THE SECOND CHAPTER

Every young criminal seems to start out with high ambitions ambitions to become the most shrewd. daring, and successful criminal outside of the penitentiary. He makes a daring raid on a bank, rakes up a sackful of money and throws it into a waiting automobile, hops into the machine, and-is gone. Maybe he shot down an officer or a citizen who tried to frustrate his dev lish game. That does not worry h'm. On the other hand he seems to get a great kick out of the excitement of the raid. He and his pals laugh with devilish glee over the success of his first major crime.

But, there is always another chapter to such a story. See this gent in the second chapter. It may be months or it may be years later. He has participated in many crimes. Possibly he has robbed several banks and killed several men. Perhaps he has managed to elude the officers of the law; or perhaps he has been sent to the penitentiary and has escaped. At any rate, he is out of prison now; but is he free? Is he enjoying his life of crime? ONE name comes quickly to mind when you think of "The Universal Car." The description is distinctively Ford. No other car is used by so many millions of men and women in every part of the world. Everywhere it is the symbol of faithful service. . . . That has always been a Ford fundamental. Something new is constantly being added in the way of extra value. Each year the Ford has widened its appeal by increasing its usefulness to motorists. . . . Today's Ford V-8 is more than ever "The Universal Car" because it encircles the needs of more people than any other Ford ever built. It reaches out and up into new fields because it has everything you need in a modern automobile. . . . The Ford V-8 combines fine-car performance, comfort, safety and beauty with low first cost and low cost of operation and up-keep. There is no other car like it.

(By Noel Allphin) I don't know Texas' area in square miles, I'll confess, But I know she's the largest state within the whole U.S.

If one could take her lower edge and fold it o'er her top, Somewhere 'way up in Canada where Brownsville would drop.

The five New England states with her in size will not compare, They all could be on Texas' face, and still have room to spare; She has each kind of climate too that any state can boast, What others have of anything, our state still has the most.

She has the largest ranches of the finest dattle known, And on her farms the nation's best in foods and feeds are grown; Her wheat crops are enormous, and she leads in corn and maize, than other states could raise.

She has the largest oil fields, and the biggest gas wells too, Zinc mines, cement and asphalt plants, and coal mines not a few; Her lumber industry vast, her packing plants are great, Her fruit and garden truck will equal that of any state.

The News has received a communication from Jno. B. Daniel, atcorney of the Temple Trust Company, complaining of a story which we ran last week to the effect that the Court of Civil Appeals had handed down an opinion virtually vesting title to the Keltner Hotel in Mr. and Mrs. Keltner free of incumbrance.

"There is not a word of truth in the article comp'a'ned of, except that the Court of C.vil Appeals did hand down an opinion reversing and remanding the case to the district court of Bell county for a new trial," Mr. Dan'el says.

We have no disposition to undertake to settle litigation pending between Mr. Keltner and the T.mple Trust Co. We only printed what was told us. And since the judgment rendered in the district court in favor of the Temple Trust Company against Mr. and Mrs. Keltner for a foreclosure of a lien on the Keltner Hotel did not stand up but was reversed by the Court of Civil Appeals, we can not see that our error was very grave. JUDGE E. L. PITTS OPPOSES , CLARK GABLE, CONSTANCE "BOND ASSUMPTION BILLS"

The News has been furnished a copy of a letter addressed by County Judge E. L. Pitts of Lubbock to A. B. Tarwater of Plainview, J. he strongly opposes the passage of those bills pending in the legislature providing for the collection of an additional gasoline tax of one cent per gallon and the assumption by great enthus asm. the state of the payment of lateral road bonds issued by some of the countles of the state. The letter in part follows. My Dear Sirs:

gentlemen are among the leaders of the fight against the passage of House Bills Nos. 325 and 483, introduced for the purpose of adding cne-cent tax on gasoline to retira county and road district bonds incurred for the purpose of building lateral and local roads. Please be assured that you have the support of many good citizens in your efforts to defeat these Bills. We have had the charge made against us of being solfish, but it occurs to me that those who favor the passage of such Bills should be the last people in the wrold to impugn the mot'ves of others who oppose the Bills, since those who sponsor these Bills canno give any other reason for so doing than self'sh reasons.

In discussing this problem, Mr. Mahon said: "I believe that the two greatest natural resources of West Texas are its soil and it water supply. With a record of the extent of this water supply that would prevent exploitation, and with a properly directed irrigation program, conservation of the soil resources would be possible, and West Texas could look forward to a more stable prosperity.
