6,518 BALES OF COTTON GINNED

Bad Weather Hinders Gathering Of Crop Slightly; 15,106 Bales In County Nov. 1

Cotton has continued to pour in to the gins here during the past week notwithstanding the fact that there has been some unfavorable weather for gathering the crop, 1303 bales having been ginned since our report last week. Up to an early hour Thursday morning, 6518 bales had been ginned here this season, counting round bales as half bales. The price the past week has been about 6:30 to 6:50 on the New York market.

It is not believed that the total crop in Lynn county will be as large as the estimates of a month ago, for the reason that most of the late cotton is failing to open. The early freeze destroyed many thousands of bales that would have been gathered if the freezing weather had been postponed two or three weeks.

There were 15,106 bales of cotton ginned in Lynn County prior to Nov. 1, 1932, as compared with 22,715 bales ginned to Nov. 1, 1931, according to J. H. Barron, Lamesa, special agent, Bureau of Census.

Dawson county had ginned 10,868 bales of the 1932 crop to Nov. 1 this year, as compared to 21,819 at the same time last year.

W. A. Roberts Baby Dies At Grassland

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Roberts were sorry to learn of the death of their baby girl and extend to them sympathy in their hour of sorrow.

Reta Joyce Roberts was born Sept. 18, 1932. She stayed only a short time with her parents and a sister and brother, but long enough, though it was only a month and nineteen days, to win a place in the hearts of her parents, that nothing can take her place.

Reta Joyce was laid to rest on the eighth day of November in the Grassland cemetery. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. E. R. Stiles. It seemed hard for her to go, but fond parents and kind doctors did all that could be done, and the time comes to us all when nothing can stay our lives.

Grieve not, parents, any more than you can, but be prepared to meet her in Heaven, where all sorrow is passed away and joy and peace abound.—By a Friend.

Brownfield Editor Visitor In Tahoka

A. J. Stricklin, editor of the Terry County Herald, and his son, Jack, who is also interested in the publication of that splendid journal, were visitors in the News office last Friday. They had started to Post to witness a football game but got no farther than Tahoka, due to a couple of punctures. Mr. Stricklin has been editing and publishing the Herald since the time when the memory of man runneth not to the contrary and he is serving his town as well as his day and generation well. And the way the business men of Brownfield back him up must be a delight to his soul, for he usually has an eight-page paper even during these stressful times.

A NUMBER RENEW
Quite a number of our subscribers responded to our appeal for renewal of their subscriptions published two weeks ago. Most of them were in arrears and they not only paid the past due accounts but set their figures into the future. We are indeed grateful for this response.

Many, however, have failed or neglected to attend to this matter. We must meet some pressing obligations on December 1, and therefore we again appeal to all who are in arrears to come in at once and settle. Each subscription is only a small matter but many of them amount to a considerable sum. We are sure that many of you will heed this call and help us to meet some of our most pressing obligations. We thank you.

THE PUBLISHERS.

SMITH BACK TO LOCAL CHARGE

Methodist Pastor Will Continue In Local Pulpit; Conference Changes Are Few

Rev. H. C. Smith was returned to Tahoka as pastor of the Methodist Church for the ensuing year at the close of the sessions of the Northwest Texas Conference in Amarillo Sunday night, to the great delight of his congregation and the people of Tahoka generally. Brother Smith is regarded as one of the strongest preachers of his denomination in all this section of the state and his work here has been wise and constructive.

Rev. W. R. Burnett was also returned to O'Donnell, Rev. H. L. Thurston to Wilson, and Rev. J. N. Hester to Draw-Grassland. Rev. Hamilton Wright remains at Southland and Rev. J. T. Howell at Meadow. Rev. C. F. Carmack, who formerly resided here, goes to Allison and Briscoe. Rev. John E. Eldridge, one of the former pastors here, is presiding elder at Perryton. (Rev. R. T. Breedlove, who was pastor here four years, going from this place to Paducah, has been sent to Rotan.

Court Canvasses Election Returns

The commissioners court canvassed the election returns on Monday and found the results to be substantially as we published them last week. A little more than 2100 votes were polled. J. K. Applewhite, candidate or county chairman on the Democratic ticket, received the highest vote of any single individual, his vote being 2112.

For governor, the vote was: Mrs. Ferguson, 1325; Bullington, 745; Edwards, socialist, 8. It is significant that Dr. Howe, who formerly resided at Wilson in this county and who was a candidate for governor on the Communist or Red ticket, did not receive a vote in the county. Neither was a single vote given to Armstrong, the Independent candidate.

The Roosevelt electors received 1934 votes while the Hoover electors received 1110 votes. Only eight votes were marked up for Norman Thomas, the Socialist candidate for President.

Former Citizen In Gladewater Cyclone

A cyclone struck Gladewater and almost demolished the store of O. J. Jackson, formerly of Tahoka, on Monday of last week, according to the Gladewater Journal. Jackson's store was situated on the outskirts of the town. A partial account of the affair as given by the Gladewater paper follows:

A small cyclone estimated at 100 feet wide swept through the Southwest Gladewater area, about a quarter of a mile the other side of the Sabine River, almost wrecking the store known as "West Gladewater," operated by O. J. Jackson, tearing houses from their foundations and overturning a number of derricks. The store stock was considerably damaged but Mr. Jackson was unable to estimate the damage.

Several other houses in the path of the storm were demolished.

Pounding Given Baptist Pastor

Quite a number of the members of the First Baptist Church met at the church last Friday night and went from there in a body to the home of the pastor, Rev. Lawrence Hayes, carrying with them many sacks and packages of groceries, meats, and vegetables.

The pastor and wife were completely taken by surprise, having received no advance inkling of the pounding. A social hour was spent in the home and all thoroughly enjoyed the occasion.

Carl Mullins' Baby Was Buried Friday

The new-born infant of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mullins, who reside a few miles north of Tahoka, was buried here Friday afternoon.

Funeral services were conducted at the cemetery by Rev. Lawrence Hayes.

Red Cross Helped Lynn County; Now Citizens Should Help The Red Cross

Everywhere, by all well informed people, it is admitted that this winter, the call on the Red Cross to relieve need and distress will be the greatest in its history. Ten million people are unemployed. At our very door in Lynn county are people in the drouth district. In the southeast and south central portion of our county are farmers that have not raised anything for three years on account of drouth, and this year a destructive hail ruined their cotton, and many of them will not even "drag a sack" in their fields. They will be needy before the winter is out. They are our neighbors and friends. They will need help this winter. Just this year your local chapter has distributed to them the total sum of, in round numbers, garden seed, food, clothing, fuel and medicine, $2200.00. This was made possible by your help in the Roll Call last year.

Will you fail to support the Roll Call this year and thus let some woman or little child suffer from cold or hunger. I am sure that if you know that your failure to help the Red Cross in its Roll Call would cause some woman or child to suffer from hunger or cold this winter, that you would respond to the Roll Call with your $1.00 membership. If some one asks you for help and you advise them to go to the Red Cross for help, just ask yourself the question: "Have I helped the Red Cross Roll Call?" And if not, why not? Then you are in effect asking your neighbor to help when you have not helped. The Red Cross is just the men and women that give their aid and support to the Red Cross. Lynn county's quota is four hundred. Will we in the face of the fact that the National office of the Red Cross has sent into our county for the relief of the needy and distressed the sum of something like $14,000.00, fail to help the Red Cross now? Do your duty today. Help, help, help, for help is needed.

A. L. Lockwood, Roll Call Chairman Lynn county Chapter, American Red Cross.

Walter Mitchell Dies At Lubbock

Death came to Walter Mitchell, 22, in a sanitarium in Lubbock shortly after ten o'clock Sunday night. The body was shipped to Campbell in Hunt county for burial.

Young Mitchell underwent an operation for appendicitis a few months ago. Following this adhesions developed and it became necessary for a second operation to be performed. Since that time his condition had remained critical.

Mr. Mitchell had resided in Tahoka for some time, being a brother of L. O. Mitchell. He was a young man of excellent character and had many friends here, who deeply regret and deplore his untimely death.

Harley Sadler Is Here This Week

The Harley Sadler show is in town this week, furnishing the usual excellent entertainment that it always does. In fact, the series of shows this week are possibly better than any that have been given here before. "Kempy" on Monday night, "Laff That Off" on Tuesday night, and "Shepherd of the Hills" on Wednesday night, each of a type distinct and different from the others, were all very fine.

The bill for the rest of the week is said to be just as good; or even better, and great crowds are expected during the last two or three performances. Good crowds have been in attendance thus far, considering the depression and the busy season, especially on Monday night. The Harley Sadler shows have always been popular in Tahoka, as elsewhere, Harley himself is inimitable.

Ladies Send Box To Orphan's Home

The W. M. S. of the Baptist Church is preparing to send a box of clothing and cookies and a crate of hens to Buckner Orphan's Home at an early date. They will pack the box of clothing and cookies at the Church on Monday afternoon, according to Mrs. F. M. Billman. The crate of hens will be shipped Tuesday.

All members of the church and others who may be interested are invited to make donations.

T. Cowan Furnishes Editor With Syrup

T. Cowan decided we needed sweetening up a bit and brought us a bucket of good old home-made syrup Sunday night. What we mean is that it is fine. It is almost as clear as crystal and as sweet as honey, yea as honey in the comb.

The next time we want good lasses we know where to go to get them.

Eli Wilonsky of Dallas was here Sunday and Monday visiting his brother Jake. This was his first visit to Tahoka.

Post Office Sets Mail Order Record

The mail order houses are doing a land office business in Tahoka, according to the records kept by D. A. Parkhurst, postmaster.

Mr. Parkhurst states that 138 money orders were issued last Monday, most of them payable to mail order houses. This is a record for all time in Tahoka. It does not break the record, however, as to the amount of money sent through money orders in a single day. A few years ago as much as $2100.00 was sent out in this form in one day. The orders were for larger amounts but were not so numerous as those issued here Monday.

Merchants Report Business Is Good

A number of the merchants have reported to us that last Saturday was the best day Tahoka has had in a year. All of them did a good business. Most of the stores were crowded with shoppers, and it really looked like prosperity had returned. In spite of the low prices that farmers are receiving for cotton and other farm products, the country is apparently in better financial condition today than it has been in two years.

This returning prosperity is not reflected in this newspaper, however, for our advertising is scarcely any better than it was in the summer. We confidently believe it will get better, though. Our business men will soon turn again to the newspaper, no doubt, as the best medium through which to give publicity to their bargains.

Girl Sets Record For Cotton Pullers

The News has received the following bit of information, which may be of interest to many readers: "Maxine Terrell of Wilson believes she pulled more cotton Thursday, November 10, than any other woman or girl in Lynn county," the writer states. "She pulled 1019 pounds in less than ten hours. The same day five cotton pickers in her father's field pulled three bales of cotton."

If you know of a better record than this, send it in.

R. H. Bates Proves Peanuts Do Well

Last week we sent out an S. O. S. call for some peanuts. Mrs. R. H. Bates of New Home picked up the message and came to our rescue. On Saturday she brought in a box of the finest peanuts we have ever seen in Lynn county, home grown. Each pod contained three and four nuts, all well developed and palatable. She and Mr. Bates are demonstrating that this could easily become a great peanut country as well as a cotton and feed paradise.

We certainly appreciated the nuts.

8 AMENDMENTS CARRIED HERE

Lynn County Voters Approve Of All Constitutional Changes Except For Centennial

Returns from the election of November 8 indicate that all of the nine constitutional amendments submitted received the approval of the people.

One of the amendments failed to carry in Lynn county, however. Overwhelming majorities were given the other eight. The people of this county and this section of the state did not take kindly to the Texas Centennial proposal.

The vote in Lynn county on these nine amendments follows:

Investment of permanent University funds: For, 672; Against, 310.

Redemption of land sold for taxes: For, 883; Against, 186.

Delinquent tax amendment: For, 699; Against, 293.

National Guard and Officers Amendment: For 608; Against, 388.

Gulf Coast improvement Amendment: For, 594; Against, 345.

Voters in Bond Elections Amendment: For 779; Against, 233.

Homestead exemption Amendment: For, 930; Against, 162.

Combining offices of Tax Assessor and Collector: For, 860; Against 169.

Texas Centennial Amendment: For 370; Against, 591.

19 Bales Burned In Wilson Fire

Fire broke out in the cotton yard at Wilson Sunday morning and destroyed 19 bales of cotton and badly damaged 27 other bales before it could be extinguished.

Only one bale was afire when it was discovered by Thomas Kinnard but a brisk wind rapidly spread the fire to other bales. A call was made on the fire department here for aid and members of the department started from here with the truck to assist in quelling the fire, but some bearings were burned out on the road and the truck never reached Wilson. The cotton damaged and destroyed belonged to the Farmers' Gin Company of Wilson and was covered by insurance.

Weather Prophets See Cold Winter

Mid-winter weather has prevailed here much of the time the past week. On last Saturday morning we were sure that real winter had arrived when the mercury in the thermometer dropped to 25. Hardly had the temperature gotten back to normal when a fresh norther blew in on Monday night and the thermometer registered 26 on Tuesday morning. But that was mild as compared with Wednesday morning, when the temperature was 18, just 14 degrees below the freezing point. On Wednesday a cold southeast wind brought a cloudy sky and during that night a very light snow fell. The thermometer registered a temperature of 23 Thursday morning. Rarely do we have weather so cold as this in November.

The weather prophets say we are going to have a hard winter, 'cause the bark is growing thick on the trees, the hair is growing long and thick on the old brindle cow, and the geese are already going south.

Baptist Pastor Is Attending Meeting

Rev. Lawrence Hayes, pastor of the Baptist Church, and R. E. Key, Sunday School superintendent, left Tuesday afternoon for Abilene to attend the Baptist General Convention of Texas, in session there the latter half of this week.

Brother Hayes will be back in time for his Sunday services.

Drennon Announces Sunday's Subject

Elder R. P. Drennon will fill the pulpit at the Church of Christ next Lord's Day, morning and evening. The subjects of the day are: "What would this congregation be if every member were just like me?" at the morning hour; and "How God Saves" at the evening hour.

FALL IS FATAL TO H. N. CLARK

Farmer Injured In Fall From Cotton Wagon Dies In Hospital At Lubbock

H. N. Clark, 57, who resided on the Pennington farm in the Redwine community, died in a sanitarium in Lubbock early Tuesday morning from injuries received on Wednesday morning of last week when he fell from a trailer loaded with cotton which he was bringing to a Tahoka gin. Falling under one of the front wheels, his face and neck were terribly bruised and lacerated and the skull fractured by the wheel. He was hurried to the hospital immediately after the accident and every effort made to save his life but the injuries were too severe to yield to treatment.

An account of the accident appeared in this paper last week but H. M. Jenkins, who resides on the D. A. Parkhurst farm east of town, came to the News office Saturday and gave us some additional information as to how the accident occurred, since he was an eye-witness. Mr. Jenkins says that he was in the act of passing the Clark trailer with his own truck loaded with cotton when his attention was drawn to Mr. Clark, who seemed to have his head tilted upward, and just at that moment he toppled over backwards and fell from the trailer just between the team and the front wheels. Mr. Jenkins drove his truck back into the road in front of the team and stopped, alighted, and went back to investigate. The team had stopped with the head and neck of Mr. Clark under the wheel but he had been dragged at least fifty yards by the trailer, Mr. Jenkins states.

Funeral services were conducted here Tuesday afternoon by Elder R. P. Drennon from the Church of Christ and the remains were laid to rest in the cemetery here.

Mr. Clark had been a member of the Church of Christ since early manhood. He leaves surviving him seven children, as follows: Mrs. Charley Bailey of Tahoka; George, Joe, Clarence, Alonzie, and Misses Pauline and Grace. His wife died nine years ago.

Cemetery Association In Need Of Funds

Quite a number of people still owe for the lots in the cemetery on which their loved ones are buried. Others owe a part of it. The Cemetery Association has not forced payment on account of the hard times but it now insists that these lots be paid for. It costs money to have the cemetery cared for and this money is badly needed. See Don Bradley or Uncle Will Brown at once. Otherwise a collector will see you—Cemetery Association.

DRENNON WILL SPEAK TO BROWNFIELD ROTARIANS

Elder R. P. Drennon, pastor of the Church of Christ here, has been invited to deliver an address to the Rotarians of Brownfield at their luncheon Friday. A Thanksgiving program is to be rendered and the address will deal with the history of Thanksgiving.

Elder Drennon was formerly a resident of Brownfield, having removed from that city to Tahoka recently.

POSTAL CARDS MUST BE OF STANDARD SIZE

Postal cards to be sent through the United States mail must not be larger than the standard size, 3 1/4 x 5 1/2, if they are to be sent under 1c postage rule, according to Postmaster D. A. Parkhurst. Cards larger than this require a 3c postage stamp.

MRS. STORY ENTERTAINS THE ALL-SEW CLUB

The All-Sew Club met with Mrs. H. C. Story on Thursday, November 10. After one hour of sewing and chatting a lovely refreshment plate was passed to the following members: Mesdames C. A. Thomas, H. B. Howell, C. B. Keltner, A. L. Lockwood, and D. B. English. The club had as their guests Mrs. J. R. Singleton and her sister, Miss Inez Wurtzbaugh.

The club adjourned to meet with Mrs. C. A. Thomas on Friday, November 25.

IS THE STILTON COMING BACK?

There is much confusion in the public mind just now as to the possibility of a quick return of the old-time saloon. There are many who seem to believe that before the winter is over, beer and wine at least may be legally sold in Texas. Such people seem to be entirely ignorant of the obstacles that stand in the way of such an actuality. They need to acquaint themselves with the laws and the constitutional provisions that must be overcome before the old-time saloon can again be established on Texas soil.

In 1919 the people of Texas adopted an amendment to the state constitution prohibiting the manufacture sale, barter, and exchange in the State of Texas of spirituous, vinous,
or malt liquors or medicated bitters
capable of producing intoxication, or any other intoxicant whatever, and fixed the penalty for a violation of the same at one to five years in the penitentiary.

Following the adoption of this amendment, the legislature in the same year, and in pursuance of said amendment, passed a law, known as the Dean Law, which made it unlawful for any person, directly or indirectly, to manufacture, sell, barter, exchange, transport, export, receive,
deliver, * * * any spirituous, vinous,
or malt liquors, or medicated bitters,
or any potable liquor, mixture or preparation containing in excess of 1 per cent of alcohol by volume. This law is still in force in Texas substantially as originally passed.

Then in 1920, enough of the states had ratified the prohibition amendment to the Federal Constitution, known as the Eighteenth Amendment, to put it into operation. This amendment prohibits the manufacture, sale, and barter of "intoxicating liquors."

In the same year Congress passed a law in pursuance of this Amendment, known as the Volstead Act, prohibiting the manufacture, sale,
exchange, etc., of spirituous, vinous,
and malt liquors containing in excess of one-half of 1 per cent of alcohol by volume, etc.

These are the laws as they exist
today.

Before intoxicating liquor can be legally sold anywhere in the United States the Eighteenth Amendment must be repealed. A repeal amendment may be submitted to the states by a two-thirds majority vote of Congress. After such an amendment is submitted it must be ratified by legislatures or conventions held for the purpose in three-fourths of the states.

Then, after the Eighteenth Amendment shall have been repealed, still intoxicating liquors can not be legally sold in Texas unless and until the people of Texas shall vote to repeal the prohibition amendment in the state constitution.

Of course, all this could be brought about in a comparatively short length of time but it is likely to be a long drawn out process if done at all.

Until the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment can be brought about, the wets are proposing a modification of the Volstead Act so as to permit the sale of light wines and beer.

As a matter of fact, we know of no wines so "light" as not to be intoxicating, as that term has been defined by many courts. Most of the real beer manufactured prior to the adoption of the Eighteenth Amendment was likewise intoxicating.

Therefore, for Congress to so modify the Volstead Act as to permit the manufacture and sale of "light wines and beer" would be nullification of the Constitution pure and simple, and such a law would probably be held unconstitutional by the Supreme Court just as soon as its legality could be brought before that body. Congress will probably not go so far as to pass such a law but will probably modify the Volstead Act so as to permit the sale of spirituous, vinous, and malt liquors containing possibly not more than 3 or 4 per cent of alcohol by volume.

But, even if Congress should so modify the Volstead Act as to virtually nullify the Eighteenth Amendment, still neither intoxicating liquors nor near-beer could even then be sold in Texas unless and until the Dean law in this state should be repealed or modified.

So, this is the status: Both the Eighteenth Amendment to the Federal Constitution and the Prohibition amendment to our state constitution
must be repealed before intoxicating liquor may be legally sold in Texas. Both the Volstead Act and the Dean law must be modified before either intoxicating liquor or non-intoxicating beverages containing in excess of 1 per cent of alcohol by volume can be legally sold in Texas.

There is every probability that the effort to repeal the Eighteenth Amendment will meet with stern resistance in many of the states.
Thirteen of them can prevent its repeal.

There is every probability also that even the effort to modify the Volstead Act so as to legalize the sale of "light wines and beer" will also meet with strong resistance.

But regardless of the fate of National Prohibition, it is certain that any effort to repeal the Prohibition Amendment to our state constitution
will be stubbornly opposed.

It is also certain that any effort to modify the Dean law so as to legalize the sale of "light wines and beer" or of "near-beer" will be fought to the last ditch.

So, these gentlemen who are expecting to see open saloons in Texas or who are expecting to be able to legally buy beer or near-beer in Texas any time soon are sure to be disappointed.

That a determined effort is to be made to eventually bring about the destruction of our state prohibition laws as well as our National prohibition laws, however, is perfectly apparent. Already an organization has been perfected in this state to that end; and since the election of November 8, it has revived and greatly increased its activities. John Henry Kirby of Houston, politician and lumber king, is the head of it and is rapidly perfecting the organization of his forces throughout Texas.

If the dries think that they do not have the fight of their lives on hand, they likewise are to wake up one of these fine mornings greatly surprised and disappointed.

Tahoka's First Church Bell

The new bell for the Methodist Church arrived in Tahoka last Thursday, and J. M. Cone, the contractor and builder here, put it up Saturday, and thus another epoch in the history of Tahoka has passed.
Wells & Welcher ordered the bell from their dealer and it does credit to all concerned. A finer tone or better finish could not be wished. They also ordered the school bell.

Personals and Locals
The commissioners court Monday passed an order for a new road beginning at A. R. McGonagill's east gate and extending to the east line of the county.

A list of the appointments made by the Northwest Texas Methodist Conference reveal that Rev. T. A.
Lisemby was sent to the Tahoka mission. Rev. Ben Hardy was sent to the Lubbock station, and Rev. G.
S. Hardy was the presiding elder.

The program for a county teachers institute to be held in December was published, and W. B. Bishop, J.

B. Walker, and Miss Minnie Chambers were among those appearing on the program. S. N. McDaniel and J.
D. Donaldson as trustee and patron respectively were also listed on the program.

The Elliott boys and their mother
moved to their farm east of town, Tuesday. Mr. S. C. McCauley of San Saba purchased the Elliott home in town, consideration $1250. Mr. Mc-Cauley moved into his new home
Wednesday.

Messrs. Jack Alley, E. F. Ousley,
Will Montgomery and Judge Bartley, the building committee who had charge of the Masonic Hall, inspected the building Wednesday afternoon and formally accepted it.

Both of the doctors have broken their automobiles and have gone back to the old reliable horse until they can get repairs for their machines.

New Home

Rev. Ben Richburg, accompanied by his wife, filled his regular appointment at the church Sunday.

We are informed that school will reopen Monday. We hope to have one hundred per cent attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Harrison and children are at home ready for school work again. They have been visiting relatives while school was dismissed.

Mr. and Mrs. U. P. Unfred and family of Lamesa visited the J. P.
Unfred family here through the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Smith of Redwine visited Mr. and Mrs. S. L.
Smith Sunday.

Mr. Orville Lee Hilton returned from Pampa Sunday, where he has visited several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heck and son and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Unfred and sons visited in the John Heck home at Wilson Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Turner and family moved to Roscoe last week.
We are sorry to lose this family from our community. Mr. and Mrs.
Waymon Smith have moved to the farm vacated by the Turners, the farm being purchased by Acie Bailey some few weeks back.

Locals

Will Montgomery was in the office Monday morning and reported that his persimmons are getting ripe. He said nothing about the 'possums, which usually go with 'simmons, but he had just killed a fatted calf and also a pig. Mr. Montgomery raises nearly everything out on his farm and they live like princes and princesses.

J. B. Walker returned Sunday night from a three weeks visit in the oil fields near Longview and Kilgore. He reports that the political pot certainly did boil furiously over there just before the election, especially in the race for governor, most of the business men of Longview being for Bullington. But that is ancient history now.

Mrs. J. H. Cobb came in Monday and set her figures ahead for this paper. We suggest that other housewives ask their husbands if they have paid up lately. We are trying to make the News interesting for the whole family, and it should be going to practically every home in the county.

A Laxative that costs only 1¢ or less a dose

NEXT TIME you need medicine to act on the bowels, try Theodford's Black-Draught. It brings quick relief and is priced within reach of all. Black-Draught is one of the least expensive laxatives that you can find. A 25-cent package contains 25 or more doses.
Black-Draught is made of approved laxative plants, firmly ground so you take the medicine into your system just as naturally as you get nourishment from the food you eat.
Refreshing relief from constipation troubles for only a cent or less a dose—that's why thousands of men and women prefer Theodford's Black-Draught.

President Hoover's native state,
Iowa, and his adopted state, California, turned him down in the recent Presidential contest, while Roosevelt's home town, Hyde Park, and his home county, Dutchess, in the state of New York each gave a decisive majority for Hoover. Truly a great man is not without honor save in his own country or his own voting precinct.

Epworth Leaguers of this place motored to O'Donnell Sunday to attend the Union League meeting held there. A splendid program was presented by the Leaguers, making it an enjoyable event for all. The Epworth League here was honored again by receiving the banner and loving cup for their splendid work for the past month.

Rev. M. E. Robinson of Lamesa, pastor of the Baptist church, delivered a series of sermons here over the week end. Many gathered to hear him and all were blessed by his messages.

Mr. Jack Caveness, who was injured in the gin here last week by getting a foot crushed in an auger is improving rapidly. We hope him a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Buek James and family of Midway but formerly of this place were here visiting friends and relatives over the week end.

The box and pie supper given here
Friday night by the Live Wire Club Girls of this community was a success. The amount obtained was estimated at forty dollars. Parts of this will be used as a payment on the piano used in our singing work and to purchase some kind of lighting system for the school building.
The remaining part will be used in the club work. This club sprang into existence a few months ago and has proven to be very helpful in many ways. Mr. Luther Rudd of Wilson was auctioneer.

Miss Jewell Skinner and brother Roy of Slaton were visitors in the Baker home Sunday.

Mr. Clyde Holcomb and others were visitors in Lubbock Saturday.

Mrs. C. W. Krebs is on the sick list again this week. Cause of her illness was not learned.

West Point

Mrs. J. H. Bulman of Tahoka was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Tankersley Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill of Brownfield, with some of their friends, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Noble Sunday.

Next Sunday is the regular preaching day. On next Saturday night and Sunday afternoon, the Rev. Lawrence Hays, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Tahoka, will preach.
At the Sunday morning and evening hours, the pastor, Rev. Hicks, will preach.

Rev. and Mrs. Lawrence Hayes of Tahoka, with their children, were the guests Thursday of Mr. and Mrs.
Morris Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Cheek of Breckenridge were the guests of W. H.
Thornhill the past week. Mr. Cheek is a brother of Mrs. Thornhill and this was his first visit with her in twenty-four years.

Quite a number of our subscribers are coming in these days and renewing their subscriptions. Many of them are taking advantage of our special clubbing rate with the Semi-Weekly Farm News. There is nothing cheaper than good reading matter, folks—not even cotton.

G. W. Forsythe dropped in to renew his subscription a few days ago and remarked that he had already gathered 32 bales of cotton from ninety acres. He says the prospects are good for 75 bales. Some mighty fine cotton in Lynn county this year, but this is not intended to bear the market.

Mrs. Oscar Cousins of Amarillo is here visiting her sister, Mrs. J. R.
McIntyre.

Opinions Of Our Readers

RED CROSS HEROES
An old man, a veteran of the Civil War, crippled with rheumatism, now 89 years old, and his old care-worn wife, again came to Red Cross Roll Headquarters voluntarily and handed over to the Roll Call helper $2.00 for membership in the 1933 Red Cross Roll Call. He is 89 years old and she is 85 years old. They did same thing last year. They are heroes. Both are bent and care-worn with age and raising a large family, yet they have not forgotten their fellow-man in need. They were not asked to join, but heard of the Roll Call and came in to join. They have set an example. Will you not do likewise for the Roll Call?
I wish to call your attention to the fact that there are a number of families in the southeast part of the county that have lost their cotton from hail. Will you that have cotton to pick not give these people a preference to pick your cotton? They need the work.

Nagging Pains
are WARNING SIGNALS
TEMPORARY pain relief remedies may save you much suffering at the moment, but putting a mask over a warning signal does not clear up the condition it was telling you to avoid.
When periodic pains, due to a weak, run-down condition, distress you, treatment for the cause of the trouble should be started without delay.
Take Cardui to build up against the nagging symptoms of ordinary womanly ailments. It has been in use for over 50 years. So many women praise CARDUI, it must be good to have the widespread use that it has today. Sold at drug stores.

The cupboard is their home

POULTRY, butter and eggs must never be without cupboards to go to. Behind the daily activity of Swift & Company's organization lie the simple ambitions of 55,000 employees and 48,000 stockholders—to live modestly, but well, and to deal fairly with each other and the rest of the world.
They understand the company's task. A most important part of that task is to buy produce from farmers at more than 100 produce plants, put it into attractive form for consumption and pass it along, without delay and with a minimum of cost, to retailers.
Employees and stockholders understand also the limitations of the job. They realize: (1) that Swift & Company must buy produce in competition with all other dealers and pay what any one else will offer; (2) that Swift & Company must sell whatever it buys at a price which consumers, through their retailers, are able and willing to pay; (3) that the little profit aimed at can be obtained only by keeping down every expense.
Our workers are spread over most of the United States; they are local residents wherever Swift & Company has a produce plant, a packing plant or a branch selling house. They are people just like the farm men and women who have produce to sell, with the same desire to give honest value and to get on in the world by performing real service.
Of our stockholders, more than 40 per cent are women. Their funds are invested in the company because they hope to receive at least moderate dividends. Over a period of years, profits have averaged less than half a cent a pound on all products sold.
Through good times and bad Swift & Company continues to maintain its national market for produce, working near capacity, paying cash to producers and, with the hearty cooperation of employees and stockholders, cutting every operating and selling expense over which it has control.
The Swift & Company national market was made by digging up demand wherever it exists in the United States, by advertising brands of high quality, Swift's Meats, Swift's Premium Milk-Fed Chicken, Golden West Fowl, Swift's Brookfield Butter, Eggs, Cheese and many other products.

Layman Speaks At Methodist Church

The local Methodist church is fortunate in having able laymen who can, and will, "carry on" in their pastor's absence. A splendid sermon-address was delivered by Judge C. H. Cain last Sunday morning, being a practical lesson based on the life of Barnabas, Paul's faithful co-worker. The chosen text was: "For he was a good man, full of the Holy Ghost, and of faith," and the treatise led every hearer to wish that more of our modern day citizens were of the Barnabas type.

Prof. M. J. Weaver efficiently handled the preliminary worship period. A small orchestra furnished the musical part of the service, and as a change, was much enjoyed. The church appreciates her capable young people. All of their organizations met in the evening, as usual, although the church service was dismissed.

Cold weather seemed to be responsible for the low attendance in the church school. Why get the habit of staying away because it is winter time?

May we not have a record number at every session next Sunday as proof to our good pastor that we are proud of our co-operation with him for another year? Everyone welcomes Brother Smith back to the place he has filled so splendidly this last year, and all are proud of the comparative showing made by the Tahoka church under his leadership. Let us begin the new Conference year with larger plans, brighter hopes, and a deeper consecration to all the tasks that lie before us.

Be on time Sunday at 9:45.—Reporter.

WILL ROGERS COMING IN "DOWN TO EARTH"

Back to his native Oklahoma again after filming his recent pictures against various foreign locales, Will Rogers has the star role in "Down to Earth", which shows Tuesday and Wednesday at the English Theatre. With the recital of a business man's efforts to balance his dwindling income against his family's social ambitions and extravagance as its theme, the picture is being hailed everywhere as the most timely as well as the funniest production of the noted humorist's career.

Rogers fans will recall the hectic adventures of Pike Peters and his family abroad in "They Had To See Paris," his first talking picture. In "Down to Earth" the whimsical Pike reappears after his trip, once more guiding the destinies of his oil company. The recent Wall Street crash, however, has seriously affected his holdings and he becomes worried over his family's expenditures. The failure of a bank in which he is interested brings matters to a crisis, hastened when his wife's social aspirations wreck his attempts to negotiate a loan from the local bank.

This combination of bad luck proves the final straw—and Pike goes berserk. His original and surprising methods of getting his family back on its feet again form the climax of the story and round out the unfolding of the picture.

Irene Rich again enacts the role of Mrs. Peters. There is an assisting cast of stars.

J. B. McPherson was called to Crosbyton Tuesday by the death of his little brother, seven or eight years of age. Death resulted from an attack of diphtheria.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cabe of Dixie Thursday morning. The little fellow weighed 7 1/4 pounds and seemed to be enjoying the best of health.

Miss Lola Belle Johnson left today for Fairview, Dawson county, where she teaches again this year. The school opens next Monday.

MISSES CONNOLLY, NEVELS MUSIC CLUB HOSTESSES

The Tahoka Music club, which was entertained Thursday evening by Misses Hazel Connolly and Willie Lois Nevels at the home of Miss Nevels, presented an Armistice program.

Titles of songs famous during the World War were named in answering roll call, after which the Club sang "Battle Hymn of the Republic". Mrs. Layne Moreland sang "In Flanders Field," accompanied by Mrs. Rubie D. Suddarth; and Mrs. Suddarth sang, "God be with Our Boys Tonight," with Hazel Connolly playing the accompaniment. Mrs. Moreland read "Great Silence," a story of World War veterans. "The Childhood of Music and How it Grew Up" was discussed by Mrs. K. R. Durham. For the closing feature of the program, the Club joined in singing a medley of War songs.

Pumpkin pie with whipped cream, and coffee was served at the close of the evening.

Locals

H. W. Calaway, who delights to be denominated as a rock-ribbed, brass-collar Democrat, who always votes the ticket straight, whether the nominee be Dan or Jim, Moses or Miriam, John the Baptist or Judas Iscariot, dropped in Saturday to see that the editor was walking the straight and narrow path politically or to jack him up if he were not doing so. H. W. is still a great believer in Al Smith and thinks Roosevelt should give him one of the chief seats in the synagogue. In other words, he thinks Al should be made Secretary of State or something. H. W. is a fine fellow and a great friend of ours but if we were to agree with him he would straight-way flop over on the "other side. However he admitted that he liked our advice for everybody to lay down their animosities now and give Ma Ferguson a fair chance to make good.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Ford are the happy parents of a son who made his arrival Sunday. He tipped the scales at 8 pounds and promises to be a great athlete some of these days.

E. L. Hawthorne, who is a ministerial student in Wayland College at Plainview, visited relatives here last week end.

Miss Lillie Moon of San Antonio has come to spend some time with Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Knight, being Mr. Knight's niece. Miss Moon is a teacher by profession, having taught in one school in Eastland for seven years. Her work was in the primary department.

Mrs. J. H. Coltenback is another victim of a simple accident that put her on crutches. In stepping down the steps at her home her foot turned, resulting in a severely sprained ankle. The injury is slowly healing.

Local friends have received announcement of the birth of a boy to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Humphries, formerly of Tahoka, at Roscoe on November 1. The youngster weighed seven and three-quarter pounds.

E. N. Weathers has been quite sick the past two days, suffering from a kidney trouble.

DIZZINESS

relieved by Black-Draught

"I decided to take Theford's Black-Draught, as I had been having bilious spells," writes Mr. Charles E. Stevens, of Columbus, Ind. "When I get bilious, I feel sleepy and tired and do not feel like doing my work. It is hard to tell how I feel, but I do not feel good. I get awfully dizzy. I know then that I had better take something. After I found how good Black-Draught is, that is what I have used. I guess it rid me of the bile, for I feel better—don't feel like I am dropping off to sleep every time I sit down. That, to me, is a very bad feeling."
Now you can get Black-Draught in the form of a SYRUP, for Children.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Henderson are the proud parents of a baby girl, born in a Lubbock sanitarium on Wednesday night of last week. They have named the little Miss Barbara Jean.

Raymond Ford Jr. of Houston has accepted a position here in the cotton cooperative office under J. B. McGee, succeeding B. H. Roberts, who has been transferred to the office in Lubbock.

Mrs. Bernice Claytor, extension specialist in home improvement of the A. & M. College, was here Wednesday assisting Miss El Fleda Harrison in bedroom work with some of the girls clubs of the county.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Rodgers came in last Thursday from Silver City, New Mexico, to reside here. Mrs. Rodgers is opening a hemstitching business here.

Mrs. L. F. Craft, who has been

Helped By Cardui

Here's the true story of how Cardui helped Mrs. H. E. Dunaway, of McComb, Miss., as written by herself:

"I was sick and rather discouraged. I was so weak and thin, I was not able to do my work as it should be done. This made me fret a good deal, and did not help my condition. "I had pains across my back and lower part of my body. My nights were spent in rolling from one side of the bed to the other, hoping I would soon go to sleep. Then when morning would come, I would be just as tired as when I went to bed. A neighbor, seeing how badly I felt, told me to try Cardui. After I had taken one bottle, I was much better. I kept on taking Cardui, and I was stronger and slept much better at night."

suffering so long from a stomach trouble, has returned to her home here from the hospital but has shown no improvement.

J. B. Bockman has located here to demonstrate Glebe Oil Burners and will likely establish a permanent agency here. His office is in the frame building just south of the Keltner Hotel.

Mrs. W. J. Crouch has been sick the past week or more at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clay Hughes.
