City, School Light Rates Are Lowered

CITY'S BILL IS CUT IN HALF

Judge I. R. Kelso, St. Louis, Makes Voluntary Reduction For Tahoka's Benefit

Unannounced and unexpected, Judge I. R. Kelso of St. Louis, President of the Texas Utilities Company, arrived in Tahoka last Thursday afternoon and immediately called for a meeting of the city council, before which he appeared and announced sweeping reductions in rates for street lighting and pumping the City's water and also for furnishing lights to the public schools of the Tahoka Independent School District. These reductions cover a period of one year dating from August 1, 1931, to August 1, 1932.

Street lights for the city during the year 1930 cost $2100.00. For the year beginning August 1, Judge Kelso announces a reduction in these charges of 50 per cent, amounting to $1050.00. Lights for the schools during the year 1930 amounted to $103.38. These lights will be furnished for the year beginning August 1, 1931, for only $18.54, a saving to the school district of $84.84. For the year indicated, the pumping rate for the City is to be a straight rate of 2 cents per kilowatt hour. The pumping bill for the year 1930 was $1,928.54. Based on the 1930 consumption, the pumping bill for the ensuing 12 months will be $1,356.86, a saving of $577.68. This means a total saving to the city and school district of $1,712.52.

Judge Kelso pointed out that the Texas Utilities Company paid city and school district taxes in Tahoka

Lamesa Preparing For Red Cross Aid

Dee Hull, business man of Lamesa, who was here with other members of the Lions Club Wednesday, stated to a representative of the News that this club is sponsoring a "canning campaign" in Dawson county. Next week they expect to can 5,000 cans of corn, beans, and peas to be donated to the Red Cross and to be distributed by the local Red Cross organization during the winter. "We anticipate that there will be many calls for Red Cross help this winter," Mr. Hull stated, "and we are getting ready now to take care of the situation."

Mrs. Oscar Roberts and Misses Frankie and Evelyn Wells returned Tuesday from Weed, New Mexico, where they have been enjoying the mountain scenery. Mr. Roberts remained for a few days longer.

ROB M-SYSTEM OF $58 IN CASH

Burglars Entered Building Through Skylight Some Time During Last Week End

The M-System store here was burglarized some time between the time when it closed Saturday night and when it opened Monday morning. About $58.00 in money was taken but if any merchandise was stolen the manager was unable to detect it. The burglary was discovered Monday morning when J. B. McPherson, manager, came down to open up. Unable to open the front door with his key because of the fact that the lock had been battered up, he went around to the rear door, procuring an iron bar in the meantime with which to pry it open. Upon reaching the rear door he found the screen wire had been partially torn away and the door was unlocked. Entering the store he found that a skylight had been broken out and that the intruder had entered through the skylight and descended on a wire.

Officers were notified as well as the manager at Lubbock but if any clue as to the identity of the thief or thieves has been discovered it has not been revealed.

REVIVAL OPENS HERE SUNDAY

Rev. J. F. Michael, Turkey, Will Do Preaching, Pastor of Church Announces

Beginning Sunday morning, August 16, and running for two weeks, a series of services will be held in the Methodist Church, designed to increase our faith and to help us to be more efficient in our service, first to our Lord and then to our church and community. We hope also to interest our friends and acquaintances in the greatest phase of life, namely, the spiritual side of life.

We extend a cordial invitation to all who are interested in the spiritual uplift of our citizenship and the salvation of the unsaved to come out and help us. Lend your presence, your prayers, and your interest to the meeting, and I am sure you will never regret it. There may be some one following you, and unless you lead that one to the Lord possibly he may be forever lost. The Lord can use every one of us in His great program if we have time and disposition to be used of Him.

Rev. J. F. Michael, pastor of the Methodist Church in Turkey, Texas, will do the preaching. Come out and hear him. He is an interesting speaker, preaching the plain gospel of our Lord, presenting it in an attractive way to both saint and sinner.

The music, which will be under the direction of local talent, we desire to be that type of Gospel music that will warm and inspire us all to do our very best for Him who died in our stead. So we are counting on you who sing. Come out and take your place and add your mite to the service. You will be more than paid in returns of spiritual life. Then you may help some one else. So come. J. W. Shepherd, Pastor.

6,000 Cans Given County's Women

Six thousand cans for use of persons who were given free government garden seed last spring, are to be distributed among the farm families of Lynn county, an average of 100 cans to the family.

These cans are to be used by the recipients in canning for home use the vegetables from their gardens. Members of home demonstration clubs over the county are planning to supervise the work. These women will show those receiving the cans the latest and most approved methods of canning vegetables.

Miss El Fleda Harrison, county home demonstration agent, is cooperating with Mrs. W. D. Nevels, of the Lynn county chapter of the American Red Cross, in the work of handling demonstrations. They have worked out a plan for a series of meetings at which recipients of cans will be shown the work.

Tahoka Again In S. S. Contest Lead

Tahoka increased her lead over Brownfield last Sunday in the contest being held between the Baptist Sunday Schools of the two towns, Sunday's attendance being 396 while Brownfield trailed with 349. Tahoka increased her attendance over the previous Sunday by 25 while Brownfield dropped off 67 from its record of the Sunday before.

Tahoka's lead over Brownfield for the eleven Sundays that have passed since the contest began is now 69, or just a little more than an average of six per Sunday. For the eleven Sundays Tahoka has a total attendance of 3329 while Brownfield has a total of 3251. Just three Sundays of the contest yet remain. It is very apparent that neither school has a cinch on winning the contest by any means. Tahoka's largest lead over Brownfield on any single Sunday is 47, while Brownfield's largest lead over Tahoka on a single Sunday is 59. Tahoka's smallest attendance was on May 31 with 234; her largest on August 9 with 396. Brownfield's smallest attendance was on May 31 with 204; her largest was on August 2 with 416.

The Men's Class which meets at the English Theatre here had an attendance of 72 last Sunday, the largest since it was organized.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Burnett are in Post this week.

SINGERS HOLD MEET AT DRAW

Tahoka Gets Next Convention; M. E. McCord Is Elected Head Of County Body

A large crowd, including a number of visitors from other counties, attended the Lynn County Singing Convention held at Draw last Sunday, according to M. E. McCord. He also reports most excellent singing and a great good time by everybody.

Among the visitors present were: John F. Taylor, president of the Plateau Singing Convention and a class of singers from Clovis, N. M.; Mr. Cliff, president of the Dawson county singing convention with a number of singers; Dan Faulkenberry, president of the Lubbock county convention, and four children; Mr. Chapman, Terry county president; and a number of Garza county people.

Ice tea and coffee were furnished in abundance by the people of Draw, Mr. McCord says, the visitors bringing their lunches, and many basket dinners were spread.

The next convention will meet in Tahoka the second Sunday in February. M. E. McCord of this city was elected president, Mr. Krebbs, vice-president, Louis Pirtle of Draw, second vice president, and Mrs. Fred Farris of Dixie, secretary. The advisory committee is composed of George Pugh of Draw, R. B. McCord of Tahoka, and Fred Farris of Dixie.

The Lynn County singing convention is a member of the Plateau singing convention, which embraces 28 counties of the plains of Texas and also most of the eastern half of New Mexico. The county convention meets semi-annually while the Plateau convention meets once a year. It is hoped that the larger convention may be brought to Tahoka—at some time in the near future.

Women's Clubs Planning Exhibits

Due to the fact that there will be no Lynn County Fair this year, a home demonstration exhibit will be held some time in September, the exact date to be announced next week, according to Miss El Fleda Harrison, county home demonstration agent.

Work of both the women's clubs and the girls' 4-H clubs will be on display at this time, she says.

Reports Good Meeting

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Shepherd returned Tuesday afternoon from Turkey, where Brother Shepherd has been conducting a revival meeting. He reports that there were about twenty-eight professions of faith, about twelve or fifteen additions to the church, and a decided deepening of the spiritual life of the church. It was a most excellent meeting, he says.

Masonic School In Progress Here

W. B. Bishop of Wilson is conducting a Masonic school here, the sessions beginning on Thursday of last week and they will close on next Tuesday. Day and night sessions are being held. A number of Tahoka Masons are taking instruction with a view to taking the examination to be held in O'Donnell August 19-20 by W. S. Tate of Hamilton, a member of the Committee of Work.

LAMESA LIONS VISIT KIWANIS

Guests Gave Interesting Program At Wednesday's Meeting Of Local Club

The Lions Club of Lamesa were guests of the Kiwanis Club here at the luncheon Wednesday and the visiting club gave the program for the day.

The visitors opened by giving the Lions roar and Mrs. A. G. Barnard, musical director and the "sweetheart" of the club rendered a beautiful vocal solo with an encore. Bob Kirk rendered a very ornate and oratorical discourse on "Repression" to the amusement of all present. Rev. Billie Hines, Sky Pilot for the Lions and pastor of the First Methodist Church of Lamesa, spoke interestingly on the subject of "Neighborliness". Dee Hull, president of the club, presided, and W. W. Evans, county agent for Dawson county, had charge of the program.

Truett Smith and G. H. Nelson cracked a few jokes and expressed the appreciation of the Kiwanians for the visit and the program. A number of the Lions' wives came along to grace the occasion and to see to it that their husbands performed properly, and a number of Kiwanis wives were present to welcome them.

It was a very unique and interesting program and the Kiwanians genuinely enjoyed it.

West Texas Press Meets In Lubbock

The West Texas Press Association will meet in Lubbock Friday and Saturday of this week. An excellent program has been announced. We had hoped to be able to attend this convention but we are compelled to be out of this section of the state on these two days. Here's hoping the boys have a great time.

Health Meeting Is Set For August 21

We are requested to announce that the regular health meeting will be held here on Friday, August 21. Miss Setser, the nurse, will be present. Old business will be discussed and new business will be taken up. A good attendance is desired and expected.

NAZARENES CHANGE TIME PRAYER MEETING SERVICE

The prayer meeting services at the Nazarene Church have been changed from Wednesday evening to Thursday evening. Everybody invited to attend these services.

New Home Men Pay Fines

Two men out at New Home had a fight one day last week as a result of differences arising over a ball game. One of them promptly entered a plea of guilty before Justice of the Peace J. P. Fulton but the other employed an attorney and prepared to fight his case. He changed his mind, however, and he too entered a plea of guilty and paid off Tuesday morning of this week.

W. O. Thomas left Wednesday morning to attend the druggists convention in session in Abilene.

1.11 INCHES OF WATER FALLS

Rain Lighter In Some Sections Of County, But Is Help To All Localities

Rains that covered almost the entire South Plains and adjacent sections of the state fell Sunday night and Monday morning. All parts of Lynn county received rain, though the fall in some localities was rather light. It was sufficient everywhere, however to be of great benefit to the cotton and feed crops and bumper crops are promised in some portions of the county.

The rainfall in Tahoka amounted to 1.11 inches according to the Government rain gauge kept by the News. A heavy rain amounting to possibly an inch and a half fell at O'Donnell. Wells received more than an inch, while sections lying north and east of Wilson received still heavier precipitation. Jim Izard out at New Home reports a full inch there, while an inch also fell at Cross Roads Filling Station nine miles north of Tahoka. It was much lighter, however, over a considerable territory lying between this place and Tahoka. A good rain fell at New Lynn. E. J. Emanuel reports just half an inch at his home in the Magnolia community. Good showers fell at Grassland and Redwine. Draw reports from a half to three-quarters of an inch. More than an inch fell at I. M. Draper's home in the Midway community. At Three Lakes the fall was estimated at an inch to an inch and a quarter. Wells and Newmoore received copious downpours but the precipita-

Primitive Baptists Announce Services

Services will be held at the Primitive Baptist Church here next Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock and also Wednesday night, according to J. S. Wells, Elder J. S. Newman, one of the leaders of the denomination in this state, and Elder Jack West of Stamford, well known here, will conduct the services. Everybody cordially invited.

Mr. Wells states that the Primitive Baptist Association will begin at Amherst Thursday morning and will continue over Sunday. Elders Newman and West will go from here directly to the association. Mr. Wells and family and possibly a number of other local members of the Primitive Baptist Church here will also attend the Amherst meeting.

WACO DEFEATS TAHOKA BOYS

Local Junior Baseball Team Beaten In First Game Of State Contest Friday

The Tahoka Junior baseball team had hard luck in the state contest at Waco last Friday. They were matched against Waco in the initial game and Waco won a rather easy victory, the score being 13 to 1. Being away from home and having a long, tiresome trip, the boys did not show their usual pep and proficiency. However, they were outclassed by the Waco team, it is said. The Waco boys were considerably larger on the average and had doubtless had much more training than our team. They were of almost uniform weight and played like veterans on the diamond, the Tahoka visitors say.

On the same day the Austin team defeated Dallas. The next day Houston defeated Waco and Austin in turn defeated Houston. So the state capital team were the state winners. They went immediately to Little Rock, Arkansas, to contest with that state in the preliminaries to the national contest.

In addition to the members of the team, Ed Smith, Tom Rodgers, Frank Larkin, Archie Robinette, Skip Taylor, and Buck Barnes were in Waco to witness the games.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

Any erroneous reflection upon the reputation or standing of any individual, firm or corporation, that may appear in the columns of the News, will be gladly corrected when called to our attention.

They tell us that the age of mass production is here; that with the improvement and perfection of farm machinery, farming must be done on a large scale; that in our economic system the day of the small farmer is passing. Already great wheat farmers, great corn farmers, and great cotton farmers have appeared—men who cultivate vast areas by hired labor and improved machinery. The next step is to be the organization of great farming corporations. We don't know whether these prophecies are to come true or not. It may be that this is a natural industrial development and that it is sure to come. If so, we deeply regret it; for it means the passing of the old farm homestead.
It means the destruction of initiative, the throttling of resourcefulness, the smothering of hope and ambition in the breast of the individual farmer. If corporation farming is to come, then we believe that it is but one more step to state socialism on some such plan as Russia has adopted. And as between farming by big corporation and farming by the state, individually we prefer the latter. And the latter may come — eventually. Who knows? A thoughtful discussion of the subject by Clarence Poe is to be found in the latest issue of The Progressive Farmer. It is too lengthy for reproduction in our columns but we wish that all our farmers, business men, and politicians might read it.

A law to compel farmers to reduce their cotton acreage would seem to be the height of paternalism, and we have always been inclined to oppose such legislation. But the farmers are too numerous a class and their interests in different sections of the country are too divergent for them to ever successfully cooperate voluntarily in the matter of controlling cotton acreage. The only way to bring about cooperation is by compulsion. We believe that the bill which was killed in the Texas senate last Saturday would have served a double purpose. It would have prohibited the planting of the same land in cotton in any two successive years, thus reducing the acreage and conserving the soil at the same time. To be one hundred per cent effective, it would be necessary for all the principal cotton raising states or the national government to pass some such law. Cotton acreage will never be controlled or restricted until some such action is taken. All efforts at voluntary cooperation have failed, and the result is that we now have a carryover of nine million bales and a prospective crop of 15 million bales. The prospect is therefore that the price of cotton will be just about as disastrously low this fall as the price of wheat has been this summer. Reduction of acreage by law is a drastic remedy, but drastic remedies are sometimes necessary when the patient is sick unto death.

We don't pretend to know much about the oil business but those who are engaged in the game claim that prices are ruinously low. Gov. Sterling asked the legislature to pass a proration bill with teeth in it but that body has defeated his proposed measure. The price of cotton has gone so low that farmers can see nothing but disaster staring them in the face. To boost the price, a bill was introduced prohibiting the planting of cotton on the same land two years in succession, but that measure has also been killed in the senate. Congressional redistricting was submitted by the governor a few days ago and several bills have been introduced, but views of members of the legislature are so variant and the time is so short that it does not appear at this writing that any of them have a ghost of a show. So, the special session of the legislature is about to come to an end without accomplishing anything which it was expected to accomplish.

A fine demonstration of human kindness and sympathy was given at Snyder a couple of weeks ago when hundreds of men and boys spent the major part of two days and nights searching for a negro child two and a half years old who had wandered away from home and become lost. Even an air plane was called from Big Spring to join in the search. The child was finally found fifteen miles away from its ranch home but death had already overtaken it. It was a sad incident and the entire population of the town and county genuinely sympathized with the parents, though they were negroes. Southern white people are hard on the negro criminal and they are bitterly opposed to any suggestion of social equality among the races, but they never fail to hear the cry for help from an innocent child though his hair is kinky and his skin as black as night.

New Home

Mr. and Mrs. Ras White of Perryman are visiting home folks here for a few days.

Miss Isabel Adams is visiting friends in Winters this week.

The Health Club met with Mrs. Henry Heck last Thursday with ten women present. Miss Myrtle Setser, the district public health nurse was with us and conducted a child health conference. She will be with us every third Thursday in each month to conduct conferences and teach a health course, comprised of twelve lessons. We wish to take this method of urging our women to come to these meetings. We feel like there is no better time than now to help promote better sanitary conditions in our community and protect ourselves against disease.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heck and son Rodney Fern visited Mr. and Mrs. Herman Heck and family at Levelland Sunday. They report fine crops in that territory.

Mrs. Waymond Smith and her two small children were painfully scalded Thursday afternoon when her pressure cooker blew up. She attempted removing the cover thinking the steam had been discharged.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hampton of Snyder moved into our community Saturday. Mr. Hampton will buy cotton for the Farmers Co-op Gin this season.

Repair work has begun on both gins here. They are getting ready for a big ginning season.

Acie Bailey has recently added another room to his store. That's a good sign of progress.

During the recent revival meeting held at the local Baptist Church, conducted by Rev. J. W. Partin and Rev. W. K. Horn, Earl McManis, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. McManis of this community, acknowledged a call to the ministry and was extended an invitation to preach at this home church. He accepted this invitation. On Sunday last he had charge of the eleven o'clock service.

In the book of James, fourth chapter, he used the verses 4 to 17, inclusive. From this broad subject he spoke fearlessly and convincingly. The truths he pointed out were originally expressed. The manner in which he presented them was effective.

Throughout the sermon phrases were introduced recognizing God's love and mercies. Those whose privilege it was to hear and see him were impressed that here was a man that is chosen by God—a true inspired leader of men. Young Mr. McManis will have charge of the services here each third Sunday beginning the third Sunday in September.

Planting Turnips At Tahoka Park

Sid Sanders, one of the members of the city council, whose duty it is to look after the City Park, is having the same planted in turnip seeds this afternoon. Some of the grocers donated a portion of the seed and other citizens of the town donated small sums with which to buy other seed, and the whole park will soon be a turnip patch. It will probably furnish turnips for many needy families this winter, if there should be such in the town or county.

APPRECIATION

As local manager of the Texas Utilities Company, I wish to express my thanks to the mayor and city council of the City of Tahoka for their friendly attitude and their spirit of cooperation with this company as manifested in the resolutions adopted by that body in their meeting of last Thursday afternoon. I wish to assure them and the people of Tahoka that I personally will ever strive to give the people and the city real service.

W. S. Anglin, Local Manager.

Wilson

Walter McAtee of Clayton, N. M., but who was for several years a resident of Wilson, was a brief visitor in our city Saturday. He was a guest in the C. C. McCormick home for lunch.

Buford Moss of White Deer was visiting friends here last week. Buford is an ex-Wilsonite, having resided with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Moss here for several years.

Mrs. Fannie Dawson accompanied her daughter, Miss Pearl, and son, Albert, to Terry county Saturday, where they spent the week end in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dawson.

Miss Mattie Pearl Jones of Lubbock was a week end visitor with friends of our city.

Mrs. Thelma Hamilton of New Home was a guest in the home of her mother, Mrs. Eva McCormick, last week end.

Mr. Seth Bowles and family of Houston are visiting in the home of his sister, Mrs. H. R. Williamson.

Mr. Ira Crooks and son Charlie left Saturday for a few days visit with relatives at May.

Mrs. Shults and daughter Iris, who have been visiting Mrs. Shults' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hobbs, for several weeks, left for their home at May last Saturday.

Miss Lorene Crowder of Abilene is visiting home folk and friends in our community for a week.

Last Wednesday Frances Simank went to a Lubbock Sanitarium for a tonsil operation and was getting along fine, and right on the heels of the tonsil operation it was necessary to undergo another for the purpose of removing the appendix, which was done last Saturday. Latest reports are that she is getting along fine.

Messrs. L. Gentry and N. P. Tuttle, employees of the Planters Gin Co. and who reside in Sweetwater, came in the first of the week for the purpose of erecting a very spacious house for the storage of unginned cotton. The house will be modern and will be of much benefit in taking care of the farmers time. The Planters Gin Co. is also overhauling and getting their plant in tip top shape for the fall run.

Mr. Claude Coleman and family are home after spending several days with Mrs. Coleman's father and brothers at San Benito.

Mr. R. E. Finley had the misfortune of losing a very valuable milk cow last week.

Quite a number of our citizens are turning their attentions to fall gardens. If something doesn't happen to ruin these late gardens it seems as if we are going to eat regardless of hard times.

Last Thursday while Edwin May was catching a saddle horse, another horse, in an effort to bite the horse Edwin was catching, missed his aim and got Edwin's arm near the shoulder, giving him a terrific and painful bite. Although the arm was badly bruised Edwin seems to be none the worse for the experience.

One of the finest rains of the year fell the first of the week filling a real need for moisture on the feed crops of the Wilson vicinity. This rain will finish up the feed crops in fine shape. Cotton was doing fine and not needing rain.

The Baptist Revival that had been in progress for two weeks, closed last Sunday night. There were several conversions and eighteen additions to the church as a result of the meeting and we feel like the entire community was lifted to a higher plane by the wonderful soul stirring sermons that Dr. Jenkins preached during the revival.

Miss O'Berger Forrester spent the first of the week visiting with friends in Ralls.

WHAT OTHERS THINK

WHAT IS THIS GOLF?

Golf is a form of work made expensive enough for a man to enjoy it. It is physical and mental exertion made attractive by the fact that you have to dress for it in a $200,000 club house.

Golf is what letter carrying, ditch digging, and carpet sweeping would be if these three tasks had to be performed on the same afternoon in short pants and colored socks by gouty-looking gentlemen who require a different implement for every mood.

Golf is the simplest looking game in the world when you decide to take it up and the toughest looking when you've been at it for ten or twelve years. It is probably the only known game a man can play as long as a quarter of a century and then discover that it was too deep for him in the first place.

The game is played on carefully selected grass with little white balls and as many clubs as the player can afford. These balls cost from 75 cents to $25 and it is possible to support a family of ten people (all adults) for five months on the money represented by the balls lost by some golfers in a single afternoon.

A golf course has eighteen holes seventeen of which are unnecessary and put in to make the game harder. A "hole" is a tin cup in the center of a "green". A "green" is a small parcel of grass costing about $1.98 a blade and usually located between a brook and a couple of apple trees or a lot of "unfinished excavation". The idea is to get the golf ball from a given point into each of the 18 cups in the fewest strokes and the greatest number of words.

The ball must not be thrown, pushed, or carried. It must be propelled by about $200 worth of curious looking implements especially designed to provoke the owner. Each implement has a specific purpose and ultimately some golfers get to know what that purpose is. They are the exceptions. After each hole has been completed the golfer counts his strokes. Then he subtracts six and says "Made that in 5. That's one over par. Shall we play for fifty cents on the next hole, too, Ed?" After the final or eighteenth hole, the golfer adds up his score and stops when he has reached 87. He then has a swim, a pint of gin, sings "Sweet Adeline" with six or eight other liars, and calls it the end of a perfect day.

Editor's Note: Now, before some of our golfer friends accuse us of slander, we wish to state that we think the above must have been written by some "cow pasture pool" player who became disgusted with the game. Anyway, it's not original with us.

THE GOODNIGHT BUFFALOES
The Avalanche-Journal joins in the growing protest against the slaughter of the buffalo herd at Goodnight ranch, located in the Texas Panhandle. The buffalo is linked too strongly with the early days of this country to be recklessly stamped out simply because it takes a little money to keep them up.

It appears that some public or private agency should take over the buffalo herd, see that the animals are given space in which to roam and otherwise oversee them.

In a hundred years from now buffalo will be as extinct as the do-do bird if the animals are ruthlessly slain.—Lubbock Avalanche-Journal.

TRADING WITH CAPONE

Why should the government 'make a trade' with Public Enemy No. 1, thus admitting that "Scarface" Al Capone, while beaten in the rackets, is still strong enough to affect a compromise with what we fondly think of as the greatest nation in the world?

Stripped of the slushy romance which short-thinkers have applied to the gang leader, Capone is nothing more, nothing less than just another criminal. He should be dealt with as such without the government's seeing the necessity of "trading out with him".—Lubbock Avalanche.

Gov. Alfalfa Haywire Cocklebur Bill Murray of Oklahoma certainly is keeping himself before the public with various and sundry displays of radicalism, not the least of which is the carrying of a big hoss pistol to lay low the citizens and officers from a neighboring state if they dare molest the "Great Horatio at the Bridge". Gov. Murray will go down in history along with such characters as Jeff Davis of Arkansas, Vardaman of Mississippi, Jeems Ferguson of Texas, tomheflin of Alabama, and a bird over in South Carolina we can't recall just now, but who was retired last year. But history won't waste many pages on any of them.—Brownfield Herald.

Farmers of Ochiltree county are planning to use wheat for fuel this winter finding it cheaper than coal at its present price. Special type grates are being obtained for the purpose.

A coliseum building costing $75,000.00, seating 20,000 people and to be dedicated by President Ortiz Rubio of Mexico during the Amarillo Tri-State Fair this fall is to be erected at Amarillo.

Amarillo, in West Texas, with a population of 43,000, was fourth in building permits in Texas for the first six months of 1931, with a total of $1,750,000. Houston, Dallas, and Fort Worth exceeded it.

Canyon Mastodon Attracts Interest

Canyon, Aug. 5—Much interest is being shown at the West Texas State Teachers College in the mastodon fossil recently unearthed near Amarillo which has been presented to the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society. Many college students, faculty members and townspeople have viewed the huge skull and tusk which has been placed on display.

Floyd Studer, who was in charge of the excavation, has preserved the fossil with shellac and gauze, and it will be guarded constantly so that it may be kept intact.

Work already done indicates that the mastodon was at least 15 feet high and weighed more than 8 tons. One of the tusks although it has been broken off is more than 9 feet long. It probably was more than 13 feet long originally. It is of ivory and is in a splendid state of preservation.

THEM LOW DOWN GUTTER BLUES

(By Mrs. J. B. Walker)
Oh, I've got them low down gutter blues,
An' I know it ain't a bit o' use
To try to climb the mountain height;
If I's up there I'd be a sight,
'Cause I've got them low down gutter blues.

The' won't be no work again no more,
Hard times is knockin' at my door,
An' it won't rain at all I know,
The wind and sand is sure to blow;
Oh, I've got them low down gutter blues.

Ain't got no friends, not nary one;
Oh, I don't know what I ever done
To make this old world treat me so;
Dunno' what to do, nor where to go
'Cause I've got them low down gutter blues.

The world is all turned upside down,
Don't like nobody in this town,
Of love the poets always sing;
Well, I know the ain't no such thing,
Oh, I've got 'em low down gutter blues.

I'm so darn tired o' bein' the goat
I b'lieve that I'll just cut my throat,
Then go right out, and hang myself,
Then go right out and hank myself,
'Cause I've got them low down gutter blues.

Sanders-Shook

Mr. Sid Sanders and Miss Effie Shook were married at the home of the bride's parents Wednesday, August 1. The wedding was a very quiet affair being attended by the family and only a few intimate friends. Rev. J. O. Gore performed the ceremony after a sumptuous supper was served to which the guests did full justice.

Miss Effie is one of the most lovable young ladies in her community. We hear we are not to lose her from our circle of friends as Mr. Sanders expects to improve his section near town, where they will make their home. We tender congratulations to the groom and wish the bride much joy in her new sphere in life.

"My work is confining, and often I eat hurriedly, causing me to have indigestion. Gas will form and I will smother and have pains in my chest. I had to be careful what I ate, but after someone had recommended Black-Draught and I found a small pinch after meals was so helpful, I soon was eating anything I wanted. Now when I feel the least smothering or uncomfortable bloating, I take a pinch of Black-Draught and get relief."

Did you ever try to MILK a LAWNMOWER?

—not as foolish as it sounds, for many dairymen quit feeding concentrates in the summer and expect their cows to exist on pasture alone. Such cows expend their energy in GRAZING instead of PRODUCING MILK—and a lawnmower could do that job better.

You know, of course, that a 1,000 lb. cow requires about 30 lbs. of solid food to produce 35 lbs. of milk. But do you know that if she must obtain these solids from grass alone, she must graze over about ONE-TENTH of an ACRE and eat about 175 lbs. of GRASS?

Your cows are worth more as milk producers than as lawnmowers. Pasture is fine and will help reduce your production cost—but ONLY when supplemented by a high quality concentrate such as RED CHAIN 24% Dairy Ration.

LYNN CROP OUTLOOK IMPROVED BY RAINS

tion was light in the vicinity of West Point. W. D. Nevels reports light showers at his ranch in that community. It was heavier between that point and Tahoka, however, the fall being unusually heavy a few miles west of Tahoka.

These rains will insure excellent feed crops and at least a good average yield of cotton throughout the county. Both cotton and feed had held up remarkably well through the drouth that had prevailed over most of the county the past three months. Some portions of the county had received ample rainfall already to insure good crops but in most portions of the county very little rain had fallen since early in May.

In Tahoka, during the entire seven months of the year beginning with January 1 and ending July 31, only 6.51 inches of rain had fallen. During the months of May, June, and July the fall amounted to only 1.49 inches, and nearly half of that fell early in May. From the fifth day of May up till this rain came Sunday night, the rainfall here had amounted to only 1.07 inches. This included .31 of an inch which fell on August 2. Some localities, such as New Home and much of the territory adjacent to Wilson, had received much more rain than this, but other parts of the county probably held about the same record as that made in Tahoka.

last year amounting to $1,645.00; so that it will receive from the City and school district for the next twelve months very little more than its taxes to the City and the schools will amount to. He also pointed out that this is the fifth substantial reduction in rates given to the City during the last three and a half years.

This reduction is being given to Tahoka and similar reductions to other cities and towns which the Texas Utilities Company serves out of a desire to help these municipalities to solve their financial problems. "We are trying to cooperate with the various towns on Texas Utilities Company lines in the matter of working out emergency relief measures to help take care of financial problems now confronting many of our towns through no fault of the territory served", Judge Kelso stated. "Many of our towns are suffering temporarily, notwithstanding the wonderful crops being produced in this territory, solely because of a world wide depression for which this territory is in no way responsible."

Judge Kelso was accompanied by E. S. Billings of St. Louis, general manager of the company, Hubert L. Allen of Lubbock, district manager, G. E. Damewood of Lubbock, district auditor, and W. S. Anglin, local manager.

Mrs. L. F. Frazier and children and Mr. Frazier's nephew, Lawrence Janes, left Sunday to visit relatives in O-manche and Hillsboro. They are expected to return home Friday.

Methods Of Using Wheat For Food

(By Miss El Fleda Harrison)
 Use of the following recipes will help use up America's wheat surplus and at the same time make living more economical:

Recipe For Canning Wheat
 Clean and wash wheat thoroughly. Soak over night in twice the amount of water as wheat used. Next morning drain and wash wheat again to remove some of the dark brown color. Cover with hot water and boil for five minutes, stirring constantly.

Fill No. 1 cans with wheat. Add ½ teaspoon of salt and cover with water in which wheat was boiled. Seal while hot and process No. 1 cans for 30 minutes at 15 pounds pressure. For No. 2 cans add 1 teaspoon salt, and process for 40 minutes at 15 pounds pressure. Remove from cooker and place in cold water. When cool, clean, dry, label and store.

Suggestions regarding use: 1. The whole grain may be used as a breakfast porridge. Serve in the same way as any hot cereal with milk or cream, stewed or fresh fruit.

2. Whole wheat may be substituted for rice or macaroni and served with meats and gravy.

3. Whole wheat may be added to soups as a substitute for rice or macaroni.

4. Use any good rice recipe substituting amount of wheat for rice and make a delicious dessert.

RECIPES USING WHOLE WHEAT

Wheat Creole
 2 large onions, 2 large green peppers, 1 cup chopped ham, 1 pt. tomatoes, ¼ cup butter, 2 cups cooked wheat, salt and pepper to taste.

Cut the onion and green pepper in small pieces. Mix them with ham and fry in butter. Season, add wheat and tomatoes and bake in a moderate oven. Wheat creole is a one dish meal, and when served with a combination fruit and vegetable salad, and whole wheat bread it makes an inexpensive menu.

Whole Wheat Chowder
 2 cups diced carrots, 1 pt. boiling water, ½ cup diced salt pork, 4 tablespoons chopped onions, 1 tablespoon flour, 1 pt. milk, 2 cups cooked whole wheat, 1 teaspoon salt, pepper, 1 tablespoon chopped parsley.

Cook the carrots in the boiling water until tender. Fry the salt pork until crisp, remove it from the fat, and cook the onions in the fat. Stir in the flour and cook a few minutes longer. Mix all ingredients in the upper part of a double boiler, stir until well blended, and cook about 10 minutes. Serve over crisp toast.

Whole Wheat Muffins
 1 cup sifted flour, ½ teaspoon of salt, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 1 cup whole cooked wheat, 1 egg ½ cup milk, 1 tablespoon melted fat.

Sift the dry ingredients together, add the wheat, and mix thoroughly. Beat the egg, add the milk, and stir into the dry ingredients with the fat. Pour into greased muffin pans and bake in a moderate oven about 30 minutes. Serve hot.

Whole Wheat Pudding
 2 cups hot milk, 2 cups cooked whole wheat, ¼ teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoons sugar, 1 cup chopped seeded raisins, 1 egg, ½ teaspoon of vanilla.

Mix with milk, wheat, salt, and sugar. Add the raisins, beaten eggs, and the vanilla. Pour into a baking dish and bake in a moderate oven 30 minutes or until set. Chill before serving.

Whole Wheat Cookies
 ½ cup sifted flour, ½ teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, ½ teaspoon soda, 2 tablespoons of fat, ½ cup sugar, 1 cup cooked whole wheat 1 cup seedless raisins, 1 egg.

Sift the dry ingredients together, except the sugar, add the fat, sugar, beaten egg, wheat, and raisins. Stir until well mixed. Drop by teaspoonfuls on a greased pan about 2 inches apart and bake in a moderate oven until lightly browned.
