SUPT. PACE ON STATE BOARD

Reappointment As Member Of Texas Textbook Committee Of Education Board

Supt. J. B. Pace of the local schools recently had an honor conferred upon him by his reappointment by the State Board of Education to membership on the State Textbook Commission for another year. This is an honor that comes from service well performed and we are delighted to see such service properly recognized.

Along with Mr. Pace the other four members were reappointed, namely: Supt. J. J. Hendricks, Kere; Supt. J. R. Ryan, McKinney; Miss Mary Frances Huppertz, Prin., San Antonio; Miss Mamie Schaper, Prin., Waco. This committee is composed of experienced and active educators, engaged in teaching in the public schools of Texas, and have as their duty on the committee the responsibility of examining books submitted for adoption and of making recommendation to the State Board of Education relative to the teachable value of the books submitted. The services rendered by the Textbook committee, in the matter of evaluating books to be used, is most valuable to the public school interests of this state.

Bickley Preaches At The Methodist

Dr. C. A. Bickley, Presiding Elder of the Lubbock district, spoke in the local M. E. Church Sunday morning to a splendid audience. One of the best sermons on "Stewardship" ever delivered from that pulpit was built around the parable of the widow's mite, his definite text being: "And Jesus sat over against the Treasury." Do we always give as we would if His eyes were actually watching us? Mesdames H. C. Smith and Carmack sang a pleasing special number.

At the evening hour the pastor presented a most interesting study of "Roads and Highways," including with those famed in sacred history the "straight and narrow road" which it behooves us all to follow.

Miss Mary Jane Weathers contributed a violin number to the church school worship period, following the prelude "At Star-Rise" by Mattheson. In the absence of the adult Superintendent and his appointee, the remainder of the service was conducted by Mrs. Suddarth.

The "on time" record fell instead of showing the desired increase. Why not come ten minutes earlier and be on time instead of ten minutes late? The superintendent is most anxious for the classes to have their allotted time without curtailing the assembly period. Can he count on your co-operation next Sunday?

Mrs. E. W. Fenton taught a most interesting lesson from Exodus at the mid-week service, and these studies will continue under her leadership. A cordial invitation is extended to the entire church family to be present at each meeting. Plan to be there!—Reporter.

MORGAN SCHOOL OPENS

Morgan school reopened Monday morning. Supt. Caveness was present and gave a splendid address to an auditorium full of parents and pupils. In the afternoon a number of the patrons put the playground equipment in order.

Christmas Is Not Very Far Away

December is here and Christmas is just around the corner. Tahoka business men are preparing to care for a good Christmas trade. Their patrons are invited to do their Christmas shopping early and avoid the big rush just before the holidays.

While the country is far from prosperous, yet there is more money in the country than there was at this time last year and people are better prepared to live. Therefore, the Christmas business this year is expected to be much better than last.

Kiddies who expect their letters to Santa Claus to be published should get them in now and next week.

Mrs. Annie Baird, mother of Mrs. J. L. Heare, underwent a minor operation in a sanitarium in Lubbock Tuesday. She has been suffering the past few months from pleurisy.

O'Donnell Citizen Died Tuesday

W. H. Thornhill reports the rather sudden death of H. C. Hunt of O'Donnell Sunday night. Mr. Hunt has been a splendid citizen of that town for a number of years. He operated a filling station. Death resulted from an attack of diabetes. Funeral services were conducted in O'Donnell Tuesday afternoon.

Cupid Gets Busy After Dull Year

County Clerk Truett Smith reports that Cupid has been busy on the job the past few weeks. The young people of this section usually drive over into New Mexico to procure the necessary credentials and to take the marriage vows but during the past few weeks quite a few Lynn county couples have procured their papers from our county clerk. He reports marriages for the month as follows:

On November 2, Joe Eaker and Miss Allie Ruth Brewer of the Joe Bailey community became husband and wife, Judge G. C. Grider officiating.

On November 6, Louis Barber and Miss Prudy Mae McDougal of Grassland were united in marriage, Rev. J. C. Allen performing the ceremony.

On November 16, Delmond Jackson and Miss Hester Coursey of Draw took upon themselves the marriage vows, Rev. E. A. Musick officiating.

On November 20, Rev. L. S. Jenkins of O'Donnell united in marriage Andrew J. Townzen and Miss Lu Venia Austin of that city.

On November 18, Irvin Rush Benthall and Miss Emily Wood of Wells were the contracting parties in a marriage performed by Uncle Ben Rogers, justice of the peace here.

On November 23, J. W. Benthall Jr. and Miss Ruth McCormick of Wells procured their marriage license here but were married in Roscoe.

On November 25, H. L. Smith and Miss Pauline Jackson of Draw entered the holy bonds of wedlock, Rev. J. N. Hester officiating.

Another marriage license had been issued a few days ago but no returns had been made Wednesday.

Miss Bonnie Allphin Marries Post Man

Miss Bonnie Allphin of this city and Mr. J. E. Cearley of Post were united in marriage in Lovington, New Mexico, on Monday. They will make their home in Post.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Allphin of this city and has resided here a number of years. Mr. Cearley is a young business man of Post.

The couple have the best wishes of many friends here and at Post.

O'DONNELL HAS GOOD SCHOOL

Superintendent L. F. McAfee and Principal E. E. Gilbreath of the O'Donnell public schools and James Cathey, a member of the senior class, were visitors in the News office Monday afternoon. Mr. McAfee reports the attendance on the O'Donnell schools as surprisingly good, considering the busy season in the fields. Mr. McAfee and several members of his faculty attended the state teachers convention in Fort Worth last week.

GRASSLAND CHURCH SERVICES

Announcement is made that there will be preaching at the Church of Christ at Grassland next Sunday at 11 A. M. by Otis Gatewood of A. C. C., Abilene, or by W. T. Garnett. You are cordially invited to come.

Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Thomas returned last Friday from a visit with their son, Paul Thomas, at Ponder, Texas, and with Mr. Thomas' uncle at Murfreesboro, Arkansas. Mr. Thomas brought back with him a mineral collection which he acquired over in the hills near Murfreesboro. In the collection were crystals that to the ordinary eye look like diamonds, some lead ore, some quicksilver ore, and other minerals, all of which he got on a visit to one of America's few diamond mines, located at the place. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas had a most interesting trip.

Mrs. W. C. Cowan, who has been quite seriously sick the past week, is somewhat improved.

COOL WEATHER DURING MONTH

Many Freezing Days And No Rain Mark Unusual November For Year 1932

November was unusually cold this year. There were fifteen nights during the month on which the temperature went below the freezing point. The coldest night of the month was the night of November 15, when 18 degrees was registered. The mercury dropped down to 23 degrees on two other nights, November 16 and November 23. It reached 26 once and 27 twice. On the last seven mornings of the month there was ice.

There was practically no rain during the month. There was one misty day, November 4, and there was a very light snow on the night of November 16. The skies were almost perfectly clear during 24 days of the month.

Callaway, Smith Bring Back Deer

Dr. E. E. Callaway and county clerk Truett Smith returned Sunday from the hills of Gillespie county where they had gone last week to hunt deer and they brought back evidence of their success.

Each killed a deer and brought it home. In addition, Dr. Callaway mortally wounded another one but was unable to find it—at least they think the animal was mortally wounded. Dr. Callaway also killed a wild turkey gobbler.

The Doctor was kind enough to furnish the editor and family with a fine "mess" of venison, which was much enjoyed.

Townes Undergoes Minor Operation

Dr. C. B. Townes was himself a surgical patient in the Lubbock Sanitarium for one day and night last week, when he had some superfluous bone tissue removed from one of the arms at the elbow.

This surplus bone growth was the consequence of a fracture of the arm sustained about a year ago when Townes fell from a windmill tower. The operation was very painful but the Doctor thinks the member will be as good as new a year from now.

State Teachers' Convention Was Best Ever Held, Co. Supt. Caveness Thinks

(By H. P. CAVENESS)

The city of Fort Worth was host to the Texas State Teachers' Convention, and to say that they did their part in the true West Texas fashion is the least that could be said about it. Apparently all was done by the city that could be done to make the teachers welcome and the convention a success.

The program of the convention was one of the best I have ever heard. The foremost educators of our state and many from other states appeared on the programs, bringing thoughts that inspired and enlightened their hearers.

Dr. George W. Truett of Dallas brought the Thanksgiving sermon on Thursday morning. Beginning by recalling the first Thanksgiving three hundred eleven years ago when the early settlers, in spite of the tremendous difficulties with which they had to contend, found so much for which they should be thankful, he proceeded to show how much more we now have to be thankful for although we are passing through a period of depression. Declaring that our commonest sin is ingratitude, he showed how much our lives would be enriched by forming the habit of expressing instead of repressing praise and gratitude when it is due. "Our habits make or mar our lives," he said. Being thankful in everything will help overcome the habits of fault finding, of anxiety, and other habits that cheat one out of the best in life. Therefore, form the habit of being thankful in everything.

Dr. Truett was followed by Senator Tom Connally, who brought a Bicentennial address. After a recital of the many services rendered by George Washington to his country, Senator Connally very eloquently extolled his virtues as a citizen and called upon his hearers to emulate

LESS COTTON BEING GINNE

9,233 Bales Ginned In Tahoka Up To Date, But Most Of Crop Has Been Gathered

With possibly 85 per cent of the crop gathered, 9,233 bales of cotton had been ginned in Tahoka this season up to an early hour Thursday morning.

Many farmers have just about finished gathering and many of the pickers have left the country. The weather during the past month has been ideal for gathering the crop and it has been harvested in record time.

The crop of the county will probably run more than 50,000, but it is much smaller than it promised to be in the early fall. Too much rain in September and the early freeze in November probably cut the crop short 10,000 bales. Much of the late cotton will make practically nothing.

Brooks Is Injured In Cutting Affray

A little affray on the street last Friday afternoon between J. H. Edwards and L. R. Brooks resulted in a knife wound just below the shoulder sustained by Brooks. The wound was dressed by a physician and is healing satisfactorily.

Edwards made bond on a charge of aggravated assault filed in the county court.

Edwards is inspector for trucks for the state railway commission and Brooks is a truck operator. The difficulty grew out of differences relating to the operation of the truck by Brooks, we understand.

Boy Fractures Arm For Second Time

Little J. T. Ellis, 8, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Ellis Jr. of Three Lakes, fell and broke one of his arms at the elbow one day last week. The member was broken at exactly the same place and in much the same way a little more than a year ago.

The patient was taken to a sanitarium in Lubbock, where the bones were again set, and the little fellow is said to be recovering satisfactorily.

Tunnell Gets Arm Broken In Accident

Our friend W. L. Tunnell of the Midway community was in town last Saturday sporting a broken arm. He had accidentally fallen from a wagon load of maize, we understand, resulting in a fracture of the bone of one of the arms. He received other bruises and abrasions also which were quite painful.

"Ghost House" Is Opening Tonight

"Ghost House," the local talent play sponsored by the Tahoka American Legion will be presented to-night and Friday night in the Tahoka high school auditorium. The curtain will rise at 8:15 o'clock.

The evening's entertainment opens with a Children's Pageant. About one hundred children will take part during the two performances. Specialties between acts are "The Sneak Chorus," "Ghost Dance" and "The Detective Chorus." Business men make up the latter. X. R. Banks and C. T. Burnett appear as Sherlock Holmes and Watson; then a group of detectives, T. J. Bovell, Skip Taylor, R. E. Key, I. I. Gattis, Jim Dye, Ott Patterson, Emmett Fleming, George Reid and Jack Corley, make a lively group of "sleuths."

"A word about 'Ghost House' the play full of thrills where weird groans and wailings give everyone chills; Brooks, the detective, as hard boiled as sin, any who crosses him are socked on the chin. You'll love the fair heroine and hero, no doubt; Even Thompson, the lawyer, who just loves to spout. Comedy characters add so much spice that some of you may want to see 'Ghost House' twice. Paulette and Maudie, themselves a whole show, an old English butler, 'Bah Jove, don't chank.' Old Mrs. Bates and her much henpecked spouse will keep you in stitches and bring down the house. These are the highlights; there are more in the cast who pep up the play and make it move fast. So treat yourself royal, buy a ticket or two for the best entertainment of the year '32."

Double Wedding Of Terry Co. Couples

Speaking of double weddings, Uncle Ben Rogers, Justice of the Peace, informs us that he is equipped to stage them right here at home. In fact he did stage a performance of this kind right here in the court house last Saturday afternoon. The participants in the affair, however, were not Lynn county products. They reside over in the neighboring county of Terry on our west. Contrary to the general custom, instead of migrating over into New Mexico to procure the necessary papers and get the nuptial knot tied, as so many Texans are doing, these Terry county young people set their faces eastward, their destination being Tahoka. Appearing in Uncle Ben's office armed with the proper credentials, these two couples each respectively asked to be officially pronounced husband and wife. Uncle Ben proceeded immediately to perform with all the dignity and solemnity that such an occasion demands, while many spectators witnessed the happy event.

The contracting parties were: Garland Beck and Miss Irene Key; Leonard Moore and Miss Mildred Hanas.

ROPES BANKER HERE

Sam B. Pierson, banker of Ropes was a business visitor in Tahoka Monday. He is a brother of Judge Pierson of the supreme court of Texas. While the hail and early freeze destroyed a lot of cotton in the Ropes country, yet Mr. Pierson thinks that farmers generally are in much better condition than they were last year, in spite of the extremely low prices they have been receiving for cotton.

BUSINESS CHANGE

Key and Forrester this week announce that they have acquired the insurance business of Grider Insurance Agency. We have not learned Mr. Grider's plans for the future.

NEW STATION MANAGERS

Robert Noble and Hugh Thomas are now operation the 86 Tire and Battery Service. They took charge of the business Tuesday.

SILICA DEPOSITS BEING WORKED

Floor Sweep Is Being Manufactured For Local Trade Will Ship Silica, It Is Hoped

Tahoka has one new industry that everybody should patronize so far as their needs go.

Tahoka is possibly the only town west of Santa Anna that has silica beds that are being worked. These beds, which are situated on the Cassell farm six miles south of Tahoka, are estimated to contain from one million to two million tons of silica. Several months ago J. C. Blackburn leased these beds with a view to mining the products and shipping them to northern and eastern markets. High freight rates, however, have thus far prevented his mining this product on a large scale. He expects to be able to do so soon.

In the meantime, he is manufacturing a floor sweep by mixing a little oil with the silica with most excellent results. In fact, the product is better than most floor sweep that can be bought on the market, and may be bought at a lower price. Some firms here have been using this floor sweep for several weeks. Every business firm in Tahoka should use it. It should be used in every public building here, not only because it is a home product but because it is of superior quality and is cheaper than imported floor sweep. Not only should we use this product here at home but we should let our neighboring towns and communities know of its merits. Why not?

JUNIOR STORY TELLING CLUB WILL BE FORMED

The National Junior Shakespeare Story Telling Club, through the assistance of local teachers, will shortly form a branch or association here. Miss Virginia Sanford has been appointed as local organizer.

The Club is educational in purpose and is designed to acquaint every grade school child with the works of the famous bard and in such a way that it will appear like play to them. At the same time, it prepares them for high school English studies while those who are not fortunate enough to advance beyond the grades will have a working knowledge of the classics.

The plan consists of story hours for the children when groups will meet and tell Shakespeare stories in simplified form. Clubs for each grade will be formed.

Prizes will be offered at various stages of the competitions and diplomas will be awarded each child who has finished the prescribed course.

The grand finale will be a Shakespearean evening or pageant or Shakespearean program having the children portray the Shakespearean characters.

The National Association now reaches every state and has been immensely successful. Aside from the fact that members of the Club are improving their education and mastery of English, there is a social feature. Parents and teachers have endorsed the plan with enthusiasm.

SPECIAL SERVICES AT THE CHURCH OF CHRIST SUNDAY

Bible study, communion, and preaching in the morning. At 6:30 P. M. the young people of Brownfield will put on a program, which will consist of speeches and special singing. Subject: The Christian Journey of Life. Immediately following the program, which appears elsewhere in the paper, Elder Drennon will give a lecture on "Building a Life."

Everyone is invited, specially the young folk. No collection will be taken.

NAZARENE PASTOR LEAVING

Rev. B. C. Nixon and family are leaving Tahoka this week. They will probably locate in Brady. Brother Nixon has been pastor of the Nazarene Church here the past few months and as such has made many friends here, who wish him success and prosperity wherever he may locate.

MORGAN GIRL BROADCASTS

Miss Jessie Townsend of Morgan broadcasted in voice and piano from the Lubbock radio station Saturday afternoon. A music company was in charge of the program.

Another hi-jacker lay dead in Fort Worth Sunday as the result of the good work of the proprietor of a cafe on the outskirts of the city which four thugs undertook to rob, at an early hour that morning. The proprietor, Jesse L. Hughes, who had been robbed before, had his suspicions aroused by the movements of the four men in a big car near his place of business. Procuring his rifle, he hid himself behind a tree some distance from the cafe and awaited developments. Then the big car drove up and stopped and three men alighted. Just as they were in the act of entering the cafe, he heard one of them give the command to an employee to "stick 'em up." It was then that Hughes opened fire. One of the men slumped down mortally wounded. Hughes directed the second shot at the man in the car. His bullet shattered the window glass but missed the man at the wheel. This robber returned four shots with a pistol, then abandoned the car and fled with two of his companions. As they were fleeing Hughes sent a shot after them, which he believes wounded one of them. The slain man before dying gave his name as Burgess but refused to reveal the names of his companions. Hughes showed a degree of pluck and heroism that is commendable. His cool judgment and courage shows that it is not safe for even four experienced bandits to undertake to rob one little cafe out in a secluded place even at the dead hours of the night. A man is a fool who will deliberately enter a career of crime. His time will come sooner or later.

Prof Irving Fisher, noted political economist and statistician, has suggested an easy and quick way for Congress to end the depression. At least he thinks the scheme will work

How Cardui
Helps Women

"Mal-nutrition" means that your body is not getting enough to keep it up, so that what it has to do is not done well. You may not be eating enough to keep up the work of the body, or there may be something wrong that keeps you from getting full value from the food you eat.

Because of mal-nutrition, some women have aches and pains every month. Such pains should not be neglected.

Take Cardui to give you a better appetite, to give you more strength from the food you eat—to build up and increase your feeling of well-being. Aches and pains go away as you build up with the help of Cardui.

in a fine way. It is none other than the proposal that was being made in many sections of the country last spring for the Government to issue its scrip, each dollar of scrip to be redeemed by the Government when $1.05 worth of Government stamps shall have been placed on it. He says that this scheme has worked successfully in several localities, a town in Iowa being the most outstanding example in the United States. If it can be made to work locally it will work all the better, he claims, when made a national affair.
Its virtue lies in the fact that it enables the consumer to buy, places a new circulating medium to work, and inflates the currency to offset the deflation caused by hoarding and business stagnation. Of course he would have a limit placed on the amount of such scrip that may be issued and place other safeguards around it. If so noted an economist and statistician as Irving Fisher thinks it would work, and if it has actually worked successfully in a number of localities, as he claims, then it may be that there is much virtue in the scheme. In an article appearing Monday in many daily papers, he urges Congress to adopt this plan at the approaching "lame duck" session.

GYPPED AGAIN

Contract is to be let Monday at Austin on grading and draining highway No. 137 from here to the Hockley county line, this side of Ropesville, and at the same time will be let on the road from there to the Lubbock county grading. Those in charge here and at Lubbock believe that the grading and drainage contract will be let early in December from here to the Gaines county line about two miles this side of Seagraves. This is another thing that is going to give a lot of work to Terry county people, as soon after the grading operation, contracts will be let for the caliche and the hot topping on this long stretch of highway.
It will certainly be a great help just when help is most needed. Terry county people do not want charity; they do not like begging and borrowing. What they want is something to do with a little pay attached, and they'll come through alright—Terry County Herald.

But the work is not to be done.
The roads are not to be built—not now. Jim Ferguson got an injunction. Jim doesn't want that money spent until he can get on the job totin' in the wood and the water.

The Dallas News recently published a series of articles written by Judge W. N. Stokes of the Vernon-Quannah district pointing out a number of serious defects in our code of criminal procedure and suggesting remedies. Judge Stokes shows how unnecessarily cumbersome, tedious, and expensive our system of court procedure is, and if the reforms suggested by him were adopted the tax payers of this state would be saved many thousands of dollars each year and furthermore it would be possible to mete out justice to persons accused of crime with much more celerity and accuracy. It seems almost impossible to induce the legislature to enact such court reform measures as Judge Stokes advocates but we believe that if the district judges of this state as a body would agree upon some such program of needed reforms and then present it to the legislature, urging its adoption, appealing to the people at the same

Personals and Locals

The Peters house in the wagon yard, belonging to Bud Milliken, was sold last week to Mr. McCarley and moved to his land two miles from town. The trade was made by the Tahoka Real Estate Company, consideration $250.

Thomas Bros. have moved to the corner building near the hotel and are opening up a fine line of holiday goods.

A. L. Lockwood's new residence north of town is fast looming to completion.

John Slaughter passed through Tahoka Thursday morning with a bunch of horses for the U. S. Ranch.

Up to date the gin has turned out over 300 bales of cotton.

The railroad notes will be due in a few days, as the first ten miles of grading is almost complete.

City arrived in Tahoka Saturday and time to back up their efforts, the legislature might be induced to act.

We expect to call attention to these defects in our procedure from time to time with the hope that somebody at Austin who is capable of putting things over may become interested.

Our own John Garner, Speaker of the House, has prepared a resolution and submitted it to the Judiciary Committee, urging that it be reported to the House immediately after Congress convenes Monday, calling for naked repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment. Hatton Sumners, a dry, chairman of the Judiciary committee, objects to the Garner proposal that the repeal amendment be submitted to conventions in the various states. He favors submitting it to the state legislatures, as has been done with every amendment to the constitution heretofore. Other Southern Democrats are said to oppose a flat repeal amendment but prefer one similar to the Glass amendment which would outlaw the saloon and protect the dry states. Senator Norris, Progressive Republican, dry, and chairman of the Senate Judiciary committee, says he opposes the Garner proposal. It requires a two-thirds vote for the resolution to pass. Our prediction is that the radicals on this issue will be defeated and that an amendment similar to the Glass amendment will be finally submitted.
We regret Garner's radical stand in this matter.

We know that it is extremely difficult to prevent waste and extravagance in the state government but we believe that a lot of it could and should be prevented. Without having any definite knowledge on the point, it appears to us that there are entirely too many people on the pay roll in some of the departments.
Take our highway department, for instance. We think we have three most excellent highway commissioners but we believe there are entirely too many engineers and helpers on the job—too many tax eaters, some of whom could be dismissed from the service without being missed.

Three bandits a couple of weeks ago undertook to rob a bank operated by negroes in a little negro town in Oklahoma. When the smoke of battle had cleared away two of the bandits lay dead and the third was severely wounded. One of the bank officials shot one of the robbers down and citizens of the town got the other two. It is a terrible thing to be compelled to kill any man but if more of these robbers and hijackers could be killed in the act, it might help considerably in the suppression of crime. Those negroes did a good day's work.

A lot of mighty good people in Tahoka have indicated that they would like to have a job as postmaster as soon as the term of the present incumbent expires. Wish we could help them all, but there just aren't enough jobs to go around, folks.

A half column story tells of a big dinner served by the ladies of Tahoka on Tuesday at the beginning of district court for the benefit of the two new churches of the town, the Methodist and the Baptist. The "admission fee" was 25 cents, and the proceeds, after all expenses were paid, amounted to $46.40, which was equally divided between the two churches.

Another story tells of a most successful box supper given by the ladies of the churches on the preceding Friday night. Mr. Whipp made an appropriate talk and Joe Stokes acted as auctioneer. "Joe's witty remarks and ready repartee enhanced the enjoyment of the evening and caused a great deal of merriment during the sale of the boxes," we are told. "Gladys McGonagill has the distinction of having the most expensive box at the supper, the lucky recipient paying $6.75 for the privilege of taking supper with her."

Lady Took Cardui And Got Rid of Pain In Her Side

"Last summer, my health was bad, so I began taking Cardui," writes Mrs. H. E. Slaughter, of Norman, Okla. "My mother had given me Cardui in girlhood, so naturally I turned to it when I felt I needed it. I felt run-down and a general weakness. I had bad, dizzy headaches when everything would seem to dance before my eyes. My right side pained me so much, but since taking Cardui the pain has left me. I have taken several bottles of Cardui and have improved a great deal."

Cardui is sold at drug stores here.

M. C. Ball, who resides out west of New Home, was a visitor in the News office Monday. Mr. Ball states that his son, 14, who underwent an operation in a Lubbock sanitarium recently is now entirely well apparently and is again in school. Mr.
Ball reports that farmers in his section are making little cotton this fall, due to the summer hail and the autumn freeze. There is an abundant of feed, hogs, and cows, however, which will help some.

How Doctors Treat Colds and Coughs

To break up a cold overnight and relieve the congestion that makes you cough, thousands of physicians are now recommending Calotabs, the nausealess calomel compound tablets that give you the effects of calomel and salts without the unpleasant effects of either.

One or two Calotabs at bedtime with a glass of sweet milk or water. Next morning your cold has vanished, your system is thoroughly purified and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast.
Eat what you wish,—no danger.
Calotabs are sold in 10c and 35c packages at drug stores. (Adv.)

Quite a number have been attending Sunday School. The Bible class is putting on a special program Sunday. Be sure and come.

Locals

Uncle John B. King dropped into the office Monday morning and incidentally released two news items. The first was that his wife was quite ill, though not seriously so, and the second was that their grandson and his family, George W. King, who have been residing in Ochiltree county, visited them last mid-week and then proceeded on their way to California, where they expect to reside. The elder Mr. King and his wife have been marital companions for almost 64 years. He says she has cared for him all these years and he must care for her now.

J. W. Kirkpatrick of the Dixie community was among those who dropped around to the News office Saturday and set his subscription date into the future. Dixie is one of those communities that was hard hit by hail in the summer and freeze in the fall. Mr. Kirkpatrick says that from 70 acres planted to cotton he has gathered only three bales. But he has not given up by any means. He does not permit misfortune to make him morose or grouchy. He has the courage and the grit to try again, and we'll bet he makes a whopper crop yet some of these times.

Buck Briley, former citizen of Tahoka but a resident of Abilene for the past few years, was in Tahoka on business the latter half of last week. It will be remembered that Mrs. Briley died during the past summer. Just recently his daughter, Miss Juanita, married. The adopted son, W. G. Jr., accompanied his dad to Tahoka. Buck says the depression has hit him pretty hard and the loss of his companion was a terrible blow, but he still has the nerve and the disposition to carry on. Many friends here were glad to see him and to wish him better days yet to come.

H. J. C. Koehn of Weimer was here Tuesday looking after property interests. Mr. Koehn owns quite a bit of property here and he has been a subscriber for the News for a number of years. He likes to keep informed as to conditions on the south plains. He says that conditions in south Texas are not unlike those that prevail here.

Miss Emma Ruth Jones, teacher in the Littlefield schools, and Miss Bessie Bellamy of Olton, county treasurer of Lamb county, were week end visitors here in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Jones Jr. Miss Jones is a sister of W. T. while Miss Belsamy is a sister of Mrs. Jones.

Geo. A. Long of Roswell, New Mexico, a World War buddy of Rafe Richardson, visited in the Richardson home the first of last week.

Will Montgomery is attending court in Lubbock this week as a character witness in a case.

Dr. K. R. Durham has been confined to his room with the flu the past several days.

MELODIES AND HUMOR IN NEW CHEVALIER PICTURE

Sparkling melodies, brilliant dialogue and a whole series of delightful performances will dance on the screen of the English Theatre Sunday afternoon where Maurice Chevalier's latest picture, "Love Me Tonight," will begin an engagement of three days.

The new Chevalier film, under Roubin Mamoulian's direction, and with Jeanette MacDonald again in the feminine lead, is one of the best romantic comedies that the French singing actor has made in this country. The story is as fantastic as a comic opera should rightly be, but it is also a good one, chuck-full of both romantic and hilariously amusing situations.

Chevalier has the role of a debonaire Paris tailor, who descends upon the chateau of the Vicopie Gilbert de Varez to collect a large bill, and remains to play Prince Charming to the beautiful and lonely Princess Jeanette, cousin of Gilbert. For Gilbert (Charlie Ruggles) cannot pay his bill and doesn't want his irate uncle, the Duke (C. Aubrey Smith) to learn of it. So he passes Maurice off as the Baron Courteline and has him included in the house party at the chateau. Complications ensue, but most of them are gay enough and all of them are punctuated with songs.

The principal love son, "Love Me Tonight," is beautiful, and bids fair to surpass the popularity of "One Hour With You." "Isn't It Romantic" and "Mimi" are catchy melodies, and other comedy songs, such as "A Woman Needs Something Like That" and "The Son-of-a-Gun Is Nothing But a Tailor" serve as amusing parts of the action itself.

County Attorney G. H. Nelson has been quite sick of the flu this week.

TEACHERS CONVENTION IS BEST CAVENESS HAS VISITED

keeping with the general theme of the session. Dr. Harold Rugg of Columbia University speaking on the subject, "The New Education and the Present Crisis," brought some good suggestions as to the new and better education.

The climax of this session was the address of Lorado Taft, sculptor, of Chicago, speaking on the subject, "Beauty in American Life." The opportunity of hearing a wonderfully inspiring message from such a magnetic personality does not come to the average person many times in life...

"Daily with souls that cringe and plot. We Sinai climb and know it not." Some lines of another poet come to mind: "For a cap and bells our lives we pay, Bubbles we chase with a whole soul's tasking; 'Tis heaven alone that is given away."

A man may have much of the world's goods and yet if he knows nothing of the better things of life he is poor. A man may have many degrees but if he does not know how to live, he is ignorant.

Friday morning was given to section meetings. The principal address to the county superintendents was made by Dr. J. R. Grant of Arkansas, stressing the opportunity of the county superintendents for service. Discussions by State Superintendent L. W. Rogers and our next Superintendent, L. A. Woods, were other features of this meeting.

The first speaker of the third general session of the convention on Friday evening was Supt. E. E. Wedgeworth, Snyder, who discussed the educational rank of Texas. From facts gathered by him in what seemed to be a very exhaustive study, he concluded that our rank educationally among the other states of the union would be about thirty-sixth or thirty-seventh. That is, thirty-six or thirty-seven states of the union have educational systems ranking higher than ours.

There were splendid exhibits of school work from many schools. Teachers who were attentive to the speakers and who studied the exhibits were greatly repaid for the time and money spent in attending the convention.

Hello, everybody! It has been some time since we have let you hear anything from us, but we are still living.

We think school will start now soon, and hope it does. We have organized a singing class. Mr. Frankie Farris was elected president, Mr. Baker secretary, and Mrs. Jewel McIver pianist. The class is to meet each first Sunday night and each third Sunday afternoon. We extend a cordial invitation to all to come and help us. We have had our new song books only two weeks.

A play has been selected and the cast of characters chosen, and we will begin work on it soon. The Dramatic Club will be reorganized soon and we are hoping to have some real good plays within the next few months.

Mr. and Mrs. James Middleton of Lubbock were here Wednesday visiting Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Kemp, Mrs. Middleton being a sister of Mr. Kemp. They were accompanied by Miss Viola Morgan, a student in Tech College.

Mrs. A. R. McGonagill, who has been in a sanitarium in Lubbock the past ten days seems to be steadily improving. It is hoped that she may be able to return home in a day or two.

Mrs. J. K. Applewhite is among those who are sick of the flu this week.

"I have used Theford's Black-Draught for constipation for a long time, and find it gives relief for this trouble," writes Mrs. Frank Champion, of Wynne, Ark. "I think it is good for spells caused from gas on the stomach. If I get up in the morning feeling dull and sluggish, a dose of Black-Draught taken three times a day will cause the feeling to pass away, and in a day or two I feel like a new person. After many years of use we would not exchange Black-Draught for any medicine."

P. S.—If you have CHILDREN, give them the new, pleasant-tasting SYRUP of Theford's Black-Draught.

They've Never Tasted a Tonic!

THESE are not patent medicine children. Their appetite needs no coaxing. Their tongues are never coated, cheeks never pale. And their bowels move just like clockwork, because they have never been given a habit-forming laxative.

You can have children like this—and be as healthy yourself—if you follow the advice of a famous family physician. Stimulate the vital organs. The strongest of them need help at times. If they don't get it, they grow sluggish. Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin is a mild, safe stimulant.

When a youngster doesn't do well at school, it may be the liver that's lazy. Often the bowels hold enough poisonous waste to dull the senses! A spoonful of delicious syrup pepsin once or twice a week will avoid all this. It contains fresh laxative herbs, active senna, and pure pepsin, and does a world of good to any system—young or old. You can always get this fine prescriptional preparation at any drug store. Just ask them for Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin.

Get some syrup pepsin today, and protect your family from those bilious days, frequent sick spells and colds. Keep a bottle in the medicine chest instead of cathartics that so often bring on chronic constipation. Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin can always be employed to give clogged bowels a thorough cleansing, with none of that painful griping, or burning feeling afterward. It isn't expensive.
