NEW H. D. CLUB AGENT COMING

Miss Harrison Resigns; Miss Sylvia Robb, Lewisville, Named Her Successor

At a recent meeting of the commissioners court, Miss El Fieda Harrison tendered her resignation as home demonstration agent to take effect today, December 21, in order that she might accept a position as H. D. agent at Albany, Shackelford county. Miss Millie Halsey, who was the first demonstration agent Lynn county ever had, has been the agent at Albany the past four years, but she has resigned and is leaving the service.

Miss Harrison will leave for her new post of duty tomorrow, Friday. She has been the agent here the past two years. She has worked hard at the job and has given faithful and efficient service. Many friends here and throughout the county regret that she is leaving.

Miss Harrison's successor, however, is already here and busy acquainting herself with the work. Miss Sylvia Robb.

Miss Robb holds a B. S. degree from the East Texas State Teachers College at Commerce. For the past four years she has been teaching in public schools. She comes from Lewisville, Denton county, where she has been primary teacher, to Tahoka. She was born and reared at Enloe in Delta county, the former home of Miss Myrtle Murray, the district agent for all this immediate territory. Miss Murray says that while Miss Robb has had no experience in this work yet she is well qualified by training and temperament to make a most efficient agent. Possessed of an attractive personality and pleasing address, she has already made a most favorable impression here. There is little doubt but that she will take up the work and carry it on in a most efficient manner.

In leaving, Miss Harrison asks that we express her thanks to the business men of the county, to the club women and girls, and to the people throughout the county generally for their cooperation and interest in this work.

Farmer In Jail On Liquor Charge

R. E. Thompson, a farmer, residing a few miles east of Tahoka, was arrested Tuesday afternoon and placed in jail when Sheriff B. L. Parker and other officers raided his premises in search for liquor.

They found fifteen half-gallon jars of whiskey hidden away in a seed bin on Thompson's premises.

On the same afternoon the sheriff and his deputies also raided a house near the railroad tracks in Tahoka occupied by a negro, James (Red) Porter. A total of three and a half gallons of whiskey was found on and about his premises, in many containers. Porter was likewise placed in jail. Quite a number of other negroes were rounded up at the same time and held for questioning. It is said that several of them signed written statements involving violations of the Dean liquor law by Porter.

Officers express the opinion that the whiskey captured was intended for the Christmas trade. The charges will be investigated by the grand jury which convenes in February.

Bill Thompson came around Wednesday morning to tell us to take that Farmall tractor ad. out. He had already sold the tractor and had two other calls for it, he declared. Bill says it "short" does pay to advertise."

R. D. Morris, a pioneer of Lynn county, left Friday for Colorado, where he expects to make his home with relatives. Mrs. Morris died and was buried here a few weeks ago. Many friends will regret that Mr. Morris is leaving.

LYNN GINNING RECORD HIGH

County Stands Eleventh In State On Dec. 1 Report Made By Government

Only ten counties in all Texas had ginned more cotton of the 1933 crop prior to December 1, 1933 than Lynn county had ginned, according to the Government report published in the daily press last Sunday. Only two counties in all West Texas led Lynn county. These were Jones and Lubbock. Jones county stood third in the state, only Ellis and Hill surpassing her. When the final report comes in, Jones county will certainly stand as high as second and probably first. Lubbock county stands eighth in the state and will doubtless climb to a higher position on the final report.

The leading cotton ginning counties of Texas are given as follows:

Ellis	88,162
Hill	85,683
Jones	85,630
Nueces	81,239
Williamson	79,707
McLennan	73,919

Collin	68,377
Lynn	60,854
Wilbarger	57,442
Fannin	54,834
Hunt	53,835
Knox	52,525
Haskell	52,033

Lee Rounds Out 12 Years On Job

W. M. Lee says that when last Sunday morning dawned, he had been on the job as night watchman in the city of Tahoka for exactly twelve years. He entered upon his duties in this capacity on December 17, 1921. He has been off duty only a few days during all this time, possibly two or three days each year. For at least 4,320 nights he has trod the streets of Tahoka guarding the property of the business men of the town against thieves who would break through and steal.

Mr. Lee says that sometimes they have succeeded in breaking into stores and stealing the property of honest business men in spite of his vigilance, but there is no telling how many thefts and burglaries have been prevented by his presence on the streets.

Tahoka Quartet Sings At Lubbock

Upon invitation, the ladies quartet of the Baptist Church here, consisting of Meses. R. C. Wells, O. H. Nelson, K. R. Durham, and H. P. Caveness, with Mrs. J. K. Applewhite as piano accompanist, sang at the Baptist Church in Lubbock last Sunday morning and also at the men's big down-town Bible Class.

They were accompanied by R. E. Key, director of music at the Baptist Church here. Mr. Key says that the ladies "made a hit," responding to encores at each appearance. They were much pleased with the hospitality extended them.

Mrs. Stokes Makes Insurance Record

Mrs. Gladys Stokes attended a state meeting of the Southwestern Life Insurance Agents at Dallas last week, returning home Sunday.

Mrs. Stokes says that she again won the honor of being a continuous weekly producer for the past year. This is two years in succession that Mrs. Stokes has made such a record. In fact this record covers a period of two years and twenty weeks, a record of which she is justly proud.

Merchants Greet Readers Of News

The publishers of the News are gratified that new subscriptions have been coming in steadily during the past two months. We have had no collector on the field and yet hardy a day passes but that one or more new subscribers come in and have their names added to our list.

Many of those who were in arrears have also come in and paid up. Lynn county is made up of fine people, folks, fine people.

Rural Housing Survey Planned

A rural survey of housing conditions in 25 Texas counties is under way for completion in January as a preliminary step in developing a public works program for improvement of the farm home and its equipment, according to Mrs. Bernice Claytor, home improvement specialist in the Texas A. & M. Extension Service.

Lynn county is one of the 25 in which this survey is being made, and upon the recommendation of Miss El Fieda Harrison, the retiring home demonstration agent, Mrs. H. M. Snowden has been appointed as county supervisor, while Mrs. Garland Pennington of Tahoka, Mrs. L. R. McCormick of Wilson, and Mrs. Waldo McLaurin of O'Donnell have been named as field workers.

The survey is expected to tabulate size of family; condition of house; number and size of rooms; facilities available such as sanitary toilets, water supply, plumbing and electric equipment; painting and repairs and additions needed; whether families will be willing to have any or all of these facilities installed provided on liberal credit with amortization; and the ownership status, liability to foreclosure, and willingness of lien holders to agree to refrain from foreclosure. From the obtained data will be figured out the most needed feasible improvements by regions, and the best ways of financing same.

Liquor Is Taken; Man Is In Jail

Deputy Sheriff Ed Redwine and City Marshal Milt Finch acting on a tip they had received, drove out to the Petty community late Sunday afternoon and searched the premises of Buck Sealey, residing on the old Petty Ranch, and in an out-house they found two five-gallon kegs and 25 half-gallon jars of whiskey. They also found a couple of barrels of mash.

They arrested Sealey and brought him to jail, charging him with a violation of the state liquor laws. The case will be investigated by the grand jury which meets in February.

Compressor Blows Up At Brownfield

The air pressure tank at the Snappy Filling Station blew up with a resounding crash last Saturday morning when the popoff valve failed to work. Fortunately no customers were there at the time and the attendant, Barney Holgate, while not three feet away from it had a concrete wall between himself and the tank.

Both ends of the tank were blown off, and it was ripped from end to end as if sheared with great scissors. Buildings felt the jar for blocks around, and some reported hearing the explosion several miles out in the country. Not much other damage was done to the station, according to the owner, Homer Winston.—Brownfield Herald

TWO SAW WAY OUT OF JAIL

Men Charged With Burglary At O'Donnell Make Escape From Local Jail

Two more prisoners sawed out of jail here Saturday night. They were W. E. Bush and Cecil Miller, brought here by Sheriff B. L. Parker from Santa Fe, New Mex., about two weeks ago. They were charged with the burglary of the O'Donnell depot a couple of years ago.

One or the other of these men evidently had one or more saws concealed about the person when they were placed in jail, the sheriff thinks. Some criminals are so adept at concealing saws in their clothing or shoes that sometimes the most painstaking examination will fail to discover the concealed weapons, officers say.

Air Show Staged Here Last Sunday

Many people enjoyed the aerial show given here last Saturday and Sunday afternoons by the Jess Bristow Aerial Shows, which consisted of stunt flying and a parachute jumping exhibition. Many passengers were taken up also for a ride and a view of our little city from the air.

The climax of the show was a leap from an airplane at an altitude of 2,000 feet by little Arlie Davenport with his parachute. Although the wind was a little high, he made a beautiful descent.

The kids as well as the grown folks enjoyed the entire performance very much.

Wells Store Leads In Machine Sales

R. C. Wells of the Wells Hardware says that his house tied with Haskell for first place in towns of this class in the sale of Voss Washing Machines the past year, according to a report made to him by the Voss factory people recently.

Mr. Wells explains that in all such contests towns are classified as to size, and each town competes with only those towns in its classification. The fact that Tahoka won over all other towns of its class in the entire country except Haskell, with which it tied, reflects the marvelous business revival that has come to this section.

Mr. Wells states that he has also enjoyed an enormous sale of Philco radios this fall.

Red Cross Appeals For Roll Signers

Lynn county is still behind in her quota of the annual Red Cross Roll Call.

The following communities have already filled their quotas: Tahoka, O'Donnell, Draw, and New Lynn.

There are other communities that have done very little or nothing for the Red Cross Roll Call, and yet they have families in their communities that need help. Won't you remember them this Christmas by giving a dollar to the Red Cross Roll Call? The Red Cross has helped the people of this county wonderfully, and it has kept many families from suffering. While you are thinking of your own families, won't you think of the Red Cross Roll Call and give a dollar? Now, do your part to help some family less fortunate than you. Act now!

B. P. MADDOX, chairman Lynn County Chapter of American Red Cross.

H. W. Calaway, mayor of Draw, was a business visitor in Tahoka Saturday. The Judge declares that Franklin D. is about the greatest President these United States ever had. He is beginning to think that his erstwhile idol, Governor Alfred E. Smith, of "side-walk-all-about-town" fame, is not quite so hot.

OUTLAW KILLED IN GUN BATTLE

"Black"e Wheelus Shot By Sheriff B. L. Parker During Battle In Arkansas

Sheriff B. L. Parker and a plain clothes officer of Texarkana engaged in a gun battle with Jim (Black-e) Wheelus at a shack in an oil field just over the Arkansas line near Texarkana last Thursday night in which Wheelus was mortally wounded.

Mr. Parker had gone to Texarkana looking for another man, who he was informed, was in the oil field near Texarkana. In the city he picked up a personal friend and the plain clothes man and they drove out to the shack in the oil field known as Razorback. Just as the car stopped a man slightly opened the door of the shack and looked out, and about the time Parker stepped out of the car the man opened fire. Parker returned the fire and hastened around the front end of the car in order to place the car between him and his assailant. Upon reaching the other side of the car he dropped down and continued to fire at his assailant from beneath the car. The plain clothes man in the meantime had also gotten out of the car on the side opposite the house and had begun firing himself. When the battle was over the man who opened fire on the officers lay in his shack mortally wounded. In his hand he gripped a .45 calibre automatic pistol from which nine shots had been fired. Parker's friend, who was unarmed, had in the meantime taken refuge under a concrete culvert. Other residents of Razorback, hearing the shooting, phoned the sheriff's office in Texarkana and several officers hastened to the scene. Mr. Parker, accompanied by a deputy sheriff and one or two others, placed the wounded man in Parker's car and took him to a hospital.

On the way to the hospital the wounded man called Parker's name

Money Is Offered For Meteorites

Prof. H. H. Nininger of the Museum of Natural History, Denver, Colorado, was in Tahoka Monday, in search of meteorites which are used in his researches.

He exhibited a very interesting collection of these rare specimens which he has collected from various parts of the world. Some of the specimens were of solid steel, while others contained only small particles of this metal.

Meteorites are of use only as subjects of study, but for this purpose they are highly prized and good prices are offered for them in order to induce farmers and others to keep on the lookout for them.

In seeking for meteorites, look for dark, heavy stones. Meteorites may be of any shape, but are usually irregular and in most cases the surface is dented. They are not porous.

A number of farmers in this and neighboring states have received very good prices for their meteorites. If you should pick up a piece of stone or metallic substance that you think might be a meteorite, bring it to The News office and perhaps we can determine whether or not it would be worthwhile to send it in.

Mr. Nininger thinks it probable that meteors could be easily found in this section. He says that a half dozen were recently found near Clovis, New Mexico.

Mr. Nininger says that he has collected more meteors this year than any other one man ever collected in the world's history. Besides being a curator of the Museum of Natural History, he is secretary of the International Society for Research on Meteorites, and is director of Nininger Laboratories.

Three Train Loads Of Hearst Steer On Feed At Brownfield

As this is written Tuesday, the third train load of W. R. Hearst steers from his ranch in old Mexico have arrived, the last train having unloaded its burden Monday. R. L. Harris, local Santa Fe agent informed us Saturday that the last two loads had arrived in fine shape, and were doing nicely.

Mountains of feed have been accumulated over at the pens, and is still pouring in by farm wagons and trucks each day. They will not have a bit of trouble in getting all the feed of every description they need. Some two dozen hands are employed all the time to look after and feed this big herd, and by the first of April these steers will begin leaving for California and other markets, and we are sure that with the experienced men in charge, these steers will top the market again next spring as last at both Los Angeles and San Francisco.—Brownfield Herald

Editor Remembered By Edith Women

There are some thorns and lots of roses along an editor's pathway. It wasn't flowers, however, that the Edith 4-H Club presented us last Saturday afternoon. It was something more substantial—a magnificent gift of canned edibles. These goods had been canned by the ladies of the club and a delegation of the membership made a surprise call at the News office Saturday afternoon and presented them to the editor.

STATED MEETINGS of Tahoka Lodge No. 1041 the first Tuesday night in each month at 7:30. Members urged to attend. Visitors welcome.

CHAS. V. NELMS, Sec.

The following is a list of the items that made up the gift:

- 1 can of pumpkin packed by Mrs. Henry Douthit;
- 1 can of corn, by Mrs. S. H. Holland;
- 2 cans of snap beans, by Mrs. T. I. Tippit;
- 1 can of sausage, by Mrs. H. O. Hargett;
- 1 can of chicken spread, by Mrs. J. T. Womens;
- 1 can of fried chicken, by Mrs. J. K. Nowlin;
- 1 jar of tomato preserves, by Mrs. V. A. Botkin;
- 1 jar of cranberry sauce, by Mrs. Garland Pennington.

The News has always been a friend and champion of home demonstration work. This work has been worth untold thousands of dollars to the people of this county. We are always glad, therefore, to give a liberal amount of space to the activities of the various clubs, the county council, and the home demonstration agent.

It will take a long, long time for us to forget the kindness of the Edith Club in remembering the editor so generously.

BEFORE COLUMBUS
American history holds no mystery deeper than the one which surrounds the activities of white men in America before the arrival of Columbus.

It is established clearly by now that certain Viking explorers did get to the North American continent a century or more ahead of Columbus. They slid down the coast of Nova Scotia as far as the Chesapeake, and in at least one spot they fought a deadly battle with the Indians.

They also reported to have landed on the southern shore of Hudson Bay, and there is a partly substantiated legend that an adventurous band went overland from there as far as Minnesota.

All of this is called to mind by the report of two archeologists that the prehistoric copper mines of the upper peninsula of Michigan, worked by the Mound Builders countless centuries ago, also were worked by the Vikings.

The Mound Builders, whose civilization covered a large part of the Ohio and Mississippi valleys got their copper from Michigan. Then they vanished, and the roving Indian tribe who succeeded them seems to have been ignorant of the use of copper. But the archeologists now believe that bands of Vikings somehow got to the shore of Lake Superior and took ore from the mines which the Mound Builders had abandoned.

The story is as fascinating mystery as American history affords.—Exchange.

Chester Connolly returned Friday from Corpus Christi accompanied by Mrs. Connolly and little daughter, who had spent several weeks in the gulf city. Mr. Connolly says that when he went down, he left in a Chevrolet car at 7 A. M. and reached Corpus Christi, a distance of 551 miles, in time for supper. He claims the Chevrolet is some car.

A PECULIAR EPITAPH

While in the News office a few days ago Sid Sanders drew from his pocket a paper on which was written a copy of a strange epitaph taken from an old tombstone in the White Rock Cemetery near Waco a few weeks ago by his wife's sister, Mrs. Carl A. Trautschold. The inscription had doubtless been placed on the stone at the request of the man whose remains lay beneath the stone and is as follows:

If you should stop as you pass by, Remember as you are now so was I.

As I am now you soon shall be, So make preparation to follow me.

SOUR GRAPES

Ex-Senator Jim Reed of Missouri has joined ex-Governor Al Smith in criticizing the Roosevelt program. He was quoted a few days ago as opposing the "piling up of the national debt" on the grounds that there was danger of ultimately breaking down national credit. He said further that the government was interfering with every man's business, "assuming that the business of the United States can best be conducted by a group of gentlemen who have never transacted any business in their lives." Then he took a shot at "inflation," remarking that "Any man who wants to pay a one dollar debt with a fifty-cent dollar is not honest."

The trouble with this last criticism is that it does not hit the mark. Nobody objects to paying an honest debt with an honest dollar. What the people do object to is being compelled to pay a one dollar debt with a 200-cent dollar. When most of the debts in the United States were contracted, prices were high and the dollar was cheap. Now, when these debts must be paid, prices are low and the dollar is dear. "Inflationists" merely seek to restore the purchasing power of the dollar to about the same level on which it moved when these debts were contracted. You hear a lot from the big financiers and their political puppets about the "dishonest 50-cent dollar" but you never hear a word from them about the dishonest 200-cent dollar.

We think the Roosevelt administration is making some blunders. We think that some of the Roosevelt "remedies" will turn out to be hurtful rather than helpful. But when a disappointed politician vehemently criticizes everything the head of his party does, we write it down as a case of sour grapes. Both Al Smith and Jim Reed wanted to be President. They were disappointed. But as for Jim Reed, he is running true to form. He never ceased to criticize Woodrow Wilson from the day he moved into the White House till the day of his death.

HELP THE HOMELESS

The editor of the News has received a communication from W. A. Nicholas, superintendent of the West Texas Children's Aid and Welfare Association, with headquarters at Abilene, in which he says:

"Over 75 little folk, 50 of them babies, have called to us to help them, by way of a good Christian home, where they would have a chance to grow into worthy, happy men and women. We have never turned a baby away, but because of lack of money to pay the little bills we have been compelled to ask some of the older ones to wait—how long we do not know."

If any of our readers wish to do a kindly Christian act during this Christmas season, this is their opportunity. Brother Nicholas is in the laudable business of finding good homes for homeless children and he has placed thousands of children in the last fifteen or twenty years. However, it takes quite a bit of money to carry on the work and if you can contribute a dollar or five dollars or any other sum it will be greatly appreciated. The News will be glad to forward any contributions that may be turned in to us.

We are not very familiar with the terms of the contract which the Government is asking farmers to sign agreeing to reduce the cotton acreage next year but we understand that the Government is to deal only with the land-owners, and the program has been frequently dubbed as a landlord's proposition. As a result many tenants are fearful that they will be left out in the cold. Since the landlords will agree to reduce their cotton acreage, many tenants fear that they will be unable to procure land to farm. There seems to be much basis for such fears. If such is the case, we are afraid that this new program will prove to be a boom-crang. Nine-tenths of the tenant farmers are not fitted and qualified to do much else but farm, and in the second place they would probably be unable to find work even if they were well fitted and qualified to do it. While this program will doubtless decrease the size of the cotton crop and thereby boost the price, yet it may have the effect of throwing many men with families out of employment and thereby aggravate the unemployment problem.

The publishers of the Mitchell County News offered an apology to its readers last week for the "crowded condition of the paper, and then it explains as follows: "The paper should have contained eight pages this week but a great deal of the advertising matter was received so late that it was impossible for us to get out the extra pages." We sympathize with you boys. We have been there too.

We have it on reliable authority that Highway No. 84 will be improved as far as Tahoka as well as from here to the state line. However the commissioners have not been requested to secure any right of way for it and are only arranging from here west.—Brownfield Herald.

Relieves Women's Pains
Here is an example of how Cardul has helped thousands of women:
"I was very thin and pale," writes Mrs. F. H. Scott, of Roanoke, Va. "I suffered from weakness and a severe pain in my back. This pain unnerved me, and I did not feel like doing my work. I did not care to go places, and felt worn, tired, day after day."
"My mother had taken Cardul, and on seeing my condition she advised me to try it. I have never regretted doing so. I took three bottles and it built me up. I gained in weight, my color was better and the pain left my back. I am stronger than I had been in some time."
Cardul, the purely vegetable medicine which so many women take and recommend, is sold by local druggists.

Jno. N. Thomas Asks Return To State Legislature; Cites Record Past Year

Local Man's District Composed Of Crosby, Lubbock, Hockley, Cochran, Lynn, Terry, Yoakum, Gaines And Dawson Counties.

In making my announcement for re-election, I want to thank the people of the entire District for their support in my last campaign. I am very grateful for the cooperation and suggestions that have come to me, assisting me in my work as your representative. I realized, when I was elected a member of the 43rd Legislature, that I had assumed a great responsibility, coming in at a time when the people of our State and Nation were discouraged, confidence was lost, finances in State and Federal Government were low in all Departments; industries were almost paralyzed, and we, as members of the Legislature, had many things to deal with during the 43rd which is a Constitutional right. I feel that I am in a position, with the knowledge of the work of the House and the friendship of the body, to render you a better service in the 44th Legislature.

I promised the people in my campaign that I would stand for the interest of the cause of education in our higher institutions and in our public and rural schools. It seemed at the beginning of the year that it would be impossible to make the demands and carry on this important work, but I am glad to note that I have had a part in helping set aside revenues that have given us a fairly good apportionment per capita, which will enable us to carry on this important work. We were also instrumental in helping put over a Rural Aid Bill that I think, under the circumstances, is fairly satisfactory with the people of our district and State.

You will remember at the beginning of this year, as I have already mentioned, that our State and Federal governments were planning and looking forward to some way or method whereby they might start industry of our State and Nation, and I want to say here that I cooperated with a great program of our Federal Government, realizing that he had the greatest responsibility possible of any man that had ever filled the Executive Mansion, and I feel, as a member of the 43rd Legislature, it was my duty to cooperate in carrying out the program of the Federal Government. I think you will agree with me that the sentiments of the people have been going through a change during these times of crisis; opinions have been changed.

Since I have returned home I have given almost my entire time to the stricken-drouth areas of my district in aiding in every way that I could that we might get all the Federal Aid appropriated for designated highways. I have also taken up with the RFC department the appropriation that was designated for emergency needs, and I am glad to know that we almost entirely succeeded in receiving this emergency fund that will aid in building lateral roads or any constructive improvements, and furnishing employment for all unemployed people.

In my campaign last year, I promised the people that I would conduct myself while in Austin in keeping with the dignity of the State, and as far as my life as your Representative has been, my record as an official and my private life is open for investigation.

I am not criticizing any of the Legislation, as I realize that the purpose was to help the people, but we have changed our laws in regard to taxes until it is almost an

Session. When I was elected a member of this body, my intention was, and still is, to represent to the very best of my ability all people of the 119th District, and at the same time, give due consideration to all measures coming before the body, and to protect the interests and industries of our great State. I feel that I have done that in every respect. We were confronted at the beginning of this session with many things that were vital to the people of our district and entire State. You will call to mind that the 42nd Legislature sent out committees to re-survey the entire State in the interest of the cause of education. They also sent out committees to re-survey the State in the Judiciary department. We are not contending that these recommendations by this committee did not have some merits, but we do claim that they were unjust and not fair to our section of the State. I am glad that I had the privilege of opposing the recommendations that would largely have to do with destroying our institution of higher learning located at Lubbock.

We also had before the Committee, recommendations by the Committee sent out by the 42nd Legislature to abolish 28 of our District Courts of Texas, and among that number was one of our important courts, the 99th Judicial District. I am glad that I had a part in opposing the abolishing of this District, and I am very grateful for the delegation that assisted me in this work.

You will recall that I was serving on a committee on Judicial Districts and could not take any definite stand before that Committee, but I felt that with the aid of the delegation that came to assist me, we did not only save our court, but we represented our section of Texas in a way that it will long be remembered.

As a member of that body, I served on Constitutional Amendments, Judicial Districts, Public Health, and Liquor Traffic, the four general committees for the term. I have also served on special committees and had occasion to visit all parts of our State; also, as a member of the committee sent to investigate the penitentiary and all the farms connected with it. Outside of the days that I was called away on official business, the record will show that I answered present at all sessions during the regular session, and also at special session.

I want to call your attention to the fact that during my campaign in the last election I pledged my support to the very best interest of the people of my district and entire State. I promised the people that I would stand for economy in State Government, realizing the financial condition of our State and Nation. I felt like then, and I still am of the same opinion, that it was necessary that we reduce expenses in the different departments of our State. In making these reductions, it was not a personal feeling or matter; it was a necessity coming in at that time. We succeeded in reducing State expenses more than $13,000,000.00.

At times during the 43rd Legislature, it seemed that the sentiment, of at least some of the members, was to destroy the different departments of our State, but my contention was that we operate and carry on with as little expense as possible. I do not want my friends to think that anything was done with any personal feeling in regard to reduction of expenses in any department.

I realized when we assembled in the regular session at the beginning of the year that I could not accomplish anything for my State and district without the cooperation of the entire House. I feel that I have cooperated in a way that I have the entire friendship of that body and I hold them in high esteem. While we have differed on many issues,

Methodists Plan Christmas Program

The heartening message brought by the Rev. Smith at the regular Sunday morning service was gotten from the text: "Your young men shall dream dreams." Mrs. Gladys Carmack, Fred Bucy, Dr. Townes sang a trio: "It Is Well With My Soul," which was much enjoyed. At night Brother Smith spoke beautifully on "The Pearl of Great Price" taking his text from Matt. 13:44.

The Everyman's Class ("Rough-Necks") conducted the mid-week service and had a fine program with C. O. Carmack in charge. Splendid talks were made as follows: Mr. Joe Poindexter on "Prayer," Mr. M. J. Weaver on "Conversion," and Judge Smith on "The Layman." Mrs. Suddarth furnished special music. Mrs. R. W. Fenton's class will have the next program. The young People's Division will be in charge of the Sunday night program at the church. A one-act play—"The true Meaning of Christmas" is planned, with special music and setting. Every member of the church family and their friends are urged to come that service and bring a white, wrapped gift of some home provision-edible or otherwise—to be distributed among needy folk by the church committee. These will be laid on the altar at the close of the service—bring a generous contribution.

The Young People's Department will sing carols on Christmas eve after the church service and will try to reach every home that has a light in the front window plainly shown. To be sure, you might telephone 182, and they will not pass you by.—Reporter

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Pugh of Dallas are here to spend the Christmas holidays with Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Shawn. Mrs. Shawn is their daughter.

Miss Lucille Kemp Married Wednesday

Miss Lucille Kemp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Kemp, who resided in Tahoka a number of years but who removed to a farm near Close City in Garza county about a year ago, was married at the family residence at 1:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon to Mr. Ernest W. Davis of the same community. Rev. Lawrence Hays, pastor of the Baptist Church here, officiated. Members of the two families and other relatives and friends witnessed the ceremony. Keith Kenmp, the bride's brother, acted as best man while Miss Edith Davis, sister of the groom, was bride's maid.

Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple left on a honeymoon trip to Amarillo and other north Panhandle points. They will make their home near Shallowater. The bride resided in Tahoka for a number of years and grew to womanhood here. She is a graduate of the Tahoka high school and was active in church work. She had many friends who wish her the best that life can bring.

TAHOKA MAN MARRIES LUM'S CHAPEL LADY

Miss Arlisle Lee Lindly of Lum's Chapel became the bride of Carl E. Sanders of Tahoka Sunday evening about nine p. m. at Littlefield.

The ceremony, which was performed by Rev. J. F. Grizzle, pastor of the First Baptist Church, at the parsonage, was witnessed by a brother and sister of the bride.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Lindley of Lum's Chapel while the groom is the son of Mrs. Nora Sanders of Tahoka.

The young couple will make their home at Tahoka.—Littlefield Leader.

NEW MANAGER ARRIVES AT LYNN CO. MOTOR CO.

Master J. Mack Noble III arrived at Loveless sanitarium Sunday morning and will soon be at home in O'Donnell, ready to take over the management of the Lynn County Motor Company and the household of his parents Mr. and Mrs. J. Mack Nobles, Jr.

The young man weighed 7½ pounds, and the attendants at the sanitarium assure us that he has splendid lungs.—O'Donnell Index.

COUPLE MARRIED HERE ELDER R. P. DRENNON

James Monroe Ayers of Tahoka and Miss Geneva Smith of Draw were united in marriage by Elder R. P. Drennon, pastor of the Church of Christ here, at his residence at 2:30 o'clock last Sunday afternoon. The young couple will reside here.

The difference between $5 and $22.50 per month is the amount a 4-H cooperater in Lynn county is saving her brother who is attending college. While canning and preparing her food budget she also prepared her brother one with little additional effort.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. McCord and children and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Harrison left early Tuesday morning to visit relatives in Alabama. They will visit her parents and his sisters at Tuscaloosa and Birmingham. They expect to be away two or three weeks.

Elder R. P. Drennon and family are leaving today for Grayson county to spend the holidays with relatives.

"STAGE MOTHER" RECREATES SPELL OF THE FOOTLIGHTS

The secret of many a child's success on the stage is revealed in "Stage Mother," drama of theatrical life recently filmed by the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios, which opens Monday at the English Theatre.

Adapted from an original story by Bradford Ropes, author of "42nd Street," the picture deals with a little known side of the theatre—the intense ambition that causes "stage mothers" to drive their children to success. The heart-breaks and laughs that are encountered by the youngsters being "herded on their way" is brought vividly to the screen.

Alice Brady Sensational
Alice Brady scores even a greater triumph than in "When Ladies Meet" in her portrayal as the ambitious mother who will stop at nothing to further the career of her daughter. She is sensational in pathos and comedy alike. Maureen O'Sullivan has the best role of her screen career to date and puts every effort into an outstanding performance.

Franchot Tone adds more laurels to his notable portrayals in such pictures as "Today We Live," "The Stranger's Return" and "Midnight Mary." He is seen as Miss O'Sullivan's youthful lover and won considerable acclaim in this role.

Phillips Holmes and Lord Aylesworth, who wants to marry Miss O'Sullivan to save her from the designs of her mother, is convincing in a mature role. Ted Healy is the "surprise performance" of the picture, deserting his madcap brand of "stooge" comedy to play several dramatic scenes.

Supporting roles are capably filled by C. Henry Gordon, Alan Edwards and Ben Alexander. Charles Brabin, who scored recently with "Washington Masquerade" and "The Secret of Madame Blanche," handled the direction with a strong sense of scene values.

F. E. House and family left Thursday morning to spend a week or ten days visiting relatives at Belton, Prairie Dell, Heidenheimer, and other places in Bell county.

It's time to do your Christmas shopping.

Take a Pinch of BLACK-DRAUGHT For Distress After Meals

He had suffered distress after meals, but by taking Theodor's Black-Draught he was relieved of this trouble, writes Mr. Jess Higgins, of Dawsonville, Ga.

"I had sour stomach and gas," Mr. Higgins explains, "and often I would have bilious spells. I read about Theodor's Black-Draught and began to take it. It relieved me of this trouble. I keep it all the time now. I consider it a fine medicine. I take a pinch of Black-Draught after meals when I need it. It helps to prevent sick headache and to keep the system in good order."

Now you can get Black-Draught in the form of a SYRUP, for Children.

Merry Christmas

Happy New Year.

RED CROSS RELIEF AIDS DISTRESSED IN 120 DISASTERS

Help Given in Fires, Floods, Earthquake and Epidemics Part of Year's Task

The American Red Cross has reached into the homes of six million families in the past year with unemployment and disaster relief, Chairman John Bar-to Payne announced.

"As the year closed the organization continued in readiness to serve in the forthcoming winter at the point of greatest need and to adjust its service to meet the calls of the emergency of unemployment and disaster," Chairman Payne stated.

In a year of greatest economic distress in the nation's history, in which the Red Cross ably discharged a relief task in distributing flour and clothing to distressed families in all but six of the nation's 3,098 counties, the organization also was called into action in 120 disasters, of which 96 were within the borders of the United States.

Earthquake, floods, hurricanes, fires and other cataclysms visited death and destruction upon the lives and homes of thousands of people. Red Cross statistics showed that in the 120 disasters almost a thousand lives were lost, 148, 840 homes were destroyed or damaged, 12,275 persons were injured, and Red Cross relief was given to 452,879 individuals.

In giving aid in these disasters, in its unemployment relief and in handling the distribution of government wheat and cotton, the Red Cross expended from its national treasury the sum of $1,670,254.

During one period of twelve weeks, 46 disasters occurred in 23 states. Red Cross disaster workers were hard pressed in meeting all of these needs occurring at once, but everywhere misery was promptly relieved.

Support of the Red Cross work is through its annual roll call, conducted by chapters in the period from Armistice Day to Thanksgiving Day, November 11 to November 30. Every citizen who joins the Red Cross as a member aids in carrying relief to disaster victims and in other Red Cross services, such as preservation of life, child welfare through the Junior Red Cross, and direct service for the public health.

All are welcome!—W. I. Poteet, Pastor.

T. C. Johnson of South Ward community dropped into the News office Monday to place his subscription date into the future. Mr. Johnson says that this is the first year in three or four that the farmers in his immediate neighborhood have had a ghost of a show. Drouth and hailstorms have destroyed the crops in that locality for two or three years in succession. This year, however, he and his neighbors are walking in clover, so to speak. Mr. Johnson, who lives on the J. S. Wells farm, says that he gathered 70 bales of cotton off of 75 acres—approximately 75 500-lb. bales. That is not bad cotton in any man's country.

C. G. Rogers, who lives out on the Butler ranch in the Petty community, called at the office Tuesday and had his name added to our subscription list. Mr. Rogers says that many people in his community made approximately a bale of cotton per acre this year, while a few miles to the west of them practically nothing was made, due to a local drouth.

Making Improvement On Highway No. 83

Official word was received here this week that work was to start on the grading and drainage structure of that number one, on highway 83 east from Lamesa to the Borden county line. The order is approved for the expenditure of $40,000 and work is to commence at once.

A special effort is being made to get the west end of 83 approved by the state highway department for a like appropriation.

This is good news and culminates a lot of work by the local chamber of commerce, the county commissioners court and a number of Lamesa and Dawson county citizens. The past seven years on this road. It pays to keep on after a thing, if it is right and is needed.

This means several hundred men will be employed in the county that otherwise would be idle and several thousand dollars will be spent in Dawson county that would otherwise not be spent here—Lamesa Reporter.

OUTLAW KILLED IN GUN BATTLE IN ARKANSAS

several times but Mr. Parker was unable to recognize him until they reached the hospital, whereupon he immediately recognized him as Jim (Blackie) Wheelus. Wheelus died a short time after reaching the hospital. A bullet, evidently from Parker's pistol, had struck Wheelus just above the navel, passed through the intestines and the kidneys, and emerged at the back. Parker had fired five shots.

When the firing ceased, two other men in the shack were captured while gill another and possibly two more had escaped. The two men who were captured were taken in charge by the Texarkana officers and placed in jail. These two and Wheelus, who was known there under a different name, were wanted for a bank robbery recently perpetrated at DeQueen, Arkansas.

Parker was not looking for Wheelus or either of the men who were captured, but they were evidently on the look-out for officers and when Parker drove up and stopped Wheelus opened fire without delay or ceremony. One bullet from Wheelus' big automatic passed through one rear door and lodged in the rear door on the opposite side of the car. Another entered one front door and passed entirely through the front door on the other side of the car. Another bullet clipped off the tail of the metallic dog that ornaments the water cap above the radiator. A fourth ball passed through the front fender near the running board and was stopped by a steel rod underneath the car. The other five shots that Wheelus fired do not seem to have struck the car. Parker thinks the first shot struck the rear door, the second shot the front door, the third shot the radiator cap, and that the shot which penetrated the fender was fired at him after he had fired from beneath the car.

WANTED

WANTED—To trade 6 room brick house, good location, for small farm. D. D. Johnson, Tahoka. 14-1tc

Wheelus was sent to the Texas penitentiary from Lynn county in the fall of 1929 for burglary of the Tahoka Drug Store. He was sent likewise from Lubbock county about the same time on similar charges. Mrs. "Whitie" Walker was indicted along with Wheelus for the burglary of the Tahoka Drug Store but she was given a five years suspended sentence.

Joe William New Dawson Agent

Joe Williams, Emergency County Farm Agent for Lynn county during the plow-up campaign, was offered and has accepted the position as county farm agent for Dawson county. He has been on the job down there since about the first of December.

Mr. Williams was formerly farm agent of Haskell county. When the plow-up campaign was inaugurated, he was sent to Lynn county as emergency agent, Lynn county having no regular agent. He put the work over here in a most satisfactory manner. Whether the commissioners court of Lynn county will employ a regular agent here for the ensuing year is yet to be determined.

Texas Tech Will Have Print Shop

LUBBOCK, Texas, Dec. 28. Definite plans have been made for putting in a printing plant at Texas Technological College and it is expected to be in operation by the opening of the spring semester, February 2. Equipment for printing the college catalog, the student newspaper, and the school's job work will be installed.

President Bradford Knapp has designated the shop as a laboratory for the department of journalism. Student labor will be used as far as is possible.

The equipment being purchased consists of a typesetting machine, cylinder press, job press, paper cutter, wire stitcher, saw trimmer, casting box, and a supply of printing material and type.

Mrs. Charley Brown has returned from Corpus Christi, where she spent several weeks with the Sherrill family.

A Foard county farmer's turkeys were dying this fall without apparent cause. The county agent figured out that a stagnant pool of water coming from waste from the kitchen sink was the trouble. A pit was dug to remove the standing water and the turkeys stopped dying.

Cultivation Aids Shrubbery Growth

Shrubbery growth in West Texas depends upon frequent cultivation, keeping the soil stirred after each shower, rather than frequent waterings says Mr. J. W. Young, Yard demonstrator, Magnolia.

In 1932 Mr. Young set out 197 Chinese Elm trees for windbreak 260 feet on North side and 600 feet on West side. The trees are set 90 feet from the house on the North and 200 feet from the house on the West. The rows are 15 feet apart the trees are 10 feet apart in the rows. The trees were set out in March without the use of water. They were cultivated after each rain or shower. Some of the trees made a growth of seven feet in 1932 and five feet in 1933. Mr. Young set out 160 pines, 30 feet from the elms, 60 Austrian pines and ponderosa. The Austrian has proved to be the hardiest of the two.

In addition to this Mr. Young set out 51 grape vines and 50 are living. They also were set without water and cultivated as were the elm trees. These were trained this year to the Munson type of trellis and some of them made a growth of 30 feet this year after freezing back the third time. The varieties used are:

Beacon, Amalaga, American, Lost Rose, Extra, Lenoir, Delaware, Catawba, Headlight, Bailey, Concord, Ellen Scott, Carman and Goethe. The rows run north and south and grapes are planted so that each will pollenate properly. (There are four varieties that do not pollenate themselves.) Grapes were planted 12 feet apart in rows and rows 10 feet apart.

Other improvements made were a lawn of Bermuda grass and a foundation planting made of coral-berry, buckthorn, flowering willow, forsythe and Senna.

Mr. Young has laid 50 feet of tile for subirrigating cuttings, but says he used it for his tomatoes and found it the only way to irrigate. "Subirrigation save water, encourages deep root growth and prevents soil crusting, I find," says Mr. Young.

The planting of windbreak, vineyard, foundation planting, lawn and cattle guard has cost approximately $12.00.

The windbreak plantings, vineyard and foundation plantings were made possible by the cooperation of the Government Experiment Station of Woodward, Oklahoma.

Officers Capture One Jailbreaker

Felix Vaughn, one of the negroes who escaped from jail here about three or four weeks ago when a number of prisoners escaped, was captured in Waurika, Oklahoma, last week, through the vigilance of the sheriff's office here.

Deputy sheriff Ed Redwine went to Waurika and arrived back in Tahoka Saturday night with the prisoner. Felix is again taking his meals in the county boarding house. He is charged with the burglary of a residence in the east portion of the county.

JOB AT PLAINVIEW TO AMARILLO FIRM

Plainview, Tex., Dec. 19.—The city of Plainview today awarded a contract, at $418,000, to C. S. The construction will be financed with bonds to which revenue of the plant will be pledged for retirement.

W. L. (Uncle Will) Brown and daughter, Mrs. Coleman Wells, received a message this morning bearing news of the death in Palestine Wednesday night of Mr. Brown's sister, Mrs. P. L. Bradford. Mr. Brown says his sister was 85 years of age and had long been a most devout Christian woman.

Tahoka's Ginnings Are Now 16,950

Lynn Co. Farmers Will Receive $237,000

Lynn county ranks second among the counties of the South Plains in amount due farmers in cotton options signed last summer. Checks for the first four cents per pound are due to be in the hands of these farmers by the last of this week, according to statements made recently by Dr. Bradford Knapp, when he was in Washington. Cotton administration officials gave him to understand that they were making preparations to issue these checks within the next few days.

Information on which the checks will be issued has been in Washington for several months, and the mechanical task of writing them will not be as great as it was for the cotton plow up campaign.

Crosby county had the largest number of bales optioned on the South Plains, there being 11,950 optioned. Lynn county had 11,850 bales.—O'Donnell Index

A total of 16,950 bales of cotton of the 1933 crop had been ginned in Tahoka this season when we gathered statistics late today. This is an increase of 303 bales over last week. It is now certain that the total will considerably exceed 17,000.

This exceeds by far any ginning record ever before made by Tahoka. If there had been no plow-up campaign this summer, the crop here would have been simply prodigious.

Ginning Suspends
We are requested to announce that none of the gins in Tahoka will run any day next week except on Saturday. All the gins here will run on that day.

A Happy Christmas

To You and Yours.

We solicit a continuance of your good will and patronage.

LUBBOCK TURKEY RAISERS GET MORE FOR THEIR BIRDS

LUBBOCK, Dec. 20.—A new turkey marketing deal this fall on the South Plains resulted in the farm dressing 700 birds which were sent direct to market in refrigerated trucks, reports O. G. Tumilson, county agent. Choice grade sold for 16½ cents per pound, and the commercial grade for 14½ cents. Farmers in Lubbock and Hale counties, and in Lee county, New Mexico, participated in the deal. They plan to repeat on a larger scale for the Christmas market.

HARDEMAN CO WOMEN MAKE OWN MATTRESSES

QUANAH, Dec. 20.—The home demonstration club members of Hardeman county have reported having made 26 mattresses from home grown cotton since November 1932.

About 13,000 pounds of cotton and 2600 yards of good cotton ticking have been used in making these better beds as a result of 16 demonstrations given by the home demonstration agent, Miss Elsie Phillips.

During the depression these mattresses were made at a cost of less than $5, but with an advance in prices they will cost $8.

Llano county 4-H club boys are making concrete tile to further the installation of sub-irrigation systems in gardens. The cost is about one cent per foot.

Banking Grows More Complicated

DENVER, Colo.—The increase in the technicalities of the banking business in the past dozen years was shown by a speaker before the American Institute of Banking which held its annual convention here recently when he pointed out that in 1912, when the institute last met in this city, it gave only three courses, while today it gives 18, with more subjects in preparation. At the earlier date, he said, the curriculum of the institute consisted of elementary banking, commercial and banking law, and money and banking, whereas today it consists of banking fundamentals, commercial law, negotiable instruments, standard economics, standard banking, credits, investments, trust functions, analyzing financial statements, and public speaking, while the two new subjects of bank operation and organization, and bank management are to be added.

The New Pace of Business: Change Business evolution need to move slowly—it measured off its gradual changes almost invisibly, like the hour hand on the clock. But today its tempo is that of the second hand. The movement of evolution that is quickening business with rapid changes is alarmingly visible and makes it difficult to keep up with them.—E. S. Mocht.

PILATE'S AQUEDUCT RENEWS HOLY LAND WATER SUPPLY

The aqueduct constructed by Pontius Pilate shortly before Christ was crucified, is in use again to relieve water shortage in the Old City of Jerusalem.

Engineers say it is as effective today as it was 1,900 years ago when the Roman procurator built it to cope with just such a drouth as exists today.

The Moslem supreme council put the aqueduct into action and it supplies 2,000 gallons daily to reservoirs of the Mosque of Omar.

Part of the water is piped to Bethlehem.

Clothes for the Needy

Women volunteers sewing for the needy under direction of the Red Cross produced 296,000 garments last year, and will produce millions of garments in the winter of 1933-34. These will be from the millions of yards of cotton cloth distributed by the national Red Cross from the $40,000 bales of cotton turned over to the organization by Congress. Cloth was sent to all chapters requesting it, and later it was proposed to send some simple ready-made garments, including trousers, overalls, underwear, stockings and sox.

Huge Task of Nurses

Red Cross public health nurses, who work in hundreds of communities, are meeting the greatest demands in history for their services, due to the depression. Visits in maternity cases, protecting the health of infants and children, and aiding mothers in distress due to unemployment of the bread-winners have taken them into thousands of homes. The nurses made 1,357,000 visits to or on behalf of individuals, and inspected $49,000 school children. More than 58,000 adults were instructed in home hygiene and care of the sick.

Blind Readers Get Books

Books in braille for reading by the blind are made by women under Red Cross direction. Last year 2,513 such books were produced in single copy, and 1,535 in double copies. Fiction, biography, history, economics and school books were among those printed in braille. The Red Cross gives them to libraries for free distribution to blind readers.

Red Cross to Enlist Great Army of Members to Fight Distress

Last year 4,004,459 men and women joined the American Red Cross as members during the annual roll call, Armistice Day to Thanksgiving Day. A peace-time army even greater than this will be needed in 1933-34 to support and carry on the nationwide relief work of the Red Cross. There are 1,625 Red Cross Chapters and they have 10,000 branches.

U. Of T. Granted Large Building

AUSTIN, Dec. 20.—With the allotment to the University of Texas of a loan and 30 per cent grant, totaling $1,633,000, for the construction of the final unit of the Administration-Library Building which will replace the remaining part of the original Main Building, the rounding out of the great building program of the University in sight. It is expected that construction will begin within the next six months and will require seven months. With equipment, this additional structure and the nine other buildings which were recently erected on the University Campus will represent an investment well over $6,000,000. This is exclusive of landscaping, Memorial Gateway and other beautifications and ornamentalations, which when the program has been completed shall have cost an additional $400,000 or more.

Not a cent of money that has been and will continue to be used for these and other recent improvements has come from the taxpayers of Texas. The money has come from the sale of oil and grass from the land endowment of 2,000,000 acres which the University owns.

The legislature approved a plan whereby the Board of Regents would issue obligation bonds in the maximum amount of $1,200,000, secured by the unencumbered part of the available fund, that is, from grazing and other surface leases, which would be pledged as collateral with the Federal government to guarantee the repayment of the loan requested. The regents submitted originally a request for $2,300,000, of which $1,800,000 would be for the main building-library extension and $1,000,000 for four or five self-liquidating dormitories.

The most striking feature of the new administration-library building will be a tower of 31 stories or levels, to be used for book stacks, and perhaps some offices. The height of the tower will be 286 feet, including the elevation of the building upon which it will rest. The new addition is designed to house the offices of the president, comptroller, registrar, auditor and other administrative offices.

Miss Mary Fenton, student in C. I. A. at Denton is here to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Fenton.

Motor Injuries Treated By Red Cross First Aid

In line with its work for the preservation of life and prevention of accidental death, the American Red Cross has adopted a new program of emergency first aid stations on the highways of the nation, where victims of automobile injuries will be helped.

In the last year 31,000 persons were killed as the result of automobile accidents and more than 1,900,000 were injured. As its contribution to the nation wide safety campaigns of other organizations, the Red Cross will aid through the emergency stations. A number already are in operation by Chapters on such important traffic arteries as the Westchester County, N. Y. park system, the Valley Forge and Gettysburg highways in Pennsylvania and the White Horse Pike in New Jersey, connecting with Atlantic City.

Saving Mothers and Babies Is Important Red Cross Task

Saving mothers' lives and better babies were important features during the past year of the Public Health Nursing Service of the American Red Cross. About four-fifths of the 754 nurses in the Red Cross work made more than 100,000 prenatal and maternal visits, in addition to assisting doctors in the examination of 1,509,409 school children.

Statistics reveal that the lives of two out of three American women who die in maternity cases could be saved if they received proper medical and nursing care. As more than 15,000 women die in the United States each year from various diseases of the maternal state, this means that more than 10,000 of these deaths are preventable.

Comfort Kits Sent 40,000 Service Men by Red Cross

Gay patterned crotonne bags, or comfort kits, containing articles useful and amusing, are sent by the Red Cross to 40,000 soldiers, sailors and Marines, on foreign service, as Christmas remembrances.

The little gift bags are donated and packed by women in Red Cross Chapters all over the country. They are despatched by Army transport in the early autumn in order to reach the foreign ports and posts of the U. S. services in time to be hung on the Christmas trees. Giving the remembrances from home is the outgrowth of a plan adopted by the Red Cross prior to the World War when so many National Guard regiments were on the Mexican border.

DAWES AND DAVIS URGE SUPPORT OF ROOSEVELT

WASHINGTON.—Former Vice-President Charles G. Dawes demanded support of the President's recovery program in introducing Newton D. Baker to a Chicago audience, which brought a salvo of applause. Dawes praised Baker for "holding to his course under storms of adverse public opinion in war time," and added: "In these times there is the same need to stand behind the President of the United States. There isn't any more occasion for biased criticism than there was then."

Senator James J. Davis, of Pennsylvania, former Secretary of Labor, told an audience in San Francisco: "This is no time to launch a move of criticism against the policies of President Roosevelt and his administration. I shall do all in my power to urge members of my party to divorce themselves from such a plan at the coming congressional session."

At a cost of $6.50 Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Johnson in Gregg county turned an $8 beef calf into 100 cans of steak, roast, meat sew, meat loaf, hamburger, chili, liver paste and soup stock worth $28. It was a community demonstration in cutting and canning conducted by county farm and home demonstration agents.

The middling basis of cotton was raised 3/4 cent per pound this year in 15 Gonzales county communities where farmers grew pure seed in cooperation with county agent and U. S. Bureau of Plant Industry.

JARREL INDICTED BY GRAND JURY OF SMITH COUNTY

Tyler, Dec. 18.—Dr. Edward Frank Jarrel, who on October 11 resigned position as chairman of the Texas livestock sanitary commission, was under indictment today on three charges of theft growing out of the Smith county grand jury's investigation of the alleged sale of state jobs.

Dr. Jarrel surrendered last night to Sheriff Earl Price and furnished bond of $1,000 on each of the three indictments. He was released immediately.

Shortly after a sub-group of the house appropriations committee began an inquiry into his tenure on the livestock sanitary commission, Dr. Jarrel submitted his resignation to Governor Miriam A. Ferguson. He protested his innocence of accusations brought against him in testimony before the committee.

He attributed the investigation to "politics" and alleged that the committee's activities were designed to embarrass Governor Ferguson's administration.

Witnesses before the committee had testified that Dr. Jarrel made representations that employment could be had with the commission in return for contributions toward the liquidation of campaign debts incurred by Jarrel in the 1932 primary campaign.
