RAINS COVER LYNN COUNTY

1.34 Inches Fell Here Last Week End; Many Of Farmers
Are Replanting

Many farmers are replanting cotton and feed this week as a result of the rains that fell throughout Lynn county and over all this section of the state on last Saturday and Sunday.

The rainfall in Tahoka Saturday afternoon amounted to .62 of an inch. After several hours cessation, rain began falling again in the night and by Sunday morning another .42 of an inch had been registered. On Sunday night a shower here amounted to .30 of an inch, bringing the total for the two days up to 1.34.

In some localities the rain was much heavier than it was in Tahoka, according to reports of farmers. The downpour Saturday night in a large territory east and southeast of town was so heavy as to cover seeds that had been planted with such a thick layer of dirt as to render replanting necessary. On Sunday night the precipitation north of town was much heavier than it was here, and many farmers are replanting in this territory.

With clear skies and a promise of fair weather from the weather man, farmers will be intensely busy the next few weeks, and with the soil thoroughly soaked, crop prospects are all that could be desired.

Magnolia Pupil Places At Austin

Miss Clara Harter, the only representative of Lynn county at the Interscholastic League events in Austin, returned last week end. She entered the 3-R contest sponsored by the University of Texas.

Miss Harter, though not placing among the three highest, won fourth place. There were twenty-one contestants from twenty-one out of the twenty-five districts into which Texas is divided. This was a uniform representation of the state, and Miss Harter is to be congratulated on placing fourth. More especially is she to be praised because this was her first attempt to participate in the 3-R contest.

This student was accompanied to Austin by our county superintendent, Mr. H. P. Caveness; her teacher, Mr. John W. Lovins, and Mr. Lovins' mother-in-law, Mrs. M. D. Box of Post. Each one reported that they enjoyed the trip immensely and is looking forward to another trip next year.

We are predicting a successful future for this young student. She is ambitious and generally strives to accomplish her aims.—Contributed

Rattlesnakes Are Thick At Sandhill

Picnicers and others may do well to keep away from the sandhill northeast of Tahoka, is the advice of Roy Gossett, son of C. P. Gossett, who is farming in that neighborhood. Young Gossett says that the sandhill country is literally alive with rattlesnakes, since this is their mating season, and they are said to be even more numerous this year than usual.

Roy says that the family and others have killed from 8 to 14 rattlesnakes a week at the sandhill this spring.

Parents are especially warned to be particular about letting their children go into underbrush or other places where snakes are liable to be found.

School At Redwine Ends Year's Work

C. H. Smith, principal of the Redwine school the past year, was a visitor in the News office Saturday and reported that the closing exercises of the school were held the preceding night.

Truett Smith of Tahoka made the class address and county superintendent H. P. Caveness presented the diplomas. The class was composed of Billie Jo Thompson, salutatorian, Carol Holloway, valedictorian, Ina Henry, Clarence Williams, Charles Florence, and Clayborn Ingle.

The South Ward grammar school graduation program will be held at the school building Friday night. Truett Smith will deliver the commencement address.

The following are the grammar school graduates: Mary Ellen Inman, Birdie Hardt, Mildred Decker, C. B. Evans, Hope Hardt, J. B. Russell, L. B. Russell, Wesley Disheroon, and Cecil Hammonds.

Golf Team Wins From Lamesa

A team of eight members from the Tahoka Golf Club defeated a Lamesa team 24 to 20 at the latter place Sunday afternoon as the second tournament of the Catlaw Golf League. Those playing for Tahoka were: E. S. Evans, W. T. Bovell, Burton Hackney, Buster Grissom, Harley Wells, Fred Grider, Borden Davis, and A. P. Edwards. Jack Applewhite, Jim Dye, Fred Buzy, and A. B. Swan also made the trip. Tahoka will not have an opponent this Sunday afternoon but will meet Snyder here Sunday week.

Seniors Guests Of Baptist WMS

The W. M. S. of the Baptist Church entertained the Senior Class and faculty members of the Tahoka High School with a tea at the home of Mrs. Belton Howell Wednesday evening from 5:30 to 7:30 o'clock.

The program for the occasion was rendered by Wayland College. Mrs. H. P. Caveness, President of the W. M. S., made some introductory remarks, following which R. E. Key introduced President McDonald of Wayland College, who presided throughout the program and who himself made a talk on Christian Education. The program featured music in solo and trio, and a one-act play was given, directed by the English teacher in Wayland College. The entire program is said to have been very fine.

Magnolia Girl In State Meet

Lynn county was represented by one pupil in the state interscholastic meet that was held in Austin recently. Miss Clara Harter of the Magnolia school won first place in the district meet held at Lubbock in the Three-R contest and accordingly represented this district at Austin. The Three-R contest is a contest in the three fundamentals, Reading, Writing and Arithmetic.

Miss Clara was accompanied to Austin by county superintendent H. P. Caveness. Mr. Caveness says that a number of handsome buildings are now under construction on the campus of the University of Texas. Most of the "shacks" have disappeared and splendid structures are arising in their places, about eight being under construction at this time. The University is a great and growing institution, but like most large educational institutions it throws few restraints around the pupils, every student being permitted to do just about as he or she pleases.

T-BAR H. D. CLUB MEETS AT THE SCHOOL HOUSE

T-Bar Home Demonstration Club met at the school house May 12th. Miss Harrison gave a demonstration on patterns, combined with stain removals and care of clothing, which was very interesting.

Thirteen members were present as follows: Mmes. C. C. Whipp, A. E. Daniel, E. E. Alexander, R. E. Townsen, B. W. Trent, A. E. Leveirett, J. B. Moore, R. E. Calbank, Jim Ward, W. Moore, J. C. McCarty, Francie Alexander, L. E. Daniel, and H. F. Lindly.—Reporter.

Miss Inez Sanders left Sunday to visit with relatives at Roby and Trent. She expects to be away most of the summer.

"For $1.55 I replaced that dusty curtain hanging in the corner with a well organized family clothes and linen closet", said Mrs. Loyd McCormick, wardrobe demonstrator for New Home demonstration club, in her report of wardrobe work done, to Miss El Fleda Harrison, county home demonstration agent.

"This is the way I did it", stated Mrs. McCormick. "I spent $1.55 for 2x4's for frame work and for nails. For sides of closet I used pasteboard from large pasteboard cartons, and reinforced with apple and orange or crate materials. I took the old shelves from the corner and built shelves across one end, and for one shelf near the top the entire length of closet I used an old ironing board. I tacked white oil cloth on the walls back of the shelves, and on wall which makes back of closet I tacked an old sheet. This gives light to closet and keeps out sand. The other inside part of closet is prepared with scraps of light colored wall paper. I used a mop and a broom handle and made rods on which to hang garments. I placed the rods for the children's garments low enough for them to reach it conveniently. I find this saves me time each day, because the children get their clothes in dressing for school and also hang them up instead of throwing them on the bed or over the back of a chair."

When Mrs. Loyd McCormick enrolled as wardrobe demonstrator for New Home Club and found that one requirement of the demonstrator was to provide a well organized closet she immediately said, "I just have shelves and a curtain and I can't afford to build a closet." Now Mrs. McCormick says, "I am thoroughly convinced any one who is willing can have a better and more adequate closet or storage space for clothing."

Dr. Kellam At Baptist Sunday

Dr. J. J. Kellam of Dallas will fill the pulpit at the Baptist Church next Sunday morning and evening, according to R. E. Key, chairman of the committee on services.

Dr. Kellam, is well remembered, held a revival meeting here about three years ago. He is a very able preacher and his messages are always helpful. He is now engaged in field work for Buckner Orphan's Home. He hopes to spend the entire week in this section of the state. Morning services at 11 and evening services at 8:15. Everybody cordially invited.

Announce Gifts To The Red Cross

Many thanks for all of this. We need dried beans and dried peas. We also have an urgent need for three dresses for a lady and her daughter, size 36, and one pair of low heeled shoes, size 5 1/2. This family has been hard hit by three years drought and two operations, one is now in bed not expected to recover and this lady and her daughter are badly in need of these dresses. May some one not donate these.

All our appeals for baby clothes have been supplied and many thanks to all these parties who donate. You are the ones that help feed and clothe the needy.

Lynn County Chapter Red Cross, B. P. Maddox, Chairman.

Mrs. Pledger Coleman, who underwent a major operation in a sanitarium in Lubbock on Monday of last week, is reported to be recovering as speedily as could be expected and it is thought that she will be able to return to her home here within a few days.

Charles Eubanks of Glenwood, Iowa, is here visiting his brother, Jesse Eubanks.

PLAN SCHOOL ON HOOK RUGS

Women Offered Instruction In The Making of Hook Rugs By Miss Harrison

On Tuesday, May 24, a hook rug training school will be held in the Home Economics laboratory at the high school building, beginning promptly at 9 A. M., according to Miss El Fleda Harrison.

The program will consist of discussion and designing of hook rugs. Color combinations will be worked out in rug designs, and dyeing and bleaching demonstrations will be given, as well as demonstrations in hooking and finishing rugs and mats.

"We want two women from each ladies club", Miss Harrison stated, "and bed room demonstrators from all the girls clubs will attend."

Plea Of Guilty Is Entered By Cobb

On Monday Vincent Cobb entered a plea of guilty to an affray in the justice court, and his fine was assessed at $1.00 and costs.

Vincent was involved with B. S. Cavender in a fight which occurred at a party at a private residence in the Midway community recently, in which Cavender was seriously injured by a blow with a spade wielded by Vincent's younger brother, his skull being crushed.

Cavender, who was taken to a sanitarium for treatment, is said to be improving satisfactorily.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hobbs, who have been in California the past two years, have returned to Wilson, their former home, to reside. Mrs. Hobbs is better known here as Miss Velma Dawson and is a sister of Mrs. L. Lamsden.

Negro School Is Closed Tuesday

Closing exercises at the negro school were held here Tuesday night. There were two grammar school graduates, Willie Lee Deo and Daisy Mae Deo.

The program consisted of several one-act plays, recitations, songs, and a splendid talk by the teacher, Charles Deo.

There has been an enrollment of 24 in this school this year, with 17 in regular attendance. They have had a good school, it is said. The teacher, Charles Deo, is a well-informed and most useful member of his race.

Plan Opening Of New Wool Market

Lubbock, May 18—The ever increasing number of South Plains farmers raising sheep will be interested to know that J. C. Street of Lubbock is opening a year round market outlet for wool.

Expert wool classifiers, with experience in the Plains territory, will grade the wool, and wool buyers will be brought in to bid on the fleecy product.

Heretofore sheep men have experienced difficulty in disposing of the wool at a fair price because regular buyers could not afford to come to this section for such a small quantity.

The wool will be concentrated at a bonded warehouse and when a sufficient quantity is on hand to justify the buyers to come, buyers and the owners will be notified and a date for the bargaining will be set.

Opportunity to ship the wool through the Lone Star Wool-Mohair Co-operative Association will likewise be offered through the Street marketing organization.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Harris have as their guests this week Mr. Harris' father, W. A. Harris, his brother, E. E. Harris, and wife, and his sister-in-law, Mrs. May Harris, all of Marietta, Cass county. Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Harris are the parents of Leonard Harris, who is in school here, and Mrs. May Harris is the mother of Miss Evelyn Harris, who is also in school here. They will leave for home about the end of the week.

A train of thought is the real thing in rapid transit.

Friday's Program Ends School Term

Honor Rev. Hull At Sunday School

Services at the Baptist Church Sunday night were conducted by members of the Men's Bible Class that meets each Sunday morning in the English Theatre. The officers of the class told something of their duties and of the work in this class, which has from forty to fifty men of the town in attendance each Sunday morning.

A unique service was held in the theatre Sunday morning. In lieu of the regular lesson study, a memorial service was held in honor of the pastor and teacher, Rev. O. J. Hull, who recently died. Nearly every man present had something appropriate to say and most of them pledged to redouble their efforts in behalf of the class and its work now that the teacher is gone. Many earnest tributes were paid to the memory of Brother Hull.

Canyon Exes To Hold 'Feed' Here

Among those appearing on the program will be President and Mrs. J. A. Hill, M. J. Weaver, Happy Smith, Rev. H. C. Smith, and others.

Nelson Addresses Seniors At Plains

County Attorney G. H. Nelson made the address to the graduating class of the high school at Plains in Yoakum county on Thursday night of last week. He was accompanied by Mrs. Nelson and children and by Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Clinton, who visited their daughter, Mrs. Derwood McGinty, at Plains.

Mr. Nelson says that the class was not large yet there seems to be a fine school spirit there and good work is being done.

LARGE CROWD HEARS SMITH

President J. A. Hill Will Deliver Class Address Here On Friday Night

Dr. J. A. Hill president of the West Texas State Teachers College and also of the Texas State Teachers Association, will deliver the commencement address to the graduating class of Tahoka high school Friday night at 8 o'clock. Other numbers on the program include the valedictory and salutatory addresses by Helen Applewhite and Margaret Wetzel, respectively, certification of graduates by Prin. M. J. Weaver, presentation of diplomas by president of the school board R. C. Wood, presentation of scholarships by Supt. J. B. Pace Jr., and several musical numbers.

In spite of the rain and mud a large congregation assembled in the high school auditorium last Sunday morning to hear the baccalaureate sermon delivered by Rev. H. C. Smith, pastor of the Methodist Church here, to the 1932 graduating class. Brother Smith's sermon was one of the best that has ever been heard here on a like occasion. On Tuesday evening of this week the class program was given.

Kenneth Reid, the president of the class, delivered the welcome address. Miss Helen Applewhite rendered a piano solo, "End of a Perfect Day", Miss Eloise Clark, as historian, read the history of the class, and Miss Echo Milliken, as class prophet, told the future of the individual members. Miss Myrtle Cooper was the class poet. "Good Citizenship" was the title of a paper by Miss Auda Mae Aycox, while "Good Character" was the theme discussed by Cleveland Littlepage. The Class will be read by Curtis Stevens. The class song, composed by Miss Evelyn Harris; a duet, "Smiling Through", sung by Misses Mildred and Margaret Wetzel; and a violin solo, "4th Air Varie", given by Miss Margaret Wetzel, were other musical numbers on the program. Presentation of the class token to the Junior Class was made by Miss Tommie Milliken, and acceptance of the token was by Woodrow Walker. The program closed with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" by the class.

Honor students in the class this year have been announced as follows: Miss Helen Applewhite, general average for the year, 92.5 percent; Margaret Wetzel, 89.75; Cleveland Littlepage, 88.5; Tommie Milliken, 86.5. Scholarships will be granted to the girl and boy making highest average for the year. Superintendent Pace announces, and these will therefore be granted to Miss Helen Applewhite and Cleveland Littlepage.

Office Seekers Attend Banquet

Most of the Lynn county candidates and many of the district candidates attended a banquet served in the high school building in O'Donnell Saturday night. They report that in spite of the rain a good sized crowd was present and a general good time was enjoyed.

The candidates say furthermore that the feast that was spread by the ladies was one of the best ever, while an orchestra dispensed sweet music.

The candidates spoke at Gordon on Tuesday night of this week and will speak at Draw Friday night. They will speak at Three Lakes on Tuesday night of next week.

The News learns that Miss Lola Smith, graduate of the Tahoka high school of the class of 1930, and who has been teaching at Joe Stokes the past year, underwent a major operation in a Lubbock sanitarium last week, and is said to be recovering satisfactorily. She is a sister of Happy Smith of this city.

A cheerful liar must be a great comfort to himself.

THE TEXAS DEMOCRATIC FIASCO

A moist delegation to the Democratic National Convention from Texas seems to be forecast by the results of the precinct and county conventions last Saturday and Tuesday.
This does not necessarily mean that there will be an expression on prohibition by the State Convention at Houston. It may mean merely that the personnel of the Texas delegation to Chicago will be predominately moist. An effort will be made, to be sure, to have the State Convention go on record on the prohibition question, and it is just possible that a resolution favoring a national referendum on the question will be adopted. But whether this happens or not, it seems certain that a majority of the delegates named by the convention will favor some form of modification of national prohibition, and probably will vote a moist plank in the platform, if such a plank is reported. Most of the ultra-dry leaders who have appeared as delegates

in Democratic National Conventions during the past twelve years or more will be conspicuous by their absence from this year's delegation.
Indeed, many of them will not represent their counties in the State convention this year, and only the belief that the adoption of a wet resolution would tend to injure the candidacy of Speaker Garner is expected to prevent such action by the State convention. The precinct primaries resulted in the most complete overturning of the usual order of things that has been witnessed in Texas since the World War.—The Texas Weekly.

The truth of the business is that the precinct and county conventions were a huge joke. Probably not one voter in a hundred in Texas attended either the precinct or the county conventions. These conventions are never largely attended, but the attendance was doubtless greatly reduced this year by the action of the state committee in requiring a written pledge of every person entering a precinct convention. Many voters who otherwise would have attended these conventions refused to bow the knee to Raal. Others stayed out pledge or no pledge, because they did not care to become "honor bound" to vote for the Democratic nominee regardless of everything.
Party organization is necessary and party loyalty is usually commendable, but most people have quit wearing a brass collar and a ring in the nose.

It is to be hoped that every person who was in any way involved in the kidnaping and murder of the Lindbergh baby may be apprehended and properly punished. Criminality in America has become so bold and so shocking as to constitute a challenge to all government.
It is apparently well organized and amazingly powerful. Racketeering, bootlegging, hijacking, bank-robbing, kidnaping, and other forms of criminality are all being done on a large scale and there seems to be a "community of interest" among the criminals who indulge in these forms of crime. Therefore, when we assist or encourage in the commission of any one of these forms of crime we are assisting and encouraging the commission of all the other forms. No man can patronize the bootlegger without giving aid and encouragement to organized crime of every character. No juror can condone the offense of bootlegging without lending comfort and encouragement to the bootlegger, the racketeer, the professional criminal of every kind throughout our entire country. We have said before but we say it again, that it is high time for citizens and jurors to quit temporizing with crime of any kind.

At last Governor Sterling has announced that he will be a candidate for re-election. Almost at the same time came the announcement of M.
H. Wolfe, cotton man, of Dallas, that he would be a candidate. Mrs. Ferguson and Tom Hunter have been in the running for a long time. Thus there are four candidates for the governorship. Walter Woodward of Coleman, Clint Small of Amarillo, and Edgar Witt of Waco, all of whom were intending to run in the event that Sterling should decide not to run, have shied off. Woodward and Small expect to remain in the Senate while Witt will run again for lieutenant governor, and all of them are expecting to be in the race for governor two years hence. With Sterling, Hunter, Wolfe, and the Fergusons all in the race, business will probably pick up in the political field pretty soon. When Jim Ferguson swings into action he is sure to arouse the ire of Dan Moody and other political and personal enemies, and then the fur will fly. Well, in the excitement, may be we will forget the depression.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET
One of the lovely entertainments
of the year honoring the Seniors
was the annual Junior-Senior banquet at Wilson High School given by the Juniors and their very efficient sponsor, Miss Sallie Beth Wright.
The tables suggested Washington's time, with cupies dressed in colonial style down the centers. The silver and oak candlesticks held red, white and blue tapers. Place cards and programs also carried out the Washington idea. The beautiful vase of red and white roses with blue larkspurs
on the piano completed decorations.
Lloyd Swann, president of the Junior Class, presided as toastmaster.
The program opened with the song,
"Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here",
led by Miss Evva Faye Huffaker.
Rev. Partin gave the invocation.
Jyles Shaw gave the words of welcome and the response was given by Rev. H. L. Thurston.

During the meal the following program was given: Misses Evalyn and Zelta Campbell sang, "Father of the Land We Love"; Miss O'Berá Forrester read "The Negro Wedding"; Rev.
C. N. Roth gave a violin solo, accompanied at the piano by Miss Maggie George; Mr. A. L. Faubion
then introduced the principal speaker of the evening, Mr. W. E. (Happy) Smith of Tahoka, who took for his subject, "The Journey of Life", and very ably discussed it from the seniors' viewpoint of life. Piano solo by Miss Maggie George; senior will, Miss Sedonia Mueller; acceptance, J. W. Partin Jr.; toast to the Juniors, J. T. Fountain.

Courses were laid for the following guests: W. E. Smith, Revs. J. W.
Partin, C. N. Roth, H. L. Thurston,
M. J. Scaer, the faculty and Seniors, numbering in all 51.
The faculty of the Wilson High School together with the Seniors enjoyed a very splendid program at the English Theatre, Tahoka, Tuesday evening as guests of Mr. and Mrs. English. There were 14 members of the faculty and 11 seniors.
Rev. H. L. Thurston, Messrs. Noel and Norman Galloway tried their luck as fishermen at Two Draw lake
the first of the week.

Mrs. Eva McCormick and family visited relatives at New Home Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hobbs attended the Chamber of Commerce meeting
at Sweetwater last week.
A heavy rain accompanied by a severe wind visited us Sunday evening. Lakes over the community were filled. Most everyone is busy planting, taking advantage of the very fine season that is now in the ground. Lots of gardens are far enough advanced that vegetables of many different kinds are being used from them.

Fourteen would-be fishermen and
-women left Wilson Saturday afternoon about five and arrived at Two Draw Lake, Post, just in time to get wood for a camp fire and everything set for a trial at fishing when rain and hail, one of the heaviest rains of the year, fell putting a finish to the fishing part of the program. A great feast was spread, followed by a program of games, songs and reading. The party returned home near the midnight hour.

Richard Schubert, employed at the L. Lumsden home, received a very painful wound Saturday afternoon
while cleaning an automatic pistol.
He thought the gun was on safety
when it was accidentally discharged, the ball entering the leg above the knee and coming out below the knee.
He was rushed to a hospital at Lubbock for treatment, where he remained several days.

Miss Jewel Redwine of Tahoka
spent several days of last week visiting her aunt, Mrs. W. B. Bishop.
Misses Evva Faye Huffaker and Mavis Carney were Sunday visitors
in Slaton.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Crosby and family, Mrs. J. C. Key and daughters Misses Rob Elane and Marjorie, attended a recital at Tahoka Friday evening.
Mrs. Bass Baker is being treated twice daily by a specialist for a serious throat trouble that developed several days ago and has steadily grown worse until much concern is felt for her.

Yes, and the supply of meat and related products stays at about the same level from year to year; this supply was no smaller in 1931 than in 1930.

Thus, in depression years, as in boom years, there is absolute need for a nation-wide, diversified, economical marketing system.

How Swift & Company, with such a system, marketed more pounds of products during 1931 than in 1930, despite low consumer purchasing power and at lower service cost, is told in the 1932 Year Book.

Thirty years ago this company deliberately set out to diversify by handling produce as well as meats. Now it has more than a hundred stations where eggs, poultry and dairy products are bought and processed. Swift & Company enhances demand for produce by advertising brands of high quality, Swift's Premium Milk-Fed Chicken, Golden West Fowl, Swift's Brookfield Butter, Eggs, Cheese and many other products.

Selling and buying on a national scale, the Swift & Company organization avoids the gluts and shortages characteristic of restricted markets. Being diversified, it spreads costs more thinly over all products; the same refrigerator cars are equipped to carry either meat or produce; the same branch houses handle them; the same salesmen take orders for both.

Read in the 1932 Year Book how this diversity helped to stabilize operations, to keep volume normal and to further reduce our marketing costs, already declared by the National Distribution Council in 1925 to be the lowest in seventeen trades studied.

The Year Book is packed with a hundred items of information about Swift & Company's nation-wide cash market. Ask your local Swift Produce Plant for a copy or use the coupon.

MRS. GILES IS HOSTESS TO NEW LYNN CLUB

The New Lynn Club met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Hiram Giles. The subject of the meeting was "Care and Storage for Clothing."

Miss El Fleda Harrison, Home Demonstration Agent, gave a demonstration on the removal of stains. Taking Javelle Water she removed pecan stain from a white linen suit which had been washed and boiled a number of times with the stain in it. After each application of the Javelle Water the suit was rinsed out in clear cold water. Javelle Water should never be left in the garment as it will weaken the fibers, thus causing holes. Javelle Water can be made by the following recipe:

Javelle Water
 1/2 pound washing soda.
 1 quart of water.
 1/2 pound Chloride of Lime.
 2 quarts of water.

Dissolve washing soda in one quart of water and the Chloride of Lime in two quarts of water. Let set one hour, then pour lime water into the soda water. This can be used on cottons and linens but should never be used on colors as it bleaches.

Those present at the meeting were: Mesdames Hiram Giles, E. B. Terry, J. A. Jaynes, Mary Robbins, John Spears, Jim Wetsel, Lee Fay Cox, Lynn Yandell, R. W. Barton, Miss El Fleda Harrison and Miss May Levacy. Visitors were Misses Irene Terry, Marie Barton, Helen Cox, and Margie Higginbotham. The next meeting will be at the club house. ## PEARSON SEEKS COURT OFFICE

Amarillo Attorney Announces For Court Of Civil Appeals

Announcement that he is a candidate for Associate Justice, Court of Civil Appeals, Seventh Supreme Judicial District, is made by Perry S. Pearson, prominent Amarillo Attorney, who has been practicing law in for 20 years. Judge Pearson is widely known thru-out the Panhandle. Although he has never held public office he has a wide experience in a judicial capacity, having been appointed and elected to serve as special judge in various courts in Amarillo and in many Panhandle counties during his career in Amarillo. He has served as judge in numerous district courts, has been special master in United States District Court, has been appointed to act as special referee in bankruptcy in Federal Court and has occupied the bench on many occasions in Potter County Court.

PERRY S. PEARSON

Has Special Training
 His friends point to this special training, to his extensive practice in all phases of civil law and to his natural temperament along judicial lines as especially qualifying him for the office of Associate Justice of the Court of Civil Appeals. Mr. Pearson has devoted his entire practice for the past 12 year to civil law. Judge Pearson was born and reared in Stewart County, Ga., graduating from Mercer University at Macon, Ga., with an A. B. degree in 1898. After teaching school one year he attended the law school of George Washington University at Washington for three years, receiving an LL. B. degree in 1902. He worked and earned his way through law school. He practiced law in Atlanta, Ga., for nine years and moved to Amarillo in 1911.

He has been active in civic affairs and in all matters pertaining to the judiciary, having served as president of the Amarillo Bar Association. His candidacy is subject to the Democratic primary. He observes in this connection, "I believe that all judicial decisions should be wholly non-partisan."

He was admitted to the bar in 1903 and has been engaged in the active practice of law in both State and Federal Courts for 29 years. (Political Advertisement)

It would have taken 114 old roosters to have equaled the price H. H. Campbell of Motley county received the other day for 19 capons. He produced 100 capons last year and the county agent reports that his will increase the crop this season.

U. OF T. SECURES LARGE DOCUMENT COLLECTION

Austin, May 18—A large collection of documents has just been presented to the University of Texas library by the children of the late John Summerfield of Dallas, pioneer surveyor, land-locator and ranchman. This collection of over 27,000 documents throws new light on the vast history of ranching in the western half of Texas as well as depicting the history and administration of Texas land and the introduction of settlers into the Panhandle. The donors of these papers were the children of Mrs. Nellie Summerfield Mitchell and E. C. Summerfield of Dallas, Douglas W. Summerfield of Santa Monica, Calif., and Avery K. Summerfield of New Orleans.

John Summerfield, of English birth came to America and was employed first as a United States surveyor running boundary lines in Colorado, Kansas and in the Indian territory, in 1874 and 1875. The following year he came to Texas to take charge of land locating parties of Jot Gunter and W. B. Munson of Sherman, the first and largest firm ever engaged in locating land in Texas. Summerfield began his work in the Panhandle and West Texas, locating, surveying and selling millions of acres of land in this region in the '70's and '80's. Some years later, Summerfield Gunter and Munson went into the ranching business in the Panhandle, where they built up the famous "T Anchor" brand. Their headquarters were established in Randall County. The old ranch house is still standing, and is said to be the oldest in the Panhandle.

Four-H club girls in Tarrant county built 84 hot beds for their gardens this year, bringing the total in use by girls in the county to 162. Of the 267 girls growing gardens, 253 were forced to plant over because of the spring freeze.

In a recent month Mason county home demonstration club women made more than 1000 gallons of cheap milk into American cheese for home use and a small amount for sale.

Opinions Of Our Readers

UNCLE PETE AND THE BEER TAXERS

dear mr. hill. I might as well say to start with that all I know is what I read in the Lynn Co. News and the Star-Telegram. If it wasn't for these two papers and a few others me and Will Rogers wouldn't know nothin' would we mr. hill?

Most everybody these days is shy of any tax revision program for fear they will have to pay more for themselves but I seen a piece in the startelegram about the mayor of New York getting up a beer for taxation wet parade. Now since even millionaires are dodging all the taxes they possibly can, it will seem strange to see 100,000 men and women, too poor to feed their own children, marching down the street yelling like Comanche Indians for a chance to shoulder a big slice of the rich man's burden. Brave unselfish fellows—you never saw a drinking man yet but was crazy to pay more than his share of the liquor taxes.

A week or so ago I heard Senator Bingham make a beer taxation speech over at the English Theatre. Poor man; I knowed he was in earnest and if you could of seed the way his mouth and eyes moved you'd of said he never had a stingy bone in him and was ready to sign up right then for a whole barrel of beer taxes. But the Senator seemed to think he wouldn't have none to pay, for he had already talked with his bootlegger, which some worthy gent had expressed a willingness to balance the entire budget with beer taxes if he could only stop them dry agents popping away at him and him thinking all the time they was hijackers.

When you and me and Judge Rogers was all barefooted boys together down around Waco we thought the drunkard ragged wife and his starving children paid the beer taxes at the wash tub and other places but now we know the bootlegger is going to pay all of them, so us and them wild-eyed dry fanatics we used to listen to will be proved up for back numbers if the Senator keeps on. A beer tax will sure kill the chain stores for if enough beer is bought they will die of themselves. Bingham said he wanted to turn into beer the grain that is rotting in the warehouses but did not say how making beer of rotte grain would help the farmers. $100 spent for beer makes a market for $5 worth of grain; spent for whiskey only a dollar's worth, but spent for chain store goods from $20 to $50 worth, so bring back beer and help the farmers.

The old illiterate Liechert carried Texas wet with a whoop and found 300 Catholic priests and colored preachers dripping wet and only 400 white preachers dry—looks dangerous dont it? New York will have a beer for taxation parade with one-seventh of the population in line and our own little city can do that well. Let 25 wet patriots anxious to pay beer taxes line up and march all around the square and down to the depot and back—that sure would put a scare into the hearts of these fanatical dries. Chris. L. Adair.

ACCORDING TO LAW

Candidates for public office are required by law to submit detailed reports of cash expenses in the campaigns—but an up-state candidate, some time ago went the law one better and submitted a report that will stand for all time as unique and different. After listing his cash disbursements, which were small, he said:

"Lost, four months and 20 days canvassing; lost 1,360 hours of sleep thinking about the election; lost 40 acres of corn and a whole lot of sweet potatoes while not attending to my farm chores; lost two front teeth and a lot of hair in a personal encounter with an opponent; donated one beef, four shoats and five sheep to church barbecues; gave away two pair of suspenders, five calico dresses, five dolls and 13 baby rattlers; kissed 126 babies; kindled 14 kitchen fires and put up eight stoves; cut 14 cords of wood and carried 24 buckets of water; gathered seven loads of corn and pulled 470 bundles of fodder; walked 4,000 miles, shook hands 8,000 times, told 16,500 lies, and talked enough to make 100,000 volumes; attended 26 revival services; was baptised four times, twice by immersion and twice some other ways, contributed $50 to foreign missions; got dog bit 39 times, AND THEN GOT DEFEATED!"

Even the lowly hog wants the lion's share.

BANKERS DEVELOP NEW FINANCE AID

President of American Bankers Association Describes Plan and Services of National Credit Corporation

NEW YORK.—The National Credit Corporation, a billion dollar cooperative institution, is the method worked out by bankers to put into practical effect the central point in President Hoover's plan for renewing the commerce and industrial activity of the nation as proposed in his statement to the nation of October 7. Harry J. Haas, president of the American Bankers Association stated in a recent interview.

The corporation is strictly cooperative in character, he said, to unite the entire banking system and increase the effectiveness of the financial services of banks to their communities in the rural districts as well as the cities. The plan will marshal the banking resources of the country, he explained, by creating a national institution whose funds will be loaned when necessary to banks which have assets in their portfolios that are thoroughly sound but are not eligible for loans at federal reserve banks.

To Benefit Everybody "There is no citizen in the United States but will benefit in very practical ways from the results of the operation of this forward-looking plan of cooperation, which may be regarded as one of the most constructive steps that have been taken toward revival of sound business activity," Mr. Haas declared, adding:

"The National Credit Corporation represents an instrumentality that should have far-reaching effect in restoring the confidence of the public. The plan not only has been formulated by the country's leading banking authorities, but also will be carried out locally as well as nationally by banking representatives who have given their time and thought to this undertaking as a real public service."

"The American Bankers Association convention was in session at the time the plan was proposed and unanimously endorsed it in principle. I have examined the detailed formulation of the working plans as developed by the incessant labors of some of the Nation's leading bankers who have undertaken to put it into practical operation in single-minded devotion to the national welfare, and I am able to say without reservation that the National Credit Corporation as set up by them constitutes a practical, sound and efficient means for carrying out President Hoover's proposal."

Relatives and friends of Albert Curry, now of Abilene but formerly of Tahoka, learned for the first time last Sunday that that he is a married man, according to Borden Davis, a brother-in-law. ### CUTWORM CONTROL

When the plants are set out wrap the stems with one thickness of newspaper so that it will extend around the plant one inch below the ground and two inches above. If the plants are already set out, cutworms can be controlled by putting one-fourth teaspoonful of bran mash at the base of each plant late in the evening. It is made by mixing together one pound of white arsenic or Paris Green, 20 pounds of wheat bran, 6 finely ground lemons and juice, 2 quarts of cheap molasses and enough water to make the mixture moist but not sticky.—El Fleda Harrison, County Home Demonstration Agent.

Fifty-Four Years Of Pioneering On The Plains Of Texas

SOLDIERS RID WEST TEXAS OF THE INDIANS

Other important Indian fights of West Texas fit in here very well. These have been told before, but I may be able to add a few facts. Even West Texas has an interesting historical background, and I am telling these facts in order that our citizens may know more of the actual truths concerning this background of our country and the pioneers who made possible its development.

Jim Chick, a Texas ranger, with whom I used to work and knew very well back in Palo Pinto county, told me the story that follows. He was a participant in the expedition and fight and knew the details.

Sul Ross, later governor of our state, on one of his trips out to West Texas to fight Indians that were raiding the frontier, captured an Indian boy, carried him back to Waco and raised and educated him. His white captors gave him the name Pease Ross, the first name for the Pease river where he was taken, and the last for Sul Ross.

Cynthia Ann Parker, whose name is better known to the reading public, was taken in the same battle.

That was in 1860. About twenty-five years previously, the Indians had captured Cynthia Ann as a small girl during a raid in Central Texas. She grew up, learned the Indian language and ways of living, forgot her native tongue, married the Indian chief Nocona, and was the mother of the late Chief Quanah Parker of the Comanches, for whom Quanah, Texas, is named.

Ross and about a hundred or more Rangers, soldiers, and other Indian fighters surprised the band of Comanches at their camp on the Pease, killing men, women, and children before the Indians hardly realized what was taking place. Noticing a woman with blue eyes and light hair among the Indians, Ross saved her and the small child she carried in her arms. Although she was returned to her white relatives, she was never satisfied living with her own race. The Indian boy was also picked up from the battle field by one of the Rangers and carried to camp. Ross took a liking to the boy and adopted him.

After Pease had grown up, he left Ross and came out to Palo Pinto county and went to work for the Slaughters in 1874 or '75. I knew him well and worked with him there for several months in 1876. He was a good cowhand, but he got into trouble with a woman and she horse-whipped him, after which he left and we never heard of him again.

When we came to Crosby county, the trail Gen. Mackenzie and his men made on their expedition through that country in 1874 was still visible. The wagons had been driven two abreast in order that they might be close together for use as breast-works in case of an Indian attack.

The slaughter of the buffalo was then on. An attempt was being made to keep the Indians confined in Indian Territory, but the killing off of the buffalo probably ired the redskins a little and they were giving more and more trouble among the settlements. The U. S. Government set about to stop these Indian depredations and commissioned General Nelson A. Miles and General "Black-Jack" Mackenzie to make war against all Indians caught off the reservations.

Miles worked up in Kansas and the Northern Panhandle and drove many Indians back to the territory. But one large tribe, instead of going back to the Territory, headed south down the Palo Duro Canyon. Mackenzie, who was the best Indian fighter ever in the Southwest, and his company of 650 or 700 men came up from the south by way of Fort Griffin and Blanco Canyon, going out on the Plains just above Silver Falls. Marching on to the Palo Duro, he met this large tribe and soon the famous Mackenzie battle was on. Many of the Indians got away, but Mackenzie captured and killed about 1500 head of their horses, those killed being left almost in one pile. He killed the horses in order to put the Indians afoot so that they would have to return to the Territory.

After the battle, Mackenzie and his men went on north to the Tascosa country. At this time both Mackenzie and Miles were rising army officers and full of ambition. Miles had a strong political pull at Washington and was in line for advancement. There was possibly a bit of rivalry and enmity between the two. The story is told that one moonlight night Mackenzie was sitting on a log looking into the starry skies when a fellow-soldier walked up and asked him what he was doing.

"Oh, just star-gazing," was Mackenzie's reply.

"There are Miles between you and that star," was the discouraging but truthful remark returned by the soldier.

Following one of the raids on down-state outposts by Indians, in about 1875, I think, Captain Nolan and his company of negro soldiers, the 10th U. S. Colored Cavalry, set out in pursuit of the trouble-makers. In addition to the soldiers, Nolan had a Mexican guide, Jose by name, and several buffalo hunters. Among the latter were Dick Wilkerson, Jim Harvey, and Bill Chris, who told me the story of their expedition and its fatal ending.

The party followed the Indian trail across the rough country east of the Plains and out onto the prairie of Lynn and Terry counties. It was summer time—hot and dry—and all the water the party had was in their canteens. Jose was supposed to know the country. But, the Indians knew it better, and through their cunning starved out their foe and "gave them the slip." With Nolan well to their rear during the chase, the Indians, knowing the country perfectly, would take turn about dropping away from the main body of the tribe in small parties to nearby lakes for water. This they kept up for about two days. Nolan and his men, not realizing the close proximity of water or the meaning of the Indians' antics, soon were almost starving. This led to dissension in the party. Some wanted to turn back. Jose said water was closer to the west than to the east. Nolan wanted to go on and gave the order to do so. But Wilkerson, Harvey, Chris, and the other civilians said they were their own bosses and would turn back. Whereon, the negro soldiers also refused to go ahead. Thirst-crazed, the party split up, finally ending in each man, including Nolan, attempting to return to water and civilization on his own hook.

At least 14 negroes starved to death or were never accounted for. Some of the men killed a horse and drank the blood to keep from starving until they could finally straggle to watering places. Some of the negroes were said to have starved near lakes of Lynn and Terry counties where they could have gotten water from springs.

These Indian fighters, the buffalo hunters and the settlers who were rapidly extending their lines westward finally put the Indian back on his reservation and opened up this great section to development. The fighters killed many Indians and kept them harassed by hostilely meeting them on every front.

Frequently the buffalo hunters are censured by our present-day folks for the wanton slaughter they practiced in killing off the buffalo. However, this was a great factor in putting the Indian out of the way so that the settlers could come in.

The buffalo was almost the sole existence of the Indian. It was his food; its hide furnished him clothing for his body and cover for his teepee. Not before the millions of buffalo that roamed West Texas prairies until the late '70's had been killed off, was it possible to force the Indians into confinement. And when we start censuring those who slaughtered this wild game by the thousands for sport and profit, we should take into consideration the fact that had these animals not been killed it would have been many more years before the Indians could have been subdued.

Next Week: Buffalo and Mustang Pony Hunters.

The yearly per capita consumption of canned food has risen steadily until it is now estimated at fifty-four cans per person. Growth of the food canning industry is indicated by the increase from 41,000 tons a year twenty-five years ago to more than 200,000 tons in 1931. Texas stands thirty-fifth in the commercial food canning industry.

Mrs. J. H. Jeffcoat and Mrs. C. J. Anderson and children, Billie Jo and Nadine, of Crowell, were week end guests of Mrs. M. L. Handley and daughter, Miss Lavada. Mrs. Jeffcoat is a sister-in-law of Mrs. Handley.
