TRUSTEES OF COUNTY MEET

Holbrook, Duggan, Caveness, Thomas Spoke At Meeting Held Here Tuesday

Many school trustees of Lynn county met in the district court room Tuesday afternoon to hear the new school laws explained by the school supervisor of this district, Mr. Holbrook. County superintendent H. P. Caveness presided at the meeting and introduced the speakers.

Mr. Holbrook explained the new law in detail, particularly as it relates to rural aid and the transportation of high school pupils to and from school.

Preceding the address Senator Duggan explained some provisions of the law. He was one of the most active supporters of the measure in the senate and succeeded in having some amendments adopted for the benefit of West Texas districts. He also took occasion to explain at some length the efforts that are being made by himself and others to induce the federal government agencies to relieve the situation of farmers in a few dry counties in this area.

The county superintendent of Lamb county, L. D. Rochelle, also made a few remarks, giving some interesting information as to his own county. More than 100 school buses are being operated in that county, he said. Every high school pupil in the county living more than a mile and a half from school is being transported to and from school.

Representative John Thomas of Tahoka also made a neat, brief address, expressing his interest in educational progress and his friendship for the public schools and for the higher institutions of learning in this state.

News Cannot Print Lengthy Obituaries

The News would like to explain again to bereaved parents and relatives that we can not publish lengthy obituaries.

When a death occurs in our county, we like to be informed of it immediately, so that we may publish as news all of the relevant and important facts. In some instances we fail to do this, especially when a death occurs in some outlying community and burial is elsewhere, because we fail to learn the facts in time to publish the matter as news.

We hope that our friends will not feel that we are callous or indifferent, however, when an obituary for a loved one, sent to us for publication, fails to appear in the paper. These obituaries are usually written two or three weeks after the death of the person whom they eulogize and consist mostly of mere eulogy. Possibly none of our readers feels more sympathy for bereaved parents or other relatives when a death occurs than we do, but we find it impracticable to publish mere obituaries.

We wish to request, however, that when a death occurs anywhere in our county, that fact together with all relevant information be sent in to this paper at once, so that we may use it as news matter.

School At Draw Opened Monday

Prof. R. B. McAlister of Brownwood was a visitor at the News office last Thursday in company with his brother-in-law, Prof. Louis H. Taylor. Mr. McAlister will teach at Draw during the coming school term. J. D. Donaldson Jr. of Tahoka has also been employed as one of the teachers of the Draw school and Prof. F. C. Thorp will remain as superintendent. Other teachers there are Mrs. Thorp and Mrs. Mathews. The school opened Monday morning of this week with 140 students enrolling the first day.

IN HOSPITAL AGAIN

Mrs. A. R. McGonagill became seriously ill Wednesday night and was rushed to a Lubbock hospital. She has been in poor health for some time.

Citizen Of Draw Died Tuesday

The remains of Mr. Holloway, whose home was five miles south of Draw, were laid to rest in the cemetery at O'Donnell Wednesday morning. Mr. Holloway died in the Lubbock Sanitarium Tuesday, having been afflicted with gall bladder trouble.

Mr. Holloway was 71 years of age and was an honored citizen of his community. He was the father-in-law of George Burdett of this county. Harris & Applewhite, undertakers, had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Two Buildings Burn At Lamesa

Fire of undetermined origin, which for a time threatened the entire business district, destroyed two brick buildings on the south side of the square at Lamesa early Monday for an estimated loss of $40,000.

The fire which was reported to have followed an explosion, originated in a vacant building and then spread to the second structure occupied by Horne Hanson company. Both buildings were owned by T. F. Vaughn, automobile dealer.

First alarm was turned in at 2 a. m., and at 3:30, in spite of hard work by Lamesa's volunteer fire department, a new blaze sprang up which for a time threatened to spread along the entire south side of the square. High fire walls and absence of wind helped freman greatly.

The fire was Lamesa's worst since 1924, when the entire south side of the square burned.

Visitors See Cow Milked First Time

Jimmy and Paul Bennett Jr. of Tucson, Arizona, 7 and 6 years of age respectively, were pleasant and interesting visitors in the News office Wednesday morning. Shirtless and sun-tanned, they were apparently almost perfect specimens of physical health and vigor.

The two boys came in company with their grandmother, Mrs. Jack Corley, with whom they are visiting while their parents are attending the Century of Progress Exposition in Chicago. Their father, Dr. Paul Bennett, is also attending a National Dental Association in Chicago.

The boys were much interested in the News Linotype machine, which was in action during their visit. They were getting a great kick out of their first visit to Texas, Mrs. Corley said. Until they came to Tahoka they had never seen a cow milked nor butter made. And there were many other new and strange things here to engage their attention. They expect to be here two or three weeks yet.

Brooks Acquitted In Highway Case

L. R. Brooks was tried in the county court Wednesday on a charge of illegally operating a truck on the highways without having procured a permit. The jury which tried him returned a verdict if not guilty.

Brooks had been convicted in the justice court but appealed the case to the county court.

Judge Homer D. Pharr of Lubbock was a visitor in Tahoka Tuesday. Judge Pharr was making a preliminary survey of the political situation with a view to making a definite announcement as a candidate for Congress later. Lubbock and Lynn counties lie near the center of the new South Plains district. There are several prospective candidates for the position, and politics promises to be warm next year.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hogan Jr. had as their guests last week end Mrs. Hogan's mother, Mrs. R. S. Morrison, and Mr. and Mrs. Percy Morrison, all of Archer City. They returned to their home Saturday accompanied by little George Hogan the Third.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Day of Big Spring were here Tuesday. They have been engaged to teach at West Point again the coming year and announce that school will open the second Monday in September.

SEEK AID FOR DRY COUNTIES

Meeting Held At Stanton Attended By Representatives From Droughty Area

Senator A. P. Duggan of Littlefield called at the News office last Thursday afternoon while on his way to Stanton to attend a meeting of representative citizens of the counties of Martin, Dawson, Midland, Glasscock, and Howard held in Stanton Friday. Representative John Thomas of Tahoka also attended this meeting.

Most of the farmers in these five counties have been unable to get any crops up this year on account of the drought that has prevailed. Having little cotton up, they were not eligible to participate in the acreage retirement program offered by the Government, and they will have little cotton to market this fall. Mr. Thomas says that conditions in these five counties are very distressing. In many localities there is absolutely nothing in the form of a crop to bring a ray of hope.

Faced by this situation, representatives of these counties met in Stanton Friday and adopted resolutions requesting the proper authorities to designate said counties as eligible to receive emergency drought or feed loans for farmers in dire need, from the Government Crop Loan Office at Dallas, and for other relief measures; and also requesting the governor of this state to submit to a call session of the legislature the matter of reimbursing farmers of West Texas for losses sustained in compliance with state and federal pink boll worm quarantine regulations imposed several years ago and which have never been paid, though promised at the time.

The resolutions also asked for immediate action in highway construction in this area so as to afford employment and relief to many of the stricken farmers, and for a reconsideration of the ruling by the U. S. Department of Agriculture whereby such farmers are barred from relief under the present cotton acreage reduction program.

Colored Baseball Team Wins Game

Tahoka's colored baseball team won another victory Sunday, defeating Brownfield in that city by a score of 10 to 8.

H. E. Sayles Jr. occupied the pitcher's box and although only 15 years old he made the record of shutting out 16 men at the bat. They say that boy is some twirler.

Hays In Revival At O'Donnell Church

Rev. L. L. Hays is conducting a revival meeting at the Baptist church in O'Donnell this week. R. E. Key of Tahoka is directing the music. The meeting began Sunday and will probably continue two weeks.

LIKES THE NEWS

In sending in his renewal subscription to the News, H. J. C. Koehn of Weimer writes that he enjoys the paper. He likes to read the county news and keep informed as to conditions here. He owns quite a lot of property here.

Mr. Koehn says that crops are good in Colorado county, some places making from three quarters to a bale per acre. Picking is in full swing.

WILL TEACH PIANO

Since some last year did not know I was elected teacher of piano in the Tahoka schools, I wish to say I have been re-elected for this coming year and therefore expect your support and co-operation.—Mrs. J. K. Applewhite.

L. M. Nordyke, who has been quite sick for several weeks, is still confined to his bed but is slowly improving. Mrs. Nordyke stated Wednesday. It is hoped that he will be up again soon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Swan and Mrs. E. H. Bouillon and little son E. H. Jr. left Sunday for Manitou and Denver, Colorado. They expect to be away about two weeks.

Fred Mathews, mother, and aunt of Grassland visited the Carlsbad Cavern this week.

SINGERS WILL MEET SUNDAY

Convention Will Be Held In Tahoka; Talented Singers Expected To Be Present

The Lynn County Singing Convention will be in Tahoka Sunday, the morning session opening at the English Theatre at 10 o'clock. Lunch will be spread in the City Park at 12 o'clock, and the afternoon session will be held in the Methodist church beginning at 1 p. m.

Singers from New Mexico, Oklahoma, Arkansas, and from all parts of this state are expected. Among the special singers will be Virgie Stamps and Freddie Martin, the Lubbock quartet, and possibly Frank Stamps and his band of singers.

Singers of this county are expected to bring their lunches. Singers from a distance will be cared for. At this convention officers will be elected for the ensuing year. The present officers are: C. W. Krebs, New Lynn, president; Mrs. Homer Harrison, Tahoka, secretary-treasurer; and Luther Rudd, Edith, vice-president.

The last convention was held at Central Church the second Sunday in February.

The public is cordially invited to attend all meetings of the convention.

Tech Professor Will Speak Here

Announcement is made by M. E. McCord, president of the Farmers Co-operative Gin that Dean A. H. Leidigh of the Agriculture Department of Texas Tech will deliver the main address at the picnic planned for the latter part of this month.

Definite announcement of the time and place of the meeting will be made next week by the board of directors.

Will Have Meeting At South Ward

Bro. R. P. Drennon, pastor of the local Church of Christ will open a meeting at South Ward tonight, Thursday, to continue ten days.

He closed a meeting last night at Graham Chapel which had been in progress for ten days. Good attendance and results were reported.

How Smart Hostess Makes Ice Cubes

(By Miss El Fleda Harrison)
No longer need we drink insipid watered tea merely because we must add ice cubes to keep it cool. The smart hostess freezes a tray of tea and adds tea cubes.

Strong lemonade cubes are newer than lemon slices with iced tea. Freeze carbonated beverages in your ice trays for garnishing drinks of contrasting color. Serve ginger ale cubes in grape juice, lemonade, or iced tea. Amber colored cubes in pale lemonade adds to the zest so much more than plain ice cubes.

To add color, flavor and increased interest to your drinks, use sprigs of mint, parsley or watercress; tidbits of bright orange or lemon peel; watermelon rind garnish cubes; a sliced Maraschino cherry, sliced crosswise, has a little hole through which a sprig of mint can be thrust. The good fruit juices left over from pineapple, berries, prunes or cherries—freeze them, undiluted into cubes for garnishing summer beverages. Bits of these same fruits and berries, dropped into plain water trays will add distinction.

Fruit punch is insipid when constantly diluted by adding ice or ice cubes for chilling. Prepare, instead, an extra quart or two of the punch itself and freeze this instead of plain water, and add these to the punch bowl as needed.

Too often iced coffee that is served us is a great disappointment. Instead of being rich and full-flavored, it is weak and watery, with scarcely a bit of coffee flavor. Prepare instead extra coffee and freeze this instead of plain water. Put coffee cubes in the glass and pour hot coffee over the ice.

Keep an "emergency" corner in your ice-box filled with bottled and chilled tomato juice for the ice-box raiders.

Aged T-Bar Man Dies Suddenly

Silas D. Hays, 80, father of C. B. Hays, died suddenly at his son's home in the T-Bar community about 8 o'clock Tuesday morning.

The remains were carried by Harris and Applewhite ambulance to Mineola, former home of deceased, for burial, leaving here Wednesday afternoon.

The aged man was said to have been a highly respected citizen of his community and many friends regret his death.

Gas Companies Form Combine

Merger of the South Plains Pipe Line company with the West Texas Gas company is the object of arrangements which R. F. Hincey, vice president and general manager of the West Texas Gas company, announced last week had been completed.

"This action was taken by the officers of the two companies in order to increase the operating efficiency, and effect certain economies in an effort to partly compensate for the general decrease in business," said Mr. Hincey.

"It is also desired by the officers to restore the investment of the South Plains Pipe Line company to the West Texas Gas company so that there may be a better understanding on the part of our customers and city and town officials as to the costs of both transportation and distribution of gas.

"The pipe line will be operated as a transportation division of West Texas Gas company with the same personnel," Mr. Hincey explained.

Uncle Ben Rogers In Palestine Paper

Uncle Ben Rogers was exhibiting in the News office and among his friends here this week a copy of the Palestine Daily Herald of August 5 containing items from the same paper twenty years ago. Among the interesting items was the following:

"Hon. B. F. Rogers received today through the mails, and under a Jerusalem stamp, a book of natural flowers, pressed and beautifully arranged. And they were under cover of boards of wood of fine polish and beautiful texture. There was no letter of explanation, and Mr. Rogers says he has no idea from whom they come, but he appreciates them nevertheless."

Mr. Rogers says that although that was twenty years ago he never has found out who his unknown friend was.

O'Donnell Pastor To Speak Sunday

In the absence of the pastor, Rev. Lawrence Hays, who is with the Baptist Church at O'Donnell in a revival meeting, Rev. L. S. Jenkins will preach at the local Baptist Church at 11 o'clock Sunday morning. A quartet will sing at this service.

The B. S. U. will have charge of the evening service, which will center around the late Eugene Salles, who spent 27 years in China.

The public is cordially invited to attend these services.

Miss Evelyn Hatchett of Pasadena, California, is here visiting the J. E. Ketner family and other relatives here. Miss Evelyn was reared in Tahoka but has been in California the past few years.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Houston and children and Miss Doris Harper spent the first half of this week visiting relatives of Mrs. Houston in Ballinger.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Taylor and three children of Irving spent last week end here visiting Rev. and Mrs. L. L. Hays and children. Mr. Irving is mail carrier out of Dallas and was off on his vacation.

County Supt. and Mrs. H. P. Caveness and their son Bob left Wednesday morning to spend a couple of weeks in camp down on the Colorado River near San Gab.

SET OPENING FOR SCHOOLS

Tahoka Schools Open First Monday In September; Improvements Being Completed

Superintendent J. B. Pace Jr. announced Wednesday that the Tahoka schools will open for the fall term on the first Monday in September. All faculty members for the year have been elected and contracts signed. A number of local teachers have been continuing their studies in universities this summer but will return here about Sept. 1.

During the summer months much improvement has been done on the school campuses. The board of trustees have worked diligently, and much praise is due them for needed work that has been done for the campaign of beautification. Much needed side walks and fences have been built at both the High School and Central Ward buildings. Also, practically the entire grounds surrounding both buildings have been filled in with new soil and sodded with grass. Windmills have been erected to maintain the grass and to provide sufficient water for trees and flowers which will be planted in the near future. Necessary improvements and repairs have been made in the Central and South Ward buildings. A new negro school is being built in the northeast part of town.

Few changes have been made in the system; however, the daily program has been re-worked and the school day will begin at 9:00 o'clock this year instead of 8:30 as formerly.

Methodists Hear Special Numbers

"How, then, shall we escape if we neglect so great salvation?" was the text used by the Rev. Smith last Sunday morning, and from which he brought a splendid evangelistic message. The musical features were a saxophone and cornet duet played by Maurice Small and Kenneth Reid, "Melody in F" by Rubinstein and a vocal number by Mesdames. Smith, Carmack, Small and Reid.

At the evening hour the sermon was entitled "The Love Affair" and its analogy from Old Testament times was a perfectly appropriate warning to modern "back-sliders." Little Misses Charlene Bucy and Patricia Hill contributed the two features in a piano solo and reading, respectively.

A number of the young people's department attended a meeting of the Fidelis Union at Grassland Sunday afternoon, and nine local intermediates received credit in a two-day Training Institute at Lubbock the first of the week. The following attested their splendid training under Mrs. H. C. Smith, counselor, by receiving certificates: Mildred Aah, Ila Bartley, Jo Alice Brooks, Eva Douthit, Mary Helen Parks, Betty Lu Suddarth, G. C. and James Price, and Vernon Smith.—Reporter.

Esther Bairrington Weds Curtis Stevens

Curtis Stevens and Miss Esther Bairrington were united in marriage in Lovington, New Mexico, early last Sunday morning. They returned to Tahoka the same day.

Mr. Stevens is a son of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Stevens and has been reared here. He is now employed in operating a truck for J. E. Thompson.

The bride is the daughter of B. F. Bairrington and has likewise been reared in and near Tahoka. She has been employed recently in Rochelle's Cafe.

Both are fine young people and deserve to succeed in life.

Rev. Sam Malone In Revival At Redwine

Rev. Sam Malone of Abilene, Bible instructor in Simmons University and editor of the West Texas Baptist, is doing the preaching in a revival meeting in the Redwine community this week. Large crowds are attending the services and interest is growing daily.

The meeting is scheduled to close Sunday but may run into next week if interest is sufficient.

Rev. J. W. Braswell of Lamesa is pastor of the Redwine church.

HURRAH FOR THE GOVERNMENT

The other day we heard an able lawyer making a semi-political speech, and he was deploring the fact that the Government, as he claimed, was putting its nose into all kinds of business and undertaking to regulate all our private affairs. He prayed for the time to come when the Government could crawl back in to its shell, so to speak, and confine its operations to the field it occupied back in the days of Thomas Jefferson.
All of which is most foolish. We are living in an entirely different world from Jefferson's. Modern inventions, modern machinery, teeming populations, the advent of great corporations, the growing power of wealth, changed social, industrial, and economic conditions, and our modern ways of life, have made a return to the governmental simplicity of the days of Jefferson an iridescent dream—an utter impossibility.

Such a government today would be woefully inadequate and helpless. It would not be worth maintaining.
The fact of the business is that most of the things that the Government is doing are helpful and useful. It may be extravagant in many instances, but the things it is doing are being done better in most cases than they would or could be done by private concerns. It should probably abandon some of the fields it has entered but it should probably enter more fully into other fields.

The Government is nothing more than the people in action, doing things co-operatively for the people.
We are for our Government and for the things it is doing.

The great Democratic party, the party of states rights and local self-government, now in power at Washington, is launching an unprecedented national campaign for the suppression of crime—kidnaping, racketeering, and other crimes which have heretofore been regarded as lying strictly in the province of the state courts and the state constabulary.
Modern means of communication and transportation have made such a step almost absolutely necessary. We may deprecate ever so much the centralization of power in Washington, but when we take over the reigns of government we find that for government to be efficient it must have power. Hence we turn right around and do the things we have been denouncing in the other fellow. Never before in the history of our country has the Government at Washington assumed as much power as it is exercising today, and never before, in time of peace, has so much power been given a President as has been given to President Roosevelt. But it is all right because it is necessary to meet the present situation. "The world do move."

The other day we were walking along the sidewalk feeling a little blue, and doubtless looking the same way, paying little attention to the folks we met, when a kid chirped up and said "Hello, Mr. Hill," in a most cheerful kind of way and with the friendliest kind of a smile, and,
boy, we went on down the street feeling like a million dollars. That boy has no idea how his friendly greeting cheered us. He was perfectly unconscious of having done a kindness. He has no idea how much his spirit of friendliness helps other folks—and himself. But from it we got this lesson all over again: Gloom and grouching never buys us anything and never makes us a friend; cheerfulness and friendliness are invaluable.

The people of Lynn county should be grateful and humble this year.
After having passed through years of depression and despair, and while the people of some of the neighboring counties still have practically no crops, the prospects for a good average crop in Lynn county are bright enough at this time, with fair prices for cotton in sight. Besides a lot of cotton money will be coming in soon in payment of the acreage destroyed.
Business should be picking up soon, folks, a lot of old debts paid, and money jingling in our pockets again.
Take off that long face, brother, and put on a smile.

Yes, the Eighteenth Amendment will probably be repealed, beer will come back after the 29th of this month, and our own state prohibition law may be set aside entirely a little later, but we still don't believe our country is going to the devil. We have faith enough in our people to believe that after having given legalized liquor another chance, they will either vote it out again after a few years or so rigidly regulate its sale as to greatly ameliorate its evils. We are not going to permit the liquor traffic to destroy us.

ro county, is here visiting her sister,

WHAT OTHERS THINK

Editor Hill of the Lynn County News says: "The yard-stick should not be subject to great variations in length. It should not be a foot long today and three feet long tomorrow, and vice versa. The volume of money should keep pace with the volume of commodities to be moved. When the yard-stick lengthens prices fall and when it contracts prices rise." Editor Hill is eminently correct, the very thing the Claude News editor has advocated for 30 years. Ten years ago the farmer sold his products for, we will say, $36—36 inches, according to this money yard-stick we all measure values with. The past three or four years these same farmers took $36 worth of products to the market and were forced to take less than $10—10 inches, for their $36 worth of products, simply because there was not enough money in circulation. If a man or woman had purchased a home or a quarter section of land ten years ago agreeing to pay $3,600 for same at a time when farm products brought $36 for a certain amount of products; and they are paying it out now in farm products that bring less than $10, for the $36 worth of products sold for ten years ago, you can see that this man or woman is having to pay three or four times as much for that home or farm as he or she contracted to pay.
That is caused by having to pay with a high priced-dollar, a debt that was contracted when a low priced dollar was used. The more money put into circulation the cheaper the dollar. The more money taken out of circulation the higher the dollar; simply because there is only so much money in circulation to buy with; therefore, the less money you put out the higher the dollar. It does not take a very smart man to see through this. And we believe Editor Hill will be reasonable enough to agree with this logic, even if he or the Claude News editor neither one is sent to Congress to regulate "the money issue."—Claude News.

Helped By Cardui

Here's the true story of how Cardui helped Mrs. H. E. Dunaway, of McComb, Miss., as written by herself:

"I was sick and rather discouraged. I was so weak and thin, I was not able to do my work as it should be done. This made me fret a good deal, and did not help my condition.

"I had pains across my back and lower part of my body. My nights were spent in rolling from one side of the bed to the other, hoping I would soon go to sleep.
Then when morning would come,
I would be just as tired as when I went to bed. A neighbor, seeing how badly I felt, told me to try Cardui. After I had taken one bottle, I was much better. I kept on taking Cardui, and I was stronger and slept much better at night."

CHEVROLET, AMERICA'S NUMBER 1 CAR—47.99% of all low-priced cars sold

NUMBER 2 CAR—26.74%

NUMBER 3 CAR—19.21%

*Based on the latest retail registration figures from E. I. Hill & Company (all states for five full months). Since January 1st, Chevrolet has sold in excess of 370,000 passenger cars and trucks.

People have come to expect Chevrolet to lead the world in automobile sales. But this year, Chevrolet has done even more than that. According to the latest available figures, Chevrolet alone has sold almost as many cars this year as the rest of the low-price field combined!

When a car looms above its field like that, there can't be any argument about it. It must be an all-round better buy. And that's exactly what Chevrolet offers you. Fisher

PRESBYTERIAN SERVICES

All services at the Presbyterian Church Sunday. Preaching morning and evening at the usual hour, and Sunday school at 10 o'clock.

If the youth movement is gripping the attention of the world, what latent power in the adult movement, when the whole adult world falls in line with the great S. S. and Church program of today. Everybody ought to go to S. S. and church on Sunday. There is a blessing there for you. Close the doors of our great Gospel living and preaching churches in this country and chaos and pandemonium will reign. The whole nation needs God, and we are each and all an integral part of the nation. Let every town, small and large, have an increasing number of people who fear and worship God in a time like ours.

Morning theme, "Adult Education; When are People too Old to Learn?" Special music. Subject Sunday night, "Household Foes, America's Worst Enemies Not Over the Sea," A fine gospel song service. Something to say about our Presbyterian Bible conference this summer. You are invited to all our services.

"AB" HUMPHRIES IS RFC

HEAD FOR THIS DISTRICT

J. A. "Ab" Humphries, Lubbock man who recently was named to the state rehabilitation work after serving with the state department of education, has returned to Lubbock to make his headquarters. He is now supervisor of rehabilitation and relief work in nine counties in this area with headquarters here.

"My work will be to supervise the relief work in conjunction with the county administrators and the county committees," he said. "I will handle reconstruction and relief programs.

"When President Roosevelt's big program of relief gets underway in the highway department, I will have charge of working out the plans for the federal highway funds in relief work."

Mr. Humphries' territory includes: Hale, Lubbock, Lynn, Dawson, Terry, Hockley, Yoakum, Cochran, and Gaines counties.

Mr. Humphries said he was offered a similar post at El Paso and also in the eastern part of the state. "I preferred Lubbock, although the other jobs meant more money," he added.

Early in the new year Mr. Humphries was named to a post in the state department of education. He inspected numerous rural schools in this section as supervisor in the late winter and early spring, before being named to his post with the relief work of the state.

New Businesses Will Open Here

A new general dry goods and clothing store is to open at an early date in the Brashear building situated on Main Street, according to Deen Nowlin, who has charge of the building as agent for the Temple Trust Company. Some interior repairs are being made on the building this week and as soon as these repairs are completed the new concern will begin moving in their stock of goods.

The new business is to be opened by Cobb Brothers of Brownfield, who operate one of the largest business establishments in that city.

Mr. Nowlin also states at E. A. Nort of Lamesa has rented the building formerly occupied by Jake Wilonsky and will open a general mercantile business there before the end of this month.

It is also persistently rumored that the Tredway building on Main Street, formerly occupied by the Jones Dry Goods Company, will be occupied by another big mercantile concern at an early date. In fact, workmen are repairing this building now.

Ivan Cathcart and Karr Wells have leased the old Park's Market recently occupied by the Chandler Market, and will themselves open a market in this building within a few days. They will probably have an announcement in this paper next week.

CHEVROLET PRODUCTION

TREBLED DURING JULY

The largest July production since 1929, nearly trebling the output for the corresponding month last year, was achieved by Chevrolet when the company built 80,250 new cars and trucks in the month just ended, W. S. Knudsen, president and general manager announced today.

This compared with 32,281 built last July and with 81,562 in June of this year, which was the highest production month since early 1931, Mr. Knudsen stated. The current July was the fourth largest July in the 21-year history of the company.

Not since 1920 has July production come as close to June as this year, Mr. Knudsen said, attesting to much less-than-seasonal slack, now being experienced by the company.

While some seasonal let-up is bound to be felt in August, Mr. Knudsen said he hoped that the sustained high level of retail sales would enable his company again to effect a reduction in the normal average decline from July into the coming month.

For the first seven months this year this company produced more than 433,000 new cars and trucks as compared with 394,000 for the full twelve months of 1932, the Chevrolet executive stated.

In this country in 1931 enough cattle to fill 16 train loads of 50 cars each and nine train loads of hogs were condemned and destroyed for tuberculousis alone.

"NO ONE READS THE PAPER"

"No one reads the paper," has been repeatedly told every newspaper worker since Ben Franklin set his first line of long primer, and disproven every time the name of a six-year-old fairy in the school play was printed Lucy Jones instead of Lucy Ann. Everyone from grandma to second cousin Susan will tell the editor that he should have known the little star's name; that it was just wicked to let such a glaring error get into the paper—why, even Lucy would never be the same again without that Ann. Your Advertisement Is Read!

There is no getting away from the fact that if you want your message read by the people in this community with the money to buy, it must be in the columns of the home paper.

Many people are reading each copy of The Lynn County News—substantial people, the people who buy, are readers of the home paper.

You do not find copies of The Lynn County News in the postoffice wastebasket—you can't say this of other forms of advertising. The News is ALWAYS taken home and read by every member of the family old enough to read. In many cases, the paper is loaned out to the neighbors. A survey made several years ago by a large organization revealed the fact that each copy of each issue of the average American country weekly newspaper is read by seven people, five of them adults. Therefore, your advertisement in The News should be read by 7,000 people, 5,000 of them adults.

What other way can you get your message to the buying public so efficiently or so economically?

GAS TAX ENFORCEMENT BRINGS NEW REVENUE

Austin, Aug 9—Comptroller Geo. Sheppard's gasoline tax enforcement "army" of detectives and auditors, created by the Legislature last March, recovered the record sum of $330,000 in "missing" gasoline taxes during June, at an expense of but $15,600.

This is the gist of a summary of June activities released to the Texas Good Roads Association today by J. W. McReynolds, division chief at the request of the comptroller. Comptroller Sheppard, elated, saw in the figures "proof" that if the people will help, Texas can save the predicted $4,000,000 a year in gas taxes heretofore stolen.

"Consider what this means to the taxpayers," the comptroller said. "It means that in February, the month before this new law was passed we were headed for a $2,500,000 decrease in annual gas tax revenues; but now we have wiped that out and are moving at the rate of $1,500,000 increase.

"Here's how: the state's gas tax income in February was $207,514 short of the same month a year ago, or nearly 10 per cent. March was almost as bad. Thousands of cars were not being used and bootleggers were running wild.

Then this new law, making evasion a felony, went into effect March 21. Our staff went to work. In April the decrease over 1932 was very small, but in May it had been turned into a small increase. These June figures show we collected $122,370 more gas taxes than in June, 1932.

"The motorist nearly always pays this tax at the filling station whether it's passed on to the state or not; when it's not, the schools, the bond fund and the highways are being robbed. So is the taxpayer who must make up the difference. That's why we are asking the public to look for evaders."

In Norway one may buy a combination toothbrush and a mouth wash atomizer which sprays as it brushes the teeth.

Opinions Of Our Readers

NOT FOR BEER OR LIQUOR SALES

It's time the mothers and fathers are trying to stop this awful thing. Liquor is a disgrace to our state. It is wrecking and ruining more homes than anything else.

I see from the poll tax list that there are many that can't vote, but I hope every old gray-haired father and mother that have passed 60 will go to the polls and vote dry.

How I wish it were in my power to put the deadly poison away from our dear boys, and many girls will drink the nasty stuff. I know of one social club that will not sell the nasty stuff, and that is the 4-H club. They are dry. They are for better homes and no beer in better homes, and if all the club ladies will go to the polls on the 26th day of August and vote, we will do a lot of good.

I think that every one should pay their poll taxes, if they have to let something else go—not be like some, who say "I need my money for other things." Now our boys and girls need the protection of the fathers and mothers and, they can't lift a hand to help them, for they have been asleep too long.

It will be dangerous for school children to travel the roads to and from school with liquor back. I have lived in open saloon times and I have lived in dry times. I know what the drink means. It means broken-hearted mothers and fathers, homeless children and ragged children and no bread for children. Ah that the people would get up and fight as they have never fought before! Fight for our young boys and girls.

Some say, well, we have bootleggers. Yes, we have them and always will have them. There have always been bootleggers.

Some say there is more drinking now than there used to be. I say no, and that if drink comes back there will be many early-filled graves by boys and girls.

I say come, mothers and fathers, and see if we can't take this curse away from our boys and girls. We need men of true blue and mothers of true blue to stand up for our children. I for one will fight the beer and liquor as long as I can talk, for how I hate the stuff!

I am writing this to let the people know that there are some around Lynn that are dry and will stand for a dry country always.—One Who Hates Beer and Liquor.

Baseball Dope

By Paul Ponder

On account of the baseball tournaments being conducted in the territory of the South Plains League, and in which some of the league clubs have been taking part, contests within the league have been suspended for three weeks. Just when and where the league schedule will again be resumed is not definitely known; but presumably it will be with Lubbock at Tahoka the coming Sunday.

Our boys have had no game the last two Sundays, but were able to arrange games with two teams outside the league since last report. There were games with Post at Post Thursday, and with Lorenzo the past Monday on the latter's field. Tahoka won both contests—the former by 7 to 4, and the latter by 5 to 0.

The Post game was marked with fair attendance and interest and with good average work by both teams. Added to the effective work of twirler Rose was the excellent backing of his mates; then our men delivered a little better in the pinches, hitting when hits meant runs.

Monday's classic was somewhat more unique, being, I believe, the season's first shut-out victory; and was featured by the maximum of strike-outs to the credit of Rose—eleven—who allowed but four hits, two of them but mere scratches, and no two in a single stanza. Lefty Surret started as twirler for the enemy, but was relieved in the closing paragraphs of chapter five by Monroe who allowed few hits and no runs during the remainder of the conflict.

The first three frames, as the last four, were scoreless, even as the full nine pages were blank for Lorenzo. We garnered nine hits, which ran consecutively from single to circuit-slap. In the fourth, E. S. Doubled, then came in on Lark's triple; Blue then singled to score Lark, then the side was out. In the fifth again, and with two on, Frank dispatched the pellet to a remote section for a homer. He got three hits out of four chances. The line-up was about as usual, except that Bo farmed the right orchard and Bill the left, while A. P. collected marbles (for keeps) in center for seven innings, when he and Bill were relieved by Ivan and Harley. A large, enthusiastic crowd witnessed the fray; and in the absence of Tahoka "rooters," lustily cheered feature plays for our side as well as theirs.

We failed to note last week the return of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Henderson from Denver, Colorado, where they went to take the children of Mrs. Casey Jones. W. O. says he wandered all up and down that valley that was flooded a few days later by the bursting of Castlewood Dam, taking two lives and doing property damage estimated at a million dollars.

Mrs. Fred Fleener and children of Kilgore left for their home Thursday of last week, after an extended visit with Mrs. Fleener's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Walker.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

The State of Texas.
To the Sheriff or any Constable of Lynn County, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon F. T. Kelley by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in the nearest County where a newspaper is published, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Lynn County, to be holden at the Court House thereof, in Tahoka, Texas, on the 4th Monday in September, A. D. 1933, the same being the 25th day of September, A. D. 1933, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 26th day of January, A. D. 1933, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court as No. 952, wherein Margaret C. Bolton, joined pro-forma by her husband, E. R. Bolton, are Plaintiffs, and M. L. Youngblood, C. L. Tomlinson, E. E. Redwine, Hugh McLaurin, O. W. Sumner, and F. T. Kelley are Defendants, and said petition alleging that on or about the 1st day of April, 1929, defendant M. L. Youngblood executed and delivered to defendant C. L. Tomlinson six promissory Vendor's lien notes, number one for the sum of $250.00 and the remaining five for the sum of $200.00 each, bearing date on the day and year aforesaid, due on or before January 1st, 1927, 1928, 1929, 1930, 1931, and 1932, respectively, bearing interest at 8 per cent per annum from date until paid, payable to defendant C. L. Tomlinson, providing for maturity of all notes on failure to pay any note or installment of interest when due, and stipulating for 10 per cent attorneys fees on principal and interest if placed in hands of attorney for collection, whereby M. L. Youngblood became bound for the above sum to C. L. Tomlinson; That on or about the 7th day of January, 1927, C. L. Tomlinson transferred the above described six notes to F. E. Redwine without recourse on him; that on or about the 10th day of April, 1929, F. E. Redwine executed a release to M. L. Youngblood for the first three of the above described notes; that on or about the 8th day of February, 1928, M. L. Youngblood and wife Mamie Youngblood deeded the hereinafter described premises to Hugh McLaurin, the said Hugh McLaurin assuming and agreeing to pay the above described notes, said deed of conveyance shown in Vol. 43, page 340, deed records, Lynn County, Texas, that on or about the 6th day of January, 1931, F. E. Redwine released above note No. 4 and extended time of payment of above note No. 5 to January 1st, 1930, to O. W. Sumner; that on or about the 6th day of January, 1931, F. E. Redwine sold and transferred, without recourse on him, to Hugh McLaurin above described note No. 5; that on or about the 6th day of January, 1931 said Hugh McLaurin assigned and guaranteed payment of above described note No. 5 to Margaret C. Bolton; that on or about the 11th day of February, 1928, Hugh McLaurin conveyed to F. T. Kelley the hereinafter described premises, said F. T. Kelley assuming and agreeing to pay said above described notes Nos. 3, 4, 5, and 6 and in addition thereto said F. T. Kelley executed and delivered to said Hugh McLaurin his six promissory vendor's lien notes for the sum of $210.00 each, bearing date of February 11th, 1928, due on or before January 1st, 1933, 1934, 1935, 1936, 1937, and 1938 respectively, payable to Hugh McLaurin, bearing interest at 8 per cent per annum from date until paid, containing the usual stipulation for attorney's fees, whereby said F. T. Kelley, became liable and bound to pay to said Hugh McLaurin the above described notes or the future holders of same; that on or about the 10th day of May, 1929, said Hugh McLaurin executed a release of note No. 6 last above described; that on or about the 10th day of May, 1929, said F. T. Kelley by his deed of conveyance sold and transferred the hereinafter described premises to O. W. Sumner who assumed and agreed to pay notes Nos. 4, 5, and 6 of the first series of notes hereinabove described as well as the last six notes above described, whereby said O. W. Sumner became bound and liable to pay to the holder of said notes the sum of money therein specified; that on or about the 1st day of January, 1931, said Hugh McLaurin sold and assigned to Margaret C. Bolton and guaranteed payment of the first five notes of the last series as executed by F. T. Kelley as above described; that note No. 5 of the first series as above described and the first five of the last series of notes as above described are still unpaid; that in each of said deeds of conveyance as above described a lien was reserved on the hereinafter described premises to secure the payment of said notes; that each of said notes specify that at the election of the holder all of same may be declared due upon failure to pay any one of same or any installment of interest thereon when due; that Margaret C. Bolton is the legal owner and holder of note No. 5 of said first series of notes and of the first five of the notes of said last series of notes, that no interest has been paid on said notes or any of them since January 1, 1931, and the defendants, though often requested, have failed and refused to pay the interest in same or any part thereof, but same remains due and unpaid; that said notes were given for part payment of the purchase money of the following described land and premises, to-wit: All that certain lot, tract or parcel of land, lying and being situated in the County of Lynn, State of Texas, and same being all of the S. W. 1/4 of survey No. 21, Blk. No. A-1, Cert. No. 1436, E. L. & R. R. Co. and containing 160 acres of land more or less. Wherefore, plaintiff prays judgment of the court that the defendant

F. T. Kelley be cited to appear and answer herein, that she have her judgment of foreclosure of her lien on the above described land and premises against the defendant herein, that the same be decreed to be placed in possession thereof according to law, for such other and further relief, special and general, in law and in equity, to which she may show herself justly entitled.

Herein will not, and have you before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the seal of said Court, at office in Tahoka, Texas, this 15th day of July, A. D. 1933. W. S. TAYLOR, Clerk, District Court, Lynn County, Texas.

A Laxative that costs only 1¢ or less a dose

NEXT TIME you need medicine to act on the bowels, try Theodor's Black-Draught. It brings quick relief and is priced within reach of all. Black-Draught is one of the least expensive laxatives that you can find. A 25-cent package contains 25 or more doses. Black-Draught is made of approved laxative plants, firmly ground so you take the medicine into your system just as naturally as you get nourishment from the food you eat.

Refreshing relief from constipation troubles for only a cent or less a dose—that's why thousands of men and women prefer Theodor's Black-Draught.

Henry Ford Dearborn, Mich.

UNTIL WE LEARNED BETTER

Until we learned better, we used to mix wood and steel in our car bodies and wheels.

It was the best way to make bodies—then. But the state of the art has advanced.

Of course, it is more expensive to make an all-steel body than to make a wooden frame and nail steel panels on to it. The better way involves an initial expenditure of several millions of dollars for new dies, which renders a change very costly. Cars, especially large expensive cars which are produced in small volume, cannot afford this, because the dies cost as much for one car as for a million. That alone explains why all-steel bodies are not used in all cars.

But our basic policy from the beginning is to make a good car better, regardless of cost.

For example, when we discarded wood-steel body construction, it was not because we lacked wood. We still have some thousands of acres of the best hard wood in America. Economy would urge us to use up the wood first, and then adopt the better all-steel body. But we decided that quality was more important than expense.

We weighed the reasons, for and against, before we made the change. We could see only one reason for retaining a mixed wood-and-steel body—nailing the metal on, instead of welding an all-steel body into a strong one-piece whole. That reason was, it would be cheaper—for us.

Our reasons for adopting an all-steel body were these: A wood-steel body is not much stronger structurally than its wooden frame. In all American climates, wood construction weakens with age. Every used car lot gives evidence of this. Rain seeps in between joints and the wood decays. A car may have a metal surface, and yet not be of steel construction. Under extreme shock or stress the steel body remains intact—dented perhaps, but not crushed.

Steel does not need wood for strength or protection. Wood is fine for furniture, but not for the high speed vehicles of 1933.

In the Ford body there are no joints to squeak, no seams to crack or leak.

The all-steel body is more expensive—to us, but not to you.

By all odds, then, steel bodies seem preferable.

Wheels also have become all-steel. No one argues that an electrically welded one-piece steel wheel, such as the Ford wheel, needs to be "strengthened" by adding wood to it.

The one-piece all-steel body is the strongest, safest, quietest, most durable body made. That is our only reason for making them.

Petty

Of this district forty farmers have pledged to take 1,344 acres of cotton out of production. The average estimated production per acre is 125.07 pounds per acre. The cotton has already been plowed up; most of the land has been planted to cane or hegari.

School began Monday morning at nine o'clock with eighty students enrolled. The short program at the beginning of school was well attended, showing that a fine spirit of cooperation prevails and much interest is being taken in the school this year. Mr. G. H. Nelson of Tahoka was the principal speaker.

Warren Smith completed the courses of training in the Citizens' Military Training Camp at Ft. Sill, Oklahoma, last week and has been recommended for a commission in the Reserve Corps in which, as a commissioned officer, he will receive further training next summer. Warren is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Smith who live near Petty.

B. T. Smith returned from Dallas last Saturday where he had been for a week. He states that the farmers are having quite a bit of difficulty destroying the cotton down there due to the large tough stalks and the wet ground. In many places they are using a mowing machine and rake and in some cases are haling the stalks to be used as cow feed.
 The cotton, in places, has already started opening.

South Ward

There was a good crowd at Sunday School and church Sunday morning. It was Bro. Boyd's regular day.
 But he didn't come, so Bro. Buth preached.

The Baptist revival which was being conducted by Bro. Buth and Bro.
 Weaver from Wayland College closed Saturday night. There were several conversations and rededications to the church.

There was singing at the school house Sunday night.

Misses Mildred and Effie Decker of the Midway community spent Saturday night and Sunday with Margaret Cross and Ophelia Mason.

Nora Belle, Mary Ellen and Johnnie Inman and Luther and J. M.
 Wood spent Sunday at O'Donnell with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Woods. It was Mr. Woods' birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Campbell and girls, Zeta, Evelyn, and Gerd-line of Wilson and Mr. and Mrs.
 Dock Campbell visited their parents Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Campbell part of last week.

Folks, remember Sunday School Sunday morning. Bro. Dykes will be here to preach for us. It is also singing evening.—Reporter.

Billie Lee Burleson, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Burleson, underwent an operation in the Lubbock Sanitarium Wednesday, her tonsils being removed. She was able to be brought back home this morning.

Mrs. Jodie Nevill underwent a major operation in the Lubbock Sanitarium Tuesday. We understand that she is improving satisfactorily.

Pickle Making Recipes Given

From an examination of a large number of home fermented pickles, it seems that the most common defect in the product is the soft or slippery pickle. Such condition is the result of bacterial action, and always occurs when pickles are exposed above the brine and when brine is too weak to prevent the growth of spoilage organisms.

To prevent soft or slippery condition, keep the pickles well below the brine and the brine at the proper strength—10 percent or 40 degree brine. To keep pickles for more than a very few weeks a brine should contain 15 percent of salt (1 1/2 lbs salt in 1 gallon of water).

Attempts to use short cuts or to make pickles over night, as is sometimes advised, are based upon mistaken idea of what really constitutes a pickle. Proper curing of cucumbers require from six weeks to two months or possibly longer, according to the size and variety of the cucumbers.

The steps in curing of cucumbers:
 1. Retain from 1-8 to 1-4 inch of their stem. Do not bruise cucumbers.

2. Wash clean removing all traces of dirt.

3. Weigh cucumbers and place in 10 percent or 40 degree brine (made by dissolving 1 lb. salt in 9 pints water —use rain water or distilled water) not later than 24 hours after they have been gathered.

4. Add an excess of salt in the proportion of 1 lb. salt for every 10 lbs. of cucumbers at the time of making up the brine, or not later than the following day.

5. Cover with a plate or board (except yellow or pitch pine board) and use for a weight another jar of water.

6. Let ferment without stirring or agitating the brine. The active stage of cucumber fermentation continues for 10 to 30 days, depending largely on the temperature at which it is conducted. The most favorable temperature is 86 degrees F.

7. At the end of the first week, and at the end of each succeeding week for 5 weeks, add salt in the proportion of 1 oz. salt to each gallon of pickle. In adding salt always place it on the cover. (Example—gallon jar when filled add 4 oz. salt or 1-4
 lb. salt.)

8. Cover container with a clean white cloth, 2 or 3 thicknesses of cheese cloth or muslin. Let cure for 6 weeks to 2 months in this solution.

Curing of cucumbers is marked by an increased firmness, a greater degree of translucency, and a change in color from pale green to dark olive green. These changes are uniform throughout the perfectly cured specimen. So long as any portion of pickle is white or opaque it is not properly cured.

Making pickles in large quantities —put into a barrel 5 or 6 inches of 40 degree brine and add 1 quart of 50 grain vinegar. In this brine place the cucumbers as they are gathered, weighing the cucumbers each time and proceed as in step 4.

After cured in brine cucumbers may be used as salt pickles, made into sour pickles and then into sweet pickles.

Sour Pickles
 Soak cucumbers in cold water 24
 to 48 hours to remove excess salt.
 Drain them well, pack into jars and cover with a 5 per cent or 50 grain vinegar.

Sweet Pickles
 Soak cucumbers in cold water 24
 to 48 hours to remove excess salt.
 Place in cold vinegar 5 per cent strength for two weeks.

Then make a spice vinegar of the following: 1 pint vinegar, 1 cup sugar, 1 tablespoon whole spices (the spice in a bag. Bring vinegar, sugar and spices to simmering point. Remove from fire, cover and let cool.
 Drain cucumbers from vinegar in which they have stood for two weeks, pack closely in jars and cover with the cold spiced vinegar. Let stand one day, drain spiced vinegar off, add spice bag and bring to simmering point, add sugar, let cool and pour over cucumbers. Do this for three mornings in succession and seal. The amount of sugar added each time depends upon the sweetness desired. The more sugar added, the more brittle the pickle.
