

White President Of Poultry Ass'n.

SLATON, Aug. 27.—Permanent organization of the Texas Panhandle-Plains Poultry Association, embracing 54 counties of west and northwest Texas, was effected at a meeting of poultrymen, county agents and chamber of commerce leaders from many points of the area assembled here at a luncheon on Thursday, August 21, as guests of the Slaton Chamber of Commerce. Initial steps toward the formation of such a body were taken at a meeting here on July 17.

Adoption of a constitution and by-laws and election of the first year's officers were among the important items of business transacted at Thursday's meeting here. Taylor White of Tahoka, was elected president; J. O. Roberts, Rotan, vice president; and L. A. Wilson, of Slaton, secretary treasurer.

Thirty directors were elected as follows: R. E. Shaver, Tahoka, D. F. Eaton, Ray Mowery, Lubbock; J. E. Shelton, John S. Powell, Brownfield; W. T. Magee, J. R. Martin, Levelland; E. E. Young, Ralls; Joe E. McDuff, Crosbyton; George Samson, Knox Parr, Post; W. W. Evans, D. H. Davis, Lamesa; T. L. Kimmel, J. W. Hale, Littlefield; E. L. Tanner, J. M. Hahn, Spur; J. C. Bennett, Robert Ricks, Amarillo; Monroe Jones, Loop; C. B. Martin, Tullis; C. W. Morton, B. F. Russell, Snyder; Ray P. Conaway, Hereford; Frank White, Jr., Clarendon; H. C. White, Wellington; R. B. Davis, Plainview; Olin S. Miller, W. T. Hopper, Floydada; and J. E. Bowman, Plainview.

Dates for holding the first annual show were set for Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Dec. 10, 11 and 12, 1930. Slaton has been chosen as the permanent home of the show, the holding of which is the main purpose of the new association it being the belief that such a regional poultry show will prove of much benefit in developing the poultry industry throughout the area.

There will not be separate classes in breed and production types of poultry in the show but there will be a breeder's flock class, each flock to consist of eight or ten birds, these to be judged on utility. The official making awards for the flocks will not be a licensed American Poultry Association judge. The judge for pens, singles and trios will be a licensed A. P. A. judge, show officials decided. All standard varieties will be eligible for premiums.

The association's executive committee has been named, as follows: Taylor White, Tahoka; J. O. Roberts, Rotan; L. A. Wilson, Slaton; George Samson, Post; E. E. Young, Ralls;

C. W. Morton, Snyder; and Ray Mowery and D. F. Eaton, Lubbock. The manager of the show will be L. A. Wilson, of Slaton, who will appoint the show superintendents.

Special committees to prepare the show catalogue and premium list, to secure judges, to arrange for educational features during the annual show and to give the event all possible publicity have been appointed by President White, of Tahoka.

The association went on record as favoring the inauguration of an annual egg-laying contest to be held by Texas Technological College at Lubbock.

Membership in the Texas Panhandle-Plains Poultry association is open to all persons within the territory who are interested in development of the poultry industry. There are no membership dues. Exhibitors will be required to pay nominal entry fees when entering birds for exhibition at each annual show in Slaton. The association voted to incorporate and secure charter.

Plans for holding the first annual show will proceed at once, said Taylor White, of Tahoka, first president of the body.

The 54 counties included in the association's territory are: Dallam, Sherman, Hutchinson, Roberts, Hemphill, Oldham, Carson, Potter, Gray, Wheeler, Deaf Smith, Randall, Armstrong, Donley, Collingsworth, Pecos, Castro, Swisher, Briscoe, Hall, Childress, Bailey, Lamb, Hale, Floyd, Motley, Cottle, Cochran, Hockley, Lubbock, Crosby, Dickens, King, Yoakum, Terry, Lynn, Garza, Kent, Stonewall, Gaines, Dawson, Borden, Scurry, Fisher, Andrews, Martin, Howard, Mitchell and Nolan.

CANNING GARDEN SURPLUS TO INCREASE WINTER RATIOS

Cooper—Delta county merchants who have kept records report that over 3500 cans have been sold this summer to 4-H pantry demonstrators and cooperators who are working to fill their canning budgets. These women, 109 in number, have a systematic plan to can a sufficient amount of vegetables, fruit and meat to meet the requirements of an adequate diet through the winter months. Beans, peas, squash, greens, carrots, corn, okra, tomatoes, pickles, soup mixtures and chicken are some of the foods that have been canned from the farm surplus.

New Lynn

Well, here we are again after an absence of two weeks. We're still looking for that big rain to come to bless the ground and the poor old cow, the sow and hen.

The students of Mrs. Miller's room rendered a delightful program last Friday morning in chapel. The 9th, 10th, and 11th grades have charge for next Friday morning. Come hear us, you will sure get a laugh.

Bros. Bingham and McLain have been at Newmoore the past week attending the Methodist Revival there.

The Nazarene Revival closed Sunday night at New Lynn. We have had a good meeting with lots of good singing and preaching. A good many souls were saved and reclaimed.

ton, returned with them for a two weeks visit.

We hope to have a girls basket ball team at New Lynn this year. The girls have a fine cooperative spirit toward the game, although their numbers are few. Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Seth are their coaches.

The boys have organized for basket ball work and have been going through some pretty stiff work outs. There are some new boys in school who look pretty favorable. We expect to give some real competition this year. A few practice games have been played with the outside boys. A few Tahoka boys came and played Friday the 15th and were defeated by a score of 6 to 4. Then Wednesday the 20th they were again defeated by a score of 5 to 6. Mr. Miller is the boys' coach.

BACK TO CARDUI

Lady Who Had Been in a Run-Down Condition Tells How She Got Well.

Mayo, Fla.—"I was greatly benefited after I took the Cardui Home Treatment," says Mrs. W. H. Tra- wick, of this place. "For several months I had been in bad health. I was run-down and weak."

"I dragged around from day to day, not feeling fit for anything. My back ached and often my sides hurt all night long. I could not sleep, and my nerves gave me a good deal of trouble."

"I had used Cardui several years before for a similar spell, so I got some for my trouble. I soon recovered and felt better than I had in a long time."

"After taking Cardui for several weeks, I began to feel stronger and to rest better. It is a fine medicine, and I have recommended it to friends."

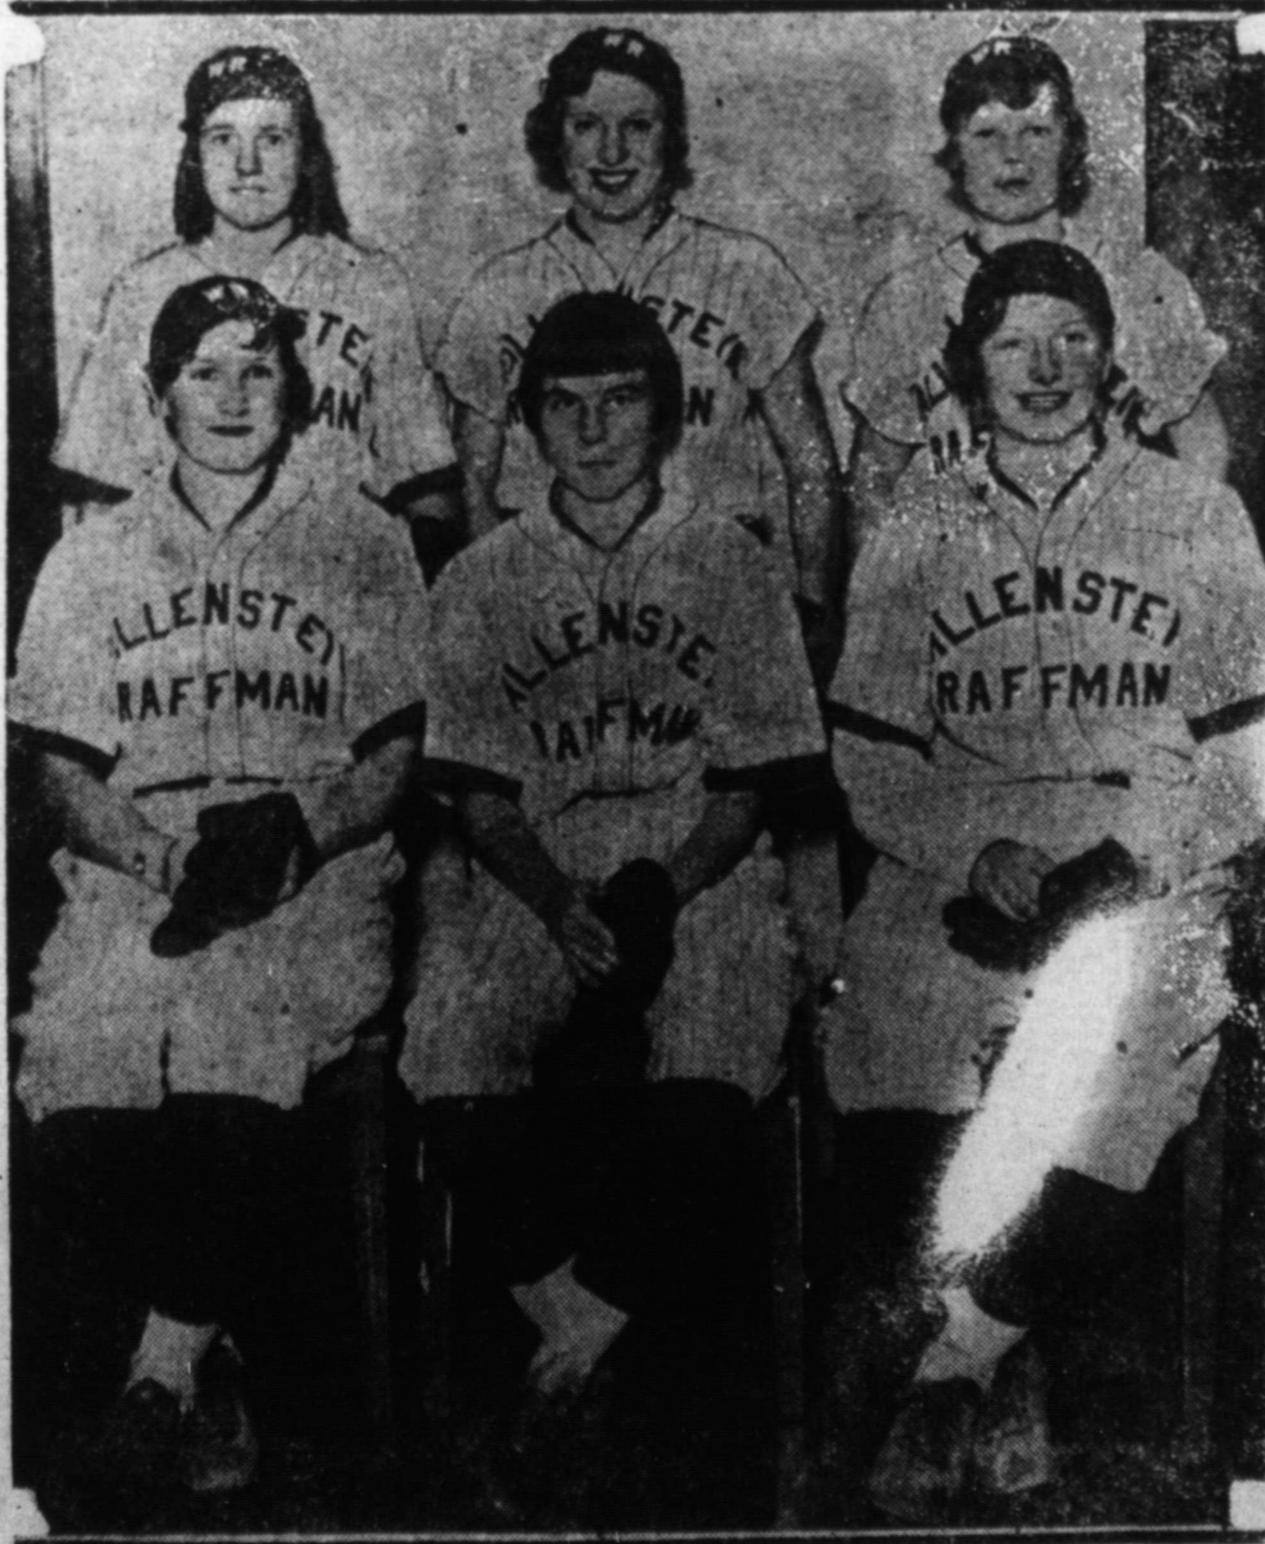

Thousands of other women have taken Cardui to help them to build up their health. The good reports which have been received, telling of the experience of others, should encourage you to try Cardui, for your troubles.

Cardui is a purely vegetable remedy, and contains nothing harmful or injurious. It may be safely taken by women of all ages.

Co-Op Briefs

Chillicothe business men are signing a contract for a sub-office at that place. The first bale of the 1930 season has already been received there.

Many farmers in Floyd and Motley counties are signing marketing agreements, the Plainview office reports 90 per cent of the acreage having been signed in the Flomont community.

Congressman Thomas L. Blanton says: "Your government is now sincerely trying to extend its aid to the agricultural interest. It is impossible for it to help the farmer individually. It can render aid to an organization such as the Texas Cotton Cooperative Association, which is the only one of its kind operating in the State."

An average of 2,000 bales daily are being marketed through the Corpus Christi office. The season total up until August 14 was 21,154 bales, a gain over last year of 600 per cent through the old Farm Bureau.

Although in the worst of the drought area, a number of farmers in the Ralls-Crosbyton area are signing marketing agreements.

Advances on cotton in the TCCA seasonal pool are $50 per bale at the present time.

F. R. Friend, vice president First National Bank, Lubbock: "When the federal reserve banking system was started, half the bankers of the nation opposed it, but now they would not and could not get along without it." The TCCA is operating under this same supervision.

At Sundown, Hockley County, where a crop average of nearly three-quarters of a bale to the acre is expected, 80 per cent of the farmers have signed up to market their cotton according to the Federal Farm Board plan.

Levelland business houses recently closed their doors, and 45 business men joined in a campaign resulting in the signing of 400 farmers to the marketing agreement.

WHEN THE CONOCO MAN ASKS "ETHYL?" say Yes! and you'll say it again

THE next time you drive into a CONOCO station, the man at the pump will ask you a one-word question. "Ethyl?" will be his query.

And in justice to yourself and the car you drive, we urge you to answer, "Yes!"

For Ethyl, added to CONOCO, the gasoline we're proud of, is like seasoning added to food. As seasoning brings out taste and deliciousness, so Ethyl brings out the qualities which have made CONOCO Gasoline famous.

Ethyl stops the knock that makes the foot retreat from the accelerator when you would rather "bear down" harder. Ethyl stops the knock that forces you to shift gears on hills. Ethyl stops the knock that embarrasses you when you let in the clutch in traffic.

So when the CONOCO salesman asks, "Ethyl?" . . . Say, "Yes!" . . . and you'll say it again.

SOME THINGS THE ELECTION SETTLED

The two recent primary election contests settled some other things besides the governorship. They settled the hash of some heretofore prominent politicians. They further served to strengthen the influence of other political leaders and to bring some new leaders into the time light.

First and foremost, it has been made perfectly apparent to everybody that both Barry Miller and Earl Mayfield are dead ducks in the political pond—very dead.

It has also revealed the fact—already known to many of us—that Jim Young had already relegated himself to the political junk heap.

Lynch Davidson pursued such a course as to lose for him the admiration and support of thousands of former followers, including most of the country newspaper editors.

The first primary also seemed to indicate that Tom Love had been buried so deep, politically, that he would never be able to see daylight again. He was the first among the defeated candidates for governor, however, to declare himself in favor of Ross Sterling, and throughout the entire run-off campaign he did valiant service for the cause of the Houston candidate, winning the editorial praise of the Dallas News and other influential publications. Tom Love is not dead by any means.

Among the candidates for governor, Clint Small has suffered least of all. In fact, his course during the two campaigns has tremendously increased his hold upon the people of Texas and made him a state-wide influence.

Senator Woodward of Coleman has likewise increased his prestige considerably. He made a vigorous and telling fight against "Fergusonism" and in favor of "clean government". He will be a powerful figure in the politics of Texas hereafter.

Perhaps the most marvelous development of the campaign was the fact that Dan Moody is still tremendously popular in Texas. For almost three weeks he went about over the state denouncing "Fergusonism" and "irresponsible government" speaking everywhere to immense and enthusiastic throngs, his crowds ranging from a thousand to 10,000 and 15,000 people. His fight has been one of the most brilliant and dramatic ever made by any man in Texas. Those who have been figuring that Dan Moody is dead will be compelled to revise their estimate. He is probably the strongest political figure in Texas today.

LET US HAVE PEACE

One of the most bitter and hectic fights in all the history of Texas has just come to a close. It is to be hoped that whatever wounds may have been inflicted between neighbor and neighbor, friend and friend, will soon heal, and that we shall now have a period of peace and good will. While we who have won in the governor's race have no respect for the political integrity of Jim Ferguson, yet it is perfectly obvious to everybody that thousands and thousands of perfectly honest and deeply earnest men and women enlisted under his banner in the recent contest.

We do not contend that the ignoble part played by some of the Ferguson campaigners should be forgotten. On the other hand, we think that the people of Texas should remember, so that they may know whom to distrust in future political campaigns. But no man should hold any malice or ill will against his neighbor for disagreeing with him in the recent fight. We should be willing to concede honesty of purpose and patriotic motives to the other fellow just as we claim them for ourselves.

Let us now have an era of peace, and let us all combine our efforts to build Texas and to bring prosperity back to our state and section.

WEST TEXAS FARES WELL

Although West Texas' candidate for governor, Clint Small, went down in defeat, yet West Texas fared well in the recent primaries.

The nominee for attorney-general, Jimmie Allred, resides in Wichita Falls and is a West Texan.

George Sheppard, now serving by appointment as Comptroller, was nominated in the first primary. He was born in Taylor County and his home for long years has been in Sweetwater.

Charley Lockhart, who was nominated for State Treasurer Saturday is a West Texan. For many years he was county treasurer at Snyder, Scurry County, and has been a clerk in the State Treasurer's office for the past ten years. He is a brother of Judge G. E. Lockhart of Lubbock, formerly of Tahoka.

Advertising pays—usually. But someone has pulled a hot one on the musicians of America who are carrying a series of advertisements to combat the talkies. The plea is that 30 musicians have replaced 15,000 or more through the introduction of talkies. The musicians are mistaken if they think the people of America are going to be greatly wrought up over the inconvenience that the talkies have caused their profession. But when the public benefits, there is little sympathy for those who are inconvenienced or who have to change their mode of making a living.—Canyon News.

Texas brought in 2,295 new oil wells during the first six months of 1930.

It is estimated there are more than 22,000 methods of using natural gas.

E. O. Thompson, Amarillo, Throws Light On Ferguson and Owsley

The campaign is over. The election is a thing of the past. Yet there were two features of the address delivered here by Mayor E. O. Thompson of Amarillo on last Thursday afternoon that may be of value for future reference, and hence we record them briefly.

Ferguson Favored Bond Issue
The first of these was the revelation that Jim Ferguson himself had at one time favored a state highway bond issue. Thompson read from the Ferguson Forum of May 25, 1925, a front page editorial in which it was stated that Joe Burkett, then highway commissioner under Mrs. Ferguson, had proposed a state highway bond issue of $1,500,000, and Ferguson editorially approved the proposal. He pointed out that a 3-cent gasoline tax would be sufficient to take care of such a bond issue and that by this means a completed system of state highways could be paid for in fifteen years.

Why Owsley Faced About
Another feature of his address was an explanation as to why Col. Owsley, who had spoken here on the previous day in behalf of Mrs. Ferguson, had flopped over to the Ferguson side of the fence after having supported Sterling in the first primary. Immediately following the first primary, according to Thompson, Owsley went to Sterling and proposed that he be made his campaign manager in the run-off for North Texas. The suggestion was favorably received by Mr. Sterling and he referred Owsley to his general campaign committee. Owsley went to the Sterling headquarters and laid his proposal before them, stating that he figured that it would require $250,000 to carry North Texas for Sterling. The committee promptly declined to furnish him the $250,000, and it was only a few days thereafter when Owsley took the stump for the Fergusons.

So this is the kind of bird that came to Tahoka charging that Ross Sterling had bought up the support to all the newspapers of Texas, including The Lynn County News. The charge was as false, as it was malicious and deserves the utter contempt of every newspaper editor in Texas. In fact, we are unable to find decent words in the English language strong enough to express our contempt for such a lie and for the so-called man that concocted it.

In this connection, we desire to say that we regret that so respectable a gentleman as Bob Murray of Lubbock was also led to repeat this scurrilous slander on the newspaper men of Texas in the short address that he delivered here.

are darn few country papers in Texas that would barter editorial opinion. The few that would do this are without influence and could do very little one way or the other.

All in all, it appears that Mr. Foster unjustly clouded the motives which actuated a great number of his contemporaries. More than that, he is guilty of a stupendous tactical error.

It is most regrettable that Mefo erred so grievously. He should retract at the first opportunity.—Editorial Digest.

WHAT OTHERS THINK

MR. FOSTER ERRS

Seeming to violate all the accepted traditions of formal architecture, there is perched atop the Press Building in Houston a sort of sentinel-box office. It is the sanctum of M. E. Foster, familiarly known as Mefo, who is editor of the Houston Press and once upon a time was editor and publisher of the Houston Chronicle.

From these sublime heights where he woos the Muses and steeps himself in lofty contemplation, Mefo issued a diatribe against the editorial integrity of the weekly press.

Stripped of its Mefonian symmetry and beauty, the charge was that the lure of a substantial ($30.00) check for political advertising had swung the state's weekly newspapers into line with the forces which supported a certain wealthy candidate for the governorship.

In other words, Mr. Foster weighed the editorial integrity of the weekly newspaper against the power of thirty almighty dollars, and found the integrity wanting. In view of the depression, it was observed, many publishers were certain to be in "distressed financial circumstances."

In an hour of vicious abandon, other men, in other times and other places, have tumbled down upon their heads the friendship of a tremendous following—a structure they had spent a life-time building.

To some extent, Mr. Foster has done a comparable thing. Men who have admired him, and men who have loved him, were impaled upon the poisoned shafts of his insinuations. It was a wholly unnecessary and unjustified sacrifice of life-time friendships.

A storm of protest followed distribution of the Foster editorial. Texas editors might pardon reflections upon their ability or their reasoning, but an attack upon their motives and their integrity was a thing which could not be condoned.

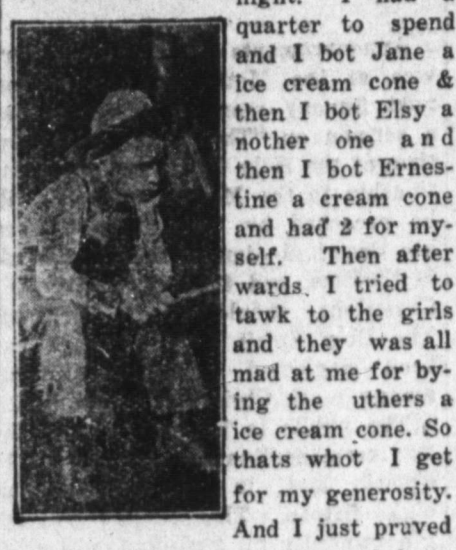

Said the editor of the Mabank Banner: "The Banner editor may be poor as h—, but there isn't enough money this side of that place to buy its editorial policy."

Somewhat similar was the reaction of the editor of the Brady Standard: "The Standard accepted the Sterling advertising—and the Standard editor voted for Jim Young in the first primary. The Standard would accept Ferguson's or any other candidate's advertising. Its advertising columns are its stock in trade; they are for sale to any legitimate buyer. It's editorial columns and opinions are for sale NEVER!"

Upon this same subject the editor of the Yorktown News had this to say: "The country editors of Texas should resent the charge being made in some quarters that the editorial opinion of the said country papers was being influenced on account of the advertising that was placed by friends of Ross Sterling. We are surprised that M. E. Foster, well known columnist of the Houston Press, would assert that such was being done. Foster, among other things, stated that some of the country papers were in great financial distress and would probably support Sterling because of the advertising money spent in their columns, or something to that effect. WHAT DO YOU GET FOR YOUR MONEY?

One man working for $7 a day can put up a cheap job on a building; while another man working for the same pay can put up the building quicker and more substantially—that's the difference in the men.

One grade of building material may be used on the job and will last for many years; OUR grade will enable the builder to do a better job quicker, will finish better, will last longer—that's the difference in materials.

Which is the cheaper?

Co-Op Briefs

Chillicothe business men are signing a contract for a sub-office at that place. The first bale of the 1930 season has already been received there.

Many farmers in Floyd and Motley counties are signing marketing agreements, the Plainview office reports 90 per cent of the acreage having been signed in the Plomont community.

Congressman Thomas L. Blanton says: "Your government is now sincerely trying to extend its aid to the agricultural interest. It is impossible for it to help the farmer individually. It can render aid to an organization such as the Texas Cotton Cooperative Association, which is the only one of its kind operating in the State."

An average of 2,000 bales daily are being marketed through the Corpus Christi office. The season total up until August 14 was 21,154 bales, a gain over last year of 600 per cent through the old Farm Bureau.

Although in the worst of the drought area, a number of farmers in the Ralls-Crosbyton area are signing marketing agreements.

Advances on cotton in the TCCA seasonal pool are $50 per bale at the present time.

F. R. Friend, vice president First National Bank, Lubbock: "When the federal reserve banking system was started, half the bankers of the nation opposed it, but now they would not and could not get along without it." The TCCA is operating under this same supervision.

At Sundown, Hockley County, where a crop average of nearly three-quarters of a bale to the acre is expected, 80 per cent of the farmers have signed up to market their cotton according to the Federal Farm Board plan.

Levelland business houses recently closed their doors, and 45 business men joined in a campaign resulting in the signing of 400 farmers to the marketing agreement.

WHEN THE CONOCO MAN ASKS "ETHYL?" say Yes! and you'll say it again

THE next time you drive into a CONOCO station, the man at the pump will ask you a one-word question. "Ethyl?", will be his query.

And in justice to yourself and the car you drive, we urge you to answer, "Yes!"

For Ethyl, added to CONOCO, the gasoline we're proud of, is like seasoning added to food. As seasoning brings out taste and deliciousness, so Ethyl brings out the qualities which have made CONOCO Gasoline famous.

Ethyl stops the knock that makes the foot retreat from the accelerator when you would rather "bear down" harder. Ethyl stops the knock that forces you to shift gears on hills. Ethyl stops the knock that embarrasses you when you let in the clutch in traffic.

So when the CONOCO salesman asks, "Ethyl?" . . . Say, "Yes!" . . . and you'll say it again.

You Can't Train An Athlete On Nothing But Climate!

EDITOR'S NOTE

The University of Southern California's victory at Cambridge this spring, (its third in ten years in this historic annual meeting of college athletes), was not only a decisive triumph for the men competing but also a practical demonstration of the soundness of their training methods. We have asked Mr. Cromwell to tell us something about what he feeds his men, how he kept them fit during the long trek across the country, and what he considers the most important factors in keeping in trim, not only for competitive sports, but also for every day life.

—EDITOR.

By Dean B. Cromwell

(Track coach of the University of Southern California—winners of the 54th annual I. C. A. A. A. meet at Cambridge, Mass.)

It is quite understandable that track enthusiasts, in reviewing the fact that nine of the last ten I.C.A.A.A.A. meets have been won by teams from the Pacific Coast, draw the conclusion that climate must be the complete answer to the question, "How do they do it?"

Dean B. Cromwell

There is no question that athletes in Southern California do have greater opportunity to train in the open, but in my opinion, at least as far as my own men are concerned, it's more what they eat that gives them the drive and stamina to win meets.

It has been my experience that the greatest handicap an athlete has to overcome in building up his body is to take care of the "ashes," as I call the residue. And with this in view, I always have emphasized the need for roughage to provide bulk in the diet. This is gained through eating fibrous or leafy vegetables and plenty of those cereals which have the necessary cellulose designed to give a "vegetable" effect.

One of the things of which I am proudest is the fact that I have developed in my men a wholesome attitude toward this need for proper elimination of the "ashes" through including quantities of bulky foods in their diet.

They wade into a meal of vegetables, salads or cereals with a seat that shows their appetites are in complete accord with these sound views on diet. They eat these foods; they like them; and all the rest of their lives, long after they have left college, they will continue to employ this natural means of keeping fit. For breakfast, I feed my men fruits and cereals that have the bulky qualities necessary to achieve the desired "vegetable effect." Among such cereals, one which I find particularly palatable and effective is whole rice. This delicious breakfast dish offers its cellulose bulk in an unusually smooth form.

For lunch, I see that the men eat salad—and by salad, I mean SALAD—not one of those dainty little affairs one finds at the Ritz, but big heaping plates of leafy and fibrous vegetables.

Here again, you see, I keep in mind the need for ample cellulose to help get rid of the "ashes."

Dinner includes meat—and more vegetables. You will notice that roughage, in the form of cellulose derived from one type of food or another, thus has been included in every meal. My experience in bringing twenty men East for the meet at Cambridge this Spring strikingly illustrates what such careful dietary habits will do. Here were twenty men, keyed up for the big track meet of the year, yet forced to remain idle for a whole week during their monotonous trip across the country. Not one man, however, with the single exception of Frank Wykoff, varied a pound from his normal weight. And Wykoff I was deliberately allowing to put on a bit of weight as he burns up three to four pounds in a single afternoon's competition in the 100-yard dash.

Such eating habits are as worth cultivating by the average office worker as they are by an athlete in active training. We all feel better, have more pep, and are capable of better work when we are not burdened with poisonous "ashes" which diets deficient in cellulose are unable to remove. Try including more fibrous and leafy vegetable foods in your daily diet. Eat more food which can supply this vitally necessary "vegetable effect," and you will not wonder at the consistency of Southern California's athletes. Nine-Tenths Preventable

Nine-tenths of all the diseases of the American people can be traced directly to constipation, doctors say. Constipation throws into the system poisons which taint and weaken every organ of the body and make them easy victims for any germs which attack them. Prevent constipation and you will avoid nine-tenths of all diseases, with their consequent pain and financial losses. Herbin, the good old vegetable cathartic, will prevent constipation in a natural, easy and pleasant way. Get a bottle today from

CAPPER MEDALS TO TWO BEST GIRL CANNERS IN COUNTY

Special awards by Senator Arthur Capper, of silver and bronze medals to the two 4-H club girls who enter Lynn County's best jars of home canned fruits, vegetables and meats in the National Canning Contest at Shenandoah, Iowa, is announced in a message to the News from Shenandoah, Iowa, where the contest is being held under the auspices of the Household Science Institute.

Senator Capper, long a friend of the 4-H clubs and a member of the National Committee on Boys' and Girls' Club work, in making the awards said that he hoped these awards would serve to encourage home canning work among farm girls and that they would prove of value to 4-H Club leaders and extension workers in furthering this work.

The Capper medals are in addition to the list of 470 prizes totaling $4,250 in cash, loving cups and ribbons which will be distributed to the winners in the contest. The grand sweepstakes award of the contest carries with it a cash prize of six hundred dollars.

The contest is open to every woman and girl. There are no restrictions as to the nature of the food sent. Contestants may enter the fruit, vegetable or meat division, any two of these divisions, or all three. Entries should be sent immediately upon canning. These will be kept on exhibition at Shenandoah till the closing of the contest on October 1st.

The list of contest judges includes five of America's outstanding home economics experts and nutrition authorities, headed by Dr. Louise Stanley, Chief of the Bureau of Home Economics, U. S. Department of Agriculture. That the judging may be thoroughly impartial and the display of jars absolutely uniform, contestants are required to send their entries in standard glass jars of the quart size. A sample Ball mason jar and carton, together with prize entry labels and full information for entering may be had without cost by writing the National Canning Contest, Shenandoah, Iowa.

Any preferred method of canning may be used although it has been found that the hot pack method together with the use of a pressure cooker for the sterilizing is best, especially for non-acid vegetables. states Grace Viall Gray, nationally known canning expert who is secretary of the contest. This method of canning is recommended by the U. S. Department of Agriculture because it saves time and fuel and assures sterility, while preserving the natural flavor, color, and texture of the canned article.

MANY RODEO STARS TO BE AT THE STATE FAIR RODEO

DALLAS, Texas, August 27.—The leading rodeo performers and stars of America are sending in entry blanks for the 2nd Annual Worth Championship Rodeo which will be held during the first ten days of the State Fair of Texas in the Livestock Building, Oct. 11 to 20, it has been announced here by Col. C. F. Hatley, arena director.

The success of last year's championship contest and the large prize moneys being offered winners of the various events this year has attracted such stars as Yakima Canutt, Chug Wilson, Paddy Ryan, and winners of the Calgary Stampede, the Pendleton Round-up, and other events. The State Fair Championship contest will close in sufficient time to enable all contestants to reach New York City before the opening of the World Series Rodeo to be held at Madison Square Garden.

Steer wrestling, bronc riding, fancy riding and roping, cowgirls bronc riding, wild horse scrambles, wild cow milking, buffalo riding and many other special and novel events are being arranged for the State Fair Rodeo.

Lamesa Milk Plant Products On Sale

The Lamesa Milk Plant, which began operation July 22, promises to become a manufacturing industry that will be of great benefit to the entire South Plains, says Wm. Wittcamp, manager, who has been in Tahoka several days this week.

Though running far from the final capacity of 110,000 pounds of milk every twenty-four hours, the plant has already increased its consumption 6,600 pounds to from 9,000 to 10,000 pounds daily. Production will be increased as rapidly as a market can be secured for the products. People of this section are being urged by the Milk Plant and the Lamesa Chamber of Commerce to buy the products because the more the plant sells the more milk they will have to have, thereby giving the farmer and dairymen a chance for a better living.

"Sunburst" has been selected as the trade name for the products, which include pasteurized sweet cream butter, powdered milk and sweet cream. Butter and sweet cream are being placed on sale over the south plains at retail establishments while powdered milk is sold to bakeries, ice cream and candy manufacturers, bottling works, etc.

Nine trucks are operating out of Lamesa and O'Donnell to gather in the milk and Mr. Wittcamp states that the truck line is being operated over the southern part of Lynn County. Lines will be extended around Tahoka as farmers apply to them for sale of their milk. At the present time, 45c per pound is being paid for butter fat delivered at the plant. A charge of 25c per hundred is made by the truckers, who will pick up the milk or cream daily at the farm. All off grade or sour milk, however, is rejected.

The Lamesa Milk Plant, located in the north part of the city, was erected at a cost of $200,000, through the sponsorship of the Lamesa Chamber of Commerce and a few other men. The directorship is made up of O. B. Norman, president; Mr. Shew make, O'Donnell, vice-president; J. E. Barron, secretary; and S. L. Forrest, treasurer.

Six men are being worked in the plant at present, and two in the field, in addition to the nine truckmen who gather the milk. Mr. Wittcamp, manager, is from Wisconsin.

Tri-State Fair Will Be Larger

AMARELLO, August 20.—Thursday, September 25th, has been set aside by the directors of the Tri-State Fair Association as Tahoka Day and all residents of that county are extended a special invitation by Wilbur C. Hawk, president of the association, to attend the fair on that, their own day, or any other day.

Under plans now being completed by the association this year's fair will far surpass that of any previous year Mr. Hawk said yesterday, in outlining the progress made by the fair officials during the months they have been engaged in booking attractions for the midway and in arranging contests which will include every type of exhibit that might be entered.

Cash prizes, aggregating $18,000 will be paid to exhibitors at this year's fair. Of this amount $5,000 will go to beef cattle exhibitors; $3,000 to dairy cattle exhibitors; $3,000 to swine exhibitors; $3,000 will be paid in agricultural premiums and $500 to exhibitors of pet stock.

A zoo crammed to overflowing with animals of every type will be one of the attractions.

A new automobile building costing more than $25,000 is being erected for this year's fair and will be completed September 1.

The largest exhibition of farm implements ever shown at a fair in any part of the United States has been arranged for and will be on display. Each night before the grandstand Ernie Young's Revue in "Spanish Nights" will be given.

Each afternoon Leonard Stroud and his troupe of trick and fancy riders will entertain the crowds, while other riders will vie for prizes aggregating $6,000 to be given to the winners in the rodeo contests which will be staged daily.

"The attractions outlined above are only a few of those arranged by the association to make this year's event the biggest and best ever," Mr. Hawk concluded.

Noticing that his chickens responded to his whistling, a Gunning River, N. J., poultryman had a radio installed in his chicken house and arranged for concerts at 3 o'clock in the morning. He reported that his hens got up earlier and went right to work, laying more eggs than ever before.

Texas has three electrically lighted baseball parks for night games—Houston, Waco, San Antonio. In the United States 38 cities are playing night baseball.

Would You Know One If You Saw It?

If you ever came face to face with a germ, would you recognize it? Of course it is not likely that you ever will see a germ, unless you own a tremendously powerful microscope, for you would have to magnify one over a thousand times to make it as big as a pin head. But you should recognize the fact that these tiny germs can get into your blood streams through the smallest cut, and give you typhoid fever, tuberculosis, lockjaw, blood poisoning, and many more dangerous and perhaps fatal diseases. There is one sure safeguard against these dangers—washing every cut, no matter how small, thoroughly with Liquid Boraxone, the safe antiseptic. You can get Liquid Boraxone at THOMAS BROS. Mrs. Ferguson received 1447 votes in Lynn county (Saturday, August 13) for Sterling. Since she received 1102 votes in the county in the first primary, she gained 345 votes in the run-off. Since Sterling received only 73 votes in the first election, he gained 1321 votes in the run-off.

By reference to the tabulated returns found elsewhere in this paper, it will be seen that Sterling carried seven boxes in Lynn county and Mrs. Ferguson carried seven. Sterling led in North Tahoka, South Tahoka, O'Donnell, Draw, Grassland, Three Lakes, and West Point. Mrs. Ferguson led in Wilson, New Home, Gordon, Morgan, Magnolia, Dixie and Newmoore.

LARGE VOTE IS CAST IN LYNN COUNTY

would be separated under the law. Several candidates announced for the new office of tax collector. Mr. Cade and Mr. Brewer went into the run-off. Neither of them has held office in this county before. Each was no doubt well qualified for the position. Mr. Cade was successful in Saturday's primary and will soon become a citizen of Tahoka.

Neither Mr. Thomas nor his unsuccessful opponent for tax assessor has held office in this county before. Mr. Brown was a candidate for the office against Jim Weatherford two years ago and made a most creditable race. He became a candidate this year and succeeded in getting into the run-off. Mr. Thomas has long been a resident of Tahoka, is a splendid gentleman, and is well qualified for the office.

A slightly larger vote was cast last Saturday than in the July primary. A total of 2948 votes were polled Saturday against 2913 in July. In the race for sheriff, 2932 votes were cast Saturday against 2909 in the same race in July. The vote for governor in July, however, amounted to only 2778 votes, while the vote in this race last Saturday totaled 2841.

COUNTY SCHOOL BOARD MET HERE LAST MONDAY

the county superintendent. This assessment will be chargeable against these 1117 pupils alone just as heretofore, according to county superintendent H. P. Caveness, for the reason that the new law which was ostensibly designed to subject all school districts to this assessment does not affect school districts exempt from county supervision by special acts of the legislature, according to the construction placed upon the law by the state superintendent of public instruction and the county superintendent.

The county board also made a classification of the schools of the county with respect to the number of grades that may be taught. Broadly speaking, all three-teacher schools may teach nine grades, all four-teacher schools ten grades, etc. The classification of the schools of Lynn county as made by the county board Monday with one or two possible changes, is as follows:

Eleven Grades: New Home, New Lynn, Draw, T-Bar, Wells.

Ten Grades: Lakeview, Dixie, Morgan, Grassland, Redwine, Newmoore.

Nine Grades: Petty, Joe Stokes, Edith, Midway, Joe Bailey, Pride.

Eight Grades: Gordon, Magnolia, Three Lakes, West Point.

Mr. Williams declares that on the entire trip he saw no crops better than those in Lynn and Lubbock county. In the great corn belt where 80 to 100 bushels per acre are often produced, the average yield of corn will be about 20 bushels, Mr. Williams was told.

Thence due north across Terry and Hockley counties to Levelland. Thence continuing north across Hockley and Lamb counties to Littlefield.

Thence continuing north across Lamb and Castro counties to Dimmitt.

Thence northwestwardly across Dimmitt into Deaf Smith county, to Hereford.

Thence northwestwardly across Deaf Smith county into Oldham county to Vega.

And thence northward to a point three miles from Vega.

Branch Lines, Intersections
The branch line to Lubbock would start from the southwestern corner of Lynn County at a point about midway between Lamesa and Brownfield.

The Amarillo branch would be from Dimmitt northeastward, probably crossing the Santa Fe's Amarillo-Hereford-Farwell line a few miles west of Canyon.

The main line would cross the Santa Fe at Lamesa, Brownfield, Levelland, Littlefield and Hereford; and it would cross the Rock Island at Vega.

The branch line to Lubbock probably would run about halfway between the Santa Fe lines to Brownfield and Tahoka.

At Dimmitt, the main line would meet the Fort Worth and Denver's new extension from Plainview.

In spite of the low prices the six demonstration poultry flocks in Galveston county showed a net profit above feed cost of about 20 cents per hen in June. There were 3434 hens in the flocks, not one of which had less than 300 birds. The egg production averaged more than 18 eggs per hen.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

THE STATE OF TEXAS,

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Lynn County, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon J. L. Cleaveland by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in the nearest county where a newspaper is published, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Lynn County, to be held at the Court House thereof, in Tahoka, Texas, on the fourth Monday in September A. D. 1930, the same being the 22nd day of September A. D. 1930, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 10th day of April A. D. 1930, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court as No. 823, where in Gussie Cleaveland is Plaintiff and J. L. Cleaveland is defendant and said petition alleging that the plaintiff now resides and has resided in the State of Texas for more than 12 months next preceding the filing of this petition and now resides and has so resided in Lynn county, Texas, more than six months next preceding the exhibiting of this petition, that the defendant is a non-resident of the State of Texas and has been for some time before the filing of this petition, that the plaintiff and defendant married on or about the 2nd day of Jan., 1917, and separated on or about the 22nd day of September, 1929, that during the said marriage there was born of said marriage two children, a girl by the name of R.
