COUNTY RACES DRAW INTEREST

Smith, Parker, And Ellis Elected;
Run-Offs For Superintendent And Tax Collector

Without making a search of the records, it is believed that the heaviest vote ever polled in a single election in Lynn county was polled in the Democratic primaries last Saturday. The total vote, according to unofficial though authentic returns, was 3481. Poll tax receipts issued to citizens of the county amounted to 3206. Saturday's vote therefore exceeded the number of poll taxes by 285, which is very unusual and which shows that there was considerable interest in the election.

Elsewhere in this paper we print a table showing the returns by boxes for U. S. Senator, Governor, Congress, district judge, and all contested county and precinct offices.

It will be noted that Senator Tom Connolly carried the county over Joe Bailey Jr. by a majority of nearly two to one.

In the race for governor, Allred led McDonald, the next high man, by 468 votes. He led Hunter, his opponent in the coming run-off, by 518 votes. Small ran fourth in the county, while Hughes led Witt by 3 votes.

In the congressional contest, Mahon led Taylor White by 199 votes. He beat Mullican by a vote of more

Mahon Leads In Congress Race

Practically complete unofficial returns from the 25 counties in the new 19th congressional district give George Mahon an overwhelming plurality in a field of six candidates.

These returns show that Mahon received 19,248 votes, Mullican 10,865, Duggan 9,994, Pharr 4,947, Halle, 3,381, White 2,483, and Johnson 1,824. Joe H. Thompson, the Mystery candidate, who had withdrawn, received 274 votes.

Mahon led the field in 16 of the 25 counties in the district, and he led his nearest opponent, Clark M. Mullican, in 19 counties.

Returns from all counties are practically complete, one box being missing in Lamb county, with 120 votes.

L. C. Heath Family Is Leaving City

Judge L. C. Heath and family removed the first of this week to Brownfield.

Mr. Heath has been engaged in the practice of law here for ten years or more and for two years he served as county attorney. He and family have many friends here who regret their removal from our city.

Baptists Will Hold Conference Sunday

After thoroughly considering the whole situation, the pulpit committee of the Baptist Church has decided to ask that the church have a called conference at 11 o'clock next Sunday morning. Important matters will be considered and it is desired that every member of the church be present.—Pulpit Committee.

Carl Sherrod of Fullerton, California, arrived Tuesday night to spend two or three weeks here visiting his parents and other members of the Sherrod family. All the eight children are here now and are enjoying a family reunion.

Call Mass Meet; Seek More Aid

We hereby call a mass meeting of the citizens of Lynn county to be held in the court house in Tahoka at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon, August 4, for the purpose of taking some action to procure more highway work and other relief work in this county.

H. C. Smith.

Methodist Revival Still In Progress

In spite of many distractions, fairly good crowds have been attending the revival services at the Methodist Church, and Rev. Uel D. Crosby continues to bring splendid messages.

Interest in the primary election last week end and during the first days of this week has doubtless affected the size of the congregations and the interest in the campaign.

The people of Tahoka and surrounding territory should attend in great numbers from this time on till the close of the meeting Sunday night.

ALLRED LEADS FOR GOVERNOR

Hunter In Run-Off With Attorney
General Connolly Wins
Over Joe Bailey

Unofficial returns accounting for 901,354 in last Saturday's primary gave Allred a lead of a little more than 50,000 votes over his nearest opponent, Tom F. Hunter. This includes returns from 252 of the 254 counties, 176 of them being complete. It is believed that the total vote will approach one million.

Allred and Hunter will be in the run-off, and both are already making plans for an intensive campaign. Hunter will open his campaign in Hillsboro Friday night, while Allred has announced a statewide rally of his supporters to be held in Dallas Saturday.

Incomplete returns in the race for governor are given as follows: Allred, 269,470; Hunter, 219,354; McDonald, 189,001; Small, 111,510; Witt, 56,596; Hughes, 151,248.

Senator Tom Connolly defeated Joe Bailey Jr. by a smashing majority. Latest returns give Connolly 409,506 and Bailey 259,125. Fisher, the third candidate in this contest, received only a meager vote.

Railroad commissioner Lon A. Smith led all his opponents. The

BALL CONTESTS END TOMORROW

Large Crowds Attend Games Being Held In Tahoka; Event Is A Great Success

One of the biggest crowd-drawing attractions Tahoka has had in a long time is the baseball tournament now in progress, which is being sponsored by the Lynn County Service Club. Though only five teams entered the contest, nearly a thousand people have been in attendance at the games each day, most of them being people from the rural communities.

The tournament opened Monday, and the closing game will be tomorrow afternoon. The first game, one of the best of the tournament, was between O'Donnell and New Lynn, the former winning 5 to 3. Midway ran over T-Bar 17 to 6 in an erratic but interesting setto.

Tuesday, New Lynn was again defeated, and thereby eliminated, losing to T-Bar to the tune of 12 to 5. O'Donnell added another star to her crown by defeating Cross Roads 11 to 9, this being the first game for the latter.

In Wednesday game, O'Donnell again was winner, defeating Midway, after a hot contest, 10 to 9; and T-Bar doubled the score on

Home Destroyed By Fire Sunday

A tenant house on the farm of Belton Howell and Judge W. E. Smith, occupied by E. B. Gaither and family, was totally destroyed by fire late Sunday afternoon.

The Gaither family were visiting in Tahoka at the time and practically all of their personal effects were destroyed.

The fire is said to have originated in the kitchen and is believed to have caught from an oil stove.

Thomas Loses To Doyle Settle

J. Doyle Settle, Abernathy, a graduate of the Texas Tech, had a majority of 2,284 votes in the race for state representative, 119th district, over John N. Thomas, Tahoka, incumbent, according to complete, unofficial returns from the nine counties of the district.

Totals were: Settle, 11,529; Thomas, 9,245.

Settle carried four counties, Cochran, Crosby, Hockley and Lubbock, and Thomas carried Gain's, Dawson, Lynn, Terry and Yoakum.

County votes were:

County	Thomas	Settle
Cochran	156	339
Crosby	970	1,550
Dawson	1,237	597
Gaines	419	310
Hockley	823	1,398
Lubbock	2,008	5,547
Lynn	2,444	803
Terry	1,018	843
Yoakum	180	143

Plan Street Dance On Friday Night

Friday night after the boxing and wrestling contests on the court house square, a street dance will be held, according to announcement made by the Lynn County Service Club. Music will be under the direction of Ivan C. Davis, director of the Tahoka band. There will be no admission charge, and everyone in Lynn county is invited, it is said. There will be modern music for the younger people, and old time music for those who enjoy the square dance.

The holding of the dance was approved by the board of directors in meeting Tuesday night, and will be held under the direction of the entertainment committee, composed of W. T. Jones Jr., chairman, Pete Edwards, E. A. Parks, and Claude Conway.

Bankers Lead In Soft Ball League

The Bankers still have an unbroken record of victories in the second half of the soft ball tournament being staged here. They have played four games and won four.

The Griners have not been so lucky. They stand at the foot of the class. They have played three games and lost three. But they will likely pull up their percentage with a little more practice.

Here was the standing of the various teams Thursday morning:

Team	Won	Lost	Pct.
Bankers	4	0	1.00
Fire Dept.	2	2	.50
Barbers	2	2	.500
Lumbermen	1	1	.50
Hatchery	1	1	.500
Cleaners	1	2	.333
Griners	0	3	.000

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Hancock and three daughters, Misses Beulah and Louise of New Home and Mrs. A. D. Seth of Tahoka, left Sunday morning for a few weeks visit with relatives in Los Angeles, California.

TRADES DAY IS REVIVED HERE

Service Club Sponsors Day Monthly
Benefit Of Both Merchants
And Consumers

Tahoka's first Trades Day during the current year will be staged next Monday.

The business men of Tahoka are offering special inducements to the people of Lynn county to come in on that day to do their shopping. Bargain prices will be offered by the merchants engaged in various lines of business. Many of them are placing their advertisements in the News this week, and we call attention of our readers to these messages that our business men are sending out. Read every one of them and profit thereby.

The First Monday Trades Day is being sponsored by the new Lynn County Service Club recently organized here. Each first Monday in the month has been designated as Trades Day and it is hoped to make it a great monthly occasion. Some form of entertainment or amusement will be provided on each trades day. Free prizes are being offered by the merchants.

The people from all over Lynn county and from neighboring counties are invited to come to Tahoka next Monday and take advantage of the bargain in merchandise of various kinds that our business men are offering.

Aggie Meeting At High School

There will be a meeting at the high school auditorium on Monday night, August 6th, at eight-thirty o'clock for all boys who are prospective agriculture students of Tahoka High School. The primary purpose of this meeting is to organize a Future Farmers of America chapter, or F. F. A. chapter. Every boy that contemplates taking Vocational Agriculture here in the high school is cordially invited to come and bring his father with him. We want all the parents to be familiar with the program that we are attempting to put on in this department of the high school.

This department will be open to all boys of the entire high school who can meet the Supervised Practice Requirements. These requirements will be thoroughly discussed at the meeting.

This is a National organization with 3500 local chapters in forty-six of the forty-eight states of the United States. It has been found very beneficial to the agriculture department as well as the surrounding communities. Every boy that is interested come and bring your friends that are interested in taking agriculture next year.—J. D. STRICKLAND, Vocational Agriculture Teacher.

Two Nights Of Fight Program

(By Alton Cain)

Tonight and tomorrow night, Thursday and Friday, boxing and wrestling fans will have displayed before their very eyes, in the big open air arena on the court house lawn in Tahoka, some of the best and most advanced athletic ability that this section can possibly afford. Mug punchers and necktwisters from all over Lynn County have been paired up to perform for the approval of the public in a series of contests for a "good will" championship. Every minute of the show will be thrilling.

The curtain-raiser Thursday night will be a give-and-take contest with

Santa Fe Country of New Mexico Is Rich In History, Folklore, Scenery

(Note: This is the third of a series of articles on New Mexico, written by Frank Hill of The News force.)

The New Mexico traveler, entering the Santa Fe country from the south, ascends La Bajada (the descent) hill, the highway on this long upgrade being cut through a stratum of volcanic lava, belched from the bowels of the earth by some volcano in pre-historic times.

Sangre de Cristo (blood of Christ) range, with its many peaks, some nearly as high as Pike's Peak, looms to the east and northeast.

Just at the foot of the beautiful mountains lies that typically Spanish city, capital of New Mexico, (yet, little larger than Plainview)—a small city famous in history, lore, and adventure, much visited and much written of, where "Como esta? Muy bien?" is heard more often than "How are you? Very well?"

Santa Fe—the city of "Holy Faith", founded in 1606 on the ruins of two pueblos, where the Indians, Spain, Mexico, the Confederacy, and the United States have governed! The end of the Santa Fe Trail! "The very name is redolent with history and romance," quoting an unknown writer. "Along these quaint and narrow streets linger the echoes of the steps of the Conquistadores, the shouts of roistering wagon trainmen celebrating their safe journeys across the dangerous plains, the click of castanets and the tap of dancing heels of dark-eyed señoritas, the quiet voices of the Friars who followed the flag of Spain with cross in hand."

This Old World City has adopted fewer things modern than any other city in the United States. Built around the old Plaza with its spreading cottonwoods and bisected by Santa Fe Creek, Santa Fe is today one of the few places which retains the flavor of the Past in a manner so unique and so delightful that the visitor hesitates to break the quiet or disturb the customs which make so charming an atmosphere. Spanish type public buildings, homes with patios which can be seen through grilled windows and doors, beautiful old Catholic churches, their tolling church bells announcing early morning mass, Indians from nearby pueblos squatting on the narrow sidewalks, so much conversation in that melodious Spanish tongue, beautiful trees and lawns, wood-carrying burros, colorful costumes, and the blue Sangre de Cristo ever raising its head above the housetops to the east! What a picture to a Plains resident!

Just ramble around town and enjoy this unique old town, and then visit such places as the Church of San Miguel, oldest Mission in America, and the oldest house just across the street; the old Palace of Governors on the Plaza, erected in 1605, before Jamestown was founded on our Eastern shore, and a seat of government for 300 years successively of New Spain, Mexico and territorial New Mexico, where Lew Wallace wrote "Ben Hur," and where historical and archaeological relics are now collected for the interest of modern man; the Rockefeller Museum of Anthropology near the city; the Art Museum, covering nearly half a city block, which houses specimens of Southwestern art, many of which are famous pictures valued at thousands of dollars each; the penitentiary; the State Capital.

We had the good fortune of witnessing a part of the wedding ceremony at St. Francis Catholic Church, the most beautiful church in New Mexico, of a prominent young Spanish-American couple of the city. There was much beautiful and elaborate ceremony, the pipe organ played inside and a Spanish orchestra met the party outside the church door. Fully five hundred people were there. If you ever get a chance, attend a Spanish Catholic wedding.

Out from Santa Fe are many points of interest, each worthy of a visit—Seton Village, the realization of a dream by the world-famous author-naturalist, Ernest Thompson Seton, where naturalists and students from all over the country come to study Nature's lore; Glorieta Pass, where Confederate and Union troops battled; Chimayo, where expert Mexican weavers, on ancient hand looms make genuine Chimayo rugs, and where the well-known Santuario is located to which pilgrims come from all over the nation to benefit from its alleged magic powers of healing; and nameless other places of interest.

On up the highway north of Santa Fe the auto tourist passes or is in easy reach of more Indian pueblos—Tesuque (dry spotted place), Pojuaque (water drinking place), Nambro (little mound of earth), Santa Clara, San Ildefonso, and San Juan. (Santa and San mean "Saint"). San Ildefonso is the place where that beautiful pottery of that name is made by skilled Indian potters.

A side trip to Puye and to Banderas National Monument, the latter in Canon Rito de los Frijoles (little river of the beans) is well worth while. Here archeologists have unearthed the ancient homes of a strange little race that inhabited the country possibly as early as the first century A. D. No one knows from whence this vanquished race came, who they were, or where they went. They are called the Cliff-Dwellers, because they live in caves carved in cliffs and in houses built in the larger niches, as well as in large communal houses down in the valleys.

Entering a deep valley, which gradually grows narrower and narrower until it becomes a majestic gorge, the traveler finds himself beside a roaring mountain river and can hardly realize this is the same lazy Rio Grande he has seen further down in New Mexico and at the Texas-Mexico border. And, though, the week had been the hottest in that state in 35 years, we were surprised to learn that the white stuff on a peak-top which we thought to be white rock above the timberline was snow that had fallen the night before.

A steep climb out of the Rio Grande canyon, a few miles across a plain, and there lies Rancho de Taos, home of the most painted (on canvas) church in the New world. This is also "headquarters"

Tech Will Hold One Day Course

Lubbock, Aug. 2.—"The National Program of Agriculture and How It Will Affect this Territory" will be the theme of a one day short course at the Texas Technological College, Thursday, August 9, Dr. Bradford Knapp, president, has announced.

I. W. Duggan and Maurice R. Cooper, with the cotton section of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, Washington, D. C., and Peter Molyneux, Editor of the Texas Weekly, will be among the principal speakers.

Congressman Marvin Jones, Amarillo, and other have been invited. The short course, an added feature of the Tech summer school, is being actively promoted by the Texas Extension Service officials in this section.

Farmers, bankers, merchants, teachers and others are invited to attend.

This is a great opportunity for business men and farmers to get a vision of the government's plans for agriculture for the future, with particular emphasis placed upon the effect this program will have on farming, upon banking and upon business in general in this section," Dr. Knapp said.

It's Great To Lost Fat And Feel Years Younger

We picked out this letter for fat folks to read to-day—read every word.

"I give you my full permission to print this letter. I used Kruschen Salts for reducing. I lost 30 lbs. since I have been taking it. I praise it to everybody I know that is fat. And I also feel years younger." Miss Edna Hunn, Algiers, La.

A jar of Kruschen Salts lasts 4 weeks and the cost is trifling. Are you taking Salts to reduce or to please your palate?

Just try Kruschen for a month—besides losing fat you'll gain in physical attractiveness—skin grows clear—eyes sparkle with health. Take a half teaspoonful in a glass of hot water before breakfast every morning—you feel cooler in hot weather—get it at Tahoka Drug or any drug store in the world.

THANKS

I want to express my deep gratitude for the support I received in the recent election.

To my friends who aided me so actively in the campaign, I extend my very sincere and earnest thanks, and solicit a continuance of this support and your vote in the coming "run-off" August 25th.

To the friends and supporters of the other candidates who are not in the run-off, I wish to ask for your earnest consideration and vote.

MRS. PAUL GOOCH

To The Voters Of Lynn County

The undersigned, having had occasion to observe the work of Mrs. Paul Gooch while she was County Superintendent of Dawson County, Texas, for three years, wish to take this method of announcing to the public our appreciation to Mrs. Gooch for the efficient and business-like manner in which she conducted the affairs of the office.

We wish to commend Mrs. Gooch to the voters of Lynn county as being efficient in every respect, energetic, and a hard worker, with a high moral character, and a very pleasing manner, and we know she is competent for the position she is now asking for.

Any courtesy extended Mrs. Gooch will be greatly appreciated by us.

Constipation Symptoms Soon Go Away After Use of Black-Draught

Mrs. S. G. Ramey, of Henryetta, Okla., writes that she has taken Thedford's Black-Draught about twenty-five years, when needed, and has "found it very good." "When I have a sour stomach and my mouth tastes bitter, and I feel bilious, sluggish and tired, I will very soon have a severe headache if I don't take something. I have learned to keep off these spells by taking Thedford's Black-Draught. Very soon I am feeling fine. I feel that Black-Draught can't be beaten as a family medicine." ... SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NUMBER 2

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas: Section 1. That the Constitution of the State of Texas, Article 16, be amended by adding thereto another Section, Section 61, which shall read as follows:

"Section 61. All district officers in the State and all county officers in counties having a population of twenty thousand (20,000) or more, according to the then last preceding Federal census, shall hereafter be compensated on a salary basis. In all counties of this State the Commissioners' Court shall be authorized to determine whether precinct officers shall be compensated on a fee basis or on a salary basis; and in counties having a population of less than twenty thousand (20,000) according to the then last preceding Federal census, the Commissioners' Court shall also have the authority to determine whether county officers shall be compensated on a fee basis or on a salary basis. All fees earned by district, county or precinct officers shall be paid into the County Treasury where earned, for the account of the proper fund, provided that fees incurred by the State, county and any municipality, or in case where pauper's oath is filed, shall be paid to the County Treasurer when collected, and provided that where any officer is compensated wholly on a fee basis, such fees may be retained by such officer, or paid into the Treasury of the county as the Commissioners' Court may direct. All Notaries Public, County Surveyors and Public Weighers shall continue to be compensated on a fee basis."

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional amendment shall be submitted to vote of the qualified voters of this State at the next general election to be held on Tuesday, after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1934, at which election all voters favoring said proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words:

"For the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas adding Section 61 to Article XVI, abolishing the fee system of compensating all district officers and all county officers in counties having a population of twenty thousand (20,000) or more; and authorizing the Commissioners' Court to determine whether county officers in counties containing less than twenty thousand (20,000) population shall be compensated on a fee basis or a salary basis."

Each voter shall scratch out with pen or pencil the clause which he desires to vote against so as to indicate whether he is voting for or against said proposed amendment. (A true copy) W. W. HEATH, Secretary of State.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NUMBER 16

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas: Section 1. That Section 1 of Article 8 of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

Section 1. TAXATION TO BE EQUAL AND UNIFORM AS TO REAL ESTATE AND TO BE EQUAL AND UNIFORM AS TO ALL REASONABLE CLASSIFICATIONS OF PROPERTY; AND OCCUPATION AND INCOME TAXES; EXEMPTIONS; LIMITATIONS UPON COUNTIES, CITIES, ETC.

"Taxation of real property shall be equal and uniform. All property in this State, whether owned by natural persons or corporations, other than municipal, shall be taxed in proportion to its value, which shall be ascertained as may be provided by law. The Legislature may by general laws make reasonable classifications of all property other than real property for the purpose of taxation, and may impose different rates thereon; provided that the taxation of all property in any class shall be equal and uniform. The Legislature may impose a poll tax. It may also impose occupation taxes, both upon natural persons and upon corporations, other than municipal, doing business in this State. It may also tax incomes of both natural persons and corporations other than municipal, except that persons engaged in mechanical and agricultural pursuits shall never be required to pay an occupation tax; provided that Two Hundred Fifty ($250.00) Dollars worth of household and kitchen furniture, belonging to each family in the State shall be exempt from taxation, and provided further that the occupation tax levied by any county, city, or town for any year shall not exceed one-half of the tax levied by the State for the same period of such profession or business."

Section 2. The foregoing amendment to the Constitution of Texas shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified voters of this State at an election to be held throughout the State on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1934. At this election, all voters favoring said amendment shall write, or have printed, on their ballots the words:

"For the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas providing that taxation of real property shall be equal and uniform; and that all property in this State, other than that owned by municipal corporations, shall be taxed in proportion to its value as ascertained as may be provided by law; and providing that the Legislature may make reasonable classifications of all property, other than real property, for the purpose of taxation, and that the taxation of all property in any class shall be equal and uniform; and providing further that the Legislature may impose poll tax and occupation tax and income tax and exempting from occupation tax persons engaged in mechanical and agricultural pursuits; and exempting from taxation Two Hundred Fifty ($250.00) Dollars worth of household and kitchen furniture belonging to each family; and providing that the occupation tax levied by any county, city or town shall not exceed one-half that levied by the State for the same period."

Those voters opposing said proposed Amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words: "Against the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas providing that taxation of real property shall be equal and uniform; and that all property in this State, other than that owned by municipal corporations, shall be taxed in proportion to its value as ascertained as may be provided by law; and providing that the Legislature may make reasonable classifications of all property, other than real property, for the purpose of taxation, and that the taxation of all property in any class shall be equal and uniform; and providing further that the Legislature may impose poll tax and occupation tax and income tax and exempting from occupation tax persons engaged in mechanical and agricultural pursuits; and exempting from taxation Two Hundred Fifty ($250.00) Dollars worth of household and kitchen furniture belonging to each family; and providing that the occupation tax levied by any county, city or town shall not exceed one-half that levied by the State for the same period."

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NUMBER 41

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas: Section 1. That Section 5, Article XI, of the Constitution of Texas, be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

"Section 5. Cities having more than five thousand (5000) inhabitants may, by a majority vote of the qualified voters of said city, at an election held for that purpose, adopt or amend their charters, subject to such limitations as may be prescribed by the Legislature, and providing that no charter or any ordinance passed under said charter, shall contain any provision inconsistent with the Constitution of the State, or of the general laws enacted by the Legislature of this State; said cities may levy, assess and collect such taxes as may be authorized by law or by their charters; but no tax for any purpose shall ever be lawful for any one year, which shall exceed two and one-half percent (2½%) of the taxable property of such city, and no debt shall ever be created by any city, unless at the time provision be made to assess and collect annually a sufficient sum to pay the interest thereon and creating a sinking fund for at least two per cent (2%) thereon; provided further, that no city charter shall be altered, amended or repealed often than every twelve (12) months."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the State at the next general election, to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1934; at which election all voters favoring such proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words: "For the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas permitting any Home Rule City to alter, amend or repeal its charter every twelve (12) months;" and those opposed shall write or have printed on their ballots the words: "Against the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas permitting any Home Rule City to alter, amend or repeal its charter every twelve (12) months."

ABOUT THE DEFEATED
CANDIDATE

Some of the best men God ever made were defeated for office Saturday. Some of the best among the best made a very poor showing in the election returns.

However, they should not feel humiliated or despondent.

They should not feel that their friends deserted or double-crossed them.

In some instances, these candidates used poor judgment to begin with in entering the respective contests. In some instances they were crowded off the boards by later entries. In most cases considerations other than personal friendship figured heavily in the results. Some of the candidates who sustained the most decisive defeats had hosts of warm personal friends. Some of them made many new friends during the campaign. But there is a vast difference in personal esteem for an individual and a conviction that he is the best qualified man in the race for the office he seeks.

The News editor for instance, had to choose between warm friends in a number of races. The same was true of nearly every voter. An election table, therefore, is no index as to the number of personal friends a candidate may have.

Therefore, in most instances, the defeated candidates should not feel that they have few friends. They should not feel humiliated. They should not become disgruntled. Let them be brave and cheerful if they would increase the esteem and respect of their fellowmen.

As for the rest of us, let us not chide them. Neither should we undertake to flatter or deceive them.
Let us be frank but generous and sympathetic.

The defeated candidate doesn't need a kick; he needs a friendly slap on the back.

FEDERAL AID TO BE GIVEN
91 W. T. S. T. C. STUDENTS

Canyon, July 28.—Ninety-one Texas college boys and girls will receive aid of the United States government in attending school at the West Texas State Teachers College during the 1934-35 session, according to instructions received by the college this week. The proportion of boys and girls helped under this plan must be determined on the basis of the college enrollment October 15, 1933.

No student whose family can possibly finance his education will be given aid under the F. E. R. A. No more than $20 per month can go to one student and the average for the 91 students must be not more than $15 per month. The instructions further state that only young men and women of character and ability to do excellent college work can be considered and no more than 50% of those to be helped can be chosen from the ranks of students who were in college anywhere in January 1934. It is the purpose of the Federal Government to help able and deserving students who have entered college or who have completed high school and have not yet had a chance to begin their college work.

"So far as the West Texas State Teachers College is concerned," said Dr. Hill, "every young man and woman who receives the aid will be chosen from among the many deserving, needy students who have done work of a 'B' grade or have maintained an average of 85% during their last 2 years in high school or while in college. They will be young people of fine character and high ambitions. We shall consider it our purpose to help the Federal Government build citizenship and provide leadership through education."

"Professor C. A. Murray, head of the Mathematics Department of the college will receive applications from young people who can attend college only through this aid and are otherwise qualified for this aid.
Those interested should make application at once as the West Texas State Teachers College quota of 91 students will soon be filled."

There were about 30 guests present.

Mr. and Mrs. Dearman and daughters visited Mr. and Mrs. J.
A. Sanders Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Culford visited Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Anderson
Sunday.

Miss Lola Smith visited Miss Linnie Tippit last week. She visited Mrs. J. A. Sanders Sunday.

Ruby Payne visited Marie Owens
Sunday.

W. T. McPadon visited J. W.

"THE THIN MAN" PRESENTS
BAFFLING MURDER MYSTERY

If you enjoy sitting on the edge of your chair, and if you enjoy being left completely in the dark while trying to solve a most baffling murder mystery, don't fail to see new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer-Cosmopolitan picture, "The Thin Man," which shows Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at the English Theatre.

Best of Detective Tales
Alexander Woolcott declared
"The Thin Man" to be the best detective story ever written by an American author, and Sinclair Lewis described it as "the most breathless of all of Dashiell Hammett's stories. This reviewer agrees with both these learned literary men."

"The Thin Man" is the story of Nick Charles, an ex-detective who is Sherlock-Holmes, S. S. Van Dine and all other crack detectives rolled into one.

It tells of three murders which involved Charles, against his will,
with the unusual Wynant family.
His method of solving the crimes provides one of the most exciting climaxes of all detective pictures.

A Splendid Cast
William Powell plays Nick Charles, and surpasses all his earlier detective roles in the role. Myrna Loy appears as his happy-go-lucky wife, Nora, and Maureen O'Sullivan carries off honors with her successful handling of the part of Dorothy Wynant.

Myrna Lombard, more often seen in comedy parts, appears in a tense emotional role in this picture, and Nat Pendleton, always a gangster heretofore, becomes a bewildered detective lieutenant. Other roles are ably handled by Porter Hall, Henry Wadsworth, William Henry and Edward Ellis.

W. S. Van Dyke, who has given us such memorable pictures as "Trader Horn" and "Eskimo," did a noble job of directing "The Thin Man."

New Lynn

A large crowd attended church Sunday night at the Nazarene church. Rev. H. J. Bingham conducted the service and his message was enjoyed by all.

The Kid Singing Convention which met at New Lynn Sunday was well attended and everyone enjoyed the singing. We were encouraged very much by the presence of the many visitors that attended. We are looking forward to the time when we can welcome you all back to New Lynn again.

The Baptist revival begins Wednesday night. The pastor, Rev.
Roberson will do the preaching.
Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

Mr. Carl McNeal was a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. King Claborn Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Keeton were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs.
Gray Sunday.

Miss Romilda Young returned home for the week end from Lubbock where she is attending the Stamps-Baxter School of Music, which will continue for two weeks.
We are certainly glad Miss Young is having the privilege of attending this school and we hope she accomplishes much through her efforts.

Mr. Horace Krebs of Wilson was a guest in the home of Mr. Lee Roy Baker Sunday.

Black-Draught Brings Refreshing Relief of Constipation Troubles

Constipation produces many disagreeable sensations, several of which are mentioned by Mr. T. E.
Stith, of Boonville, Ind., who writes: "I have used Theodor's Black-Draught many years when needed for biliousness and other minor ills when a laxative was needed. I have a tight feeling in my chest when I get bilious. I get dizzy and feel very tired, just don't feel like doing my work. After taking Black-Draught, I feel much better. This is why I continue to use it when needed." ... Theodor's Black-Draught is a good, purely vegetable laxative, obtainable for 25¢ a package.

Miss Zella Mae Gray was a guest in the home of Mrs. Lester Keeton
Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis of Gariynn were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Parker Sunday.

Miss Margie Higginbotham, Hallie Higginbotham, Irene Claborn, Madie Claborn were guests in the home of Miss Artie Edwards Sunday.

Singing on Saturday nights will be dismissed until the close of the Baptist Revival.

A PAYROLL to support
34,000 Texas People

IN 1933 over 34,000 Texans depended upon the pay checks of Texas legal reserve life insurance companies for their means of a livelihood. To the 10,000 people directly employed in home offices and the field went $8,000,000.00 for wages, salaries and commissions.

For purchases made in Texas and in tax payments, in 1933 these companies paid out an additional $2,115,000.00 ... support of further employment in Texas.

The Texas companies also had another payroll, much larger and equally important. In 1933 they sent $20,000,000.00 to Texas beneficiaries and policyholders in payment of death claims, surrender values, endowments and annuities.

These companies had $83,000,000.00 invested in Texas in 1933
... and released into the channels of trade $30,000,000.00 of spendable income.

The Texas companies and their 1,200,000 policyholders invite you to join them in the important work of making Texas a better state

Public Knows Little Of Texas' Snakes

(By C. C. Bishop)

A man writing about the snakes of Texas in the early days, said that, few new countries had been less troubled with serpents than Texas.

He stated that the rattlesnake, which grows to a large size, is not apt to attack a man unless it be trampled upon, or otherwise provoked and it almost invariably gives timely warning by shaking the rattles with which it is furnished.

The large rattlesnake is seldom seen far out on the prairie; the moccasin is confined to wet, or marshy land; the prairie snake is a small reptile about a foot in length, and of drab color.

Besides these, the copper-head snake is the only venomous serpent to be found in Texas.

The Indians, it is said, when bitten by the rattlesnake, kill it—taking care that it does not bite itself—and applied the fleshy part of the tail to the wound until the poison was extracted.

A root called snakes'-master, which grows abundantly in the pine-woods, is said to be an efficient remedy for the reptile's venom.

The man writing further states that it is a received opinion in the Western States that the external and internal application of volatile alkali will neutralize the poison and effect a certain cure.

The following remedy has been recommended by a physician who had witnessed its beneficial effects. To the freshly bitten surface he applied a burning hickory stick, and kept it there long enough to raise a deep blister.

This was performed about sunset upon a soldier's leg, and the next day the man marched and did his duty as usual.

Among the harmless snakes is the glass snake, of a lustrous brilliancy, which if struck on the back, will break into a number of pieces, like glass.

The deer of Texas seemingly has a dislike for the rattlesnake, when locating one, the deer would retire back, then rush forward, killing the snake with its hoofs.

Where the population became more dense, the most destructive foes of this hated reptile was the hog, which killed and devoured them greedily.

With the rapid increase of the unclean beast, the rattlesnake in Texas will speedily disappear.

Great numbers of them are destroyed annually in the periodical burning of prairie grass.

One man writing a hundred years after the above author's writing, states that the wild hogs of Southwest Texas, relished no food so well as that of rattlesnake.

The largest of the reptile class found in Texas during the pioneer days was the alligator.

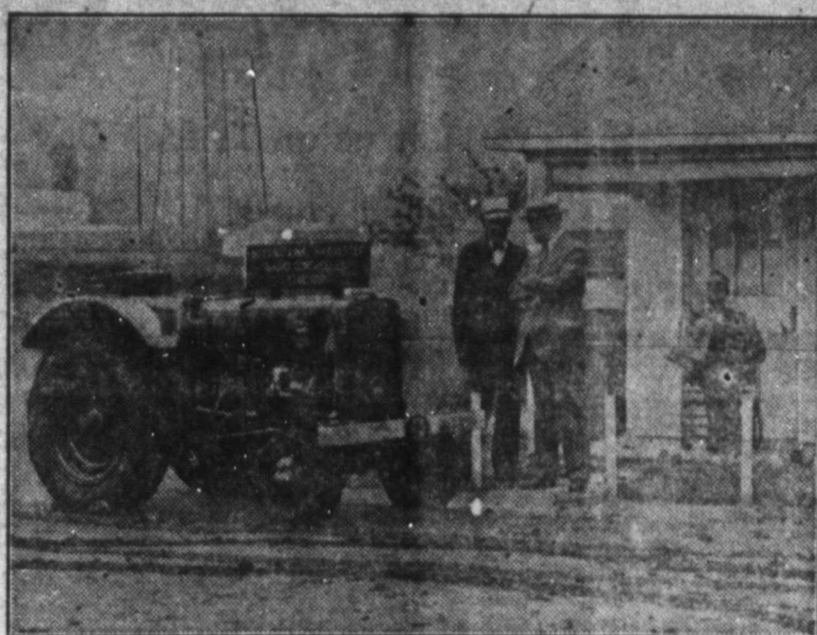

These creatures were, however, rather objects of terror from their bulk, than from their actual aggression—sometimes measuring sixteen feet in length.

Colorado Editor Is Speaker In Tahoka

W. S. Cooper, editor of The Colorado Record, was here last Friday afternoon and spoke at the candidate rally Friday night in the interest of George Mahon.

Cooper proved that he is quite an orator as well as an editor. He and the Whipkeys are issuing one of the best weekly papers in Texas, and now it turns out that he is as good on the stump as he is on the typewriter.

Fair Robot Farms by Radio

One of the thrills for farmers during Farm Week at the Chicago World's Fair, Aug. 11 to 18, will be this mechanical farmer directing a tractor by radio in the International Harvester exhibit.

Looking on are Rufus C. Dawes (left) president of the Fair, and H. E. McKinstry, president of the International Harvester Co. The exhibit also includes displays of other farm machinery.

Fair Relic

The Mississippi, ancient locomotive which helped to build the South 100 years ago, and is now in Wings of a Century at the Chicago World's Fair, provides a resting place for Mrs. M. O. Peterson, of Des Moines, Iowa, as Ole Read, famed author, tells something of its history.

Lemuel King, who formerly lived a few miles north of here, but who has lived in Amarillo the past few years, was a candidate for Constable in that city in the recent primary. Though third man in a field of eight candidates, Lem lacked only a few votes getting into the run-off. He received about nine hundred votes.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas: Section 1. That Section 16, Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

"Section 16. All land mentioned in Sections 11, 12 and 15 of Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Texas, now belonging to the University of Texas, shall be subject to the taxation for county and school district purposes to the same extent as lands privately owned; provided they shall be rendered for taxation upon the values fixed by the State Tax Board and that the values fixed for school district purposes shall not exceed the values fixed for county purposes on the same land; and provided that the University of Texas from the University Available Fund, shall remit annually to each of the counties and school districts in which said lands are located an amount equal to the tax imposed upon said land for county and school district purposes."

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the State at the next general election at which election all voters favoring said proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words: "For the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas subjecting the lands of the University of Texas to taxation for county and school purposes, and providing for the payment of said taxes to the proper authorities of the counties and school districts where said lands are located," and all those opposed shall write or have printed on their ballots the words "Against the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas subjecting the lands of the University of Texas to taxation for county and school purposes, and providing for the payment of said taxes to the proper authorities of the counties and school districts where said lands are located." CHURCH OF CHRIST NOTES

We want to express our appreciation for the fine way the people of our community treated the Orphans and their program last week, the church was filled to overflowing and a very generous contribution was received. The longer I live in Tahoka the more I am convinced that some of the best people on earth live here.

The people welcomed me back last Lord's day with two fine crowds and the best of fellowship prevailed. Due to our new song books the singing has improved.

Subjects for next Lord's day will be "The Mission of the Church" at the morning hour and "Repentance" in the evening.

Come with us and we will do thee good.—R. P. Drennon.

JUNIOR MUSIC CLUB MET WITH MISS EVA DOUTHIT

The third meeting of the Minor Baton met at the home of Miss Eva Douthit on Monday evening. A short business session was first conducted, but due to the absence of the sponsor, caused by illness, discussion of the year's program was postponed until the next meeting. It was decided to have each member choose one musician, composer or singer and tell one interesting fact about him for Roll Call during the club year. For the rest of the evening music, songs, games and refreshment (cold watermelon) were enjoyed by all. The meeting was closed by the singing of "Taps" in unison. One visitor was present, Mr. J. C. McKensie of Tahoka.

The next meeting will be held at the home of the Counselor, with Boswell Edwards as host.

SURPRISE ICE CREAM SUPPER GIVEN TO KARNES FAMILY

On Tuesday evening, July 24, friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Nelson of the New Lynn community to surprise Mr. and Mrs. Ed Karnes and daughter, Burnell, with a farewell ice cream supper. Each family brought ice cream and cake.

Everyone joined in all kinds of games and sports. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Roy Baker and children, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Kenley and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lon Cashion and children, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Parrish, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Parrish and children, Mr. and Mrs. Amber Parrish, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Tounley and children, Mr. and Mrs. Buck Chesser, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Cearley and children, Miss Martha Chansler, Miss Irene Claybourn, Mr. and Mrs. E. Karnes and daughter, Burnell, and Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Nelson and son, Charles Ray.

Everyone reported the grandest time and after refreshments left wishing them happiness and prosperity in their new home at Goldthwaite.—One present.

BIRTHDAY DINNER GIVEN HONORING G. K. PHIPPS

Relatives and friends spent a most enjoyable day at Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Phipps Tuesday, July 31, it being Mr. Phipps birthday. There were 59 present. A bountiful feast was spread at the noon hour. A beautiful white cake with sixty pink candles and holders adorned the center of the table. Pictures were taken in the afternoon, after which all wished Mr. Phipps many more happy birthdays.

The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Phipps, Mrs. Biffie Cabe and little daughter, Mary Louise; Mrs. Phipps' sister, Miss Ida Lowder; Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Willingham, Mrs. Toy Ketner, Mrs. Saints and three children, Fern and Vada Bell Willingham, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Willingham, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Willingham and son, Brother and Sister Garnett and five children, Miss Ruby Lemond, Grandpa Schioler, Grandpa and Grandma Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. G. Candidates Thank The Voters

Nordyke Is Thankful

The person who lacks gratitude ceases to be entirely human. I have never felt more humble or more grateful than I do now for the splendid support given me in our recent election. One's friends do the selecting and my friends were active over the entire county. I appreciate such an expression of confidence more than words can tell. Especially do I appreciate the support given me in my own precinct.

The best means I have of showing my appreciation is by giving the best service of which I am capable. You can depend upon me for such service. I also invite your friendly counsel relative to any matter where all of our people are concerned. Most sincerely yours, LEVI M. NORDYKE.

Harrison Appreciate Support

To the voters in Precinct 1, and my friends of Lynn County: I wish to thank you for your vote and influence in my race for a second term as public weigher and am asking for your support in the August 25th election.

King Returns From New Mexico Visit

Mr. John B. King of the Dixie community, 89 years old but hale and hearty, returned Thursday night of last week from an extended visit with relatives at and near Lindreth, New Mexico.

Mr. King enjoyed the climate and the scenery very much. Lindreth has an elevation of 6,900 feet, he says. One mile west is the continental divide, 7,500 feet above sea level. Sixteen miles to the south are the Jemez Mountains with San Pedro Peak rearing its head 9,000 feet above the sea. The Capulin range is eight miles east and the Gallinas 16 miles northeast with Dead Man's Lookout 10,000 feet high.

Mr. King says the principal crop out in the mountain country is beans. Many potatoes are also raised. It's a mighty fine place to spend the summer, but Mr. King was eager to get back to Lynn county in time to vote.

J. O. Tinsley's Obituary

I wish to thank the voters of Precinct One for the support I received in Saturday's election. Also, I want to thank each one for the courtesy shown me during my campaign. Making the race was a pleasure to me. I appreciate the new friends I met and made even more than the votes I received because I hope to hold the friends. But the votes soon faded away and I ended up in the cellar. They say the further down you go the cooler you get unless you go too far. Well, I evidently went too far because I got very uncomfortable as my temperature rapidly rose.

I hold no ill will toward anyone, have more friends than when I announced, think more of my opponents and honestly believe I would have been elected if I had received enough votes, but as I didn't I'm pulling out of the race.

JAMES O. TINSLEY.
P. S. I still have my one wife and our children left.

Thanks To The Voters:

I want to take this means to thank the voters for what you did for me in the campaign for County Superintendent. You did your part and I tried to do mine, even though we lost it was a great extent a victory. And to those who did not support me, I hold no ill will for I feel that you were not against me but for your candidate which was your privilege. And in this word of appreciation I feel that I would be very ungrateful if I did not thank the boys and girls of this county for their active part in my behalf. In fact, I greatly appreciate every kind deed that was done for me and every vote that was cast for me and I trust that I may live to see the time when I can, in some way, repay you for what you have done for me.

Hoping that I have the friendship of every citizen of Lynn county and assuring you that I stand strictly for clean politics, I am your friend,
J. FLOYD JORDAN

Connally Thanks Supporters

To My Friends and Supporters:
It will be impossible for me to see personally and extend direct thanks to all of my friends and supporters for their loyalty and support in the campaign which has just come to an end.

Because of the limited time between the adjournment of Congress and the date of the primary it was impossible for me to visit all counties in the state and to meet my friends and supporters. Allow me to take this means of thanking the Democracy of Texas for re-nominating me to a second term in the United States Senate.

To those friends and supporters who actively worked for me I want to express a very deep and keen sense of gratitude. It shall be my earnest desire to so serve the people of Texas during the next six years as to justify the confidence and regard of all who gave my candidacy their support.

TOM CONNALLY

Statement From Mahon
I feel under everlasting obligation to all the people of the 19th Congressional District on account of the results of last Saturday's primary. I want the people to know that I appreciate their wonderful consideration of my candidacy for Congress. With the continued assistance of my friends and the people generally in every county I feel we can approach the run-off campaign with confidence. The voters gave me a lead over all 7 opponents in 16 counties and a lead over my nearest opponent in 19 out of the 25 counties. I am incapable of fully expressing my gratitude for such an endorsement.

GEOGE MAHON.

Miss Ellis Thanks Voters
To The Citizens of Lynn County:
I wish to express my thanks for the vote that nominated me Treasurer of Lynn county for another term. This privilege of service is a happy one, and I shall take every opportunity to serve you as efficiently as I am capable. Sincerely, VIOLA ELLIS.

"Now I'm the Picture of Health," Says Lady After Taking CARDUI

Here is how Cardui helped an Alabama lady. "I suffered from pains in my back and sides," writes Mrs. A. G. Gray, of Gussies, Ala. "I was so thin and weak, I read of Cardui and decided to take it. I noticed at once it was helping me. I kept taking Cardui until I had finished five bottles. I gained. My health was much better. Now I am the picture of health. My color is good and my weight increased." Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.

Hord Is Appreciative

To the citizens and voters of Commissioner Precinct No. 1, Lynn County, Texas:

I most earnestly thank each of you for your loyal support and influence in my behalf for Commissioner, which placed me in the run-off primary.

I am entering the run-off hoping that those voters who supported the eliminated candidates and those of you who did not vote in the recent election will give me your support and influence in the August 25th primary.

I shall continue to conduct my campaign in a clean, fair way, and I shall endeavor as best I can to see each of you personally before August 25th. Should I by any reason fail to see you, it will not be intentionally.

Let me express my thanks to my opponents and to those who did not support me for their fair dealing and courteous treatment during the recent campaign. Gratefully yours,
J. D. HORD.

Cade Thanks Voters

I want to take this opportunity of expressing my thanks and appreciation to the people of Lynn county for all courtesies shown me during my campaign, and for the wonderful vote received in the primaries Saturday the 28th for the new office of Tax Assessor and Collector. I have enjoyed the privilege of serving the people of this county as Tax Collector and believe my experience in Tax work will enable me to discharge the duties of the new combined office to the satisfaction of the people, if elected.

I earnestly solicit your continued support and will appreciate your vote in the second primary August 25, 1934.

I also want to thank my contestants through these columns for the fairness and courtesies in the race.

Again thanking you, I am,

Candidates Thank The Voters

Notice To The Public
I wish to express my sincere appreciation to the people of this county for the fine support which I received in my race for County Superintendent in the recent primary. Although I did not win a place in the run-off, I feel that the new contacts and friendships made are worth a lot. I cheerfully abide by the verdict of the people and shall give my loyal cooperation to whoever is elected.

CLOVIS L. VAUGHN

Edwards Appreciative
I wish to thank the voters of Lynn county for the courteous manner in which they treated me during the campaign that has just closed and for the splendid support they gave me last Saturday. It was through their kindness that I was able to win a place in the run-off, and I earnestly solicit and will keenly appreciate your support in the election of August 25 whether you voted for me or some other candidate last Saturday.

EDGAR W. EDWARDS.

Parker Is Joyous

It is impossible for me to express in words the gratitude I feel for the overwhelming vote of confidence given me in last Saturday's primary. My majority of more than 500 over all my opponents exceeded all expectations. I have tried to make a good sheriff and this wonderful expression of approval will only spur me on to renewed and more devoted efforts in your behalf. I thank you from the depths of my heart.

B. L. PARKER.

Smith Expresses Gratitude
I wish to express my gratitude to the voters of Lynn county for the splendid vote of confidence and approval they gave me on last Saturday. I crave and will appreciate the continued cooperation of the people of Lynn county in my efforts to serve the best interests of all the people. W. E. (Happy) SMITH.

Small Expresses Thanks
I wish to say to the people of precinct No. 1 that I sincerely appreciate the splendid vote they gave me last Saturday. I also wish to say to those who voted for some other candidate that I will keenly appreciate their support in the run-off. Again I thank you.

GEO. W. SMALL

Holland Thanks Voters
I wish to express my thanks and appreciation to the citizens of Precinct No. 2, and to other citizens of Lynn county for their support and influence during my campaign for commissioner. I feel that I have many friends and hope that the citizens feel the same of me. I will do all that is in my power to aid the winning candidate.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NUMBER 13

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:
Section 1. That Section 3 of Article VIII of the Constitution of the State of Texas be so amended as to hereafter read as follows:

"Section 3. Taxes shall be levied and collected by general laws and for public purposes only; and the total amount of revenue which the State shall be authorized to collect during such biennium from taxes, licenses, permits and fees, (except fees paid by students to state educational institutions, and except rentals, bonuses and royalties obtained from public lands and other public property) shall not exceed a sum reasonably estimated to equal the product obtained by multiplying the number of the inhabitants of this State by the sum of Twenty-two and 50-100 ($22.50) Dollars; provided, however, the total amount of such revenue which may be so collected, shall be reduced by the amount of any surplus funds or unexpected appropriations remaining at the close of the preceding biennium. The expenditures of the State government of funds derived from the sources above referred to shall never exceed during any biennium, a sum equal to the product obtained by multiplying the number of inhabitants of this State by the sum of Twenty-two and 50-100 ($22.50) Dollars, provided however, that the population of the State (in determining the amount of revenue which may be collected from taxes, licenses, permits and fee or expended from the revenue thus obtained) shall be determined by the then last preceding Federal census, to which population shall be added or deducted, as the case may be, for each year that has elapsed since the last preceding Federal census, the average yearly increase or decrease of the population as shown by said Federal census when compared with the Federal census which immediately preceded said last Federal census. Provided, further, that in case of war, riots, or insurrection, or a statewide calamity caused by earthquake, fire, flood, or an epidemic which seriously threatens the health of the citizens of this State, the Legislature shall have authority, by a two-thirds vote of both Houses, to suspend for a definite period this constitutional limitation as to the amount of money which may be collected and expended during the biennium."

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to the electors of this State qualified to vote on constitutional amendments at an election to be held throughout the State on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1934, at which election each ballot shall have printed thereon the words: "For the Amendment of Section 3 of Article VIII of the State Constitution providing for the levying and collection of taxes and fixing the maximum amount thereof which can be collected and expended each biennium."

Section 3. The amendment of Section 3 of Article VIII of the State Constitution providing for the levying and collection of taxes and fixing the maximum amount thereof which can be collected and expended each biennium.

Each voter shall scratch out with pen or pencil the clause which he desires to vote against so as to indicate whether he is voting for or against said proposed amendment. (A true copy) W. W. HEATH, Secretary of State.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NUMBER 14

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:
Section 1. That there be added to Article IX of the Constitution of the State of Texas a new section to be numbered Section 2-A and to have five (5) lettered subdivisions and which section shall read as follows:

"Section 2-A.
(a) General management and control of the affairs of the County shall hereafter be vested in the Commissioners Court, provided that in the exercise of powers not specifically granted to the Commissioners Court by the Constitution and Amendments thereto, the Court shall be subject to the authority of the Legislature of the State, and the Court shall also be subject to all general laws of the State now in force not in conflict with the provisions of this Amendment until such laws are modified or repealed.
(b) All duties heretofore performed by the Clerk of the District Court and the County Clerk shall hereafter be performed by an officer to be known as Record Clerk; all duties heretofore performed by the County Tax Assessor and County Tax Collector shall hereafter be performed by one officer known as Tax Clerk; and in the counties where the sheriff performs the duties of the Tax Collector he may hereafter perform the duties of the Tax Clerk. The Record Clerk and the Tax Clerk shall be elected to hold office for a term of two (2) years and until their successors shall be elected and qualified. The Commissioners Court shall have authority to combine the office of County Treasurer and the office of County Surveyor, or to combine either, or both, of said offices with any county office. Within the maximum and minimum limits prescribed by the Legislature the Commissioners Court shall have authority to fix the compensation of all county and precinct officers except County Auditor, County Judge and County Commissioners. The Legislature shall fix the compensation of District Judges, District Attorneys, County Judges and the County Commissioners and may provide for a County Auditor and prescribe his duties and fix his compensation and the number and compensation of his assistants. The Commissioners Court shall fix the compensation of and determine the number of deputies, assistants and clerical personnel of all precinct officers and county officers except the county auditor.
(c) City and county officers and employees may, in addition to their duties as such city and county officers or employees, be required to perform such other similar duties for cities, towns and districts within the county, or for the county, as may be mutually agreed upon and contracted for between the Commissioners Court of said county and the governing board, or boards, of such cities, towns and districts; and the cost of such service shall be provided for in said contracts and paid by such county, cities, towns or districts into the Treasury of the county or city, town or district, as provided for in said contract. All such contracts shall be approved by the Attorney General of this State and such contracts shall not cover a period longer than two years.

"(d) The Legislature shall have authority, by general law, to provide for complete forms of county government and organizations different from that provided for in this Constitution to become effective in any county when submitted in such manner as may be prescribed by the Legislature to the qualified voters of such county in an election held for such purpose and approved by a majority of the qualified voters voting in said election. Provided, however, that no such law shall impair the authority of the Commissioners Court to determine the compensation of county and precinct officers other than the County Auditor, to fix the number of assistants, deputies, and clerical personnel which said officers may employ; nor shall such general law change the present constitutional limitations as to particular and total tax levies for any or all county purposes nor shall such general law change the present constitutional limitations on counties to incur public debts.

"(e) In any and all cases where provisions of the Constitution of this State are in conflict with the provisions of this Amendment, the provision of this Amendment (Section 2-A, Article IX) shall control; provided, however, should any county adopt a Home Rule Charter under authority of any provisions of the State Constitution or Amendment thereto, this Amendment shall not be applicable to such county."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to the electors of this State, qualified to vote on Constitutional Amendments, at an election to be held throughout the State on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1934, at which election each ballot shall have printed thereon the words: "For the Amendment of Article IX of the State Constitution by adding Section 2-A thereto, giving the Commissioners Court general management and control of county affairs, and authorizing the Legislature to provide more economical forms of county government and different than as now provided by law."

"Against the Amendment of Article IX of the State Constitution by adding Section 2-A thereto, giving the Commissioners Court general management and control of county affairs, and authorizing the Legislature to provide more economical forms of county government and different than as now provided by law."

Each voter shall scratch out with pen or pencil the clause which he desires to vote against so as to indicate whether he is voting for or against said proposed amendment. (A true copy) W. W. HEATH, Secretary of State.

SANTA FE COUNTRY OF NEW MEXICO RICH IN HISTORY

of the Penitentes, that strange re- man sacrifices to appease the Gods. A few "whites" have witnessed this horrible form of worship, a few have written incomplete descrip- tions of it, but no one has learned much about the mysterious beliefs of the sect.

Four miles further on is the town of Taos, named for the Taos In- dians, who live just north of town at the very foot of the Sangre de Christos in the most interesting and picturesque pueblo in all New Mexico. Pueblos, we should say, for there are three great piles of build- ings—terraced, pyramidal fashion—one being five stories high, one four, and one three. More is heard of the Taos Indians than any other pueblo because they are visited by more tourists than any other one pueblo. You may visit in a few of their homes, but don't try to visit the Kiva. For a few pennies little boys will dance several of the tra- ditional religious dances to the weird tones from a flute and the monotonous thump-thump of a drum.

Because of its Indians, the Span- ish-Indian architecture, and beau- tiful mountain and canyon scenery, Taos has become one of the most famous art colonies in the United States. Several world-famous and a number of "lesser-light", artists live in and have their studios in quaint, little old Taos, and scores of other artists come here for a few months each year to catch the unique "atmosphere" for paintings.

One of the best of America's old-school artists is E. Irvin Couse, world-famous for his portrayal of Indians, and scenes as well, whose large, rambling old Spanish- type home and studio containing a hundred or so pictures, is worth go- ing miles to visit. You may gain admittance to his home at 2 p. m. week-days, and this grand old man will probably answer the doorbell personally. You have seen many of the Couse prints on calendars cir- culated by the Santa Fe railroad, this artists having done all their art work for 30 years.

Other famous artists in Taos are John H. Sharp, noted for still-life pictures; Mr. and Mrs. Leon Gas- pard, from Russia; Bert Phillips, Ernest Blumenschein, Walter Ufer, Victor Higgins, John Young-Hunt- er, and LaVerne Nelson Black; Her- bert Dunton, portrayer of cowboy and ranch life and illustrator for Zane Grey's books; Albert Lujan, an Indian whose wife is "white" and a novelist. You see copies from these painters' brushes on maga- zine covers every month. Their ori- ginals are displayed in art galleries the world over.

The Southwestern Artists Mu- seum is worth a visit. If you are "hay-wrie" or would like to see what "hay-wrie" artists can do, vis- it the Heptagon Art Gallery down town, where the modernistic ar- tists "strut their stuff." This writer will buy anyone a "coke" who can tell what all these fantastic draw- ings of these so-called artists mean. (Those we named above, however, are not "modernists," but paint real pictures that you don't have to be "high-brow" to enjoy.

In Taos is the old home of Kit Carson, Indian scout and pathfind- er; also, his grave, and the grave of his second wife and son.

Along the road to Raton, the traveler sees one of the most beau- tiful scenic sections in America. Up Taos valley and canyon, between high mountains covered with pine, spruce, cedar, and aspens, the high- way goes over Taos Pass (altitude 9,060 feet) and down into Morro Valley on the other side of the mountains and to Eagle Nest Lake, the fishing resort of Thermo being located on its banks. A side trip to Red River Canyon is recommended, but we must get home soon.

Just below Eagle Nest dam the highway enters Cimarron Canyon. Here words fail us! Like Carlsbad Cavern, the scenery in the canyon is something words will not do jus- tice to. But, imagine a deep, narrow canyon with its walls rising 500 feet straight up to form palisades, tall pines reaching skyward from the floor, and a dashing mountain river winding its way to lower land, beautiful camping spots, and moun- tain trout—just go see the Cimarr- on; you won't be disappointed.

Old Cimarron, town—we're out on a plain, cut by frequent gulches formed by water from the nearby mountains (the smoke in the hills is from coal mine camps)—a short drive over paved roads along the historic Santa Fe Trail and there's Raton Pass, the Southern gateway to Colorado and the highest rail- way pass in the nation.

If you have the money and time (we didn't). Colorado is close by, but the homeward trail leads south- east by Capulin Mountain, a most perfect extinct volcano, to Clayton and into Texas through Dalhart, Amarillo, and back home.

If you do not have time to take religious sect made up of Indians and Mexicans, who annually persecute their own bodies and offer up hu- man New Mexico vacation, by all means, you must run up to Palo Duro Canyon State Park some week end—just 155 miles away, 13 miles east of Canyon, and over paved road about 110 miles.

At Palo Duro the U. S. Govern- ment has 700 CCC workers, the largest such camp in the nation, converting 15,500 acres of the can- yon into a park. Thanks to a great feat of engineering skill, a highway has been cut from the sheer walls of the canyon to its floor 800 feet be- low. The park, though it will not be completed for at least two years, is already open to the public, has excellent camping sites, and pre- sents a scenic wonder worth going many times this distance to see. On the rim, a lodge is under construc- tion, being built of native rock, the dining room alone having a seating capacity of 600 people. Uncle Sam has already spent a million and a half dollars on the park project, and though it is now a State park, it is under direction of the Nation- al Park Service and is expected to be made a National Park on com- pletion.

Also, on the campus of West Tex- as State Teachers College, visit the Museum of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society, containing the largest collection of ranch relics in existence, as well as Indian and war relics, fossils, of prehistoric animals that once roamed the Plains, and other articles of interest. This is the only state-built museum in Texas and one of the most inter- esting the layman can see anywhere.

When people and things become im- portant, they are mentioned in the newspapers. If business is to seem important, they are men- tioned in advertising.

State Candidates
Will Visit Lamesa

Lamesa.—On August 6th, both candidates for governor have ac- cepted invitations to appear in La- mesa in the interest of their cam- paigns.

Due publicity has been given this fact and friends of both candidates are expected to hear each of these men from all parts of the country. Both Geo. Mahon and Clark M. Mullican for Congress have been invited and will appear also, ac- cording to the latest dope. As much interest has already been taken in this race and more as the second primary gets under way, large throngs of people are expected to hear these Congressional candi- dates.

Other district and county can- didates are scheduled to speak al- so during the day.

The affair is a political carnival and rally for second primary can- didates, sponsored by the Texas Day Association, that the voters of the Lower South Plains may have a better opportunity of hearing and seeing the candidates of their choice.

The program, with the Lamesa Band playing, will start at 10 a. m. with M. C. Lindsay, chairman in charge.

Come see the tire that's the talk of America!

Announced in April, it's going stronger than ever in August—this sensational new "G-3" Goodyear All-Weather. The word's out—spread by "G-3" users—that it's even better than we advertise. They say "43% more non-skid mileage" is too modest. They say its greater Center Traction grips so much better—stops cars so much quicker—there's no comparison with other tires. All of which is sweet music—and makes our sales zoom! Take a few minutes—come see what it's all about. You'll be well repaid!

PLENTY OF ICE COLD WATER!

BOXING AND WRESTLING HELD ON PUBLIC SQUARE

the gloves between two young, villainous lads, "Cyclone" Cloe and "Rowdy" Purser. This match is expected to reach a swift climax by a blow which is just as likely to come from one mit as the other.

Two bone-benders get together in the second go. Buster Eaton, who has proven to be no slouch when it comes to tussling on the mat, will meet H. Pierce, who expects to give the audience its money's worth. This match will have one fall or 20 minutes limit.

C. Cathcart and T. Pierce will poke at each other with padded fingers to make the third preliminary. The scales stopped at 138 pounds when each of these boxers were weighed.

The main wrestling bout to which the preliminaries lead up to is between two old mat veterans who not only have confidence in themselves but who also have the confidence of all the fans. The match will begin with P. Willingham in one corner and Chas. Spears in the other. A spectacular performance is expected in this match.

The auburn-haired, freckle-faced pug who occasionally trips up our curbstones expects to make one more advancement in his life's ambition when he, Dorsey Allison, meets that mighty Deaver boy with only the gloves between them. This match makes the main boxing event for the night's program.

Friday night, Bill Cathcart and Clint Walker lock horns to start things—a perfect match which will be worked out in the fashion of each diligent fighter.

Two little tin-ears, Jack Minor and V. J. Faulkner, clash like two little oxen as the muscle-stretching process gets under way. The little prune-peddler of Tahoka expects to mop up the mat with wiry Faulkner from the northern regions. Each expects to put into the affair all of those things that the old mat veterans taught them long ago. It's going to be a thriller.

And now comes the main event, the most spectacular display of athletic ability. Whitey Gallimore from the badlands of Wise county, who fights with a left hand punch and retaliates with a right, will make a brave attempt to jerk the ladder of fame from under our local representative, Kitty Bartley, of the New Lynn community.

Coach Van Beber of Texas Tech thinks that he has instilled in those youngsters, who have chosen him as their model, the very best mat performance. This is going to be left up to the fans to decide when Dayton "Ohio" Short (Van Beber's student) meets the D. Dickey in the main mat endurance test. D. Dickey, who has been there before and who expects to be there some more, will attempt to teach the tall Short villain some of the things he still has not learned.

But, Oh boy! The best is yet to come, when five or six big dark "Aces" assemble for a battle that will make Schmelbaer wonder what it means to put the gloves on. A negro Battle Royal with the kind of colored boys that are already in line will perhaps be the fiercest and most exciting of all—a fight to the finish.

This entire affair is sponsored by the Lynn County Service Club and has been worked up by the athletic committee of that club. The show is free of charge and so far as the executives are concerned no premiums will be offered to any of the contestants for the "good will" championship.
