BILLY CLINTON DIED TUESDAY

Burial Will Be Held Here Today For Popular Young Man; Died At Gladewater

Funeral services for Billy Clinton, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Clinton, are being conducted at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the Methodist Church by the pastor, Rev. H. C. Smith.

Billy died at Gladewater about 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon of pneumonia, just one week after he left Tahoka strong and apparently enjoying the best of health.

Having a sister residing at Gladewater, Billy went down there to seek employment, going in company with an oil man of Longview who had been here a few days. On Wednesday morning after his arrival there he became ill, it is said. On Monday his parents here received a message to the effect that he was in a critical condition. His mother immediately left for Gladewater, arriving there Tuesday morning.

Billy died a few hours after her arrival. The body was brought to Tahoka by the Harris-Applewhite ambulance for burial. Borden Davis, driver of the ambulance, was accompanied to Gladewater by the deceased's father, W. T. Clinton. Burial will be in the Tahoka Cemetery.

Born May 28, 1917, Billy was almost 18 years of age. He was born in Tahoka and had resided here all his life. He was a graduate of the Tahoka High School of the class of 1933 and was a youth of fine ability and capabilities. Since his graduation, he had been employed here much of the time at the Tahoka Drug store and recently had been operating a small filling station. He had a great host of friends among the young people and the adult population alike, and the town was greatly shocked by his unexpected death. He had been a member of the Methodist Church since childhood.

Surviving him are his parents, one brother and four sisters. The brother is Jim Clinton of Lubbock, and the sisters are Mrs. R. B. Jones of Tahoka, Mrs. D. B. McGinty of Plains, Mrs. R. A. Dawes of Crockett, Houston county, and Mrs. O. C. McRae of Gladewater. All are present for the funeral except Mrs. Dawes.

The family have the deepest sympathy of a great host of friends here and throughout this section.

Methodists Will Hear Laymen

Two laymen from the local Baptist church have been invited to fill the pulpit at the Methodist church Sunday in the absence of the pastor, Rev. H. C. Smith, who will be in a revival meeting at Friona.

County Attorney Truett Smith will speak at the 11 o'clock service, and G. E. Hogan, teacher of the Baptist men's class will speak at the evening church service. Both of these men are excellent speakers and everyone has a cordial invitation to be present at the Methodist church Sunday and hear them.

County Judge W. E. Smith spoke to the congregation last Sunday in the pastor's absence.

Rev. Smith conducted a revival at Roaring Springs last week, and reports that there were eleven conversions at the close of the meeting, Sunday night.

The pastor asks The News to announce that there will be a special service on Easter Sunday, with musical specials suitable to the occasion.

Men Are Invited To Program Of P. T. A.

J. D. Strickland and his classes in vocational agriculture will have a part on the program at the regular meeting of the P. T. A. next Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 at the High School. All members of the organization are urged by Mrs. Wayne Morland, president, to be present. A special invitation is given the men of the community to hear Mr. Strickland's program.

New officers of the organization will be installed at the meeting.

Mrs. J. H. Powell and children returned Sunday, accompanied by her father, from San Angelo.

Drilling On Oil Test Is Delayed

Drilling on the Hart oil well 10 miles southwest of Tahoka has been stopped since Sunday night, when the mud pump broke.

It was necessary to purchase and install a new pump before drilling operations could be resumed, and a new pump is on the way from Houston. It was expected to arrive today and may be here before this paper is off the press. If no other misfortune develops, drilling will probably be resumed Friday.

A depth of 4377 had been reached when the accident occurred and drilling stopped. Considerable gas and a good showing of oil is all that can be reported as to developments within the past ten days.

H-S U. Quartet Is Heard Here

The program rendered at the Baptist Church here Sunday afternoon by the Hardin-Simmons University male quartet drew almost a capacity audience and was highly praised by those present.

The quartet is composed of James Rodden, first tenor, Payne Hancock, second tenor, James Rosser, baritone, and Gordon Suits, bass. Mr. Suits is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Suits of this city and is a first year student in Hardin-Simmons University.

The program, entitled "Sermon in Song," comprised three divisions and consisted chiefly of quartet numbers. There were two solos, one by Gordon Suits and one by James Rosser.

The quartet sang Saturday night at the Mall Carriers Convention in Lubbock and again Sunday night in the First Baptist Church in that city. While here they were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Suits.

Band Plays At T-Bar, Tahoka

The Tahoka Band will play a concert tomorrow night, Friday, at T-Bar. Besides regular band numbers, diversions such as instrumental solos and duets, vocal and comedy selections will be heard. Town folks are invited to go and enjoy the visit along with the band.

It is also planned to play a concert on the court house square next Sunday afternoon, 3:30 to 4:30, if the weather conditions will permit. Mr. Alphin says if the wind insists on blowing as it has recently, then the band will not "blow," but will gladly yield the date to said wind.

Bring Back Big String Of Fish

W. C. Huffaker, Loyd Huffaker, and Howard Bayse returned Friday from a most successful fishing trip away down on the Rio Grande. They were accompanied by O. F. Shofner of Lamesa and a friend from Spearburg. They reported a catch of 190 pounds of cat and about 80 pounds of scaly fish. The largest cat weighed 31 pounds. Fearing that the editor might be incredulous, they showed him a part of their catch, some large, fine fellows.

The scene of their operations was in the grand canyon of the Rio Grande near Terlingua, 75 or 80 miles south of Alpine, and they showed us a picture of the canyon. The walls rise almost perpendicularly about 1,800 feet above the river bed. The stream itself is beautiful, the water being very deep in places. It is one of the great scenic spots of Texas and some day will probably be a national park.

GO TO ARIZONA

S. H. Howell and Belton Howell left Sunday for Yuma, Arizona, to be at the bedside of the former's daughter and the latter's sister, Mrs. Temp Skinner, who is seriously ill and not expected to recover. Mrs. Skinner formerly resided here and many old-time friends will regret to learn of her critical condition.

Mrs. Maurice Small and two children of Sudan spent Tuesday night here visiting Mrs. Small's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. English.

SAND STORMS STILL COMING

Terrific Winds Bring Dust And Sand; Storms Worst In History Of West

Sandstorms which have filled the air with dust and sand almost without cessation for the past seven or eight weeks, continue unabated. For our days in succession now these storms have raged here, practically for six days. Saturday brought one of the worst storms of the season. On Sunday there was only a moderate breeze but the atmosphere was filled with dust. Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday brought storms of the severest type, and another is raging today. For twenty-five years, no doubt, people will talk about the spring of 1935 as possibly the worst on record.

Yet, according to newspaper reports, we people here on the South Plains are fortunate. In the North Panhandle, Western Oklahoma, Western Kansas, and in parts of Colorado, the severity and destructiveness of the storms have been much greater than here. In some of those sections, schools and many business houses were compelled to close, visibility reduced to only a few yards at times, the lands have been denuded of the top soil, for a depth of many inches in places, and in one locality gravel picked up by the winds broke out window lights.

J. A. Earwood, 60, Died Wednesday

J. A. Earwood, 60, who resided on the Lockwood farm eight miles north of Tahoka on the Wilson road, died at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon of pneumonia. He had been sick about eight days.

Funeral services were conducted at the Baptist Church at 2 o'clock this afternoon, Rev. George A. Dale, the pastor, officiating. Interment was in the cemetery here.

Mr. Earwood had resided on the South Plains the past nine years. For five years he lived in the Union community in Lubbock county and for the past four years had resided on the Lockwood farm in this county. A native of Georgia, he was married in Alabama, and later moved to Oklahoma. Then he located in Hunt county, Texas, where he resided until he removed to the plains.

Mr. Earwood leaves surviving a widow and thirteen children, nine sons and four daughters, all of whom were present at the funeral. Ten of the children are married and four of them reside in East Texas. The others live in this section.

Deceased had been a member of the Baptist Church since boyhood until a few years ago, when he united with the Methodist Church. He was a good man and a good citizen and enjoyed the respect of all who knew him.

LUBBOCK COUPLE MARRIED

Miller Sharp and Miss Josephine Selma, residents of Lubbock, were united in marriage here at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon by Elder R. P. Drennon at his residence.

They will continue to reside in Lubbock.

New York Publisher Was Friend Of Alley

Adolph S. Ochs, publisher of the New York Times, the country's greatest daily newspaper, who died in Chattanooga, Tennessee, Monday was a boyhood friend of the late Jack Alley, pioneer Lynn county citizen. Mr. Alley and Mr. Ochs attended school together in Chattanooga, and only about two years ago Mr. Alley had a letter from Mr. Ochs asking that he come to see him in New York.

Ochs, who was 77, and died of a cerebral hemorrhage grew up in Chattanooga, became editor of The Chattanooga Times, and later the publisher of the New York Times. He built a beautiful temple in his Tennessee city honoring his parents, and Wednesday his own body lay in state in that building, a spray of roses and snapdragons from President Roosevelt beside the bier. He will be buried in New York today.

NEW TRUSTEES ARE ELECTED

Billman, McKaughan, and Howell Are New Members Tahoka School Board

In the trustee election of the Tahoka Independent School District held here last Saturday, J. S. McKaughan, Frank Billman, and Belton Howell were elected as trustees to succeed J. K. Applewhite, G. A. Brasfield, and R. W. Fenton Jr. The names of Messrs. Applewhite and Brasfield did not appear on the ballot at this election, both of them choosing not to run. Mr. Applewhite has been president of the board the past several years.

The holdover trustees are Dr. L. E. Turrentine, W. L. Burleson, Sam Holland, and Alvin Hicks.

In the election Saturday 187 votes were cast, but about ten or twelve of them could not be counted for the reason that the voters left four names on their ballots whereas only three trustees were to be elected. The election judges, of course, could not tell which three any of these voters intended to vote for, so these ballots necessarily went uncounted.

The results of the election were as follows: J. S. McKaughan 68, H. A. Maasen 53, H. M. Snowden 31, R. P. Drennon 23, Frank Billman 81, R. W. Fenton Jr. 66, Frank Hill 53, Noley Wyatt 65, Belton Howell 73.

Farmers Favor Processing Tax

The Lynn County Farm Association in session here Wednesday afternoon adopted a motion instructing the acting president, L. T. Brewer, to send a message to President Roosevelt urging him not to discontinue the processing tax arrangement for financing the Agricultural Adjustment program. Mr. Brewer accordingly sent to the President the following telegram:

"We, the members of the Lynn County Farm Association representing the 23 rural communities in the county, in our meeting today passed a resolution to wire an urgent request to you not to change the processing tax arrangement for financial agricultural adjustment. We believe that a fair method of financing."

Mr. Brewer also sent a telegram to Senator Tom Connolly asking him to use his influence with the President in behalf of the processing tax.

A general discussion of farm problems was engaged in by the farmers present under the direction of district farm agent O. G. Tumlinson, who propounded questions and directed the discussion much as a teacher would provoke a discussion by his pupils.

Mrs. Minnie Fisher Cunningham, Extension Service editor of the A. & M. College, was also present and made suggestions at intervals.

The body also voted to have a county meeting on the first Thursday in each month; and community meetings in the various communities are to be held following each county meet. These are to give farmers an opportunity to exchange their views on agricultural problems and policies.

Laymen's Meeting At Baptist Church

A laymen's meeting is to be held in lieu of the regular preaching service at the Baptist Church here Sunday night. T. E. Lamb of Lubbock will be the speaker of the occasion.

This is part of a South-wide movement, the larger organization being known as the Baptist Brotherhood. A local organization will probably be formed here. The purpose is to enlist the men of the church more actively in religious work.

Everybody is cordially invited to the services Sunday night.

CARTER SELLS PAPER

O. D. Carter, formerly publisher of the O'Donnell Index, but more recently of the County-Wide News, Littlefield, sold his paper there last week to J. A. Price of Mississippi. Mr. Carter has not announced his plans for the future.

PWA has completed more than 11,000 projects.

Interest Revived In State Park Project

Install Two New Tahoka Officials

At a called meeting of the city council Monday night, Jim Dye was sworn in as the new mayor and Joe Bovell as one of the new members of the city council, Judge C. H. Cain officiating.

The other new members, Jim Burleson and Ed Park, were out of town and will be sworn in later.

No other business was transacted.

Miss Ely Winner Of State Contest

At the annual state convention of the Texas Federation of Music Clubs held in San Angelo last week, Miss Madeline Ely, public school teacher at West Point in this county, won first place in the women's vocal contest.

Miss Ely was the director of the public school music songfest recently held at the Baptist Church here, in which pupils from most of the public schools in Lynn county participated. She has often sung at church services and on other occasions here. She has been taking voice lessons in the Texas Technological College. Her work here has been of the highest quality, and her many friends were delighted but not surprised that she won first place in the state.

Angela Friedrich of Dallas won second place and Mrs. Charles Mosser of Colorado City won third.

In the men's division, Gordon Gaines of Lubbock won first place and Paul Raucasson of San Antonio second.

P. K. Fleming Jr. Died Last Friday

P. K. Fleming Jr., 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. K. Fleming of New Lynn, died in a Slaton sanitarium at one o'clock Friday morning following an operation for appendicitis.

Funeral services were conducted at Garylyn Friday afternoon by Rev. Crabtree of Sweetwater, assisted by Rev. O. C. Coppedge, Methodist pastor at Southland, and Rev. D. W. Reed, a Baptist minister at Garylyn. The remains were interred in the cemetery at Grassland.

P. K. was born in the Magnolia community and was a pupil in school there. Just a little more than a week prior to his death he was a participant in the Interscholastic League meet held here. His death is much deplored by many friends, especially by his little schoolmates, and the parents have the genuine sympathy of all.

New School Board Members Installed

At a meeting of the school board Tuesday night, Frank Billman and J. S. McKaughan were sworn in as new members. Belton Howell, the third new member, was not present on account of having been called out of the state by the illness of a sister.

The president, J. K. Applewhite, having retired from the board, it became necessary to elect a new president, and Alvin Hicks was elected to that position. W. L. Burleson was chosen as vice-president. Carl Griffing will continue to serve as secretary.

The new board, after Belton Howell shall have been sworn in, will consist of the following members: Alvin Hicks, W. L. Burleson, Dr. L. E. Turrentine, Sam Holland, J. S. McKaughan, Frank Billman, and Belton Howell.

EXTENSION WORKERS HERE

Mrs. Minnie Fisher Cunningham, Extension editor, and O. G. Tumlinson, district agent of District 2, both with headquarters at College Station, were here Wednesday holding conferences with the County and Home Demonstration agents and conducting a reporters' school for club correspondents.

$6,000.00 WOULD ASSURE PARK

Lynn County Can Vote Bonds To Buy Land For State Park At Tahoka Lake

Interest in the Lynn County Park project was revived this week when Jim Dye received a communication from the authorities at Austin advising that under a recent act of the legislature the way is open for the county to proceed to vote bonds to purchase any amount of land that might be desirable for park purposes.

On Tuesday Mr. Dye, Judge J. W. Elliott, and George H. Spears went to Lubbock and conferred with the agent of the Texas Land & Mortgage Company respecting a tract of land owned by that company at Tahoka Lake. The Company offered to sell to the county a tract of 600 acres at $11.00 per acre, or a total consideration of $6,600.

These gentlemen stated that petitions for a bond election would probably be started soon to determine whether or not bonds should be issued for the purpose of purchasing this land. The tract embraces the south portion of the lake and much of the adjacent territory, including the springs in the draw emptying into the lake from the west.

If the land is purchased, the Government will spend many thousands of dollars in improving the property, they say, and will place a company of CCC workers on the site as well as giving employment to many of our local citizens.

Lubbock county is preparing to establish a park in an area along Yellowhouse Canyon along the northern and eastern limits of the city of Lubbock, and it is said that as much as $100.00 per acre is to be paid for some of this land.

A park at historic Tahoka Lake, which lies about eight miles northeast of Tahoka, could be made a beauty spot and a place of recreation and amusement for thousands of our people.

Loans Available For Irrigation

Washington, April 7.—Congressman George Mahon was advised today that it would be possible for farmers to secure loans under Title 1 of the Federal Housing Act for the purpose of putting down irrigation wells on their farms. This interpretation was made by the Legal Department of the Federal Housing Administration after Mr. Mahon had called on them in regard to the irrigation problem.

The Act provides that the Federal Housing Administration may insure loans made by local bankers to home owners for the purpose of making improvements up to $2000. A farmer may apply to his local banker for funds to put down a well and provide the equipment. If this loan is made in accordance with the regulations of the Act, it will be insured by the Federal Housing Administration, according to the information received.

Of course, the local banks would be the judges of the soundness and desirability of this type loan. The future policy of the Federal Housing Administration can not be predicted with certainty.

Rabbit Drive At Lake Next Week

G. H. Spears announces that there will be a rabbit drive at Tahoka Lake next Tuesday, April 16. All participants are requested to meet at Mr. Spears' residence at 9:30 o'clock. "Everybody invited. Bring your guns and ammunition," is the message Mr. Spears sends out.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Henderson and children returned Monday from Crosbyton, where they have been visiting while Mrs. Henderson recuperated from her recent operation. They are residing in the Redwine community.

WE MUST PROTECT OUR LANDS

Some wild and harmful statements have been made by intelligent people respecting the harmful effects of these sandstorms. Some folks have gotten up in the government's service recently and stated that the productivity of the soil in some sections had been destroyed for a hundred years to come, or words to that effect. Such assertions are foolish; yet it is a fact that this matter of soil erosion is becoming serious. Local land owners as well as government experts will do well to study the problem and to devise means to protect their lands against the ravages of the winds.

The abandonment of large areas of cultivated lands and converting them back into pasture lands has been suggested by people that know little about the matter. They do not know that long continued drouths make the pastures and ranch lands barren, and that the meager grass that is left has little effect in preventing dust and sand-storms. They do not know that freshly plowed land blows less than ranch lands, as a rule.

Dense hedges of trees and shrubs at frequent intervals might be of considerable value, and a great water-conservation program might also help some. We do not pretend to know how to solve the problem, but if the government will furnish the trees and let each farmer surround his lands, or interests in the larger tracts, with dense hedges of such trees as Chinese elms, we believe that in the course of time it would be a great help. The government is growing millions of trees for that "shelter belt" project but it will probably be found after while that these windbreaks must be much closer together than the Government contemplates if they are to be of much service. Why not surround every 160 acre tract with a hedge of trees?

IS THE AAA PROGRAM AN UNMIXED BLESSING?

Thus far, we believe that the Government-AAA program has been helpful to the vast majority of Southern cotton farmers. It has obviously enabled them to get better prices for their cotton and therefore to enjoy an approach to prosperity that otherwise would not have come their way. Lynn county farmers were greatly helped last year.

But there's another side to the question, also. For some reason, our foreign exports of cotton have decreased tremendously since the AAA program was inaugurated. We are losing our foreign markets for cotton. Some claim that the AAA program is directly and almost solely responsible for this. We do not know. If it is, then we are selling our future prosperity for a bit of temporary prosperity, and our last state will be worse than our first.

But this we do know. Our cotton-reduction program has driven many tenant farmers from the farms to town. This trend has been greatly augmented by the ever-increasing use of tractors. Many farm owners who have heretofore rented a part of their lands have ousted their tenants, or some of them, and are now working their lands, or a much larger acreage of their lands, themselves.

Driven from the farms, many of these tenants are now on the Government relief rolls. So, while the Government has been seeking to reduce unemployment, its AAA program has vastly increased the army of the unemployed. This increases not only from the tenant farmer class, who have been left high and dry without any land to work, but it comes also from other classes employed in the handling of our cotton crop—cotton pickers, gin employees, transportation employees, cotton mill employees, etc., etc.

Locally, while the merchants have had a better business from the individual farmers who have profited by the AAA program, they have lost the business that they would have gotten from many now jobless tenant farmers and from the horde of cotton pickers that have migrated to this section annually each fall.

So, it is a serious question as to whether or not the Government's program has helped or hurt the South as a whole. If it has had an effect having the effect that some claim—destroying our foreign markets for cotton—there can be no doubt that in the long-run the consequences of this program will be disastrous.

There are two sides to the question that merit the most serious consideration of our farmers and business men alike.

"Two Men Saw Out of Crosby County Jail in Broad Daylight," says a headline. Now we know that some criminals are not smart. Any fool would rather be in jail than to be outside in one of these sand-storms.

That propaganda that these Brases River people have been sending appealing to us to join with them in preventing overflows fails to impress us. What is an overflow, anyway?

Second of a Series of Statements on the New "Ultimate" Rate for Residential Service

The chart illustrates clearly typical examples of the additional electric service to which any home is entitled under the application of the "ultimate" rate. You will note that the increased service available at no increased cost ranges from 48 per cent to in some cases over 100 per cent additional. The only requirement is that you use as much or more (but not less than 20 kilowatt-hours) than you did for the corresponding month of 1934. Should you use in excess of the additional current allowed, the "ultimate" rate provides an exceedingly low cost per kilowatt-hour. A record of your 1934 consumption and the benefits you will receive may be obtained at our local office.

Reducing Relief To Families On Farms

Austin, April 10—District rural rehabilitation supervisors from nine districts of the state met here last week to receive instructions from V. R. Smitham, head of the rural department, and J. E. Stanford, director of rural rehabilitation for the Texas Relief Commission, on the plan to include all relief farm families in the rural rehabilitation program.

Meanwhile, efforts were under way in the counties to remove these families from the general relief rolls to the rural program. Caseworkers were tackling the huge task of obtaining waivers from landlords on their interest in the tenant's share crop. This waiver is required by rural department officials before the tenant may be taken into the rural program. Under this plan, all outright grants of relief will cease and aid to rural clients will be only on a loan basis. Relief officials will require a first lien on the tenant's share of the crop in order to assure repayment of credit advances.

Relief officials anticipated little difficulty in obtaining these waivers because in most instances the relief organization has already granted subsistence to the client throughout the winter and in some cases subsistence needs have been granted for an even longer period. The relief organization will not be responsible for relief tenants whose landlords refuse to sign waiver agreements.

"Landlords must not expect the Texas Relief Commission to finance their crops," declared Adam R. Johnson, state relief director. "If some landlords are no longer able to provide their tenants with subsistence, we will grant subsistence to these tenants after we have obtained a waiver entitling us to a chance to be repaid for the advance we make."

"We will continue to expect landlords not in dire need to finance their clients and keep them off the relief rolls. The relief organization is not a dumping ground to be used as a means of reducing expenses and increasing farm income."

"We don't ask the landlord to waive his one-fourth share of a cotton crop but we expect him to permit us to take a first mortgage on the tenant's three-fourths in order that we may have a chance to come out even."

West Texas Carriers Meet At Lubbock

Tahoka was well represented at the meeting of the West Texas Rural Letter Carriers Association in the ball room of the Hotel Lubbock last Saturday night.

L. D. Gildersleeve is president of the association and presided. A. A. Suits offered the invocation, and W. E. Suddarth, editor of the Texas Carrier, official organ of the state organization, delivered an address.

G. M. Reid and A. C. Weaver of Tahoka were also present but Mr. Weaver says that they "shined" principally at the banquet table. Messrs. Gildersleeve, Suits, Reid, Weaver, Suddarth, and Miss Betty Suddarth were also present.

Other speakers included Judge E. L. Pitts of Lubbock; E. E. Smith of Colorado, first vice-president of the state organization; A. N. Shirley of Floydada, state trustee; and W. L. Fletcher of Hamlin, national treasurer and for many years state secretary.

A program of music was furnished by the Hardin-Simmons Quartet, of which Gordon Suits of Tahoka is a member.

The Tahoka people present say that they had a real good time and that the feast was fine.

DAILY PRODUCTION OF CHEVROLET EXCEEDS 5,000

Upward, production of Chevrolet passenger cars and trucks is now exceeding 5,000 per day. On March 13 a total of 5,162 units rolled off the production lines of the company's 3 assembly plants, according to an official statement just released by W. E. Holler, vice president and general sales manager.

"Within a week or ten days," said Mr. Holler, "the new Chevrolet assembly plant at Baltimore, with an estimated yearly capacity of 80,000 units, should begin to add its daily quota to our present facilities. Once again we begin to get the benefit of this added production, present schedules will show another substantial increase."

"Deliveries of Chevrolet passenger cars and trucks from January 1 to March 10, the latest figures available, are 30.3 per cent above the same period in 1934. Every department of our business is now working at top speed to meet the demands of the public and our dealers for more cars and trucks."

Mr. Holler stated further that orders for delivery to buyers, through more than 10,000 dealer retail outlets, have increased steadily every week since the formal announcement of the company's new models on January 5. At present, unfilled orders on hand are said to be nearing the 100,000 mark.

Japs Have Marker On Alamo Grounds

San Antonio, April 3. (Special)—In the north courtyard of the Alamo, "Cradle of Texas Liberty," stands a Japanese memorial to its fallen heroes. Of the significance of this memorial, even few Texans are aware. Thousands annually view the shaft, their curiosity aroused, but seldom satisfied in full. Inscribed upon it in Japanese characters is a poem, composed by its donor, giving his conception of the tragedy of the Alamo. The few words in English only serve to whet the curiosity of transients, who visit Texas' shrine.

Texas, by the observance in 1933 of the Centennial of its achievement of independence, expects to focus upon itself the attention of the world. And in that year, the emphasis is to be laid upon the fate of those 182 men, who in 1836 made the supreme sacrifice, will find an echo in far-off Nippon. For in that country, there once took place a siege and defense, so similar, that historians afterward felt called upon to chronicle the parallel.

Prof. Shigetaka Shiga of Tokio personally presented the memorial, one from the native province of Sunemom Torii, who was the Capt. James B. Bonham of Japan. It came from the Province of Nagashino, the Alamo of the M'kado's land. That was in 1914, but it was years later that the Daughters of the Republic of Texas, custodians of the Alamo, learned details of the incidents that caused a Japanese to honor the Alamo's martyrs as kindred spirits to the heroes of Nagashino in his own land.

There are points of resemblance in these events, which transpired while separated by so great an expanse of land and sea. Bonham, sent by Col. William B. Travis in quest of help for the Texans besieged by a vastly superior force of Mexicans, returned without aid to perish with his comrades, March 6, 1836. Sunemom Torii went to seek aid for his fellow countrymen, also besieged by superior forces. He returned to be slain in sight of his friends, but, unlike the Alamo, the aid he sought arrived in time to save Nagashino.

During the sixteenth century, emperors practically had lost their power in Japan and bitter feuds for supremacy raged among the shoguns, or over-lords. At the time, three mighty clans were engaged in a momentous struggle—the Tokugawa and the Oda in formidable alliance against the Takeda.

On the Plain of Nagashino, half way between Nagayo and Saisaiuka, lay the castle of that name, in Japan's most important tea center and a stronghold of adherents of the Tokugawa clan. Members of the Takeda clan suddenly marched to the attack and after a battle on the plain forced the garrison back to their fortification, and there besieged them for many months.

Starvation and privations made inroads upon those besieged until surrender appeared inevitable.

Then Sunemom Torii, one of the defenders, volunteered to break through the enemy's lines and carry word of their plight to the Tokugawa overlord. Under cover of darkness, he swam the moats and fled. Torii reached his allies successfully and then started back to encourage

Must Cut Down On Relief Budget

Austin, April 11—Only five Texas counties could boast a record of less than five per cent of their residents on relief rolls as of March 1, statistics compiled by the Texas Relief Commission reveal. These counties are Crockett, Kenedy, Lavaca, Reagan and Winkler.

Fourteen others, Hudspeth, Terrell, Upton, Farmer, Hutchinson, Carson Hidalgo, Cameron, Nueces, Bee, Karnes, Gonzales, Fayette and Fort Bend, were in the respectable class in the eyes of state relief officials with not more than from 5 to 10 per cent of their residents receiving aid. Twelve counties had more than 40 per cent of their inhabitants on the relief rolls, as follows: Loving, Yoakum, Cochran, Garza, Kent, Stonewall, King, Cottle, Titus, Cass, Llano and Zapata.

"These high case loads have got to come down at once," said Adam R. Johnson, state relief director, as preparations were being made to send out funds for April.

"Federal authorities have cut our applications drastically and this means we must reduce our caseload or the individual budgets of clients.

We want to issue adequate relief to those in dire need and administrators have been instructed to examine their relief rolls closely and close out all cases where the need for aid is not clearly established."

A further reduction in the number of cases is hoped for in May as the peak will be reached for seasonal farm employment.

Modern Cooking . . .

The New Waldorf sets the pace with the most important advances in Electric Range development. You'll find solid, sturdy construction without forfeiting light weight. Beautiful, utilitarian door handles. The chromium element rings lend sparkle to the appearance, as well as provide for ease of cleaning. Heavily enameled convenience drawers roll easily and silently forward until stopped by the lock slide.

Broiling equipment is provided with an advanced type smokeless broiler assuring the certainty of delicately crusted meats. High-speed surface elements make the range one of the fastest boiling elements ever produced. Think of this—on "medium" heat, only the two outside coils are hot, giving even heat distribution (eliminating customary hot center) when using a large skillet or griddle.

Waldorf places the convenience outlet adjacent to the worktable space where it really is a "convenience." Shake-proof terminal connections or elements eliminate the annoying service problem caused by these important terminals becoming loosened by vibration. Waldorf's self-closing oven door has the feeling of a piece of precision equipment. It comes to rest in the open position with an easy, cushion-like movement. In closing, it moves forward almost automatically after being raised to the half-way position.

During the month of April only the New Waldorf is being offered at a marvelously low figure.

Prices Range from $74.50 to $99.50

On convenient terms (slightly higher) as low as $2.90 per month. Prices include range installed in your home. Your old range, regardless of its type, age or condition, will be accepted as a liberal down payment.

LOCAL MUSC CLUB WINS STATE HONORS, 100% RATING

At the state convention of Federated Music Clubs held in San Angelo last week end, the Minor Baton student club sponsored by the Tahoka Music Club, was awarded the loving cup for the highest efficiency rating in the state, according to advice received Tuesday from the State Junior Counselor, Mrs. W. A. Subblefield of Houston.

There are approximately two hundred and fifty Junior federated organizations in the state, about forty of which have been formed this club year. The Minor Baton is in this latter class, being officially less than eight months old. Incidentally, there are but nine cities in Texas which maintain more than three Junior or Juvenile organizations, only one in Seventh District—Amarillo—and Tahoka is one of four others which has that number.

Upon receipt of the local report some weeks before the convention, the state counselor requested that a copy be sent to the National counselor as a sample of Junior club work in Texas.

Officers of the honor group are: Lester Prater, president; Maxine Connolly, vice-president; Luda Strass, recording secretary; Ruth Suddarth, corresponding secretary and treasurer; Ola Lee Stevens, historian; and Betty Suddarth, reporter. There are, at present, ten other members.

Through lack of data on contest rules, the club just missed another state award—having sent in the largest contribution from any club to the Edward MacDowell fund—but, unfortunately, too late for technical compliance with the rules governing such entry.

The Minor Baton shared with another "baby" organization highest honors at the District Convention in Plainview last October, having their report published in the "Texas Music News" beside that of its sponsor, which was similarly honored in the Senior class. But all of the members and their counselor, Mrs. Suddarth, are much thrilled over this further recognition of the work they are trying to do, and they gratefully acknowledge their thanks to whatever friends and influences have made possible this measure of success. Their organization desires to be of service to the musical interests of the town and community and will deeply appreciate, in return, public cooperation and patronage of their activities.

JUNIOR MUSC CLUB GIRLS MET FRIDAY, MARCH 15

A group of sixth and seventh grade girls met on Friday, March 15, at the home of Mrs. Suddarth to organize a new Federated Junior Music Club. This club is to be sponsored by the Minor Baton student club as one of their efficiency projects. The Misses Robble Milliken and Ruth Suddarth will act as counselors. The organization was completed on Friday, April 5.

The following will serve as officers for the first club year: Ruth Suddarth, president; Eloise Roberts, vice-president; Lucille Tinsley, secretary; Mary Margaret Tunnell, corresponding secretary and treasurer; Laura Jane Milliken and Lynette Tinsley, historian and librarian; Polly Anna Walker, reporter.

There are ten charter members. The club will meet the second and fourth Friday of each month in members' homes and will do standard Federated club work. The name "Melody Maids" was chosen, with pink and white as colors and the rose as flower. The motto will be "Music for every child, and every child for music."

The members will answer to roll call with a musical fact and are already learning the national club song. At each meeting the members bring an offering for the "MacDowell Artist Colony."

At the meeting last Friday Laura Jane Milliken was hostess. The following program was rendered:

Duet, "America the Beautiful"—Louise Park and Lucille Tinsley.
Story of the "Life of Bach"—Mary Margaret Tunnell.
Solo, "The Cuckoo Clock"—Julia Snowden.
Solo, "In Old Shanty Town"—Baby Tot Wetsel.

We were also favored by a song by the counselors. Delicious refreshments of lemonade and cookies were served to the ten members present. The next meeting will be held April 12 with Louise Park as hostess. —Reporter.

MINOR BATON MEETS AT MRS. SUDDARTH'S HOME

The Minor Baton met at the home of Mrs. Rubie D. Suddarth on April 8 with Robert Maddox as host. A program on Mozart followed the business session. The club trio sang "A. B. C.", a novelty song with music by Mozart; a vocal solo, "The Violet," sung by Betty Suddarth, and a paper, "The Life of Mozart," prepared and read by Vance Gildersleeve, were the numbers.

Fifteen members enjoyed cookies, sandwiches, and the meeting adjourned to meet on Monday, April 22, with Delton Pemberton as host. —Reporter.

MRS. A. D. SETH ENTERTAINS THE TAHOKA MUSIC CLUB

The Tahoka Music Club met in the home of Mrs. A. D. Seth Friday afternoon.

A short but very interesting program was rendered. The study chapter was given by Mrs. Layne Moreland, and a paper on the "Life of Victor Herbert" prepared by Mrs. H. C. Smith was read by Mrs. Harold Edwards. Mrs. J. D. Strickland gave an interesting talk on "Opera People."

Refreshments were served to members and Mrs. C. B. Townes, a guest.

REPORT CARD TIME AGAIN.

Teachers this week gave out to their students next to the last periodic report to be distributed this school year. This means that there is only five more weeks of school for the majority of the students and only four for the seniors. The last week of school for each of these groups will be taken up for final examinations. Thus only a very short period remains for actual class room work. The reports given out this week show a majority of the students to be passing, a few on the border line and a small percentage failing.

SHOWING MADE AT TRACK MEET.

Tahoka's track squad went to the District 3 meet at Lubbock last Friday and Saturday, and made a good showing.

B. J. Emanuel placed fourth in the 440 yard dash. James Minor placed third in the 220 yard low hurdles. The Tahoka mile relay team placed fourth. The members of the relay team in the order they ran were: B. J. Emanuel, Eby Dyer, Robert Drennon, and James Minor.

Those who made the trip and the things they competed in were: Eby Dyer, pole vault and high jump; Bryce Bartlett, high jump, pole vault, and shot put; Robert Drennon, 100 and 220 yard dashes; James Minor, 220 yard low hurdles; and B. J. Emanuel half mile and 440 yard dash.

Charles Gagnat also competed in the tennis singles.

The Junior class has started planning for the annual Junior-Senior banquet, which is to be given the latter part of April.

CLASS ORGANIZES PARLIAMENTARY CLUB

The public speaking class of Tahoka High has organized a Parliamentary Club. They have had two meetings.

The officers of the club are: Ernest Gill, president; Beatrice Estes, vice-president; Ina Bess Hicks, reporter; Nelda Jem Hicks, reporter; Marian Draper, parliamentarian; Alden Lawrence, treasurer; Clayton Lawrence, sergeant-at-arms.

A name for the club has not yet been selected, but will be at our next meeting.

The program consisted of two plays in Spanish, one by the first year class and one by the second year class; Miss Eva Douthitt sang a solo, "La Paloma," and Miss Marjorie Wells played a piano solo. The program was enjoyed by everyone.

WORLD-FAMED STORY COMES TO THE SCREEN

Sixteen million Americans of all types and ages have read from cover to cover the fascinating Harold Bell Wright classic, "When A Man's A Man." From all indications, at least three times this number will enjoy the Fox Film adaptation of this masterpiece. It has a one-day engagement at the English Theatre on Tuesday, April 16, with George O'Brien in the starring role.

Universal appeal is what both book and picture possess. The stereotyped version of the West as peopled by desert rats lurking through the sage brush of the dry lands is abandoned; in place is a vibrant story of modern youth involved in a vital romance.

The setting is an Arizona ranch, to which comes a mysterious Easterner, short of money, obviously the gentleman, but silent on his past. He is befriended by a hardened Westerner, changes from a playboy to a rugged "man's man", and finds himself in the dilemma of his lifetime when he realizes that his best friend and himself are rivals for the hand of the same girl.

Before turning to writing, Harold Bell Wright knew the typical American man and woman as few others knew him. Into "When A Man's A Man" he poured his rich knowledge of the West and of the conflicts and romance that arise, far from urban artificialities.

Around George O'Brien are featured Dorothy Wilson and Paul Kelly, in a cast composed of Harry Woods, Jimmy Butler, Richard Carlisle, Clarence Wilson and Edgar Norton. It is a Lesser production, directed by Edward F. Clime.

Miss Mary Seroyer returned Sunday from a visit of several weeks with friends at Clovis, New Mexico.

Tahoka Places At District Meet

The University Interscholastic League district meet for District No. 3 was held in Lubbock Friday and Saturday, April 5 and 6.

The Tahoka schools had a good representation of qualified contestants to enter the meet and all made a very creditable record.

Miss Marion Draper and Ina Ellis took first and the girls in the relay. Joe Gill and James Minor took the boys. The girls were eliminated before the finals. The boys won their first match but forfeited the others because they were entering the track meet and the two events were conflicting.

Charles H. Athman, high school junior declaimer, and Jack Swafford, ward school declaimer, entered the district but didn't place in the finals.

Miss Lois Montgomery entered the essay writing contest and up to now the winners in this contest haven't been announced. The essay written at the County Meet by Miss Lois received much favorable comment from the judges. The subject was "My Best Friend".

The one-act play cast—Raymond Eubank, Joe Bob Billman, Dorsy Allison, Pauline Smelser, Ola Lee Stevens, Gaynell Tate, and Ronald Clements substituting for Martha Helen Powell—entered along with sixteen others and won fourth place in the finals.

Charles Gagnat entered the tennis singles, but was eliminated the first round by a strong player from Hale county.

James Minor, B. J. Emanuel, Bryes Bartlett, Eby Dyer, and Robert Drennon entered the track and field meet. James and B. J. qualified for the finals and James placed third in the finals in the 220 yard low hurdles. B. J. placed fourth in the finals in the 440 yard run. The relay team composed of James Minor, B. J. Emanuel, Robert Drennon, and Eby Dyer placed fourth in the finals against 22 other teams. Tahoka made four points in the track meet.

The winners in track are not going to enter the Regional Meet, the next higher meet in Canyon, but enter the State Meet in track and are working hard and are going to field events at Denton May 3 and 4. We will be represented at this meet by relay team, and will enter the dashes, hurdles, and quarter mile run.

Wind Erosion Tips Are Given

Lubbock, April 10.—Mean of controlling wind erosion, many of which are in use on the college farms, according to A. H. Leidigh, dean of the Division of Agriculture at Texas Technological College, should be employed now by every farmer. By cultivating when enough moisture is in the ground, the granular surface which is less conducive to erosion than the powdery mulch during dry weather and the character and size of the clods or projectors catch the drifting particles of soil.

But when the soil is unusually dry some measures may be employed when cultivating that are less likely to further soil erosion. Some of these controls of wind erosion used when tillage operations produce a powdery surface mulch instead of granular mulch include the retention of original sod, use of windbreaks late spring listing, rotation of crops, only occasional removal of corn stalks or other plant residues, use of manure, strip farming, and center-furrowing.

Wind erosion preventatives for soil that is of finer structure include: the leaving of occasional rows of milo or other grain a rough row across the field; the planting of two or three heavily seeded rows of milo across wheat fields and other open land; the careful use of the lister on blow lands following a rain, and center furrowing.

In many cases under present conditions of supply and demand for agricultural products, it is apparent that limited acres of blow soils in some regions might just as well not be cultivated in crop. The problem of getting the land back into grass is very difficult on account of low rainfall. More abandonment of cultivation will not serve to solve this problem. Perhaps the best approach to a solution is first to create narrow strips of crop residues across the field such as may be secured by leaving sorghum after they have ripened. Between these areas if good tillage is practiced, Buffalo grass may be started on the heavier soils, and on lighter soils Sudan grass or millet may be seeded, and then the land abandoned with this ripened crop left to form the fallen plant residues and stubble.

In the southern part of the Great Plains about the only grass that can be readily grown is Andropogon Saccharides, which is a native perennial grass found in large amounts on abandoned land in all of the Texas Panhandle. This grass has been very successfully planted from the seed at Texas Technological College, and is undoubtedly going to be one of the best plants for reseeding purposes, according to Dean Leidigh.

Cleopatra had a daughter, Cleopatra Selene, who, although she was carried to Rome in chains at the age of 11, the captive of Octavianus, after the suicide of her mother and father (Antony), rivaled her mother in both beauty and ambitions.

A QUICK WAY TO BETTER PAY
 The most important objective in any educational program is the ability to earn a good living. For in this modern age when there are so many things that require a substantial income, such as a car, good clothes, pleasant vacations, and facilities for entertaining friends, money has become more than ever a symbol of success.

Business as a career offers the shortest route to these laudable rewards. It provides early incomes, congenial surroundings, association with successful people, and broad opportunities for development of talent and culture.

It has therefore been the life-work of Draughon's Colleges to make it possible for young people to step into good incomes at the earliest possible time and begin the accumulation of a bank account that will gratify the wholesome desires of a happy life.

T. U. Co. Offers 'Ultimate' Rate

Announcement of the introduction of a new departure in electric rates for residential service is made in a series of advertisements now appearing in The News. The series, the first of which appeared last week, will be of unusual interest to householders of this community. The series will set out fully the benefits which every home served by the company may have by studying the new rate.

For many years engineers in and out of research laboratories have succeeded in eliminating any doubt that electric current had an unsurpassed value for numerous convenient and economical applications. The simple case which homes have today in the use of current has long since passed any experimental stage. In this section facilities by which generation and transmission of electric current have been made generally available by the Texas Utilities Company lies a fact quite often overlooked by the average user.

While engineering achievements and economical costs are admitted on all sides, a considerable effort has been made by various agencies to emphasize the adaptation of electricity in the direction of a broader contribution to the social well-being of the home. This trend is one of undoubted merit. In the field of home lighting, useful household appliances, refrigeration, cooking, air-conditioning, and what have you, the possibilities are practically unlimited. The area is fortunate in that a company has for many years in this section both in good times and bad made its contribution along such well-defined lines.

There is an undoubted bit of sentiment attached to the "good old days" when the lamp globe of the kerosene era was furnished to the last degree in sparkling brilliance but the steady glow of present-day standard wattage lamps today puts the old days in deep shadows. It is rather hard on broom-corn, too, even though a "new broom sweeps clean" to put it against one of the modern sweepers. Very much like old Dobbin in a quarter-mile against a modern car for finish and speed.

Perhaps one of the best means the average home could employ to determine where added current at no greater cost could be profitably used would be to make a room to room analysis of the present lighting conditions. In the application of the "Ultimate" rate the increased cost is said to be little, if any, for a much larger use of current. An attitude of thinking that your present use of kilowatt hours is ample might have a tendency to minimize the influence at work over the whole country to put in the American home the widest, fullest use of this household servant.

THANKS TO VOTERS
