Rains Help Crops; Heat Record Is Set

LYNN COUNTY IN GOOD SHAPE

Crop Prospects Improve As Rains End Hottest Spell in Lynn County History

Much more than half of Lynn county has been visited with rain sufficient in amount to be of great benefit to crops within the past few days. In fact nearly all of the county has received some rain, but it has been very light in some localities.

The heaviest and most extensive downpour came during the early hours of Sunday morning, when 1.60 inches were recorded at Tahoka. In some localities near Tahoka the precipitation was even heavier than that amounting possibly to 2 inches or more. Possibly two-thirds of the county was covered by this rain, ranging in amount from a quarter of an inch in some communities up to 2 inches in others. In addition to the territory immediately surrounding Tahoka, other communities receiving as much as an inch were Draw, Midway, Joe Bailey, Redwine, and parts of Edith, Dixie, and other communities. A good rain also fell at Wells, Three Lakes, West Point, and other localities. It was light at New Home, Wilson, and O'Donnell.

O'Donnell and a large portion of the surrounding territory received a good rain, however, on Monday afternoon, and on Tuesday a large territory in the northern part of the county including Wilson and extending beyond Slaton in Lubbock county was visited by a fine rain. A heavy shower fell also over a large scope of country just north of Tahoka. Light showers have fallen in the Magnolia, New Lynn, and Gordon communities in the northeast section of the county. A very light shower in Tahoka Friday night amounting to .07 of an inch and another Tuesday afternoon amounting to .08 have brought the total precipitation in Tahoka up to 1.75 inches during the past week.

These rains and showers have been highly beneficial to growing crops. Both the cotton and the feed crops in most of the territory immediately surrounding Tahoka and in numerous other localities in the county are very promising.

Immediately preceding the rains, Lynn county experienced the hottest weather ever recorded here. On Thursday afternoon of last week, the official thermometer kept by the News broke all previous records when it recorded a temperature of 107. But on the next day, the mercury climbed up to 109.

Thus the year 1933 has recorded the highest and the lowest temperatures ever registered in this county. On February 8, the mercury took a nose dive down to 15 degrees below zero. On the preceding day it had gone to 1 degree below and never rose higher than 2 above during the entire day. On the morning of the 8th the mercury stood at 15 below but rose during the day to 19 above.

From 15 below on February 8 to 109 above on July 14 marks a variation in temperature of 124 degrees, which is unprecedented in this country.

The office and show rooms will be in the building heretofore occupied by the Snowden Chevrolet Company and more recently by the Pure Food Grocery, which has disposed of practically all of its grocery stock.

Nordyke Takes Typhoid Fever

News was brought from Lubbock Tuesday that county commissioner L. M. Nordyke, who has been receiving treatment in the Lubbock Sanitarium the past several days, now has typhoid fever in addition to his other maladies. The patient is said to be doing remarkably well under the circumstances, however.

It is believed that he became infected with the germs on a recent trip he made.

GETTING HWY. 9 RIGHT-OF-WAY

Judge Smith Hopes To Get Deeds In Soon So Work Can Start On Highway 9

Judge W. E. Smith and the county commissioners are still working at the matter of procuring right-of-way deeds for highway No. 9 through the county. Most of the right-of-way has been procured but deeds to a few sections of this road are yet lacking. Commissioners R. E. Fipley of Wilson and Jim Izard of New Home accompanied by county clerk H. C. Story went to Abernathy and Plainview Tuesday in an effort to procure some needed deeds.

Judge Smith had an inquiry Wednesday from the district engineer's office in Lubbock as to whether the Lynn county commissioners desired the north half or the south half of the highway through Lynn county graded first. Judge Smith informed him that it was preferable to grade the south half first.

Nazarenes Close Meeting Sunday

"Our revival has been attended with good interest, with a few conversions and some prospective additions to the church," said W. P. Grogan, the pastor, on Wednesday.

"Evangelist Lynn has been giving soul-stirring messages with profit to all who heard them. "He is to deliver a few special sermons from the Book of Revelations, beginning Thursday evening with the topic, The Seven Candlesticks and the Seven Churches, Friday evening the topic will be The Seven Stars and the Four Living Creatures. Saturday evening, The Seals and the Signs of the Times. Sunday morning, The Nature and Power of Divine Love."

'Spuds' Grow Well Here, Prater Proves

F. L. Prater has convinced himself and some of his neighbors that as good spuds can be raised here as anywhere. Last spring he planted some Irish Cobbler potatoes and on Monday he brought to the News office some samples of the potatoes he has raised, large fine fellows that look as good as anybody's spuds. Mr. Prater says that his yield on the small patch that he has is very heavy. Just a little attention and just a little water applied at the opportune time turned the trick.

Mr. Prater also declares that he has as fine onions, beans, peas, squash, cucumbers, and other garden truck as any one need desire—the best garden he has had for years.

Mr. Prater lives on the N. M. Bray farm five miles east of town.

TEXAS PLANS ROAD PAVING

Many Counties In This Area Will Benefit From Building Of New Highways

Announcement was made in the daily press Tuesday morning that the state highway commission had approved a number of West Texas highway construction projects for designation as beneficiaries of federal relief money. The approved list has been sent to C. E. Swain, federal district highway engineer at Fort Worth, and the projects accepted by the federal authorities will be announced soon.

The approved list includes the grading and drainage of highway No. 9 through Dawson county and the location of this highway from Big Spring in Howard county to the Dawson county line.

It also includes the location of highway No. 83 eastward from Lamesa to the Borden county line, and construction of highway north from Stanton, ten miles.

The greatest project, possibly, is the completion of a highway from

Drys Will Hold Rally Saturday

A prohibition rally has been announced for 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon on the court house lawn here. Rev. J. M. Hale, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Brownfield, will be the principal speaker of the occasion. It is desired that a large number of children be present, and of course all adults are cordially invited.

Rev. Mr. Hale has spoken on this subject in a number of places heretofore, and it is said that he presents some vital facts in a most forceful manner. He speaks in favor of retaining the Eighteenth Amendment and against the legalization of beer.

Whatever your views on these matters and whatever you may think about the possibility of swimming the tide against prohibition, you are sure to be well entertained and informed by hearing this address.

Jack Fenton And Miss Wells Marry

Mr. J. W. (Jack) Fenton and Miss Frankie Wells were married in Alamogordo, New Mexico, on Monday of last week, the ceremony being witnessed by Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Roberts of Tahoka. The ceremony was performed by the Methodist minister there, Rev. J. W. Thurston, who is the father of Rev. H. L. Thurston of Wilson, this county.

Following their marriage the young couple took a bridal trip to El Paso, returning to Cloudford, New Mexico, for a stay of a few days. They returned to Tahoka Saturday and will have an apartment at the Keltner Hotel.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Wells, while the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Fenton. Both were reared here and are popular young people. Mr. Fenton has been employed for some time in the Gaignat Hardware store, while Mrs. Fenton is one of the employees of the Texas Utilities Company, and both will continue to hold their positions.

BARGAINED FOR EGGS, BUT BOUGHT A CHICKEN

One of our grocery stores reports that a customer brought in some eggs last Saturday to trade for groceries. The deal was made all OK, and the customer went on his way rejoicing. Then when the grocer went to put up the eggs in their proper compartment he found that one of them had hatched out. Instead of an egg he had bought a chick.

Moral: Don't sell your chickens in the shell.

MAY PLOW UP COTTON SOON

Should Not Be Plowed Up Until Official Notice Given; May Plant Between Rows

Farmers are warned not to begin plowing up their cotton until a permit to do so has been issued by Joe Williams, Emergency County Agent of Lynn county. The agent will grant permits as soon as the necessary blanks arrive. They are expected the latter part of this week.

Mr. Williams received the following telegram Tuesday from O. B. Martin, who is directing the acreage reduction program in Texas, and it is highly important that all farmers observe the instructions given in this message.

"Printed instructions and emergency permit blanks on way to be used by farmers to secure permit from county agent to destroy immediately cotton, without having to wait for special acceptance blanks.

"Instructions and emergency permit blanks should reach you Friday. In no case should producer begin destruction of crop until permit is issued.

Lubbock Service Stations Robbed

Two Lubbock service stations were robbed at an early hour Monday and the attendants kidnapped and taken to a point on the highway near Wolforth on the Brownfield highway, where they were released, according to the story they told officers upon their arrival back in Lubbock some time later.

Three men drove up to the Gulf Refining Co. station on Main street at 3 A. M., held up Archie Lee Jackson, the attendant in charge, took about $20.00 in money, some gasoline and oil, an electric lantern, and a billfold, forced Jackson to get in the car, took him a few blocks and left him under guard of one of the trio, and the other two then proceeded to Scott's Auto Storage company on Main Street, robbed it of about $30.00, one 12 gauge automatic shot-gun and one .44 caliber rifle, and then compelled Frank Maddox, the attendant, to get in their car. They then went by and picked up the third member of the gang and Jackson and let their captives out on the Brownfield highway.

Officers have been searching for the three men and it is hoped that they will soon be captured.

Donaldson Trades For Snyder Ranch

W. M. Scott and son have traded their 5,300-acre ranch seven miles south of Snyder to C. E. Donaldson for 1,120 acres of farm land in Lynn county, fifteen miles southwest of Tahoka and an unannounced cash difference. Donaldson has placed about 100 cattle on the Scott ranch, but the exchange of places will not be made until January 1.—Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

Down Town Class Visits Methodists

Returning a visit made by the men's classes of the Methodist Church several weeks ago, the Men's Down Town Bible Class of the Baptist Church were the guests last Sunday of the Methodists. Members of both classes present aggregated about 80, it is said.

The Scripture lesson was read by Rev. L. L. Hays of the Baptist Church, while the Methodist pastor, Rev. H. C. Smith, taught the lesson.

Special numbers were a vocal duet by Misses Roth Suddarth and Maxine Jones, and a saxophone solo by Maurice Small.

All report a good time and a fine spirit of fellowship.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Gaignat and Miss Audye V. McCormack visited Amarillo Monday.

Laymen Banquet Held Friday; Dr. Taylor Of Howard Payne Principal Speaker

About eighty men gathered at the banquet tables in the Baptist church last Friday night to feast on the good things that had been prepared for them by some of the ladies of the church and to enjoy the splendid program that had been arranged.

The principal speaker of the occasion was Dr. Thomas H. Taylor, president of Howard Payne College, Brownwood. His address abounded in witticisms and jokes that kept his audience highly amused and entertained. At the same time it contained a most wholesome philosophy, designed and calculated to banish gloom and grouching. Dr. Taylor took a cheerful outlook on life and its problems in spite of depressions and difficulties. His purpose was to

CAMPAIGN GOES OVER BIG HERE

Farmers Take Options On 11,860 Bales; Sign To Plow Up 40 Per Cent

A tabulation of figures completed this morning, showed that Lynn county's farmers have agreed to plow up 71,789 acres of their cotton, and for the acreage destroyed will receive cash payments aggregating $552,151.50, which is an average of approximately $7.70 per acre, according to emergency county agent Joe Williams.

A total of $243,151.50 is to be received on the straight cash contracts and a total of $309,000 on the option contracts.

The farmers of Lynn county have taken options on 11,860 bales of government cotton at six cents per pound. In addition to the above cash payments they will also eventually receive whatever profits they may make on these options.

Farmers signing contracts have a total of 175,511 1/2 acres in cotton. They have contracted to plow up slightly more than 40 per cent of this acreage. A total of 1681 contracts have been approved, and an average of nearly 43 acres per contract is to be destroyed.

The acreage production in Lynn county last year was 183 pounds, and the expected production this year, as figured by the authorities, is 128 pounds.

It is believed that farmers will be authorized to begin plowing up their cotton early next week.

A half million dollars coming to the farmers of Lynn county this summer should greatly stimulate business and help materially to restore prosperity in this locality. At the same time, the destruction of approximately 10 million acres of cotton in the South should mean a curtailment of the crop by more than 4 million bales. This prospect has already had the effect of greatly enhancing the price and it is believed that farmers will receive a much better price this fall than they did for last year's crop. It begins to look as if prosperity were not just around the corner but actually in sight.

ISSUED MARRIAGE LICENSE

A Lubbock couple procured a marriage license here Wednesday. They were Charles Young and Miss Lucille Gentry, living on Route 2 out of Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Boullion and children, Bernard and Betty, of Arkadelphia, Arkansas, are here this week visiting E. H. Boullion and family, the two gentlemen being brothers. This is their first visit to the plains and E. H. says they are getting a great kick out of it.

Longview Refuses Vowell's Release

B. L. Parker went to Longview last week to get S. D. Vowell, the kidnapper of J. F. Covey of Wilson, but found that Vowell had been indicted there for robbing a policeman at Kilgore, taking the officer's gun away from him and then taking his money. He was to be tried on this charge in Longview on the 27th of this month.

En route to Longview Mr. Parker stopped over in Fort Worth to see one of his escaped prisoners in jail there, Calvin Davis, who was charged with car theft. Davis' confederate in the crime, J. R. Romine, had impersonated another prisoner and escaped from the Fort Worth jail.

From Longview Mr. Parker went to San Antonio to take a look-in on the sheriff's convention. He arrived home Friday night.

CRIME AND STATES' RIGHTS

The United States Government is to put on a drive to stamp out racketeering, we are told.

It is to stage a drive for the suppression of the crime of kidnaping.

It is to use its constabulary for running down murderers and bank robbers and bandits. It is already on the trail of Pretty Boy Floyd.

The racketeers have been operating with a high hand in many of our cities and the city authorities have been incompetent or too corrupt to deal with the situation.

Kidnapers have become so bold and brazen as to astound the nation and the world.

Bank robbers and hi-jackers have been terrorizing the country. But state officers and the city police have made a poor show at suppressing their activities or laning the criminals behind the bars.

So Uncle Sam has entered the picture. He has been assisting in a way all along, but now he is to inaugurate an intensive drive against racketeers, kidnapers, bank robbers and all such.

It is all very fine, and we all applaud.

But what are we to do with our good old Democratic doctrine of state rights? When is comes to the liquor question, we say that Uncle Sam should "hands off," that that is a matter for the states to deal with. But as to racketeering, kidnaping, robbery, and banditry, we good Democrats under the leadership of that indomitable executive, Franklin D. Roosevelt, are now proposing to throw "states rights" to the winds.

We are not objecting; we are not criticizing. We think it is the right thing to do. As a matter of fact, we have greatly overworked this "states rights" doctrine. It is not a matter of principle as to whether the Federal Government or the individual states, or both, should be called upon to suppress and punish any class of crime; it is merely a matter of expediency.

Here is our doctrine, held to for many years: All those matters that are of purely local concern and that can be dealt with most effectually by a county or local community should be left up to the people of such county or community. Example, prohibiting or permitting live stock to run at large, and many others. All those matters that are of general concern but that can be handled adequately by the various states should be left up to the states. Examples; ordinary theft, burglary, forgery, and most of our ordinary crimes.

But all those matters in which the states and the local authorities have failed and which can be handled most effectively by the Federal Government should be so handled, either exclusively or concurrently with the state governments.

The number of crimes that fall within this category have greatly increased within the past quarter of a century by reason of our changing civilization. Our great inter-state system of railroads, our net-work of highways, the automobile, the airplane, the radio, the telephone and the telegraph, these and other modern developments have made it easy for criminals to laugh at state lines and to defy the authorities in any given state. Most of the states, too, cling to their old archaic laws relating to court procedure, which renders it difficult for the state courts to convict and punish a guilty man. There is less monkey business in the Federal courts.

Therefore the party of "states rights" fame is finding it necessary to abandon a purely states rights policy and to enter into the field heretofore occupied by the individual states alone in the matter of the suppression and punishment of crime. The Federal government will probably encroach more and more upon this field, impelled to do so by force of circumstances.

We are glad that Uncle Sam is to take a hand in the fight against the gangster and the kidnaper, and the racketeer. We hope that he strikes a crushing blow. We don't know of any Democrat who opposes. Yet there are those who oppose National Prohibition on the grounds that the liquor traffic is a matter of state control. If there is any major evil that is as difficult of control by the individual states as the liquor traffic and that is as proper a subject for Federal control, we have been unable to figure out what it might be.

We are going to win this fight against the gangster and the racketeer through the strong arm of Uncle Sam, and in the course of time we will again use the same arm to crush the liquor traffic.

MILK VERSUS BEER

Somebody has gleaned the following facts from the United States Statistical Abstract.

In 1909, nearly 7,500,000,000 gallons of milk were produced in the United States. In 1919 approximately 7,800,000,000 gallons were produced. In 1924, the figures had climbed to 9,193,000,000 gallons.

In other words during the ten wet years the milk production increased 300,000,000 gallons, or just 4 per cent. During the five dry years the milk production increased 1,393,000,000 gallons, or nearly 18 per cent.

Butter production during the ten wet years increased 8,800,000 pounds, we are told, while the increase during the five dry years was 458,800,000 pounds, fifty-two times as much as during the ten wet years.

The milk consumption during prohibition increased 212.5 pounds annually for every man, woman, and child in the United States. To obtain this increase, it required 2,500,000,000 more pounds of grain annually than were used in the distilling and brewing industry in 1917, according to Louis J. Tabor, master of the National Grange.

In other words, the more the people of the cities spend for booze the less they have to spend for milk and butter.

Booze has no food value and is therefore worthless, but it is very expensive. Being expensive, it renders the drinking families less able to buy food and thereby decreases the demand for the farmer's products. Booze is not an economic asset; it is a terrible liability.

While President Roosevelt's plan for ending the depression seem radical and even revolutionary, yet we believe that they are justified by the emergency which they are intended to meet. The difference between Hoover and Roosevelt is this: Hoover expected to bring prosperity back by making Big Business prosperous —by helping the railroads and the banks and the insurance companies and the manufacturers. His idea was that if these interests were made prosperous, a lot of the prosperity would leak down to the laborer, the farmer, and the small business man. Roosevelt's idea is the reverse of this. He believes that if the farmer can be made prosperous and the laborer given a job, Big Business will take care of itself. In other words, Hoover believed that prosperity must begin at the top and work down; Roosevelt believes that it must begin at the bottom and work up. We are for the Roosevelt plan.

They are telling us that this 3.2 per cent beer is not intoxicating. They say that you can drink your fill of it and get no kick. It was not so in the old days. Everybody then recognized beer as an intoxicant. It may be that this so-called 3.2 per cent is not 3.2 per cent at all. It may be that the brewers are putting out a weak concoction while elections on beer are pending so as to mislead the public as to the intoxicating character of 3.2. It has been frequently so charged, but we guess the dry leaders have not taken the trouble to test it out. Tests as to the alcoholic content of the beer now being sold throughout the country ought to be made everywhere. If a fraud on the public is being perpetrated then the public is entitled to have the fraud exposed. If 3.2 is not intoxicating, a lot of us would be less opposed to its sale. Let's get at the facts and turn on the light.

Methodists Report Record Attendance

The lesson of reform was admirably molded from the story of the potter and his clay which the Rev. Smith used for his morning theme last Sunday at the Methodist church. Mrs. Layne Moreland sang "Jesus, Savior, Pilot Me" for the musical offering.

At night Mesdames Smith and Carmack sang a duet, "Just as the Sun Went Down," preceding the splendid talk which the pastor based on the parable of the wedding feast.

The church school had a record attendance for recent months, exclusive of the presence of the "Down Town" Bible class taught by G. E. Hovan, who were the guests of the "Everyman's" Class of the Methodist church. Class president J. D. Donaldson Sr. gave a brief word of welcome. Rev. L. L. Hays read the scripture. The class was taught by the Rev. Smith in the absence of the Judge Smith, who is the regular teacher. A saxophone solo, "Face to Face" by Maurice Small and a vocal duet "Help Somebody Today", sung by Misses Maxine Jones and Ruth Suddarth were the musical features arranged for the guest hour. The opening prelude was "Song of the Seraphs" by Schumann, after which Supt. G. M. Reid conducted a worship period.

Rev. Smith is assisting throughout the week in a revival meeting at Wilson. The Wilson pastor, Rev. H. L. Thurston, will fill the local pulpit Sunday morning, and at the evening hour there will be a service of unusual character. You are cordially urged to be in your place for both of these fine meetings. Bro. Thurston is a sincere, forceful speaker and you are sure to enjoy his visit here.

Let us bring the Sunday school attendance on up to two hundred and fifty next Sunday. It can be done! Be one, and bring one!—Reporter.

Hays Announces Sunday's Subjects

The pastor will preach Sunday morning on "The Barnt Offering and the Song of Joy." The choir will sing "Serve the Lord with Gladness." You will greatly enjoy the congregational singing.

Sunday school meets promptly at 9:45. There are 300 people in this community that ought to be in Sunday school Sunday morning.

Baptist Training Service meets at 7:45 p. m. There is a place of training for every age. Let the parents see that the children are in the Primary, Junior, and Intermediate Unions while they themselves attend the adult union. Mr. and Mrs. Suits are doing some faithful and constructive work in the Young People's Union. Evening worship is at 8:30. The pastor will preach from Matt. 12-30, "For Christ or Against Him."

Let all our church family be in the services, thus setting the right example for the un-churched and the un-saved.

A warm welcome to visiting friends and strangers among us. —Lawrence Hays, Pastor.

METHODIST W. M. S. HAS ANNUAL GUESTS' DAY

The annual guest day of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church was celebrated last week at the lovely home of Mrs. E. E. Callaway, where a most appropriate setting and program marked the completion of the society's study of Indian Missions. Director of study, Mrs. R. W. Fenton Sr., assisted by an efficient committee, was in charge and certainly nothing had been overlooked that could have added to the pleasure or success of the event.

The house was tastefully decorated with every sort of Indian craft and handiwork—rugs, pottery, basketry and beaded work, pictures, etc., which figuratively transported the audience to a tribal home. The dining table was a thing of beauty as well as of art, with tiny canoes floating placidly on a mirror lake beside which stood little brown topees and sturdy trees from one of which a little papoose swung lazily in its cozy nest. An unusual display of ceremonial vessels, etc., used in the observance of ancient tribal customs, was most interesting and informative.

The following numbers comprised the entertainment program: Piano solo by Mrs. Suddarth, "Indian War Dance" by Gelbel; "How 'Lonesome' Caused the Prairie-dogs," legend told by Miss Jessie Fenton; vocal selections with accompanying history by Mrs. Layne Moreland in beautiful Indian costume, "Love Song" from the "Red Willow Pueblos" by Troyer and "Invocation to the Sun-God" by Lleurance; a one-act playlet "Where the Trails Cross" with effective scenic and costume arrangement, impressively presented by Mesdames H. C. Story, C. O. Carmack, and J. Fred Bucy; piano solo "By the Waters of Minnetonka" by Lleurance, with legend, played by Mrs. Lola Thomas; the "Tale of Hiawatha" told by Mrs. M. J. Weaver with her usual unflinching charm; and in closing, a special request for "The Indian Love Call" sung by Mrs. Moreland.

The social hour was spent in viewing the elaborate collection of Indian wares and in eating the delectable refreshments of maple ice cream and maple cake, selected in deference to the Indian origin of the use of maple sap.

Mrs. W. M. Lee is president of the organization which sponsored this delightful affair and every woman of the church with the opportunity to be in attendance surely joins in an expression of their appreciation and thanks to the society, the committee, the hostess, and the program participants.—Contributed by a guest.

TAHOKA CLUB STUDIES MAKING OF PICKLES

A demonstration of fermented pickles was the main feature of the Tahoka Home Demonstration club which met July 12 at the American Legion Home, Miss El Freda Harrison giving the demonstration.

A social program was enjoyed and punch and cookies was served to the following: Mesdames Knight, Richardson, Goodnough, Jones, Conway, Anglin, Harrison, Greathouse, Faulkner, Canaday, Fenton, Finch, Wells, Edwards, and two new members, Patterson and Kuykendall, and the hostesses, Dye, Harold Edwards, and James Connolly.—Reporter.

MRS. SUDDARTH PRESENTS PUPILS IN PIANO RECITAL

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Rubie D. Suddarth presented some of her voice and piano pupils in an informal recital at her home.

In addition to theoretical and technical exhibitions, the company was delighted to hear a guest pianist, Miss Ernestine Story, in several lovely numbers which gave evidence of excellent training in touch, technique and interpretation—all quite unusual in so youthful a student.

Delicious fruit punch was served, after the program, to about thirty-five invited guests.

Jeff Connolly visited relatives at Whitney in Hill county last week. He says that crops are very spotted in Hill county, some being very good and some very poor.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. LeSueur, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Lockwood here the past two or three weeks, left for their home in San Diego, California, Monday.

H. A. Maasen was here from Lamesa Wednesday and stated that he and W. E. Taylor were about the only men in their part of the county that had any cotton up. He has 40 acres and Mr. Taylor 75 acres which is looking fine. There is very little cotton in the entire county, he declared, but some are planting this week, following Sunday's rain. A few had dry-planted previous to the rain.

Outlaw Is Killed In New Mexico

Carrizozo, N. M., July 17.—The end was written tonight to a bloody story of gun fights, deaths and bank robberies in two states with the arrest of Ed (Perchmouth) Stanton, and the death of Glenn Hunsucker, alleged bank robbers wanted in Texas on bank robbery and murder charges.

After a 24-hour search, Sheriff A. S. McCamant of Lincoln county, New Mexico, returned here late this afternoon with Stanton and is brother, Will, after capturing them between Corona and Ramon, N. M. Neither resisted and officers lodged them in jail here to be held pending the arrival of Tulsa, Texas, authorities.

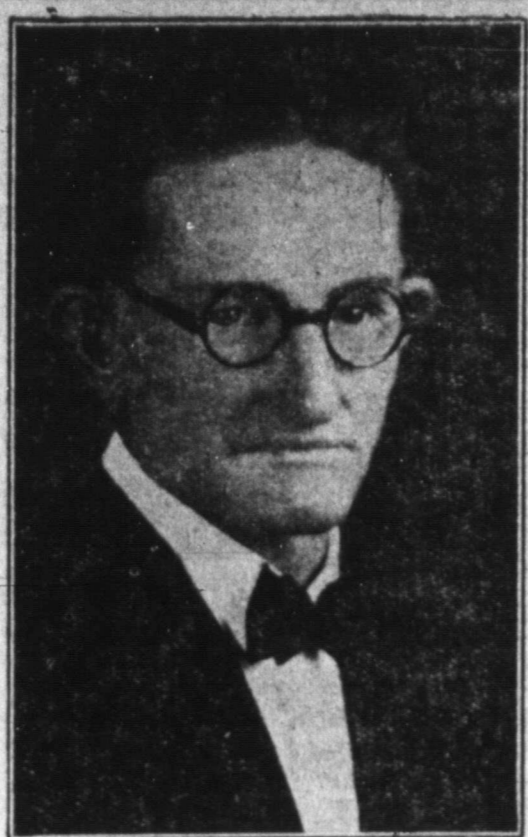

Stanton escaped to the wilds of northeastern Lincoln county after officers had shot and killed Hunsucker when he and Stanton decided to shoot it out with the sheriff's posse, near Ramon late Sunday afternoon. During the exchange of shots, Tom Jones, deputy sheriff, was killed.

Hunsucker's death and Stanton's arrest marked the end of a trail of blood across West Texas and eastern New Mexico which has seen the death of four peace officers and the robbing of one Texas bank and possibly a New Mexico bank.

The four officers, all killed while searching for the outlaws, were Deputy Sheriff Tom Jones of Carrizozo, killed in Sunday's fight; John C. Mosley, sheriff of Swisher county, Texas, shot down in January of this year, and Harve Bolin, deputy sheriff of Hale county, Texas, fatally wounded a year ago on the Lee Peberworth ranch, 50 miles from Portales, N. M., and Joe Brown, Rhome county Texas, deputy sheriff, in January when he took two men and a woman to his office for investigation.

Hunsucker was believed by authorities to be directly linked in deaths of Mosley and Jones, and Peberworth, with whom Hunsucker was indicted in the Olton robbery, is serving a prison sentence for the death of Bolin.

McCamant and his force of deputies were led to the outlaw's camp after a gun fight staged with them near Corona, N. M., Saturday night had led to the arrest of Dobby Blankenship, believed to be a third member of the gang, at Tipton Well, seven miles from Ramon. Blankenship is being held here for further questioning by the Texas officers.

On approaching the campsite of the two men, the officers found themselves in the direct line of fire from the outlaws' guns.

Jones fell on the first exchange of shots and Hunsucker's death came soon afterwards. Stanton, seeing himself outnumbered, evaded the officers and escaped on foot.

A full blooded Pima Indian in Arizona recently needed some cash so he approached the banker at Casa Grande about a loan.

"How much money do you need?" asked the banker.

"Me want $200," replied the Indian.

"For how long?"

"Maybe two weeks; maybe two months."

"And what security have you?"

"Me got two hundred horses."

This seemed sufficient, so the loan was made. Shortly afterward the Indian came back to the bank with $2,200 cash, paid his loan, with interest and started to depart.

"Wait just a minute," cried the banker. "Why not let us take care of that money for you?"

Recalling various bank failures of recent date, the Indian paused, looked the banker straight in the eyes, and solemnly asked, "You got any horses?"

In 40 days by taking Kruschen Salts, Mrs. Helga Blaugh of New York City reduced 26 1/2 lbs.—took 4 inches off hips, 3 inches off bust and 7 1/2 inches off waist. She writes: "I haven't gone hungry a moment—I feel fine and look 10 yrs. younger." To get rid of double chins, bulging hips, ugly rolls of fat on waist and upper arms SAFELY and without discomfort—at the same time build up glorious health and acquire a clear skin, bright eyes, energy and vivaciousness—to look younger and feel it—take a half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water every morning before breakfast.

One jar lasts 4 weeks and costs but a trifle at any drug store the world over. Make sure you get Kruschen because it's SAFE. Money back if not joyfully satisfied. 5G-3

Many Phases H. D. Keep Women Busy

(By El Fleda Harrison).
The home demonstration club women are enjoying many phases of club work these summer days. Short interviews with a number of the women give an insight into their activities and accomplishments.

Canning By Budget
"This year I canned by a budget and found that my food supply is better balanced, for instance my corn and tomatoes last as long as my peas and beans," said Mrs. Garland Pennington, co-operator in pantry work of Edith club. "This spring when I had sickness in the family I found tomato juice very necessary in the diet. This I had very little of in my pantry and had to buy. This year I am including tomato juice in the budget and will avoid the necessity of having to spend money for food that might just as well have been put on the pantry shelves in the first place."

Mrs. Pennington's canning budget for 1933 includes leafy vegetables, 120 containers; starchy vegetables, 100; other vegetables, 80; tomatoes and tomato juice, 175 No. 3 cans; fruit and fruit juice, 100; miscellaneous, 80; meats, 100; pickles and relishes, 25; jellies, jams, preserves, 52; peanut butter, 26 pints; and hominy, 26 containers.

Makes Mock Olives
"Mock olives made from unripe plums are a good substitute for olives," says Mrs. H. P. Chisum, T-Bar club. "Last year I had them in my pantry and will this year."
The recipe used for making mock olives is as follows: The plums when just beginning to ripen, but are still green, should be pickled in a 40 degree brine (1 lb. salt to 9 parts of water). The brine should be poured hot over the fruit and allowed to stand for 36 hours. It should then be poured off. Place the fruit in a new brine and boil for one minute. Drain the plums, pack in jars, cover with hot brine. Seal and process pint jars for 30 minutes at boiling point.

Women Build Pantries
Home demonstration club women intent on organizing their pantries convenient for getting food out of storage are busy digging cellars and building shelves.
Mrs. R. B. Colebank of T-Bar has her pantry shelves ready built so that the food may be properly stored as it is canned. She also has labels ready for labeling her canned goods. The shelves are built 10 1/2 inches above each other with supporting stringers 31 inches apart.

Makes Beautiful Rugs
Mrs. A. M. Daniels, home industry demonstrator, has finished a wool hooked rug in floral design of blues and dirty golds well blended in a background of ecru mottled in an interesting manner with dark tan, and light brown, blue, and green. Mrs. Daniels has sold her rugs as fast as she gets them out of the frame for $1.00 per square foot. It costs, when buying all materials, 31c per square foot to make the rugs, leaving a profit of 69c. She can make a rug size 2x4 feet in one week along with her house work and other activities.

Beautifulizing Yards
Lynn county yard demonstrators have planted 546 pines. These pines are of three varieties—Ponderosa, Scotch, and Austrian and are used in the windbreaks which are a part of the demonstration in yard beautifulization.
When temperature ran to 17 below zero, pines were the evergreen that stood the cold. The Austrian pine has grown during the drought and has proved to be a good pine for this section of the country.

Even though demonstrations on clothing work have ceased, wardrobe demonstrators are still passing the word on.
"I have never had a dress to fit until I got my individually fitted pattern. I do not see how I have done without it this long," says Mrs. L. O. Mitchell, non-club member, Tahoka. The pattern was cut and fitted by Mrs. Claude Conway, second year wardrobe demonstrator, Tahoka home demonstration club.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Heare returned Saturday from Miami, where they had been visiting relatives and looking after property interests. Mr. Heare says the out-turn of the wheat crop in that area was very light.

Mrs. C. G. Thompson, living four miles east of town, has as her guests this week her cousin, Mrs. John Fielder of Oklahoma City, and her uncle, Mr. Charley Robison of Fort Worth.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradford Russell and daughter of McKinney left Saturday after a few days visit with Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Cooper.

Mrs. Joe Williams came in Monday from Temple to be with her husband, who is acting as emergency farm agent for Lynn county during this cotton acreage reduction campaign.

Mrs. Jim Burlison has had as her guests her sister, Mrs. Bessie Cornish of Healdton, Oklahoma, and her aunt, Mrs. Alonzo McCrory, and little son of Lawton.

Announcement has been made of the birth of little Gary Quinsey to Mr. and Mrs. Elzie Watson on last Friday. Mother and baby are doing nicely.

Locals

Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Smith returned home Friday from a few days visit with Mrs. Smith's brother in Cleburne and Mr. Smith's sister in Fort Worth, accompanied by Mrs. Smith's sister, Miss Mary Seroyer, who has been visiting there two months. They were also accompanied home by Miss Faye Pitts of Cleburne for a few days visit. Miss Pitts was a teacher in the Central Ward school here a few years ago. She is now teaching in Cleburne.

Prof. E. E. Gilbreath, who was recently elected superintendent of the O'Donnell schools for the ensuing year, was a pleasant caller at the News office Thursday. Prof. Gilbreath has been teaching in the O'Donnell schools for three years, having served in the position of athletic coach and then as principal. The entire faculty for next year has been elected.

R. E. Key and Miss O'Beta Forester left Monday for Corpus Christi to attend a meeting of the agents of the Fidelity Union Life Insurance Company. They were joined by others at Lubbock, from which place they went to Dallas to join a still larger group going to Corpus Christi in a body. They expect to return to Tahoka near the end of the week.

J. A. Matlock and J. A. Shade of West Virginia spent several days here visiting the various members of the Crouch family, Mr. Matlock being a nephew of the late W. J. Crouch. He was reared at San Saba and lived a short time in Tahoka but has since resided in Arizona and West Virginia. Mr. Shade is a friend of his.

J. K. Applewhite and family returned Sunday from a weeks visit with relatives at Goldthwaite and Lampasas. Mrs. Applewhite was bitten by a spider Saturday morning just as they were leaving Lampasas, and the wound became so painful as to require treatment by a physician upon their arrival in Tahoka.

R. P. Weathers and family returned Saturday from a pleasure trip to Colorado Springs and Denver. R. P. says they have lots of 3.2 up in Colorado but he came back home without any information whatever as to how it tastes or as to whether or not it has any kick.

J. B. Oliver reports that a few days ago he met a relative whom he had not seen for twenty-eight years. The gentleman referred to is S. J. Oliver of Lubbock, revising clerk for the Santa Fe Railway in that city, who is a cousin of J. B. They were boys together.

Mrs. Johnnie Rochelle, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hanna, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Smith, Mr. Smith's sister and father, and Jack Minor left Saturday afternoon on a pleasure trip through New Mexico and into Colorado. They expected to be gone about two weeks.

Mrs. O. B. Webb and children of Gurdon, Ark., were here last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Spears, north of town. Mrs. Webb is a sister of Mr. Spear. During their visit here Miss Mavadin and Kenneth Webb and Louis Spears visited the Carlisbad Cavern.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Weaver entered the Texas Tech this week for the second half of the summer term. Mr. Weaver will be here to take up his duties in the school room again in September. They recently returned from a vacation trip to Arkansas.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Willoughby are the parents of a fine little son born last Sunday afternoon. He weighed 7 1/2 pounds and is strong and healthy. Mother also is doing well. The little fellow will bear the name of Lloyd Mack.

Mrs. Joe Williams came in Monday from Temple to be with her husband, who is acting as emergency farm agent for Lynn county during this cotton acreage reduction campaign.

Mrs. Jim Burlison has had as her guests her sister, Mrs. Bessie Cornish of Healdton, Oklahoma, and her aunt, Mrs. Alonzo McCrory, and little son of Lawton.

Announcement has been made of the birth of little Gary Quinsey to Mr. and Mrs. Elzie Watson on last Friday. Mother and baby are doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. South have gone on a pleasure trip to Colorado. They expect to be gone two or three weeks, we understand.

Baseball Dope

By Paul Ponder
Since last report Tahoka has won two more ball games—one within the league, the other an exhibition bout with Grassland.

Grassland has a good team, I'm told, who probably couldn't come over last Friday. However, the boys that did come played pretty well—in spots, only when Tahoka willow contacted with the hide-bound sphere for several elongated drives, the boys found themselves playing (or sitting, as it were) in the wrong spots to handle the touring pellet. Nevertheless, when they came to bats they also made our boys exercise themselves in some of the distant recesses of the pill garden, as they nicked "Rosie" for extra bags, and one for a circuit clout.

They had about a half jillion G. boosters in the first frame, when they bunched a couple of hits with an error and scored one. After that their "cloud of witnesses" seemed to be from somewhere else. Nine to three was the score.

"Mug," or "Gran" Pa," who toed the rubber the last four or five innings, fooled several of our erstwhile maulers with his slow outs. They were so slow the boys swung from 7 to 11 seconds too previously, and so far out they couldn't reach it with regular length bats. It was a funny game and I wish they would come again some time and "pitch" Meg throughout. We could finish the game before dark, if they could be here and start at, say, 12:30.

Sunday's game was with Abernathy, and was, for the most part, a fairly peppy and interesting one—a little one-sided, however—resulting in a 9 to 2 score. Action of both teams was handicapped by reason of compulsory removal to a "new ground" field—a diamond in the rough, so to speak. According to Tahoka's weather prognosticators the luxuriant Jupiter-Pluvius saturation should have happened before Saturday, in which case the excessive moisture collected on the infield should have been absorbed ere Sunday afternoon. But the weather man (like the News publisher occasionally) is a trifle subsequent in his operations, and the aqua spill came a day late.

Rose did mound duty for the locals, holding the visitors to seven scattered hits, while our boys garnered ten hits—all sizes except homers—and were complimented with two walks. Besides Rose's two runs, he accounted for three of the others.

Garner, who pitched six innings for A. was relieved by Croslin, who yielded no runs. Barring three errors, their defense was good. With the exception of about three, the line-up was different from that our boys had met on former occasions. Good attendance and fine humor featured the contest. Tahoka's percentage standing now is .607. We play Lubbock next Sunday on their lot.

P. S.—It is rumored that a scout from a class A circuit has made a big offer for Wade H. Whether the offer was based on his batting average for Friday and Sunday, is not known.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cowan were called to Ropesville Tuesday morning by the serious illness of a brother of Mr. Cowan.

Final Democratic Report Is Made

The News has received from Roy Miller, chairman of the Texas Democratic National Campaign Committee, a final report of his activities and the activities of his co-workers, Senator Margie Neal, Frank Schofield, and W. H. Kittrel Jr.

Mr. Miller has requested publication of this report. While we find it too lengthy to publish in full, yet we take pleasure in giving publicity to a few extracts from it.

"Realizing, of course, that Texas would record an overwhelming majority for the national ticket," Mr. Miller states, "our only purpose was to place our state in the forefront of a great Democratic victory. As a result we had the satisfaction of seeing Texas take first place in majority of votes cast for the ticket and we achieved the distinction of contributing more money to the National campaign fund than any other state except New York. * * * Total funds raised by the committee or contributed by Texas Democrats direct to National Headquarters have amounted to about $175,000. The number of individual contributions approximated 23,000.

"Few of those who participated actively in achieving these gratifying results have sought favor or job in compensation for their services. They have been, and are, content to find their reward in the splendid achievements of our great President and his administration in the rehabilitation of our beloved country. I commend them for their unselfish patriotism. Those who only for the sake of the cause itself bear the heat of its battles rarely seek to divide the spoils. That is usually the business of the camp followers and non-combatants who in safety and complacency travel in dress parade in the rear of the victorious army."

Having taken this debt but wicker dig at those who are seeking office under the Administration, Mr. Miller relents a bit and informs all such that they should hereafter communicate with Jed C. Adams, National Committeeman, who is now a resident of Washington, D. C., Mrs. Clara Driscoll Sevier, National Committeewoman, at Corpus Christi, Senators Sheppard and Connally, and their own Congressman.

sued by county agent.—O. B. Martin."

Mr. Williams stated that "County agent can not in any case give permission to plow up cotton until blanks arrive. They are expected not earlier than Friday, July 21."

A previous telegram from Mr. Martin stated that "Farmers may plant feed in the middle," or between the cotton rows to be plowed up, without waiting for permits. No cotton must be plowed up, however, until permit is issued by county agent.

PROMINENT CITIZEN TAKES SWIM IN A MUD HOLE

Parties returning from Lubbock at a late hour Tuesday night report that they witnessed a most unusual incident on the highway about two miles north of town. The recent rains had created a lake extending across the roadbed. They say that the usually dignified bank cashier, R. P. Weathers, stopped his car right in the middle of the lake, climbed out on the fender, and then made a beautiful dive right down into the water, swimming around on his back vigorously and vociferously for some time while his astounded family and other spectators looked on. R. P. just recently returned from a trip to Colorado, where 3.2 is said to flow like branch water.

Miss June Gary, who works at the Thornhill Variety Store, was sick a few days the first of the week but was able to be back on duty Wednesday.

Black-Draught Clears Up Sluggish, Dull Feeling

"I have used Theford's Black-Draught for constipation for a long time, and find it gives relief for this trouble," writes Mrs. Frank Champion, of Wynne, Ark. "I think it is good for spells caused from gas on the stomach. If I get up in the morning feeling dull and sluggish, a dose of Black-Draught taken three times a day will cause the feeling to pass away, and in a day or two I feel like a new person. After many years of use we would not exchange Black-Draught for any medicine."

infuse confidence and a spirit of optimism into the minds and hearts of his auditors, and all seemed to enjoy the exhilarating experience.

District Attorney G. H. Nelson was the master of ceremonies, and Rev. Lawrence Hays, a graduate of Howard Payne College, introduced the speaker.

Another highly pleasurable number on the program was the recital of "Current Events" by R. E. Thompson, president of the Men's Bible Class, in which he took a shot, humorously, at many of the men present.

The program was begun with a quartet rendered by Messrs. R. E. Thompson, H. B. McCord, C. T. Burnett, and Mrs. Homer Harrison, the latter "pinch-hitting" for Henry Douthit, who had not arrived. The three above named gentlemen and Mr. Douthit rendered another number later in the evening.

A regular number and an encore were also rendered by another quartet composed of Messrs. G. H. Nelson, R. E. Key, C. T. Burnett, and W. S. (Skip) Taylor. One of these was a negro spiritual and both numbers were greatly enjoyed. In fact the whole program was excellent.

At the close of the program a resolution was passed thanking the Lucille Reagan Circle of the W. M. S. for preparing and serving the delectable feast which the men had avidly devoured.

Abilene to Temple. Parts of this highway have been constructed already but much of the route will be a new project altogether. The road extends from Abilene through Cross Plains, Rising Star, Comanche, Hamilton, and Gatesville to Temple, and will provide a more direct route from the entire South Plains to Temple, Houston, Galveston, and all that section of the state.

Another important West Texas project approved is the location of highway No. 118 from Aspermont to Spur. The present location of this highway through Kent and Stone-wall counties is very crooked. A new route will be surveyed out and built.

No project was submitted for Lynn county for the reason that a complete right-of-way on No. 9 has not yet been provided.

A part of the special $24,000,000 federal relief funds allotted to Texas will be used in the construction of these and other West Texas highway projects. This is in addition to regular federal funds that are allotted to Texas annually for highway construction.

Rains Help Crops; Heat Record Is Set

LYNN COUNTY IN GOOD SHAPE

Crop Prospects Improve As Rains End Hottest Spell In Lynn County History

Much more than half of Lynn county has been visited with rain sufficient in amount to be of great benefit to crops within the past few days. In fact nearly all of the county has received some rain, but it has been very light in some localities.

The heaviest and most extensive downpour came during the early hours of Sunday morning, when 1.60 inches were recorded at Tahoka. In some localities near Tahoka the precipitation was even heavier than that amounting possibly to 2 inches or more. Possibly two-thirds of the county was covered by this rain, ranging in amount from a quarter of an inch in some communities up to 2 inches in others. In addition to the territory immediately surrounding Tahoka, other communities receiving as much as an inch were Draw, Midway, Joe Bailey, Redwine, and parts of Edith, Dixie, and other communities. A good rain also fell at Wells, Three Lakes, West Point, and other localities. It was light at New Home, Wilson, and O'Donnell.

O'Donnell and a large portion of the surrounding territory received a good rain, however, on Monday afternoon, and on Tuesday a large territory in the northern part of the county including Wilson and extending beyond Slaton in Lubbock county was visited by a fine rain. A heavy shower fell also over a large scope of country just north of Tahoka. Light showers have fallen in the Magnolia, New Lynn, and Gordon communities in the northeast section of the county. A very light shower in Tahoka Friday night amounting to .07 of an inch and another Tuesday afternoon amounting to .08 have brought the total precipitation in Tahoka up to 1.75 inches during the past week.

These rains and showers have been highly beneficial to growing crops. Both the cotton and the feed crops in most of the territory immediately surrounding Tahoka and in numerous other localities in the county are very promising.

Immediately preceding the rains, Lynn county experienced the hottest weather ever recorded here. On Thursday afternoon of last week, the official thermometer kept by the News broke all previous records when it recorded a temperature of 107. But on the next day, the mercury climbed up to 109.

Thus the year 1933 has recorded both the highest and the lowest temperatures ever registered in this county. On February 8, the mercury took a nose dive down to 15 degrees below zero. On the preceding day it had gone to 1 degree below and never rose higher than 2 above during the entire day. On the morning of the 8th the mercury stood at 15 below but rose during the day to 19 above.

From 15 below on February 8 to 109 above on July 14 marks a variation in temperature of 124 degrees, which is unprecedented in this country.

New Agency For Chrysler-Plymouth

The Snowden Motor Company is a new firm in Tahoka and will sell Chrysler and Plymouth automobiles. The office and show rooms will be in the building heretofore occupied by the Snowden Chevrolet Company and more recently by the Pure Food Grocery, which has disposed of practically all of its grocery stock.

The first car load of cars is expected to be on display here Saturday.

Nordyke Takes Typhoid Fever

News was brought from Lubbock Tuesday that county commissioner L. M. Nordyke, who has been receiving treatment in the Lubbock Sanitarium the past several days, now has typhoid fever in addition to his other maladies. The patient is said to be doing remarkably well under the circumstances, however.

It is believed that he became infected with the germs on a recent trip he made.

GETTING HWY. 9 RIGHT-OF-WAY

Judge Smith Hopes To Get Deeds In Soon So Work Can Start On Highway 9

Judge W. E. Smith and the county commissioners are still working at the matter of procuring right-of-way deeds for highway No. 9 through the county. Most of the right-of-way has been procured but deeds to a few sectors of this road are yet lacking. Commissioners R. E. Finley of Wilson and Jim Isard of New Home accompanied by county clerk H. C. Story went to Abernathy and Plainview Tuesday in an effort to procure some needed deeds.

Judge Smith had an inquiry Wednesday from the district engineer's office in Lubbock as to whether the Lynn county commissioners desired the north half or the south half of the highway through Lynn county graded first. Judge Smith informed him that it was preferable to grade the south half first.

Nazarenes Close Meeting Sunday

"Our revival has been attended with good interest, with a few conversions and some prospective additions to the church," said W. P. Grogan, the pastor, on Wednesday.

"Evangelist Lynn has been giving soul-stirring messages with profit to all who heard them.

"He is to deliver a few special sermons from the Book of Revelations, beginning Thursday evening with the topic, The Seven Candlesticks and the Seven Churches. Friday evening the topic will be The Seven Stars and the Four Living Creatures. Saturday evening, The Seals and the Signs of the Times. Sunday morning, The Nature and Power of Divine Love."

'Spuds' Grow Well Here, Prater Proves

F. L. Prater has convinced himself and some of his neighbors that as good spuds can be raised here as anywhere. Last spring he planted some Irish Cobbler potatoes and on Monday he brought to the News office some samples of the potatoes he has raised, large fine fellows that look as good as anybody's spuds. Mr. Prater says that his yield on the small patch that he has is very heavy. Just a little attention and just a little water applied at the opportune time turned the trick.

Mr. Prater also declares that he has as fine onions, beans, peas, squash, cucumbers, and other garden truck as any one need desire—the best garden he has had for years.

Mr. Prater lives on the N. M. Bray farm five miles east of town.

Drys Will Hold Rally Saturday

A prohibition rally has been announced for 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon on the court house lawn here. Rev. J. M. Hale, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Brownfield, will be the principal speaker of the occasion. It is desired that a large number of children be present, and of course all adults are cordially invited.

Rev. Mr. Hale has spoken on this subject in a number of places heretofore, and it is said that he presents some vital facts in a most forceful manner. He speaks in favor of retaining the Eighteenth Amendment and against the legalization of beer.

Whatever your views on these matters and whatever you may think about the possibility of stemming the tide against prohibition, you are sure to be well entertained and informed by hearing this address.

Jack Fenton And Miss Wells Marry

Mr. J. W. (Jack) Fenton and Miss Frankie Wells were married in Alamogordo, New Mexico, on Monday of last week, the ceremony being witnessed by Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Roberts of Tahoka. The ceremony was performed by the Methodist minister there, Rev. J. W. Thurston, who is the father of Rev. H. L. Thurston of Wilson, this county.

Following their marriage the young couple took a bridal trip to El Paso, returning to Cloudcroft, New Mexico, for a stay of a few days. They returned to Tahoka Saturday and will have an apartment at the Keltner Hotel.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Wells, while the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Fenton. Both were reared here and are popular young people. Mr. Fenton has been employed for some time in the Gaignat Hardware store, while Mrs. Fenton is one of the employees of the Texas Utilities Company, and both will continue to hold their positions.

BARGAINED FOR EGGS, BUT BOUGHT A CHICKEN

One of our grocery stores reports that a customer brought in some eggs last Saturday to trade for groceries. The deal was made all OK, and the customer went on his way rejoicing. Then when the grocer went to put up the eggs in their proper compartment he found that one of them had hatched out. Instead of an egg he had bought a chick.

Moral: Don't sell your chickens in the shell.

MAY PLOW UP COTTON SOON

Should Not Be Plowed Up Until Official Notice Given; May Plant Between Rows

Farmers are warned not to begin plowing up their cotton until a permit to do so has been issued by Joe Williams, Emergency County Agent of Lynn county. The agent will grant permits as soon as the necessary blanks arrive. They are expected the latter part of this week.

Mr. Williams received the following telegram Tuesday from O. B. Martin, who is directing the acreage reduction program in Texas, and it is highly important that all farmers observe the instructions given in this message.

"Printed instructions and emergency permit blanks on way to be used by farmers to secure permit from county agent to destroy immediately cotton, without having to wait for special acceptance blanks.

"Instructions and emergency permit blanks should reach you Friday. In no case should producer begin destruction of crop until permit is is-

Lubbock Service Stations Robbed

Two Lubbock service stations were robbed at an early hour Monday and the attendants kidnapped and taken to a point on the highway near Wolforth on the Brownfield highway, where they were released, according to the story they told officers upon their arrival back in Lubbock some time later.

Three men drove up to the Gulf Refining Co. station on Main street at 3 A. M., held up Archie Lee Jackson, the attendant in charge; took about $20.00 in money, some gasoline and oil, an electric lantern, and a billfold, forced Jackson to get in the car, took him a few blocks and left him under guard of one of the men, and the other two then proceeded to Scott's Auto Storage company on Main Street, robbed it of about $30.00, one 12 gauge automatic shot gun and one .45 caliber rifle, and then compelled Frank Maddox, the attendant, to get in their car. They then went by and picked up the third member of the gang and Jackson and let their captives out on the Brownfield highway.

Officers have been searching for the three men and it is hoped that they will soon be captured.

All report a good time and a fine spirit of fellowship.

Laymen Banquet Held Friday; Dr. Taylor Of Howard Payne Principal Speaker

About eighty men gathered at the banquet tables in the Baptist church last Friday night to feast on the good things that had been prepared for them by some of the ladies of the church and to enjoy the splendid program that had been arranged.

The principal speaker of the occasion was Dr. Thomas H. Taylor, president of Howard Payne College, Brownwood. His address abounded in witticisms and jokes that kept his audience highly amused and entertained. At the same time it contained a most wholesome philosophy, designed and calculated to banish gloom and grouching. Dr. Taylor took a cheerful outlook on life and its problems in spite of depressions and difficulties. His purpose was to

Farmers Take Options On 11,860 Bales; Sign To Plow Up 40 Per Cent

A tabulation of figures completed this morning, showed that Lynn county's farmers have agreed to plow up 71,789 acres of their cotton, and for the acreage destroyed will receive cash payments aggregating $552,151.50, which is an average of approximately $7.70 per acre, according to emergency county agent Joe Williams.

A total of $243,151.50 is to be received on the straight cash contracts and a total of $309,000 on the option contracts.

The farmers of Lynn county have taken options on 11,860 bales of government cotton at six cents per pound. In addition to the above cash payments they will also eventually receive whatever profits they may make on these options.

Farmers signing contracts have a total of 175,511 1/2 acres in cotton. They have contracted to plow up slightly more than 40 per cent of this acreage. A total of 1681 contracts have been approved, and an average of nearly 43 acres per contract is to be destroyed.

The acreage production in Lynn county last year was 183 pounds, and the expected production this year, as figured by the authorities, is 128 pounds.

It is believed that farmers will be authorized to begin plowing up their cotton early next week.

A half million dollars coming to the farmers of Lynn county this summer should greatly stimulate business and help materially to restore prosperity in this locality. At the same time, the destruction of approximately 10 million acres of cotton in the South should mean a curtailment of the crop by more than 4 million bales. This prospect has already had the effect of greatly enhancing the price and it is believed that farmers will receive a much better price this fall than they did for last year's crop. It begins to look as if prosperity were not just around the corner but actually in sight.

ISSUED MARRIAGE LICENSE

A Lubbock couple procured a marriage license here Wednesday. They were Charles Young and Miss Louella Gentry, living on Route 2 out of Lubbock.

Longview Refuses Vowell's Release

B. L. Parker went to Longview last week to get S. D. Vowell, the kidnapper of J. F. Covey of Wilson, but found that Vowell had been indicted there for robbing a policeman at Kilgore, taking the officer's gun away from him and then taking his money. He was to be tried on this charge in Longview on the 27th of this month.

En route to Longview Mr. Parker stopped over in Fort Worth to see one of his escaped prisoners in jail there, Calvin Davis, who was charged with car theft. Davis' confederate in the crime, J. R. Romine, had impersonated another prisoner and escaped from the Fort Worth jail.

From Longview Mr. Parker went to San Antonio to take a look-in on the sheriff's convention. He arrived home Friday night.

reputation or standing of any individual,

CRIME AND STATES' RIGHTS

The United States Government is to put on a drive to stamp out racketeering, we are told.

It is to stage a drive for the suppression of the crime of kidnaping.

It is to use its constabulary for running down murderers and bank robbers and bandits. It is already on the trail of Pretty Boy Floyd.

The racketeers have been operating with a high hand in many of our cities and the city authorities have been incompetent or too corrupt to deal with the situation.

Kidnapers have become so bold and brazen
as to astound the nation and the world.

Bank robbers and hi-jackers have been terrorizing the country. But state officers and the city police have made a poor show at suppressing their activities or laning the criminals behind the bars.

So Uncle Sam has entered the picture.
He has been assisting in a way all along, but now he is to inaugurate an intensive drive against racketeers, kidnapers, bank robbers and all such.

It is all very fine, and we all applaud.

But what are we to do with our good old Democratic doctrine of state rights? When it comes to the liquor question, we say that Uncle Sam

Lady Took Cardui And Got Rid of Pain In Her Side

"Last summer, my health was bad, so I began taking Cardui," writes Mrs. H. E. Slaughter, of Norman, Okla. "My mother had given me Cardui in girlhood, so naturally I turned to it when I felt I needed it. I felt run-down and a general weakness. I had bad, dizzy headaches when everything would seem to dance before my eyes. My right side pained me so much, but since taking Cardui the pain has left me. I have taken several bottles of Cardui and have improved a great deal."

Cardui is sold at drug stores here.

should "hands off," that that is a matter for the states to deal with. But as to racketeering, kidnaping, robbery, and banditry, we good Democrats under the leadership of that indomitable executive, Franklin D. Roosevelt, are now proposing to throw "states rights" to the winds.

We are not objecting; we are not criticizing. We think it is the right thing to do. As a matter of fact, we have greatly overworked this "states' rights" doctrine. It is not a matter of principle as to whether the Federal Government or the individual states, or both, should be called upon to suppress and punish any class of crime; it is merely a matter of expediency.

Here is our doctrine, held for many years: All those matters that are of purely local concern and that can be dealt with most effectively by a county or local community should be left up to the people of such county or community. Example, prohibiting or permitting live stock to run at large, and many others.

All those matters that are of general concern but that can be handled adequately by the various states should be left up to the states. Examples; ordinary theft, burglary, forgery, and most of our ordinary crimes.

But all those matters in which the states and the local authorities have failed and which can be handled most effectively by the Federal Government should be so handled, either exclusively or concurrently with the state governments. The number of crimes that fall within this category have greatly increased within the past quarter of a century by reason of our changing civilization. Our great inter-state system of railroads, our net-work of highways, the automobile, the airplane, the radio, the telephone and the telegraph, these and other modern developments have made it easy for criminals to laugh at state lines and to defy the authorities in any given state. Most of the states, too, cling to their old archaic laws relating to court procedure, which renders it difficult for the state courts to convict and punish a guilty man. There is less monkey business in the Federal courts.

Therefore the party of "states' rights" fame is finding it necessary to abandon a purely states rights policy and to enter into the field heretofore occupied by the individual states alone in the matter of the suppression and punishment of crime. The Federal government will probably encroach more and more upon this field, impelled to do so by force of circumstances.

We are glad that Uncle Sam is to take a hand in the fight against the gangster and the kidnaper and the racketeer. We hope that he strikes a crushing blow. We don't know of any Democrat who opposes. Yet there are those who oppose National Prohibition on the grounds that the liquor traffic is a matter of state control. If there is any major evil that is as difficult of control by the individual states as the liquor traffic and that is as proper a subject for Federal control, we have been unable to figure out what it might be. We are going to win this fight against the gangster and the racketeer through the strong arm of Uncle Sam, and in the course of time we will again use the same arm to crush the liquor traffic.

MILK VERSUS BEER

Somebody has gleaned the following facts from the United States Statistical Abstract.

In 1909, nearly 7,500,000,000 gallons of milk were produced in the United States. In 1919 approximately 7,800,000,000 gallons were produced. In 1924, the figures had climbed to 9,193,000,000 gallons.

In other words during the ten wet years the milk production increased 300,000,000 gallons, or just 4 per cent. During the five dry years the milk production increased 1,393,000,000 gallons, or nearly 18 per cent.

Butter production during the ten wet years increased 8,800,000 pounds, we are told, while the increase during the five dry years was 458,800,000 pounds, fifty-two times as much as during the ten wet years.

The milk consumption during prohibition increased 212.5 pounds annually for every man, woman, and child in the United States. To obtain this increase, it required 2,500,000,000 more pounds of grain annually than was used in the distilling and brewing industry in 1917, according to Louis J. Tabor, master of the National Grange.

In other words, the more the people of the cities spend for booze the less they have to spend for milk and butter.

Booze has no food value and is therefore worthless, but it is very expensive. Being expensive, it renders the drinking families less able to buy food and thereby decreases the demand for the farmer's products. Booze is not an economic asset; it is a terrible liability.

They are telling us that this 3.2 per cent beer is not intoxicating. They say that you can drink your fill of it and get no kick. It was not so in the old days. Everybody then recognized beer as an intoxicant. It may be that this so-called 3.2 per cent is not 3.2 per cent at all. It may be that the brewers are putting out a weak concoction while elections on beer are pending so as to mislead the public as to the intoxicating character of 3.2. It has been frequently so charged, but we guess the dry leaders have not taken the trouble to test it out. Tests as to the alcoholic content of the beer now being sold throughout the country ought to be made everywhere. If a fraud on the public is being perpetrated then the public is entitled to have the fraud exposed. If 3.2 is not intoxicating, a lot of us would be less opposed to its sale. ## Methodists Report Record Attendance

The lesson of reform was admirably molded from the story of the potter and his clay which the Rev. Smith used for his morning theme last Sunday at the Methodist church. Mrs. Layne Moreland sang "Jesus, Savior, Pilot Me" for the musical offering.

At night Mesdames Smith and Carmack sang a duet, "Just as the Sun Went Down," preceding the splendid talk which the pastor based on the parable of the wedding feast.

The Church school had a record attendance for recent months, exclusive of the presence of the "Down Town" Bible class taught by G. E. Hogan, who were the guests of the "Everyman's" Class of the Methodist church. Class president J. D. Donaldson Sr. gave a brief word of welcome. Rev. L. L. Hays read the scripture. The class was taught by the Rev. Smith in the absence of the Judge Smith, who is the regular teacher. A saxophone solo, "Face to Face" by Maurice Small and a vocal duet "Help Somebody Today," sung by Misses Maxine Jones and Ruth Suddarth were the musical features arranged for the guest hour. The opening prelude was "Song of the Seraphs" by Schumann, after which Supt. G. M. Reid conducted a worship period.

Rev. Smith is assisting throughout the week in a revival meeting at Wilson. The Wilson pastor, Rev. H. L. Thurston, will fill the local pulpit Sunday morning, and at the evening hour there will be a service of unusual character. You are cordially urged to be in your place for both of these fine meetings. Bro. Thurston is a sincere, forceful speaker and you are sure to enjoy his visit here.

Let us bring the Sunday school attendance on up to two hundred and fifty next Sunday. It can be done! Be one, and bring one!—Reporter.

Hays Announces Sunday's Subjects

The pastor will preach Sunday morning on "The Burnt Offering and the Song of Joy." The choir will sing "Serve the Lord with Gladness." You will greatly enjoy the congregational singing.

Sunday school meets promptly at 9:45. There are 300 people in this community that ought to be in Sunday school Sunday morning.

Baptist Training Service meets at 7:45 p. m. There is a place of training for every age. Let the parents see that the children are in the Primary, Junior, and Intermediate Unions while they themselves attend the adult union. Mr. and Mrs. Suits are doing some faithful and constructive work in the Young People's Union. Evening worship is at 8:30. The pastor will preach from Matt. 12-30, "For Christ or Against Him."

Let all our church family be in the services, thus setting the right example for the un-churched and the unsaved.

A warm welcome to visiting friends and strangers among us. —Lawrence Hays, Pastor.

METHODIST W. M. S. HAS ANNUAL GUESTS' DAY

The annual guest day of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church was celebrated last week at the lovely home of Mrs. E. E. Callaway, where a most appropriate setting and program marked the completion of the society's study of Indian Missions. Director of study, Mrs. R. W. Penton Sr., assisted by an efficient committee, was in charge and certainly nothing had been overlooked that could have added to the pleasure or success of the event.

The house was tastefully decorated with every sort of Indian craft and handiwork—rugs, pottery, basketry and beaded work, pictures, etc., which figuratively transported the audience to a tribal home. The dining table was a thing of beauty as well as of art, with tiny canoes floating placidly on a mirror lake beside which stood little brown tepees and sturdy trees from one of which a little papoose swung lazily in its cozy nest. An unusual display of ceremonial vessels, etc., used in the observance of ancient tribal customs, was most interesting and informative.

The following numbers comprised the entertainment program: Piano solo by Mrs. Suddarth, "Indian War Dance" by Geibel; "How 'Lonesome' Caused the Prairie-dogs," legend told by Miss Jessie Fenton; vocal selections with accompanying history by Mrs. Layne Moreland in beautiful Indian costume, "Love Song" from the "Red Willow Pueblos" by Troyer and "Invocation to the Sun-God" by Lieurance; a one-act playlet "Where the Trails Cross" with effective scenic and costume arrangement, impressively presented by Mesdames H. C. Story, C. O. Carmack, and J. Fred Bacy; piano solo "By the Waters of Minnetonka" by Lieurance, with legend, played by Mrs. Lola Thomas; the "Tale of Hiawatha" told by Mrs. M. J. Weaver with her usual unflinching charm; and in closing, a special request for "The Indian Love Call" sung by Mrs. Moreland.

The social hour was spent in viewing the elaborate collection of Indian wares and in eating the delectable refreshments of maple ice cream and maple cake, selected in deference to the Indian origin of the use of maple sap.

Mrs. W. M. Lee is president of the organization which sponsored this delightful affair and every woman of the church with the opportunity to be in attendance surely joins in an expression of their appreciation and thanks to the society, the committee, the hostesses, and the program participants.—Contributed by a guest.

TAHOKA CLUB STUDIES MAKING OF PICKLES

A demonstration of fermented pickles was the main feature of the Tahoka Home Demonstration club which met July 12 at the American Legion Home, Miss El Freda Harrison giving the demonstration.

A social program was enjoyed and punch and cookies was served to the following: Mesdames Knight, Richardson, Goodnough, Jones, Conway, Anglin, Harrison, Greathouse, Faulkner, Canada, Fenton, Finch, Wells, Edwards, and two new members, Patterson and Kuykendall, and the hostesses, Dye, Harold Edwards, and James Connolly.—Reporter.

MRS. SUDDARTH PRESENTS PUPILS IN PIANO RECITAL

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Rubio D. Suddarth presented some of her voice and piano pupils in an informal recital at her home.

In addition to theoretical and technical exhibitions, the company was delighted to hear a guest pianist, Miss Ernestine Story, in several lovely numbers which gave evidence of excellent training in touch, technique and interpretation—all quite unusual in so youthful a student.

Delicious fruit punch was served, after the program, to about thirty-five invited guests.

Jeff Connolly visited relatives at Whitney in Hill county last week. He says that crops are very spotted in Hill county, some being very good and some very poor.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. LeSure, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Lockwood here the past two or three weeks, left for their home in San Diego, California, Monday.

H. A. Maasen was here from Lamesa Wednesday and stated that he and W. E. Taylor were about the only men in their part of the county that had any cotton up. He has 40 acres and Mr. Taylor 75 acres which is looking fine. There is very little cotton in the entire county, he declared, but some are planting this week, following Sunday's rain. A few had dry-planted previous to the rain.

Outlaw Is Killed In New Mexico

Carrizozo, N. M., July 17—The end was written tonight to a bloody story of gun fights, deaths and bank robberies in two states with the arrest of Ed (Perchmouth) Stanton, and the death of Glenn Hunsucker, alleged bank robbers wanted in Texas on bank robbery and murder charges.

After a 24-hour search, Sheriff A. S. McCamant of Lincoln county, New Mexico, returned here late this afternoon with Stanton and his brother, Will, after capturing them between Corona and Ramon, N. M. Neitder resisted and officers lodged them in jail here to be held pending the arrival of Tulsa, Texas, authorities.

Stanton escaped to the wilds of northeastern Lincoln county after officers had shot and killed Hunsucker when he and Stanton decided to shoot it out with the sheriff's posse, near Ramon late Sunday afternoon. During the exchange of shots, Tom Jones, deputy sheriff, was killed.

Hunsucker's death and Stanton's arrest marked the end of a trail of blood across West Texas and eastern New Mexico which has seen the death of four peace officers and the robbing of one Texas bank and possibly a New Mexico bank.

The four officers, all killed while searching for the outlaws, were Deputy Sheriff Tom Jones of Carrizozo, killed in Sunday's fight; John C. Mosley, sheriff of Swisher county, Texas, shot down in January of this year, and Harve Bolin, deputy sheriff of Hale county, Texas, fatally wounded a year ago on the Lee Peabworth ranch, 50 miles from Portales, N. M., and Joe Brown, Rhome county Texas, deputy sheriff, in January when he took two men and a woman to his office for investigation.

Hunsucker was believed by authorities to be directly linked in deaths of Mosley and Jones, and Peabworth, with whom Hunsucker was indicted in the Olton robbery, is serving a prison sentence for the death of Bolin.

McCamant and his force of deputies were led to the outlaw's camp after a gun fight staged with them near Corona, N. M., Saturday night had led to the arrest of Dobby Blankenship, believed to be a third member of the gang, at Tipton Well, seven miles from Ramon. Blankenship is being held here for further questioning by the Texas officers.

On approaching the campsite of the two men, the officers found themselves in the direct line of fire from the outlaws' guns.

Jones fell on the first exchange of shots and Hunsucker's death came soon afterwards. Stanton, seeing himself outnumbered, evaded the officers and escaped on foot.

A full blooded Pima Indian in Arizona recently needed some cash so he approached the banker at Casa Grande about a loan.

"How much money do you need?" asked the banker.

"Me want $200," replied the Indian.

"For how long?"

"Maybe two weeks; maybe two months."

"And what security have you?"

"Me got two hundred horses."

This seemed sufficient, so the loan was made. Shortly afterward the Indian came back to the bank with $2,200 cash, paid his loan, with interest and started to depart.

"Wait just a minute," cried the banker. "Why not let us take care of that money for you?"

Recalling various bank failures of recent date, the Indian paused, looked the banker straight in the eyes, and solemnly asked, "You got any horses?"

Many Phases H. D. Keep Women Busy

(By El Fleda Harrison)

The home demonstration club women are enjoying many phases of club work these summer days. Short interviews with a number of the women give an insight into their activities and accomplishments.

Canning By Budget

"This year I canned by a budget and found that my food supply is better balanced, for instance my corn and tomatoes last as long as my peas and beans," said Mrs. Garland Pennington, co-operator in pantry work of Edith club. "This spring when I had sickness in the family I found tomato juice very necessary in the diet. This I had very little of in my pantry and had to buy. This year I am including tomato juice in the budget and will avoid the necessity of having to spend money for food that might just as well have been put on the pantry shelves in the first place."

(Mrs. Pennington's canning budget for 1933 includes leafy vegetables, 120 containers; starchy vegetables, 100; other vegetables, 80; tomatoes and tomato juice, 175 No. 3 cans; fruit and fruit juice, 100; miscellaneous, 80; meats, 100; pickles and relishes, 52; jellies, jams, preserves, 52; peanut butter, 26 pints; and hominy, 26 containers.

Makes Mock Olives

"Mock olives made from unripe plums are a good substitute for olives," says Mrs. H. P. Chisum, T-Bar club. "Last year I had them in my pantry and will this year."

The recipe used for making mock olives is as follows: The plums when just beginning to ripen, but are still green, should be pickled in a 40 degree brine (1 lb. salt to 9 parts of water). The brine should be poured hot over the fruit and allowed to stand for 36 hours. It should then be poured off. Place the fruit in a new brine and boil for one minute. Drain the plums, pack in jars, cover with hot brine. Seal and process pint jars for 30 minutes at boiling point.

Women Build Pantries

Home demonstration club women intent on organizing their pantries convenient for getting food out of storage are busy digging cellars and building shelves.

Mrs. R. B. Colebank of T-Bar has her pantry shelves ready built so that the food may be properly stored as it is canned. She also has labels ready for labeling her canned goods. The shelves are built 10 1/2 inches above each other with supporting stringers 31 inches apart.

Makes Beautiful Rugs

Mrs. A. M. Daniels, home industry demonstrator, has finished a wool hooked rug in floral design of blues and dirty golds well blended in a background of ecru mottled in an interesting manner with dark tan, and light brown, blue, and green. Mrs. Daniels has sold her rugs as fast as she gets them out of the frame for $1.00 per square foot. It costs, when buying all materials, 31c per square foot to make the rugs, leaving a profit of 69c. She can make a rug size 2x4 feet in one week along with her house work and other activities.

Beautifuling Yards

Lynn county yard demonstrators have planted 546 pines. These pines are of three varieties—Ponderosa, Scotch, and Austrian and are used in the windbreaks which are a part of the demonstration in yard beautification.

When temperature ran to 17 below zero, pines were the evergreen that stood the cold. The Austrian pine has grown during the drought and has proved to be a good pine for this section of the country.

Even though demonstrations on clothing work have ceased, wardrobe demonstrators are still passing the work on.

"I have never had a dress to fit until I got my individually fitted pattern. I do not see how I have done without it this long," says Mrs. L. O. Mitchell, non-club member, Tahoka. The pattern was cut and fitted by Mrs. Claude Conway, second year wardrobe demonstrator, Tahoka home demonstration club.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Heare returned Saturday from Miami, where they had been visiting relatives and looking after property interests. Mr. Heare says the out-turn of the wheat crop in that area was very light.

Mrs. C. G. Thompson, living four miles east of town, has as her guests this week her cousin, Mrs. John Fielder, of Oklahoma City, and her uncle, Mr. Charley Robison of Fort Worth.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradford Russell and daughter of McKinney left Saturday after a few days visit with Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Cooper.

SICK HEADACHE

Many cases of SICK HEADACHE are due to constipation. If you have headache that is due to constipation, take Theodor's BLACK-DRAUGHT for refreshing relief.

"I have taken BLACK-DRAUGHT, when needed, for about 15 years," writes Mr. J. W. Cooper, of Longview, Texas. "I first began to use it for sick headache that seemed to come from constipation. I would suffer about twenty-four hours with these headaches. I found out that BLACK-DRAUGHT would help me, so that is what I took. I am glad to recommend it to others, for this trouble, for it will give relief."

Theodor's BLACK-DRAUGHT is a purely vegetable laxative, preferred by thousands of men and women because it is so effective and economical. For CHILDREN, get the new, pleasant-tasting SYRUP of Theodor's Black-Draught, in 2 1/2 & 5 1/2 bottles.

Locals

Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Smith returned home Friday from a few days visit with Mrs. Smith's brother in Cleburne and Mr. Smith's sister in Fort Worth, accompanied by Mrs. Smith's sister, Miss Mary Seroyer, who has been visiting there two months. They were also accompanied home by Miss Faye Pitts of Cleburne for a few days visit. Miss Pitts was a teacher in the Central Ward school here a few years ago. She is now teaching in Cleburne.

Prof. E. E. Glibreath, who was recently elected superintendent of the O'Donnell schools for the ensuing year, was a pleasant caller at the News office Thursday. Prof. Glibreath has been teaching in the O'Donnell schools for three years, having served in the position of athletic coach and then as principal. The entire faculty for next year has been elected.

R. E. Key and Miss O'Berla Forester left Monday for Corpus Christi to attend a meeting of the agents of the Fidelity Union Life Insurance Company. They were joined by others at Lubbock, from which place they went to Dallas to join a still larger group going to Corpus Christi in a body. They expect to return to Tahoka near the end of the week.

J. A. Matlock and J. A. Shade of West Virginia spent several days here visiting the various members of the Crouch family, Mr. Matlock being a nephew of the late W. J. Crouch. He was reared at San Saba and lived a short time in Tahoka but has since resided in Arizona and West Virginia. Mr. Shade is a friend of his.

J. K. Applewhite and family returned Sunday from a weeks visit with relatives at Goldthwaite and Lampasas. Mrs. Applewhite was bitten by a spider Saturday morning just as they were leaving Lampasas, and the wound became so painful as to require treatment by a physician upon their arrival in Tahoka.

R. P. Weathers and family returned Saturday from a pleasure trip to Colorado Springs and Denver. R. P. says they have lots of 3.2 up in Colorado but he came back home without any information whatever as to how it tastes or as to whether or not it has any kick.

J. B. Oliver reports that a few days ago he met a relative whom he had not seen for twenty-eight years. The gentleman referred to is S. J. Oliver of Lubbock, revising clerk for the Santa Fe Railway in that city, who is a cousin of J. B. They were boys together.

Mrs. Johnnie Rochelle, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hanna, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Smith, Mr. Smith's sister and father, and Jack Minor left Saturday afternoon on a pleasure trip through New Mexico and into Colorado. They expected to be gone about two weeks.

Mrs. O. B. Webb and children of Gurdon, Ark., were here last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Spears, north of town. Mrs. Webb is a sister of Mr. Spear. During their visit here Miss Mavardine and Kenneth Webb and Louis Spears visited the Carlsbad Cavern.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Weaver entered the Texas Tech this week for the second half of the summer term. Mr. Weaver will be here to take up his duties in the school room again in September. They recently returned from a vacation trip to Arkansas.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Willoughby are the parents of a fine little son born last Sunday afternoon. He weighed 7 1/2 pounds and is strong and healthy. Mother also is doing well. The little fellow will bear the name of Floyd Mack.

Mrs. Joe Williams came in Monday from Temple to be with her husband, who is acting as emergency farm agent for Lynn county during this cotton acreage reduction campaign.

Mrs. Jim Burselen has had as her guests her sister, Mrs. Bessie Cornish of Headton, Oklahoma, and her aunt, Mrs. Alonzo McNary, and little son of Lawton.

Announcement has been made of the birth of little Gary Quinsey to Mr. and Mrs. Elsie Watson on last Friday. Mother and baby are doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. South have gone on a pleasure trip to Colorado. They expect to be gone two or three weeks, we understand.

Mrs. Grady Beard of Cleburne is here visiting her mother, Mrs. L. S. Kuykendall.

Baseball Dope

By Paul Ponder

Since last report Tahoka has won two more ball games—one within the league, the other an exhibition bout with Grassland.

Grassland has a good team, I'm told, who probably couldn't come over last Friday. However, the boys that did come played pretty well—in spots, only when Tahoka willow contacted with the hide-bound sphere for several elongated drives, the boys found themselves playing (or sitting, as it were) in the wrong spots to handle the touring pellet. Nevertheless, when they came to bats they also made our boys exercise themselves in some of the distant recesses of the pill garden, as they nicked "Rosie" for extra bags, and one for a circuit clout.

They had about a half jillion G. boosters in the first frame, when they bunched a couple of hits with an error and scored one. After that their "cloud of witnesses" seemed to be from somewhere else. Nine to three was the score.

"Mug," or "Gran' Pa," who toed the rubber the last four or five innings, fooled several of our erstwhile maulers with his slow outs. They were so slow the boys swung from 7 to 11 seconds too previously, and so far out they couldn't reach it with regular length bats. It was a funny game and I wish they would come again some time and pitch Mug throughout. We could finish the game before dark, if they could be here and start at, say, 12:30.

Sunday's game was with Abernathy, and was, for the most part, a fairly peppy and interesting one—a little one-sided, however—resulting in a 9 to 2 score. Action of both teams was handicapped by reason of compulsory removal to a "new ground" field—a diamond in the rough, so to speak. According to Tahoka's weather prognosticators the luxuriant Jupiter-Pluvius saturation should have happened before Saturday, in which case the excessive moisture collected on the infield should have been absorbed ere Sunday afternoon. But the weather man (like the News publisher occasionally) is a trifle subsequent in his operations, and the aqua spill came a day late.

Rose did mound duty for the locals, holding the visitors to seven scattered hits, while our boys garnered ten hits—all sizes except homers—and were complimented with two walks. Besides Rose's two runs, he accounted for three of the others.

DONT SUFFER FROM SOUR STOMACH, INDIGESTION

Indigestion, acidity, heartburn and sour stomach often lead to serious stomach trouble. Dr. Emil Adia Tablets counteract these conditions. Give quick relief. Thomas Bros. Drug

Garner, who pitched six innings for A. was relieved by Croslin, who yielded no runs. Barring three errors, their defense was good. With the exception of about three, the line-up was different from that our boys had met on former occasions. Good attendance and fine humor featured the contest. Tahoka's percentage standing now is .667. We play Lubbock next Sunday on their lot.

P. S.—It is rumored that a scout from a class A circuit has made a big offer for Wade H. Whether the offer was based on his batting average for Friday and Sunday, is not known.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cowan were called to Ropesville Tuesday morning by the serious illness of a brother of Mr. Cowan.

Final Democratic Report Is Made

The News has received from Roy Miller, chairman of the Texas Democratic National Campaign Committee, a final report of his activities and the activities of his co-workers, Senator Margie Neal, Frank Schofield, and W. H. Kittrel Jr.

Mr. Miller has requested publication of this report. While we find it too lengthy to publish in full, yet we take pleasure in giving publicity to a few extracts from it.

"Realizing, of course, that Texas would record an overwhelming majority for the national ticket," Mr.
 Miller states, "our only purpose was to place our state in the forefront of a great Democratic victory. As a result we had the satisfaction of seeing Texas take first place in majority of votes cast for the ticket and we achieved the distinction of contributing more money to the National campaign fund than any other state except New York. * * * Total funds raised by the committee or contributed by Texas Democrats direct to National Headquarters have amounted to about $175,000. The number of individual contributions approximated 23,000.

"Few of those who participated actively in achieving these gratifying results have sought favor or job in compensation for their services. They have been, and are, content to find their reward in the splendid achievements of our great President and his administration in the rehabilitation of our beloved country. I commend them for their unselfish patriotism. Those who only for the sake of the cause itself bear the heat of its battles rarely seek to divide the spoils. That is usually the business of the camp followers and non-combatants who in safety and complacency travel in dress parade in the rear of the victorious army."

Having taken this debt but wicked dig at those who are seeking office under the Administration, Mr. Miller relents a bit and informs all such that they should hereafter communicate with Jed C. Adams, National Committeeman, who is now a resident of Washington, D. C., Mrs.
 Clara Driscoll Sevier, National Committeewoman, at Corpus Christi, Senators Sheppard and Connally, and their own Congressman.

EXPECT ORDER TO PLOW UP COTTON IN FEW DAYS

sued by county agent.—O. B. Martin.

Mr. Williams stated that "County agent can not in any case give permission to plow up cotton until blanks arrive. They are expected not earlier than Friday, July 21."

A previous telegram from Mr.
 Martin stated that "Farmers may plant feed in the middle," or between the cotton rows to be plowed up, without waiting for permits. No cotton must be plowed up, however, until permit is issued by county agent.

PROMINENT CITIZEN TAKES SWIM IN A MUD HOLE

Parties returning from Lubbock at a late hour Tuesday night report that they witnessed a most unusual incident on the highway about two miles north of town. The recent rains had created a lake extending across the roadbed. They say that the usually dignified bank cashier, R. P.
 Weathers, stopped his car right in the middle of the lake, climbed out on the fender, and then made a beautiful dive right down into the water, swimming around on his back vigorously and vociferously for some time while his astounded family and other spectators looked on. R. P. just recently returned from a trip to Colorado, where 3.2 is said to flow like branch water.

Miss June Gary, who works at the Thornhill Variety Store, was sick a few days the first of the week but was able to be back on duty Wednes-

Black-Draught Clears Up Sluggish, Dull Feeling

"I have used Theford's Black-Draught for constipation for a long time, and find it gives relief for this trouble," writes Mrs.
 Frank Champion, of Wynne, Ark.
 "I think it is good for spells caused from gas on the stomach.
 If I get up in the morning feeling dull and sluggish, a dose of Black-Draught taken three times a day will cause the feeling to pass away, and in a day or two I feel like a new person. After many years of use we would not exchange Black-Draught for any medicine."
 P.S.—If you have CHILDREN, give them the new, pleasant-tasting SYRUP of Theford's Black-Draught.

infuse confidence and a spirit of optimism into the minds and hearts of his auditors, and all seemed to enjoy the exhilarating experience.

District Attorney G. H. Nelson was the master of ceremonies, and Rev. Lawrence Hays, a graduate of Howard Payne College, introduced the speaker.

Another highly pleasurable number on the program was the recital of "Current Events" by R. E.
 Thompson, president of the Men's Bible Class, in which he took a shot, humorously, at many of the men present.

The program was begun with a quartet rendered by Messrs. R. E.
 Thompson, H. B. McCord, C. T. Burnett, and Mrs. Homer Harrison, the latter "pinch-hitting" for Henry Douthit, who had not arrived. The three above named gentlemen and Mr. Douthit rendered another number later in the evening.

A regular sumber and an encore were also rendered by another quartet, composed of Messrs. G. H. Nelson, R. E. Key, C. T. Burnett, and W. S. (Skip) Taylor. One of these was a negro spiritual and both numbers were greatly enjoyed. In fact the whole program was excellent.

At the close of the program a resolution was passed thanking the Lucille Reagan Circle of the W. M.
 S. for preparing and serving the delectable feast which the men had avidly devoured.

Abilene to Temple. Parts of this highway have been constructed already but much of the route will be a new project altogether. The road extends from Abilene through Cross Plains, Rising Star, Comanche, Hamilton, and Gatesville to Temple, and will provide a more direct route from the entire South Plains to Temple, Houston, Galveston, and all that section of the state.

Another important West Texas project approved is the location of highway No. 118 from Aspermont to Spur. The present location of this highway through Kent and Stonewall counties is very crooked. A new route will be surveyed out and built.

 No project was submitted for Lynn county for the reason that a complete right-of-way on No. 9 has not yet been provided.

A part of the special $24,000,000
 federal relief funds allotted to Texas will be used in the construction of these and other West Texas highway projects. This is in addition to regular federal funds that are allotted to Texas annually for highway construction.
