A NEW TASK FOR OUR COLLEGES

Students and faculty members of Texas Technological college will be surprised, no doubt to learn that a survey held by a college physical education director, shows university graduates are shockingly deficient in knowledge of health and disease and entertain many grotesque conceptions of such matters.

Close observation has disclosed to him that college and university students are large buyers of worthless patent medicines and are highly susceptible to cults and quacks.
For this he says the schools are to blame.

He differs from those who argue that it is not the business of institutions of higher learning to instruct students in the care of their health. Instead of having less instruction of this sort he would have more.

Colleges and universities should not have to shoulder this added burden nor would they have to if the public schools and parents concerned themselves more with the instruction of the child in the fundamental rules of good mental and physical health. There is no excuse for ignorance of hygiene.

But as long as we continue behaving like human beings few persons will guard their health until disease threatens and the average parent will leave to the schools the chore of teaching the child the fundamental laws of health.

America boasts of its sanitation and hospitals and doctors and disease control and yet it permits all but a few to reach maturity knowing less about their bodies and minds than they know about baseball stars and All-American eleven.
—Lubbock Journal.

The laws of health are taught in a fashion in the public schools. But it is undoubtedly true that most pupils leave school knowing very little more about the proper care of their bodies than they did before entering school. Consequently most of us neglect and abuse this delicate and all-important piece of machinery, just as if we could replace worn out or defective parts as we would repair an automobile. If we appreciated in early youth and throughout life the importance of taking care of our bodies we would be more careful as to our diet, our clothing and the ventilation of our bed rooms, and we would not smoke cigarettes nor drink liquor at all.
The tobacco business and the liquor business would go on the rocks for lack of customers.

Thirty-one persons died last week in two cities in New York from drink poison liquor. Prior to repeal they told us through every newspaper and magazine and radio station that repeal would stop the use of poison liquor. They wanted GOOD liquor. There is no good liquor. It is all poisonous. In fact the original meaning of the word "intoxicate" is to poison. Whiskey poisons and kills its victims by slow degrees. It has slain its millions. Why sensible people desire to license, its sale has long been a puzzle to us.
Why sensible people will drink it is also a puzzle. Some day we will become civilized and ban liquor forever.

We are saying a good deal about liquor in our columns this week.
May be you are tired of it. But it is high time that somebody in Tahoka besides the preachers should talk about liquor. It has figured in some disgraceful episodes in our town recently. With a half dozen saloons in town these disgraceful episodes would recur much more frequently. We don't need liquor in Tahoka, whether it be the bootleg or the legalized variety. "Wine is a mocker and strong drink is raging."

WHISKEY TAKES THE STEERING WHEEL

In a recent series of graphic bulletins, the National Safety Council points to a tremendous increase in drunken driving during the past year—and to a substantial gain in the number of deaths and injuries due to mixing alcohol and gasoline.
The first twelve months of repeal may have been beneficial in some respects—but it left a devastating trail of death behind it. Severe as the drunken driving problem was during prohibition, it has become doubtfully severe now.

The best obtainable statistics indicate that five to ten per cent of both drivers and pedestrians involved in traffic incidents are under the influence of liquor. These statistics, however, in the belief of the Council, understate matters, inasmuch as a multitude of accidents occur in which drinking is a factor but is not reported for one reason or another.
A short time ago a thorough survey was made of 119 accidents involving 116 injuries and fatalities—and it showed that in 60 per cent of the accidents the alcohol factor was involved. According to the authority making this survey, as little as one ounce of whiskey will cause a measurable loss of driving efficiency in the average person.

Reports from traffic departments throughout the nation thoroughly back up the fact that drunken driving is showing an astounding gain.
Drunken driving arrests amount to from 20 to 100 per cent more than they did a year ago, and police authorities likewise state that a rising percentage of accidents can be ascribed to the "little black bottle".

Here is a problem that involves the health, life and property of every citizen. It is a problem that must be fought by us all, drys and wets alike. Under the best conditions, highways and streets are potentially dangerous—and they become slaughterhouses when whiskey takes the steering wheel. Industrial

Well, well, "Kingfish" Long grabbed a train at Washington and stepped off in Louisiana and said
"Scat!" and those "Square Dealers" took to cover. When it comes to being a dictator, the "Kingfish" makes Mussolini look like a piker. The Square Dealers were demanding that the government call the legislature together and repeal all these special laws passed at the suggestion of Long. They were cutting up considerably, Hooie heard about it, and things turned out as above stated. When the Big Tom Cat is away, those little ol' mice will play.—

Very true. But he who lives by the sword shall die by the sword.
Huey can not expect to "carry on" in this fashion long. He will fall some of these days, and when he does he will be the dearest politician on the western continent.

On the front page of the Dallas News Monday was a wire-photo of a rum runner going aground on the coast of Long Island, New York, on Sunday; and beneath the picture is this comment: "Prohibition may be dead, but rum running still goes on when the coast guard isn't looking.
A coast guard cutter chased this fast rum boat aground here. The crew escaped ashore but left $15,000 worth of liquor behind, some of which is shown in this picture." We wonder! We thought rum running and bootlegging would be stamped out in a jiffy immediately following repeal.

State senators did themselves little credit last week when they sought to destroy the simple proposal to require senators and representatives to file affidavits showing whether or not they are on the payroll of public service corporations by substituting and adopting a resolution for the investigation of the campaign expenses and the business and professional activities of everybody connected with the public service. If senators are not afraid of their records, why do they object to the light being turned on?

Use of Black-Draught

Mrs. S. G. Bamey, of Henryetta, twenty-five years, when needed, and has "found it very good."

"When I have a sour stomach and

A CRIMINAL CAR

On Tuesday a farmer living in southwest Texas was building a fence along the highway. His wife brought him a bucket of water and brought their four children along, the mother carrying the baby in her arms. A man had come up from another county and imbibed freely of liquor in San Antonio. He started back home over the highway. The mother was standing by the side of the road talking to her husband.
The man in the car came at a high speed and in his drunken condition was wobbling his car from one side of the road to the other. Nearing where the mother stood the car swerved toward her and knocked her down. The babe was killed and the mother is in a hospital with a fractured skull. She was letting whiskey alone but it did not let her alone. "Personal liberty" is pretty high-priced.

The drunkard driver no doubt regrets the tragedy. Even a drunkard has some feelings of pity or remorse after he gets sober. But if the driver above referred to shall ever be brought into court and charged with drunken driving the State will have to prove drunkenness. How to prove it will tax the ingenuity of the prosecuting attorney. There are more degrees of drunkenness than degrees of murder. John Barleycorn himself could hardly be convicted of killing a baby with his car if he were at the steering wheel and the baby in its mother's arms beside the road. The defense would prove that old John was a sober and respected citizen, the father of a family of little Barleycorns and the sole support of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Rye, and of his wife's brother, Tom Bourbon. In other words, a devoted family man who was just unfortunate in having a mean car that left the road and killed a baby. A good drinking man can always find witnesses to testify to his sobriety.—

Some of our new-comer friends are getting a bit uneasy about the continuance of the drought. No use to be alarmed, folks. It rarely rains very much here during the first two months of the year. It may be as dry as blazes here all summer or it may be as wet as a Florida swamp.
We can't tell yet. We have seen it remain bone-dry here till June and then bumper crops made. No use to fret yet.

Those warm spring-like days the first of the week made us think about gardens and flowers. Let's raise a lot of fine flowers in Tahoka this year, folks. Begin to get ready now. Let's beautify our town. Flowers not only beautify the landscape but they have a gentle, refining influence on the individual—that is, if the individual is worth a "cuss" to begin with.

Now is a good time to water your trees. If kept well watered during the winter months, trees will not require so much water and will grow more rapidly in the summer months. Try this out and see if it doesn't work.

women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU,

INSTALL 800 FEET OF TILE TO WATER TREES ON YARD

Channing—Demonstrations in Hardley county in the use of concrete tile for subirrigation have been so satisfactory that the Channing High School has recently completed the laying of 800 feet of tile to water the trees planted on the school yard in 1932 according to E. R.
Duke, farm demonstration agent, who had general supervision of the work. The tile was made and laid with relief labor, and the school furnished the material. Tile was installed on two residential lots in Channing in 1932 for the irrigation of trees, and both have proved satisfactory, Mr. Duke says.

The government will send you a more trees went into the ground in December.

ATTENTION! TAXPAYERS!

Owing to the fact that the school board of the Tahoka Independent School District last spring cut property valuations to a low point, it is absolutely necessary that all taxes be paid.

It was decided, therefore, at a recent meeting of the board that the penalty and interest will attach and go into effect on all unpaid taxes at the same time that the penalty and interest on state and county taxes go into effect, March 15, 1935.

All tax payers in the Tahoka Independent School District are urged to pay their taxes prior to February 1, 1935, and in any event not later than March 15.

Done by action of the board.

"DAVID COPPERFIELD" TAKES PLACE AS ONE OF WORLD'S OUTSTANDING PHOTOPLAYS

No photoplay in recent years has aroused more advance interest than "David Copperfield." Listed among the immortal stories of all time, it frequently was described by Charles Dickens, its author, as "my favorite child." It is a story that has been read by untold millions since it was first published.

Taking its place among the truly great pictures of all time, "David Copperfield" opens at the English Theatre Sunday for a three day run. To say that it is one of the most pretentious and one of the most intimate photoplays ever made is to say too little, it is a picture that has more than bigness and more than intimacy; it has a soul.

As it develops its absorbing story it runs the full gamut of entertainment qualities. There is a wealth of romance, a wealth of pathos, a wealth of comedy. There are spectacle and thrills and tragedy and beauty. But when you leave the theatre "David Copperfield" remains with you. For it "does something" to the heart that baffles description.

More than a year, we hear, was spent in preparation and filming. If it had taken ten years it would have been worth the effort. It is a picture no man or woman, no boy or girl should miss seeing. It sets a new high in entertainment quality.

Of the actors, and there are no less than sixty-five stars and featured players, perhaps the most spectacular achievement of "David Copperfield" is the development of the sensational new child star, Freddie Bartholomew. Playing the juvenile David, he gives a performance never surpassed on the screen. He is hailed as the greatest "find" since Jackie Coogan rocketed to fame and there is something reminiscent about that Jackie of long ago. But little Freddie Bartholomew can be compared to no child star the screen has ever developed; he is himself, and that is enough.

Although there are sixty-five great stars and featured players in "David Copperfield," critics have marveled at the ease with which little Freddie "steals" scenes from the most experienced performers. Among these are W. C. Fields, Lionel Barrymore, Madge Evans, Margee O'Sullivan, Edna May Oliver, Lewis Stone, Frank Lawton, Roland Young, Elizabeth Allan, Basil Rathbone, Hugh Williams, Herbert Mundin and others of equal prominence. Yet Freddie stands out, in the words of one reviewer, "like a sore thumb."

MINOR BATON ENTERTAINED AT "VALENTINE" MEETING

Miss Lottie Jo Townes entertained the Minor Baton last Monday night at a "Valentine" meeting. Following the business, the time was given over to plans for the National Federation Hymn Contest, which will be held in the local club on March 18.

The feature of the evening, drawing for the "prize cake" resulted in Ola Lee Stephens' good luck. A full rehearsal of the opera fantasia which the club is studying preceded the serving of a refreshment plate of delectable sandwiches, potato chips, hot chocolate and rosettes. Plate favors were clever little valentines.

Miss Marjory Wells will be hostess for the "American Music" program next time.—Reported.

Edith 4-H Girls To Make Dresses

"The time has come when each girl is to plan, choose, and make the clothes which she wants," quoted Miss Robb at the last meeting of the Edith 4-H club on Feb. 1. "We have ability and should make as many of our clothes as we can." We are all going to make dresses as our next project. We will succeed if we do our best at all times, and follow directions as carefully as possible. We made dresses last year, and we hope to show a great improvement in them.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our thanks to our many friends and neighbors for their kindness to us during the illness and death of our infant son. May God bless each one of you in our prayer.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Williams and family; Mr. and Mrs. Nell Williams.

South Ward

There wasn't a very large crowd at Sunday school last Sunday morning but we are expecting a larger crowd Sunday.

Everyone enjoyed Mrs. Newton's sermon after Sunday school. Mrs. Boen entertained a group of young folks with a farewell party for Miss Joyce Crenshaw last Friday night. Everyone reported a nice time.

Everyone present had a nice time at the party in the home of Mrs. W. E. Hammonds Saturday night.

A group of young folks enjoyed the party at Miss Lola Smith's in the Edith community Saturday night.

Some young folks visited in the home of J. T. Owens of Edith Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. W. P. Inman is staying this week with her daughter, Mrs. T. Cowan of Tahoka, who is ill with the flu.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. Eaton's aged mother of Tahoka who has been very low for some time is still no better.

Miss Odean Boen is sick with tonsillitis this week. We hope she will soon be well and back in school.

Junior and Elsie Jewel McGinnis, little son and daughter of T. E. McGinnis, are in the Lubbock sanitarium. Junior has mastoid and Elsie Jewel pneumonia. They are reported to be very sick. We surely hope they recover soon.

Everyone remember Sunday school next Sunday morning at 10:15 o'clock.—Reporter.

TEXAS TECHNOLOGICAL IS GOVERNMENT DEPOSITORY

Lubbock, Feb. 6.—Designated as a governmental depository of the 19th congressional district, the library of Texas Technological College will receive approximately three shelf-feet of books each month when the legislature is not in session, and more during sessions. The college will have access to practically all governmental documents as soon as they are printed.

In a letter to Alton P. Tiedel, superintendent of documents, George Mason, congressman from this district, said: "I want to take this means of expressing my desire that Texas Technological College be placed on your mailing list as the governmental depository for my district."

Each district has one depository which is chosen by the representative of the district. Only the re-districting of Texas and the placing of Lubbock in the new 19th district made it possible for Tech to receive the material.

Mr. and Mrs. Estes Mourfield arrived Wednesday morning from Tifton, Georgia. Estes will be associated with his father, A. A. Mourfield, in the feed business.

Central

Bro. McCulloch preached Saturday night and Sunday.

Visitors in the R. Bosworth home this week were Leon Orimes, Mr. and Mrs. D. Grimes of Grandfield, Okla., John and Merl Okey of Holister, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Jones and baby son, Mr. and Mrs. Deen Nowlin and little Dolores of Tahoka, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hawthorne and children of Plainview.

Bro. McCulloch visited in the Kuykendall home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Duckett visited in Andrews last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Ferguson visited their little granddaughter, Mary Duval of Crowell, who has pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Duckett and Mrs. G. W. Sharp visited in Littlefield last week.

Mr. R. Bosworth and Clifford, Mr. Douglas Jones, Mr. Bob Ferguson, Mr. G. M. Duckett, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Duckett of Central attended the Workers' Council in Brownfield Tuesday.

Mrs. Bob Ferguson and Mrs. W. R. Duckett visited Mrs. Ernest Bosworth of Tahoka and Mrs. G. M. Duckett Wednesday.

Don't forget S. S. and B. T. U. We also have prayer meeting Saturday night.

HUGE CONSTRUCTION PLAN PRESENTED TO COMMITTEE

Washington, Feb. 6.—A $50,700,000 construction program of roads, streets and grade-separations for Texas has been presented to the finance committee of the United States Senate by highway advocates as a sound way to employ part of the huge federal public works fund, Col. Ike Ashburn, manager of the Texas Good Roads Association, said today.

The Texas program is part of a nation-wide plan worked out by road leaders from many states. They listed for the committee 23,192 specific projects, to cost $1,700,000,000, which the various state highway departments can initiate immediately or within the year.

There are 975 projects on the Texas list, Colonel Ashburn said, including 77 underpasses or overpasses, 26 eliminations of dangerous highway intersections, 650 federal aid or secondary roads, and 200 within cities or towns.

Colonel Ashburn urged all influential Texans who favor the plan to so advise their senators and representatives in Washington.

"This program meets all the President's policy demands for public works," the Texan said. "These are useful and permanent improvements, with more than 80 per cent of the money going to wages. The projects are efficiently planned, they do not compete with private enterprise, and they add to the economic resources and stability of the nation."

"This seems to be the only definite and detailed plan advanced thus far by any agency for unemployment relief under the terms of the present bill."

Aside from their revenue-producing power and enhancement of community values, highways gave more employment last year, dollar for dollar, than any other type of public work, employing some 1,000,000 men, Colonel Ashburn said. Texas needs highways for her Centennial in 1936, he added.

CARD OF THANKS

We find it impossible to express our appreciation of the many deeds of kindness done and the sympathy extended by our neighbors and friends during the illness and at the time of the death of our dear mother, Mrs. Sallie I. Nowlin. We can only say that from the depths of our hearts we thank you. The children.

ATHLETIC TEAMS GETTING READY

All of the athletic teams of Tahoka Hi are practicing daily on their respective games in order that they may be ready for the county meet.

The playground ball teams under the direction of Mr. Strickland are looking good. They practice every day at noon and after school.

The volley ball girls under the supervision of Mrs. Assiter are progressing nicely. This is the first time in several years that the girls have taken any interest in volley ball.

Tennis teams, under the watchful eye of Mr. Carter, a former tennis ace, are slowly molding into championship form. Observers are expecting Tahoka High tennis teams to win several first places in the tennis division at the county meet.

The track boys have also begun to come out and after basketball season track will get into full swing. There is plenty of good track material and Coach Walker is expecting to develop a team that will win the county meet, and carry off several places at the district meet.

FORMER TAHOKA COACH PROMOTED

Many Tahoka friends and admirers of Winfield Nicklaus, former coach in the local high school, were delighted with the announcement last week of his appointment as head coach of Amarillo Junior College.

Nicklaus succeeds Frank Kimbrough who resigned to accept the head coaching position at Hardin-Simmons University.

After leaving Tahoka several years ago, Nicklaus coached the Amarillo high school junior team for three years from which position he was promoted to his present job. During his stay in Tahoka Nicklaus produced what was probably the best football machine ever turned out of Tahoka high school.

BULLDOGS DEFEAT NEW LYNN TEAM

Last Friday afternoon the New Lynn basketball team rambled into town and received a 24-19 thrashing at the hands of the Bulldogs. Neither team looked too good either on the defense or offense. Tahoka secured an early 8-point lead before the New Lynn boys hit the loop for a two-pointer. The Bulldogs attack was led by James Minor with 12 points and Woods, Fomythe and Taylor were each good for four.

The Bulldogs will return this game with New Lynn sometime this week. They will also meet some other team Friday or Friday night. The squad is working hard so that it will be in good condition for the county championship tournament at Wilson February 15 and 16.

THIS

FACE HAS CHANGE CHAPEL PROGRAM

The chapel program Monday afternoon was very entertaining to the student body. Mr. Pace told several humorous stories. Then he gave the students some valuable information on the subject of health. He urged the students of the high school to guard themselves against bad colds and coughs. It is evident that this talk on health was badly needed in this sleaze of influenza and pneumonia.

A Big Expense

Dottie Turentine was spending her summer vacation on her uncle's farm. The day of her arrival she went with him to see his herd of cows. She gazed with interest at the beasts, especially one that was chewing its cud.

"Fine animal, that one," said the farmer, following the direction of her glance.

"Yes," replied Dottie, "but doesn't it cost you a lot to keep her in chewing gum?"

There were fourteen absent in the Junior class Monday on account of sickness and on account of sickness of students' families.—Junior Reporter.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Baldrige of Lamesa were here Monday. They recently sold their ranch home near Clovis, New Mexico, and removed to Lamesa.

L. F. Frazier made a business trip to Fort Worth this week.

Edith

Everyone enjoyed the sermon delivered by Bro. Dykes of Tahoka.

Mr. and Mrs. Dykes and daughter, Leah Mae Bell, Percy Dean Tippit and Naydeen Nelson took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Anderson and family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Faubion and Miss Lola Smith visited Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Armstrong at Petty Sunday.

Newton Smith of Wilson spent Saturday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sanders.

Inness and Effie Anderson spent the week end with their cousin, Naydeen Nelson of New Lynn.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Payne and family and Marie Owens spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Martin of Draw.

Mrs. Bell and sons, Tom, Dick and Harry, spent Sunday with Mrs. Tippit.

Mr. and Mrs. Garnett and family visited Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Liles of Meadow Sunday.

We are glad to have Mr. and Mrs. Walter Vaughn move into our community. We invite them to attend Sunday School and Singing.

Johnnie Inman, Rush Dudgeon, Deward Nelson, Mary Ellen Inman, and Mabel Maggard spent Sunday with Christine and J. W. Owens.

Arden Sanders spent Sunday with Cleo Hoyle.

Mr. and Mrs. Cullefer and baby spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Anderson.

The following are on the sick list this week: Mr. Jim Dyer, Mrs. (Grandma) Anderson and little Wanda Gene Stephens.

Janice Sanders of Tahoka spent Thursday night with Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Sanders and family.

A group of young folks of Edith and South Ward enjoyed a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sanders Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Stephens and children visited relatives at Post City Sunday.

There was a nice crowd out for singing Sunday night. We invite everyone to come back.—Reporter.

Here is the New I. E. S. BETTER SIGHT LAMP designed especially for people who are interested in SIGHT SAVING

HIGHER THAN THE ORDINARY LAMP: 19 1/2 inches from table top to bottom of the shade, the BETTER SIGHT LAMP gives several times as much useful light as ordinary lamps at the usual working distance.

TWO SHADES IN ONE: An outer shade for beauty. An inner surface—with a specially treated white finish of high reflecting efficiency—which reflects twice as much useful light as the ordinary lamp shade.

"How different", you say, "from the ordinary lamp." Of course it's different, because it was created with the one purpose in mind of helping people see with greater ease... of being useful as well as ornamental. There's no other lamp like it because no other lamp gives you as much useful light for reading or working... and at the same time throws just the right amount of light to the ceiling for general illumination.

Without obligation on your part you are invited to avail yourself of our trial plan in your home.
Study Lamps $5.95—Junior Floor Lamps $7.95. Terms on either model as low as $5c down. On Study Lamp balance payable $1.00 per month on your electric service bill; on Junior Floor Lamp $1.35 per month.

WTCC Advocates Small Sales Tax

Stamford, Jan. 30.—Based on a six to one affirmative reply on a referendum sent to its 212 directors and about 500 members of taxation and public expenditure committees in its membership towns, the West Texas Chamber of Commerce announced today its advocacy of a 2 per cent sales tax for Texas, on the last retail sale, "providing the state uses the revenue equitably to fund the outstanding indebtedness of all cities, counties and schools, and providing the local ad valorem tax bills be reduced in accordance with the amount of debt relief secured."

The referendum ballot was the second recently sent out by the WTCC. In the first—in line with a recommendation made by the Senate taxation committee headed by Senator Arthur P. Duggan—directors and tax committeemen voted affirmatively, but by the close margin of 107 to 88, on a 2 per cent sales tax as an outright replacement for the present ad valorem or property tax. Meeting in Plainview January 15, the officers' committee of the regional chamber counted the vote, and in view of its closeness tentatively announced it would favor sales tax for funding the debt of three political subdivisions—cities, counties and schools—provided a clear-cut approval was given on a second referendum.

In announcing today the six to one decision, James D. Hamlin, president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce said:

"Real estate or visible property now bears practically all of the burden of city government, of county government, a large share of school government and a great per cent of state government. The average total of taxes assessed on real estate in these subdivisions of government is from $3.50 to $6.00 per $100 valuation. These taxes must be paid whether the property makes or does not make a return, otherwise these taxes are governmental liens upon such properties. Around $50,000,000 in taxes in West Texas are delinquent, and governmental liens exist against our property to that extent.

"It is proposed that the state sales tax will prorateably fund the debts of political subdivisions, now estimated to amount to $730,000,000. It is estimated that it takes 45 cents out of every ad valorem tax dollar to pay the interest and sinking fund on outstanding debts. If the state takes over the task of funding such outstanding indebtedness a very substantial relief will be given to every ad valorem tax payer in the form of reduced taxes. A most important point of our program is making it mandatory on the political subdivision to reduce the tax bill in accordance with the relief secured; and our proposal is to write into the constitution a limit of 2 per cent on any sales tax that may be levied by the legislature.

"The proposition is a supplanting tax and not an additional tax. We are for the sales tax only as a means of relieving the ad valorem tax burden by debt paying, and we would be unalterably opposed to a sales tax if it were an additional tax."

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce contends that a 2 per cent tax, based on retail sales in Texas of $2,000,000,000 (the 1923 figure), will produce from $20,000,000 to $40,000,000 annually, which would completely amortize the $730,000,000 debt of political subdivisions in 40 years at 3 per cent interest.

"The original Duggan proposition, that of supplanting the state ad valorem tax, which is only 25 cents, would afford only 6 per cent relief," said Hamlin's statement. "The West Texas Chamber of Commerce would reduce the taxpayer's bill by 40 per cent and up, since most of the folks have a total ad valorem tax bill of $4.00 and higher in the combination of city, county, school and state taxes."

The bond-funding plan can be put into operation only through an

Black-Draught Brings Refreshing Relief of Constipation Troubles

Constipation produces many disagreeable sensations, several of which are mentioned by Mr. T. E. Smith, of Boonville, Ind., who writes: "I have used Theford's Black-Draught many years when needed for biliousness and other minor ills when a laxative was needed. I have a tight feeling in my chest when I get bilious. I get dizzy and feel very tired, just don't feel like doing my work. After taking Black-Draught, I feel much better. This is why I continue to use it when needed." . . . Theford's Black-Draught is a good, purely vegetable laxative, obtainable for 25¢ a package.

$100 Note, Although Worthless, Pays All

The story goes thusly: A traveling man moved into a hotel for a week's stay. He handed the hotel proprietor a $100 bill requesting him to put it into the safe, which the hotel man did. Shortly after the grocer came in and presented his account for groceries, and the hotel man just borrowed the $100 piece of currency and paid his grocer. The grocer met the hardware dealer to whom he owed $100 and he paid him with the same piece of currency. The hardware man owed the clothing store man a like amount and he paid him. The clothing man who owed the hotel keeper $100 paid him the same bill. The hotel man put the note back in the safe.

When the traveling man was ready to leave, he paid his account with money from his pocket and called for his $100 bill which the hotel man turned over to him. The traveling man tore up the bill and when the hotel man registered astonishment, said it was counterfeit.

Now the question is: Who was the loser? Don't answer too soon for you may guess wrong as a good many persons do. The correct answer is, there is no loser.

The moral of the story of course, is the service that can be performed by money in circulation, even though the currency is worthless. Here were several men reducing their accounts payable and at the same time getting paid the outstanding accounts due them, and with loss to nobody.—Concho Herald.

amendment to the state constitution, and the West Texas Chamber proposes to work for that, Hamlin said.

MEASLES VERY DANGEROUS FOR YOUNGER CHILDREN

Austin, Feb. 6.—Many cases of measles are being reported to the State Department of Health. The disease spreads very quickly; it is very dangerous for very young children, and because many mothers are inclined to think that measles doesn't amount to much and that it is better for the children to have it and to have it over, Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer, sends them this message:

"Measles is especially hard on very young children—babies from about six months old to children of school age. It is a very treacherous disease. It often opens the way for pneumonia and other diseases of that kind, and it frequently leaves some serious after-effect. It is very 'catching' right from the start, so a special effort should be made to keep the younger children away from others who have it. It's a mistake to say, 'Oh let them have it, and have it over.'"

"But even though it may not be as dangerous for the older children as for the younger ones, measles is a serious disease for anybody, at any age—young or old—who has it. Anybody who has it, or shows symptoms of it, should have the best possible medical care—and the doctor should be sent for promptly."

"If your child shows any of the symptoms of measles—at the start it often seems to be only a cold—put him or her to bed, keep the other children away from the one who is sick, and send for the doctor."

Gerald Nye, U. S. Senator from North Dakota: "National defense has become a racket, an international racket more vicious in its consequence, more sweeping in its influence than any racket ever conceived."
