SELECT CORN, HOG CHAIRMEN

Set-Up About Ready In Reduction Campaign On Two More Farm Products

Community committees for the corn and hog reduction were elected at a county-wide meeting of the raisers of these two products at Tahoka last Friday.

The county was divided according to commissioners precincts and the following committees were elected: Precinct 1, J. F. Bucy, chairman, J. E. Morgan, and R. M. Cade; precinct 2, G. M. Stewart, chairman, Garland Pennington, and Howard Wheeler; precinct 3, C. J. Beach, chairman, D. J. Bolch, and George Lightfoot; precinct 4, Joe Poindexter, chairman, L. H. Moore, and R. W. Fenton Jr.

The county organization from these committees is temporarily delayed due to lack of necessary forms. These are expected to be here within a few days.

Anyone desiring more information in regard to the Corn-Hog program is urged to see some of these committees of county agent V. F. Jones.

The producer who markets dressed pork will not be required to pay a processing tax provided he does not market over 300 pounds, Mr. Jones says. "Or he may market 1000 pounds annually and pay a processing tax on the last 700; but if he markets over 1000 pounds he will be required to pay a tax on all he has marketed."

Methodists Attend Missionary Meeting

Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Smith, Mrs. N. M. Wyatt, all of Tahoka, Rev. M. F. Hinds of Wilson, and Presiding Elder W. M. Pearce of Lubbock attended a missionary conference in Sweetwater Monday.

This was one of two such meetings held in the Northwest Texas Conference of the Methodist Church, the other being held Tuesday at Amarillo.

Three bishops of the Methodist Church conducted the services and made addresses, according to Bro. Smith. These were Bishop Arthur J. Moore of San Francisco, Bishop H. A. Boaz of Houston and Bishop John M. Moore of Dallas. Secretaries W. G. Cram and Dr. Elmer T. Clark of Nashville were also members of the party.

The purpose of these meetings is to revive religious enthusiasm and to rekindle the fires of evangelism among the members of the Southern Methodist Church, and the addresses of the bishops are said to have been very inspiring.

Brother Smith says that the First Methodist Church at Sweetwater was filled to capacity with visitors, and the conference was a success in every way.

Dr. J. H. McCoy is still in a serious condition. At times his life has been despaired of, while at other times he seems much improved.

Mrs. J. B. Walker Asks Re-election

Mrs. J. B. Walker has authorized the insertion of her name in our announcement column as a candidate for re-election to the office of city secretary, the election to be held the first Tuesday in April.

Mrs. Walker has been a resident of Tahoka so long and has taken such an active interest in political, religious, and civic matters that she is well known to practically every voter in the city, and anything we might say in commendation of her character and her qualifications for the office would seem superfluous. She has never held any political office. However, except that of city secretary, she has performed the duties of this office so well that there has been very little complaint.

A mature woman of brilliant talents and more than ordinary educational and cultural attainments, she has made her mark on the religious and civic life of this section of the state. She has hosts of friends here and many of them will support her enthusiastically for another term in the office which she now holds.

3211 Poll Taxes Paid In County

Tax collector A. M. Cade reports that 3211 poll taxes were paid in Lynn county for the year 1933 prior to February 1, 1934.

It is believed that this is the largest number that has ever been paid in Lynn county for a single year except one. About 3300 poll taxes were paid here one year.

Mr. Cade also reports that 1875 license plates have been issued for automobiles and 225 for trucks. This is also a near record-breaker for this early in the year.

New Lynn Teacher In U. S. Hospital

J. B. Miller, superintendent of the New Lynn public school, was taken to the Government Hospital for ex-service men at Waco Wednesday for treatment. He was conveyed to Waco by deputy sheriff Ed Redwine, Sam Holland, and Ed Saunders.

For two or three weeks Mr. Miller had been suffering from nervousness and on Sunday he had a complete nervous break-down. His condition became so grave that he had to be detained by officers until a place could be procured for him in a government hospital.

Mr. Miller had been superintendent of the New Lynn school for almost five years and just last week he announced as a candidate for county superintendent.

Mr. Miller enjoys the highest esteem of the pupils and faculty of New Lynn school, of the entire citizenship of the community, and of many friends scattered throughout the county, who deeply deplore his great misfortune. They hope that he may soon be able to return to his duties, thoroughly sound and well.

Mr. Miller's brother, Carl Miller has been engaged to finish teaching out the term of school at New Lynn. He has had considerable experience as a teacher himself and is a successful school man.

Farmers Receive 543 Option Checks

County agent V. F. Jones reports that on Monday morning 351 more checks on cotton option contracts were received payable to Lynn county farmers in the aggregate sum of $94,314. One hundred and eight-nine checks had been previously received, aggregating $43,000. This makes a total of 543 checks amounting to $137,314 paid to Lynn county farmers on these contracts.

Mr. Jones said notices were mailed Tuesday to farmers whose checks had come in.

J. E. Thompson Is Taking Treatment

J. E. Thompson, manager of the Consumers Fuel Association, was taken to Glen Rose by the family last Sunday for treatment.

Mr. Thompson has been suffering from high blood pressure the past several weeks and has already lost the sight of one eye, it is said. He expects to remain there several weeks for treatment. Mrs. Thompson is expected to return to Tahoka next Sunday.

"YOUNGEST PRINTER" WORKS FOR FATHER

Southland, Feb. 5 (Special)—"Youngest printer in the world" is the claim Frank Fletcher, editor and publisher of the Southland Sun, makes for his five year old son Jack Frank.

In the February 1 issue of the paper Mr. Fletcher used a stickfull of type which his son had handed from a case of 10-point type.

"Jack Frank is five years of age, although unable to read much knows his ten-point cases like nobody's business and will follow copy—which is better than plenty of printers do," the father said.

The lad has lived virtually all his life in a printing office. He enjoys helping his father around the office and has done so since he was about two years old.

DEATH TAKES MASSENGALE

Pneumonia Fatal To Well-Known Citizen; Large Crowd At Funeral Tuesday

Hundreds of friends crowded into the Methodist Church at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon to pay their tribute of respect to the memory of Jesse J. Massengale, who died at 8:15 o'clock Monday night in his room at the St. Clair Hotel. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. H. C. Smith, pastor of the Methodist Church, assisted by Elder R. P. Drennon of the Church of Christ and Rev. Lawrence Hays, Baptist pastor. Interment was in the Tahoka cemetery. A great host of friends followed the remains to the grave and the floral offerings were beautiful and lavish.

Harris & Applewhite, undertakers, had charge of the funeral arrangements.

The death of Jesse Massengale came as a distinct shock to the entire town. He was stricken with pneumonia on Thursday, January 25, but he was not thought to be in a critical condition until last Saturday night. He lingered on the very brink of death throughout Sunday and Monday, and before the end came Monday night numerous friends gathered at the hotel to offer their assistance and sympathy.

Relatives and friends from other places who were here to attend the funeral included his brother, Tom Massengale, wife and two sons, Herbert and Lynn, of Levelland; a sister, Mrs. T. P. Robinson of Bart-

Revenues At P. O. Increase Greatly

January brought a great increase of business at the post office here over January of a year ago, according to acting postmaster H. M. Larkin.

The postal revenues this January amounted to $1252.39 against $881.51 last year an increase of 42 per cent, and the money order business increased 30 per cent, Mr. Larkin says.

President's Ball Proceeds Large

Tom Garrard, director of the president's birthday ball held here Tuesday night of last week reports that the total receipts of tickets was $216.00. The expenses amounted to $42.75, leaving a balance of $173.25 to be sent to the President for the benefit of the Warm Springs Foundation in Georgia, founded by him for the purpose of combatting infantile paralysis.

This is regarded as a remarkable record for Tahoka. The people crowded into the Dance Palace Tuesday night in great numbers, some to dance but most of them to show their interest and to help along a good cause.

WELCH SELLS INTEREST IN TAILOR SHOP TO GURLEY

Eward Welch on Tuesday sold his interest in the Vanity Cleaners tailor shop to his partner, Jess Gurley. Young Mr. Welch has not announced his plans for the future. These young gentlemen purchased this tailor shop from Mr. Burns a few weeks ago.

P. E. Roberts, who recently moved to this county from Anson, came in Wednesday, accompanied by T. B. Cowan, to place his name on our books for a year's good reading matter. "I can't live in a place I don't know something about," he said in subscribing for The News. He is living on Mr. Cowan's place. Mr. Roberts told us that the farmers at Anson were recently paid $30,000.00 in dividends from profits of two farmer-owned gin plants. The two gins turned out 10,500 bales of cotton, and paid a dividend of about $3.00 per bale.

W. M. Lee returned Tuesday from a few days visit with his mother at Stephenville. Mr. Lee says that he found his mother sick but let her somewhat improved. She is 90 years of age.

GEORGE H. MAHON Of Colorado, Candidate for Congress

Mahon Candidate For Congress Post

District Attorney George Mahon of Colorado, candidate for congress in the new 19th district, was a brief visitor in Tahoka Friday morning. He was on his way to Brownfield, where he was to address a luncheon club at the noon hour. He stopped in at the News office and authorized the insertion of his name in our political announcement column as a candidate for congress.

Mahon is 33 years of age and has resided in Mitchell county for

Cream Expert To Speak Here

Roy B. Davis of Plains Cooperative, Inc. of Plainview, Texas has accepted an invitation to address the county council of Lynn county home demonstration clubs at 2:30 p. m. Saturday, February 10. He will discuss Improvement of Market Cream and show the importance of taking proper care of dairy products. He comes highly recommended by Miss Myrtle Murray, district agent.

Miss Sylvia Robb, county home demonstration agent, urges that all council representatives be present. It is believed that this discussion will be of much benefit to all farm women who may hear it.

Hall Robinson Is Home Loan Officer

Hall Robinson has been appointed inspector for the Home Owners Loan Corporation. This is a corporation sponsored by the Federal Government for the purpose of making loans to home owners in cities and towns who have mortgages on their homes. It is one of the agencies being employed by the Government to bring relief to the distressed.

Mr. Robinson made a trip last week to Big Spring, Coleman, and Austin on official business, and since his return he has made a number of inspections here and at O'Donnell.

W. A. Harris of Marietta, Cass county, arrived last Friday to spend several weeks with his son, W. M. Harris. Mr. Harris says that he spent two and a half months recently visiting in North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, and Arkansas. He brought back with him several post cards bearing pictures of cotton mills and other establishments showing the vast proportions of the cotton manufacturing industry in the Carolinas.

Uncle Will Brown has been confined to his room this week by reason of illness resulting from the extraction of several defective teeth. In fact his condition was so serious that a trained nurse was called in to wait on him.

J. P. Benson has been carrying his hand in a sling the past few days. It was hurt when the belt of a feed crusher broke and the broken end struck his hand. No bones were broken but the member was badly bruised.

W. C. Wells Will Be Postmaster

W. C. Wells and a number of his friends received communications this week from Washington advising that his name had been submitted to the Post Office Department for appointment as postmaster at Tahoka.

It is expected that Mr. Wells will receive official notification of his appointment within the next few days.

Small Announces For Commissioner

George Small announces this week as a candidate for county commissioner of precinct No. 1.

Mr. Small says that he had been considering the matter of making the race for several weeks but that it was only a few days ago upon the solicitation of friends that he fully decided to become a candidate.

George Small needs no introduction to the people of this precinct. He has been a resident of Tahoka for nearly 32 years. For twenty years he was local manager for Higginbotham-Bartlett Lumber Company, and for several years following that he was engaged in the hardware business here, selling out to Harris & Applewhite a few years ago.

Mr. Small has always been regarded as one of Tahoka's most successful business men but reverses came with the depression and left him with a great host of others, in rather straitened financial circumstances. No one, however, has ever questioned his honesty and integrity. He now finds that he needs the office and he believes that he can render the people a distinct service in this capacity. His hosts of friends declare that there is not a better qualified man in the precinct for the position.

George Small has accommodated many a man and woman during his long residence here, and many of them will show their appreciation by giving him their vote and influence during the July primaries. There is no doubt but that he will be a strong contender for the place.

Making Abstracts For Government

J. B. Walker is engaged in the task of making an abstract of all land transfers in Lynn county during the past ten years for the Department of Agriculture at Washington, D. C.

Asked as to the purpose of having this work done, Mr. Walker stated that he did not know unless it was in order that the Department might get reliable record information as to the approximate value of land throughout the country, since this survey is country-wide.

Singing Convention Goes To O'Donnell

The Lynn County Singing Convention will meet at O'Donnell next Sunday morning at about ten o'clock, according to M. E. McCord who has been an active and prominent member of the convention since its organization a few years ago.

Everybody invited to attend. Take your lunch and go prepared to stay all day.

R. B. McCord is president and Edgar Hammonds secretary of the organization.

Alvin Hicks returned Tuesday from Glen Rose, Somerville county, to which place he had taken Mrs. Hicks for treatment in a sanitarium. They left here Sunday. Many friends hope that Mrs. Hicks will soon be able to return to Tahoka much improved in health.

Elder W. A. Kercheville, now of Albuquerque, New Mexico, was here Monday greeting friends and preached Monday night at the Church of Christ, of which he was formerly the pastor. While here he was the guest of Elder R. P. Drennon, the present pastor.

HENRY REED IS IN STATE PEN

Fugitive Caught In Decatur, Ill., Returned To Texas By Sheriff Parker

Sheriff B. L. Parker stepped into the News office last Friday morning and exhibited a receipt from T. T. Easley, night warden of the Texas State Prison at Huntsville, showing that Henry Reed had been delivered by Mr. Parker to that institution and had been incarcerated therein on January 31, 1934.

Mr. Parker and Gus White, sheriff of Dawson county, left here at an early hour the preceding Sunday morning in Parker's car for Decatur, Ill., where Reed had been arrested and placed in jail upon information previously furnished by Parker. They arrived in Decatur Monday night and started back to Texas with their prisoner early Tuesday morning, arriving at Huntsville Wednesday night.

Reed had been convicted and sentenced to two years in the penitentiary on an indictment charging theft of automobile tires here about two years ago. He had also been convicted of theft in Dawson county and his punishment assessed at six years in the penitentiary.

While in the custody of the sheriff at Plainview while charges there were being investigated, he escaped or was given his liberty on bond, and never returned. Mr. Parker had been vigilant ever since in his efforts to locate Reed and he succeeded last week.

A. C. Bennett Child Dies At Quitaque

Mrs. Jack Alley and Mrs. Hall Robinson were called to Quitaque on Thursday afternoon of last week by the death of little Johnny Katherine Bennett, 5, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Bennett, whose death resulted from an attack of diphtheria. The remains were buried at Quitaque Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Bennett, who was the foster child of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Alley, was reared here and she and Mr. Bennett lived here for some time after their marriage.

Mrs. Alley and Mrs. Robinson returned the first of the week but Mrs. Alley went back to Quitaque Tuesday and she is expected home today accompanied by Mrs. Bennett for a few days visit.

Calf Born Every February 4 To Cow

A. L. Dunagan dropped in Wednesday to give us a "Believe It or Not" item. He says that he has a Jersey cow that for the past three years has given birth to a heifer calf on the fourth day of February.

The first heifer made its appearance on February 4, 1932, the second on February 4, 1933, and the third on February 4, 1934. This cow had delivered one calf prior to this string of heifers, but it was a bull and it did not make its advent on February 4.

Holcomb Enters Sheriff's Contest

Another candidate for sheriff is on the race track this week. B. R. (Jake) Holcomb, prominent citizen of New Lynn, announces his desire to serve the people of Lynn county as their chief peace officer.

Mr. Holcomb has been a resident of Lynn County for eleven or twelve years. He has served as a deputy sheriff of Lynn county for the past eight years and has been a member of the New Lynn school board for seven years. Last year he was a member of the local committee in the cotton plow-up campaign and is a member of the local committee in the cotton acreage reduction set-up this year.

Mr. Holcomb has been farming for a living and is not afraid of work. He has a wife and five children. He will genuinely appreciate your vote in the primaries next summer and your influence in the meantime. He will be around to see you in person a little later. His

A BIT OF PUSILLANIMOUS CUSSEDNESS

The grading and drainage structures on highway No. 9 from the southern limits of Tahoka to the Lubbock county line are practically completed. It is contemplated that a contract for paving this sector will be let soon, and that grading and drainage structures will also be begun at an early date on the sector from Tahoka to O'Donnell.

The people of Lynn county appreciate this improvement of highway No. 9 that is being made by the state highway department. A paved highway north and south through the county will be a great convenience and a source of much pleasure to our people. But there is one feature of it that they do not appreciate. They do not appreciate the fact that the state highway commission—or the district engineer—found it necessary to build this highway diagonally across the court house yard in Tahoka. They feel that this demand and this action of the commission were regrettable and inexcusable. At a time when there is a movement on foot by federal and state authorities to beautify the highways of the state, the highway commission unnecessarily, arbitrarily, and inexcusably mars this beauty spot. While a movement is being sponsored to plant out clusters of trees along various highways, the highway commission digs up and destroys a cluster of trees right in the heart of our little city and almost utterly destroys the symmetry and beauty of our court house lawn.

Not only does the routing of this highway through the lawn mar its beauty, but it will be a constant source of danger to the hundreds of people who will be periodically attending court. Passing directly across the approach to the court house on the west and within a few feet of the west end of the building, a place being used almost constantly by the public, it will be a thousand miracles if some tragic accident does not result when the highway is opened to traffic at this point.

Many of the people of Lynn county feel it was a bit of pusillanimous cussedness on the part of somebody that forced the routing of this highway across their court house lawn. And every day with cars whizzing through the lawn, hard by the court house door will be a reminder to our people of the folly and stubbornness of a department of our government created to serve the people, not to lord it over them.

And yet maybe the highway commissioners themselves are not primarily to blame. Possibly the whole trouble can be traced to a certain district engineer.

The young fellow who enters upon a criminal career has a rocky road before him and at the end of the road is disaster. We noted the following headlines on the front page of a certain daily newspaper of this state Monday: Police Character Slain in Chicago; Robber and Peace Officer Slain in Oklahoma Battle; Robber-Fugitive Dies of Wounds; Wanted for Bank Holdup, Prisoners Returned to Texas. A reading of the news stories disclosed that Ernest Rossi, an alleged bank robber, had been assassinated by other gangsters in Chicago; that Ed Clanton, a burglar, was killed at Chelesa, Oklahoma, while he and two companions were in the act of entering a store—one of the officers interfering being also killed; that Eldon Wilson, a robber, Ausie Elliot, a dangerous gunman, and Raymond Moore, one of their accomplices, were killed in a gun battle with officers at Sapulpa, Oklahoma, Sunday, two of the officers also being slain; and that the notorious Whitey Walker and his wife Dolores Walker and Ray A. Johnson had been placed in jail at Palestine, Texas, on a charge of bank robbery after having been captured at Tallahassee, Florida. Walker's right arm had been shattered by a bullet and he was carried into the jail on a stretcher. Johnson also carried a wounded arm in a sling. Noted criminals, they faced a life in prison. There is little glamor in the life of the criminal; it is mostly a life of hardships and sufferings, perhaps a drab, uneventful existence behind frowning prison walls. The young fellow who deliberately enters upon a career of crime is a fool.

The editor has been "batching" this week, but Mrs. C. B. Keltner has a kind heart and she invited us out to dinner or luncheon Monday. It was a chicken dinner, and say, folks, it was fine. When it comes to chicken this editor is a Methodist.—Tahoka News.

Yes, we are all more or less tainted with Methodism when it comes to eating chickens, Bro. Hill, and whether or not Mrs. Keltner is a Methodist, Baptist, or what have you, a good chicken dinner following a siege of batching is a sublime treat. But, what we started out to say was that we see by the papers that Bro. Hill is no longer a bachelor, and we offer our heartfelt congratulations.—Brownfield Herald.

Maury Hughes of Dallas has announced as a candidate for governor of Texas on a dripping-wet platform. He and C. C. McDonald of Wichita Falls are the outstanding wet candidates in the race. McDonald is pro-Ferguson while Hughes is anti-Ferguson, though Hughes declares that he cares nothing about the differences that have divided Texas into Ferguson and anti-Ferguson factions in the past. Edgar E. Witt of Waco, who has been listed as a dry heretofore, has also declared in favor of repeal of the dry amendment in the state constitution and of the Dean law; but with dripping wets like C. C. McDonald and Maury Hughes in the race we see no chance for Edgar E. Witt to make much inroads on the wet vote. Tom Hunter of Wichita Falls has thus far ignored the liquor issue and claims that it has no proper place in the campaign. Clint Small of Amarillo is understood to be a mild wet. Attorney-General James V. Allred declares himself to be a dry, as he has always been, but favors submitting the matter to a vote of the people, as he believes in majority rule. If the liquor question becomes the paramount issue of the campaign, as now seems probable, Jimmie Allred will probably get the biggest slice of the dry vote.

PAST WEEK ACTIVE ONE AT METHODIST CHURCH

Dr. W. M. Pearce, presiding elder of Lubbock District Methodism, held the first quarterly conference at the local church Sunday evening following a splendid sermon on by-standers and by-products. Interesting and encouraging reports on each phase of the church work were presented.

The pastor brought a brief message at the morning hour, at which time the sacrament was administered. Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Weaver furnished the special music. A special sacrificial offering was taken in connection with the Lord's Supper observance.

At an afternoon session, Dr. Pearce presided over the organization of a Standard Training Class, which he will teach each night this week. The theme of the course is "Christian Stewardship."

Young people of the church returned late Sunday evening from a District Rally held at Lorenzo Saturday and Sunday. The trip was made in a Wilson school bus and young people from Wilson and Draw helped make up the party. The following members from Tahoka were in attendance during the session: Misses Alize Weathers, Luda Strasser, Ney Camille Fenton, Ruth and Betty Suddarth, Mattie Pearl Jones, and Syble Prater; Messrs. Skiles Thomas, Henry Nelson, Alton Cain and Lester Prater; and the counselor, Mrs. Suddarth. The local president, Lester Prater, was elected district pep leader and publicity agent for the ensuing year.

Lorenzo was a truly royal host to over a hundred guests and her hospitality was indeed worthy of record. Lamesa will entertain the next rally, April 28 and 29.

PRESBYTERIAN PASTOR ANNOUNCES SUNDAY SUBJECTS

The new year gently glided in, and is moving on out with the challenge of the use of time in both temporal and spiritual things. Weeks and years glide by leaving us too often at the foot of the mountain religiously instead of upon the summit of a richer and fuller experience in our Christian calling. Let Christians as well as the business world capitalize time, and profit by the most diligent use of each passing Sunday in Sunday School. In the Church life an education is for those who will lay hold upon it, in time. Be in our services next Sunday. Our Bible Class hour is fine. You will enjoy our Sunday School and won't be jostled around much. Line up and learn more and more about your Bible, this year. Preaching services morning and night. Morning theme: "Snatching Victories Out of Apparent Defeat." The old gospel hymns and a fine fellowship. Subject Sunday night: "The Peril of Drifting Lives." The explanation of many life failures and tragedies is just this "drifting." The fine old gospel hymns and an inspirational service. Always glad to see the Presbyterians and visiting friends in our services. You are invited.—W. K. Johnston, Minister.

MRS. HAYS HOSTESS TO TAHOKA MUSIC CLUB

The Tahoka Music Club met in the home of Mrs. Lawrence Hays Thursday evening.

PERSON SERIES DRAWING CROWDS TO BAPTIST

The series of messages on "Alarming Tendencies" in the evening services is drawing large crowds and proving interesting to attendants at Baptist Church services. We appreciate the heartening words that have come from so many parents and young people; it is encouraging as we try to blaze the trail and point the way for higher social standards and deeper moral convictions. These messages do not abuse; they point out facts. Facts that ought to alarm and quicken our interest in home, church and state.

The subject for Sunday evening is "Christ Crucified in the Home of His Friends." The male quartet will sing "Shall I Crucify My Savior?" We could wish that every parent, not in another service, would make a special effort if necessary to attend this hour of worship.

Sunday morning the pastor will preach on "The Greatest Quest of Life—Soul-Winning." The women's quartet will sing "Jesus Is Tenderly Calling."

Sunday school begins promptly at 9:45. You will find a corps of teachers efficient, capable, and with a heart message, anxious to help every age and group. Do not send your children but bring them to Sunday school and church.

The B. T. S. hour is changed to 7 o'clock. Sunday evening closes the campaign of efficiency and enlargement. We have room for 100 in the training service. Let's reach the enrollment on the closing evening of the campaign.

Evening worship hour is 8 o'clock.
—Lawrence Hays, Pastor.

LOCAL SPANISH STUDENTS ARE GUESTS OF POST CLUB

Accompanied by their sponsor, Mrs. Lucille Bludworth, the following students attended a Mexican pageant at Post Wednesday afternoon: Margaret Strain, Gordon Suits, Garland Edwards and Sylvester Reese.

The Federated Club met and was entertained by Miss Pickett's Spanish classes. The roll call was answered by the members with the name of some beauty spot in Mexico. The Mexican mode of dress was illustrated by two small children. The Spanish Orchestra rendered the songs "La Paloma" and "La Golondrina" in a beautiful manner.

The program was very cultural and much enjoyed by those in attendance.

The Post Spanish department is to be commended for the excellent work which it is doing.

Come and worship with us.—Reporter.

FASHION SHOW WILL BE PRESENTED MONDAY

SING-SONG SUNDAY

The Tahoka Music Club will sponsor another sing-song at the Baptist Church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Those invited to membership in the choral club are urged to be present. Likewise, the entire community is extended an invitation to attend and participate in the singing.

CARD OF THANKS

TEMPORARY pain relief remedies may save you much suffering at the moment, but putting a mask over a warning signal does not clear up the condition it is telling you to avoid.

Fred Brown

(The Grocer)

Says...

"The Same Principles Apply to Both Groceries and Gas!"

FRED BROWN, the grocer, heard the other day that the average family spends 10 times as much for groceries as for gas. It brought to his mind another comparison—that both businesses must operate on the same fundamental principles. In selling a dozen oranges, Fred's retail price covers their cost, his expenses in handling them and a small profit. If his customers demanded oranges at a price each thought he should pay, the grocer often would lose money, because many would not appreciate all the costs involved in selling oranges, or other food items. As it is, people buy oranges on their value to the customer and both buyer and seller benefit. Fred favors gas rates being controlled by law, but believes all factors of expense to The Gas Company should be considered in arriving at these rates, and some thought should be given to the value of gas.

The Browns are typical of families in your neighborhood who operate their own businesses. They are familiar with the many costs involved in selling the products in which they are interested, and appreciate the fact that their customers buy goods for their value rather than on price alone.

Considering the value of gas, the small place it holds in the family budget, and the fact that good service depends upon sound business principles—you will appreciate gas for the bargain it is.

SINCLAIR LEWIS' NOVEL, "ANN VICKERS" ON SCREEN

Sinclair Lewis tossed "Ann Vickers" as a literary bombshell into the trenches of tradition, and now RKO Radio Pictures, which was high bidder for the screen rights, has picked it up and hurled it further at the old fortresses which have held back the march of womanhood.

Irene Dunne and Walter Huston are co-starred, and other luminaries of the screen have done their share, but credit must be given to the Lewis theme for considerable of the popularity of the current hit which is keeping the motion picture theatre turnstiles clicking.

Ann Vickers is a girl who has very modern ideas about love and the courage to do something with them. Things are quiet enough with her back in a mid-Western small town until she is caught in the war hysteria and suddenly falls in love with a handsome army captain, who betrays her and destroys her illusion of love.

Another setback in love, and Ann grows bitter. She strives to drive all thoughts of romance from her and seek comfort in a career, hoping to gain the plaudits of the public while she improves civilization. Ann finds fame but it is the fame that leaves a void in her heart.

Next, a brilliant jurist crosses her path, and another affair seems to bring her happiness.

But the man with whom she falls in love is sentenced to prison. Forced at last to choose between the love of a man behind the bars and her own brilliant career, she makes a dramatic decision.

New honors fall to Walter Huston for a difficult role in "Ann Vickers" in which he is co-starred with the beautiful Irene Dunne.

Huston is the famous Judge Dolph, man of the world, politician, family man, lover—and then bribery convict.

Huston stands before the bar of justice only a few weeks after he had presided behind it. The wife he does not love, taunts him as sentence falls. His friends desert him and career and love seem swept away until Ann Vickers proves herself to be "one woman in a million." Huston must be the suave, polished ruler of the courts and the forlorn, broken man beneath the little tent of blue which the prisoners call the sky. He is said to enact the character with rare histrionic talent.

John Cromwell has directed "Ann Vickers," with Irene Dunne as the Ann who fought her way from failure in love to fame and success and then found real happiness in prison shadows.

Draw

Five members of the Draw Methodist Young People's League attended the district rally at Lorenzo last Saturday and Sunday. The Leaguers reported a fine time and received many ideas and suggestions that will help them in their league work in the future. The officials of this local organization are working to build up the membership of the Young People's League and all young people are extended an invitation to attend next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Seventy-one members were present at the Draw Sunday School Sunday morning. Following Sunday School, Bro. Wheeler brought an interesting and well received message. Bro. Wheeler also preached at the evening service.

Little Lorene Dabney who has been ill the last few days is reported greatly improved and it is hoped that she will be back in school in the near future.

With the mid-term exams over, students of Draw High School have again settled down to normal and are going about their school work with the same interest and enthusiasm that has helped make our school a success this year. Inter-scholastic league has begun to take its place with the students, and declaimers, debaters, spellers, and essay writers are polishing up for the county meet.

The Draw High School Longhorns added another victory to their string Tuesday when they took the strong T-Bar team into camp by a final count of 33-28. The proteges of Mr. Thorpe were trailing four points at the half, but a last half spree by Florence and Hensley gave the Longhorns more than enough points to win.

The Draw High School "Hundings," girls basketball team, chalked up their seventh win of the season against Redwine Friday afternoon by a score of 37-14. Incidentally, this victory gave the team the championship of this quadrant and the right to enter the county tournament to be held in Tahoka this week end. The girls lost a practice skirmish to T-Bar earlier in the week by a score of 10-7.

He says that since he left that country tobacco has become one of the principal farm products and the tobacco industry is flourishing.

Relieves Women's Pains

Here is an example of how Cardul has helped thousands of women:
"I was very thin and pale," writes Mrs. F. H. Scott, of Roanoke, Va. "I suffered from weakness and a severe pain in my back. This pain unnerved me, and I did not feel like doing my work. I did not care to go places, and felt worn, tired, day after day."
"My mother had taken Cardul, and on seeing my condition she advised me to try it. I have never regretted doing so. I took three bottles and it built me up. I gained in weight, my color was better and the pain left my back. I am stronger than I had been in some time."

Cardul, the purely vegetable medicine which so many women take and recommend, is sold by local druggists.

New Lynn

Farming is rather on the standstill. Farmers would appreciate a good rain, although some are going ahead with their work.

Rev. M. E. Roberson, pastor of the Baptist Church, filled his regular appointment Saturday and Sunday. His messages were an inspiration to all that attended. Rev. Roberson preaches here on first and third Saturdays and Sundays. The public is invited to the regular Sunday School each Sunday.

Mr. C. A. Holcomb of Lubbock will preach next Sunday at the Methodist Church. Everybody is invited to come.

Our singing class was organized in 1930 by Mr. C. W. Krebs, who was elected president and remained so until he moved from our community. He proved an earnest worker and we miss his presence very much. Last fourth Sunday the class elected Mr. L. R. Kenley president and Luther Baker vice-president. Everybody is invited to come Saturday night.

Mrs. F. F. Kenton underwent a serious operation at the Slaton Hospital several weeks ago. She was able to return to her home Sunday. Leslie Duckett took seriously ill Sunday night and was rushed to the hospital. No further information on his condition has been reported. Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Carter were guests in Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Grimes' home Sunday.

South Ward

There were not enough present Sunday to organize Sunday School, as several of the folks got the dates mixed up. So everybody come out Sunday morning. We especially want more older folks to come.

We are going to have singing Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Everyone has a special invitation to come and bring somebody with you. Johnnie Inman is sick with the flu. Hope he will soon be up again. Clifford Gandy spent the week end visiting friends at Grassland. Misses Peggy Ridgeway and Kessie Mason went to Brownfield on business last week.

Charlie Mason spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Redding and family at the Pool Ranch near Brownfield.

The following visited Mr. and Gandy and family Sunday: Mrs. Gandy's mother sister, and brother, Mrs. James Vera, and Jessie; Misses Norene and Ophelia Mason, Mary Ellen Inman, Mrs. Ed Mason, Vinson Cobb, and Mrs. Gandy's daughter and son-in-law from Graham Chapel.

A bunch of South Warders attended singing at Edith Sunday night. They reported a large crowd and some good singing.

Everybody come out for the re-organization and singing Sunday.

J. J. MASSENGALE DIES OF PNEUMONIA ATTACK

lett, Bell county; Mr. and Mrs. F. D. C. Middleton of Canyon; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Rogers and son Clifford of Tulla; Mr. and Mrs. Charley Ellison and Mr. and Mrs. Josh Beck of Plainview, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Massengale of Lubbock, Judge and Mrs. G. E. Lockhart and Miss Barker of Lubbock, E. V. Erwin of Nolanville arrived a few minutes too late to attend the funeral.

Jesse Massengale was born at Georgetown on January 31, 1888, though his parents were residents of Bell county. He was reared near Killeen in that county and on December 8, 1908, he was married to Miss Mabel Irwin of Nolanville. Two children were born of that union, Vernon, a son, and Paye, a daughter, both of whom survive.

Mr. Massengale was a popular citizen of his home town and served several years as its city marshal.

MISCELLANEOUS

NOTICE OF INCORPORATION The Fry Auto Company of Tahoka, Texas, a partnership, hereby notifies all interested persons that it is becoming a corporation. FRY AUTO COMPANY. By W. F. Fry, Jr. 23-4tc

A few years ago he and family removed to Tahoka, since which time he has been continuously in the employ of B. R. Tate, grocery merchant. Always loyal to his employer and strictly attentive to his duties, he is due much credit for the pre-eminent success of this business. That he had many friends here was attested by the large numbers who quit their respective business employments to attend the funeral services.

His devotion to his family was so marked as to be a matter of frequent comment. He was a good neighbor and a good citizen, and had been a member of the Methodist church for more than twenty years.

Besides the two children above mentioned, he leaves surviving him his wife, one sister, Mrs. T. P. Robinson of Bartlett and two brothers, Tom Massengale of Levelland and Albert Massengale of Killeen.

GEORGE MAHON, COLORADO, CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS

26 years. He is now serving his fourth term as district attorney of the 32nd judicial district and has had a most interesting and successful career as such. Among the noted cases which he has prosecuted was the Parks murder case, Parks being charged with drowning his wife in Lake Trammell near Sweetwater. He was given a life term in the penitentiary and the case was affirmed by the court of criminal appeals. Mahon is recognized as one of the most successful prosecutors in Texas.

Born and reared on a farm, Mahon attended rural schools in Mitchell county as a boy, and he is thoroughly familiar with the hardships and the problems of the common people. Educated in the public schools, a graduate of Simmons University and the University of Texas, he is thoroughly equipped by experience and training to fight the battles of the people. He is a militant campaigner, and we predict that Mahon will gather much strength as the campaign proceeds.

In speaking of the campaign, Mahon said that he would not make a detailed statement at this time. Briefly, he said, however: "I am in sympathy with the Roosevelt idea of a new deal for the people of this country. We must have an equalization of income. I feel that a fair income on the part of the masses is essential. I believe in that policy of government which will make it possible for the farmer, the average business man, the laborer, the man who works and wants to work, to get a reasonable return for his effort. I would champion the rights of the common people."

"During the campaign and in my public appearances I shall meet the people frankly and openly. Raised in West Texas I shall feel at home among her people. As a democrat who has voted the ticket straight through the years, I shall vigorously present my candidacy to the democracy of the district. The support and assistance of the people and my friends in Lynn county will be a source of inspiration to me."

JAKE HOLCOMB IN RACE FOR SHERIFF'S OFFICE

I was born and reared in Bell County, Texas, came to the Plains in 1921, and have resided in the New Lynn community for the past nine years. I am very well known all over the county and have many friends of which I am proud, and I will say this to the voters: If I am elected to this office I will endeavor to discharge my duty according to law.

I will try to see all in person; so thanking you all in advance for all consideration given me, I remain Respectfully yours,
