PROMISE CUT IN GAS RATES

West Texas Gas Co. Official Says Survey Being Made With Cut In View

A voluntary revision of present gas rate schedules is to be made by the West Texas Gas Company sometime during the summer months, according to R. F. Hinchey, vice-president, who announced Friday that a study of the schedules was being made with a reduction of rates in view. Announcement of the revised schedules will be made after a survey of the company's business in cities served by the company, Mr. Hinchey said.

"Realizing the present conditions and endeavoring to pass something of a benefit on to the customers, we are making this survey and studying possible rate schedules with a view of arriving at a rate that would be particularly beneficial during the winter months," Mr. Hinchey said. The amount of the reduction will be determined after the survey has been made, which will require some time he said.

The new schedules will likely go into effect sometime in the fall and will be applicable upon winter bills. Revision of the rates will affect the schedules in each of the 42 towns served by the company.

Work on the survey of the company's business has been started and will require most of the summer for completion, it is said.

Kiwansians Hear Unique Program

A program a bit different from the ordinary was put on at the Kiwanis luncheon Wednesday. As each man on the program drew a number, his subject was announced and he was required to speak or perform as the case might be, without previous preparation.

Rev. O. J. Hull spoke on "The Art and Science of Throwing and Branding a Calf". He did full justice to the subject, having had recent experience.

Truett Smith told of the "Value of Advertising". He didn't seem to think it had any value since his ad. last week had brought no results. He is still single.

G. H. Nelson told "How to Get Revenge on a Preacher", Rev. O. J. Hull being the object of his machinations.

"How I earned my first dollar" was the subject discussed by Dr. C. B. Townes, Judge C. H. Cain, and Al Lehman in the order named. Al Lehman declared he had his dollar yet.

The program closed with a jig contest between Joe Bovell and M. O. Bridges. Each performed with much grace and agility. Happily it was not necessary to decide who was winner in this contest.

A quartet preceded the program with Mrs. Applewhite at the piano. The secretary, W. S. Anglin, read a communication from International headquarters commending the Tahoka club for the high per cent attendance record it is making.

Much Drunkenness In Sweden—Bishop

Bishop Raymond J. Wade of the Methodist Episcopal Church, whose episcopal residence is at Stockholm, Sweden, recently stated in an address before the New York Methodist Conference, "I have frequently seen more drunkenness in Stockholm on Saturday or Sunday than I have seen in all the seven months since I returned to this country. The Civic Bulletin comments that Bishop Wade's testimony corresponds well with an article published some time ago in Current History Magazine which gave the arrests for drunkenness per 100,000 population in various cities of the world under license, as follows: Stockholm 182; Glasgow 169; Liverpool 55; London 50; Paris 47; and in Toronto and Montreal under Government sale, 88 and 83 respectively. But in New York City even under poorly enforced Prohibition the arrests for drunkenness per 100,000 of the population were only 18."—Texas Christian Advocate.

Alabamians Find Strange Animals

The Seroyer family accompanied by their guests and kinfolk, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Harrison and family and Miss Josie Grigg of Opelika, Alabama, spent Tuesday and Wednesday visiting the Carlebad cavern.

This is the first trip of the Alabamians to Texas, and they have been seeing some strange animals since their arrival last week. They saw their first jack rabbits and their first prairie dogs. They attempted to catch some prairie dogs to take back with them but failed. They did succeed, however, in capturing a number of little animals scarcely less interesting to them, some horned frogs. They had never before seen a horned frog, and for the first time they learned from observation just what old "Rip" of Eastland fame looked like. They are taking these little specimens of the lizard family back to Opelika to show their neighbors.

New Home And Tahoka Will Play

Announcement is made that the New Home ball team will be in Tahoka Tuesday afternoon to play the Tahoka team a game of ball. New Home has sent word that it is bringing a hundred visitors to the game.

Both teams have recently played the Colorado team; Tahoka winning two and losing three games; New Home winning one and losing two. The game Tuesday promises to be strenuously contested.

Finch Delegate To Firemen's Meeting

Milt Finch returned Monday afternoon from Bryan, where he attended the state fireman's convention, which was in session there three days. Mr. Finch says that the attendance was a little below the average but that a most excellent convention it was. Bryan is an old town, and Mr. Finch was greatly impressed with the many old Colonial mansions and other old-style residences which he saw there. The shade trees, too, the magnificent, he says. He was accompanied home by Mrs. Finch, who visited relatives at Hubbard while he attended the convention, and by Misses Virgie and Jettie Faulkner, who visited at Meridian.

NEW FEATURE

In this week's issue we are starting a new feature, news items from the Lynn County News of twenty-five years ago. Turn over to page three and read them. Both old-timers and new-comers are sure to find it interesting, we believe.

We will soon have another feature of interest made possible by one of the pioneer cowmen of the Plains that will be of interest to all. Watch for it.

They are busy out on the T-Bar ranch this week rounding up and branding calves. This is one of the few big ranches left in this section of the state. It contains about a hundred sections of land and is stocked with several thousand head of cattle.

If one wants to get a picture in miniature of the old West of a generation ago, he can do so by running out and watching the round-ups and marking and branding operations that are being staged on the T-Bar this week. Something of the glamour and spirit of the old days is there. Thousands of bawling cows and calves, real cow boys in chaps and spurs holding the cows together and chasing recalcitrant calves back to the herd and into the corals, the

J. T. Eason Of Joe Stokes Is Dead

The friends of John T. Eason were greatly shocked to learn of his death which occurred suddenly and almost without warning at his home near Joe Stokes at 5 o'clock Monday afternoon. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. C. Thomas, a warm friend of the family and superintendent of the New Home school the past year, Tuesday afternoon at the cemetery at Wilson, where the body was laid to rest.

Death was attributed to heart trouble. Mr. Eason had been out plowing Monday. He began to feel unwell in the afternoon and soon went to the house. Without taking out his team he went into the house and lay down on the bed, stating that he was suffering from a pain in the side. It developed that the pain was in his heart and in a few minutes he had passed away.

Mr. Eason was a man of high standing in the community, a consecrated Christian, and a member of the Baptist Church. He had been a resident of Lynn county for several years and was highly respected in every community in which he lived. He was 54 years of age, and he leaves a wife and eight children to mourn his untimely death.

Irwin Kolar, a Chicago taxicab driver, told police that a smartly attired young woman, posing as a passenger, rode around in his cab for a while and then robbed him of his money and his pants, much to his embarrassment.

RAINS COVER LIMITED AREA

Northwest Section Is Benefitted; Hail Destroys Many Garza County Crops

A heavy rain visited a large section of country, with New Home as its center, last Monday night. The precipitation at New Home is said to have amounted to 1 1/4 inches by actual measurement. It was highly beneficial to crops throughout that section.

A terrific rain and hail storm visited a considerable area lying just above the cap rock west of Post last Sunday afternoon, according to reports reaching Tahoka early Monday morning. On a number of farms the crops were almost totally destroyed by the hail and the excessive rainfall. A bridge recently constructed across a creek a few miles south of Post on Highway No. 7 was swept away also by the torrent of water that swept down from the hills.

The rainfall was heavy over a wide area, being of great benefit to crops that were not damaged by hail. It extended far beyond Post and included Close City, Graham Chapel, and Daw above the cap rock.

Need New Uses For Cotton Staple

Outlet for 250,000 bales of cotton a year would be secured through adoption of recommendations of the State Department of Agriculture that cotton bagging be substituted for the jute now generally used in wrapping cotton. Tests under actual shipping conditions proved that the lightest cotton bagging was superior to two-pound jute ordinarily used.

Another Texas State department is contributing to the problem of securing new outlets for the staple. The highway department is hopeful from one year's results on an experimental strip of road laid with cotton canvas as a base for asphaltic construction, and while three years will be needed to make the test really adequate, indications at the end of the first year are that longer period will bring no different results.

Texas and the South directly and the whole nation indirectly are vitally concerned in the securing of new markets and outlets for the crop that has done more for the economic upbuilding of American welfare in the international markets of the world than any other commodity.

LAMESA DEFEATS CITY IN GOLF CONTEST HERE

The Lamesa golf team won over Tahoka in a hard-fought contest on the local golf course last Sunday afternoon, the score being 10 to 5. Other contests are to be staged soon.

Mrs. Redman Out On $2,500 Bond

Mrs. Ola Redman, charged with the murder of Howard (Fred) Chase, was released from custody of the sheriff here last Friday, when bond in the sum of $2,500 was presented to Justice of the Peace B. F. Rogers for approval. The bond was made by citizens of Post. Mrs. Redman is represented by N. C. Outlaw, an attorney at Post.

This case will be investigated by the grand jury which will be impaneled here in October.

Tahoka Wins Two Games Off Slaton

Tahoka won two games of ball over Slaton Sunday and Monday, both games being played in Slaton. The score was 7 to 1 in favor of Tahoka in each game. Monday was the occasion of the celebration of Slaton's birthday anniversary and a great crowd of people were present to enjoy the occasion and many witnessed the ball game.

Legion Meeting At Lubbock This Week

Lubbock, June 17—A number of state and division officials of the American Legion will be in Lubbock Saturday and Sunday for the 5th Division Convention of the Legion, Glen Hess, post commander of the Allen Brothers post here, states.

From a thousand to fifteen hundred legionnaires are expected in Lubbock for the convention. The registration will begin early Saturday morning. Saturday afternoon will be devoted to a fun program, with plenty of pep, mystery, and a real prize fight thrown in. Saturday afternoon the Auxiliary will have a separate meeting in the new legion home.

New Home Wins One From Colorado

The New Home baseball team went down to Colorado and played a series of games with the Colorado team Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, winning one and losing two of the games. The score Friday was 4 to 6 in favor of Colorado; Saturday, 2 to 1 in favor of New Home; and Sunday, 3 to 4 in favor of Colorado.

Monroe pitched for New Home on Friday, Webster on Saturday, and Carl Presley on Sunday. Webster allowed only two hits and struck out 12 in the Saturday game. New Home was leading in the Sunday game until a Colorado player knocked a home run with two men on bases.

Cries Raise Chicks Under The Ground

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Crie have gone into the chicken business on a rather extensive scale this year. They now have about six hundred of the fowls, ranging in size from baby chicks to full grown hens. They are raising several different breeds, too. One of the unique features of their chicken business is that most of these chickens are being raised in underground cellars. The cellar under the house has been greatly extended until it occupies much of the space in the adjacent yard, and it is divided into five or six different compartments. These underground rooms are fairly alive with chickens. Mr. and Mrs. Crie say that they discovered last winter and spring that chickens grow much more rapidly when housed underground than when left to the mercy of sun and wind on the surface of the earth, and therefore they immediately made provision for raising their chickens beneath the surface.

Mr. and Mrs. Crie are also in the rabbit business on a small scale. They now have about eighteen of the beautiful little animals. A fish pond containing numerous lilies now in bloom, situated in the back yard, adds to the interest and attractiveness of their premises. This pond is stocked with gold fish at the present time.

LONG SOUGHT AWARD MADE

State And Federal Governments Would Put Up $2 To Our $1 For Paving

State highway No. 84 passing east and west through Lynn county has been designated also as a federal highway, according to press reports published in the daily papers last Friday. This designation extends from a point eight miles west of Albany westward through Stamford, Aspermont, Jayton, Clairemont Post, Tahoka, Brownfield, and to Roswell and Socorro, New Mexico.

The effect of this designation is that the counties through which it passes will be required to furnish only one-third of the funds with which to pave or hard-surface it. The Federal and State governments will furnish two dollars for every dollar furnished by any county through which it passes.

This gives Tahoka two Federal highways. Highway No. 9 passing north and south through the county and extending from Glacier Park, Wyoming, to Corpus Christi, Texas, was designated as a Federal highway several years ago. Uncle Sam and the State of Texas seem to be offering every reasonable inducement to the people of this and other counties to pave the highways within their boundaries.

Boy Scouts Of Graham Here

A touring party of Boy Scouts, 47 in number, spent Saturday night here. Including scoutmasters and other attendants, the party consisted of 61 members. A huge truck and two big trailers were being employed to transport the party, their baggage and cooking utensils. The members of this party reside at Graham, three Boy Scout troops being represented in the number. They had been touring New Mexico on a sight-seeing expedition at a total expense of $1.00 per day per boy.

Some of the boys who did not originally have the funds necessary to make the trip were given various and sundry odd jobs by the people of Graham to enable them to earn the requisite funds, according to information they gave a representative of the News. They were a well-behaved orderly set of youngsters while here and were evidently enjoying the outing very much. A few of them who had gone shirtless on part of the trip were suffering considerable pain from sun blisters, however.

This trip was obviously of considerable educational value to the boys at a very small expense. They spent the night here at the Max tourist camp.

LITTLEFIELD MAYOR PAYS FINE FOR DRUNKENNESS

According to Sheriff Crimm and Deputy Sheriff Miller, T. S. Sales, mayor of Littlefield, pleaded guilty in county court last week to drinking intoxicants in a public place and paid a fine of $37.50.

According to Sheriff, a portion of a pint of whiskey was found in Sales' car, and this will be turned over to the grand jury as evidence.

Sheriff Crimm stated to this writer that regardless of a man's position, if he violated the law he was after him just the same as he would be anyone else. Cooperation from the public is asked by the Sheriff.—Amherst Argus.

Ollen G. Barnes of Chicago complained in a suit for divorce that his wife brought down an unabridged dictionary on his skull as she announced she wanted "to inject some knowledge into his head".

CLAUDE NEWS CALLS US TO JUDGMENT

Editor Hill of The Tahoka News, once a Judge and was for some time a defender of Judges and Juries decisions, in his paper, a level headed man and a splendid logician might give us some light on the decision of the two juries in Amarillo.
The first jury gave the Nigger the death penalty for shooting to death a cowboy while a second jury set him scott FREE! Judge, why this radical change from the SUBLIME to the REDICULOUS? Which one of the juries did the right thing?

Both juries could not possibly be right; one or the other was radically wrong, which one was it? How do you explain a decision of 24 men of common sense, with the right exercise of their bodies and minds —one set give the pistol toter the death sentence while 12 other men set the nigger SCOTT FREE. Please explain.—Claude News.

The editor of the Claude News writes interestingly on many subjects and we find keen delight from week to week scanning his editorial column; but the above editorial contains evidence of so much loose thinking that we take pleasure in attempting to give Mr. Waggoner some light, as requested.

The facts of the above mentioned case are not well known to us. We only know from press reports that a negro porter in a hotel killed a cowboy. The negro was tried and given the death penalty by a jury.
Later, attorneys for the defendant filed a motion for a new trial, alleging that important testimony favorable to the negro had been discovered since the first trial. Upon this showing, the court set aside the verdict and granted the negro a new trial, which was doubtless proper under the circumstances. The case was tried before another jury a few days ago and this jury found him not guilty.

Now we do not know the nature of the newly-discovered evidence.
But we can readily conceive, Mr.
Waggoner, that both juries might have been right, with the evidence they had. The evidence adduced on the first trial probably made out a clear-cut case of murder. In that event the jury was justifiable under the law in assessing the penalty at death—though it is probable that this jury was influenced to some extent by race prejudice. New evidence was adduced on the second trial. This evidence was obviously sufficient to convince the jury that the negro was justifiable, otherwise he would not have gotten a verdict of not guilty.

But, in any event, no blame can attach to the court. If there was any fault, it was the fault of the jury.
Mr. Waggoner is in error in stating that this paper has been a defender of juries. Many of our readers would be ready to testify that quite the contrary is true. We have consistently contended that the so-called failure of our courts is not chargeable to our judges but is chargeable rather to "tender-hearted" or credulous juries.

Mr. Waggoner is in error when he states that this editor was "once a judge". We did serve for eleven years as a prosecuting attorney—four years as district attorney—and it is our judgment, from observation and experience in the courts, that most district judges are highly honorable and reasonably capable.

We have great confidence in the integrity of our courts. We do not think that they deserve the criticism that many newspaper editors are in the habit of leveling at them.
If there are grave defects in court procedure, that is chiefly the fault of the legislature and not the fault of the trial judges. If there are too many acquittals and "hung juries" in our courts, that is the fault chiefly of the jurors. It is certainly not the fault of our trial judges.

And, permit us to suggest, that miscarriage of justice in our courts is often due to the propensity of some people to lie when placed on the witness stand. False testimony has caused the larger portion of our miscarriages of justice in this country. The courts certainly can not be blamed because so many men are willing to commit perjury in order to win a law suit or clear a guilty criminal. The Claude editor should not cuss the courts; it is weak, wicked, and sinful humanity that he should condemn.

We don't know what is the matter with this country. We don't pretend to know the cause of this depression. Some say that the big boys in finance brought it on. The bankers explain that it would be foolish for them to deliberately bring about a situation that would paralyze business, for that would mean heavy loss to them. Manufacturers disclaim responsibility for it; they would be silly to cripple the commercial and industrial interests of the country and curtail the buying power of the people. The railroads say they didn't do it. They are suffering with the rest of us. When we undertake to analyze the whole situation it is difficult to see how any class of our people except the big loan companies and the insurance companies that loan vast sums of money could profit from a panic or a business depression. It is now being proposed that the commercial, industrial, financial, and transportation leaders of the country hold a congress or conference to discuss the situation and to devise a "ten-year plan" that will stabilize conditions and insure against a repetition of present conditions. If these higher-ups can do anything about it we are ready for them to get busy.

We believe that there is more unrest in the country now than there has been at any other time since the dark days of the 1890's. It was the "hard times" and the dissatisfaction with both the old parties that gave birth to the Populist party in those days and threatened to sweep it into power. We believe that there is less blind loyalty to any party today than there has been in a generation. People are in a mood to hold any party in power to a more strict accountability than has been the case in recent years. It is well. We believe that the people can function only through parties and that party organizations are necessary, but most of the common folks have thrown away their brass collars.
They are not willing to be led around by a ring in the nose by any group of politicians. The man who can convince the people that he can assist most in leading them out of this wilderness of business depression is the man that will get their votes next year, it doesn't matter so much what party label he wears. And they are going to be more concerned about bread and meat than they are about booze.

About the same time that the governor approved a bill creating a new court down in the Sweetwater-Big Spring district and appointed a new district judge to preside over this court, the present judge was excusing juries and sending them home to work in their crops on the grounds that there was no pressing business in the courts for them to attend to and that they were needed much more at home than they were in the court house. All of which would indicate that there was really no pressing need for another court in that district. But in addition to the salary of $5,000 which the additional judge will draw there will be other expenses for Mr.
Tax-payer to bear incident to the creation of this court. It looks like the legislature was merely creating a soft job for somebody.

Mighty few counties are going to vote bonds with which to build highways from here on out. They are going to expect the State to build these roads with funds derived from the gasoline tax or appropriated by the federal government. In the course of time, a large part of the bonds heretofore issued by counties will be assumed by the State and the counties relieved from their payment. In the course of time also the State Highway Commission will be made an elective body. In our opinion these changes will come within the next two or four years.

It is the sensible thing to do and it will be done.

The W. M. U. Young People's Convention met in Plainview June 11, and a large number from over the district attended.

This was the first convention of the kind held in the state and it was voted unanimously to make it an annual affair. The motive of this meeting was to inspire our young people in their organization.

A splendid program was rendered throughout the day with Mrs. Owen J. Hull presiding.

After "Greetings" by Miss Frances Spence, Plainview, and "Greetings from Wayland" by President G. W. McDonald, Miss Doris Lynn Hull, Tahoka, gave the response. Miss Opal Cooper gave a report of the State Y. W. A. House Party given at Baylor College in March. Most wonderful messages from Royal Ambassadors were given by Simeon Kemp, Joe Bob Billman, Cecil Johnson, Wade Howell and James Minor. Mrs. Owen J. Hull gave a most inspiring address. A quartette was rendered by Misses Jeffreys, Hull, Maddox and Applegate.

Other young people from Plainview, Petersburg, Floydada, Hereford, Hale Center, Crosbyton, Slaton and perhaps other places had parts on the program. A beautiful pageant was given by Tierra Blanca Association.

Besides those serving on the program that went from Tahoka were: Mr. and Mrs. Howell, Misses Adele, Sarah Marie and Viola Ellis, Mrs. Cooper, Myrtle and Truett Cooper, Misses Minnie Freeman, Margaret Preston, Irma Faye Edwards, Lois Jeffreys and Lucille Kemp.

The executive board met and the following officers were elected: Mrs. Lon Smith, Floydada, president; Mrs. Lida, Floydada, Cor. Sec'y.

Miss Harrison gave an actual demonstration of setting a table and serving a meal; also showed pictures and illustrations of table linens and decorations.

These demonstrations are all so helpful I'm sure all that were present resolved to put some more enthusiasm into our table service.—Reporter.

Opinions Of Our Readers

Highway 84 Had Competition In Getting Designation

Dear Mr. Hill, Editor: You doubtless noticed from newspaper articles that Highway 84 had been granted Federal designation, commencing at Metcalfe Gap and running through to Socorro, New Mexico. You of course know that we have been working upon this for several years, but you may not know that a close race was run between our route and another one not so far away.

All towns along the route have reason to congratulate themselves upon success attained and the writer as secretary of the Fort Worth-Roswell Highway Association, feels relieved as he has been picking up the loose ends and getting ready for the final showdown for a considerable period. Very truly yours, J. E. Shelton, secretary.

Muleshoe is interested in the prospect of securing a canning factory capable of handling ten tons of vegetables daily to take care of the heavy increase in truck growing in that vicinity.

While yelling about the tax on gasoline in this country it might ease the vocal chords to know that in jolly old England there is a tax of 10 cents on every gallon of petrol sold.

Several days after Edward Hood of Solvey, N. Y., reported his wallet containing $6 stolen he received in the mail a package with the wallet and the money.

After a shutdown of eighteen months the glass factory at Wichita Falls has reopened giving employment to a hundred workers.

become restless. Mrs. Fannie Dawson left for Pecos Sunday where she was joined by her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hobbs for a two weeks' visit to the western coast. They will attend the graduating exercises at Angeles Temple, in Los Angeles, Calif., June 20, at which time 185 men and women will graduate from the Bible School of Evangelism, be ordained and licensed to preach. Mrs. Dawson's son, Floyd, is a member of this class, having completed three years study in the school. He was president of his class. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Dawson formerly lived at Wilson, moved to Los Angeles 5 years ago where he entered the school. He was practically reared in Wilson and is well known here having been in business a part of the time. Mr. Dawson is the first and only man to go from the Baptist Church of this place to enter the ministry. We do not give Floyd credit for all his success as every one who knew Mrs. Dawson, better known as Miss Inez Ketchum, know her to be a consecrated Christian woman, and has helped him to succeed. Before coming to Wilson, Mrs. Dawson was a state B. Y. P. U. worker and on coming here immediately organized a B. Y. P. U. of which she was director and president of the senior union as well as teacher in Sunday school. Mrs. Dawson also taught several years in our public school as primary teacher.

Announcement
The Methodist people of the Wilson church are making preparations for the revival which will start July 5 and continue for two weeks or until July 19, at which time they will go into a meeting at Lynn. There will be a tabernacle built so that there will be plenty of room and comfort for the people and a welcome is extended to all to attend these services. The preaching will be done by Rev. W. Bacon Morton of Abilene who is Conference evangelist.

Mrs. W. C. Huffaker is entertaining her parents who are with her for a several days visit from Leveland. Mr. Shaffner of the lower Rio Grande Valley is paying his sister, Mrs. W. C. Huffaker, a short visit. Mrs. Paul Limmer and children returned Wednesday from Hamilton county, where they have been visiting relatives and friends for several days. Mr. and Mrs. William Copecky left the latter part of last week to take up their residence in their new home at Wallace, where he has accepted a place in the school as principal. Mr. Copecky has been connected with our school as agriculture and science teacher for a number of years.

Some thirty guests were royally entertained in the home of Rev. and Mrs. Partin Friday evening, the occasion being in honor of their son's sixteenth birthday. A number of very nice presents were received by J. W., which were highly appreciated. Refreshments of cake and ice cream were served. Misses Laverne and Ethel McCormick were responsible for the entertainment. Billie Key, Noel Galloway and Alvin Crews, all being students, visited home folks last week end. Mr. J. P. Kinnard, who for several days has been confined in a Lubbock sanitarium on account of an operation, was removed to his home the first of this week. He seems to be mending fast.

A fine playlette given by the Intermediate B. Y. P. U. was enjoyed by the audience at the Baptist church Sunday evening. Mrs. C. C. McCormick, now operating a grain business in Santa Anna was visiting home folks a few days last week. Whooping cough and chicken pox are the order of the day as they have spread to a great extent throughout the community since last week when we reported a few cases. Mr. J. T. Williams left last Sunday for Alpine where he is visiting in the home of his son, Webb. Mr. and Mrs. Carter and son of San Saba are visiting in the home of Mr. Carter's sister, Mrs. W. J. West. They will likely be here several days. Mrs. T. J. Vaughn of Littlefield is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. O. A. Hines for a few days.

Rev. Partin preached at Wolfarth last Sunday afternoon. The Partins were accompanied by Miss Clara May, who was a lunch guest in their home. Mr. and Mrs. Hermon Heck were week end visitors in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Heck. Mrs. Brown Bishop is slowly recovering from an operation. It is possible that another operation will be necessary before her recovery will be complete.

Rev. Partin will preach at the Central Church next Sunday afternoon at 4:30 P. M. Ed Sanders is attending Federal court which is in session at Lubbock this week. Mrs. Herbert Schultz of Shreveport, La. is the guest of her sister, Mrs. M. J. Scaer.

Miss Leona Crews was the guest of Miss Edith McCormick last week. Carl Roberts and Floyd Heck were ill several days of last week.

We are glad to see Mrs. E. T. Crowe able to be back at her place of business.

for ANY BABY

WE can never be sure just what makes an infant restless, but the remedy can always be the same. Good old Castoria! There's comfort in every drop of this pure vegetable preparation, and not the slightest harm in its frequent use. As often as Baby has a fretful spell, is feverish, or cries and can't sleep, let Castoria soothe and quiet him. Sometimes it's a touch of colic. Sometimes constipation. Or diarrhea—a condition that should always be checked without delay. Just keep Castoria handy and give it promptly. Relief will follow very promptly, if it doesn't you should call a physician.

INDIGESTION

"My work is confining, and often I eat hurriedly, causing me to have indigestion. Gas will form and I will smother and have pains in my chest."

"I had to be careful what I ate, but after someone had recommended Black-Draught and I found a small pinch after meals was so helpful, I soon was eating anything I wanted."

"Now when I feel the least smothering or uncomfortable bloating, I take a pinch of Black-Draught and get relief."

KEEP 'EM GROWING

Chicks are an expense—until they are grown. How fast they grow—and the profit they pay you after they reach maturity—depend upon how well you feed them during the growing period.

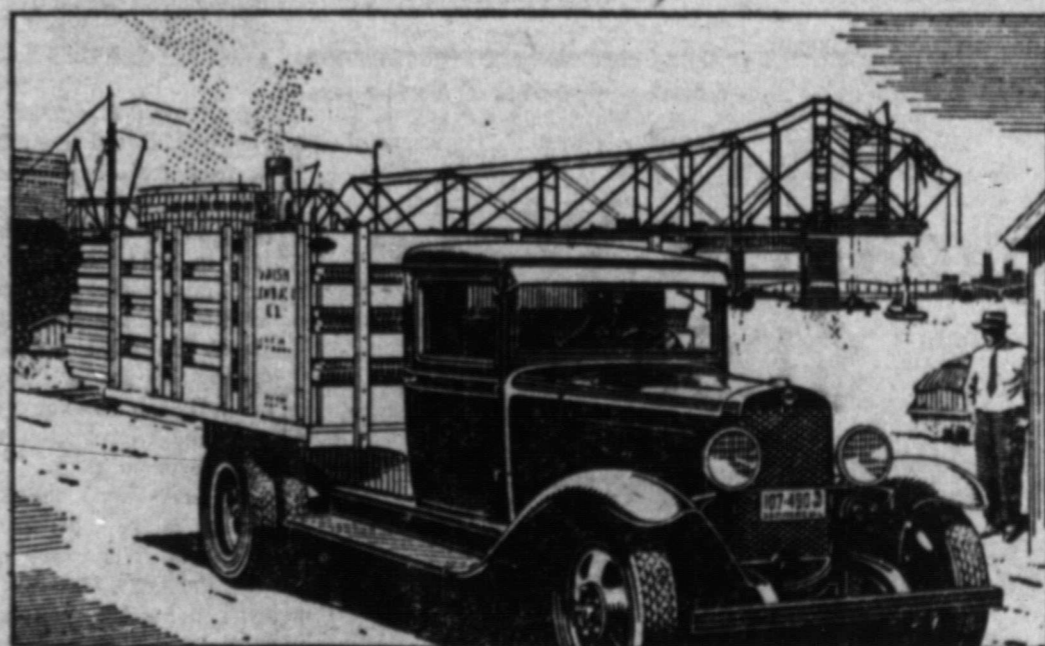

RED CHAIN Feeds are SUPERIOR Feeds

RED CHAIN GROWING MASH is growth insurance, for the present—and profit insurance, for the future. No other feed develops young chicks so surely into such husky, sturdy pullets and cockerels.

Of course it costs a few pennies more than makeshift home mixtures and cheap commercial feeds; but SUPERIOR results will convince you that it pays to keep 'em growing—with RED CHAIN.

old chuck wagons and everything—all this and much more are to be seen out there. As the old-timers here, many of whom were regular cow-punchers a generation ago, approach the scene, a new light comes into their eyes and a reminiscent mood into their minds, and they seem to live over again the old days.

Many of the younger people are going out daily and watching these operations, and as they watch they seem to catch something of the spirit of the old-timers, and in the mind's eye they try to picture the vast empire in the West that was known as the cow country a generation ago, with a hundred round-ups then where there is one now.

This ranch is owned by Cass Edwards and son, Crawford Edwards, of Tahoka and Fort Worth, while Dave Childers is the manager. The elder Mr. Edwards and his charming wife are here for the round-up and seem to be enjoying the occasion immensely. A big supper of fresh beef and accessories was served to almost a hundred people out at the chuck wagon near which the branding is being done six miles west of Tahoka on Tuesday night, and it was a most happy occasion.

About five hundred calves had been branded up to Tuesday night. About twelve hundred were branded last year, we understand, and the number will probably exceed that this year. These are all high-bred white-faces and would ordinarily be worth a big pile of money. Cows are very cheap just now, however, but their cheapness does not detract from their beauty, nor from the spirit and spectacular features attendant upon a round-up.

PAGE MR. "BELIEVE-IT-OR-NOT" RIPLEY

While Mr. Langford and Jim McCollum were repairing the Big Lake road last week, they witnessed a combat between a big rattlesnake and a cottontail rabbit.

Mr. McCollum said they heard the loud whirring of a rattlesnake in the weeds near where they were working. On investigation they saw a large rattler's head raised above the weeds, while a cottontail rabbit was making quick leaps at the creature in an effort to bite it. After watching the strange combat for a few moments, they proceeded to kill the snake, and when they did so, they found the snake had swallowed several young members of the rabbit's family, and the mother rabbit was making a heroic fight to save her little one. They found only one of the young brood left.

Mother love will make even a timid rabbit fight for its young.—Sterling City News-Record.

It is hinted at Colorado that there is a brand of joy water sold around here that is so powerful that it would cause a jack rabbit to spit in a bulldog's face, but that Sterling county brand is evidently much stronger, causing a mere cottontail to fight a rattlesnake.—Colorado Record.
