25 INDICTED BY GRAND JURY

Criminal Cases Set For Trial Today After Delay Is Caused By Absent Attorney

The grand jury which was in session last week returned twenty-five indictments into court, 24 felonies and one misdemeanor. Arrests had been made Monday in all the cases except one.

The indictments included the following: Ola Mae Redman, murder; W. H. Yeazy, disposing of mortgaged property; Al Scott, driving a car on the highway while intoxicated; Nick Renner, possessing intoxicating liquor for the purpose of sale; L. G. King, theft; C. L. Dickson, burglary in one case and theft in another; Oliver Todd, burglary and theft, two cases; Henry Reed, burglary in one case, theft in two cases; Jack Graves, burglary in two cases; F. Ermas, possessing intoxicating liquor for the purpose of sale; R. H. Adams, rape; W. D. Chenaull, possessing still for the manufacture of liquor; W. D. Chenaull, possessing intoxicating liquor for the purpose of sale; W. D. Chenaull, arson in two cases; Vernon Hill, arson in two cases; J. P. Fulton, aggravated assault.

The criminal docket was called Monday morning of this week and the district attorney was ready for trial in a number of cases but for one reason or another it was impossible for him to force the defendants into trial. Judge G. E. Lockhart represented a number of the defendants and he was busy with his duties as Representative in the legislature at Austin and these cases were automatically postponed under the law. Judge McGuire excused the jury until Thursday, at which time they were instructed to be back.

T. L. Price Speaks At Kiwanis Club

District Attorney T. L. Price was the speaker at the Kiwanis luncheon Wednesday.

He admonished his hearers to be courageous and persistent in their efforts during these trying days and advised them ever to press onward and upward in spite of the difficulties. Never give up but just keep on fighting was the best advice he could give, he said.

Speaking of the matter of law enforcement, he declared that the greatest danger to law and order is not the power of the criminal so much as it is the sympathetic attitude of so many good citizens toward the criminal. Too many otherwise good citizens speak lightly of the offenses of the law-breaker and thus give him encouragement, Price declared. "The lowest down, meanest criminal in this country is the professional bootlegger," he said, "for whenever you find a man engaged in the business of bootlegging, every time you will find him to be a man who will lie, steal, and murder." The liquor business is at the bottom of nearly every other crime, he asserted.

Judge Price is here this week trying to get a number of cases to trial but due to legal technicalities and loopholes he says that he finds it almost impossible to force them to trial.

RECEPTION FOR TEACHERS POSTPONED INDEFINITELY

The reception for the teachers of the Tahoka schools scheduled for tonight at the First Baptist Church has been postponed indefinitely on account of the death of M. L. Handley, according to Mrs. J. H. Powell, president of the P. T. A.

Further announcement will be made later concerning the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. McGee and sons, Earl and Grady, and N. V. Nicholson of Plainview were here Wednesday for the funeral of little W. P. Meeks. Mrs. McGee and Mr. Nicholson being brother and sister of Mrs. Meeks.

To promote conservation of food, the chamber of commerce of Spur is sponsoring a can-a-calf campaign and estimates that two hundred and fifty Dickens county families will each use a can as a result.

J. W. Lowrey, Mina Dunagan Married

J. W. Lowrey and Miss Mina Dunagan were married Monday afternoon at Wilson, Rev. H. L. Thurston, pastor of the Methodist Churches at Wilson and Dixie, officiating.

Mr. Lowrey is the son of Mrs. Zoe Lowrey of this city and was practically reared here. He is a young man of excellent character and enjoys the confidence and esteem of many friends.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Dunagan of Dixie. The Dunagans are one of the most highly respected families of that community.

The young couple will make their home in Tahoka.

CALL FARMERS MASS MEETING

Would Demand Higher Price For Cotton Seed, Lower Price On Ginning

We hereby call a mass meeting of the farmers of Lynn county to be held in the court house next Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock for the purpose of taking action asking the oil mills to pay not less than $12.00 a ton for cotton seed and to ask the gins to reduce their ginning rates to 20 cents per hundred pounds of seed cotton, in line with the action taken by a mass meeting of farmers held in Lubbock last Saturday.

We are informed that more than 1,000 Lubbock county farmers met in Lubbock last Saturday and unanimously adopted resolutions asking gins to reduce the price of ginning to 20 cents and asking the oil mills to pay not less than $12.00 per ton for cotton seed, and further resolved that if such price was not paid for seed they would haul their seed home and use it for fuel and feed.

Knowing that in unity there is strength, we believe that the farmers of Lynn county should join with the farmers of Lubbock county in making these demands. We therefore call upon the farmers from every community in Lynn county to meet here Saturday afternoon to consider some such action as that above outlined.

Signed: J. W. Elliott, I. M. Draper, T. B. Cowan, and J. R. Strain.

Mrs. Stokes Cans Many Vegetables

"I have canned 968 No. 2 cans of vegetables and fruits—mostly vegetables—since the last day of July," Mrs. John Stokes stated to a representative of the News Tuesday. She has been canning for various other people for a share of the canned goods. Including cans which she put up last year, she now has more than 900 cans of goods in her own cellar. She is planning to can some hens and roosters for winter use a little later.

The people of Lynn county have turned to the canning of meats, fruits, and vegetables and thus cut to a minimum their table expenses. This revolution in our mode of living is due almost wholly to the work of the various home demonstration agents that Lynn county has had.

St. Clair Hotel Is Opened Up Again

Mrs. Rose E. Davis of Lubbock is re-opening the St. Clair Hotel, which has been closed the past two or three weeks. Mrs. Davis is the administratrix of the estate of her husband, the late Guy E. Davis.

Mrs. Davis operated the hotel here for awhile about five years ago, selling the property to Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Bray. The people of Tahoka will sincerely hope that she meets with success in this enterprise.

Doing her part toward the living at home ideal, Mary King, 4-H club girl of El Paso county, has thus far canned 722 containers of home grown fruits and vegetables.

A Floyd county farm woman recently was awarded a contract to supply Texas A. & M. College with 1,800 gallons of home canned black-eyed peas at a cost of $750.00.

COTTON LOANS ARE EXPLAINED

U. S. Dept. Of Agriculture Official Writes Local Gin Secretary Hyde's Rulings

Numerous comments have been made recently and considerable misunderstanding seems to be prevalent concerning the amount of money that the buyers of farm products are authorized to allow the farmers.

Arthur M. Hyde, secretary of the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, set out rules for the collection of the loans and these rules instruct the buyer to make checks payable directly to the Disbursing Clerk, U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, for the full amount of the value of any maize sold and allow only $7.50 and the seed for the picking and ginning of cotton. These rules have not been changed as will

WASH JOHNSON FAMILY MOVES TO FANNIN CO.

Wash Johnson of Three Lakes left out with his car of household goods and farming implements for his new home near Honey Grove in Fannin county last Friday. The family followed in a car Saturday morning.

Mr. Johnson recently sold his farm near Three Lakes to B. R. Tate and bought a small farm near Honey Grove. He and family have been residing at Three Lakes for a number of years and their removal is a distinct loss to the community and the county. The News will follow the Johnson family into their new home. Mrs. Johnson says they can not do without it.

E. A. Park Re-opens Meat Market Here

E. A. Park, after being out of the meat market business for the past two years, has again opened the market next to the News office formerly run by him. Mr. Park was in business at this stand for nearly six years and is inviting his friends and old customers, as well as newcomers, to come around to see him.

Since Mr. Park sold out two years ago, the market was operated first by Bert Dollin and later by O. J. Jackson. For the past few months it has been closed.

Drama-Sermons Will Be Presented At Two Tahoka Churches Next Sunday

The drama-sermon, "What Shall the Harvest Be?", will be presented in the auditorium of the First Baptist Church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, according to announcement made by the pastor, Rev. O. J. Hull.

Four characters will take part in the presentation of this playlet—two of our local young people and two out of town players. The pastor of the church thinks enough of this play that he is willing to give over his eleven o'clock service to these friends to put on this very timely program.

It was presented for over two years in Chicago churches, over a year in Kansas City churches, and the last three months has been devoted to its presentation in Fort Worth and Dallas. It comes very highly recommended.

Dr. H. K. Taylor, S. M. U., said of the drama-sermon, after he heard it at the Highland Park Church, Dallas: "I wish this drama-sermon could be heard by every father and son in the whole United States."

"One of the most vivid, convincing, effective and heart-searching programs on temperance and respect for law that I have ever seen" said Dr. Porter M. Bailes, First Baptist Church, Tyler.

"What Shall the Harvest Be?" presented to our Bible School yesterday made a profound impression upon our folk. One of our college boys said 'Well, that has made a convert of me'—Dr. L. N. D. Wells, pastor of East Dallas Christian Church.

MURDER CASE OPENS MONDAY

Ola Mae Redman, Alleged Howard Chase Murderess And Adams Cases Next Week

The Ola Mae Redman case, in which the defendant is charged with murder, is set for trial next Monday and a special venire is being summoned for that day. Mrs. Redman is charged with the killing of Howard Chase a few months ago, the dead body of the man being found in a car near the east line of this county on the afternoon following the homicide which was committed during the night.

The case of the State against R. H. Adams, who was indicted last week for rape, is set for trial on next Thursday. A special venire is also being summoned for this case. Adams is charged with having improper relations with a young girl.

Prater's Wagon And Cotton Are Burned

A wagon and an entire bale of unginned cotton belonging to F. L. Prater was almost completely destroyed by fire in his field Saturday morning. It is thought that the fire started from a cigarette which a boy was smoking.

Cotton pickers should be warned against smoking while on or near a cotton wagon. It is dangerous.

COUNTY SENDS FAIR EXHIBIT

Lynn County Display At The South Plains Fair Arranged By White And Shaver.

Ray Shaver and Taylor White hurriedly collected an agricultural exhibit for Lynn county for display in the Panhandle South Plains Fair being held in Lubbock this week. Since this exhibit was hurriedly collected, Messrs. Shaver and White did not deem it wise to enter it in competition with other county exhibits and yet Mr. Shaver thinks that it is a much better exhibit than some of those entered as competitive exhibits.

The Fair opened Monday morning. The attendance the first day was cut considerably by a heavy rain which fell in Lubbock and as far south as the Lynn county line early Monday morning, but the attendance has been much better since. In spite of the scarcity of money, many Lynn county people will attend the Fair some time during the week. Many Tahoka folks will be there Saturday, which has been designated as Tahoka Day.

The amusements and entertainments are said to be better this year than ever before, and the exhibits themselves are very fine.

Tahoka Set For Littlefield Game

The Tahoka Bulldogs will meet the Littlefield Wildcats on the gridiron at the South Plains Fair at Lubbock Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock as the feature free attraction of the fair on that day. Last Armistice Littlefield lost to Tahoka 32 to 14 in a game played here and attended by 525 fans from Littlefield who came on a special train. Saturday's game promises to be a classic and many are expected to attend from here.

The Class A Slaton Tigers defeated Tahoka in a game at Slaton last Friday afternoon 26 to 0; however the game was closer than the score would indicate.

Though a weaker team from the start, Tahoka managed to hold the Tigers scoreless for the first half. Coming back stronger in the second half Slaton scored three touchdowns in the third quarter and one in the fourth, two of which were made on "luck of the game". The Tahoka team showed up well as a unit, with much improvement being made since the Post game. Coach McCarver was well pleased with the showing the team made.

Dave Childers, who underwent an operation for appendicitis in the Lubbock Sanitarium nearly three weeks ago, is still in a critical condition but seems to be slightly improved, according to the latest information we have been able to obtain.

Meeks Child Died Wednesday Morn

W. P. Meeks Jr., the little two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Meeks of this city, died at an early hour Wednesday morning at the residence of the child's grandparents near New Lynn, where the family was residing temporarily during the harvest season. The family had been residing here in town until the maize gathering season opened up.

Funeral services were conducted in the Meeks home in the New Lynn community and the remains were taken to Southland for burial. Rev. J. W. Shepherd of the Methodist Church of this city, the pastor of the parents, conducted the funeral.

The child had been sick only two or three days and was not thought to be in a dangerous condition until the day before its death. We failed to learn the nature of the malady of which the child died.

The family has the sympathy of many friends in this dark hour.

Mrs. Emanuel Is Putting Up Food

As an example of what the Home Demonstration club women of Lynn county are closing, Miss El Plede Harrison stated to the News Tuesday that Mrs. B. J. Emanuel, Magnolia, now has more than 300 quarts of fruits, vegetables, and meats on her shelves, which she recently canned.

She has 68 pints of turnip greens which she canned four weeks to a day from the time she planted the turnip seeds.

Mrs. Emanuel is one of the women of Lynn county who has an all year round garden, Miss Harrison says. All through the winter each year she has a variety of green vegetables, such as turnips and carrots.

There is no danger of the wolf howling at the back door of a farm home like that.

GETS CAUGHT IN GIN PULLEY

Was Prominent Local Citizen And Operator Of Two Gins Here, One At Meadow

The people of Tahoka were greatly shocked and grieved Wednesday afternoon when the news came that M. L. Handley had been fatally injured in an accident which occurred at his gin in Meadow about 3:15 o'clock. The injured man was rushed to a sanitarium in Lubbock but died before reaching the sanitarium. The body was brought from Lubbock to Tahoka Wednesday night and is here today awaiting the completion of funeral arrangements.

No one saw the accident which caused the death and the exact manner in which he met death is unknown. The physical facts and circumstances, however, make it clear that he was struck on the head by the spokes of a rapidly revolving steel pulley. A large section of the skull on the top of the head was torn away and a portion of the brain scattered about. He was found by his nephew, Slim Methvin, lying near the pulley in a dying condition about ten minutes after he was known to have gone to this spot. It is thought that he was examining the machinery, stooping over possibly, when the spokes of the pulley struck him. Another theory is that he might have had a fainting spell, to which he has been subject occasionally since a

Do You Know—

Lynn county had only 757 farms in 1925, according to the government report, but there were 2137 when the census was taken in 1930, an increase of 182.3 percent in five years. . . . The present St. Clair Hotel was originally the Lynn county court house. . . . Lynn county was created out of Bexar county in 1876, surveyed in 1878 and 1879, and organized in 1903. . . . Thousands of sea shells found around the alkali lakes of this section indicate that Lynn county was once under water. . . . Tahoka has three tourist camps and three hotels. . . . It is said that during the great flood of Biblical times Lynn county received a half inch rain.

It is said that there are twenty-eight mountain peaks in Colorado that are higher than Pike's Peak.

Can you name any of them?

Neither can we.

But we have all heard of Pike's Peak because it has had so much publicity. So Pike's Peak gets all the business and the twenty-eight higher mountains just stand around, or sit around, or whatever a peak does, and we imagine complain that business is poor and wonder why people flock to Pike's Peak. Yet, they refuse to advertise.

are needed in the cotton fields. Mr. and Mrs. Acie Bailey and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rice made a hasty visit to Roswell, New Mexico, Sunday in search of cotton pickers. F. H. Hancock, J. W. Armontrout, R. M. Turner, and Joe Unfred are in Central and South Texas locating cotton pickers. We are glad to report that Grandpa Hilton, who is very ill at Lubbock, has slightly improved from the last report. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Izard are the proud parents of an eight pound baby girl born Tuesday. Mother and baby are doing nicely. Mrs. Wisenhunt of New Mexico is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Izard. Luther Mallet, who has been in Arizona for some two weeks, is at home again. Mrs. Leonard Hamilton and Baby Joy are visiting in Wilson this week. Bro. Ed Wakeman from Plainview preached at the Baptist Church Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock service and Bro. Meeks, also of Plainview, preached Sunday evening. These two young preachers are ex-students of Wayland College. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heck and Rodney Fern visited home folks in Wilson Sunday. J. T. Locals

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gibson, who live out near Garlyn, are the parents of an infant born Monday. Mrs. Gibson was in a most precarious condition Monday afternoon and it was feared that she would not survive but her condition has since shown much improvement. She was formerly Miss Fannie Jackson and is the daughter of T. J. Jackson who operated a grocery store in the gin district in Tahoka for a year or two. J. H. Smith of New Home was a pleasant caller at the News office last Saturday and he confided to us that he has a wonderful cotton crop for this year. "We are picking a half a bale per acre the first picking," he stated, "and I hope to get a quarter of a bale next time." He also said that the staple is as fine as he ever saw. It's a shame that the price is so punk.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Howell are planning to leave Saturday for Wauchoa, Florida, where they expect to spend the winter and possibly remain permanently. They hope that Mrs. Howell will have better health in that warmer climate. They have many friends here who will regret their removal from Tahoka. Dr. A. M. Gosch of Lamesa, in charge of the health work in this county, was here a short time Tuesday and stated that the State Health Department has an exhibit at the South Plains Fair at Lubbock that is attracting considerable attention. He is helping with the display. Mrs. Henry Disheroon of South Ward was taken to a sanitarium in Mineral Wells last Saturday for treatment for sciatic rheumatism. She was accompanied by Mr. Disheroon and her daughter, Mrs. F. O.

Parr, the latter remaining with Mrs. Disheroon to act as nurse. Ed Redwine returned Tuesday night from the Hondo Valley, New Mexico, where he went to look for cotton pickers. He says they are scarce and hard to find. He picked up a family or two on the way back, however. Jim Neal of Brownfield was here Friday for a short time visiting his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Burnett. He is a member of the Brownfield football team and was on his way with the team to Big Spring for a game.

Mrs. J. H. Nelms, who has been in a sanitarium in Lubbock two weeks or more following an operation for appendicitis, was brought back to her home here Wednesday, having almost completely recovered. Carl Alexander, until recently connected with the Snowden Chevrolet Co., has opened a store at Lakeview. A new gin has been erected in that community this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ellis have returned to Tahoka. Mr. Ellis has been playing ball with the Chattanooga team and with a North Carolina team this summer. Billie Brandon and Ivan Cathcart returned Monday from Carlsbad, New Mexico, where Mr. Brandon bought a car of cattle. Miss Janie Bairrington left Monday for Camen, Kansas, to operate a beauty shop at that place. W. L. Knight went down to Eastland Tuesday to look after business matters. A $20,000 bridge across the Salt Fork of the Red River between Hedley and McLean is to be built soon.

A Boy Scout board of review will be held in the court house Saturday night according to announcement made by scoutmaster G. A. Brasfield. At this meeting the date for a court of honor will be set.

MAGNOLIA H. D. CLUB MET LAST THURSDAY

The Magnolia Club met on last Thursday with Mrs. J. B. Ray. There were fifteen old members and three new members present. Miss Harrison was absent and we didn't have the chicken canning demonstration. Four hundred and seventy-four quarts of vegetables were reported canned since the last meeting. We will meet October 8 with Mrs. W. D. Flemming. The subject for the meeting will be, different ways of preparing green tomatoes. We would like to have all members present. —Reporter.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS GIVE PARTY FOR GUARDIAN

The Okyokwa Camp Fire Girls gave their guardian a birthday party in the home of Mrs. Rubie D. Suddarth Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. A very good time was had by all. Refreshments of punch and cake were served to the following: Lucille Kemp, Ana Belle Reid, Luda Strasser, Mary Helen Park, Wanza Jane Reid, Lottie Jo Townes, Janice Sanders, Ney Camille Fenton, Betty Suddarth, Martha Helen Powell, Ruth Suddarth, Faye Massengale, Pauline Smelser, Gaynell Tate, and Christine Cleveland. —Reporter.

on the Canadian side of the river. Some of them struck back at Wilson but we have never seen any denial of his charges.
At any rate it was a sorry spectacle presented. There is unmistakable evidence that the liquor forces are undertaking to capture and to dominate every numerically strong organization in this country, and it seems that such organizations as the American Legion, the American Federation of Labor, and even the National Bar Association have recently become the willing tools of this infernal liquor machine. Will we permit it to dominate the next Democratic National Convention as it dominated the last one?

We heard Cordell Hull of Tennessee undertake to analyze the causes of the present "depression" in a radio address Saturday night. He laid the blame largely on the policy of isolation which the Republican party under Harding, Coolidge, and Hoover has maintained
through the erection of high tariff walls.
As a remedy, he would revise the tariff return to a policy of low tariffs so as to encourage other nations to trade with us. He denounced the tariff plank adopted by the Democrats at Houston in 1928 and advised a return to the time-honored Democratic position on the tariff question.

The Vegetable TONIC
HERBINE
CORRECTS CONSTIPATION
THOMAS BROS. DRUG CO.

CHILDREN CRY FOR IT—

CHILDREN hate to take medicine as a rule, but every child loves the taste of Castoria. This pure vegetable preparation is just as good as it tastes;
just as bland and just as harmless as the recipe reads.

When little ones cry with colic, a teaspoon of Castoria have him soothed, asleep again in a jiffy. Nothing is more valuable in diarrhea. When coated tongue or bad breath tell of constipation, invoke its gentle aid to cleanse and regulate a child's bowels. In colds or children's diseases, you should use it to keep the system from clogging.

Castoria is sold in every drug store;
the genuine always bears Chas. H.
Fletcher's signature.

He also declared that the matter of prohibition has no place in a party platform—that it is not a party question and should not be made a party issue. He quoted Woodrow Wilson in support of his position.
He made it clear that he is not in accord with the forces in the party that controlled the Houston convention. Hull has been in Congress for many years and is Tennessee's new senator.

The advocates of beer are making the argument that opening the breweries would give employment to many of the unemployed and would create a demand for our surplus grain. But Mark Sullivan of New York, one of the best informed political writers in this country, points out the fact that in 1914, before the Eighteenth Amendment was adopted, there were 77,364 employees in the breweries and malting establishments of this country. With 5 million or 6 million men now out of employment, the reopening of the breweries would give a job to one man out of 65 now unemployed. Not much relief there. Furthermore, the total number of bushels of grain consumed in the manufacture of liquors was about 37 million, whereas the annual grain crop of this country aggregates about 5 billion 500 million. The breweries would not use more than 1 bushel of grain out of 150 raised.
Not much help there. It's a great argument for liquor.

It is remarkably strange that so many people do such loose reading.
More than once we have quoted some ridiculously absurd statement made by some one else and later found out that about half our readers understood that we were making the statement on our own responsibility. We had a recent experience of this kind. We published a ridiculous and absurd boast, without comment, thinking that the public would take it for what it was worth. We did not intend to leave the impression that we believed it to be true—far from it. Yet we find that many people thought that we were giving it credence. If we were to publish the boasts of Uncle Walt we suppose that some people would think old man Hill had been taken in by all that stuff. Don't worry, brother, we don't believe everything we quote.

Two or three years ago the legislature enacted a law the effect of which is to automatically continue or postpone the trial of a criminal case when the defendant's attorney is a member of the legislature and is on duty in Austin when the case is called for trial. The vice of such a law was shown here Monday when eight or nine criminal cases had to be postponed on account of the fact that G. E. Lockhart was in Austin in attendance upon the legislature.
This gave defendants a right to postpone their cases even though they had other able lawyers present representing them. If criminal lawyers in the legislature don't quit enacting laws to protect their clients against the clutches of the law, people are going to quit sending criminal lawyers to the legislature some of these days.

Governor Dan Moody rang the bell again Monday when he made a statement in reply to one issued recently by Jonett Shouse stating that any attempt to write a wet plank in the next Democratic platform would be met with efforts "to write one just dry as Mr. Shouse is wet". He declared that such an attempt would split the convention. Almost at the same time Senator McKellar of Tennessee was making a like warning.

It is not possible to have a state. If Shouse and Raskob and Smith haven't political acumen sufficient to see this they haven't wisdom enough to stand in places of leadership in the Democratic party.
Texas and the South are coming strong on Dan Moody and men of like faith in the next convention.

Instead of simplifying court procedure and making the administration of justice more speedy,
the legislature makes it a little harder to bring a criminal to justice every time it takes a whack at the matter. We believe that the law should scrupulously protect the rights of persons accused of crime, but the law should not be a means of unnecessary delay in the courts in their efforts to bring criminals to justice. Possibly we have too many lawyers in the legislature engaged in the practice of criminal law.

THERE'S THE "HIDDEN QUART"

IT STAYS UP IN THE MOTOR AND NEVER DRAINS AWAY . . .

The first time you use Conoco GERM Processed Motor Oil, a pint to a quart will cling to, penetrate and combine with metal surfaces and stay up in your motor. This "hidden quart" never drains away!
Because of this, GERM Processed Oil gives you sure protection at all times that no other oil can give.

Almost half of all your motor wear occurs while starting. The "hidden quart" of GERM Processed Oil stays up in your motor even after your car stands idle for weeks . . . and gives safe lubrication while you're starting. It stays up in cylinders to form a strong piston seal, which makes starting easier and quicker. Other oils drain away, leaving parts unlubricated. The "hidden quart" has saved hundreds of motorists costly repair bills by protecting motors when thru accident crankcases were emptied miles from town.

Only GERM Processed Oil gives you the extra benefits of the "hidden quart" . . . for only GERM Processed Oil has penetrative lubricity, the ability to penetrate and combine with metal surfaces.

From the first fill on, you'll always have that "hidden quart" . . .
worth its weight in gold! Fill now with Conoco GERM Processed Motor Oil at any station displaying the Conoco Red Triangle.

Where Your Dollars Go Further

The News Twenty-Five Years Ago

From Files Of Lynn County News of September 28, 1906.

We're Still Growing
A great many new residences are now nearing completion and several more will be built just as soon as the lumber arrives.
The new Baptist and Methodist church buildings will be started some time in the next month or two and pushed to completion as rapidly as men and materials can be obtained.
Coughran & Co. are building a new addition to their already large supply house.
H. M. Larkin has some of the lumber on the ground for a large general store at the southwest corner. We understand that he ordered nearly $1,000 worth of notions from one jobber.
Our gin is nearly ready to run and will soon be eating up the cotton.
The News office has been improving its job department and will enlarge the paper as soon as possible.
Crops are good, stock are fat, and prospectors are coming in all the time and buying homes. Altogether things are looking bright for Tahoka and Lynn county.

More Water
A two-horse-power gasoline engine arrived Monday and has been put in place at the north well for the purpose of supplying the town with water when the wind fails to blow.

Another Connection
Tahoka is now in direct connection with Seminole and all points west to Carlsbad, N. M., on the Pecos Valley. Mr. Arthur Holloway of Lamesa has started a hack line from that enterprising little city which will leave daily for the New Mexico railroad town and make the round trip in a week—three days each way. It will now be possible to leave Tahoka at dinner time Monday and get to Carlsbad Thursday night at a cost of $14.00—much cheaper than the trail and hack line route via Big Spring.

A Good Investment
Ans Lockwood has purchased a bunch of thoroughbred registered Hereford cattle consisting of a fine bull and twelve cows and calves. These cattle came from the ranch of J. W. Rush, Tulla, Swisher county, and can boast of some of the best blood in this part of the state. Up there the scrub cow is the exception instead of the rule.

Opinions Of Our Readers

SAYS KILL THE LEGISLATORS
Upon arriving at his home in Rockport last week, H. W. Barkuloo, who spent several weeks here this summer, wrote the News in part as follows:
"Practically all the cotton South of San Antonio is picked. If all the cotton pickers we saw moving north as we came down reach the plains you will have plenty of pickers.
"I see our legislature has finally passed the cotton conservation bill that they should have passed in the regular session. I think this will help the cotton situation very much in the future. It will cut down production about half, and cut out much unfair competition that the farmer has had with large interests that have been growing cotton in large tracts.
"And no possible legislation could have helped the farmer much this year, because most of the cotton in Texas is already out of the farmers' hands. I think we had better kill (politically, of course) about half of our legislators at the next election, most of them lawyers, and put hard headed farmers and business men in their place. It is too expensive to call them to Austin, at $10.00 per day, to wrangle 30 days over every important bill that must be passed.
H. W. Barkuloo."

Wilson

Our community was visited by a fine rain last Monday which lasted almost all day. So far as we know, there was no damage to crops to speak of but a great deal of good was done the late gardens.
A car wreck was reported Sunday night which proved to be quite serious. The Grantham family living three miles west of town was returning home when they ran out of gas and had stopped the E. P. Holder family to replenish their gas supply and in the operation the Holder car was struck by one driven by Mr. Oscar Umlang. The Holder car was almost a total wreck and no little damage done to the Umlang car. Mr. Holder was cut about the face and sustained several bruises and the two little sons, Albert and Arvin, were very badly hurt, Albert receiving a severe wound on one of his legs. The last reports are to the effect that all seem to be getting along reasonably well.
All the fields around Wilson are white and cotton picking is going right along. Very few outside pickers are coming in, still there is a great need of them and a great number of the farmers are hustling around trying to find them.
The fair at Lubbock is drawing a large number of our citizens this week who are finding some of the best exhibits in the history of the fair as well as some of the best entertainment.
Seventeen of our B. Y. R. Uppers attended the B. Y. P. U. zone meeting held at Tahoka last Sunday afternoon. They report a fine program and a good time.
Miss Lela Day was a Lubbock visitor Sunday afternoon.
Homer Scott of Lubbock and Clay Hughes of Tahoka have completed a very spacious coal bin for the Foxworth-Galbraith Lumber Co. Mr. Scott has also been doing repair work on his property here this week.
Mr. A. L. Faubion has just about recovered from the effects of a poisoning of the face and arm caused by some kind of milk weed some days ago.

Miss Gertrude Fischer is home this week on account of illness. She is taking a business course in a Lubbock business college.
R. E. Finley made a business trip to Brownfield Wednesday.
W. D. Green and wife of Shiner are paying our community an extended visit which will likely last a month or more.
Mr. Howard Cook was a Lubbock visitor Sunday.
Ed Sanders is playing the part of policeman on the fair grounds at Lubbock this week.
Mrs. Fannie Dawson was on the sick list the first of this week.
The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Jones has been ill for several days but seems to be slowly improving.
Mr. Luthur Rudd is spending a few days with relatives in Lubbock this week.

LET IT FLOW!

(Belle Hill Allen) —
Oh, give us our liquor, Uncle Sam, let it flow!
Great rivers of nectar all sparkling and red!
What care we if drink be humanity's woe?
Be it friend to our country and homes—be it foe—
Let it flow, Uncle Sam, let it flow!
Turn it loose in great rivers to drown out the cries
Of innocent babes as they beg us for bread,
And the moanings of mothers—their piteous sighs;
Let it drown out our conscience protesting our lies!
Let it flow, Uncle Sam, let it flow!
No matter to us if it break up our homes—
Give us sparkling red drink and Vice's lewd bed,
We love its bright glitter—how it sparkles and foams!
No matter to us what goes or what comes—
Let it flow, Uncle Sam, let it flow!

Tipsy youths, drunken maidens—
what be that to us?
Let it flow—to the poor, the rich, the well-bred,
To wives and to husbands—why make such a fuss?
We want our red liquor and have it we must!
Let it flow, Uncle Sam, let it flow!

Oh, let the whole country go reeling along—
'Twas for this that our forefathers suffered and bled—
Go reeling right on to the grave with a song
Of whiskey, wild women, and everything wrong.
Let it flow, Uncle Sam, let it flow!

Oh, give us our liquor, Uncle Sam, let it flow!
Great rivers of nectar all sparkling and red!
What care we if drink be humanity's woe?
Be it friend to our country or else be it foe—
Let it flow, Uncle Sam, let it flow!

South Ward

A large crowd attended Sunday school and church services last Sunday. Everyone is invited to attend these services.
Bro. Boyd will preach at 11:00 o'clock Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Moore and family of Snyder visited friends in this community for the week end.
Mrs. Henry Disheroon was taken to Mineral Wells last week for rheumatism treatment. It was reported that she was already improving.

Little John Bennett Killian has been suffering from an infected foot. Mr. L. T. Terry had an accident this week when a barrel of water fell on his foot.—Reporter.

TAHOKA CLUB WILL HOLD CHICKEN CANNING MEET

The Tahoka Home Demonstration Club will have a chicken canning demonstration at their next meeting, Wednesday, October 14, according to Mrs. Layne Moreland. Miss El Fleda Harrison will direct the demonstration.
All women of the town and surrounding territory are invited to attend the meeting whether members of the club or not.

Burke Cartwright of Terrell who planted only 100 out of 700 acres in cotton this year and the rest in corn, oats and begari, is selling his begari by turning 120 head of three and four year old steers into the field and supplementing the grazing with one-half pound of cake per day. He expects to feed more grain later to give a better finish.

In competition with over 8,300 towns and cities throughout the United States, Spur and Marfa, two West Texas towns, were among the highest fifty-two competitors that received cash awards or honorable mention in the 1931 campaign of the Better Homes in America organization, which promotes beautification of homes and cities.

CHILDREN CRY FOR IT—

CHILDREN hate to take medicine as a rule, but every child loves the taste of Castoria. This pure vegetable preparation is just as good as it tastes; just as bland and just as harmless as the recipe reads.

When Baby's cry warns of colic, a few drops of Castoria have him soothed, sleep again in a jiffy. Nothing is more valuable in diarrhea. When coated tongue or bad breath tell of constipation, invoke its gentle aid to cleanse and regulate a child's bowels. In colic or children's diseases, you should use it to keep the system from clogging.

Castoria is sold in every drug store; the genuine always bears Chas. H. Fletcher's signature.

M. L. HANDLEY KILLED IN GIN ACCIDENT AT MEADOW

recent operation, and fallen against the pulley.
Mr. Handley had been slightly injured at one of his gins here Wednesday morning in a similar accident. Following this, he had gone to Meadow soon after noon to look after his gin there.

Mr. Handley came to Tahoka in 1927. He bought one gin here and erected another and for the past three or four years has been operating two gins here. He had been running a gin in Meadow since 1923, having removed to that place from Medicine Mound, Hardeman county, in March of that year. Born in Alabama, he removed with his father's family to Chillicothe, Texas, in 1905 or 1906. He readily made friends wherever he lived and had a great host of friends here, who are deeply grieved by his tragic death. Besides his wife and one daughter, Levada, he leaves surviving him his parents Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Handley, Bivins, Cass county; a brother, O. H. K. Bivins; a brother, John, at Benjamin in Knox county, and one sister, Mrs. L. C. Methvin, of Lawrenceburg, Tennessee. Born on December 25, 1889, Mr. Handley was 41 years old last Christmas day.

Funeral arrangements have not been completed at this time but it will not be held until some time Friday. Burial will be in the City Cemetery here.

be seen from the following letter, which was addressed to the Farmers Independent Gin Co.:

"Receipt is acknowledged of your telegram of even date requesting authorization to deduct from the proceeds of each bale of cotton sold by farmers indebted to the Government an amount sufficient to take care of the picking, advising that the present allowance is inadequate to the extent of from one to three dollars.

"We very much regret to advise that we do not have authority to grant more liberal concession than $7.50 per bale plus the seed, and it is suggested that farmers who secured aid from the Government stay within this limit in order that the major part of the proceeds of the sale of the cotton may be transmitted to this office toward retiring their account.

"Very truly yours, R. H. McElveen, Administrative Officer in Charge."

THE MACHINE AGE APPLIED TO CRIME

Methods Employed by Criminals Demand New Police Methods, Bankers Association Official Declares.

USE by criminals of modern technological developments such as automobiles, machine guns and airplanes have given them advantages which old-fashioned local and disconnected police systems are powerless to combat and the situation demands the broader modern protection of State police systems, James E. Baum, deputy manager American Bankers Association in charge of its crime investigating department, declares in the protective section of the American Bankers Association Journal.

"The Association's Protective Committee has repeatedly urged the advantages of extending state police systems beyond the nine eastern States which have enjoyed this protection for many years," Mr. Baum says. "The time has passed when we can safely rely upon the disconnected and oftentimes ineffective methods of local and county police. The advent of automobiles and better roads, to say nothing of machine guns and airplanes, demands the same wide latitude in authority and field of operation be given the police no less than the criminal."

Statewide Police Plans Best
He quotes a Kansas judge as saying that "our system of sheriffs and constables was not designed to meet present-day conditions. As a system of law enforcement, it is as out of date as old common-law pleading, both evolved about the same time. The semi-military, highly trained State police officer owing allegiance only to State laws, is the most effective agency for order yet brought forth."

"Every year the robbery experience of banks in the nine States having State police proves the merits and urgent need of State-wide police protection," says Mr. Baum. "Last year, for example, there were 38 bank holdups in Connecticut, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island and West Virginia where State police forces are operated," he continues. "Although this total is exceptionally high due to an unprecedented number of robberies in New Jersey and Pennsylvania, it is little more than half the number of daylight bank robberies suffered in 1930 in Illinois alone. Furthermore, this total of 38 robberies in the nine eastern States was exceeded in California, where there were 42 bank holdups, and in Ohio where banks suffered 40 similar attacks.

Holdups Fewer Under New Plan
"If we extend the comparison of the robbery experience in these States enjoying State-wide police protection to the record in eight central and far western States, we find a total of 304 bank holdups in the latter group. The odds, therefore, continue to be not less than 8 to 1 against the banks in these western States, where they are denied the speedy, coordinated action of State police and their modern means of transportation and communication. The same comparison holds true of the farmers' losses through robberies of livestock, poultry, produce, etc.
"Moreover, these State police forces invariably yield an operating profit in the amount of fines collected and the value of stolen property recovered. Bankers interested in cutting down the cost of robbery insurance might well consider this job of extending State police systems as a timely, co-operative service to be undertaken alongside the farmers."

BANK EMPLOYEES SENT TO SCHOOL

Modern Scientific Financial and Management Methods Taught Throughout Country.

THE American Institute of Banking Section of the American Bankers Association conducts 223 chapters, or local banking schools in as many cities throughout the country. One large city chapter has almost 6,000 students, who are combining formal theoretical and practical banking studies with their daily working experience and other places have these schools with a thousand to two thousand students. In addition there are fifty study groups in small communities with some 6,000 enrollments. All told over 42,000 bank people are taking these courses—not only clerks, but junior officers and even senior officers in some of the more advanced work.

The work of the institute has been declared to be "a dynamic economic force, pouring into banking a broadening, deepening stream of better qualified bankers than could be developed merely by the daily workings of banking itself," and it has been suggested that every bank worker should be compelled to combine institute courses with his work. A good many banks now make it a part of the contract of employment that an employee shall undertake to render himself proficient and trustworthy in banking by taking institute work and others make successful progress in this educational aspect of banking a pre-requisite to promotion. Plans are being developed to make the benefits of banking education through this organization more generally available in the rural districts.

TRUST BANKING SPREADING FAST

Government Official Shows That This Type of Financial Service Is Enlarging Its Field

SPECTACULAR growth of trust service in the banking field is reflected in the national banking system, Aubrey B. Carter, in charge of Trust department supervision in the office of Comptroller of the Currency, Washington, D. C., brings out in an article in the American Bankers Association Journal.

"At the close of the 1930 fiscal year there were 2,472 national banks with trust powers," he says. "Their banking resources aggregated $23,529,100,000, which represented 34 per cent of the number of banks and 80 per cent of the total banking resources of the 7,353 national banks. Trust departments had been established by 1,829 of these banks which were administering 79,900 individual trusts with trust assets aggregating $4,473,000,000, and in addition were administering 11,500 corporate trusts and acting as trustees for outstanding note and bond issues aggregating $11,803,700,000.

"These figures represent an increase during a four-year period of 44%, or 22 per cent, in the number of national banks authorized to exercise trust powers; an increase of 72%, or 66 per cent, in the number of banks actively administering trusts; an increase of 65,379, or 250 per cent, in the number of trusts being administered; an increase of $3,500,000,000, or 335 per cent, in the volume of individual trust assets under administration, and an increase of $9,340,000,000, or 379 per cent, in the volume of bond issues outstanding for which these institutions were acting as trustees."

These facts, he concludes are "a striking testimonial of the growing public recognition of the desirability of the corporate fiduciary in the settlement of estates and the administration of trusts."

"No corn—no credit" was a slogan adopted by bankers of Saluda, South Carolina, last year. "The proposition was kept before our people by a display advertisement in the county paper several weeks prior to corn planting time. As a result we have more corn raised in the county this year than ever previously, regardless of the need of rain in many sections," said one of the bankers in reviewing the results. Home gardens was another project advocated with like results.
