CITY SCHOOLS ARE OPENED

Judge Garrard Principal Speaker Of Opening Exercises At High School

Many patrons and friends attended the opening exercises of the Tahoka public schools conducted in the high school auditorium Monday morning. The pupils and faculty of Central Ward school as well as of the high school were present, and Supt. J. B. Pace Jr. introduced the entire faculty to the assembly.

The program opened with an invocation by Dr. K. R. Durham, following which, teachers, students, and patrons joined in singing "America". A piano solo was rendered by Mrs. J. K. Applewhite, teacher of music, and a reading by Miss Anna Ray Bishop, teacher of Expression.

The principal feature of the occasion was an address by Hon. Tom Garrard of this city, a member of the state board of education. We can mention here only a few points of this illuminating address.

"If all the teachers of Texas were strung out in single file one immediately behind another, they would make a line fifteen miles long," Judge Garrard said. "If one were to start down this line he would go seven and a half miles before reaching a teacher who had finished high school. He would go two or three miles further before reaching a college graduate. On the other hand, every teacher in the Tahoka school system holds a degree from some college and three of them hold the Masters degree."

In discussing the responsibility and influence of the teacher, Judge Garrard declared that they hold a position next to that of the parent, and he drew a beautiful picture of the marvelous influence of a rural teacher of a generation ago over the lives of the pupils. "But somehow or other the teacher of the present day does not have so strong an influence over the pupils as did the teacher of this earlier day," Judge Garrard observed. "I do not know where to place the responsibility, whether there has been a break-down in the home, in the school, or in the church, but there has been a break-down somewhere. A large percent of the inmates of our penal institutions are youths under nineteen years of age, and much of the crime that is being committed throughout this country is being committed by boys and young men." In this connection Judge Garrard called attention to the fact that there has been only one crime of kidnapping in the whole dominion of Canada during recent years while there have been "countless hundreds and possibly thousands of them in the United States." The cause of this difference must be found and corrected, he declared.

In the beginning of his address Judge Garrard paid high tribute to Supt. J. B. Pace Jr., declaring that he stands high among the educational leaders of the state and nation.

Following the benediction, which was pronounced by the superintendent, the work of registration was begun.

The faculty consists of the following members:

J. B. Pace Jr., superintendent;
J. T. Carter, principal;
Prentiss Walker, teacher of science and coach;
J. D. Strickland, teacher of vocational agriculture;
Mrs. Lenora M. Tunnell, teacher of English and history;
Mrs. Lucille Bludworth, teacher of Spanish and English;
Mrs. Floy Nelms, teacher of home economics;
Miss Ethelene Murrell, seventh grade teacher;
Kary Mathis, principal of Central Ward;
Miss Lowell Douthitt, fifth grade;
Miss Linnie Tippit, fourth grade;
Mrs. W. D. Smith Jr., third grade;
Mrs. W. O. Henderson, second grade;
Mrs. A. B. Swan and Mrs. L. P. Craft, first grade;
Mrs. Deck Dunagan, supernumerary;
Mrs. J. K. Applewhite, Music;
Miss Anna Ray Bishop, Expression;
A. R. Bostick, teacher at South Ward.

State Convention Delegates Named

The following gentlemen have been named as delegates to the state Democratic convention, which meets in Galveston next Tuesday: R. C. Wood, Truett Smith, and J. K. Applewhite of Tahoka, B. M. Haymes of O'Donnell, E. G. Gorge of New Home, John Heck of Wilson, and W. J. Burckhardt of Grassland. We are unable to say yet how many of these gentlemen will attend.

The convention will doubtless be controlled by the friends of James V. Allred, since the friends of the successful candidate for governor usually control the convention that follows the election.

Automobile Show At Fair This Year

Lubbock, Sept. 5.—An automobile show, with the latest model cars with their knee action, automatic shift, air flow bodiest and other popular features, will be an added feature at the Panhandle South Plains Fair here Sept. 24-29, inclusive.

Practically every popular car handled in the Panhandle South Plains territory will be exhibited. With heavy rains over the entire territory, interest in the agricultural show has increased and practically every county on the South Plains is now expected to have an exhibit at the fair.

There will be keen competition for that $75 first prize for the county exhibit and losers will take $60 for second honors, $40 for third and $25 for fourth. Prizes of $25 each will be awarded to all other counties entering the agricultural show. Hundreds of individual exhibits will be entered from each county.

Horse racing is again expected to again lead the field in amusements, augmented by the John T. Wortham Shows with the only "Loop-O-Plane" ride east of California, vaudeville acts, band concerts, and fireworks.

English Gets Latest Paramount Pictures

A contract under which the English Theatre here will screen the latest Paramount pictures has been signed by the English Theatre and the Paramount corporation.

Among the pictures to be shown during the year of the contract are: "Big Broadcast of 1934," "Here's My Heart," "Sailor Beware," "Her Master's Voice," "Gentleman's Choice," "Cleopatra," "Are Men Worth It," "The Gilded Lily," "Limehouse Nights," "Rhumba," "Desire," "Now and Forever," "Lives of a Bengal Lancer," "Love Thy Neighbor," "You Belong to Me," "Mississippi," "All the King's Horses," "Pursuit of Happiness," and "The Glory Be Damned."

RELIEF PROGRAM TO BE PUSHED TO LIMIT

Austin, Sept. 5.—The Texas Relief Commission's program of rural rehabilitation will be pushed to the limit during the next two months, it was announced today by J. E. Stanford, director of the department, as he issued instructions to his field supervisors to employ assistants to help them carry out the program during the next eight weeks.

It is the aim of the department to rouse every family possible and supply them with capital goods before the winter season arrives.

Federal authorities have been asked for a grant of $300,000 for rural rehabilitation in Texas in September as against $250,000 for the current month.

Stanford reported the program now being carried on in 142 counties and said it will be extended to others as soon as rains break long existing drought in these counties.

J. C. Roberts and family, who moved here from Comanche last winter, shook the mud of Lynn county off their feet Monday and returned to their former love. They burned no bridges behind them though and may be back some time. Here's hoping they try Lynn county again.

PLAN EXHIBIT FOR S. P. FAIR

Judge Smith And County Agent Will Place Lynn County Exhibit At Lubbock

County Judge W. E. Smith and County Agent V. F. Jones have been requested to collect an exhibit of farm and garden products and enter a Lynn county exhibit in the South Plains Fair to be held in Lubbock on September 24-29, and they have accepted the invitation.

They are requesting therefore that every farmer or land owner in the county who has a good sample of any farm or garden products shall report to them at the earliest date possible.

"This is one year that every county on the South Plains should have a county exhibit at the fair," said A. B. Davis, manager of the Panhandle South Plains Fair Association in a letter to Judge Smith this week. "While the drought has been as bad in other sections of the country, and in some sections worse than it has been here, it seems that people elsewhere always remember the droughts in West Texas."

"There isn't a county on the South Plains that can't have a creditable exhibit. Lynn county is lucky enough to be able to have perhaps the best exhibit."

It is doubtless true that Lynn county can have as fine exhibit at the fair as any county on the South Plains if her people will take sufficient interest in the matter to "put it over." It has had most creditable exhibits in this fair in years past and it can do so again this year.

So come on in, folks, bring samples of your farm and garden products either to Judge Smith or Mr. Jones, and let's make a dandy showing at Lubbock this year.

South Plains Fair Boosters Coming

A Fair booster caravan, advertising the Panhandle-South Plains Fair to be held in Lubbock September 24-29 inclusive, will visit Tahoka Friday, September 7, at 10:15 a. m. and will remain here for 25 minutes.

The caravan will consist of Lubbock business men, the Lubbock High School band, and a comedy troupe.

The people of Tahoka are invited to come down town, greet the visitors, hear the band, and enjoy the comedy numbers.

ASSEMBLY OF GOD CHURCH CLOSING GOOD REVIVAL

We have recently closed a revival, wherein we saw a few souls pray through in an old-fashioned way.

Brother Cleo Hendricks of Roswell did some good preaching and we believe it was not all in vain.

We are glad to tell to many friends that we have called Mrs. Clara Newton for a pastor, and we believe she is well able to fill the place. Mrs. Newton is well known in the city and country and she needs no introduction, as the life she has lived since God saved her and called her into the work of the ministry speaks far more than words can. We invite you out to hear her preach.

Mrs. Newton is also a good worker with juniors and young people. Come and help her and I am sure she will be a blessing to you.—Reporter.

Mrs. D. D. Johnson and daughter, Miss Lola Belle, came up from Abilene last Friday and spent several days here with Mrs. C. N. Woods and other relatives. Rev. Johnson is now engaged in the grocery business in Abilene. Miss Lola Belle will teach again at Fairview in Dawson county, her fifth consecutive year in this position.

Mrs. Minnie Freeman Burns of Forney left for her home Tuesday after a few days visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Freeman, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Suite spent the week end with relatives and friends at Lockney, returning to their home here Monday night.

APPROVE PLAN FOR KITCHEN

Work Will Start on Canning Unit Here Within Short Time; Supplies Arrive

Not only has the canning kitchen project and the building for the same been approved but the personnel of laborers selected from the relief rolls of the county have also been approved, according to information received by Brown Bishop of the local relief office this week. Furthermore the equipment and cans for the local kitchen arrived Tuesday. Just as soon as the county gets its material ready, work will begin, Mr. Bishop says.

Moreover, an application was sent in Tuesday for an extension of the building in which the kitchen is to be housed, and it is believed that the application for an extension will be readily granted.

PRESS CONVENTION TO HONOR DICK McCARTY

A new thing under the sun is about to happen. A press convention is to have its annual meeting in a town outside its own territory just to honor an editor. Announcement has been made that the Heart of Texas Press Association, whose territory lies round about Brownwood, Coleman, and Brady, will have its meeting this year in Albany, which lies over in the territory of the West Texas Press Association, just to honor Col. Dick McCarty, owner of the Albany News, one of the pioneers of Texas journalism. The date of the convention is September 14 and 15.

Col. Dick is not only a veteran newspaper man but he is a unique character, loved and honored by all who know him. He is one prophet who is not without honor in his own country. Many are the publishers who will journey to the beautiful little city of Albany, "the home of the Hereford", to attend this press meet and to do honor to this thorough-bred in the field of journalism.

Large Crowd Here Last Trades Day

Tahoka's second monthly trades day brought many people to town last Monday. Most of the communities of the county were represented by the visitors. Merchants enjoyed a good business, especially in the afternoon.

It is understood that steps will be taken to provide additional attractions for the next trades day.

PRESBYTERIAN SERVICES HERE SECOND SUNDAY

After a "Hot Time" all this summer, and these late rains upon the parched fields all about us, and the temperature getting back to normal, we observe a general pick-up in town, and big crowds going to church and Sunday School. And, that old smile that was dried up and blown away is coming back. Some of these dried up crops may not quite get back. But all Christians can get back spiritually and help in the harvest that must go to waste without them. Let us have a fine attendance at S. S. and at both church services next Sunday.

Morning theme: "The Man Who Was Bigger Than His Calamities." Kind of men needed today. Fine gospel songs and good singing always. Subject at night: "Partial Victories." Why be satisfied or restless when there is in every direction higher grounds we may occupy? Nobler things to attain? A fine sermon for boys and girls and our young people, parents and teachers. If you are not tied up some where else, come to our services when you can. Always glad to have visitors. You are invited.—W. K. Johnston, Minister.

G. M. Reid brought to the editor's home Wednesday some fine tomatoes and peppers which had been grown in his wife's garden. Of course the editor and the Mrs. Editor greatly enjoyed the samples. Mr. Reid remarked that these specimens showed what could be done in the way of gardening without any rain. He said they had many other fine vegetables in their garden.

Roadbed Will Be Completed South

Cooper Is Manager At Tahoka Produce

Andrew Cooper is now manager of the Tahoka Produce, succeeding W. T. Jones Jr. Cooper has been employed by the local house for several years.

Mr. Jones and his family left this morning for Coleman, where he will be manager of another produce house operated by Wilson & Company.

Football Team Prospects Good

The Tahoka high school promises to have a better football team this year than it has had in several years. There are about thirty men out for the team, including twelve letter men of last year.

The practice up to the present has been on fundamentals, Supt. J. B. Pace Jr. said Wednesday morning, and the boys are interested and working hard. The schedule for the season will be made out in Lubbock Saturday at a meeting of South Plains coaches.

Prentiss Walker, graduate of the North Texas State Teachers College and an assistant coach of that institution last year, is the new coach here. He seems to be making an excellent start with the squad.

Lettermen from last season who have reported for practice are: Dorsey Allison, captain, Preston Strasser, Ernest Gill, Eby Dyer, James Minor, A. R. Milliken, Raymond Bulman, Harold Snowden, Johnnie Janak, Glenn Boydston, A. J. Thompson, and Champ Perkins.

No More Parking In Middle Of Street

The city authorities this week received instructions from the state highway department at Austin to keep the highways through Tahoka clear of parked cars hereafter, and thereupon the city authorities decided to more rigidly enforce the city ordinances regulating the parking of cars throughout the business portion of town. This ordinance has not been well enforced heretofore, but Wednesday morning the city marshal, Milt Finch, began enforcing it. Hereafter parking cars will not be allowed in the middle of the streets except on the portion of the public square lying east and south of the courthouse. Better park at the curb or you may get "pinched."

This is not just an arbitrary ruling, but is made for the safety of the public generally. All good citizens will be glad to comply with these regulations.

MESQUITE BEAN TRADE IS PROFITABLE AT COLORADO

The venture of harvesting mesquite beans for market has come back into vogue at Colorado. The bean crop is unusually good this season and it is reported that local buyers are offering a price of from 60 to 65 cents per bushel for the beans.

Farmers and ranchers have long recognized the high feeding quality of mesquite beans. It is a rarity, however, that persons engage in the business of harvesting them from the tree and hauling them into town to market.

There are those who will contend that the beans are the equal of maize, Indian corn and other grains for feeding livestock. The animals seem to have a preference for the beans, it is said.—Colorado Record.

Mrs. J. H. Powell returned Sunday, much improved, from Temple, where she has been undergoing treatments in a sanitarium.

Mrs. Henry Maasen of Dallas is here for a few weeks visit with her son, H. A. Maasen, and his family.

Mrs. B. H. Howard of Crosbyton is here visiting her daughter, Mrs. Frank Hill.

ASK BIDS FOR HIGHWAY NO. 9

Highway Department Will Build Highway No. 9 Grade From Tahoka To O'Donnell

In this issue of the News appears a notice for bids for construction of grade and drainage structures on highway No. 9 from Tahoka to O'Donnell. Bids are to be opened and contracts let on next Monday, September 10. It will doubtless not be long after that date until actual work begins.

The new highway will follow the old route much of the way but will diverge from the present highway at the first turn south of town and pass through the Mrs. M. I. Ray place. The main highway will pass through O'Donnell on the west side of the Santa Fe tracks but a loop will be built passing directly through town as the present highway does.

No information has been given out as to when paving on highway No. 9 from Tahoka north to the Lubbock county line will begin.

Garrard Appointed County Conciliator

Mr. Tom Garrard of Tahoka has been appointed Conciliation Commissioner for Lynn County by Judge James C. Wilson, according to an announcement by E. J. Murray, Supervising Conciliation Commissioner of the Northern District.

Under the terms of a recent amendment to the National Bankruptcy Act, Federal Judges are required to appoint a Conciliation Commissioner in each agricultural county and at any time within five years after the amendment takes effect, a petition may be filed by any farmer before the Federal County Conciliation Commissioner, stating that the farmer is insolvent or unable to meet his debts as they mature and that it is desirable to effect a composition or extension of time to pay his debts. The County Conciliation Commissioner then attempts to work out a settlement which will be satisfactory to a majority of the farmer's creditors, both in number and amount. If a Commissioner secures their approval the Court may then make the settlement binding on unsecured minority creditors, even though they disapprove the basis of settlement.

The final step which the debtor may take as a last resort after all other efforts have failed is to file a petition in Bankruptcy under the recently adopted Frazier-Lemke amendment. Under the provisions of this amendment, the debtor may be allowed to retain possession of his farm for a period of either five or six years. During this period he may make certain payments under a six year purchase plan, including the payment of taxes and one per cent interest on the principal each year in addition to certain payments on the principal of the debt. This plan is followed provided the secured creditors give their consent. If they do not accept the plan, the farmer may retain possession by paying into the Court a fixed annual rental. At the end of this five or six year period or before the debtor may repurchase the farm by paying a price set up on it by three appraisers appointed by the Federal Court.

Murray, who is Chairman of the Texas Farm Debt Conciliation Committee, strongly recommends that every effort be made by distressed farmers to secure a voluntary adjustment of their debts through the Farm Debt Adjustment Committees already appointed in each county, or with the aid of the County Conciliation Commissioner before resorting to bankruptcy proceedings under the Frazier-Lemke amendment. This amendment requires farming under the jurisdiction of the Court, and gives the farmer no assurance that he will be able to borrow the money at the end of the six year period to pay the appraised price of the farm.

Jim and Ma go out of office next January. They may never run for office again. But if anybody imagines that Jim is down and out or that he is out of politics, that person will probably have a rude awakening some day. Jim carries a big tomahawk all the time. When he is not in office he uses it on the fellow that is. When Jimmie Allred walks into the governor's office
next January and Ma walks out, Jim will walk out too, but he will have a big tomahawk dangling at his belt. Jimmie will not be in the official wigwam long, until "Old Jim" will emit a war whoop and brandish his big tomahawk in a way that will quickly bring a hundred thousand Indian braves to his side, ready for battle. And two years hence, it may be a battle to the death—in a political sense—between the big chiefs, Old Jim and young Jimmie. But old Jim has already won his last big battle. The new chief will be the "Big Injun" on the reservation for at least four years. Old Jim should lay down his tomahawk and smoke his peace pipe—if he has one—but he will die fighting. He has been a mighty warrior.

While the Government is under-

to give men and women employwhy not devise and carry out a vast program of dam construction

eastern Colorado, New Mexico, and other states in the semi-arid belt?
This, it seems to us, is a matter
worth the attention of our con-

Are Your Eyes Failing?

At Thomas Bros. Drug Co., to fit glasses.
Your school child deserves good eyesight. Have his eyes examined.

Alfred E. Smith, John Davis, and others have organized the "Liberty League" to fight the "New Deal."
John Davis was the Democratic nominee for President back in 1924, and Hoover was elected. A lot of good Democrats voted for Hoover
because they couldn't swallow Al Smith. Roosevelt was nominated in 1932 in Chicago. Smith wanted the convention to hand the nomination to him on a platter and when it refused to do so, he got mad and left in a huff. It was a long time before anybody knew whether he would support the nominee or not.
Finally he announced that he would vote for Roosevelt and made a few speeches in behalf of the Democratic ticket. But he has never since been friendly to Roosevelt, except on the surface. Now he has joined with a bunch of leading Republicans to dig up errors and weak points of the Democratic administration to criticize. He is not at all in sympathy with the "New Deal."
He is more in line with reactionary Republicanism. If he instead of Hoover had been elected President in 1928, he doubtless would have given about the same character of administration that Hoover gave.
At any rate there would have been no "New Deal." About the only difference is that the country would have gone wet about four years earlier than it did. A lot of folks who went crazy over Al Smith
in 1928 now wish they hadn't.

Democratic leaders in Washington and throughout the nation are a bit upset and uneasy over the fact that Upton Sinclair, a former Socialist leader, won the Democratic nomination for governor of California in the primary election held Tuesday of last week. There were three other candidates and Sinclair received 84,000 more votes than all of them combined. But a Democratic nomination is not ecquivalent to election in California.
The Republicans were holding primaries on the same day, and they polled more votes than the Democrats. They nominated acting governor Frank M. Merriam, and the fight in November will be between Merriam and Sinclair. Merriam, the Republican, will attack the "New Deal" and the Roosevelt administration, while this ex-socialist, Upton Sinclair, will defend. Nobody ever knows what is going to happen in California, but the Republicans usually rule the roost and we are guessing that they will roll up a big majority in November.

Now that the schools have opened in Tahoka and in many other districts in the county, here is hoping that we have a most successful school year. We hope that the school spirit may run high throughout the county, and that our boys and girls may become deeply interested in the task of learning things and training their minds.
Many of them do not realize the importance of acquiring an education but they will realize it later in life. Of all people, the teacher possibly has the greatest opportunity and the greatest responsibility of any. All honor to the good and faithful teacher!

Though almost universal among men, the cigaret habit is a bad habit. It is particularly injurious to growing boys and girls. Many boys take up the habit because other boys smoke, and because so many good men smoke. The best of men sometimes set bad examples for thoughtless youth.

Occasionally we hear of some young man having been drunk. Did you ever see a bright capable young fellow "soused" and making a fool of himself? Wasn't it a sorry spectacle? Boys, touch not, taste not, handle not the vile stuff.

Light Crust Flour at Boulton's.

Rains during the past two weeks
have set the feed to growing again and the prospects are that much feed will be produced in Lynn county yet. This will be a great boon to farmers, for the prospect of being compelled to buy feed was rising up before many of them like a horrid nightmare. Here's hoping we have a late and mild winter.

The young people of our church

An Appreciation

We regret very much to lose M.
J. Weaver from our local faculty.

In expressing my appreciation for M. J. Weaver, former principal of our high school, I wish to say he is one of the best teachers I have met during the years spent in the Tahoka Schools.

Mr. Weaver left last week for Spring Lake in Lamb county, where he will be principal of the high school.—A Student.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hogan and son, Young Hogan, of Nashville, Tennessee, and Mrs. Charles Hogan
of Little Rock, Arkansas, arrived Monday to spend the week visiting O. E. Hogan and family. W. E. and
O. E. are brothers and Mrs. Charles Hogan is a sister-in-law. Tuesday they went down to Comanche to spend a day or two visiting the Hogan brothers' mother, who is now very aged.

Mrs. W. D. Smith Sr. attended a family reunion in Midland Sunday
of the descendants of her friend, Mrs. S. F. Tyner. She reports that this was the first time the family had been together in 23 years and that 35 descendants of the lady were present. Mrs. Smith was the only invited guest outside the family.

Black-Draught For Dizziness, Headache Due To Constipation

"I have used Theodor's Black-Draught several years and find it splendid," writes Mr. G. W. Holley, of St. Paul, Va. "I take it for dizziness or headache (due to constipation). I have never found anything better. A short while ago, we began giving our children Syrup of Black-Draught as a laxative for colds and little stomach ailments, and have found it very satisfactory." . . . Millions of packages of Theodor's Black-Draught are required to satisfy the demand for this popular, old reliable, purely vegetable laxative. 25¢ a package.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Inman, Mary Ellen and Johnnie Inman, returned home Monday afternoon from Roswell, New Mexico. They were accompanied by Mrs. Luther Wood and J. M. Wood of Lorenzo. Mr. C. B. There were several from our community baptized at the Baptist Church in Tahoka Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Cecil Hammonds enrolled in the Tahoka high school Monday morning.

Everyone present enjoyed the party at Ed Mason's Saturday night.

Mr. L. T. and Miss Amy Redding of near Brownfield visited friends in this community last week end. Folks! Remember Sunday School, Church and Singing Sunday.

All of them also visited Roswell, and Mr. Douthitt and family spent a day or two in the White Mountains. Mr. Rogers learned many interesting things about the cavern aside from what could be seen with the naked eye. He was greatly impressed by this marvelous work of Nature.

WEDDING BY RADIO IN "ROMANCE IN THE RAIN"

An unusually clever, clean and wholesome comedy is Universal's "Romance in the Rain," a romantic screenplay with music, which opens at the English Theatre Sunday for a three day run.

Roger Pryor (of "Moonlight and Pretzels" fame) and Heather Angel, lovely young English actress, are happily mated as the romantic couple in the film. They make a very attractive and appealing screen pair.

The story is of a modern Cinderella who, like her famous namesake in fiction, is beset with poverty and drudgery at home until her Prince Charming comes along and opens wide the gates of wonderland to her.

Interpersed in the story is plenty of good, wallowing chuckles supplied by Victor Moore, Vice President Throttlebottom of "Of Thee I Sing" fame, noted Broadway comedian, and Esther Ralston, who scores handsomely in the role of an alluring vamp. Ruth Donnelly gives an excellent characterization as Moore's faithful secretary who, despite her long years of service, has never lost her sense of humor.

Others who contribute good performances are Paul Kaye, Christian Rub, Clara Kimball Young, Guinn Williams and David Worth.

Feels a Lot Better When Black-Draught Relieves Constipation

From many states come reports like the following from Mr. W. M. Henderson, of Jasper, Fla: "I have been taking Thedford's Black-Draught twenty years. I take it for constipation that gives me a dull, tired, aching feeling, and I have headache, too. Black-Draught relieves me of this trouble. After a few doses, I feel as good as new. I keep it in my home. I have a big family. When one of us is ailing (from constipation), we take Black-Draught and almost always feel a lot better. It has been worth its weight in gold to my family." Sold in 25¢ packages. "Children like the Syrup."

DOCTOR EXPLAINS HOW PELLAGRA MAY BE AVOIDED

Austin, Sept. 5.—Six hundred and forty-five Texans died last year of pellagra, declared Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer. Pellagra is a disease that is caused by lack of proper foods. It comes on slowly and may not be recognized until the victim begins to have a sore mouth, stomach trouble and reddening and scaling of the skin. When these symptoms appear the disease has been present for some time.

The longer a person has pellagra the harder it is to cure, so one should be on the lookout for early symptoms such as nervousness, indigestion, and burning of the feet and hands. The disease may become so severe as to affect the mind.

Pellagra is not contagious. As long as a person eats enough of the right kind of food and is not otherwise diseased, he is in no danger even if he lives with a pellagra patient.

The prevention of pellagra depends upon eating the right kind of food at all times. To make sure that the diet is right, it should always include plenty of milk daily, some fresh meat, and as many vegetables as possible. Tomatoes, whole wheat products, salmon, brewer's yeast and fresh fruits are especially valuable. Having provided these essentials of a proper diet, the rest may be arranged according to family and personal likes. In this way pellagra may be avoided.

NEW INVESTIGATIONS MADE POSSIBLE BY $7,500 GRANT

Austin, Sept. 5.—Investigations into the field of historical research known as "the humanities", as related to Texas, have been made possible by a gift of $7,500 to the University of Texas by the Rockefeller Foundation for 1934-35. Receipt of the gift has been acknowledged by the University Board of Regents. Recipients of the grant are J. Frank Dobie, associate professor of English and well-known authority on Southwestern folk-lore; Fannie Ratchford, librarian in the Wrenn and Stark rare book collections; and J. Evetts Haley, collector of historical materials for the University.

Mr. Dobie, who two years ago began a study of folk-lore in the mountains of Mexico, under the Guggenheim Foundation grant, will utilize this new Rockefeller fund for the purpose of enabling him to complete this project. He will be on leave of absence from the University for the whole year of 1934-35, part of the time engaged in collecting material, the remainder in writing. He will complete two books, one which will deal with folk tales of North Mexico, reflecting social backgrounds, ways, customs and psychology of the people. The other will treat of tales of some characteristic animals of the Southwest common both to this country and to Mexico, namely the coyote, panther, the rattlesnake, the piasano or roadrunner, and the peccary or javelina.

Miss Ratchford's study will consist of a survey of Texas homes built before the Civil War, and will result in the writing of a book on the architecture and history of these homes. Among these residences will be that of Mrs. James F. Perry, sister of Stephen F. Austin, at Peach Point, near Freeport. It was in this house that Austin lived for a time, and the only room of the building that is now intact is the one he used. Miss Ratchford held a Guggenheim Fellowship in 1929-30 for the purpose of studying unpublished works of the Bronte family, and her third volume from this study will soon appear.

Mr. Haley is now and has been for several years engaged in collecting for the University manuscripts of Texas history. He holds for this purpose a grant from the Rockefeller fund for research in the social sciences. The new grant will enable him to devote part of his time to writing a book dealing specifically with Col. Charles Goodnight, famed pioneer cattle baron, and his noted Goodnight Ranch, situated in the fertile valley of the Palo Duro Canyon in the Texas Panhandle. Mr. Haley will spend six months on this project, beginning September 1.

THE EDITOR'S MISTAKE

We swipe the following from the Colorado Record.
Fighting a buzz-saw, hoping to evade death or taxes, believing all one hears or talking back to your mother-in-law are all recognized by most of us as mistakes.
We can avoid the mistakes which stand out like a headlight on a Model T.
But still we all make many mistakes. If we didn't we would make little progress. A wise man utilizes his mistakes, remembering the costly experience and profiting thereby. He learns how to steer clear of such things in the future.

An editor probably gets more blame for a mistake than anyone on earth. A little typographical error can cause more fuss than a jackass in a tin barn.

You may have heard that yarn about the country editor who wrote a flowery obituary when the town miser died. The town miser was influential and had many relatives. The editor did the best he could with the material at hand and he finally concluded by writing that the man had gone to his last resting place. Then the printer made a mistake of setting the type so it read to the effect that the man had gone to his last "roasting" place. The proof reader muffed one and the fracas started.

The editor doesn't get a fair break on this mistake business.

When a garageman makes a mistake, he adds it to your bill.

If a carpenter makes a mistake, well, it is probably just what he expected.

When a preacher makes a mistake nobody knows the difference.

When a judge makes a mistake it becomes the law of the land.

When a doctor makes a mistake, we send flowers.

But when an editor makes a mistake—GOOD NIGHT.

MRS. R. E. THOMPSON RETURNS FROM SPRINGTOWN

Mrs. R. E. Thompson has returned from Springtown, near Fort Worth, where she has been assisting as music director and junior worker in the Methodist and Baptist revivals. Rev. Gafford, of Fort Worth did the preaching for the Methodist revival and Rev. Moore of the Baptist Seminary of Fort Worth, pastor of the Baptist church at Springtown, did the preaching for the Baptist revival.

Mrs. Thompson had a choir of from sixty to seventy-five voices each evening and also a large junior choir.

This is Mrs. Thompson's second year to work in that part of the state, having assisted in four meetings in Tarrant and Ellis counties two years ago.

This is her eighth year as singer evangelist. During the eight years she has been unable to accept work only one year which was on account of ill health in 1933. She was called three years (1928-29-30) in succession in Wilbarger county, 16 miles south of Vernon and her first work in 1926 was in Coryell county, where the family had lived from 1909 to 1920. She assisted in five revivals in the county that summer.

Mrs. Thompson has one revival booked for Parker county beginning 1st of July 1935. Her son Ma-burn and daughter Mrs. E. N. Baker assisted her in the special music during the revivals at Springtown.

MRS. CLIFF THOMAS HONORS MOTHER WITH PARTY

Mrs. Cliff Thomas entertained in her home on September 1 in honor of her mother, Mrs. S. J. Harris, who celebrated another milestone in her life. The guests were invited to spend the day in just the way elderly ladies enjoy—some brought their fancy work—some just talked but all were so happy to be in such a hospitable home. A delicious dinner was served at the noon hour.

Those who were so fortunate as to be invited were: Mrs. E. N. Weathers, Mrs. W. L. Brown, Mrs. E. S. Davis, Mrs. A. I. Thomas, Mrs. W. D. Smith Sr., and the honor guest, Mrs. Harris. The combined ages of the guests and the honoree totaled 413 years.

MINOR BATON MET WITH MISS MARY JANE WEATHERS

Miss Mary Jane Weathers was hostess to the Minor Baton on Monday night. The most important item of business was the election of representatives to the District Convention. The girls trio was decided upon. This being the first regular meeting of the year the State Federated program was discussed and the club standard outlined. A question box was next featured and was very interesting. Choral and orchestra rehearsals and the reading of two one-act plays completed the evening's work. Delicious refreshments of orange sherbet and cake were served.

The next meeting will be Sept. 17 in the home of Charles Gaignat.

CHURCH OF CHRIST NOTES

I am made to wonder if it is against the law in Lubbock for slot machines to run. Is it not the same in Tahoka and what is our good sheriff going to do about it?

Services last Lord's Day were just fine with good attendance.

We are hoping, working and praying to make this the best year's work of our life.

I still think that Tahoka has some of the best people in the world to live and labor among.

Services next Lord's Day will contain Bible study, communion, good singing and two gospel messages. "Come with us and we will do thee good."—R. P. Drennon.

John Drennon and family of Waco have been here this week visiting the Elder R. P. Drennon and family, the two gentlemen being brothers. Mr. Drennon is an employee of the Katy railway at Waco. This is his first visit in Tahoka and he had some nice things to say about our little city.

If there is one enterprise on earth the quitter should leave alone, it is advertising. Advertising does not jerk—it pulls. It begins gently at first, but the pull is steady. It increases day by day, year by year, until it exerts an irresistible power!

—John Wanamaker.

Mrs. Kathryn Knoy Redmond and children of Blanton spent last week here visiting relatives and friends.
