Schools Will Open On Monday, Sept. 7

PLAN PROGRAM MONDAY NIGHT

Institute Will Be Held. First Day Assignments Made To All Teachers

(By Supt. J. B. Pace Jr.)
The Tahoka Public School will begin Monday morning, September 7, with a local institute program beginning at 9:00 A. M. at the high school building. The day will be principally taken up with the work of organization and plans for the year. All of the teachers of this system of schools will be required to attend.

The opening program of the school will be given Monday evening at 8:00 P. M. at the high school auditorium. This program is given in the evening in order that all patrons and friends of the school may have opportunity to attend without interfering with business hours, and to conserve time in getting the school started. The program is a good one and will be announced later. Let me take this opportunity to invite you to attend this program.

The registration of students for another year will begin Tuesday morning at 9:00 A. M. at both the Central Ward and the High School buildings. The South Ward and the Colored School will not open on the above date, as both have been indefinitely postponed on account of the parents needing the children to help gather the crops.

The children of the first six grades will go to the auditorium of the Central Ward building at 9:00 A. M. Tuesday. The Seniors, Juniors, and the Seventh grade students will report to the high school auditorium at the same hour. At 1:00 P. M. the Sophomores and Freshmen will re-

Rate Cut Made By Gas Company

The gas rates for Tahoka this winter will be reduced approximately 15 per cent, after the first six thousand cubic feet have been consumed by domestic and commercial customers, according to an announcement made by R. F. Hinchey, vice president and general manager of the West Texas Gas Company.

This reduction offers a saving of 10 cents per thousand cubic feet over the present rate, beyond the 6,000 cubic feet mark, and is made possible by the adoption of a winter heating rate schedule. The new rates become effective from and after the October, 1931, meter readings, and will prevail up to, and including, the March, 1932, meter readings.

"This is the most substantial rate reduction the West Texas Gas Company has been able to offer its customers in Tahoka", Mr. Hinchey declares, "and will effect savings for the great majority of our customers during the part of the year when they need and use the most gas."

"During the months of November, December, January, February and March, which are covered by the winter heating rate schedule, our Tahoka domestic and commercial users burn approximately 70 per cent of their entire year's consumption of natural gas."

Under the present rate schedule the domestic consumer's rate is 67½ cents per thousand cubic feet for the first fifty thousand cubic feet. All over 50,000 cubic feet is 50 cents per thousand. The minimum bill is $1.50.

The new winter heating rate will be 67½ cents per thousand for the first 6,000 cubic feet. The next 44,000 cubic feet will be at the rate of 67½ cents per thousand, a reduction of 10 cents per thousand cubic feet. All over 50,000 cubic feet will be 40 cents per thousand, a reduction of 10 cents per thousand cubic feet. The minimum bill is $1.50.

Mr. Hinchey also announces that the winter heating rate schedule will give Tahoka schools a classification under the industrial rate, which is the lowest rate of the company. At present schools are included in the commercial classification.

County Health Meeting Is Held

The regular monthly health meet was held here last Friday afternoon, Mr. Gosch, the sanitarian, Miss Sesser, nurse, and Miss Buresh of the state department of health being here. A number of officials of the organization from different parts of the county were also here. Among other things, plans for the healthcade Thursday, Friday, and Saturday of this week were discussed, and meetings are now being held in the various communities of the county according to the schedule announced last week.

MRS. FENTON IS CLUB SPEAKER

Tells Kiwanians Of Demonstration Club Work Over State And In Lynn County

At the Kiwanis luncheon Wednesday, Mrs. R. W. Fenton made a very fine report of her trip to College Station and of the interesting things she noted there while attending the Short Course recently given by the A. & M. College. She has been president of the state women's demonstration clubs the past year and has attended the Short Course for the past four years. She has not only become prominent in the work of the state organization but has done a wonderful work in Lynn county. Her report was so comprehensive that we have not the space to give even an outline of it.

Mr. Walter Jackson of Abilene, who is here doing some educational work with the First Baptist Church made a brief but very enjoyable talk. He was followed by Dr. W. K. Johnston of Lubbock, Presbyterian pastor here, who also spoke in his usual interesting manner.

Walter Anglin read a letter from a council of the civic clubs of Amarillo inviting the cooperation of Tahoka Kiwanians in treating any crippled children that might be reported to them whose parents are unable to have them treated. Any person knowing of any such child should report to Walter Anglin or Truett Smith.

B. Y. P. U. Meet In Progress Here

An association-wide B. Y. P. U. revival is being conducted in Baptist churches throughout this section this week. The campaign began Sunday afternoon when more than 220 B. Y. P. U. members from six different churches in the association gathered at the Baptist Church here to hear Miss Grace Conn of Dallas and Miss Clara May of Wilson outline the work for the week. Representatives were here from Wilson, O'Donnell, Wells, Central, and other places. Ropesville had no representatives present on account of special services at home but announced that it also was in the campaign.

In pursuance of the plan training schools are being held this week in all these churches. The school here is being conducted by Walter Jackson, educational director of the First Baptist Church of Abilene. Meetings are being held both in the morning and at night, while a general meeting from all the churches was held here Tuesday afternoon and another is being held this afternoon. The course will close Saturday night.

Three Fined For Affray At Dance

Pleas of guilty to an affray were entered Monday in the Justice Court here by three young men of the Grassland community. The difficulty in which they participated occurred on the night of August 1 following a dance near Grassland, it is said. Two others have made bond to appear before the next term of the Justice Court in September on similar charges.

NEWTON DIES AT JOE BAILEY

End Came Suddenly Wednesday Of Last Week. Was Buried Here Thursday

G. W. Newton, a prominent citizen of the Joe Bailey community, died on Wednesday afternoon of last week after having been sick only a few hours. Death resulted from heart trouble. He had seemingly been in good health. He ploughed all day Tuesday, then did the chores about the place, and arose and helped milk and feed the next morning. He was stricken at about 8 A. M. and died at 12:30 P. M.

Funeral services were conducted at the Nazarene Church here Friday afternoon by Rev. Frazier of Seagraves and the remains were laid to rest in the City Cemetery, a large concourse of friends and relatives attending the funeral and following the body to the grave.

Mr. Newton had been a citizen of Lynn county for about fifteen years, most of the time in and around Tahoka, having removed to this county from Joy in Clay county in 1916. He was a native of Texas, having been born at Grapevine in Tarrant county on May 14, 1855. He was converted and became a member of the Baptist Church at an early age. In recent years he had been affiliated with the Nazarene Church.

Mr. Newton had been married twice and was the father of eighteen children, eight of them born of his first marriage and ten of them by his last. He also had two step-children. Fourteen of his children are living and ten of them were present at the funeral, as follows: Jesse Newton of Omaha, Arkansas; Woody Newton of Waco; Bill Newton of Tahoka; Elmer Newton, Tahoka; Clarence and Gilbert Newton of the home; Mrs. Ola Hicks of Lubbock; Mrs. Fannie Welch of Canadian; Mrs. Ruby Dearen of Quanah; and Mrs. Hazel Evans of Winters; also one step-son, Luther Lankford of Wichita Falls. Edd Hedrick of Henrietta, a brother-in-law, was also present.

His bereaved wife and other relatives have the sincere sympathy of a great host of friends.

Drinking, Fights At Local Dance

One man entered pleas of guilty in the Justice Court here Friday to charges of drunkenness, abusive language, and fighting, all these offenses having occurred at the Bill Anderson dance hall on Thursday night. On Saturday another man entered pleas of guilty to drunkenness and fighting at the aforesaid time and place. Both of the men paid off.

Youths Arrested For Stealing Tires

Frank Wallace was arrested Friday and Marvin Chancey Saturday on charges of having stolen four tires from the trailer of Marshall Stewart. Both made bond and were released. Another young man who operates a wrecking yard in Lubbock was also arrested Sunday and placed in jail here in connection with these charges of pilfering. One of the tires was found in his possession and has been identified as Mr. Stewart's property.

Local Baptist S. S. Again In Lead

Tahoka scored again last Sunday in the Sunday school contest being conducted between the Brownfield and Tahoka Baptist churches. Tahoka also broke her own record last Sunday, the attendance at the Baptist Sunday school here being 447. Her highest record theretofore was 398. Her lead over Brownfield for the thirteen Sundays of the contest is only 76, however, and only one Sunday remains. But it is not at all impossible for Brownfield to win yet. If she makes a final desperate drive this week she may be able to muster so many in Sunday school next Sunday as to overcome Tahoka's lead. If Tahoka workers should slacken their efforts in the least, Brownfield would almost surely win. Brownfield had 404 present last Sunday.

MRS. SEROYER PASSES AWAY

Lingering Illness Fatal To Well Known Woman Wednesday Morning Early

After a lingering illness, death came to Mrs. A. B. Seroyer at the family residence here at 3:30 Wednesday morning. Funeral services were conducted from the First Baptist Church at 4:30 in the afternoon, following which the remains were tenderly laid away in the city cemetery. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. O. J. Hull, pastor of the deceased, and Rev. B. N. Shepherd of Clarendon, former pastor and neighbor. Many sorrowing friends gathered in the church and followed the remains to the grave to pay their tribute of love and esteem for the deceased and to offer consolation to the bereaved relatives.

Mrs. Seroyer was born in Chambers county, Alabama, June 12, 1863. She removed with her family to Texas quite a number of years ago and resided in Cleburne. In 1926 they removed to Tahoka and have resided here since. Her husband, A. B. Seroyer, died three years ago today, and each of them was 68 years old when death came.

Mrs. Seroyer professed faith in Christ and united with the Baptist Church at the age of 15, and she has been a devoted member of the church ever since. She was greatly esteemed for her beautiful Christian life, for her gentle, motherly spirit, and for her thoughtfulness and kindness as a friend and neighbor.

She leaves surviving her four children, all of whom were present when the end came and who had watched tenderly by her bedside for days and days before her sun set for the last time. These are J. P. Seroyer, an esteemed and honored citizen of Cleburne, Mrs. C. T. Oliver, and Misses Marie and Mattie Will Seroyer, the latter having been a teacher in the public schools here ever since the removal of the family to Tahoka.

The News joins hosts of friends in offering condolences to the bereaved relatives of this noble woman.

Charge Cantrell Of Selling Liquor

Three charges were filed against E. H. Cantrell in the justice court here Monday, alleging the unlawful sale of intoxicating liquor. He was arrested and immediately released on bond. The charges will be investigated by the grand jury which will meet in September. Cantrell is a farmer residing a few miles north of town.

Jaynes Girl Has A Serious Operation

Little Lillian Jaynes, 9, who resides with her grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Jaynes in the New Lynn community, underwent an operation in the Lubbock Sanitarium Monday in which a section of the bone of the left upper arm was removed. The bone of the right upper arm was also found to be badly diseased but it is being treated. The little girl has been suffering from articular rheumatism, Mr. Jaynes says.

Borden Davis and Layne Moreland Left Monday Afternoon to Find Out Whether or Not There are Any Fish in the Colorado Down Near Lampasas.

Mrs. Guy Robinson and children of Strawn are here this week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Thomas.

Healthcade Is On This Week End

The Healthcade announced through the columns of this paper last week is now being carried out. In addition to the representatives of the state department of health a number of Tahoka people are attending the meetings in the various communities. The campaign began this morning and will close Saturday.

Farmers Favor 'No Cotton In '32' Plan

Booze And Man Taken At Dance

Jeff Medford of Brownfield was arrested at or near the Bill Anderson dance hall here Tuesday night and placed in jail on a charge of unlawfully possessing and transporting intoxicating liquor. Officers detected some parties drinking and found a few bottles of beer and a few empty bottles in Medford's car, they say. Friends came over from Brownfield Wednesday morning and made bond for the accused man and he was released. The charge will be investigated by the September grand jury.

MEETING WILL CLOSE SUNDAY

Revival At Methodist Church Is Creating A New Interest Among Members

Good crowds continue to attend the revival services being conducted here at the Methodist Church. About a hundred are present each day for the morning services while the house is nearly filled at night. Prayer services which are well attended are being conducted each evening just preceding the preaching services. Earnest messages are being brought by Rev. J. F. Michael and the choir and congregation are doing some fine singing. Many of the old songs are being used effectively.

Up till Wednesday there had been about ten additions to the church, but probably the most pronounced results obtained thus far is the deepening of the religious life of the church.

Rev. J. W. Shepherd, the pastor, announces that the meeting will come to a close Sunday night. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend the remaining services of the meeting.

SERVICES AT PRIMITIVE BAPTIST CHURCH THIS WEEK

Elder J. L. Collins of Glen Rose will preach at the Primitive Baptist Church here Saturday morning at 11 o'clock, in the afternoon at 2:30, Saturday night at 8, and Sunday morning at 11, according to announcement made by J. S. Wells. The public is cordially invited to all these services.

Jeffreys Home Is Damaged By Fire

Fire of unknown origin did considerable damage to the residence of L. P. Jeffreys on Porterfield street just east of the Woodridge Lumber Company Monday night. The fire department responded to a call made shortly after 3 o'clock in the night and succeeded in extinguishing the fire before the building was destroyed. Insurance was carried on the residence in the sum of $5,000, it is said.

Mr. Jeffreys and family were not at home at the time, having left last Thursday on a trip to points in Arkansas and Alabama.

So many fires of undetermined origin have occurred in Tahoka during recent months that many people believe them the work of some fire fiend.

Tahoka Dry Goods Open Store Again

The Tahoka Dry Goods store, which has been closed since May 1, opened again for business last Saturday, with a nice stock of goods on hand. Jess Woosley and Miss Lou Woosley are behind the counter and would be glad to have their friends call. This store is owned by G. E. Hogan. It was closed temporarily on account of the dull times through the summer but there was never any intention of closing it permanently. Tahoka people are much gratified that this excellent place of business has reopened.

MEETING HELD HERE MONDAY

Resolution Favoring Plan Is Sent To Gov. Sterling. Opposition Is Expressed

By a vote of 56 to 7, a mass meeting of farmers here Tuesday afternoon adopted a resolution favoring the enactment of a law prohibiting the planting of any cotton in 1932 in accordance with the plan proposed by Governor Huey P. Long of Louisiana and the cotton conference held in New Orleans last week. A few who were present did not vote and some had left the meeting before the question came to a vote, but it was obvious that sentiment was overwhelming in favor of the resolution.

This action followed a meeting of members of the Cotton Cooperative association which had been addressed by C. A. Barron, vice-president of the Texas Cotton Cooperative Association and by Mr. Davis of Lubbock, district manager of the organization. These gentlemen confined their discussions to the plans and purposes of the Co-Op Association and made no reference to the proposal to limit the acreage by law. It was following their addresses that Judge J. W. Elliott, who was presiding, announced that gentlemen were present who desired that some action be taken with respect to the proposal to limit the acreage. Thereupon a motion was adopted that the Chair appoint a committee to draft a resolution, and Judge Elliott appointed R. C. Wood, I. M. Draper, W. A. Yates, G. M. Stewart, J. E. Thompson, and J. A. Williams as members of this committee. All the members of this committee except J. A. Williams signed the resolution which they asked the body to

Judgment Given Dickson In Case

Unable to reach an agreement, the jury which tried the case of Ben King against the Southern Sewer Company for damages was discharged by Judge G. C. Grider last Thursday.

While the jury in the King case was out, the companion case of C. L. Dickson vs. The Southern Sewer Company was called and a jury empaneled in that case. This jury reached a verdict Friday, awarding the plaintiff judgment for $50.00. He was suing for $800.00.

Both plaintiffs alleged damages by reason of personal injuries received when their car ran into an excavation made in the street by the defendant company and left it unguarded. The defendant company pleaded contributory negligence on the part of plaintiffs in not discovering and avoiding the excavation.

The News Twenty-Five Years Ago

From Files Of Lynn County News of August 17, 1906.

As one result of the Baptist meeting, which closed Tuesday night, we will soon have a Baptist church building here to cost between $1500 and $2000. At a meeting of the members held Sunday, $1098.25 was subscribed by our home people, which will be increased by outside help and additional subscriptions to the highest figure named. We are glad the Baptist brethren have taken this step, since it will give us two fine church buildings instead of just the one to be built by the Methodist folks.

Announcement is made that Thomas M. Campbell of Palestine has just been nominated by the Democratic state convention held in Dallas as the Democratic candidate for governor.

Tahoka's population has more than doubled in the past year, and new buildings of all kinds are going up all over town just as fast as the lumber can be hauled in.

A. D. Shook returned Monday from a trip to Stamford. He tells us that all crops are good down there and that some cotton is opening. One day during his stay the Texas Central brought in 589 land hunters, most of whom will locate in that country. It's a foregone conclusion that most of the men who sell out there will begin to trek this way, so the real estate men had better start mending their harness, for they'll sure need them.

The Methodist people will begin their meeting in Tahoka tomorrow night at the canvas arbor just west of the square. Brother Gore will be assisted by Rev. Calloway, the pastor at Lubbock. The tent will be lighted with gasoline torches, and so far as we know, is the first meeting ever held for which such elaborate preparations have been made.

Mr. Virgil Johns and Miss Daisy Leedy were married at the home of Walter Pinnell Sunday afternoon, August 12. Judge Bartley officiated in his usual impressive manner. Miss Daisy is one of Tahoka's fairest flowers, while Mr. Johns has only been with us since last winter, he has proven himself an exemplary young man in every respect.

A double wedding consummated on August 8, 1906, in Glascock county in which two Tahoka young people participated is also reported. Marvin Coughran of Tahoka and Miss Cecil Utzman of Glascock county and Ed Utzman of Glascock county and Miss Artis Coughran of Tahoka were the contracting couples. Mr. and Mrs. Coughran were to make their home here while Mr. and Mrs. Utzman were to reside in Glascock.

Charley Brown went to Mineral Wells for his health, while Mrs. Brown accompanied him as far as Snyder, where she is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Sherrod.

Mr. W. T. Petty and boys finished rounding up and putting the T-Bar trade mark on 2466 calves the first of this week.

One of Mr. Doak's buggy horses was found in a dying condition Wednesday morning in the lane east of town. It became tangled in the wire during the night and had almost bled to death when discovered. It is quite a loss, as the horse was valuable and besides one of a match team. Mr. J. L. Woods has an 8 1/2 pound boy who arrived at his house last Saturday night at 1 p. m.

The Lubbock Avalanche is quoted as stating that John F. Robinson had just purchased an Auto Buckboard. "It is small and light and easy to handle, very simple construction, and a traveler from Travelersville. Mr. Robinson is quite proud of his new machine. He left Canyon about 9 o'clock and arrived in Lubbock about sundown, after going by the way of Plainview and stopping at that place sometime."

W. H. Peters of Stamford told us Monday that the Texas Central had laid its rails to a point seven miles west of that town when he passed there on the 5th of this month. This is the road which we believe will some day run through Tahoka.

New Co-Op Plans Are Explained

In a lengthy statement with respect to the plans and work of the Texas Cotton Cooperative Association given out this week by R. J. (Bob) Murray, the general manager, and handed to us for publication, which is too long, however, for us to publish in full, Mr. Murray defends the past work of the Co-Op and explains the change in advances to be made this year.

"In order to simplify accounting," he stated, "the method of making the advances on the Seasonal Pool this year has been changed. Instead of advancing 90 per cent, the classed value of the cotton at interior points will be determined by Federally licensed classifiers in the employ of the association and a flat one cent per pound deducted from this value. "The difference will be paid the member as an advance upon cotton shipped to the Seasonal Pool just as last season. The expense of operation and the one per cent reserve will be adjusted in the final sale price of cotton. The amount actually advanced to the growers is within two or three dollars a bale of the net outright sales value at interior points."

Locals

Rev. J. T. Callaway of Crawford has been here this week visiting his daughter and family, Mrs. J. D. Donaldson. Brother Callaway was at one time pastor of the Methodist Church here and was the first pastor of the Lubbock circuit. He left Wednesday afternoon to visit at Abernathy, where he was also pastor at one time.

Ruth Suddarth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Suddarth, underwent an operation for appendicitis in the Lubbock Sanitarium late Tuesday afternoon. Reports from the Sanitarium Wednesday morning indicated that the operation had been successful and the patient was doing as well as could have been expected.

Mrs. J. P. Wingo of Putnam and her three sons and her father, J. J. Richardson, were here Wednesday visiting Mrs. Wingo's sister, Mrs. R. W. Fenton and family. They left this morning to visit Carlsbad Cavern, accompanied by Mrs. Fenton.

Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Hays returned Monday from a few days visit with relatives at Brownwood and Goldthwaite. Mr. Hays reports that boll weevils and cotton fleas had done much damage to the cotton in that section.

W. H. Davis of Aspermont and his son, John Davis, who is a teacher in the public schools at Pharr in the Lower Rio Grande Valley, are here visiting the former's brothers, Ed, Dave, and Scott Davis and their families.

Taylor White, teacher of vocational agriculture in Tahoka high school, received his M. S. degree at the Texas Tech Wednesday night. He has been doing some special work in the College this summer.

Wilson

Wilson School Starts Sept. 7

If present plans are carried out, the 1931 and '32 term of our school will start Monday, Sept. 7. Very few changes are being made in the faculty; in fact, only one new member being added, Miss LaVerne McCormick. The vocational training is discontinued for the present term; therefore the head, Mr. William Copecky, will not be with us this year but will be principal of the school at Wallace. Miss Evelyn Thomas will be in the Wichita Falls school and Miss Bertha McAlister, New Hope, having resigned their places. The work done by these teachers will be divided among the teachers that make up the present faculty until mid-term, at which time other teachers will be employed. The faculty as it now stands will be: A. L. Faubion, Supt. and teacher of science and math.; Brady Nix, history; Miss Mavice Carney, English; Miss Lela Day, math. and Spanish; Miss Sallie Beth Wright, home economics. Teachers for the grades will be: Mesdames W. L. Forrester, Brady Nix; Misses Curtis Cook, LaVerne McCormick, and Evva Faye Huffaker. Mr. P. D. Server will have charge of the janitor work again this term.

The Farmers Cooperative Gin started the erection of a cotton house the first of the week that they might be better prepared to take care of the cotton; and it looks as though it will be needed, for if nothing happens to the crop now in prospect we will harvest one of the biggest in the history of the Wilson territory.

Maize heading is now in progress, and like the cotton, we are expecting to harvest a record crop.

The B. Y. P. U. revival started off in a fine way last Monday evening at 8 p. m. with more than 50 present to take the different courses. Dr. W. F. Fry has charge of the adult department and is giving some very helpful instructions in the "Books of the Bible". Dr. Fry in his experience as a Bible teacher through the years enables him to put the work over in the best possible way. Mrs. Lumsden has charge of the senior department; Miss Ethel McCormick, Intermediate; and John Heck, Junior. There is a place for the smaller children but we haven't learned who has charge of them.

Dr. W. F. Fry, late of Abilene, now located at Lubbock, filled the Baptist pulpit in the absence of the pastor, who was away in a revival at the Sunday morning hour. Dr. Fry is a great preacher and brought a fine sermon which was greatly appreciated by his hearers.

Rev. J. W. Partin returned Sunday afternoon from his old home, Richland, N. M., where he had spent ten days in a revival. He reports a wonderful meeting with fifty conversions and restorations.

The B. Y. P. U. attended the associational zone meeting at Tahoka last Sunday afternoon 48 strong, but was defeated only by Wells which had 57.

Rev. and Mrs. M. J. Scarr left Monday to be in attendance at a three days meeting of the semi-annual Panhandle conference of the St. Paul Lutheran Church.

Cotton is reported to have begun opening in some parts of our territory and we are thinking that it will not be long 'till the hum of the gin will be heard.

The adults at the same time enjoyed a very pleasant evening under the direction of the B. A. U. in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Forrester. The fun of the evening came when the Seniors swiped the ice cream and cake of the adults and would not return it till a compromise was reached in which the adults shared the cream and cake with their visitors.

THAT ASSININE SUGGESTION OF THE FEDERAL FARM BOARD

The suggestion made by the Federal Farm Board a couple of weeks ago that the farmers of the South plow up each third row of their cotton in order to boost the price, if made in sincerity, was one of the most assinine proposals that ever came from any man or set of men high in the councils of this nation. There is reason to believe that the Board was simply camouflaging, simply trying to "pass the buck", not expecting their suggestion to be taken seriously but undertaking to place themselves in the position of having pointed the farmers of the South to a way out of their difficulties. That three or four million farmers spread out over almost a dozen states could be expected to take any concerted and effective action voluntarily destroying a third of their crops of cotton is such a preposterous proposition as to make it astounding that men in high position would suggest it. Their stupidity is truly amazing. Much more consistent would it be for the Board to demand or suggest that a third of the carry-over now on hand be destroyed.

As a matter of fact, our trouble is not one of over production so much as one of under consumption. There are millions of families in the United States and possibly a half million of them in Texas who would rush to the dry goods stores of the nation this very hour and make heavy purchases of cotton goods if they had the means wherewith to do it. It is idle to talk of overproduction as long as there are hordes of ragged men and women and children in every state of this union and throughout most of the countries of the world. The trouble lies elsewhere.

The decline in price is due in part, no doubt, to the fact that the foreign demand for cotton has slumped terribly during the past few years. Cotton exports for the fiscal year ending July 31, 1930, fell off 1,400,000 bales from the preceding year, according to credible authorities. This was due in part to the financial difficulties with which Germany was struggling unsuccessfully, rendering her people less able to buy our cotton, and due in some small degree also to the increasing amount of cotton being raised by foreign countries.

But there is evidence also that this slump has been due in large measure to conditions in our own country. In an address made recently by Marvin Jones, congressman from this district, he pointed out that in 1920, when President Woodrow Wilson went out of office, the per capita of money in circulation in this country was $53.01. According to the last Treasury report, he says, it was only $37.69 per capita; a reduction in ten years of nearly 30 per cent. The reduction has in fact been much more than this, doubtless, by reason of the fact that so much of the money of the country now is being hoarded. When money is plentiful and credit is easy prices are high. When money is scarce and credit gone, prices are low. There are those who believe that the money barons of this country and of the world have been so manipulating credit and the money supply as to greatly profit thereby. Unless this is true, nobody has ever yet given a satisfactory reason as to why money should have been so plentiful, credit so easy, and prices so high three or four years ago, while money is so scarce, credit so difficult to obtain, and prices so low now.

In our opinion, a permanent solution for this depression and this low price for cotton and wheat and other farm products lies not in the curtailment of production but in bringing about a more stable credit system, a better distribution system, and a better financial system. The source of all this trouble is not on the farms but in the big financial centers of the world. Our friends at Washington should quit talking about plowing up crops and begin work on the other end of the line.

Some time ago we published a story of the remarkable wheat farming operations of Hickman Price, who this year harvested 23,000 acres of wheat. This week we are carrying a story of the big cotton farming operations of one of our former citizens, Rev. H. D. Heath, who now resides in Yoakum county. We were told of another farmer over in Hockley county who this year has 8,000 acres in cotton. The outstanding feature of all these farming operations is the system, the efficiency, and the economy with which they are carried on. But while these big farm operators may be doing the job in an ideal manner, yet, to our mind, this is not an ideal situation. We would regret for the day ever to come in this country when all our farms were big farms operated in this manner. Our ideal is a land of home owners, every man owning and operating his own farm. We would like to see the day when Lynn county should be cut up into small farms of 80 to 160 acres each, with one family on each farm, each farmer doing intensive and scientific farming, each family owning its own home and as independent as a king. We hope that the seeming tendency toward bigger farms—all the land owned by a few and worked by the many—will soon be checked. We want nothing akin to the old feudal system in his country.

The cotton conference held in New Orleans last week upon the call of Governor Long of Louisiana adopted a resolution calling upon the cotton-raising states to enact laws prohibiting the raising of any cotton next year. This would indeed be drastic action. We doubt the wisdom of so radical a measure but we would favor it in preference to no legislation at all. We believe that the best proposal yet made was that embodied in the Cunningham bill which was recently defeated in the Texas Senate. This bill would prohibit the planting of cotton two years in succession on the same land. If all the principal cotton-raising states would adopt a measure of this kind, we believe that it would not only meet the crisis which now faces us but would serve to conserve the soil. Governor Sterling has under consideration the calling of a special session of the legislature to consider the matter. We believe that the farmers and business men of this section generally favor some kind of legislation limiting the cotton acreage.

The cut in rates announced by the West Texas Gas Company for the various cities and towns of the Plains has brought a cry of derision from many of the newspapers and gas consumers of this territory. It is pointed out that this reduction in rates is in fact an insignificant one in so far as the ordinary family is concerned. The rate remains the same on the first 6,000 feet of gas consumed per month. The ordinary family consumes possibly an average of 8,000 to 10,000 feet of gas per month for the five winter months covered by the reduction. The saving per family, in such case, would be from 20 to 40 cents per month, or $1.00 to $2.00 per year. We can't see that this is a sufficient reduction for the Company to be bragging about. It looks more like a sop handed out just to court public favor—a contemptible camouflage. We are for strict regulation of such public utilities by the State.

J. M. Marshall, who resides out near Newmoore, has been selling some fine melons in Tahoka the past few days. He reports that he has 150 acres of cotton that promises to make almost a bale to the acre. He also has fifteen acres of corn from which he will probably gather 25 or 30 bushels per acre and about eighty acres of good maize and higar. His melon patch consists of about three acres and he says that the crop has been excellent. We can testify that he raises good melons.

John Berry of Draw was in town Monday and reported that the schools at Draw and Redwine were to start Monday morning. Prof. F. C. Thorpe, who formerly taught at T-Bar, is the superintendent at Draw, while Chester Smith, brother of the county clerk, is gaining his first experience in the teaching profession as superintendent at Redwine.

J. S. Wells reports that there were about 500 visiting Primitive Baptists in attendance upon the association held at Amherst the latter part of last week and that fully 1,200 people were present Sunday morning. Visitors were there from several other states, some of them as far away as Alabama, and from many counties in Texas.

Luther Key, who has been taking treatment the past five months in the State Tubercular Sanatorium at Carlsbad, Texas, returned home Saturday. He has gained much flesh and is looking well. He highly praises the sanatorium. He also says he greatly enjoyed the Lynn County News while there.

W. H. Ritzenthaler, editor and owner of the O'Donnell Index, was a pleasant caller at the News office Monday. Ritz says it is a little hard to chase down a news item or to scare up an ad anywhere in his town now but he is hanging on. We have a fellow feeling for Ritz.

Some thief entered the home of J. B. Aycox out north of town Sunday night and purloined three bed quilts and three shirts. Mr. Aycox says he might manage to get along without the quilts for a few weeks yet but he sorely needs the shirts. But his loss is the other fellow's gain.

J. E. Brooks of the Joe Bailey community is moving to Noice, Coleman county, where he has purchased a farm. He will return to Lynn county in the fall to look after the gathering of his crop.

Heath Farm Is Fine Example Of Best Farming Methods Put Into Practice

Upon the invitation of Judge L. C. Heath of this city, it was our pleasure one day last week to visit the magnificent farm of his father, H. D. Heath, which is situated about ten miles northeast of the town of Plains in Yoakum county. In our little company also were Rev. O. J. Hull and Dr. J. R. Singleton. We found many others visiting this farm on the same afternoon, for a number of persons interested in agriculture had been invited to make an inspection of this big project and attend a meeting of farmers of the community at the local school building that night. Among those present were H. J. Bower, head of the department of agronomy at the Texas Tech College; D. F. Eaton, county agent of Lubbock county; C. A. Barroon, vice president of the Texas Cotton Cooperative association, Lamesa; and bankers, business men, teachers, and farmers from Brownfield, Plains, and other places.

An inspection of this mammoth farm was a revelation to all of us—not so much because of its size but because of the system and efficiency with which it is being operated and the marvelous crops of cotton and corn and maize and higari that we found growing upon it. To speak of it as a farm is probably a misnomer, for it is rather a group of farms—all under the same management and supervision, however; for while there are seven tenants working it, all farming operations are carried on according to the ideas and plans of the landlord and under the supervision of his guiding hand. All tenants are required to sign a contract to this effect at the beginning of their tenancy.

The crops this year consist of 1,000 acres of cotton and 600 acres of corn, maize, higari. The surface of the land is almost perfectly level and the crops remarkably uniform in quality. No one can tell in advance what an acre of cotton will yield, but the prospects were that from the thousand acres 600 to 1000 bales of cotton might be gathered. The corn crop was already made, and it was estimated that the yield would run from 25 to 40 bushels per acre. The maize and higari crops were as fine as any we have seen this year.

Perhaps the most noticeable thing about this farm next to the fine crops was the fact that scarcely a weed or a sprig of grass could be found growing anywhere. "Not a weed is supposed to go to seed on the entire farm," Mr. Heath stated to the writer. What weeds escape the plow are cut down by the hoe hands before they have produced seed, and except for the growing crops the land was almost as clean as a floor. "We prepared the land by plowing deep in the winter and the cultivating it shallow. We do intensive farming on an extensive scale. Our average corn yield has been 30 to 40 bushels per acre and we have produced an average of 300 bales of cotton a year on a smaller acreage than we have this year," Mr. Heath stated.

This farm of 1,600 acres is cultivated by seven tenants, most of whom farm on the shares. They farm according to Mr. Heath's directions. "Every man on the farm is happy," Mr. Heath said proudly. "They all say that they never made a crop so easily as they have made this one." Mr. Heath furnishes all tools and teams, of course, and it requires 56 mules to work the farm. He is partial to mules. He doesn't use tractors. "I can not raise gas and lubricating oil," he said, "but I can raise feed. I can also raise the mules. I have raised nearly all of the 56 mules we are using on the farm." He now has forty good brood mares on the farm and in addition to the work mules he has 60 mule colts, one and two years old.

As an adjunct to his farming operations, Mr. Heath has a fine herd of dairy cows—twenty registered cows, a registered bull, and 30 other high-bred cows not subject to registration. He keeps one man employed to milk and take care of the cows. He also raises plenty of hogs and poultry, of course, and has quite a bit of produce to sell.

Mr. Heath has his own crusher to crush the feed for all these livestock pulled by a six-cylinder Hudson motor.

"When I came here six years ago, all this land was unimproved," Mr. Heath stated. "There was not a building nor scarcely a plank of any kind on the entire tract, no improvements whatever. There were twelve gates to open between here and Brownfield and seven gates between here and Plains. It was eight miles to the nearest school house. Now, we have fairly good roads all the way to Brownfield and to Plains and not a gate to open. Roads have been opened up on section lines and my tenants and I have done most of the work in building these roads from the community to the state highway. One year, for the benefit of the children on the farm, we had school in a vacant house on the place. Later, we built a little school house in the community, but now all the children on the farm are transported in a closed-in truck to Plains to school. This truck visits every house on my farm and picks up the children. It transports 37 children to and from school and nearly all of the 37 live on the place here."

In spite of his sixty-odd years, Mr. Heath is a man of untiring energy. During the busy season, he rides almost constantly from field to field, from worker to worker, directing the operations. He determines how much acreage each tenant shall plant to cotton, how much to corn, and how much to other feedstuffs; when the planting shall be done and how it shall be done; when the plowing shall be done and just how the plows shall be set; how the crops shall be harvested and when. In fact, he controls and directs every operation. This accounts for the method, the system, the efficiency that is apparent everywhere. It accounts for the fact that any one acre of corn or maize or cotton on the farm is almost exactly like every other acre of corn or maize or cotton; for the fact that scarcely a weed or a sprig of grass can be found on any acre of the farm no matter who the tenant may be.

Perhaps the most remarkable thing about all this is the fact that from early manhood until 11 years ago, a period of more than thirty years, Mr. Heath never lived on a farm. He began preaching when a mere boy and served actively in the ministry as pastor of churches until he was fifty-eight years of age. At one time he was pastor of the Baptist Church at Wilson and for five years he lived on a farm in the Dixie community in this county. "When I came to Lynn county eleven years ago I had nothing except the proceeds of a house and lot in Plainview which I had just sold. I invested in 240 acres of land in the Dixie community and lacked $700.00 having enough money to pay for it. I had not lived on the farm for more than thirty years, and I had not a horse, not a mule, not a farming implement of any kind, not so much as a hamestring." Now he has a farm of 1,600 acres as fine land possibly as can be found on the south plains. While his home is a modest building, yet he and his good wife seem to be enjoying life to the fullest. Mrs. Heath is a cultured lady and certainly knows how to extend hospitality to all who come beneath her roof.

On the day that we visited the Heath farm, Mrs. Heath served a veritable feast to her guests, all the food served having been raised on the farm, and she presided with the grace and dignity of a queen. It was truly good to be a guest in that household.

Fundamentalists In Revival At Wilson

The News has a report of the Fundamentalist Revival Meeting being conducted in the high school auditorium in Wilson by Rev. T. D. Sumrall and H. M. Baggarly both of Happy, but lack of space forbids publication of the full report. Rev. Sumrall is doing the preaching and is said to be preaching the "old-fashioned gospel in a faithful and convincing way". Mr. Baggarly plays the piano and J. E. Richardson of Wilson leads the song services. Large congregations are in attendance, it is stated, including "people who had not heard gospel sermons for years", old people who as a rule do not attend church, and "working people" in their overalls. A great ingathering of lost souls is expected during the next two weeks of the meeting, it is declared. Everybody is cordially invited. "You will enjoy hearing what the Bible has to say about famines, pestilences, wars, and earthquakes as Rev. Sumrall proclaims these truths each evening". The end-time is surely drawing nigh, it is claimed.

New Lynn

A large crowd attended singing here Sunday. Many singers were present from surrounding communities. We invite every one to come back again. We sing every fourth Sunday.

Miss Margie Higginbotham returned Monday from Coahoma, where she has been singing for a meeting. We welcome her back in our midst.

Brother Bussell delivered a fine message at the Baptist Church here Sunday morning. It was enjoyed by all present. He preaches every fourth Sunday after Sunday school.

The little grand-daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jaynes who was thought to be recovering was taken to the Lubbock Sanitarium where an x-ray picture was taken showing her trouble very serious. She was taken back Monday and underwent an operation. Last report she was improving as well as could be expected. We sincerely hope she will soon recover and be back in our midst again.

Large crowds are attending the Nazarene meeting which is in progress now. Special singing is rendered every service. Rev. Ingram is delivering some splendid messages. Everyone is invited to attend the 10:45 services in the morning and the 8:00 o'clock services in the evening. The meeting is expected to close Sunday night.

Kids, remember the Kid Singing Convention which will convene at Central Church Sunday. Everyone is invited to come and bring your books. Singing will start at 2:30 p. m.

BANKERS SUGGEST BANKING REFORMS

Economic Policy Commission of American Bankers Association Recommends Aids to Progress in Banking Business.

FOLLOWING a nation-wide survey of banking conditions and opinion among bankers, the Economic Policy Commission of the American Bankers Association has made the following recommendations for banking betterment:

"Under the category of improved bank management specific improvements we might summarize are:

"(1) Liquidation or consolidation of banks where changed local economic conditions render this desirable;

"(2) Wider affiliation among state banks with the Federal Reserve System;

"(3) Development of limited branch banking where economic conditions and legal authority make this expedient;

"(4) A more general practice, especially lacking among country banks, to analyze the cost of carrying accounts and other operating details and the establishment of proper service charges to make all classes of function profitable;

"(5) A more general application of the theory and practice of secondary reserves;

"(6) Avoidance by banks of undue borrowing merely to increase their own profits by re-lending at higher rates, or to over-expand credit to local business in order to increase their own business;

"(7) Cooperation among bankers in local communities through city, county or regional clearinghouses so as to promote mutually beneficial conditions and practices;

"(8) The insistence upon higher educational effort and qualifications among employees, especially those to be trusted with executive duties.

Legislative Measures Proposed

"There are some external measures, along moderate legislative and supervisory lines, that we also believe would help strengthen banking. Among these are:

"(1) The broadening in the states of branch banking laws where conditions warrant an extension of this type of banking service to the public;

"(2) The establishment of sound minimum capital funds under which banks will be allowed to operate, which should be materially higher than now prevails in most states; specifically, we believe that the minimum capital with which any new bank shall be chartered, whether state or national, should be at least $50,000;

"(3) The provision of funds and regulations to keep the official staffs of all supervisory departments up to a level of ability and integrity that will universally inspire confidence among bankers whose activities they are empowered to review, and will supply real added defenses to the public interests they are appointed to protect.

"(4) In connection with the policies of bank chartering departments, we would recommend that, even to a greater extent than is now the practice, the greatest care and moderation should be exercised in granting new charters, so as to guard against over-banking or the launching of new banks by unqualified persons, which have doubtless been serious factors in the bank failure situation in the past.

"(5) Also, referring to Federal Reserve practice not requiring legislation, we believe that the Federal Reserve Banks should exercise more freely their rights to examine banks and use their discretionary power to refuse rediscount facilities to banks indulging in objectionable banking methods."

Banker-Farmer Plan

An editorial in Southern Cultivator says: "Favorable comment is being made upon the wisdom and promised results of the farmer-banker agricultural program in Georgia. Industrial leaders and publicists, noting that 115 of the 161 counties in the state have pledged prosecution of the 'live-at-home' farm reform, are regarding the working out of the plan this year as of more interest to American farmers than any developments of the Soviet five-year plan in Russia. Agricultural actaries are of the opinion that if Georgia farmers, backed by our cooperating bankers and supply men, demonstrate the expected economies and profits of this home-support plan, it will quickly become a contagious custom all over the agricultural areas of the nation. It will be the writing of a new 'declaration of independence' for the individualist farmers of the country, putting them upon solid terms of credit and prosperity without need of recourse to federal or state financial relief measures. The man of the soil who lives year in and year out 'on his own' will stand up in his community as an economic freeman, making his own terms with the world of finance and trade."

A meeting of farmers, bankers, and newspaper men of St. Croix County, Wisconsin, recently organized a drive to promote the growing of alfalfa in such quantity as to save the dairyman the expense of commercial feed, and insure greater dairy profits. It is planned in this campaign to have, within the next three years, at least one acre of alfalfa produced for each dairy cow in the county, or a total of about 40,000 acres.

A Resolution Passed by the City Commission of Clovis, N. M., August 11, 1931

RESOLUTION

(1) WHEREAS: I. R. Kelso, president of Texas Utilities Company and president of New Mexico Utilities Company has announced the policy of cooperating with the various towns on the interconnected electric network of New Mexico Utilities Company and Texas Utilities Company lines in the matter of working out emergency relief measures to help take care of financial problems now confronting many towns served by these companies, through no fault of the territory served; the policy in regard to emergency relief has been adopted by Texas Utilities Company and New Mexico Utilities Company because many towns on their lines are suffering temporarily notwithstanding the wonderful crops being produced in this territory, solely because of a world-wide depression for which the territory served is in no way responsible.

(2) WHEREAS: At the date of the sale of our water and light utilities by the City of Clovis to New Mexico Utilities Company in October, 1925, our City tax rate as the result of said sale was reduced from $17.50 to $7.50 on each $1,000.00 valuation of city property.

(3) WHEREAS: On this date said New Mexico Utilities Company, through Hon. I. R. Kelso and other representatives of said Company, has made known to the governing body and citizens of Clovis its decision, as a voluntary action on its part, and as donation to said city and the taxpayers, effective as of Aug. 1, 1931, and for a period of 1 year thereafter, to reduce the cost of the street lighting in said city to one-half the cost prevailing on and prior to said date, and has further taken voluntary action reducing the rate for its service to our schools, which is a reduction of approximately 75 per cent over the 1930 charges; it being understood that in the event that the legislature of New Mexico or any other lawful taxing power or authority shall impose any tax on or affecting the service supplied the schools and city, increasing the cost of furnishing same, such tax shall be added to and become a part of said rates and be paid by said city and schools.

(4) WHEREAS: The action of said New Mexico Utilities Company in the matters aforesaid effects a great saving financially to our city, schools and tax-payers, the saving in street lighting amounting to $1,659.00 Aug. 1, 1931 to Aug. 1, 1932, the saving to schools based on 1930 consumption being $320.74, the saving in city hall lights and other city service being $365.70, all aggregating $2,345.44; and in addition thereto said New Mexico Utilities Company is one of our largest tax-payers, its current taxes to our schools and to the cities of Curry County and to the state and Curry County is the sum of $13,455.94, and in addition to the donation on street lighting for one year, the reduction to our schools and city hall lighting is the seventh substantial reduction made by the company since acquiring the property from the city of Clovis in October, 1925.

(5) WHEREAS: Said New Mexico Utilities Company has heretofore from time to time reduced its rates in the City of Clovis, each and every such reduction having been made voluntarily by said Company; and

(6) WHEREAS: The aforesaid action by said Company is fully appreciated by the City of Clovis and the citizens thereof, and is convincing to all of said Company's generous spirit of helpfulness to the Community and of its willingness to serve the community at the lowest possible cost and at all times to deliver to the public water, lights and power service second to none and to do its full part freely and voluntarily to lessen the financial burden of its patrons and at considerable financial loss, during the time of financial and industrial depression; and

(7) WHEREAS: We wish to say that in our opinion if all the Utilities serving the people of the State of New Mexico maintained the same generous and helpful attitude toward the Communities served by them as has always been maintained by the New Mexico Utilities Company, there would be no demand or need for any kind of State regulation, and we wish to express to the public and to said New Mexico Utilities Company and to its President, Judge I. R. Kelso, and to its other officials and representatives our appreciation for its generous attitude and spirit of helpfulness; THEREFORE,

(8) BE IT RESOLVED, by the City of Clovis, acting by and through its governing body and Committee of Citizens, in meeting this day held at the City Hall in the City of Clovis, that we do hereby express to the said New Mexico Utilities Company, and to Hon. I. R. Kelso and other officers, agents and representatives of said Company, our sincere appreciation of its and their kindly attitude of cooperation, generosity, fair treatment and efficient service it now renders and has at all times rendered, and that we, as citizens, tax-payers, business men and officials do hereby pledge to our governing body, to said New Mexico Utilities Company, and to each other our friendly and mutual cooperation in working out, on an efficient and economical basis, all problems that affect and concern our mutual interests.

(9) BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a copy of this resolution be delivered to Hon. I. R. Kelso, as the President and Representative of said New Mexico Utilities Company, and a copy hereof also delivered to the Mayor and Governing Body of the City of Clovis, and a copy delivered to the Board of Trustees of the Clovis School District No. 1 and a copy delivered to the Clovis Chamber of Commerce.

FARMERS FAVOR CUTTING OUT COTTON IN 1932

adopt. Mr. Williams declined to sign it.
 When the resolution was introduced by J. E. Thompson for the committee, Judge Maddox offered an amendment or substitute resolution and made a brief but fiery speech in its favor, but no vote was ever taken on his amendment. Following Judge Maddox's speech, I. M. Draper took the floor in favor of the original resolution and spoke vigorously in its favor. He had hardly closed until R. C. Wood was recognized and he assailed the Maddox amendment and strongly favored the original resolution. J. S. Wells sprang to his feet and opposed the resolution. He thought that the reorganization of silver would be a cure for all our ills. We needed more money and not less cotton, he contended. Wood again spoke, taking the position that what we needed was something that would bring immediate relief and that we could not afford to wait until Congress might see fit to take some action with reference to the money question. He insisted that the meeting should give Governor Sterling an answer to his query as to whether or not the people favored a special session of the legislature to enact such a law. Sam Reid arose and also made a spirited and telling speech in favor of the resolution. The question was then put to a vote with the above result.

O'Donnell School Opening Delayed
 The O'Donnell school board has decided to defer the opening of their school until some time late in the fall, according to County Superintendent H. P. Caviness. The prevailing hard times, lack of school funds, and the desire to use many of the children in gathering the splendid cotton crop this fall are responsible for this action on the part of the board.

WHEN THE EDITOR TELLS THE TRUTH

Only a short time ago the editor of a paper in Indiana grew tired of being called a liar and announced that he would tell the truth in the future and his next issue contained the following items:

"John Benin, the laziest merchant in town, made a trip to Beeville on Monday."

"John Coyle, our grocerman, is doing poor business. His store is dirty and musty! How can he expect to do much?"

"Dave Conkey died at his home here Tuesday. The doctor gave it out as heart failure. Whisky killed him."

"Married—Miss Sylvia Rhoades and James Collins, last Saturday at the Baptist parsonage, by Rev. Gordon. The bride is a very ordinary girl who doesn't know any more about cooking than a jackrabbit and never helped her mother three days in her life. She is not a beauty by any means and has a gait like a duck. The groom is an up to date loafer. He has been living off the old folks at home all his life and is not worth shucks. It will be a hard life."—Exchange.

Irrigation is to be tried in Roberts county in the Panhandle by a number of farmers in the Red Deer valley who have drilled wells and installed electric power pumps.

Mrs. Iso Asabuki is Japan's woman tennis champion, and during the last seven years has risen to a position of prominence in international tennis.
