There are those who oppose all
"duplication" in our state institutions of higher learning on the ground that it is wasteful. If their theories and ideas were written into law, there would be only one state institution of higher learning in Texas. The great Dallas
News, in combating the defense that
Dr. Bradford Knapp recently made respecting the teaching of certain subjects in the Tech, itself speaks of this policy as "wasteful duplication."
If Texas were a state of small dimensions,
there might be some pith and point to the contention that we should have only one or two institutions of higher learning—one great university to serve all those who might desire a college education. But in a state of vast dimensions, such as Texas, such a policy would be foolish and unjust in the extreme. Yet, a bunch of down-state politicians are going to attempt to establish such a policy in this state at the coming session of the legislature.
They are going to attempt to practically destroy all the state teachers colleges and curtail the activities of the Tech.
They are going to attempt to make our whole educational system head up in the University and the A. & M. College.
If their scheme goes through, every person in this state desiring to prepare for the profession of teaching

THE PUBLIC should be prudent in seeking relief from pain. Take nothing which does not have the approval of the medical profession.

BAYER ASPIRIN will never do you any harm, and almost always brings the desired relief. But remember that the high medical endorsement given Bayer Aspirin does not apply to all tablets for relief of pain.

THE DOCTOR is careful to specify Bayer Aspirin for these important reasons:

It has no injurious ingredients. No coarse particles to irritate throat or stomach. Nothing to upset the system. Not even any disagreeable taste. The Bayer process insures a pure, uniform product.

INSIST on the tablet you know to be safe. And the one that has speed. Bayer tablets dissolve so quickly, you get immediate relief from your headache, neuralgia, or other pain.

will be compelled to go to Austin to do so. It would work a grave injustice to West Texas and would greatly hamper the educational progress of this section of the state. We should fight it, folks, we should fight it.

When the Texas returns of the Presidential election were opened and counted by the Secretary of state recently, as the law provides, the judges in six Texas counties had still failed to send in their returns, and hence the vote of these counties for Presidential electors were not counted and did not figure in the result. And this happened in face of the fact that the secretary of state repeatedly called the attention of these officials that returns from their counties had not been received and pleaded that they be sent in. There is a law directing county judges in this state to send such returns to the secretary of state but we find no penalty prescribed for their failure to do so. The failure of these six officials to perform their duties in making returns was of small consequence this year in so far as the general result is concerned, but circumstances might arise in which such failure would be of vital importance. It ought to be a penal offense for any election official or county official to neglect his duty in making election returns. Furthermore, our laws should be so revised as to make it mandatory for official returns to be made and announced promptly following each election. Often the results of an election are not known for weeks for the reason that official returns are not available. Our next legislature should give this matter its attention.

LA GUARDIA REMEMBERS

The memory of the electorate is distressingly short. We have every reason to know that in Texas and it is the same throughout the country. We can well believe, therefore, that the brewers summoned by the wets to Washington to urge a beer bill were shocked beyond measure when Representative La Guardia of New York pounded the table and told the committee to chase the brewers out because they come of a tribe that has debauched politics and defied the law again and again.

La Guardia is for beer, for wines, for hard liquor—a thoroughgoing wet, so far as that goes—but he remembers when the beer barons kept legislators on their pay-roll, hired city aldermen, corrupted courts, made and unmade Governors. Interrupted by a representative from Arkansas with the remark, "Why, before prohibition my State was owned by boots and breeches, by a whiskey ring," La Guardia replied, "I know it; I come from New York."

The younger generation has forgotten all that. La Guardia never spoke a truer word than when he said that it was political corruption on the part of liquor manufacturers and dealers which brought on prohibition. The political effects of legalized sale of liquor are quite as appalling as social evils arising out of personal abuse of the right to drink what one pleases where one pleases when one pleases. If the latter were the sole point in issue, we would never have adopted prohibition so early. A sudden return to old days can scarcely escape a return of the days that La Guardia recalls. We shall do well to look these facts in the face.—Dallas News.

Now is the time to put in that GLEBE OIL BURNER. Sold at Tahoka.

Mrs. Erma Lou Moore, who is employed at the Sunshine Inn, has been quite sick of the flu the past week.

The story goes that a certain shabbily clad man walked into a store in a certain city having only $1.50 in his pockets, intending to invest the same in a pair of shoes for himself. The soles of his shoes were practically gone and the water from the wet soil was "squishing" up between his toes. But as he entered the store, his eyes fell upon a little tricycle, marked just $1.50. He immediately forgot about his worn shoes. He thought of the little kiddie at home and the pleasure that this little toy vehicle would bring him. So, he walked out of that store, almost bare-footed, with the tricycle under his arm. That man evidently used bad judgment but he had the right kind of heart in him. Such as he are the salt of the earth. Such as he make our country great. Such love is the greatest thing in the world.

SIDELIGHTS

By Congressman Marvin Jones

The new Congress must face many serious problems. None of these is more important than those relating to agriculture. Agriculture is the most vital part of our present industrial system. It is governed by the same laws which govern other businesses. If these basic laws are disturbed, and if attention is centered on only a portion of the entire system, the remaining part will suffer. That is what has happened to agriculture. The farmer is suffering from the results of favoritism to other industries and from discriminations against him.

The first thing to do is to find the cause of the trouble. After that the next step is to seek some way of removing the cause.

The present plight of agriculture has been produced in several ways.

1st—Discrimination as a result of unfair trade barriers.

2nd—Discrimination in freight rates.

3rd—A medium of exchange which does not truly measure values.

4th—A tax system which bears too heavily on the farm and ranch.

Here lies the trouble and here must be found the remedy. The following program would be of real service:

1st—Modification of trade barriers and the placing of agriculture on a basis of equality in any system.

2nd—Correction of discrimination in freight rates.

3rd—Either a stabilization of the currency on a sound basis or a reamortization of farm mortgages with a scaling down of interest rates.

4th—Readjustment of the proportion of taxes, especially of a state and local nature, which now burdens the farm and ranch; also a very real reduction in expenses of government, national, state and local.

Conditions are at so low an ebb that it may be necessary to apply a temporary remedy until such time as permanent changes and restoration can be effected. Such a plan, however, should have a time limit, because artificial methods usually fail as a long-range program.

It is the province of government to hold the scales of justice evenly balanced so that every man and every group will have an equal chance in the economic life of our country. If this balance is maintained, each individual and each group will be free to work out their own problems, unhindered by unwise laws and unwise business methods.

The hobble must be removed. The chains which our discriminatory laws and trade practices have forged about the feet of agriculture must be severed. If the farmer is given an even chance, he will be better able to cope with his problems and solve them successfully.

The purchasing power of the farmer has been destroyed, and the effect of this has spread to other parts of our industrial system, resulting in a greatly reduced market for manufactured products. The paralysis which has seized agriculture has crept up on the rest of the structure.

When agriculture is restored to a basis of equality with other businesses and the balance is again established, then better conditions generally can be expected. A return to simple, time-honored principles which have proved themselves worthy is the way out of the tragedy.

BEER

(By the News Staff Poet)

We've found a solution for all of our ills,
We've nothing hereafter to fear;
Whatever the trouble,
'Twill fade like a bubble;
We'll chase it away with beer,
Beer, beer, beer!
We'll chase it away with beer.

No more the depression shall harry our souls,
Hereafter we'll live in good cheer;
All financial worry
Will flee in a hurry,
We'll kill the depression with beer,
Beer, beer, beer!
We'll kill the depression with beer.

No more will our taxes disturb us a whit,
The sheriff no longer we'll fear;
We've come to our senses,
We'll pay all expenses
And balance the budget with beer,
Beer, beer, beer!
We'll balance the budget with beer.

Unemployment no longer shall threaten our land,
The bread line will soon disappear,
High prices be gotten
For wheat and for cotton;
We'll turn the trick simply with beer,
Beer, beer, beer!
We'll turn the trick simply with beer.

The brewers and coopers will give us all jobs—
Now isn't that perfectly clear?
From the cork screw maker
To the tired undertaker,
We'll all be busy when they bring back beer,
Beer, beer, beer!
We'll all be busy when they bring back beer.

Yes, we've found a solution for all of our ills;
We'll go on a drunk for a year,
And Hell will break loose
And the devil vamoose,
When we legalize four per cent beer,
Beer, beer, beer!
When we legalize four per cent beer.

Any RATTLESNAKES In Your Home?

Rubber hose, or any other flexible connection, is as dangerous as Rattlesnakes. It is likely at any time to become leaky, or disconnected, with resultant injury to health and property. Because of its lack of durability and the ease with which it may become leaky or disconnected, rubber hose, or other flexible material, should never be used for connecting gas stoves or other gas burning appliances. A three-eighths inch iron pipe connection is the safest and most efficient connection for the ordinary room heater. Have your plumber replace rubber hose and other flexible gas connections in your home with iron pipe. DO IT NOW. This advertisement is not written for the purpose of giving alarm, but is written in the hope that consumers of the West Texas Gas Company may use an ideal fuel with the greatest possible degree of security. Natural gas, when properly used, not only is a safe fuel, but it also is the cleanest, most efficient and economical fuel in existence. College President Defends Right Of West Texas Teachers College To Live

The News editor has received a communication from Dr. J. A. Hill, president of the West Texas State Teachers College at Canyon, respecting the effort that is to be made in the next legislature to virtually kill the West Texas State Teachers College together with the other teachers colleges and the Texas Tech, and we take the liberty of publishing the same for the information it gives. The communication follows:

"You have read about the recommendations of the Legislative Committee on Efficiency and Economy and what it proposes to do to the West Texas State Teachers College. The proposal is so radical that many people merely laugh at it. However, it represents a well organized and powerfully supported attempt to emasculate this institution. I know whereof I speak.

"Planted here on this far-flung frontier in 1910 this college has given educational opportunity to more than 15,000 of our youth. There is scarcely a community in the northwest quarter of the state that has not sent some of her children here for higher educational privileges or felt the uplift of this institution through the teachers that have gone out to instruct the youth. It is no idle boast of mine when I say that the West Texas State Teachers College has raised the level of educational facilities in Northwest Texas during these 22 years in a measure unparalleled by any other institution in this state.

"It now has thousands of its ex-students serving as county and city superintendents, high school principals and supervisors, and teachers of every kind from the humblest one-teacher rural school to the largest city systems of this state. To close this college or to reduce it to junior rank would set back public education in this territory at least two decades. In fact, it would challenge the very theory of public education upon which this nation of ours is built. No greater calamity can happen than for the people to permit selfish and insidious interests to strike down these very institutions that cultivate and diffuse among the people the very ideals upon whose permanent and stable existence we depend for our rights of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

"The teachers college is an open door to the higher life for the poor man's children. Seventy-five per cent of our students could not go elsewhere to college because they do not have the means. Hence, the fight upon the teachers colleges of this state is nothing short of an attempt to drive the wedge still further between the privileged and the unprivileged classes. All who believe in our American doctrine of equality of opportunity should line up solidly against the committee's proposal.

"The recommendation is said to be made in the interest of economy. Let's see about that. The state has an investment of $1,300,000 in this institution. The proposal would, in effect, close this plant and turn it over to the bats. Don't let the proposal to make us a Junior College fool anyone. This is only a sop to satisfy the unthinking and minimize the opposition to the program. If the committee had said, 'Lock your doors,' the uprising in Northwest Texas would have been irresistible. Instead, we are tossed a red apple rotten beneath the skin, and are expected to be satisfied with it. Moreover, just how much would be the saving if all expenses here were eliminated? Well, if the students that should otherwise come here, went, let us say, to the University of A. and M. College, the cost would be greater for the individual student and certainly as great for the state. Of course, many of them would not go anywhere, because college statistics prove beyond a shadow of doubt that colleges draw seventy-five per cent of their patronage from a hundred mile radius. Hence, the amount of education would be greatly reduced in an age that is suffering for the want of it. Not only this, but the average cost of the West Texas State Teachers College over a period of five years ending with the current biennium is less than 5 cents for each of its citizens—less than two first class postage stamps. Moreover, the gross cost this year is 27 per cent less than it was five years ago.

"Again let me call your attention to the fact that the Committee's proposal would leave, no teacher-training institution in 350 miles of the center of the Panhandle territory. Such a step would be politically unwise, educationally unjust, and socially undemocratic. When considered in the light of the amount of taxes paid into the state the proposal is little short of an insult to an intelligent public."

CHRISTMAS SEAL, 1932

By Nancy Richey Ranson
You cost so little, and you are so small,
But oh, you represent enormous wealth.
In happiness and shining hope for all
The thousands who depend on you for health.

A host of children gaze with wistful eyes
From homes where cold and hunger grimly stalk—
Where threat of dread tuberculosis lies—
And ask this right: to live, laugh, and walk.

Across wide Texas plains you blithely go
In search of hearts that beat in sympathy,
And back the way you came, bright pennies flow
In swift response to your unselfish plea.

(I think that Christ, who ever loved a child,
Has watched you journey forth, and gently smiled.)

BUY CHRISTMAS SEALS!

By Grace Noll Crowell
Imprinted on these little Christmas seals
Are two small children, carolling in the night:
Two happy, ruddy children, but alas
There are so many who lie wan and white
Needing the care that your bright coins can bring—
Buy Christmas seals that they may live and sing.

Buy Christmas seals—that others may have hope;
That those who give their service may have cheer.
There is a foe to fight—help conquer it;
Help rid the land forever of this fear.
It is so little we are asked to do:
Just buy these Christmas seals—I will, will you?

Take a Pinch of BLACK-DRAUGHT For Distress After Meals

He had suffered distress after meals, but by taking Theford's Black-Draught he was relieved of this trouble, writes Mr. Jess Higgins, of Dawsonville, Ga.
"I had sour stomach and gas," Mr. Higgins explains, "and often I would have bilious spells. I read about Theford's Black-Draught and began to take it. It relieved me of this trouble. I keep it all the time now. I consider it a fine medicine. I take a pinch of Black-Draught after meals when I need it. It helps to prevent sick headache and to keep the system in good order."
Now you can get Black-Draught in the form of a SYRUP, for CHILDREN.

NATION'S LAW MAKERS SEEN AS HARD WORKERS

Banker Tells of Labor Put in by Members of Congress on Mass of Technical Measures

OUTLINING legislative procedure, Robert V. Fleming, President RIGGS National Bank, Washington D. C. gave the recent convention of the American Bankers Association a description of the difficulties and problems confronting the law-makers. Mr. Fleming said in part:

"The most important part of organization of the two branches of congress is election of standing committees. There are 34 standing committees in the Senate and 46 in the House. These are the workshops of Congress and the real work of lawmaking is done in Committee Rooms.

"The task of legislating for 124,000,000 people is a tremendous one. Of recent years approximately 20,000 bills are introduced annually in the two Houses. Only a small percentage become law, but they must be weighed in committee, accepted or rejected, perhaps amended, reported out, and then considered on the floor.

"Lawmaking involves about 99% of hard and unappreciated work and about 1% of oratory. Few tasks appear so easy and are so difficult as enactment of sound and satisfactory legislation. Few individuals in any line of activity work harder or longer hours than the chairmen of the important committees during a session. I have great sympathy for the members of Congress whose constituents expect undivided attention to every piece of legislation in which they may be interested. From my personal observation, they earnestly and conscientiously endeavor to do all that is humanly possible.

Public Hearings

"When a bill is introduced, referred to committee and printed, the next step, if it is a measure of considerable importance, is to conduct a public hearing. The committee makes an effort to listen to anyone who cares to be heard either for or against a measure, although witnesses are frequently limited as to time. Members of the Cabinet and other officials of the administrative departments of the Government usually testify on measures in which they are interested and furnish the committee information in executive session or otherwise. In this way the Administration takes a prominent part in shaping legislation.

"Due to pressure of work and the fact that it is impossible for members of Congress to be technical experts on every subject of legislation, the committees are inclined to give consideration to the merits of arguments presented in testimony and the recommendations of the Cabinet and other officials. It is therefore highly desirable, both from the standpoint of Congress as well as those affected by proposed legislation, that the latter have an opportunity to discuss frankly the effects of such legislation.

"We sometimes complain about the technicalities of legislation, but when we observe organized minorities endeavoring to force class legislation through one House it is a comfort to know such measures may be caught in the meshes of technical procedure in the other and there suffer what is termed automatic asphyxiation."

A Country Editor Looks at Banking

THE editor of the Norwalk, Ohio, Herald takes a somewhat different view of the banking situation from a good many people. His idea is as follows:

"With rents falling and unpaid, real estate does not present a happy picture. Nor does the owner of carefully selected bonds feel any happier, with a bunch of them going wrong. A lot of folks very carefully invested in preferred and common stocks in the finest companies in the world and have seen them fall to perhaps a tenth of what they paid for them, and so dividends at all. Some folks kept their money in savings accounts in banks, and some banks have closed and left them high and dry. But the situation is worth looking at very carefully.

"On government authority, most banks that closed were really solvent but for frozen assets and popular timidity. Gradually the closed banks are coming out from under and depositors in even bad cases will get at least 50 per cent of their savings. That's tough of course; nobody likes to lose half of what they had scrimped and sacrificed and saved. But when you hoard and stick the roll of bills in a coffee pot or under a mattress, some plug-ugly comes along and burns your feet till you tell him to take it and welcome.

"And what about the great majority of banks that weathered the storm, met all comers and are doing business as usual, carefully and conservatively, but safely? What about the savings in those banks? They are a full 100 per cent today—and they are the only thing we know of at 100 per cent anywhere. After all is said and done, a good, well managed bank is still the best place in all the world for money or savings. Right now in Ohio the banks pay the taxes on all savings and pay their depositors net interest on their savings. We can't think just now, of many other investments that are a tenth as safe as a savings account in a solid bank. Why, even a savings account in a closed bank is actually worth more today than most stocks."

EDITH H. D. CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. SAM HOLLAND

The Edith H. D. Club met Wednesday, Dec. 7, at the home of Mrs. Sam Holland.

A demonstration of candy making was given by several of the members and several delicious candies were made.

Mrs. Holland showed us through her pantry, which contains a large variety of food products. Mrs. Holland is our 4-H pantry demonstrator and we are very proud of the interest she has taken in this work and of what she has accomplished.

There were eight members and one visitor present.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. H. O. Hargett. Every non-club member is as welcome as the members.—Reporter.

MRS. McCORD HOSTESS TO WARNER JUNIOR CLUB

The Phoebe K. Warner Junior Club was entertained by Mrs. H. B. McCord in her home on December 7. The program was as follows:

Roll call—Quotations from a Texas poet.

Club creed—Mrs. Daniel Davis. Poems of Grace Noll Crowell—Mrs. Daniels.

Life of Donald Joseph—Mrs. Lee E. King.

Rose Window of San Jose Mission—Mrs. McCord.

Life of Leota Christy Barnes—Mrs. James Clinton.

Members present were: Meses. Homer Harrison, James Clinton, Daniels, Lee E. King, Daniel Davis, K. F. Knight, Banks, W. B. Jones, and the hostess, Mrs. H. B. McCord.

GRASSLAND PREACHING

Wright Randolph of Spur will preach at the Church of Christ at Grassland on Sunday night, December 18, according to announcement made by a member of the congregation. All are invited.

Mrs. Ollie Johnson and daughter are among those who have been sick of the flu.

Ben King has been in bed the past few days with a rather severe attack of the flu.

Santa Claus Letters

Dear Santa Claus:

I have been a good little girl and I want you to bring me a ring and finger-nail polish and a pair of pajamas, and as it is hard times that will be all except some candy, fruit, nuts and fireworks.

DOROTHY MAY HOLLAND.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Edwards returned Tuesday from Austin, to which place they had been called last week by the serious condition of their son, Goddard Edwards, who suffered from an attack of appendicitis. He was said to be improving nicely following an operation in an Austin hospital.

Santa Claus Letters

Dear Santa Claus:
Please bring me a little doll—one that can say "Mama"; and, Santa, please bring my baby brother a little red truck. And don't forget to bring some apples, oranges, and candy and some nuts. Your friend,
DOROTHY GERALDENE MENSCH
P. S.—I forgot to tell you my age. My age is seven, and baby's age is three.

Dear Santa Claus:
If you don't mind, please bring me a doll. If you have a Honey-suckle doll, I would like to have it. But if you haven't, well bring me any little baby doll—that you have. Please bring me a book of Uncle Remus and one of the Oz books. That is all except apples and oranges, nuts, candy and fireworks. I hope that you have a merry Christmas and I hope that you don't get your toes frost-bitten on your trip. Lots of love from your little friend,
CAROLYN MILLER

Dear Santa Claus:
I want a purse and a doll basket and a whistle.
Ortie wants a cowboy suit.
His Dean wants a doll.
Oleta Fay wants a doll.

Dear Santa Claus:
I am a little girl nine years old. I want you to bring me a sleepy doll and a set of dishes. I want lots of candy, fruit, and nuts. Will be a good girl.
A friend,
EDNA CORLEY
P. S.—I want a smoothing iron.

DIZZINESS

relieved by Black-Draught

"I decided to take Theford's Black-Draught, as I had been having bilious spells," writes Mr. Charles E. Stevens, of Columbus, Ind. "When I got bilious, I feel sleepy and tired and do not feel like doing my work. It is hard to tell how I feel, but I do not feel good. I get awfully dizzy. I know then that I had better take something. After I found how good Black-Draught is, that is what I have used. I guess it rids me of the bile, for I feel better—don't feel like I am dropping off to sleep every time I sit down. That, to me, is a very bad feeling."
Now you can get Black-Draught in the form of a TABLET, for Children.

Dear Santa Claus:
I am a little boy 9 years old. I want a pop gun and a pig bank for Christmas. I also want a bat and a ball and a French harp. Will you please bring me these things, with lots of nuts, candy and fruit.
Your little friend,
RUFUS MORGAN

Dear Santa Claus:
Please bring me a purse, a small baby doll (for I have a mama doll), some clothes for my dolly and some dishes.
Don't forget to fill my stocking with nuts, fruits, and candy
WANDA TAYLOR

Dear Santa:
I am a little girl 4 years old and want you to come see me and bring a baby doll, purse, forks, and spoons. My stocking will be hanging up too. Please fill it with goodies to eat.
WANELLE TAYLOR

Dear Santa Claus:
I am a little girl six years old. I am the only little girl my mother has and don't go to school, so I want you to bring me a baby doll and little table and chairs, some fruit, nuts, and candy. I try to be good and I love you Santa. With love,
RAE FERN PENNINGTON
New Home, Texas.

Dear Santa Claus:
I have been a nice little boy and I want you to bring me a cowboy suit with fuzzy chaps. I try to be nice at school. I love you. Your little friend.
RODNEY FERN HECK

Dear Santa Claus:
I have been a real nice girl. Will you please bring me a bath robe, a pair of house shoes, a pair of rubber boots, a rubber dollie, a little dresser, cabinet, and a stove. O yes, table and chairs. That will be all, except fill my stocking with nuts and candy.
WINONA JOYCE ELY

Dear Santa Claus:
I am a little girl seven years old. Will you bring me a sleepy doll, broom and dishes? Also some fruit, candy, and nuts. I have been pretty good, so I know you will not forget me. Your pal,
JOHNIE CORLEY

Dear Santa:
I have been a nice little girl. Will you please bring me a rubber dollie, bath robe, house shoes, a cedar chest? Best Wishes,
GWYNOLIA

Dear Santa Claus:
I have been a real good little girl, so I want some candy, some nuts, including nigra toes, and a doll. Don't forget my little brother and sister.
Yours truly,
GENEVA CORLEY
Wilson, Texas.

Dear Santa Claus:
I have been a good little boy this year, and I want you to bring me lots of things. I want a pair of boots, a knife, a ring, a necktie, and a belt. Also bring lots of candy, nuts, fruits and fire works. Your friend,
CARLTON SCHAFFNER

Dear Santa Claus:
I am a little girl four years old. I would like for you to bring me a doll, a piano, and a set of dishes. Don't forget all the other little boys and girls.
I have been a good little girl and my name is
GERALDENE CONNOLLY

Wilson

On December 7th another good citizen was plucked by death from among a host of relatives and good friends who deeply mourn his going. Mr. J. E. (Grandpa) Brown passed away at 6:15 Wednesday afternoon of last week and was laid to rest in the Wilson cemetery about 4:30 P. M. the following day after a very impressive and consoling service conducted by Rev. Graves Darby of Cross Plains, assisted by Rev. H. L. Thurston and Rev. W. G. Boyd, who gave a few fitting remarks about the good christian who had gone to rest after a period of nearly 83 years spent in good Christian upright living. Mr. Brown was married to Miss Juda Ann Carter, June 16th, 1872, and to this union was born 10 children of which four are still living. They are: F. M. Brown of Canyon, Mrs. W. H. May of Wilson, Mrs. S. A. Cummings of Wilson, and Mrs. W. N. Ingle of Abilene. All were present except Mrs. Ingle, who was ill. There were also present eight grand children and four great-grand children.

Little Ina Faye, the five year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff White departed this life after a lingering illness of several weeks. The little spirit took its flight on Thursday of last week and the body was laid to rest in the Wilson cemetery the following day. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. H. L. Thurston at the Methodist church. Bass Baker is suffering from an attack of flu and appendicitis. Flu is bad enough and a case of appendicitis makes it very serious.

Several of the W. H. May family are undergoing a siege of the flu. Rev. J. W. Partin spent five days of last week in a meeting at Stith, where he was pastor before coming to Wilson.

Mrs. J. B. Walker of Tahoka made a very splendid talk at the 11:00 o'clock hour at the Baptist church Sunday in the absence of the pastor who was away in a meeting.

On December 10th the boys' basketball team went to Meadow for a game. The score was 33 and 12 in favor of Meadow. Two of the Wilson men were unable to play, therefore the odds were against them. They are looking forward to the next game with Meadow, which will be Thursday of next week, at which time they hope to give Meadow a real surprise.

The R. E. Finley family is leaving today for South Texas, where they will spend the holidays with relatives.

The Wilson girls basketball team went to Meadow Saturday, Dec. 10, and defeated the Meadow girls by two points, the score being 27 to 25. The Wilson girls are very much enthused over their victory since this was the first time they had won over Meadow. The girls are planning to attend the tournament at Meadow this week end at which time they hope to have their new uniforms. Jerene Shaw and Edith McCormick

Lost 20 lbs. Of Fat In Just 4 Weeks

Mrs. Mae West of St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I'm only 28 yrs. old and weighed 170 lbs. until taking one box of your Kruschen Salts just 4 weeks ago. I now weigh 150 lbs. I also have more energy and furthermore I've never had a hungry moment."

Fat folks should take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast—it's the SAFE, harmless way to reduce as tens of thousands of women know.

For your health's sake ask for and get Kruschen at any drug store—the cost for a bottle that lasts 4 weeks is but a trifle and if after the first bottle you are not joyfully satisfied with results—money back. adv.

made 12 points each in the Meadow game. Leona Crews, Elsie, Noma and Goldie Pendleton all played good games.

Ellie Finley is up after a week spent with the flu.

The play that was announced for last Friday night was postponed on account of unfavorable weather but will be given soon. We have not learned the date.

Mr. Hunt, manager of the Hunt gin of this place, left for Dallas Sunday, returning Wednesday.

Mrs. Ruth Collins, who has held a position as bookkeeper at the Hunt gin through the present ginning season, left last week end for her home in Fort Worth. She doesn't plan to return in the near future. Mrs. A. L. Fabion is entertaining the faculty at 42 in her home to night.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Forrester of Tahoka accompanied Mrs. J. B. Walker to Wilson Sunday, Mrs. Walker being the speaker at the morning service at church.

Mr. J. L. Hobbs paid Tahoka a business visit Wednesday.

Clint Sikes of the Three Lakes community underwent an operation for appendicitis in the Lubbock Sanitarium Sunday morning. His condition was reported as satisfactory Monday.
