EPWORTH LEAGUE TO GIVE PROGRAM AT MIDWAY

The Epworth League of the Tahoka Methodist Church will present a program at Midway Sunday afternoon at 4 p. m., the News is asked to announce.

People of the community, of Tahoka, and of surrounding communities are urged to attend the meeting.

Bulldogs Lose To Brownfield; Play Floydada At Fair Today

Coach Weir Washam, the High School Bulldogs, and a large group of fans are in Lubbock today where the Tahoka team meets the Floydada Whirlwind at the South Plains Fair in a non-conference contest. Tahoka is playing again today without the services of Capt. Jack Minor, who is still incapacitated with an infected leg.

Luck was against Tahoka last Friday, and the Bulldogs lost a tight game of football to Brownfield 6 to 7, the failure of the local punter to kick goal after touchdown allowing Brownfield a one-point victory. Brownfield has a good team, however, a heavier line and a capable backfield. Tahoka played without the services of Capt. Jack Minor, who is ill with an infected leg.

Stevens, fullback, was the outstanding star in Tahoka's backfield, and Ketter played his usual good game. Benson starred at center and Edwards at end. Billie Lester, substitute halfback, played an excellent game and is likely to land a permanent berth on the team.

Tahoka's touchdown was made in the first quarter on line plunges by Stevens after a pass, Stevens to Ketter, had carried the ball to the 10-yard line. Stevens failed to kick goal.

Both teams fought hard throughout the second quarter, neither being able to penetrate the other's line for gains of any distance. Tahoka probably held the edge over Brownfield.

In the third period, Brownfield scored her touchdown and kicked goal. Tahoka was in possession of the ball, but lost it through a misunderstanding. The referee had told the Tahoka boys the down was the third, when in reality, after a line play, they discovered it was the fourth. Brownfield completed a 5-

To Speak Here

ALPHONSO JOHNSON, DIRECTOR, TRADE EXTENSION DIVISION, DALLAS CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Alphonso Johnson, director of the Trade Extension Division of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce, will speak twice in Tahoka Wednesday of next week, at the Kiwanis Club at noon and to the business men in the County Court room at 7:30 that night.

Mr. Johnson has had an extensive and varied experience in merchandising and advertising and while he has no cure-alls for business ailments he sticks to the business fundamentals that have always been safe and sane and have always built business. His program has proved very popular and very helpful to the retailers of the Southwest and in many cases he has been asked to return at the earliest possible date for more talks and more conferences.

Until recently Mr. Johnson was personnel director of one of the largest department stores of the South and for five years served as business editor of the Dallas News and Journal. He served the government as United States Trade Commissioner to Japan and is the author of a number of business articles including a survey of the possibilities of American goods in the Orient.

Criminal Cases Up Monday; Grand Jury Indicts Banker

KING CHARGED WITH SHORTAGE

Alleged To Have Misappropriated $2,500 Of Security State Bank's Funds

Robert H. King, former cashier of the Security State Bank of Tahoka, was indicted by the grand jury this week for alleged misappropriation of funds of the bank aggregating $2,500.00.

Mr. King was connected with the Bank here for the past two or three years, resigning his position a few months ago. He has always stood high here for business integrity and fair dealing. Many friends hope he will be able to clear up this charge to the satisfaction of all.

Application Made For School Aid

County superintendent H. P. Caveness made application this week to the State Department of Education for state aid for the schools of Lynn county that are eligible. Nineteen schools are applying for aid this year, the total amount applied for being $13,172. One school, Redwine, that has never made application for state aid before is included in the number. State aid in the sum of $10,051 was granted to the schools of Lynn county last year. An inspector will visit the schools later in the year and recommend the granting of aid in such amounts as he thinks proper.

Rumors Current That Potash Will Be Developed; Plan New Oil Test

Oil Play In County Still Likely

Persistent rumors are afloat in Tahoka that one of the big oil companies is preparing to drill another test oil well some time soon a few miles south of town.

While the News has been unable to get any confirmation of these rumors from any authoritative sources, yet there seems to be some foundation for the reports. We have been unable to ascertain, however, just when drilling will begin, if at all.

It is known that one of the big oil companies owns a controlling interest in the original Hart block of leases out in the T-Bar pasture, and it is believed that this company is contemplating the drilling of a well some time soon.

1406 Bales Cotton Ginned In Tahoka

A total of 1406 bales of cotton, counting round bales as half bales had been ginned in Tahoka this season up to an early hour Thursday morning. Only 587 bales had been weighed at the local yard.

Ginning has been lagging a bit this week on account of the damp weather that has prevailed. Gathering the crop is in full blast now, however, and with the return of clearing skies the fleecy staple will come pouring in more rapidly than ever.

Some farmers are yet needing hands to pick the cotton. Many hands have come to the county but more are needed. The cotton has opened rapidly and farmers are anxious to get it gathered as quickly as possible to forestall possible loss from rain and wind.

The yield promises to be a little better than estimates given before picking began.

Bill Ellis Pitched For Selma This Year

Bill Ellis, pitcher and member of the Selma, Alabama, club of the Southeastern League, returned home last Saturday. The Selma club won the pennant of the League this year, and won the distinction of having one of the best Class B clubs in the country.

BURGLARY OF LIMIT SOLVED

Churchill, Fitzgerald and Williams Indicted For Safe-Blowing In December, 1927

Before taking their recess last Friday the grand jury returned indictments charging G. V. Churchill, Dick Fitzgerald, and Curtis Williams with the burglary of The Limit in this city in December 1927.

Churchill is now in jail here while Fitzgerald has made bond. Williams has also been apprehended, we understand. Churchill formerly worked at a tailor shop here and was working here when the burglary was committed. Fitzgerald resides in Amarillo.

It will be remembered that The Limit was entered one night in December, 1927, the iron safe was taken out at the front door and dragged over the pavement down Porterfield street two or three blocks in the direction of the Santa Fe Station, thence across vacant lots and unfrequented streets to a point in the southeast portion of the town, where it was blown open and jewelry and other articles valued at about $2,000 were taken. The Limit was then owned and operated by Ross Ketter. Officers at the time were unable to procure sufficient evidence on which to base a charge or to

Kiwanians Have Fun And Music

The high school quartette composed of Robert Benson, Boswell Edwards, Clifton Janak, and Coughran Ketter furnished the music for the Kiwanis program Wednesday, singing a couple of medley numbers with Mrs. J. K. Applewhite at the piano.

The remainder of the program consisted of a little fun instigated by Rev. O. J. Hull at the expense of Judge Cain. The preacher was in charge of the program for the day.

Guests of the club were S. L. Leathers, who is here as Federal cotton classifier for the Cotton Co-operative Association, W. A. Fincher, and J. A. Williams, who are office men for the Association. They each made short talks, giving assurance that they are here to help in every way possible.

774 Bales Handled By Co-Op In Nine Days; Office Is Moved

The Cotton Co-operative Association here seems to be getting its full share of the cotton being ginned in Tahoka's trade territory, as the daily receipts of the Association show. Up till Wednesday night, the Co-Op had handled 774 bales in Tahoka, according to W. A. Fincher, one of the office men here. Receipts Tuesday and Wednesday were not up to the average on account of the damp weather that has prevailed this week, interfering somewhat with the gathering of the crop.

Daily receipts since the office opened here on Monday, September 22 are as follows: Monday 42, Tuesday 76, Wednesday 83, Thursday 96, Friday 126, Saturday 114, Monday 115, Tuesday 76 and Wednesday 46.

S. L. Leathers, Federal classifier in charge of the sub-office here, states that very few complaints have come to him from farmers who have had their cotton graded and classified in this office. A few who had

BUSY SESSION HELD BY JURY

One Indicted For Swindling, Three For Theft And One For Wife Desertion

The criminal docket in the district court here will be taken up next Monday, according to district attorney T. L. Price. The docket is comparatively light, and it is thought that it will be disposed of before the end of the week.

A number of indictments have been turned into court by the grand jury involving various offenses.

Allen Burroughs, a young man residing in the north portion of the county, has been indicted for the alleged burglary of the residence of W. N. Vandyke. His residence was entered on September 18 and a pistol, a watch and other articles were stolen. Burroughs is in jail.

E. K. Freeman, formerly agent for the Maytag Washing Machine Company, has been indicted in two cases charging swindling. He is charged with having swindled the Company for which he was the agent.

Henry Bertram has been indicted for theft of carpenter tools of value exceeding fifty dollars from John Heck of Wilson, foreman of the grand jury. Bertram has confessed and is in jail. His confession is said to implicate another party, who is now in jail at Raymondville in South Texas. These tools were stolen several months ago.

Sam Sanford returned Tuesday afternoon from Raymondville in South Texas bringing a prisoner, Sam Glover, who is charged by indictment with the theft of tools from John Heck of Wilson, foreman of the grand jury. This is the same case in which Henry Bertram is also indicted. Glover is now in jail here.

Walter Chaney has been indicted for wife and child desertion. He is in jail on the charges. Chaney formerly lived here. He was charged with seduction early in the spring. He then married the unfortunate girl but has not lived with her since, it is said.

The percentage of men this year is considerably greater than for previous years, the increase in men students being due to larger enrollments in the schools of engineering and agriculture.

Hankins Confesses; Known In Tahoka

C. B. Hankins, carpenter-preacher of Leveland who mysteriously disappeared a few weeks ago, is now in jail and is said to have made a confession admitting the commission of forgery and other shady transactions.

Hankins disappeared about August 20. His abandoned automobile was found at Erick, Okla., on August 22, and in it was a note stating that Hankins had been killed in an accident and that his body had been hidden where it would never be found. There appeared to be blood stains on the car.

Officers in Texas and Oklahoma instituted a search for the body of the man if still living and for evidence that would unravel the mystery. Mrs. Hankins employed a detective also to assist in solving the problem.

Hankins had left a wife and five children. They were said to be in rather destitute circumstances and a collection was taken for her benefit by the Baptist pastor at Plainview, Hankins having attended Wayland College in that city and having many friends there. In the meantime Mrs. Hankins undertook to collect an insurance policy of $3,500 which Hankins carried and which was made payable to her.

One day last week Hankins was discovered in a hotel in Lubbock. Mrs. Hankins had been given a tip over the telephone as to his whereabouts and she notified officers. The officers found him in a bath room in the hotel. They took him in charge and placed him in jail. He claimed that he had had a lapse of memory and that he remembered nothing since his disappearance.

But Saturday night he is said to have made a clean confession in the Hockley county jail to James Wallace, the detective who had first been employed by Mrs. Hankins to assist the officers in solving the mystery. Hankins is said to have stated in his confession that he had forged a check for $200.00 in Amarillo on September 20 drawn on the account of Dr. J. E. Nunn, capitalist, and payable to the order of "Fred Scott", that he had obtained a diamond wedding ring from an Amarillo jewelry store by identifying himself as B. E. Ferguson and making a first payment of $5.00, later selling the ring for $25.00; and that he had passed a worthless check in Lubbock, signed "Walter Williams" and drawn on the Ropesville bank as payment for a second-hand automobile.

When Hankins was arrested and placed in jail, Mrs. Hankins told officers her husband had been placed in the State Hospital for the Insane at Wichita Falls for treatment several years ago and was an inmate of the institution for three months. Whether indictments will be returned against Hankins and whether a plea of insanity is interposed as a defense in case he is indicted, remains yet to be seen.

Hankins is well known in Tahoka. For several months he was editor of The Baptist Builder, a paper published until recently by the Brownfield Baptist Association, and the paper was printed in this office. Hankins attended most of the Baptist workers' conferences held in this section, and on one occasion last spring he filled the pulpit of the local Baptist Church.

His business transactions with this office and with the business men of Tahoka were, without exception so far as we know, perfectly straight and satisfactory. His many friends here are greatly surprised at his strange conduct.

Construction to be Started on New W. O. W. Chapel and Bird Sanctuary

Carillon of 25 Chimes in Beautiful Tower of $150,000 Building on Woodmen Hospital Grounds at San Antonio, Texas

This is the architect's drawing of the $150,000 Woodmen of the World Chapel and Bird Sanctuary to be built at San Antonio, Tex., on the W. O. W. Memorial Hospital grounds.

Construction will be started immediately on the $150,000 Woodmen of the World Chapel and Bird Sanctuary on the grounds of the Woodmen of the World Memorial Hospital at San Antonio, Texas, President W. A. Fraser announced today. The chapel will be built along similar lines to the Bok Tower and Bird Sanctuary located in Florida. As part of the chapel there will be a tower which will have a carillon of twenty-five chimes.

"This will be a universal church," said President Fraser. "Regardless whether a person be a Protestant, Jew or Catholic, he or she can hold services in this church," said President Fraser. The membership of the Woodmen of the World is made up of people of all religions and nationalities and the church must be universal in order to serve our membership.

The chapel will be located on a 250 acre tract within a short distance from the Woodmen of the World hospital. Patients will be encouraged to go to chapel and worship God according to their own religions.

"The chapel and tower will be a unique architectural design," said Mr. Fraser. The outside will be of Indiana limestone. Dark oak with large ceiling beams will be used in the interior. The main stain-glass window of the church will be a production of Tiffany of New York.

The chapel will also have a patio with a beautiful fountain, especially designed, according to Mr. Fraser.

"In my opinion, this chapel and carillon tower will be one of the most beautiful ever designed," said Mr. Fraser. "It will not be large, seating only two hundred, but the beauty will be there." He said that it will be one of the show places of Texas.

A special landscaping is now being carried on, and in the bird sanctuary will be various types of birds collected from various parts of the world.

Mr. Fraser said that the chapel and the bird sanctuary will be a memorial to the departed membership of the Woodmen of the World.

Phelps and Dewees of San Antonio are the architects.

Konjola Did More Than All Other

New Medicine Proves Real Boon To San Antonio Housewife; Earns Eager Praise

MRS. T. G. MOORE

"Three years ago I began having trouble with my liver," said Mrs. T. G. Moore, 314 Mission street, San Antonio. "I was sluggish, my complexion was bad and I had dark blotches on my face. I was troubled with constipation and forced to use laxatives and purges almost daily. These conditions made me very nervous, and I did not sleep well. I felt thoroughly down and out."

"My husband and I decided to give Konjola a trial. After trying this medicine out for a few days I found it different than anything I had ever tried before. Now, after taking Konjola for a month I am feeling better than I have for a long time and am more than pleased with the results it has brought. It has done more for me than all else I tried and I am glad to endorse it."

Although Konjola does work quickly, it is best to take this medicine over a six to eight week period in the average case. Its record has made Konjola a household word in thousands upon thousands of American homes.

Konjola is sold in Tahoka at Tahoka Drug Co., and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

Any erroneous reflection upon the reputation or standing of any individual, firm or corporation, that may appear in the columns of the News, will be gladly corrected when called to our attention.

Senator Morris Sheppard says that there is just as much possibility for the wets to bring about the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment as there is for a humming bird to fly to Mars with the Washington Monument tied to its tail. We are glad that our senior Texas Senator feels that way about it, but we cannot help but fear that he is too optimistic. Just last week the Republicans of New York nominated a wet for governor on a wet platform. The Democrats in that state, with Roosevelt in the governor's chair are already committed to such a program. That the wets have set about to use both the old parties as far as possible to bring about the abrogation of national prohibition is perfectly apparent to every political observer. It may be that the Eighteenth Amendment is as safe as Senator Sheppard seems to believe but in our opinion no cause is safe so long as its enemies are aggressive and combative while its friends are inactive and seemingly indifferent. "No, we must fight to win the prize and sail through bloody seas."

The statisticians and economists and captains of industry are all busy telling us that the hard times are about over—that prosperity is just around the corner. With two straight crop failures in Lynn County, it is our time to make a bumper crop next year. So, if prices get better and we make a whale of a crop in 1931, we'll never know a year from now that there was ever anything the matter with us.

We are still for diversification. We boosted the poultry business and then the price of eggs went to the bad. We talked turkeys, and the bottom fell out of the prices paid for these lordly birds. We went wild for more and better dairy cows, but the price of dairy products has slumped and on top of that the feed crop is a failure. We advocated the sowing of more wheat in Lynn County, and now wheat has become about the sorriest crop a man can raise. But, in spite of all this, we are for diversification, for no man can live on cotton alone. The man who diversifies year in and year out, who balances his acreage between cotton and feedstuffs and possibly a little wheat, who keeps a few good dairy cows, raises a few hogs and a lot of chickens and turkeys every year, will not likely starve to death nor even go broke. We have no advice to give to anybody, but we still believe in diversification.

Less than a year ago it was announced that many of the story writers whose productions appear in numerous magazines in this country had agreed to use their talents to discredit prohibition and to bring about its abrogation. That they are functioning in accordance with this agreement is perfectly obvious to anyone who will take the trouble to run through a few of the stories that have been appearing the past few months in almost any one of our magazines. In a large proportion of them the impression is ingeniously made that the law is being flouted with impunity, the evident purpose being to create a contempt for the law.

A number of farmers have told us that they made a mistake by leaving the cotton plants too thick in the row. They say that their cotton would have made more if it had been thinned out. We have driven about considerably recently, and we have noted that where the cotton stalks are thin on the ground, the yield looks to be from fifty to a hundred per cent better. Some farmers who have not been doing so say they expect to thin their cotton out next year. We would like to see many farmers try it out next year by thinning some and leaving some thick, and noting results.

He was a man, take him for all in all, I shall not look upon his like again.—Shakespeare.

"Behold the birds of the heaven, that they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; and your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are not ye of much more value than they? And which of you by being anxious can add one cubit unto the measure of his life? And why are ye anxious concerning raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin; yet I say unto you that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. But if God doth so clothe the grass of the field, which today is, and tomorrow is cast into the oven, shall ye not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?"

Rev. John P. Hardesty of Abilene spoke briefly in the Baptist and Methodist Churches Sunday in the interest of the Child Welfare Association of Abilene, of which Rev. W. A. Nicholas is the head. This association gathers up dependent or abandoned children and places them in good homes. It is a great work and should have the support of everybody, financial and otherwise. On account of the hard times, the response here was not large, from a pecuniary standpoint, but our people will remember this worthy institution when money becomes more plentiful.

Mussolini is still brandishing the sword in Italy. A man of great ability and ambition, he seems to have the ideals of Napoleon and Kaiser Bill. The other great powers of the world should absolutely boycott any nation that makes war upon another. The world has had enough of war. The war lords should be taught that the world henceforth will regard as a murderer the man who wages an aggressive war, and that it henceforth accepts the Christian view that he is the greatest man who serves the most.

No man can tell what is going to be the outcome of this cotton So-operative movement, but it looks like now as if it is going to give a black eye to half-and-half cotton. Farmers are not likely to plant so much of it next year.

FOUR AMENDMENTS

No wonder that the voters are confused about the constitutional amendments to be voted upon in November. Newspaper writers are supposed to ascertain the facts before printing articles, for the information of the readers. But we find that various publications have stated that there are three amendments, and now comes the Dallas News stating that there are five amendments. The confusion comes about from the fact that the one amendment regarding the legislature is a double-barreled affair, providing both for a session of 120 days, and for an increase in pay together with a reduction in the mileage. This is one amendment. The others are as follows:

To provide that the supreme court may be open the year around rather than be forced to take a three months vacation every year.

To provide that the regents of the university may invest the huge permanent building fund in good securities, such as county municipal and school bonds. At the present time they may invest only in U. S. bonds.

To provide that West Texas counties may tax university lands for local purposes at the same rate and valuation as other land owners pay. Governor Moody has endorsed this amendment, as well as the board of regents of the university. It is grossly unfair to these communities to force them to pay for highways and roads through the university property and receive no taxes from the state.

The News believes that all of the amendments are good and should be approved by the voters in the November election.—Canyon News.

T-Bar

Everybody remember that Sunday school is to begin at 10:30 a. m. Brother Duncan filled his appointment Sunday afternoon.

Preaching on the third Sunday afternoon at 3:00 by Rev. Jenkins, the Baptist pastor from O'Donnell. Every one is invited to come out and hear him.

Farmers are still busy gathering in their feed crops and wishing for more cotton pickers.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Weems of O'Donnell spent Sunday evening with relatives, Mrs. Henderson and family.

Buster McMillan who has been away at work returned home last Thursday.

Misses Zelma and Callie Dorman of Dixie spent the week end with their brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Dorman.

Mr. Jim Adams and Roy Moore went to Dixie Sunday afternoon to attend the Singing Convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Ingle entertained the young people with a party Saturday night.

WHAT OTHERS THINK

When we read in the papers of this heavily loaded truck—and that heavily loaded truck side swiping some car and throwing it into the ditch, sometimes maiming and killing men, women and children, we think Jim Ferguson was right in maintaining that large trucks, who hog the highways should be made to pay a much heavier tax or be ruled off the highways. There are some truck drivers who are perfect gentlemen and stay on their side of the road, while others take the middle of the road and try to drive automobiles into the ditch, caring nothing for the loss of life or the maiming of innocent parties. Heavy trucks carrying from five to fifty tons of freight over concrete roads do more damage to said roads in a few weeks than automobiles do in a whole year. They should be made to pay a very heavy license sufficient to pay for the damage they do to said highways, or ruled off the roads altogether. Automobile drivers are paying for these concrete roads and should have the right-of-way over any heavily loaded trucks, in fact the several ton trucks should not be allowed to damage the roads without having to pay for it. Some auto drivers want to rule the heavier trucks off the road, and should it come to a vote this will likely be done.—Claude News.

Down in Abilene a few weeks ago the picture shows opened on Sunday. The preachers and church workers united in urging the county and city officials to enforce the Sunday laws, which prohibit picture shows on Sunday. County and city officials got busy and began filing complaints against the proprietors and operators. For several weeks the war was on. Juries convicted the show people in almost every case tried. Then the show people filed an injunction suit against the officials. The upshot of it all was that the show people came into court a few days ago and agreed to close their doors and obey the law hereafter if the officials would dismiss the cases pending. The proposal was promptly accepted and hereafter Abilene is to have no picture shows on Sunday. This law ought to be enforced everywhere or repealed.

O'POSSUM SEEKS REST IN HOTEL

J. Marvin Humphreys, night policeman, believes that there is something to this evolution business after all. He bases his belief on the fact that o'possums are beginning to leave their hiding places in the woods and are seeking repose in the hotels of this city.

Mr. Humphreys was making his rounds last Sunday morning and around 1 a. m. entered the lobby of the Memphis Hotel. But just as he opened the door into the building he was met by a large o'possum coming out. Mr. Humphreys says that it was one of the largest he had ever seen.

Mr. Humphreys' belief is that the "possum" had grown tired of the noise and hustle of the woods and had wandered into the city to find repose, and had gone to the Memphis Hotel to register for a room. There he found that o'possums were not welcome as guests and was forced to leave. Mr. Humphreys gave chase and captured the animal before it had a chance to get away.—Memphis News.

No action has been taken in Canyon or Randall county regarding the proposed extension of the T. & P. railroad. In fact, this community has not been asked by the railroad to assist in the matter. The engineers, in making the survey stated that they were directed to go six miles west of Canyon because it was stated that Canyon did not want the railroad. In view of the fact that the citizens have not been interviewed either pro or con, the T. & P. should not take such an attitude. It is true that most Canyon people assume that the grant will not be issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission for the extension, and do not see how the road would greatly help this section, yet no opposition has been expressed if the railroad is to build, and certainly want the road if it comes this way. Announcement of Tuesday that the road would run north from Vega almost insures that the branch from Dimmitt to Amarillo would be little more than a branch, and of very, very little benefit to anyone.—Canyon News.

The word "booster" has been so severely overworked that most chamber of commerce secretaries do not use the word any more. And when you come to think of it, a community builder is worth more than a dozen boosters.—McLean News.

The Tech College through its president, Dr. Horn, has endorsed the movement started by Gov. Moody against bootleggers who sell to college students. If bootleggers would confine their trade to the old toppers they would not hurt matters much, but when liquor is sold to young people, that happens to be somebody else's business, and they should be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. But, outlaw liquor dealers had rather risk selling to young people than older ones as a general thing.—Terry County Herald.

A view of the farming section of this county convinces us that we have a section that is beyond question the most fertile in the entire state, and makes us believe that it will be only a short time until all available land is settled. We're coming to the front mighty fast, and people seeking homes are pouring in to our section by the hundreds—we're making gratifying progress.—Ropas Hustler.

The Shamrock chamber of commerce keeps a complete file of the local newspaper in the secretary's office, and we are told by Secretary Guy Hill that its pages are referred to constantly by both local and out-of-town citizens. The city council of McLean keeps a file of The News as a matter of record for city happenings.—McLean News.

According to the fiction magazines every person in high society spends just about all his or her time absorbing cocktails, and other hard drinks. When not engaged in drinking these, characters are breaking other laws. Much of the popular contempt for law can undoubtedly be traced to this source.—United States Publisher.

Petty

Most everybody is busy in this community pulling bolls and gathering what little feed there is. We can't see how the farmer will get by on low-price cotton and no feed. Most of the stock will start in the winter poor. We can't sell cream, for the price of cream won't feed the cow, and we have to have feed for our chickens or we can't sell eggs. So some one please tell us how we are going to get by and make another crop.

Brother Nowlin of Lubbock preached to a large crowd at Petty Sunday at 11 and also Sunday night. We also had a large crowd at Sunday School Sunday morning.

Our new school house will soon be complete and school will start soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Baker and family were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Warren last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Owens were called to Morton last week end on business. George McCracken and Allen and Woodrow Rowan visited in Lubbock Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Smith and Mrs. Jewell Smith visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lowe Sunday.

Burnett Smith and Brother Nowlin visited at Dixie Sunday afternoon.

Some of the Petty folks are attending the fair at Lubbock this week. Wednesday was children's day and they all expected a big time.

R. B. Nowlin has just returned from Coryell county, where he went after Mrs. Nowlin's father and mother, who have come to live with them. We are glad to welcome such people as Mr. and Mrs. Locke.—Reporter.

Locals

J. M. Slaughter of New York City, vice-president of the Sales Company of the Sinclair Oil Company, left Sunday after a four days visit here with his sister, Mrs. W. O. Henderson. Mr. Henderson says that Mr. Slaughter was delighted with our climate out here on these plains.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Henderson moved to Amarillo last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Massengale have moved into the Henderson residence here. The Hendersons have property interests here and will be back often to look after their interests and visit friends.

J. J. Massengale has received several messages from B. R. Tate advising that his daughter, Gaynelle, is doing nicely following an operation for an affection of the arm which she underwent in a Temple sanitarium last Friday. Mrs. Tate is also taking treatment in this institution.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Anderson are the parents of a fine little lady who came into their home at an early hour Monday morning. Mother and babe are doing well and the boys around the barber shop say Bill is having a whale of a time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Blanchard and baby of Flat, Coryell County, were here the first of the week visiting Mrs. Blanchard's cousin, V. A. Botkin. They left Tuesday for Bailey county, where Mr. Blanchard owns a farm.

Mrs. V. A. Hancock of Phoenix, Arizona, who has been visiting her daughter at Lamesa the past few weeks, spent the first of the week here as the guest of Mrs. H. W. Calaway. The Hancock family formerly resided here.

M. D. Martin of Oglesby is here this week looking after a farm which he owns out seven miles east of town. While here Mr. Martin is the guest of his old-time friend, Sam Reid.

Bryan Haney of Roscoe was here Monday visiting his brother, L. C. Haney.

Eddie Gaines returned last week from Dallas and says that he came back a single man.

Emmett Fleming, who has been in the employ of the Santa Fe at Seagraves the past few weeks, has returned to his former position with the same Company here.

Jim Wetsel says he knows it pays to advertise. He received many responses to his Jersey cow advertisement inserted in our classified ad column a few weeks ago.

M. E. McGaha underwent two minor operations in the West Texas Hospital in Lubbock last Sunday. He is able to be in his place of business, however.

Fred Haney, who is now with the Haney Drug Store at Roscoe, was here Monday and Tuesday visiting his brother, L. C. Haney.

Marketing Agreement Of Cotton Co-Op Is Outlined

A member does not have to deliver more than every other bale up to 20 bales—or a total of 10 bales—and may deliver all his cotton if he desires.

Any member may cancel marketing agreement after the second year.

The Association agrees to provide federally-licensed and bonded graders to classify and grade members cotton.

Members selling through the daily pool shall receive the full market price for their cotton at the time of sale.

Members delivering to the optional pool shall have the option of fixing the date and middling base price at which they wish to sell and shall draw a substantial per centage of the estimated value of their cotton at the time of delivery.

In the seasonal pool members may draw a substantial percentage of the estimated market value of their cotton, which shall be pooled with cotton of like variety, grade and staple, and sold at such times during the year as the Association deems best, the grower in the seasonal pool receiving the average price obtained during the marketing season, final settlement to be made by July 1 of calendar year following that in which cotton was grown.

The Association agrees to turn over to members pooling their cotton in the optional or seasonal pools the full amount received from sale of their cotton less the following costs:

(1) Freight, storage, insurance and interest; (2) Handling charges not less than $2.50 per bale nor more than 3 per cent of gross resale value of cotton delivered (for which handling charge the Association performs all services ordinarily performed by street buyers, brokers, shippers or exporters, who also include their profit in figuring out price they pay the grower) (3) 1 per cent for reserves for credit or financing, provided in no event shall more than 50 per cent of such reserves be invested in physical properties, and each member's share of such reserve shall be refunded to the members in 10 years.

When the growers in a district shall have delivered in a given season at least 100,000 bales of cotton, they may organize an independent association, affiliated with the American Cotton Co-operative Association and the Federal Farm Board, and in that event all property rights of such growers as well as reserves, shall be credited by such new association to the growers individually.

A membership fee of $10.00 is charged new members to pay costs of organization. This is a life membership, payable only once and is deducted when final settlement is made on sale of cotton.

D. A. Parkhurst, who went down to the lower Rio Grande Valley last week just to take a look, says that 'the half has not yet been told about that country. It looks like a paradise. Evidences of prosperity are to be found on every hand. The only objection he has to the country is that a man can work himself to death there. As soon as one crop is harvested another can be planted. He says they are planting gardens there now to be harvested early in December. McAllen shipped 27,000 car loads of garden truck last year, he says. About ten acres of land a all that one man can handle but land is worth from $250.00 to $3,000.00 per acre. The higher priced lands are set with fruit trees, which bear unbelievable amounts of fruit. Parkhurst says that if he can trade off his post office he may move down there. We understand that there are plenty of Democrats in this section who would willingly assist him in getting rid of the post office, even though they would hate to see as good a man as Parkhurst move away.

Smut Reduces Wheat Crop Profits

BESIDES CONTROLLING STINKING SMUT, CERESAN INCREASED YIELD 6.9 BUS. PER ACRE FOR ONE LARGE GROWER.

THE wide-spread campaign to enlist growers in a real battle against wheat smut, that fetid-smelling fungus which has been taking an annual toll of something over 10 per cent in the producing sections of the country, appears to be making real headway. Facts about the danger of stinking smut and methods for controlling it have been widely spread by use of farmers' demonstration trains, county agents, state agricultural colleges, and the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Losses in crop profit through reduced yield, increased production costs, and dockage for smut sometimes running as much as 20 cents a bushel, can be prevented, and, because of the tendency of the smut spores to be spread from one farm to another by threshing machines, growers in many wheat-producing sections are now cooperating in a real move to obliterate smut losses.

In the first six months' shipments of last year's Kansas wheat crop, one out of every eight cars was graded as smutty by the U. S. inspectors. Kansas farmers lost at least $1,183,000 dockage on these shipments, and this is only a small loss compared with the loss through reduction of yield which may run anywhere from a few per cent to as high as 50%. Assuming an average reduction in yield of 15%, which is not uncommon, and including dockage, the Kansas farmers lost $3,570,720 on these shipments from smut.

Extensive research and experiment by state and U. S. experiment stations, have proved the dust treatment of seed grains to be a profitable and sound agricultural practice. Reports from 22 county agents in 13 states show satisfactory control of wheat smut through dusting of seed with an ethyl mercury chloride dust. Ceresan is the name by which this chemical compound is best known. This new dust treatment is deadly to the smut spores and harmless to germination. It also prevents losses from seed-borne flag smut and seedling blight caused by seed-borne scab.

Farmers Bulletin No. 1866 reports, "Seedling blight can be controlled by proper selection of varieties and treatment of seed. After being cleaned, the seed grain should be treated with an efficient mercury dust at the rate of 2 ounces per bushel for wheat and rye, and 3 ounces per bushel for barley and oats to control the seedling blight. Ceresan and Hoechst control both of these diseases and materially reduce smut infections as well."

The fact that one big grower produced 6.9 more bushels of smut-free wheat per acre last year after Ceresan treatment of his seed than he obtained from his untreated seed, is evidence of what may be frequently expected by following the practice of treating seed wheat.

HONEY IS SCATTERED AS TRUCKS COLLIDE

Honey to the left of us; honey to the right of us; honey behind us; honey everywhere.

This might be the proper epitaph to be applied to the wreck on Highway 370 east of this city near Salisbury Sunday night, when two freight trucks crashed together. Damage to both trucks was only slight.

One of the trucks was loaded with alfalfa and sweet clover honey and was consigned to the apiaries of T. L. Gunter of Belen, New Mexico. The other truck belonged to a freight line that runs regularly thru this city.

The trucks sideswiped each other and threw both to the side of the road, the honey from the truck scattered in every direction. No one was hurt from the crash.—Memphis News

He emphasized the importance of co-operation on the part of teachers, parents, and the citizenship generally for the good of the school, and his address was greatly appreciated by those present.

Survey Begins On New Rail Route

BROWNFIELD, Sept. 29.—Surveying by a party of field engineers for the Texas and Pacific Northern of its proposed line from the Big Spring-Brownfield-Vega line north and east to Lubbock was begun today. The party arrived Saturday and located here.

A second survey into Brownfield from Lamesa shows a considerable change of the route into town. The new line will reach the townsite at the southeast corner of the city limits and thence turn almost directly north. This will save considerable purchase or condemnation of property in the city. W. L. Ford is locating engineer in charge.

Between Lamesa and Brownfield several prosperous communities will be touched by the new line, the Pride and New Home communities being among those.

Visits Brownfield
Last week Ollie D. Webb, assistant to President J. L. Lancaster of the Texas and Pacific and L. C. Porter, of the legal department, visited Brownfield. They were guests of the Rotary club Thursday noon and spoke before the club on the proposed railroad.

It is understood by local people here from conversations with railroad officials and others that the Texas and Pacific Northern contemplates operating through passenger trains into Lubbock from Big Spring.

These have declared that it is the intention of the company to make Lubbock one of its main towns in West Texas.

There has also been slight change in the route of the line from the junction point of the main line to Lubbock. The junction point, it is now planned, will be a mile north of the county line in Terry county, and several miles west of the Lynn county line instead of the junction of Lynn and Terry counties, as originally planned.

It is pointed out here that this new line between the junction and Lubbock will open up a huge territory west of Tahoka and south and west of Lubbock that is now many miles from a railroad.

Tech Will Give Extension Courses

LUBBOCK, Texas, Sept. 30.—With twenty-seven departments in Texas Technological College offering 235 subjects by correspondence and extension work, one of the best years in the history of the college is seen for this department. During the 1929-30 term over sixteen hundred extension courses were given by the college and the requests for such courses this year far outnumber those at the corresponding time last year. Requests for extension classes in various courses have come from Amarillo, Plainview, Paducah, Sudan, Brownfield, Meadow, Ralls, Crosbyton, Lorenzo, Tahoka, Leveland, Abernathy, Lockney and Lubbock. If these classes are sufficiently large, and a minimum of ten is required in each class, the courses will be given.

Application for membership in the National University Extension Association has been made by the college and in the very near future a representative of the association will visit the college to inspect the work of the department. If his report is favorable a mail vote of the forty-three member institutions will be taken.

BULLDOGS LOSE GAME TO BROWNFIELD 7 TO 6

yard pass, and Tahoka drew a 15-yard penalty placing the ball on the 5-yard line, from which point Brownfield bucked over on line plays for the touchdown and the winning goal.

Both teams resorted to passing in the fourth quarter, neither team having an advantage, and the game ended with the ball in Tahoka's possession.

Coach Washam says Tahoka showed up best on passing and punting, while Brownfield held an advantage on line plays. Tahoka's line held up well for the first three quarters but weakened in the latter.

Washam has been giving his men new plays this week in preparation for the Floydada game today and for the games the rest of the season. The loss to Brownfield does not put Tahoka out of the running of the southern division of District 2 unless Brownfield goes through the season without a defeat inside the area.

INDICTMENTS RETURNED ON OLD BURGLARY CHARGES

make an arrest.

It will also be remembered that on October 27th preceding, the Santa Fe stations here and at O'Donnell were entered and some money stolen. Churchill, Fitzgerald and wife, Mrs. Edna Fitzgerald, have also been indicted by this grand jury for these burglaries. Santa Fe officials have been working on the cases ever since the burglaries were committed and recently Churchill is said to have made a confession implicating Fitzgerald and wife. He has also confessed to the burglary of the Limit implicating Fitzgerald and Williams. The State expects to use him as a witness against his confederates in these cases but attorneys for the other defendants are preparing to object to his testimony on the grounds that he is an unpardoned ex-convict, according to District Attorney T. L. Price.

These cases will possibly be tried at the present term of court.

MRS. BARRINGTON DIED EARLY SUNDAY MORNING

ust 19, 1904, at Corsicana. To this union eleven children were born, as follows: Tommie, Janie, Ben, Esther, Gus, Chester, Nell, Sina, and Cleve Barrington, all of Tahoka; Mrs. Frank Henderson of Tahoka, and Mrs. A. E. Carter of Paducah. She is survived also by three step-children, Mrs. Herman Bruce of Los Angeles, California, William Barrington of Cooleege, Texas; three brothers and one sister, as follows: A. F. McGlaun of Tahoka, T. L. McGlaun and Grady McGlaun of Dona, and Mrs. D. L. Rodgers of Marlin; and by five grand children. Only two weeks prior to her death a family reunion was held at the Barrington home, all the children being present except one, Otto Barrington of Cooleege.

Mrs. Barrington was a member of the Methodist Church at Board Tree, Texas, and had been a member of this church for twenty-four years. She lived a faithful Christian life and was a devoted wife and mother. The family and relatives have the genuine sympathy of hosts of friends here and elsewhere.

THE TRUCK MENACE

The greatest menace to the safety of present day automobile traffic is the truck which is driven by a road-hoggin' nit-wit. In the past month there are few Texas newspapers but have had to chronicle the distressing circumstances of a collision in which some truck has played the villain's role.

Unfortunately, however, it is invariably the occupant of the light car who is killed or maimed.

Every light car owner at some time or other has narrowly escaped injury at the hands of truck drivers who remain totally indifferent to the rights and privileges of other traffic.

Unless these offending drivers quickly learn that the highways are owned by all the people, unless they become courteous enough to grant the other fellow half the road, an outraged public is certain to exact a terrible vengeance.

Motor freight lines, for instance, have enjoyed much of their patronage by reason of the fact that they made door-to-door deliveries in intercity freight service. After a month of traffic casualties, in which motor trucks figured a little too prominently, a great Texas railway system announced a door-to-door pick-up and delivery service in connection with railroad freight transportation. The enthusiasm with which Texas newspapers greeted the announcement was tremendously significant.

If operators of motor truck lines possess the ability to read between the lines, they should be pretty much disturbed—not so much by the railroad company's announcement as by the joy with which the public received that announcement.

Most utilities have discovered that cordial public relations are essential to their survival. Motor freight line operators apparently have not learned that important lesson. In consequence they face an emergency which can be met only by some speedy concessions to the rights of the motoring public.—Editorials of the Month.
