PIONEER LADY PASSES AWAY

Mrs. A. R. McGonagill, in County Since 1905, Buried Monday After Long Illness

In the death of Mrs. A. R. McGonagill, which occurred Sunday afternoon in the West Texas Hospital in Lubbock, Lynn county lost another of her pioneer residents. She had been virtually an invalid for many months and had not enjoyed good health for several years, suffering from heart trouble and other diseases.

Funeral services were conducted from the Baptist Church here Monday afternoon in the presence of a great host of friends, and the remains were interred in the City Cemetery, Harris & Applewhite, undertakers, having charge of the funeral arrangements. The services were conducted by Rev. Lawrence Hays, the present pastor, and Rev. B. N. Shepherd of Clarendon, a former pastor of the Baptist Church here, Brother Shepherd delivering the funeral discourse.

Lavish and beautiful floral offerings had been artistically arranged in the church and were tenderly placed on the grave after interment had been completed, and the services were most solemnly beautiful and impressive throughout.

Mrs. McGonagill, whose maiden name was Lenora C. Harrison, was born in Van Zandt county, Texas, on December 7, 1872; and was

Thomas Is Back From Legislature

Representative and Mrs. John Thomas returned Saturday from Austin, where Mr. Thomas has been in attendance upon the special session of the legislature.

Mr. Thomas introduced in the House the bill to pay the expenses of south plains farmers in eleven counties incurred in 1928 in fumigating and sterilizing cotton seed as required by the quarantine regulations imposed by the state and federal governments in their fight against the spread of the pink boll weevil. A similar bill was introduced in the Senate and the Senate bill finally passed. It carries an appropriation of $500,000.

The quarantine regulations did not affect Lynn county but Dawson county just south of us was within the quarantine area. Efforts have been made at every session of the legislature since 1928 to get remuneration for the farmers of these counties, as was promised when the quarantine regulations were imposed, but all efforts heretofore have been blocked. It is confidently hoped that the governor will sign the present bill.

O'Donnell Woman Does Much Canning

"By taking advantage of the R. F. C. canning plan and using the R. F. C. canning kitchen, I have 460 containers of vegetables stored for the cost of my work plus salt and sugar used in canning," stated Mrs. A. F. Edwards of O'Donnell to the home agent, Miss El Fleda Harrison. "I have helped ten other families with their food supply and used the steam pressure cooker and the sealer for the first time in the R. F. C. canning kitchen."

County Writes Own Meal Ticket

A total of 22,538 containers of vegetables have been filled in the R. F. C. canning kitchens in five weeks time. Twelve canners and twelve sealers were kept busy in the two kitchens and nearly 7,000 containers of food are ready for relief purposes.

Hardware dealers of Lynn county report sales of 161 cookers, 135 sealers, 45,900 cans, $3.50 extra lids, and 6,912 glass jars sold. Many other supplies, especially cans, were handled by other business firms, and a complete check is almost impossible.

Harp Singers Are Coming Sunday

There will be a big Sacred Harp singing at the court house here next Sunday, according to M. E. McCord. Singing will begin at 10 A. M. and will continue till late in the afternoon, with an intermission for dinner.

Everybody is invited to come and bring their old Sacred Harp song books. Also bring a lunch. Mr. McCord says everybody is expected to have a glorious good time.

Visitors are expected from Lamesa, Brownfield, Lubbock, Littlefield, Sudan, and many other places.

YOUNG PEOPLE VISIT TAHOKA

Delegates Present From Lubbock District, Methodist Church, At Meeting Here

By Mrs. Rubie D. Suddarth

Last week-end held a full schedule for Tahoka Methodists and their friends, when young people from all over the Lubbock District were guests of the local organization in the regular quarterly District Rally. Nearly a hundred young folk were entertained in Tahoka homes on Saturday night. A number of others returned to their homes for the night, while still others came for the all day services Sunday; a total of perhaps a hundred fifty or more. Beginning at 4 o'clock, the registration clerks were kept busy, the largest delegation being a bus load of over forty from Asbury Church, Lubbock, which carried home the District honor award.

The first service was the vesper hour in charge of Wilton Lynn of Asbury church, who made a splendid spiritual talk, worshipful and sincere. Dr. C. A. Bickley, presiding elder, was a welcome visitor at this session of the Rally.

Postmaster Job Exams Necessary

To fill the vacancy in the position of postmaster in this city, the United States Civil Service Commission has announced, at the request of Postmaster General J. A. Farley and in accordance with an order of the President, an open competitive examination.

To be eligible for the examination, an applicant must be a citizen of the United States, must reside within the delivery of this post office, must have so resided for at least one year next preceding the date for close of receipt of applications, must be in good physical condition, and within the prescribed age limits. Both men and women are admitted.

Under the terms of the Executive order, the Civil Service Commission will certify to the Postmaster General the names of the highest three qualified eligibles, if as many as three are qualified, from which the Postmaster General may select one for nomination by the President. Confirmation by the Senate is the final action.

Applicants will not be required to assemble in examination room for scholastic tests, but will be rated on education and business experience and fitness. The Civil Service Commission will make inquiry among representative business and professional men and women concerning the experience, ability, and character of each applicant, and the evidence thus secured will be considered in determining the rating to be assigned to the applicants.

The Commission states that presidential postmasters are not in the classified civil service and that its duties in connection with appointments to such positions are to hold examinations and to certify the results to the Postmaster General. The Commission is not interested in the political, religious, or fraternal affiliations of any applicant.

Full information and application blanks may be obtained from the secretary of the local board of civil service examiners at the post office in this city, or from the United States Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C.

COURT CONSIDERS EMPLOYMENT OF FARM AGENT FOR COUNTY

Divorces Granted In District Court

Eight divorces were granted at the September term of the district court which adjourned here last Saturday. They were as follows: John R. Kuykendall vs. Marie Kuykendall. Divorce granted September 26.

Ina Mae Scott vs. R. H. Scott. Divorce granted September 26.

Gladys Pendergrass vs. Fletcher Pendergrass. Divorce granted September 26.

Lillie Mae Henderson vs. Jack Henderson. Divorce granted October 5.

Joy Shook vs. Marvin Shook. Divorce granted October 11.

Violet Todd vs. Guy Todd. Divorce granted October 12. Custody of child awarded to plaintiff.

N. E. Weaver vs. Mamie Weaver. Divorce granted October 16. Defendant's former name restored.

Della Suits vs. Walter Suits. Divorce granted October 19. Custody of child awarded to plaintiff.

While the News has no information whatever on the subject, we presume that if the commissioners decide to employ an agent the position will be offered to Mr. Williams.

If an agent should be employed, a part of the salary would be paid by the County and a part by the State and Federal Governments.

Petty Woman Died Wednesday

Mrs. Arthur C. Hall of Petty died early Wednesday morning of typhoid fever in the Lubbock Sanitarium. She had been taken to the sanitarium only the day previously, we understand, but had been critically ill for several days.

The family had recently moved to Petty from Roswell, New Mexico.

There is said to be many cases of typhoid fever scattered over the south plains, and every precaution should be taken to avoid contracting the disease. Serums are being resorted to by many people. The strictest sanitary regulations should be observed by all, and especially should all flies be exterminated, or excluded from our homes.

New Grassland Gin In Operation

The new Farmers Co-operative gin at Grassland opened for business Tuesday morning, according to Bill Thompson. Buck Edwards is manager and Mrs. Pauline Thompson Walker, daughter of Joe Thompson, is the bookkeeper.

This is a four-stand gin, all the machinery being new. This is the second gin at Grassland, the Thomas Bros. Gin at that point being the largest in the county. It is said.

Work Started On Southland Highway

Work started Thursday morning on the "missing link" of highway No. 7 through the corner of Lynn county, as feed was cut from the right-of-way and fencing started.

An important phase of Thursday's work was a five foot board fence completely across the right-of-way, painted white, with a warning sign outlined in red reflector buttons, and three red lanterns will be kept burning atop the fence, according to J. H. Gilbert, in charge of the work, who says, "This should eliminate danger of accidents and deaths on this detour turn."

Ten men and six teams will be employed in construction of the road bed, every one to be Lynn county citizens, according to Mr. Gilbert, who mentions that any men living in that county with good mules to work wanting a job apply at once. This three and one-half miles of right-of-way is expected to be open for traffic within five weeks, completing the new route, surveyed for paving. The payroll amounts to about $50 a day.

PROMINENT COWMAN HERE

John M. Gist of Midland, one of the most prominent cow men of West Texas, was here on business Tuesday. Mr. Gist's stock have probably taken more premiums at the Dallas and various West Texas fairs than those of any other man in Texas.

The News is advised that at a meeting of the commissioners court to be held Friday, the matter of employing a county farm agent for the ensuing year will be considered.

Joe Williams has been acting as Emergency Agent the past few months but the county has been bearing no part of the expense. It was placed here by the federal authorities for the specific purpose of directing the cotton plow-up campaign and distributing the funds.

He went about this task in a business-like manner and seems to have given general satisfaction. He has proven to be energetic and resourceful in the performance of his duties and has been of inestimable value to the farmers of the county during his few months of service here.

He has had occasion to meet nearly all the farmers of the county and has become remarkably well acquainted with the agricultural conditions that exist here considering his brief residence.

While the News has no information whatever on the subject, we presume that if the commissioners decide to employ an agent the position will be offered to Mr. Williams.

If an agent should be employed, a part of the salary would be paid by the County and a part by the State and Federal Governments.

Sadler Is Playing To Large Crowds

Harley Sadler is here this week with his tent theatre, playing his thirteenth year in Tahoka.

Great throngs of people have been in attendance at the show the first three nights of this week. Monday night, the tent was overflowing, Tuesday nearly every seat was taken and Wednesday the tent was full; and if the show business is any criterion, the depression surely must be over.

Harley Sadler is always welcomed to Tahoka by young and old. He presents clean, high class entertainment such as the masses enjoy, and this year's performances are no exception to the rule.

Makes $102 From Weaving Of Rugs

"Fourteen rugs valued at $102.40 is leisure time well spent, even though making the rugs does require me to stay on the job," says Mrs. A. M. Daniels, home industry demonstrator of Lynn county.

Mrs. Daniels has standardized her work according to the Extension Service methods and has a ready sale for all her work.

Elnora Dulaney And Pete Curry Marry

Miss Elnora Dulaney and Mr. Dewey (Pete) Curry were united in marriage at the Methodist parsonage last Saturday night, Rev. H. C. Smith officiating. The wedding party consisted of Mrs. Harlan Cook, Miss Frances E. Dulaney, Miss Mary Ellen Pesterfeld, Miss Auda Mae Aycox, Horace Edwards, Kenneth Reid, and Jack Speight.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. M. L. Dulaney and has lived here a number of years. She was a member of the graduating class of Tahoka High School last Spring.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Curry and has likewise been a resident of Tahoka most of his life. He graduated in the Tahoka High School with the class of 1931. He is employed this season at the Texas Cotton Growers Gin.

These are splendid popular young people. May life bring them much happiness and prosperity.

ZONE MEETING HELD

There was a B. Y. P. U. zone meeting here last Sunday afternoon but the attendance was very small. Only two unions, Tahoka and Central Church, were represented. Usually these meetings are largely attended by representatives from many B. Y. P. U. organizations.

More Cotton Checks Received

Since our report last week 101 more cotton checks have been received by Emergency County Agent Joe Williams. These 101 checks brought to the farmers of Lynn county $37,669, averaging nearly $373 each.

This brings the number of checks received by Lynn county farmers up to 1510 and the amount of money received up to $479,809.

It is expected that the remainder of the checks will be sent within the next few days, or within a few weeks at the latest, bringing Lynn county's total considerably above the half-million-dollar mark.

GIN 7,308 BALES COTTON HERE

Cotton Coming In Very Rapidly; 2,500 Bales Ginned Here Past Seven Days

More than 2500 bales of cotton have been ginned in Tahoka the past week, according to reports given to us by the five gins here this morning, an average of 500 bales to the gin. The total number of bales ginned here is 7,308, against 4,777 at the same time last week.

All the gins have been running almost continuously, not stopping even for the Sabbath day. Hundreds of bales of cotton have been on the yards practically all the time, but the damp, misty weather Wednesday, which stopped picking for most of the day, gave the gins an opportunity to reduce the number of waiting bales.

The price has been ranging around nine cents and better.

George Mahon In Congress Race

George Mahon of Colorado, the youthful but brilliant district attorney of the thirty-second judicial district, spent Monday night and Tuesday in Tahoka meeting a few former acquaintances and making a lot of new ones. Mr. Mahon expects to be a candidate for congress next year in the new south plains district recently created.

Although rather youthful in appearance, Mahon is in fact a veteran prosecutor, having served as district attorney of the old thirty-second district for more than six years. Sweetwater, Colorado, Big Spring, Snyder and Gall are the five county seat towns lying in the old thirty-second, but Howard county, of which Big Spring is the county seat, was recently taken from the thirty-second and added to the Midland district. Howard county, however, lies within the new congressional district, as do also Mitchell, Scurry, and Borden counties. Sweetwater and Nolan county are in the Abilene congressional district.

Although a very young man when he went into the office of district attorney, being only thirty-three years of age now, Mr. Mahon has made a brilliant record as a prosecutor. Although most affable and pleasing in his social relationships, he is said to be a terror to criminals when he goes into court as a prosecutor of crime. He has the distinction of having sent some of the worst criminals in West Texas to the penitentiary.

While Mr. Mahon has very few acquaintances in Lynn county, yet he says he has a peculiar interest in the county, for when he went about selecting a wife nearly ten years ago he selected one of the teachers in the Tahoka public schools for that (to him) important position, Miss Stevens.

To Mahon's surprise, however, he found here quite a number of citizens who formerly resided in his judicial district, and of course he lost no time in warming up to them.

He expects to make a thorough canvass of the district early next year.

Out of the Frying Pan Teacher—Really, Johnny, your handwriting is terrible. You must learn to write better.

Johnny—Well, if I did, you'd be finding fault with my spelling.

LOCAL CITIZEN THOUGHT DEAD

Body At Clovis, N. Mex., May Be That of J. C. Harris, Missing Since October 6

Mrs. J. C. Harris, residing a few miles east of Tahoka, left for Clovis, New Mexico, Wednesday morning to view a dead body found near that city recently and being held in a morgue there for identification. From descriptions given, Mrs. Harris believed the body to be that of her husband. Sheriff B. L. Parker, who has been assisting her in the investigation, had had no word from her this morning.

The body was found near Friona and taken to Clovis on October 8. The supposition was that the man had been murdered. Harris had been working in a lumber camp near Gallup, N. M. He had been sending money home to the family periodically. The last letter which Mrs. Harris received from him was dated October 6, and the postmaster at Thoreau, the little town where Harris had been receiving his mail, states that Harris has called for no mail there since that date. Mrs. Harris believes that her husband had started homeward and was probably murdered en route. Harris was about 42 years of age and his hair had begun to turn gray. He was formerly an oil field worker and had not spent much time in this county, the family having removed here a year or two ago.

More Excellent Cotton Reported

Talking about good cotton, Joe Bovell has a 45 acre field from which he will gather at least 60 bales, according to latest estimates. This is one and one-third bales per acre. Joe says there are spots in it that will make no telling how much.

A few days ago he was telling Dr. Callaway about his cotton, and he says the doctor made all kinds of fun of him. Then he took the Doctor out to his field, and after seeing this cotton the Doctor declared that not half had yet been told. Joe says the Doctor got down and counted the bolls for a space and thereupon declared that cotton would make two and a half bales per acre.

Some time ago we reported that Louis Perkins would make a bale to the acre over his entire crop. Louis now says that he will harvest 85 and possibly 90 bales from his 80 acres. And Louis is not skimping on the size of his bales either. He had one ginned the other day that weighed over 800 pounds.

But to tell the truth, there are thousands of acres of cotton in Lynn county this year that will make a bale per acre.

OVER 1 1/2 BALES TO ACRE

Add the name of Charles Nelms to the list of record cotton producers! Charles reports that he has already picked seven bales from a small patch of six and one-half acres, and that he will pick at least three more bales from the field. He has a field of 65 acres that he thinks will make 65 bales. Who said this wasn't a great country? Come to Lynn county!

WRIGHT PREACHES AT LYNN

Rev. Hamilton Wright will supply the pulpit at the Methodist Church at New Lynn Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, October 29. This is the last sermon of the conference year. Request is made that all members be present upon this occasion. The pastor leaves for annual conference at Clarendon Nov. 8.

Special Court Session Opens

Judge Gordon B. McGuire opened district court in special session here this morning.

There are a number of important civil suits on the docket for trial which could not be reached at the recent regular term. This special session will continue till December 6, but will be busy only at intervals during this period, as Judge McGuire will be holding court at other places in the meantime.

THEM'S OUR SENTIMENTS

An editor gets desperate once in a while.

After watching the multitudes,
including many delinquent subscribers,
pour into the various stores of the town, emerging with arm loads of dry goods, groceries, and what-have you, the editor of the Colorado Record last week remembered
an old "saw" he had swiped years ago and inserted it on the front page of his paper. It's good enough to reprint; so here it is:

"It is said a certain fastidious lady in Colorado kneds bread with her gloves on.

"The editor of the Records needs bread with his shoes on and his pants on, and unless our subscribers pay up before long we will need bread without anything on.

"There are several hundred readers of this newspaper who are due the publishers on this account. Many of them have been carried through the years of depression and we feel that now is time for making payment. * * *
Your consideration of this matter will be appreciated."

A lot of our own readers are coming in and squaring up their accounts, most of them setting their figures into the future. A lot more of them are going to do so. We know, for we feel it in our bones. Thanks, awfully, folks.

The Fergusons still have the folks guessing. Whether Mrs. Ferguson will run for governor again or will step aside so that Jim may run for the United States Senate is a matter of conjecture. There is talk going around that Jim will try to unhorse Tom Connally and that C. C. McDonald of Wichita Falls will be the Ferguson candidate for governor. McDonald is himself a power on the stump and is one of the shrewdest politicians in Texas. Lots of political fun is in prospect for next year.

DIZZINESS

relieved by Black-Draught

"I decided to take Theford's Black-Draught, as I had been having bilious spells," writes Mr. Charles E. Stevens, of Columbus, Ind. "When I get bilious, I feel sleepy and tired and do not feel like doing my work.
It is hard to tell how I feel, but I do not feel good. I get awfully dizzy. I know then that I had better take something. After I found how good Black-Draught is, that is what I have used. I guess it rids me of the bile, for I feel better—don't feel like I am dropping off to sleep every time I sit down. That, to me, is a very bad feeling."

Now you can get Black-Draught in the form of a SYRUP, for CHILDREN.

Lynn county's marvelous cotton crop this year is the best possible advertisement of the county. We have acres and acres of cotton that will make a bale per acre. We have some cotton that will make a bale and a half per acre, and possibly more. This is no empty boast; we have the goods to show. There are hundreds of pickers here from other parts of the state helping to gather the crop. Some of them are from the black land belt. When they go back home they will tell the news to their neighbors. Every visitor and every tourist passing through the county will carry the news to Mary.
The only trouble is that more people will be drawn to the county than can find employment. Already hundreds of Mexican cotton pickers have been turned away, for the Mexicans came literally by the thousands. But we will welcome the white family that comes to find or to build a home. We have room yet for many thousands of this kind. In spite of the wonderful crop we have,
which we attribute to a kind Providence,
we need more farmers and smaller farms, more home owners
and better homes.

The wise ones are guessing that Jim Farley's visit to Texas "to see John Garner" and to pay tribute to Texas as the banner Democratic state in the Union, had some political significance. They are surmising that Farley hopes for the Roosevelt mantle to fall upon him in 1940. A good politician is long-sighted and lays his plans far ahead, and it may be that Farley has his eye on the Presidency. But 1940 is a long way off and much political water can run under the bridge between now and that time. Jim Farley is no doubt a shrewd politician, but it is significant that two of the Democratic Presidents since
the Civil War, Cleveland and Wilson, were neither politicians in the popular sense, and the third, Roosevelt, is much more than a politician.
We figure that the chances are about ninety-nine to one that Jim Farley will have faded out of the picture long before 1940 arrives.
But who can tell?

Whether Clint Small is merely undertaking to perform a patriotic duty or is endeavoring to make political medicine for himself is not yet quite clear. At any rate he has been prodding Jim Ferguson rather vigorously in the short ribs recently.
He says Jim certainly has a dandy
little dairy down in Bosque county.
With only a hundred cows or such like, Jim has been able to place $22,000 in cash in his dairy fund this year. Clint points out. He gets spot cash for his milk and butter too, for he makes his deposits oftentimes in fifty- and hundred-dollar bills, occasionally a thousand dollars at a whack. Clint may tell us more about it next year.

We doubt if the richest sections of the great black land ever beheld anything that could approach the spectacle that may be seen any day
now in the gin district of Tahoka.
Literally hundreds of wagons filled with cotton and crowding the gin lots, with all the cotton bins full,
and a lot of cotton piled on the ground. Cotton, cotton everywhere, and a thousand gins buzzing day and night. If ever a people had cause to be grateful for bountiful crops, the people of Lynn county certainly should be grateful this year. Thanksgiving Day should be a great occasion in Lynn county
this November.

There is talk of Joseph W. Bailey
Jr. of Dallas as a candidate for the United States Senate next year against Tom Connally. Bailey is keeping in the limelight and seems to enjoy a popularity far beyond his merits. There is magic in the name, with a great many people.
But Tom Connally is popular also—
and he is eloquent, brainy, and resourceful. Bailey will have a Herculean task defeating Tom Connally.

HIGH-SOCIETY JEWEL THIEVES PLAY HIDE-AND-
SEEK IN "MIDNIGHT CLUB"

Characters who thrive on excitement,
seek it every minute of the day and night, make "Midnight Club"
one of the most enjoyable and thrilling pictures of the year. This Paramount picture shows Sunday,
Monday and Tuesday at the English
Theatre with a four-star cast featuring Clive Brook, George Raft, Alison Skipworth and Helen Vinson.
It is the excellence of the cast,
all the way down the line, that makes believable this surging story
by E. Phillips Oppenheim. A master of the melodrama, he has put all the elements of adventure into this tale of London's high-society jewel-thieves and their capture by an American detective.

Supporting the featured players
are such splendid troupers as Sir Guy Standing, Alan Mowbray and Ferdinand Gottschalk.

"Midnight Club" tells of this ingenious band of thieves who make a profession of excitement, looting every famous safe within reach.
They hang out at the "Midnight
Club," a front for their activities.
And here, despite the fact that they are watched day and night by men from the "Yard," they plan their famous robberies. By planting "doubles" in their places at the dance floor table, they are able to get away to manage their thefts, while the "doubles" establish perfect alibis.

But, into the scene come Nick Mason (George Raft), famous New York detective, now retained by Scotland Yard to capture them and break up the band which consists of Clive Brooks, the leader, Helen Vinson, Mowbray and Gottschalk.
Raft decides that the only way he can get evidence is to become a member of the gang.

Accordingly, he loots all the safes that they have marked for their very own, thus forcing them to take him into the band as a means of self protection. Once in, he gets the evidence, but when he goes to use it, finds that he is in love with Helen Vinson. Then he has to make his choice between his duty to the "Yard" and his love for her.

See "Midnight Club" if you like a rapidly paced, highly dramatic story of adventure, enacted by a brilliant cast and splendidly produced.
It is one of Oppenheim's best stories and the film moves along at a headlong pace to become one of the unforgettable pictures of the year.

Crime Decreasing Grand Jury Finds

Below is a report made by the recent grand jury to District Judge Gordon B. McGuire:

"To the Honorable Judge of said Court:

"We, your grand jury for the above term of said court, report to you that during our deliberations we have found and returned into said court nine felony bills of indictment. However, in several of said bills we have included more than one defendant that they might be tried jointly, thereby reducing the cost of indictments and trials.

We are glad to report to you that in misdemeanor matters very little of the time of the grand jury has been taken, due to the splendid work of the county attorney and the sheriff in disposing of these matters without the aid of grand jury investigation. As a consequence of such work by such officers the grand jury has not found any misdemeanor bills of indictment.

Our investigation reveals that those who may have a desire to violate the law in this county are beginning to realize that should they do so they are likely to be caught and punished for their crime; that they are receiving no sympathy from the officers nor the juries that try them. To let the crooks know that their depredations will not be tolerated in this county is the best way we know to enforce the law, protect our personal and property rights, and make Lynn county a desirable place in which to rear our families.

We are pleased to report to you that in our opinion this county is as nearly free of crime as might be expected.

We desire to express our appreciation of the fact that every bill of indictment in which an arrest has been made with the exception of one case, returned by us at our first sitting at this term of court, has already been tried and disposed of in a satisfactory manner.

We wish to express our thanks to the District and County attorneys, the sheriff's department, the bailiffs, and your Honor for all assistance given us during our deliberations to the end that our work has been a pleasant task instead of a burden.

Our investigation reveals that in many precincts in the county where a stock law exists prohibiting the cattle from running at large, said law is being violated. Reports have come to us that much damage has heretofore been done in such districts by reason of the citizens permitting their cattle to run at large. We call this to the attention of the various officers of the county whose duty it is to see that such law is enforced, and recommend that the stock laws of the county be enforced just the same as any other law on the statute books.

Having completed our labors we respectfully request that we be by the court discharged for the term.

JNO. HECK, Foreman of the Grand Jury.

mander; George E. Hughes of Austin, department adjutant; A. Garland Adair of Mc Camey, department historian; George E. Broome of Amarillo, alternate national committeeman; M. J. Benefield of Brady, fifth division commander; G. O. Spear of Childress, 18th District executive committeeman.

Since Snyder is on the extreme southern tip of the district, many legionaires are planning to attend from adjoining districts. The host city is not far from the center of West Texas, 80 miles from Lubbock and Abilene, 40 miles from Sweetwater, 65 miles from Big Spring, 120 miles from San Angelo. Three state highways and one national highway meet here, and the Santa Fe and R. S. & P. railroads traverse the city limits.

A number of reservations have already been made at local hotels. The housing committee reports that many homes have already been offered for use of delegates, and they are anticipating no trouble in handling the expected crowd of 700 to 1,000 visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hancock and Miss Vidie Steger of Petersburg are visiting here this week.

Mr. W. G. Jasper received a fractured hip Monday night when his team became frightened and ran, throwing a bale of cotton against his back. He was taken immediately to the Lubbock Sanitarium.

Little Betty Louise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Edwards, has been quite sick recently.

Harvey Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Bates, suffered injuries of the thigh when he jumped from a pony Sunday. He was treated at the West Texas Hospital.

Day Old Infant Buried Tuesday

The one-day old infant of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Cook of Wells died in a sanitarium in Lubbock early Tuesday morning and was buried here that afternoon. Funeral services were conducted at the cemetery, Rev. Lawrence Hays officiating.

The child was born in the sanitarium Monday.

Wash Hickerson of Three Lakes was among those who dropped into the News office Wednesday and renewed his subscription. Wash had just received a cotton plow-up check a few days before for $1,800. He said his entire cotton crop last year brought him less than $500.00 net. There are hundreds of farmers in Lynn county who could relate a similar experience.

Baptist Services Are Announced

We had a good day last Sunday. There were a few over 200 in Sunday school but a smaller attendance than usual at the Baptist Training Service, due perhaps to a death in our church family. There were three additions to the church at the morning hour. All of our visiting friends and strangers have a warm welcome to attend the services of the church. There are many strangers among us now, that we are anxious to help and be a blessing to while they reside in the community. The pastor will preach Sunday morning on "The Greatest Problem Now Facing Our People." Sunday evening he will speak on "The Seven Bowls of Divine Wrath." Let every member of our church be in S. S. and in the preaching service Sunday morning; in the training service and at the preaching hour Sunday evening. Bring those visiting friends; they need the fellowship and the message the church offers. May we act the part of the Good Samaritan now, while such large opportunities are about us everywhere.

"Come this way and we shall do thee good."—Lawrence Hays, pastor.

ALL SEW CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. F. E. REDWINE

The All-Sew Club met with Mrs. F. E. Redwine October 19th. After sewing and chatting for an hour, we elected the following officers: Mrs. Roy Leslie, president; Mrs. J. A. South, vice-president; Mrs. A. L. Lockwood, treasurer; Mrs. H. C. Story, secretary; Mrs. C. A. Thomas, reporter.

Delicious refreshments were served to thirteen members.—Reporter.

Many Marriages Performed Here

Quite a number of young couples have been married in Lynn county during the past week. In addition to those recorded elsewhere in this paper are the following.

Mr. Wernie C. Macker and Miss Lorene Hagens of Wilson were united in marriage last Saturday by Rev. Thomas D. O'Brien, pastor of St. Joseph's Church in Slaton.

Henson Shelton and Miss Madeline Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Jackson, who formerly resided in Tahoka, operating a store in the gin district, were also married last Saturday, Rev. H. C. Smith pastor of the Methodist Church here, officiating. This ceremony was performed in the office of the county clerk. These young people reside in the Dixie community.

Another couple married here Saturday were W. W. Baker and Miss Jessie Orr. The wedding ceremony was performed by Uncle Ben Rogers, justice of the peace. We failed to learn where these young people reside.

Uncle Ben also officiated at the marriage of a Mexican couple Saturday. These were Geronimo Garcia and Hermina Garcia.

On Wednesday of this week Uncle Ben presided at the marriage of G. C. Hatley and Miss Edna Huffman residing out on Route 4.

Last Saturday seems to have been a very busy day for Dan Cupid. But H. C. Story declares that he has plenty of marriage licenses left yet.

Interesting Program At P. T. A. Meeting

At the last meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association held in the high school auditorium on Wednesday afternoon of last week, a most interesting program was rendered.

A piano solo, The Music Box, by Miss Dottie Turrentine was much enjoyed.

Mrs. J. B. Walker made a most excellent talk on "What do we mean by The Exceptional Child?"

"What educational advantages and vocational possibilities are there for the physically handicapped?" was ably discussed by Supt. J. B. Pace Jr.

Much interest is being shown in the contest being staged, the room having the most parents present receiving a prize of one dollar. Mr. Carter's room and Miss Childs' room tied the past month.

Kid Singers Meet Sunday At Central

The South Plains Kid Singing Convention will meet at Central Baptist Church Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, according to Horace G. Krebbs of New Lynn, president. In addition to many other singers, the Second Chapter of the Kid organization of Anton is expected to be present. All are urged to bring their song books, new or old.

At the business meeting, officers for the ensuing year will be elected. The present officers are: Horace G. Krebbs, New Lynn, president; Horace Lindley, Littlefield, vice-president; and Fay Jones, New Lynn, secretary-treasurer.

Uncle Ben Unites Transient Couple

Uncle Ben, J. P., tied the nuptial knot for a couple of strangers at his office here last Thursday afternoon. He didn't know whence they came nor whether they went, but he was sure they were old enough to know what they were about. The bride declared that the groom had been married three times already, and the groom said the bride could show almost as good a record—she had been married twice.

Uncle Ben is usually game enough, but at the conclusion of the wedding ceremony, when the opportunity was offered, he politely declined to kiss the bride.

BAPTIST W. M. S. WILL PACK BOX FOR ORPHANS HOME

The W. M. S. of the Baptist Church will pack a box for Buckner's Orphan Home Monday, Oct. 30. All who wish to contribute old garments or new materials are asked to bring or send them to the circle meeting nearest them.

Mrs. H. P. Caviness.

WOMEN AT NEW HOME HONOR MRS. J. B. LOWE

On Wednesday, Oct. 18, a number of ladies met at the home of Mrs. Henry Heck in New Home to honor Mrs. J. B. Lowe, who is leaving us soon, and to finish a friendship quilt for Mrs. Lowe. The quilt was quilted and presented to her, showing in a small way our love and appreciation for her and the good she has planted in our community.

At noon a buffet luncheon was served to and enjoyed by the following: The honoree, Mrs. Lowe; Mesdames R. H. Bates, J. H. Newman, Henry Newman, Phillips, Joe Poindexter, Truman Balch, Guy Wilhoit, Virgil Ratliffe, J. H. Kuykendall, F. H. Hancock, L. N. Hancock, Edgar Womack of Bonham, W. S. Perry, G. B. Sherrod, P. W. Goad, Cecil Bradshaw, Loyd R. McCormick, Kornegay, Grandmother Broughton, D. R. Magee, Henry Heck, Misses Louise and Beulah Hancock, Luella Newman, and Kathrine Hancock.

Billie Moody of Terrell was a week end visitor of G. W. Knoy and the J. M. Johnson family. Mr. Moody and Mr. Knoy are cousins and were boyhood companions, but they had not seen each other for thirty-seven years. It was a happy time they had together.

Mrs. Allene Taylor Robinette has accepted a position with Thomas Bros. Drug Company, beginning her services yesterday.

S. L. Forrester of Lamesa was a business visitor in Tahoka Tuesday and Wednesday.

FOR SALE OR TRADE

ATTENTION FARMER!

I am selling land on Cotton Plain, west of Pep, in Bailey, Lamb and Cochran counties. Why RENT when you can BUY, and the cotton payment is less than rent. 160 acres of good row land for 160 bales of cotton. Pay every other bale each year until you pay 10 bales and if you fail on account of weather condition we will carry you over until the year you make more than 20 bales; then you pay every other bale until you catch up with your carry over. You can buy bales on the future debt at any time with a bale of cotton. There is no interest to pay at any time. This is a rare opportunity to own a home (without the dread of losing it.) This land will go in a hurry, so come in at once and see us.

We also have improved farms for sale with small cash payment and balance on easy terms. Mr. Landowner, if you have some land that you want sold we would like to have you list it with us.

At 8:00 o'clock Sunday morning the ordinance of the Lord's supper was administered by the Rev. Smith and Rev. H. L. Thurston of Wilson, who, following the communion, conducted a most remarkable consecration service. His message was founded on the Rally theme "Consecration" and was truly an inspired one. Two of his young hearers came and volunteered for life service and many others came reverently and seriously, to re-dedicate and re-consecrate themselves as Christians. The service was so compelling that it lasted an unbelievable two hours, during which the attention and interest were almost breathless.

At the church school hour, Supt. J. B. Pace spoke appropriately on the subject of "Youth"—its characteristics and accomplishments. The lesson hour for the visitors, who were to have been taught by Mrs. Suddarth, Counselor of the local Young People's Division, was given over to a problem discussion conducted by the Conference President, Rev. Woodrow Adcock, who came in unexpectedly at that hour. Mr. Adcock is from Haskell, a student in McMurry College, and although a surprise visitor, was a most welcome and honored guest of the District on this occasion. He was given an opportunity for several brief talks during his stay, and conveyed to everyone an impression of his sincerity and his fitness for the high place which he holds.

Another sermon on "Consecration" was heard at 11 o'clock when our own pastor, Rev. Smith, quite surpassed his usual (likewise unusual) splendid sermons. The audience must have meant much to him, for the deeply spiritual and inspirational content of his message made it one long to be remembered. Literally dozens of his hearers eagerly spoke their praise and appreciation.

The final devotional service was led by J. D. Donaldson Jr. of Tahoka, who added another deeply meaningful note to the rich list the Rally had already offered. His talk was based on the scripture: "Here am I, send me," and was from the first to last word, deeply spiritual but at the same time, most practical. The searching question, "What shall I do with my life?" will not easily be forgotten.

Following the business hour, presided over by the District President, C. T. Jackson of Asbury, Lubbock, a beautiful message of music was brought by Miss Eitabel Tilly of Lubbock, with her violin, accompanied by Miss Roma Gause. This number was certainly appreciated and enjoyed.

The Rally account would not be complete without mention of the fun hour Saturday night. After the Vespers, the crowd proceeded out into the T-Bar where a prairie schooner had been rigged up, and a "chuck-wagon feed" was ably and affably dispensed by Messrs. Happy Smith, Aubra Cade, and G. M. Reid, assisted also by Mrs. Reid. Weiners, sauer-kraut, buns, coffee and gingerbread comprised the menu which was speedily and thoroughly disposed of. A delightful recreational hour of games, etc., to complete the evening, was then enjoyed to the limit.

Miss Gertrude Evans of Meadow, the District Director of Young People's work, was kept busy in her capable official capacity. Lester Prater is the enthusiastic president of the local unit.

For the evening hour at the church, Rev. Smith taught a fine lesson from Luke 22:7-22, the narrative of the Last Supper and Christ's betrayal.

This District meeting has been a source of uplift and inspiration to all our young folk and it is hoped that it may extend to the whole church in a renewal of efforts and a greater loyalty for the last few weeks of the Conference year.

PIONEER LADY PASSED AWAY AFTER LONG ILLNESS

therefore nearly sixty-one years of age. At the age of fifteen years she united with the Presbyterian church and remained a communicant of that denomination until 1911, when she united with the Baptist church here and was a devout member of the same up till the time of her death.

On June 9, 1889, young Miss Harrison became the bride of A. R. McGonagill, and these two walked together as devoted companions for more than forty-four years. Of their union, five children were born, four daughters and one son, as follows: Mrs. G. R. Milliken, Mrs. Gladys Stokes, Mrs. Ward Aken, Miss At-tye Belle McGonagill, all of this county, and A. H. McGonagill of Santa Anna, California.

Mr. and Mrs. McGonagill removed to Lynn county in 1905, purchasing land and building their home eight miles east of Tahoka. They have seen this country converted from a strictly range country into one of the richest farming belts of Texas. They have seen Tahoka grow from a mere frontier trading point to its present proportions. They have seen the population of the county increase from practically nothing to more than twelve thousand. And they have had no little part in this work of development and progress.

Surviving Mrs. McGonagill are her husband, who was himself too ill of heart trouble to attend the funeral, the five children named above, and nine grand-children.

A quiet, unassuming woman, devoted to her home and her family, patient in suffering and always considerate of others, Mrs. McGonagill had accumulated through the years a great host of friends, who were deeply grieved at her departure. The News joins these many friends in expressions of sympathy to the bereaved family.

To Whom It May Concern:

We, the members of the Young People's Division of the Tahoka Methodist church, desire to publicly express our thanks to our friends in the church and community who so generously gave of their hospitality and other material donations toward the success of the District Rally to which we were host last week-end. Without your co-operation our efforts at entertainment would have failed utterly, and we want you to know that it was thoroughly appreciated, and that we gladly share with you the praise and pleasure expressed by so many of the visitors. We hope to merit a continuance of your interest and assistance in our work, and again, we thank you! Sincerely yours,
Y. P. Division, M. E. Church, by Lester Prater, President.
