly clay soil by T. R. Woods of Burkeville, Newton county, in March, has given continuous grazing to a milk cow and horse since mid-May. This is in line with pasture demonstration results all over the State, particularly in East Texas.

Commercial fertilizer is paying this year in Cherokee county, according to preliminary report of the county agent who adds that "about all the corn that will be made here this year is where every other row is peas and the corn fertilized."

Advertising, Like Business, Must Be CONTINUOUS— It is superfluous to say that commercial enterprises must be open every business day to be successful. Still many merchants who keep their doors open figuratively close them to a vast group of customers, whose index to buying is the Lynn County News columns, by not advertising weekly. Without advertising that merchant's business is closed for the day to a number of potential buyers. John Wanamaker once said, "continuous advertising like continuous work, is most effective. If there is any enterprise in the world that a quitter should leave alone it is advertising. Advertising does not jerk, it pulls. It begins very gently at first, but the pull is steady. It increases day by day, year by year, until it exerts an irresistible power. To discontinue your advertisement is the same thing as taking down your sign. If you want to do business you must let the public know it. I would as soon think of doing business without clerks as without advertising."
