Four Jail-Breakers Caught; One Killed

OFFICERS GET TRAMMELL BOY

Vowell and Dick Taken At Kilgore; Romine and Davis Caught, But One Gets Loose

Of the seven men who broke out of the Lynn county jail on the night of June 9, at least four are now in custody, one is dead, and two are at large. One of these had been captured but escaped from the Fort Worth jail Monday.

S. D. Dick was captured in Kilgore on Wednesday, June 28, and Sheriff B. L. Parker brought him back to Tahoka before the end of the week and lodged him in jail here.

S. D. Vowell was also captured in Kilgore last Thursday and is being held by officers there until Mr. Parker can go to Kilgore for the prisoner. Dick and Vowell are the two men who kidnapped J. F. Covey, Santa Fe agent at Wilson, and stole his car.

Starkweather (Doc) Trammell, who was in jail here under the assumed name of Jim Brooks, was killed in a gun fight with officers in Coleman county last Friday night. His brother, Luke Trammell, was captured and is in jail there. Dave Trammell, another of the three brothers, is still at large. These three men were charged with the burglary of the Phillips Petroleum station in O'Donnell on Sunday night, May 21. Starkweather Trammell, alias Jim Brooks, was captured by deputy sheriff John Johnson on that night but the other two stole Lee Baldridge's car and escaped. They were afterwards arrested in Fort Worth and brought back to Tahoka.

Romine and Davis had been arrested and placed in jail for the theft of a car in Dallas, and complaints had been filed against them here. They had been captured after their escape here and were in jail at Fort Worth, but one of them escaped from the jail there Monday. This man and Dave Trammell are the only two of the seven men who broke jail here who are now at large.

Jail-Breakers Spread Terror Before Taken

Coleman, July 7—An intensive man-hunt for two desperadoes who for the last ten days have eluded posses of rangers, county officers, and citizens, and terrorized Coleman and Runnels counties with a series of hijackings, came to an abrupt end here tonight with the fatal shooting of Starkweather (Doc) Trammell and the capture of his brother, Luke.

Starkweather Trammell, about 20, died at 10:15 p. m. in a local hospital about two hours after he had received a bullet wound in the head in a brush with a posse, headed by Sheriff Frank Mills of Coleman county, under the Hord creek bridge on the Abilene road, a mile and a half northwest of town.

Sheriff Mills said they all opened fire after the fugitives had been warned to halt. The brothers were armed with three six-shooters, and Sheriff Mills reported the Trammells returned their fire. A bullet, entering the top of the head and coming out through the nose stopped Starkweather's flight to a brush thicket nearby, and Luke called to officers he would surrender.

The Trammell brothers were born and reared in Coleman county. Luke and a third brother, Dave were fugitives from the Lynn county jail at Tahoka, where with several other men, they escaped some weeks ago. Luke and Dave had been jailed there on felony charges. Dave is still at large.

Search for the two began ten days ago when an Abilene man and his woman companion were robbed of their car and cash at the point of a pistol near that city. A succession of stolen and abandoned automobiles in the next few days marked their trail through Coleman and Runnels counties.

Last night in an encounter near Leaday, they exchanged shots with a rancher, took his car and escaped later. Their trail was lost when they mounted a horse, taken from another rancher. Bloodhounds had been put on

SCARED HORSE INJURES GIRL

Bertha Green Trampled When Mount Becomes Entangled In Wire Fence At Night

An irresistible impulse to go riding got two little children into trouble resulting in serious injuries to one of them at the home of O. W. Green Tuesday night.

After having gone to bed and to sleep, Eva Mae Green, 8, and Bertha Green, 5, awoke about midnight and decided to get up and take a ride, according to their grandfather, W. H. Green. Accordingly they slipped out to the lot and bridled two of the horses and mounted them. Not being accustomed to such strange procedure, the horses either became excited or deliberately decided to rid themselves of their riders. They ran into a wire gate, tearing it down, but little Bertha's horse became entangled in the wire and threw her. In attempting to extricate herself from the wire he trampled all over the little girl, bruising and lacerating her body from head to foot. She also sustained many wire cuts. Her cries and the cries of her sister, who had safely dismounted from her animal, awoke the parents, who hastened to their rescue.

No physician has been called to dress the wounds, we understand, but the little girl has since been suffering intensely from some of the wounds and bruises and from fever which these induced.

Farm Served By Wind Generator

Plainview—The prevailing winds of the Plains do more than just turn a windmill for J. W. Williams, farmer living near Hale Center, who has converted wind energy into electricity on his farm with an improvised system that is giving good results.

Using an old generator from a worn out car, and a propeller of two blades made from a board 2x10x10 feet long; all of which he mounted on the top of an iron pipe, Mr. Williams is securing sufficient electrical energy to keep his 32 volt batteries fully charged at all times, and has electric current for his home and farm uses.

The whole system was set up and constructed on his place with the exception of re-winding the generator which was done by an automobile electrician in a local garage.

The plant has worked efficiently during the few months it has been in operation and he has no expense in operation or upkeep. A slight breeze is all that is required to generate a good current, and the batteries are easy to charge. It is only necessary to charge the batteries a day or so at a time to get them back into shape and then the generator is turned off.

SEVEN CHARGES AGAINST LUKE FILED AT COLEMAN

Coleman, July 8—John Harris, county attorney, today prepared seven complaints against Luke Trammell charging him with assault and robbery with firearms after a series of holdups and robberies in West Texas counties.

Trammell is wanted in Erath, Tom Green, Taylor, Runnels and Lynn counties on similar charges. Two charges of robbery with firearms and one of kidnapping are said to have been filed against him at Abilene.

Rev. Johnson Will Preach At Bethel

Rev. D. D. Johnson, pastor of the Bethel Baptist Church, announces that a revival meeting will be begun in this church next Sunday morning.

Rev. L. S. Jenkins, pastor at O'Donnell, will do the preaching and Rev. A. W. Shewmake will lead the song services.

The meeting is expected to continue two weeks. Everybody cordially invited.

ON HONOR ROLL

Lowell Douthitt and Cleveland Littlepage, both of Tahoka, each made the spring term honor roll at Texas Technological College, according to a report sent the News from that institution.

J. B. McPherson and family are visiting in Cleburne this week.

HEAT RECORD FOR YEAR SET

Thermometer Rises To 104 Tuesday And Wednesday; Is High Record For Summer

Lynn county has been sweltering this week under the hottest sun of the summer.

On Tuesday, the mercury rose in the thermometer kept by the News man almost to the 104 mark and on Wednesday it rose slightly above that mark. On Tuesday night the mercury never at any time fell below 76, and the lowest mark reached Wednesday night was also 76. Some thermometers hung on brick walls down town registered as high as 111, we are told, and if we had had one of these instruments in the News office we believe it would have "blowed up."

The sky was partly overcast by clouds Wednesday afternoon but there was no rain and little wind to relieve the intensity of the heat. Crops, however, are said to be standing up well under these extremely high temperatures.

Temperatures have been reported much higher in other parts of the country than they have been here, Vernon having reported a high reading Tuesday of 115 degrees.

Quartet Gave Program Sunday

Quite a crowd gathered in the Methodist Church here Sunday afternoon to enjoy a program of music rendered chiefly by the Stamps Quartet of Lubbock.

The program, which continued for about two hours, was pronounced by the auditors to have been very fine. The quartet is composed of Messrs. Burleson, Echols, Kidwell, and Meeks of Lubbock. It was directed by an Abilene man, whose name we did not learn.

Other numbers on the program included a solo by Mrs. Echols.

Frazier Is Moving To New Location

L. F. Frazier has purchased the Littleton 66 Service Station on Sweet Street and is preparing to move his produce house into the same building. This house was formerly occupied by the Park's Produce and by Shorty Brown as a work shop. Mr. Brown has moved to the Texas Garage.

Mr. Frazier has been occupying a building on the south side of the square for the past seven years. Mr. O'Hallins will continue to operate his sheet iron and metal works in this building.

Mr. Littleton's plans have not been announced but it is understood that he expects to remain in Tahoka.

Y. W. A. ENCAMPMENT HELD NEAR LUBBOCK

Thirteen young ladies from the First Baptist Church attended the Y. W. A. and G. A. encampment at Buffalo Springs last Friday and Saturday. A total of 150 young ladies and their sponsors were present from ten churches of the Lubbock and Brownfield associations.

Tahoka people attending were: Misses Obara Forrester, Vitha Ellis, Lorene Reese, Doris Harper, Robbie Milliken, and Myrtle Hill, of the Y. W. A.; Misses Jeanette Oliver, Doris Connolly, Joe Belle Milliken, Margaret Greathouse, and Valeri Wells, of the G. A.; and Misses F. M. Billman and L. L. Hayes, sponsors.

LARKIN APPOINTED

H. M. Larkin received a communication from Congressman Marvin Jones this week stating that he had recommended Mr. Larkin as appraiser for the Home Owners Mortgage Association recently provided for by a law of Congress.

Miss Frances Meadow of San Antonio is here visiting her sister, Mrs. W. S. (Skip) Taylor.

City Builds New Shed For Tractors

On Monday the City completed the construction of a storage house for its tractor and grader and other city property. The building was constructed just north of the city water tank and is built of lumber that was salvaged from the old City Tabernacle, which was recently torn down.

It seemed necessary to build this structure, according to city alderman Sid Sanders, on account of the fact that somebody drains all the gasoline out of the tractor, Sid says, every time the tractor is left unguarded in the street.

Baptist Men To Feast Friday Eve

One hundred and sixteen invitations have been sent out to men for the Laymen's Luncheon to be served at the Baptist Church at 8:30 o'clock Friday evening, July 14.

"Six big fans will be running to create a comfortable atmosphere," said Rev. Lawrence Hays, the pastor, Tuesday. "The luncheon will be served by the members of the Lucille Reagan Circle of the W. M. S."

"It's the first such meeting for the men of the church, but it is hoped that other such laymen's meetings will follow at regular intervals; the purpose of which is an hour of fellowship with our men and the looking forward to a better organized, more faithfully planned program among our laymen."

As announced heretofore, Dr. Thomas H. Taylor, president of Howard Payne College, will be the principal speaker of the occasion. J. E. Thompson, president of the Down Town Bible Class, will speak on Current Events. In addition to the numbers to be rendered by the quartet, as heretofore announced, Gordon Suits will give an accordion solo.

Parker Attending Sheriffs' Meeting

Sheriff B. L. Parker left Tuesday for Fort Worth, from which place he expected to go to San Antonio to attend the sheriff's convention in session there Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday.

It is possible also that he will go to Kilgore for S. D. Vowell, charged with kidnapping and robbery, to bring him back to Tahoka. Vowell is one of the prisoners that escaped from the jail here a few weeks ago.

Police Reporter Of San Antonio Here

Mr. and Mrs. Walthall Littlepage and son of San Antonio were here this week visiting Mr. Littlepage's father, S. P. Littlepage, and his brother, R. L. Littlepage, and family.

Mr. Littlepage is police reporter for the San Antonio Light and has served in this capacity for ten years or more. Although employed on a big daily newspaper he likes to visit a country newspaper now and then, and so he dropped in Wednesday to get acquainted with the News force. A police reporter lives in a world of sensation and excitement, and Mr. Littlepage can relate one dramatic story after another relating to crime.

Marriage Licenses Issued Last Week

County Clerk H. C. Story reports that two marriage licenses have been issued by his office the past week. J. V. Harris of O'Donnell and Miss Lorena Mildred Ramsey of Grassland procured their license last Sunday and it is presumed that they used the license immediately, though the clerk has no report of the marriage.

On Saturday a marriage license was issued to an O'Donnell colored couple, Joe McGruder and Dorothy Phillips.

1193 CONTRACTS ARE SIGNED UP

County Exceeds Quota In Signing Up To Reduce Cotton Price Raising Measure

When the time limit for signing contracts to reduce the cotton acreage expired Wednesday night, Lynn county had gone over the top.

A compilation of the figures showed that 1193 contracts had been signed and that a total of 51,609 acres are to be destroyed. It was estimated that there were about 200 contracts in the mails yet to be filed and computed. This would run the total number of contracts to about 1400 and the total acreage to be destroyed to about 60,000.

Of the 1193 contracts computed, an average of a little more than 43 acres per contract is to be plowed up. The acreage to be destroyed represents about 40 per cent of the total acreage of the farmers signing, their total acreage being in the neighborhood of 129,000.

The 200 or more contracts yet to be computed will probably run this total acreage up to 150,000.

In the preliminary pledges taken, 67,622 acres were pledged for destruction out of a total acreage of 162,424.

The acreage actually contracted for, therefore, comes within a few thousand of the total number pledged in the preliminary survey.

We have no statistics as to the number of farmers in the county, but a vast majority of them signed up. Under these contracts, considerably more than 25 per cent of the total acreage in the county is to be destroyed. If the country generally has responded as liberally as Lynn county has done, the original goal of 10 million acres has been passed. It is probable that the total acreage will fall far short of that number, but it is believed that the program will be carried out any way.

If the program is carried out, Lynn county farmers will receive approximately $400,000 for the acreage destroyed. In addition to that they will receive a considerable sum later on the options offered and accepted by many of them to buy Government cotton at 6 cents per pound. Nearly half of the farmers signing contracts in Lynn county accepted the option plan.

L. M. Nurdyke Is In Lubbock Hospital

L. M. Nurdyke, county commissioner for the Draw-Grassland precinct, who is now in a sanitarium in Lubbock, has sent a communication to the News asking that all road work in his precinct be stopped at once. In emergency cases, County Judge W. E. Smith will look after the matter, he states.

Mr. Nurdyke was taken to the sanitarium last week for treatment and for an operation when his condition shall have become sufficiently improved. He is said to be somewhat better now. Mr. Nurdyke has been suffering from gall stones and ulcerated stomach, it is said.

Church Of Christ Meeting At T-Bar

Rev. Billie Garnett of Edith will begin a Church of Christ revival meeting at T-Bar school house on the first Sunday in August, R. E. Colebank of that community announces. The meeting will last one week, possibly.

People of all faiths, or of no faith at all, are cordially invited to attend any and all services.

WILL ATTEND SHORT COURSE AT A. & M.

County home demonstration agent, Miss El Fleda Harrison, will attend the short course to be given at the Texas A. & M. College July 24-28. Three women and one girl are also hoping to attend.

CRIME DOESN'T PAY

If any young squirt imagines that there is anything glamorous in the life of a criminal, he should stop and think a bit. May be the exploits of Pretty Boy Floyd and some others do appear to a lot of young fellows who love excitement to be very spectacular and heroic. The thinking of all such is superficial and terribly distorted. There is no glory in the career of the criminal—only discontent and disgrace and bloodshed and hell.

A number of bad criminals recently escaped from the Tahoka jail. Their numerous crimes and their several escapes from jail and from the custody of officers had brought them quite a bit of notoriety. Yes, their names were in all the papers.
But, at least one of them is now dead, killed by a bullet fired by an officer of the law. All of the others except one have been captured and are again behind prison bars. What pleasure are they getting out of life?

It may be that some miserable
wretches can get a hint of satisfaction out of the fact that their names are being blazoned forth in the newspapers and on the lips of men as the names of daring criminals and desperate characters. Poor fools!
What a boomerang any criminal act must be that is committed just for the love of notoriety! What a price
the criminal must pay for such notoriety! Hunted down like some wild beast of the jungle—hiding out in the "brakes and the brush"—frequently enduring hunger and thirst and fatigue—catching "snatches of sleep"
only when it may seem safe to sleep
—waking from horrid dreams with a start—going armed constantly with pistols and high-powered guns with which to kill any fellow being who would attempt to capture him—

PILES

Suffer no more! Here's real relief at last for all forms of Piles—Internal, External, Itching and Painful. Protruding Piles Ointment does all the things necessary, in the manner necessary. First, it soothes—relieves the soreness and inflammation. Second, it heals—repairs the torn tissue.
Third, it shrinks—draws up excess mucus and reduces the swollen blood vessels which are Piles.

In other words, Piles Ointment merely relieves—it tends to cure
the condition of Piles as a whole.

The method of application
makes it doubly effective. Special File Pipe attached to tube enables you to apply ointment
high up in the rectum where it will reach all affected parts.
Thousands say Piles is the only thing that ever gave them real relief. Thousands say it saved them the need of an operation.
Get Piles today and suffer no longer.

fighting it out at last with officers and with law-abiding citizens—killing some perhaps but at last being killed—living only to make men hate him, dying only to make men glad that he is dead—these are the usual chapters in the biography of the desperado however shrewd and resourceful he may appear to be.

Again we want to say to the youth of our country that he is a fool who would embark on a career of crime.

A SAGE OF THE COW COUNTRY

It was our good pleasure on Monday, through the kindly offices of a mutual friend, to meet the inimitable Colonel Dick McCarty, dean of the country newspaper fraternity, in his hospitable and attractive home, the Hillroad Place, in the fine little city of Albany.

Albany is the capital city of old Shackelford county, and Shackelford county is away back east in the heart of the cow country. They call it the "home of the Hereford."

Nobody ever thinks of Albany
without thinking of the Albany
News and of Col. Dick McCarty.
For countless years he guided its course. He still owns the paper but on account of ill health he has leased
it out and now writes for it only occasionally. As an editor he is unique among the newspaper men of Texas. His English is often uncouth, but he makes you like it. He uses the language of the street, and nobody ever has to guess at his meaning. A philosopher, a sage, and a seer, he fills his editorials with wit and wisdom. A lover of nature and of his fellowman, he talks about the birds and the flowers and the sunsets, and his editorials fairly bubble over with love and sympathy and optimism and good cheer.

We found Colonel Dick propped up in his bed—but was he downcast or moody? Not a bit of it. He was as full of fun as a kid. He was busy radiating good cheer and good will.
He greets you with a hearty hand-shake, and a smile and soon you are making his room ring with bursts of laughter.

Col. Dick is seventy-six years old —but he is still a kid, the same freckle-faced, bare-footed kid that used to roam the hills and fish in the streams and enjoy an hour or two almost every day in the "ole swimmin' hole." He will probably not be here many more years, but we believe Heaven itself will be a little bit brighter and cheerier when Col.
Dick gets there.

But the best thing about Col.
Dick is his wife. She is indeed a real queen in a real home. It was good to be there, folks; it was good to be there.

It is always a pleasure to a newspaper man to visit the shop of another newspaper publisher. We had the rare pleasure Monday of visiting Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Fryar, publishers of the Albany News, in their well-equipped and well-arranged shop. We found them to be most gracious people, and they are publishing a paper of which Albany is justly proud.

"What they moving the church for?"

"Well, stranger, I'm the mayor of these diggin's, and I'm for law enforcement. We've got an ordinance what says no dance hall shall be nearer than 300 feet from a church.
I give 'em three days to move the church."

Editor Hill of the Tahoka News
says that he will promise to forgive Mr. Roosevelt several other faults if he will restore prosperity to the farmers. We know one of the faults
he holds against the administration, because it is wet. But what the others are, we can't possibly fathom.
In fact we thought E. I. and FDR were on right good terms aside from the fact that the former is dry as Sahara, and the latter moderately wet. We can't ever remember that Editor Hill found any fault with Mr.
Hoover during his administration. If so, we did not see it expressed editorially in his paper, and we read his fine paper mightily close.—Terry County Herald.

We have nothing against Franklin
D. at all, Jack, except his wet proclivities. We think he is going fine so far, but evidently he does have some other faults besides his wetness. For instance, some of those who were so hard on Hoover and so strong for Franklin D. are now shaking their heads doubtfully and talking about the "dictatorship" that has been established in the White House. If this Roosevelt program works out right all the way through it will be fine, but if it should fail, Boy, Howdy! Some of those who cussed Hoover so vehemently will be spitting out fire and brimstone at Roosevelt. No, we didn't cuss Hoover much, for we thought he was getting plenty of it any way. Hoover did not bring on the depression; he was a victim of it. He did not prove to be able to meet the emergency and his ideas about how to deal with it were probably wrong, but he was honest and did his best. It is easy for some folks to cuss the fellow that everybody is cussing, but not for us.

A TERRIBLE FIX

A small girl asked her mother,
"If I grow up, will I have a husband
like papa?"

"Yes, my dear," mother replied.
"And if I do not get married, will I be an old maid like Aunt Susan?"

"Yes," was the reply.

The little girl thought for a moment, put her hands to her head,
and said, "Well, I am in a fix."

Opinions Of Our Readers

PROTECTION AGAINST THE CRIMINAL

Time was when the bulk of crime was committed in the large cities of this country. Today, many of the largest cities of the United States have their lawless elements well in hand. It is more dangerous to reside in West Texas now, so far as the risk of being shot is concerned, than in New York City. This is due to the fact that in cleaning up the large places criminals have sought the smaller cities, towns, and the rural districts.

It behooves every law-abiding citizen to be in his guard at this time,
and to aid the law enforcement agencies in every way possible. The modern criminal is desperate; he is out to kill.

Sheriffs should be furnished with the latest model machine guns and high-powered automobiles. To battle a gang of modern outlaws, officers should have an "even break." Ordinary Winchesters and forty-fives are poor equipment with which to capture criminals equipped with machine guns.

The battle front of criminal warfare has shifted to this section. Let's admit it, prepare for it, and win the "scrap" as we have always done.
I am speaking to the common, law-abiding citizens of West Texas, including the better class of peace

which I did. I began to feel bet-

DEATH CLAIMS PIONEER RESIDENT AT O'DONNELL

David Curtis Stevens, pioneer
West Texan, and a resident of O'Donnell for the past ten years, passed quietly away at the family home
here at 8 o'clock Thursday evening,
June 29.

Funeral services were conducted Friday afternoon at the Church of Christ, with Elder R. P. Drennon of Tahoka in charge of the impressive rites. Eight grandsons of the deceased acted as pall bearers. They were Leslie, Roy, and Ernest Stevens, Jack and Curtis Stevens of Tahoka,
and Alvis, Cecil and Lawrence Tred-way of O'Donnell. Interment was in the city cemetery.

Mr. Stevens had been bedfast for the past fifteen months, but had been seriously ill for less than two weeks. Attending physicians state that dropsy was the immediate cause of his death. His mind remained clear until the end, and he exhibited marked vitality even on the day of his death.

Mr. Stevens was born in Indiana, on February 14, 1851. He came with his parents to Texas in 1860, and settled in what is now known as Bell county. Here he grew to manhood, and here he was married, in 1873, to Miss Letitia Miller, with whom he spent 60 happy years. To this union were born seven children,
two of whom died in infancy. Five,
with their mother, live to mourn
their father's death. They are: Mrs.
W. A. Tredway of O'Donnell, D. A.
Stevens of Tahoka, C. C. Stevens of Amarillo, Mrs. Irvin Durham of Bennington, Okla., and H. F. Stevens of Post.

C. C. and Mrs. Durham were unable to be present for the funeral services.

Mr. Stevens had been a member of the Church of Christ for more than fifty years and his devotion to his church, his cheerfulness and patience with his friends and the family during his long illness made him an example for all with whom he came in contact. Those who knew him best loved him and appreciated him most.

He came with his family to Borden county in 1901, and to O'Donnell in 1922. It was Mr. Stevens' pride that he had ginned cotton in seven counties from the same farm. Materials used in the home in Borden county were freighted in from Colorado City, long before the day of railroads in this section. His every conversation was rich with reminiscences of pioneer days.

Relatives present for the funeral services besides those already listed were: C. J. Miller and Mr. and Mrs.
Jim Miller of Abernathy; Leslie Stevens of Post, Ernest Stevens of Sweetwater, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stevens of Post, P. Z. Stevens and daughter, Gladys, of Post, and Mr. and Mrs. Wade Ray of Wilson.

STEEL ALONE IS NOT ENOUGH!

—neither strong enough, nor safe enough, nor quiet enough for the body of a quality car like

CHEVROLET

Why is it that every 12-cylinder and 16-cylinder car in America has bodies of steel reinforced by hardwood? Why is it that every make of car selling for over $4000 uses bodies of exactly the same type?
Why? For the same reason that Chevrolet uses it exclusively.
Because every test and every experiment has definitely proved:
STEEL ALONE IS NOT ENOUGH!

The trouble with steel alone is that it stands just so much shock and punishment! Steel alone is also inclined to rumble and rattle. BUT—when you put the two together—a heavy, staunch steel body over tough, solid hardwood—then the hardwood reinforces the steel—and vice versa! And the result: the strongest, safest type of body, such as Fisher builds for Chevrolet.

Plains Counties Are Named For Heroes

It is interesting to note the number of Panhandle counties named in honor of soldiers and other heroes of the Texas war for independence. Of the 54 counties in the Panhandle-Plains, 32 were named for heroes of the Texas revolution, and 11 of that number gave their lives to win freedom from their Mexican oppressors.

In 1876, the state Legislature passed an act creating these counties and naming them. Many members of that, the 14th Legislature, remembered the stirring days of the revolution and the pioneers of that day, on whom they placed honor.

The following revolutionary heroes have Panhandle-Plains counties named in their honor.

Richard Andrews, killed in the battle of Concepcion; Bailey, an Alamo victim; and not the famous Senator, as popularly supposed; Andrew Briscoe, signer of the Texas Declaration of Independence, who also commanded a company of regulars at San Jacinto; Samuel P. Carson, another signer of the Declaration of Independence, secretary of state in Burnett's cabinet, and who had also been a U. S. Congressman from North Carolina before coming to Texas; George C. Childress, called the "Thomas Jefferson of Texas," because he wrote the Declaration of Independence; Cochran, a victim of the Alamo; James Collingsworth, who also signed the Declaration, captured the old Mexican fort at Goliad, fought at San Jacinto, and later served as chief justice of the new republic's supreme court; C. W. Cottle, killed at the Alamo; Erastus (Deaf) Smith, the old scout for Houston's army at San Jacinto; Nicholas H. Dawson, a second lieutenant at San Jacinto and killed in the Mexican war; J. Dickens, a victim of the Alamo; Sam Rhoades Fisher, a signer of the Declaration of Independence, and Houston's secretary of the navy; D. Floyd, another Alamo victim; John C. Hale, a soldier in the battle of San Jacinto; Warren D. C. Hall, a secretary of the navy in the Burnett cabinet; James M. Hansford, speaker of the House of Representatives in the Congress of the republic; John Hemphill, chief justice of the supreme court, both republic and state, and later a U. S. Senator; Gen. Geo. W. Hockley, who commanded a wing of the Texas army at San Jacinto and later became secretary of war for President Houston; A. Kent and William King, both died in the Alamo; Lieut. George Lamb, killed at San Jacinto; George W. Lynn, who died at the Alamo; Col. Thomas S. Lubbock, a soldier of the Texas revolution and the Civil War, and not the famous "war-governor," Francis R. Lubbock, as many believe; Wiley Martin, a soldier of the revolution and a member of the Texas Congress; Asa and Eli Mitchell, leading citizens of Austin's colony, who served in the Texas army; Commodore E. W. Moore, of the Texas navy, and killed at San Jacinto; Martin Parmer, a member of the constitutional convention and signer of the declaration, Robert Potter, Alabama Congressman who came to Texas to become Houston's secretary of the navy; John S. Roberts, also a signer of the Declaration of Independence; Sidney Sherman, who commanded a squadron of cavalry at San Jacinto and succeeded General Rusk as commander-in-chief of the Texas army; James G. Swisher, a signer of the declaration of Independence, and a captain at San Jacinto.

The following are the names given to the remainder of the Panhandle-Plains counties:

Armstrong, for a pioneer family; Borden, for Gail Borden, Jr., a delegate to the San Felipe convention, publisher of the Harrisburg Telegraph and inventor of the process of condensing milk; Castro, for Henry P. Castro, a Frenchman of the staff of Napoleon Bonaparte, who came to Texas and colonized the region immediately west of San Antonio; Crosby, for Stephen Crosby, state land commissioner during the Civil War; Dallam, for James W. Dallam; Donley, for Stockton P. Donley, a Democratic justice of the supreme court during reconstruction; Gaines, for James Gaines of Gaines Ferry on the Sabine River, who served in the republic Congress; Garza, for an old Spanish family in Texas; Gray, for Peter W. Gray, a member of the first Legislature and the Confederate Congress; Hartley, for O. C. and R. K. Hartley; Howard, for Volney E. Howard, of the annexation convention and a member of the U. S. Congress, 1851-53; Hutchinson, for Anderson Hutchinson, a district judge of the republic; Lipscomb, for Abner S. Lipscomb, Alabama chief justice and secretary of state for President M. B. Lamar; Nolan, for Philip Nolan, filibuster, killed by the Spanish soldiers while capturing wild horses in Texas; Ochiltree, secretary of the treasury in the second Houston cabinet; Oldham, for W. S. Oldham, a Confederate Senator from Texas; Randall, for Gen. Horace Randall, killed in the Civil War; Scurry, for Brig. Gen. William R. Scurry, who fought in the Mexican War and was killed in Louisiana during the Civil War; Stonewall, for the nickname of Gen. T. J. Jackson; Terry, for Benjamin Franklin Terry, who led the famous "Terry Rangers" in the Civil War; Wheeler, for Royal T. Wheeler, district judge while Texas was a republic and later chief justice of the state supreme court; and Yokum, for Henderson Yokum, the historian of Texas.—Jerome B. Timmons, in The Amarillo News.

HOPE FOR INCREASED ATTENDANCE AT BAPTIST

Growing out of the fellowship meeting for the men at the church Friday evening, there ought to be an increased number of men in Sunday school, B. T. S., and at both preaching services Sunday.

The pastor will preach Sunday morning on "Distributing Burdens." Sunday evening the theme will be "The Gospel Made Known Through the Church".

The hope is expressed that we will be on time for all the services. Let's not be a sponge during these hot months, absorbing all the good from the churches and giving nothing back in return. Visiting friends and strangers are welcomed with a warm hand. "Come this way and we shall do thee good."

Mrs. A. R. McGonagill is again in the West Texas Hospital in a quite serious condition, we understand. She is suffering from a complication of diseases.

Mrs. Joe Roberts of Abilene spent last week here visiting her parents, Rev. and Mrs. D. D. Johnson.

THE WAITING PERIOD IS NOW OVER!

IT'S TIME FOR YOUR MESSAGE

An Advertisement To Advertisers

The period of waiting is over. Better business is here. Steel, car loadings, Cotton, wheat, stock prices, bond prices—all the basic indices proclaim the upturn.

Men are being put back to work. Farmers are getting more for the things they produce. City people are buying the things they need. Delayed purchases are at last being made, not stintingly but in volume.

What amount of this revived and increasing business will come your way depends pretty much on you. A host of new buyers has developed. Old buyers have broken away from old-time habits.

If ever there was a time for aggressive salesmanship, it is now. If ever there was an opportunity in advertising, it exists today.

Business follows lines of least resistance. Customers go to stores where they are made most welcome and where the inducements in style, price and convenience are most compelling.

What have you to offer?

Tell the public about your wares, your services, and your ability to meet new requirements. Now is no time for silence. People are eager to know, eager to act.

Part coverage won't do. You must address all of your audience if you are to get your full share and benefit of the "new deal."

The important thing is to get started with copy that is adequate, copy that is in tune with the new tempo of public demand. Somebody is going to sell these people goods. Why shouldn't it be you?

Baseball Dope

By Paul Ponder
I don't know who the local ball club's official reporter is, or whether it has one. I will say at the first that Editor Hill didn't send me out to cover last Sunday's game. But since it was such an unusual specimen of the popular pastime, and so many of the News readers were not out to witness it, I'll give a synopsis of it, covering the high points (or low ones, as the case may be) which made the game an interesting one.

It was between the local team and the Lubbock Hubbards—and, O boy, they have the right name, for they "hub" something nearly every place they go. In some ways the game was unique, although there were only 35 runs scored in the whole nine innings (one inning less for our boys).

At the start it seemed to be a pitcher's battle in which they strove to see who could issue the most free passes to first without "walking in" a score. Well, Pete lost out early in the contest, as he "walked in" the visitors' first score in the first frame, leaving the bags loaded. Then the local fans razed so much that Mgr. Skipper yanked the young right-hander and sent in Larkin, who got "out of the hole" by issuing enough hits to clean the bases. But this wasn't fair to Pete, who was doing what he thought he was supposed to do.

No, nothing crooked about it. It was this way: Tahoka won the first half-season; and to insure a championship play-off at the close of the season, why it wouldn't do for her to win this half also. So it was sort of understood that this game was to be thrown to Lubbock, because they couldn't win it under any other conditions; and if Pete had stayed on the mound, that's the way it would have gone.

But Bovell seemed not "on to the racket," for while Frank was treating the visitors to a wide variety of hits, many of which were expected to go for two and three baggers or homers, he was racing all over the outer garden nabbing everything that came in 75 yards of his field. But if he had watched E. S. and Wade as they fumbled about every other chance, he should have sensed that there was something "dead up the creek." And besides, there was Blue, who must have misunderstood and thought that instead of "losing a ball game" that he was to lose the ball—which is exactly what he did. He labeled it for a cotton field east of the O'Donnell highway, but it got halted by a weed patch only a mile away.

There were an unusual lot of errors by both teams. I started to count them for both sides—on my fingers—but I ran out of fingers after the fifth inning, and lost the count. The "cowboy" on first got a nice hand a time or two in the latter part of the game for some nice catches—he had been missing generally up to that time.

But the maximum of hits was the special feature. Some times our boys batted twice around in one stanza, getting a hit nearly every time up. In fact, hits were so common that Tom Lemond got four nice ones, and he didn't even have a bat.

"Sled" started his ace, Ham, who held us to some twenty hits and fourteen runs for five innings, then he was relieved by "Red," who wasn't doing any good on the "hot corner," and falling in the box, he was relieved by a south paw who seemed to be a crack shot; for the only way our boys could have kept him from hitting their bats would be to hide them. And so he gave place to a fourth so-called pitcher.

The fiasco lasted about three hours, but it would have been thirty minutes shorter but for "time out" hunting lost balls, and once for helping Ham unwrap himself from around the foul-line stake.

But to Bovell probably goes the record for getting a home run out of a single to left. It was so sizzling hot the third sacker thought it was two, and reaching for one—the wrong one—he let the real one go; and as it was the first one to left that hadn't gone over the out-fielder's head, he didn't know anything to do but chase around that old barn looking for it.

Finally, I reckon the only reason the boys stopped at 23 scores was that they were just like I am now—all run down.

CHEAP IRRIGATION SYSTEM
A "poor man's irrigation system" which uses tin can pipe to distribute the waste water from the weekly washing to irrigate 75 feet of tomatoes has been devised by Joe Macha, Hookley county farmer. He slashes the bottoms of tin cans obtained at the city dump heap to make flanges that fit to the mouth of the next can. The sections of pipe thus made were laid 2 or 3 inches in the ground and the water seeps through the joints for about two feet on each side. When plowing he removes pipe.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Haney, Truett Smith, and Miss Lucille, Slaton left Sunday to spend a few days out at Cloudercroft, New Mexico. They expect to be back in Tahoka Friday.

Locals

Mr. and Mrs. Dock Redmond of Fort Worth are here this week visiting relatives. Mr. Redmond is visiting his mother near Post while Mrs. Redmond is visiting her sisters here. Mrs. J. M. Johnson and Mrs. S. E. Key. Mrs. Redmond reports that her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Knoy, who are now at Fredericksburg, are enjoying excellent health.

Mrs. Myra Uitz, who is employed in one of the Government departments at Washington, left for her home Monday, after having spent about two weeks here visiting her sister, Mrs. A. L. Lockwood. She spent the first two weeks of her vacation in California and came with her sister, Mrs. L. C. LeSure, from San Diego to Tahoka.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Donaldson of Houston are spending this week here with Mr. Donaldson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Donaldson. Young Mr. Donaldson is connected with a lumber company in Houston. He thinks the business outlook in the South Texas city has greatly improved the past few weeks.

The editor returned Monday from a brief visit with his mother and other relatives in Hamilton. We found crops good in Hamilton and along much of the route between Hamilton and Tahoka. Corn and maize are excellent in places and cotton promises to make a good average yield.

Grady Howard of Crosbyton visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hill this week. He says wheat turned out much better than was expected when harvest began. Prospects for a cotton crop in the Crosbyton area are fine, with practically all farmers signing acreage reduction contracts.

Rev. D. D. Johnson Wednesday favored the editor with a nice little gift of strawberries gathered from his patch. Fine, fine. It takes a lot of little things like that to keep the editor sweet-sweet-tempered, we mean.

Mrs. H. M. Snowden and three children, Hiram, Rudolph, and Julia, are leaving today for San Marcos to visit Mrs. Snowden's mother and to look after Mrs. Snowden's ranching interests there.

Misses Frances E. and Elnora Dulaney, who are attending the Texas Tech summer session, spent the week end with home folks.

A fishing party consisting of W. D. Smith, W. T. Bovell, S. A. Robinson and Miss Allene Taylor spent several days last week on the Colorado near Lampasas. They brought back about 70 pounds of fish as an evidence of their good luck.

Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Thomas visited in Denton county last week and Mr. Thomas says that crops there are very fine, especially cotton. Fishing was fine too, he says. He caught a lot of the funny tribe.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian McCauley of Lubbock and Mr. McCauley's mother, Mrs. Lottie McCauley of Kingsville, were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Donaldson Sunday.

H. M. Snowden and son Howell were in New Mexico on business Tuesday and Wednesday.

South Ward

Our Sunday School attendance was better Sunday than it has been for some time. We are glad to welcome visitors and new members. So come out next Sunday morning at 10:00 o'clock and be with us. There will also be a talk by Mrs. Thompson of Tahoka.

There was a large crowd for both church services. Bro. Dykes brought two most heart-rending messages which everyone enjoyed very much.

We had a good crowd at singing Sunday afternoon, and a good singing. There were visitors from Edith, Redwine, Midway, and other communities. We want them to all come back next fourth Sunday at 3:00 in the afternoon for singing. Bring your books and somebody with you. Our class is going to Midway next Sunday night to sing with that class over there. Come go along with us.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Evans and children visited Mrs. Evans' sister, Mrs. Edd Hamilton, of Three Lakes Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Iman spent the day Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. T. B. Cowan Jr., and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mason of Bethel spent Sunday with Mrs. Mason's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Burden.

Mr. Burden visited friends and relatives in Abilene last week.

W. A. Hardt and H. M. Jenkins went on a "fish hunt" Saturday and returned Sunday evening. We have not heard whether they found any or not.

Folks, don't forget Sunday School at 10 o'clock and the talk by Mrs. Thompson at 11:00 next Sunday morning. Come!—Reporter.

Will Compile Plains History At Austin

Austin, July 6—Considerable favorable interest has been created by the proposal of Dr. W. P. Webb, associate professor of history at the University of Texas, that a "Great Plains History Collection" be established at that institution, according to J. Evetts Haley, University research collector in the social sciences. Already the University has in its possession approximately 130,000 documents and other valuable materials relating to the Great Plains, which form a substantial nucleus for the proposed collection.

"Though the collection will bear upon many phases of Western life—transportation, mining, dry farming, irrigation—these first materials deal with ranching operations in the West and illustrate something of the initial settlement of the region," Mr. Haley said.

Among the documents now in the University Library are the papers of the following pioneer Great Plainsmen: Jot Gunter, W. B. Munson, John Summerfield, Frank S. Hartz, J. M. Daugherty, John A. El Knight, D. H. and J. W. Snyder, George H. McEntire, James C. Cator, Ben C. Mayes, James Cook, Robert Moody, Ed C. Lasater, Abel H.

Pierce, Joseph Henry Polley, Governor Henry Smith, and Col. George W. Fulton. In addition, there are papers of the Coleman-Fulmore Pasture Company, and records of the Duncan, Tait and Bolton Plantation.

TRAMMELL BOYS SPREAD
TERROR BEFORE TAKEN

their trail. The men were spotted tonight while they were riding the horse. Police exchanged shots with the men last Tuesday when they were surprised at a farm house near Novice. Fleeing hatless and shirtless to a nearby ranch, they helped themselves to shirts and an automobile and escaped.

Luke, about 25, has served a two-year term for burglary. He was sent up from Coleman county about three years ago. His brother, Dave, also was convicted in the burglary and served time. Starkweather, the youngest, was arrested but released because he was a minor.

Dave Trammell, while being held in jail here on the burglary charge, made a dash for liberty, knocking down Deputy Sheriff Bob Sumrall, who is now a Texas ranger. Dave was shot in the leg, and officers recaptured him the same day he made the escape. Early Friday afternoon Sheriff Mills had issued a call for additional armed men, in an effort to prevent the two fugitives from entering Coleman in the dark and stealing another car in which to escape.

A report had come that the two had been seen in the mountains near town Friday afternoon on a horse which they had taken from the Beck ranch. The Beck horse they had stolen after abandoning a horse taken from the Allen ranch Thursday night.

Appearing at the Miller ranch near Leaday about 10 p. m. Thursday, they exchanged shots with the ranch owner when he heard a disturbance in his car. The bandits passed through Leaday, where rangers and officers took up the trail. Crowded as they went up a hill just out of that town, the fugitives took to the brush, in different directions. They reunited soon afterwards and next appeared at the Allen ranch.

A coupe which had been commandeered Tuesday night was found in Concho county, across the line from Leaday, Thursday morning.

Occupants of the coupe were reported to have hijacked a filling station operator at San Angelo early that morning.

The coupe had been taken from the Baker ranch between Novice and Glen Cove Tuesday afternoon, after the two men had engaged four officers in a gun battle and escaped afoot from a farm house where they had been surprised at a noon meal.

Search for the pair was begun in Coleman and Runnels counties after the hijacking on June 27 of Dr. C. W. Dunn and a young woman companion five miles south of Abilene. A mile from where Dr. Dunn and his companion were put out afoot, a 1929 Ford coach taken at Childress was found.

The Dunn machine was discovered June 29 a short distance northeast of Ballinger, where R. W. Burleson of Ballinger was relieved of his car and left bound and tied. The Burleson car was found wrecked July 3 near Leaday, and the same night a farmer was hijacked out of his Ford pickup, abandoned when the bandit pair took a Hupmobile coupe from four Coleman youths near that city. The coupe was found in a thicket near the Sam Light farm, scene of the Tuesday gun battle.

PROHIBITION AS VIEWED
BY A DRUNK MAN

I had twelve bottle of whiskey in my cellar, and my wife made me empty the contents of each and every bottle down the sink, so I proceeded to do as my wife desired and withdrew the cork from the first bottle and poured the contents down the sink, with exception of one glass which I drank. I then withdrew the cork from the second bottle, and did likewise, with the exception of the glass which I drank. I extracted the cork from the third bottle emptied the good old booze down the bottle, except a glass which I devoured. I pulled the cork from the fourth sink and poured the bottle down my neck. I pulled the fifth bottle from the cork of the next and drank one sink of it, then threw the rest down the sink. I pulled the sink out of the next cork, and poured the bottle down my neck. I pulled the next bottle out of my throat, and poured the cork down the sink, all but the sink which I drank. I pulled the next cork from my throat, and poured the sink down the bottle and drank the cork. ^

Well, I had them all emptied and I staid the house with one hand and counted the bottles again, which were twenty-four, so I counted them again, when they came around again, and I had eighty-four, and as the house came around I counted and proceeded to wash the bottles, but I couldn't get the brush in the bottles, so I turned them inside out, and washed and wiped them all, and went upstairs, and told the other half all about what I had done, and "Oh! Boy! I've got the wifest little nice in the world—Jack Wingo, in Community Weekly.

TAHOKA AND ROSCOE
PEOPLE HAVE PICNIC

Some thirty former and present teachers and pupils of Tahoka and Roscoe gathered at the City Park in Lubbock Friday evening for a very pleasant outing and picnic. Games were played under the direction of Merlin Hastings of Roscoe and James Clinton of Tahoka, with M. L. H. Baze directing games for the "older folk." This was the first effort of teachers and pupils of this school, all of whom are either business men, and women or teachers and college students, to form any kind of organization. Plans were made to have a permanent organization as a part of college life in Lubbock.

Sandwiches, cake, and cream were served after the games.

Those present were: Merlin Hastings, Olin Hastings, Eugenia Hastings, Ruth Long, Clara Mae Rayburn, Carl Harper, Scott Duncan, all formerly of Roscoe; Burton Hackney, Linnie Tippit, Mrs. James Clinton, Gladys Douthit, Mrs. Alexander Taylor, Mrs. W. O. Henderson, Vada Walden, Sybil Tarrance, Fern Lisemby, Leta Tarrance, Eva Doak, J. W. Clinton, Henry Burkhalter, all formerly of Tahoka; Faye Tippit, Gatesville; Chlois Huffaker, Wilson; Alta Hill, Farmersville; Frances Evers, Brady; Mary Louise Lane, Oklahoma City; Mr. and Mrs. M. L. H. Baze, Pampa. Many are teachers at or near Tahoka, Roscoe or Pampa, being students for the summer session in Texas Tech.

Miss El Fleda Hadrisson acted as the judge of the clothing contest held at Levelland on Monday of this week.

Ed Goddard and family of O'Donnell visited the families of J. H. Edwards and Mrs. Dulaney Sunday.

MOTHER CAT HAS UNUSUAL
BROOD—BABY POLE CATS

Two baby pole cats (or skunks) a couple of baby kittens and a pair of young coyotes are being nursed and raised by a mother cat at the home of M. A. McDonald in Sweetwater.

The pole cats are tiny little things and were caught on the farm of Jerry Lewis, on the Divide. Their eyes are not opened as yet. The two baby coyotes, not more than five inches tall, also were caught on the Lewis place.

The four wild animals were placed with the mother cat which was already raising a pair of kittens and apparently she is enjoying raising such a mixed family.

Mr. McDonald invites people to see the unusual sight of the cat caring for all of them—Sweetwater Reporter.

S. D. Roberts and his mother, Mrs. J. C. Roberts, of Denton are here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Claud Donaldson. They are the brother and mother respectively of Mrs. Donaldson. Mrs. Roberts expects to remain here through the summer.

Four hundred and thirteen contracts, calling for the destruction of 17,602 acres out of a total acreage of 42,572, have already been sent in to Washington, according to Joe Williams, the Emergency agent here, who is handling the matter. In these 413 contracts options are taken on 3292 bales of cotton. The total cash to be received from the Government for the 17,602 acres to be destroyed is $131,470, which is $7.46 per acre.

Mrs. Harley Henderson and children visited her parents at Crosbyton last week.
