MAN IS KILLED RESISTING ARREST

Officers Take Big Still And Five Men

STILL FOUND IN OPERATION

Hollis Roberts Again Charged With Violating Prohibition Laws Following Raid

A big still was found in operation by Sheriff B. L. Parker, deputy John Bulman, and other officers in a barn about eight miles west of Tahoka Monday and five men were arrested and placed in jail charged with a violation of the Dean liquor laws.

Complaints were filed in the justice court here against Hollis Roberts, R. H. Gibson, R. Johnson, Truly Bounds, and William Reed, and on Tuesday their bonds were fixed at $1,000.00 each.

These charges will be investigated by the grand jury which will be empaneled at the February term of the district court.

After shooting a hole through the boiler so as to insure against a possible explosion, Mr. Parker and Mr. Bulman took charge of the still and brought it to town in a truck. A quantity of mash was in the boiler being cooked off when the officers arrived. They also found about seventeen barrels of mash, which they destroyed, and about a dozen gallons of whiskey, which they are holding as evidence.

Mr. Roberts was tried here on a whiskey charge a year or two ago but claimed he had the liquor for medicinal purposes and the jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

Initiation Is Given To New Officials

Two new members were formally and officially admitted to the Ancient and Noble Order known as the Court House Gang at a meeting of that body Monday evening of last week.

The scene of the meeting was the county superintendent's office, and County Supt. H. P. Cavness presided. All things being ready, Sheriff B. L. Parker appeared at the door with Happy Smith and H. C. Story in custody.

The first degree of the initiatory ceremonies consisted of a disinfection act. The new comers were required to be disinfected. Uncle Ben Rogers, armed with the proper equipment, administered the disinfectant, and he is said to have pumped vigorously until the victims were thought to be in proper condition for admission into the Order.

The next degree was a dancing act. Happy Smith was required to mount a table and give an exhibition of his skill in this art, and he vigorously danced a jig. Then came Story's turn, and he knocked the back-step. They say it was rich.

Truett Smith was supposed to make a speech appropriate to the occasion but he passed the buck and called on Uncle Ben, who entertained a few minutes with one of his characteristic Piney Woods songs that set the crowd to roaring. Truett Smith finished with silent music. Then Happy and Story were required to speak. No stenographic report of their efforts was made and so we are unable to reproduce even the substance of their remarks, as no one seemed to remember.

Then refreshments were graciously served by Mrs. H. P. Cavness to all the members of the order present, to wit: Happy Smith, H. C. Story, Mr. and Mrs. Skip Taylor and Olga Faye, Truett Smith, B. L. Parker, H. P. Cavness, Uncle Ben Rogers, A. M. Cade, Don Bradley, Carl Griffing, and Misses El Fleda Harrison, Viola Ellis, Wilma Ward, and Pearl Ketter.

Miss Iris Tredway, daughter of Porter Tredway, is seriously sick of pneumonia.

Charge Man Of Harness Theft

A. C. Townsend, said to be an convict, is in jail here on a charge of having stolen harness from T. I. Hammonds and John Evans.

Sheriff B. L. Parker last week located much of the harness, some of it in Lubbock, some at Monroe, and some at Morton in Cochran county. The accused was apprehended in Lubbock and brought to Tahoka to answer the charges.

The harness, according to Sheriff Parker, was taken at various times. Mr. Evans lost about $60.00 worth all together. Mr. Hammonds lost a smaller amount.

Raymond Ward, T-Bar, Is Dead

The remains of Raymond Ward of the T-Bar community were laid to rest here Tuesday afternoon following his death Monday night in the Lubbock Sanitarium. Death resulted from paralysis brought on by an attack of diphtheria which the youth suffered the latter part of November.

Raymond, 18, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Ward, and he had been practically reared in the T-Bar community. When he was stricken with diphtheria in November, the family never suspected diphtheria but thought the youth was suffering from a severe case of tonsillitis. Later, it was pronounced diphtheria and the young man was finally taken to the Sanitarium for treatment, a week or ten days before his death.

The funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon by the Baptist and Methodist pastors at O'Donnell, the services being held at the family residence in the T-Bar community. Harris & Applewhite of this city had charge of the burial arrangements.

Deceased leaves surviving him his parents and their seven other children. They have the sincere sympathy of many friends in this great bereavement.

Wayland President Will Speak Here

Dr. J. E. McDonald, president of Wayland College, Plainview, will speak at the Baptist Church at the 11:00 o'clock hour Sunday morning. Our people will be happy to have him and will give him a good hearing. Many non-Baptists will want to hear his message on "Christian Education."

The pastor will preach at the evening hour, and his message will be an answer to the question "What Shall I Do to be Saved?" All of our people are urged to be in the service; bring some one with you that ought personally to answer this timely question.

Welcome, thrice welcome!
Lawrence Hayes, Pastor.

Move Co-op Office To Gin District

The Texas Cotton Co-operative Association announces that their regular branch office in charge of J. B. Magee will close this week and that U. L. Hemphill, branch manager at Post, will handle the Tahoka territory the remainder of this season.

Mr. Hemphill is a federally licensed classifier and will be in Tahoka two days each week, Tuesday and Thursday, and any members desiring to ship cotton to any of the Association's pools are invited to meet Mr. Hemphill at the Texas Cotton Growers Gin. Mr. Hemphill will also class and ship Government Seed Loan Cotton and will be glad to assist borrowers in any way possible.

DRY MEETING HELD SUNDAY

Citizens Protest Revision Or Repeal Of Present State, National Prohibition Laws

A crowd estimated at 200 or more, coming from many communities of Lynn county, assembled in the Methodist Church here last Sunday afternoon to hear an address by Dr. R. C. Campbell, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Lubbock, opposing the movement to modify the Volstead Act and to finally repeal the Eighteenth Amendment.

Following the address, petitions were presented by Rev. H. C. Smith and circulated through the congregation asking members of Congress and of the Texas Legislature to vote against all measures looking to the repeal of the Prohibition Amendments in the Federal and State Constitutions or to the modification of the Volstead and Dean laws so as to permit the sale of beer. These petitions were numerously signed and some of them were taken by residents of other communities back to their home communities for more signatures.

Upon motion of Rev. L. L. Hays, the body entered into permanent organization. Judge J. W. Elliott was elected president and numerous vice-presidents from various parts of the county were named. A small collection was taken.

Attendance At M. E. Church

Worship at the Methodist Church Sunday began with the regular musical prelude, Wagner's "Tannhauser" being the selection. Adult superintendent J. B. Pace Jr. then brought a splendid talk. The attendance was encouraging.

For the church service, Rev. Smith chose an old testament theme—the story of the dove which was loosed from out of the Ark, teaching the lesson of the one and only safe resting place—Christ, the Solid Rock.

The stewards held a business meeting in the afternoon, while a number of the young people attended a Union Y. P. meeting at Draw.

The story of Philip, a man who "went places and did things," was the very up-to-date subject for the evening's service, and was interestingly treated. A choir of juniors was featured.

Mid-week services saw a nice sized group complete the outlined study of Exodus capably taught by Mrs. R. W. Fenton for the last few weeks. Come out to these services. They are growing. Be on time next Sunday for the music feature at 9:45.—Reporter.

Tate Selling Stock Of Kemp's Store

Having purchased the S. R. Kemp stock of goods recently at a bankrupt sale, B. R. Tate has opened up a department store in the Kemp building.

Miss Lou Woosley and her brother Jess Woosley are in charge of the new store. Both were employed up till the first of January in Hogan's Dry Goods Store and both have had much experience as sales people.

The new store is neat and attractive in appearance and will doubtless enjoy a good business.

BALCH CUT UP AT NEW HOME

Vin Potts Charged With Attempt To Murder After Knife Cutting Scrape

J. T. Balch, 30, truck operator and well-known citizen of New Home is in the Lubbock Sanitarium suffering from knife wounds and Vin Potts is in jail here charged with assault with intent to murder. Potts is alleged to have made an assault on Balch with a knife about 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at New Home when the two men quarreled over the settlement of a $9.00 cotton picking debt, which Balch owed his assailant.

Balch is said to have been badly wounded, though it is not thought that any of the wounds are dangerous. He was slashed twice on the right thigh, twice on the left leg, and once in the back. The wounds were inflicted, it is said, while Balch was lying on the ground attempting to kick his assailant off. Then J. B. Scott, constable, arrived on the scene and succeeded in pulling Potts off and disarming him. Balch was taken to the sanitarium immediately by Jim Izard.

In a hearing before Justice of the Peace B. F. Rogers here Wednesday conducted by County Attorney Truett Smith, Potts' bond was fixed at $1,000.00. The matter will be investigated by the grand jury which will be impaneled here in February.

Companion, In Jail, Reveals Identities

Arrest Negroes For Turkey Theft

Turkeys are not worth much on the market but it is still a violation of the law to steal 'em, as three gentlemen of color learned to their sorrow last Saturday morning, when they were arrested and placed in jail on complaints charging this crime.

The victims of these deprecations, according to Mr. Parker, was Anton Aherns, residing near Wilson. Sixteen of his choice fowls were missing and so he reported to the sheriff. The cases will be tried in the county court.

To register trucks, weigh your truck empty, bring weight receipt together with light receipt and last year's registration receipt.

Nelson Gets First Blood As Attorney

Taking office on Monday morning of last week, G. H. Nelson, as district attorney, went immediately into the trial of three young men at Plains, Yoakum county, jointly indicted for robbery, Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday were consumed in the trial, and on Thursday morning the jury brought in a verdict finding them guilty and assessing their punishment at 7, 5, and 5 years respectively in the penitentiary. The three decided not to appeal and accepted sentence and have already begun serving their terms.

The three men, W. C. Mayhew, Aubrey Eiland, and Allen Duncan, were charged with having assaulted J. T. McAfee at his home one mile south of Tokio on the morning of December 2, beating him up, and robbing him of about $220.00 in money. They were later apprehended in New Mexico and were brought back to Texas for trial. Their home is said to be near Olton in Lamb county.

They were represented on the trial by R. L. Graves of Brownfield.

Newmoore Lady Buried Wednesday

Deceased leaves a husband and several children as survivors. She and husband have resided in that community for a number of years. Mr. Adams is well known here and has hosts of friends who genuinely sympathize with him in the loss of his life companion.

MEN WANTED IN N. MEXICO

Walter Lackley, 21, Dead; Charles Clifton, 19, Held; Both Were From Portales

Walter Lackley, about 21, of Portales, New Mexico, was killed here soon after ten o'clock Thursday morning by Sheriff B. L. Parker and City Marshal Milt Finch when he drew a large automatic pistol and tried to shoot the sheriff while resisting arrest. His companion, Charles Clifton, 19, was taken to jail immediately after the shooting. He, too, had a pistol on his person and was apparently coming to the rescue of his companion when he was ordered to stop by Mr. Finch.

Lackley lived possibly 30 minutes after being shot but was not able to make a statement. Clifton, in jail, upon learning of the death of his companion, revealed the identity of the two men, giving their names and place of residence.

In a telephone communication with the sheriff at Portales following the shooting, officers here were advised that the two men were wanted in New Mexico for alleged robbery of a bank, burglary of a store, and theft of the car which they were driving.

The two men drove into town this morning in a Chevrolet coupe with a four-wheel trailer attached, the trailer containing about 100 hens. They stopped at the rear of the Park's Produce to sell the chickens. Sheriff Parker was tipped off and he and City Marshal Milt Finch immediately went to the car back of the produce house and began to interrogate the men about the chickens. The younger man was in the car, the other one standing out by

Smith And Story Adopt New Policy

An alarming situation has developed over in the court house. It is gradually being filled up with old bachelors, widowers, and fair young maids. There are now eight of them, they tell us, who seem to be permanently located in this splendid public building where justice and marriage licenses are supposed to be dealt out.

First and foremost, there are Uncle Ben Rogers and Truett Smith. Then there is Don Bradley, abstractor. Porter Tredway does not hold any official position but he has been hanging around the court house so long that he is generally regarded as one of the gang. Then just look at the fair young ladies: There are Miss Viola Ellis, county treasurer, Miss El Fleda Harrison, home demonstration agent, Miss Wilma Ward, deputy tax collector, and now Miss Pearl Ketter, deputy county clerk. Where could you find a finer bunch of young women—all unmarried?

In view of this distressing situation, the new county judge, Happy Smith, and the county clerk, H. C. Story, have announced a new policy. Story is proposing to issue a marriage license absolutely free of charge and fully guaranteed to each and every unmarried member of the court house gang who will abandon his or her present state of single blessedness and embark upon the turbulent and menacing sea of matrimony. Happy Smith is proposing to tie the nuptial knot and launch the matrimonial boat for any one of said unfortunates, without money and without price.

Just to help the good work along, we are willing to start each and every such couple off right by offering them a full year's subscription to the Lynn County News. Come on now folks; if you are game, take up this proposition.

COOLIDGE

As we were running off this paper
last week the news came that former President Calvin Coolidge was dead. He had died from a heart attack while alone in his room, his wife finding the body about fifteen minutes after his death. Immediately the news was flashed all over the world and soon messages of condolence
and of tribute to his fine character
came pouring in from many nations.

Death occurred at his home at Northampton, a little Massachusetts city about the size of Lubbock, where he has lived since he left the Presidency.
His remains were interred Sunday in the little cemetery where his father and mother are buried at Plymouth, Vermont, a village of less than 500 population. Here Calvin Coolidge was born sixty years ago,
and here his remains will crumble
back to dust.

Calvin Coolidge was not among the greatest of our Presidents, but he was one of the most popular. His great fund of common sense, his poise, his level-headedness, his rugged honesty, his courage, his simple manner of living, and his proper evaluation of the great fundamentals of life made him far greater than the ordinary man.

When death comes to a great political leader, party lines and sectional lines are forgotten; and so our whole people, North and South, East and West, joined Sunday in thought and spirit and purpose to pay tribute to this genuine American,
this most excellent gentleman, Calvin Coolidge, who, alone in his room, wrapped the drapery of his couch about him and lay down to pleasant dreams.

Wow! Opposition to repeal amendment pending in the United States Senate from unexpected quarters!
John Garner says it does not conform to the Democratic platform.
Democratic floor leader Rainey of the House says it shall not pass.
Jouett Shouse declares that "it were infinitely better that the Eighteenth Amendment should stand." Other wets are just as bitter in their opposition. What is the trouble? What are the objections? We will let the Associated Press answer. Here is what it says: "Principal objection to the proposed amendment was that it provides for the Federal Government through Congress to regulate or forbid the saloon. Others that it reserves in the Constitution a federal guarantee of protection to dry States against an inflow of liquor from wet territory and would provide for ratification by state Legislatures

rather than special conventions." Aha, just as we thought all the time. The Wets do not want to prevent the return of the saloon. They do not want to protect dry states against the inflow of liquor from neighboring wet states. All their professions to that effect, so loudly proclaimed, were hypocritical.
What they really want, as shown by this opposition which has developed to the repeal amendment pending in the Senate, is the return of the old-time saloon. Turn the liquor business loose and let the dry states protect themselves as best they can. What they want is naked repeal. All right, let the issue come in this form. That is the real straight-forward way for it to be presented any way. This nation can not remain half wet and half sober.
With its innumerable automobiles and interlacing nation-wide system of highways, this nation must be all wet or all dry. We are for a dry America.

The prodigality with which we praise dead Presidents leads us to wonder why we are so intemperate in our denunciation of living ones.
Washington, our first President, was bitterly and persistently assailed.
Lincoln was hated and abused. Wilson was the victim of the most invidious
and vicious criticism from enemies within his party as well as without.
Almost a whole people, it seems,
has united in condemning and ridiculing President Hoover. Yet, if Hoover were to be stricken down today,
we have no doubt but that Democrats
as well as Republicans would join in giving him lavish praise. Why not curb our hatreds and prejudices?
Why not reserve some of our flowers
for the living? Personally, we love the man who is big enough to see the good in a political foe and brave enough to recognize it. Any little fool can hate and sneer at greatness.
Love and generosity are badges of greatness.

Something else going the rounds:
Why Worry? There are only two reasons for worry. Either you are successful or not successful. If you're successful, there's nothing to worry about. If you are not successful there are only two things to worry about.
Your health is either good or you're sick. And if your health is good there is nothing to worry about. And if you're sick you're either going to get well or you're going to get well there's nothing to worry about. And if you're not going to get well, there are only two things to worry about. You're either going to Heaven or you're not.
If you're going to Heaven there's nothing to worry about and if you're going to the other place, you'll be so darn busy shaking hands with old friends, you won't have time to worry. So why worry?

WHAT NEXT?
(By H. W. Barkuloo, Goose Creek)
Is it to be BEER or BREAD?
Since when has any nation or man
drank themselves into prosperity?
Are we to become a nation of booze
guzzlers?

Where do we go from here?
I think it is high time that every voter and especially every father and mother stop and do some serious
and connected thinking.

Last November a majority of the voters of the United States seemed to express a desire for BOOZE and to repeal the part of our Constitution
that would prevent them getting it.
This is the first time there has been an effort to repeal any part of our Constitution. Let us see who are the leaders in this desperate effort
to repeal our Prohibition laws.
First, are those who expect to make money by the manufacture and sale of liquor. They are wholly selfish.
They do not even claim the goods they sell will be of any benefit to any one.

Second, those who want intoxicating liquor to drink although they know it will be a serious handicap in any business they may engage in and will injure their health and the happiness and prosperity of themselves and their families and friends.
No one even claims it is a benefit to the individual or to society.

Practically all criminals are Wets.
Now don't misunderstand me. I do not say that all wets are criminals
but I do so practically all CRIMINALS ARE WETS. I, for one, do not like to line up with that bunch.

The propaganda put out during the past four years by those who expect to profit largely by the manufacture and sale of liquor, has caused many,
especially the younger people,
who do not remember when the sale of liquor was legal, to believe that Prohibition is the cause of much of our crime now. It is not Prohibition but the lack of its enforcement that has caused so much crime of late years, and its repeal would cause more crime and an untold amount of increase in suffering and poverty.

History very largely repeats itself.
You can not point to a single nation
since the beginning of recorded history that has gained prosperity or civilization through strong drink.
Those that have prospered have done so in spite of liquor, not because of
it. You can not point to a single man who has added to his prosperity by drinking liquor. Many saloon keepers would not drink it themselves. The claim that Prohibition causes more drinking is false. The reverse is true.
It is largely the aftermath of the War together with the depression and so much unemployment that has caused a great spirit of unrest
among our people and makes them feel that things can not get any worse and that any change perhaps would be for the better. They do not realize that we could "jump from the frying pan into the fire."

As to state control of liquor, that has all been tried, to my certain knowledge, during the past thirty years and has been an absolute failure in promoting temperance. We had bootleggers all those years and will have them just as long as Prohibition is not well enforced. As to not having the saloons back, that is only a blind. If liquor is sold, it must be used somewhere, and the Wets are even now trying to make it possible for every cafe, hotel and home to become a drinking place.
With Congress and most of the legislatures wet, can we expect them to pass any laws to prohibit drinking the liquor they are trying so desperately to get?

As to the tax on liquor: Suppose they do collect 26 per cent on it.
Who pays this money? It will be mostly the laboring man who needs every dollar of it and the 75 per cent also, for his business and his family. And what does he get for all this money? Less than nothing! No great question is settled until it is settled right; and taking a vast amount of money from our people to no benefit is not right.
I appeal to every voter to see that our servants in Congress do what we want done. We are responsible.
Where do we go from here?

Quarterly conference of the Methodist Church will be held here Saturday as announced with Rev. C. A. Bickley of Lubbock, presiding elder, in charge. Rev. Hamilton Wright of Southland, pastor of the church, will fill his regular appointment Saturday night, Sunday morning at 11:00 and Sunday evening at 7:30. Everyone has a cordial invitation to attend the two day affair.

The school reports a gradual increase in attendance; however, many are still gathering the crops. If weather conditions do not delay the gatherers, full attendance is expected soon, which is thought to be approximately 175. Many have transferred to our school from other communities.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Church and family are expected to move from here to Merkel soon. They have been active workers in the community for the past three years and we greatly regret their departure.

Miss Margie Higginbotham is expected to leave here this week for Crosbyton, where she will attend school. We wish her much success at her work.

Rev. W. G. Boyd of Wilson filled the pulpit at the Baptist Church Sunday morning. His lecture was greatly enjoyed. He will also be with us again Sunday. Attend the service.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Yandell and family returned the first of the week from Bennington, Okla., where they have been visiting for some time.

Kid singers of this community are expected to gather at the school auditorium Saturday night in order to arrange a program for their convention which will convene soon at Central. All classes are urged to prepare programs for this event.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Winkler and family are visiting relatives in Quail this week. They are expected to return soon. Mr. and Mrs. Afton Traylor are in charge of their home while they are away. —Reporter.

Draw

Our school attendance has been short during the pretty weather. There is still some cotton in the community which has not been gathered and the people are taking advantage of their good opportunity.

The Draw basketball team played two games the past week, the first of which was with O'Donnell. The score was 9 to 3 with Draw at the short end of the score. On Thursday Draw Longhorns defeated Grassland 18 to 14. The Grassland team will return the game here next Friday.

Many people in this community are moving and changing places. Mr. Kinley from Angleton is moving to the farm just east of Draw. Mr. McDaniel is moving to one of Mr. Martin's places in Redwine community.

The Draw Dramatic Club presented a good play here last Wednesday night, "Ten Nights in a Bar Room." On Friday night the club took the same play to T-Bar. There was a large crowd out to see the play. It will be taken to two more places in the near future. On one night it is to be taken to Grassland, and also to Midway.

Last Sunday the district League Union met with the Draw League and a good program was rendered. The O'Donnell Union received the cup and New Lynn received the banner. The next meeting place is Grassland.

There was a large attendance at the Methodist Church Sunday. After Sunday School, Rev. C. A. Bickley brought an interesting sermon, which was enjoyed by all. After dinner, quarterly conference was held.

The League Union was to have been January 1 but will be next Sunday. The subject for the League program was "Peace." Bro. Hester preached at the evening hour.

Wilson

Our three gins are still humming away, cleaning up the remainder of the 1932 cotton crop. Up to Tuesday night 8097 bales had been ginned. A great deal of cotton was ginned elsewhere during the rush season and this figure does not fairly represent Wilson's crop. There is about 400 bales yet to gather.

The Wilson basketball team attended the Ralls tournament Friday and Saturday and report good games and a wonderful time. They won the first game Friday afternoon from Meadow 23 to 7. The next game was with Slaton the same evening, the score being 38 to 12 in favor of Wilson.

The third and last game for Wilson was Saturday afternoon with Ralls. It was a see-saw affair until the fourth quarter when Ralls took the lead and ended 33 to 25 in favor of Ralls. Each member of the team got a chance to play and the scores were equally distributed among them. They hope to win the county this week end.

Misses Louise Crowder and Beth Joplin were hostesses at a party given for the Home Economics class this term and the boy class of last year at the school building Tuesday night. Miss Sallie Beth Wright sponsored this very splendid occasion.

Miss Ethel McCormick motored to Lubbock Tuesday to visit Miss Clara May, who is in the sanitarium.

The Baptist Missionary Society met Monday and quitted a quilt to be sent the Paul Bell Mission at Bastrop.

Mr. J. F. Covey, Santa Fe agent, moved to Lubbock Wednesday. He will continue to look after the business of the company at this place.

J. L. Hobbs on Tuesday started the erection of a building just north of the Wilson State Bank which will be used as a filling station.

The Santa Fe erected a loading shoot at one of the side tracks Tuesday for the convenience of farmers and stockmen.

Mrs. Fannie Dawson accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Lumsden, and grandson, William Lumsden, left for Mineral Wells Tuesday. Mrs. Lumsden and son returned Wednesday but Mrs. Dawson expects to be away two weeks or more and to visit friends and relatives in Ft. Worth and Wichita Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hobbs made a business visit to Sweetwater Saturday.

Kenneth, the young son of Mrs. Eva McCormick, is quite ill with the flu this week.

Little Joyce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hamilton, is suffering an attack of flu.

George Ehlers and son Edwin were in the county capital transacting business Tuesday.

Miss Pearl Forrester of Sparenburg spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. W. L. Forrester.

Relieves Women's Pains

Here is an example of how Cardul has helped thousands of women: "I was very thin and pale," writes Mrs. F. H. Scott, of Rosnoka, Va. "I suffered from weakness and a severe pain in my back. This pain unnerved me, and I did not feel like doing my work. I did not care to go places, and felt worn, tired, day after day. "My mother had taken Cardul, and on seeing my condition she advised me to try it. I have never regretted doing so. I took three bottles and it built me up. I gained in weight, my color was better and the pain left my back. I am stronger than I had been in some time." Cardul, the purely vegetable medicine which so many women take and recommend, is sold by local druggists.

"WILD GIRL" AT ENGLISH BEGINNING ON SUNDAY

"Wild Girl", the new Fox romance featuring Charles Farrell, Joan Bennett and Ralph Bellamy in the principal roles, opens at the English Sunday. It is a stirring tale of the California mining camps based on the Bret Harte story, "Salomy Jane's Kiss", filmed in the Bret Harte country of the High Sierras.

The story hinges on the tempestuous romance between a madcap mountain girl and a Virginia youth who has trailed his sister's betrayer to the California Sierras soon after the Civil War. The colorful episodes of the Harte tale are presented—the efforts of the girl's other suitors to attract her interest, the meeting with the stranger, his shooting of his enemy, the holdup of a stagecoach, the forming of a vigilante posse, the capture of the stranger, the girl's fruitless endeavors to save him from hanging, his escape, and the rapid series of crises that form the climax.

DICKS PROTEST AGAINST LIQUOR LAW CHANGES

tion was taken to defray necessary expenses.

Judge B. P. Maddox presided, made a brief but rousing speech himself, and introduced the main speaker of the day.

The following resolution was introduced and unanimously adopted:

Whereas, a well-organized and persistent campaign is being waged for the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment to the Federal Constitution and also for the repeal of the Volstead Act and the Dean Law so as to permit the sale of beer, with or without any change in our Federal and State Constitutions; and

Whereas, a like campaign is being waged for the modification of the Volstead Act and the Dean Law so as to permit the sale of beer, with or without any change in our Federal and State Constitutions; and

Whereas, any such action can only result in the re-enthronement of the liquor traffic in some form or other throughout the length and breadth of our country, with all of its train of evils;

Therefore be it resolved: That we, the citizens of Lynn County, in mass meeting assembled, do hereby voice our strenuous and relentless opposition to any movement looking to the repeal of either the Eighteenth Amendment or of the Prohibition Amendment to our own state constitution, and to any movement that would legalize or attempt to legalize the sale of beer or other intoxicating liquors; and we hereby petition our Senators and Representatives in Congress from Texas and the members of our State Legislature to vote against any measure having that object and purpose in view.

Resolved, further, that a copy of these resolutions be furnished to each of the United States Senators from Texas, to our Representative in Congress from this district, and to our State Senator and our Representative in the Legislature at Austin.

the car. He started to leave, saying he wanted to get a drink of water. Milt Finch followed him and stopped him at the Keltner Hotel, ordering him to return to the car with him. His prisoner, Lackley, kept his hand in his coat pocket but made no attempt to draw a gun until they approached the car. About that time, Sheriff Parker told the two men to come and go over to the court house. At that instant, Lackley jerked a big automatic pistol out of his pocket. Parker caught his wrist with his own hands. Lackley then threw his left arm around Parker's neck. While they were struggling over the pistol, Milt Finch struck Lackley on the head twice with his pistol and knocked him loose. Lackley backed off a few feet and then threw his gun in position to shoot but before he could do so both Parker and Finch fired. In the mean time, Clifton had jumped out of the car and started to run around to the rear, when Finch whirled and ordered him to stop. Upon being searched, a small deringer pistol was taken from his pocket.

A search of the car made a little later revealed that there were seven rifles and shotguns and a lot of ammunition in the turtle of the car and a rifle inside the coupe just back of the top of the seat. The rear of the car was also filled with luggage and a quantity of new merchandise.

The sheriff at Portales informed officers here that the Chevrolet coupe had been stolen there on Tuesday night. It bore a 1932 Comanche county number plate, while the trailer bore a 1930 Liberty county number. The hens are said to have been stolen at Muleshoe.

Lackley, it was learned, was the son of W. C. Lackley of Portales, who is expected here from Portales this afternoon to claim the body of his son. Officers are also expected to take Clifton back to New Mexico to answer felony charges in that state.

EDITH DEMONSTRATION STARTS OFF NEW YEAR

The Edith Home Demonstration Club met Jan 4 at the home of Mrs. H. O. Hargett. There were seven members present. The club elected different committees for this year and talked on many interesting subjects. Wish all the old members would come oftener. We invite each and everyone, also any new members. We are hoping to have a bigger and better club this year.—Reporter.

Baptists Starting Off A New Year

1. We had a good day last Sunday; 190 in Sunday School, one addition by letter, and good attendance at both the services. There were 70-odd in the B. Y. P. U's. There are yet 100 people, either Baptist inclined or members of the Sunday School or church, who have not gotten out since the siege of flu and Christmas vacations. We need this hundred to do for them what the church wants to do. They need the church with its help and encouragement.

2. We want 200 in Sunday school; every teacher and officer in their place on time; everyone staying for preaching and making a definite contribution by praying for the service; at least ten people bringing one unsaved person or an unaffiliated Baptist who ought to make this his church home. In a very definite way this New Year, we want to go afield and win the lost to Christ by prayer and testimony, and tie the saved on to the church so they will find it conducive and easy to live a consistent life of service and helpfulness.

3. We need 100 in the training service at 6:15 P. M. and a staying with the "new resolutions" of attending the evening hour of worship.

4. We ought to have every teacher attending the weekly teachers' meeting at 7:00 o'clock Wednesday evening and 100 in the Mid-Week Prayer service at 7:30.

5. Every woman in the church who is not engaged during the hour of this New Year of 1933 find her place in the Woman's Missionary Society, which meets each Monday at 3:00 o'clock.

6. Finally, remember that we come into the church to count one—help with its work, carry its load, and bear its burdens. We do not come into the church to ride—to create excess baggage, or to add dead weight. If we have nothing else to give, we can give our presence, our time, and our encouragement. Under God, this we ought to do.

Won't you attend every service and see how quick the church life will be transformed? Regularity and faithfulness will win! Help the church reach its part of Tahoka's population in 1933.
Lawrence Hayes, Pastor.

Vandals Break In Local Church House

Some boys entered the Church of Christ a few nights ago, according to members of the congregation, and did quite a bit of damage.

Officers have been notified and if anything of this kind occurs again the guilty persons will probably be arraigned in court for their acts of vandalism and indecency.

W. L. Forrester was in the News office Wednesday exhibiting a ponderosa lemon which his daughter, Miss G'bers, brought back from the Lower Rio Grande Valley Christmas.

The ponderosa is said to have about the same flavor as the ordinary lemon but this sample of the fruit is as big as a large-sized grapefruit. It weighed two pounds and one ounce, measured 17 1/2 inches one way around and 16 1/2 inches the other.

J. R. Strain and family of the Midway community spent a few days last week visiting relatives at Cuthbert in Mitchell county. Mr. Strain says that Mitchell county produced a wonderful cotton crop the past year, one of his brothers raising more than 200 bales of cotton.

Mrs. Beulah Shaw of Slaton is here this week visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. O. Patterson.
