CONTEST HELD ON WASH DRESS

72 Women And Girls Participated
In Annual Event Held Here
Last Friday

Seventy-two women and girls participated in the Wash Dress contest held at the high school building here last Friday, according to Miss El Fleda Harrison, home demonstration agent.

At the noon hour, all the visitors spread their lunch together and a veritable feast was enjoyed.

The judging was done by Miss Ma Chitwood, home demonstration agent of Lubbock county.

Winners in the various contests are given below:

In the women's cooperative wash dress contest, Mrs. Robert Cook of Wells won first place; Mrs. J. B. Stokes of Tahoka, second; and Miss Isabel Adams of New Home and Mrs. D. H. Goodnoh of Tahoka, tied for third place.

In wardrobe work for the girls, Margaret Strain of Midway won first place; Irma Macha of Dixie, second; and Zelma Thraillkill of Grassland and Bennie Jo Thompson of Redwine tied for third place.

In the girls cooperative clothing contest, dresses, Carolyn Thomas of Grassland and Claudia Draper of Midway tied for first place; Labusha Macha of Dixie won second; and Georgia Macha of Dixie, third.

Pajamas: Carolyn Thomas of Grassland won first; Labusha Macha of Dixie, second; and Edith Macha of Dixie, third.

Slips: Reva Veach of Draw, first; Marie Veach of Draw, second; and Vera Thraillkill of Grassland, third.

Shorts: Vera Thraillkill of Grassland, first; Marian Draper of Midway, second; and Myrna Heater of Draw, third.

The wardrobe demonstrators for the women have not been announced yet. Miss Harrison says the clothing storage space will be judged before this announcement is made.

Miss Harrison also reports that the Midway Literary Society is planning to give a play to raise funds with which to send Margaret Strain to the annual A. & M. Short Course which begins at College Station July 23. The play, which is entitled "Wild Ginger", is to be given in the auditorium of the Tahoka High School building on Thursday night, July 21. Announcement and cast of characters of this play appear elsewhere in this paper.

ALL-SEW CLUB MEETS

WITH MRS. G. H. NELSON

Mrs. G. H. Nelson was hostess to the All Sew Club Thursday, July 7.

Two hours swiftly passed as we stitched and chatted. Baskets of phlox and sunflowers were tastefully arranged throughout the house. Refreshments of sandwiches and iced tea were served to the club members and our guest, Mrs. Applewhite.

—Reporter.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Burleson are planning to leave Saturday on an extended vacation visit in Colorado Springs, Colo. Jim says he expects to be busy next week pulling mountain trout out of one of those fine Colorado streams and intends to forget all about the depression. He says he may be gone two weeks or two months, depending on how much he enjoys the outing.

Baptist Speakers Are Announced

Announcement is made that Rev. E. V. May, who was pastor of the Brownfield Baptist Church for a number of years and who is a nephew of W. H. May of this county, will fill the pulpit at the Baptist Church here next Sunday morning and night.

This pulpit was filled last Sunday morning by Rev. J. M. Hale, the present pastor at Brownfield. At night Prof. Taylor White spoke, this being the last service before his departure for Odessa, where he will teach next year. Many members of the Methodist and other churches were present in this service.

Many ladies visited the Men's Bible class taught by G. E. Hogan on Sunday morning. Including the visitors, there was a total attendance of eighty in this class Sunday morning.

Oil Stove Explodes, Price Home Burns

The home of W. E. Price in the southeastern part of town was badly damaged by fire about ten o'clock this morning when a gasoline stove in the kitchen exploded. The loss was partially covered by insurance.

A quick run by the fire department saved the four-room frame house from total destruction. Neighbors rushed in and saved much of the furniture and the family's clothing.

Lemonds Enjoy Golden Wedding

The children of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. LeMond came in Sunday to celebrate the golden wedding of their parents. Mr. and Mrs. Lemond were married July 13, 1882, at Georgetown. They have been living in Lynn county since 1907.

One of the boys, Guy LeMond, sent to Georgetown and got the original marriage license, which was used as a part of the table decoration.

A wonderful feast was brought in to the home by the children. The large wedding cake bore the date of the marriage and the present date, and was beautifully decorated in white and gold.

The following children were present: Tom Lemond and family, Tahoka; A. Z. Sewell and family, Tahoka; J. E. Lemond and family, Snyder; Grady Lemond and family, O'Donnell; Roy Lemond and family, Tahoka; Claud Lemond, S. M. U., Dallas. A grand-daughter, Mrs. Leslie Cook, and husband were present; also, a kinsman, L. C. Montgomery, and family from Lubbock.

Every neighbor rejoiced in this celebration with these children and wish Mr. and Mrs. Lemond many more happy days together.

Milt Finch Buys Hamburger Stand

Milt Finch has bought the cafe on Sweet Street formerly known as Bart's Cafe, and Mrs. Finch is now in charge of the business.

The cafe fixtures were owned by Charley Miller of O'Donnell.

Colored People Organize Church

About twenty members of the colored race met at a hall in the northeast part of town Monday night and organized another Baptist church here, which they named the Pleasant Grove Church. The members of the new organization have been members of the Ebenezer Baptist Church in East Tahoka, but due to differences as to policy these members withdrew and effected a new organization.

Rev. Wm. Hicks, missionary for the West Texas Association, colored, was present and acted as moderator.

JUDGE LESLIE HERE

Judge W. P. Leslie of the eleventh court of civil appeals, Eastland, accompanied by his little son Bobby, was a visitor here Tuesday and Wednesday, spending Tuesday night in the home of the editor. Judge Leslie was formerly a resident of Colorado and served about eight years as judge of the 32nd district, during a portion of which time the editor served as his district attorney. Judge Leslie has a number of other warm friends in Tahoka, such as Jim Weatherford, W. S. Swan, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Stokes, Porter Tredway, D. A. Stevens, and others. Jim Weatherford was district and county clerk of Borden county during the time that Judge Leslie served as district attorney there. His friends here are expecting the time to come when they can support him for governor or for a place on the supreme court, as they regard him as a man of highest ability and integrity.

Clifton Janak drove home Saturday for a few days' visit with home-folks and friends in Tahoka, returning Wednesday to his school work in the Amarillo College of Music.

Mrs. B. R. Tate left Wednesday morning to visit relatives in Comanche county. B. R. says that he is likely to hike out most any time.

TURN-OUT ON WHEAT GOOD

Several Report Making Good Money
On Grain; Harvesting Is About Finished

Lynn county's wheat crop is helping in a small way to relieve the depression, according to Jim Burleson, the grain dealer.

Mr. Burleson says that he has shipped twelve cars of wheat from Tahoka and Skein. This means that several thousand dollars have been placed in circulation in this county. No. 1 wheat is now selling from 30 to 32 cents.

A. M. Willingham, Mr. Burleson says, realized about $850.00 from 160 acres of wheat. Mr. Pennington had 400 acres of wheat from which he also realized a handsome sum of money, though some of his wheat was damaged by smut and sold at a low price. His wheat was also badly damaged by hail, 100 acres of his original crop being totally destroyed.

The wheat acreage in Lynn county was larger than usual this year, though much of it was used strictly for pasturage purposes and was not allowed to mature.

HOLD PICNIC

The Red & White stores here were closed Tuesday, the employees attending a Red & White picnic at Two Draw Lake near Post.

White Honored By Aggie Boys

The former Aggie students of Taylor White and their dads honored him with a chicken barbecue out in the T-Bar west of the high school building Thursday night and voted him the most useful citizen of Lynn county.

Boswell Edwards was master of ceremony, and Norvell Redwine and Coughan Ketter made brief talks in praise of their former teacher, who was making his preparations to leave the city.

Dean A. H. Loidigh of the School of Agriculture, Texas Tech, and Prof. W. L. Stangel, head of the Animal Husbandry department, were also present and made brief addresses, in which they warmly praised their good friend and fellow worker.

In response to all these addresses, Mr. White responded fittingly and appreciatively, declaring that he appreciated the fine citizenship of this town and county and that he had enjoyed his work here very much.

Will Present Play At High School

A three-act comedy-drama, to be presented by the Midway Literary society at the Tahoka High School Auditorium, Thursday night, July 21, beginning at 8:30 o'clock. Two and a half hours of fun. Admission: both children and adults, only 10 cents. The purpose is to raise funds to send Miss Margaret Strain of Midway to A. & M. Short Course at College Station, July 23.

The cast of characters:

Jake Tallman, a miserly old pinch penny—Buell Draper.

Geoffrey Freeman, the young hero—Jim Van Dyke.

Sanford Lahey, the bankrupt Millionaire—Cleveland Littlepage.

Harwood Lahey, Sanford Lahey's son—Walthall Littlepage.

Wuzy Walker, would-be chiropractor—L. B. Willis.

Mr. Peterson, the suburban groceryman—Bonis Brower.

Virginia Tallman, Jake's beautiful unkempt kid—Margaret Strain.

Miss Rachel Lee, Virginia's best friend—Clove Nell Snider.

Miss Stanley, the health nurse—Marjorie Tunnell.

Miz Walker, Wuzy's mother—Cliffie Dell Snider.

Bonita Lahey, a pampered daughter of wealth—Marian Draper.

BANKERS BEAT OILERS

The Oilers used four pitchers in an effort to stop the scoring spree of the Bankers Wednesday afternoon when the latter won by a score of 15 to 3. Pete Hegi occupied the mound for the white collar boys, while E. S. Evans, T. J. Bovell, W. T. Bovell, and Clay Bennett took turn about pitching for the Grease Hounds.

COURT JUDGE VISITS HERE

J. E. Hickman, Candidate For Place
On Supreme Court, Visitor
Here Wednesday

Judge J. E. Hickman, chief justice of the eleventh court of civil appeals, which sits at Eastland, was a visitor in Tahoka Wednesday morning, accompanied by young William Leslie, son of his associate, Judge W. P. Leslie, on this court.

Judge Hickman is a candidate for a place on the supreme court of this state, and while two excellent gentlemen are his opponents, he is the only West Texas man in the race. He has been on the court of civil appeals since 1927 and has gained the reputation of being an able lawyer and a most capable judge. He is recognized by the bar generally as a clear-thinking, able jurist, of broad learning and the highest integrity. He possesses a pleasing personality and makes friends readily.

Judge W. P. Leslie, who is also a member of the Eastland court and who is a warm friend of Judge Hickman, was also a visitor in Tahoka Tuesday and Wednesday, calling on a few of his old-time friends here and incidentally speaking a good word for his associate on this court.

Both Judge Hickman and Judge Leslie left Wednesday morning.

Methodists Hold Fine Services

Rev. H. C. Smith preached a most helpful sermon last Sunday morning on "The Cure for a Troubled Heart", speaking from the text "Let not your heart be troubled". The usual church music was augmented by an orchestra composed of some of its former members now summering at home. Lay leader, J. N. Thomas, conducted the preliminary service.

The church school hour was well attended. The adult worship service opened with a prelude, "Melodie" by Massenet, played by Mrs. Lucille Marshall, who also accompanied the solo, "Don't Forget to Pray", sung by her sister, Mrs. Suddarth. Following the solo, Judge Cain made an interesting talk on "The Repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment". The evening hour was dismissed out of courtesy to our Baptist friends who heard Mr. Taylor White speak a farewell message to his fellow-workers and other friends.

An entertaining program was presented at the church on Monday night when motion pictures of the recent Conference Young People's Assembly at McMurry College were shown to an appreciative audience.

This is a busy time but may we not make a special effort to keep up attendance and interest in our services?—Reporter.

Endorse Williams As Congressman

Judge W. Erskine Williams of Fort Worth, candidate for congressman-at-large, place No. 1, "has the highest recommendations of Texas' leading citizens", according to A. L. Lockwood, local chairman of the Erskine Williams Club. Both Bishops Boaz and Hay of the Southern Methodist Church have endorsed him; also 150 lawyers of the Fort Worth Bar Association, Dr. L. R. Scarborough, President of the Baptist Seminary in Fort Worth, and Dr. James K. Thompson of the First Presbyterian Church of Fort Worth, and many leading business and professional men throughout the state. Judge Williams is vice-president for Texas of the American Bar Association. He is a lecturer of note, and delivered a series of lectures at S. M. U. last Fall on the American Constitution. He is a world traveler and thinker, and has spoken on legal and religious topics in China, Brazil, and other foreign countries. He is said to be eminently well qualified to serve Texas in Congress.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Akin were in the city from Newmoores Friday. They were just beginning a vacation trip of several weeks, during which time they expected to visit their children and families residing in Lubbock, Hamilton, Erath, and other counties. They voted before leaving.

War Veterans Will Be Here Thursday

Ferguson Rally At New Home Saturday

There will be a Ferguson rally at New Home next Saturday night, according to J. P. Fulton of that place. J. E. Vickers and Hill Stewart, prominent lawyers of Lubbock, will speak in the interest of Mrs. Ferguson's candidacy for the governorship. Everybody cordially invited.

Bill Ellis Hurls Remarkable Ball

"Wild Bill" Ellis and "Lefty" Squires, both of Tahoka, who have been playing with the Berger and Burlington nines, respectively, in the annual Amarillo News-Globe Tri-State tournament, have been pronounced stars of the series, though many former big league players participated in the games.

The News-Globe says: "Offensively, the tournament's leader was Lefty Squires, who went to bat 20 times in six games for the Burlingtons and hit for the fat average of .539 to lead the tournament."

"The final game was due yesterday, but 'Wild Bill' Ellis, right-handed pitcher of Western League fame, almost single-handed forced the play to an extra game. Ellis turned in as neat a success of baseball's 'iron man' stunt as any fiction writer might relate. He hurled and won a double-header against two different ball clubs. In the first game he beat Mobeetie-Wheeler 7 to 3, and in the second topped Texola, the defending champions 7 to 1.

"In producing his masterpiece of sensational pitching, Ellis struck out 32 batters, 16 in each contest. He was in danger in the eighth inning of the second game when the bases were full and but one out. With perfect control, Ellis retired the side and made victory almost a certainty by striking out two hitters, one a pinch batter and former teammate at Oklahoma City."

However, Texola won the tournament.

Legion Elects New Officials

At a regular meeting of the Marion G. Bradley Post of the American Legion held last Thursday night, new officers were elected as follows: J. C. Eubanks, Post Commander; Sam Holland, first vice commander; L. C. Heath, second vice commander; A. M. Cade, post adjutant; George Reid, post chaplain; Skip Taylor, historian; Frank McGlaun, sergeant-at-arms; K. F. (Buddie) Knight, finance officer; Milt Finch, house custodian; Pete Ort, mess sergeant.

Wilson Edwards left Tuesday afternoon with seventeen fine fat hogs, weighing possibly 350 pounds each, for the Fort Worth market. Mr. Edwards has thirty more of the same kind at his place a few miles west of New Home.

Hogs are bringing fairly good money now and the man who has a bunch is lucky.

Mrs. A. L. Smith was able to return to her home here Sunday, after having undergone a second operation about two weeks ago at the West Texas Hospital in Lubbock. She is said to be improving as rapidly as could be expected. Her husband is manager of the M-System here.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Franklin Young of Los Angeles, Calif., spent Tuesday night here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hill and Mrs. Harley Henderson. They were enroute home from a visit to her parents in Oklahoma.

Miss Barbara Maddox entertained at bridge Thursday afternoon complimenting Miss Zella Stanley of Kansas City, Mo., who has been a visitor in the home of her aunt, Mrs. Rubie D. Suddarth.

20 COUNTIES TO SEND MEN

State Candidates Asked To Attend
Veterans Political Meeting
Here Next Week

World War veterans from twenty counties of the south plains and adjacent territory will meet in Tahoka on Thursday night of next week for the second convention of the West Texas Veterans' Political League, according to Skip Taylor, secretary of the organization.

This organization was perfected at Slaton on July 1 when almost 200 ex-service men from this section met there for the purpose. It is now reported to have a membership of about 1,700. It is strictly a political organization, the purpose being to promote legislation beneficial to war veterans and to support such candidates for state and Federal legislative positions as may be favorable to their cause. A large number of veterans are expected to attend the meeting here next Thursday night, which will be less than two days prior to the first primary.

It is expected that a number of the state candidates will be here to speak to the veterans on this occasion but Mr. Taylor was unable to state definitely who would come.

Briggs Robertson of Slaton is president of the organization; N. C. Outlaw of Post is vice-president; Skip Taylor of Tahoka is secretary; R. J. Allen of Lubbock is treasurer; and Rayburn Metcalfe of Slaton is sergeant-at-arms.

Methodist Revival At Garlynn Soon

Churchgoers at Draw, Grassland, Graham Chapel and other communities in this area will be glad to learn that Rev. Hamilton Wright will begin a two weeks' revival meeting at Garlynn Monday evening, August 1. Services will be held at 11 a. m. and 8:15 p. m. daily thereafter until August 14.

"It will be an old-fashioned Methodist revival with a mourners' bench", Wright said today.

Wright was former pastor at Draw, Grassland and Gossett. In 1928 he held a meeting at Graham Chapel in which there were 60 conversions and 53 additions to the church.

Everybody is urged to attend the Garlynn meeting. We ask the prayers of the people that this may be a great occasion for the salvation of the people and the glorification of Christ.

Barnes Is Moving Shop To Clovis

Buck Barnes, who has been operating a tailor shop here for the past two or three years, is moving his equipment to Clovis, where he will open a shop in the near future.

Mr. Barnes has been reared here and has many friends here who will wish him a full potion of success in his new home.

Judge Martin Is Tahoka Visitor

Judge A. B. Martin, a member of the court of civil appeals at Amarillo by appointment and a candidate for election to the same place, was a visitor in Tahoka Friday.

Judge Martin formerly resided at Plainview, where he practiced law for many years, and he has a number of old-time friends in Tahoka. For many years he was a member of the board of regents of the Texas state teachers colleges. He is a great friend of the college at Canyon and maintains a loan fund for the benefit of students who are making their way through school. He has in the way helped many a struggling young man to secure an education.

LOW-DOWN ON THE CANDIDATES

The News is not seeking to influence anybody's vote in any race further than the dissemination of information relating to the candidates may have that effect. We are giving below some brief information as to candidates in a number of the state races. We can give no information respecting some of the candidates and only meager information respecting others because of our lack of information concerning them.

There are nine candidates on the ballot for governor, although one of these, George W. Armstrong of Fort Worth, has announced his withdrawal. The three leading candidates, apparently, are Gov. Ross Sterling, ex-Governor Miriam A. Ferguson, and Hon. Tom Hunter. No need to comment on the first two. Hunter lives at Wichita Falls. Many years ago he taught school and married in Terry county. He has been engaged in the practice of the law and in the oil business the past several years.
He is waging a fight for the small independent companies as against the big oil interests. M. H. Wolfe of Dallas and Frank Putnam of Houston are also in the race. Wolfe is a cotton broker, a prominent religious worker, and an uncompromising prohibitionist. Putnam is a radical wet.

He tried to make the race on this issue two years ago but received only a handful of votes. We know practically nothing about Frakes of Beaumont, Glenn of Meridian, and Roger Q. Evans of San Antonio, whose names also appear on the ballot.

James V. Allred of Wichita Falls, Clem Calhoun of Amarillo, and Ernest Becker of Dallas are in the race for attorney-general. Allred is now serving his first term. A few months ago he filed suits against a number of the big oil companies, charging them with violation of our anti-trust laws, and seeking heavy penalties and forfeiture of their charters. He is running for re-election on his record. Clem Calhoun of Amarillo, the man who as District Attorney "cleaned Borger up", is his chief antagonist. Calhoun is charging Allred with irregularities, incompetency, and demagoguery in the conduct of the office. We have practically no information at all as to Becker, who seems to be an obscure Dallas lawyer.

L. A. Woods of Waco and Charles
N. Shaver of Huntsville are candidates for state superintendent of public instruction. Shaver is now serving in this capacity, having been appointed a few months ago to serve out the unexpired term of S. M. N.
Marrs, who died in office. Shaver was superintendent of city schools at Huntsville for a number of years before his appointment to the present office. He was a boyhood school-mate of county superintendent H. P.
Caviness of this city, who commends him very highly. Woods has been county superintendent of McLennan county for a number of years and is doubtless a good school man.
J. E. McDonald of Ellis county is serving his first term as commissioner of Agriculture. We know nothing of his opponent, L. A. Seymour of Travis county.

C. V. Terrell of Wise county is one of the railroad commissioners, having served in this capacity for a number of years. Lee Satterwhite now a member of the legislature from the Odessa district is one of his opponents. Satterwhite was formerly a member of the legislature from the Amarillo district and was speaker of the House of Representatives. He is one of the best informed men in Texas with respect to the departments of our government and the public institutions of this state.
He was prominently mentioned as a candidate for governor a few years ago but declined to make the race.
Roy L. Tennants of Bell county, who is another candidate for this office, served on the board of control for a number of years and is likewise well informed concerning state affairs. We know nothing of Jack Patterson of San Antonio, who is also a candidate for this place.

One railroad commissioner is also to be elected to fill out four years of the unexpired term of ex-Governor Pat Neff, who recently resigned to become the head of Baylor University. Ernest O. Thompson, mayor of Amarillo, was appointed early in June to serve until the November election and has just fairly begun his duties in this office. Thompson is a self-made man, having risen from the bottom, and he made a record as mayor of Amarillo in forcing reductions in rates charged by the various public utilities operating in that city. He is a man of broad knowledge and is a born fighter.

Olin Culberson now of Jackson county is one of Thompson's opponents. Culberson was born and reared in Hill county and has a number of personal friends here, who say he is an excellent gentleman. W.
Gregory Hatcher of Dallas, another of Thompson's opponents, served four years as state treasurer, going out of office two years ago, when he was an unsuccessful candidate for another state office. We know nothing of C. A. DeWares of Washington county and Ed T. Murphy of Polk county, who are also candidates for this office.

Judge William Pierson of Greenville is a candidate for re-election as associate justice of the supreme court. He has been serving ably in this position for a number of years.
Justice J. E. Hickman of Eastland and Judge Ocie Speer of Austin are also candidates for the place. Judge Hickman is now serving as associate justice of the court of civil appeals at Eastland and Judge Speer served in a like position on the court of civil appeals at Fort Worth for a number of years. Both are reputed to be able lawyers.

There are thirty-eight candidates for congressman-at-large, three to be elected.

Place No. 1

W. Erskine Williams of Fort Worth, a prominent lawyer, prominent layman of the Methodist church and an outstanding dry.

Geo. B. Terrell of Cherokee, served several years as commissioner of agriculture, going out of office two years ago.

R. B. Hood, prominent criminal lawyer of Weatherford, a wet.

Chealey W. Jurney, former secretary to Senator Culberson, a pronounced wet.

E. G. Senter of Dallas. Has been state senator and prominent in newspaper work. Has also been prominent in state politics for thirty years.

Ida M. Darden of Fort Worth, an uncompromising wet.

Ernest C. Ozro Cox of Travis; ex-service man and prominent in American Legion work.

Pink Parrish of Lubbock; present state senator, prominently mentioned for governor; has always pronounced himself a dry.

The are several other candidates
of whom we know practically nothing.

Place No. 2

Oscar F. Holcombe, former mayor of Houston, dry.

J. H. "Cyclone" Davis; prominent in politics for the past 40 years, campaigning the nation with Bryan,
formerly a leading populist, a militant dry, now a bitter critic of the Hoover-Mellon administration.

W. H. Hawkins, newspaper editor of Stephenville.

Lamar Gill of Willacy county;
lawyer, Mason, Episcopalian, first county judge of Willacy county, member American Legion, favors repeal of Eighteenth Amendment.

Joseph Weldon Bailey Jr. of Dallas; son of the noted Joseph Weldon Bailey, prominent lawyer, opposes national prohibition, staunch advocator of "states rights".

W. E. Myers of Fort Worth; formerly practiced law a short while at Sweetwater; was assistant county attorney at Fort Worth a few years ago.

Mrs. Phebe K. Warner of Claude;
prominent civic worker, dry.

P. L. Downs of Temple; banker, prominent in lodge work, agricultural affairs, and local politics, an outstanding citizen of his city and section.

B. D. Sartin of Wichita Falls lawyer, prominent in politics past few years, dry.

We know nothing of L. J. Sulak of Fayette and G. B. Fisher of San Augustine, who are also candidates in place 2.

Place No. 3

Douglas W. McGregor of Houston;
Assistant U. S. District Attorney.
Sterling P. Strong of Dallas; has served in several public capacities, including state office; long prominent as a dry leader.

Ben F. Harrigel of Fayette county; newspaper editor and publisher;
opposes prohibition.

J. E. Boog-Scott of Coleman; banker, long time prominent in civic and political affairs in Central West Texas.

Julien C. Hyer of Fort Worth;
lawyer, prominent in politics.

A. H. King of Throckmorton; state senator, prominent in politics, dry.

Fifty-Four Years Of Pioneering On The Plains Of Texas

ALLEY BECOMES BOSS ON THE SLAUGHTER RANCH

As small ranchmen began to come in around Colorado Col Slaughter was forced to move his ranch westward; first, from Bull creek to Old German on Rattlesnake Creek; and later to Buffalo, fifteen or twenty miles south of where Lamesa is now. And, in order to be sure of grass, he began buying land, 100,000 acres of which he bought from the T. & P. Railway Company, and about 250,000 or 300,000 acres from various other parties. He also leased a large amount of land from the state and from many individuals. He leased every section of school land from the Wilson county school land in Northeast Lynn county south to Big Spring for ten years at the rate of three cents per acre, $19.40 a section.

In about '84 or '85, Col. Slaughter formed a partnership with either "Ramrod" Johnson or a man named Morrison, I don't remember which, and bought 90,000 acres of land at Nunningwater, about 15 miles west of the present site of Plainview. After two or three years he bought out the partner and placed his oldest son, George M., in charge of that ranch. He used this as a place to winter his young stock from the big Buffalo ranch. The young yearling steers were driven to Nunningwater, where they were given a year's growth, and then driven to Chaning, Bovina, or Hereford and shipped to market, or to Montana. There were usually 7,000 to 10,000 head at Nunningwater.

Shortly after the formation of this smaller ranch, '85 or '86, Jess Evans came down from Kansas City and formed the "TJF" ranch on the head of the Colorado River and Tobacco Creek. But the very wise Col. Slaughter immediately got busy and bought up the head of Tobacco Creek, extending his Buffalo Ranch to the south line of Lynn county. This threw Evans without sufficient water, and it was necessary for him to build tanks. The "TJF" lasted but a few years, Evans getting into financial difficulties and selling out to Slaughter.

During the same period, one of the first postoffices on the lower South Plains was established. "Chicago" was the ambitious-sounding name given the mail station on Go dair and Bishop's Barto (-TO) Ranch in Dawson county.

When I came back to Texas from Colorado and Utah, I went to Dallas and saw Col. Slaughter, and he sent me out to Big Spring to take charge of the Buffalo Ranch. That was in 1894. Bob Slaughter, a son, was general manager of the ranch, having succeeded Gus O'Keefe in about '88.

Henry Perkins was wagon Boss. Col. Slaughter wanted to let this man go, but for certain reasons could not do so right then; so, he told me to go out and work as a cowhand until he let Perkins off. My actual identity was not known to the foreman or to the other boys. They all thought I was just a common cowhand and was drawing the customary $25 or $30 a month salary, when in fact I was drawing $125 a month, a high price then. None of them dreamed that I actually knew very much about the cow business and they dubbed me the "Dallas Dude". They soon began to realize my ability at handling cattle, though, and when the fact became known that I was the actual boss they were ready to carry out my orders.

Though Slaughter's business headquarters was in Dallas, he made frequent trips out to the ranch, coming to Big Spring or Midland on the train and then transferring to a fine carriage for his trip over the ranch. This carriage, built by Hinds, the celebrated buggy worker, and known to the cowboys as the "ambulance", was an exceedingly fine one, drawn by from four to six beautiful dapple-gray horses, and fixed for camping out. Inside, it was as well equipped as a Pullman car. He always carried a negro cook with him. After the coming of the automobile, he had a fine automobile "ambulance" built for travel over the ranch. President Taft sent for the plans of this car and had one built for his use that was a duplication of Slaughter's.

C. C. Slaughter was not like the majority of cowmen. Most of them were very economical—sometimes from necessity. Some of the herd owners furnished their hands with the poorest of foods—only the bare necessities of life—and paid them as low wages as they could get men to work for. In the early days, these wages were usually paid only once or twice a year.

But the men that worked for Slaughter never had to wait for their breakfast or their money. Slaughter was an excellent business man—a big business man—as is shown by the fact that he built up his wealth from practically nothing to an estate valued at millions. He was not picky about anything, and nothing was too good for his men, from the common cowhand on up. He always paid us in cash and fed us the best of food.

One spring we had driven a herd of cattle to Clarendon for shipment. I went into town to buy a bill of groceries. I gave my order to the store-keeper and told him Col. Slaughter would pay the bill. He read the list and was so dumb-founded at it that he went down to the stock pens where Slaughter was directing the loading.

"This man has ordered the best and highest priced groceries", he told Slaughter. "Ranches around here are not accustomed to buying stuff like this and I thought I had better ask you about it. Why, I don't even have some of these things in stock."

Without even looking at the supply list, Slaughter replied: "Well you don't have anything in your store. Nothing is too good for my men."

The Buffalo Ranch was one of the biggest of all Texas ranches. It was about forty miles wide by eighty long and consisted of possibly two million acres, much of which Col. Slaughter actually owned. This did not include the other smaller ranches operated in connection with this one. It extended from Gall on the east to Seminole, Gaines county, on the west; from ten or twelve miles north of Big Spring on the south to Indian Springs, northeast of Lamesa, and nearly to the Lynn county line.

It included Cedar Lake in northern Gaines county, and also extended to Stanton and to within a few miles of Midland.

We had charge of about 40,000 or 50,000 head of cattle on the Buffalo, or Long-S, ranch, and branded out about 12,000 calves each spring.

Bob Slaughter and I could not get along together very well, but I had been hired by C. C. Slaughter and Bob couldn't fire me. However, after two or three years, I got mad one day, quit and went to Old Mexico. I had read about the Pacer mine in Coahuila, but found that it was not what it was "cracked up" to be and stayed only about a month.

At the time, 1896 and '97, F. G. Oxshire had a ranch in Lynn county, the Tahoka Lake Ranch, and he had borrowed money from Col. Slaughter's bank in Dallas. Oxshire was unable to meet his obligations and Slaughter had to take the ranch over. He sent word for me to come to see him, and as a result of the visit I took charge of this ranch with the understanding that Bob or George Slaughter would have nothing to do with bossing it. Practically all of this ranch was under lease from the state. It extended from the Indian Canyon in Borden and Dawson counties north to the Wilson county school lands, where the town of Wilson is now located. Headquarters were about eight or ten miles east of the present town of Tahoka. There had been no cattle on the Tahoka Lake ranch for a year and the grass was fine. We drove the Long-S yearling steers and heifers up to the Tahoka Lake to winter. Then, in the spring, we would send the steers to Runningwater to finish off for marketing and take the heifers back to the Buffalo ranch. Next week: The Fight For Land.

TEXAS RAILROADS PAY SUBSTANTIAL PART OF STATE'S TAX BURDEN

● Taxes is one of the large fixed charges connected with the operation of Texas railroads. From the standpoint of the welfare of state, counties and communities, railroad taxes are of much importance. This annual obligation must be met from the earning capacity of the rail carriers.

In 1931 the railroads of Texas paid a total of $8,303,108.47 in federal, state, county, municipal and miscellaneous taxes. The distribution of this amount to the various tax funds is shown below:

	Amount Paid	Per Cent of Total Tax Paid
U. S. Government	$ 61,270.13	.74
State	1,954,435.47	23.54
County	1,146,669.97	13.81
Roads	1,699,764.15	20.47
Improvement Districts	175,606.87	2.12
Schools	1,437,152.74	17.31
Cities	1,792,994.61	21.59
Miscellaneous	35,214.59	.42
Total	$8,303,108.47	100.00

It can thus be seen that railroad taxes represent an important and indispensable factor in the economic life of our state. They help in a large measure to pay the expense of our state, county and municipal government, build and maintain highways, pay the cost of drainage and other improvements, and support our schools and educational institutions.

It is the desire of Texas railroads to extend this helpfulness to Texas counties and communities in carrying this heavy burden. However, their ability to meet these obligations as they become due depends upon their ability to earn sufficient revenue with which to pay this and other heavy expenses connected with their operation.

● RAILROADS HAVE ALWAYS SHOULDERS THEIR SHARE OF RESPONSIBILITIES TO THE NATION, THE STATE, AND THE CITIES AND COMMUNITIES THEY SERVE, AND WILL CONTINUE TO DO SO TO THE EXTENT OF THEIR ABILITY.

We all have fairly nice crops now. Some have had to plant over several times.

Our B. Y. P. U. is doing well. Almost every Sunday night we have a new member. The leaders are working faithfully.

Some few of our Central people went to South Ward to the singing Sunday evening. The young people of that community can sing well.

There was an ice cream supper given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Hale and family last Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Duckett.

Mr. Hale and family are moving back east to Honey Grove. We are all sorry to have them leave us.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Lee Duckett were visitors in the G. M. Duckett home Friday night and Saturday night.

Miss Ruby Odum invited a few young people to her home for dinner Sunday. The ones who went were: Anna Mae Butler, Rosa Belle Tommarson and Stella Hale; Messrs. Vernon Farr, Wesley and Leslie Duckett, E. M. Rudd and A. W. Shevmake.

There was a party at Miss Ruth Farr's last Saturday night. Everyone enjoyed it very much.

There is a party at Mr. and Mrs. Rudd's home Tuesday night. We're sure everyone will enjoy it.

We have Overall Sunday every third Sunday. Everyone is invited to attend.

Mr. Hodo is very ill and has been sick for some time. He has had a stroke of paralysis and is no better. We are all hoping he will get better and be up soon.—Reporter.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION
The State of Texas,
To the Sheriff or any Constable of Lynn County, Greeting:
You are hereby commanded to summon the unknown heirs and legal representatives of F. P. Cook, deceased by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in the nearest county where a newspaper is published, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Lynn County, to be holden at the Court House thereof, in Tahoka, on the 3rd Monday in September A. D. 1932, the same being the 19th day of September A. D. 1932, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 11th day of July A. D. 1932, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court as No. 928, wherein R. Y. Eckels is Plaintiff, and Mrs. Cora Cook, The Wilson Mercantile Company, Inc., a corporation, O. W. Splawn and the unknown heirs and legal representatives of F. P. Cook, deceased, are Defendants, and said petition alleging that on August 1, 1931, F. P. Cook and wife, Cora Cook, executed and delivered to Temple Trust Company six notes aggregating $3000.00, being five notes for $200.00 each, and one note for $2000.00 due, respectively, January 1, 1932 to 1936, inclusive, and January 1, 1942, all payable to Temple Trust Company and bearing 6 per cent interest, and providing for the usual 10 per cent attorney's fees; that to secure payment of said notes said F. P. Cook, et ux, executed a First Mortgage or Deed of Trust upon all that part of the West one-half (W½) of Section Twelve (12), Block Seven (7), Lynn County, Texas, lying East of the P. & S. F. Ry. Co. right-of-way; that said notes were additionally secured by a vendor's lien upon said land; that the note for $200.00 which became due January 1, 1932, and interest aggregating $75.00 due on such date is delinquent and unpaid; that F. P. Cook is dead, and no administration was had on his estate; that the note and interest which are due were transferred to plaintiff by Temple Trust Company; that The Wilson Mercantile Company Inc., and O. W. Splawn are claiming some interest in the property, which is inferior to the lien of plaintiff; that the notes held by plaintiff have been placed in the hands of attorneys for collection, whereby the 10 per cent attorney's fees accrued. Plaintiff asks for foreclosure of his lien to the extent of his debt, interest and attorney's fees on the above land against all of the defendants, subject to the notes held by the Temple Trust Company yet unmatured, and First and Second Mortgage liens securing payment of same.

Herein fail not, and have you before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this with your return thereon, showing how you have executed same.

Given under my hand and the seal of said Court, at office in Tahoka, Texas, this 11th day of July A. D. 1932. S. TAYLOR, Clerk, District Court, Lynn County. 46-4tc

Record of T. L. Price As District Attorney

In submitting my candidacy to the people of this District for reelection, I do so with a full realization of the grave responsibilities of this office.

During my tenure of office there has been disposed of in the District Court 294 Felony cases, and with the splendid cooperation of the petit jurors, I have secured convictions in 278 of these cases. In other words out of a total of 294 Felony cases tried, I have lost only 16, some of which were on the dockets when I came into office, thereby giving me little opportunity to familiarize myself with the evidence.

The above 294 cases include both pleas of guilty and contested cases, however even in contested cases alone where I have had to combat with the keenest legal talent in this State, my percentage of convictions in such cases has been 85 per cent, including one case in which I obtained the death penalty.

It is not incumbent on the District Attorney, upon securing convictions, to follow such convictions on appeal to the Higher Courts, however in all heavy cases where appeals have been taken, I have, without additional cost to the Tax Payers, carefully briefed and argued the cases, personally, before the Court of Criminal Appeals. The regular duties of this office being so heavy, it has been necessary for me to do this work at night, however I have always been glad to do this as reversals are expensive to Tax Payers and by taking this extra precaution will lessen the opportunity for reversals. My record will also reveal that the Higher Court has approved my work in 85 per cent of the cases appealed.

TAXES MUST BE LOWERED!
With my knowledge of the records of this office, and with the cooperation of our District Judge, I sincerely believe that the cost of carrying on your Court work can yet be materially reduced, thereby bringing about a further saving in Tax money to each County. If retained another term every effort possible, just as in the past, will be made to do this.

I favor a 25 per cent reduction in salaries of all State officers, including my own.

If you are for Efficient, Economical and Courageous Enforcement of Your Laws, Fairly and Impartially to All—Then Vote For Me on July 23rd.

A. B. MARTIN
Present Associate Justice, Court of Civil Appeals at Amarillo, Appointed April, 1932. Candidate to succeed himself at the coming Democratic Primaries.

His appointment was unopposed, and was made in recognition of the distinguished record he made as an Appellate Court Judge at Austin. He lives in the southern part of the Judicial District which contains one-third of the population. It has been the custom to select three judges of this district from the different parts of the district, which comprises forty-six counties.

The following are excerpts from some of the newspaper comments made at the time of his recent appointment:

"... his decisions in style and texture and force won for him a high place among the lawyers and litigants of Texas. ... In his boyhood he brushed his way through the snow to the little red school house miles from his home where he obtained the first rudiments of an education and in time became one of the scholars and successful lawyers of the land that was a wilderness when his father first invaded it to wrest from nature its virgin soil and to build a home for his dependents and those who came after him."—The Austin American.

"When he moved to Austin he resigned from the board of regents of the state teachers colleges, on which he had served for ten years. He brought to that board a broad understanding of the problems of the boys and girls from the homes of the common people of Texas. ... His struggle for an academic education and for the profession of law was not forgotten by him while he served the state on the board of regents of the teachers colleges. In 1920 he created a loan fund at West Texas State Teachers College, for the use of poor boys and girls, retaining supervision of the fund during his life time. It has grown to approximately $3,000.00, has aided more than a hundred boys and girls. ..."—The Plainview Herald.

"Selection of Hon. A. B. Martin of Plainview, as associate justice of Court of Civil Appeals of the Seventh Texas District at Amarillo, is a pleasing one to South Plains people. A former commissioner of Criminal Appeals at Austin, as a practicing attorney and a prominent citizen of Plainview and this area, Mr. Martin has made an enviable record. He typifies the right kind of man for the post to which he succeeds."—The Lubbock Avalanche.

Vote For Pink Parrish
For Congressman at Large, Place 1

If Texas had been re-districted according to population, West Texas would have been given two new Congressmen, one of whom would have been from the South Plains.

Senator Parrish is the only candidate from the West Half of Texas for Place One and the only candidate of the three places from the South Plains. The South Plains because of its growth is entitled to a Congressman.
